Escapee Wounded; Hostage Is Freed

DADE CITY, Fla. (AP) — A hostage was freed unharmed and a prison camp escapee was shot and captured after leading scores of law enforcement officers on a four-county high speed chase Thanksgiving night, police said. Florida Highway Patrol Trooper J. W. Johnson shot Joseph Severino, 26, once in the shoulder after ramming his patrol car into the escapee's auto as he tried to drive onto State Road 484 from Interstate 75, authorities said. Jerry Claude Sanford, 31, of Zephyrhills, whom troopers said had been taken hostage at gunpoint about 9:30 p.m. when Severino burst into his home, wasn't injured in the chase along I-75 through Pasco, Sumter, Lake and Marion counties.

Authorities said Johnson shot Severino as the escapee held a gun to Sanford's head. Severino was treated at an Ocala hospital and then taken to the Pasco County Jail here shortly after midnight, Marion County deputies said. All sheriff's offices involved in the incident refused to comment on the chase and subsequent capture. However, FHP troopers said Severino, of Massachusetts, had escaped from the Pasco County prison camp near Dade City five weeks ago.

Thursday night he was spotted in Zephyrhills by law officers, but managed to elude them. Troopers said he then apparently drove an auto stolen earlier from the Zephyrhills Airport to Sanford's home, some two miles away. Sanford, his wife and children, were gathered in the living room watching television when Severino burst in, troopers said, and demanded Sanford accompany him in the family's auto.

When the pair left the house, officers said Mrs. Sanford notified police. The chase, often at speeds approaching 100 miles an hour, included several exchanges of shots, troopers said.

Charges were expected to be filed against Severino later today. He had been serving time in the Pasco County Prison following his conviction on breaking and entering with intent to commit rape, authorities said.

Security Conference Meets In Helsinki

HELSINKI (AP) — The United States said today it would accept unanimous voting on all issues at the preparatory meeting of 34 countries for a conference on security and co-operation in Europe.

Ambassador Val Peterson, head of the U.S. delegation, spoke at the second working meeting of the delegates. A paraphrase of his statement was given to reporters. U.S. sources said he would also accept a French proposal that would permit majority voting, at least on issues of procedure. The French want a majority vote only when all delegations are willing to have it on a given issue.

Peterson described the unanimous voting system as a "consensus," under which a single objection would equal a veto. All 34 countries would have to be present for a decision to be valid.

Romanian delegate Valentin Lipatti insisted Thursday, with support from Switzerland, that unanimity be required to protect the rights of small countries.

Dade County Schools Offer Yoga

MIAMI (AP) — The Dade County School Board pays $35 per pupil so 20 teen-agers at Miami Springs High School can relax with their eyes closed. They're learning "transcendental meditation," a subject school officials hope will help prevent drug abuse. The pupils — juniors and seniors — meet five mornings a week under the leadership of Donald Davis and Timothy Jones, two disciples of India's Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. The Maharishi popped into prominence a few years ago when he became the spiritual advisor to The Beatles and Mia Farrow. Hy Holstein, head of health education for the school system, said the meditation program was tried as an experiment. "We read several journals which gave it pretty high marks in terms of drug prevention," he said. Dr. Herbert Benson of the Harvard Medical School reported that 95 per cent of the drug users he interviewed said they stopped using drugs after they began practicing "transcendental meditation," Holstein said. The students — none of whom school officials said are known to be drug users — are taught to concentrate on repeating a "mantra" — a "vibrant or word chant" — for 20 minutes twice each day. Davis and Jones said each student is given his own syllable, which is kept secret. One mantra used that has become famous is the "om" sound popularized by poet Allen Ginsberg. With proper instruction in concentrating on a well-chosen mantra, the meditator can achieve a quiet, completely relaxed but wakeful state of mind which improves mental and physical health, Davis and Jones claim. Ralph Sanders, one of the students taking the course, describes the meditative state as "deeper than sleep, but more fulfilling. It removes more of the tension and stress than sleep," he said. Holstein is skeptical of the claims that meditation has any marked physiological effect. Total cost of the program paid out of the school board's antidrug funds is $950 for one term, including $35 for each pupil and a $50 instructor's fee.

HUGE FIRE IN LAKE COUNTY

Flames destroyed the Thriftway Food Market in Umatilla yesterday morning. Firemen from the Umatilla Volunteer Fire Department responded to the blaze at 4:45 a.m. and the fire departments at Eustis and Mt. Dora also dispatched men and equipment to the scene. Firemen are shown fighting the fire (above) and sifting through the remains (below). Cause of the fire is still unknown and an investigation is underway.

Drug Defendants Come Before Judge

BY MARION BETHEA
Four of the defendants seized in an Aug. 17 raid by vice agents, burglary detectives and uniformed officers representing Orange and Seminole County Sheriff's Departments and Longwood and Sanford Police Departments, face trial in criminal court proceedings beginning on Monday before Circuit Judge Richard Muldrew. The defendants include Roy Gary Brewer, Frederick Weaver, William Shell and Dawn Elms, charged with a two count information of possession of cannabis sativa L. and Possession of narcotic paraphernalia. Brewer is represented by Charles Cullom, Weaver by Assistant Public Defender Gerald Rutledge and Shell and Miss Elms by Michael Sigman. Prosecuting for the state in all of next week's cases is Assistant State Attorney Claude Van Hook IV. The combined agents swept down upon a residential area of Oakland Hills subdivision arresting the persons and seizing 30 pounds of marijuana. The agents also found two pounds of seeds, 140 marijuana plants and seized two vehicles, confiscated stereo equipment and four weapons, including two shotguns, a rifle and an automatic pistol. The agents also found miscellaneous pills which were taken from the residence at 2109 Oakland Drive. Weaver, 25 and Brewer, 21, listed their address as 808 Palm Drive, Orlando and Miss Elms, 18, as 2625 Trailwood Drive. The agents began the raid at 11:10 p.m., and the effort was headed by sheriff's department vice squad leader Raymond Parker, who had to forcefully kick down the door of the residence to gain entry. Parker said some of the marijuana confiscated was apparently Jamaican, but some was "home grown grass." Pills were not identified at the time, but were dispatched to the Region IV crime lab. Of the 12 cases listed upon the docket to be tried in Courtroom B, seven deal with drug related offenses. These include William Svoboda, charged with possession of a narcotic drug; Joseph Karwacki, charged with possession of cannabis; Wayne Kirkland, charged with a two count information of possession and sale of a prohibited drug; Paul Donat, charged with possession of cannabis; Roy Clanton Jr., charged with possession of cannabis sativa L. and Michelle Svoboda, charged with possession of a narcotic drug. Other defendants docketed during the trial week and offenses with which they are charged included Luther Harper, a two count information of assault with intent to commit second degree murder and use of a firearm in connection with the assault. (Cont'd on P.5A, Col. 1)

