

Casselberry Mayor Eyes Racing Tax

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Casselberry Mayor Owen Sheppard has a solution to anticipated traffic problems if Seminole Harness Raceway is converted to a greyhound track.

Sheppard is proposing that a provision be included in legislation granting the conversion to permit the city to collect maintenance and improvements of city roads leading to the track and for providing police officers to handle traffic.

State Rep. Robert Hattaway, D-Altamonte Springs, who is sponsoring the legislation on the conversion, said today he fully supports Sheppard's suggestion.

"It's a super idea and I'm definitely in favor of it," Hattaway said. "I'm trying to work it out in the bill and will do whatever I can to get it through the Legislature."

Hattaway said the suggestion indicated Sheppard has "really been doing some research."

Sheppard said the new owners of the Seminole Raceway — William and Jack Demetrius and Paul Dervaux — also support his plan. The mayor said the owners have informally agreed to pay all costs of traffic signal installation at the intersection of Seminola Boulevard and Winter Park Drive and to pay the costs of police needed to direct traffic during busy times at the track.

Estimating costs of installing a traffic signal at $30,000 to $40,000, Sheppard said the owners' agreement must yet be reduced to writing in contract form.

If the admission tax were approved, Sheppard said, the race track would be paying its own way and lifting the burden from Casselberry citizens.

With the provision included in the Hattaway bill, the city would be guaranteed the money. "This would be more palatable to the city and perhaps cause the city to be supportive of the conversion," Sheppard said.

Sheppard said probably 75 percent of Casselberry's citizens don't care whether the Seminole Harness Raceway remains a horse racing facility or becomes a dog racing track.

The mayor said the track owners have asked to appear before the city council. He said his studies should be completed before the council on March 10. "By then I'll be able to provide the council with information which they can use as a guide in deciding whether to endorse the conversion," he said.

Advertising On Benches In County?

By DIANE PETRYK
Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Commission will probably amend its sign ordinance to allow advertising benches, according to commissioners Sandra Glenn and Bob French. But for a company to actually place such benches in the county will require a contract with the county.

"That's another issue, entirely," French said.

A contract would set down guidelines such as locations and sizes allowed. The commissioners will discuss the advertising benches issue at a public hearing on the subject March 11.

Land Development Administrator Herb Harden said the county's sign regulations won't allow benches because they are off-signage signs. The Planning and Zoning Commission recommends the ordinance not be changed, he said.

The Central Florida Bench Company wants the change, he added. The company has contracts with the cities of Altamonte Springs and Longwood to place advertising benches.

Harden said the company's argument is that the benches provide places for the elderly to sit and are placed free because the advertiser pays for them.

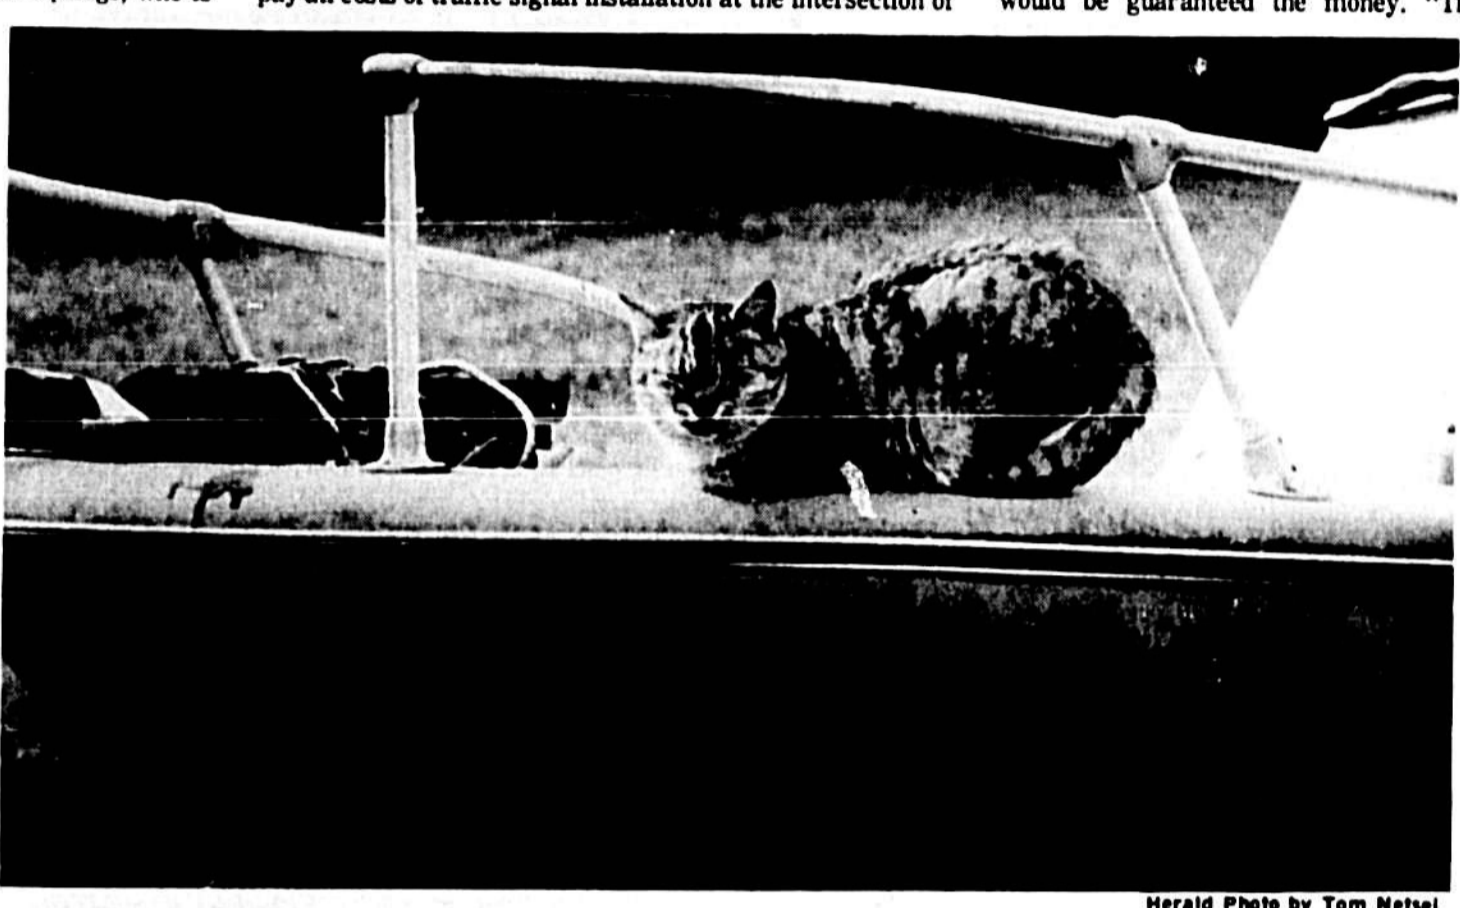

"The planning and zoning board discovered in Longwood the benches are out there where people don't walk and they serve exclusively an advertising function," Harden said.

In June, the Sanford City Commission rejected a request by the Sanford, Seminole benches that they be allowed to place benches on public property.

At that time, Thomas Binford, vice president of Central Florida Bench, accused the South Seminole Jaycees of competing with private enterprise for coming up with bench proposals after he had entered into contract negotiations with several Seminole cities.

Commission Chairman Bill Kirchoff said he does not know how he will vote on amending the sign ordinance.

"I'll have to hear all the arguments first," he said.

A CATNAP
Scientists tell us that all mammals dream, so this cat catching a catnap on the bow of this boat is no exception. They do not tell us what they dream, but it would seem logical for a nautical feline to dwell on visions of catfish. What else?

Afghan School Kids Arrested In Bloody Anti-Soviet Riots

By United Press International

Grammar school children were among those arrested during bloody anti-Soviet rioting in the streets of the Afghan capital of Kabul, Radio Kabul said today.

Travelers arriving in New Delhi, India, from Kabul said the rioting, many of them as young as 7 and 8-year-old, battled Soviet armored vehicles with bottles and rocks.

Radio Kabul, which called children "treasures of the nation," said they had joined the anti-Soviet rioting because they were misled by foreign propaganda.

The broadcast, monitored in New Delhi, said parents of arrested children could pick them up near the prime minister's office in Kabul.

The travelers said the Soviet-backed government in Kabul showed signs today of regaining control in the capital with the help of a reinforced military presence. Afghan soldiers at Kabul Airport were seen armed with new AK-47 automatic rifles.

Afghan troops backed by members of the Soviet invasion force Tuesday rumbled up minority Shiite Muslims suspected of leading the bloody revolt in the mile-high city, other travelers said.

Shah Tortured Us, Say Iran Invalids

By United Press International

The U.S. commission studying Iran's grievances met today with Foreign Minister Sadegh Ghotbzadeh, then heard more evidence from invalids who said they were tortured and disgraced by the deposed shah's secret police.

Tehran radio in a broadcast monitored in Kuwait said the five-man U.S. commission first met with Ghotbzadeh then interviewed more of the "invalids of the revolution." No details were given.

The broadcast also quoted the Tehran newspaper Bannad as reporting that a petition signed by 25,000 Iranians was presented to the U.S. commission "to help their mission."

Ghotbzadeh briefed the ruling Revolutionary Council on the work of the U.S. panel Tuesday and at the end of the meeting he said: "The Iranian nation will never give up its demand for the extradition of the deposed shah" (for "punishments worse than execution."

He also told the Revolutionary Council the commission's work was moving "slowly." Radio Tehran reported that the commission was being monitored by the BBC in London.

Meanwhile, Tehran radio quoted the Tehran prosecutor's office as saying Mehdi Ayati, an official jailed for 10 months for alleged collaboration with terrorist and counter-revolutionary groups, had hanged himself in prison with a bedsheet. The report said Ayati committed suicide on Friday after appearing before the commission's mission to Tehran.

Despite Ghotbzadeh's statement, French radio stations reported "a further thawing of relations" between Tehran and the United States with the announcement by Iranian authorities they will readmit American reporters.

"This was an occasion for the commission to examine in dramatically live terms the plight of those involved."

The Islamic revolutionary regime ousted U.S. journalists in January because it claimed the Americans' reporting was distorted and "malicious." But the ruling body said it would now readmit those who can convince the government of "their impartiality" in past coverage.

The Radio Tehran report said without explanation "Panama said if Iran promises not to execute the shah, it will hand him over" and said Ghotbzadeh responded: "Punishments worse than execution could be carried out against the former shah."

There was no clarification in the radio report on when Panama made such a statement. The shah has been living since December on Contadora Island in Panama.

Ghotbzadeh also repeated Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's statement of the release of the hostages, who were in their 118th day of captivity today. Such an action is a delay the release at least until April.

In a telephone interview from London to Tehran, the spokesman for the U.S. Commission, Samir Sabharwal, said the five international jurists spent most of the day in the Iranian capital meeting with people who claimed they were tortured by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi's secret police, SAVAK.

"Over 140 victims of physical abuse appeared before the commission," Sabharwal said. "The commission took careful note of the particulars of every case and observed the marks of mutilation."

"This was an occasion for the commission to examine in dramatically live terms the plight of those involved."

Sheriff Polk Going To White House

Seminole County Sheriff John Polk has been summoned to the White House for a Thursday afternoon meeting with President Jimmy Carter and FBI and Drug Enforcement Administration officials to discuss drug enforcement matters and federal funding.

The only other Florida scheduled to attend the 4:30 p.m. meeting is Frank E. Cann, Jr., president of the Florida Sheriff's Association (FSA). Polk is immediate past president of the FSA.

Golden Olympics On TV

Having the crew of the NBC network television show "Real People" filming bike racing, swimming, track and field and other events for three days during the 5th Annual Golden Age Olympics held in Sanford Nov. 5-10 added to the excitement of the week. Many of the senior citizen participants were interviewed on camera and are anxiously awaiting tonight's show, which is scheduled to feature the Golden Age Olympics. It will be shown locally over Channel 2 at 8 p.m., according to Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Executive Manager Jack Horner.

Seminole Not Affected By Shutdown

Brock Lucas, spokesman for Florida Power Corp., said the peak-use period was passed at 8 a.m. today without any shortage and he did not anticipate any problem for customers in the Seminole County area as a result of the shutdown of the Crystal River nuclear plant.

Lucas said arrangements were made Tuesday night with half a dozen utilities in the Southeastern states as far south as Miami to provide extra power in the case of an emergency. "Some was used, but at this point I don't know exactly how much," he added.

"We did not face a new high in use this morning in spite of the cold weather and in light of the fact temperatures are scheduled to moderate in the next few days," Lucas said, "I don't anticipate any shortage."

