

Smith Takes Issue With Coughlin Over Recent Statement

Al Denies Connection Between Loan From Morgan, Own Views On Money Policies

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(AP.)—Father Charles E. Coughlin's defense of President Roosevelt's monetary policies re-echoed last night in three dominating developments.

Alfred E. Smith, whom Father Coughlin described Monday as the "outstanding Catholic layman in America," declared the Detroit priest made an "absolutely false" statement in charging that "my opinion on the monetary question is in any way affected by any loan from J. P. Morgan."

Mr. Thomas G. Carroll, chancellor of the Catholic archdiocese of New York, said the priest's attack on former Governor Smith was "absolutely unwarranted."

Before returning to his Shrine of the Little Flower, Father Coughlin said he had further plans to defend the administration's money program, but said he would not address meetings in any diocese if the diocesan authorities did not approve.

The former New York governor—who declared what he called "the..."

BEACH MAYOR PREFERS JAIL TO OBEYANCE

Armstrong Says He Will Never Comply With Court Order That He Sign Bonds

DAYTONA BEACH, Nov. 29.—Mayor Edward H. Armstrong of Daytona Beach yesterday declared that he would go to jail rather than obey a peremptory writ of mandamus issued by the State Supreme Court, ordering him to sign $147,000 city refunding bonds.

Informed that the Supreme Court had issued the writ after months of litigation, Mayor Armstrong who yesterday was confined to bed after a minor operation, said: "I understand fully that refusal to comply with the mandamus of the Supreme Court leaves no alternative to the court except to cite me for contempt which, of course, means my being sent to jail."

"However, I consider the welfare and the existence of the people superior to the judgment of the present City Commission and the Supreme Court as to what is legal, and therefore, I am going to refuse to comply with the order to sign the bonds."

Litigation over signing refunding bonds dated Aug. 1, 1932, began last Spring, when the Supreme Court first issued its peremptory writ against the mayor, who secured a rehearing for further arguments that delayed final issuance of the writ.

Louisiana Woman Demands To Know If U. S. Senate Is Afraid Of Senator Long

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—(AP)—It was Huey P. Long day before the Senate committee investigating Senator John H. Overton's election.

Stalking down the aisle with a swagger Senator Long electrified the hearing by demanding to be heard in his own defense. He said he had three witnesses with him who would prove that Sam D. Hunter, whom he charged was a "gas well thief from North Louisiana," had attacked him and not Senator Overton with "heated testimony and untruths."

He marched back and forth before the rostrum as the crowd cheered and giggled. After debate between the committee and Senator Long and Overton he was allowed to produce his testimony. His first witness was ruled off the stand on grounds of irrelevancy but two of his witnesses testified.

Then Long himself took the stand and said he had the answers to any and all questions. For an hour he denied the Hunter testimony and covered a wide field of Louisiana politics.

As he stepped from the stand, a small woman, with fire in her eyes, Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana arose and rebuked the committee for permitting Senator Long to "make a stump speech for an hour," and demanded to know if "the United States Senate is afraid of Huey Long."

Her remarks provoked a bedlam in the chamber, voices cheering, yelling, and shouting "sit down," "go on!"

With an air of unconcern, Senator Long walked slowly in front of her and between her and the rostrum, picked up his hat and went out.

Mrs. Hammond's last words were drowned out in the noise, and (Continued On Page Three)

SIGNING OF CODE SAID UNSAFE FOR PRESS FREEDOM

Attorneys Advise U.S. Editors To Demand Specific Protection

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—(AP)—An opinion by a Chicago law firm yesterday held newspapers might lose their constitutional guaranty of publication if they accepted the proposed NIRA code without a specific bill of rights.

The opinion was submitted to Col. R. H. McCormick, publisher of the Tribune and chairman of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association committee on freedom of the press.

Designed as a reply to the contention of Gen. Hugh Johnson, Recovery administrator, that there was no need for a special safeguard to insure newspaper freedom of publication, it held that as a general proposition, any one might wait—constitutional rights by not insisting upon them in proper form and proper tribunal.

It further stated that, by reason and analogy, newspapers could "contract away the right of free publication" in contrast to the stand of Recovery Administration spokesmen who have asserted that was not possible.

"If the newspapers, by entering into a code, admit that NIRA is applicable to newspapers, they would unambiguously, without the proviso contended for, admit that the rest of the code is applicable to and binding upon them."

