Strolling In Sanford

O. P. Herndon swears this is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. He claims it happened in his early days in court work. A defendant was accused of stealing a tool kit. The man, insisted he'd taken the kit for a job. The judge asked him how far he'd carried it.

"Just over to my house — a couple of blocks."

"Ten days for carrying the job, too far," ordered the judge.

New York Manhunt Ends At Beginning; In County Prison

CANTON, N. Y. (AP) — A manhunt through northern New York wilderness has ended where it began in St. Lawrence County Jail, from which four men fled Wednesday.

Freshly shaven and clothed, Patrick Brooks, 28, of Gabriels, walked quietly into the main jail office at 8:08 last night. A friend drove him from the swampy woodland where he had been hunted since Friday. Two children rode with them.

The final scene stood: one desperado dead, one wounded and two in custody. A state trooper was recovering from his wounds. Leon Castiglione, 24, was taken after a gun battle Friday. Frank Ialafino, 44, Utica, and Ralph LaShomb, 26, were shot when troopers found them yesterday morning. Ialafino was killed.

More than 300 state police, sheriff's deputies and volunteers took part in the manhunt in rough country near the Canadian border.

Minneapolis Doctor Faces Arraignment On Murder Charge

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Dr. A. Arnold Axilrod, Minneapolis dentist, faces arraignment today on a first-degree murder charge in the strangling death of Mrs. Mary Moonen, 21, one of his patients.

Dr. Axilrod was indicted late Monday by the Hennepin County grand jury. The true bill came just 10 days after Mrs. Moonen's body was found in a Minneapolis Lake District alley.

In statements to police, Dr. Axilrod admitted having taken the woman for a ride the night of April 22, only hours before her body was discovered.

Charles Wetherill, inspector of detectives, said Axilrod claimed to have blacked out after Mrs. Moonen accused him of fathering her unborn child. In his statement, the dentist said Mrs. Moonen alleged she had been assaulted while under sedatives in the dentist's office. He denied the charge.

Conviction upon first-degree murder charges carries a mandatory life prison term.

European Raiders Blamed In Attacks

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP) — European terrorists were blamed today for attacks on two French members of organizations favoring French control of Tunisia. One of the victims was in a hospital with a fractured skull.

The assaults last night were believed inspired by a mass meeting Saturday at which 6,000 French residents of Tunisia denounced recent French-Tunisian accords promising self-rule for the protectorate.

The injured victim was Dr. Etienne Burnett, 55-year-old retired director of the local Pasteur Institute. He was bludgeoned on his doorstep.

Prof. Charles Pignon of the Institute of Higher Studies was attacked by three young men who tried to force their way into his home. He escaped by slamming and bolting the door.

Faulkner Awarded '55 Pulitzer Prize For Fiction Novel

NEW YORK (AP) — Novelist William Faulkner has been awarded the 1955 Pulitzer Prize for fiction for "A Fable," an allegorical novel of a World War I munition.

The year's drama award went to Tennessee Williams' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," a play dealing with the dissolution of a Mississippi Delta family. Williams' "A Streetcar Named Desire" won his first Pulitzer Prize in 1948.

Both Faulkner, 57, a first-time winner, and Williams, 41, are Mississippi-born. Faulkner won the 1949 Nobel Prize for literature.

Gian-Carlo Menotti, Italian-born composer and lyricist, received the music award for "The Saint of Bleecker Street," an opera based on religion and Greenwich Village life. Menotti was the winner of the 1950 music prize for another opera, "The Consul."

Volunteer workers from the Business and Professional Women's Union of VJ-62, and the Seminole County Medical Association, as well as from a number of persons unaffiliated with any particular organization helped greatly in the campaign, it was reported.

Miss Katie Robinson was in charge of lights-on for Sanford colored organizations and collections in the county were given assistance by the Home Demonstration Clubs. In Forrest City Mrs. Kenneth R. Davis and Mrs. Harold Curtis were in charge of the drive.

Special thanks to Dick Allen, Fred Krahner, and Fire Chief Cleveland are due from the society, a spokesman stated.

Opposition Is Said To Have Vanished

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today most of the Senate opposition to the liberalized foreign trade bill appeared to have disappeared.

Byrd, floor manager for the bill, said in advance of a second day of floor debate there is a possibility of an agreement to limit debate starting tomorrow and that the bill might pass without change tomorrow night.

"That would be three days, and not so long ago we were afraid it might take 30 days," he said.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said he was working on a time limitation agreement.

Cao Dai Forces Switch

Defense Minister
Tells Of Support

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Gen. Trinh Minh The, top Cao Dai general and one of the chief supporters of the free Viet Nam Revolutionary Committee, was killed in action tonight.

His death was disclosed a short time after hand-biting troops of the Cao Dai religious sect joined the Nationalist army of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem in an offensive against the Binh Xuyen rebels.

Gen. The's Cao Dai forces were once allied with the Binh Xuyen Society and the Hoa Hao Sect in a united front demanding Diem's resignation. But the general switched sides three months ago when Gen. La Van Vien, the Binh Xuyen leader, rejected demands that armed struggle be avoided.

Gen. The had thrown four battalions of his troops, perhaps 2,500 men, to Diem's support in mopping up Vien's battered force of 2,000 men on Saigon outskirts.

He died while directing the battalions in this action.

