Farmer Plows Unbeaten Path To State Title

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

TAMPA — Lake Brantley's Richard Farmer became only the second Seminole County wrestler to capture a state championship when he edged Miami Sunset's John Cabauy, 7-6, here Saturday for the 136-pound title.

Farmer, a senior who was making his third appearance at the state tournament, joins former Lyman great Mark Schuster as the only county champion. Schuster won the 136-pound title in 1977.

The first place finish by Farmer, along with a fourth place showing by senior Jeff Horn and a fifth place by Bob Kalich, earned the Patriots ninth place in the standings. Brandon won the tournament with 60½ points.

Farmer mowed down his first three opponents on his way to the championship. In Friday's opening round, he pinned Jacksonville Wolfson's Morrie Zimmerman at 5:01 with a chicken wing and a half-Nelson.

In Friday night's quarterfinal round, Farmer used an ankle pick to jump ahead of Miami Lakes' Eddie Mendez en route to a 5-1 victory.

"He was a short, stocky guy and I couldn't turn him over," said Farmer. "I had to build up points to win."

In the semifinals, Farmer had his easiest match, mauling Lakeland Kathleen's Bruce Young, 12-2.

That set the stage for Saturday's title match with Miami Sunset's Cabauy, who was a fourth place state finisher last year.

Farmer got a takedown for a 2-0 lead, but Cabauy came back to tie the match 2-2 after one period. In the second two minutes, both wrestlers latched on three points for a 5-5 deadlock entering the final session.

With just 45 seconds remaining, Farmer gained a reversal for a 7-5 lead, but Cabauy came back with an escape seconds later to pull within one point.

"I shot at him with 30 seconds to go and we both went off the mat," recalls Farmer about the frantic 30 seconds. "Then he shot at me in the last 15 seconds and I fought him off to win."

Farmer attributed his previous years (freshman and junior) at the tournament as being one of the major factors in his championship.

"The experience helped me a lot mentally," he said. "I didn't get psyched out. The other guys felt the pressure."

Brantley's fourth place finisher Horn lost a tough decision in the semifinals to Largo's Matt South, 8-6. "Jeff could have won that one," said coach Kevin Carpenter. "But he just ran out of gas."

Horn and South were tied at 5-5 with 20 seconds left when South added an escape and back points for an 8-6 victory.

In the wrestlebacks, Horn disposed of Jacksonville Ed White's Lewis Rich, 12-7, and Lakeland Kathleen's Jim Barnes, 10-7. He lost to Brandon's Pat Melton, 9-6, in the consolation title match.

"The hip toss did both Horn and Jack Likens in," pointed out Carpenter. "Horn lost in the last five seconds on a hip toss and Likens lost in the last three seconds."

Likens, a tough sophomore at 102 pounds, was beaten 4-2 by Tampa Bay Tech's Jerome Hayes. Hayes lost in the next round and Likens didn't get a chance in the wrestlebacks.

Brantley's Bob Kalich continued to be the "surprise of the year" according to Carpenter. The 171-pounder placed fifth. He pinned his first round opponent, Kurt Wulff of Miami Columbus, in 3:59. He then lost to eventual state champ Venson Lewis of Panama City Mosley by a pin at 3:47.

Kalich came through the wrestlebacks and whipped Louis Nole of Dunedin, 8-3, but lost a heartbreaker to Brandon's Alex Ippolito, 3-1.

Lake Howell's Paul Knoblauch, a 149-pounder, was pinned by Palmetto's Shane Richmond at 4:33. Lyman's freshman Pat Bell was pinned in the first round and lost his first match of the wrestlebacks to Carl Levy of Southbridge, 11-3.

Deep Creek Humbles Greyhounds

By BRENT SMARTT
Herald Sports Writer

Beauty is in the eyes of the beholder, and although Saturday night's district 4A-9 title game was not a masterpiece for future clinics, Spruce Creek's first year boss Edgar Scott found the 64-46 blow-out against over-matched Lyman and his victory cigar, as pretty as a picture.

Spruce Creek now moves into regional tournament action Tuesday against Martin County.

This game was never a contest, as the physically drained Greyhounds never got a handle on the ball or the game.

The Creek pressed and scored at will in the first period with Jimmy Payton and John Husey picking up six apiece, while Lyman came out of the gate with turnovers and cold shooting, which would continue throughout the evening.

Anjoine "Pop" Lemon kept it respectable with six tallies to give the Creek a 20-12 edge heading into the second.

