PRESIDENT WILSON REPLIES TO SEN. JOHNSON'S REQUEST TO OBTAIN FARMERS RELIEF

Says Conditions Are Brought About by Fall of Price

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT

AS LEGISLATION HAS NOT PROVIDED ANY POWERS IN MATTER.

(By The Associated Press)
SIoux FALLS, Dec. 2.—President Wilson, replying to Senator Johnson's request for immediate financial relief for farmers and livestock raisers said "Your message reflects to unsatisfactory conditions unfortunately resulting from fall of price. I regret to find legislation has not provided me with powers which will be serviceable in the matter."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Agricultural committees of the senate and house meet today to consider relief measures for the agricultural situation. Secretary Houston, members of the Federal Reserve Board, government officials and farmers representatives will be heard.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Wilson will be glad to see President-elect Harding when he comes to Washington Monday for the opening of congress, it was said at the White House today. It was suggested that Harding might hold a conference here between the Republicans and Democrats instead of at Marion.

U. S. REPRESENTATIVE FOR AMERICA NOT FOR WILSON

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The representative whom President Wilson chooses to mediate between the Armenians and Turkish nationalists will act for the president of the United States and not Woodrow Wilson personally the State Department said today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Immediate loans of sixty million dollars from the government funds to aid the farmers to face the falling prices of products was proposed in a bill prepared by Senator Hitchcock after a conference with Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board.

MINISTERS OBJECT TO SUNDAY LAUNCHINGS AND GASPARILLA FESTIVAL

TAMPA, Dec. 2.—Methodist ministers of Tampa have adopted resolutions strenuously objecting to the launching of ships on Sunday and to the repetition of the Gasparilla festival being repeated "if it is to embody certain features that characterized it in 1920." They assert that the launching of ships on Sunday is a violation of the laws of Florida, and deprives the laborers of their right to a day of rest. They also object to the mayor and other city officials taking part in the launching ceremonies on Sunday.
With regard to the Gasparilla, they object to a "repetition of the celebration of a festival which glorifies piracy—a crime for which all civilized nations administer the gravest penalty—and accompanying the celebration with a drunken debauch such as characterized it last year."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE GOVERNORS

MET LAST NIGHT TO APPOINT IMPORTANT COMMITTEES

The Board of Governors of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce at their meeting held in the Valdez Hotel last evening created the following committees to function for the coming year: Agricultural Committee, City Development Committee (Parks, Play Grounds and Municipal Golf Course), Educational Committee, Good Roads Committee, Legislative Committee, Membership Committee, Municipal Affairs and Housing Committee, Publicity Committee, Inland Waterway Committee and Transportation and Traffic Committee.

Questionnaires will be mailed to the membership requesting that they check the names of three committees on which they will render service and upon return of these questionnaires to the secretary, the committees will be appointed by the president. Realizing, however, the necessity of beginning activities on the publicity campaign, the Board of Governors appointed R. J. Holly chairman of this committee and selected the following members to serve with him: C. L. Britt, Col. Geo. W. Knight, E. T. Woodruff, Er. F. Lane and C. J. Ryan. The Board of Governors made appointments to the following committees, Inland Waterways Committee, and Transportation and Traffic Committee beginning functioning without further delay. Inland Waterways Committee: A. P. Connelly, chairman; E. T. Woodruff, R. J. Holly, J. D. Hood and F. P. Foster. Transportation and Traffic Committee: D. C. Marlow, A. P. Connelly, F. F. Dutton, R. R. Deas and G. D. Blahop.

The Board of Governors declared it undesirable to create a lot of standing committees with undefined or hazy duties for the purpose merely of assigning as many members as possible to committees, the better practice being to appoint only such committees as have well defined duties to perform, dismissing them when the work is done. This makes it possible to select as committee members, men especially qualified for the work in hand and to give committee work to more members within a year than is possible under a standing committee plan. The Board of Governors also realize that idle men are not an aid to an organization, rather a handicap.

The Board of Governors of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, in line with other well regulated community organizations, will make it a practice to consult committee men in advance of their appointment in order to interest them in the work which will be entrusted to their committee before they accept the appointment. It is only through concerted action of the membership that positive success can be obtained in the plans formulated for making Sanford the largest town in the South Central section of the state.