The Cao Dai general was fired upon by Binh Xuyen commandos in an armored motorboat and died instantly.

This blow to the armed forces premier was marshalling all his supporting Diem came as the support for a political victory over Chief of State Bao Dai.

Road Department Proposal Studied By Subcommittee

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Road Department proposals that the chairman be retained as the chief administrative officer and that the present method of appointing road board members remain unchanged are being studied by a Senate subcommittee.

The House Roads Committee accepted proposed amendments offered by Chairman Wilbur E. Jones but the Senate committee after a hearing last night turned the suggestions over to a subcommittee composed of Sens. Tapper, Fort St. John, Bacher, Vero Beach, and Carraway, Tallahassee.

Tapper, who headed the Legislative Council Roads Committee which drew up the new highway code bill, indicated he disapproved of the Road Department's proposal that the chairman's salary be increased from $12,000 to $14,500 and that an executive director and the chief engineer each be paid up to $14,000.

"There'll be no $14,000 salaries," Tapper commented.

Approach Means Success Or Failure

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — A woman told a power convention today "the right approach in working with men can mean success or failure of a woman in any employment."

She was Alma Armstrong, personnel director of the Jacksonville Civil Service Board, talking to delegates to the American Public Power Assn.

She said "A smile, a sense of humor and the attitude that she can learn something from a man are always helpful attributes."

She said too, that a woman who does equal work to a man "is entitled to be heard in her cry for equal pay."

Russia, Satellites Will Meet May 11

VIENNA (AP) — Warsaw radio announced today that Russia and her seven East European satellite states will meet in the Polish capital May 11 to set up a unified military command.

Western observers in Vienna said the move apparently was being taken to provide the legal basis for retaining Russian troops in Hungary and Romania after the expected end of the four-power occupation of Austria.

Ike And Knowland

President Eisenhower and Senator William F. Knowland of California are far apart on foreign policy. This is an awkward situation, as Knowland is the Republican floor leader of the Senate, and therefore is expected to voice the sentiments of the administration. The trouble is that he does so only part of the time.

This is not the first time that a Republican president has clashed with a California senator. The pugnacious Hiram Johnson saw little good in Calvin Coolidge's administration, and said so. In 1924 he took the drastic step of running against the president in the national convention. The venture never got off the ground. In the primaries Johnson carried only South Dakota, losing his own California. In the convention he received but 10 votes.

Senator Knowland has said openly that he does not regard President Eisenhower as indispensable to Republican success in 1956. Will his disaffection lead him to make an open break, like Johnson's? To make a better showing, it will be necessary to convince the party leaders that the President's popular strength is not so great as they think.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

And the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.—Acts 1:26.—That is the last we hear of Matthias! Never did he do anything that history records. Later the exalted Christ called Paul on the Damascus Road, a highly educated gifted man who turned the world upside down.

Modern Marital Concepts Rebuked

NEW YORK (U)—Who sews your buttons? Who darns your socks? Who sends your shirts to the laundry?

If a man does these things himself, presumably he is a real-life modern-minded husband and a great companion to his wife. But if he expects his wife to do them, he is presumably a brow-beating out who is secretly looking for a mother not a marital partner.

So some present-day sociologists and marriage counselors seem to hold. I say they're full of twaddle. There has been a horrible spate of magazine articles lately on the "new freedom" of wives, the "new partnership" in marriage, the "new sharing of responsibility" between husbands and wives.

Much of this wide-eyed tripe is the sheerest drivel. It operates on the theory that (1) a home is hopelessly old-fashioned if the husband goes out and brings home the bacon, then rests contentedly in the living room while his wife cooks it—but (2) everything is play-wasy in a home in which papa opens a can of beans for dinner while mama cheerfully busies herself painting the kitchen ceiling.

Well, I just don't believe it. And I'll bet 10 million American husbands (and their wives!) agree with me.

The latest of these little up-to-the-minute matrimonial essays really has me riled. It found in a survey that many young U.S. wives were neglecting their husbands, but held sociologists thought this just dandy—conditions have changed, and a man no longer has the right to expect from his wife the personal attentions and services his father received from his mother.

The article expressed surprise but no disapproval over the fact that a poll of college girls taking a course in marriage and family life showed only half expected to darn their future husband's socks, sew on his buttons, see that his shirts were laundered and his wife kept cleaned and pressed.

To me this is astounding. Do these girls really want to marry a husband—or merely marry a bachelor, who doesn't need them? I recall in a college course I attended the professor asked the girls the minimum income they would demand if a husband. One said $100 a week. That was more than $200 a year. She was married.

Why should a girl in college ask for $200 a year? Because her husband would have to be a millionaire. Why should a girl in college ask for $200 a year? Because her husband would have to be a millionaire. Why should a girl in college ask for $200 a year? Because her husband would have to be a millionaire.

Causes Of World War I

What caused World War I is a quest that will not be viewed alike by Germans on the one hand, or Americans, British and French on the other. The Treaty of Versailles in 1919 contained an enforced acknowledgment by the Germans that they were responsible for the war. They have always resented this clause, and Hitler gained much of his support by his denunciations of this accusation.

Ever since the war began, historians have been trying to get at the truth. The warring nations recognized the importance of getting neutral sentiment on their side, and issued statements, drawn from diplomatic records, proving they were right, and their opponents at fault. Such an appeal to public sentiment was something new in the history of war.

