11 Men Arrested In Gambling Raid

By GARY TAYLOR
Sheriff's deputies and Sanford police have been combining efforts to fight narcotics recently. Friday night they joined forces to make a gambling raid in Altamonte Springs that resulted in the arrest of 11 persons.

The raid was made in a building on Illinois Avenue in Altamonte Springs. The building was located next to a bar. Wright told The Herald that the arrests ended a three-week long investigation.

Seminole Memorial Hospital Issue

Editorials have two basic and definable purposes. One is to "point with pride." The other is to "view with alarm."

When it comes to the issue as to whether or not to sell the Seminole Memorial Hospital, each provides a proper approach.

The former is the one which recommends itself, despite the political overcast which followed the proposal by Greg Drummond, chairman of the Seminole County Commission, that the respected medical institution be sold to private interests and the money so realized be applied to the educational building shortages.

For the record of this hospital—created by the unflinching efforts of concerned individuals, funded by private monies supplemented by federal dollars, and presenting one of the best such medical facilities in the state—is one which can be properly pointed to with pride.

Comparing the facilities and services, in quantity and quality to those which existed in 1954, as did Dr. George H. Cullpepper Jr., of Altamonte Springs, in a letter we printed is to ignore the actual improvements which have been made during the intervening years.

For the technology which has come to light has been put to work. This hospital has physicians whose reputations are at the very top of their specialties. In fact, this is one of the assets which has caused the present rumpus to make eyebrows lifted in the profession within and without the county.

We have opposed any such sale (which is now in the midst of legal actions which will determine whether or not the county commission has such a right.)

Federal Aid

On request of Congresswoman Edith Gree of Oregon, the Library of Congress compiled the amount of funds a family could receive by taking advantage of all public assistance programs available.

One hypothetical family consisting of a mother with four children ranging in age from pre-school to the college level could collect a total of $11,513 a year under various programs of federal aid ranging from health care to school lunches.

"Now for those people across the country who are saying this is a government that does not have any concern for the poor," said Mrs. Green, "I suggest they look at these programs."

To attempt to degrade the reputation of this county's leadership and to question its ability to provide the talent and the vigor which such leadership demands is a move which is more than, questionable. It is wrong.

Thus we do "view with alarm" the Drummond proposal. Seminole county contains the people who can and have and should grapple with and handle the problems of growth—medical, political, educational and economic.

In saying this we do not attempt to whitewash any failures such as that of the county commission, who failed to get matching federal funds for the purchase of parklands, which they were available.

Nor do we look with rosy glasses at the affairs at the hospital. For this institution is grappling with such basic changes in the operation and the funding of health care as makes some mistakes inevitable.

This, however, would be the case if the sharp eyes of those seeking to find faults were peering into the internal conditions of any such comparable institution.

The alarm comes when the issue is so bedeviled with personal animosities and personal ambitions that what could be accomplished for the betterment of the basic purpose of a hospital—the care and healing of the sick—is stymied or delayed.

Such a situation is not unexpected in any institution that all of the county should view with pride and should be saved from the political morass into which it has now been pushed.

McGovern Success Credited to Skill

By BRUCE BOSSERT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The strictly technical level, Sen. George McGovern's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination bears more resemblance to the late John F. Kennedy's 1960 effort than to the 1968 "children's crusade" of former Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

To describe McGovern's surprising successes simply as a grass roots undertaking is not sufficiently revealing. McGovern and his managers surely have put together superb field organizations in state after state in every region of the country. They have also employed to great advantage a roving force of capable young people who have jumped from primary to primary, and presently are concentrating on the very last one—in New York.

This heavy infusion of the young makes our campaign look a lot like McCarthy's. At least because McGovern's youthful activists have in place after place marshalled large numbers of their kind to swamp out the regulars in caucuses and district conventions.

But McCarthy's campaign never had the skillful direction this one has. The organizers who are with McGovern, who also were with McCarthy, have learned much about the tough side of politics. From the top management down, the staff keeps its eye on the main game—getting delegates to the national convention.

Young Gary Hart of Denver is an extremely able, clear-headed manager. Old pro Frank Markiewicz, former aide to the late Robert F. Kennedy, needs no lessons. It can't be overlooked, however, that McGovern himself imparts a driving spirit to these and others. He is a very shrewd, competent and ambitious politician. McCarthy had neither the competence nor the real drive.

It is at these points that resemblance is strong to the Kennedy campaign of 1960. Kennedy himself was the practical politician almost without equal. In key strategy sessions, he was always the sharpest and best informed man in the room.

He also employed roving cadres of field helpers, though they were a more limited band of dedicated friends who had exhibited political skills and knew how to use them to win Kennedy delegates in the more controlled, less open delegate selection process then prevailing.

When a new political organization is forming, when outsiders come into state after state, resentment and resistance are probably inevitable. Kennedy often was accused of being a "strong-arm" leader, and Harry Truman refused to go to the Los Angeles convention because he said the young senator had "rigged" the result for himself.

McGovern is playing the same game, with much larger numbers of helpers because they are needed for the more open processes of today. His forces, too, are resented and resisted by many regulars, who charge that the newcomers have nothing on their minds but the nomination and election of George McGovern.

There is some basis for the regulars' concern in 1972, as there was in 1960 with Kennedy. If McGovern wins at Miami Beach, and especially if he should capture the presidency, many new faces will turn up in the Democratic party lineup across the land.

It is evidently true, moreover, that some of McGovern's "new" faces, those who "go to the top" to the "top" in 1960, show a "rule or ruin" spirit which would smother the less pure.

But this is not all-pervading, any more than it was in Kennedy's day. McGovern has some brilliant organizers who are also admirably accommodators, telling the regulars "we can all live together." The best example: Mrs. Jean Westwood, the Utah national committeewoman, one of the best politicians of this age.

One Man's Opinion: Go-Ahead Urged For 'No-Fault'

By DON OAKLEY

The news that car owners in Massachusetts will receive an estimated $30 to $40 million in refunds from auto insurance companies should give a tremendous boost to the push for "no-fault" automobile insurance in 48 other states.

(Florida is the only other state besides Massachusetts which has adopted the complete system. The Massachusetts Supreme Court, upholding a decision by the state's insurance commissioner, ruled that companies must reduce their compulsory auto insurance rates in 1972 by 27.6 per cent and return the difference to policy holders.

For a car owner in Boston, for example, this will drop his premium to around $47. In 1970, before no-fault, it was $117 and had already fallen to $73 in the first year of no-fault.

Despite the experience of Massachusetts, "fault or no-fault" continues to be a hotly debated question. The stakes are immense, with some 110 million motor vehicles on U.S. roads and an annual record of 16 million traffic accidents involving 28 million of those vehicles, resulting in 55,000 fatalities, 2 million disabling injuries and over $9 billion in losses.

Under the present, much-criticized system that has prevailed since the beginning of the automobile age, fault is the determining factor in the payment of accident claims. The person who causes the accident is required to pay the losses, either directly or, more usually, through his insurance company.

But fault must first be proved, and this can mean years of waiting for court adjudication. More often than not, out-of-court settlements are made, which may be less than adequate for aggrieved claimants. Large chunks of the benefits are eaten up by lawyers' fees.