Florida Power & Light (FPL) spokesman Roger Eaton said some 2,000 customers in the Ormond Beach-Daytona Beach area were without power for about 25 minutes Tuesday until the FPL system could be stabilized and they could be picked up again.

Eaton said FPL is tied in with Florida Power Corp. and other power companies in a utility grid and that they were tied in with FPC when that firm lost its largest unit.

Eaton said FPL could not separate from the downed unit before his company lost some of its customers. However, he added, no customers in west Volusia or Seminole counties were affected by the outage. — JANE CASSELLBERRY

Wrong Photo Displayed

In the Tuesday edition, the Evening Herald ran a photo of a woman incorrectly identified as Elizabeth Van Ness. The Herald regrets the error. Miss Van Ness (right), is a Seminole Community College athlete and life-long Sanford resident, remaining in guarded, unstable condition this morning at Winter Park Memorial Hospital with head injuries suffered in a near head-on auto accident Monday afternoon on Old Lake Mary Road. Curtis Miller, 49, of Kissimmee, driver of the pickup truck police say veered across the road in front of Miss Van Ness' car, is reported in good condition at Florida Hospital South, with a broken back and jaw.

Repair Crew Starts Work At 'Haywire' Nuclear Plant

CRYSTAL RIVER, Fla. (UPI) — A repair crew attempted today to fix the seal on a pump that was considered a key to removing the 45,000 gallons of radioactive water spilled in a sealed containment building when the Crystal River nuclear power plant control system "went haywire."

Robert South, a spokesman for Florida Power Corp., said the job was not expected to be completed before afternoon.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission and Florida Power continued taking air samples around the site of the most serious incident since the nuclear crisis at Pennsylvania's Three Mile Island. But South said all the samples taken since the Wednesday accident have shown only "normal background radiation."

There was no release of radiation into the environment Tuesday and no damage to the nuclear core at Crystal River.

However, South could make no estimate of when the nuclear plant could resume power production. "It's really too early to give a good estimate about going back on line," he said.

The plant provided Florida Power with one-fifth of its total output, but despite abnormal demand due to a cold wave early today in the small town like this, it's easy to spread the word. It helped when plant people left work because they spread the word to calm down, too," South said.

"But it was tough and go there, for a while. We were near the thin line," he said. Florida power had to borrow 1,300 megawatts of power from Georgia's Southern Co., the Tampa Electric Co., Florida Power & Light Co., and the city-owned Orlando Utilities Commission to meet its power demand during the night.

Local authorities in the Crystal River area had denied there was any panic caused by the accident, but South had a different account. He said broadcast reports that plant employees were being evacuated touched off a surge of calls to the company's district office. "If I had heard it, I would have panicked too," he said. "We may have to do some educating of these people."

"Luckily, a lot of them called our district manager and he explained things to them. In a small town like this, it's easy to spread the word. It helped when plant people left work because they spread the word to calm down, too," South said.

Within six hours of the incident — the most serious since the Three Mile Island nuclear crisis — FPC officials began a "cold shutdown" of the 825-megawatt reactor. A routine refueling shutdown had been planned for March 28.

Backcock & Wilcox built both the reactors at Crystal River and Three Mile Island and Tuesday's accident raised new questions about the safety and reliability of nuclear power plants constructed by the company.

Caffeine Products Keep Many Awake

DEAR DR. LAMB — I'm very surprised that in your column on insomnia you did not mention a very common cause — the use of substances containing caffeine before bedtime.

Many people have coffee or tea with their evening meal or dessert. Some people take hot chocolate at bedtime, ironically to make them sleep, not realizing that chocolate and cocoa contain a great deal of caffeine.

My husband used to regularly have ice cream with chocolate syrup on it at bedtime, resulting in poor sleep.

You mentioned the college student who had trouble sleeping. She was probably guzzling colas while studying and ingesting large amounts of caffeine. Then other people take large amounts of these during the day until they build up the amount that's in the body. Many people also with caffeine headaches are taking aspirin — another caffeine-containing substance, not realizing they're adding insult to injury. By eliminating or moderating the use of caffeine in our diet we can also eliminate the use of sleeping drugs in many instances.

DEAR HEADER — Sometimes space does not permit me to cover everything on a single topic. However, you had read The Health Letter on sleep problems that was offered with the column, you would have found that the problem of caffeine was discussed. You are absolutely right, caffeine is a brain stimulant. I sometimes refer to coffee as a liquid go pill.

People do have differences in tolerance to caffeine associated with their habit of drinking it regularly or occasionally as the case may be.

Caffeine-containing beverages associated with their habit of drinking it regularly or occasionally as the case may be.

Finally, let me emphasize that mental activity immediately before the sleep hour often contributes to loss of sleep. That is another reason why college students and individuals who do mental or office work at home just before bedtime may have trouble sleeping. It's important to unwind before bedtime and sort of let your whole body and mind begin to relax.

One of the really fascinating things about bridge is that the worst overblenders are frequently the worst players. The correct policy is that if you want to overbid you should play well enough to make up for the overbidding.

Passengers Leap Off Plane Before It Bursts In Flames

MANILA, Philippines (UPI)—A Taiwanese jetliner carrying 135 people caught fire and exploded today as it landed at Manila Airport. Authorities said 22 people were feared dead and 50 were injured. Most of those aboard the China Airlines Boeing 707 escaped the plane by sliding down emergency shutles and jumping out doors. The white-and-blue-striped aircraft, carrying 124 passengers and 11 crewmen on a flight from Taipei to Manila, was completely gutted, except for its tail and cockpit. Richard Yu, the airline's airport manager, said 113 people were accounted for, including 50 hospitalized for injuries. He said 22 people were missing and "possibly fatalities." No deaths were immediately confirmed.

Rhodesians Vote Today

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (UPI)—Rhodesia's blacks voted today in huge numbers for a majority rule government to lead Britain's last African colony to legal independence in a three-day election threatened by violence and possible civil war. The heaviest turnout came in the black townships of Salisbury, where thousands of blacks stood in lines for up to six hours before voting started at 7 a.m. In contrast to last April's first majority rule election, which was internationally discredited because it left out the Patriotic Front guerrilla Alliance, the mood of the voters today appeared serene and peaceful. "There's no humor like last time, they're all deadly serious about the vote," said one white Rhodesian election official.

Tito Message Moves Carter

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI)—New details of how serious President Josip Broz Tito's condition really is have virtually dashed any hopes the 87-year-old leader could pull through the crisis. President Carter sent a letter to Vice President Lazar Kolisevski and a message to Tito himself in response to Tito's "moving and serene" plea last week for continued efforts at detente, the White House said Tuesday.

The White House declined to release the text of the message but said Carter responded to Tito's message — prepared before the sudden reverse in his recovery two weeks ago from a last-minute "with warmth and in a serious fashion."

Pope To Visit Philippines

MANILA, Philippines (UPI)—Pope John Paul II will visit the Philippines in November, the head of the country's 38 million Roman Catholics said today. Cardinal Jaime Sin, the archbishop of Manila, said the visit would coincide with the 10th anniversary of Pope Paul's visit to the Philippines. The exact date will be decided by the bishops of the Philippines at a special meeting, Sin said. The date will then be submitted to the Vatican.

Dollar, Gold Dropping

LONDON (UPI)—The dollar fell on most money markets today in anticipation of poor U. S. trade figures, while the price of gold dropped slightly in Europe. An ounce of gold sold for $632 at the start of trade in London, down $4.50 from Tuesday's close. In Zurich, gold dropped $12 to $632.50.

WEATHER

NATIONAL REPORT: A new winter storm has blown in off the Pacific, and this time it's Washington State that is bearing the brunt of it. Rivers swelled today as flood levels are raised combined with melting snow pouring down the Olympic Mountain foothills. The National Weather Service predicted more rain for today, extending from Washington to the northern two-thirds of California. Last week California was inundated by widespread flooding and mudslides that left dozens dead and millions of dollars in property damage. AREA READINGS (8 a.m.): temperature: 50; overnight low: 33; yesterday's high: 60; barometric pressure: 30.34; relative humidity: 46 percent; winds: north at 8 m.p.h. THURSDAY TIDES: DAYTONA BEACH: highs, 6:25 a.m., 6:43 p.m.; lows, 11:48 a.m., 12:13 p.m.; PORT CANAVERAL: highs, 6:18 a.m., 6:34 p.m.; lows, 11:43 a.m., 12:08 p.m.; SAFORD: highs, 11:33 a.m., 1:01 p.m.; 6:37 a.m., 6:53 p.m. BOATING FORECAST: St. Augustine to Jupiter Inlet, Out to 10 miles: Winds northwest 10 to 15 knots today becoming variable 10 knots tonight and southeasterly 10 to 15 knots Thursday. # President, Reagan Win New Hampshire

United Press International
President Carter scored his third and fourth straight victories over Sen. Edward Kennedy without leaving the White House Tuesday, and Ronald Reagan pushed a reborn campaign to the front of the Republican field again. A record turnout of New Hampshire voters in the first state primary of the 1980 presidential campaign dealt Kennedy a second consecutive loss in his own New England and gave Reagan his first notable win of the year over George Bush. New Hampshire offered the candidates only 22 Republican and 19 Democratic national convention delegates, but it has been the state's early primary became a major battlefield for the presidential hopefuls of both parties. Reagan, as had been expected, also led Bush and the GOP field in a straw vote taken at the Minnesota precinct caucus first step in the complicated process by which 34 Republican and 75 Democratic delegates will be chosen for this summer's national conventions. Carter also trounced Kennedy in the Democratic caucuses in Minnesota, home state of Vice President Walter Mondale. Carter's solid New Hampshire win was forecast in pre-primary surveys, but Reagan contoured the pollsters and whacked Bush — reviving what still is a limping and dis-plagued campaign and slowing the momentum Bush built in Iowa and Puerto Rico. Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. of California ran third in the Democratic primary; Sen. Howard Baker of Tennessee, Rep. John Anderson and Phillip Crane of Illinois, former Gov. John Connally of Texas and Sen. Bob Dole of Kansas brought up the GOP field. With 100 percent of the New Hampshire vote counted, the Democratic tally showed: Carter 53,586 or 49 percent; Kennedy 41,540 or 38 percent; Brown 10,727 or 10 percent. Final Republicans were total: Reagan 72,794 or 60 percent; Bush 33,304 or 23 percent; Baker 10,769 or 13 percent; Anderson 14,622 or 10 percent; Crane 2,533 or 2 percent; Connally 2,215 or 2 percent; Dole 508 — less than 1 percent. Former President Gerald Ford got 180 write-in votes. Carter got 2 delegates, Kennedy nine. The GOP breakdown was Reagan 13, Bush 5, Baker and Anderson 2 each. The total delegate count to date now is 21 for Carter and 15

Kennedy Upbeat, George 'Bushed'

United Press International
Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan won the New Hampshire primary, but most of the men they beat say the race for the presidential nominations is still on. Among the Democrats, Sen. Edward Kennedy thundered like a winner although he lost to Carter by 11 percentage points. He reminded backers that in 1976 Carter got 28 percent of the total vote and claimed a win. "Well, we got almost 40 percent of the vote, and we're claiming victory tonight," he said. California Gov. Edmund G. Brown was upbeat over his third-place finish, saying it "lit another spark, but we've got a long way to go." He will skip next week's primary in Massachusetts and focus instead on the April 1 Wisconsin primary. On the Republican side, Reagan was cool and confident. Although earlier in the day, he had dismissed three top staffers, the former California governor flashed his movie star smile more and more as the vote tallies gave him a surprisingly easy win over Bush. Bush kept his supporters happy with a short and optimistic concession speech in a hotel ballroom, but later in his room he slumped into a chair and admitted, "I don't know what happened. We did worse than we thought." But he insisted he'd be back on top after next Tuesday's Massachusetts primary. Tennessee Sen. Howard Baker, who came in third, said the flip-flop that suddenly put Reagan back on top of the GOP candidates shows "the country clearly has not made up its mind about where it wants to go and how it wishes to choose the next president of the United States." John Anderson was delighted with his 10 percent total, since it guarantees federal matching funds for his campaign going into Massachusetts. He said the Reagan win has opened the gate for everyone. "Now it's not a two-man race," he said. Rep. Phil Crane, who campaigned for months in New Hampshire, said his banner would see him through the next "several weeks" and more primaries. John Connally, campaigning in Florida, said he was lucky to have done as well as he did considering how little effort he exerted in New Hampshire. Kennedy nine. The GOP breakdown was Reagan 13, Bush 5, Baker and Anderson 2 each. The total delegate count to date now is 21 for Carter and 15

Absentee Ballots Available For Primary

Mrs. Bruce said today the ballots can be picked up at either office or ballots may be obtained by mail. Thirty-one different ballots have been printed to provide ballots for Republicans, Democrats and members of splinter parties and for contested elections for precinct committeemen and committeewomen of the two major political parties in various precincts. # Armed Men Take $96 From Store

