TULSA UNDER MARTIAL LAW DEATH AND RUIN FOLLOW RACE RIOT IN OKLAHOMA

One Hundred or More Killed Is Report Today

MANY ARE MISSING

BURNED IN FIRE THAT DE- STROYED MILE SQUARE IN THE NEGRO SECTION

(By The Associated Press)
TULSA, Okla., June 2.—With daybreak, and the city under martial law began stock taking of the death and ruin as the result of race rioting Tuesday night. Yesterday morning military forces started to check the list of dead which unofficial estimates place somewhere near one hundred, mostly negroes. The city is quiet today and belief is expressed the disturbance is over. Eight white men have been killed so far as a check of the morgues disclosed. Some of the thirty-five injured in hospitals expected to die. When military forces searched the burned negro quarters it was expected a number of negro bodies would be found. Bodies of fifteen negroes lay in morgues today. Belief was expressed by officials that bodies of all negroes killed would not be found as it is thought a number were burned in their homes. Also reports are that a number of negro bodies were thrown into the river and others buried outside of the city. Physicians treating wounded negroes at hospitals said a score could not recover. Fire swept an area more than a mile square in the negro quarters and the loss is estimated in excess of a million and a half.

The estimates of the killed and wounded dwindled as the situation quieted down. The bodies of nine white men and fifteen negroes have been identified. The bases for estimates that still ranged as high as 40 negroes dead was the possibility of an unknown number of bodies destroyed when the negro district burned. The list of wounded mounted gradually as persons not previously treated called on physicians. The approximate number of wounded is now placed at 240.

French and Germans Fight Again With the Victory of Tricolor

(By The Associated Press)
OPPELN, June 2.—French soldiers forming the garrison of Beuthren, near the old Polish frontier, have been attacked by forces organized by German inhabitants. The reports state the Germans numbered 3,000. The French used tanks and are said to have gained the upper hand. Reported many German casualties but no French losses.

LIBERTY 3 1-2 BONDS FALL LOW BADLY LOWEST PRICE EVER

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 2.—Liberty 3 1-2 per cent. tax exempt bonds declined today to 86.06, an over-night loss of 76 points and is the lowest price ever registered by that issue. The decision of the federal reserve bank to reduce loan values on Liberty Bonds and Victory Notes probably contributed to the reaction.

BRYANT'S TRIAL BEGINS TODAY IN ORLANDO

ELDER BRYANT KILLED AND BURIED IN GROVE WITH HIS DOG.

(By The Associated Press)
ORLANDO, June 2.—The selection of a jury for the trial of John R. Bryant, charged with the murder of his father, George Bryant, began today in circuit court here. The body of the elder Bryant was discovered with that of his dog in a shallow grave near his home, several days after the son and his wife had disappeared. The couple were arrested in New Jersey last month. Mrs. Bryant, who is also charged with murder, in a statement last week to newspaper men, declared that her husband informed her that he had killed his father. It is expected that the case against the woman will be quashed.

SENATOR HULLEY FILIBUSTERED IN THE SENATE YESTERDAY AND HELD THE FLOOR ALL MORNING

On What He Considered Invasion of His "Sacred Rights"

(By The Associated Press)
TALLAHASSEE, June 2.—Senator Hulley, who began the filibuster in the senate yesterday afternoon because of what he considered an invasion of the right to consider local bills, still held the floor this morning and all efforts to induce him to quit had failed up to noon. He held the floor from 6 o'clock last night until adjournment and, upon reassembling this morning, immediately resumed his tactics. The house, considering local bill, agreed on all its items. Senator Hulley finally yielded the floor, with the privilege of resuming his debate at 10:30 next Friday morning.

The situation came about through an effort to pass a bill introduced in the house by Messrs. Foster of Seminole and Putnam of Volusia and passed by the house. It provides that the county commissioners of Volusia and Seminole counties may join for the erection of a bridge across the St. Johns river at what is known as Osteen ferry. The bill allowed the commissioners to buy part of a recent bond issue made in Seminole county as part of the proposition.

There is a bridge across the St. Johns within eight miles of the proposed bridge, owned by a toll company on which toll is charged. The bridge is proposed to build would be a free one. Apparently it was to defend the toll-bridge that Senator Hulley fought though he injected so much discussion of Volusia county politics into the situation that it was hard for anyone to tell the exact situation, Volusia county politics being more difficult to understand than Einstein's theory of relativity.

Senator Overstreet of Orlando called the bill up when his district was called and tried to get it passed. Hulley offered an amendment that would strike out the words "Volusia county."

This would have left the bridge without a landing place and was voted down by the senate, 14 to 7. Then he offered another to strike out the power to buy the scrip, which also would have killed the measure. On this he announced that he proposed to debate the question at unlimited length, warning the senate that it might take him several hours to get through. Since time is extremely limited and there are many important measures to pass, the announcement was not received with cheering.

He went into a complete exposition of the affair, reading from the minutes of the county board, Volusia county newspapers, etc., and evincing every ability to stay on his feet indefinitely. This was continued again after supper.

About 9:30 o'clock, President MacWilliams "out, Senator Wells in the chair, took the floor. Addressing Hulley, he said:

"Does the senator yield?"

Hulley thought it was for a question and did.

"I move to lay the amendment on the table," said he. Hulley was indignant in a minute. "I yielded only for the purpose of answering a question and not to yield the floor," said he.

Senator Wells, in the chair, ruled that Hulley had not yielded the floor

WILLIAM'S FARM BOSS GETS LIFE SENTENCE

COVINGTON, Ga., June 1.—Clyde Manning, the negro farm boss on the John S. Williams plantation in Jasper county, was found guilty of murder late today in connection with the death of Lindsey Peterson, one of the eleven negroes alleged to have been killed on the farm a few months ago. The jury was out 35 minutes. Manning was sentenced to life imprisonment.

E. Marvin Underwood, employed by a group of Georgians to represent Manning, made a motion for a new trial and Judge John B. Hutcheson fixed the hearing for July 30 at Decatur.

Under Georgia law Manning could not have been held accountable had he been able to convince the jury he killed the men through fear of his own life and the defense based its case on this while the state sought to show the negro was a "willing accomplice."

RAPID PROGRESS MADE JACKSONVILLE-WAYCROSS ROUTE SAYS AUTO CLUB

JACKSONVILLE, May 30.—Rapid progress is being made on the highway between Jacksonville and Waycross, Ga., according to information received by the Jacksonville Automobile Club. This section of the road, a part of the Eastern Division of the Dixie Highway and traveled by hundreds of automobile tourists, has been regarded as one of the most difficult stretches to negotiate north by other routes.

A message received from W. R. Neel, Georgia State Highway Engineer, says Georgia is making good progress on the highway between Waycross and the Florida state line and that the job is about two-thirds completed with the surfacing half done. He expects to complete the work by January 1.

H. B. Phillips, chairman of the Florida State Road Department, in a letter of recent date regarding the highway between Jacksonville and the Georgia state line, wrote as follows:

"In response to your inquiry as to work being done on the Florida side of the Waycross road, I beg to say that there is now a hard surfaced road from Jacksonville to the Nassau county line, across Thomas swamp, and a bridge is now being built by the two counties under the supervision of the State Road Department.

"On the other side of this bridge we have made the first ten miles of the road in Nassau county a federal aid project and we expect to get the approval of the Bureau of Public Roads on the same in a few weeks time and will then rush the completion of this work. We expect to build a first class hard surfaced road either of asphalt, brick or concrete. The remainder of the road in Nassau county to the Georgia line is now being graded as a sand-clay project. The grading of this part of the road is now completed. The Road Department will maintain this stretch of road keeping it at all times fit for travel. We hope to have the Florida side of the Waycross road completed by the time Georgia gets to the line."

Held Up The Boys Who Wanted to Obtain Pardons

SAYS MENDENHALL

ALLEGED THAT GOVERNOR DEM- AND CASH IN ADVANCE AND RECEIVED IT

TALLAHASSEE, June 2.—Senator Harry Wells, chairman of the special committee to investigate Governor Catts, a probe of which has resulted in the governor's indictment in Bradford county on a charge of receiving bribes and on his indictment before the federal court at Pensacola on a charge of peonage, laid the report of the committee before the senate yesterday.

The report itself was brief, merely a letter of transmittal of the testimony taken. This consisted of 140 pages of typewritten testimony. The principal evidence against the governor is the testimony of J. J. Mendenhall that he took $2,200 from inmates of the prison farm and gave it to Catts about the 18th of December, 1920, for pardons and that they were all pardoned. In fact, the pardons were announced before the money was transferred, according to Mendenhall. J. J. Coleman, one of the men pardoned, also told the committee that he gave Mendenhall $700 for which the governor pardoned him. Coleman was a white deputy sheriff sent up from Bay county for murder.

Mendenhall's testimony of the greatest importance is conveyed in the following statements taken before the record. He was before the committee several times. Here is Mendenhall's statement before the committee on May 5, Senator Wells conducting the examination:

"I am anxious to correct my false statement that I made when I was before you gentlemen because the burden of the untruth is too great and I want to tell the truth," Mendenhall testified.

"In my first statement I thought I could make the misrepresentation because of the request of my fellow inmates not to cause ex-Governor Catts any trouble because of the great things he had done for us through our good superintendent, J. H. Blitch. But I must tell the truth and I did give the governor money for several of the inmates who obtained pardons."

"State the amount of money that you gave Governor Catts, the dates, if you remember them, and for whom the money was paid."