Now representative groups of English and German historians have been meeting to see if they could agree on a statement of war causes which could be put in the textbooks of both countries. So far they agree that economic causes were unimportant. Fear of each other was a potent cause of war. The two specific acts which caused hostilities were the early mobilization of the Russian army, and Germany's invasion of Belgium, contrary to her solemn promise to respect Belgian neutrality.

This is a hopeful step toward better international relations.

The Spirit Of '76

It took courage for Mrs. Roswell C. Tripp of Washington, Connecticut, to stand up before the convention of the D. A. R. in Washington, D. C., and make the sensible suggestion that before attacking the United Nations, the D. A. R. should send an accredited observer to report on United Nations activities. To act without taking this step, she said, was "the dictatorial way." She also said that President Eisenhower and many loyal members of the D. A. R. feel that the United Nations is necessary as a forum to thrash out problems. She had that courage of her convictions and spoke out for what she thought was simple justice, for reason and common sense.

Mrs. Tripp as followed by Mrs. Ernest Howard of Washington, D. C., and of Clarence, Missouri, who urged her fellow members to "Forget about the observers. Let's go after them with clubs and what have you like our forefathers did."

Americans will make their own decisions as to which of these proposed courses exemplifies the true Spirit of the American Revolution.

French Can't Seem To End Chaos

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (U)—Bao Dai has become a symbol of the inability of the French to face reality in the 20th century: the determination of the people of Asia to shake off colonialism for independence.

The French seem incapable of ending the chaos in South Viet Nam in Indochina, where they have had a succession of disasters. Unless the United States can end it, the Communists seem certain to take over.

The French had bought Indochina as a colony in the 19th century. They were driven out in World War II, which smashed West European colonialism in most of Asia. But they wouldn't look at the clock.

They moved back in after the war. They were too impoverished to defend it from outside attack. They thought they were strong enough to control the natives. They weren't. But they couldn't bring themselves to let go.

The Vietnamese, in the big eastern province of Indochina, demanded freedom. The French promised it, after negotiations. The negotiations collapsed in 1946.

Ho Chi Minh, Moscow-trained, began war on the French with the Vietminh, made up of Vietnamese Communists and nationalists.

The French were too weak to crush the rebels. They did not train Vietnamese armies and officer corps capable of crushing Ho Chi Minh. Such an army, of course, one day might have turned on the French and driven them out.

Nor did they build up any Vietnamese leader who could have been a real head of state and rally point for his people against communism. Instead, they picked Bao Dai, former emperor of the province of Annam, as chief of state.

He was a French puppet. Since his appointment in 1949, he has lived most of the time in luxury in France while his people were going through the agony of war. He has served as a loud-speaker through which the French could give the Vietnamese orders.

Last year Ho Chi Minh forced the French, in spite of the American aid they got, to let him have the northern half of Viet Nam. They moved closer then to giving

There's Gold In Corporate Tills

NEW YORK (U)—There was gold in the corporate tills the first three months of the year.

The first 481 corporations to report their net profit after taxes in the first quarter of 1955 show today that their combined earnings topped their net income of a year ago by 27.2 per cent. Four out of five show an increase in profits over last year.

Stockholders are sharing part of the gain. Cash dividends paid during the period by all corporations issuing public reports approached $4 billion dollars, 6 per cent more than in the first three months of 1954.

Not every shareholder gained. Some corporations skipped or lowered dividend payments.

The striking gain in profits over the 1954 first quarter would be misleading, however, if you didn't remember that a year ago many business firms and some industries were in the midst of a slump. Railroads are an example. Of the 35 reporting so far, all but 6 are doing much better this year. And last year 6 of the 35 were using red ink. A big gain in freight volume, plus some paring of costs, pushes the combined earnings of

Defense Officials Say Army Views Were Considered

WASHINGTON (U)—Two top defense officials have told Congress that Army views were "fully considered" and rejected before President Eisenhower decided to cut an additional 75,000 men from the Army.

Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said they did not believe the added cutback would encourage stronger Red Chinese moves or would decide the outcome of a Korean-type war.

The two officials testified before a closed session of a House Appropriations subcommittee in early February. Their testimony was made public Monday.

They appeared a few days before Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff, said he had no chance to protest the new cutback to the National Security Council (NSC), the nation's top planning board.

Past Years Bring Change In Demand

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (U)—What does a school board look for today in a superintendent?

Five men attending a conference of presidents of state associations of school administrators sketched in a panel interview Monday how requirements have changed over the past quarter century.

First of all, said Henry L. Willett, Richmond, Va., president of the American Assn. of School Administrators, the day is past when a superintendent can concern himself with just "the five B's"—building, bonds, buses, budgets and beans.

"Today," Willett said, "the demand is for people who can work with people, whether they are teachers, his staff or members of the community."

Europe Market For Citrus Is Big Business

TAMPA (U)—Europe, despite rumors to the contrary, is a big market for frozen Florida citrus juices," says H. N. Baron, export manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange—and he has the sales records to prove it.

Baron scoffed at oft-repeated rumors that lack of refrigeration in European countries virtually closed export possibilities for frozen juices.

The exchange, Baron revealed, exported 4,600 cases of frozen orange juice to Europe and is negotiating for another large order to countries in the northern tier. There is more than ample refrigeration, he said, in Sweden, Switzerland, and Germany. Demand for frozen products is somewhat less in Central and South Europe.