By DAVID M. RAZLER
Herald Staff Writer
Two armed men held up a 66-year-old Sanford convenience store clerk Tuesday night and made off with about $96, police say. Viola Cashion, 66, was alone at the Handy Way grocery, 301 E. 25th St., at 8:15 p.m., when two men carrying small handguns entered the store, police say. While one stepped up to the cashier's counter and demanded money, the other stepped around the counter to receive the register's contents, police reported. Cashion told officers she could not open the store's safe and the robbers left with a bag filled with $96.31, the contents of the register, police said. A fire Tuesday afternoon which damaged a Sanford Housing Authority apartment apparently started in a faulty floor lamp, Harriett said. The 4:40 p.m. fire at 4 Cowan Moughlin Terrace severely damaged a bedroom and filled the apartment with smoke, he said. No one was injured in the blaze in the apartment occupied by Margaret Tillman. SURE IT WAS SUICIDE
The deputy in charge of investigating the death of a Winter Springs man on Feb. 16 is almost positive he is investigating a suicide. Sgt. George Hagood, head of the sheriff's department Crime Against Persons division, said while he is waiting for a few lab tests to come back before formally declaring the death a suicide, he is all but sure death was caused by a self-inflicted gun shot. The body of the 48-year-old man was found at the side of Bird Avenue on Feb. 16, a shotgun at his side, a few feet from a running car. BURGLARS BREAK WINDOW
Burglars who broke through the front window of a Sanford home Monday made off with about $285 in clothing and other goods, police report. Johnnie Newsome, of 217 Yale Drive, told police the thieves struck between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., and made off with a tape recorder, watch and clothing. DANCER PLEADS NO CONTEST
An Orlando lay dancer pleaded to contest charges of lewd and lascivious behavior Monday and received a $10 fine. Deborah Lee Morrison, 27, of Orlando, pleaded no contest to charges she allowed Charles K. Randall, 48, of Mosby Prospect, Ill., to fondle her as she sat on his lap at the Frost Dancer Club on U.S. Highway 17-82, Fern Park. Randall pleaded guilty to similar charges the day after his arrest. SODA POP STOLEN
One-hundred-three bottles of Coca Cola were stolen from three truck trailers sitting on railroad cars Friday, police say. Thieves broke the seals on the three trailers, awaiting pickup at the playground ramp at Six Street and U.S. 17-82 between the hours of 8 p.m. and 11 p.m. Friday, stealing the beverages valued at $82, police said.

Lake Harriet Students To Move?

The Seminole County School Board tonight will review the first of an expected series of recommendations on moving to redistribute elementary students between overcrowded and under-populated schools. The recommendation at the meeting will be to transfer approximately 40 students who live in Lake Harriet Estates (north of State Road 48) from Bear Lake Elementary to Forest City Elementary. The students were bused to Bear Lake. The transfer will mean they will walk to school, said Ralph Ray, schools information officer. Ray said there has been very little objections to the proposed change. —DIANE PETERYK

Hospital Takeover Awaits 'Replacement' Option

Although the Seminole Memorial Hospital board considered their Feb. 19 meeting their last, Lewis said HCA will not appoint a new board until it receives nominations from the county commissioners. Commission chairman Bill Kirchhoff said the board won't make a decision until the contract is signed. The commissioners voted 4 to 1 to award a contract to the lowest bidder for installation of an elevator in Building 210, the three-story structure which houses the Sheriff's Department. The award goes to Atlantic Constructors, Inc. for installation of a 125-foot-per-minute elevator at a cost of $60,000. County purchasing agent Robene Blackman said the county should expect the total cost to be about $60,000. "I don't like to go into a construction contract without at least a 10 percent contingency," she said. Kirchhoff said he voted against the award because after researching the matter he feels the elevator should go at least 130-foot-per-minute for the overall efficiency of the building. The commissioners approved unanimously as a condition to extend fuel contracts with Gulf Oil Company-U.S. and Hubbard Oil Company (AMOCO) for all departments. The commissioners awarded a contract for a 4-0-1 vote in the amount of $3,800.00 to Associated-Ferris Printers for the printing of library transaction slips. Kirchhoff voted no. "I don't think it's the system we need," he said.

Cult Connection Unclear 2 Gunned Down At People's Temple Defectors' Home

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—Two persons were shot to death and another was critically wounded Tuesday night in the home of two defectors from the Peoples Temple religious cult, police said. Officers said the home, a cottage at the rear of a vast home in a residential neighborhood of southeast Berkeley, was the residence of Al and Jeanne Mills, two defectors from the cult founded by the Rev. Jim Jones, and identified the home as a refuge for former cult members.

The victims' identities were not released pending a police request for a search warrant. Police sealed off the house and driveway and answered few questions.

There was also no immediate indication from police of any relation between the shootings in the Mills home and the Millises former temple connections.

Police Captain Thomas Johnson said the two dead, a man and woman, were lying face-down in separate rooms of the small house. A young woman, found in the same room as the man, had been critically wounded by a gunshot to the head.

Initial reports said no weapons were found. The shooting occurred shortly before 9:30 p.m., but neighbors said they heard no shots. A barking dog found at the scene wore a tag bearing the name "Daphne Mills" and the address of the cottage.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Freight Train Derails In Florida Panhandle

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI) — Six cars of a Louisville Nashville freight train left the track in the Florida Panhandle Tuesday evening in what a law enforcement official called "almost a matter of habit."

An Escambia County sheriff's police spokesman reported that all six of the cars were off the tracks by 7:30 a.m. today and traffic was being restored on the rail line.

The spokesman said there were no injuries reported, no spill of any dangerous substances and no residents were forced to leave their homes as a precautionary measure, as has occurred in previous derailments.

New License Policy

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — A panel of three federal judges has approved a new driver's license suspension policy put into effect by the state of Florida as a result of a lawsuit filed more than four years ago by a Jacksonville man.

Under the policy, the state agreed not to take away a driver's license without giving its owner 15 days notice and a hearing, it requested.

Final approval of the plan came Tuesday when U.S. District Judge Susan Black signed a consent judgment in the suit, which was filed in October 1975 by Jack William Pitts Sr., 65.

Special Prosecutor Named

MIAMI (UPI) — Former Dade County State Attorney Richard Gerstein has been appointed a special prosecutor in the investigation of a Florida Highway Patrolman accused of molesting an 11-year-old girl.

The appointment was made by Circuit Judge David L. Levy, who instructed Gerstein to attempt to learn whether his court was misled about details of the case. If so, the prosecutor was directed to attempt to determine whether the State Attorney's office, an attorney for ex-Trooper Willie T. Jones or Dade County Public Safety Department police were to blame.

Jones pleaded no contest to the charge in August, 1979, and was placed on three years probation and ordered to undergo psychiatric treatment. He also was ordered to pay for any medical or psychiatric treatment needed by the girl.

Jones is white and the victim black. The result of the case has brought widespread criticism from the black community in West Florida.

Henry Ruling Stands

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — An assistant state attorney argued today that a federal judge did not have the authority to grant a new sentencing hearing earlier this month to Henry a new sentencing hearing earlier this month was rejected Tuesday.

Henry, 29, was scheduled to die in Florida's electric chair on Dec. 6, 1979. U.S. District Judge John H. Reed Jr. granted a stay of execution last Nov. 30.

On Feb. 14, Judge Reed ordered the new sentencing hearing.

Patrol Asks For $660,000

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The highway patrol, expecting the price of gas to reach $1.50 a gallon by June, wants the Legislature to give it an emergency appropriation of $660,000 as soon as it meets to foot the bills.

NATION IN BRIEF

New Jersey Senator Tied To FBI Undercover Probe

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sen. Harrison Williams, D-N.J., offered to use his political influence to win contracts for a uranium mining venture in Virginia in return for a $100 million investment from Arab sheiks who were actually undercover FBI agents, published reports said today.

The New York Times said in today's editions that the agents told Williams they would sink the cash into the United States Titanium Co. If the senator used his influence to win contracts.

The senator also accepted stock in the venture, the paper said.

The Times said the senator's connection dates back to last March, when there was a meeting on a yacht anchored off the Florida coast.

Fremen Work Out Deal

CHICAGO (UPI) — The city's striking firefighters offered to return to work and give up the right to live outside the city in exchange for 100 percent amnesty, a spokesman for Local 9 of the Fire Fighters Union said today.

Thomas O'Donnell said a proposed contract worked out with the help of a federal mediator was sent to City Hall late Tuesday. The union's rank and file was expected to vote on the pact tonight at 8 p.m. EST at a meeting at the International Amphitheater.

"Speaking as an individual, I'm optimistic," O'Donnell said. "I think it will be ratified."

Sex, Fetal Deaths Linked

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Sexual intercourse during the final six months of pregnancy may be more harmful than the combined effects of smoking, drinking and ingesting eating, says a pathologist who studied 600 pregnancies.

Dr. Richard L. Neave said Tuesday about 10 percent of fetuses die during the final six months of pregnancy in "pregnancy factors" in three disorders that cause nearly half of all fetal and neonatal deaths.

Senate, House Negotiators Clear Windfall Profits Tax

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Millions of Americans will benefit from home heating aid and tax cuts this decade under a compromise $27.3 billion windfall oil profits tax bill approved by House and Senate negotiators.

Amid cheers and handshakes, the negotiators concluded work late Tuesday on the oil tax, a key part of President Carter's energy policy.

Carter asked Congress last April to enact the tax to capture for public use some of the $1.07 trillion Treasury officials estimate American oil companies will realize because of the decontrol of domestic oil prices.

The legislation still must be approved by the full House and Senate before being sent to Carter, who has said he will sign it. It is expected to take 10 days to print the massive report before it can be sent to the House.

The negotiators ended their work by agreeing to provide $57 billion between 1982 and 1990 in home heating aid to about 20 million American families, 12 million of them below the poverty level. The money is in addition to $3.15 billion to help low-income Americans pay fuel bills during fiscal 1981.

The negotiators also agreed that home heating aid tax credits for middle income Americans could be provided from the $105 billion made available for tax cuts for individuals and corporations during the decade. The tax cuts could start as early as October, when the 1981 fiscal year begins.

"We have kept the president's commitment that a substantial amount of money shall be used to alleviate pressures on the poor caused by decontrol," Rep. Jamesorman, D-Calif., said.

But the League of Women Voters criticized the negotiators for not enacting a tougher tax and for not supporting collective bargaining contracts rather than by tenure, under which a teacher is awarded a "continuing contract" after three years of probation.

"Contrary to the report of the subcommittee, teachers were not interviewed to determine their opinion on the tenure question," Myrick said. "Instead, the survey procedure was to reach a consensus with a group of teachers through a conversational discussion led by subcommittee staff."

The survey also lacked a uniform set of questions, a precise head count and a balanced sample, he said.

Teachers Union Official 13.6% Pay Hike 'Not Enough'

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The president of the Florida Teaching Profession chapter of the National Education Association says Gov. Bob Graham's proposed 13.6 percent pay hike for teachers is not enough to catch up with inflation.

The union official, John C. Myrick, also took issue Tuesday with a House Appropriations subcommittee survey released two weeks ago that purportedly found more public school teachers opposing tenure than favoring it.

Myrick told a news conference Graham's proposed pay hike for teachers is "a good start" but added, "There does need to be more to provide some of the things we've lost over the last 10 years."

Although Graham's suggested 13.6 percent hike approaches the 14 percent sought by the union, the group intends to push for more. "We believe this year is the year we start doing a little catch-up," Myrick said.

Myrick said his union was irked by the House report on tenure which was based on a survey he called unscientific. "Certainly nothing could be further from the truth," he said.

The subcommittee staff said most teachers they talked to thought job protection could be better provided in

GOOD NEWS! ENERGY USE IS DIPPING

Floridians seemed to discover a modest diet in 1979 to curb the insatiable appetite for energy that has marked our past 17 years. And keep up the good conservation practices.

Florida's energy consumption per capita is down about 4% in 1979 versus 1978. And gasoline sales in Florida the last six months of 1979 dropped about 31%.

Forecasts for 1980, nationally, indicate continued conservation. Use of motor gasoline will fall 2.4%, residual fuel by 7.4%, and diesel about 12%.

A TIP OF THE HAT from the Florida Audubon Society. The Society recognized FPL's efforts in the area of protecting the endangered manatees, or sea cows. FPL does have a commitment to conservation.

"GASOHOL: IT'S THE TALK OF THE TANK but reduction in the amount of oil used can be matched in other ways much quicker... and cheaper! The Administration's goal is to reduce oil consumption by 20% by the end of 1981. One of the ways to do this is to conserve energy. Just one of FPL's nuclear power generators saves almost that much oil each day. And, at the same time, saves our customers thousands of dollars by reducing fuel bills!