"I obtained $700 from Mr. J. J. Coleman, $700 from Mr. Carroll, $100 from Jack Armitage, $500 from John Hamlin, $200 from Raymond Brooks which I gave to Governor Catts, the morning after the pardons were called at our auditorium about the 18th of December, I don't remember the date."

CROP CONDITIONS OVER THE STATE JUST ABOUT RIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
GAINESVILLE, June 1.—Crop growing conditions over the state are "just about right," according to the weekly report of the Federal Bureau of Crop Estimates, covering conditions for the week ending Saturday.

The condition of corn is near normal except in occasional low areas while peas and other hay crops have improved wonderfully during the last week. Rain has interfered with late harvesting of oats and the yield has been light.

Citrus fruit conditions continue to improve over most of the belt and tomatoes and other truck crops recovering from the effects of too much rain. Watermelons are moving from Central Florida with excellent condition and prospects for the season.

Prospects for a good crop of tobacco in Gadsden county are good and stripping will begin earlier than usual. Harvesting is well advanced in Pasco county. The state's acreage is slightly larger than for last year.

The cotton belt has had too much rain, plants are small and off color and the boll weevil is making its appearance.

The bureau reports the condition of hogs good and that of cattle fair and improving.

WORLD WAR VETS AND VETERANS OF OTHER WARS GATHER TO PAY TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER DEAD

(From Monday's Daily)

Memorial Day exercises in charge of Campbell-Lossing Post, American Legion, were most impressively carried out yesterday afternoon at 3:30 when forming at the court house and headed by the Sanford band the members of the American Legion, the veterans of the Civil War, the Spanish war and the Daughters of the American Revolution, the U. D. C., the Woman's Auxiliary and kindred organizations marched to the Central Park with Col. G. W. Knight in command and Col. D. of the Florida State troops under command of Capt. George A. DeCottes, as honorary escort. All the arrangements were made under the direction of Post Commander L. F. Roper. At the park the organizations were grouped around the soldiers' monument and Hon. Geo. A. DeCottes acted as chairman, making the announcements. An invocation by Dr. S. W. Walker was followed by a selection by the Sanford Band and R. J. Holly made a few brief remarks, reciting the history of Memorial Day since it started in 1868 down to the present time, calling attention to what it means and how it should be kept alive by the various organizations.

Dr. George Hyman, pastor of the Baptist church and chaplain in the 82nd Division serving in the World War in France, gave the eulogies for the veterans who had fallen and it was a masterly effort coming straight from his heart. Dr. Hyman pictured in beautiful language what it meant to be a soldier, what it meant to leave a home and relatives and friends and go across the water and on foreign soil to fight for the safety of the world. He repeated what President Harding said a few days ago over the grave of the first American to fall in battle, "Never again" and echoed the thought at the services yesterday that never again must the flower of American manhood be forced to give up their lives in war unless it should be for humanity's sake. Dr. Hyman paid a beautiful tribute to the boys who had served in the world war, those who had gone over and those who had stayed on this side and said that those who had died here while serving their country were serving just as much as those who had gone to France and died in the front ranks.

Placing the wreath is a beautiful ceremony and the wreath yesterday was placed by Oliver Murrel, who represented the navy and he was supported by Matthew Tarbell, of the Marines as color sergeant and James Huff and William Shepherd of the army as color guard and the wreath made of green ferns and vines and white daisies was placed on top of the monument.

Another beautiful wreath of ferns and white roses was placed at the foot of the monument by the Sallie Harrison Chapter, D. A. R. The band played the Star Spangled Banner while all gave the salute to the flag and after the benediction by Dr. S. W. Walker, of the Methodist church, "Taps" were sounded and another Memorial day had gone down in history to linger in the memories not only of those who have served their country in the wars of the ages but those who stayed at home and made it possible for the soldier boys to do the fighting.

Sanford is one of the most patriotic cities in the country, has a most enthusiastic American Legion in the Campbell-Lossing Post, has an enthusiastic Woman's Auxiliary, have fine chapters of the D. A. R., and the U. D. C., and all the many patriotic orders and fraternal orders that hold aloft the stars and stripes above everything. And Sanford and all of Seminole county can be depended upon to keep green the memories of the soldier dead, the veterans of all the wars and each year the day will become more sacred to the boys who have so recently returned from the World War.

Campbell-Lossing Post is growing rapidly and under Post Commander L. F. Roper and his faithful assistants are keeping alive the tradition of the American army and navy.

SANFORD LODGE ODD FELLOWS IS FLOURISHING

HAD FINE MEETING LAST NIGHT AND DISCUSSED BUILDING QUESTION

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Sanford Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., is one of the most flourishing lodges of Odd Fellows in the state and is constantly adding to the membership some of the best material in the county.

Last night Sanford lodge had a most interesting and enthusiastic meeting taking up many matters of interest as well as taking in some candidates and when the order of new business was called up there were some very good talks made on the advisability of the lodge purchasing a city lot upon which the lodge can build a home at some time in the near future.

The Odd Fellows know that Sanford dirt is increasing in value every day and the available lots are going fast and if they want a home in the future the time to buy is right now. They have a good committee working on this question and after the committee report it was decided to keep the same committee at work to report again to the lodge on several other available lots.

After the meeting the members adjourned to the ante room where delicious ice cream and cake were served and the members discussed many matters of interest to the lodge.

$150,000 DONATED BY UNKNOWN CITIZEN FOR FREE DAYTONA BRIDGE

(By The Associated Press)

DAYTONA, June 1.—An unknown citizen has given $150,000 for the construction of a bridge across the Halifax river here, the free bridge committee announced today. The bridge will be a memorial to a deceased citizen of Daytona.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

(From Tuesday's Daily)

A pretty compliment to Miss Annette Walker was the miscellaneous shower given last night by Mrs. Sandy Anderson at her home on Magnolia avenue, Miss Walker being one of the season's charming bride-elects.

The decorations were carried out in rainbow colors, roses, dahlias, sunflowers and nasturtiums were tastefully arranged in bowls and baskets in the living room. In the dining room festoons of crepe paper in the rainbow colors were fastened to the chandeliers with tulle bows and to the corners of the room. Pink vine was also used over the doors and windows and entwined with ferns on the chan-delliers. In one corner of the dining room the chair of honor was placed, it being covered in white and prettily decorated with pink vine and tulle bows. Tall floor lamps in rainbow colors were effectively placed around the chair.

Little Mirah Ann Powers dressed as Cupid in pink with a huge pink tulle bow came in drawing a wagon piled high with gifts. Little Mary Chapman in a fluffy pink organdy dress representing a little fairy presented the gifts to the honoree saying they came from fairyland. Miss Walker received many lovely gifts in silver, China, linen and other things that make up a bride's trousseau.

Miss Walker wore a most becoming frock of grey georgette over grey satin trimmed with coral satin.
Refreshments of raspberry ice, wafers and mints carrying out the color scheme were served.

Mrs. Anderson was assisted in receiving her guests by Miss Howard P.
Smith and Miss Elizabeth Musson.
There was about thirty who enjoyed this delightful occasion.

Given plaid stockings and jolly company, they might enjoy following the play over the landscape instead of a little ball.

COMMENCEMENT SERMON BY REV. E. D. BROWNLEE

"For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself," Romans, 14:7; and, "For who maketh thee to differ from another, and what hast thou that thou didst not receive. Now if thou didst receive it why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it," 1 Corinthians, 4:7, was the scripture taken by Dr. E. D. Brownlee for the next of the Baccalaureate sermon at the commencement service of the Plant City High School, at the auditorium Sunday morning.

Dr. Brownlee's sermon was short and full of deep thought. His language was eloquent, but simple enuf to be understood by pupils of the lower classes who attended, and his delivery was deep and forcible.

The main train of thought portrayed was the dependence of one upon another. All, he said, are dependent upon other people. Interdependent, instead of independence, he said, is the word to express peoples' relations to each other. He impressed upon the graduating class the fact that when school children get out in life they must depend upon other people and work in unison with them in a great measure to be useful to themselves and to society. Last and most important, Dr. Brownlee said, is our dependence upon the Lord.

Dr. Brownlee is a graduate of Princeton University. He is pastor of

BURGMAN SUGGESTS CESSION SOUTH PORTION OF VOLUSIA TO COUNTY OF BREVARD

Thus Shortening Distance to Titusville by Straightening Road

A SPLENDID IDEA

BRINGS OUT WHAT SEMINOLE HAS URGED MANY TIMES

(From Monday's Daily)
The following letter from Chas. F. Burgman is most interesting to the people of this county:
Daytona, Fla., May 27, 1921.
Editor Sanford Herald, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Editor:
I have addressed a copy of subjoined letter to each member of the Volusia county board of commissioners, and to the board as a whole. If you deem the subject of sufficient public interest I shall be pleased to have you publish same. This may help to accomplish the result desired.

Yours cordially,
CHAS. F. BURGMAN.

P. S.—May I suggest that some of your representative citizens be present at the meeting of the Volusia Board of County Commissioners when the matter herein comes up for consideration. Some of us folks will be there to help.
C. F. B.
Daytona, Fla., May 28, 1921.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners, DeLand, Florida.