Arrested In Demo Hq. GOP Aide Held As Thief

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disclosure that a salaried Nixon-campaign security expert was one of five men arrested during a break-in at the Democratic National Committee headquarters early Saturday, listed in campaign-spending reports filed by the Nixon committee June 10.

The reports listed McCord as receiving a salary and other expenses for April and May as well as $200,000 in August. McCord's main campaign committee.

McCord was being held Sunday in lieu of $30,000 bail, charged with attempted burglary. The other four also were charged with attempted burglary. They were held on $50,000 bail each.

When seized by plainclothes policemen, who were called by a private security guard, the men were wearing rubber surgical gloves and were armed with expensive electronic and photographic equipment, plus what police described as elaborate burglar kits.

Police were called to the Democrats' offices in the wee hours Saturday morning after a security guard noticed that a door leading from a basement garage in the Watergate complex of offices, hotel rooms and apartments had been taped so it would not lock.

McCord, in his 50s, reportedly retired two years ago as chief of security at the Central Intelligence Agency's nearby Langley, Va., headquarters. He since has operated a private security agency out of a small office at 414 Hungerford Drive, Rockville.

Mitchell, who was in Los Angeles, said in his statement that McCord "is the proprietor of a private security agency who was employed by our committee months ago to assist with the security of our headquarters and May of $1,200 each to McCord.

Despite the explosive force with which such a reform would hit the Democratic party it has attracted little attention and less opposition. That may all change this week, however, as the plan goes before the Rules Committee of the Democratic National Convention at a meeting beginning Thursday in Washington.

The Rules Committee will be asked to clear the proposed party charter for presentation to the 1972 convention in Miami Beach next month, and any opponents will have a chance to express their views. The most controversial provision in the plan is the one that would establish a new Democratic party. Only officially enrolled members of the national party could participate in Democratic conventions or the off-year policy conference.

The plan calls for creation of a national membership and finance council which would be responsible for directing campaigns to sign up members and collect dues on a state-by-state basis. States would be assigned quotas for financial support of the national party, and those failing to meet their quota would lose voting privileges in the national committee.

Hanoi Bombing Resumed

By GEORGE ESTER Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP) — Two South Vietnamese drives had hard going today as the President Nguyen Van Thieu's claims that North Vietnam's troops were demoralized and bogged down and their offensive had failed.

In the air war, the U.S. Air Force said its jets wrecked a large segment of North Vietnam's air defense system, knocking out more than 200 pieces of equipment in four days in the southern half of North Vietnam. And the United States ended a four-day suspension of bombing attacks in the Hanoi-Haiphong area following the departure of Soviet Premier Nikolai Podgorny from the North Vietnamese capital.

Thieu said he was ordering a new three-month campaign to take back the territory lost to the North Vietnamese in their offensive that began March 30. Nearly 1,000 marines launched a new sweep south of the demilitarized zone, while rangers supported by tanks opened a new push to clear Highway 13 between Saigon and An Loc.

The Air Force said its pilots on Sunday knocked out 76 of the big SAM2 anti-aircraft missiles, 45 sustainer canisters, five missile booster containers, five launchers and transporters, six SAM radar vans, two anti-aircraft fire control directors.

There was no word yet on the targets today in the Hanoi-Haiphong area, but U.S. military sources said the air war was "back to normal," and U.S. jets again hitting North Vietnam's industrial heartland. "We're back north of the 20th parallel," said one source. From Thursday through Sunday, American bombers had hit the North with the heaviest raids since the resumption of full-scale bombing on April 6. But to avoid hitting Hanoi, while Podgory was there, all of the more than 1,300 strikes were in the southern part of the country, below the 20th parallel of latitude and well south of the capital.

Podgorny told newsmen in Leningrad that "everything went as I wanted" during his visit to Hanoi, and he was "very happy with the outcome." He said the Vietnam peace talks in Paris would resume soon.

Thieu claimed in an Armed Forces Day radio address that the North Vietnamese offensive had failed and Hanoi's troops were demoralized and bogged down.

"Today I start a new campaign for the next three months, to rise up to recapture our territory," he said. "I am confident that we will win about a year full of peace and stability. Our armed forces are determined to win about a year full of peace and stability."

Single Investors A Dying Breed

By JOHN CUNIFF AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Is the individual investor a dying breed, about to be buried in the avalanche of trading emanating from the big institutional traders who now account for most of the volume on the New York Stock Exchange?

That notion is broadcast from time to time, and not without reason. Individual investors of long standing have canceled out their accounts in recent years. Many others are steady sellers.

Meanwhile, the growth of institutions such as mutual and pension funds has been phenomenal. And their aggressiveness as traders has grown too.

During the 1963-1971 period, institutional volume grew by what Dr. William Freund, NYSE chief economist, calls an "astounding 25 per cent a year" and new accounts for 68 per cent of all trading, in dollar terms.

But, he points out, all that growth isn't at the expense of the individual investor. The latter's transactions grew 8 per cent a year in the same period, and new accounts for 32 per cent of trading.

In other words, it is true that the institutions are more dominant in the market than they were, and it is true that the individual investor carries less trading weight than before.

But it isn't true that there are fewer individual investors now than at any earlier period. The number of such investors is now estimated at 32.5 million, up from 31.9 million last year.

One misimpression about the market is that mutual funds are the most powerful institutional traders. Not so at all. They are the most obvious, because they sell shares to the public, but they are markedly more active traders than they were 10 years ago. Some funds now turn over their portfolios 100 per cent within one year.

That distinction belongs to the private noninsured pension funds, which now have more than $125 billion in assets, $85 billion of which is in common stocks.

By comparison, the mutual funds have total assets of about $55 billion, with all but $3 billion of it in common stocks.

Nevertheless, it is these two institutional trading categories that have caused the individual investor to become less and less powerful in the market. Each year these two fund categories are more influential in setting prices.

Not only are private pension funds growing in size, but the tendency now is to seek maximum returns in the stock market rather than from more conservative investments in bonds.

And not only are mutual funds growing in size and number, but they are also becoming more aggressive in their trading.

A Rose Is A Rose But, Is Mayor A Mayor?

By DONNA ESTES A rose is a rose, but the mayor of one city in Seminole is not necessarily equal to another, at least as far as the authority and power is concerned.

In certain of the municipalities, namely Oviedo and Longwood, the title for the most part bestows only ceremonial rights.

An Oviedo's mayor, Kenneth Harry Brown, Jr., is champing at the bit and trying to do something about it. He has pushed for a new charter to give the holder of his office "some teeth."

The colorful Channel 2 sports director relates his position of mayor under the present 1920's vintage charter to "a fullback who is used in each and every game to carry the ball on every play, hit by a big six foot five inch, 275 pound tackle and a six foot three inch 250 pound linebacker. But when he gets to the three yard line he is required to hand the ball off to the fancy halfback to score and get all the glory."

In other words, Brown declared, "The mayor does all the dirty work, but when it comes to the big score — the vote — somebody else takes over the ball or else fumbles it."

"If the new charter passes, the mayor will be allowed to score," Brown said. A meaningful way in the affairs of the AMA," Ogrod said in an interview. "There are too many decisions being made by the AMA affecting our training and the way medicine is going to be practiced 15 years from now when we'll be the doctors in private practice."