Lions, Hornets Set For District Scrap

By SAM COOK Herald Sports Writer

Oviedo's Dale "Diggs" Phillips would like to see his basketball team put together two good halves of basketball. Bishop Moore's Gregg Robinson would like to see his team continue to have the success of the state's sixth-ranked Hornets have been accustomed to.

Both Phillips and Robinson won't be seeing each other Saturday night at 8 p.m. when the championship of the District 2A is settled at Oviedo High School.

Both clubs finished 9-1 in the district, but Bishop Moore was the coin flip for the number one seeding.

"They've got a little advantage because of the better draft," reasoned the dapper Phillips. "But we're playing at home which should help."

Robinson, who is capable of winning the tournament if either of us falls."

Here are the pairings:

Thursday
7 p.m. St. Cloud (0-10) vs. Leesburg (4-6)
8 p.m. Eustis (3-7) vs. Osceola (5-5)

Friday
7 p.m. Oviedo vs. Eustis-Osceola winner
8:30 p.m. Bishop Moore vs. St. Cloud-Leesburg winner

Saturday
6:30 Junior Varsity Championship game (Bishop Moore vs. Osceola)
8 p.m. District Championship (Bishop Moore vs. Oviedo)

As evidenced by the records it should be a two-team tournament if things following the seasonal pattern where the Hornets finished 24-4 and the Lions 20-7.

Both coaches are leary of the upset though — especially

Whopper, Fries And All-Stars

Seminole County Burger King managers, along with the county women's basketball coaches have once again pooled their collective thoughts to select this season's Seminole County All-Star Team.

Sanford's Lady Seminoles, loaded with young talent led the squad with four selections with Lyman's Lady Greyhounds close behind with three players named to the team.

The Seminoles' selections include a trio of super sophomores joining senior Sandy Cooper. The 5-10 senior player averaged six points and six rebounds per contest.

Speedy Robin Riggins, a 5-6 sharpshooter averaged 12 points and 11 rebounds per outing for coach Cheryl Klien's squad. Joining Riggins are two more sophomores who figure to give the Seminoles plenty to rave about in the future.

Sabrina Melton, also a 5-4 quick-handed guard averaged seven points and six rebounds per contest in addition to coming up with five steals per game.

Rounding out the Lady Seminoles' first team selections is 5-7 Tony Hardy. An all-around solid player, Hardy canned 11 points per game and averaged eight rebounds and four steals per contest.

Leading up Lyman's trio of all-star performers is the Five Star Seminoles' leading scorer, Maria Smith. The 5-11 senior burned the nets for better than 20 points a game in rebounding. She also led the team in rebounding average with 11 caroms per outing. Smith's shooting percentages are strong indicators of her scoring touch. The definite college prospect averaged a healthy 52 percent from the floor in addition to shooting 70 percent from the charity stripe.

A junior and another senior find Smith as Lyman's all-star selections.

Sadie Derrito, who also averaged double figure scores and senior Kim Page were named to the squad.

The 5-8 Ferrito canned 12 points a game in addition to averaging a dozen rebounds to go along with her 47 percent shooting mark.

The 5-9 Page averaged slightly better than six and a-half points a game and contributed three rebounds to a contest to Lyman's offense.

Lake Howell, Lake Branley and Oviedo round out the ten player squad with one selection each.

Senior center Rebecca Pons represents the Big Blue. The 5-10 leaper averaged slightly better than 10 points a game and hauled down half-a-dozen rebounds per outing.

Lake Howell's ball-handling point guard Sonya Smith represents the Lady Silver Hawks. The spark-plug senior averaged better than 12 points a game. Her quickness and defense were also major factors in her selection to the squad. Smith averaged four steals per contest and also found time to dish out 88 assists during the season enroute to scoring 200 points.

The Oviedo Lady Lion's superb senior Armelia Alexander rounds out the all-star team. An all-star fine performer at 5-10, Alexander averaged 17 points per contest, hauled down an amazing 18 rebounds each game and will found time to pass off to her teammates, averaging four assists a game. Alexander now holds a pair of Lady Lion school records. She possesses the single game scoring record with 34 points and the single game rebounding record of 28.

Six players received honorable mention to the all-star team. They include Linda Martin and Connie Jakubcin of Oviedo, Milla Serrano and Jo Anne Smith from Lyman, Seminole's Debbie Davis and Mindy Patrick of Lake Branley.

Soviet Spy Pilots Radio Praise Of Hockey Win

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two Soviet reconnaissance planes stationed by the American naval armada in the Arabian Sea by radioing congratulations for the U.S. hockey victory at the winter Olympics.

When the two Soviet planes approached the aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea Monday, the flight instructor, an A-1J intercepter plane, according to usual practice, to escort them out of the area.

No reaction from the Soviet pilot of the A-1J reported he could see the Soviet crews making hand signals to listen in to an international radio frequency, defense officials said Tuesday. When the pilot tumbled in, he heard the Soviet crews congratulating the United States on the Olympic victory at Lake Placid. Defense officials said the Soviet pilots were congratulating the American hockey team.

Kerr Pitches Hounds Past Leesburg

By BENTON WOOD Herald Sports Writer

Jeff Kerr hurled a five hitter while Bob Parker and Mike Andriano drove in two runs apiece to lead the Lyman Greyhounds to their sixth consecutive victory as they hammered Leesburg 6-3 Tuesday afternoon.

"Our defense was sloppy early in the game," said winning Coach Bob McCullough.

Three Lyman miscues allowed the Yellow Jackets to jump to an early 3-0 lead after an inning and one-half of play. With two basemen on in the bottom of the second, Greyhound shortstop Bob Parker ripped a stand up triple into the right field alley scoring both runners.

Junior Mike Andriano followed with a single to tie the contest 3-3.

Andriano, third baseman Chuck Brock and backstop Neil Marshall contributed run scoring hits in the bottom of the fourth to give Lyman a 6-3 advantage.

Kerr, who scattered five hits and struck out six, ran into problems in the seventh inning when Leesburg loaded the bases with only one out.

But he enticed sophomore David Lee to hit into a game ending double play to improve his seasonal record to three wins and one loss.

The Greyhounds are now 6-1 on the season. They go on the road to face Metro Conference foe Colton tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Large Field Rolls Towards $125,000

MIAMI (UPI) — A field of 192 professional bowlers begins qualifying action today that will result in only 24 bowlers competing in a $125,000 event.

Kyle Shedd, a 23-year-old second year pro from Downey, Calif., leads the field as he tries for his second consecutive "Professional Bowlers Association" title.

Shedd won his first PBA event Saturday in Cleveland by defeating three opponents in the finals with a 216 average. For three games, Shedd registered 4 strikes with 100's and three open frames.

His $15,000 first prize brought the young pro to second on the season's earnings list with a total of $28,600 for 10 tournaments. Wayne Weib of Rehoboth, Mass., tops the list with $31,010.

Defending champion Roy Buckley of New Albany, Ohio, is only one of the current top 10 money winners entered in the event, which is being hosted for the third time by Don Carter's Kendall Lanes.

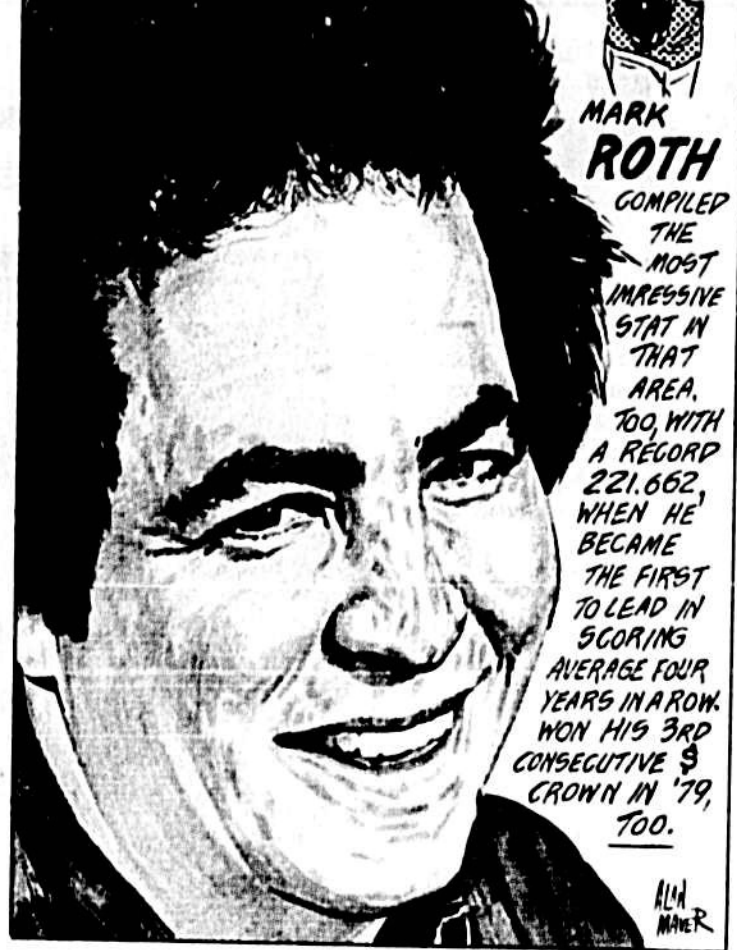

The 19-man field is comprised of 90 exempt bowlers and 102 players who qualified through Monday's Pro Tour Qualifier. Pete Weber of Florissant, Mo., the 17-year-old son of bowling great Dick Weber led the "rabbits" squad with a total of 2,183 for 10.

Each contestant is scheduled for 18 games of qualifying before the field is trimmed to the top 24 bowlers for match play. The leading five players after 42 games advance to the nationally televised finals Saturday afternoon where the winner will receive $20,000.

The event is known as the True Value Open.

Wildcats, Tigers Await Foes

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — The third-ranked Kentucky Wildcats and sixth-ranked LSU Bengals are on hold today, waiting to learn the identity of their quarterfinal foes in the Southeastern Conference basketball tournament.

Thursday, the Wildcats (26-1), who won the SEC's regular-season race by nipping LSU (21-5) in overtime 76-74 last Saturday, will play the winner of tonight's Georgia-Auburn game and the Bengals will play the winner of the Vanderbilt-Florida game.

The top six teams in the SEC standings drew opening round byes, leaving the other two to battle for the two remaining quarterfinal berths. Mississippi State (13-10 overall), Vanderbilt (13-12) and Georgia (14-12) posted matching 7-1 league records, but State got the bye because it had the best record in head-to-head competition among the three.

Seventh-seeded Vanderbilt meets last-place Florida (6-20) at 6 p.m. CST and Georgia meets Auburn (9-17) at 8 p.m. in tonight's opening round at 1670-second Birmingham-Jefferson Coliseum.

In Thursday's other quarterfinals, third-seeded Alabama (16-10) plays Mississippi State (13-13) at noon and fourth-seeded Tennessee (17-9), defending tournament champion, plays Ole Miss (15-11) at 2 p.m. Second-seeded LSU meets its debut at 6 p.m. and topped Kentucky (17-10) in overtime in Friday's semifinals start at 6 and 8 p.m. and Saturday's finals at 7:30 p.m.

Auburn figures to have a psychological advantage tonight since the Tigers have an 11-game winning streak going against Georgia — including a four-overtime battle in last year's SEC tournament. The Tigers, who beat Georgia 58-53, at home on Jan. 13, won 99-88, at Athens, Ga., 11 days ago, when Auburn haven't lost to the Bulldogs since 1975.

'Pop' Barrett: Lawn Chair Fan Inspires Son Toward Mat Title

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Writer

More than once Lynn wrestling parent Lee Barrett has been asked directions to the nearest beach.

Afterward, it was a more logical question to ask of a man reclining in a lawn chair?

Barrett however, doesn't prowl his recliner up and down the sand and the seagulls, the former Southeast Bank executive prefers the cozy confines of the Greyhound campus.

At this point you might expect Lynn car Carlton Henley to race into the wrestling area and chase Barrett back into the bleachers, where the rest of the fans reside.

Quite the opposite is true.

"The Lynn people (administration) have been very nice to me concerning my problem," said the 53-year-old Barrett. "I've even let me try my car on the football field."

Barrett's problems are heart disorders, diabetes and blood circulation. He can sit upright for only 15 or 20 minutes. More than enough to keep most people down.

And although they do keep him down — literally — they can't keep him out just about every one of Terry's sporting events for the past two years," said Barrett from his lawn chair. Terry, is H. Lee's son, Terry Barrett, Lynn's outstanding wrestler.

So far this year he's brought more than proud parents (his mother Rhea is also an ardent wrestling fan) out to witness his extraordinary exploits on the mat.