Gentlemen:

Your writer received a few days ago a printed communication from the Commissioners of Brevard county asking for sympathetic support for the ceding by Volusia County of that strip of territory whose northern line constitutes an extension of the north line of Brevard county westward passing through Lake Harney with the St. Johns river for its western boundary, thence traveling along the east shore of the St. Johns river southward to a point near Titusville. This point of land, a geographical absurdity from a boundary point of view, seems on the map like a spearhead thrust into the western side of Brevard county. From a financial and agricultural point of view it is really worse than useless to Volusia county, as nearly all of its constitutes marsh and overflow lands bounding the St. Johns river and yielding practically no return taxes.

From Mims, just north of Titusville, you travel for a distance of several miles through Brevard county in a westerly direction before you reach the east boundary of this Volusia County strip. From there on you travel through what is practically waste land for several miles to the St. Johns river, where Volusia county has built and maintained in a way, a "road and bridge." Volusia County is expected to maintain her part of this "road and bridge" to enable the people of Brevard and Seminole counties to cross the St. Johns river, whether for business or friendly intercourse, matters not. The fact is, only one person lives in this part of Volusia County and he is too far away from any voting precinct to either register or vote. I do not know whether he pays taxes at all.

As Volusia county seldom makes any repairs to this road unless strongly appealed by the people of Brevard and Seminole Counties, and as the bridge referred to is seldom safe to travel over, people who wish to reach Titusville from Sanford, as a matter of safety, would have to travel from Sanford to New Smyrna, approximately forty miles, and from New Smyrna to Titusville, thirty-three and a half miles, or a total of seventy-three and a half miles. Whereas, if Volusia county would enable Brevard county to construct the road and bridge leading out of Mims and across the St. Johns river, the distance between Sanford and Titusville would be shortened to about twenty-three miles. The city of Orlando is equally interested in this matter, as it would effect a like saving in mileage travel from Orlando to Titusville. If the return trip to either city is added, it would save one hundred miles.

This strip of land is part of the First Commissioner's District, and as aforesaid acts as a wedge, or spear point, separating Brevard and Seminole Counties. The first Commissioner's District is usually short of funds and is hard put as a rule to maintain its present roads. As the Commissioner resides at Orange City, he is compelled, if he considers the upkeep of the aforementioned road and bridge at all, to travel from Orange City via New Smyrna, and Oak Hill, thence enter Brevard county and travel to Mims ten miles south of the Volusia county line and then turn westward out of Mims and travel for several additional miles before he again reaches the Volusia county line, a total distance, as I figured, going and coming, of one hundred miles, and, in some parts, pretty rough travel at that.

It seems to me that the cession of this part of Volusia county to Brevard county would establish a feeling of good fellowship between Volusia, Brevard, Seminole and Orange counties, for all four counties are vitally interested as neighbors in this matter. Seminole county could join with Brevard county in building and maintaining a good hard surfaced road over the marsh lands of the St. Johns river and maintain a substantial bridge connection with both counties. It would relieve Volusia county of a financial burden for which she receives no return and yet would give the people of this county equal privileges and conveniences in travel through these territories without cost to the taxpayers. It would bind the four counties mentioned into a union of good fellowship and would materially assist Brevard county to develop her resources near the territory under consideration, which perforce of existing conditions remain dormant. In fact the entire East Coast would benefit by these improved facilities for travel.

I am not familiar with the law that would enable Volusia County to cede and Brevard county to take over this territory. Neither have I the time at present to inquire into it, but it seems to me that the whole of the East Coast would benefit by a concession thus granted.

With the hope that you will, as County Commissioners, give the foregoing your earnest consideration, and give relief, as far as it is within your legal powers to do so, I am,
Yours respectfully,
CHAS. F. BURGMAN.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

NOBODY CAN TELL WHEN YOU DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

The following from the Winchester (Indiana) Journal will be interesting to Sanford readers:

And afforded opportunity to see the intervening country, that enterprising thrifty and growing city and the great celery farms adjoining, and being generously supplied with that "nerve tonic." Here, as at Bradenton, flowing wells make irrigation possible and the same tile are used for aeration, irrigation and drainage. Other crops, including vegetables are raised here, strawberries to a large extent, but always do you find citrus fruit. Seminole county is one of the progressive ones of the state. This city and section anticipates a great future, based on its natural position as well as its excellent soil. Being possibly the largest celery shipping center in the world—shipping whole train loads at a time—its having a port on Lake Monroe which is the headwaters of the St. Johns affords transportation facilities that are competing. Tourists it has not catered to but a proposed two million dollar hotel will surely cause them to come, if no more than to enjoy the water ride from Jacksonville. Orlando terms itself the city beautiful; Sanford, the city substantial. Golf links here as in other cities are featured. Our stay here was only too brief.

FORT MYERS 3, SANFORD 2.

(From Monday's Daily)
Yesterday afternoon at the new base ball park Sanford opened her season before a large crowd and to say that the fans were very agreeably surprised at the performance put up by the local bunch would be putting it mildly.

The Fort Myers club is touring the state playing such towns as Palm Beach, Fort Pierce, Palatka, St. Augustine and other places having fast clubs. This club from Fort Myers has all paid players and at least five of them are ex-Florida State League players. Those that are not old Florida State League players are equally as fast and the opinion yesterday before the game amongst the fans was that Sanford was to receive a bad beating.

The battle got under way promptly at four o'clock with Chapman twirling for Sanford and after the smoke had cleared away to give room for the rain Sanford was on the little end of a 3-2 score. The home crew kept up a nasty fight all the way through and after taking into consideration the fact that our boys had never had as much as five minutes work out together with no chance whatever to make up any signals or get onto any inside base ball no doubt was left in any of the Sanford fans minds that our Semi-pro club with some practice will be able to represent Sanford in the base ball work this season.

The superb pitching of Chapman and Pope's three base hit at a time when it was needed were the outstanding features of the game. Rive, who has not had a glove on for several seasons, caught a swell game and with just a little practice he will be able to show up some of the other catchers about the state.

Fort Myers plays here again today and a large crowd is expected. Amil Ammond will pitch for Sanford and in all probability Biddy Burdick, who was sick yesterday, will be in the lineup today as well as Oscar DuBose another old time Florida State Leaguer. Word has been received from "Dubby" Spencer, who expects to be home in a few days and "Dubby" will also get into the game.

With some support from the fans in a financial way the Sanford Club's success is assured and a good brand of base ball will be staged all through the summer. Kissimmee plays in Sanford next week and the rest of the schedule will be announced by then.

Remember today's game starts at four o'clock, and the new park is at the corner of French and Ninth street. J. P. Schaal, who was the unofficial score keeper for the Florida State League last season, keeps tab on the games this year and the way it looked to him yesterday was just like this:

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PICNIC.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
A happy event of yesterday was a surprise birthday picnic given by Mrs. A. E. Hill in honor of Mrs. J. E. Pace, whose birthday anniversary was yesterday. It being a complete surprise to the honoree, who had been asked to go for a ride and upon arriving at Crystal Lake found a number of her friends awaiting her.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent swimming and a bounteous picnic lunch was served.
Those enjoying this enjoyable outing were: Mrs. J. E. Pace, Mrs. A. E. Hill, Mrs. Easterby, Mrs. LeGette, Mrs. E. D. Brownlee, Mrs. McLaulin, Misses Sarah Evelyn Williams and Olive Newman.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

WE EAT TOO MUCH MEAT WHICH CLOGS KIDNEYS, THEN THE BACK HURTS.

Most people forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

REDUCED PRICE OF HUPMOBILES

MADE POSSIBLE ONLY BY QUANTITY PRODUCTION AT FACTORY

The recent announced price reduction by the Hupp Motor Car Corporation of $200 in the touring car and roadster and $325 in the closed models, has created quite a sensation, if the local demand for this car is any indication.

The Hupp factory announces further that nothing but quantity production made it possible to put the price of $1,485 on the Hupmobile and that their will and intent is to give their buyers all they pay for, and, in addition more than the same figure will buy elsewhere.

Every vital part of the Hupmobile is manufactured in the Hupmobile factory. No outside manufacturer sets a limit of quality or workmanship. This fact, together with the well-known policy of the Hupp factory to have nothing but the best in material and their painstaking method of manufacture, has placed the Hupmobile in the enviable position, which it holds today with so many thousands of automobile buyers.

The Hupmobile at the new price, is the same good car, with the same good economy, the same low repair cost, the same long life and the same high price when you sell.

The local distributors of the Hupmobile, the B. & O. Motor Co., announce that business on the Hupmobile has been far beyond anything they expected when they took this line.

NINE SEMINOLES AND T. N. T. CLUBS.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
Mrs. Henry Purdon was the charming hostess yesterday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the Nine Seminoles and T. N. T. clubs at her home on Palmetto avenue.

A very interesting game of bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon and the prize for high score, a box of French powder, was won by Mrs. F. E. Roumillat.

At the conclusion of the game a dainty ice course was served by the hostess.

The merits of the Fordson Tractor can be best judged through the opinions of its daily users. We have asked a few of our customers for their frank comments concerning the operation of their Fordsons. Read what these owners have to say and then judge whether or not they are pleased with their purchases—Or better still, ask them yourself.

Sanford, Florida, Oct. 6, 1919.
Mr. Ed. Higgins, Sales Agent Fordson Tractor, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Sir:
Referring to your recent inquiry as to how the Fordson Tractor that we purchased a year ago had performed.