The 'Hounds moved to a zone in the second period, but to no avail as Payton and company either penetrated for easy buckets or shot over it. The 'Hounds,' whose rough battles with Mainland and host Apopka the previous two evenings, continued to do no right as bumbling turnovers were followed by needless fouls to set the farce into motion at 38-22 at the half.

The regular season champion Hawks continued their total domination in the third stanza, shutting off Lyman's big three of William Scott (12), Pop Lemon (10), and Eric French (five).

Prop Basketball

Spruce Creek began milking the clock midway through the period, capitalizing on easy shots and putting it way out of reach, 30-32, with eight minutes remaining.

Just like old news the fourth would see no change as the Hawks' team play and balanced scoring continued, only to give way to the subs with four minutes left. Lyman boss Tom Lawrence followed with his bench and the blowout was history.

Leading the disciplined and balance Hawks in the scoring department were Payton with 16, center Mark Brown with 12 rebounds, and Johnnie Cooks with 10.

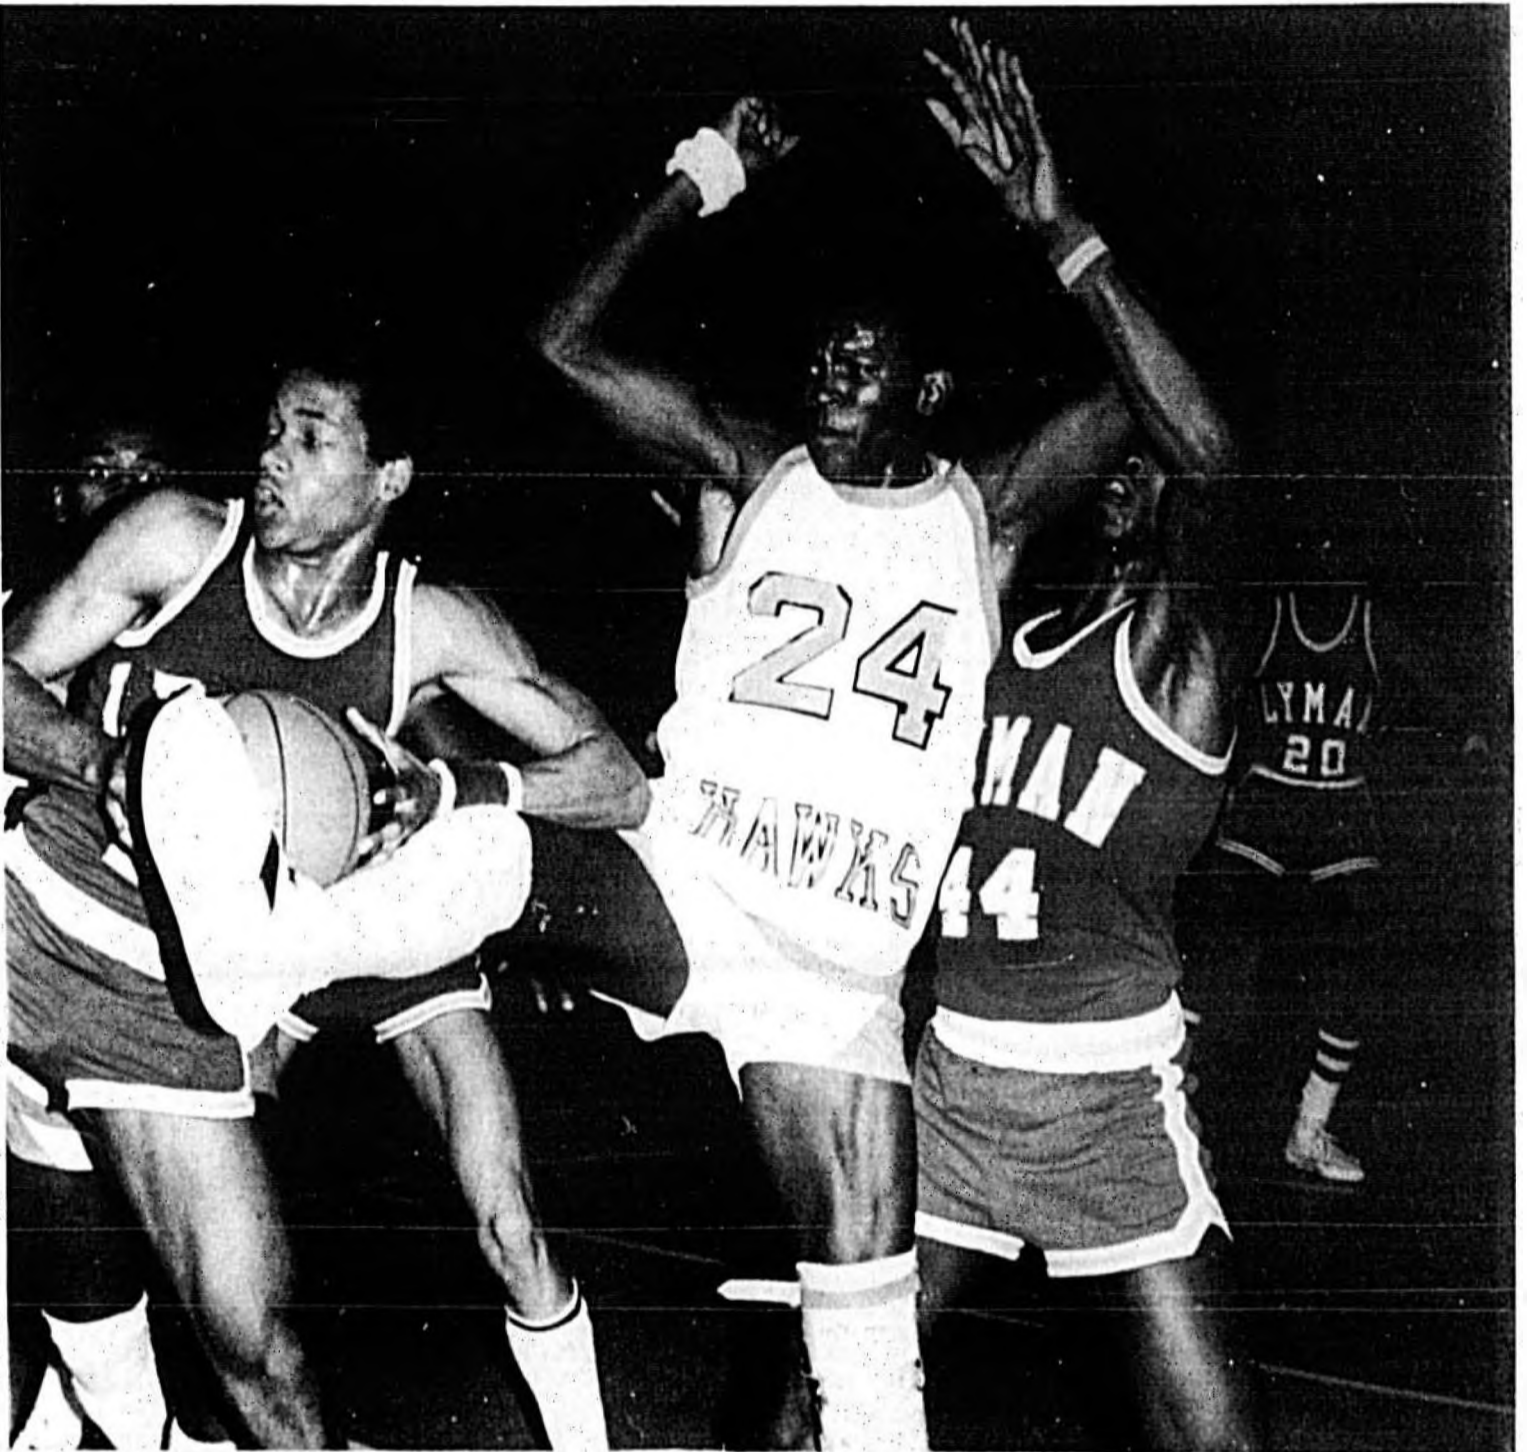

"Lyman is a good ball club, the score doesn't indicate that, but they were tired," said an elated Scott between puffs of his victory cigar. "I have five guys I could send out every night who could score 20 points, but they play well together, that's the key."

A dejected Lawrence felt for his squad, "I'm just sorry for 'Pop,' William, Eric and the rest of the seniors who had to end it like this," he said. "We never got into our offense and weren't patient."

"Spruce Creek is tough, all five guys shoot and play well together."

In the junior varsity title game, Mainland escaped with a 59-51 victory over Spruce Creek behind Mark Thomas' 20 points.

Apopka Stuns Sanford, 59-39

After whipping Cocoa Beach 41-27 in the semifinals of the Florida Junior Boys Basketball League District 4 Tournament, Sanford was stunned 59-39 by host Apopka in the title game.

Apopka advances to the state tournament next week in Orlando. There is also a chance that Sanford will be invited to the tournament to fill out the eight-team field.