Ogrod, who was graduated from Stanford Medical School in 1970, said his presence in the House of Delegates is only a first step. "The most important thing is we must first establish ourselves and then begin dealing with the problems facing interns, residents and young doctors," he said.

The City Council, but has no vote, no veto power and no power to appoint or dismiss city employees.

The mayor's office in the City of Casselberry is limited, to a great extent, in power by the charter there, the mayor is the mayor a member of Council and its presiding officer in addition to designating him as the administrative and executive officer of the city. The City Council will be purely the legislative body of the city.

The strongest mayor-type government in the county currently is in Altamonte Springs and occupied by Lawrence Swafford. Under the charter there, the mayor is the executive and administrative head of the city government — the "head honcho" really.

He is the presiding officer at all Council meetings and proceedings, has a voice and a vote, responsible for keeping the City Council advised as to matters affecting the general welfare of the city and for seeing that all laws are enforced.

For the most part, the office of mayor in Oviedo is ceremonial. He may represent the city on all public occasions and advise the Council on matters affecting the city. He may take part in discussion and make recommendations to the City Council, but has no vote, no veto power and no power to appoint or dismiss city employees.

Everyone reports to him and he has the responsibility for making certain the governmental machinery runs smoothly. The Council then is purely a legislative body, sets policy and adopts ordinances. The mayor may veto a tie, but he has no veto power. In the City of Sanford, the mayor has no veto power than an individual commissioner, but is the presiding officer at all Council meetings. He is recognized by other governmental entities in exercise of military law and for ceremonial purposes. In times of emergency he may, with consent of the commission, take command of the police, maintain order and enforce the law.

Medical History Is Made

By BILL STOCKTON AP Science Writer SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 27-year-old doctor has made medical history by becoming the first member of the American Medical Association's powerful House of Delegates to represent the nation's interns and budding specialists.

Ogrod, who was graduated from Stanford Medical School in 1970, said his presence in the House of Delegates is only a first step. "The most important thing is we must first establish ourselves and then begin dealing with the problems facing interns, residents and young doctors," he said.

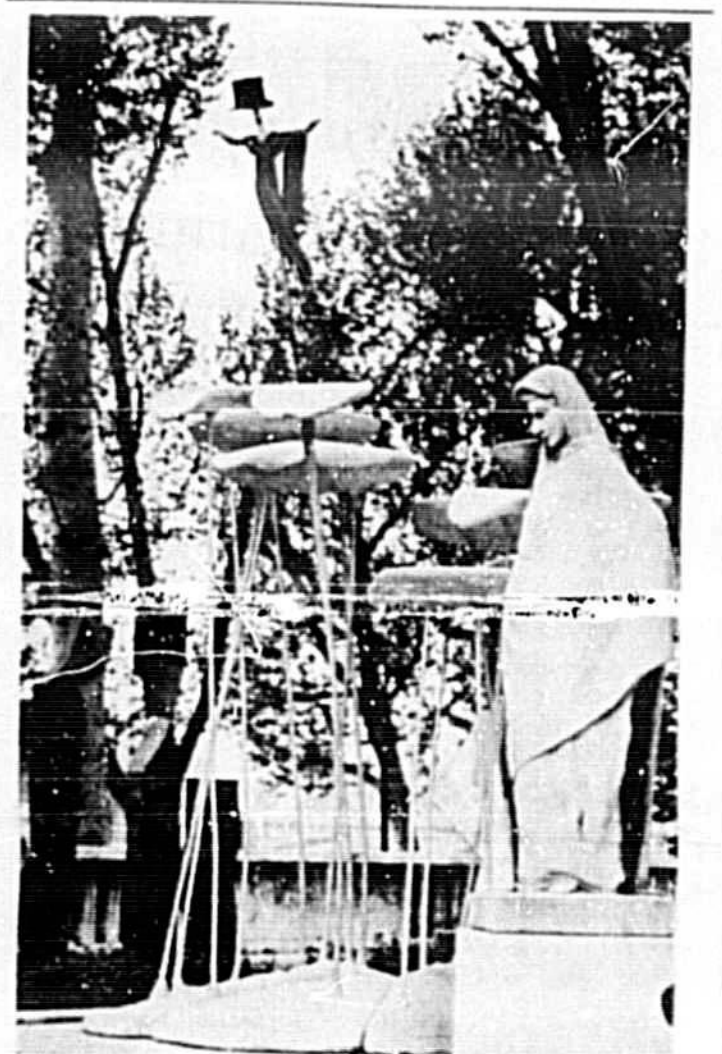

Ogrod's presence and that of his alternate, Dr. Neville Connell of Washington, D. C., is a significant departure from past AMA conventions, a reflection of a reform movement afoot to give the nation's 50,000 interns and residents a voice in AMA affairs.

British Jetliner Crashes; 118 Die

By COLIN FROST Associated Press Writer LONDON (AP) — A British jetliner crashed Sunday just after taking off from Brussels, killing all 118 persons aboard. It was the worst air crash on British soil, and the dead included 29 Americans. Among the victims were at least 12 British physicians on their way to a professional congress and several top leaders of Irish industry.

The Boeing 747 jetliner, operated by British European Airways, plunged into a field near a busy road two minutes after taking off from London's Heathrow Airport. The plane was full, many of the passengers having booked seats to beat the international pilot's strike today. Britain's aviation minister, Michael Heseltine, visited the crash site and said later "both flight recorders on the plane have been recovered and their information will be fed into computers to help the official inquiry into the disaster." Most of the Irish victims were members of a delegation of industrialists going to Brussels for talks at the headquarters of the Common Market.