I have a letter from our Mr. A. Q. Lancaster, Superintendent of our Isleworth Grove, which reads as follows:
"Referring to yours of Sept. 27th. As regards the Fordson Tractor I beg to advise that as a whole the tractor has given very good satisfaction. We had to renew all the bearings in the front wheels after using it about 40 days, which cost around $28. After we put in new bearings we fixed flanges on the wheels to keep the sand from getting into these bearings and have not had any more trouble at that point with it. We have an order in now for new repair parts which will cost about $60.00. As far as we can see these repairs will put it in first class shape to start in for another season."

"From the experience we had with the other tractor, and from what I can learn from people who have operated other tractors I believe the Fordson Tractor is the best tractor for sandy land. In fact it would be wise to order another one of these tractors, as we can do as much work with one of them and one man as we can do with three teams, and three men, and do better work."

The report that Mr. Lancaster sends, in my opinion will be satisfactory, especially so since he thinks enough of the Fordson Tractor to request us to order another one. Repeat orders on tractors are certainly a good endorsement.

Yours truly,
CHASE & COMPANY.

Sanford, Fla., Sept. 1st, 1919.
Mr. Ed. Higgins, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Sir:
I am very glad to tell you how well pleased I am with the Fordson Tractor purchased August, 1918. I have used the machine constantly on our 60-acre truck farm and have done a great deal of work for other. The total cost for repairs has not exceeded $10.00. While not a machinist, I do all my repairs and adjustments myself. I do a good deal of my own driving but any good hand can handle it.

Yours truly,
RALPH CHAPMAN.

Sanford, Fla., Sept. 15-19.
Mr. Ed. Higgins, Sanford, Fla.

Dear Sir:
Replying to your inquiry in regard to the Fordson tractor purchased from you.

I consider this machine the best investment in the way of farm machinery that I ever made. I have a fourteen-year-old boy driving and he harrowed 20 acres with it yesterday, and did a better job than could be done with teams.

You could not buy this machine back for several times what I paid for it if I could not get another.

Yours truly,
ROY F. SYMES.

Sanford real estate is moving right along.

There are more houses being built here now than ever before in the history of the city.

If the people of Florida want the cow to be supreme, why should we worry. We can still throw the bull (if he ever runs into our car).

Only three people borrowed their neighbor's Daily Herald on one of the avenues last night that our solicitor could see. The world is getting better.

What is so rare as a day in June? We do not know unless it be a day in all twelve months of the year in Florida. All are rare days and we rarely have any other kind.

The Shriners are taking the city of Jacksonville this week. Fizzes and fizzes will all mingle together and they have camels to show how dry Florida was (accent on the was).

The Rolfe (Iowa) Arrow says Orlando is the suburb of heaven. Isn't that hell?—Sanford Herald. No it is just 24 miles south.—Reporter-Star. That's hell for Kijassimoo, especially since Thorn looks like the devil.

The Grand Jury is still in session and they say that it is difficult to find some of the Seminole county citizens just now—they have gone to summer resorts under their doctor's orders, of course, and will not be home for some time.

With the many good roads to the east coast that are being planned the beaches will get many of the inland people in the summer time instead of the mountains—providing the people of the East Coast do not take Florida people for tourists—you know what we mean.

Herbert Feikel has been to Tallahassee and writes to the St. Augustine Record that the present session of the legislature is no worse than the ordinary kind. They are losing valuable time over little stuff and letting the big ones get off the hook as usual. However, if they quit Friday we will all be satisfied.

The Quick Service Transfer Co., of this city, makes an offer to the public that is worthy of more than passing notice. Mr. A. J. Lossing takes a deep interest in the Sunday schools and he offers to transport all the pupils of Sanford Sunday schools from certain places on the East and West sides each Sunday morning to and from the different churches. His offer is a most magnanimous one and the Herald upon behalf of the people of this section wishes to thank him for it. This is the real Christian spirit and our idea of real service.

The real estate men of Sanford report a fine May month of sales and are prospects for more of them in the month of June. This is the time to buy Sanford property and the time to build as all materials are almost down to pre-war levels. It is also rumored upon good authority that lumber is cheaper now than it will be later on and it is a sure bet that Sanford land will never be any cheaper than it is right now. Build your own home. It is the best investment you ever made and will give you more real satisfaction than anything you ever did before.

The Herald is running the booster editions every week in the Weekly Herald and two or three times a week in the Daily editions and while this paper has sent out many thousands of copies to people in the north the citizens generally have not given us the names of friends to whom we could send these papers. Prospective citizens will pay more attention to a newspaper article about a certain section than to all the pamphlets in the world and the people of Sanford and Seminole county are overlooking a good bet when they fail to send out the special editions of the Herald each week. All you need to do is send the names to this office. We will do the rest.

One of the times a woman will forgive a man for lying is when he says she looks younger every day.

SPEER & SON, TOWN BUILDERS.

Another one added to the list of Sanford Town Builders and just added as we go to press. Our editorial last week on the Town Builders has created much comment in this and other cities from the fact that only Sanford men have in the past and are now building the business blocks and buying the business property and having faith in Sanford that "passes all understanding" from those who do not know what a wonderful city we have here. And yesterday George Speer and his son, Vivian, who are in business under the firm name of Speer & Son, without any loud noise or demonstration quietly bought up one of the finest business blocks of the city and paid a nice sum for it because they needed more room for their increasing business and having all the faith in the world in Sanford and knowing that it is growing by leaps and bounds they went right up to the counter and planked down the coin, why—because they are Sanford men, and Sanford men know what Sanford is doing and the level headed business men are buying all the Sanford property they can get.

BEST WISHES TO "RUBE" IN NEW HOME.

Rube Alyn, editor and owner of the Florida Fisherman, has moved the publication point of his monthly magazine from St. Petersburg to Ruskin, where he has bought a printing plant formerly used in the issuance of a weekly newspaper now defunct.

With the Gulf at his front door and the wonderful vegetable farms of Manatee at his back door, Rube has an ideal location for a man who loves the freedom of God's great open and for a magazine which fights for the conservation of Florida's fish and game resources.

The newspaper fraternity of Florida wishes a full measure of success and prosperity to this veteran journalist who has pluckily overcome so many obstacles in the past.

And here's hoping that his printing shop is built on a solid foundation and not over the bay!—Tampa Times.

MAKE THE PRESS FREE.

Postmaster General Hays is right in his position regarding the restoration to the second class mailing privileges of newspapers deprived of their postal rights during the war. In a spasm of patriotism, or fear, or some other hysteria, we went a long ways further than we should have gone in depriving people, whose views differed from those which the men at the head of the government happened to entertain at that time of their rights. And since the war we have not signalled our restoration to sanity by removing the insane restrictions on press and speech which we imposed.

It may be that a nation, fighting for its very existence, has a moral right to suspend the constitutional functions of democracy, free speech, a free press, the right of assembly and petition, and those other hard won privileges which distinguish the free man from the slave, though even this is doubtful, since no other form of destruction could be much worse than the loss of these guarantees of freedom; but certainly there can be no legitimate argument in keeping the people muzzled in time of peace. Max Eastman's "Liberator," Vic Berger's "Leader," the New York Call, and other radical publications hit by the Bureau management doubtless advocate a lot of stuff which, if literally carried out, would be injurious to the country, but the authorities can safely assume enough intelligence on the part of the public to answer false arguments and refuse to follow too radical leadership.

At least, if the red publications get too violent they can be dealt with by the department of justice, and punished for whatever they happen to be guilty of.

Mr. Hays may make a number of mistakes before he gets through, but in declining the mantle of his predecessor as the official news censor of the country he is to be commended.—Lakeland Telegram.

Have you noticed what a lively city Sanford has become? The streets are filled with cars and with people any time of the day and they are shopping and getting the right kind of goods at the right kind of prices. Sanford is going after the trade of this section and going after it by taking liberal space in the Daily and Weekly Herald. It is the only way.

The Herald is reorganizing every department of the advertising and subscription departments and will make an active campaign for subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Herald beginning Monday next. The announcements of this campaign will be given later. We want every citizen of Seminole county to take either the Daily or the Weekly Herald and they will after our solicitor gets busy.

FLORIDA

The 36th annual convention of the National Editorial Association was one of the most enjoyable and educational in the history of the association. The Florida Press Association had promised the members of the National Association that if they would come to Florida in 1921 they would entertain them royally. They not only made good every promise; they demonstrated that Florida was a worthwhile state, rich in natural beauty, with a wealth of resources of which the average citizen, especially of the north and west, had no conception. The school histories tell about General Jackson driving the Indians out of Georgia into the swamps of Florida. Fiction writers have followed this lead until many people who ought to have known better always thought of Florida as a great swamp, filled with alligators, snakes and mosquitoes, with a strip of sand beach along the eastern coast occupied by tourist hotels and backed by impenetrable jungles.

The editors found cities with all modern improvements and tourist resorts that rival anything to be found in California or New England. When they left the eastern coast with its magnificent hotels, churches, schools, paved highways and long stretches of the finest ocean beach to be found anywhere in the world, their first stop was at Gainesville, the home of the Florida State University, a clean, beautiful little city of 8,000 people; fine modern residences, paved streets, a modern sewer system, a pure water supply, shade trees, flowers, a fine auto tourist camp, schools, churches and county court house, the whole backed by a thriving agricultural district, where diversified farming was a demonstrated fact and differing from the most thriving and prosperous districts of the north and west only in the variety of their products. They grow corn, sugar cane, cotton, tobacco, potatoes, oranges, grapefruit and specialize in celery, tomatoes, peppers and other early vegetables for the northern markets. Their system is quite intensive; they are short on livestock and very generally use commercial fertilizer. Three crops a year from the ground is not uncommon. One farmer with 30 acres of early potatoes had already planted corn between the rows. After digging the potatoes and at the last cultivation of the corn he would seed to cowpeas for a hay crop.