"These three countries alone have a combined population of some 80 million persons," Baron said. "How can anyone say that at least part of Europe, with a population of more than one-third that of the United States, is at a big potential frozen market?"

Orange is the most popular of frozen juices thus far exported, he said, with the ratio running about three to one in favor of this product. Grapefruit juice is second.

A recent exchange, frozen juice purchase of 2,000 cases of 48-ounce cans was made by the largest European buying cooperative representing over 4,000 stores. This agency, through cooperative central organizations, purchases for eight million persons.

Now you're got to be very careful. Use only enough pressure to stop the bleeding. Every ten or fifteen minutes, if it takes that long for a doctor to arrive, release the pressure for a minute or two. Never use a rope or towel as a tourniquet. This might do more harm than good.

One more thing. If you aren't sure what you should do, it's best to do nothing. But be prepared to give the doctor whatever assistance he might need.

Q. Now, P. J.: I have a continual rolling of gas in my stomach and always belch gas—which is very embarrassing. Could you tell me what I should do?

A. Answer: The formation of large amounts of gas in the stomach may be due to a number of causes, one of the most common being indigestion. Eating slowly, chewing food thoroughly, and avoiding carbonated drinks and foods which cause gas, such as beans, peas, and cabbage, will help. If the gas is accompanied by a great deal of pain, it may be a sign of a more serious condition, and you should consult a doctor.

New Dodge Custom Royal Lancer... glamorous "hardtop."

What's all this talk about "Price Class!"

It gets to be a little confusing—this talk about what "price class" a car is in. This new Dodge is making a clean sweep in every price field!

Owners who are used to paying a thousand dollars more for a car find that money can't buy more luxury, more exciting features and beauty than in the dashing Custom Royal Lancer shown above. It's up to 9 inches longer than competitive models costing more!

And owners of so-called "low-priced cars" are finding that a new Dodge, with all its dashing length and sleek styling, can be theirs for only a few dollars a month more than any of the small cars—up to 18 inches shorter and far less wasteful!

Check Your Car—Check Accident!

In fact, the Dodge Coronet 4-door shown below actually costs less than some models in the lowest price class. So let yourself go. Travel first class in the car that's knocking "price class" into a cocked hat.

Mrs. T. O. Murray Luncheon Hostess For Exec Board

Mrs. T. O. Murray, wife of Cdr. T. O. Murray, former Commanding Officer of FAS 51, was hostess at a luncheon she gave for the Executive Board of the Officer's Wives Club.

The luncheon was held Friday at the Mayfair Country Club. After a delightful luncheon, Mrs. Murray acting in her capacity as president of the Wives Club held a short business meeting during which plans were made to hold the next semi-monthly Wives Club meeting and luncheon at the Naval Air Station B. O. Q., on May 12. Arrangements have been made to show the Club a film concerning cancer and upon its conclusion a question and answer period will be conducted by Dr. C. M. Callis, Lt. Home Demo Work Part Of System In Joint Project

Home Demonstration Work is a part of the national system of Cooperative Extension Work in agriculture and home economics. Cooperative Extension Work is a joint project of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the State Land Grant Colleges, University of Florida and through the cooperative arrangement with Florida State University and the counties. It is financed cooperatively by the Federal Government, the states and the counties.

With 40 years of experience, Home Demonstration Work has back of it a rich tradition of service to the American people in the field of homemaking.

People are Home Demonstration Work's greatest resources. Home Demonstration Work's greatest challenge is to help the people develop programs designed to meet their needs, both economic and social.

Miss Anna Mae Sikes, State Home Demonstration Agent, and her staff believe, "In home demonstration work we have faith that today's home builds tomorrow's world — better agriculture means better homes; better homes mean better people; better people mean a nation and a better world — today and tomorrow."

Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent, and the club members are busy preparing for achievement day exhibit Friday, May 6, which will celebrate Home Demonstration Week in Seminole County. This exhibit will be held County Center, this exhibit will be held County Center (formerly canning kitchen), on 25th St., and the public is invited to visit it between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m.

Methodists Plan Family Dinner Tomorrow Night

As partial observance of National Family Week, the monthly Family Night Dinner will be held at the First Methodist Church tomorrow at 7 p. m. The congregation is invited to bring a family-style meal and the family, and enjoy the evening in fellowship with the Church Family.

For the program, the second section of a thrilling sound film which faithfully traces the origins and development of the Holy Bible, entitled "Our Bible: How It Came To Us," will be shown.

Produced by the American Bible Society, "Our Bible: How It Came To Us" has been hailed as the most authentic film document ever made on the history of the Bible. Years of diligent planning, research and scholarly collaboration went into the script before the first actor took his place before the camera. It has a cast of over 250 players.

The second section shows how the Bible slowly spread across Europe during the third and fourth centuries through the devoted efforts of careful copyists and great translators. Among the outstanding translations of this period is that of Jerome, the Latin Vulgate. The Goths brought destruction to western Europe but

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Welborn announce the birth of a son, Glenn Allen, 7 lbs., born April 29 at the Fernald Laughton Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Welborn is the former May Estelle Fryer.

The copying of manuscripts still persisted in the monasteries and the Bible gradually spread into northern Europe and into the British Isles.

