Gov. Martin Leads Oregon Primary Test

Henry L. Hess, Trailing By 983 Votes, Was Backed By Ickes And Senator Norris

700 Precincts Yet To Report

O. Henry Olen Is 3rd In Race For Democratic Nomination

PORTLAND, Ore., May 21. (AP)—Henry L. Hess, who claimed New Deal and labor support picked up a glowing and perhaps decisive lead today in the sensational Democratic primary contest with Gov. Charles H. Martin. Late returns from Multnomah county, the state's largest in which Portland is located, gave Hess the advantage of 1,840 votes. The standing in 1,167 of Oregon's 1,481 precincts was Hess 42,023 and Martin 40,184.

PORTLAND, Oregon, May 21.—(AP)—Gov. Charles H. Martin, retired major general who warred against "labor terrorism," and an opponent favored by two New Deal leaders, forged ahead by nearly one thousand votes in today's tabulation of the bitter Democratic primary contest.

Seeking re-nomination the 74-year-old Martin had 31,152 votes to 21,152 for Henry L. Hess who was supported by Secretary Ickes and Senator George W. Norris. The tabulation was for 337 precincts out of the state's 1,481. O. Henry Olen was third in the gubernatorial race with 4,743. Martin's gains came chiefly from the agricultural communities.

Hess, although lacking an official sanction by President Roosevelt, claimed a New Deal endorsement. He had the support of Senator George W. Norris (Ind.-Neb.) who urged farmers to repudiate Martin, and a letter from Secretary Ickes, who described Governor Martin as "the New Dealer." The governor replied he was loyal to the President without being a "rubber stamp."

Republicans and Democrats voted for candidates for the governorship, three congressional seats, and a regular term and a short term in the United States Senate. But no race equalled the intensity of Hess' challenge to Governor Martin.

Wills E. Mahoney of Klamath Falls and Carl Demag of Portland, both New Deal supporters, contested for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate. Rufus Holmes, State Treasurer and Robert M. Stanfield, former Senator, each sought republican nomination to the Senate.

Three representatives, Walter M. Pierce (D) of La Grande, James Holt (R) of Salem, and Mrs. Ned Wood Honeyman (D) of Portland sought re-nomination. Pierce was opposed by Wade Crawford, former Klamath Indian Reservation superintendent, and Holt by Walter Norblad of Astoria, son of a former Republican governor. William Funderburk and Jacob Wagner, both of Portland, contested Mrs. Honeyman's seat.

Noted Swimmer Is Married To Aviator

FORT LAUDERDALE, May 21. (AP)—Katherine Rawls, swimmer and diving star, was married Tuesday to Theodore E. Thompson an aviator, it was disclosed today. Mrs. W. J. Rawls, the swimmer's mother, told Katherine had her of the marriage by telephone Tuesday night. She said she had no details but believed the ceremony was performed in Valparaiso, Cal.

The bride was engaged last winter to William Starr, advertising man at Daytona Beach but the engagement was later broken.

Former U. Of F. Seminole County Students Form Ranks 13th In Alumni Chapter Use Of Fertilizer

McLucas Is Selected President Of Newly Organized Club

The Seminole County Chapter of the University of Florida Alumni Association was chartered last night at an installation ceremony held in the Valdez Hotel.

Several members of the Orlando Chapter presented the charter on behalf of the Alumni Association to the Seminole County Chapter.

Following a dinner, the club was organized and officers were elected with Willard Ayres, head of the Orlando delegation, acting as chairman. Leonard L. McLucas was elected president of the club; R. E. Kipp, vice president; Charles W. Chalkey, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Ayres explained that it was customary for newly formed clubs to elect a board of directors in addition to regular officers but members of the club decided to defer the election of such a board until a later date.

Woodrow Riser was appointed chairman of a membership committee composed of Mr. Kipp, John Courier, and Mr. McLucas. Mr. Chalkey was appointed chairman of a constitutional-by-law committee.

Mr. Ayres presented the charter to Mr. Kipp in the absence of Mr. McLucas and charged members of the Seminole County Chapter to support and uphold the ideals of the University of Florida.

Candidate For Senate Seat Is Cut In Scrape

R. C. Horne Is Knifed In Altercation With State Welfare Board Business Manager

MADISON, May 21.—(AP)—R. C. Horne of Madison, former member of the Florida House of Representatives and candidate for the Senate, was in a hospital here today in a serious condition from knife wounds received yesterday.

Night Police Chief Taylor Davis said Herbert C. Harper, former business manager of the State Welfare Board, surrendered after an altercation and admitted cutting Horne.

Harper was turned over to Sheriff Lonnie L. Davis and was released on his own recognizance. Hospital attendants said Horne was cut on the left temple, left ear and left arm. His condition was not critical but he was suffering from a loss of blood, physicians said.

The night chief said Harper was bruised on the nose.