Young Barrett, only a junior, has won 27 or 28 matches and looms as a serious contender for the 159-pound state championship Friday and Saturday at Lyman.

With Lee catching all the action from his ringside seat and Reba shouting encouragement from the stands, Terry will never lack for an audience.

"My mother is really into it," Terry said. "She even stays after 1 get done wrestling."

Along with his mother's devotion, it's Terry's father that really feels makes him a better wrestler.

"It really helps me just knowing he's here," said Terry. "It's like my father who's been retired the past four years. "I wrestle a lot better when I see him here."

Which is all fine, but does Lee ever consider the possibility of one of his problems surfacing because of the excitement? Especially when Terry suffers his only loss?

"I didn't get all torn up when he lost," confirmed the older Barrett. "I got just as excited when he wins as when he lost."

There was one occasion when Lee did suffer from the excitement. And uncharacteristically it came when another Greyhound was wrestling.

"The little David Henley boy was wrestling and Lee got so excited he started having pains in his chest," Reba Barrett remembered.

"He just slipped out and took his history/cerpin pill and the pains went away," concluded Reba.

Now as a precaution before each match the father Barrett takes his medicine to ensure his safety.

So Friday when you stroll into the Lyman gym for the State Wrestling tournament, don't be surprised to see a bespectacled man observing from a lawn chair.

Just pass him the santon lotion.

Will Cowens Get His Job Back?

By United Press International

Rick Robey replaced Boston Celtics' center Dave Cowens 15 games ago when he injured his back. But now Cowens is almost ready to resume his position, Robey might not be ready to give it back.

Tuesday night, Cowens scored six points in limited action. Robey poured in 37 points and has a dominating force in the middle as the Celtics scored a 108-97 victory over the Atlanta Hawks.

All the same, Robey said, "I feel good about Dave coming back. It makes us a stronger club and gives us more depth. When he was hurt it put a little more pressure on me."

Cowens said, "I like to contribute and be a part of it. But they played super basketball without me."

Leading, 48-36, at halftime, the Celtics broke the game open in the third quarter when a Pete Maravich layup gave Boston its biggest lead, 75-37, with 2:37 left. Atlanta rallied behind 4-foot-4 guard Charlie Criss, who scored 13 of his 17 points in the second half, as the Hawks closed to within seven points early in the fourth quarter.

Larry Bird added 25 points for Boston, the Atlantic Division front-runner, and Dan

Missouri Scores Big Eight Tournament Win

By United Press International

Missouri Coach Norm Stewart seems to like the idea of playing post-season games.

"For our young team it is good to play extra games," Stewart said Tuesday night, after his ninth-ranked Tigers defeated Oklahoma State, 82-69, in the first round of the Big Eight tournament.

"We're improving with every game. If we were more experienced, rest might help us, but right now I think we can improve and the games will be good for us."

Guard Larry Drew scored 20 points to lead Missouri, which scored the first nine points of the second half to break open a close game and take a 49-36 lead. Missouri's largest lead was 18 points midway through the second half.

Stewart, 23-4, will meet Kansas in one semifinal game of the post-season tourney Friday night in Kansas City. Nebraska faces Kansas State in the other.

Four starters scored in double figures for St. Peter's. Senior captain

Hayes Release Due Today

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (UPI) — Former Dallas Cowboys all-time receiver Phil Hayes, who has spent most of the past year in prison on a drug conviction, will be released today.

Hayes is scheduled, in the words of Texas Department of Corrections officials, to return to society "as early as 8:30 a.m. CST today, the 32nd day after he arrived to serve a five-year sentence for delivery of a controlled substance — cocaine.

Hayes' attorney, Phil Barlowe of Dallas, said the 1968 Summer Olympics medalist has had several business offers in Dallas, and also has been approached about a position with state agency, which Barlowe declined to name.

"He also will involve himself in charity work and some drug-related education work," the attorney said.

Hayes, 38, known as "Bullet Phil" during his pro football days because of his speed, was convicted last February, but appeals kept him out of prison until April.

He served his sentence in a unit designated for first offenders. After going through diagnostic tests, Hayes received a trusty's job as a porter in the Ferguson unit symposium.

"He has not created any disciplinary problems while he was in the system and has been an average inmate. We've had no problems with him," a prison spokesman said.

On Jan. 4 the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles recommended the parole on Hayes' first application.

Because of his speed, Hayes originally was recruited to the Cowboys in 1965. He was one of the few players at Dallas he set team records that still stand for touchdowns scored, receptions and punt returns.

'About 40 percent of the Vietnam veterans showed signs of difficulty in readjusting,' says Dr. Joseph Mancusi, psychiatric director at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Memphis. Mancusi's hospital and about 80 other sites across the nation will soon house outreach centers, where veterans can relax and share their problems with specialists who care and want to help.

Program Helps Embittered Vietnam Veterans

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — The Vietnam War has been over for more than a decade, but thousands of GIs still carry scars and memories of America's most unpopular war. They came home to a country that was bitter over the conflict and in many ways the veterans bore the brunt of that bitterness, said Dr. Joseph Mancusi, psychiatric director at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Memphis where a new support program for troubled vets will open soon. The new "Outreach Centers," conceived by VA Director Max Cleland, are designed to provide a storefront setting where Vietnam vets can come in for help not normally available in VA institutions. In fact, Mancusi emphasized, the new program is dissociated from the normal VA bureaucracy so veterans who are apprehensive about going to the VA for help will not have that barrier to overcome. To take that point a step further, Mancusi said some of the counselors already signed up for the program were drawn from the ranks of Vietnam Veterans Against the War. "We want to extend the service to the embittered veterans," Mancusi said in an interview. "We can help them. We can do something for them." Nationwide, about 80 "Outreach Centers" will be in operation by late winter or early spring.

"Hope without hassles," is the way Mancusi describes the center to be opened in the Memphis downtown area sometime in this month. Vietnam vets, who have been able to re-enter the mainstream of American society and get over the problems they carried with them from the war, and persons experienced in dealing with troubled vets will form the core of the center staffs. The centers will be located in easily accessible areas and will not be split-and-polish type institutions. "They'll be walking into the kind of place where it won't matter if their hair is combed or their shoes are shined," Mancusi said. "We want it to be a comfortable place where they can relax and share their problems with someone who cares and wants to help." "About 40 percent of the Vietnam veterans showed signs of difficulty in readjusting," Mancusi said. "They've got problems ranging from alcohol and drugs to a significantly higher suicide and divorce rate." Local agencies, including the probation and referral service, welfare offices, churches, other counseling groups and the VA itself, will be on the lookout for veterans who can benefit from the new outreach program. The Vietnam vets entered and left the war in different ways from soldiers in previous wars. They were not shipped overseas in units, but were primarily sent on a one-by-one basis, Mancusi said. They had a definite date to return and were not there for the duration of the fighting. Most were simply discharged rather than having their psychiatric problems treated and many took home with them a drug problem picked up in efforts to alleviate stress from the battlefield. "Some of the hostages who were returned from Iran were debriefed longer than a guy who spent a year in Nam," Mancusi said. "They put some of these guys on a plane and 72 hours later they were home after having been on the battlefield where people were being killed." Mancusi said the sociological and political climate in this country has changed enough to permit Vietnam veterans to shed their guilty feelings about the fighting. "We've got to separate the warrior from the war," Mancusi said. "We've got to give some help to the guy who went over there and fought that war. "We're going to beat the bushes for these guys and try and give them some help in a helpful environment," he said. "This is open to any vet who thinks they have a problem and want to talk about it." "You wouldn't believe what can be done with these guys," Mancusi said. "If we can help 100 in three years, the program will have more than paid for the tax money it used, for the number of wives not beaten up, for the number of children not neglected and for the number of work hours saved."

Jeans, Bacon And Eggs Cheaper Than Year Ago

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Despite the crash of double-digit inflation, some consumer products are less expensive now than they were a year ago. For instance, bacon and eggs cost less last month than in January 1979, government statisticians revealed Tuesday. Long-distance telephone charges have fallen, as have the price of a pair of jeans and women's sportswear. Each month, the Bureau of Labor Statistics surveys thousands of stores and retail outlets in 85 urban areas of the United States, including the 28 largest U.S. cities. The information is organized into a 250-item "market basket" of goods and services. Officials said prices of 17 of those items actually went down during the past year when viewed as a nationwide average. But, the statisticians cautioned, it is possible all 17 items did not show price drops in certain areas of the country. On the other hand, some may have dropped at a sharper pace in a particular area than indicated by the nationwide average. The decline leader should put a smile on the faces of sal-d lovers.

Cook Of The Week

Stir-Frying Is Quick And Nutritious

By TOM NETSEL
Herald Staff Writer

Like many women who combine a career with marriage, Sandy Crews finds she does not have a lot of time left to spend in the kitchen. Mrs. Crews has owned her own beauty salon in Sanford since 1970 and usually puts in four days and an evening at her shop. Reflections of Beauty. Keeping up with new hair styles and entering styling competitions also keeps her on the move. "I'm always out for hair shows," she said, taking a day off and sipping a cup of coffee she blended and ground herself. Two nights a week she can be found at Seminole Community College taking several courses, including Spanish which helps in her business since many of her customers are Hispanic, she said. Mrs. Crews and her husband enjoy having friends over for cocktails on the weekends, but, she said, spending the evenings in the kitchen is not her idea of a gracious entertaining. The cream cheese ball and the mushroom caps (recipes below) can be prepared ahead of time and served when the guests arrive. Chinese cooking is another interest of Mrs. Crews. Both she and her husband are aware of nutrition and natural foods and find that the fast cooking of vegetables in the Chinese wok retains the vitamins and taste. "We eat very little meat," she said, "but we eat lots of vegetables."

MR. AND MRS. HOCKENBERRY

Valerie Scott, M. Hockenberry Exchange Vows

Miss Valerie Lynn Scott and Michael Hockenberry were united in holy matrimony Feb. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at The Church of the Nativity, 663 West State Route 427. Father Clement J. Kuhns performed the double ring ceremony in a candlelight service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen Scott, 461 George Ave., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hockenberry, W. Palmetto Ave., all of Longwood. The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She chose for her vows a formal gown of white saten with a Queen Anne neckline and full Balloon sleeves. The empire bodice and the cuffs of the sleeves were trimmed in silk Venice lace. The A-line skirt extended into a cathedral train with a lace trimmed hem line. The bride's matching walking length mantilla created a total look. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses, fern and baby's breath. The sisters of the bride served as her attendants. Brenda Cole was her matron of honor and Robin Oldham and Gillian Scott were her bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical burgandy sheer crepe fashioned with a high neckline, and a cape effect beginning just below the bustline in the front, with the cape draped softly across the shoulders falling to the waist in the back. James Hockenberry, brother of the bridegroom, served as the best man. Ushers-groomsmen were Allen Scott, Jr., brother of the bride, and Peter Bartlinski. Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at The Springs. When the newlyweds return from a wedding trip to Beech Mountain Ski Resort, North Carolina, they will be at home at 254 W. Magnolia Ave., Longwood. The bride is records-clerk-dispatcher for the Longwood Police Department and the bridegroom is a fireman with the Longwood Fire Department. THE FITZPATRICK

Wife Who Stayed Home Lost Husband At Reunion

DEAR ABBY: I have no sympathy for the wife who went to her husband's 10th high school reunion, didn't know a soul, and was hurt and miserable because she was ignored.

When I wanted to attend my 20th high school reunion, I invited my wife to come along to show my old pals how well I had married. She thanked me for the compliment, but insisted that I go alone so I could reminisce freely without having to spend part of my time looking after her.

Dreamy Desserts Take On Magic Airs

Just because ambrosia was the name given to the food and drink of the mythological gods doesn't mean it's excluded from man's enjoyment. This refreshing coconut Ambrosia Continental looks elaborate but is simple to prepare.

Disney's films and Disney's dreams have touched nearly every American. Middle-aged folk remember seeing Disney films, such as Bambi and Dumbo, when they were children. Their own children watched Disney animation on TV. And their children hope for the day they can go to Disneyland — America's country within a country.

Making a rare appearance, the show's host will be Danny Kaye — one of the world's most famous grown-up kids. Danny, a man of considerable and varied talents, is especially noted for his work with children through his role as roving international ambassador-at-large for UNICEF.

Also appearing will be nearly a dozen famous personalities whose pasts are intertwined with Disneyland, and Adam Rich, from "Eight is Enough," who will be acting out every kid's fantasy — getting locked in the Magic Kingdom when the gates are closed for the night. All the old favorites come to greet Adam. From Mickey to Donald to Goofy — they're all there and all a part of the magic.

