The 'Good Ole Boy' Memo

April 13, 1985
MEMORANDUM
To: Sanford Civil Service Board
From: City Manager
The city personnel is going through a transition period in a very short time span. This gives the Civil Service Board an opportunity to submit lists of eligible applicants that can affect the municipal organization for many years to come.

Knowles Message Irks Panel

Police Chief Search To Extend Nationally

By Rick Brunson Herald Staff Writer

With only two eligible applicants on its hands, the Sanford Civil Service Board voted unanimously Tuesday to advertise locally, statewide and nationally for applicants to fill the police chief's position being vacated by retiring Chief Ben Butler.

decided to begin a local, statewide and national search for applicants. The board set May 24 as the cutoff date for applications. It will review them June 4 and draft a list of eligible candidates for the city commission at that time.

The Civil Service Board goes over police chief applications: With back to the camera, board chairman Dr. John Darby. Then clockwise, Donald Jones, Gordon Frederick, Jim Jernigan (representing Sanford), secretary Christy Johnson, Bill McQuatters and Dr. Luis Perez.

The Tuesday board meeting was not without other interesting developments: The board ended the search for an assistant city manager until Steve Harriett, named acting police chief as well, quits, is hired as permanent police chief, or is fired. The board reasoned since Harriett is still assistant city manager, no vacancy exists. Harriett said after the meeting if he is not appointed permanent police chief he will remain assistant city manager.

In addition, the board agreed city employees may continue to apply for the post. The original cutoff date for in-house applications was last Friday. Board member Bill McQuatters said the board did not want to do a "diservice" to the city commission by not sending a list that included as many eligible applicants as possible. He also said the board should take its time to find qualified applicants, adding that personnel decisions "are not something to be hurried."

Beleaguered Reagan To Visit Concentration Camp After All

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Despite President Reagan's attempt to quell a firestorm by announcing a visit to a German concentration camp, Jewish leaders are angry he will honor Nazi war dead, including Adolf Hitler's elite stormtroopers.

remember the Hitler era. But protests from Jewish groups over his decision last week only to visit the Bitburg cemetery of German war dead apparently spurred the White House to add a concentration camp to Reagan's agenda.

Reagan reversed himself Tuesday and said that on his state visit to Germany May 5 and 6, he will visit a concentration camp to commemorate the liberation of Jews from Nazi atrocities at the end of World War II 40 years ago.

He told a gathering of religious leaders at the White House Tuesday he had a "mistaken impression" that a Holocaust commemoration was not part of Chancellor Helmut Kohl's official visit agenda.

White House officials said no decision had been made on which site Reagan would visit. Reagan earlier had ruled out visiting the Dachau camp near Munich so as not to dwell on the horrors of the Third Reich when he wants to emphasize 40 years of U.S.-German friendship.

Assured otherwise by Kohl in a letter received Monday, Reagan said he had accepted the invitation to visit a concentration camp.

During his news conference last month, Reagan said he thought few Germans now alive

"For years I've said it and I'll say it again today and I will say it again on that occasion: We must never forget the Holocaust nor should we ever permit such an atrocity to happen ever again. Never again," Reagan said.

Teacher Gets 6 Months For Leaving Accident

By Deane Jordan Herald Staff Writer

A sobbing junior high school teacher was given a piecemeal 6 month sentence today for leaving the scene of an accident with injuries.

Altamonte Springs. The accident occurred March 6, 1984.

Linda Katz, 34, of 1138 Lakeside North, Altamonte Springs, was sentenced by Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr. who ordered Miss Katz to serve 90 days this summer and weekends until the summer of 1986. If the 180 days are not served off by then, she will serve the rest of the time straight during the 1986 summer. Davis said Miss Katz could start serving weekends until this summer if she wished.

According to court records, Burnett was walking along Cranes Roost Boulevard in Altamonte Springs when he was struck from behind in the left hip by a car which left the scene. About 40 minutes later a passerby on the heavily traveled road noticed Burnett and told her boss who went to the scene and then called police. Burnett died about 2 1/2 hours later.

"I don't want to punish this person to the extent that she won't be a productive member of society," Davis said.

While Miss Katz was charged with leaving the scene of an accident with injuries, she was not cited for the accident apparently because Burnett was walking close to the edge of the road and Miss Katz was driving into the morningsun.

Miss Katz was sentenced in connection with an accident that killed David Burnett, 23, of 1113 Lakeside North,

According to an accident report, Burnett's body damaged the right front of the car, denting it before he was

Shuttle 'SWAT Team' Fails Mission

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Astronaut Rhea Seddon used Discovery's jury-rigged robot arm today to yank on an activation lever on the stranded Syncom satellite today but the operation apparently failed to turn on the spacecraft.

through two slots as planned, forcing the switch toward the end of its travel.

"You did everything you could. It was a great job," David Hillmers said in mission control.

"The bottom rung of the fly swatter is broken," astronaut Jeffrey Hoffman reported. "We also hit it with the face of the fly swatter."

With the 15,200-pound satellite slowly spinning within just 35 feet of the space shuttle's open payload bay, Seddon gently guided the 50-foot mechanical arm to the side of the 14-foot-long relay station and used a hand-crafted "fly swatter" snare to snag the lever at 9:16 a.m.

Seddon was moving in for a final attempt when ground crews ordered commander Karol Bobko and co-pilot Donald Williams to begin backing the shuttle away from the satellite.

The lever twice hit the implement, fashioned out of plastic notebook covers, and it ripped

Unsure whether the lever had been moved far enough, the move was a safety precaution. The timer was designed to start a 45-minute countdown leading to the ignition of the satellite's ICBM solid rocket motor and the astronauts were taking no chances when it came to re-maintaining in the area. Engineers had speculated the switch did not engage fully when the $80 million Syncom was launched from the shuttle Saturday and they hoped the jury-rigged tools on the end of the arm would give it the nudge it needed for activation.

was pointed toward the shuttle's open payload bay when Seddon tried to activate the timer.

The tools were installed in an unscheduled spacewalk Tuesday by Hoffman and David Griggs.

Bobko and Williams completed the three-orbit rendezvous about 8 a.m., leaving the shuttle within throwing distance of the glittering satellite.

McDonnell Douglas engineer Charles Walker and Sen. Jake Garn, R-Utah, were the other members of Discovery's self-described "swat team" but they did not participate in the rescue attempt.

It was a frustrating disappointment in the bold attempt to perform an orbital service call and salvage the satellite, built by Hughes Aircraft Co. and insured for $80 million.

The rocket engine, loaded with 7,382 pounds of solid propellant,

Astronaut Sally Ride, working in mission control, had told Seddon to "let the fly swatter drag on the satellite and the swatter ought to catch the lever, move it to the proper position and then tear away."

Jettliner Lands Safely After Engine Falls Off

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — The crew of an American Airlines Boeing 727 with 89 people aboard knew their right side engine had stopped, but it wasn't until the plane landed safely that they discovered it had fallen off, officials said.

Flight 199 from Dallas-Ft. Worth to San Diego landed without incident at San Diego's Lindbergh Field shortly before noon Tuesday. On the right side of the tail — on a 727 all three engines are mounted on the tail section — only the mounting brackets remained.

Officials said they assumed the missing engine was in a remote area of Arizona or New Mexico, but county sheriffs' departments in the two states said there were no immediate reports of an engine falling in their areas.

There was no damage to the plane except for the missing engine and the crew had no problem landing the plane, which carried 81 passengers and a crew of eight. Stroop said.

Linda Johnson, corporate communications manager for American Airlines in Dallas, said, "We don't know why (the engine fell off) We have an investigation under way."

Boy Killed Over Baseball

SYLMAR, Calif. (UPI) — A 12-year-old Little League all-star has pleaded guilty to second-degree murder for shooting a classmate to death because he would not put down a baseball.

Jim Traylor, one of the youngest children ever to be charged with murder in the state, could be sent to the California Youth Authority until age 25. Sentencing is set for May 22.

Prosecutors said the defendant, an all-star Little League baseball player from Quartz Hill, Calif., repeatedly shot his classmate, Christopher Perea, also 12, of nearby Lancaster, with a .22-caliber rifle in January.

The youths were in Traylor's bedroom on Jan. 31, getting ready to go to a nearby video arcade, when Perea picked up the defendant's baseball and began walking downstairs.

Traylor told Perea to put the ball down, but Perea ignored him. Traylor then grabbed his rifle, stood at a balcony and again told Perea to put the ball down.

When Perea continued to ignore the request, authorities said, the boy opened fire, hitting Perea several times.

Apartheid Protesters Arrested

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — University of California officials have cracked down on a weeklong blockade of an administration building by apartheid opponents, jailing 161 in the largest arrest on the Berkeley campus since the student revolt of the 1960s.

The arrests Tuesday touched off a violent scuffle and a call for more protests.

About 100 students were camping at Sproul Hall late Tuesday, defying university officials who promised more arrests if the building entrance was not cleared.

The violence just outside the Berkeley campus was the first since the camp-in began seven days ago protesting the school's $1.7 billion investment in companies doing business in South Africa.

Judge Refuses To Allow Abortion To Be Put On Trial

PENSACOLA (UPI) — The prosecution was expected to continue calling in witnesses today in the trial of two religious couples accused of conspiring to blow up three abortion clinics in the so-called "Gideon Project."

Assistant U.S. Attorney Susan Novotny, who said she would introduce "an incredible amount of evidence" in presenting the case against Matthew Goldsby, Kaye Wiggins, James Simmons and Kathy Simmons, called 15 witnesses Tuesday.

Goldsby's attorney, T. Patrick Monaghan, of Bardstown, Ky., who said he planned to introduce "psychiatric evidence," led the cross-examination. As anticipated, talk turned to abortion. U.S. District Judge Roger Vinson on several occasions would not permit it after the prosecution objected.

Goldsby, 21, of Cantonment; Wiggins, 18, of Pensacola; Simmons, 21, and his wife, 18, both of Cantonment, pleaded innocent to the Christmas morning bombing.

The phrase "Gideon Project" has come up several times during the course of the trial and at earlier hearings. Monaghan, who said the defendants wanted to do "good deeds," said they used the phrase because of a Biblical passage where Gideon destroys temples where children were sacrificed.

Lottery's Chances Seem As Good

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A constitutional amendment setting up a state lottery was set to go before another Senate committee today with Gov. Bob Graham conceding the matter probably will be on the 1986 election ballot.

Sen. Jack Gordon, D-Miami Beach, expressed confidence his lottery proposal would get out of the Senate Finance and Taxation Committee and go to the Senate Rules Committee for scheduling of floor debate. The constitutional amendment (SJR 27) has already cleared the Senate Commerce Committee — with an amendment earmarking its estimated $240 million to $300 million revenue for education.

Graham, an opponent of legalized lotteries, said Tuesday he expected the issue to be on the ballot next year — either through legislative action on Gordon's bill or by a petition campaign being planned by Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington.

Judge Urges Union Carbide

'Set Up Fund For Bhopal Victims'

NEW YORK (UPI) — A federal judge presiding over lawsuits against Union Carbide Corp. urged the giant firm to set aside up to $10 million as "an indication of good will" for victims of a deadly December gas leak in India.

More than 100 lawyers from the United States and India flocked to a federal court in Manhattan Tuesday for the first hearing on more than 60 suits filed against Union Carbide on behalf of the Indian victims and their families.

The case could eventually become one of the biggest personal injury cases in history.

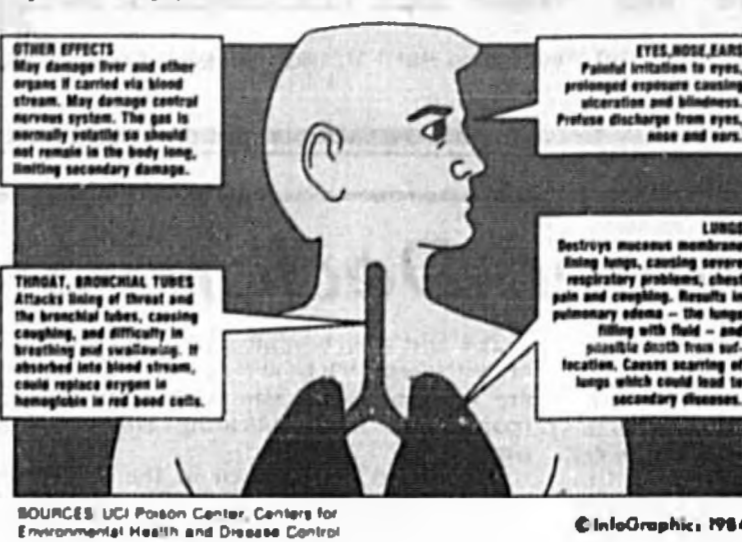

Seeping methyl isocyanate gas killed at least 1,700 people and injured 200,000 Dec. 3 at the firm's pesticide plant in the central Indian city of Bhopal. Unofficial death estimates range up to 2,500.

U.S. District Judge John Keenan briskly opened the hearing with the statement that "fundamental human decency" required Union Carbide to immediately create a fund to help those hundreds of thousands maimed by the poisonous fumes.

"The situation is still critical there," Keenan said. "As an indication of good will, is it possible for Union Carbide to offer a truly significant sum —

Methyl Isocyanate effects

Leakage of the deadly gas, methyl isocyanate, in Bhopal, India killed at least 1,700 people and injured 200,000 more. Little is known of the full effects of exposure to the gas, which is highly toxic and affects body tissues.

$5 or $10 million — to be immediately funded through the Red Cross?"

The fund would not be an admission of wrongdoing and could be counted towards any eventual settlement of the case, he said.

But attorney Bud Holman, who represents the Danbury,

Conn. conglomerate, said Union Carbide already had donated $1 million to the Indian government. He said its Indian subsidiary had offered to donate another $1 million to the Indian province in which its plant operated.

"We're trying very hard to help the victims," Holman said.

Extra Money And No End Of Ways To Spend It

Longwood has a $149,930 surplus at the midpoint of the fiscal year and city department heads have plenty of ideas on how to spend it.

Trouble is their ideas add up to $171,343, $21,413 more than is available.

So, at Tuesday's city commission workshop City Administrator Don Terry asked that requests for a new $9,533 car for the fire department and two for the building department at $18,000 be deleted. Also he recommended the hiring of two new police officers at $16,194 and purchase of a $6,900 police motorcycle be delayed until July 1.

If commissioners go along at their mid-year budget adjustment session Monday at 7:30 p.m. in city hall, 175 W. Warren Ave., Terry's suggestions would whittle the department heads' requests down to $120,716, which if granted would still leave a surplus of $29,214.

Police Chief Greg Manning said he has $12,000 in the police department salary account not allocated which he wants to use to make the part-time police officer who serves as code enforcement officer a full-time code enforcement officer.

Terry told the commissioners that there appears to be a short fall in gasoline tax revenues and state revenue sharing funds which puts a crimp in the city's plans to construct a new police station, estimated to cost $425,000. To compensate, there was a consensus among commissioners that the cap on the utility tax should be raised from $1 to $5 for residential and $10 for commercial customers. The most that a customer can be charged each month at present is $1 and that brings in $60,000 a year in utility taxes.

The ordinance increasing the cap will be ready for preliminary approval Monday night.

To help solve the money problems, Manning said the city should take a harder stand on collection of fines. It was pointed out that 11 liens have been filed and two of those involved sent in the money they owed this week. The commission is looking into the feasibility of not renewing business licenses next year for firms delinquent in paying fines.

Many businesses in town have been fined because their alarm systems go off repeatedly due to equipment failure or human error, but have not paid up. City Attorney Gerald Korman said he is working on an ordinance to deal with the problem.

In other matters, Terry said there is a need for a finance director, a city planner, and a city engineer. He said he has advertised for a finance director at a starting salary of $22,000 a year and five applications have been received.