"If the proviso is unnecessary to maintain the guaranty of the freedom of the press, it is at most surplusage which cannot in any way bind or fetter the government in its program."

"If the proviso is necessary to prevent a waiver, the government wishes to have in its hand a weapon it could use to stifle the press. The very fact that Johnson is so insistent upon the elimination of the proviso would lead an unprejudiced observer to feel that he wishes to put the press in exactly the same plane as other industry notwithstanding its special constitutional guarantee, so that in the event of hostility or adverse criticism emanating from the press, he will be in a position effectively and summarily to gag it."

"If the proviso is eliminated, the question will arise whether the press cannot be licensed, and this question will have to be determined by the courts which, we believe, are apt to decide close questions in favor of virtual dictatorship. If the proviso is included, the courts cannot, without humiliating themselves hold that the freedom of the press was ever contemplated in the adoption of the code."

MAYO PROHIBITS SHIPMENT OF 100 CARS OF CITRUS

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Nathan Mayo, state commissioner of agriculture, announced yesterday that approximately 100,000 boxes of more than 100 carloads of assorted oranges and grapefruit in the Florida citrus belt would be barred from shipment this year because "we have found them absolutely unfit for human consumption."

In prior years, oranges and grapefruit treated with arsenic spray have been released for shipment on Dec. 1, when the citrus inspection period ends but Mayo said such fruit "will not be released this year."

His order did not concern grapefruit. The supreme court recently affirmed a circuit judge H. C. Pettyway of Polk county in the granting of an injunction against the commissioner and his inspectors interfering with shipment of assorted grapefruit.

None Injured In 2 Auto Wrecks On City Streets

Within one hour yesterday afternoon, four white wrecks, all of them well known in this city, escaped serious injury in two automobile accidents which occurred at busy street intersections.

At about 2:00 o'clock, a coupe being driven west on Seventh Street by Eddie Rawson was hit from behind by a sedan being driven south on Magnolia Avenue by Mrs. E. E. Hightower. Neither was injured, but both automobiles were damaged considerably.

Fifty minutes later, police learned that Miss Fred Pope, who was driving west on Coler Avenue, collided with Miss Ann Parson, driving a coach south on Melbourne Avenue. Miss Pope's automobile turned over after the impact and landed on its top, its four wheels spinning, but Mrs. Pope escaped injury.

County's Agricultural Production Was High

Seminole County shipped a solid carload of fresh fruit and vegetables every one hour and fourteen minutes of the day and night during the 365 days of last year according to a statement just released by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce based on reports of the State Marketing Bureau.

Seminole County shipped a total of 7,006 carloads of fruits and vegetables of which 4,274 were celery, 93 lettuce, 1,025 oranges or an average of nineteen and a half cars per day.

These shipments are in addition to the enormous volume of fruits and vegetables that moved out of this county by truck, and all in spite of the fact that owing to bad market conditions and overproduction, one third of the celery at one time during the year was plowed under instead of shipped. In a normal season Seminole County ships more than 10,000 carloads of fruits and vegetables.

BABSON URGES REVISION OF U.S. TAX POLICY

Statistician Says Era Of Prosperity Will Follow Repeal Of Present Surtaxes

BOSTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Roger W. Babson, statistician yesterday told the Boston Advertising Club that repeal of surtaxes, encouragement of capital to enterprise as new enterprises would bring about a general upward trend in business and great increase employment.

He said President Roosevelt had laid his aim, one to reduce unemployment, and the other to legislate for a more equal distribution of the nation's income, but he said these aims were in conflict. It would be impossible, Babson said, to bring about both at once. He said a constitutional amendment redistributing wealth would increase unemployment.

Babson said 2 percent of the population provided the bulk capital for new enterprises. Surtax laws, he said, limiting the deductions for losses and taking large proportions of the profits, had driven the holders of the capital to invest in non-taxable securities.

"By merely revising the tax policy of this government for the next five years," Babson predicted, "you would see the greatest building boom in the history of this country. You would see every factory working full time, resulting in an actual shortage of labor while various new developments in transportation, power projects and other enterprises, would start up in all sections of the country."

Babson said Wall Street had just its power and that Washington had superseded it. He predicted the President would continue his present policies without any very radical changes until the election next fall.

50 MORE MEN TO BE EMPLOYED ON STATE ROAD JOB

Two Crews To Be Busy On 1st Street Project Starting Friday

Fifty additional white and colored men will be added to the more than 50 now working at repairing State Road No. 3 on West First Street starting early Friday morning, it was announced at local Civil Works Administration headquarters in the Court House late this afternoon.