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF THE ELKS

WILL BE HELD IN THE METHODIST CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Since the beginning of the Elks Order and the decease of its first member, throughout the United States on the first Sunday in December all Elksdom has gathered together and memorialized their departed brothers. With a total membership of over 600,000 and one thousand three hundred and eighty-three lodges, Elksdom will be before every community in the United States on Sunday.

In past years Sanford Lodge has done its part in making the national memorial service of the Elks a success, and this year they have gone one better than usual, they have arranged to have Hon. W. W. Phillips, of Lake City, deliver the address of the afternoon. The usual ritualistic work will be conducted by the lodge. A musical program has been arranged, which will delight every hearer, the selections are beautiful, and rendered by local talent whom the music loving people of our community have learned to appreciate.

Since our last services two brothers have been called from our ranks, Brother W. H. Peters, who departed this life in Sanford, Fla., and Brother Jos. DeMont, who departed this life at Denver, Colo.

Hon. W. W. Phillips, Those resident of Sanford who have ever had occasion to linger around the legislative halls of Florida, well know who Hon. W. W. Phillips represents. He is one of the most prominent law makers we have in our legislative halls, and hail from Columbia county. Hon. Phillips has always been instrumental in the upbuilding of the state of Florida, and has given his very best efforts at all times. It is with a great deal of pleasure that we learn that Hon. Phillips will be with the Elks in their memorial services, and will deliver the address of the afternoon. You will be well repaid to make preparations and attend this service at the Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock and hear Mr. Phillips. He will give you a message that will do you good.

We cordially invite the public to unite with us in this service in memory of our deceased brothers and your friends.

Remember the time and place, 3:00 o'clock at the Methodist church.

SCHOOL LUNCHES 3 AND 5 CENTS A BIG SUCCESS

CHICAGO BOARD OF EDUCATION IS DOING GREAT WORK

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Judging by their patronage, the 3c and 5c meals put up by the Chicago board of education are making an enormous success.

The city's "penny lunch" business runs from forty to fifty thousand customers a day. Sales, measured in pennies and nickles, amount daily between $4,000 and $5,000.
"We have to chase the children away," remarked Dr. Frank G. Bruner, director of special schools under the board of education, who has charge of this work. "Often we have to stand at the door and protect the lunchrooms so they won't be overrun."

Dr. Bruner said that penny lunches had been established in 57 of the city's elementary schools. Their object, he observed, is to provide substantial food at the least cost for children coming from homes where there is real necessity. Lunchrooms therefore have been opened in districts where, as a general thing, the people are not as well to do.
"For five cents," Dr. Bruner said, "the menu runs something like this: 'Soup', 'Bread', 'Milk or Cocoa', 'Fruit or pudding'. The bill of fare at 3c drops the milk. And then if youngster can spend only a penny if he wants to, buying any one of these articles for it. Or if he is not blessed with wealth and yet has more than a penny, he can for two cents purchase a meat ball, beans, spaghetti or rice."
"The board of education is spending $150,000 a year to provide these meals," added Dr. Bruner. "The board donates all service and equipment. That includes the rooms, stools, light, gas,—the entire maintenance cost. What the children pay goes into the food. We buy at wholesale and the receipts cover the purchase of the food."

Could Take Care of Five Hundred People

ADDING POPULATION

AND SOLVING THE HOUSING QUESTION FOR THIS SEASON AT LEAST

Already the word has gone out that Sanford will provide a fine auto camp and temporary homes on the lake front where every convenience will be accorded the visitors and there have been many inquiries from people in northern states and some from people already encamped in this state who want to come here for the winter.

The city commissioners will take up the matter at their next meeting and since J. D. Hood has generously offered the lake front property east of Palmetto for this purpose it is almost certain that other nearby property could be secured for this purpose and with the addition of the south side camp that will be built at once Sanford can house at least one thousand more families here this winter with no trouble and with but little expense. In fact on the lake front they can have all the comforts of home and could even use the city lights and gas if they wished.

The camp on Sanford Heights will be abandoned as soon as City Manager Ryan can complete his plans for arranging the camp farther out and as Sanford Heights was only a temporary camp it will be evacuated and the campers who do not wish to camp on the lake front can get the more salubrious climate of the south side of the city. Most of the tourists, however, will prefer the lake front and here they will be able to have one of the finest camps in the state, right in the heart of the city with all conveniences and where they can have everything they would have if they were living in houses. In fact it will be so convenient that some of the townspeople are thinking of living there for the winter—at least those who cannot find a house in town—are thinking of it.