A Division of Inspection proposed by Manning when he was acting city administrator was shot down by Korman at Tuesday's work session. Manning had proposed a division that would include the code enforcement officer, the building inspector and the fire inspector, but Korman said a city the size of Longwood can't afford the merger and shouldn't do it.

Mother, Son Face Long Prison Terms In Coke Deal

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

A woman faces 30 years in prison and her son 5 years for their involvement in a cocaine deal that netted eight ounces of cocaine and the arrest of four suspects.

Carole Sue Denton, 37, and James Franklin Denton Jr., 18, entered guilty pleas Tuesday before Seminole Circuit Judge S. Joseph Davis Jr. who set May 29 for sentencing. Mrs. Denton pleaded guilty to trafficking in cocaine and her son to possession of cocaine. According to state law, Mrs. Denton faces a mandatory 3-year sentence and a $50,000 fine.

A 16-year-old girl and a 41-year-old man were also arrested and await disposition of their cases.

According to court records, an informant working with undercover agents reportedly made contact with Mrs. Denton and her son on about four occasions between Oct. 1 and 4 to buy cocaine. During one meeting at the Day's Lodge on Douglas Road, Altamonte Springs, the informant reportedly paid the suspects $1,200 in marked money for an ounce of cocaine.

Agents reportedly watched Mrs. Denton's home at 229 Hillcrest Drive, Altamonte Springs, and photographed and recorded the suspects during meetings with the informant.

The informant met with the mother and son team in Zayre's Plaza parking lot, U.S. Highway 17-92, Fern Park, on Oct. 4 and bought two ounces of cocaine for $2,600, a sheriff's report said.

The informant went to the woman's house where all the suspects reportedly live and told the 16-year-old girl that police had arrested the Dentons. She allegedly called the man who came to the house. As the girl and the man were walking from the house, agents arrested them. The girl had $10,000 wrapped in newspaper in her jacket pocket, a report showed.

Felix Ramirez was arrested along with the girl who was turned over to juvenile authorities. Ramirez was charged with trafficking in cocaine and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Officers reported finding a "cocaine processing room" and five ounces of the drug in the home.

Kindergarten Students To Get Pre-School Screening

By Roger Simmons
Herald Staff Writer

Students who enter kindergarten this fall can be screened for possible learning difficulties in the Seminole County schools' "Kindergarten Round-Up."

Brenda Griffin, consultant for the Seminole school system, said the purpose of the round-up is to discover any areas in which children may be weak and to give parents an opportunity to help them improve before they start school in the fall.

The screenings will take place in the south end of the county Tuesday through Thursday of next week and in north end April 30 through May 2.

As part of the screening, Ms. Griffin said children will be given tests in four areas — eye/hand coordination, motor skills, language and math.

In the eye/hand coordination test, children are asked to string beads or macaroni, practice cutting with small scissors and draw dot-to-dot pictures. For motor skills, the students throw and catch a large ball or bean bag, walk on a curb or use a balance board. In the language screening, the prospective kindergartners identify colors and are asked to use whole sentences. For math, children will count how many times a ball bounces and identify the number of objects in a group.

Ms. Griffin said screening results will be shared with parents before they leave the test sites. Although the screening identifies areas in which children might have difficulty when they begin school, Ms. Griffin said it serves a more important purpose. She said the round-up has been successful in identifying children with learning or speech disabilities who are referred to groups of agencies which can provide help.

Prospective Red Bug, Sterling Park and Keeth students will be screened at Tusawilla United Methodist Church while Casselberry and Eastbrook students will be tested at Westminster Presbyterian Church on Tuesday and Wednesday only. The First Baptist Church of Longwood will be the site of screening for students who will go to Winter Springs, Woodlands and Longwood elementary schools with Wekiva and Sabal Point students tested at Sweetwater Church. The First Baptist Church of Sanlando will be the site of screening for Bear Lake, Forest City and Spring Lake schools while Eastmonte Civic Center will serve Lake Orienta, Altamonte and English Estates elementary students.

In North Seminole, Pinecrest, Hamilton and Goldboro students will be screened at the First Baptist Church of Sanford while Lake Mary, Idyllwild and Wilson schools will be tested at Upsala Presbyterian Church. On May 1 and 2 only, Midway elementary will screen its new students, and Lawton elementary will test its students plus those who will attend Geneva Elementary.

Although the screenings are not a requirement to enter kindergarten in Seminole County, Ms. Griffin said 1,600 of last year's 2,000 students were screened in the round-up program.

For further information on the screenings, call 322-1252.

If Drug Suspect Just Hadn't Run That Stop Sign...

A 28-year-old Oviedo man has been charged with battery on a police officer after allegedly punching a sheriff's deputy who was trying to handcuff him. The man was initially arrested on possession of cocaine and drug paraphernalia charges after allegedly running a stop sign in Geneva.

Seminole County sheriff's deputy James Virgin reported stopping the suspect at about 2:55 a.m. Tuesday on state Road 419 at state Road 434.

Virgin ordered the man out of the car because he appeared to be hiding something between his legs. When the man stepped out of the car, a bag of marijuana fell to the ground, a sheriff's report said.

As he was being handcuffed the man allegedly turned on Virgin and punched him twice in the chest. The man was subdued and his car searched, the report said.

Cocaine, a mirror, razor blades, a plastic container of eight Vallum tablets, cigarette rolling papers and another bag of pot were reportedly found in the man's car, the report said.

Glen Alan Stoner of 312 Graham Circle has been released on $8,000 bond and is scheduled to appear in court May 6.

PIPE PLUNDERED

Robert Parker, 59, of 4505 Gabriella Lane, Winter Park, reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies that workers for Ryland Homes, 1015 E. Semoran Blvd., Casselberry, removed $12,000 worth of aluminum pipe from his property at 2751 Tusawilla Road, Oviedo.

Parker told deputies the pipe was removed from his property without his permission by Ryland representatives between April 6 and 13. The pipe was bulldozed out of the ground, a sheriff's report said.

Ryland Homes representatives told deputies they did remove the pipe as well as five antique vehicles owned by Guy Ellis Jr., which were on what they said is Ryland's property, the report said.

ANOTHER CHARGE

A Sanford man already jailed in connection with a battery on a Sanford policeman had a charge of grand theft added at the jail Monday after he was reportedly linked to the March 25 theft of a motorcycle.

Sanford police reported that a witness named a suspect in the theft of the 1984 Yamaha from the home of Steven Ferris of 2432 Chase Ave. The motorcycle was found abandoned and wrecked on state Road 46A in Sanford about three hours after it was stolen at about 1:30 a.m., the report said.

Stephen Howard Kendall, 18, of 1503 Terrace Drive, who was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond after allegedly punching a policeman who tried to calm a dispute between him and another man on April 8, has been charged in the theft. Bond in the latest arrest is $5,000.

DRUGS & GUN

A 44-year-old Midway man was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond today on charges of possession of a pistol and less than 20 grams of marijuana and driving with a suspended driver's license.

Deputies stopped the man's car after noticing its noisy muffler on state Road 46 west of Geneva at about 2 a.m. Monday, a sheriff's report said.

The officers reported finding a paper bag in the car which held a loaded .38-caliber handgun, an envelope of pot and some white pills. A packet of a crystal substance was also found, the report said.

Robert McDuffie of 3341 Main

St., Midway, was charged in the case.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE

A 19-year-old Casselberry man nabbed by Winter Springs police as he allegedly stole a 'No Parking' sign from a Winter Springs tennis club also reportedly had a Seminole County stop sign and a Winter Springs street sign in his possession.

The man was charged with grand theft, loitering and prowling. A charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was added after his vehicle was searched.

Police spotted the suspect at Tusawilla Pool and Tennis Club at about 3:20 a.m. Sunday. He tried to flee when first confronted by police who saw him pull up the 'No Parking' sign. He stopped his truck after an officer told him to freeze and shined a light in his face, a police report said.

The other signs and drug paraphernalia were reportedly found in his truck.

Mark Raymond Fivick of 1105 Black Acre Court was released without posting bond. He is scheduled to appear in court April 29.

BATTERED WIFE

An Altamonte Springs woman was treated at Florida Hospital-Altamonte Springs for injuries to her face, head and chest, allegedly inflicted by her husband who has been charged with spouse abuse.

Altamonte Springs police responded to the couple's home at 201-F Pearl Lake at about 8:30 a.m. Sunday. The suspect had reportedly chased the victim around a swimming pool, beaten her and threatened to kill her, a police report said.

Jeffrey Neil Botnick, 42, of the above address, has been released on $500 bond. He is scheduled to appear in court April 25.

COKE IN CAR

Two men were nabbed by Altamonte Spring police and charged with possession of cocaine after they were spotted acting suspiciously in a parked car.

Police reported that both men had their heads down when the officer approached their car parked at TGI Friday's, 227 W. state Road 436, Altamonte Springs, at about 1:30 a.m. Tuesday.

The car's engine was running and the officer asked the driver, who had a white powder on his nose, to shut it off, a police report said. The policeman said the driver appeared to pass something he was hiding in his hand to the passenger and he ordered the pair out of the car.

In searching the car the officer reportedly found a bottle cap containing white powder and in the passenger's pocket he found a bottle also containing suspected cocaine. The cap fit the bottle, the report said.

David Neil Preston, 30, of Orlando, and Nicholas Anthony Gromak, 25, of 1601 Stanley St., Longwood, were released on $8,000 bond each and are scheduled to appear in court May 6. Gromak was also charged with driving with a suspended license.

WOMAN CUT, MAN FLED

A Sanford man who allegedly threw a glass at a Sanford woman and cut her lip during a domestic dispute fled the scene and evaded police for about two hours before his arrest at 1:45 a.m. Tuesday.

The woman, Kimberly Jernigan, 26, of 301 Magnolia Ave., was unable to talk to police at the scene because of her injury, which was stitched at Central Florida Regional Hospital, Sanford, Assistant Sanford Police Chief Herb Shea said.

When Ms. Jernigan was transported to the hospital, her 17-month-old daughter Rebecca was left unattended in the home, Shea said. State Health and Rehabilitative Services officials took custody of the child, he said.

Wilfred Theodore Gladue, 26, of 603 Oake Ave., was charged with aggravated battery and was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

FIRE SHOT

A 22-year-old Altamonte Springs man who reportedly fired a single shot from a shotgun during an argument with a woman has been charged with carrying a concealed weapon and discharging a firearm.

Altamonte Springs police arrested the man at about midnight Sunday after they responded to a gunshot call near the entrance of the Montgomery Club off Montgomery Road, Altamonte Springs.

At the scene police talked with Priscilla Sifre, of 109 Star Drive, Altamonte Springs, who said the shot was fired by a man who was still at the scene. Ms. Sifre said she and the man had been arguing when she stopped her car and let him out.

As he was taking his belonging from the car he allegedly fired a shot into the air.

Police found a sawed-off shotgun discarded in the woods nearby. A spent cartridge was also found.

Jeffrey Scot Andre, 22, of 109 Star Drive, has been released on $500 bond. He is scheduled to appear in court April 25.

TRAFFIC STOP POT

Longwood police stopped a man's car because the tag was expired and ended up charging the driver with possession of over 20 grams of marijuana and drug paraphernalia as well as driving with a suspended license.

The man's car was stopped on U.S. Highway 17-92, Longwood, at about 1:40 a.m. Monday. After arresting the man on traffic charges police inventoried his car and reported finding four plastic bags of pot, a pipe and two clips commonly used for holding marijuana cigarettes, a police report said.

David Wayne Dorminey, 21, of 63 Sweetbriar Branch, Longwood, was arrested and freed on $5,000 bond.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS

About $800 worth of tools were stolen from the home of John H. Nicholson, 38, of 3530 Holiday Ave., Apopka, between April 9 and 13, a sheriff's report said.

A kitchen range worth about $900 was stolen from a Greater Construction Co. home being built on lot 143, Mandarin Estates, Longwood Supervisor Dennis French, 25, of Kissimmee, told deputies the stove was stolen between Saturday and Monday.

Two Fern Park businesses were burglarized by thieves using vice grips to break dead bolt locks from the doors at about the same time.

About $220 cash and a trash can were stolen from the Encore Shop, 437 U.S. Highway 17-92, between 6:30 p.m. Saturday and 11:35 a.m. Sunday, according to a report co-owner Robert P. White, 62, filed with deputies.

Jimmy's Italian Grocery at 449 U.S. Highway 17-92, was also hit and $682 cash stolen, worker Anthony Bartilotta reported to deputies.

Elizabeth Millikan, 43, of 2060 Terrace Blvd., Longwood, reported to deputies that $774 worth of jewelry was stolen from her home between March 1 and April 14. A sheriff's report said she named a suspect in the case.

Maria Kane, 62, of Deltona, reported to deputies that $240 was stolen from her booth at Flea World, #G45, in the Gold

Building, while she waited on a customer at about 4 p.m. Saturday. She said a man grabbed the money and ran, a sheriff's report said.

William Todd, 27, of Beckley, W. Va., reported to Sanford police that someone stole a $500 stereo from his car Friday. Todd did not specify what time the stereo was missing, according to the police report, but said the theft occurred either while the car was parked at his hotel or a local paint and body shop.

Longwood Refuses To Give In To Threat Of Suit

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

The threat of litigation backfired on attorney Gary Massey Monday night when the Longwood City Commission voted 4-1 to deny a petition by his clients to close a portion of West Lake Avenue in the Molnars Addition to Longwood.

Due to discrepancies in past surveys, Massey said he was not sure where the city's right-of-way, which his clients want abandoned, is actually located. Therefore he wanted it abandoned "south of a point 30 feet south of the northwest corner of lot 31."

Massey said the right-of-way is located either under his clients' paved warehouse parking lot or a portion of the neighboring Commercial Roof

Decks' building, depending on which legal description is valid. To solve the problem, Massey suggested the commission vote to vacate the right-of-way as described in both legal descriptions.

The city had previously approved site plans for both parties supposedly fronting on the right-of-way.

At the commission's March 11 meeting, the petition to abandon the right-of-way had been tabled because City Attorney Gerald Korman wished to review the site plans and other documents before making a recommendation to the city.

Monday night Korman said he was "as confused as he was last time." Massey, representing Roy and Mary Zimmer, owners of a warehouse, warned the commission Monday that "there will definitely be litigation if the street is not vacated. We will be definitely asking that all the tax revenues we have paid be returned. This situation must somehow be corrected."

"I'm not going to be sitting up here with people coming in and threatening suits," said Mayor Harvey Smerilson, who passed the gavel to Deputy Mayor Larry Goldberg in order to second a motion by Commissioner Perry Faulkner to deny the Zimmers' request.

"How can you prove you've been paying taxes on the property when you don't even have a legal description of where it is located?" Smerilson asked. "I don't see how we can vote to vacate something we don't know where it's at."

Commissioner Ed Myers, who voted against the motion, Tuesday said he was confused about the motion and actually thought he was voting against closing the street.

"I made up my mind months ago not to vote to abandon any street that the city might eventually need," he said, "and I had written down no" by that item on the agenda."

Former Longwood mayor Gerard Connell, an engineer, suggested that the discrepancy might have its origins in 1914 when the original plat was made because surveying instruments were different from those used in the later survey, resulting in section lines being drawn straight without regard to the curvature of the earth.

Seller Of Stolen Art Objects Gets Jail, Probation

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

A Winter Springs woman arrested for dealing in stolen property has been sentenced to 3 years probation.

The sentence also includes 15 weekends in the Seminole County Jail so she "can have a taste of what it's like," should she not follow the conditions of her probation, according to semi-retired Circuit Judge Volle Williams.

Williams on Monday ordered Annette Lovett, 24, of 124 Lori Anne Lane, to either maintain full-time employment or be a full-time student during her probationary period.