Drug Charges Bring Four Arrests

By GARY TAYLOR
Four people were arrested on possession of marijuana charges in three separate incidents last night and early this morning. Two of the arrests came after cars were stopped for traffic offenses. Trooper T. R. (Terry) McIntrye arrested Kenneth Marshall Clay, 20, and Michael Evans Hillier, 18, both of Orlando, and charged them both with possession of marijuana and possession of narcotic paraphernalia. Bond was set at $5,000 each.

County Accepts School

By BILL SCOTT
Seminole County School Board has accepted the recommendation of an inspection committee to accept the new Redbug Elementary School, subject to the completion of the punch list, by the contractor. The action followed the inspection of the new K-3 facility Wednesday by the School Board committee composed of Jean Goodman, 23, of 262 Bamboo Drive, Sanford, was placed in the county jail under $2,300 bond. A security guard at Hidden Estates, now under development, reported three pumps worth $2,500 and $500 worth of miscellaneous equipment missing from the construction site. Det. Robert Kunkler is investigating. Kunkler is also investigating a break-in at the Golden Green residence, 1837 Poinsettiana Road, Winterwoods. Entry was gained by cutting a porch screen and forcing the lock on a patio glass sliding door. Apparently nothing was taken, according to Kunkler. Karen L. Black, Orlando, reported her purse missing from a service station on SR 426. The purse contained personal papers, credit cards and about $120 cash.

Patrolman Bob McDonald of the Longwood Police Department stopped a car for loud mufflers and arrested the driver for possession of marijuana, invalid inspection sticker and improper driver's license. Herbert Barton Goodman, 23, of 262 Bamboo Drive, Sanford, was placed in the county jail under $2,300 bond. The marijuana, approximately five ounces, was discovered during a search of the car. McDonald noticed two guns in the car and called in officer Jim Pleicoms to assist in the search of the car. The marijuana was found in a white plastic bag, inside a paper sack, under the front seat of the car. Street value of the grass was estimated at $100. A security guard at Hidden Estates, now under development, reported three pumps worth $2,500 and $500 worth of miscellaneous equipment missing from the construction site. Det. Robert Kunkler is investigating. Kunkler is also investigating a break-in at the Golden Green residence, 1837 Poinsettiana Road, Winterwoods. Pastor's Corner They Paid The Price

By REV. FRED L. NEAL, Congregational Christian Church

The following words are inscribed by Plymouth Rock Monument, Massachusetts: "This monument marks the first burying ground in Plymouth of the passengers of the Mayflower. Here, under the cover of darkness, the fast dwindling company laid their dead, leveling the ground above them lest the Indians should learn how many were the graves. History records no nobler venture for faith and freedom than this Pilgrim band. In weariness and painfulness, in watching often in hunger and cold, they laid the foundation of a state wherein every man throughout countless ages should have liberty to worship God in his own way. May their lofty example inspire thee to do thy part in perpetuating and spreading the lofty ideals of our republic throughout the world."

The pilgrim dream is best expressed in the Mayflower Compact. The Mayflower Compact was the first plan for self-government ever put in force in America. The early framers of the Constitution of the United States of America used the Mayflower Compact as a reference in drawing up the constitution which grants to you and I the priceless gifts of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Believing that we owe a debt of gratitude to those fearless pilgrims that loved freedom to the extent that they were willing to suffer as few others in history has suffered I want to share with you today the wording of the Mayflower Compact. I recommend that you read it for spiritual exercise and I pray that you may come to realize that freedom is fragile and must be handled with care.

The original Mayflower Compact has disappeared. The version that I want to share with you follows the spelling and punctuation given in the manuscript history of Plymouth Plantation, by William Bradford, second governor of Plymouth colony. "In ye name of God Amen. We whose names are underwritten, the loyal subjects of our dread sovereign Lord King James, by ye grace of God, of Great Brittain, France, and Ireland king, defender of ye faith, &c. Having undertaken, for ye glory of God, and advancements of ye Christian faith and honour of our king & contry, a voyage to plant ye first colonies in ye Northern parts of Virginia, doe by these presents solemnly & mutually in ye presence of God, and one of another, covenant & combine ourselves together into a Civil body politic, for our better ordering, & preservation & furtherance of ye ends aforesaid; and by vertue hereof to enact, constitute, and frame such just & equal laws, ordinances, acts, constitutions, & offices, from time to time, as shall be thought most meete & convenient for ye general good of ye colony; unto which we promise all due submission and obedience. In witness whereof we have hereunder subscribed our names at Cap Codd ye 11-- of November, in ye raigne of our sovereign Lord King James of England, France, & Ireland ye eighteenth, and of Scotland ye fiftie fourth. Anno Dom. 1620."

Yesterday was Thanksgiving Day, but it is still not too late to thank God for the heroic pilgrim band and their priceless legacy of liberty.