Florida Sheriff's Ranch 17 Oviedo Boys Team 3

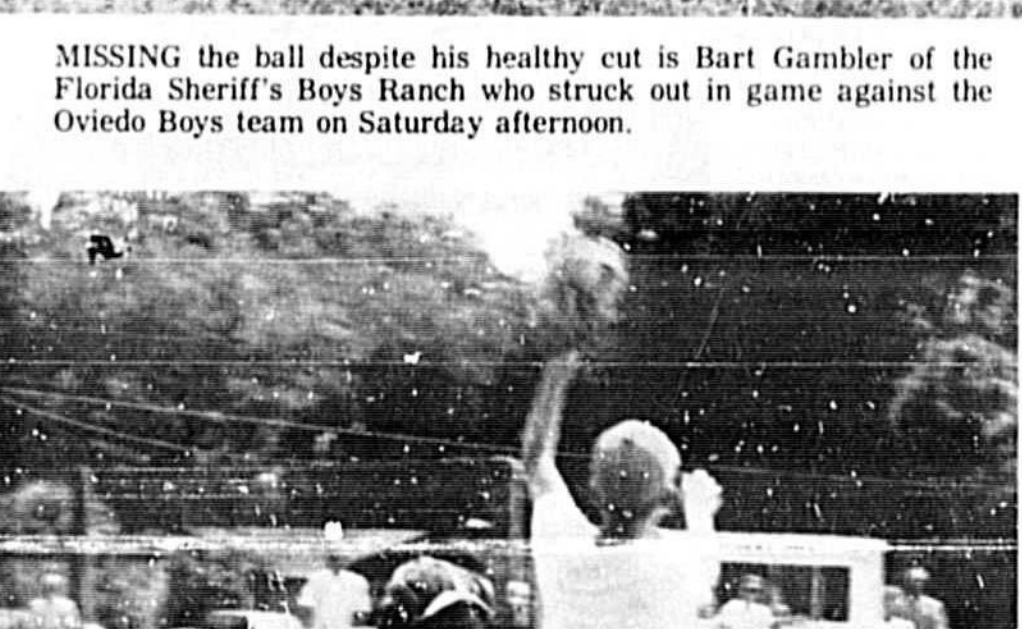

Casselberry Legion returned to the winning side of the ledger Friday when they dismantled the Edgewater Legion 17-3 in the shortstop. Tim Shea singled to load the bases, Larry Brown found the middle in his liking and sent a grounder through the infield for the first run. Seno Parker's long fly to left brought in Chonat with the second run of the inning. Jim Payne's second triple of the night, a shot into the right centerfield alley, scored the winning runs for the Casselberry team in the third frame. The blast by Payne followed a single by Rick Nuss and a walk to Ed Weirich. Payne was thrown out at the plate trying to make it an inside the park home run but he had already done the damage to the host team. Casselberry took a 2-0 lead in the first frame when they pointed Edgewater hurler Don Casselberry away in the third frame. The Casselberry team will soon enter District IV competition and coach Harold Herbst feels they have a good chance of sweeping that tournament and advancing to the state tournament July 14-18 in Panama City.

Sanford Seniors Look Tough Prepare For LL Tournament

Sanford Senior League All-Stars will soon enter District IV competition and coach Harold Herbst feels they have a good chance of sweeping that tournament and advancing to the state tournament July 14-18 in Panama City. Nine of last year's All-Stars are returning on this year's team and the fact that the league was fairly equal in competition should help the quality of the selections. Chase, winners of the senior league title by winning both halves, played five players on the team. They are: Brent Habors, Donald Brown, David Bernosky, Teddy Miller and Willie Wall.

Sanford Police placed three players each on the team. Theke Deas, Karl McLeod and Brent Butler represent Police while Chris Frank, Rick Ferrell and Randy Brown were picked from Recreation. Medical Center 1. With this in mind, Sanford seniors are looking for a good team to add one hit in the game. Mike Barbour had a single for the Raiders and Martin Roberts had a single for Medical Center. Winning pitcher, Don Lively, loser, Tim Robbins. American League. United State Bank 4. Goodyear 1. United State Bank won this game with only one hit, a single.

U.S. Nets Sweep Of Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The U.S. Davis Cup team's 5-0 sweep of Mexico in the North American Zone finals has sent the Mexicans away talking of rebuilding their team and the cool, confident American squad into the American Zone finals against Chile. The United States completed the sweep Sunday as Stan Smith of Sea Pines, S.C., and Harold Solomon of Silver Spring, Md., captured their singles matches. Smith beat the top Mexican, Joaquin Loye Mayo, 6-0, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4. Solomon defeated Octavio Martinez 6-4, 6-1, 6-2. "We'll have to rebuild our team after this shocking defeat," said Yves Lemaitre, Mexico's non-playing captain. The Mexicans won only one set out of four singles matches and one doubles. Smith accounted for two singles victories, and teamed with Tom Gorman of Seattle to win the doubles on Saturday. Gorman won his singles Friday.

Wottle Tips Cap And Wins

Associated Press Sports Writer SEATTLE (AP) — Dave Wottle, fast becoming America's best wonder in the middle distance races, tipped his cap and won a 7 from a good 800 field in the National AAU track championships. The Bowling Green ace won a race he's not used to and four other distance runners also won unexpectedly, jumbling the nation's Olympic picture even more. And Dave Wottle cleared 18 feet in the pole vault, '66. Biggest shocker of the three-day AAU championships was Friday when Greg Fredericks, a 22-year-old Penn State senior, thrust himself into long-distance prominence by taking the 10,000-meter run in 28 minutes, 4 seconds for an American record. The 6-foot, 135-pounder grabbed the lead in 24 seconds, beating such top names in the race as Frank Shorter, Tom Laris and Jack Bacher. That trio also crashed the old American mark of 28:17.8 by Billy Mills. Wottle, winner of the mile in 1:47.3, wore his usual white mesh cap — put to keep his hair from blowing in the wind. "I just rested up and put it back on," said the non-champion junior who normally runs the 1,500 and the mile. Roberts, a third junior at Rice who won't be 21 until July 21, switched to a stiffer pole for his third try at 18 feet one-quarter of an inch and was over cleanly by one inch, his fourth try. "It's just another night but there's nothing like winning the Olympic gold medal." The other distance winners — Jameson of the New York Athletic Club and Jerome Howe of the Mid-American T.C. — put egg on the faces of the forecasters, too. Dave Wottle's best was his 10,000-meter run in 28 minutes, 4 seconds for an American record.

Reuss, Arlin Sparkle In NL Mound Efforts

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON Associated Press Sports Writer Jerry Reuss and Steve Arlin gave Philadelphia and Pittsburgh the old 1-2 Slew-by while Tom Seaver delivered his victory over the pressure off. Reuss, 23-years-old today, came within three days of giving himself a birthday to remember. He led the Phillies' hurlers for eight innings before Larry Bowa ripped a leadoff double in the ninth, then finished with a one-hit 10-0 victory that ended the Houston Astros' bid to close in on the Braves in the National League West. San Diego's Arlin fired 1-0 two-hitter at the hard-hitting Pirates, the second straight shutout for the lowly Padres over baseball's world champions, and dropped them into second place in the NL East, one-half game behind New York. The Mets slipped back into first place when Seaver checked the beds on five hits for his first complete game since April 19. He became the NL's first nine game winner and also slammed a tie-breaking home run in the seventh inning. The defeat sliced Cincinnati's margin over Houston to 1 1/2 games. Elsewhere, the Chicago Cubs edged Los Angeles 5-4 on Don Kessinger's 11th-inning single. Montreal's Mike Torrez tossed a two-hitter to beat Atlanta 2-1 and San Francisco trounced St. Louis 8-2. Heuss allowed only four base runners, all on walks, until Bowa ripped a 1-1 pitch down

Has Half A 'Slam'

Nicklaus Equals Jones Title Total

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus stood like a blond colossus atop the pinnacle of all golf today—beside the late Bob Jones and halfway home toward an almost unshakable Grand Slam—but the experience isn't exactly what he had imagined.

"Bob Jones always was my idol, and as I was growing up, I thought about equalling his record of 13 major championships from Columbus, Ohio, said after winning his third U. S. Open title and his 13th major crown in gusty Pebble Beach winds that blew down all other challengers.

"I thought about it and I worked for it but I never expected it to happen," he continued, discussing Jones' proud record set in the Golden Trenches. "Now that I've got it, I have a funny feeling."

"I am proud to be in his company."