Horne is in a runoff in Tuesday's primary with W. Turner Davis for nomination to the senatorial seat formerly held by Harper.

The sheriff said Harper gave no explanation of the altercation immediately and that no charges had been filed and would not be filed unless by Horne or his family.

The State Welfare Board at Jacksonville said Harper had been given a leave of absence three months ago because of eye trouble and was not now actively connected with the board.

Re-Assessments Of Property Are Sought By Board

Declaring there should be a re-assessment of all property in Sanford and Seminole County, members of the Seminole County Real Estate Board yesterday hit at the present "boom-time assessment" on property in both the city and the county and asserted that a new assessment should be made at the earliest possible date.

P. Bayard Smith, president of the Seminole County Board, who presided over the meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, declared that property in Sanford was assessed on valuations made during the boom and added they were out of line with present property values. In the rural districts of the county, he reported, much improved property is assessed as undeveloped property.

The local board at its meeting also appointed a Vigilant Committee the purpose of which it is to see that all persons dealing in real estate or rentals in Seminole county have licenses and credentials. H. C. Dubose was appointed chairman of the committee.

Also at the meeting yesterday, C. H. Ellis was appointed chairman of the county appraisal committee and A. P. Colehour was previously named chairman of a committee on fees and commissions.

$50,000 Sought For Bites Of Chimpanzee

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—(AP)—Dorothy Lamour, who plays primitive girl roles in films, was sought by process servers yesterday as a defendant in a $50,000 damage suit filed by Caroline Feber over bites she claims to have suffered from Jiggs, a movie chimpanzee.

Miss Lamour, originally named as Jane Doe in the suit brought by Miss Feber against Paramount Pictures, Inc. Mickey Conroy, trainer of Jiggs, now dead, and several John Does.

Miss Feber said she was bitten during the filming of a picture at Palm Springs last Nov. 15 and charges the defendants with negligence.

Sheriff Warns Public Against Starting Fires

Points Out Law Which Bans Throwing Cigarettes From Cars

With the menace of forest fires increasing with each new day of continued drought, and with such damage already done by careless campers in Seminole County and adjoining areas, Sheriff C. M. Hand today issued a sharp warning against the careless starting of fires and cited a State law making it unlawful to throw a lighted cigarette out of a car and called attention to a statutory provision which includes a $2000 fine and 30 days in jail for starting a forest fire.

The seriousness of the problem of forest fires due to the extraordinary dry weather conditions that police and fire officials have taken special steps to keep property damage at a minimum.

Fire Chief Mack Cleveland has advised several times against the indiscriminate setting of woods and grass fires, declaring they are a danger to houses and other property unless rigidly supervised.

Already flames have threatened to destroy several homes in the Osteen section and the W. H. Tunniff residence on South Sanford Avenue was saved from destruction only by the concerted efforts of neighbors of the Tunniff's. Much timber land in that section was destroyed by fires.

The arrest this week of Henry Vanhook of Ocala on charges of setting several woods fires in Seminole County was announced by the sheriff's office Thursday and is an indication that every effort is being made to control the hazard.

Jobless Dyer Uses Hammer To Kill Tot's

PATERSON, N. J., May 21.—(AP)—The bodies of two young children whose heads, police said, had been crushed with a heavy instrument were found by fire men in a smoke-filled living room of a third floor flat.

Tenant Thomas Lyons reported that their father, Alfred Schwartzback, 25, unemployed silk dyer helper, said he had killed the children with a machinist's hammer because he was "out of work and discouraged."

At Paterson General Hospital, Dr. Benjamin Sachs said the children, Corinne, 1, and Albert, 2, died from fractured skulls.

Acting Detective Captain James Smith said Schwartzback declared he killed the children because he didn't want to see them starve. After beating them with the hammer he put the bodies in a sofa and set fire to it, officers said, attempting to burn the bodies.

Jack L. Sparling Talks To Members Of Townsend Club

Declaring that there are now 14,000 active clubs in the United States, Jack L. Sparling, president of the Orlando Townsend Club, addressed members of the Sanford Townsend Club at its regular meeting Thursday night. W. R. Dupree, president, said today.

Mr. Dupree asserted that one member of the local club brought 19 new members at the last meeting aiding the Sanford Club in doing its part in reaching the million total, the goal of the membership drive of the national organization.

The club held the Townsend recruiting and victory marches. Mr. Dupree said they were composed by the Rev. Charles DeWare of Lake Mary, a member of the local club.

Higgins, Lamson Leave Sunday To Investigate Loan

Possibility Of R. F. C. Loan On Water Pipe Is 1 Of Objectives

Mayor Edward Higgins and City Clerk Frank L. Lamson will leave tomorrow night for Washington where they will investigate possibilities for a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to replace the antiquated water pipes leading from the wells along the Orlando Highway to the water plant. Mayor Higgins told a Herald reporter this morning.