Missionary Is Commissioned

Rev. Michael Brondos was commissioned as a missionary to Australia on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at the convention of the SELC which was held at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Slavia. Rev. Brondos was called to serve the needs of the Slovak Lutherans who emigrated to Australia from Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia during the past ten years. Presently these Slovak immigrants are arriving in the Melbourne area at the rate of 25 families per month. Weekly reading of worship services are being conducted under the leadership of dedicated Slovak laymen. Responding to this need the Mission Board of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod extended a call to the Rev. Michael Brondos. Rev. Brondos is a native of Czechoslovakia and came to the United States at the early age of two years.

Baptists Emphasize Missions

Winter Park, First Baptist Church, is planning a first annual World Missions Conference for the weekend following Thanksgiving, Nov. 26 through 30. The church is experimenting with a Church-wide Missions program in an effort to involve the men and women in the Mission Outreach. The conference is designed to develop a mission-consciousness in the congregation by first-hand contact with many of our missionaries on turlough. Every service this Sunday, including each Adult and Youth Sunday School Department, will be addressed by a Home or Foreign Missionary. The Monday through Thursday services will be a noon business luncheon addressed by a missionary for 30 minutes and an evening service at 7:30 p.m. The other churches of the Wekiva Association have been invited to attend. Included in the roster of missionary speakers are Dennis Elliott (Thailand), Calvin and Harriett Parker (Japan), Dottsion and Betty Mills (Jamaica), Cling and Delores Kimbrough (Brazil), Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hellinger (India), Mrs. Joseph Pipkin (Africa), Mary Brothers (Africa), Lloyd N. Whyte (Interfaith Mission), Jack Mabry (Stetson Campus Minister), Rev. Jack R. Smith (Home Mission - New Churches).

Is Move By Women Going Too Far?

By GEORGE W. CORNELL, AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The leader of Mormon women, whose pioneer forebears threw themselves wholeheartedly into the struggle that early in this century won women the right to vote, says the modern extension of that movement sometimes goes too far.

"Anything that gets out of control becomes a hazard, whether it's fire, flood or women's lib," says Belle S. Spafford, president of the worldwide women's auxiliary of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. "But if properly controlled, these things mean power for us. We've reached the point in women's liberation where we need to look at ourselves objectively and see what we can do that's reasonable. We need a steady hand."

Asked if it wasn't somewhat paradoxical for the leader of a heritage that took such a vigorous part in the women's suffrage movement to have misgivings about its present-day counterpart, the Salt Lake City resident said in an interview: "Any good movement can become distorted. You can abuse any privilege and freedom can become license. That's not good."

It has taken a "long pull" for women to gain their just status, Mrs. Spafford said, adding that much of the continued effort for women's rights is good, including the insistence on equal pay for equal work. She said women also should have equal opportunities for top positions in government, industry and education if they are qualified and they're free from other responsibilities. "But the primary role of women is in the home and family," she added, a conditional note she cited often. "Men still need wives to welcome them home at the end of the day. Children still need a good mother to be kind to their little troubles. Women should provide a place of refuge where the husband and children can return from a busy, confused and complex world."

She offered this keynote advice to women — "be controlled" — in appetites, wants, temper, possessions, viewpoints and action. "A woman should be the living conscience of her contemporaries. There should be a feminine spiritual quality about women."

At Winter Springs Zoning Changes OK'd

By MARION BETHEA

WINTER SPRINGS — Several recommendations were presented to City Council from the city's Planning and Zoning Board, and a question in action in one proposal precipitated a comment from Councilman Herbert Fox that in the future, documents should be kept together as a unit and that each developer should submit, prior to development, a master plan. This should be retained by the Zoning Board, Fox said, commenting that he has suggested this action for two months. All documents relative to zoning and zoning, he said, should be fastened together thus "keeping a running record of developments."

The first proposal from the board was relative to North Orlando Terraces section eight, unit two, which is located between Gee Creek and the power easement. John Hall, representing Florida Land Company, requested that council approve the plans of the development, which he said, is a continuation of the "Terraces." Engineering, sewage and water had already received the approval of the city engineer, Hall said.

However, City Attorney Thomas Freeman reminded council that before the County Commission approves a plan, the board requests approval of the county engineer. "How," Freeman queried, "can you determine the legal description unless there is the engineer's approval, but said that if he recalled correctly City Engineer B. C. Conklin had requested that plans not be submitted to him. Freeman reminded council that when such matters come before the city's zoning board there is a check list to be considered. Councilman Victor Miller moved for tabling of the matter until council receives a letter from Conklin.

However, Mayor Granville Brown queried that should it be found that Conklin had given approval, would council take action and give him the authority to sign the plans. The mayor said he was of the opinion that Conklin had granted approval, but a subsequent search of the records by Howard Allard disclosed nothing in the files to indicate such was the case and the matter was then tabled.

In an about face, Fox commented that should the mayor be able to produce the engineer's approval the plan should be approved and again, Mayor Brown said "it is in the back of my mind that Conklin approved the plans."

A motion followed to approve the plans subject to approval by the city engineer, with the previous motions being withdrawn. Another request by Warren Williams for annexation of 300 feet of lot 56 lying north of Wagner Road received the approval of council, with Freeman being instructed to draft the necessary documents. Williams also requested and was granted C-1 zoning for an area of his concern known as Development Enterprises. The developer said plans are to a house located on Sr 434 as a sales office. Fox queried Williams upon future plans by his concern, and Williams said plans are to later request R-3 zoning to erect apartment complexes in the area.

Contract Coming For Ballard Paving

By MARION BETHEA

ALTIMONTE SPRINGS — Controversial Ballard Street, long in the talking stage relative to paving and drainage, probably soon will reach fruition as a result of City Council authorizing City Attorney S. J. Davis, Jr. to negotiate a contract with Kenneth Beane for the drainage of the street.