There should be no objection to the lake front being used for an auto camp for it will inconvenience no one and will prove a big benefit to the city in many ways.

And if there are any objections, let us have them now or forever hold your peace.

GRAND JURY REPORTS ON OCOEE TROUBLE

ORLANDO, Dec. 2.—The grand jury empanelled last Monday by Judge C. O. Andrews of the 17th judicial circuit court, has concluded its report on the race trouble at Ocoee, which occurred several weeks ago, and when two white men and at least three negroes were killed and the negro quarters burned to the ground. The grand jury carried on a rigid investigation and in the report rendered says in part:

"We find no evidence against any or any group of individuals as to who perpetrated the fatalities. In the death of the two white men, Elmer McDaniels and Lee Borgard, and the death of July Perry, a negro, we accept the coroner's verdict. We exonerate Perry's widow and daughter, now in custody at Tampa, Fla., and recommend their release."

The order from Sheriff White for the release of Estelle Perry, widow of July Perry, and her daughter, Cartha, reached Jailer Wilson Tuesday afternoon, and the two women were at once released.

The jailer says that Monday afternoon a party of white men from Orlando called at the jail and asked to see the two women, but were told by him that they could not be seen unless they brought a permit from the sheriff, and went away, presumably to seek the sheriff, but did not appear again.—Tampa Tribune.

REFUSES MILLION DOLLARS
YOUNG HEIR DOES NOT WANT ANY TAINTED MONEY

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass., Dec. 1.—Charles Garland, the young man who has renounced his right to a million dollar legacy left him by his father, James A. Garland, who was a wealthy clubman and yachtsman of Boston, yesterday made a formal statement of his reasons for rejecting the money. His statement, he said, was due to the fact that the many reports of his failure to accept the legacy had failed properly to present his position.

"I refuse to accept the money because it is not mine," was young Garland's summary of his action. "A system which starves thousands while hundreds are stuffed condemns itself. A system which leaves a sick woman helpless and offers its services to a healthy man condemns itself. It is such a system that offers me a million dollars," he continues.

"It is blind to the simplest truth known to every child, the truth that the hungry should be fed and the between the loss of private property and the law which is written in every human heart. I choose the one which I believe to be true."

Garland, who has stated that he renounced his claim to the million dollars because he thought Christ would have done the same, continued:

"I believe I could do no good with the money. It is the man who gives food to the hungry who does good, not the dollars given in exchange for the food. I would be happy to be the man if I had the food to give, but I cannot lend myself to handling the money that is not mine even though the good that might be done is possibly great."

M. M. STEWART BUYS
ELDER SPRINGS PROPERTY

M. M. Stewart has purchased the Elder Springs property on the Sanford-Orlando road and with Forest Gatchell will put the Elder Springs water into new markets and will also make renewed efforts to build up a bigger business here in that line. The Elder Springs property is one of the finest in this part of the country, consisting of more than a hundred acres of land containing orange and grapefruit trees and bananas and garden truck and the famous Elder Springs from which there gushes an unending flow of what has been pronounced some of the purest water that can be obtained in the state.

Elder Springs has been in the possession of Wallace Wheeler for several years and before that belonged to Capt. P. M. Elder, who first recognized the value of the spring water and placed it on the market under the name of Elder Springs water. It has been analyzed by chemists and pronounced 99 and 98-100 pure and now that Messrs. Stewart and Gatchell have purchased the place they intend to push the sales of this water to the limit and will also distribute it in the neighboring cities. They will also make the place their future home and will make it one of the show places of the county. Read their advertisement in this issue.

Great for winter business, great for the growing crops.

Great for the winter visitors and great for business in every line.

The many sales being put on by Sanford merchants are bringing the buyers to town and the streets are thronged with them morning and afternoon and on Saturdays all day and part of the night.

When those new buildings contemplated are built that means more store rooms and more apartment houses and more homes this city will begin to take on the growth that it should have had years ago.

PRISONERS OF REDS GO CRAZY

Many of Captives Returned to Germany Are Sent to Insane Asylums.

BITTER TOWARD FATHERLAND

Curse Their Flag and Denounce Country for Not Exchanging Them—5,000 Remain in Russian Prison Camps.

Stettin, Germany.—Every contingent of German war prisoners arriving here from Russia contains a number of ragged, unshaven, haggard men who have been made insane by suffering during many months in Russian prison camps.