Mayor Higgins is also a member of the hospital committee and it was intimated that while in the nation's capital he will investigate the feasibility of securing federal funds for the construction of a County-owned hospital.

Regarding the need for the pipeline, Mayor Higgins pointed out that the present wooden pipe has deteriorated to such a state that considerable expense has been incurred to keep the line in repair and also that the line is in such a condition that the gallons of water pumped per minute had to be reduced much below capacity in order to prevent the whole line from being damaged to such an extent as to be irreparable.

Mayor Higgins declared that he and Mr. Lamson would also seek a conference with WPA officials in regard to several other projects for the City. Some of the projects have already been submitted, he said, including the proposed City boat basin.

There is little doubt but that the City will get the loan from the RFC, the Mayor said pointing out that the project would be self-liquidating. "At least," he added, "we hope the project will be approved and we feel reasonably sure that it will be."

The Mayor and Mr. Lamson expect to be gone about a week unless unforeseen difficulties arise.

Senate Group Imposes PWA Fund Limitation

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee approved today a proposal to impose a strict limitation on use of WPA funds for building public utility plants.

Members reported the committee adopted by a narrow margin a sub-committee recommendation that PWA be prohibited from financing construction of utility plants which would compete with existing private systems when the latter are subject to any form of public regulation.

Judge Thomas Carries Campaign To Marion

OCALA, May 21.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Elyon Thomas of Fort Pierce, asked Marion county citizens yesterday to support his candidacy for the State Supreme Court.

He visited at Anthony, Spawcitra, Peoples City, Irvine, Fairfield and Lowell.

"I am well satisfied with the county," Thomas said, "from the expressions of those I contacted I believe that I will get most of the support that went to Senator Futch in the first primary. I was told today that I would get a majority of that vote."

Bumper Crop Of War Fears Stirs Europe

Increasing Friction Between France And Italy Is One Of Chief Disturbing Points

Czechs And Nazis Grow More Bitter

Berlin Denies Military Maneuvers Near Border Are Hostile

The world harvested a bumper crop of war fears on two continents today.

European troubles pivoted on increasing friction between France and Italy, ostensibly generated by rival intervention in the Spanish civil war and on fresh outbreaks arising from Czechoslovakian-Serbian problems.

In central areas of the Central European democracy, built on the ashes of the World War, partition of the Czechoslovak government and followers of Konrad Henlein fought each other with fists and insults.

The killing of two Sudeten Germans by Czechoslovakian border guards, held by London smouldering hotly.

Sudeten Nazis refused to enter a discussion with the Praha government on government overtures for a peaceful compromise of their demands for autonomy. Henlein requested a guarantee of the offer in Sudeten German regions before talking of a settlement.

German-American officials addressed each other in Austria there were reports of German troop movements along the Czechoslovak frontier.

In the Czechoslovak municipal elections starting Sunday there also was a partial parallel to Austria's futile attempt to hold a plebiscite on whether Austria should remain independent.

Germany said her troop movements were only routine maneuvers. Great Britain asked twice about the movements wanting German assurances.

In turn, the Czechoslovak government called up a class of army reserves but denied this constituted a mobilization for defense.

In Spain, foreign artillery found the range of the Salamanca section of Madrid and poured a rain of shells killing at least 12 and injuring 40.

In China, forces of defense and invasion were locked in a bitter struggle at the little Lungtai railway town of Lungfeng, far west of Suichow which fell to the Japanese this week as one of their greatest war prizes.

Farewell, farewell! but this I tell
To thee, thou Wedding-Guest:
He prayeth well who loveth well
Both man and bird and beast.

He prayeth best who loveth best,
All things both great and small;
For the dear God, who loveth us,
He made and loveth all.

The Parole System

Silly sentimentalists who insist that every man who murders someone should be given a chance to murder someone else, even a third or fourth time, are condemned by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the federal Bureau of Investigation, who says that the nation's parole system is responsible to a large extent for the annual crime bill of $120 a year for every man, woman and child in the country.

In an address before the General Federation of Women's Clubs in Kansas City the other day, Mr. Hoover said that "Some are often too jealous of the life of the killer and not thoughtful enough of the life that has been ended.
I have been viciously attacked because of my attitude toward the present-day maladministration of the humanitarian principles of parole."

"If to be a friend of parole means that we must close our eyes to obvious abuses; that we must actively associate with those who, because parole affords them a daily likelihood, feel that they must extend it in cases in which it has no valid excuse for being; or if we must work shoulder to shoulder with silly, sentimental theorists, I cannot be considered a friend of parole," Mr. Hoover said.

Further illustrating the futility of the parole system, Mr. Hoover revealed that out of 520,153 persons whose case histories were studied during the past year, 149,091 had previous criminal histories totaling 356,676 previous convictions. Out of 13,602 desperate, confirmed criminals, 30 percent had been the recipients of clemency not only once, but in many cases, six, seven, eight, nine and 10 times.

