Officials Keep Fingers Crossed

NEW YORK — Tourist industry officials are keeping their fingers crossed that the lifting of the Arab oil embargo will mean an upswing in travel. President Nixon announced last Tuesday he was lifting the ban on Sunday sales of gasoline and Federal Energy Chief William Simon said tourism was a major reason for the action. He said that gasoline allocations for April would be significantly larger than those for March.

Worldwide Cooperative Sought

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) - The President of the American Cancer Society has proposed a worldwide cooperative effort to dig out knowledge which "would be useful for immediate application to cancer control." Out of the annual toll of 350,000 cancer deaths, "at least 100,000 American lives that we know about are needlessly lost to cancer each year," Dr. Justin N. Stein told 3 Cancer Society seminar for science writers Sunday. He said most of those facing high risks of contracting cancer could be saved by earlier diagnosis or by avoiding some risks such as cigarette smoking or exposure to chemicals.

Retirement System Protected

WASHINGTON (AP) - The burden of Social Security navroll taxes on low-paid workers is a problem but tar ping the general treasury to help support the system isn't the answer, according to Social Security Administrator James B. Cardwell. "I think general fund financing could become an open invitation to play games with the system," Cardwell said. He noted that the retirement sys tern has been protected because it has always been self financing through employe and employer payments during working years. Nixon Odds

WASHINGTON — Jimmy the Greek Snyder, the famous Las Vegas oddsmaker, is giving odds that President Nixon will not be impeached by the House of Representatives. The Greek has never called a presidential election wrong One of the weird aspects of since the Truman-Dewey upset in 1948. Because of his uncanny the harrowing inflation which accuracy, we published Jimmy's political odds exclusively throughout the 1972 campaign.

Early in February, the Greek wrote a personal letter to each member of the House of Representatives. He enclosed a confidential pool card and a stamped, self-addressed envelope. One of the three firms originally selected by the federal current annual production rate government to print 1.1 billion gas rationing coupons lost six bins of securities three years ago to Mafia stock thieves. Ever since this horrendous heist, millions worth of spurious stocks, bonds and other securities have been appearing all over the world.

The company whose securities were raided, Jeffries Banknote of Los Angeles, has now lost the contract to print gas coupons. #### Whale Autopsy Scheduled EGMONT KEY, Fla. (AP) - Scientists were to perform an autopsy here today on a 49-foot sperm whale which beached itself and died Saturday, the Marine Patrol said.

A patrol spokesman said the whale was found on the beach at Anna Maria Island in the Gulf off Bradenton Saturday and died during the night. A U.S. Coast Guard vessel took the whale into tow and hauled it to Egmont Key at the mouth of Tampa Bay where scientists from the U.S. Bureau of Marine Fisheries scheduled the autopsy, the spokesman said. An official from the Smithsonian Institute in Washington was also flying in to inspect the whale, the

4 Die In Weekend Traffic

A 6-year-old Titusville boy and an Auburndale teen-ager were among the four weekend traffic victims reported in Florida by the state highway patrol. A spokesman said Charles Gregory Marsh, 17, o Auburndale, died when he lost control of his car and it slammed into a tree beside Old Dixie Highway west of Auburndale early Sunday.

Troopers gave these details of other accidents: Matthew D. Newton, 6, was hit and killed by a car as he crossed Lancaster Road just north of Titusville Saturday Bondell Smith, 28, of Immokalee, died Friday in a single car accident on State Road 29, south of Labelle. Paul Allen Malone, 21, of Hilliard, was killed south of Callahan on State Road 15 Friday. He was the driver of a vehicle that went out of control and smashed into trees alongside the road.

Miami Votes On House Seat MIAMI (AP) - Miami citizens go to the polls today to fill a state House of Representatives vacancy in a post-Watergate test of voter sentiment. The choice will be between Democrat Monna Lighte, a housewife and part-time teacher, and Republican Tom Gallagher, a businessman, to fill the 111th District seat of the late Rep. Carl Singleton, a Democrat.

Watergate has not been an issue in the campaign, which has aroused little interest. But both Democrats and Republicans say voter apathy because of the national scandals could effect the turnout and the outcome.

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP) - Arab foreign ministers begin neetings in Tunis today to review efforts by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and President Anwar Sadat of Egypt to stop the Arab-Israeli shooting on the Golan Tunisian Foreign Minister Habib Chatti, chairman of the Arab League meeting, said the ministers would also discuss a wide range of economic issues. They will discuss the conference between the Arab states and the European Common Market planned for the end of the year, and the special United Nations Assembly on raw material problems opening in New York April 8.

Several Arab governments, notably Libya and Iraq, were expected to be represented by their ambassadors to Tunisia instead of their foreign ministers, demonstrating their disapproval of Sadat's efforts to achieve a political settlement with Israel.