In three weeks the German government sent 200 of these men to insane asylums and sanitariums for treatment. A few have spells of violence and during these periods must be kept under guard, but the majority present a listless, woe-begone aspect. They look about with dull, unseeing eyes, or sit quietly weeping, unconscious of the fact that they are home again.

The families and friends of the insane soldiers are allowed to greet them and to give them food and clothes before they are sent away for treatment.

Curses His Own Flag.

Nearly all the prisoners exhibit the most intense bitterness not only toward Russia, but toward the German government as well. One of them, who had lost a leg and an arm, and who, it was learned, had been taken prisoner early in the war and has been confined in many Russian prison camps, shook his fist at a German flag when he arrived, and cursed his country, his people, and all other countries and peoples.

"To— with Germany!" he shouted. "That is not my flag and Germany is not my fatherland."

He then turned to the other prisoners and pointing to his wounds, said:

"This is what Germany has done to me. This is what a kindly fatherland has permitted. Why didn't they exchange me? Because I have only one leg and one arm? I lost them fighting for Germany and all the thanks I've had for it were the rotten years in a Russian prison."

Tell of Their Sufferings.

The prisoners generally agreed they had been unable to secure proper medical treatment in the Russian camps, and that their food had been very bad.

At the close of the war there were 250,000 Russians in Germany. The German government estimates that not more than 5,000 Germans will remain in Russian camps this winter.

Before the Russo-Polish hostilities began the Russians were being returned rapidly, but it is now estimated at least 200,000 Russians are still in German camps, 60,000 of whom are the troops interned when they crossed the east Prussian frontier during the Polish offensive.

The German government has expended 30,000,000 marks for transportation of Russians home, and 60,000,000 marks to bring German prisoners out of Russia.

GERMAN BANKERS LOOK EAST

Organize 11,000,000-Mark Company to Promote Trade Relations With Russia.

Berlin.—A new bank capitalized at 11,000,000 marks has been organized here by a syndicate of German bankers and industrialists to foster trade relations between Germany and Russia.

It is proposed to include the Baltic and border states in the newly formed bank's sphere of influence.

The Vossische's financial editor says that the lively interest displayed by the United States and England in Russian trade relations should be an incentive for Germany to turn her trade eye to the East.

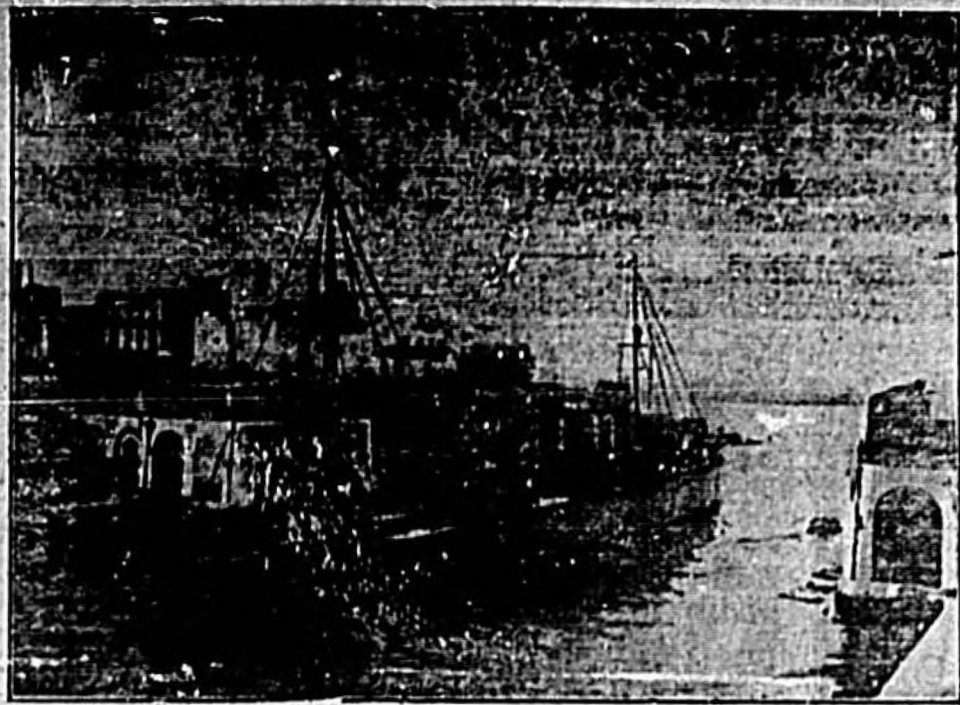

He declares that world conferences will discuss the European situation in vain so long as they continue to exclude Russia from their economic calculations.