It is a difficult matter to catch a criminal in the act. It is even more difficult to convict him. It is still difficult to prevent his case from being reversed in the Supreme Court. But if all these hurdles have been successfully taken by the officers of the law, it goes without saying that it is discouraging when a parole board again and again releases the hardened criminal who occasionally lands in jail.

It is a system which has been abused to the point that it should be abolished.

Thomas For Justice

Only state-wide race on the ballot for Tuesday's primary is between Tom Watson of Tampa and Judge Elwyn Thomas of Fort Pierce for Justice of the Supreme Court.
Judge Thomas is well and favorably known in Seminole County and we feel sure will receive a splendid vote here.

That he is also appreciated throughout the rest of the state is indicated by Kenneth Ballinger who writes a political column for a number of state papers, in a recent one of which he said that Judge Thomas is one of the most able and experienced judges ever to aspire to this high office.

"It is an interesting sidelight of the oncoming election for justice of the Florida Supreme Court," wrote Mr.
Ballinger, "that Elwyn Thomas of Fort Pierce, should he be elected, will take to the highest bench in this state more judicial experience than any of his predecessors, back to the time of the Civil War, had had before beginning that work."

Judge Thomas is the senior Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit. He has been on the bench 12 and one-half years.
The last Supreme Court Justice with anything like his prior experience was A. E. Maxwell, born in 1820, who was on the bench 14 years from 1866.

In pointing out these facts, Mr. Ballinger says that "Two of the present justices had inferior court work before appointment to the supreme bench. Justice James B.
Whitfield had been a county judge for two years before going on the Supreme bench in 1904. Justice Armstead Brown had been a judge in Alabama from 1909 to 1915, but had no Florida record."

In calling attention to Judge Thomas' qualifications Mr.
Ballinger is on unusually firm ground since he is a lawyer of no mean ability himself with more than 15 years of Florida newspaper experience. He adds that Judge Thomas has frequently been called by the Supreme Court to act in the place of one of the justices disqualified or otherwise prevented from taking part in a case.

CANDLELIGHT

By NINA OLIVER DEAN

"A good book is the precious life-blood of a master-spirit, em-balméd and treasured up on purpose to a life beyond life."

W. Somerset Maugham's "The Summing Up" may not attain that "life beyond life" for which authors yearn but certain it is that this new book by the British novelist and playwright is not only distinguished by perfection of form and a crystal-like clarity of style but that its content is deeply stirring and strangely arresting. It is not an autobiography but it is infinitely more revealing, for in it Mr. Maugham has somehow contrived to put the very essence of his conclusions on life and art of a mature man of letters who has also been a man of the world.

In "The Summing Up," one sees the soul of the author, stripped of all trappings, naked and unashamed, just as he has held up for our inspection the characters about whom he wrote.
I cannot think of another book quite like it. There is Cardinal Newman's "Apologia Pro Sua Vita," but that was written as a direct answer to Charles Kings-ley's attack on Newman's sinner-ship. Of course, Maugham has been attacked too through the years by the critics, and "The Summing Up" might be regarded at his reply to their charges. But it does not seem so to me. I feel that this man made a pattern of life for himself, "with a beginning, a middle and an end," like one of his own stories, would have written this book for himself, just to get it off his chest.

There is "Rousseau's "Confessions", but this "man of feeling" dwelt so much upon trivial incidents such as his waistcoat being wet with tears when he never knew that he had shed them that the reader often loses sight of the man behind the bewildering variety of inconsequential evidence. This is never true in Maugham's book. He is there all the time, breathing and alive just beneath the printed page, and the reader is almost painfully conscious of him.

"Beyond Life", that beautiful
book of James Branch Cabell, written when he still lived in the serene obscurity that preceded the "Jurgen" fanfare, has something of the flavour of "The Summing Up". It is an interesting analogy because Somerset Maugham is always regarded as such a fastidious realist and Mr. Cabell at an avowed romanticist who felt that in literature "truthfulness" but in final analysis, these two do not appear to be so unlike. They both made their own "patterns of life", stated clearly their theories of writing, and even their realism and romance have a kinship as they often reach the same end by different roadways.

Both these books, the one just off the press, and the other out of print I believe, contain brilliant and stimulating comments on literature and thoughtful analyses of prose style. It is fascinating to read how Somerset Maugham set himself to study the great masters—Dryden, Matthew Arno'd, Swift, and Addison, how he always reread Voltaire's "Candide" before he sat down to write a novel, and what infinite pains he took with his writing.
The following quotation is an example of how well he pursued his own ruling: "A good style should show no sign of effort.
What is written should seem a happy accident. Flashy effects distract the mind. They destroy their persuasiveness. You would not believe a man was very interested on ploughing a furrow, if he carried a hoop, and jumped through it at every other step."