Work on this project, with the addition of this new crew, will be divided into two shifts of five hours each and at six days per week for each shift of men.

Nearly 700 white and colored men were working on one or more projects today, Mrs. Helen T. Mause stated during a short interview that had the news of the employment of 50 additional men as a highlight.

Asked whether or not she could say when more men will be put to work, she said "There really isn't a thing that we can say about anything today. We are waiting for word from Tallahassee on both the sewer project and the Sanford and Celery Avenue brick relaying project. They were approved yesterday, but engineers must check them before we can start to work. I will say again however, that we're putting men to work just as fast as we can, and that we ought to have lots of interesting news by Friday."

She added that government agents were in Sanford today making arrangements to store a second shipment of pork and other commodities which will reach here some time within the next 10 days.

This pork, and the commodities which include butter, flour, lard, and other items which have been purchased by the government for the relief of the destitute, will be distributed through the Seminole County Emergency Relief Council as in the past. Announcement will be made as to the date of release.

Governor Declines Act Stating That There Is No Justification For Victim's Death

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 29.—(A.P.)—The wave of mob violence which has made its presence known in California and Maryland during the past 72 hours swept into this state late last night as a mob estimated at about 4000 men and women stormed the Buchanan County jail at St. Joseph, and lynched Lloyd Warner, 19-year-old negro who was quoted by police as having confessed that he attacked a 21-year-old white girl on Sunday night.

The lynching drew from Governor Guy Park the statement that "There is no justification" for the lynching "even though it appears that Warner confessed to the heinous crime which in Missouri is punishable by death."

With feeling in St. Joseph and the surrounding territory at a high pitch, it did not take long for a mob estimated at nearly 4000 persons to gather. A hurried consultation among purported leaders of this throng resulted in the storming of the jail, by a selected group.

One group seized a huge iron pipe, and using it as a battering ram, it stormed the jail entrance demanding the prisoner. Sheriff Theisen, declining to call for the aid of the national guard, warned the mob to quit the jail yard. He told a reporter later that he saw no necessity of calling for (Continued On Page Three)

Dry Cleaners Discuss National Price Code

A discussion of the new national cleaners and dryers code, effective last week but not to be enforced until all cleaners are advised as to its contents was staged at the City Hall last night by a group of nearly 50 Central Florida dealers, gathered from six counties which are in the Fifth Division of the Florida Dry Cleaners' Institute.

B. R. Johnson of Orlando, chairman of the division, was the principal speaker. He explained the code and pointed out that it had been tested in west Florida, with a judge ruling that he would levy the fine provided if a violation were brought before him.

The new code is the first which contains fixed prices, according to E. H. Laney, local dry cleaner. Local persons in future must pay from 10 to 50 percent more for dry cleaning and pressing than in the past, he added.

All shops are required to charge prices that are contained in the code and locally the code prices are now in effect. A violation subjects them to a $500 fine and the possibility that a six month jail sentence may be included.

The San Jose Lynching

It is a terrible thing to think of a framed mob storming a jail, seizing two of its inmates, dragging them through the public square, and in the presence of thousands of people, hanging these two struggling humans to the limb of a tree. The effect of such a spectacle upon the souls of those who witness the lawless deed is not only a shock to the conscience but also a warning to the community as a whole.

Seminole High Will Meet Leesburg In Year's Last Contest Tomorrow At 2:30

Although a Sanford-Ocala game is rumored as in the offing, members of Coach Leonard McLucas' Seminole High School football team will entrain for Leesburg early tomorrow afternoon prepared to play the final game of their season.

Thoroughly chastened after their surprising defeat at the hands of the Wildwood Wildcats last Friday, Coach McLucas' players are said to be prepared to "shoot the works" in an effort to "find out a season with a percentage near to .500. The team has won two, lost four, and tied two games so far.

Realizing that the Leesburg team is probably the strongest that his eleven will meet this season, Coach McLucas has spent the week instructing his men in those features of play which must be corralled before 2:30 o'clock Thursday, starting time for the contest.

That each player has realized since late Friday afternoon that a lack of proper blocking and tackling, the most stubborn problem which faces any coach, cost a victory over Wildwood, is beyond question. That these departments of play will be improved tomorrow is also beyond question, for there isn't a player on the team who doesn't relish the thought of victory over the Leesburg outfit.