According to court records, she was arrested after trying to sell a stolen $30,000 oriental statue and 25 other art objects worth about $20,000 to undercover sheriff's investigators.

Two Seminole County deputies reported meeting with the woman at her home at about 4 p.m. Oct. 10 and agreed to buy the porcelain statue and the other items, which she told them she had taken from a Winter Park home two days before.

Although the deputies had $3,000 with which to "purchase" the goods, the woman was willing to make the sale for $1,500, according to sheriff's Capt. Jay Leman.

The sale was set up after deputies received a tip that the woman had the items to sell and confirmed through Winter Park police that the art works had been stolen from James Hunt who initially put a $250,000 value on the statue, according to a sheriff's report.

An unidentified man was arrested in connection with the theft, but was subsequently released by Winter Park police without being charged, Leman said.

In other court action, a Longwood man who allegedly threw a knife at his wife, cutting her hand after punching and choking her, and pounded holes in the living room wall of his home was sentenced to one year probation for resisting arrest without violence.

Williams also ordered Gary Lee Stagnolia, 33, of 303 Oak St., C-3, to attend three Alcoholics Anonymous meetings a week during probation.

According to court records, police responded to the call of a domestic disturbance at Stagnolia's home on Sept. 30. When they arrived, Donna Stagnolia was running from the home.

Officers entered the home and reported seeing broken furniture and glass as well as eight holes Stagnolia had reportedly punched in the walls with his fists.

Both Stagnolias were treated at the scene by Longwood Fire Department rescue workers, Mrs. Stagnolia for the cut on her hand and Stagnolia for injuries to his hand from hitting the wall.

In a third case before Judge Williams, a man withdrew his guilty plea to possession of cocaine and opted to go to trial.

Harvey Timothy Williams, 40, of 1802 Lincoln Ave., Sanford, was to be sentenced Tuesday for possession of cocaine. The prosecution had recommended a probationary sentence with no jail time.

The judge, however, said he wanted to sentence Williams to at least 10 weekends in the county jail. The judge is not bound by recommendations of the state.

Williams then withdrew his plea and the case will be scheduled for trial.

Williams was arrested Nov. 16 after a Sanford police officer saw a man in a parked car using a razor to scrape what appeared to be cocaine on a hand mirror.

In other action

—Victor Pageni, 22, of 171 Post and Rail Road, Longwood, arrested Sept. 25, pleaded guilty to possession of cocaine. He reportedly tried to sell five ounces of the substance to an undercover agent. Page could receive up to a year in the county jail when sentenced June 14 by Circuit Judge Dominick J. Saffi.

—Patrick Joseph Kahoun, 21, of 25 W. Nightingale St., Apopka, arrested Dec. 17 after fighting with a bouncer and police officers at the Hotline Bottle Club, state Road 436, Altamonte Springs. Kahoun pleaded guilty to attempted battery on a law enforcement officer. Circuit Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr. set June 7 for sentencing.

—Lori C. Faircloth, 19, of 2422-B S. Lake Ave., Sanford, arrested Oct. 1 for possession of a concealed firearm after an officer reportedly saw a small handgun in her purse. Williams ordered her to complete one year of probation and pay the Public Defender's office $350.

Auschwitz Survivor: 'I Killed My Baby To Save Her From Mengele'

By James Mannion

BETH ITZHAK, Israel (UPI) — The first time Ruth Elias told her story was years after the war, on the day her first son Rafi was born in an Israeli hospital.

She remembers the happiness she felt, her newborn baby in her arms, as doctors and nurses buzzed around her freshly made bed.

A nurse entered the room, leaned over them and lifted the baby boy into the air, wrapping him in a blanket. As the nurse turned to leave with the child, the years she spent in the Auschwitz death camp struck with brutal force.

"You are taking my son to kill him," she screamed.

She says she screamed and screamed until a doctor entered the room, slapped her twice, and broke the attack of hysteria.

"That is when I told my story for the first time."

Now a youthful 64, with two sons and four grandchildren, Elias told of her descent into the Holocaust and her fight to stay alive — and human — in an interview at her home in the rural community of Beth Itzhak.

Speaking in a soft, clear voice, she recalled precise dates, numbers and names that marked the terrible odyssey that led to Auschwitz camp in Poland, and Dr. Josef Mengele, the "Angel of Death."

She seemed to age as her story unfolded.

"Must I tell this again," she said at one point in a pained, almost angry tone of voice.

Then, composing herself, she told how she took the life of her first child, a baby girl who was starved by Mengele in a sadistic experiment to see how long a newborn can live without food.

A Wealthy Family

"My story started that I am born in Czechoslovakia and I was brought up like any other Jewish girl.

"I went to school. My father was a wealthy man. We had everything. Quite a normal life. Big family. There were 13 children at home, a huge family that gathered on the Jewish feasts because my father was one of the elders so all took place in our house. My father was a Cohen and of course in his community he was very respected.

"Until German troops arrived in Czechoslovakia. On the 15th of March of '39, the life started to change.

"Jewish laws came out. My father's factory was not his factory any more. The foreman of my father's factory arrived in a brown SA uniform and told my father to get out."

Within six months, the deportation of Jewish men to "work camps" in Poland began and Elias went underground with her family.

They lived in a small village, where the local priest gave them false papers, and worked as farmers. Elias met a Jewish boy who also worked in the fields and they fell in love.

Their haven did not remain secret for long.

"The Gestapo heard about us.

"So in the beginning of 1942, we leave for the ghetto of Theresienstadt. My boyfriend was already there when we arrived with 20 kilos of luggage and a number around our neck. The number was H84.

"Theresienstadt was a little town in Bohemia, Czechoslovakia. I think 3,000 or 4,000 people and they were all evacuated. It was a little town with a huge living quarters for the Austro-Hungarian army.

Behind The Wall

"The whole town was surrounded by a wall. This wall had I think six entrances, and one entrance was left open for our people to come in. They couldn't come out of course. It was an ideal place to concentrate people. Behind the wall.

"Inside there was a normal town, with normal houses, with churches, everything those big houses for the army. If I'm not mistaken 67,000 Jews were squeezed into this little town."

"The plan of the German was to make Czechoslovakia Jewish-free, then Austria, Germany. And then came French Jews, then ... Holland and De. And whenever Theresienstadt was full, they had to empty it to give a place for others to come.

"Where did they go? To the East.

"Transports were going from Theresienstadt to the East. We had no radios, we had no newspapers, we were off from the surrounding world. We didn't know what was going on or what it meant. 'To the East.'

"There were rumors about camps and ghettos and so on. But nobody came back from the East to tell about it.

"We were not even a week there when my whole family got the call to the East. I had a high temperature. The doctor said I cannot go on the transport. I was too ill.

"I married in Theresienstadt. In the ghetto, the night before my family was leaving. Married — and not married — because he was in the men's quarter and I was in the women's quarter.

"I went to say goodbye to my father. He started to cry terribly. I think he was sure he would never see me again.

"I was a young girl and I didn't understand why he was not glad I just got married ... To describe such a marriage. It was not what a young girl was dreaming of as marriage. I got only a ring on my finger and the rabbi said the very magic words in Hebrew. That was my marriage.

"My family went away. I never saw them again. Not my father, not my mother, not my sisters, nobody."

For a year and a half, they lived in Theresienstadt — watching people come, people go, people die. Composers in the ghetto wrote songs, painters painted. Life went on.

"We didn't want to be beaten," Elias said. "We wanted to stay human beings. We wanted not to lose our personality because that's what the Germans wanted. To have us submissive, and we didn't give in."

In December of 1943, Elias found she was pregnant. It was the same month she and her husband were deported.

'An Inferno'

"We were put into cattle trains. I don't know how many people were squeezed in, and there was only a bucket for water and a bucket to be used as a W.C. Children, elderly people, ill people, we youngsters. I was in the third month of pregnancy. I think we were there one night, two days.

"The doors opened and there was a terrible screaming. 'Raus, Raus, Raus. Out, Out, Out.'

"And we sprang down. It was winter — the 23rd of December.

"(The) SS were there, dogs were barking. It was an inferno. It was terrible, the screaming.

"We didn't know where we are and what's going on. In between the SS people there were people in striped uniforms, like in pajamas. So I asked one of them, 'Where are we?' in Polish Auschwitz concentration camp was opened on June 14, 1940. By 1945, 300,000 people had lost their lives there.

and he said: 'Auschwitz.'

"It was the first time I heard this word. It was the first time I met this place. I didn't know what was going on."

Elias did not mention seeing Mengele on her arrival, but other death camp survivors recall him greeting the trains bringing the Jews to Auschwitz.

A trim, elegant figure in a sleek black SS uniform, Mengele decided which of the arriving prisoners would live and which would die with a flick of a gloved hand.

Mengele, Auschwitz' chief physician, selected children, twins, dwarfs, and others for human experiments he carried out in a sadistic quest to create an Aryan master race. He is held responsible for the murder of 400,000 Jews.

In May, five months after her arrival and eight months into her pregnancy, Elias went before a life and death selection of inmates called by Mengele. "Mengele was standing there — 'right, left, right, left.' And I am in the eighth month of pregnancy. I saw from far away one side collecting the ill, the elderly, the children. And on the other side, youngsters were collected by the hand wave of Mengele.

"So I ask some young women to stand in front of me so Mengele will not see me," she said.

Somehow he missed her — Mengele sorted out the old, infirm and pregnant for immediate death, survivors say — and Elias was shipped to work in a bomb factory in Hamburg. Three days later she and another woman were reported pregnant by their supervisor and sent back to Auschwitz.

"We arrived at the camp and we were shown the sick barracks. We were a sensation because we were the first prisoners — I don't know if we were the first — but very few came back from a transport that left Auschwitz.

Sarcastic Smile

"We were such a sensation that Mengele heard about us and he came and he visited us. He couldn't believe his eyes or ears that we passed the selection. That he didn't see two pregnant women.

"So he told us with such a smile ... He was a very handsome man with very good manners. And with such a sarcastic smile, he told us: 'Give birth and we will see.'

"When my hour came I laid down ... without anything and the Polish midwife was helping me give birth to my little girl. But can you imagine — no soap, no cotton wool and no hot water. Nothing, nothing, nothing.

"The child arrived. No diaper, no soap, nothing, nothing.

"The very next day Mengele arrived and he gave the order to bandage my breasts. He wanted to make a trial. I didn't know what his intention was. He wanted to see how long a baby can live without food.

"The baby was near me. A woman stole a nightgown and from that I made four diapers, and from the diapers I made a little square and I chewed my bread and I put it in the square and put the square either in the soup or in the coffee and I gave it to my child, because my child was crying and it was hungry. So I gave this to my child.

"It was terrible. The first day it was crying, the second day it was crying. The third it was only starting to whimper. It had no strength anymore. Until on the sixth or seventh day, it was only bones. It was not a child any more, with wounds all around. It was looking terrible.

"And Mengele arrived and he said, 'Tomorrow morning I'm coming to fetch you. Be prepared.'

"I knew I was going to die. He wanted to take me to the gas chambers. I didn't know what to do. And I started to scream and I started to cry.

'...Until I Did It'

"A doctor — I didn't see her before, a prisoner Jew, Maza Steinberg, Dr. Maza Steinberg — she asked me why was I crying and who I was. So I told her, 'I'm going tomorrow to the gas chambers.'

"She told me she must help me. And when the lights came off, she came back with a syringe. I asked her what's in it. She said morphine and she said you give this to your child.

"I said, 'You want me to murder my own child?'

"She said, 'Yes. I took a Hippocratic Oath. I must save women's lives. I must save your life. The child can't live anymore.'

"And she started to talk and to talk. Until I did it. I killed my own child."

"At night the child died. And in the morning when the corpses were taken away, this little corpse was also collected. I didn't want to live. It was all the same to me. I lost all my will to live.

"And Mengele arrived and asked, 'Where is the child?'

"I told him, 'It is not here. It died.' So he went out to look for this little corpse, but he couldn't find it, couldn't find it. Then he told me, 'Next transport you are leaving.'"

Burat Of Killing

Elias was transferred to Torgau, another concentration camp near Leipzig, but the war was coming closer. In April of 1945, the prisoners could hear bombardments of the approaching Allied armies.

In a final burst of killing, the SS moved into camps from which guards had fled, drove the inmates into barracks, set the buildings ablaze and shot those who tried to escape.

Carrying the sick and wounded, Elias and other prisoners fled into the fields and hid in a small forest until nightfall.

"A doctor and I went out of the forest. It was such a terrible feeling," she recalled. "It was getting dark and we went out and there was a barrel of a rifle pointing at us, and we came nearer.

"Out sprang a man and shouted, 'Stop!'

"It was the first American soldier I ever met in my life.

"But I couldn't speak English and he couldn't speak German. He took his field phone and he phoned and on came a Jeep with a lieutenant. A man sprang out and started to talk and I couldn't understand and he said to me, 'Yech sprech Yiddish?'

"I didn't understand. So he said, 'Shalom Aleichem. My name is Captain Winter.'"

Trial 'Too Little'

After her liberation, Elias emigrated to Israel with her second husband, a Czech survivor who also escaped from Torgau.

"In no other country of the world could I live. Only here, where we have two children — two boys — and four grandsons," she said. "I have no other place to live. During the Holocaust no other nation in the whole world reached us a hand to help."

Mengele, who would be 74 if alive today, escaped to Argentina in 1947 or 1950 and became a Paraguayan citizen after West Germany issued a warrant for his arrest in 1959. Nazi hunters say he is living in Paraguay, a claim denied by the Paraguayan government. There have been no reported sightings of the Nazi doctor since the early 1970s.

"I don't think you can make justice against this man," says Elias. "To give him a normal trial is much too little for him. I don't think there can be revenge."

Endless Search For The 'Angel Of Death'

By Geri Smith

ASUNCION, Paraguay (UPI) — "Foit, lady," said a fabric salesman named Alberto. "You won't find Josef Mengele in Paraguay — it's like looking for a needle in a haystack."

Nazi hunters say they are convinced Mengele, the world's most notorious war criminal believed still at large, is hiding in the South American nation. Government officials deny the claim.

"I can categorically state to you that for us — the authorities — and surely for the immense majority of Paraguayans familiar with the case, Mengele is not Paraguay," Interior Minister Sabino Montanaro said in an interview.

Paraguayan President Alfredo Stroessner, during a visit to West Germany last week, repeated the denial, and said if Mengele was found in Paraguay he would be led. Stroessner, an army general and son of an immigrant from Bavaria, Mengele's birthplace, has ruled Paraguay since 1954 and once gave Mengele citizenship.

Nazi hunters Simon Wiesenthal and Beate Klarsfeld say they are certain Mengele, who now would be 74, is living in Paraguay.

Klarsfeld, on one of the two visits she made to Paraguay in the past year, said, "People like Mengele always take refuge with dictatorial governments — this is a country where anyone who enters can obtain protection."

Mengele, the infamous "Angel of Death" who was the chief physician at the Auschwitz concentration camp, is accused of conducting horrible medical experiments on thousands of inmates and sending at least 400,000 Jews to their deaths.

Recent revelations that the U.S. Army may have knowingly freed Mengele from a prisoner camp after World War II, and reports that Mengele has been sighted in Paraguay in the past few years, have revived the debate over his whereabouts 40 years after the liberation of Auschwitz.

There have been no confirmed sightings of

'People like Mengele always take refuge with dictatorial governments. This is a country where anyone who enters can obtain protection.'

Mengele since he vanished in Paraguay after the West German government, which issued a warrant for his arrest in 1949, requested his extradition in 1962.

In 1979, Paraguay revoked his citizenship under international pressure.

Montanaro, who has headed the interior ministry since 1967, said he issued an all-points bulletin in December requesting provincial officials to tell him whether or not they had any evidence Mengele was living in Paraguay.