The film depicts the thirst of the people for the Bible, and the martyrdoms and oppressions they faced for daring to possess a copy. It reveals how, despite these persecutions, translation and Bible reading persisted until finally, a translation of the entire Bible in English made its appearance under the auspices of Wyclif.

The Commission on Education expresses the hope that the teaching staff of the church will make a special effort to see these excellent films, as well as any interested folk in the community. The third and final section of the film will be shown on May 25.

Episcopalians Attend Convention In Ft. Lauderdale

The Rt. Rev. Henry Irving Louttit, Bishop of South Florida, former rector of Sanford's Holy Cross Church presided at the 34th Annual Convention of the Episcopal Church Diocese of South Florida held April 26-28 in Ft. Lauderdale at All Saints Church.

Bishop Louttit preached the sermon at the opening service. Part of the text was taken from Galatians 3 the 26-28 verses. "For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

During the sessions the convention ordered directors of camps and conferences to accept registrations to camps and conferences for everyone regardless of race or color. The Diocese of South Florida was called upon to accept all as one in Christ Jesus and abolish segregation in the camps.

The remarkable growth in the church during the last ten years was told. Five missions became self-supporting parishes at the convention making a total of 38 South Florida Episcopal Parishes compared with 29 in 1935.

Bishop Louttit will celebrate his 10th Anniversary of his consecration on May 24.

The Rev. Lyttleton Zimmerman, Rector of Holy Cross Church, Sanford, was honored by being elected to a three year term on the Executive Board of the Episcopal Church Diocese of South Florida. The Dean of the Cathedral was also elected.

The Woman's Auxiliary met at the same time. Mrs. R. M. McKee, St. Thomas Episcopal Church, South Miami, president of the Auxiliary conducted the meetings.

Mrs. Randall Chase was elected as an Alternate to represent South Florida to the 58th National Triennial Convention in Honolulu, Sept. 4-16.

The delegates attending the convention were Guy Allen and those attending the Woman's Auxiliary Convention were Miss Carol Stone, President of the Holy Cross Auxiliary, Mrs. Guy Allen, and Mrs. Hawkins Connolly. Mrs. Randall Chase attended as a member of the Executive Board. Visitors were Mrs. H. Lyttleton Zimmerman, Mrs. Glen Lingle and Mrs. Charles Vodopich.

Garden Nook

BY SADIE B. GUY
The Sanford Garden Club
Of F. F. G. C.

Thanks and appreciation are due all you gardeners who brought in such a variety of beautiful flowers for our show last week. Not having had out show so late in the season in previous years, we were quite surprised at the quantity available and very hard put to take care of them. We regret the inconvenience that was caused by lack of man-power and space that your entries required.

Among questions received in question box was the following from Mrs. R. P. McWhorter: "Why doesn't Clematis bloom? I brought it from Atlanta, where it bloomed heavily, but here it puts out luxuriant growth but no flowers."

Many times plants brought in from other climates and soils do not do well here, although a cutting or a layer taken from the same plant may thrive some place else. Clematis likes sweet soil, so a little lime is advisable and also bone meal to provide the required phosphorus. Root pruning is often practiced on stubborn bloomers, such as clematis, wisteria and other rank growers. Some varieties of clematis flower on the old wood and others on young shoots. The former should be pruned while dormant in late winter, and the latter cut back in spring. Dead wood should always be removed.

The small flowered varieties are easiest to raise and will tolerate considerable shade if flowers can reach for the sun. The larger flowered types require more care and should be planted in a well prepared large hole well supplied with humus, bone meal and a little lime. The root system must be kept cool either by mulching or by being shaded by other plants, but they should have plenty of sun on the vine for profuse blooming.

For a source of wisteria bulbs requested, why not consult your dealer who will probably have a

Chairman Says Railroad Strike 'Doggone' Close

ATLANTA (AP)—Mediators here and in Washington continued their efforts today to end railway and telephone strikes in the South, in the wake of a report that the rail dispute was "doggone close" to a settlement.

Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. of the National Mediation Board scheduled a session for 10 a.m. on the heels of yesterday's negotiations to end the crippling Louisville and Nashville railway strike.

"It's pretty doggone close, I'd say that," O'Neill told reporters at the end of Tuesday's sessions.

He said the strike was "really a little bit further from being a full-on general strike than it was a week ago." He said that non-striking unions have struck a major rail line.

Adding cheer to O'Neill's announcement was a report that Secretary of Labor Mitchell was thinking about an active entry into the rail strike. The White House disclosed a week ago that he had been working behind the scenes for some time.

Mitchell conferred yesterday with two southern governors whose states have been hard-hit by the rail tieup: Frank C. Clement of Tennessee and Lawrence W. Wertheby of Kentucky. With them was Gerald Morgan, special assistant to President Eisenhower. However, there were no indications that Mitchell and his conferees had taken the problem to the President.

The stroller caught a glimpse this morning of something that probably has happened to many parents of active little boys. A youngster about the age of three stood in the doorway of a Sanford barber shop while his distraught father, armed with his small son to have his hair cut.

With a distressing cry of "No, no," the youth, showing potentialities of a future track star, started down First St. with Daddy fast in pursuit.

Extortion Attempt Admitted To Police By Distraught Man

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Glen Colgan, 38, who said he needed the money because he was sick and out of work, admitted yesterday trying to extort $10,000, police reported.

He was trapped by chemicals which had been placed on a dummy package. Chief of Police James Purcell said. These chemicals glow under a special light. Colgan admitted the extortion attempt when his hands glowed in the test, Purcell said.