Mr. Maugham said that in writing, he aimed at lucidity, simplicity, and euphony, and everyone who reads "The Summing Up" will agree that he achieved his goal. He believes in the importance of plot, and he has demonstrated that he can tell a whole of a good story. He likes to picture people as he believes they are, not all bad and not all good, but he says that mankind prefers to take people as though they were homogeneous, "one of the dearest or a dirty dog." It is disconcerting to find that the savor of his country may be stingy or that the poet who has opened new horizons to our consciousness may be a snob.

Of the three values of truth,
beauty, and goodness, Maugham says: "Man has always sacrificed truth to his vanity, comfort, and advantage." It seemed to me that beauty was like the summit of a mountain peak;
when you had reached it there was nothing to do but come down again. Perfection is a trifling thing. It is the least of man's troubles. The whole of life is a struggle to get on all fours at the bottom of the world, and the struggle is the only thing that counts in this world. The only thing that counts is to get on all fours at the bottom of the world.

COFFEE-BARREL BANK

Honesty was the only safeguard necessary to the successful management of Dexter Horton's bank in Seattle back in 1863.
Strange as it seems, depositors placed their money in "safekeeping" in a coffee barrel in Horton's store—and there it safely remained until wanted by the owner!
Depositors merely placed their money in a sack, which they tossed into the open barrel. Horton was notified of the amount of the deposit and, as a matter of form, he noted it in a ledger.
Whenever a depositor felt he needed money, all he had to do was go to the barrel and take out as much as he wanted, leaving a receipt for the amount taken.

This manner of business, built on the principle of honesty, continued for seven years until it became necessary to enlarge the institution to a full-fledged bank in 1870, the first in the Pacific Northwest.

The Phillips, Horton & Co.
bank, capitalized at $50,000, for ten years was Seattle's only bank.
Today this same bank exists, the growth of a strange coffee-barrel co-operative system.

PERFECT BOWLING...
Boasting 8,000,000 followers, bowling today is America's most popular indoor sport. Biggest bowling event of the year is the American Bowling Congress tournament, which this year drew a record-breaking entry list of 24,765 individuals in Chicago.

First A. B. C. tournament was also staged in Chicago, 37 years ago but, strange as it seems, out of the 1,750,000 games since rolled in tournament, only four have been perfect "300" games!

THICK AND THIN GLASSES...
Glass is notably a bad conductor of heat. When hot water is poured into a cold thick glass, the inner surface begins to expand before the outer surface.
This unusual strain is often enough to crack the glass.

A thin glass, on the other hand, is heated throughout more quickly and consequently expands more equally, preventing cracking.

Monday: Where are "east" and "west"?

I have none of that engaging come-hitherness that makes people take to one another on first acquaintance. Though in the course of years I have learnt to assume an air of heartiness when forced into contact with a stranger, I have never liked anyone at first sight. I do not think I have ever addressed someone I did not know in a railway carriage or spoken to a fellow passenger on board ship unless he first spoke to me. The weakness of my flesh has prevented me from enjoying that communion with the human race that is engendered by accidents long before I could reach the state of intoxication that enables so many, more happily constituted, to look upon all men as their brothers, my stomach turned upon me and I have been as sick as a dog. These are grave disadvantages both to the writer and the man. I have had to make the best of them. I have followed the pattern I made with persistence. I do not claim that it was a perfect one. I think it was the best I could hope for in the circumstances and with the very limited powers that were granted me by nature.

From time to time I have asked myself whether I should have been a better writer if I had devoted my whole life to literature. Somewhat early, but at what age I cannot remember, I made up my mind that, having had one life, I should like to get the most out of it. It did not seem to me enough merely to write.
I wanted to make a pattern of my life. In which writing would be an essential element, but which would include all the other activities proper to men, and which death would in the end round off in complete fulfillment. I had many disabilities. I was small; I had no money; I had little physical strength; I stammered; I was shy;
I had poor health. I had no facility for action which play so great a part in the normal life of Englishmen; and I had, what was for any of these reasons or for any other, I do not know, from my childhood, a certain dislike of my country. But I had one thing that I thought would be my salvation.

Here's something in the Army Air Corps' "blackout" maneuvers at Farmingdale, N. Y., which the fliers hadn't counted upon. Anti-aircraft exercises were "defending" Long Island in the first "blackout" air raid practice in the United States. Note how the "flare rings" caused by internal reflection in the camera lens, intersect.

Lookouts Cop 7 to 5 Decision Over DeLand Reds

Evans' Single In Ninth Paves Way For Lookout Win

Win Brown Gets Three Hits In Five Trips To Capture Honors

By JULIAN STENSTROM
A sharp single to centerfield last night by Dick Evans, new Sanford shortstop, produced the run that gave the Lookouts a 7 to 5 decision over the DeLand Reds at the Municipal Athletic Field last night.