"They all have responded that they have no information indicating that Mengele has been seen in their areas," Montanaro said.

He denied claims that Mengele might be living in a protected military zone.

"It's completely untrue that Mengele could be in a military area or within the country's territory," Montanaro said. "He couldn't be hiding in a military area because the barracks and land are completely open to the troops and inhabitants, and a neighbor or someone else would have found out if Mengele had been seen there."

Paraguayan officials, under increasing pressure from the Reagan administration to allow more political freedom, are particularly sensitive about the reports that Mengele is living in Paraguay.

"It is part of an international campaign to defame Paraguay," Stroessner's spokesman, Anibal Fernandez, said with exasperation. He said he had received dozens of calls from newspapers and television stations around the world in recent weeks.

"There are no secret hiding places in this country — we have nothing to hide. We have issued hundreds of capture orders and if Mengele were anywhere in the country, he would have been captured by now," Fernandez said.

Paraguay is home to thousands of Jews who fled Europe during and after the war, including many former Nazi concentration camp inmates. They disagree on whether Mengele could be in the country.

Dr. Isaac Friedman, president of the Israeli Representative Council of Paraguay, said he and many other Jewish citizens believe the government's denials.

"The world suddenly woke up recently and decided to come here to look for Mengele," said Friedman, 67, a pharmacist.

"As far as we are concerned, what the Paraguayan government says is what is valid; it has categorically said that Mengele isn't here but that it is searching for him. We have no reason to doubt the government's word unless it is proved wrong."

A 59-year-old Asuncion jewelry shop clerk who was liberated by the American forces at age 19 after three years in Auschwitz, said she is grateful she and her sister found a haven in Paraguay.

She said she has no desire to dig up the past by speculating whether Mengele — who may have been the one who sent her parents and four brothers and sisters to their deaths in Auschwitz' gas chambers — could be in the same country.

"I've read the newspapers and I know what they say, but I don't believe Mengele is here," said the woman, who asked that her name not appear in print.

"I would like to put the past behind me," she said, her hand brushing over the concentration camp number tattooed in blue on her forearm.

After Mengele fled Europe sometime after the fall of Hitler's Third Reich, he settled first in Argentina, living there openly under his real name from 1954 until 1959. Then he moved to Paraguay and was given citizenship — also under his real name.

Cesar Augusto Sanabria, the lawyer who helped Mengele obtain his citizenship papers, said in a recent interview that he had no idea that Mengele was a Nazi fugitive until several years later.

"In 1959, no one in this part of the world knew who Mengele was," Sanabria said. "He spoke very good Spanish and told me he was an industrialist. It was a big surprise to me to find out later who he was."

Sanabria said Paraguay — a landlocked, sparsely populated nation the size of California — was too tiny for someone as notorious as Mengele to disappear in.

"This country is extremely small. Everyone finds out everything that goes on and it's very difficult to hide anything for long," he said. "In small communities, every strange person who appears is noticed."

The West German Embassy in Asuncion first asked for Mengele's arrest and extradition in 1962. It repeatedly expressed its interest in the case to the Stroessner government.

Not until 1979 did the government cancel Mengele's citizenship, and then under extensive international pressure.

John Loftus, a former investigator for the U.S. Department of Justice, department, said in February there is no evidence that Mengele is in Paraguay.

He said Mengele was believed to have been "on the move" since his Paraguayan citizenship was revoked, traveling from Chile to Uruguay and Argentina until democratic elections in the latter two countries forced him to move again.

One Paraguayan journalist said: "Sure, Paraguay would be a great place for Mengele to hide. But he could also be in Chile, or in rural Brazil. People who affirm — categorically — that Mengele is or isn't in Paraguay are simply speculating, that's all."

IN BRIEF

No Apology For Shooting; Soviets Vow Not To Do It Again

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Soviet Union has agreed not to use force against U.S. military intelligence personnel in East Germany in the future, but has not yet apologized for the March 24 killing of Maj. Arthur Nicholson.

The State Department says the U.S. demand for an apology and compensation for the Nicholson family has been referred by the Soviets "to higher authority" and remains under discussion.

The March 24 killing of Nicholson, a member of the U.S. military liaison mission based in Potsdam, East Germany by a Soviet sentry was discussed last Friday at a 4 1/2-hour Potsdam meeting.

Nicholson was shot and killed by a Soviet sentry while conducting surveillance of a Soviet military installation about 100 miles northwest of Berlin.

The Soviets charged he was on an "espionage mission" and was shot while trying to escape. But American officials called the shooting "murder" and said Nicholson was only following procedures recognized by the Soviets.

personnel, and the general public."

Only two of the three people who have applied so far — Harriett and Det. Sgt. William Hasson — are eligible, the board ruled. A third applicant, Capt. Charles Fagan, was declared ineligible because he has an associate in arts degree in criminal justice and not the required bachelor's degree in criminology or police administration. Harriett has a bachelor's degree in criminology and a master's degree in criminal justice. Hasson has an associate in arts degree and a bachelor's degree in criminology.

In addition to the degree requirement, the city commission's list of qualifications also include five years of "progressively responsible" experience, some of which must be in supervisory or administrative roles. The chief's job pays between $27,872 to $39,991.

But the board discussed asking the city commission to waive the degree requirement for Fagan because he has 26 years of experience as a law enforcement officer, 20 of which have been with the city of Sanford.

Fagan's "26 years of experience would be a good substitute for one year of college," Darby said.

But board member Dr. Luis Perez said the board "would be stepping out of its boundaries" to request a change in the requirements, and the matter was dropped.

Other board members said they were confident that once the commission learns of their discussing a modification of the applicant requirements that it may act on the matter itself and waive academic degrees under certain conditions.

The board instructed its secretary to place advertisements in local newspapers, as well as professional law enforcement journals in Florida and nationally.

The board's decision did not disturb Harriett, present at the meeting and who has been recommended to the commission by Knowles as the most qualified person for the job.

"I will work within the guidelines of the Civil Service Board," Harriett said. "Now that it is thrown wide open, so be it. May the best qualified person be selected."

Harriett becomes acting police chief May 1. He said if he is not chosen permanent chief he will stay on as assistant city manager "because I believe in this community."

Just as the board convened

Tuesday, some members read a memo from Knowles telling them that the board needed to follow the job classification criteria for the police chief, assistant city manager and city engineer positions established by the commission and not fill the slots with "good ole boys."

Knowles' memo was interpreted, apparently, as a reminder that the days of hiring good ole boys for open positions, rather than seeking out qualified applicants are over. The memo said in part: "Technical people must have advanced training; be from the academic development; have the ability to do research; exercise logic and reason; and then apply their knowledge to the solution of practical problems. Today, we live in a world of standards, criteria, and regulations that a technical person must know and apply. The good ole boy 'who can get by' or who 'can learn on the job' is not what Sanford wants or needs. A city engineer must be a graduate engineer."

The memo disgruntled some board members. Said Dr. Perez: "I don't believe we ever considered a good ole boy for any position. I consider this an insult to my intelligence and my integrity. This board has operated by appointing only experienced people to open positions ... I don't believe this [Knowles' memo] was called for."

Other board members echoed Perez's sentiments.

After the meeting, Perez said he was "offended" by the memo.

"To tell me to do that — hey, I'm a physician — it's ridiculous to tell me that," he said.

Knowles could not be reached for comment. He was in Tallahassee today where he and city manager designate Frank Faison have been attending hearings the past few days on the city's dispute with the Department of Environmental Regulation on dumping effluent into Lake Monroe. Recreation Director Jim Jernigan sat in on the civil service board meeting for them.

A member of the Concerned Citizens Task Force, calling itself a coalition of black churches and civic groups, said the board's action was "very positive." Dr. Velma Williams, a task force member, presented a letter to the Sanford City Commission Monday expressing the group's concern that the search for a chief was being rushed. She said today opening up the procedure would assure that the city gets the best selection of applicants.

"That's a step in the right direction," she said. "They should be commended for their action ... they are giving others an equal opportunity and showing good faith," she said.

Optimists, Police Sponsoring Bike Rodeo For Kids Saturday

The importance of bicycle safety will be stressed to area youngsters at a special "Bike Safety Rodeo" Saturday in Sanford.

The event will be held from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the parking lot directly across from the Sanford Post Office. Boys and girls ages 15 years and younger are welcome to participate in the event and should bring their own bicycles.

Co-sponsored by the Sanford Optimist Club and Sanford Police Department, the program is designed to teach area bike riders the rules of the road, said Optimist Club President Ernest Butler.

During the rodeo, riders will be given an oral safety test that will cover the proper maintenance of bicycles and rules governing its use. Participants will also ride their bikes in special speed and obstacle course races.

Upon successful completion of the rodeo events, bike riders will receive special Saf-T Wing reflectors for their bicycles.

pushed aside after striking the windshield.

Medical reports indicated that given the extent of his injuries quicker aid probably would not have saved his life.

Miss Katz, who trembled and cried during the hearing — as did the victim's mother — said she was going to work at about 7 a.m. when she felt a thump. She said the impact did not pull the steering wheel from her hands.

She said she stopped twice, looked in her rearview mirror twice, but saw nothing.

When she got to her job 17 miles away at Westridge Junior High School in Orlando, she said she noticed a wire hanging down from the front of her car. She then called her parents and after contacting her principal called the police.

"I would have never had left if I knew I hit a person. I would have stayed," she said several times during the one-hour hearing in a courtroom at the Seminole County jail. She said it came as a complete surprise to her that not only did she hit a person but that he evidently struck her windshield.

State attorney Steven Brady, however, reminded Miss Katz that she told her principal and an officer when she reported the incident that she thought she had hit someone or something.

The crime, said Brady, was not being involved in the accident but leaving the scene. A driver is supposed to stop when he hits something, Brady said.

"You stop for a dog. You stop for a cat. You stop for anything you hit."

The victim's mother, Norma Burnette, asked how her son's body could have struck the car's windshield and not be seen by Miss Katz. She said Miss Katz negligence led to her son's death.

Brady said Miss Katz' case, like other such cases, received a large amount of media attention and if she got only probation — which has happened in other cases — drivers in Seminole County will think they can be involved in an accident and if they leave get only a light punishment. Davis told Brady that it was inappropriate to mention previous cases.

Brady asked that Miss Katz be sentenced to a year in the county jail. While the state originally asked that she be sentenced to 6 months, Brady said State Attorney Norm Wolfinger, who took office after the 6 month sentence was recommended, asked that the recommended sentence be increased to a year.

Miss Katz' attorney Kirk Kirkconnell argued that his client did not leave the scene with any malice intent, such as to avoid prosecution, but did so because she did believe she had hurt anyone.

As the hour wore on and the attorneys wrangled about the sentence and the case, Davis, who had heard testimony previously about the incident and had written recommendations from both attorneys, cut them off.

Davis said, "I've heard all I want to about it. I'm going to issue the sentence — not Mr. Kirkconnell, Mr. Brady or Mr. Wolfinger, but Judge Davis."

Besides the 6-month sentence, Davis also ordered Miss Katz to serve 5 years probation, complete 500 hours of community service and surrender her driver's license for 5 years.

He did, however, grant Miss Katz permission to apply for a business only driving permit so she can work, do her community service, and participate in mental health counseling.

Seminoles Win By Losing — DeShetler Saves Mary

By Chris Flater
Herald Sports Writer
PORT ORANGE — Only two teams have lost to Spruce Creek's Lady Hawks in the Five Star Conference this season. One, Seabreeze, could probably care less since it isn't in the same district and the other, given the circumstances, really doesn't mind.

Sanford's Lady Seminole were the second team to lose to the Creek in the conference as they dropped a 5-3 decision Tuesday on the Hawks' home field.

What that means is Seminole will play Spruce Creek again this Tuesday for the eighth seed in the district tournament and a chance to play Apopka. If it wasn't for one bad inning in the field, Seminole would have beaten Apopka earlier in the year.

If Seminole would have won Tuesday, it would have played Lake Howell in the first round of the tournament. Lake Howell has punished Seminole twice, 22-6 and 27-2.

"We're going to be home for the game against Spruce Creek so it should be a different story," Seminole coach Beth Corso said. "I don't think the girls were looking forward to playing Lake Howell again. But we did come close to beating Apopka."

The Lady Seminole weren't trying to lose Tuesday, they just couldn't figure out a way to win. Seminole had 11 hits in the game, eight of those coming in the first two innings.

"We left too many people on base," Corso said. "We didn't hit the ball when we needed to."

Seminole took an early 3-0 lead as it scored once in the top of the first and twice in the second.

In the first, Alycia "Fat" Dixon led off with a single and went to second on an overthrow. Dixon advanced to third on a groundout and scored on Barbara "Taco" Silva's sacrifice fly.

In the second, Showanda Walker

Softball

and Jackie Suggs hit back to back singles and Walker scored on Lisa Hartman's fielder's choice while Suggs scored on a sacrifice fly off the bat of Dixon.

Spruce Creek came back with one run in the bottom of the second and took advantage of two Seminole errors to score three times in the fourth.

"We made two errors in the fourth that were very crucial," Corso said. "We had six errors in the game. Four times the ball was thrown right straight to the player and was dropped right out of the glove. That happened twice in fourth inning."

LADY RAMS EDGE SEABREEZE

Karen DeShetler saved a sluggish Lake Mary offense by making two diving catches in the outfield in the latter innings to preserve a 3-2 victory for the Lady Rams over Seabreeze's Lady Sand Crabs in Five Star action at Lake Mary High.

The win, combined with Seminole's loss, enabled the Lady Rams to claim the sixth seed in the district tournament. Lake Mary, 12-10 overall, hosts Apopka today and goes to Lyman Thursday for non-conference games. The Rams end the regular season Monday by hosting Seminole.

Lake Mary took advantage of two Seabreeze errors to score twice in the bottom of the first. Liz Stone reached on an error to lead off and DeShetler followed with a single. With two outs, Lisa Simkins singled in the first run and DeShetler scored when Laurie Leifer got on via an error.

Lake Mary upped its lead to 3-0 in the third. Stone led off with a walk. DeShetler reached on an error and Kim Averill singled to load the bases. Simkins picked up her second RBI with a sacrifice fly to score Stone.

The Lady Rams held Seabreeze scoreless until the top of the sixth when the Lady Sand Crabs scored twice.

Denise Kennedy and Cheryl Edwards both reached on errors and Donnell Wesley unloaded a triple to left to pull Seabreeze within 3-2. With one out, DeShetler got the Rams out of the jam when she made a diving catch and doubled Wesley off third.

DeShetler made another diving catch in the seventh to halt Seabreeze's last-chance rally.

"Karen (DeShetler) really saved us with those two catches," Lake Mary coach Cindy Henry said. "We hit the ball hard today but hit it right at people. We left 12 runners on base and left the bases loaded a couple times. We left 11 on against Lyman (1-0 loss Thursday). We have to start taking advantage of it when we get people on base."

Oviedo Erases Doubt, Ropes Kowgirls, 20-7

By Chris Flater
Herald Sports Writer
CASSELBERRY — If there was ever any doubt as to who was the best team in the Orange Belt Conference, Oviedo's Lady Lions erased it Tuesday afternoon.

An 11-run fourth inning paved the way as the Lions trounced Osceola's Kowgirls, 20-7, at Red Bug Park. The win enabled Oviedo, which dropped a 3-0 decision to Osceola earlier in the year, to move into a tie for the conference lead.

Oviedo, which improved to 13-7 overall with its seventh straight win, concludes the OBC schedule Thursday at Bishop Moore. If it wins Thursday, Oviedo and Osceola will be tied for the conference title. The top seed in the district would probably be decided on which team scored the most runs in head-to-head competition.

"If it's tied, it will probably go to runs scored," Oviedo coach Jackie Miller said. "I'd say we have that covered."