Purcell, quoted him as saying he telephoned the offices of Fred Meyer, Inc., a grocery and variety chain, Monday threatening that one of the stores would be bombed unless $10,000 was left in a package at a suburban street intersection.

A package filled with cut paper was left as directed. Somehow Colgan managed to pick it up and get through a line of police who had surrounded the area, Purcell reported.

Sanford Will Not Enter Area Council

At a meeting held at the Girl Scout Hut last night it was decided, through a motion from the floor, that the Sanford area would not enter into the Girl Scout Area Council, which will include four counties, Seminole, Orange, Osceola, and Brevard.

Discussion also brought up the fact that the members are trying to work up a citizens committee so that the leaders of the Scout troops will not be overloaded with extra work.

The meeting was adjourned by Miss Frances Cobb, chairman.

City Sewer Lines Available For Use

All city sewer lines are now available for use, City Manager Warren Knowles said today. Knowles said property owners whose property is not connected to the sewer system should make an application at the finance office at City Hall for a sewer tap.

In compliance with ordinance 846, Knowles said, all property owners must connect to the sanitary sewer system when the system is available within 75 feet of their property.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH KILL DEVIL HILL. KILL DEVIL HILL, N. C. — Mrs. Emily Madison, charged with the murder of her husband, would take office today but today this town seems to be a town.

Voters, while checking a register, repeated their town names.

Property owners, however, have been told that the town has been incorporated in 1955, but the right to kill the devil.

Bill Davis Hill is the wife of the Wright brothers' famous first plane flight.

HOWARD JOHNSON, 7, a frail lad who has spent much of his life in hospitals, finds himself a happy hero as he walks hand-in-hand with Debra Schrah, 3, whom he saved from drowning at Lake Orlan, Debra fell from a dock on which she was playing into six feet of water and Howard held her until help arrived. American Legion Formulates Plans

Campbell-Lesling Post 53, American Legion, has agreed to spearhead the Seminole County observance of Armed Forces Day here May 21. It was announced today by Chamber of Commerce president Earl Higginbotham.

Higginbotham said the post has appointed a committee, headed by George Mayberry, commander, to work out plans for the celebration. A planning meeting will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at City Hall.

Other members of the committee are R. Z. Johnson, present commander of the post; Joel Field, W. C. Hiera, J. Q. Galloway and Gordon Frederick.

Optimistic Outlook Given Businessmen

WASHINGTON (AP)—A gathering of American businessmen today received an optimistic forecast of "buoyant" growing foreign trade in the next year for the United States and most of its free world partners.

This forecast was given by E. E. Schnelbacher in remarks prepared for a breakfast arranged by the American Chambers of Commerce Abroad, a division of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

At a third annual meeting here today, Schnelbacher is intelligence director for the Commerce Department's Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

PENNSYLVANIA PROFESSOR ADVANCES THEORY. WASHINGTON (AP)—A theory that continents result from a collision between the earth and a giant meteor was advanced yesterday by Dr. B. F. Howell, of Pennsylvania State University.

He told the American Geophysical Union a seminar about one billion years ago, or a giant meteor, may have struck near the North Pole a couple of billion years ago and splattered the earth.

G. Jordan Trial Is Scheduled

George W. Jordan of Miami was scheduled to go on trial today in Seminole Circuit Court on a charge of converting a $50 collection on a sewing machine to his own use.

Jordan was accused of converting the money while employed as an agent for Kirby Distributing Co. of Orlando.

In court yesterday, Arthur Green, 29, Oviedo Negro, was found innocent of grand larceny of a pistol. The verdict was reached by a six-man jury.

Green had been accused of taking a .38-caliber pistol from a showcase in Nelson Hardware Store. He admitted having the gun in his possession but testified he had bought it from another man.

Thorney Tom Watson, Orlando, was his defense counsel.

A plea of guilty on two counts stealing a tractor from the Kasper Produce Co. and stealing $57,463 in railroad supplies from the Atlantic Coast Line was submitted by Charles Brown, 33, Sanford Negro.

Judge Vassar B. Carlton withheld sentences on Brown until Friday.

Legislative Fight Over Constitution Revision Sharpens

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The legislative fight over constitutional revision today became more intensified and more confusing.

Some legislators expressed belief a compromise must be effected or nothing will be done.

The Senate approved yesterday the plan to have the Legislative Council draw up an article by article draft of the Constitution and present it to the 1957 Legislature.

Gov. Collins has agreed this plan a "sensible screen."

Sen. Pope of St. Augustine has asked the Senate to reconsider its vote approving the council and senators decide on this today.

Gov. Collins gained something of a victory in the House Constitutional Amendments Committee when the group approved his No. 1 plan to revise the Constitution.

That plan would have a commission write another one and submit it to the people for a vote in 1956.

Hubbard Eubanks Hired As Deputy

Hubbard Eubanks has again been employed as a deputy. Sheriff J. L. Hobby advised the County Commission in a letter yesterday.

Eubanks replaces H. R. Cooper who resigned.

The commission also approved a deputy sheriff's bond for Henry Hansen of Altamonte Springs.

Elm, Laurel Aves. Accepted To Area

The County Commission yesterday accepted Elm Ave. and Laurel Ave. in the Pine Crest Heights subdivision.