A few weeks ago, an offer was presented to the city by the firm of Thomas and Waller to construct the drainage portion and loan the city $24,000 interest-free to complete the project. The loan is for a one year period. Included in the drainage project is Longwood Avenue, with the estimated cost for both projects $97,000. John McGrath, representing the firm, told council the developers needed the paving of Ballard Street in order to proceed with their developments, and thus the offer of the interest-free loan for the drainage was made, in order to expedite the project. Davis queried the representative as to the fact that the proposed contract for the loan and drainage did not stipulate a performance bond, but McGrath disclaimed this with the notation, "why, it's our money."

City Engineer Arold Radcliffe told council that they could make final payment of the loan contingent upon completion of the project. Mayor Lawrence Swafford contended the negotiation in the contract were not germane to the City Council meeting.

U. S. Technical Gains Worry Britain

LONDON — Western Europe defense leaders are increasingly anxious about their countries' inability to keep up with American technological progress.

Part of the exercise called for a new tactic of a "deterrent" landing in which the three-nation marine force landed and withdrew again a few hours later in hopes of deterring a would-be aggressor.

The use of amphibious forces cruising offshore in a time of tension would not ruffle Norwegian sensitivity about foreign forces on her soil and at the same time would not give the Kremlin an excuse for an aggressive act on the grounds that NATO forces were threatening her frontiers.

The landing was the U.S. Marines' first in Norway, certainly since World War II, but some of the European commanders complained that most of the Marines' more senior officers seemed guided by their combat experience in Vietnam.

"This kind of exercise often calls for a hell of a lot of tact when you're landing in a friendly country. There are plenty of people around already itching to snipe at NATO without making the guys you're working with feel that you've come along to run their show for them."

On the credit side, the exercise did show that the British and Dutch amphibious forces could cruise offshore in the face of severe air attacks for a good deal longer than the 48 hours they were required to do so under the exercise plans.

After Mao, Who? Is U.S. Problem

By RAY CROMLEY

There is considerable concern at higher levels of the administration that the new relationship with China could go sour in the years just ahead.

Things are going well now. No great developments are in the works—nothing sensational, on the order of disarmament, trade, investment and credit deals, such as have been made with the Soviets. Nothing is expected in the foreseeable future.

But relations in general are moving along smoothly. Our contacts with Peking seem quite well based and unlikely to go bad.

The problem is that our relationships depend on the group in power in China now. That group may not last long. For one thing, the purges have been so thorough there are but a handful of powerful men at the top. All are very old. Some are sickly.

Even more importantly, there are signs of a deep power struggle. The reports are frequent and convincing.

What worries the administration is simple. They do not know who the men are who would succeed Mao Tse-tung and Chou En-lai. They don't know what their policies would be or their objectives, whether they would favor rapprochement with the United States or a resumption of the cold war.

It is known that there are powerful forces within the Communist party in China who urge breaking off contact with the United States. It is known there are others who strongly favor the contacts with Washington. But information is so scanty on the second and third levels of Chinese leadership, how much power and how much of a following the younger leaders have, that Washington has no inkling, whatever, of how the dice will roll when Mao and Chou no longer rule.

Evidence suggests a balance of power in China is now so even and a struggle so intense that it has been impossible for Mao and Chou to fill major vacancies at the highest policy and administrative levels of government.

The infighting that preceded the death of Lin Biao continues unabated. There is a question of how much control the central government exerts outside the major cities and the central core areas. There are reports which suggest that leaders in some major provinces run their domains with little concern for orders from Peking.

Mao is sick and there is serious question as to how much he enters into the day-to-day affairs of state. Chou is undoubtedly the man on top today in the central government. In essence, it is believed, he rules in Mao's name, making Chou No. 2 in theory and No. 1 in practice.

In recent Chinese history, the man openly in line after Mao has inevitably gone down to oblivion under the concerted attacks of rivals who might differ on everything else—but not in their common desire to bring down the chosen successor. Of late, both Liu Shao-chi and Lin Biao have been deposed.

It is uncertain how long Chou can last under the pressure despite the success he has had over the years in placing his followers in seats of influence and in disposing of his enemies.

To 'Tough' Beat Lady Cop Assigned

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A night had broken out in a tavern in the city's tough Tenderloin district but the 10 men at the bar became surprisingly obedient when the police sauntered through the door.

One of the cops was a lady. Her partner, patrolman Frank Shannon, recalled some of the comments her appearance provoked.

"She don't look mean enough to be a cop," growled one of the men. "Hell, she don't look old enough to be a cop," said another.

They were talking about 24-year-old Betty Hovde, one of the first two women to be assigned patrol car duty in the city.

Miss Hovde and Sandra Daly, 25, cruise the streets of the North Beach nightclub district, taking their chances with the rest of the guys.

"Most of the time, after they get over the initial surprise, they seem to accept the fact I am a police officer," Miss Hovde said.

The women were among nine out of 300 female applicants who passed the department's regular written, oral and physical examinations when they were first offered to women in 1969.

The two were selected for duty, but the experiment succeeds, Miss Hovde says. San Francisco soon may have more lady cops assigned to patrol duty.

"If we blow it, then we are blowing it not just for ourselves but for policewomen who will be hired in years to come ... They'll be assigned to routine office duties, not the streets," said Miss Daly, who has taken into custody an unruly juvenile and investigated an armed robbery.

They still have to undergo further intensive training. "I'll be training in riot control and sniper firing," said policewoman Hovde. "I can handle it."

One problem facing lady officers is acceptance by male officers. When fellow patrolman Frank Shannon wondered how Miss Hovde would react when "something rough comes along," the lady cop replied: "I wonder about that too ... but I think I can handle it. Wouldn't I wonder the same thing if I were a man — and a rookie?"

Death Penalty Law Study Planned

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Legislators and legal scholars will meet next week in an attempt to piece together a bill that will reinstate a death penalty law that can stand up to a constitutional test.

When the U.S. Supreme Court found the death penalty unconstitutional by a 5-4 vote last June, each of the nine justices submitted a separate written opinion.

"No five justices expressed agreement on any set of circumstances," said Asst. Atty. Gen. Raymond Marky, the man who has helped three separate committees draft bills for the special session that begins next Tuesday.