Town of 800 Packs Up to Move 10 Miles Away

Ellisville, Miss.—If you don't like the location of your town move the town.

So say the 800 inhabitants of Kohay, Miss. Some of the buildings are now on wheels and others will be loaded on flat cars and carried over a logging road to a site ten miles north of the present location.

TARANTO, ITALY

Nowadays the world's attention has been brought to the Mediterranean more than ever before. Towns and cities which were little known before the Great War have leaped into importance and caused many an argument as to their location, to be settled by referring to an atlas or a geography.

Taranto, which contains one of the finest harbors in Italy, is situated in the inside of the heel of the boot of Southern Italy. In the olden days it was one of the most splendid cities of Magna Graecia and was the leading Greek city in Italy. It contains many fine old ruins among which in an amphitheatre and a Greek temple, both of which are excellent examples of early Greek architecture.

The United States maintains at present a force of twelve destroyers and several cruisers in the Mediterranean to watch over the interests of its citizens and to give relief and succor where most needed to the native folk. Practically all of these vessels make Taranto a port of call for leave and supply as it is on a direct line between Gibraltar and places east of Italy, offering the men a place of rest and an opportunity to take in the sights.

The picture shows the U. S. Destroyer Hale, which recently returned from a twenty-six thousand mile cruise throughout all the main seaports of Europe, entering in the harbor at Taranto.

MOONSHINE CAUSES THREE DEATHS

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 2.—Charles Davis, a wealthy planter, living in Wake County, held here charged with the slaying of his wife Monday while drunk, hanged himself in a cell in the county jail early yesterday. His body was found by attendants dangling from an improvised rope made by tearing his clothes into strings.

Davis' recovery from unconsciousness as a result of drinking a gallon of moonshine was followed by a fit of melancholia last night. Extra guards were placed on duty to watch him, but he evaded them, although they were in an adjoining cell watching him. A coroner's jury will hold an inquest over Davis' remains. Sam Shadrick, another confessed slayer of his wife, also while drunk was overcome and fainted when he heard of Davis' act.

Somebody is Cheating. Pineville, Ky.—Page the stork. Thomas L. Harp, registrar, has inserted the following advertisement in local papers: "There has only been one birth certificate turned in for this district for the month of September. For the month of August not one showed up. Somebody is violating the law or the stork is on a strike."

MEMORIAL TO GRANT

Grand Statue at Washington is Nearly Finished.

Second Largest Equestrian Statue in the World Has Been Eighteen Years in the Making.

Washington.—Eighteen years in the making, a memorial to Gen. U. S. Grant is nearing completion here, and probably will be unveiled before the end of the year. It is in the form of a magnificent equestrian statue of bronze, the second largest of its kind in the world, mounted on a granite pedestal and flanked on the left by a casting of a group of cavalry and on the right by a group of artillery, both groups done in bronze.

Two huge lions in stone at the foot of the pedestal complete the memorial. The equestrian figure stands 16 feet high, weighs 10,700 pounds and costs $250,000. The memorial is located in the botanic gardens at the foot of the capitol grounds, and congress has approved removal of a section of the iron fence on the east front of the gardens to admit the statue and to provide space for spectators at the unveiling ceremonies.

Authority for the creation of the memorial was given by congress on Feb. 23, 1901. The competition for the statue was held in 1902 and the award was to Henry M. Shady, a noted sculptor of Elmsford, N. Y., whose design was selected by a jury consisting of Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Daniel Chester French, Daniel H. Burnham and Charles F. McKim.

The pedestal was designed by Edward Pierce Casey of New York, associated with Mr. Shady, and was completed and put in place in 1906.

The equestrian statue has just now been finished, however, and was shipped here in sections by motortruck from New York city.

The memorial to the famous general and eighteenth President of the United States will bear no inscription, according to the members of the fine arts commission, who recently approved the statue in its completed form. A member of the Grant memorial commission had composed a lengthy inscription, but after careful consideration officials of the commission and of the office of public buildings and grounds deemed an inscription unnecessary.

