City News Briefs

Local weather yesterday: High 74, low 72.

With the announcement of the awarding of a contract for the carrying of air mail between Daytona and St. Petersburg, with initial service scheduled to begin on Aug. 15, this city and its air mail users again will be given the advantage of more rapid delivery of mail to the North, South, and West. Planes are not scheduled to stop here, but mail posted before noon will be taken to Orlando in time to catch afternoon mail planes. An official schedule will be released next week.

Henry S. Long of Montgomery, formerly of Sanford but now a prominent internal revenue collector for the State of Alabama, has become a property owner at Coronado Beach. He purchased two lots last week, one lot fronting on Atlantic boulevard 50 feet and being 150 feet deep, and one lot directly to the rear of the ocean front lot, and of a similar size. Mr. Long and his family are spending a few weeks at Daytona Beach.

Supervisor of Registration W. J. Thigpen announced today that the registration books for the November election will be open on Aug. 6, to close on Oct. 20. Any persons desiring to register for this election should call at Mr. Thigpen's office in the Brunley building on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday of each week. George W. McRory, former representative from this county but now a resident of Jacksonville, was in the city for a few minutes this morning, en route to Orlando to attend an organization session of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fourth Congressional District. Mr. McRory accompanied to Orlando by W. E. Watson, Seminole County member of the Committee. Municipal Judge S. A. B. Wilkinson, Seminole County's representative on the State Democratic Executive Committee which met in organization session at Jacksonville yesterday, had what he termed as the "distinct honor" of being the speaker who nominated Col. J. B. Hodges of Lake City for re-election to the chairmanship of the committee. Judge Wilkinson stated that the meeting was a completely harmonious one, with talks by Governor Sholtz and Harry H. Wells of Chipley, former chairman of the committee, as features of the four hour session.

Sanford and New Smyrna Kiwanians who will picnic at Coronado Beach tomorrow afternoon and evening may have as their special guest of the evening Congressman Mark Wilcox. An invitation was extended to Mr. Wilcox in Orlando this afternoon by Kiwanian Karl Lehmann who was in that city addressing the Orlando Rotary Club on the subject, "Florida on Parade and What It Means to the State."

Just when he was beginning to make an enviable reputation for himself as a salesman for a Florida made beverage, former city policeman George W. Gray was stricken with a leg infection which may require his confinement to a hospital bed for several days. The infection set in on Monday morning, and Mr. Gray was removed to the Fernald-Loughton Memorial Hospital at once where physicians predicted that he would be "out of action" for at least two weeks.

GOD KNOWS ALL O' THEM

They say it is no big deal but there is the Middle West that don't even know that prohibition has been repealed.

Striking workers strike have grounds for complaint

Striking workers strike have grounds for complaint, but the Chicago stockyard strike is something which ought to be called to the attention of the F. P. C. A. (Federal for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals).

We see by the papers that the Seminoles voting population in Miami has increased from three in 1885 to 25 in 1912 to 1,125 in 1920 to 2,625 in 1928 to 4,125 in 1932 to 7,817 in 1934 to 10,125 in 1936.

The bill that would the dog means to be what the NRA order is developing into.

In China they do not believe a man who shoots a woman by the neck and kills her is a murderer.

People who believe in death-row should be put to death.

Hitting Themselves

Striking FERA workers in Orlando, disgruntled relief cases in DeLand, who are amusing themselves by sending anonymous letters to relief administration officials and by decorating their front porches with miniature coffins, are doing more to discredit the relief program and to bring about a drastic reversal of public opinion with regard to federal aid than are the powerful attacks of anti-New Deal supporters who confine themselves largely to a recitation of the financial costs involved.

Under the previous administration in Washington some help was given by the various federal agencies toward providing for the unemployed, but a fairly widespread feeling developed not only among needy persons themselves but also throughout the public generally, that more than was being done could be done, and, in the name of humanity, ought to be done.

Such outbreaks in the ranks of FERA workers as have occurred recently in various places throughout the country, show such a lack of appreciation for what is being done for them as is likely to result in a complete change in public opinion. The public does not like to see men biting the hand that feeds them. The public feels that everything humanly possible is being done for the unemployed. It does not like to see the government's efforts so completely rejected by the very people it is trying to help.