House and Senate committees prepared bills which would allow a jury to decide only guilt or innocence in first-degree murder cases. Death would be mandatory for pre-meditated murder and slayings resulting from rapes, robberies, kidnappings, burglaries or arson.

Justices William O. Douglas, Byron R. White and Potter Stewart—who voted with the majority—said they didn't like the system which allowed a jury discretion in granting mercy, Marky said.

But Justice Harlan Blackmun, who voted to uphold the death penalty, said he didn't approve of mandatory death sentences, saying such legislation would be regressive and of an antique mold, for it would eliminate the element of mercy."

Gov. Reubin Askew's blue-ribbon citizens panel on the death penalty recommended a bill that also allows a jury to decide only guilt or innocence in capital cases.

What's That?

The United States has given out more than 200 billion dollars — a fifth of a trillion — in foreign aid since 1946.

Some of it has been wise, a bargain, helping buy defense cheaper than any other way. Much of it has been wasted, frittered away, unappreciated, even some helping the enemies of America.

County, School Board Listen To CBA Appeal

By ANNSIECZKOWSKI

In a discussion before the Board of County Commissioners representatives of the Christian Benevolent Association, Allen Keith of the Seminole County School Board, Warren Knowles, City of Sanford Manager, County Utilities Administrator, Raymond Seifert and the Board all heard differing interpretations of the issues presented.

Representing the Christian Benevolent Association, a spokesman for Don Wheeler of that organization said there were 10 members of the Board, six of whom are ministers. They did not have a retirement home for their members and wanted to have one in a nice place like Sanford.

He said that they started with a FHA application on the parcel of land on which they hope to start the first phase of building with 112 units. He contended that all problems are resolved except for sewer and lift stations owned by the School Board. FHA has not approved the agreement between the CBA and the school board, which according to CBA spokesman had required a $10,000 escrow account.

The school board owns and operates the plant at Seminole High School. School Board Wants $10,000. Another CBA spokesman said that the school board wants an agreement for $10,000 in escrow to pay for capital improvements and that this be an open end arrangement, where the school board would be liable for improvements whether they were needed or not.

Drummond commented that it would appear that more communication between the interested parties is necessary before the county can get involved. When opined, "Seems that the attorneys have 'bunkoled' it for you, and I suggest that you get together and work it out between yourselves."

MARK II station wagons were donated by Economy Motors Toyota to the Seminole County Sheriff's Department and Sanford Police Department. Left to right, Police Chief

River Council Unit Subject of Meeting

By ANNSIECZKOWSKI

County is genuinely interested in the preservation of the St. Johns," Drummond said that in his opinion, a council of this size would be cumbersome and to a large degree, non-functional.

Drummond said that in his opinion, a council of this size would be cumbersome and to a large degree, non-functional. He felt that there would be an advantage in having two councils—one in the northern end of the river area and one in the southernmost area, with coordinated efforts between them designated to accomplish the goals which would benefit all.

Dear Abby

The wedding bells 'ring'; she gets wrong number. By Abigail Van Buren. DEAR ABBY: Wow, this is a problem like I'd bet you've never had before! My fiancé, who I haven't known very long but I know well enough to marry, "surprised" me with a set of rings which he and his mother picked out.

DEAR ENGAGED: Tell him the truth. But don't wait too long. CONFIDENTIAL TO HAD IT UP TO HERE: I don't recommend "jacking a husband out of the house"—why provide him with a perfect excuse for sleeping elsewhere?

Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 6706, L. A., CALIF. 90069 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Rubber Defense Different

South led the heart lead around to his hand and promptly tried and lost the diamond finesse. East led back a heart to his partner. West took his ace and thought for awhile. It was obvious to West that South still held the high heart. West could see that South was going to be able to collect four diamond tricks and if South happened to hold the queen of clubs he would make the rest of the tricks.

By Oswald & James Jacoby. It doesn't require any great bidding skill to bid to three no-trump with the North-South clubs. The bidding in the box shows the simple, straightforward way to get there.

