Facing Teacher

School teacher, Mrs. Rose Anderson, was filed Wednesday in Circuit Court. The attractive blonde physical education instructor was charged with pessession of a narcotic drug and with possession of a hallucinogenic.

Mrs. Anderson was bound over from County Court to Circuit Court. Her arraignment (at which time her plea guilty or not guilty to the charge will be placed) is set for 9 a.m. Sept. 30 in Seminole County Circuit Court.

Meanwhile, she is free on $5,000 bail.

The information, filed by State Attorney Abbott Herring, charges that Mrs. Anderson did, in the vicini ty of 224 Carriage Hill Drive, Casselberry, knowingly and unlawfully have in her possession and control cannibus (hashish), contrary to Florida law. Count two of the information states that she also had in her possession the hallucenogenic mescaline. Mrs. Anderson was arrested by the Casselberry police on Sept. 16. A cache of 500 mescaline tablets and a quantity of marijuana and hashish, valued at over $2,000, was reportedly found in her possession.

The Orange County teacher has since resigned her

Paper Savings

Washington is not only the country's fore most manufacturer and consumer of red tapt With its myriad of government agencies, the city also ranks first as a producer of waste

In fact, one firm buys over 1,800 tons of canceled government checks from the General Services Administration every year and recently received another contract for 800 tons of scrap paper a year from the Government Printing Office.

More than I'l million tone of waste paper are being reclaimed for industrial use in the country each venr. That's 11 million tone that is not burned to add to the air pollution, nor buried, nor left to blow around in the street. The figure sounds impressive but it is only 20 per cent of the total raw material supplied to paper and paperboard mills. That percentage is expected to increase sharply in the years anead, however, to meet the soaring demand for paper and paper products.

Another fact to warm a conservationist's heart: For each ton of waste paper reused, 17 trees do not have to be cut down. This means that 190 million trees - nearly one for every American -- are being saved annually through paper reclamation. - Macon (Ga.) Telegraph

Kid Brother Cop

When it was announced 21 years ago that "Pretty Boy" Floyd's kid brother, E. W. Floyd had been elected sheriff of Sequovah County most Oklahomans reacted with shocked disbe lief. Last week when Floyd died it was apparent that the home-county folks knew him better than the critics. Sheriff Floyd occupied the office ever since his first election for one term as Sallisaw police chief. In all those years he performed creditably and the family name regained its honor. When he died he was unopposed for the Democratic nomination to succeed himself once more.

It's a good reminder to us all not to judge brothers and sisters by one bad apple. - Tuisa

We're sure there're many people in Sanford who don't know Ellis Clary and probably never heard of him. Ellis, better known to Sanford and Florida State League baseball fans as "Breeches," came to Sanford after a highly successful high school baseball and football career at Valdosta High in Georgia. It's safe to say that Ellis Clary was the league's most loved and, at the same time, hated ball player in its long history. He was loved by the Sanford fans, hated by the opposi-

Dace Davis, told Clary that the pext time he went into second base to be careful for he would cut him to ribbons. An ioning later Davis went into second and put a body block on Clary that left Breeches flat on his back in short left field, gasping for breath.

When Clary got to where he could breathe again he vowed he'd kill Davis, somehow, somewhere. Sam Holbrook, Sanford's huge catcher from Meridian, Miss., told Clary it wouldn't be necessary, that he'd already swore he'd kill Davis himself. Two plays later Davis lit out for the plate on a short single and left fielder Swede Martin fired the ball to Holdbrook at the plate. Sam not only tagged Davis with a vicious swipe of Has Winning Spirit his fist with the ball in it, Sam straddled the dazzed Davis at home plate, took off his mask and nearly beat Davis to death before, managers, players and the police could pull Holdbrook off the Leesburg catcher.

State Opens Bids For Four Road Jobs

Macasphalt Corporation, of Lakeland, was low bidder for contracts to improve four Seminole County roadways at an estimated cost of $640, 000 when the State Department of Transportation opened bids at Tallahassee, it was reported this morning by Associated Press. Af "bunched" has a local plant on SR 419 near Five Points.

C. A. (Bill) Benedict, DOT district engineer at DeLand told The Herald this morning that the state department probably will let the contracts within six weeks, with actual construction to commence shortly thereafter.

AP followed DOT's technical language style in ts report, but it was "translated" for The Heraid by William Bush, Seminole County engineer. The roadways, type of project, distance and DOT's esti-