All this central part of the state is well wooded. The soil is generally sandy, the surface slightly rolling, well drained and well watered by springs, brooks and beautiful lakes. One county has 1400 meandered lakes within its borders, all of crystal blue water, filled with black bass, perch and other fish.

The train of 14 Pullman coaches would move from town to town during the night, carrying more than 400 guests. Owing to the efficient organizing ability of George E. Hosmer, the general secretary of the entertainment committee, the public spirit and hospitality of the citizens, there was always an abundance of eatables at every stop.

After breakfast automobiles would be in readiness to take the entire party for a drive through the orchards of oranges and grapefruit, the fields of celery, potatoes or early tomatoes. Every few miles we would reach a thriving village or miniature city where we would be served with orange juice or lemonade. Oranges, grapefruit and flowers would be distributed to each car.

Just repeat all of the above for Palmetto, Bartow, Orlando, DeLand, Daytona, Sanford and a dozen other towns, each one having some special attraction—up-to-date packing houses where the fruits and vegetables are handled in true co-operative style, mile on mile of paved highway, trees loaded with the golden fruit, the air fragrant with the perfume of orange blossom, all outside the cultivated areas covered with the green of pine, oak and palmetto or dazzling in the colors of tropical vines and flowers, a great variety of beautiful birds but never a mosquito, a snake or a swamp, soft breezes and sunshine. What a delightful place to spend the winter.

The editors all had a good time and they all wanted to stay longer. Ninety-nine and a half per cent of them are planning to go there again. There is grand scenery in the canyons and gorges of our mighty rivers and under the shadow of our snow-capped mountains, but there is a restful charm to the orchards and lakes, the fruits and flowers, the fields and folks of Central Florida that is all its own; it is not in competition with any other section because there is nothing else like it.

The country seemed well adapted for the successful and profitable production of milk, meat and eggs. There were some good cows, pigs and poultry—enough to demonstrate the possibilities but not enough to supply the local demand. Wherever corn can be grown as successfully as in Florida, livestock will some day become an important factor.—The Western Farmer, Spokane, Washington.

FLORIDA'S INTEREST IN CATTLE INDUSTRY

"Georgia hopes Florida will make a real drive at the tick, and her interest of course is partly selfish. She wants the South to be as great a cattle-producing country as it can, and she wants to protect herself against cattle tick coming over the Florida line."

The Savannah Morning News in an editorial discussing the widespread prevalence of tick in Florida concludes with the above paragraph. The attitude is not a critical one, nor is it one assumed without just cause, because the States bordering Florida are handicapped in their campaigns against this menace to the cattle industry when this state stands idly by and permits the tick to gain a stranger hold, which means that defensive lines must be maintained at our borders by those states which are seeking to forever eradicate this creeping problem, and to promote cattle-raising as a great Southern business, equal to the present agricultural pursuits.

The discussion is prompted by census reports of live stock in the Southern states. In the order of percentage of the area cleared of the tick figures for the four following states are: Tennessee, 100 per cent; Alabama, 94 per cent; North Carolina, 73 per cent; Florida, 13 per cent. These figures are proof that Florida is lagging behind and is, in a way, retarding the progress of other Southern states. The tick does not regard state lines, but is constantly reaching out for new fields to conquer, and while Florida is accepting the situation as one that cannot be remedied, other states are forging ahead in their efforts to establish the cattle industry. The lamentable feature is that, potentially at least, Florida is the state best suited for cattle-raising. We have the ranges, the climate and the other requirements necessary to the business; and the tick handicap is costing the state millions of dollars annually. The time for drastic action is at hand, if Florida is to take her place alongside other Southern states that have realized the tremendous possibilities of the cattle industry and are striving to commercialize them.

Discussing laws on the subject, the News says: "A law that will not get results, that is intended merely as a sop to the more progressive cattle men, that is not intended to really drive out the tick, may be all right as a start in the right direction, but surely Florida ought to see that the day of experimenting in this thing is past. Florida has the actual experience of a half-dozen Southern States to guide her and she should profit from that experience."

County activities against the tick have proved miserable failures. They are not effective. They cost more than they are worth. This has been demonstrated repeatedly in Florida. Those cattle men who believe that dipping and the other methods are detrimental to their stock, on days when the remedies are being applied, drive their cattle into adjoining counties and thus avoid the presence of the officials in charge of the work. The result of this can easily be seen. The infected and the disinfected cattle mingle, and the tick is reestablished. A state-wide fight on the tick is the sensible course open to Florida. First adequate laws are necessary, and these must be followed by practical enforcement.

If it useless, other states enforcing quarantine laws against Florida cattle. However, the other states are not to blame. They are guarding their own interests. They are quarantining are to be lifted Florida will be responsible for it. If they are not the responsibility still rests upon Florida. In this state many people labor under the impression that anti-tick methods are injurious and oftentimes fatal to the cattle, and that discrimination is shown in the enforcement of existing laws—that is where rules are in existence. While in some instances these things may have been true, they are entirely due to ignorance and not to the principle and purpose of the methods.

If there has been discrimination, nothing would tend to eliminate it quicker than state-wide laws, enforced impartially by competent men, and as soon as the results were seen co-operation in the work would be forthcoming from all sections.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Sanford is growing and this fact is apparent from the number of clubs that are forming in the city. These clubs all help to put pep into the citizens but they could get the same results from the Chamber of Commerce if all the business men of Sanford would join and take an active interest in the work.

Gainesville is to have golf links. The business and professional men held a meeting there this week, purchased 125 acres of land and expect to take memberships from every citizen of Gainesville to pay the initial cost of the links.

EAST SANFORD

Rev. Dr. Walker will preach at the Moore's Station church Sunday afternoon at 3:30, June 5. Everybody welcome.

C. E. Chorpeneing served in the petit jury while it was in session. Leon Purvis arrived here last Friday from Galveston, Tex., just off the S. S. Danperata, on which he has been for a year in the Merchant Marine service.

George Pexall is building a residence for himself and wife on Beardall avenue and John Pexall is getting material on the ground to build a home also on Beardall.

Mrs. R. C. Long has a bunch of 90 baby chickens incubator hatched and a motherly Rhode Island hen has adopted them and it's laughable to see her trying to scratch for all of them at once.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chorpeneing, Helen, Alice, Horace and Carl Chorpeneing and Mr. and Mrs. A. Corpany, together with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crosby and Miss Vivian Crosby from town made a party going to Coronado beach for lunch and to Daytona beach to bathe on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Fort, and a party were also visitors at both beaches on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Baker, Mrs. Dillon Pickering, R. C. Long, Virginia and Gretchen Long, Eunice and Luther Ferguson, were another party over to the ocean on Sunday.

The oil and sand have been applied to the new pavements and they are fine now. Brisson road is being paved from Celery avenue to the railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Nick Zernovan and daughter, Marianne, joined a party and picnicked and bathed at Crystal Lake Friday.

Mrs. Edwards, her sons Brainard and Roger and her father, Mr. Peters, were Sunday visitors at the Zernovan home, coming out in Brainard's new Ford car.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Fay and Miss Susie Fay entertained friends at a picnic roast at their home on Cameron avenue last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Prevatt and son visited Mrs. Prevatt's parents in New Smyrna on Sunday. Miss Aleatha Curry accompanied them home for a visit.

Walter Kaulerson has torn down his old house on Beardall avenue and is building a new one on the same location.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Hunter, of Beardall avenue, have their home newly painted cream color, and are new subscribers to the telephone service.

Another one of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson's little girls is verill, said to be typhoid. Dr. Denton is in attendance.

OVIDEO

Mrs. T. L. Lingo, and little daughter, Sparks Lee, left Thursday for a visit to Mrs. Lingo's mother at Eaton, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Swope, Francis Swope and Miss Mabel Swope spent Wednesday in Sanford and Orlando.

Mrs. L. R. Mitchell and Miss A. D. Mitchell spent the week end with friends in Leesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wade have as their guest, Miss Lottie Rushing, of Ocala, a niece of Mrs. Wade.

John Robertson spent Saturday evening in Orlando.

The members and friends of the Oviedo Methodist Sunday school were delighted to be informed by a telegram from the S. S. board Saturday that this Sunday school had received one of the three Junaluska scholarships for its splendid showing in attendance and offering on Sunday School Day a few weeks ago. There were on roll that day 68 with an attendance of 65 and an offering of over $67.00.

The festivities in honor of the High school graduates continue in spite of the fact that commencement is two weeks in the past. The young ladies were beautifully entertained at a dinner by Mesdames T. W. Lawton and W. J. Lawton at the home of the latter. The guests were Misses Mable Swope, Olive Lizette, Elizabeth Lawton, Messrs. Roy Williams, Reverdy Wright, Francis Swope and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. and T. W. Lawton. The house was appropriately decorated in the class colors, pink and green, the dining table being especially beautiful and attractive. A most elaborate course dinner was served after which toasts were given to the "sweet girl graduates." At a late hour the party reluctantly dispersed carrying with them an everlasting memory of a most delightful evening.