With two five-card suits, North opens with the higher ranking one. You don't go out of your way to reverse, to show strength. A reverse bid shows strength and when you reverse with touching suits like diamonds and clubs it indicates that the club suit is longer. North's hand is strong enough for a forcing jump bid in his second suit and South rebids to three no-trump. South might have given a preference to three diamonds but the last thing South wanted was to get past the three no-trump level.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Richter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A wonderful day and evening so long as you sidestep the urge to get into arguments or disputes at your residence or with other members of your family or make unfortunate commitments where your property is concerned, or put on a warm and understanding smile and use all that generated energy to delight others.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are full of energy and can enjoy recreation this Saturday that has been difficult for you to do for some time. Keep poised when others are trying to pressure you in some way, though. Give a little party at home tonight.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Spend a happy day at home with kin and friends and avoid those who are unfriendly to you, or demanding associates. Make some improvements to home that add to its beauty and charm. Dress attractively.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) There are a number of duties to be handled that can, make your home more charming, or bring you pleasure in the future. Do whatever will make you a more dynamic person. Entertain some in p.m.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Forget expensive pleasure and do the things at home that are important, will make you happier, bring more comfort. A clever adviser has fine ideas for you. Accept the best of these.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can easily enjoy hobbies and have a good time providing you do not disturb your kin or associates. Take time to improve your appearance in some way. Show others you are an excellent conversationalist.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) A fine day to attend to private matters, but be very careful while doing so. Show your appreciation to those who follow your intuition so you know how to make your life more successful.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You now know what your position is with good pals and how to get mutual projects rolling nicely, so don't let money anxieties bother you. The evening is fine for personal matters. Add much to present happiness.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Avoid the personal and get into those career and civic matters that are vital and can improve your image immensely. Make sure you build up your credit. Don't lose out where it counts the most.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Ideal day to find the right people with whom to ally in the near future, or to get an early start on this. Fusing over what you can do nothing about would not be wise and could cause you to lose out in vital opportunities around you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Listen to what new acquaintances have to say and avoid intimacies as much as you can, since they are not in a good mood now. Build up ego of mind and much good comes of this. You have not been very affectionate of late.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) An associate will now give you the cooperation you want for some plan you have, but avoid bigwigs who are not in a receptive mood now. Follow every regulation that applies to you. Show you are a logical thinker.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have to study further into those new ideas you have before putting them into successful operation. Not a good day for travel or starting on a trip of length. Handle responsibilities that are important though it is a Sunday.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who can see the overall picture of any situation very clearly and should be encouraged to put some big and comprehensive plan to work quickly instead of deliberating so much that even the enthusiasm for it will be lost. Then success in life can start very quickly and early, otherwise very little will be accomplished. Much creative and independent here. Higher education is a must. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Carroll Richter's Individual Forecast for your sign for December is now ready. For your copy send your birthdate and $1 to Carroll Richter Forecast (name of newspaper), Box 629, Hollywood, Calif. 90028.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Richter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day and evening when it is possible to get considerable benefits from a philosophical point of view and from whatever studies you enjoy the most, for you see everything in its most expansive nature and can make long-range plans in which you are able to include some new methods by which more success can be yours.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Plan how to better blend the old and the new for improved circumstances. A different attitude toward mate is wise. This can lead to a far better understanding and more harmony than in the past.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Talk over with kin who have to have more money in the future and gain their cooperation for your ideas. Shop about for staples, etc., that make home life more comfortable and easy to run. Avoid those peaky neighbors, and save time, trouble.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Once you have attended services, get together with those people you like and discuss important matters, have a good time. Make fine new arrangements for next week with right persons. Think constructively.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Thinking big so you can get big is wise today and you can start halting in right directions. Listen to what influential people have to suggest. Follow some of their ideas and get results. LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Contact good friends early and make the arrangements you like for pleasure and social life. Make sure you dress in that meticulous manner of your particular sign and woe others do not argue, however, but use persuasive powers all your own.

BRIDAL SHOWER — Posing around refreshment table at a pre-nuptial party are, from left, Mrs. Curtis Muse, grandmother of the honoree; Mrs. Ethel Farley, mother of the bride-elect; Miss Jo Ann Muse, honoree and bride-elect; Mrs. Dale Lambert, hostess; Mrs. Joe Thomas, mother of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Carl Harris, hostess. Bridal Shower Honors Jo Ann Muse

Miss Jo Ann Muse, bride-elect of David Thomas, was guest of honor at a bridal shower, Nov. 11, given by Mrs. Carl Harris and Mrs. Dale Lambert.

The bride's chosen colors of royal blue and yellow were carried in decor throughout the party area. Gifts were placed on a large gift wrapped box while guests enjoyed a series of bridal games.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a white paper cloth bordered with silver bells. Raspberry sherbet punch was served from a large crystal punch bowl along with nuts, mints and a white cake topped with blue sugar bells and the inscription "Jo Ann and David."

Garden Circles

HIBISCUS CIRCLE The Hibiscus Circle of the Sanford Garden Club held the November meeting at the lovely home of Mrs. Gordon Brisson with Mrs. J. A. Middleton serving as co-hostess.

The circle made a donation to the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs to be used in the erection of a cabin at the Nature Camp Grounds.

Plans were discussed concerning the Boutique Dec. 1 through 3 at the Garden Center and members promised to donate cookies for the event.

Mrs. Henry Simpson presented a program entitled "Around the World in 84 days."

She described her interesting trip to India, Africa, Zealand, South America, Thailand, Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Hawaii and many other places.

The program emphasized how the world scenes have changed in the last 15 years from a cluttered to very cluttered ones in the various places.

Mrs. Herbert Moreland gave an interesting talk on horticulture and suggested ground cover like ivy, lily turf grass, confederate jasmine, myrtle, lavender cinder, wandering jew or moss in the Balfours under trees where grass refuses to grow.

PAIM CIRCLE

Paim Circle of the Sanford Garden Club met Nov. 9 at the Garden Center with Mrs. Elwood Heiss serving as hostess. Delicious refreshments were served prior to the business meeting to eight members and one visitor, Mrs. Stella Hyman.

President, Abbie Owens led the group in the opening prayer and various committee reports were given. Pay Carroll's letter of resignation was read and accepted. Eacar Neider will serve as courtesy committee chairman for the remainder of the year.

Work days for the Bazaar were announced and members urged to participate. Following the business session, members made beautiful dish gardens to be sold at the Christmas Bazaar.

DELTONA GARDEN CLUB By FANNETTE EDWARDS Mrs. Fannette Edwards will present "A PARADE OF HOLIDAY DOORWAYS," from Dec. 16 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., to Dec. 17 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Those wishing to enter the contest must apply for application blanks from the entries committee between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1. The committee consists of Mrs. Lloyd Young of the Asters; Mrs. R. J. Barlow of the Asters; and Mrs. Kenneth Boyden of the Periwinkles.

attired in a white lace dress featuring an empire waist, long sleeves and baby blue trim. Invited guests included Mrs. Ethel Farley, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Joe Thomas, mother of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Curtis Muse, grandmother of the honoree.

Also Mines Verner Nelson, Joe Russi, Morris Waldron, Stephen Richardson, William Kennedy, Jean Lovelace and the Misses Sandy Stried and Sharon Muse, sister of the honoree.

The Use Of Flowers In Cooking Is An Ancient Art

By GAYNOR MADDOX The Christmas season is a time of gaiety, a season of giving of lovely gifts. Into this mood, comes a delightful book called "Flower Cookery."

The birth of the book started years ago when the author, Mary MacNicol, and her husband, moved to Mexico. She learned there that when Cortez arrived in what is now called Mexico City, he found that Montezuma and his subjects used flowers lavishly in their cooking.