Troops Kill 173 Insurgents

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) - Government troops closing on Oudong killed 173 Khmer Rouge insurgents in two days and nights of heavy fighting a mile from the provincial capital lost a week ago, Cambodian army officers in the field reported today. Coup

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP) -President Idi Amin, Uganda's military strongman, says he will deal severely with soldiers who tried to overthrow him during the weekend.

The aborted coup, which the government radio said was led by the army chief of staff, was broken by loyal forces in bloody fighting Saturday night and early Sunday at several military camps in the Kampala diately known, but the government said a number of soldiers and civilians were killed. Radio Uganda said the uprising was led by Brig. Gen Charles Arube and that he killed himself when his attempt failed at dawn Sunday. The radio said Arube spread a false report that an invading force was trying to kill Amin, and this touched off the fighting.

DEAR ABBY: For the last two years, my husband and and our little son have been spending the Christmas holidays with my family [parents, sisters, biothers, etc.]. On Christmas morning everyone gathers in the living room and we all open our Christmas gifts under the tree. Everyone, except my husband. He refuses to open his presents at that time. He takes them home-still gift-wrapped, and opens one or two a week. It takes months before they're all opened. He says if he spreads the excitement over a long period of time he enjoys it more than opening 15 or 20 gifts in a half hour and then experiencing a big letdown. He prefers to prolong the joys of Christmas as

DEAR WIFE: His behavior is somewhat strange, but he's right, they're his gifts to open whenever he feels like it. By now your family must be accustomed to this peculiarity. But it might comfort you to know that there's at least one more "weirdo" who likes to prolong the joys of Christmas.

DEAR ABBY: There is a nut who lives across the street from us who still has his Christmas ornaments up! People come from all over just to drive by his house and laugh! It's not just a decorated tree out in front either. He's got Santa and the reindeers on the roof, and his whole front porch and lawn are decorated with every kind of Christmas ornament you can imagine.

DEAR ABBY: I don't mean to carp, but I was bothered by one of your reader's references to being "gypped," and by the use of that word in the headline of your column. It's a common but probably unintentional slur, for most people are unaware that the expression "gypped" comes from the word gypsy.

Those of us that are lucky enough to be on the cable recently got an opportunity to compare the two claimants to the world's lightweight title, Roberto (Rocky) Duran and Rudolpho Gonzalez, as both appeared locally on TV the same day.

Duran was shown "live" with his one time conqueror, Estaban DeJesus, while Gonzalez took on Antonio Puddu. All four men are outstanding fighters and the KO's in favor of the two title holders proves their ability without a shadow of a doubt, DeJesus was ranked number one contender in the world, while Puddu is the European champion and had only lost once in almost 60 bouts. From what I saw, Duran might be too strong for Gonzalez, but Rudolpho could bring off an upset with his boxing ability. DeJesus's downfall came about by his trying to slug it out with the bull-like On the surface the recent main event between Frankie Otero and Paul Collette in Miami Beach appeared to be a toss-up, that is, until the bell rang.

Collette, one of the most exciting fighters around today, outside of the ring, had asked for Otero. What he got was more than he could handle. The French-Canadian brought a mark of 12-0-1 in the ring along with his the Cuban refugee first lost a decision to Ken Buccanan, then was stopped by Buchanan again and Victor Ortiz. The question of how far Otero had gone back and how much Collette had learned way answered after only 90 seconds of the Otero controlled the bout from the first punch, a sharp jab that snapped back Collette's pretty head. Several other lefts and the Canadian was cut around the mouth. A sizzling left hook bounced the indefeated lightweight off the canvas before the ref came to his aid as he was

The undercard found the man that never shows up in Orlando when he is scheduled, Freddie Majors, battling to a draw with straight time over the eight round distance. Ricky Simaratana defeated a opponent for Hector McBride, Sugar Ray Sears. The other preliminary found Jerry Powers going down to defeat for around the 75th time. His opponent for this loss was Tony Styles.

It would seem that it is official now. Andy Kendall has called it quits. His KO at the hands of up-and-coming "Indian Yaqui" Lopez made up his mind. Since the time he upset Mike Quarry out at the Sports Stadium, Kendall got himself stopped twice. Once in New York's Speaking of "Indian Yaqui" he has a response to readers, so I better get that out One question I received asked, "You mentioned once that Mike Quarry refers to you as Howard Cossell. Do you take this as Heavens, no. Most people who really know anything about sports, especially ooxing, know that Cossell is not a good that is not saying much. In his all out effort to "tell it like it is," Humble Howard gets carried away and ends up "telling it like he thinks you want to hear it." I would have to say that the best boxing man over the air waves is Jim Healy, who does the "Boxing From the Olympic" show. He too says things that I don't agree with, but overall does a fine job.

From the Bahamas comes the report that Sam "Candy" Barr, seen locally in a losing effort with undefeated John Pinney. took an easy decision over "Baby Fullard. The same report states when Fullard lost it was only for the ninth time in 29 outings. Sure it was, and I am Whistler's Mother.