Everything connected with Disneyland seems to be touched with magic. Take the two recipes featured below and photographed in a tea party setting. Sweet and colorful, they conjure up a picture of cotton candy dreams.

1 egg
1/4 cup soft bread crumbs
1 envelope onion cup-soup
1 envelope tomato cup-soup
1 package (8 oz.) refrigerated crescent rolls
Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
In medium bowl, combine all ingredients except dough. Shape into 4 individual loaves.
Separate dough into 4 rectangles; seal perforations. Press dough over tops and sides of meat mixture; trim edges. Prick with fork. Garnish, if desired, with remaining dough. Place in ungreased shallow baking pan and bake 30 minutes or until golden brown. Makes about 2 servings.

SALAMI BUTTERFLIES

1 carton Whipped Cream cheese with Chives
Very thin slice Salami (almost transparent)
Small stuffed olives
Dill or Sweet Pickle

Spread bread rounds with cream cheese. Fold thin salami slice in half. Spread a small amount of cream cheese on center line or crevice. Now fold and pinch into quarters. The "wings" of butterfly will open slightly. Add a small piece of olive on each wing. Add two very small slices of pickles for antennae. Add an additional 1/4 teaspoon of cream cheese spread in center of bread round to hold "butterfly." Refrigerate or freeze in light container until serving time.

SUPER WHEAT-GERM WAFFLES

1 cup vacuum-packed wheat germ, regular
1 (14-to-15 ounce) package corn-muffin mix
2 cups milk
1 egg
Cup butter, melted

Combine all ingredients stirring until smooth. Heat baffle square waffle iron to high. Brush grids with melted oil. Pour 1 cup batter onto iron. Spread out slightly with back of spoon.
Bake 3 to 4 minutes or until golden brown. Serve with butter and syrup.
If waffles are to be frozen, bake slightly lighter than usual. Cool. Wrap in moisture-proof plastic bag or foil. Freeze with wax paper between each waffle. Reheat in toaster or microwave oven.
This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 waffles, each 8-inches square.

SUPER SALMON STRATA (8 servings)

1 can (15 1/2 oz.) salmon
14 slices cocktail rye bread
2 cups (8 oz.) shredded Swiss cheese
1 package (10 oz.) frozen chopped broccoli, thawed and drained
Milk
6 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce

Drain and flake salmon, reserving liquid in a measuring cup. Cut bread slices into triangles or halves. Grease a 2-quart baking dish and cover bottom with half the bread slices. Top with one-third of the cheese, then all of the salmon and broccoli and 1/4 of the remaining cheese. Arrange remaining bread triangles over top. Add enough milk to reserved salmon liquid to make 1-1/4 cups. Combine with beaten eggs and seasonings. Pour egg mixture over salmon-broccoli mixture. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate at least 1 hour or overnight. Uncover and bake in preheated 350 degree F. oven 45 minutes. Top with remaining cheese and return to oven for 15 minutes. Let stand 10 minutes before serving.
A meatless meal can be marvelous when this souffle is on the menu. Salmon provides the flavor while eggs add excitement.

Edible Egg, Salmon Turn 'Ho Hum' Meals To 'Ummm'

During the 40 days from Ash Wednesday to Holy Week, thousands of families across the nation will be observing Lent. For those who wish to carry on the "meatless meals on Friday" tradition, here are several delicious new recipes. For those who don't observe Lent, but do look for flavorful ways to feed a family, the incredible edible egg and canned salmon can turn "ho hum" meals into "ummm" terrific ones!

With a carton or two of eggs in your refrigerator and canned salmon on the shelf, you can create some marvelous meatless meals. These relatively low-calorie foods are packed with protein, vitamins and minerals. And egg and salmon dishes are easy to prepare quickly — a boon to the busy chef!

For hearty family suppers or elegant entertaining, remember salmon and eggs. This incredible duo fills the bill for Lent or any other time you want to serve a delicious, nutritious meal in a hurry. Keep them both on hand.

As simple as pie — a savory custard pie, that is. Pour a seasoned egg and salmon mixture into a pie shell, bake and enjoy!

EASY SALMON QUICHE (6 servings)

1 (8-inch) pie shell, unbaked
6 eggs, beaten
1 can (7 1/2 oz.) salmon
Milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons instant minced onion
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Watercress or parsley, optional

Brush pie shell with small amount of the beaten eggs. Prick bottom and sides with fork. If using a pie plate, bake shell in preheated 425 degree F. oven until golden brown, about 9 minutes. If using a metal pie pan, bake shell at 450 degree F. Cool on wire rack. Reduce oven temperature to 350 degree F. for pie plate, 375 degree F. for metal pie pan.

Drain and flake salmon, reserving liquid in a measuring cup. Add enough milk to make 1-1/2 cups. Combine with beaten eggs and seasonings. Sprinkle salmon in pie shell. Pour in egg-milk mixture. Bake in preheated oven 35 to 40 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Let stand 5 to 10 minutes before serving. Garnish with watercress or parsley.

(You may use a thawed, frozen deep-dish pie shell. Pre-bake shell in preheated 425 degree F. oven. Bake quiche at 375 degree F.)

An omelet is an envelope, a nutritious, delicious envelope and it's sensational when filled with salmon and topped with quick-fix Cucumber Sauce.

SALMON OMELETS WITH CUCUMBER SAUCE (6 servings)

1/2 cup (4 oz.) dairy sour cream
1/2 cup chopped peeled cucumber
1 tablespoon minced green onions with tops
1 tablespoon dried dill weed
1 can (7 1/2 oz.) salmon, undrained and flaked
8 eggs
1/2 cup water
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup butter, divided Fresh dill weed, optional

Combine sour cream, cucumber, onion and dill weed. Cover and refrigerate while preparing omelets. In a small saucepan over medium heat, heat salmon and keep hot. Mix eggs, water, salt and pepper with fork. For each omelet: Heat 1 tablespoon butter in 8-inch omelet pan over medium-high heat until just hot enough to sizzle a drop of water. Pour in 1/2 cup egg mixture. Mixture should set at edges at once. With pancake turner turned over, carefully push cooked portions at edges toward center so uncooked portions flow to bottom. Tilt pan as necessary so uncooked eggs can flow. Slide pan rapidly back and forth over heat to keep mixture in motion and sliding freely. While top is still moist and creamy-looking, fill with about 1/4 cup hot salmon. With pancake turner, fold in half or roll, turning out onto plate with a quick flip of the egg mixture. Mixture should set at edges at once. Top each omelet with about 1/4 cup chilled cucumber sauce. Garnish with fresh dill.

SAVE 19¢ LENDER'S EGG, ONION, PLAIN OR PUMPERNICKEL Bagels 12-oz. pkg. 39¢

Butter
Grated Parmesan cheese
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed cream of onion soup, undiluted
1 can (7 1/2 oz.) salmon, well-drained and flaked
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
6 eggs, separated
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar

Butter bottom and sides of 2-quart soufflé dish or casserole. Dust with Parmesan cheese. In medium saucepan, combine soup, salmon, 2 tablespoons Parmesan cheese and lemon peel. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture is hot. Remove from heat.

In small mixing bowl, beat egg yolks at high speed until thick and lemon-colored, about 5 minutes. Wash and dry beaters. Blend a small amount of hot salmon mixture into yolks, then stir warmed yolk mixture into salmon mixture.

In large mixing bowl, beat egg whites and cream of tartar at high speed until stiff but not dry, just until whites no longer slip when bowl is tilted. Gently but thoroughly fold yolk mixture into whites. Carefully pour into prepared dish. For "top hat", hold a spoon upright and circle mixture to make ring about 1 inch from side of dish and 1 inch deep.

Bake in preheated 350 degree F. oven until puffy, delicately browned and soufflé shakes slightly when oven rack is gently moved back and forth, 35 to 40 minutes. Serve immediately. Add cheddar to Lenten meals with sunny eggs and savory salmon. This unique "meatless" loaf is easy to make but impressive to serve.

SALMON EGG LOAF (6 servings)

1 can (15 1/2 oz.) salmon
3 eggs, beaten
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1/4 cup chopped pimiento-stuffed green olives
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1 tablespoon snipped parsley
1 tablespoon lemon juice
3 hard-cooked eggs
Egg-Parsley Sauce

Drain and flake salmon, reserving liquid in a measuring cup for Egg-Parsley Sauce. In medium bowl, combine salmon juice with beaten eggs, crumbs, olives, onion, parsley and lemon juice. Spread one-third mixture in 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch well-greased loaf pan. Place hard-cooked eggs end-to-end on top of mixture, pressing lightly. Gently but firmly pat remaining salmon mixture over and around eggs. Bake in pre-heated 350 degree F. oven 35 to 40 minutes. Unmold to serve. Top with Egg-Parsley Sauce.

EGG-PARSLEY SAUCE (about 1 1/2 cups)

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
Reserved salmon liquid
Chicken broth
1 egg, beaten
2 tablespoons snipped parsley
2 tablespoons lemon juice

In small saucepan, melt butter. Blend in flour. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until smooth and bubbly. Add enough chicken broth to reserved salmon liquid to make 1-one-third cups. Stir into flour mixture. Cook and stir until mixture boils and thickens. Blend small amount of hot sauce into beaten egg, then stir egg into sauce. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, 1 minute. Stir in parsley and lemon juice.

One Of Hungary's Most Popular Dishes

Goulash Variations Have Made It Adaptable Entree

Goulash (actually, Gulyas) is one of the most popular and traditional of all Hungarian meat dishes. The stew originated in the ninth century when shepherds cut meat into cubes, cooked it with onion in a heavy kettle, and then slowly simmered the dish until all the liquid evaporated. The meat was then dried in the sun and stored.

Whenever the sheep tenders were hungry, they added some water to several chunks of the dried meat. With a lot of water, the dish became goulash soup, while a smaller quantity of liquid turned it into simple goulash. Since its humble beginnings, variations on goulash have made it a most adaptable dish. Beef, lamb, or pork may be used as the meat; paprika, garlic, and caraway are customary seasonings; and tomatoes, potatoes, bacon, and sauerkraut are common additions. Sour cream is often used to lend a deliciously rich final fillip.

Elsa's Goulash Soup is a beefy version that comes to us via a Swiss friend. Tender cubes of beef and potato simmer in a broth that is seasoned with caraway and garlic. Although the dish is termed "soup," it is still hearty enough to serve as a main course at dinner.

Pork Goulash is an economical, full-flavored variation. Pork and sauerkraut are simmered until tender in chicken broth that is subtly seasoned with paprika and marjoram.

ELSA'S GOULASH SOUP

- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil
  - 1 pound beef chuck, cut into 1/2-inch cubes
  - 1/2 cup flour
  - 7 cups beef broth
  - 2 cups chopped onion
  - 1 clove garlic, minced
  - 1 tablespoon paprika
  - 1 teaspoon flavor enhancer
  - 3/4 teaspoon dried leaf marjoram
  - 1/2 teaspoon caraway seed
  - 3 medium potatoes, peeled and diced
  - 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- In a large saucepot or heavy kettle, heat oil; brown meat well on all sides; remove and reserve. Stir in flour, cook over medium heat until flour is lightly browned. Add beef broth, onion, garlic, paprika, flavor enhancer, marjoram and caraway seeds. Return cooked beef to kettle. Simmer 1 1/2 hours. Add potatoes, simmer 15 to 20 minutes longer or until potatoes and meat are tender. Sprinkle with chopped parsley. Yield: 6 to 8 servings. (Approximately 10 cups)

PORK GOULASH

- 2 pounds pork shoulder, cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes
- 2 teaspoons flavor enhancer, divided
- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil

Bread slices thicken stew beautifully.

Rye Bread Surprise In This Stew

Cook up a good old-fashioned stew the easy way. Take stewing beef flavored with paprika, pepper and onions and add the surprise ingredient — torn pieces of rye bread. Simmer for 2 hours, and you will find the stew beautifully thickened. Now all you have to do is add sliced carrots, parsnips, celery and accent with the chewy texture of California ripe olives.

Surprise Stew will give you a hearty main dish served over egg noodles or with a whipped potato border. Add green beans or broccoli for complete nutrition.

California ripe olives are an appetizing ingredient in any dish adding nutty flavor, firm texture and appealing color contrast.

SURPRISE STEW

- 2 lbs. stewing beef
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1 large onion, diced
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cans (10 1/2 ounce) condensed beef bouillon
- 1 cup water
- 3 slices caraway rye bread
- 1 cup pitted ripe olives, sliced
- 3 large carrots, sliced
- 1 parsnip, sliced
- 1/4 cups celery, sliced

Brown beef in oil until well browned. Add onion, paprika, salt and pepper. Stir well. Add bouillon, water and rye bread, torn in small pieces. Cover and bring to a boil. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until meat is almost tender, about two hours. Add olives, carrots, parsnip and celery. Cook 15 minutes longer. Makes 8 (1 cup) servings.