As all fans know, Seminole High gained revenge for five years of denial of a victory over Leesburg by handing the Jackets a 20 to 7 beating at Municipal Park last year. That defeat was the first suffered by Leesburg in over three years and there was great jubilation in local circles for days.

The two teams have met eight times since 1925 when they began their series with a 6 to 6 dead-tie. Seminole High won in 1926 by a 6 to 0 score, but the next year saw the start of three consecutive and bitter defeats when Seminole lost, 26 to 13 in 1927. In 1928 the Jackets rolled up 51 points against none for Sanford while in 1929 Sanford took its worst beating in modern times, 50 to 0.

A brilliant 0 to 0 tie that was considered a moral victory for Sanford was played before the largest crowd ever to see a high school game here. That was in 1930. In 1931, Sanford dropped a 25 to 7 tilt at Leesburg after it had been given a chance to beat Leesburg by two touchdowns. Last year Sanford reversed the tables and turned in that 20 to 7 beating so that McLucas coached teams have an even break in the three games played to date—from 1930 through 1932.

That another tremendous crowd will be on hand in Leesburg tomorrow is a certainty. Leesburg has its best team in two years, with a fine season's record although it has two Conference victories against one defeat and one tie. An outstanding battle will be played before the fans, with Leesburg favored but Seminole with Jordan, Miller, Slaughter, and Pearson as possible stars leading the way.

The starting line-up probably will find Deas and Govecek at ends; Slaughter and Harrison at tackles; Brannan and Pearson at guards; Odham at center; Hughes at quarter; Jordan and Miller at halves, and Harnage at fullback.

It will be the last game of their high school careers for 11 of the team's players. They are: Bobbie Knight, George McClelland, Richard Deas, Russell Odham, Levi Brannan, Larry Harrison, James Dyson, John Brown, Claude Kelly and Archie Brown.

WINTER PARK, Nov. 29.—In his last year as fullback of the colorful football team at Rollins College, Dick Washington, the full-blooded Cherokee Indian from the Cherokee Reservation, N. C., is having his best season and is raking havoc with the opposition. Kept under cover for two years because of his defensive abilities, Washington is this year getting more opportunities to carry the ball with the result that he is a constant threat. Heavy, tall, and fleet of foot, the "Big Chief" has developed into an outstanding star of the Tar eleven.

In helping the Tars run up a total of 93 points against 30 for the opposition this season, Washington has been the big gun tallying seven touchdowns, thereby scoring nearly half the points for the season.

One of the few remaining opportunities to see the "Big Chief" in action comes Wednesday night at Tinker Field in Orlando where Rollins meets the powerful squad from Tampa University.

Washington has had a remarkable record in his four years at Rollins. As a member of the freshman team in 1930 he helped the frosh go through the season undefeated. The varsity teams of 1931 and 1932 of which he was a regular, lost only two games during the two-year period and last year he was an important factor in helping the Rollins varsity go through the year without defeat.

Again this year, the Tars are meeting with their customary success having won five of their six games.

Washington is also a member of the baseball team and has distinguished himself in intramural cross country races. He is a tall

Crooms Gridders Will Play Here Tomorrow

Football fans who will be unable to visit Leesburg tomorrow afternoon for the annual Turkey Day clash between Seminole High School and the Leesburg Yellow Jackets will have football right at home since Coach James Foster's Crooms Academy Panthers, undefeated this year, will be playing the Ormond team at Municipal Park, starting at 3:00 o'clock.

The Panthers, expecting trouble with the undefeated St. Petersburg eleven which it met in a rain swept game here last Saturday produced a 6 to 0 victory to remain in the undefeated list and high among the state's leading negro teams.

In Captain Patrick, Crooms is said to have the fastest negro halfback in Florida, a deadly passer with a flair for defensive display. Around him, many local fans say, is a team that will give a fighting account of itself in any game, and an increasingly large number of white football patrons at Crooms Academy games see in an indication that the eleven produces action aplenty.

loney dollars" and the "Guinea pig" experimentation of the Roosevelt administration in a recent editorial—characterized as "absolutely false" Father Coughlin's story that Smith gave two Catholic bishops "to understand that he had received a large loan for his office building from Morgan."

While the comment of Monsignor Carroll did not encompass such a possibility it was indicated at the chancery office that Father Coughlin might not receive permission in the future to speak in this diocese.