The score was knotted at 6 all, two men were out and runners were on first and second base. Evans was at bat and the count was two balls and two strikes. The next pitch saw the new player hit a neat single to center to score Hudson for the necessary margin.

Big "Chef" Cook started on the mound for the Lookouts and hurled a good baseball although he was at times. He was forced out of the game in the final inning as the Reds got to him in the ninth and scored a pair of runs before Manager Rodgers yanked him in favor of Charlie Atwater, who was credited with his sixth win against three losses.

Cook was nicked for 10 hits by the Reds while Atwater put the Reds down hitless in the two-thirds innings he hurled. Cook walked a total of seven batsmen

Medler And Clark Handed Releases By Baseball Club

Let Go To Make Room For Mayo Langston And Player Evans

Officials of the Sanford Baseball Association announced last night they had handed releases to Ray Clark, who has been playing center field for the Lookouts, and Herman Palmer Medler, Lookout pitcher, who was severed from the Azaleas several weeks ago.

Clark came to Sanford with Manager Guy Lacy but was benched when outfielder Punch McDaniel arrived to take over left field. However, when McDaniel was released, Clark was put in center field and Pete Mihalle was moved into left field.

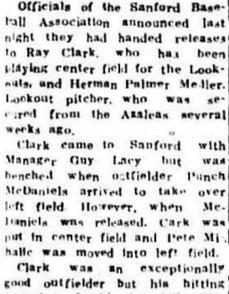

Clark was an exceptionally good outfielder but his hitting proved to be his downfall. The club was unable to carry four outfielders since Mayo Langston arrived.

Medler was secured from the Palatka Azaleas earlier in the season and won one game while losing three for the Lookouts. Medler plans to retire for the season. He suffered a slight shoulder ailment when he was with the Azaleas after he hurled one evening in a slow rain.

The two new players that have been signed are Langston and Dick Evans, a shortstop.

Lookouts To Play Gainesville Here Tonight At Park

Pelham Or Pinder To Get Mound Assignment From Rodgers

The Lookouts are scheduled to play the Gainesville team at the Municipal Athletic Field here tonight under the lights at the Municipal Park.

Manager Rodgers and Manager M. Stone have not announced their starting lineups, as each has worked in pitching staff to the last game of the season.

The lineup for the visiting Gainesville aggregation will include Whitey McMillan on first base, Skeets Galla on third base, Doc Livingston behind the plate, Buster Rex in centerfield, Lou Rogien on shortstop and Buck Rodgers on second base.

For the Lookouts, it is believed Rogier will lead off and head down the third base position. Mayo Lang will play first base, Eddie Heald will play the catching position, Sid Hudson will be on the left base, Whitey Watts will play on the right base and the pitcher will be Charlie Atwater.

The game will get underway promptly at 7 o'clock.

Ball Fans To Hold Important Meeting

Former U. Of F. Students Form Alumni Chapter

A. E. Crower, secretary of the Sanford Baseball Association, announced last night that a mass meeting of the baseball fans would be held Monday night at 8:30 o'clock in the Boardman County Chamber of Commerce, Building No. 1, to discuss the future of baseball in Sanford in getting the sanction of the scheduled contest.

Mr. Crower said that the meeting would be held in the Chamber of Commerce Building, No. 1, at 8:30 o'clock Monday night.

The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce Building, No. 1, at 8:30 o'clock Monday night.

Infliender Dick Evans Signed By Local Association

Local Association Signs Evans

Officials of the Sanford Baseball Association announced last night that they had signed Dick Evans, a shortstop who was sent down on option from the Spartanburg club of the South Atlantic League.

Evans played his initial game with the Lookouts last night and ran through with two hits in four attempts at the plate. His single in the ninth with two men out to score Hudson made him a big hit with the local fans.

He made an error last night but promptly made up for it when he pulled one of the best double plays seen at the local park this season. He is six feet and one-half inches tall and weighs 175 pounds. He bats and throws righthanded and is very fast.

Sanford Theater News for the Coming Week

Thar's Romance In Them Thar Hills!

Sweetheart Tony Martin and Marjorie Weaver romance to the tunes of Pollock and Mitchell's latest song hits and lend attractive contrast to the mad antics of the Ritz Brothers in their new 20th Century-Fox comedy, "Kentucky Moonshine."

Mystery-Tinged Romantic Comedy Is Barrage Of Rib-Tickling Fun

A big-gun barrage of rib-tickling buffoonery will be unleashed Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre by Columbia's "There's Always a Woman," a slightly mystery-tinged romantic comedy in the mad and merry manner of "The Awful Truth."

This general comedy starts on a novel note, introducing Joan Blondell as the new operator of a defunct private detective agency of her sleuth-husband, Melvyn Douglas, now happily reinstated on the District Attorney's staff.