Freshman pitcher Jodie Switzer did her usual good job on the mound and the freshman also had an impressive day at the plate as she went 3 for 4 and drove in five runs to lead the 14-hit Oviedo attack.

The Lady Lions scored three times in the first with Mikki Eby's two-run double leading the way but the Kowgirls answered with five runs in the top of the second.

Oviedo tied it at 5-5 in the bottom of the second

Softball

with two unearned runs and took a 6-5 lead in the bottom of the third on Debbie Cole's RBI single.

Osceola scored once in the top of the fourth to tie it at 6-6 but the Lady Lions roared back with 11 runs in the bottom of the frame and the Kowgirls headed for the hills.

Switzer's three-run double was the key hit in the inning for Oviedo. Fran Foster added a two-run single and Dee Dee Beasley stroked an RBI single. Oviedo also took advantage of Osceola's pitching problems as Eby, Cathy Bergman, Jessica Bradley and Switzer all walked with the bases loaded. Switzer had four of her five RBIs in the fourth inning.

"The last time we played Osceola is when Candy (Williams) got hurt in the second inning," Miller said. "It really knocked the whole team down. We didn't hit well in that game. We hit a lot of fly balls. We hit the ball hard today and had twice as many hits. The Osceola pitcher kind of fell apart and walked in several runs, that helped."

While Switzer drove in five runs Tuesday, Eby picked up four RBI to run her season total to 29. Barbara Malone also had a fine day at the plate as she went 3 for 4 and Kelly Davison was 1 for 2 with a pair of ribbies.

Asplen Shakes Injury, Leads Win

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Sherry "Ice" Asplen has had to shake off an injured ankle and a bout with the flu but the junior first baseman confirmed she's ready for the remainder of the season Tuesday as she went 2 for 3 with an RBI and two runs scored in Lake Brantley's 11-5 victory over Lyman's Lady Greyhounds at Lake Brantley High.

Tuesday's game was a non-conference battle as Lyman won the first meeting between the two clubs. The Lady Greyhounds now stand at 5-9 overall while the Lady Patriots improved to 8-13.

Brantley jumped out to a 5-0 lead in the bottom of the first with Mandy Mathieson's two-run single leading the way. Mathieson was 1 for 2 with three RBIs Tuesday. Asplen and Kim Robinson also contributed RBI singles while Heather Meyer picked up an RBI by walking with the bases full.

Lyman came back with three runs in the top of the second. Denise Stevens led off with a walk and singles by Lori Helms and Wendy Vickery loaded the bases. Kelly Carman then reached on an error to score Stevens and Helms scored on Riane Richardson's single to right. With two outs, Nikki Jarrett singled up the middle to drive in Vickery.

The Lady Patriots added one run in the bottom of the second when Kim Wain blasted a triple to center and scored on Mathieson's sacrifice fly.

Lake Brantley increased its lead to 9-3 with three runs in the third. Asplen coaxed a walk to lead off and both Meyer and Angie May singled to load 'em up. With one out, Holly Hagaman reached on an error which allowed both Asplen and Meyer to score. With two outs, Wain walked to reload the bases and Laura "Straighten It Out" Davis drew a walk to force in May.

The Lady Greyhounds scored twice in the top of the fifth to pull within 9-5 but Brantley added two runs in the bottom of the sixth to "ice" the victory.

In the sixth for Brantley, Mathieson walked, Michelle Brown singled and Asplen singled to load the bases. Meyer singled up the middle to drive in Mathieson and Asplen later scored when Kim Lubenow reached on an error.

The Lady Patriots had 13 hits in the game, two each by Asplen, Brown and Meyer and one apiece by Mathieson, Wendi Jeffers, Wain and May.

Lyman had six hits, one each by Helms, Richardson, Dawn Boyesen, Mary Ryan, Jarrett and Vickery.

Jodie Switzer did more than her usual good job of pitching Tuesday. The left-handed hurler drove in five runs, three coming on a big double in the fourth inning.

Lyman Finds Another Hurler As Oswald Silences Hornets

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
No coach can have enough pitching when it becomes tournament time. Lyman skipper Bob McCullough found another pitcher — and a left-handed one at that — Tuesday night as the Greyhounds thumped Bishop Moore, 10-0, in nonconference baseball at Lyman High School.

Ken Oswald, who made a cameo appearance in Lyman's preseason tournament, hurled a strong 4 1/2 innings before giving way to Craig Meyer who fed a double-play liner to the next batter for the last two outs. Lyman pushed across two more in the bottom of the fifth to win by the slaughter rule.

Oswald, a sophomore, struck out nine and walked just three, two counting in the final inning when he ran out of gas. He allowed just two hits and only one left in the infield.

"I thought I pitched pretty

Baseball

good all year on the JV," said Oswald about his 4.2 junior varsity record. "I didn't have much trouble adjusting (to the varsity level). All my pitches were working tonight."

Catcher Jimmy Odom was the first to agree. "Oswald's fastball moves real good and his curve was dipping," said the senior backstop.

The Greyhounds, ranked No. 9 in the state poll, made Oswald's first start a little easier when they exploded for eight runs in the second against loser Keith Avent. They sent 11 hitters to the plate and took advantage of three Hornet errors.

Chris Brock, who snapped a slump with three singles, started the inning with a liner to left center. Clint Baker then reached on an error which moved Brock to second. After Odom fanned, shortstop and former Lake Howell standout Jeff Poindexter couldn't handle a wide throw from second baseman Marc Klein and Brock came around to score. Dale Stevens was caught looking for the second out but Kyle Brubaker hit a seeing-eye single to right field to chase home Baker for a 2-0 lead.

Chris Brock snapped a slump with three hits Tuesday night.

No. 1 St. Cloud Trims Lions, 7-1

By Rob Laria
Special to the Herald
OVIEDO — The St. Cloud Bulldogs, top ranked in Class AA, rode the three-hit pitching of Troy Girdner and timely hitting to a 7-1 victory of Oviedo Tuesday at Oviedo High School.

Girdner, who tossed a no-hitter last week in the nation's capital against Jefferson County, W. Va., was not as sharp against the Lions. But, still, he was overpowering, whiffing 10 Lions. He struck out the side twice, while yielding only one solid hit, a line drive to center field by Lester Cabrera. Girdner struck out 18 of 21 batters Jefferson County batters in his first game back from academic ineligibility.

Ironically, following Cabrera's hit, the second baseman dislocated his left shoulder sliding into second and may miss next week's district playoffs.

"It's numb right now," Cabrera said. "I don't know if I could play. I might not be able to play for two weeks, but I'm pretty strong. I might be able to get it ready and be the designated hitter."

Cabrera is just one more Lion on a growing list of players who are hurt or sidelined for the season. Last week, the team lost two players ruled academically ineligible. Adding to the problems in pitching, St. Cloud banged out eight hits and benefitted from six walks against Lion hurlers. Scott Bowers started the game but was relieved by Kevin Kewley in the second inning.

Baseball

Finally, Bill McCurdy came in and was effective over the last 4 1/2 innings.

"I don't know what we're gonna have to do," said Oviedo Coach Howard Mable shrugging his shoulders. "We have to do something; we have to find a combination. We have a few guys out there doing the job, that's it. We're hurting."

The Lions, who fell to 9-17 overall and 4-6 in the Orange Belt Conference, will have to regroup quickly because they face Lake Mary at home Thursday and again on the road Saturday before district play begins Wednesday versus Jones.

St. Cloud, which raised its record to 29-6, jumped on top early, scoring twice in the opening frame. Central Florida's leading hitter Eddie Tredway, batting at hefty .545 entering the game, singled and was chased to third on a double by Bob Kiser, who leads the area with 15 home runs. Both were brought home on another double, this one by Shawn Purdy.

St. Cloud made it 3-0 in the next inning, thanks to some control difficulties by Bowers. With two outs in the second inning, Bowers walked Steve Edwards and Tredway, prompting Mable to summon Kewley from the bullpen. The runners were moved to second and third on a passed ball by catcher Mark Hofmann.

Lady Hawks Tune Up, Bounce Bucs

By Chris Flater
Herald Sports Writer
In two tough conference losses last week, Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks waited until the sixth inning to get their bats going. And, by then, it was too late.

Lake Howell had another big sixth inning Tuesday, but this time the Lady Hawks used the sixth to pull away from Mainland's Lady Bucs. Lake Howell scored four times in the first and added four in the sixth for an 8-1 victory in Five Star Conference action at Lake Howell High.

The Lady Hawks claimed third place in the conference with the win and the third seed in the upcoming district tournament. Lake Howell, which improved to 17-6 overall, will host county rival Lake Mary in the first round of the district tourney.

"It doesn't matter that much who you play," Lake Howell coach Jo Luciano said. "You've got to blend together three days of good offense and defense. That's the bottom line."

Mainland will be the fourth seed and will host Lyman's Lady Greyhounds. In the battle for the conference title and the top seed in the district, Apopka's Lady Blue Darters blanked Apopka's Lady Bulldogs, 5-0, Tuesday afternoon.

Top-seeded Apopka will host the Seminole-Spruce Creek (eighth seed playoff) winner while DeLand hosts Lake Brantley's Lady Patriots.

In Tuesday's game at Lake Howell, the Lady Hawks wasted no time in getting started by scoring four times on five hits in the bottom of the first. Grace Ley led off with a single and, one out later, Eileen Thiebauth ripped a single. Sandy Gillies grounded out to first to advance the runners to second and third and Christy Tibbitts came through with a clutch single up the middle to drive in both.

Ava Gardner made it 3-0 when she singled to chase home Tibbitts. Jaudon "Pee Wee" Jonas followed with a walk and designated hitter Susan Hayden singled in Gardner with the fourth run.

"We tried something different today," Luciano said. "We had Ley in the leadoff spot. We've done that one other time and that was early in the season."

Oviedo Hopes Price Is Right For Orange Belt Championship

While Oviedo's Lions don't have the numbers to hurdle the competition, they do have a pair of hurdlers who will be eyeing individual first places Thursday in the Orange Belt Conference Championships at Bishop Moore High.

Kelly Price, a sophomore on the Lady Lions, is coming off a first place in the Seminole County Meet in the 330 hurdles in which she upset Lake Howell's fine hurdler, Rochelle Spearman. Price set a school record with her winning time of 47.5.

Price will also be competing for the 110 high hurdle title. Her best time going in is 16.0 and she finished fourth at the county meet. Price also took fourth in the long jump at county with a 16-5 1/2.

For the boys, Bryan Stewart has been steadily improving in the 120 high and 330 intermediate hurdles. Stewart finished second in the 120s at the county meet with a season's best time of 14.9. He came in fifth in the 330 hurdles with a 43.6 clocking.

Oviedo will also have two of the top pole vaulters in the conference in William Bland and Joe Hoppe. Bland cleared 11-6 to take second in the county meet and Hoppe went over at 10-6 for fourth.

Other entrants for the Lions include Kevin Thompson in the pole vault, Freddie Oliver in the triple jump and long jump and Keith Lomax and Joe Tanner in the shot put.

Oviedo's boys has a better shot at the title than the girls but it is an outside shot. Bishop Moore and Jones should be the favorites in both meets.

Washington Keys Cardinal Win

Shawn Washington was 4 for 4 with three doubles, including the game-winner in the bottom of the sixth, as Cardinal Industries came back to claim a 11-10 victory over Poppa Jay's in Sanford Little National League action Tuesday at Fort Mellon Park.

Poppa Jay's had built up an 8-3 lead going into the bottom of the fourth when Cardinal erupted for six runs to take a 9-8 lead. Key hits in the inning included Washington's lead off double, a two-run single by Anthony Roberts and, later in the frame an RBI single by Washington.

Poppa Jay's regained the lead with two runs in the top of the fifth but Cardinal tied it at 10-10 in the bottom of the inning.

Roberts, who went the distance on the mound for Cardinal, retired Poppa Jay's in order in the top of the sixth. In the bottom of the inning, Jerome Lane led off with a walk but was caught stealing for the first out. Daniel Minton then reached on an error and Washington followed with his game-winning double.

Behind Washington for Cardinal, Joe Webster and Roberts had two hits each. Billie Tinch, Kevin Mitchell and Maurice Fisher had two hits each for Poppa Jay's.

Chase, Nelson Pull Surprise

Lake Howell's girls marched all of their singles players into the finals Tuesday but the biggest surprise in the District Tennis Tournament came not with the Lady Hawks but with the Men Hawks.

No. 1 player Kevin Chase and No. 2 John Nelson bounced back from a 3-6 first-set loss to sweep Lake Brantley's Mark Mance and Rich Brail 6-1, 6-3 to advance to today's Division I final against Mainland at Evans High.

"They (Mance and Brail) just overpowered us that first set," said Nelson about the loss. "But Kevin (Chase) and I got zoned after that. We started serving well and putting away all of our shots."

For the girls, Kathryn Enriquez will renew her battle with Kim Faulkner today in the Division I final. Sister Trish takes on Rae Ryerson in Division II. Kathryn dropped Spruce Creek's Lisa Eichholtz and Trish whipped Lyman's Jamie McNamee Tuesday.

At Division III, Lake Howell's Edie Dulce takes on Lake Mary's Bernadette Peters. Lady Hawk Emmy-lou Dulce battles Winter Park's Jennifer Mackey at Division IV and Mindy Gardberg plays Boone's Delaney Clark at Division V.

Raiders Hammer St. John's, 16-7

PALATKA — Leonard Thigpen and Daryl Badger each slugged homer as Seminole Community College's Raiders hammered St. John's, 16-7, in Mid-Florida Conference baseball Tuesday.

The victory was the 21st for the Raiders against 17 losses and one tie. SCC, 7-9 in the MFC, hosts Central Florida Thursday at 3 p.m. The Raiders host Florida Junior Saturday and before concluding the season next Tuesday at Valencia.

SCC received a strong relief effort from former Lyman hurler Jeff Barefoot, who picked up the win. Barefoot came on for starter Mike Walker in the fourth and blanked St. John's in four of the last five innings.

Thigpen, meanwhile, drove in four runs with a double and a homer while Badger had a single and a homer and two ribbies. Ex-Oviedo slasher Brett Thayer drove in three runs with a pair of singles and ex-Lyman stroker Mike Sawyer singled twice for an RBI.

Islanders Eliminate Capitals, 1-0

LANDOVER, Md. (UPI) — The Washington Capitals must wonder what they need to do to beat the New York Islanders in a playoff series.

Obviously, taking a two-game lead isn't enough. For the third straight year the Islanders eliminated the Capitals, and for the third straight year New York goalie Billy Smith was the key to Washington's unwanted vacation.

New York is the first team in NHL history to rebound from an 0-2 deficit to capture a five-game series.

Tuesday's 2-1 loss that gave New York a 3-2 series victory was particularly hard to swallow for the Capitals. In that they outshot the Islanders 40-22.

"We had our opportunities," said Mike Gartner. "We did everything we thought we had to do to win, but we just couldn't get the puck in the net."

The Capitals led the series 2-0 after two overtime victories last week. The Islanders ran off three straight victories to win the series and advance to face the Flyers in a best-of-seven series opening Thursday in Philadelphia.

Canadiens Pull Out 1-0 Victory

MONTREAL (UPI) — After 42 years without a Stanley Cup playoff series victory over the Montreal Canadiens, it could hardly have been different for the Boston Bruins this time around.

Mats Naslund made sure history repeated itself Tuesday when he scored with 31 seconds remaining to give the Canadiens a 1-0 victory over the Bruins in the fifth and deciding game of their Adams Division semi-final series.

The victory sends the Canadiens into the best-of-seven division finals against the Quebec Nordiques Thursday.

"I said to myself, 'Harry, it was inevitable,'" said Bruins coach Harry Sinden of his reaction to watching the winning goal slip by netminder Doug Keane.