MILLION DOLLAR BAND SUITS EVERY TASTE

(By Philo)

"Oh where are you going my pretty maid?"

"I'll follow the crowd, dear boy, dear boy," she said.

"In that case then, just take my hand,

That means the MILLION DOLLAR BAND!"

While classical music is their forte and the programs composed of first class sections, the Million Dollar Band, which plays at Sanford, Wednesday, December 8th, offers a sufficient amount of jazz music to satisfy the ragtime music lovers who are numerous in every audience.

People, as a whole, whether lovers of classical or popular music are eager to hear this wonderful musical organization play the airs which helped to inspire the fighting Yankees to victory in the Argonne Forest in the closing months of the hot summer of 1918.

The Million Dollar Band comes to Sanford under the auspices of the Woman's Club of this city.

HIS TIME ALL TOO SHORT

Dying Profiteer Could Not Make Complete Confession of Iniquity in One Brief Day.

Armin W. Riley, head of the "flying squadron" that hunts down profiteers for the department of justice, told a profiteer story at a Washington reception.

"A sick profiteer," he said, "was told by his physician that he had only a short time to live. Accordingly, he expressed a desire to confess his sins, and a divine was sent for.

"The divine entered the dying profiteer's chamber and the door was closed. An hour, two hours, three hours passed. Nothing was to be heard by the attendant nurses and physicians outside in the corridor save the steady, monotonous flow of the profiteer's confession, punctuated at brief intervals by exclamations of horror and indignation on the part of the divine.

"Lunch was sent into the sickroom, and the confession went on. The afternoon waned. The sun set. Night fell. The divine's dinner was carried to him. And still the profiteer continued to confess.

"Haggard and unstrung, the divine at last tottered forth at daybreak.

"Our unfortunate friend," he said, "is no more. He worked very, very hard; but at the time he passed away he had only carried his confession through the first year of the war."

COQUETTE SET NEW FASHION

Favorite of French Monarch Responsible for Coiffure Which Became a Universal Style.

Styles have had queer origins, and none more unique than the fontaine, a style of hair dressing popular in the early part of the eighteenth century. The dressing consisted largely of doing the hair high and binding it in place with a jeweled fillet or ribbon. At one time it was worn by every lady in the court of Louis XIV, and from there it spread to all parts of the civilized world where fashion reigned. The manner of its origin is this:

The king went for a ride one morning with Mlle. de Fontagne, a lovely girl with whom the king was madly in love, and who was not cold to his advances. In fact she shortly took her place as his favorite. As they rode, her hair came tumbling down, and there is reason to believe the little comedy that followed had been staged in advance, even to the loosening of the pins that allowed her beautiful tresses to escape. At any rate, the lady slipped from her horse, and with a laugh lifted her skirts and took off a jeweled garter which she bound around her hastily repined hair. The king was delighted with the by-play, and upon arriving at the palace announced the mode the most becoming in the world. Within 24 hours every coquette and matron in the court had adopted the fashion.

Emergency Call.

"We've got lizards in our basement, and I just killed a snake in the front yard. Can't you send some one out right away to kill them?" wailed a voice over the telephone to William F. Cleary, clerk of the board of public works.

It was a woman's voice, or Mr. Cleary would have sent a request to the board of public safety that one of the morals squads be sent out with a suggestion that they might find whatever it was that made people "see snakes." However, he asked the board to send out an ordinary policeman to kill the reptiles.—Indianapolis News.

Fill Fountain Pen Without Dropper.

How can the fountain pen be filled without having a dropper handy? A man does not usually carry a dropper with him. But in the crowd at hand there is likely to be someone who has a self-filling fountain pen. If he can be induced to lend it for a moment the trick is done, says the Popular Science Monthly.

Take the self-filling pen and steep it in ink until it is full. Assure the owner that no damage will be done to the point of his valuable self-filler and permit him to watch the following performance:

Press the lever of the borrowed pen, and through its point discharge its contents of ink into the barrel of your own pen. Then refill the borrowed pen and return it.

Million Dollar Band

Harold Bachman and his million dollar band, that same band that has been playing for the State Fair at Jacksonville will be in Sanford for several concerts and are coming under the auspices of the Woman's Club. This is another one of the real treats in store for the Sanford people. They will be here Wednesday next.