PROGRAMME FOR WEEK OF MAY 22 AT THE RITZ

First show at 1:00 o'clock every day
Sunday, Monday—Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Spencer Tracy in "TEST FLIGHT."
Tuesday, Wednesday—Jane Withers in "RASCALS." Added Joan Blondell, Melvyn Douglas in "There's Always a Woman."
Thursday, Friday—The Ritz Brothers, Tony Martin, Marjorie Weaver in "Kentucky Moonshine." Also Madge Evans, John Boles in "SINNERS IN PARADISE."
Saturday—William Boyd (Hopalong Cassidy) Clarence E. Mulford's "HEART OF ARIZONA." Also Jackie Cooper in "BOY OF THE STREETS."

Friday, May 27—Special Booking "THE ASSASSIN OF YOUTH." Adults only. No children's tickets sold.
Saturday, May 29—"PAROLE TO DIE" and "MID-NIGHT INTRUDER."

THE RASCAL AT HER WORST AND BEST

Rolling along, singing a song, little Jane Withers has gone crazy in a big way in her new 20th Century-Fox comedy, "Rascals." Rochelle Hudson and Robert Wilcox romance around the campfires, and Borrah Minevitch and His Gang raise high-links on the highway in the film.

"Sinners In Paradise Is" Film Of Primitive Emotions

James White, the soft spoken, blonde Englishman who has given the screen such masterpieces as "Show Boat," "The Invisible Man" and "Fragrantina" has added another triumph to that shining roster with "Sinners In Paradise," a Universal picture which shows next Thursday and Friday at the Ritz Theatre.

Movie Cop Played Gangster On Stage

The first underworld act ever to appear on any stage was "The Stick-up Man" with Robert Emmet O'Connor, now the motion picture world's most famous policeman, in the title role. This act even preceded that drama of former days, "Within the Law."

NEW STAR

Marion Martin, blonde beauty from Broadway in her screen debut in Universal's "Sinners in Paradise."

THREE-DAY HONEYMOON FOR GABLE

When Clark Gable returns from Kansas with a bride, he asks his boss, Lionel Barrymore, for time off for a honeymoon. The boss offers to give him three days, and the result is that Gable loses his job. It doesn't affect his natural conceit, however, for he is sure that he can get another job. Tracy his loyal mechanic points out that this won't be as simple a thing as Gable may think.

Show Glorifies Men Who Gamble Lives Against Designer's Dreams

Modern motion picture magic has brought a new kind of aviation film to the screen, one that glorifies the man who lays a floor in the sky so that future generations can go to bed in safety.

A wise man once said there are two ways to save money: "Increase your income, or cut down your outgo."

Much as we'd like to, few of us can regulate the amount of money we take in each week. But all of us have control over what we spend. And many a family bank account has been made possible by careful spending.

That's why it will pay you to read the advertisements in this newspaper. Day after day they show you where to get the things you need . . . where to get the fullest dollar's worth for every dollar you spend.

A careful reading of the advertisements . . . today, and tomorrow, and every day after . . . will help you to do something that we'd all like to do:

Buy what you want—and have money left over!

Six Killed As Tornadoes Hit Three States

19 Injured And Considerable Property Damage Is Left In Wake Of Twisters

Minor Tornado Hits Longwood

Mercury Soars To 98 Degrees Prior To Yesterday's Shower

Tornadoes twisted through West Central Texas, Southern Oklahoma and Central Arkansas yesterday and last night leaving six dead, 19 injured.

Four of the dead were at Ivan, Tex. where every building in the town was damaged and some 10 persons injured.

Property was damaged at Leon and Olney, Tex. and Ada and Duncan, in southern Oklahoma were also hit. Four persons were hurt at Ada. Two were killed, five were injured and much property damaged at Atkins, Ark.

Temperatures in the United States ranged today from freezing 32 degrees at Devils Lake in northeast North Dakota to a sunny 82 degrees at Miami.

What appeared to be the first one hundred degree weather of the year was reported yesterday at Savannah, Jacksonville recorded 99 degrees, a new May high. There was little weekend rain.

Some crops are in need of moisture.

Yesterday Seminole county experienced a minor tornado preceding showers which came as a relief in a temperature of 28 degrees.

The little tornado first struck near Winter Park; it raised and struck again in Longwood shortly afterward, damaging electric services in these localities, and breaking limbs from trees, strewn the streets with debris in many instances uprooting trees.

No property damage was reported outside of the damage done to the power lines of the Florida Public Service Company.

With the exception of the Lyman School, Longwood had no electric power until 11:00 last night.

Residents reported nearly one inch of rainfall and also three showers of hailstones which did no damage.