On last Friday evening the Junior class entertained in honor of the graduates at the home of Mrs. W. B. Young. The guests were entertained during the earlier hours of the evening on the front screen porch which was decorated in the senior and junior class colors. On the east end of the porch was the punch bowl presided over by Miss Maxine Young and Chester Haigh, members of the 8th grade graduating class.

The hosts and hostesses of the evening were Misses Catherine Young and Virginia Wright, Harold Warne and Walter Carter and they were assisted by Mesdames Wright, Young and Carter. The Victrola furnished music for the merry party during the entire evening and many delightful games kept the guests highly entertained until nearly twelve when they were invited to the summer dining room, another screened porch on the west side of the house. This room looked like a veritable Japanese garden, with its decorations of ferns, flowers and bamboo and the Japanese lanterns swinging from the ceiling. Here delightful ice cream in the senior colors, pink and green, and cake, was served on small tables. The only thing that spoiled the evening was that about twelve-thirty some of the guests began to be haunted by a remembrance that the next day was Saturday and a work day for some of them. This thought finally broke up the party, but the memory of the evening will linger always with those present and especially with the honorees, Misses Lawton, Lezette and Swope whom the young people of Oviedo wish would graduate every week, if these delightful occasions in their honor would continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker who were married in Tampa yesterday, arrived this morning to attend the wedding of Mr. Walker's sister, Miss Annette Walker to Mr. Roby Laing which took place today at high-noon.

Miss Eva Miller, of Jacksonville, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Smith at her home on Palmetto ave.

Mrs. Howard P. Smith left this afternoon for Atlanta where she will spend a week before going to Columbia, Tenn., where she will spend a month as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Burns.

Mrs. Claude P. Herndon and Master Claude, left this afternoon for Waycross, Ga., where they will spend several days with Mr. Herndon who is in the hospital there.

Miss Rosamond Radford, who has been attending Bessie Tift College at Forsyth, Ga., arrived home today to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Radford. Miss Radford has been visiting friends in Atlanta and Waycross since commencement.

WALKER-LAING NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

The Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful rainbow wedding this morning, when Miss Annette Walker and Mr. Roby Laing were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. S. W. Walker, father of the bride, officiating in the presence of relatives and many friends.

The church was tastefully decorated with a profusion of roses, Shasta daisies, dahlias and many other rainbow hued flowers. The chancel rail was entwined with ferns and white and red bleeding hearts, in the center a huge butterfly of rainbow tulle was fastened to the rail. Graceful ferns and baskets of Shasta daisies entwined with bougainvillea formed a pretty back ground around the altar. The pews were marked with rainbow tulle caught with blue hydrangea.

Preceding the ceremony several selections were rendered by Mrs. Glenn Appling of Arcadia, as organist. "The Reason" (words written by Ella Wheeler Wilcox) and "At Dawning" (Cadmans) were beautifully rendered by Miss Lillie Ruth Spencer. The "Bridal Chorus" was rendered by Mrs. Claude Herndon, Mrs. Walter Morgan, Mrs. George Fox, Miss Lillie Ruth Spencer, Messrs. J. D. Parker and S. O. Shiholser. The costumes of the ladies carrying out the rainbow effect, Mrs. Herndon in orchid, Mrs. Fox in pink, Mrs. Morgan in peach and Miss Spencer in sapphire blue.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional.

The little flower girls entered from opposite sides and preceded the bridal party, Little Misses Alice Elder and R. E. Griffin wearing dainty frocks of white organdie and carrying baskets of Shasta daisies the handles tied with rainbow tulle. Margaret Giles wore a lovely little ruffled dress of pink organdie carrying a basket of black-eyed Susans. Little Myrtice Redd was adorable in an exquisite ruffled frock of white organdie and carried a basket of rose petals which were strewn in the path of the bride. Miss Julia Laing, as maid of honor, wore a lovely frock of pink organdie with trimmings of tiny ruffles and becoming lot of pink georgette, and carried an arm bouquet of pink dahlias and ferns. Miss Eleanor Roberts, as bride's maid wore a beautiful frock of white organdie with jade green sash, and becoming hat of white georgette crepe, and carried a bouquet of lavender and pink asters and yellow snap dragons tied with lavender tulle.

Mrs. Walker Blount was her sister's matron of honor, wore a beautiful frock of orchid organdie, and picture hat of white with trimmings of orchid, carried a large bouquet of yellow dahlias, and ferns, tied with lavender tulle. Immediately following her entrance came the bride, who was a picture of girlish loveliness in an exquisite frock of white taffeta, and skirt made with scalloped tunic and trimmed with taffeta roses, centered with seed pearls, the waist was made basque effect beautifully trimmed with hand made taffeta flowers and seed pearls and worn with a picture hat of white silk lace with hand made taffeta flowers, which was most becoming to her brunette beauty. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses and white snapdragons.

The ushers were Virgil Smith and Walker Blount. The groom came from a side entrance attended by his best man, Raymond Phillips. The impressive ring ceremony was used in uniting these two lives.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to South Carolina and other points and expect to be away about five months.

Mrs. Laing is traveling in a handsome frock of brown taffeta, beautifully trimmed with taffeta red with chic hat and other accessories to match.

The friends of this popular couple will join in extending congratulations and all good wishes for much future happiness. Mrs. Laing is the accomplished and beautiful daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Walker of this city, and during her stay here has endeared herself to a large number of friends.

Mr. Laing holds a responsible position with the Fruit Growers Exchange and is well known and highly esteemed. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Laing, of this city.

VENABLE-NEBACK.

A simple and impressive wedding was that of Miss Velma Venable and Mr. Joseph Neblack which took place yesterday morning at ten o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on First street, Rev. S. W. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church officiating.

Mrs. Neblack is the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Venable and graduated from the Sanford High school this year with high honors also winning the D. A. R. gold medal. Mr. Neblack is one of our rising young business men.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Neblack will be at home to their friends at the Welaka apartments.

VAUGHN-MULLIGAN.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Emma Vaughn and Mr. Edward C. Mulligan took place last night at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Celery avenue, Rev. E. D. Brownlee performing the impressive ceremony. Only relatives and most intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

The happy couple left last night for Chattanooga, Tenn., where they will spend some time visiting friends before returning home.

Mrs. Mulligan has been a valued employee of the Telephone Co., and Mr. Mulligan holds a responsible position with the same company.

Their numerous friends all join in wishing them much happiness in their new life.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Robert Newman was the charming and gracious hostess yesterday when she entertained the members of the Duplicate Bridge with a bridge luncheon at her home on Fourth street.

The rooms were most artistically decorated with vases and baskets of cut flowers effectively placed. The luncheon tables had baskets of shasta daisies as centerpieces. Mrs. Newman served a tempting two course luncheon.

Of exceptional interest was the game of duplicate bridge played during the afternoon, the prizes Pyrex baking dishes were won by Mrs. Frank L. Miller and Mrs. S. Puleston. In the absence of one of the club members, her place was taken by Mrs. G. Irving Loucks.

This was one of the most delightful bridge parties of the week, the cordial hospitality of the hostess being much in evidence in the various attractive features.

BON TON BRIDGE CLUB.

The members of the Bon Ton bridge club were most delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Miss Norma Herndon at the Seminole Hotel.

A very absorbing game of bridge was played during the afternoon. High score was made by Miss May Thrasher, who was awarded a dainty powder set.

The hostess assisted by Miss Marjorie Clay served delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad, saltines, olives, raisin bread and pineapple ice.

The substitutes for the afternoon were Misses Virginia Brady and Dorothy Jennings, of Union, S. C., and Mrs. Ben Casswell.

ENTERTAIN BRIDAL PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Walker entertained the members of the Walker-Laing bridal party last night at the parsonage following the rehearsal. Music and conversation were enjoyed during the evening. At a late hour ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Walker, assisted by Mrs. Blount and Mrs. Appling.

MISS PALMER RESIGNS HEAD OF HOSPITAL—MADE FINE RECORD

(From Wednesday's Daily)
The many friends of Miss Myrtice Palmer, and especially the board of directors and the officials of the Fernald-Laughton Hospital, will be sorry to learn that she has resigned from the position of manager and head nurse. Her resignation was sent to the board a month ago and was accepted and went into effect today, when Miss Mary Landgraf took the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Palmer.

Miss Landgraf has been assistant to Miss Palmer and is a lady of broad experience in field and hospital service, having been a Red Cross nurse in the World War and served overseas and she has also been identified with some of the large hospitals and knows every part of the work. Miss Landgraf has been in the Fernald-Laughton Hospital nearly a year and is no stranger to the city or to the hospital and knows how to manage this institution according to the best methods.

Miss Palmer has given out no information about her future plans but her friends say although she will be missed from the hospital she will probably take up a greater work and remain in our midst. She is one of the most capable young women that ever stepped into a hospital, has had years of experience in hospital work, served in the war hospitals, served in the Orange General at Orlando and also as head of the Christ Hospital at Orlando and is a young lady that made friends everywhere and was most popular with the patients striving to get them everything for their comfort and convenience while they were inmates of the hospital. To Miss Palmer much of the credit for the success of the Fernald-Laughton Hospital is due and it is well that her efficient assistant will be able to step into this responsible position and carry on the good work.

BRIDGE PARTY.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
One of the prettiest parties of the season was the bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Carl Shultz at her attractive bungalow on Park avenue.

The house was most artistically decorated with bamboo, hibiscus and bright colored Japanese lanterns, carrying out the Japanese idea. The table markers were dainty Japanese figures holding fans with the number of the table marked on the fan.