This Exciting Life

Strange accidents daily take their toll of lives. Miss Louise Breckinridge, seventeen-year-old daughter of Col. Henry Breckinridge, attorney for Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, took her 22 rifle from her gun rack, as she had often done before, and started for a rifle range in a wooded lot just far from her home.

In a New York infants' hospital a trained nurse was driving an eighteen-months-old baby its bath. She turned on the warm water, felt of it as it flowed into the tub, and satisfied that it was not too hot, she placed the baby in the tub. Leaving the water running, she turned away to another table where she busied herself with some other things.

In Homestead, a woman drove to town with a milk bottle to get some gasoline. On the way home the milk bottle, without any top and on the floor of the car, turned over and the gasoline poured out. It dripped through the floor on to the exhaust pipe, and almost instantly the whole car was in flames.

A hunter in Miami was sitting in his backyard with his shotgun across his lap. His favorite dog snarled him and he turned to look at him. Jumping up on his master with his forepaws, one of them suddenly caught in the trigger of the gun and discharged it. The lead penetrated the hunter's chest. He is now in the hospital in a critical condition.

In Orlando a man was taking a comfortable bath in a warm lot of water. A gas water heater near by had been burning but the flame unexpectedly went out. In a few minutes the bathroom was filled with deadly fumes. Members of his family happened upon him and carried him just in time to save his life.

So glad, all, it is an exciting life. One does not have to be a Chicago gangster, or a European soldier, or experience all the horrors the most adventurous men could wish. He may find almost any such excitement at home as on the beach.

SANFORD FORUM

Editor Sanford Herald: When we look about us and see the many wonderful opportunities offered upon Sanford and Seminole County by "Old Mother Nature," or when we pause long enough to compare Sanford with other cities of the same size, we should be proud.

Now for number two: The City of Sanford could have a man who has advertising ability in a collect advertising for a pamphlet to be distributed in the Northern cities. The advertising would pay for the printing and the Sanford and Seminole County could get their publicity paid for.

Thereupon, although the City has $35,000 in the property represented by unpaid taxes and improvement assessments, is the opinion of the Commission that in view of the advantages to be obtained through the establishing of a State Marketing Center in Sanford, the City should sacrifice its claims for that purpose. ### FEDERAL BUREAU CHIEF THRILLED TO 'BUCK FEVER'

Purvis, Who Sought Dillinger For Week, Admits Shakiness

CHICAGO, July 25.—(AP)—Melvin H. Purvis had the "buck fever" Sunday night when John Dillinger walked out of the Little North Side theater to his death a few seconds later in an alley.

Purvis, chief of the Chicago bureau of the department of investigation, admitted nervousness Monday, but associates and observers agreed he probably had good reason.

It was Purvis and not a subordinate who led the cordon of officers to the Biograph theater where Dillinger was enjoying the thrills of the gangster film. He personally placed his men and then placed himself "on the spot" as the "finger" to point out the elusive Indiana outlaw as he emerged from the lobby.

Dillinger passed him as he lunged against the wall, but the gunman did not see the signal which closed the police net around him. It was given by Purvis.

Purvis denied that a bullet from his pistol was the first to smash into Dillinger's body, but associates pointed out that he was closest and also that he has a reputation as a pistol shot.

Slight of stature, Purvis looks even younger than his 30 years and is close mouthed about his work even when it produces such satisfactory results as the removal of America's No. 1 public enemy.

Born in Timmonville, S. C., of English ancestry, Purvis studied law. He is a graduate from the University of South Carolina. He became a member of the department of investigation seven and one half years ago and came to Chicago in November, 1932.

Purvis has suffered for months from an infection of the nose and another of the throat, but has taken only time enough out at various times to make an occasional visit to hospitals.

Heep has been something to do only when there was nothing else in the office. Each and every tip received by the bureau, regardless of how trivial, was investigated thoroughly.