Hagler: Blood Turns Me On

Boxing

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Heading into the fight there were memories of what Thomas Hearns had done to pretty good fighters with that mule-kick right hand of his.

There was the flashback to 1980 when he made welterweight champ Pipino Cuevas look like a child in a second-round knockout. There was the brutal one-punch destruction of the legendary Roberto Duran in 1984, also in the second round.

And in the first seconds of the first round of Monday night's fight against middleweight king Marvin Hagler, it looked like it would happen again. He caught the champion with a straight right. The same punch that had turned Cuevas and Duran and 32 other opponents into jelly.

It turned Hagler into a madman.

"Right away he hit me with his best shot," Hagler recalled Tuesday. "A right, right on the chin. Nothing happened. I knew I could handle his punch."

In the ensuing minutes Hearns would land that same punch again and again. And several times he then went to a neutral corner, as he had done so many times to await the referee's count to 10.

But this time, he had company in the corner. Hagler's company. And it was bad company.

Hagler wore a bandage over his right eye at Tuesday's news conference, covering four stitches that were needed to seal a gash. That blood-spouting gash, incurred in the first round — a round considered one of the wildest, three minutes in the history of boxing — originally appeared to be the beginning of the end for Hagler.

It quickly, however, turned out to be the end for Hearns as a furious Hagler waded through the best punches the challenger could throw and crushed Hearns at 2:01 of the third round.

"I'm not scared of blood," said Hagler, who defended his undisputed middleweight title for the 11th time.

"Blood turns me on. It brings out the animal in me."

After referee Richard Steele halted the bout in the third round and ordered the ring doctor to examine the cut, that animal pounced on an already wobbly Hearns. When the attack was over, Hearns was on his back. His eyes were vacant. He got to his feet at the count of nine, but Steele wisely stopped the fight.

"I confused Thomas in there," Hagler said. "I got my leverage and found the distance and began switching from right to left. Just on instinct. I didn't even realize I was switching hands."

"I hit him with a right jab (from a southpaw stance) then switched to right-handed and zoomed in with my right hand. As soon as it landed, I figured that was the end of it."

For all intents, it was. A stunned Hearns careened crazily across the ring with the raging Hagler in pursuit. Five seconds later another right hand caught Hearns flush on the chin. The fight was over.

Marvelous Marvin Hagler took the best Tommy Hearns had to offer and then destroyed his middleweight adversary.

"Basically that was the only way to fight Thomas Hearns," Hagler said. "I told you I'd cut him down like a tree... just get inside and cut him down."

"I had to let him know right from the start who was boss. It was a big risk for me, fighting wide open like that, but I felt I could take anything he could throw. And I did. I was never hurt in the fight. Never."

Tigers Are 6-0

United Press International

Six games into the 1985 season, the Detroit Tigers are threatening to run away from the pack in the American League East. In light of their phenomenal start last season, it cannot be considered an idle threat.

"As far as our start is concerned, I don't think anybody is thinking about that," said Alun Trammell of the Tigers possibly equalling their start of a year ago. "We're playing one game at a time. I don't think anybody believes we can go 35-5 again."

The Tigers, who won their first nine in 1984, are the only unbeaten team in the American League and look as good last year's team, if not better. Detroit manager Sparky Anderson, however, is willing to settle for less.

"Sparky says he'll be satisfied to go 20-20. I don't think we'll settle for that," Trammell said. "We're getting great relief pitching. That's the key right now."

Trammell lined a high Ray Burris pitch over the left-field fence with two out in the fifth inning Tuesday night to lift the Detroit Tigers over the Milwaukee Brewers. It was his second home run of the season.

In other AL games, New York edged Chicago 5-4, Cleveland beat Baltimore 6-3, Texas topped Toronto 9-4, Kansas City blanked Boston 2-0 and Oakland outlasted Seattle 9-7.

Yankees 5, White Sox 4

At New York, Don Baylor homered off reliever Dan Spilner in the bottom of the ninth to lift the Yankees. Baylor's first home run of the year made a winner of Dave Righetti, 1-0. Left fielder Ken Griffey robbed Ron Kittle of a homer in the top of the ninth.

Indiana 6, Orioles 3

At Cleveland, Julio Franco drove in three runs to help the Indians to their first victory. Brett Butler had three hits and scored twice for Cleveland, which had lost its first five games. Vern Riffe, 1-1, allowed five singles, struck out seven and walked one in 6 1/3 innings for the victory. Cal Ripken and Larry Sheets homered for Baltimore.

DeLeon's Forkball Can't Cut Bad Luck

N.L. Baseball

United Press International Pittsburgh right-hander Jose DeLeon has a nasty forkball and a streak of luck to match.

DeLeon entered this season with two career one-hitters — both Pirates losses. In one of them, on July 31, 1983, he struck out 10 over nine innings against the Mets, yet left with no decision.

Tuesday night, the Dominican Republic native allowed just four hits and struck out a career-high 14 in eight innings, but once again New York spoiled his brilliant effort by pushing across a ninth-inning run for a 2-1 victory.

"There's always a bad-luck pitcher on a staff," said Pittsburgh third baseman Bill Madlock. "Jose seems to be the one on our staff."

Keith Hernandez drove in Mookie Wilson with a ninth-inning sacrifice fly off reliever John Candelaria to provide New York with its sixth victory in seven games this year, but it was starter Ron Darling who gave the Mets a chance to win.

The right-hander allowed just one hit — a single by Johnny Ray leading off the game — but walked Sixto Lezcano and Joe Orsulak to start the eighth. Jesse Orasco entered and walked pinch hitter Lee Mazzilli, then permitted a RBI groundout by Madlock for a 1-1 tie.

After Wilson opened the ninth with a triple, and Hernandez hit a sacrifice fly to center, Orasco fanned the side in the ninth to notch his first decision of the season.

"If you lose a game like this, there's no sense of fulfillment," said Darling, who walked four and struck out five. "But since we won, it's great. It was an important win for us. Personally speaking, if I continue to pitch that way, I should win at least half of them."

The Mets took a 1-0 lead in the second when George Foster doubled with one out and scored on a single by Howard Johnson.

Cubs 1, Phillies 0

At Chicago, Bob Dernier's one-out single in the 10th inning scored Larry Bowa to lift the Cubs. The loss dropped Philadelphia to 1-6, the Phillies' worst start in eight years. Dennis Eckersley, 1-1, scattered five hits and struck out 11 in going all the way for the victory. Bowa had three hits.

Reds 2, Braves 1

a sixth-inning homer to back the seven-hit pitching of Mario Soto. 2-1. Dale Murphy belted his fifth homer of the year for the Braves' only run. Cincinnati player-manager Pete Rose went 0-for-4 and still needs 87 hits to break Ty Cobb's all-time record.

Padres 2, Giants 1

At San Diego, Andy Hawkins, Craig Lefferts and Rich Gossage combined on an eight-hitter to lead the Padres. Hawkins, 2-0, went the first 6 2/3 innings and allowed seven hits, and Gossage pitched two innings for his first save this year.

Astros 7, Dodgers 3

At Los Angeles, reliever Ken Howell's two-run throwing error in the ninth inning broke a 3-3 tie and rallied the Astros. Trailing 3-1, Houston exploded for six runs in the ninth.

Pernfors Regains No. 1; Payne's Games April 25

In the recent college and university tennis rankings Mike Pernfors has regained the top spot in the division rankings. The former SCC All-American, has lost only once this year, that being to Stanford's Dan Goldie. Pernfors later beat Goldie in straight sets.

Larry Castle
Herald Tennis
Writer

On looking at the rankings that rank NCAA Division I, II, and AIAA players I was very pleased to see many members of the two national championship teams that played for SCC in 1982 and 1983.

Pernfors, of course, is the defending NCAA champ and plays No. 1 at Georgia. Necvet Demir plays No. 1 at South Florida and is ranked 67th. Andy Castle plays No. 1 at Wichita State and is ranked 24th. Greg Miller and Ake Svensson play No. 5 and No. 6, respectively, at Oklahoma State and are both in the top 40 in the nation in NCAA Division II singles and No. 4 in doubles.

This is an unbelievable success story for these young men and points out just how great those teams were. There will never be another junior college tennis team like them.

Bill Payne is the basketball coach at Seminole Community College, but if you want to reach him, your best bet would be to call or check by the tennis courts on campus.

Coach Payne has become an avid tennis player and, indeed, in the short period of time he has been playing the game he has become quite good — so good in fact that he has been challenging his old friend Wayne Epps, principal at Seminole High.

Wayne says that Bill should get a few more years of experience under his belt before he takes on the big boys, though, so this dream match might not take place for awhile.

Seriously, though, Coach Payne has not only become interested in playing tennis but has found that having tennis tournaments on the SCC courts is an excellent way to raise funds for his basketball program.

Several months ago Coach Payne and his assistant, Dean Smith, held a men's and women's singles and doubles tournament and about 60 people participated.

The competition was hard fought and played on a very high level. Sanford's Scott Reagan won the men's final in a very tough two setter over Rollie Walker of Orlando. The men's doubles were won by Reagan and this writer over John and David Holt. The scores were 3-6, 6-4, 6-1. The women's singles final was between Bernadette Peters and Linda Payne with Peters, prevailing in straight sets.

Starting April 25 and going through April 28 there will be another tournament and this one promises to be even bigger and better. It is non-sanctioned, so you don't have to have an FTA card, and the entry fee is only $10 for singles and $10 per doubles team.

Play will once again be in men's and women's singles and men's and women's doubles. If you would like to enter, call or write Coach Bill Payne at Seminole Community College, 323-1450.

Cook Of The Week 'Betty Buns' Now Tradition In Retired Nurse's Family

By Dorothy Greene
Herald Correspondent

For many years, children in her neighborhood would come to her door on Thursdays, her regular baking day, and say, "Miss Betty, do you have any 'Betty Buns' left over for us?"

This week's Cook of The Week is Betty Robinson, a little lady with a big heart, whose love for cooking and children go together like spring showers and rainbows.

Betty lives in one of the older sections of Sanford, near the lakefront, which still captures the essence of quiet beauty and Southern hospitality. Betty, who is a retired registered nurse, comes from the eastern shore of Maryland, where she received her nurse's training at St. Joseph's Hospital in Baltimore.

After graduating in 1932, she worked at the hospital there as a supervisor in Central Supply until 1936.

After moving to Sanford in 1936, Betty worked at the Fernald Lawton Memorial Hospital, which was originally a residence, but donated to the city to be used as a hospital. Sanford didn't have a hospital back then during the World War II years, and Betty can recall many harrowing experiences while on night duty. "Half the time there was no night orderly on duty at the old hospital," says Betty, "and we would put a gown on over our uniforms and go down and shovel coal to fire the furnace to keep the patients warm. The Lord took care of us because it was dark and we were scared. We did that many a night to keep the patients warm. During the war, a lot of our doctors were gone and the Navy doctors would come in from the base to help."

In 1947, when the Sanford Naval Air Station closed the Fernald-Lawton Hospital was moved to the station dispensary and Betty continued her nursing there, totalling 12 years of dedicated patient care with the hospital.

When she left her position as supervisor at the base hospital, Betty continued her nursing in the Sanford office of Dr. Charles Park, Sr. for 25 years. "I worked 40 years straight as a registered nurse," says Betty, proudly, and even though she is now retired she is still licensed and occasionally is called upon to care for someone who is ill.

Although Betty's devotion to her career prevented her from getting married until late in life, doing so gave her a complete and loving family. Married in 1971 to Reuel Robinson, a widower, Betty's family includes a son and three grandchildren of which she speaks fondly and enjoys telling of their accomplishments. Her oldest grandson is a geologist in Washington, D.C., a granddaughter is Supervisor of a State Park in Virginia, and Betty is eagerly looking forward to attending her youngest grandson's graduation in June with an Engineering degree from Virginia Tech, along with honors for being in the top 10 of his class.

Although widowed after 12 years of marriage to Mr. Robinson, Betty recalls many lovely trips they took together. "It seemed like we were going somewhere all the time," says Betty. "I'm really a home person, but he liked to travel a lot. We've been to Hawaii, visiting the islands of Maui, Oahu and Kauai. I loved Maui and I'd love to go back some day. We used to travel to Georgia and up to Rhode Island during various times of the year when the colors of the leaves were changing, and we've been out West many times."

Betty is active in the St. Mary's Chapter of the Holy Cross Episcopal Church in Sanford. "We're the working girls," says Betty. "We help prepare the dinners for church functions, help with bazaars, etc. We're called on to help whenever we can."

"I love to work in the yard," says Betty. "I'm out there working all the time." Last winter's freeze took its toll on many gardens and Betty's surviving rose bushes are just starting to bud, much to her delight.

Betty's many interests include knitting, crocheting and reading. She is presently working on a beautiful knitted sweater for her daughter-in-law who will, no doubt, be pleasantly surprised. Beautifully crocheted tablecloths and bedspreads are lovely products of Betty's handwork.

Legend has it that Betty has always loved to cook and bake, and apparently the neighborhood children knew this, too. "I was always baking," Betty says, laughingly. "A little fellow who lived nearby used to knock at the door and ask my uncle if 'Miss Betty' had anything for him to eat. The children named my cinnamon buns 'Betty Buns' and the grandchildren still call them that. It got to be a joke."

Being remembered in such an affectionate way by the adults who were once those bright-eyed youngsters is a feather in anyone's cap, perhaps earned by all the love Betty mixed in with the raisins, nuts and cinnamon.

"I enjoy sharing," says Betty, "and I'm always baking something to send off to the grandchildren. I like to keep something on hand all the time, because I get a lot of company."

Following are some of the recipes that "go over big" with Betty's family and are easy but elegant dishes.

CHICKEN CURRY

- 1 boiled chicken, meat removed from bones
- 1 pkg. broccoli spears, cooked and chopped
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1 can cream of celery soup, undiluted
- 2 tps. curry powder, mixed with soup and sherry. Mix together. Add bread crumbs and toss. Place shrimp in baking dish. Spoon margarine mixture over shrimp. Bake in slow oven (325°) 20-25 minutes, or until crumbs are brown. Sprinkle with additional parsley before serving. Serves 4.

TOMATO-CREAM CHEESE SALAD

2 pkgs. cream cheese
1 pkg. unflavored gelatin
¼ tsp. salt
1 tsp. sugar
1 can tomato soup
1 cup salad dressing
1 cup chopped celery
1 small green pepper, chopped
1 small onion, chopped
Place in sauce pan on low heat, the tomato soup, cream cheese, salt and sugar, stirring until cheese is melted. Remove from heat and cool. Dissolve gelatin in ½ cup water. Add to mixture. Then add chopped celery, pepper, onion and salad dressing, stirring well. Pour into molds and chill over night. Serve on lettuce. Serves 4.

ITALIAN CREAM CAKE

1 stick butter
½ cup shortening
2 cups sugar
5 eggs, separated (beat whites and fold in last)
2 cups self-rising flour
1 tsp. baking soda
1 cup buttermilk
1 tsp. vanilla
Small can flaked coconut
Cream together the butter, shortening and sugar. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each. Sift together the flour and soda. Add alternately with buttermilk. Add vanilla, then fold in beaten egg whites and coconut. Pour batter into 3 layer cake pans and bake at 350° for 20-30 minutes or until done.

ICING

½ cup margarine
8oz. pkg. cream cheese
1 lb. box confectioner's sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts
Cream together first 4 ingredients. Spread between layers and on top. Sprinkle chopped nuts over icing between layers and on top.

BETTY BUNS

Combine:
2 cups boiling water
½ cup shortening
2 tsp. salt
½ cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
Cool to lukewarm.
Soften 2 pkgs. yeast in liquid mixture.
Blend in 2 beaten eggs.
Gradually add 5½ cups flour, mixing well.