AND THEN TOO

there has been a real treat for the Sanford shoppers at our place ever since last Saturday. Our store has been crowded with people taking advantage of many bargains that we are offering. Many people have wondered just why we are doing it, just why we are offering such big reductions, and for their benefit we want to say that we feel that every retail merchant is going to have to suffer a loss of some kind during this reconstruction period and we are taking our loss now to get it over with so we can forget it.

PLAN TO MOVE FRENCH DEAD

Million Fallen Heroes to Be Transferred to Military Cemeteries in Near Future.

Paris.—France's 1,000,000 war dead are soon to be transferred to permanent military cemeteries or reinterred in private burying grounds, at the option of relatives.

It may be many months before the work is even well under way, but the start is to be made soon, under authority of laws passed at the last session of parliament and now made effective by decrees.

A separate monument, of a design not yet adopted, will be put at the head of each grave, and the care of the military grounds will devolve upon the government in perpetuity.

Sanitation and lack of transportation has delayed the assembling of the bodies, but it has been decided that by careful planning the work may be done without danger to health or to industry.

Deliberate long before doing what it is impossible to do.

Aged Aviation Devotee.

France's younger generation has been encouraged to use air locomotion by an old lady of eighty-three, says a Paris correspondent of the London Times. She is Mme. Hemery, a charwoman, who lives in the country, where airplanes pass every day. It was in 1875 when she first left the ground, when she tasted the delights of ballooning, and, seeing, as she did, the new airbird daily above her, she could not resist trying the new sensation. Thus one day she had saved sufficient money from her meager earnings and took a trip in the air. She did this without the knowledge of her many grandchildren, who were completely shocked when the news reached them. She is in no way perturbed and is determined as soon as funds allow to try looping the loop.

And Dew Drops.

Struck by the notice "Iron sinks" in a hardware shop window, a wag went inside and said that he was perfectly aware of the fact that "iron sank."

Allive to the occasion, the smart shopkeeper retorted: "Yes, and time flies, but wine vaults, sulphur springs, jam rolls, grass slopes, music stands, Niagara falls, moonlight walks and holiday trips, scandal spreads, standard weights, India rubber tires, the organ stops, trade returns, and—"

But the visitor had bolted. After collecting his thoughts he returned, and showing his head at the doorway shouted: "Yes, I know, and marble busts!"—Science and Invention Magazine.

Trust Controls Chinese Dye.

That the manufacture of the red dye used by the Chinese to color firecrackers for export to America is controlled by a native "trust" with headquarters in Hongkong is the intelligence brought to this country by a Filipino now studying at the New York State College of Forestry, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The dye is used also in making the flord seals with which the Chinese certify their more important documents.

Mules Eat Airplane. Coon Rapids, Ia.—When Charles Zydell, a Lake City, Ia., aviator, came to Coon Rapids, parked his airplane in a pasture and went to see a ball game he failed to take into consideration a bunch of shave-tail mules standing in the pasture. Two hours later when he returned, he discovered that the mules had eaten it up. Zydell had to borrow money to go back home. The mules ate the wings, nibbled the woodwork and kicked the ionneau and tail. Repairs for the airplane will cost about $1,000.

Publicity Essential to the Progress of Florida

Florida is one of the few states in the union that requires publicity for development, and everything done in this direction reflects benefit to the whole of the state. The possibilities of the state mean nothing if they are not taken advantage of.

The world "publicity" as it affects promotion has been besmirched a bit of late along with "propaganda," and this is not justifiable. Strictly speaking, publicity is legitimate advertising. Like the merchant must sell his goods, and to do so he must reach the buying public, so Florida must sell its assets to interests in all sections of the Union.

There are many ways to advertise. Every business operating in Florida can help out by constantly proclaiming the wonderful realities and potentialities of the state to the world. This practice not only is beneficial to the common interests, but creates a good will for the particular organization sponsoring the various methods.

On the first of November the Seaboard Air Line Railway, which has four thousand miles of tracks in the state, started a nation-wide publicity campaign in the interest of Florida. Of course the railroad is primarily looking to its own progress, but that does not detract from the general good this advertising will accomplish. The same thing will be true of any other company that adopts an advertising program of this kind. The benefits are mutual.

The Metropolis would be pleased to see other corporations adopt a system similar to the one now being used by the Seaboard. The advertising matter of this corporation is accurate, attractive and no doubt will create a favorable impression wherever it is distributed. The publicity will be distributed in 103 papers, trade journals and high class magazines running classified advertisements from one inch to a quarter and half pages, with illustrations.