Winner of the Masters and the U. S. Open, the first two legs of the unprecedented professional sweep which no man has accomplished, Big Jack now must see his sights on the British Open at Muirfield July 25-31 and the American PGA at Oakland Hills in Birmingham, Mich., Aug. 24.

The final round over the 6,812-yard, par 72 Pebble Beach course that snakes along the crashing waves of the Pacific Ocean was played in conditions too foul for man or beast.

The winds whipping off the ocean reached gusts of 30 miles an hour. The postage stamp greens were hard as concrete and slick as marble. All of the competitors, including Nicklaus, found themselves playing out of craggy canyons and off of rocky beaches.

and highest winning score in the Open since 1955.

He won by three shots over Australian Bruce Crampton, who shot 76 for 283 with the resurging but frustrated Arnold Palmer a disappointed third with a 76 for 284. Defending champion Lee Trevino, who finished five days out of a hospital, bank and he took encouragement.

"I thought I had a chance," Palmer, 42, who hasn't won a major crown since the 1964 Masters, said. "Then I missed an eight-foot putt at the 14th. That, for me, made the difference."

"I made too many mistakes, especially in driving. I missed a hole-in-one, and spent six inches on the back nine which in the earlier rounds I had played perfectly."

Nicklaus hit his climactic shot on the hazard-pocked, 218-yard 17th.

The ball cut through the air, hit the pin, almost dropping for a hole-in-one, and spun six inches away. Nicklaus had only five inches to putt for a birdie that slammed the door. He played the picturesque, 540-yard 18th casually, three-putting for a bogey to still win by three shots.

There Nicklaus took a double bogey six and suddenly it appeared that a battle might be in the making on the treacherous finishing holes.

"I was hit by a gust of wind on the backswing," Jack said. "I came off the ball and sliced onto the beach where I had an unplayable lie. I hit my third into the bunker, chopped out to within ten feet and missed the putt."

Palmer said he realized that Nicklaus had gone over the

Vida Blue Gains First Victory

Watching Blue operate was certainly no charge for the slumping Indians, who've now lost 12 of their last 23 games.

Mike Epstein's ninth homer of the year and George Hendrick's No. 3 helped the A's build a 3-0 lead in the first five innings. There were two out in the sixth when the roof fell in on Cleveland.

Larry Brown walked and Blue followed with an infield hit. An error by Graig Nettles scored one run and Joe Rudi's hit brought home another. After a walk to Reggie Jackson loaded the bases, Sal Bando doubled for the Twins took the early lead. Jim Perry, 6-5, was working on a two-hitter and coasting when he waded Johnny Quesada in the eighth. Boog Powell singled him to third and then Brooks Robinson greeted Granger with a double, making it 4-2.

Terry Crowley followed with a single that scored one run but the Twins cut Crowley down trying to stretch his hit and then Granger bailed out of the jam by getting Dave Johnson on a fly ball.

Second place went to Benny Parsons in a Mercury, third to Donnie Allison in an American Motors Matador, fourth to James Hylton in a Ford and fifth to Carl Joiner in a Chevrolet.

Another Californian, George Follmer of Arcadia, also got a message across: He's going to be tough to derail in a headlong dash toward the championship in the Sports Car Club of America's Trans-Am auto racing series for small sports sedans.

George Scott scored two of the nine starts was the best win-loss record of any pro driver in the U.S. last year, drove a Javelin to victory in the Trans-Am half of a doubleheader at Watkins Glen, N.Y. and third to another Italian, Nanni Galli.

The combination of Blue on the mound and free admissions to anyone wearing a Mustang, lured 33,277 fans to the ballpark in Oakland. More than 7,000 of them showed up with hair under their noses and were ushered in to watch Blue operate for no charge.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, Chicago rallied to beat Milwaukee 4-3. Minnesota edged Baltimore 4-3 and Detroit shut out California 5-0. Texas' game at New York was rained out.

His Toughest Open Says Arnie Palmer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Arnie Palmer called it the toughest Open I've played in.

And his third personal finish Sunday added to a record of frustration that includes four runner-up spots since winning the U. S. Open in 1960 for the only time.