Four times federal operatives swept down on Arlington race track. As many more visits were paid to the Cubs and White Sox ball parks to no avail. Heat-seekers and all the known haunts of Dillinger were shadowed constantly.

Associates and police said Purvis might well have had the "buck fever" Sunday night. Many times before he had set almost certain traps for Dillinger only to have his quarry escape.

An elaborate trap in Chicago's western suburbs went awry only a few months after Purvis took charge of the Chicago office. Another failed in St. Paul on Mar. 31 when Dillinger shot it out with federal officers in an apartment building. Another failed at the Little Bohemia restaurant near Mercer, Wis., a few weeks later.

Witnesses said that Dillinger gave him a piercing glance from the side of his yellow-green eyes, but walked on.

Growers Named As Violators Of Seed Loan Act

It is alleged that a mortgage on the crop had been given as security to a promissory note for $50.

Witt, it is charged, unlawfully and knowingly made a material false representation for the purpose of securing a loan under the Act of Congress dated Jan. 22, 1932, creating the RFC.

The information filed against him alleges that "One E. Carlton was interested as a share crop farmer in cultivating and raising a crop on certain lands upon which said E. V. Witt had made application for a loan for crop production during 1932."

The act, it is stated, requires that any person having an interest in the crop should become a party to the crop mortgage and is required to sign the waiver and agreement clause of the crop mortgage.

The government charges that on Mar. 26, 1932, Witt borrowed $50 and that the crop mortgage bore the forged signature of E. Carlton. Moreland announced that his office plans to take stringent steps to prevent violation of any clause of acts relating to the Farm Credit Administration.

Missing Texan Found Branded With K.K.K.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 25.—(AP)—Branded with K. K. K. on his back, David Crockett, Harlandale painter and campaign worker who disappeared Friday night, was found yesterday, bound and gagged by the side of a road.

R. M. Berkibie, an employe of an ice plant, discovered Crockett as he was on his way home. Crockett told city detectives he had been kidnaped by three men and held prisoner until Monday night, when his captors told him they were going to take him home.

While riding with the trio, Crockett said, he felt something burning him. He struggled with his captors and one of them knocked him unconscious with a pistol. The painter said he recovered consciousness at the spot where he was found.

TEXAS COUNTS 40 DEAD AFTER 80-MILE WIND

Wall of Water Sweeps Over Coastal Areas, Claiming 17 Lives; Property Loss High

HOUSTON, July 26.—(A.P.)—The Texas coast counties from Galveston to Corpus Christi, today dug out of the wreckage of a 20 mile an hour hurricane that swept the area yesterday, and counted property damage at hundreds of thousands and a death toll that probably will reach 40.

The heaviest loss of life was believed to have been around Bay City. Cary Smith, newspaper editor there, said today that about 17 persons were missing in that vicinity.

They were believed to have been swept to death when a wall of water pushed by the wind rushed over the lowlands for a distance of six miles inland. Ten are missing at Matagorda Bay.

The wall of water rushed in so rapidly that persons in its path had little chance to escape. It is variously estimated to have been between four and 20 feet high.

Meanwhile, the little community of Moravia in Jackson county was visited by a tornado which killed five yesterday.

Other crops were completely ruined in coastal counties around Corpus Christi. Drought previously had burned cotton, feed and other crops far below normal production and the heavy rains and wind yesterday were believed to have finished the destruction.

Torrents of rain swept the sparsely settled coastal region and the shrieking wind piled huge waves against the shore.

While the storm vented its full fury on a limited section, of the Texas coast, the effects were felt all the way up to Sabine Pass, South Texas, where heavy rains inundating into thousands of dollars.

The stretch for which most concern was felt was that between Corpus Christi and Freeport.

Sumter County Seeks Wilcox Bill Benefits

JACKSONVILLE, July 26.—(A.P.)—Sumter county has filed in federal court here a petition declaring itself insolvent and setting forth a plan of reorganization under the Wilcox municipal bankruptcy act.

The papers immediately were withdrawn to be carried before either Federal Judge Akerman at Tampa or Judge A. V. Long at Pensacola.