"Father Coughlin ought to remember," Msgr. Carroll said, that as a clergyman he has a rather privileged forum, which is accorded him by his position whether he accepts it as such or not, and that forum is not the place in which to attribute selfish notions to anybody."

The priest boarded a train for Detroit before the Smith statement was made public. He made no reply to the chancellor's remarks except to say:

"I refuse to come into his diocese and start a quarrel. There are certain properties of gentleness and etiquette among clergymen which forbid such a discussion."

Father Coughlin said he had never talked with by telephone nor visited any officials of the diocese yesterday.

"I came here with their knowledge," he added, pointing out that J. H. Rand, Jr., industrialist and one of the members of the committee for the nation, had informed the chancery office of his visit to address last night's meeting in the Hippodrome at which the name of Smith was booed frequently.

While Father Coughlin would not disclose what his plans for the future in support of the providential program contemplated, he said he would work to carry out the purpose of a resolution adopted at the mass meeting favoring support of this program and rehabilitation at the 1926 price level.

He denied any knowledge of reports that diocese officials in Chicago and Philadelphia had refused him permission to address similar mass meetings.

In his statements released at his office, former Governor Smith said, in part:

"I have never talked with Mr. Morgan on any subject except during our joint service and appointment by the mayor on a committee to allocate state funds for unemployment relief," said Smith's statement.

When a man presumes to address to great a number of listeners as Father Coughlin reaches, particularly if he be a priest, he assumes the responsibility of not misleading them by false statements, or poisoning their judgment with baseless slander.

Labor Encouraged Over Past Month's Record By Business

Advance In Retarded Owing To Fears Of Currency Inflation, Federation Reports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—The American Federation of Labor yesterday called November business developments "encouraging" and reported that "unemployment, which usually increases at this season, has been held close to September levels."

In its monthly survey the federation reviewed the Roosevelt gold policy in some detail, pointing to moderate price rises it said were coincident with the depreciation of the dollar abroad and again warned against direct currency inflation.

"Any form of inflation which threatens violent declines in the dollar or a loss of currency control is of the greatest danger to workers," it said. "In the flat money inflations of Europe after the war, workers saw their savings swept away and their incomes cut down by rising prices. Strong government control over the currency is essential."

"The issue is now clouded by uncertainty and the claims and fears of various groups. The situation is less serious for the confidence business needs. Uncertainty over the dollar's future and fear of flat money retard business advance."

While the Thanksgiving holidays brought a lull in the operations of the Roosevelt gold buying program, officials studied dispatches from France telling of an effort by the French government to repatriate currency via the flotation of a $30,000,000 bond issue.

With the Paris government the only world power remaining on the gold standard, fiscal officers here have noted that for some months there have been heavy withdrawals of gold from France which yesterday's dispatches reported had reached a total of 8,000,000 francs in three weeks.

These withdrawals have been accompanied by official predictions that France must abandon the gold standard.

The reduction of labor in commenting on the Roosevelt monetary program, noted an increase in the farm price average of 8.3 percent between Oct. 31 and Nov. 30, "a development which is of great value to the farmer and the consumer of food."

He said that "since speculation plays an important part in fixing prices."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Indications that labor may obtain representation on all important decisions came today from Hugh Johnson, recovery administrator.

Discussing the position of the American Federation of Labor that the working man should be represented on the code authority, Johnson said he thought it was "a question of whether labor really wants it. It seems to me that when management is assuming responsibility for profit and loss, it is not labor's traditional position."

BORAH DEBATES FOR SILVER AS BASIS OF MONEY

Idahoan Says No Sound Monetary System Can Do Without It

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Senator Borah reentered the monetary debate yesterday to throw his full weight behind the demand for a broader metallic base for currency by the use of silver.

In a letter to James P. Warburg of New York, a former unofficial economic adviser to President Roosevelt, the Idaho republican independent took issue with Warburg's proposal for a revaluation of the dollar in terms of a modernized gold standard and asserted no "sound and efficient" monetary system should leave silver out of the picture.

Warburg had outlined his revaluation plan in accepting a challenge by Borah to critics of Roosevelt's money policy to stop finding fault unless they had a specific remedy to offer.

Borah told the New York financier-economist it was "refreshing" to read his "careful admission that the old orthodox system is obsolete and the whole subject is open to fair discussion."

"He said he enjoyed seeing a debate of the question without countering 'a bludge of such terms as demagogues, dishonest dollar, cheap dollar, repudiation, communists, crooks and kists.'"