Just before the creation of man, flowering plants appeared, providing food and medicine for man. Legend says that the lotus was the first flower to appear on earth. The byproducts of the tropical palms (coconut, sago, date) are as important as the oil from the olive tree. The banana tree produces more nourishment than wheat or potatoes.

The apricot with copper leaf is beneficial to anemics. Ginseng and rue are good for the infirmities of old age. There are restraining plants for almost every appetite, aberration or mood, including fear, eructation, grief and terror. Orchids were considered such a powerful aphrodisiac that saloop was sold in the coffee houses in England.

This is how Mrs. MacNicol expresses her ideas in the beautifully-made paperback. Orchids are symbols of wealth and perhaps showiness. But there is another side to them. During the 18th century when an orchid calling was very popular partly because of its nutrition and partly because of its aphrodisiac qualities, the roots were made into what was called saloop. They are full of nutrition they are very rare and only under pressure of extreme hunger would it be justifiable to eat them, and that even at the present time in remote districts of the United States and Canada the roots have a large reputation as nerve tonics and health aids.

Though most of us will not have the opportunity to enjoy eating lotus flowers, here are some philosophical notes on the first 100 materials.

Natural materials in Class 11 may be sprayed. Pine cones may be used and will be considered dry plant material. Lights may be used in either class. Ribbons will be awarded according to a scale of points, 12 red ribbons to be presented as merited.

A top award, green and gold ribbon, will also be given to the highest scoring red ribbon winner arrangement made of all dried, sprayed, or treated plant material, scoring 95 points or higher.

Preliminary judging is to be conducted by a committee of Deltona Garden Club and final judging will be a certified flower show judges.

Dried entries must be ready for preliminary judging by 10:00 a.m. Dec. 15, and fresh cut arrangements, by 10:00 a.m. on Dec. 14. Final judging will take place from 10:00 a.m. to noon, Dec. 16.

Highlights

8-30-90 ABC, The Brady Bunch, "Goodbye, Alice, Hello!" Would you believe a communication gap in the Brady household? Naturally it couldn't be between the parent and the children. This one involves the children and Alice, the trusted housekeeper. The children don't think she's so trusted anymore and she leaves. It doesn't take long before the kids realize they were wrong.

8-30-90 ABC, The Partridge Family, "Whatever Happened to Keith Partridge?" Keith Partridge takes a screen test for, of all things, a gangster movie. Even though he is almost unrecognizable with black hair, natty moustache and pin-striped suit, he gets the role. The Partridges plan a surprise party to celebrate. It's David Cassidy's show.

TV Time Previews

8-11 CBS, The CBS, Friday Night Movies, "Live a Little, Love a Little." This is an Elvis Presley movie; what else can you say? Elvis plays a carefree bachelor (again!) who relaxes on a California beach but is drawn into the ocean by a Great Dane belonging to Michele Carrey. Miss Carrey rescues him and takes him to her home to dry out, but he develops a fever and is forced to stay there for five days. All this film needs is Frank Avon and Annette Funicello.

9-10 NBC, Ghost Story, "Cry of the Cat." Doug McClure plays a rodeo worker who has a strange problem. He thinks his wife turns into a cougar at night. A cougar has been following the rodeo and killing any animal which has harmed McClure, so to find out for sure if the cougar is his wife, Doug chases his wife in the barn at night. Jackie Cooper plays his buddy, Mariette Hartley plays his former girl friend and Lauri Peters is the wife-cougar.

9-30-10 ABC, The Odd Couple, "I'm dying of Unger." Oscar is committed to writing a book, but he can't get started with it. After he blows the $1,000 advance, Felix convinces him all

In Tourney Tonight Seminole To Show More Offense

By GARY TAYLOR
 Herald Sports Editor

A new style of Seminole High basketball will be unveiled tonight as the prep basketball season opens with the first round of the Second Annual Seminole Basketball Classic. Action gets underway at 7 p.m. tonight at the Seminole High gym, with the Bishop Moore Hornets of Orlando battling Bishop Kenny of Jacksonville.

In the 8:30 p.m. game tonight, the Fighting Seminoles will entertain the Oak Ridge Pioneers of Orlando. The two losers will meet in the consolation game Saturday night at 7 p.m., with the championship tilt slated to follow at 8:30 p.m.

The classic is being sponsored by the Florida State Bank and the United State Bank of Seminole.

The two Orlando schools may hold a slight height advantage, but the four teams entered in the tourney are all about the same size. Sanford and Oak Ridge are class AAAA, while the two Catholic schools are class AAA.

Seminole High head coach Joe Mills will unveil a new game tonight. In the past, the Seminoles have always been strong defensively, but this year they are expected to run with the ball and score a lot more points than in the past.

One of the key players in the Seminole game strategy is junior Pat Crimmins. The talented guard will do most of the ball handling as the teams race up and down the court. "He's got to beat the press, shoot a lot and get the ball to other players so they can shoot," explained Mills.

Crimmins and senior Tommy Wheaton will be the initial backcourt duo because of their possession of the ball on Eau Gallie's 36 yard line and the score tied 60. And after a month to decide what strategy will be the initial two guard positions, with senior Clifford Manley and senior Ricky Russi at the forward spots. Manley saw some action with the varsity last season while Russi was a member of the junior varsity team. Mills calls Manley and Russi "the two most improved players on this year's team."

Rounding out the starting five will be junior John Corso at center. Though he lacks experience, he makes it up in ability and should see a lot of action for the Seminoles this season.

Sloan, a starter last season, is expected to grab a starting role as soon as he gets back in shape. While Sloan will alternate at center with Corso, he will also play forward with Corso remaining at the center position.

John Zueli has shown the ability to play in the past, but is coming along slowly after suffering a broken hand. One sophomore, Randy Brown, will be on the team for the tournament. Brown will be on the bench if he is needed, since the guard knows all the players better than some of the players just off

The Hornets have a sophomore sensation in "Bo" Clark, son of Florida Technological University coach "Torchy" Clark. Last year, Clark averaged 25 points per game for the JV's, and was brought up to the varsity for the last three games of the season. There'll be one Sanford player on the Hornet team tonight, David Mendoza.