It is the state's first case under the recently enacted law. Upon approval by a federal judge, a plan of reorganization will be submitted to bondholders.

HEAT DEATHS IN NATION NUMBER 1213

98 Perish In Chicago Alone Yesterday, As Temperatures Soar; Relief Not In Sight

By The Associated Press
Heat deaths numbered 1213 today.

Moderation of temperatures brought relief to some sections. Missouri and Illinois had the greatest number of casualties, the former having 330 and the latter 316.

In Ohio, 127 were dead. Of the Illinois dead, 98 perished yesterday in Chicago alone, including 12 aged wards of the county at Oak Forest Infirmary where 81 have died since Sunday.

Relief came yesterday to most of the North Central states and to scattered sections of the central, middle, and southwestern areas where drought losses have been exceptionally heavy.

The dry, sapping heat that continued yesterday to blanket the top of the Middle West has convinced Dr. Elwood Mead, the reclamation commissioner, that tens of thousands of persons must be moved out of the western half of the Dakotas and eastern Montana and Wyoming.

"There is nothing left, no green thing; it is gone," said Dr. Mead who returned to the capital Tuesday from a tour of the drought area.

He said the land should never have been cultivated because there was insufficient rainfall. Even if the drought should be broken and farming continued in the area, he said, another drought was certain to follow within a few years.

Meanwhile, the relief program for the area was being expedited. Chief among the relief moves was an effort by an arbitration board to settle the Chicago stockyards strike.

The Reconstruction corporation arranged to help tanners handle the enormous influx of cowhides caused by the purchases and to slaughter cattle in drought areas.

Victor A. Christian, acting farm administrator, said cattle buying would be resumed as soon as markets were cleared of the present glut of cattle and new facilities were made available for processing those purchased.

Today's map by the bureau of agricultural economics showed the emergency areas covered all of North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, and Nevada; most of Montana, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, Wyoming, Nebraska, Minnesota, and Wisconsin; and large areas of southern California, Arizona, Kansas, Oklahoma and Iowa.

RUSSO-JAP TANGLE

TOKYO, July 26.—(A.P.)—A spokesman for the foreign office revealed yesterday Japan has sent to Moscow a proposal demanding a yes-or-no answer to the potentially dangerous problem of disposal of the Chinese Eastern railway to Manchukuo.

He based his doubt on conditions in Europe and the attitude of naval officials in Japan.

Wall Street Takes Out On Zeb Smith

Chicagoan Jumps Out 19th Story Window To Avoid Questioning By U. S. Police

NEW YORK CITY, July 26.—That part of Wall Street which doesn't like the New Deal loves these days to tell the story about Zeb Smith, whose play had been mortgaged to the hilt for years and years.

Zeb was always on the verge of losing the place and his bankers got tired carrying him along. They were happy when the opportunity came to shift Zeb and his property to the Home Owners Loan Corporation. The deal was consummated. Zeb signed his name to the papers and blew a brass ring.

"Whoop!" he said with relief. "This is the first time I've been out of debt in thirteen years!"

RAILROAD HEADS SEEK ADVANCE IN FREIGHT RATES

Boost Held As One Of Few Remedies For Low Financial State

NEW YORK, July 26.—(A.P.)—Wall Street's attention is again focused on the financial plight of the country's railroad system, as indicated by the vulnerability of their shares in recent market selling waves.

Faced with a thoroughly bleak future, many railway executives are urging a general advance in freight rates. But a good number of observers believe the moment to be most inopportune for such a step and point again to the "expedient" rather than economic, policy of the roads in regard to their basic rate structure.

It is claimed in some quarters that a general freight increase would merely add to the production costs of industry as a whole, diverting traffic from the carriers to competitors and injuring the prospects of business recovery.

The railways, on the other hand, have some strong arguments in their favor. Executives designate huge increases in their expenses, many of them springing allegedly from "New Deal" policies, as the underlying reason for their demands.

Trammell Doubts Success Of 1935 Naval Conference

WASHINGTON, July 26.—(A.P.)—Senator Trammell of Florida, chairman of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee expressed doubt today whether the 1935 naval conference would succeed.