The action was taken on the recommendation of William A. Kratzert, consulting engineer, who said the paving job done on the 600-foot lengths of both streets by Crages Construction Co. meets county specifications.

Developers of the subdivision are Odham & Tudor.

Tear Gas Barrage Ends Holdout Of Vermont Justice Of Peace

BETHEL, Vt. (AP)—A barrage of tear gas has ended the holdout of gun-toting Justice of the Peace Manuel Miller, 47, who stood off federal and state authorities for 12 hours yesterday in a futile attempt to keep his wife out of a mental hospital.

Miller and his wife, Lucille, 44, parents of three children, surrendered last night in their tear-filled home—she to face confinement in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D.C.; he to face as yet undetermined federal charges.

The mid-mannered Miller, a school commissioner and former selectman, began the siege at 10 a.m. EST. when he refused admittance to U.S. Marshal Dewey H. Parry bearing a federal order for Mrs. Miller's commitment.

Mrs. Miller, publisher of a sub-graphic and anti-Communist leaflet called The Green Mountain Rifleman, was adjudged insane in Federal Court at Burlington April 19 as the outgrowth of an indictment charging her with influencing young men to join the draft.

Throughout the day, Miller, armed with a rifle, defied all efforts by authorities to remove his wife from their two-story frame home. He ordered out Vermont Public Safety Commissioner William H. Baumann at gunpoint.

After 12 hours siege authorities fired tear gas shells through downstairs windows of the Miller home. Ten minutes later, the couple appeared at an upstairs window.

Miller crawled through the window onto a porch roof.

"All right, fellows," he called. He threw his rifle to the ground. State troopers swarmed on the roof and handcuffed him.

Jurors Try Again To Reach Verdict

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Jurors deciding the fate of Arch Ferrell, ousted Phenix City prosecuting attorney, try again today to reach a verdict after failing in their first attempt.

The 38 year old former political big shot in the community made notorious by racketeers has been on trial since April 18 for the killing of A. L. Patterson, the man who vowed to clean up vice in Phenix City.

The 12-man jury took the case late yesterday afternoon and deliberated 4 1/2 hours before retiring for the night, to resume this morning at whatever time the jurors chose.

Prosecutor Cecil Deason asked for the death penalty in his closing argument yesterday. He declared the evidence "demands" it. The jury is the sole judge of the punishment for murder in Alabama.

Deason and defense attorneys George Rogers and Drew Hedden took 5 1/2 hours to review the testimony and argue the case.

The prosecutor insisted the state had "more than met the burden" of proving "beyond a reasonable" doubt that Ferrell and ex-Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller murdered the Democratic nominee for attorney general June 18.

Fugitive Is Tired Of Running

Cadillac Lover
Meets Waterloo

"I was just tired of running," Elwood Duncan Taylor, 22 year old Winter Park fugitive whose love of Cadillac has been his downfall, said yesterday after being captured in Memphis, Tenn.

Taylor, who was convicted of holding up a Seminole County motel in 1954, and his companions were arrested by Memphis police as they attempted to escape in a stolen Cadillac.

"I am just tired of running," he said. "Police have chased me all over town."

He was armed with a .22-caliber pistol but offered no resistance.

Memphis authorities said Taylor and Jasper Shelton, 21, readily admitted they were fugitives from the Florida state road camp at Moore Haven. The third person was not identified by Memphis Detective Chief M. E. Hinds, who announced the arrest.

Taylor and Shelton escaped from the road camp April 24 and four days later paid a brief visit to the home of Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood S. Taylor, Winter Park.

They left after Mrs. Taylor notified the office of Orange County Sheriff Dave Starr, Mrs. Taylor said last night she had recently received a postcard from her son mailed from Pennsylvania. He promised to telephone her, she added.

Hinds said squad car officers spotted the three in a stolen Cadillac parked in a Memphis alley. (Continued on Page Eight)

Fern Park Sergeant Victim Of Crash At Fort Benning

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—An Army helicopter plunged to earth at Fort Benning last night killing four men in its flaming wreckage.

Cause of the accident was not determined but a public information office spokesman said the craft fell 500 or more feet, according to eyewitnesses.

The H19 helicopter plummeted into a wooded area half a mile southeast of Upatoi Terrace, on the Benning reservation.

A unit of the Bombardier Aviation Company, Third Infantry Division, the helicopter and its crew were on a training flight. Several other helicopters also were in the air.

The victims were Capt. Earl J. Scott, 35, Niles, Ohio; Capt. Robert F. Carter, Washington, D.C.; Sgt. J. C. Herman, W. Ponce, 42, Wilmington, Calif.; and Sgt. Horace G. Connor, 34, Fern Park, Fla.

At a hearing on a defense motion for a bill of particulars, Asst. U.S. Atty. E. Coleman Maden pressed for a trial date of May 16. However, defense attorneys Chester Bedell and C. Harris Dittmar said it would be impossible for them to be ready that early.

Maden told the court the government's case will be based on "specific omissions" in Littlefield's income tax returns for 1947 and 1948 and would involve "kickbacks" to Littlefield when he was sheriff.

$400 Is Reported Damage In Wreck Of Truck, Auto

Damage estimated at $400 was reported in a truck accident today at the intersection of Elm Ave. and 20th St. The accident occurred at 7:30 a.m.