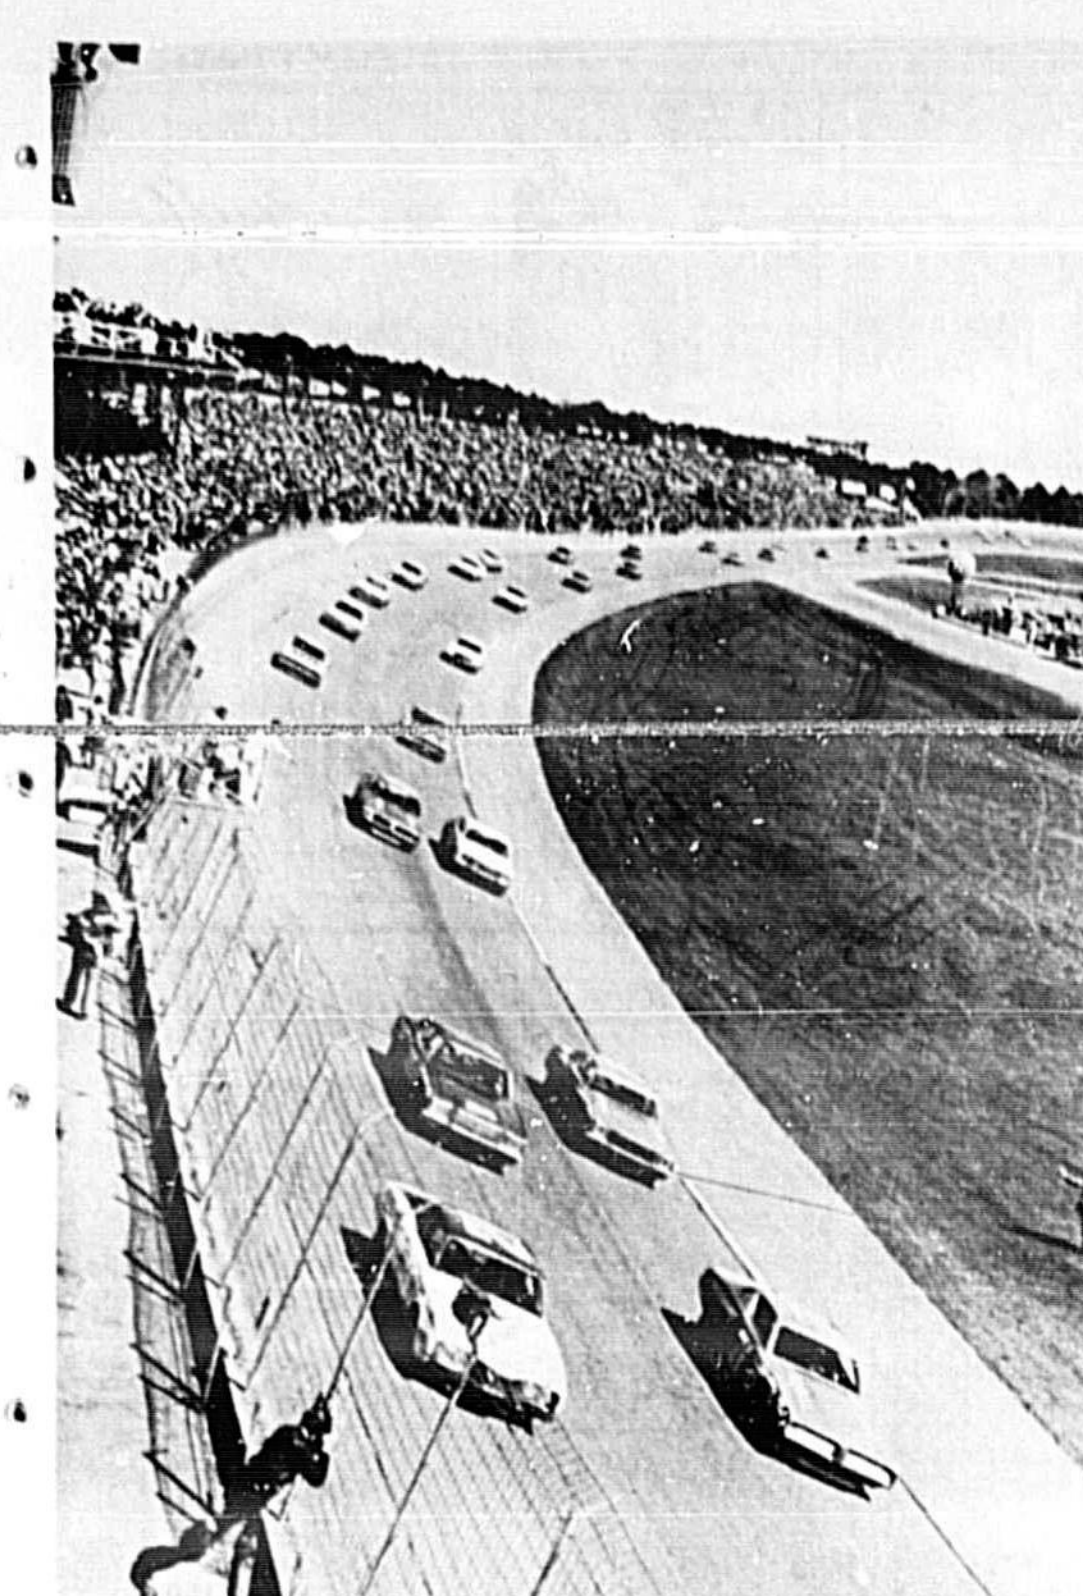

The 42-year-old Palmer was briefly tied for the lead in Sunday's final round of the 72nd Open, after holing a 30-foot birdie putt on the third hole of the windup Pebble Beach course and generating cries of "Charge!" from his Army of Fans.

But there were two earlier birdie putts that stopped within inches of the cup. A last chance to draw even with Jack Nicklaus, who was on his way to victory, tricked to a stop a few

Elder Shows Top Form On California Track

By BLOYD BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
Ray Elder is finally getting his message across to the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing's top stars from Dixie. There is still some gold in California but it belongs to me."

Elder, the racing farmer from Carruthers, Calif., beat the big name from NASCAR's elite Grand National circuit for the second year in a row Sunday, driving his Dodge to an impressive victory in the Golden State 400 at Riverside.

The 240-pound, 6-2 Elder, currently well out in front in defense of the Grand National West title he won last year, was paid $11,428 from the $50,000 purse.

Second place went to Benny Parsons in a Mercury, third to Donnie Allison in an American Motors Matador, fourth to James Hylton in a Ford and fifth to Carl Joiner in a Chevrolet.

Bobby Allison First To Enter '400'

DAYTONA BEACH (AP)—Bobby Allison, the first to enter the Firecracker 400 at Daytona International Speedway Sunday.

The Daytona, Ala., athlete who finished second in last weekend's World 600, will be in the popular Coca Cola Grand National Driver list season maintained by legendary Junior Johnson of Blount, Ala. Allison rekindled the hopes of thousands of Chevrolet fans when he won the Atlanta 500 earlier this year.

Allison will be among the favorites when the pole position is set for Sunday.

The special 250-mile for NASCAR's Grand American drivers over Daytona's 1.81-mile international road course will get the traditional midnight start, July 1.

The fastest 40 Grand National drivers will get the starting line in the Firecracker event at ten a.m. July Fourth morning. Stock car racing fans who are using the upcoming July Fourth holiday season to enjoy a camping vacation will be in for special treatment during the Firecracker 400.

Speedway officials, influenced by the rapidly increasing number of campers among the crowds for major stock car races, have established a "Campers Only" parking area in the West Parking Lot of the speedway adjacent to the first and second grandstands.

They 400 offer four different times last year and wound up finishing in the same lap with winner Bobby Isaac but back in fifth place. He centered in his Atlanta victory by leading A. J. Foyt and Isaac across the finish line with both of them trailing in the same lap.

Allison was named NASCAR's Most Popular Grand National Driver last season after a remarkable campaign that saw him score seven super-speedway victories and win more than $200,000.

Allison led the Independence dashes for the holiday 100-mile Daytona's high-banked 2.5-mile layout Saturday, July 1st. The pole winner in the Winston Cup scramble will take home $1,000 and the second fastest qualifier will win $500.

'Monkey business' not deductible

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A friend and I have been sharing a mistake for the last year. It's been a good arrangement for both of us. We pay all the expenses and give spending money.
The cost is about $400 a month from each of us. We are both salesmen and we save on hotel and meals.

The problem: She wants to report this for income tax. It comes to $1,500 per year, and we will have to give her extra money to pay it. We are both on salary and pay the full rate and can't deduct her or any of our expenses as they are paid in cash and we have no receipts. Besides, our wives would find out.

HONEST TAXPAYER

DEAR HONEST: Since you travel for business, you'd be able to stay in hotels and eat out. Business expenses are deductible. Do NOT monkey business.

DEAR ABBY: A mailman offered the following information in your column: "If someone receives something thru the mail which he did not order and does not want, all he has to do is write, 'Refused,' return the package and drop it in the mail. If he has opened it, he should simply take it apart, and return it in the aforementioned manner."

This is only partially correct. Anything sent by the mail which has been opened by the addressee cannot be returned into the mail without being properly re-addressed and new postage affixed.

Please correct that mailman's original statement. He should have known better. INFORMED IN PHOENIX

DEAR INFORMED: I should have, too. But it's been a long time since I've played "post office."

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem which I have been unable to solve, and I'm hoping you can help me.

The September before last I loaned one of my precious books to a member of our social group. Three members of our group had read it and returned it, but this person refuses to return it to me. I have asked her no less than a dozen times.

The last time I asked her for it, she said, "Oh, do I still have that book?" I'd have to look around and see if I can find it. That was six months ago and I haven't heard a word since.

What can I do, Abby? I really want that book!

DEAR BURNING: It's a burning in ALBURN, ILL.
(a) misplaced it; (b) let someone else read it, and she can't remember who; (c) just plain lost it.