He based his doubt on conditions in Europe and the attitude of naval officials in Japan.

The co-author of the Vinson naval bill also told newspapermen he would not approve of granting Japan greater naval strength than the five-five-three ratio as at present.

HARBORER OF DILLINGER KILLS SELF

Chicagoan Jumps Out 19th Story Window To Avoid Questioning By U. S. Police

CHICAGO, July 26.—(A.P.)—Brought to the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for questioning in connection with the Dillinger case, James Probasco, 37, West Side resident committed suicide today by jumping from a 19th floor window.

No one could be found who witnessed the leap, but the body landed in an alley near Adams Street, narrowly missing a pedestrian. The body was badly mangled. He had been left alone in a room overlooking the alley for a few minutes when he leaped.

The grave holds John Dillinger. The body of the man who couldn't be kept behind jail bars and who so frequently evaded the traps set for him, rested last night six feet beneath the sod.

His body was lowered into the grave of the Dillinger family lot in peaceful Crown Hill cemetery near Magwood, Ind., yesterday afternoon after funeral services at the home of Mrs. Audrey Hancock, the sister who reared him after the death of his mother.

The slain gangster's 70-year-old father, John Dillinger, Sr., coastless, sat through the services displaying little emotion. But the sister, as the casket was closed, fainted and it was some time before she was revived.

Prominent Atlantans Engage In Fist Fight

ATLANTA, July 26.—(A.P.)—Dr. Witherspoon Dodge, widely known Atlanta minister and Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe university, came to blows yesterday in the latter's office.

Dr. Dodge demanded immediate payment of $200 and charged the university president with discriminating against him in the matter of salary.

Although the exchange of blows was brief for a few moments neither combatant showed any severe markings of the encounter.

Dr. Dodge, reluctant to discuss the incident, said the exchange followed conversation about "a very personal matter." He had a thin scratch on his face. Dr. Jacobs was unmarked.

DOLLFUSS' LAST WORDS WERE OF WIFE, CHILDREN

Murdered Leader Was Denied Physicians, Priest In Final Hour

VIENNA, July 26.—Chancellor Dollfuss' last words were "Give my love to my wife and children." It was revealed in a dramatic account of the murder of the Austrian dictator, made late this afternoon by Colonel Walter Ahlen, head of the Austrian Home Guards.

Shot down in cold blood by the leader of a small band of Nazis who had burst into ancient Congress Hall as the tiny leader was attempting to escape into the offices of President Miklas, Chancellor lived for several minutes as two government police attempted to administer his wants when he was denied the assistance of a physician, or the last rites of the Catholic Church at the hands of a priest.

The story, as told by Colonel Ahlen, is that when Chancellor Dollfuss learned that a large band of men were forcing their way into the chancellery, he immediately hastened across a corridor away from his office to the offices of President Miklas in another part of the building.

Just as he stepped into Congress Hall, a small door leading into the hall from another direction was broken down, and a party of 10 or 12 armed men entered the hall.

The leader of this group strode forward hurriedly, and, at a distance of probably five paces, leveled his revolver and fired twice. One bullet struck the Chancellor in the neck; the other under the left shoulder.

After taking a single step forward, the Chancellor collapsed, and fell to the carpet on his back. Government police who had followed the band of Nazis into the room, stepped to the aid of their fallen leader, and appealed that a physician be sent for. The leader of the band denied them this (Continued on Page Three)

Sholtz Warns Of New Communism Menace

TALLAHASSEE, July 26.—(A.P.)—Governor Sholtz, just back from a trip into the Middle West, told the state cabinet yesterday that the spread of communism "is something the people who stand for Americanism should give serious consideration."

He said communism "is not a crisis in Florida, or in this section, but it may become such, and the people should acquaint themselves with conditions of other states."

The governor said one source of the spread of communism was the public schools, but he added this statement was not a reflection upon public school teachers in Florida.

Rhodes Will Speak On Sanford's Market At Orlando Farm Meeting Tomorrow

Featuring tomorrow's closing session of the second annual Central Florida Farm and Home Institute which opened at Magnolia School in Orlando this morning will be an address by L. M. Rhodes, state Marketing commissioner on the subject, "Sanford's New Wholesale Market."