"But he contended Warburg's plan had many 'elements of uncertainty' in that it would have to be undertaken in conjunction with Great Britain and the entire 'sterling bloc,' and affected only after a long period of trial and error.

After quoting the governor of the Imperial Bank of India and Sir Henry Deterding, of Royal Dutch Shell, on the importance of silver as a monetary element, Borah concluded:

"Leaving aside all question as to the proper use to be made of silver in the monetary systems of the world, it seems perfectly evident that no monetary system can in the future be considered sound and efficient which does not rest on the billions of people the money which they have used for 3000 years, which they desire to use, and which they will use if permitted to do so."

"The property loss incurred, the widespread misery entailed, by reason of taking away from 800,000,000 people their only medium of exchange, their method of saving, was a selfish, brutal thing, having its origin in that blind greed which often works its own ruin."

17 Die In Storm On Coast Of Black Sea

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Seventeen persons were drowned, 160 are missing, and damage estimated at $225,000 was done at Samsum today by a storm which raged violently along the whole Black Sea coast. Huge waves destroyed 67 fishing and motor boats, according to reports from the stricken area. Large sections of the city of Samsum are under water, many houses are destroyed, and shipping on the Black Sea is paralyzed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—The annual Seminole County Tuberculosis and Health Association Christmas Seal Sale drive was launched yesterday when Rev. J. H. Sawyer, of Holy Cross Episcopal Church delivered a radio address from Orlando.

HOOVER GIVEN SHARP REBUKE BY GOVERNOR

Scored For Condoning Lynching, Rolph Reminds Critic Of Bonus-marchers' Reception

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Former President Hoover and Governor Rolph exchanged rapid cross-fire of criticism yesterday over the lynching of the kidnap slayers of Brooke Hart at San Jose last Sunday night.

Said the former president: "The governor has been advocating lynching law—a subversion of the very spirit of organized society."

Said the governor: "I deplore the use of troops against our own people. Look at the mess we got into when troops were called out in Washington against the bonus-marchers."

The exchange followed a rebuke to Rolph for his stand condoning the lynching of John H. Holmes and Thomas Harold Thurmond which was contained in a joint statement issued Wednesday by a group of prominent California citizens, including Mr. Hoover.

Rolph retorted yesterday from Sacramento with his thrust at the Hoover administration for having called out troops against the bonus-marchers.

"Men with guns and bombs were sent to attack good American citizens—our World War veterans who fought for us," Rolph declared.

"I refused to call out troops for use in the San Jose trouble because one can never be certain what the outcome of such an action will be. High-headed young men armed with bayonets, rifles and bombs are liable to kill good citizens needlessly."

"It is up to local peace officials to maintain order and only after they have admitted they cannot (Continued On Page 34)

Martin Bram Gives Kiwanians Rule On Beating Depression

In his talk on "Significant Living," made before Sanford Kiwanians on Wednesday noon at the Motsuma Hotel, Rev. Martin J. Bram of Holy Cross Episcopal Church declared that the surest way to forget the depression is to look for something new every day.

"By following things which catch our attention through the word," he declared, "we develop mentally, physically, and spiritually, and at the same time, our mind, turned away from the depression, becomes trained to see other things than the depression."

Al Smith Aims Guns On CWA Which He Charges Is Set Up To Hide Recent PWA Failure

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Al Smith's failure of the public works administration, said the former governor, "is this crazy, top-heavy structure, choked with red tape and bureaucracy, is being left as it is, and out of it is being created the civil works administration to."

"Instead of acknowledging the failure of the public works administration," said the former governor, "this crazy, top-heavy structure, choked with red tape and bureaucracy, is being left as it is, and out of it is being created the civil works administration to."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—In a statement replying to Alfred E. Smith's criticism of the public works fund, Secretary Ickes, the public works administrator, said yesterday "It is impossible to satisfy an yman who is nourishing a grudge as the result of disappointed ambitions."

"Mr. Smith is permitting his resentment against the administration to run away with his judgment," Ickes added. "He is making another mistake. He is apparently under the illusion that the coming of sarcastic phrases and the hurling of epithets will be understood by sober-minded citizens for sound reasoning based upon a careful study of the fact."

"The public works administration has functioned efficiently to date in spite of Mr. Smith and will survive this latest outburst. The civil works administration was a logical development of the public works program. Its conception resulted in real statesmanship."