Of unusual interest were the games of bridge played during the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Wight made high score and was awarded a lovely hand-painted nut set. The cut prize, a dainty nut dish, was won by Mrs. Robert Hines.

Following the card games delicious refreshments, consisting of pineapple ice and angel food was served by two dainty Japanese maidens, who were Carmeta Barber and Doris Hand, each wearing adorable kimonos with wide sleeves and with red hibiscus in their hair.

A number of young ladies came in for refreshments, among them were Misses Agnes Dumas, Florence Henry, Marie Teague, Helen Peck, Marie Lee Brown, Daphne Wimbish, Adelaide Higgins, Mrs. Fred Willis of Orlando and Miss Elsa Seward of Winter Park.

Those enjoying the game of bridge were Mrs. Ben Caswell, Mrs. Denton of Jacksonville, Mrs. C. P. Kirtley, Mrs. Fred Wight, Miss Majorie Clay, Miss Norma Herndon, Mrs. Ed Betts, Miss Fern Ward, Miss May Thrasher, Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff, Jr., Miss Dorothy Jennings, of Uglon, S. C., and Mrs. Robert Hines.

Mrs. Shultz was assisted in entertaining her guests by Miss Virginia Brady.

CARD OF THANKS.
Mrs. F. W. Munson and her mother, Mrs. Nicewonger, wish to express their heartfelt thanks to the many friends who were so lovingly attentive during the recent illness and funeral services of Finley W. Munson.

GENEVA FLASHES

The members of the Red Cross held an all day meeting in the city hall the other day.

PAULINE FREDERICK FORMER ORLANDO GIRL.

Pauline Frederick, now starring in "The Road to Destiny at the Grand theatre," was formerly an Orlando girl, having lived here with her father for a short time. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Johnson, than whom no man was ever better known in Florida. He made Sanford his home principally, but lived here and in Kissimmee, when this daughter was a small girl. Few actresses have attained greater position than Miss Frederick who was Pauline Frederick Johnson, and Orlando brackets her with Rex Beach and Miss Marsh as distinguished people whom it can partly claim as its own.—Reporter-Star.

Sanford also claims Pauline, as her father was a well known attorney here for many years and Pauline visited him here and will be remembered by many Sanford people.

Move the Hook Slowly

When you move your receiver hook up and down to recall the telephone operator, what you really do is to turn on and off a small electric signal light on the switchboard before her.

Of course, when you try to turn the switchboard light on and off too rapidly, like any other electric light, it may not glow.

It is important, therefore, that you move the hook slowly, so that the light will glow and the operator will know you are trying to attract her attention.

That's why the quickest way to recall the operator is to move the receiver hook up and down slowly.

Greatest Vegetable Growing and Shipping Section In the World

THE Herald has stated at intervals that the Sanford section was the greatest vegetable growing and shipping section that the world has ever produced. This is taking in some territory but facts and figures prove it and if there is any other part of the world that can produce such figures let them come forward. Not only is it the greatest growing and shipping section but it is one of the greatest transportation centers of the state. The following statistics gathered by the Chamber of Commerce for their new booklet will prove interesting to the prospective investor:

During the period, November 15, 1920, to May 15, 1921, inclusive, Sanford shipped 4875 cars of vegetables, the majority of which were of celery. Probably no farming section in the country has better railroad facilities than Sanford, despite which the great increase of production requires additional facilities being built each year. The Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company has a belt line serving the trucking territory. This belt line is 9½ miles long, with spurs branching off at convenient points for placement of cars to be loaded by the growers. This practically means that the farmers have the railroad running up to their back doors. In addition to this belt line, the railroad yard has accommodations for approximately 700 cars. Freight charges paid by shippers in this section to May 15th total over $1,950,000. Increased rates as of the same date brought additional revenues to the transportation company in an amount over $800,000.

Perishable products pay 52% over first class freight rates, and in shipping a carload of lettuce to New York containing 400 hampers, the total charges collected by the transportation company are $425.91 divided as follows: Freight $336.00, refrigeration or icing charges $77.50, war tax $12.41. This figures a charge of $1.06 per hamper delivered to amount freight is $342.00, refrigeration $85.00 and war tax $12.51. Cost per hamper to Chicago $1.09 2-3.

A carload containing 350 crates of celery to New York pays $294.00, freight, $77.50, refrigeration, $11.15 war tax, or a total charge of $382.65. Rate per crate $1.09. The same car to Chicago would cost $229.25 freight, $85.00 refrigeration, $11.52 war tax or $385.77 total charge with a per crate rate of $1.12.

A minimum carload of lettuce is 350 hampers, and a maximum 400 hampers. 350 crates of celery is both the minimum and maximum figure for carload lots.

Some idea can be gained from these figures of the revenue contributed to the railroads from this section, and why it is to the advantage of the latter to foster and cooperate in anything that will further develop this rich agricultural section. The increased rates paid this season represented the profit the growers would have received had this increase not become effective.

The Interstate Commerce Commission rules that the payment of these excess rates entitles the shipper to preferred service and the railroads are supposed to give from Sanford fifth and sixth morning delivery to New York, Chicago and Boston markets.

Sanford boasts the largest original icing station in the world from which the refrigerator cars are iced before beginning their journey to the large markets of the country. During the present season the peak of the shipping was reached in March when 373 cars of celery was iced and shipped in one week. The icing plant is privately owned and operated, as are the gas, water and electric plants.

New York. Charges for a similar car consigned to Chicago would be $439.71, of which

OGLESBY CASE AGAIN TAKES UP COURTS TIME INDICTED AGAIN YESTERDAY

Legal Battle on Monday Knocked Former Indictment BUT NOT VERY LONG

THE GRAND JURY IN SESSION, PROMPTLY BROUGHT IN ANOTHER INDICTMENT

(From Wednesday's Daily)

One of the greatest legal battles waged in Seminole county in several years was fought here Monday at the meeting of the Circuit Court when Messrs. Landis and Fish of DeLand, of the law firm of Landis, Fish & Hull, and George A. DeCottes, of this city, acting as state's attorney brought up the plea of abatement in the Oglesby case, wherein Oglesby previously indicted for manslaughter was indicted by the grand jury at this term for murder in the first degree.

As was chronicled in this paper last week the attorneys for the defense asked for a plea of abatement to be granted by Judge Perkins on several grounds among them being the fact that one of the grand jurors was a son-in-law of the man killed, that the acting state's attorney, Geo. A. DeCottes, was a paid attorney assisting the state's attorney at the fall term of court and that one of the grand jury members was a member of the coroner's jury that sat at the inquest. There were others but these three were the principal ones and were the bone of contention over which the battle was fought all day Monday. Messrs. Landis and Fish made strong pleas for their client and George A. DeCottes made an even stronger plea that the judge refuse to grant abatement.

At the close of the pleas of the attorneys Judge Perkins granted the plea of abatement asked by Landis and Fish and this put the case back where it was when the spring term convened. But the grand jury is still meeting and later yesterday afternoon brought in another indictment for murder in the first degree and this time the state's attorney appointed by Judge Perkins to try this manslaughter case signed the indictment and not Mr. DeCottes and the case will now be fought out on different lines.

At the close of the case Monday afternoon Mr. DeCottes asked to be relieved from his duties as acting state's attorney as he had been continuously in this and other cases at this term of court having been appointed by the governor in the absence of the state's attorney, David Shotts, that he had worked hard for nothing, that he had other cases to take his time and attention and one of them was in Tallahassee and one in Okeechobee requiring his time and attention and he could no longer serve at this term of court as acting state's attorney.

Judge Perkins then appointed Attorney Thedford to act as state's attorney for the balance of the term and the new indictment was perforce signed by him yesterday afternoon when it was brought into court and the objection raised by the defendant's attorney that he could not take part in any of the deliberations of this case cannot be brought against the present acting state's attorney and this case will have to come to trial unless the defendant wants to remain in jail.

This case has attracted considerable attention not only from the local people who knew the principals in the case but from outside legal talent on account of the many varying phases of the case.

The grand jury is in session and it is rumored that they have much business to bring before the court. Their presentment will be published in the Daily Herald as soon as they adjourn and it will be interesting reading.

LOFQUIST-MCINTOSH

(From Monday's Daily)

The DeLand News has the following account, in part, of the wedding: "One of the most brilliant weddings ever witnessed in DeLand took place Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, when Rosa Lofquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lofquist, became the bride of Claude McIntosh.

"Before the appointed hour the long pews were filled with groups of interested friends and relatives and before the sound of Loehgrin's march announced the approach of the wedding party, Miss Edna Stenwall, accompanied by Mrs. Almira Wilson, sang in her clear sweet soprano voice "The Wedding Song," by Mary Ross, and "Because," by Guy d'Hardelot.

"The church was lovely in its decorations of bright fresh southern amilax, it being used effectively in deep festoons, studded with white bay blossoms and daisies, about the choir rail and the arch before altar where the ceremony was performed. Large French baskets filled with long-stemmed flowers added their beauty to the wedding picture, while, as a background to all, gracefully swaying palms were placed.

"The attendants were led by Miss Marjorie Fisk of Orlando, who was lovely in a gown of draped charmeuse; Miss Lena Lofquist, in a pretty frock of blue crepe; Miss Ethel Sproul, in a pussy willow taffeta, self trimmed, and Miss Elizabeth Mussen of Sanford, in a wonderful green gown, draped over silver ruse. All carried bouquets of pink roses tied with tulle of the rainbow shades.