Several local residents as well as many from outlying towns were in Orlando today attending the all-day sessions which were devoted to citrus and poultry problems, and if last year's attendance from this county is any indication of the interest being taken in the Institute by local persons, tomorrow's sessions will be crowded.

The closing day of the Institute is to be divided into five sections, three of which run concurrently. While one group of persons is attending lectures and discussions in the Truck Crop Section which opens at 10:30 o'clock, another group will have been in attendance at the Dairy Section which

BRATISLAVA, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, (VIA TELEPHONE TO BERLIN AND LONDON), July 26.—A band of 300 Nazi conspirators, wearing the uniforms of the historic Deutschemeister regiment, raided the federal chancellery at Vienna yesterday, killed Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss and held two other cabinet members imprisoned more than six hours.

They finally surrendered under a government pledge to grant them safe conduct with a military escort to the German border and left the building, while the body of the chancellor still lay there.

Emil F. y, minister without portfolio, whom Dollfuss recently appointed commissar for extraordinary security, was compelled by the conspirators to appear repeatedly on the balcony of the chancellery to order the police and (Continued on Page Six)

Olson Orders Quick Moratorium On Debts

REMARKS, N. D., July 26.—(A.P.)—North Dakota's new dirt farmer governor, Ole H. Olson, yesterday proclaimed a moratorium on every form of debt where the debtor shows inability to pay.

Broader in scope than any moratorium issued by his predecessor, William Langer, removed by court order, on conviction of a felony, Olson's proclamation is designated to protect the farmer against foreclosure and also small businessmen, home owners and extends even to a suspension of payment on conditional sales contracts.

Provision is made for application to the courts by any creditor "who feels himself injured."

Youth Found Guilty Of Murdering Mother

LOS ANGELES, July 26.—(A.P.)—Louis Rude Payne, 21, son of a former St. Louis utilities official was convicted of first degree murder yesterday for the killing of his mother, Mrs. Carrie Payne, and his brother, Robert.

Prince Starhemberg Rise As Successor To Dollfuss Aways European War Talk

With anti-Nazi Prince Ernst von Starhemberg heading the government of Austria, speedily succeeding anti-Nazi Engelbert Dollfuss, other European capitals concerned over who controls the powder box nation breathed easier today.

But at Rome, 40 army divisions, each composed of about 8000 men were ordered today to strategic positions along the Austrian frontier.

A British authority in London said that Great Britain, Italy, and France believed Austrian Nazis had killed their hopes of popularity when they killed Dollfuss, and that none of the three nations would take new action to demand the independence of Austria.

From Rome, Italian troops were ordered to the Austro-Italian border, but it was explained this is merely a precautionary measure since authorities believed the Austrian government would be able to handle its internal situation without outside help.

At the same time the authoritative newspaper L'Espresso, D'Italia, in an apparently "inspired" editorial, declared that Chancellor Hitler of Germany supported the violence in Austria to deter the German people from a contemplation of their own domestic difficulties.

In Paris, French newspapers reiterated that Austria must be kept independent.

German officials at Berlin lent their condolences to Austria, and an unconfirmed rumor was spread that Hitler actually had gone there (Continued on Page Three)

Sholtz Expresses Appreciation For Money Raised Here

Addressing residents of this through the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, Governor Dave Sholtz expressed his appreciation for the generous part contributions played in raising funds for the crippled children's foundation this spring.

Announcing that the total amount received from the several Governor's Balls held throughout Florida was $37,324.74, Governor Sholtz stated, "Won't you please also thank the many who helped and whose names we do not have? And I hope that you will all continue your interest in this worthy work. Certainly, there must be some satisfaction for all of us to know that we are scattering a little sunshine for children who ordinarily have nothing to look forward to."

C. E. Adams was chairman of the local committee which arranged the benefit ball that attracted several hundred persons to the Mayfair Hotel, Mrs. F. E. Remondino was chairman of the ticket sales committee, and scores of others in a stable contribution from this gave co-operation which resulted city.