You could call on her and offer to wait until she locates the book. And if she fails, you will have learned a valuable lesson. Precious books are not for lending.

will be questioned today until such details thereof are maintaining a smile and cooperative attitude does it seem possible to steer clear of some pretty difficult situations.
However, the evening finds much better influences at work and you can get by with support.

with partners today, you certainly can get yourself into a peck of trouble. Avert the evening before asking favors, etc.
Show your points and serious fans with overtones only.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Try not to argue with fellow workers today and endeavor to work alone as much as you can. Show good friends how much you like them in p.m. and establish a happy rapport. Make better plans for the future.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Although having fun is your mind, it is best you handle all those important duties ahead of you first and then tonight to go-go. Show you are businesslike in your dealings with others. Forget the personal.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Push through whatever promises you have made to others and gain their respect and goodwill. Soft-pedal that personal aim. Do some entertaining at home that is worthwhile.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) The daytime is best for business affairs during the approaching week. Listen to what a high executive says to you. Get out of the town later on in the day.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You waver between impetuosity and fear today, and the healthy medium that gives you right action and helps you reach decisions. Think over responsibilities in a wise way. Avoid going off on tangents.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you try to force others to your way of thinking, you can get into much trouble and lose out on potential benefits possible otherwise. Evening is fine for the social. Make sure you put a curb on your temper.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Evening is best time to get right results both in business and where romance is concerned, so take it easy during the day. Keep busy at easy routine work during the day. Show you are dynamic in p.m.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) The evening is best for asking favors of others and getting them to join in some fine plan you have in mind. Get busy with detailed work during the day and it will be behind you. Avoid one who is testy.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Doing anything risky during day could lower your respect within your community, so take care and stay on the safe side. Listen to what a high executive says to you. Get out of the town later on in the day.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Those new ideas you have require more study especially where details thereof are concerned, so get busy at that early. Prepare well for am-pity you want to take in the near future. Figure cost well, too.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Figure what you really owe others which should be paid right away, and then make the payments and keep credit good. Forget your day hunches, since they are apt to be wrong. They work fine tonight, though.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those fortunate young people who will be most charming and likeable and will gain the favor of others easily by the simple expedient of a smile, but is apt to be a fustiguer if you do not teach early to show consideration for others. A good chart for whatever work requires cooperating with others a good deal, since your youngster is

WORRY CLINIC By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.

Mary's pregnancy problem should be debated by her mother and father. Mary would like to have a baby for adoption. Her mother would like to have a baby for adoption. Her father would like to have a baby for adoption.

case U-513: Mary L., aged 17, is pregnant. The father is unknown. Mary would like to have a baby for adoption. Her mother would like to have a baby for adoption. Her father would like to have a baby for adoption.

My parents want me to let it be adopted. But my best girl friends think it would be wonderful for me to keep it. I got pregnant at a school party where a lot of drinking went on. So I don't know for sure who the father is.

ADOPTION DILEMMA The proper rule to follow is this: 1) Mary, who needs to go back to high school for her senior year.

2) Her parents, who would be forced to assume most of the care and financial support of the child. 3) Its future adoption.

Religion Growing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — They don't often let the Nielsen people list, but there are more than 75 different religious series in syndication on television stations across the nation, plus uncounted numbers of purely local programs.

Navy Reunion Benefits Seminoles Zoo Society

The third annual NAS Sanford reunion, sponsored by the Fleet Reserve Association of Seminole County, will feature an auction at 3 p. m. Saturday for the benefit of the Seminole Zoological Society.

World Wildlife Fund signs for agreement

The World Wildlife Fund has signed an agreement with the Seminole Zoological Society to support the building fund for the zoo. The agreement includes provisions for the purchase of land and the construction of a 2,000 square foot garage, an 800 square foot office building, and a 400 square foot parking lot.

SKATING CONTEST winners at Sanford Recreation Department's summer playground at the Civic Center include: younger girls—Mary Ann Crouse, first; Donna Hunter, second; older girls—Theresa Piery, first; Angela Jones, second; and Cathy Picone, third; boys—Cary Keefe, first; Tico Perez, second; and Wayne Smith, third.

Groceries Turn To 24 Hours

By MICHAEL J. SNIFFEN Associated Press Writer It's getting easier to buy groceries at 3 a.m. in the United States, but harder to fill a prescription, buy a tank of gasoline, or go out for a meal in the early hours.

A rising tide of supermarkets have switched in the past months from 8 a.m. to 24-hour operation, bucking a trend among other consumer facilities that urge consumers to remain open late.

At 5 a.m., the baby still is not yet under the constant veiled curse of having an illegitimate child to complicate a future marriage.

Bluntly stated, the good of the baby warrants its adoption at the time of its birth. Otherwise, Mary will be hampered in making a good adjustment to life, for she would probably stop her education.

Even if she did find a man who was willing to put a wedding ring on her finger, there might be veiled hostility to this baby in his home. And her parents, though they would love and care for this grandchild, would doubtless spoil it even worse than they did Mary.

Nursing Services At Home Studied

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI
The Visiting Nurse Council provides the only home nursing program available to all residents of Seminole County, and no one is denied this service because of economic status, stated Curtis Nelson, president of the Seminole County Public Health Nursing Advisory Council.
According to Nelson, the financial status of the Council is critical at this time. Medicare covered services are steadily decreasing and the request for free or part pay services continues.
The professional nursing staff includes one full-time and one half-time nurse which allows for no time off, even on weekends. The agency is certified to provide services for patients covered by Medicare and Medicaid benefits. Additional income is derived from self-pay patients, United Fund and occasional contributions.

Nelson said that Medicare covered services are steadily decreasing since their policy was redefined to cover only skilled nursing care and including all care of a custodial nature.
Studies of visiting nurses associations shows on a national average approximately 25 percent of funds come from community resources. The State of Florida has seven independent visiting nurse agencies and all are reported to have good financial support from the community. Other VNA services in the State are

Biggest Problem A Way Of Getting Around

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI
Transportation would seem to be the single biggest problem among senior citizens and disadvantaged groups in Seminole County.
At a forum held at the Sanford Civic Center recently, sponsored by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, Seminole Junior College, and the Advisory Council on Aging, the one question which kept coming before the group was concerned with transportation.
William Gordon of Seminole County Commission is the local office of the American Red Cross. Mrs. Beth Henson is in charge of that office, which is open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. five days a week. An after hours telephone is listed in the telephone book.
The Seminole County Commissioners, under the leadership of Commissioner Chairman Greg Drummond, is making concerted efforts to get this transportation problem solved.

Criminologist Finds Death Record Unavailable

By MARILYN GORDON
Dr. Charles Unkovic, chairman of the sociology department at Florida Technological University and noted criminologist, revealed in a report of his findings in researching the number of jail deaths in the state that he found no central record keeping agency where such information is readily available.
In view of the recent jail deaths in Central Florida his findings are timely.
With the assistance of Mrs. Joyce Lacy, the professor first called the FBI.
They did not know and suggested he call the state attorney's office. The state attorney did not have any such information and suggested he contact the county medical examiner. The "secretary was nice" but said she did not know if he had the information or if he could give it out, but she would contact the county medical examiner.
The Orlando police department said they had two deaths in city jails in the current year. They are checking records for last year but have not called back. The warden of the city prison system said there were no deaths last year except for a guard, who had a heart attack.
The state jail inspector stated he has 13 counties and state prisons and that there are four other inspectors like him. He had no deaths last year to investigate in his area, but referred the assistant to Gene Jenkins of Division of Corrections in Tallahassee. Jenkins stated he did not have records at his fingertips except (Cont'd On Pg. 2A Col. 1)

5.5% Salary Hike Approved By City

By DONNA ESTES
A 5.5 per cent increase in salaries for city employees in the new fiscal year should be included in the budget currently being made up by the city manager, the Sanford City Commission agreed Monday night. This, however, does not mean, it was emphasized, that a 5.5 per cent pay hike across the board can be expected by all city personnel.