Possible Splits Over Oil Property Turn To Clauses

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—A possible Western-Russian split over oil properties U.S. and Dutch companies lost 17 years ago loomed as the Big Four ambassadors turned today to reparations clauses of the Austrian independence treaty.

Negotiations between the U.S., British, French and Soviet ambassadors and Austrian Foreign Minister Leopold Figl went into their third day with about half the 30,000-word treaty draft still to be reviewed.

The five representatives are trying to agree on a revised treaty for the Big Four foreign ministers to sign. Three months after it is signed, all foreign troops must be withdrawn from Austria.

The Western Allies were reported planning to resist a Russian demand that Austria guarantee to keep her oil industry—operated by the U.S. Standard-Vacuum Oil Co. and Royal Dutch Shell before World War II—out of foreign hands.

The air force said its pilots sought out the gunboats, described as between 300 and 400 tons, on the landward side of Quemoy in western Amoy Bay. The area is 120 miles west of Formosa across the strait.

Pilots said one of the gunboats caught fire and suffered heavy damage.

The Communist buildup threatening the offshore islands continues both near Quemoy and in the area opposite the Matsu group 175 miles up the coast, the Taitao News Agency reported.

NOTICE TO DEFEND STATE OF FLORIDA TO:

"Actual hurricane warnings, whenever practical, will be given 12 to 24 hours in advance. There are instances when these storms generate close to a coastline and sweep across within 12 hours. At other times they lag along until caught in a jet stream, then quickly develop a swift forward movement.

"In such circumstances shorter warning periods may occur, but in general a minimum deadline of 12 hours for warnings can be met."

The center of eye of a hurricane is a term that figures prominently in advisories, although the center is usually a harmless calm. Forecasters must use the center

As the center approaches a given area, winds howl at the storm's maximum velocity. Then comes the calm of the eye, followed by maximum winds in the rear segment of the hurricane.

Using the center in fixing storm movements is complicated in other ways, says Dunn. Forces within the hurricane cause the center to make false movements. New centers may form and the old dissipate. These are phenomena on which Dunn hopes to gather additional information this year.

that hurricanes were steered by winds at their tops. Now it is believed they are swept along with the flow of great air masses in which they are embedded.

For the first time this year, Hunter planes will probe hurricanes all the way down to about 300 feet—and, as in the past, up to 25,000 feet.

Dunn hopes that it may be possible some day to steer a hurricane around a given city. This would be done by seeding the storm with dry ice or silver iodide. Theoretically, it would cause one sector to become concentrated and the entire storm to vary its course for a brief period—perhaps enough to miss a big city. But the steering current would soon take over again to carry it on its predestined way. "There is a lot to be done," says the hurricane forecaster. "The death rate has been greatly reduced—from 165 deaths per 10 million dollars of property damage in 1930 to only 3½ deaths per 10 million. "But deaths remain too high."

Chairman Says Railroad Strike 'Doggone' Close

ATLANTA (AP)—Mediators here and in Washington continued their efforts today to end railway and telephone strikes in the South, in the wake of a report that the rail dispute was "doggone close" to a settlement.

Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. of the National Mediation Board scheduled a session for 10 a. m. on the heels of yesterday's negotiations to end the crippling Louisville and Nashville railway strike.

"It's pretty doggone close, I'd say that," O'Neill told reporters at the end of Tuesday's sessions.

He said the strike was "really a little bit further from being a full-on general strike than it was a few days ago." Adding cheer to O'Neill's announcement was a report that Secretary of Labor Mitchell was thinking about an active entry into the rail strike. The White House disclosed a week ago that he had been working behind the scenes for some time.

Mitchell conferred yesterday with two southern governors whose states have been hard-hit by the rail tieup: Frank C. Clement of Tennessee and Lawrence W. Wertheby of Kentucky. With them was Gerald Morgan, special assistant to President Eisenhower. However, there were no indications that Mitchell and his conferees had taken the problem to the President.

The stroller caught a glimpse this morning of something that probably has happened to many parents of active little boys. A youngster about the age of three stood in the doorway of a Sanford barber shop while his distraught father, armed with his small son to have his hair cut.

With a distressing cry of "No, no," the youth, showing potentialities of a future track star, started down First St. with Daddy fast in pursuit.

Extortion Attempt Admitted To Police By Distraught Man

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Glen Colgan, 38, who said he needed the money because he was sick and out of work, admitted yesterday trying to extort $10,000, police reported.

He was trapped by chemicals which had been placed on a dummy package. Chief of Police James Purcell said. These chemicals glow under a special light. Colgan admitted the extortion attempt when his hands glowed in the test, Purcell said.

Purcell, quoted him as saying he telephoned the offices of Fred Meyer, Inc., a grocery and variety chain, Monday threatening that one of the stores would be bombed unless $10,000 was left in a package at a suburban street intersection. A package filled with cut paper was left as directed. Somewhat Colgan managed to pick it up and get through a line of police who had surrounded the area, Purcell reported.

Sanford Will Not Enter Area Council

At a meeting held at the Girl Scout Hut last night it was decided, through a motion from the floor, that the Sanford area would not enter into the Girl Scout Area Council, which will include four counties, Seminole, Orange, Osceola, and Brevard.

Discussion also brought up the fact that the members are trying to work up a citizens committee so that the leaders of the Scout troops will not be overloaded with extra work.

The meeting was adjourned by Miss Frances Cobb, chairman.