"Miss Hylda Lofquist, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was lovely in a frock of shell pink georgette crepe with accessories to match. She, too, carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

"Little Dorothy Smith made a charming flower girl with her tiny frock of ruffled yellow organdie, carrying on her arm a basket of rose petals, strewing the path of the bride as she advanced on the arm of her father.

"Never before was the bride so lovely. Her handsome gown was a 'Never before was the bride so lovely. Her handsome gown was a gorgeous creation of oyster white canton crepe, over satin, and trimmed with exquisite lace. With it she wore white satin slippers, beautiful lace hose and long white gloves. Her only ornament was a platinum and diamond pin, the gift of the groom. A veil fell in graceful folds to the hem of her short skirt, while over the gauzy tulle clung tiny sprays of orange blossoms. The bride wore her veil crown effect with a bandeaux of orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses showered with a dainty white drift of valley lilies. Little Claude Williams, nephew of the groom, in a lovely white satin suit, carried the circle of platinum on a satin pillow and preceded the groom and his best man, Mr. Emerson Barber, to the altar, where Rev. C. H. Ferran performed the single ring ceremony.

"Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lofquist on North Clara avenue.

"Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh left on a late train for New York, Washington and other points for an absence of two weeks. Upon their return they will make their home in Lakeland, where Mr. McIntosh is connected with the Atlantic Coast Line.

"Mrs. McIntosh is one of DeLand's loveliest young girls, and since her engagement was the inspiration of a number of charming pre-nuptial parties.

"Among the out-of-town guests who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. T. I. McIntosh and the Misses Clara and Ora, parents and sisters of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams and family of Tampa; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Langley and Miss Tenny Dean of Sanford; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. A. Fisk and family of Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. George Deter of Lakeland; Mrs. J. H. Barbe and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Daytona Beach, and E. E. Sawyer of Lakeland; Messrs. Harry and Irwin Williams, of Tampa, who, with Henry Lofquist, were of the wedding party."

Mr. Claude McIntosh is a cousin of Mrs. F. B. Langley, of Sanford.

A Philadelphia girl was awakened after sleeping five weeks. There is still hope, apparently, for the Quaker City.—Johnstown Democrat.

SUDDEN DEATH OF W. F. GEIGER

(From Monday's Daily)

W. F. Geiger of Geneva died here suddenly Saturday night. He had retired to his room at the Stunton House, where he was rooming while doing jury duty here in the circuit court and was found dead in bed. He probably had a spell with his heart and passed peacefully away before anyone was aware of his condition.

Deceased was well known in the Geneva section where he has resided for many years, and was also well known in Sanford, and his many friends will be grieved to learn of his sudden death.

The remains were prepared for burial by T. J. Miller & Son and the funeral services occurred from the late residence at Geneva yesterday afternoon.

WHITEHURST WINS HIS FIGHT AGAINST CATTS

WAS SUSPENDED WHILE SHERIFF OF PINELLAS COUNTY

TALLAHASSEE, May 30.—Marvel M. Whitehurst, former sheriff of Pinellas county, who was fired by Gov. Catts, was endorsed by the senate in executive session Friday afternoon, which refused its assent both to his suspension and to that of C. R. Burke, justice in district No. 5, Calhoun county. Whitehurst has been here for some time pushing his case. There was a large faction in his county which wanted to see the senate concur in his suspension and which has been making a hard fight for that purpose. Whitehurst is the sheriff who arrested James J. Mendenhall, the night after his murder of the two Tampa women, and who is now serving a life sentence. He will have a bill for lost compensation of considerable amount.

The senate confirmed the following appointments:

- Lee J. Gibson, to be judge criminal court of records, Hillsborough county.
 - Morris M. Givens, to be solicitor criminal court of records, Hillsborough county.
 - T. P. Watlow, to be judge criminal court of records, Orange county.
 - W. M. Murphy, to be solicitor criminal court of records, Orange county.
 - W. M. Norfelt, judge criminal court of records, Dade county.
 - James E. Peeler, to be judge criminal court of records, Duval county.
 - C. E. Jones, judge of criminal court of records, Escambia county.
- The following state attorneys were also appointed and confirmed:
- First circuit, H. W. Thompson; second, G. W. Walker; third, J. R. Kelley; fourth, Frank Wideman; sixth, M. A. McMullen; seventh, George A. DeCoster; ninth, L. D. McRae; thirteenth, Charles B. Parkhill; fourteenth, J. Frank Adams.

OLIVER WILL GRADUATE.

(From Wednesday's Daily). Oliver Murrell is home for a few days attending the session of the circuit court. The DeLand News, in a little write-up of the seniors of Stetson this year, has the following about Oliver: "Oliver comes from Sanford and joined us last year after having begun his course at University of Florida. He is a breezy sort of person, and told us yesterday that he is thinking of either joining his brother at Miami or going in for practice for himself at Wauchula, county seat of one of the new counties."

IN MEMORIAM

Beautiful in every detail and impressive in its simplicity, the funeral of Findlay Munson, Saturday afternoon, was a fitting tribute to the brave old soldier whose passing has left another gap in the fast-thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic.

At the church, the Memorial Day decorations blended in perfect harmony with the lovely floral offering, massed in graceful profusion about the pulpit and that surmounted the stars and stripes wrapped about the casket, the flag so dear to the heart that had ceased to beat. For years upon years it had been the loving service of Mr. Munson to decorate the church for the annual Memorial Day and it was his hand that brought and arranged the flowers upon the altar every Sunday morning; in sunshine or in rain he was there, a loyal, faithful soldier under the banner of the cross, living his Christian life with the same fidelity and child-like faith that kept him true to the flag of his country.

The short address of Rev. Burhans, his pastor, rendered a just word of praise to the man who had ministered unto others in sickness and in health for a long period of years, leaving the imprint of his wonderful personality upon the town and its citizens in the home of his adoption. His love for flowers and music stamped him as a man of fine impulses and tender thoughts and it seemed indeed as passing strange that other hands should arrange the flowers, and other lips should sound the bugle call for him who had so long been the leader.

He would have loved the beautiful music rendered at the church and the grave; the large assemblage of friends who had gathered upon this last sad mission to pay their tribute of love and respect; the representative citizens who were his active and honorary pall-bearers.

Through files of the American Legion the casket was borne and at the grave a firing squad made more impressive the solemn scene, firing three volleys above the grave, and in the calm and beauty of the still evening, the wonderfully sweet notes of the bugle, heard in the distance sounding "taps" a fitting close to the military honors accorded this grand old soldier of his Master and his country.

FROM REMOTEST PARTS OF GLOBE

TANLAC ELEMENTS COME FROM MANY LANDS FAR AWAY FROM HERE.

The ingredients from which the celebrated medicine Tanlac is made, come from remote sections of the earth, and are transported thousands of miles over land and sea to the great Tanlac Laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, and Walkerville, Canada.

The Alps, Appenines, Pyrenees, Russian-Asia, Brazil, West Indies, Rocky Mountains, Asia Minor, Persia, India, Mexico, Columbia and Peru are among the far away points from which the principal properties of this remarkable preparation are obtained.

What is said to be the largest pharmaceutical laboratory in the United States has been completed at Dayton, Ohio, for the manufacture of Tanlac which, according to recent reports, is now having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world; over 20,000,000 bottles having been sold in six years.

The new plant occupies 20,000 square feet of floor space and has a daily capacity of 50,000 bottles. Uniform quality is guaranteed by a series of careful inspections by expert chemists from the time the roots, herbs, bark and flowers are received in their raw state from all parts of the globe until their medicinal properties have been extracted by the most approved processes. The finished medicine is then bottled, labeled and shipped out to tens of thousands of druggists throughout the United States and Canada to supply a demand never before equalled by this, or any other medicine.—Adv.

FAREWELL DANCE.

(From Wednesday's Daily) Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Connally entertained very delightfully at a dance at their home on Magnolia avenue, in compliment to their son, Walter, and Prof. Harold Bache, who left last night for an indefinite stay in El Paso, Texas.

The rooms were opened en suite and effectively decorated with oleanders, longawella and ferns. The music was furnished by James Schaal, and was exceptionally good. Mrs. R. A. Newman, Mrs. B. W. Herndon and Mrs. Sam Puleston assisted in entertaining the guests. Punch and cake were served throughout the evening.

There were about seventeen couple who enjoyed this delightful occasion and wished the honorees a pleasant journey and success in their new undertaking.

AND WILL CONCERN HIMSELF WITH POLITICS SAME AS EVER.

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 31.—William J. Bryan will vote in Florida in future. It was announced here today that his actual residence in that state would become his legal residence. He was influenced in making the change, he said, by his wife's health, and in his new home he expected to concern himself as much as ever with public affairs.

LINK IN ORLANDO TO EAST COAST ROAD IS ASSURED

TITUSVILLE, May 30.—At a meeting of the Brevard county board of county commissioners this afternoon, all members present, a resolution was passed by unanimous vote assuring the Orange county board of county commissioners that the hard surfaced road from the Dixie Highway at Indian River City to the St. Johns river, and half of a sixteen foot bridge across said river as provided for in the bond issue for same, will positively be built.

This road and bridge is to connect Orlando with the east coast highway and the ocean beach. The bonds for this improvement, and for all other roads and bridges in the district, have been sold, and advertisements for contracts for work and material will be ordered published at the June meeting of the Brevard commissioners, and contracts will be let at their July meeting.—Orlando Sentinel.