In first round action, Apopka blasted Orlando Englewood 60-20, Merritt Island edged Altamonte Springs Westmonte 34-27 and Cocoa Beach topped Kissimmee 55-37.

Sanford advanced to the semifinals without playing a first round game after its opponent, Altamonte Springs Eastside, dropped out of the tournament at the last minute.

Apopka won its semifinals game 71-26 over Merritt Island.

Westmonte got 12 points from Travis Jamerson and 11 from Barri Shirley in its loss to Merritt Island. Westmonte then beat Englewood 34-30 in a consolation game behind a 25-point effort by Jamerson.

In the finals of the consolation bracket, Kissimmee beat Westmonte 39-35 despite 21 points from Jamerson.

Although he was held scoreless in the second period, Reginald Bellamy scored 25 points to pace Sanford to its win over Cocoa Beach.

Sanford was in front 10-8 after one period, but Cocoa Beach battled back to tie the score at the half. Sanford outscored Cocoa Beach 13-6 in the third period and never looked back.

Perez Perry, who picked up the second period slack by scoring six points, finished the game with 10.

Apopka jumped in front 14-8 after one period of the championship game and stretched its lead to 26-18 at the half.

Sanford fell behind by as much as 13 points in the third period, but battled back to cut the margin to just four points early in the fourth period. But Apopka turned it into a rout during the final minutes, winning by 20 points.

Bellamy, shut out in the first half, finished with nine points before fouling out with 1:38 left in the game. Perry added eight points and Travis Brown scored six.

MIAMI (UPI) — After running into trouble on the 13th, 14th and 15th holes, you had to be sure Andy Bean would find a way to kick away victory in the Doral Open golf tournament.

Bean had surged into the lead with a four-birdie, no bogey 32 on the front nine and increased it to three shots by sinking a 15-foot putt for a birdie 4 on the 10th hole.

But then on the 13th hole the trouble began. He popped his 3-wood off the tee straight up in the air, but managed to save par by holing another 15-footer.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Spine Condition Somewhat Rare

DEAR DR. LAMB - My doctor is an internal medicine specialist and he said I have rheumatoid arthritis. He just gave me pills for it and that was it. It is mainly settled in my back, hips and neck. My muscles do tie in a knot so I can't lift anything and I get sharp burning pains in my spine.

I had him prescribe some pain pills for me as my back hurts all the time. I can't lie on my stomach or flat on my back. Is all this caused by rheumatoid arthritis? If so is there any specialist in my area? Our phone book doesn't list any. I am a female and just turned 25.

DEAR READER - It is important that you have an accurate diagnosis. Rheumatoid arthritis usually does not involve the spine, except the neck. You are too young to have osteoarthritis of the spine so the story suggests a more uncommon condition.

You may have ankylosing spondylitis which does involve other parts of the spine and hips. You are in the right age group for it. In the past it was believed this disease was almost exclusively in young males. It is now known that it is almost as common in young women. If your X-rays show involvement of the sacroiliac joints you probably do have ankylosing spondylitis even if you are a woman. Your doctor can do or have certain blood tests done that help in establishing this.

Talk to your doctor about it and perhaps he will be willing to refer you to a specialist in rheumatology to clarify your diagnosis and recommend future management.

Either rheumatoid arthritis or ankylosing spondylitis usually require more than therapy to control pain. The medical treatment is also usually different. More patients get benefits from Indocin if they have ankylosing spondylitis. With either problem you should have an exercise and stretching program. If you have ankylosing spondylitis and don't have such an active program you may develop a poker stiff spine that won't bend. Maintaining chest expansion is also important.

I am sending you The Health Letter number 4-11, Rheumatoid Arthritis, which discusses management. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB - My husband, who is 74 and an angina pectoris patient, drinks a glass of prune juice every morning.

Can this be detrimental to his health? Our two physicians disagree. One holds it is a no, the other thinks it's all right as long as it doesn't cause diarrhea. We would appreciate your opinion.

DEAR READER - Prune juice does contain a chemical (oxypheisatin, an anthraquinone) which was once used as a chemical laxative. It is not used any more because patients using it developed chronic liver disease. Whether the amount in a small amount of prune juice is enough to be harmful has not been well studied.

The other point is that anyone with heart disease such as angina pectoris should not need to strain for a bowel movement. The respiratory effort and straining can trigger serious, even fatal, heart irregularities. Of course this can be prevented with other means of bowel management. But many people use prune juice all their lives with no ill effects.