- 2 large onions, sliced
  - 1 tablespoon paprika
  - 1 can (12 1/2 ounce) chicken broth
  - 1 clove garlic, minced
  - 1/2 teaspoon dried leaf marjoram
  - 1 package (1 pound) sauerkraut, rinsed and drained
  - 3/4 cup sour cream
  - 2 tablespoons flour
- Sprinkle pork with 1 teaspoon flavor enhancer. In a heavy saucepot or Dutch oven, heat oil over high heat; brown meat well, remove. Sauté onion until golden brown. Return pork to saucepot; sprinkle with remaining 1 teaspoon flavor enhancer and paprika. Add chicken broth, garlic and marjoram. Cover. Simmer 30 minutes. Stir in sauerkraut, continue cooking 30 minutes longer or until pork is tender. In small bowl, blend together sour cream and flour; stir into saucepot. Heat gently 3 to 5 minutes, or until mixture thickens slightly. DO NOT BOIL. Yield: 6 servings.

Goulash is a favorite around the world.

Irish Soda Bread A Must For Any Colleen, Any Day

Not long ago, American menus were largely based on the origins of our families. Those hailing from Italy prepared large pans of lasagne, those with a Scandinavian heritage made glorious herring salads.

But with the growing popularity of international cuisines from Thai to Peruvian, many home cooks are knowledgeable about a great variety of dishes from around the world. These foods lend interest and sophistication to menu planning.

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with the food of the Irish. You need not trace your ancestry to the Emerald Isle to enjoy homey, hearty Irish fare!

Irish Soda Bread is a must for any Colleen's St. Patrick's Day dinner. This bread is a "quick" one, meaning that there's no tedious kneading or time-consuming rising. The crust is crisp and golden and the crumb light and delicate.

In a medium saucepan combine unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup sugar and salt. Beat together egg yolks, milk and instant coffee; stir into gelatin mixture. Stir over low heat, until gelatin is completely dissolved, about 5 to 8 minutes.

Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. In a large mixing bowl beat egg whites with cream of tartar until soft peaks form; gradually add remaining 1/2 cup sugar, and beat until stiff. Fold in gelatin mixture. Turn into prepared Chocolate Crumb Crust. Chill until firm, about 3 hours. Before serving, garnish with chocolate curls.

Yield: One 9-inch pie, 8 servings.

3/4 cup milk
3 tablespoons powdered instant coffee
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
Chocolate curls
To prepare crumb crust: In small bowl combine chocolate wafer crumbs, 2 tablespoons sugar and 1/4 cup melted butter; press mixture into a 9-inch pie plate. Bake in a 350 degree F. oven 8 minutes. Cool completely.

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with hearty Corned Beef and Cabbage Rolls, Irish Soda Bread and Erin Chiffon Pie.

Corned beef and cabbage are popular holiday foods for the honoring of St. Pat. In place of the usual boiled dinner, try our flavorful Corned Beef and Cabbage Rolls.

The dish is simplified and prepared more quickly by using canned corned beef, which is mixed with finely chopped vegetables for a most tasty filling. The entire dish may be assembled beforehand and stored in an appropriate-sized container. The seal keeps the cabbage leaves moist and prevents odors from escaping into the refrigerator.

Everyone will want to share the "luck o' the Irish" with a slice of Erin Chiffon Pie. The crisp chocolate-cookie crust holds a rich and delicate coffee chiffon filling.

IRISH SODA BREAD
4 cups unbleached all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon salt
3/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
2 cups buttermilk
1/2 cup raisins
2 teaspoons caraway seeds
1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted
In medium mixing bowl, combine dry ingredients. Make a well in the center. Pour in buttermilk. Mix well. Add raisins and caraway seeds. Knead lightly on a well-floured surface, adding more flour, if necessary, to form a soft dough. Shape into a 6-inch round loaf. Place on greased baking sheet. Cut a cross on top of the dough with a sharp knife, cutting in about 1/4 inch. Bake in a 375 degree F. oven about 1 hour, 20 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Place on wire rack, brush with melted butter. Cool thoroughly. To serve, slice thinly.

CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE ROLLS
8 large cabbage leaves
1 tablespoon vegetable oil
1 cup chopped raw potato
1/2 cup shredded raw cabbage
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1/4 cup finely shredded carrot
2 tablespoons finely chopped celery
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1 can (12 ounces) corned beef, finely chopped
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup flour
1 can (1 1/2 ounces) beef broth
1/2 cup chopped parsley
In large saucepot of boiling water, cook cabbage leaves 5 minutes. Drain; pat dry, set aside. Or, another way to wilt leaves: Place cabbage leaves in freezer overnight. Half hour before using, place frozen leaves in large bowl of hot water. In medium skillet heat oil; add potatoes; cook 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add shredded cabbage, onion, carrot, celery and salt. Cook until vegetables are tender. In medium mixing bowl, beat egg; mix in corned beef, bread crumbs and cooked vegetable mixture. Spoon equal amounts of the corned beef mixture in center of each cabbage leaf. Fold sides of cabbage leaf towards center over filling; then fold and overlap ends to make a small bundle. Fasten with wooden picks. Place in 11 1/2 x 7 1/2 x 1 1/2-inch baking dish. To prepare sauce, melt butter in a small saucepan. Blend in flour; gradually add beef broth. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Pour sauce over cabbage rolls. Cover. Bake in a 375 degree F. oven 30 minutes. Remove picks before serving.

Top individual meat loaves with potatoes.

Use Hot Mashed Potatoes For Topping

Individual meat loaves are ideal make-ahead fare for a busy family. When ready to serve, top them with hot mashed potatoes. Youngsters, especially, will enjoy this combination of two favorite foods. Serve with broiled tomatoes or carrots and peas with milk as the beverage.

POTATO-CRUSTED BEEF LOAVES
2 pounds ground beef chuck
2 eggs
1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper
2/3rd cup cracker meal
2 teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon Angostura aromatic bitters
2 cups hot seasoned mashed potatoes
Combine all ingredients except mashed potatoes. Mix until well blended.

Shape mixture into 8 individual meat loaves. Place loaves side by side on shallow baking pan. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven for 30 minutes.
Remove from oven. Spoon mashed potatoes down center of each loaf. Replace in oven and bake another 10 to 15 minutes or until potatoes are lightly browned.
Serve meat loaves with tomato slices, celery hearts and sweet shirkims.
This kitchen-tested recipe makes 8 individual loaves.

HERBED BEEF AND POTATOES ANNA
2 tablespoons instant minced onion
1/2 teaspoon instant minced garlic
2 tablespoons water
2 tablespoons oil
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1 (15-ounce) can tomato sauce
1 (10-ounce) package frozen peas, thawed
4 teaspoons basil leaves, crushed and divided
1 1/2 teaspoons salt, divided

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
Melt butter in small saucepan. Stir in remaining 1 teaspoon basil and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Set aside.
Top meat in casserole with layer of one-third of potatoes. Brush with one-third of butter mixture. Repeat layering with potatoes and herbed butter twice more.
Bake, uncovered, until potatoes are tender and golden, about 1 hour.
This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 portions.

Tasty Salads Help To Drop Extra Pounds

With spring around the corner and summer not much farther away, it is time to think of dropping those extra pounds we have been hiding under winter logs. Those fortunate enough to have wintered in warmer climates will still want to add a few low-calorie salads to their menus.

Salad ingredients usually are low in calories, of course. But proteins can arise when a rich high-calorie dressing is added. This special lettuce dressing adds a wedge of iceberg lettuce for a diet total of only about 45 calories a serving.

Enjoy this salad with a glass of skim milk and a fresh fruit cup for a satisfying — and pleasing — lunch.

LOW-CAL ICEBERG WEDGES WITH TOMATO DRESSING
1 head iceberg lettuce
1 cup tomato sauce
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon steak sauce
1/4 teaspoon monosodium glutamate (optional)
1/4 teaspoon caraway seed
1 cucumber, thinly sliced
Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce. Chill in disposable plastic bag or crisper.
For dressing, combine all remaining ingredients except cucumber in jar. Cover and shake to blend. Chill.
Cut lettuce head into quarters. Arrange with cucumber on salad plates. Pour dressing over just before serving.
This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings (2-3rd cup dressing of approximately 45 calories per serving).

This chilled salad with a dressing made more palatable with curry powder can be served as a main course or as part of a buffet — along with corned beef and cabbage for traditional St. Patrick's Day.
Containing rock lobster with economical noodles and vegetables makes this shellfish less expensive as an entrée for family or guests.

ROCK LOBSTER GREEN NOODLE SALAD
24 ounces frozen South African rock-lobster tails
1 (8-ounce) package spinach egg noodles
2 cups chicken broth
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Ground pepper
2 stalks celery, cut in 1/2-inch pieces
1 cucumber, sliced
1 large onion, sliced
1 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon curry powder
Drop frozen rock lobster tails into boiling salted water. When water resumes boiling, cook 3 minutes for 3-ounce size or slightly longer for larger tails.
Drain immediately. Drain with cold water. Cut away underside membrane. Remove meat in one piece and slice into medallions.
Cook and drain noodles according to package directions. In large bowl, combine noodles with 1 1/2 cups hot chicken broth, lemon juice and pepper to taste. Cool.
At serving time, top noodles with rock-lobster medallions, celery, cucumber and onion.
Mix mayonnaise with curry powder and 1/2 cup chicken broth until smooth. Pour over top of salad.
This kitchen-tested recipe makes 8 servings.

Cooking for one or two? Bet you look hard for budget-wise and appetizing main dishes that come in small quantities — and require a minimum of fuss.
Hearty Ham Yam Salad is a delicious solution. It's easy to prepare and economical, too. And there's no waste involved since it serves only a pair. And, if you're dining alone, the salad can be stored in the same bowl in the refrigerator until its next menu appearance within a few days.

HAM YAM SALAD
2 medium-size yams or sweet potatoes
1/2 pound cooked ham, cut into 1/2-inch cubes
3/4 cup diagonally sliced celery
1/2rd cup sour cream
2 tablespoons milk
1/4 teaspoon Dijon-style mustard
1/4 teaspoon salt
Pinch pepper
Lettuce leaves
In a medium saucepan, cook yams in boiling salted water to cover for 20 minutes or until tender. Cool. Peel yams, cut into 1/2-inch cubes. In a medium bowl, combine yams, ham and celery. Refrigerate until well chilled. Combine sour cream, milk, mustard, salt and pepper. Stir until well blended. Pour over ham mixture, toss lightly. Serve over lettuce leaves. Yield: 2 servings.

Woman's Will Orders Execution Of 'Lonely' Pet Dog

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals says it will go to court to block a woman's will condemning her pet dog to death — out of love.

"She felt in her heart nobody could bestow on the dog the kind of attention, love and devotion she could," said SPCA director Richard Avanzino.

Mary Murphy's will, attributed to probate Friday, instructed that Sido, a blonde and white female sheltie, or a collie mix, be put to sleep to keep her from being lonely.

Mrs. Murphy, who lived alone in a Mission District apartment, died just before Christmas. Sido, her pet dog for eight years, was taken to the SPCA shelter.

Avanzino said the SPCA has decided to fight in the courts for Sido's life.

"In the eyes of the law," he said, "the owner is correct. A dog is considered personal property or chattel, a disposable item, like a piece of furniture."

"We're saying that's wrong, that an animal should have rights that go above and beyond personal property."

"We'll argue that — and keep on appealing, if necessary, regardless of the number of years involved. We will make sure this dog lives."

Avanzino said four attorneys have offered to take up the case — without a fee.

Since Sido's fate was made public last month, the SPCA has received more than 250 letters agreeing she should be saved. "More than 100 people have offered her homes and their hearts," Avanzino said.

"I think it's a very touching thing," he said. "I think it's a very touching thing."

Some said Sido should be allowed to join her master in the hereafter.

"She's shown a tremendous amount of vitality and love. She likes to go walking with me and my dog, plays ball, begs at the table, even sleeps on my bed," Avanzino said.

"If Mary Murphy could see that, I'm sure she would be convinced someone else could provide the right kind of home for Sido."

Real People' Bask In Sanford's 'Golden Age' Glow

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

"It's a bright morning in Sanford," beamed Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Executive Manager Jack Horner, still glowing after Wednesday night's "Real People" salute to Sanford's Golden Age Olympics.

"It was marvelous — I'm tickled to death," Horner said of the popular NBC network television show seen at 8 p.m. Wednesday on Channel 2. "It was an extra-long segment, pretty close to five minutes. We sent a letter to all the gold medalists informing them when the program was going to be aired."

"There has been a great response from the townspeople and when the chamber's commercial committee met this morning they were excited because of the Golden Age Olympics promotion and were really pleased with good publicity the program brought to Sanford," Horner said.