In arriving at the percentage, City Manager W. E. Knowles told the commissioners that is the amount which may be increased without going before the federal pay board. He also pointed out another 1.5 per cent increase is permitted for additional fringe benefits.
Commissioner Julian Stenstrom made it clear he will not this year approve across the board hikes as done last year when raises ran from a low of $8.64 monthly to as much as a $1,000 annually. He indicated his preference for merit type pay raises.
Commissioner A. A. McClanahan, at the same time, noted the city is losing some employees as fast as they can be trained, due to salary. Meanwhile, Commissioner John Morris questioned whether a valuable employee might not be promoted in pay grade to effect double jumps in salary. Knowles said the actual job responsibilities under such a method must change and not just the job title.
Mayor Lee Moore reminded that increases, if not uniform, will "open a can of worms" and lead employees to believe the hikes are unfair.

As far as raising pay at the lower end of the job scale, laborers, is concerned, Knowles said laborers in the city currently are earning more than truck drivers although drivers are responsible for valuable equipment. He said it sounds good to start major pay raises at the bottom of the scale, but the gap between laborers and supervisors has closed to the point where it is no longer worthwhile to be a supervisor.
The manager said the budget is all set and printed except for the salaries' estimates.

School Cooling Estimate High

The cost of air conditioning the 22 school plants in the county, not presently air conditioned, will cost $5 million, depending on whether Seminole County wishes to go the "el cheapo" route or "first class."
The architect said the Board can consider "el cheapo" method, which would cost about $500 per ton, or "first class" which will run about $1,200 to $1,500 per ton. Maintenance costs will be about the same with either method. However, under "el cheapo" after two years of installation, these units "will be junk," he declared.
Kelley added the "el cheapo" will have to be oversized because their capacities are beneath advertised rates of cooling.
An associate of Kelley said the less expensive units will have to be replaced two times during the life expectancy of the higher priced system.
The plant, which would cost the most to air condition, the architect said, would be Seminole High School at $47,000. For 30,970 square feet of classroom space would cost $274,500 and for 32,054 square feet would cost another $282,500.
"We do not believe these figures," Kelley said, insisting Seminole High is an important plant to be air conditioned.
Board member Ray Slaton, adding up the costs presented by Kelley, gave his opinion, "I do not think we can afford $5-15 million when the architect said the sums can be refined up to 30 per cent, Slaton said, "That is $3.5 million, where are we going to get it?"
Kelley said $5-15 can be structured in such a way that some school plants can be used and not others. "You are not saying to close some of the schools, are you?" Slaton exploded. "No, sir," was Kelley's reply.
Instating he will recommend commission on the work be given to the original architects of the school, Kelley said, "I won't blow the budget."
Refined figures for Seminole High, Altamonte Elementary and Milwee Schools are to be worked up by the architect and presented to the Board at its June 28 meeting in Oviedo.

Casselberry Pledges Tax For Utility

By KATHY NIBLACK
CASSELLBERRY — City Council approved 4-1 last night the authorization to pledge the city's utility tax in the negotiations for the CASSELLBERRY system. Dr. John Zacco voted against the matter.
Council Chairman Edith Duerr reported to the council that the city's bond counsel had suggested that this step be taken. The city will have to sell bonds to acquire the system, but the utility tax funds may be needed in addition. According to the city's fiscal agent and engineers, these funds probably will not be used but their existence in pledge is needed, according to City Manager Ronald Bergman, "to alleviate the fears of potential bond buyers."
Dr. Zacco, in opposing the pledge of the utility tax, said "We've been bookended for the past four months on this utility matter. It's time we stand up and be counted. There is no need to pledge the utility tax." Councilman Harry Sambrook disagreed with Zacco, as did the three other members of the council, who he said, "If we don't trust our fiscal agent, if we don't trust our engineer — we're in big trouble. We've had enough roadblocks without creating them ourselves."
In other action at last night's regular meeting, council delayed for three weeks action on a law suit against the County Commission in regard to road and bridge funds.
The suggestion of the suit was a surprise move on the part of chairman Duerr, who pointed to (Cont'd On Pg. 2A Col. 1)

Thieves Are Busy In Area

Several thefts have been reported to the sheriff's department, including two involving missing guns. James Barrett reported a .22 caliber long rifle automatic pistol taken from his boat on Meck Creek just off the Wekiva Marine. The gun was valued at $55.
Rev. Haywood Richardson, 2729 Bungalow Boulevard, said his home A carburetor, fuelpump, voltage regulator, distributor cap and front windshield are missing from a 1963 Volkswagen. The engine parts are from a 1972 engine. Both vehicles and the clutch cable were taken off a 1968 Honda motorcycle, according to Deputy L. R. Ford. Ford also reported damage to the speedometer and tachometer on the motorcycle.
Smith's Cabinet Shop, on SR 436 at Montgomery Road, was entered over the weekend and several items taken. Missing are: A Sears vibrator sander ($45), a Sears belt sander ($29), an electric screwdriver, drill with chuck ($2), a Black and Decker electric drill ($9), a jig saw ($10), two Yankee screwdrivers ($4) and a General Electric clock radio ($25).
William L. Dunnenburger, of Orlando, told authorities some one stole his boat trailer left at the lake Moore boat ramp.
Larry Reiser, 1129 Tuskawilla Road, Winter Springs, told deputies someone stole $25-30 from a wallet at his home.
Someone stole an 183 YMC Sport Brand Multiplex off the shelf at Don's Enco Service Station in Fern Park while the attendant was in the back. (Cont'd On Pg. 2A Col. 1)

City Zoning Maps Will Be Available

The Sanford Planning and Zoning Commission voted to recommend re-zoning to R-3, multiple family, 26 acres of land north of Lake Mary Boulevard and east of the SCL Railroad.
This opens the way for the firm of Jackson-Nicholson to continue with its plans to build a garden type apartment complex on the property which is now under development. The commission recommended that the construction be limited to 12 to 13 units per acre.
A representative of the developers spoke in behalf of the zoning change, mentioning that the firm already has received FHA-VA approval.
In other actions taken at this meeting, the commission voted to recommend the annexation of property in the Silver Lake section with a stipulation that it remain single residence zoning.

another city.
The first hour of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of the new proposed zoning map area delineations with City Planner Gerald Jake.
Following this lengthy business, Duke stated that the maps will be ready within a week and the new zoning ordinances will come up for a public hearing in about 10 days.
A request for rezoning the property at 305 East Third Street to C-2, general commercial, was denied as other property in this neighborhood is all R-3, one-and two-family residential and this would constitute "spot zoning."
Mobile home zoning use and proposed regulations were brought up but action on this was delayed until next meeting, pending further study.