"It was designed to and in fact is taking up the slack in employment that in the nature of things the public works administration could not hope to reach."

"The people understand thoroughly what is the matter with Mr. Smith. Even those who love him and have delighted to follow him in the past feel too deep a pity for him to want to engage in any personal controversy."

Johnson Ready To Crack Down On New Groups

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Hugh Johnson today told newsmen that if necessary he would impose NRA codes containing only labor provisions on both the telephone and aluminum industries.

At a press conference the NRA chief said, "I don't want to impose any code except on labor provisions, wages and hours, but if I have to do so that I will." This was his explanation of how he would deal with the telephone company situation if forced to do so by the refusal of the concern to subscribe voluntarily to the code.

The Bell Telephone Company, subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. has submitted a code to the NRA. Johnson today was not clear as to whether Gifford's position in the telephone company or the entire system.

Walter Gifford, president of American Telephone and Telegraph, wrote Johnson a letter saying that his concern did not want to come under the code because it is now competitive in character.

Local Bank Announces New NRA Regulations According to an announcement published today by the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, the NRA bankers code, which becomes effective on Monday, will necessitate a charge of 10 cents per item on all out of town checks and drafts cashed or deposited by any customer of the bank. This regulation applies to government checks as well as to all other checks and as such includes Civil Works payroll checks. Non-customers of the bank will be charged for cashing out of town checks and drafts, including Civil Works payroll checks, at the rate of 10 cents per item up to $50, 30 cents per item from $50 to $100, and 35 cents per $100 and over.

DR. WYNECOOP CONVINCED SHE IS TO DIE SOON

Awaiting Her Trial, Frail Woman Finds Comfort In Bible; Would Greet Death

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—(A.P.)—Dr. Alice L. Wynecoop looked up from her Bible in the county jail yesterday and told her jailers she would not live to go on trial as the charge of her daughter-in-law, Rheta.

Frail, worn out by hours of police questioning, her hands shaking as they turned the pages of the Bible, Dr. Alice announced she had diagnosed her own case, and was convinced that her death was not far off.

The 62-year-old woman doctor admitted that death might be "long and tedious," but she declared her health never would permit her trial. She indicated that death would not be un welcome.

"All the medical men in the world can't help me," she told Dr. Francis W. McNamara, jail physician. "My case I have diagnosed. I don't need their medical aid."

Dr. McNamara said the woman's condition was about the same as for several days. The only change was an increase in her pulse to the unusually fast rate of 110. She is suffering from hardening of the arteries. She has been ordered to remain in bed indefinitely, but her physicians have indicated not even the best of care is likely to improve her condition to any extent.

LAMB TELLS CWA WORKERS HOW TO GET PAY CHECKS

Nearly $5000 Will Be Issued In County To 754 Employees

Addressing himself to the 754 residents of this city and county who are scheduled to be given United States Treasury checks tomorrow for their first week's work under the local Civil Works Administration, Roland P. Lamb, local disbursing officer late today declared that it is imperative that his instructions, as listed below are carried out to the letter.

"Checks will be delivered to all workers tomorrow if it is humanly possible, Mr. Lamb stated, although orders were received from Washington during the past week that local disbursing officers may stagger the issuance of checks so that it will not cause a hardship either to CWA officers or to local banks and business houses who will be called upon to cash checks."

"Despite our orders," Mr. Lamb stated, "we are going to distribute checks tomorrow because we promised all of our workers that they would be paid on Saturday. We probably will pay off on two or three days next week and the week after, however, so that our task will be lightened."

Approximately $5000 will be paid out to the 754 workers before 5:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Mr. Lamb stated. As disbursing officer, it is necessary that he, and he alone, hand out all checks. He has arranged a schedule therefore, which will find him busy on this one task from 9:00 o'clock tomorrow morning until 5:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

All persons working on projects in this city or within a few miles outside of the city limits are to be paid off at the Fire Station in Sanford. All other persons will be paid off in their various home towns.

It is absolutely necessary that every worker have with him as he calls for his check, the white identification card and assignment which was issued to him last Sunday or during the week. No person will receive a check from Mr. Lamb unless he presents this white card, and all persons are expected to retain this card from week to week, unless otherwise ordered.

Further, no checks will be given to a third person, such as a father, mother, wife, or other relative of any worker. If he or she is not able to be present when checks are issued tomorrow, (Continued on Page Two)