"I am expecting a good response from the program and think we will be getting inquiries from all over the country asking how to enter the Golden Age Olympics this year," he said. "They put a full three days of events on film — not tape — and I have requested the use of the film that was on the cutting room floor to use in a promotional film, but haven't received a reply yet."

Horner credited Art Grindle of Altamonte Springs for getting "Real People" to come to Sanford for the Golden Age Olympics. "He promoted it both times he was on out there to be on the program," he explained. Grindle was featured in the best TV car salesman contest and the "Real People" show

Olympics and originator of the concept. "They managed to condense hours of filming into a few minutes on the air and still showed what the olympics are all about," he said.

"They got the people involved saying things from the heart and it really came across. They only mentioned Sanford once, but that was enough," Arnett added.

"I enjoyed it very much. I didn't see myself, but I saw a lot of other people I knew," he said.

One of the familiar faces that flashed briefly on the video screen was Jack Weible, past president of the Sanford Kiwanis, who was seen presenting medals to winners in the track and field events.

"I thought the whole show was very good, but I like the special emphasis they put on the swimming and track and field events," said Weible. Kiwanis Earl Weldon, Paul Rush and Don Hughes were also in scenes filmed at the Seminole High School stadium.

"Next year we'll probably get Kiwanis jackets," said Weible. "I expect we will be getting inquiries from other parts of the country now wanting to know how they can start Golden Age Olympics events there. We got a call the other day from a St. Louis newspaper about starting one there. They had checked on some of the off-shoot programs like West Palm Beach and Miami and the trail led back to us."

Some of the other local instant celebrities seen on the show Jermagan noted were Jim Kyan, John Kane, Kay Thompson, Hattie Boyd, Garol Pace, Florence Korgan, Edith Harrison.

Paulucci Eyes Downtown Sanford Convention Center?

By DONNA ESTES

The burned-out one-block area on Palmetto Avenue from First Street to Commercial was a good site for a recreational or convention center in the view of Sanford and Dunth, Minn. industrialist Jeno Paulucci.

Paulucci in a letter to Sanford City Manager Warren Knowles, has suggested either of the two structures be considered for the site with possible financing from U.S. Economic Development Administration (EDA) grants and loans.

In recommending the construction, Paulucci noted he has for some time believed that to revive the downtown area, a center of this sort is necessary to attract people. Knowles said Paulucci may be meeting with the city commission on the matter.

John Krieger, one of the principal owners of the property, said today he was urged by its legal advisory Douglas Stenstrom to keep in touch with proposed development in the city. He noted specifically the Palmetto Avenue site was urged by the Palmetto Avenue site, to be constructed at a future time by the Hospital Corporation of America, and the planned condominium high-rise to be built off 15-92 near Lake Monroe.

Stenstrom reminded the group the organization's revitalization plans include not only the three-block core area downtown but other parts of Sanford as well.

He urged that notice be given to how the proposed developments fit into the overall plan for revitalization. Original sketches of plans are to be displayed at the chamber of commerce.

Plans for the revitalization of the downtown area are being held up while agreement is being worked out among downtown merchants on the scope of the revitalization. The city commission has budgeted funds for landscaping, sidewalk and street modifications.

The organization elected new officers this morning including John Mervet as chairman, Don Knight, vice-chairman, Tom Wilson, secretary, and Cal Conklin, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were: Dick Barnett, Chris Elso, Jerry Gross and Eunice Wilson. Re-elected to the board of directors were: Vic Arnett, John Carl, Boyd Coleman, Conkin, Walter Gielow, Carl Gutmann, Rose Jacobson, Sara Jacobson, Knight, Glenn McCall, Mervet, Gordon Sweeney, Mark Washburn, Fred Wilson and Tom Wilson.

Stromberg Mulls Busing Service

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Will the Orange-Seminole-Osceola Transportation Authority (OSOTA) provide bus transportation to and from work for the 500 Stromberg-Carlson employees who live in the Sanford area? This question was posed by Stromberg representative Joe Hartwig, Wednesday. He received two questions in response from county and OSOTA representatives.

County Commissioner Fred Stromberg said he would like to subsidize the bus service if it were available to make up the difference between fare box revenues and costs of the service. And Stromberg would undertake a program of incentives to encourage its employees to ride the buses.

A meeting to discuss the possibility of bus service was called by Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Executive Manager Jack Horner at the chamber of commerce building in Sanford Wednesday. Attending at Horner's request were Hartwig and Bruce Cox of Stromberg; Nadine Baldwin and Dave Jowick of NCRC; County Commissioner Fred Stromberg; Kirchoff and county planner Laura Firtel; Dr. Ned Johnson of Seminole Community College, a member of OSOTA and Darrel Fessal — OSOTA director of planning and development. Horner set up the meeting as a service to both the industries and county and OSOTA representatives. No decisions were reached on either side and no commitments were made.

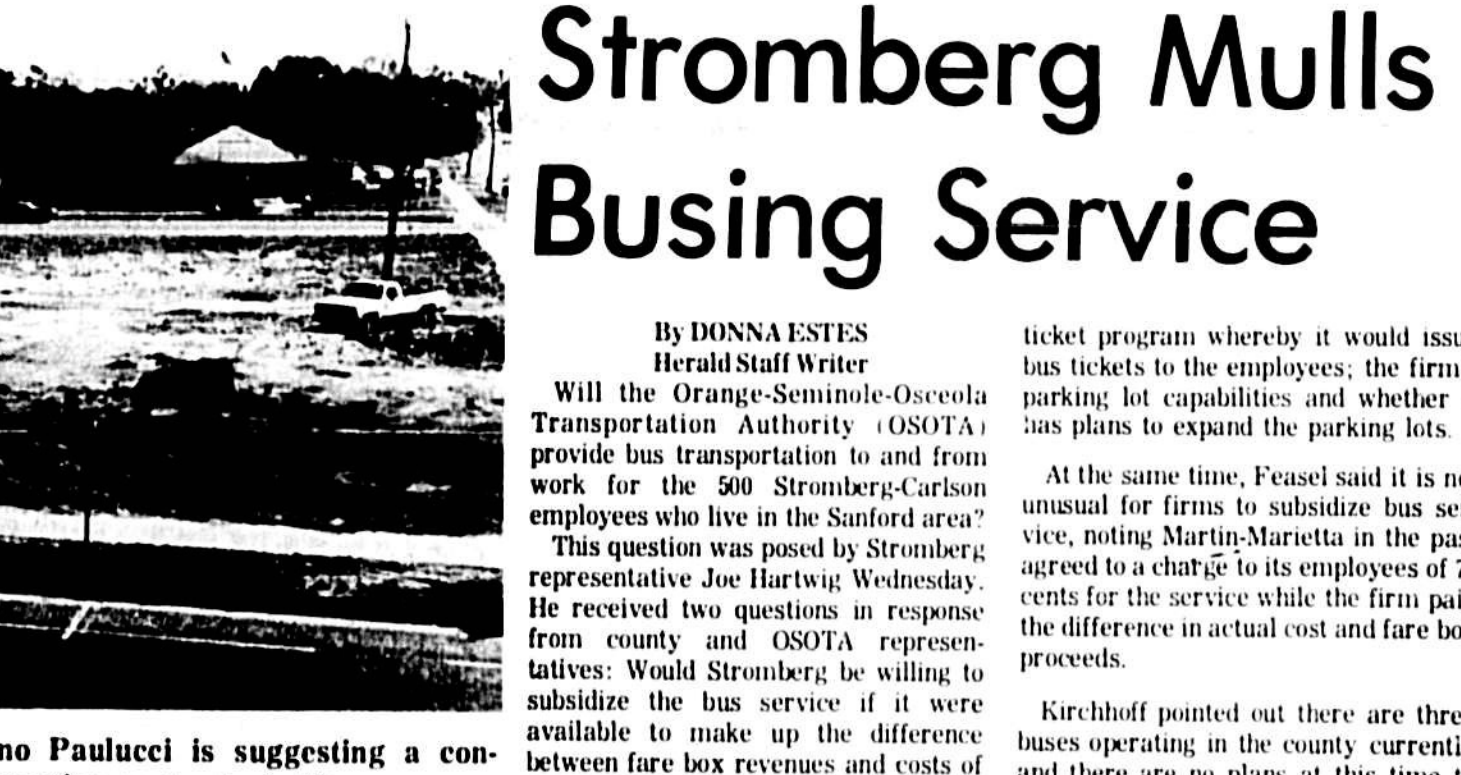

Kirchoff noted that bus service in the county currently is a social service subsidized by county, state and federal governments. It does not pay its own way, he said.

County officials said recently it costs government about 75 cents for each rider who uses the OSOTA buses in the south end of the county and about $2 for each passenger being served in the Sanford area.

"Before we could provide expansion of service, we have to be pretty sure the people are going to use it," said Fessal. "Despite the subsidy necessary for each rider in the Sanford area, Fessal said the "Sanford service is not a failure. It carried 45,000 passengers last year."

Hartwig said a survey by Stromberg revealed there are 500 Sanford employees working the 7 a.m.-to-3:30 p.m. shift and another 500 from the Altamonte Springs-Longwood area working the 8 a.m.-to-4:30 p.m. shift, all of whom might use bus service if it were available.

Fessal asked Hartwig to provide him with information, including the home addresses of prospective riders, the hours they work, whether the employees are blue-collar or white-collar workers; whether management is interested in a

Schools Consider Appeals To High Court

By DIANE PETRYK
Herald Staff Writer

School Board Attorney Ned Julian Jr. suggested Wednesday the school board consider taking appeals in two arbitration cases directly to the state Supreme Court.

"In my mind," Julian said, "if the final word rests with an arbitrator, this would be taking the decision-making authority away from the elected officials."

Bill Moore, Seminole Education Association interim executive director, disagreed.

"Article 1, Section 6 of the state constitution also says all employees have the right to collective bargaining," he said. "The principle of binding arbitration is accepted worldwide."

"There are all sorts of restrictions on constitutional bodies," he said, "in the constitution."

Moore also said if the school board has a dispute with a builder, for instance, by state law can take that dispute to binding arbitration.

"You don't see them complaining about that," he said.

In addition, Moore said, the school board has "lost sight of the fact they're dealing with two people's lives."

"Mrs. Corneillon has been out of work for three years. They're talking about adding another two years to that," he said.

recommendation of the superintendent, the school board on Monday you can see why his grievance was upheld.

"The school board itself voted in the Masters case that he was wrong in the evaluation process," Moore said. "But they voted not to award him any relief."

Superintendent of Schools William P. Lauer indicated at the board meeting he would be in favor of the appeals.

"There is a conflict involved and the quicker it is resolved the better off the state of Florida and Seminole County will be," he said.

Julian said the same issue is coming up in other counties across the state, but Seminole County's cases are farthest along. All but one of the school boards in the state have collective bargaining.

"Of course, you hate to be first," Lauer said.

"The question needs to be answered," Julian said. "And the only way it will be answered is if someone takes the issue to court."

"It is not appealed the same things are going to occur year after year until somebody does."

One of the primary considerations in making the appeals, at this point, seems to be the cost.

Julian estimated the cost of bringing the issue to the Supreme Court would be $2,500. And, he estimated, it would take two years for the appeals to be completed.

"Could we then be looking at another two years of salaries (for the fired teachers)?" board member Pat Tolson asked.

Julian said this was a possibility, but no one knows for sure what the judge intended in granting back pay to Corneillon. The arbitrator granted $6,000 to Tolson for the appeals to be completed.

"There is no clear-cut ruling on whether the sums would accumulate during the appellate process," Julian said.

Julian estimated the costs of back pay and benefits might run $20,000 to $30,000.

"There are times you have to fight on principle," School Board Chairman Allan Kerth said. "In this case, I think we are right. But sometimes you also have to look at the economics of the situation."

Sanford police officers gathered at the Gramkow Funeral Home today to pay tribute to Earl Bourquard, a 24-year veteran of the force, who died suddenly Tuesday morning.

For more than a decade Bourquard had been captain of Police, second in command at the department — the man responsible for all officers actively engaged in enforcement activity.

But he was more than just an administrator, a second in command, said Steve Harriet, who recently left his post as assistant to Police Chief Ben Butler to become assistant city manager.

"He was always conscious of the people in the department, the welfare of the men he was responsible for," said Harriet, adding Bourquard "provided a stabilizing force to the department."

The officers found they could come to him with their problems.

"He was a very good listener. He had his opinions and was able to communicate his advice in a way you could accept it gladly," Harriet added.

"His compassion to his fellow men went beyond the call," said Sgt. William Bernow Jr.

Bourquard will be buried at Westler Memorial Gardens in Webster, Fla. following funeral services this afternoon.