There is no reason why other concerns should not take up advertising of this sort, boosting Florida as well as their own business.—Florida Metropolis.

Satan smiles whenever a minister starts to congratulate himself on the beauty and eloquence of his prayers.

Learn From Lazy Man.

At last some use has been found for a lazy man. The secret was revealed by P. B. Gilbreth, an efficiency expert, in a recent lecture before the polytechnic section of the American Institute.

"When we go to investigate a factory," he said, "and wish to find the swiftest worker, we naturally ask to see the men or girls who have the fattest pay envelopes."

"But when we want to see the man who accomplishes a task with the least amount of lost motion, we hunt out the laziest man in the factory. By instinct, he learns to do things without loss of motion, otherwise he could not hold his job."

"We study that man's movements and take motion pictures of him in action. Then we show these pictures to the rapid, energetic worker, and by studying them he learns shorter methods and becomes much more efficient at his own work.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Playing at Soldiering.

Some Australian Wellington will probably trace a modern Waterloo to the playing fields of Melbourne or Sydney. Australia has recognized as the result of her war lessons that intelligence, not monotony, is an invaluable test of the soldier. The old wearisome drill-ground system of training cadets is fast giving way to the new plan which makes a play of work. While the boys are taught discipline and drill they are mainly shown how to play basket ball and to compete in jumping, tug of war and swimming. Those entrusted with the making of a new Australian army are confident that the best soldier will be the happy, well-trained sportsman, who has learned to play for his side, to keep his temper and to think intelligently. There can be little doubt that the change is keenly appreciated by young Australia.—Christian Science Monitor.

Hunt in Autos in Alaska.

Times have changed in Alaska from the days when trappers munched over the snow fields to hunt for game. Citizens of Fairbanks are leaving caribou by automobile, so say recent arrivals at Seattle. Automobiles are coming into their own in the territory and the bureau is advised that "the days of a real sport" around the northern Alaska town are featured by motoring out to the herd where thousands of caribou are leisurely grazing, bagging a few animals, dumping the carcasses into the tonneau of the car and driving back with the winter meat supply.

Instead of marrying a man to reform him, the average woman marries a man to inform him.

FLEES THE BOLSHEVISTS

Miss Grace Arnold of Portland, Oregon, has reached Washington after stirring adventures in stricken Poland. Miss Arnold, a young woman lawyer, who before sailing with a relief unit of the American Red Cross was secretary to Judge Hunt of the United States circuit court of appeals, saw service in hospital camps at Le Valdehon and Brest before her experience of one year at the Polish front. On the evacuation of Minsk, Miss Arnold accompanied the refugees in their flight to Warsaw. The Bolsheviks were on their heels and terror was increased by a train wreck about ten kilometers out of Minsk.

WAS PRISONER, GETS MEDAL

Sergt. Halyburton, Captured by Germans, Cited for Services in World War.

Washington.—Edgar N. Halyburton of Taylorsville, N. C., who, during the World War, was a sergeant in Company F, Sixteenth Infantry, enjoys the unique distinction of having a Distinguished Service Medal awarded him for services performed while a prisoner in Germany.

Sergt. Halyburton's citation, made public by the War department, says that the sergeant, while a prisoner in the hands of the German government from November, 1917, to November, 1918, voluntarily took command of the different camps in which he was located, and, under difficult conditions, established administrative and personal headquarters, organized the men into units, billeted them systematically, established distribution of supplies and established an intelligence service to prevent our men from giving information to the enemy and prevented the enemy from introducing propaganda."

QUIT CIGARS; DUTY TOO HIGH

British Public Also Cuts Down on Champagne as Result of High Tax Rate.

London.—Since Chancellor Austen Chamberlain introduced his last budget there has been a marked reduction in the retail sale of champagne and cigars in England.

Cigar merchants say that during the recent months clearances from bond and importations from Cuba have practically been suspended. The public, it is stated, refuse to buy at the high prices necessitated by the heavy duty and the inflated cost of the tobacco.

In 1914 a really good Havana cigar could be bought at 40 shillings to 50 shillings a hundred, but today the cost is more than £5 a hundred.

Wine merchants are a little surprised at the decline in the sale of champagne, as prices have not been substantially increased. In many cases growers have shouldered a part of the duty imposed by the budget in the hope of maintaining the English demand.