Sanford escaped the winds and also most of the rain. Local meteorologist G. F. Paxton reported today that only .14 inches of rain fell in Sanford yesterday. He also reported that just prior to the rain the mercury soared to a high of 98 degrees, one degree higher than the highest temperature recorded for last summer.

Saturday, he reported, the temperature reached a maximum of 97 degrees.

The rain, however, offered a brief respite to withering crops, and citrus groves and also helped forest fires which have ravaged this and surrounding counties for the past few weeks.

Celery Agreement Depends On Referendum Among Growers

Tension In Europe Eases As Heinlein Meets With Czech Premier To Settle Dispute

DUEL FAILS TO SETTLE THEIR QUARREL

Epees clashed in a Paris, France, garden as dramatists Edouard Bourdet (right) and Henry Bernstein followed up public letters about each other by meeting on the field of honor, but the duels were angrier than ever when the fight was ended. This photograph shows the combatants after Bourdet was stabbed in the right arm and the fight was stopped by the director of the combat (back to camera). The four-minute duel over, Bernstein stalked away while Bourdet declared, "This is only a theatrical duel." (Unreconciled, they did not shake hands.)

High Court Rules Tax Is Legal On College Contests

Tribunal Also Holds State Employees Must Pay On Income

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that the federal government could impose an admission tax on tickets to athletic contests at state universities. This and another decision holding that the federal government could collect income tax on salaries of employees of the New York Port Authority served to increase the scope of the federal taxation field. Both decisions were six to two.

The issue as to whether the government could tax college athletic games has been a long time getting into court. Back in 1934 the government tried to collect taxes on tickets to university and college athletic contests—mainly football games—but the schools protested that athletic contests were an integral part of the functions of a college and, consequently, could not be taxed.

The first case of the government's action to collect taxes on college athletic contests came in 1934 when the U. S. collector of internal revenue tried to collect a 10 percent gate tax on University of Georgia and Georgia Tech games.

Hardly had the case been brought before the Supreme Court than 11 other states joined in the fight. Knocking a 1 percent cut of the annual football income would hit school athletic budgets a hard blow, especially in those colleges which expect at least one annual game with an attendance of 80,000 to 100,000 and gate receipts of $20,000 or so.

The colleges stated that football is an important function of education and thus an essential function of government, but Circuit Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson of Houston, Tex., dissented so hotly that the government adopted most of his argument on an appeal to the Supreme Court.

The government contended it was the spectators and not the colleges who paid the taxes and therefore the colleges had no right to withhold the money from the treasury.

House Votes To Debate Wages, Hours Measure

Members Favor Recall Despite Blockade Of Rules Committee

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(AP)—The House today voted 419-117 to debate the measure immediately.

This action provoked a rebellion signed May 6 by 218 members to force the legislation to the floor in spite of the Rules Committee's steadfast refusal to give it a preferential status. The debate is limited to four hours but leaders said efforts of the southern bloc to make the measure more flexible might delay the final vote until late tomorrow.

It was the second time the wage-hour legislation had come before the House in the last six months. It rejected a somewhat different version last December during a special session.

Democratic leaders told President Roosevelt today that because of the final deficiency appropriation bill Congress will be unable to adjourn before sometime between June 11 and 20. Previously they talked of adjournment June 4.

Reports Are Received That German Troops Are Being Returned From Czech Border

Hopes Brighten For Real Peace

Leading Powers Work To Expedite Peaceful Negotiations

Konrad Heinlein, leader of Czechoslovakia's autonomy-seeking Germanic minority and Premier Milan Hodza met tonight in a preliminary effort to settle their dispute which had brought Europe dangerously near the brink of war.

Heinlein returned to the capital by airplane late today and it was understood he had come from Vienna where presumably he had seen German Nazi leaders.

He arrived soon after reports were received that German troops were withdrawn from Czechoslovakia's border.

Hopes for settling a serious Central European conflict were considered a preliminary to real peace negotiations between the Praha government and 3,500,000 S. G. Germans for whom Heinlein considers himself the spokesman.

In London, the conference first was announced by Prime Minister Chamberlain who said in the House of Commons that Britain, France, Germany and Czechoslovakia, as well as Heinlein, all had agreed to expedite peaceful negotiations calculated to end the dangerous friction.

Europe, with the long standing exception of Spain still wore a mantle of peace but it was a flimsy garment rubbed threadbare by the strain of one of the longest week-ends since the World War.

Still unsettled was the future of Czechoslovakia's 3,500,000 Germanic minority, over whom Adolf Hitler had declared a hazy sort of protectorate which many had feared he would put into armed effect as a result of the pre-election disorders in Czechoslovakia.

Time and scant reassurance that Hitler had not acted yet worked in favor of British and French efforts to forestall a clash into which France and probably Britain would be drawn.

The first of a series of Czechoslovakian moves kept a semi-mobilized army along the frontier with Germany in answer to the ominous troop movements in Germany and heated outbursts in Hitler's press.