Place dough in a warm, draft-free spot and let rise until double in size. When doubled in size, place dough on floured board, invert bowl over dough and let rest for about 20 minutes. Roll dough into oblong shape. Brush with melted butter. Sprinkle with cinnamon, brown sugar and raisins. Roll dough in a jelly roll fashion, then cut 1½-inch slices (like Pinwheels). Place 9 at a time in an 8 inch square pan and bake at 375° for 20-25 minutes. Invert pan immediately after removing from oven or sugar filling will cause buns to stick to bottom. Makes about 36 delicious "Betty Buns."

Annual Spring Choral Concert

Seminole Community College's Humanities Division will sponsor the annual Spring Choral Concert for students and the community in the Concert Hall of the Fine Arts Building at 3 p.m., Sunday, April 21. There will be no admission charge for this public concert.

In celebration of the 300th birthdays of George Frederick Handel and Johann Sebastian Bach, the Community Chorus and Chorale will perform a coronation anthem, "Zadok, the Priest" and "With Cheerful Notes," by Handel as well as Bach's Cantata #150, "Nach dir, Herr, verlangt mich (Oh my Lord, I long for thee)." Alphonse Carlo and musicians from the Florida Symphony Orchestra will join Robin Lee Parker, pianist, in providing accompaniment for the Bach cantata.

Soloists will be Denise De-Shazo, soprano; Laurel Ellmore, contralto; Stephen Grey, tenor; and Lanier Nolen, bass.

The Seminole Community College Chorale will sing a group of chamber works including two short sacred pieces, a madrigal, folk music, and a choral fugue by Brahms.

The Chorale will present a varied selection which will include an American spiritual, a Stephen Foster song, and a popular hit. Annette Cobb and Norman Lewis will be soloists.

Dr. Burt H. Perinichief is director of choral activities at Seminole Community College.

Guest's Early Arrival Really Upset Hostess

DEAR ABBY: I invited some friends over for cocktails at 6:30 p.m. That afternoon one of my guests called to confirm the time. We talked a while, and just before she hung up, she said, "I'll come by early Goodbye." I was so surprised. I didn't say anything, but it was too late anyway.

Dear Abby

She arrived at 5:45. I was still dressing, so I let her in and I returned to finish dressing. Then I had several last-minute things to do for the cocktail party, so I wasn't able to visit with her, or even listen to her while she followed me around babbling about one thing or another. She really upset me because I couldn't concentrate on the things I had to do, and I'm afraid I wasn't a very gracious hostess.

Is it acceptable in today's society for guests to inform the hostess that they will be coming early? And how could I have avoided this unsettling experience?

OLD-FASHIONED

DEAR OLD-FASHIONED: The problem here is not what is "acceptable" in today's society; it's the difference between how you perceive your relationship with this woman, and how she perceives it. She was presumptuous to assume that she would be welcomed to come early. And you lacked the backbone to call her back and tell her it would not be convenient for her to come early — which is what you should have done.

DEAR ABBY: Because I have had a mastectomy, I am all too familiar with the comments of insensitive people concerning breasts.

A large-breasted (and proud of 'em) friend no doubt meant to console me when she said,

"Well, you didn't have too much in the first place!"

My husband of 21 years withdrew from me physically, saying, "You just have to understand, I've lost my desire."

Her head is screwed up. My head is on straight. And so is my prosthesis. I feel I hurt. I care. I love. I forget. I cry.

A WHOLE WOMAN

DEAR WOMAN: "Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn." (Robert Burns)

Asparagus: A Sure Sign Of Spring

A sure sign of spring ... asparagus. The asparagus we find is always green because it is cut as it appears above ground. In Europe it is covered with soil to bleach the stems. Either way it's a treat that is very versatile.

Asparagus of any size may be tender, but it is best to buy spears of uniform size so they will microwave evenly. Look for tightly closed tips and firm round stems. Avoid those that look somewhat seedy. Keep the spears wrapped in plastic in the refrigerator.

When preparing, hold the cut end and gently bend until the tough end snaps off. Wash in cold water. Arrange the spears in a 12x8" dish with the buds toward the center. Add 1/4 cup water. Microwave 6-9 minutes

Midge Mycoff

Home Economist
Seminole Community College

per pound. Rearrange the spears after half the cooking time. Allow to stand 3-5 minutes. Season with butter, salt and pepper, or for a special occasion, serve with microwave Hollandaise Sauce.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE IN SECONDS

- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 2 egg yolks, beaten well
- 2 tablespoons evaporated milk

1/4 teaspoon salt
Melt butter in a small bowl or 2-cup glass measure for 30 seconds. Stir in lemon juice, egg yolk and milk. Microwave at 100% power (high) for 15 seconds, stir and microwave 15 more seconds, or until mixture begins to thicken. Let stand a few seconds, stir and serve.

Asparagus can be the bases for a spring soup.

CREAM OF ASPARAGUS SOUP

- 1 pound fresh asparagus, or 2 (10 ounce) packages of frozen asparagus, cut into 1-inch pieces
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 tablespoons butter

1/4 cup all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon instant chicken-flavored bouillon
1 teaspoon tarragon leaves
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 cups Half & Half
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Combine asparagus, onion and water in a 2-quart casserole. Cover. Microwave at 100% power 8-10 minutes, or until vegetables are tender, stirring once. Process in blender, or food processor until smooth. Set aside. Microwave at 100% power 2-quart casserole 30-45 seconds, or until melted. Stir in flour, chicken bouillon, tarragon, salt and pepper. Gradually stir in asparagus mixture, Half & Half and milk. Cover. Microwave at 100% power 8-10 minutes, or until mixture boils, stirring twice. Stir in lemon juice. Serves 6. 220 calories each.

Cooked asparagus is good combined with other ingredients for a very special salad or just chilled and served on lettuce with a vinaigrette dressing.

ASPARAGUS-HAM SALAD SUPREME

- 1 cup long grain white rice, uncooked
- 2 cups water
- 2 teaspoon instant chicken-flavored bouillon
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1/4 teaspoon tarragon
- 1/4 cup cooking oil
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 1 1/2 cups cubed, cooked ham
- 1/4 cup green pepper
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 teaspoon curry powder
- 1 tablespoon snipped fresh parsley

1 cup fresh asparagus, cut in 1-inch pieces cooked

Combine rice, water, bouillon, garlic salt and tarragon in a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Microwave at 100% power 5-6 minutes, or until mixture boils, then reduce power to 50% for 10-12 minutes, or until rice is tender and the water is absorbed. Fluff with a fork and let stand 5 minutes. Mix in oil and vinegar, cool and chill several hours. Add ham, green pepper, mayonnaise, curry and parsley. Mix well. Add asparagus, toss lightly to mix. Refrigerate until ready to serve.

This recipe, teaming asparagus and ham, is ideal for brunch or a luncheon.

ASPARAGUS-HAM ROLLS

- 2 tablespoons butter
  - 1 tablespoon flour
  - 1 teaspoon instant chicken-flavored bouillon
  - 1 teaspoon parsley flakes
  - 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
  - Dash of pepper
  - 1 cup light cream
  - 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese
  - 3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
  - 1 pound fresh asparagus
  - 8 thin slices of cooked ham
- Microwave at 100% in a 4-cup measure the butter for 1/2-1 minute, or until melted. Stir in flour, bouillon, parsley, mustard and pepper. Stir in cream. Microwave at 100% power 3-4 minutes, or until mixture boils, stirring several times during last half of cooking time. Stir in cheese and eggs. Microwave the asparagus (see first paragraph). Cool. Divide asparagus spears among ham slices. Roll up each, secure with a toothpick if necessary. Place on serving plate. Microwave at 100% power, uncovered, 2-3 minutes, or until ham is heated. Top with egg sauce. Microwave at 100% power 1-2 minutes or until heated. May be served on toast triangles or rice.

Asparagus is a vegetable that is good too when you're counting calories. Use fresh or frozen when you are preparing this recipe.

CRUNCHY ASPARAGUS

- 1 package (10 ounce) frozen asparagus cuts
  - 2 tablespoons water
  - 1 teaspoon lemon juice
  - 3-4 drops tabasco sauce
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt (may be omitted)
  - 1 tablespoon shelled sunflower seeds or sesame seeds
  - Lemon slices
- Place asparagus in water in a casserole; cover. Microwave at 100% power 4-5 minutes, or until asparagus is hot, stirring after half the cooking time. Drain, cover and set aside.

In a 1-cup measure combine lemon juice, tabasco sauce and seasonings. Pour mixture over asparagus. Toss to coat. Sprinkle with sunflower or sesame seeds. Garnish with lemon slices.

4 servings with 32 calories each.

Pies

Best Of The Old Favorites Take On New Flavor Appeal

It was once known as "pye," but when that favorite of American desserts crossed the Atlantic Ocean, it adopted a new spelling and a new meaning. Pie, as it's known today, is very much an American classic. In Scotland, pies are filled with meat. A Frenchman unfamiliar with the word, opts for tarts or flan.

According to a survey for the Keebler Company, more than a half billion pies are baked at home each year. The rebirth of interest in American cooking has also meant an increased awareness in pies, whether it's a pioneer favorite like Shaker Lemon Pie or a contemporary classic such as Raspberry Chocolate Cheesecake in a delicious chocolate crust.

Even the prince of pies, Apple, has undergone some changes. The best of the old — tangy apples, rich brown sugar and cinnamon — take on new flavor appeal when combined in a crisp graham crust.

Whether you're making your first pie or you're a seasoned cook, you'll find these pies will soon become the classics of your kitchen, too.

Interested in more pie recipes? You can find the pies pictured here and more than 100 delectable pie recipes in a new cookbook, "Classic American Pies" from Ready-Crust. To obtain a copy of this spiral-bound and full-color book, send a check or money order for $2.50 to: Ready-Crust Recipe Book, Dept. NP FF, P.O. Box 2375, Libertyville, IL 60198. ### SHAKER LEMON PIE

1 ready-crust butter flavored pie crust
1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
2 large lemons
4 eggs, beaten well
2 cups sugar
Preheat oven to 375°F. Brush bottom and sides of crust evenly with egg yolk; bake on baking sheet until light brown, about 5 minutes. Remove crust from oven.

Slice lemons as thin as paper, rind and all. Combine with sugar and let stand for 2 hours or longer. Add beaten eggs to lemon mixture; mix well. Spoon into crust, arranging lemon slices evenly. Bake on baking sheet for 30 minutes. Cool 2 hours before serving.

RASPBERRY CHOCOLATE CHEESECAKE

1 ready-crust chocolate flavored pie crust
12 ounces cream cheese, softened
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
½ cup frozen raspberries, well drained
Glaze:
1 teaspoon butter
1 ounce unsweetened chocolate

Preheat oven to 325°F. In medium bowl, beat cream cheese until fluffy. Gradually add sugar and vanilla. Add eggs one at a time, beating after each addition until well blended. Fold in raspberries, reserving a few for garnish. Place crust on baking sheet. Fill with raspberry mixture. Bake for 35 minutes. Cool completely and refrigerate.

To make glaze:
Place all ingredients except vanilla into saucepan. Stir constantly over low heat until chocolate is melted. Remove from heat. Stir in vanilla. Pour over chilled cheesecake and refrigerate for 4 hours. Garnish with reserved raspberries.

DUTCH APPLE PIE
1 ready-crust graham cracker pie crust
1 egg yolk, beaten
5½ cups fresh, peeled, sliced cooking apples

1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup sugar
¼ cup brown sugar
3 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
Topping mixture:
¼ cup flour
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup brown sugar
½ cup butter or margarine
Preheat oven to 375°F. Brush bottom and sides of crust evenly with egg yolk; bake on baking sheet until light brown, about 5 minutes. Remove crust from oven.

Combine sliced apples, lemon juice, sugar, brown sugar, flour, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg. Mix well and spoon into crust. In medium bowl, combine topping mix of flour, sugar, brown sugar and butter with a fork until crumbly. Sprinkle topping mixture evenly over apples. Bake on baking sheet until topping is golden and filling is bubbling, about 50 minutes. Cool.

Beer Adds Unique Flavor To Kabobs

If you're looking for ways to put new faces on old-time summer recipes, a marinade can be the fastest way to spruce up the taste of a steak kabob than to add another summertime favorite—beer!

Kabobs are as old as time, their simplicity discovered by ancient forebears who found skewering preferable to singed fingers, and beer has long been a valued seasoning for cooks in countries around the world.

An easy, light marinade made with beer can give ordinary kabobs a unique flavor, while it tenderizes meat for grilling and attractively browns it. Cooking evaporates the alcohol, leaving a subtle and aromatic flavor that can't be matched or bought in a spice can.

There are as many ways to make kabobs as there are folks to eat them. For guests, you can do all the chopping ahead of time, freeing yourself to relax away from the stove. If you use vegetables as kabob fillers, marinate vegetable and meat chunks for several hours in advance, then arrange food items separately in bowls, and let your guests do their own skewering. Grilling takes only minutes on each side. All you need to accompany the kabobs is a hearty side dish, such as a pot of beans, and a cold drink such as a mug of beer!

Beans and kabobs are just two dishes that demonstrate how beer and food blend in the kitchen, as well as on the table.

STEAK ON A STICK

1 pound boneless beef sirloin, cut into 1" cubes

9-12 large whole fresh mushrooms

1 large green pepper, cut into

1" squares

1 12-ounce can beer
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons cooking oil
1 clove garlic, minced
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Place beef cubes, mushrooms and green pepper in shallow dish. Combine beer, onion, oil, garlic, salt and pepper. Pour over beef. Cover and marinate 3 hours in refrigerator; turn occasionally. Drain meat and vegetables, reserving marinade. Thread meat and vegetables alternately on 3-4 skewers. Grill kabobs over hot coals 7-8 minutes; brush with reserved marinade. Turn; grill kabobs 10 minutes more for medium doneness, brushing often with marinade. Makes 3-4 servings.

COWBOY BEANS

1 pound dry pinto beans

1 12-ounce can beer
1 pound smoked ham hocks
1/2 cup chopped onions
1 16-ounce can tomatoes
3 tablespoons molasses
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Rinse beans. Combine beans and 7 cups water. Bring to boiling. Simmer 2 minutes; remove from heat. Cover. Let stand 1 hour. Drain.

Combine beans, beer and 2 cups water. Add ham hocks and onion. Cover and simmer 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Remove ham hocks. Remove meat from bones; chop. Discard bones. Return meat to beans along with tomatoes, molasses, dry mustard and pepper. Cover and simmer 1 hour more or till beans are tender, stirring occasionally. Add additional water or beer, if necessary. Makes 8 servings.

Kabobs and Cowboy Beans a winning combo.

Take A Snack Break

Energy giving snacks that are easily packed make good companions for bikers and hikers. Short weekend trips are shaping up as we all chase away winter's cabin fever.

Keep the cookie jar stocked with your favorite homemade cookies and such things as iced cinnamon brownies. You're always ready with snacks to take along or for a snack break while cleaning up the yard.

ICED CINNAMON BROWNIES

3/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon divided

1 cup all purpose flour (un-sifted)

1/2 teaspoon salt

1 package (12 ounces) semisweet chocolate morsels (2 cups), divided

1/4 cup butter or margarine

1 tablespoon instant coffee granules

1 cup sugar

3 eggs

1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

1 1/2 cups chopped walnuts 2 teaspoons light corn syrup

Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Grease and line with waxed paper an 8 by 12 by 2-inch baking pan; grease waxed paper and set aside.

Combine 3 teaspoons of the cinnamon with flour and salt; set aside.

In a small saucepan over low heat melt 1 cup of the chocolate morsels and butter until barely melted; remove from heat. Stir in coffee. Spoon into a large mixing bowl; set aside to cool.

