Palm Sunday! After services, I lingered for a moment in the sanctuary. The sun patterned the floor with gold and stippled the palms by the altar. A quiet stillness held me and for an instant it seemed I saw a crowd waving branches and heard them shouting "Hosanna to the Son of David; Hosanna in the highest." And Jesus came, riding through the tumult of rejoicing. He had been in Galilee making blind men sec. and lame ones walk, lifting up the dead and quickening men's hearts to goodness with his teachings. Many voices sang his praise, yet in a few short days, their screams would swell a cry of "crucify Him." How could they, we wonder? How could anyone be blind to the goodness of this man, the rightness of His

And still today, as we turn away from the hungry, the poor, and disregard the needs of our fellowman;