Beat in sugar until light and fluffy. Gradually mix in eggs and vanilla. Slowly add reserved flour mixture; stir in walnuts. Spread in prepared pan.

Bake just until a cake tester inserted in the center comes out clean, about 30 minutes (mixture will feel soft to touch but will harden upon cooling).

Let stand for 10 minutes; loosen edges with a spatula; turn out onto a wire rack to cool.

In the top of a double-boiler place corn syrup, remaining 1 cup chocolate morsels and 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon. Heat until melted; mix well.

Spread over cooled brownies. Let stand until set. Cut into 2-inch squares. Store in a tightly covered tin. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 24 squares.

APPLE SOUR CREAM PIE

3 eggs

2 tablespoons flour

1/2 teaspoon each ground cinnamon and salt

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

1 cup dairy sour cream

1/4 cup apple juice

1/4 teaspoon almond extract

3 cups pared, cored and diced Golden Delicious apples

1/2 cup golden or regular raisins

Whole Wheat Pastry Shell

Beat eggs until light. Combine dry ingredients, blend with eggs. Add sour cream, apple juice and almond extract; mix well. Combine apples and raisins. Place in pre-baked Whole Wheat Pastry Shell; pour sour cream mixture over apple mixture. Bake at 350° F. 35 to 40 minutes or until knife inserted near center comes out clean. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

Whole Wheat Pastry Shell: Combine 1/2 cup each whole wheat and regular flour, 2 tablespoons finely chopped walnuts and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Cut in 1/4 cup shortening. Sprinkle with 2 or 3 tablespoons apple juice. Stir gently until mixture forms a ball. Cover and chill 30 minutes. Roll dough and line 9-inch pie plate. Flute edges. Prick inside of pastry shell with fork; brush with small amount of egg white. Bake at 425° F. 5 minutes. Makes 1 (9-inch) pastry shell.

Tip: If sweeter pie is desired, add 2 tablespoons sugar to filling.

Special Treats To Mark Those Special Days

All of these desserts feature America's favorite nut, pecans! All of them start with convenient, easy-to-make mixes. All are simple to make as following the crowd-pleasing recipes below.

CHOCOLATE ANGEL ROLL
 1 package one-step white angel food cake mix
 Powdered sugar
 2 cups milk
 2 packages (4 ounces each) instant chocolate pudding and pie filling
 1 cup chopped pecans
 2 chocolate-coated toffee candy bars, chopped
 1 container (8 ounces) frozen whipped topping, thawed
 2 tablespoons chocolate-flavored syrup
 Pecan halves

Heat oven to 350°. Prepare cake mix as directed on package except — spread half of the batter in each of 2 ungreased jelly roll pans, 15-1/2x10-1/2x1 inch. Bake until golden brown, 20 to 25 minutes. Cool 10 minutes.

Loosen cakes from edges of pans. Invert on towels generously sprinkled with powdered sugar. Trim off stiff edges of cakes. While hot, carefully roll each cake and towel from narrow end. Cool and wire rack.

Beat milk and pudding and pie filling (dry) until blended. Stir chopped pecans and candy into pudding mixture. Reserve 1/4 cup of the whipped topping. Fold remaining whipped topping into pudding mixture. Unroll 1 cake, remove towel.

Spread half of the pudding mixture over cake, roll up. Repeat with remaining cake. Drizzle half of the chocolate-flavored syrup over each cake roll. Spoon reserved whipped topping onto top of cakes. Garnish with pecan halves. Refrigerate at least 1 hour, cut into slices (electric knife works best). 2 cake rolls.

Note: Cake rolls can be frozen loosely covered up to 2 weeks. Before serving, but into slices, let stand 20 minutes.

TOASTED PECAN PARTY CAKE

1 cup chopped pecans
 1 package white cake mix
 1 1/4 cups water
 1/2 cup vegetable oil
 3 egg whites
 1/2 cup red raspberry preserves
 1 tub creamy deluxe vanilla ready-to-spread frosting
 Yellow, green and red food colors

24 pecan halves

Heat oven to 350°. Spread chopped pecans evenly in ungreased square pan, 9x9x2 inches. Bake uncovered until light brown, 10 to 12 minutes, cool. Grease and flour rectangular pan, 13x9x2 inches. Blend cake mix (dry), water, oil and egg whites in large bowl on low speed, scraping bowl constantly, about 30 seconds. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally, 2 minutes. Stir in chopped pecans. Pour batter into pan; spread evenly.

Bake until cake pulls away from sides of pan and springs back when touched lightly in center of when wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 30 to 35 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pan, invert onto wire rack. Spread top of cake with preserves; cool completely.

Trim 1/4 cup of the frosting with 1 or 2 drops yellow food color. Trim 1/4 cup of the frosting with 1 or 2 drops green food color. Trim remaining frosting pink with 2 or 3 drops red food color. (Keep all frostings covered to prevent drying.) Place cake on serving tray. Frost sides of cake with pink frosting.

Fit open star tip #20 into decorating bag. Divide cake into 24 servings by piping yellow, green and pink frosting in alternating colors in 5 rows crosswise and 3 rows lengthwise. Pipe border around top edge and base of cake with pink frosting. Place 1 pecan half in center of each serving.

Dress up frozen waffles with strawberries.

Strawberries Are Here In Time For A Spring Brunch

Fresh strawberries are here and the time is ripe for a leisurely weekend brunch! Two new recipes, Strawberry Bread and Devonshire Strawberry Waffles, are super additions to a perfect repast... and both help keep last minute party preparations to a minimum.

The light, moist strawberry loaf... a quick bread which has fresh berries and whipped topping with real cream folded into the batter... can be baked ahead and frozen. Thaw, in wrapped, the night before the party. Serve with make-ahead creamy spread of cream cheese and whipped topping.

To make serving time extra easy, let guests assemble their own waffle treat! It's a delightful stack of waffles layered with slices of strawberries — in a slightly thickened sauce sweetened with brown sugar — and whipped topping made tangy with sour cream. Strawberry and whipped topping mixtures are quick and easy to prepare before guests arrive. Just before serving, heat frozen waffles and keep them warm on the buffet in a napkin covered basket.

STRAWBERRY BREAD
1 cup chopped strawberries
1/2 cup sugar
2 cups flour

2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup margarine, melted
2 eggs
2 cups thawed whipped topping with real cream
1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
1 tablespoon milk

Combine strawberries and 1/4 cup sugar. Combine remaining sugar, flour, baking powder and salt. Add combined margarine, eggs and strawberry mixture, mixing just until moistened. Fold in 1 1/2 cups whipped topping. Pour into greased 9x5-inch loaf pan. Bake at 350° 1 hour or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 5 minutes, remove from pan. Cool.

Combine cream cheese and milk, mixing at medium speed on electric mixer until well blended. Fold in remaining whipped topping. Spread onto cooled bread slices.

STRAWBERRY-SOUR CREAM BREAD

2 1/2 cups biscuit baking mix
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
1/4 cup vegetable oil
1 1/2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
2 teaspoons vanilla
3 eggs
1/2 cup chopped nuts

1 cup chopped strawberries or 1 package (10 ounces) frozen strawberries, rinsed, drained, and if whole, chopped.
Sour Cream Glaze (below), if desired

Heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour loaf pan, 9x5x3". Mix baking mix, sugar, sour cream, oil, cinnamon, vanilla and eggs, beat 50 strokes. Stir in nuts and strawberries. Pour into pan. Bake until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean, 55-60 minutes. Cool 5 minutes, remove from pan. Cool completely on wire rack. Spread Sour Cream Glaze over top of loaf; garnish if desired.

Sour Cream Glaze
1/2 cup powdered sugar
2 teaspoons dairy sour cream
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 1 teaspoon water
Mix powdered sugar, sour cream and vanilla. Stir in water until smooth and of desired consistency.

STRAWBERRY-LEMON PUDDING BARS

1 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup shortening
1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, softened
2 cups biscuit baking mix
1 1/2 cups quick-cooking oats
2 packages (8 ounces each) cream cheese, softened
3 tablespoons powdered sugar
1 cup milk
1 package (3 3/4 ounces) lemon instant pudding and pie filling

32 medium strawberries, cut lengthwise into halves

Heat oven to 375°. Grease rectangular pan, 13x9x2". Mix granulated sugar, the shortening and 3 ounces cream cheese in large bowl until well blended. Stir in baking mix and oats until crumbly. Press firmly and evenly in pan. Bake until light golden brown, 14-18 minutes. Cool 15 minutes.

Beat remaining cream cheese and the powdered sugar in large bowl until smooth; reserve. Pour milk into small bowl. Beat in pudding and pie filling (dry) on low speed until smooth. Pour over cream cheese mixture; beat on medium speed until smooth. Spread over crust in pan. Refrigerate until chilled, about 30 minutes. Cut into 32 bars, each about 2x1 1/2". Top each with 2 strawberry halves, cut sides down. Refrigerate any remaining bars, 32 bars.

Colitis, Other Diseases, Can Bring On Diarrhea

DEAR DR. GOTT — What is spastic colitis? I had a bad case of diarrhea for four weeks, so I went to the doctor. He said it was spastic colitis. He gave me Librax, which helped, so I only had to go to the bathroom twice a day. The stool was very loose, so the doctor told me to take Metamucil. It didn't help. Last week I got a cold and the diarrhea has returned, although I no longer have the cold. Does colitis ever go away?

DEAR READER — The wall of the bowel is lined by muscle. On occasion, those muscles can contract in a form of spasm. The spasm causes digested food to move too rapidly through the intestine. As a result, intestinal moisture remains in the bowel movements, making them mushy or loose.

Many diseases can cause diarrhea. Therefore, before assuming yours is the product of spastic colitis, you need to have an evaluation by a gastroenterologist. This type of specialist can perform certain tests to make sure you don't have intestinal infection, food allergy or any other treatable disease.

Librax, like other similar medicines, serves only to slow down bowel action; it doesn't cure the fundamental cause of your problem. Likewise, Metamucil is simply vegetable fiber which adds bulk to your stools and absorbs excess liquid.

Although many forms of colitis are resolved with time, I think you would be wise to check out your problems with a specialist.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I am 41 and in good health, but my joints crackle. My neck, shoulders, knees and ankles pop frequently. There is no pain, but it's annoying. My jaw has popped for five or six years and my other joints started popping about three years ago. They are getting worse. Is this caused by a deficiency? What kind of doctor specializes in this problem?

DEAR READER — As people age, the ligaments that hold their joints in place tend to relax and stretch. This allows more joint mobility, hence the crackling and popping that you experience. This condition is nothing to be concerned about; a short visit with a bone specialist (orthopedic surgeon) should put your mind at ease.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I recently had an EKG. Noting a dip in the tracings, I questioned the doctor. He said it was an extra beat and nothing to be concerned about. Please explain the significance of this departure from the norm.

DEAR READER — Extra heartbeats occur in healthy people of all ages. Skipped beats also are present in persons with heart disease. Whether the extra beats are normal or abnormal depends on their frequency, timing and configurations. As a general rule, extra beats are heart contractions that appear out of synchrony with the normal heart rhythm.

Send your questions to Dr. Gott at P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, Ohio 44101.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
Yates Williams of Colorado Springs, a generous and friendly fellow, plays in rubber bridge games for high stakes at high altitudes. Here is a deal that I would hesitate to report if it had taken place at sea level.

Yates was South and the bidding was as diagrammed. He won the opening lead with dummy's spade ace and played a club to his singleton king. He wondered to himself why there could not have been a more equitable distribution of heart spots in the North and South hands.

to set up the club suit and still get back to dummy. Suddenly there came an inspiration. Yates led the five of hearts out of his hand. When West produced the six, Yates played low from dummy. "Your lead, buddy!" he proclaimed.

West tried a diamond. Declarer ruffed in dummy, cashed the club ace and ruffed a club, happily noting that clubs were 3-3. Now the heart ace was an entry for all the clubs to be run, allowing Yates to make his contract.

We are grateful to East and West for not sacrificing at seven diamonds. That would have ruined a good bridge hand.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY APRIL 18, 1985

This coming year opportunities may develop for you distant from your present residence. To reap their rewards, it won't be necessary for you to travel or change location.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You'll be at your best and brightest today in places where your friends are gathered. Being around people is what you need to make your day. Major changes are in store for Aries in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Be sure to slate your zodiac sign.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Lady Luck may open up channels today so that you can benefit in some manner from things others have initiated. Flow with events.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

Through personal experience, you'll have opportunities today to add to your storehouse of knowledge. What you learn you'll retain and later use to your benefit.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Get out and circulate today in places where you'll have a chance to meet influential people. You could make a very valuable contact.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Things could work out to be very lucky for both you and your partner today where a joint venture is concerned. However, it'll be up to you to take the initiative.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Timing may now be right to resurrect an old project you have discarded. With a dab of ingenuity here and a touch of elbow grease there, it could pay off.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Acceptance by others will be no problem for you today. Your charm and ingratiating manner will make you a most desirable companion.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Today is the right day for you to undertake a major project around the house that you haven't felt you could handle properly before.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) If you've fallen a bit behind in your social obligations, today is a good day to rectify matters. See who is available and invite him out for dinner.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Conditions are now taking a favorable turn pertaining to a touchy family matter you've been skeptical about. Keep your fingers crossed.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Some good news is in the offing for you today, so be sure to keep your channels of communication open. Keep in touch with people who are pertinent to your plans.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) This is one of those days where others are likely to treat you in a very generous fashion, even people you think might not give a hoot.

'Best Times' Pleasant Teen Show

By Joan Hanner
UPI TV Reporter

NEW YORK (UPI) — "The Best Times" is a show about teenagers growing up in California that in its first episode doesn't have a single scene involving a swimming pool.

Furthermore, its teenagers don't own VCRs or sports cars — and some of them are downright ordinary looking.

On television, California has been a buzzword for the kind of lifestyle teenagers around the country wish they indulged in — overprivileged and overpermissive.

From there the California scenario splits, and either goes to a pool party or mires down in the deadly serious tragedy of drugs and suicide.

"The Best Times" instead offers a more realistic look at teenage life, with its small problems of uncertainties, insecurities and growing pains. The show, to debut Friday at 8 p.m., gives NBC yet another entry in its lineup of programs to please young people — an audience with whom the network is No. 1.

Janet Ellber, a lead dancer with the Martha Graham Dance Company, stars as a divorced mother who supports her teenage daughter by teaching English at the local high school. The daughter is played by Beth Ehlers.

Both are refreshing personalities, and much more beautiful than average people, but who wants to watch a light-hearted television show inhabited by pimply adolescents and overweight matrons — most of us already have those people in our living room as part of the family.

The show concentrates a large percentage of its time on the troubles of the daughter and her two best friends, as they struggle with jobs, boys and other teen troubles.

The mother has her own problem involving a handsome, divorced teacher at school, and she also worries about the possible disruptive influence in her classroom of a dropout who has returned to school amid a cloud of speculation.

Both mother and daughter make fools of themselves in the romance department — nothing world-shaking, just believable — and they are able to offer each other moral support.

Among the nice small touches in this pleasant show drenched in California sunshine is what happens when mother and daughter run into each other at school. Daughter's buddies greet their friend's mother cheerfully, while daughter obviously feels Mom cramps her style.

NBC says the show will deal with contemporary issues facing students, including drugs and pre-marital sex, but the core of the series centers on softer stuff.

The least realistic thing about "The Best Times" is its title — an awful lot of present and former teenagers would vote for the teen years as the worst of times.

Kid Star Cameos

Julie Anne McNamara, Olympic triple-medal winning gymnast, left, and Samantha Smith, who visited Russia last year at the invitation of the Soviet leadership, appear in cameo roles on "Charles in Charge" Saturday on channel 6. Scott Baio stars in the title role.