Pop Warner Teams Settle Differences In Disney Bowls

By HERKY CUSH
 Assistant Sports Editor

OHLANO—A football feast involving 12 teams in six games will take place tomorrow at the Tangerine Bowl when the Disney Bowl "day" is staged. Opening the activity is a 10 a.m. contest between the Deland Optimists and the Lexington, Ky. Colts. This will be a midweek game.

The second game pits the Blue Devils of Winter Garden and Romeville, Ill. in a Bantam league fray. Taking part in the third game are Spring Lake and Marnaronek, N.Y., a pair of pee wee outfits.

At 4 p.m. is another pee wee battle between Mattland's Tigers and Heighston, N.J. The Heighston eleven has won 18 straight games and will have heavy support from their enthusiastic home town which is planning to send quite an aggregation to the game.

Another midweek league game is set for 6 p.m. and this one matches Central YMCA Raiders and the Stratford, Conn. crew. And closing the day's schedule is a junior bantam collision between the Orlando Optimists and Southbridge, Mass.

The day of Pop Warner football is being sponsored by the Orlando Optimists and the YMCA. It annually matches six teams from Florida against opponents from around the nation.

The 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. battles are expected to be the top attractions of the day. Central YMCA has rolled in nine straight wins thus far on the year. In the last four years the Raiders have won 33 of 36 with one tie included.

Among the laurels they have won in that span are the Central Florida Pop Warner crown in 1969-1972 (they tied for the honor in 1970). And they also were champions of the Kungkut Bowl three times including this past season when they blanked the Eatonville Boys Club by a 36-0 count.

Both the YMCA and Stratford are nationally ranked and this game will decide the National Pop Warner Midnet championship.

And in the final Optimists will be shooting for their 35th straight victory and the National Junior Bantam championship for the second year running.

Mike White Velda Hero

Because he "made every crucial tackle" in Longwood Lyman's 38-28 battle with unbeaten Winter Park, defensive tackle Mike White has been named Velda Farms "Unheralded Hero" of the week in District 3 AAAA.

A 6-2, 195-pound junior, White was credited with 10 individual tackles in the "upset," and was instrumental in holding Winter Park's All-Region Clarence Latimer to just 13 yards rushing in his second half.

White, edged Lyman teammate Greg Wallack for the weekly Velda honor in District 3 AAAA. Wallack had captured the "Unheralded Hero" award in the season's opener for his rugged two-way play in a 34-20 win over Orlando Colonial.

Florida's Fred Abbott has made 80.

LSU features quarterback Bert Jones, one of the leading candidates for the Heisman Trophy, and tailback Chris Dantini as a one-two punch.

Paul Lyons, who shares quarterback duties with Jones, and second-string tailback Brad Davis aren't far behind in quality of performance.

Jones already holds or shares 15 LSU records, including total season offense and passing with two games to go.

Both teams have tough defenses, led by middle linebackers vying for individual all-conference honors.

LSU's Warren Capone has made 79 individual tackles.

Gators: Nothing To Lose

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The bowl bids handed out, eighth-ranked Louisiana State was in hand and unranked Florida doesn't as these South-eastern Conference rivals meet on Florida Field Saturday afternoon.

Nothing is at stake but prestige and Gator hopes for a winning record will be the initial factors of the game.

The LSU Tigers, losers only to Alabama in nine games, are headed for an Astro-Bluebonnet meeting with Tennessee on Dec. 30. They are favored by a touchdown to add a little more luster to their bowl appearance with a victory over the 4-4 Florida Gators.

Encouraged by their biggest offensive show of the season in a 40-0 romp over Kentucky last week, Florida players believe they have another upset in them.

The young Gators already have won three they were supposed to lose in this rebuilding season.

They have the biggest surprise weapon of the SEC in Nat Moore, a 176-pound dervish who has whirled his way to 11 touchdowns and an average gain of nine yards every time he

Oklahoma Gets Revenge With Second Half Rally

By ALEX SACHARE Associated Press Sports Writer
Even before the dust has a chance to settle in Lincoln, Neb. following Thursday's Big Eight triumph by Oklahoma's Sooners over the defending national champion Nebraska Cornhuskers, a couple of Big Ten teams are expected to raise some dust of their own Saturday in Columbus, Ohio. That's where third-ranked Michigan, 10-4, will square off against ninth-rated Ohio State, 8-1, in a game which will decide the Big Ten championship and also the league's representative for the Jan. 1 Rose Bowl against No. 1 Southern Cal.

meanwhile, gained a measure of revenge by coming from a 14-0 deficit to defeat Nebraska 17-14. In last year's Turkey Day classic, No. 1 Nebraska outscored No. 2 Oklahoma 33-31 at Norman, Okla. and went on to the national championship. The visiting team won again this year, as the fourth-ranked Sooners toppled the fifth-ranked Cornhuskers, who had been favored by about a touchdown.

Defenses dominated the first half, with the only score coming as a result of a fumble. Oklahoma's Kenneth Pope could not handle a Nebraska punt, the Cornhuskers recovered, and went on to score on a 14-yard run by Bill Olds. Another fumbled punt set up Nebraska's other touchdown. In the third period, Jerry List of Nebraska took the ball away from Oklahoma's Joe Wylie on the Sooner 24, and Dave Goeller scored from the one.

The Oklahoma quarterback Dave Robertson were coming as a weapon the Sooners did not have to use very much in their first nine games—the forward pass. With the Cornhuskers keeping Oklahoma's nationally top-ranked rushing attack in check, Robertson took to the air to spark a 76-yard scoring drive that took 11 plays. He then connected with freshman Tinker Owens—brother of former Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens—on a 22-yard scoring pass to tie the score 14-14.

A fumble by Nebraska QB Dave Humm set up Rick Fulcher's game-winning field goal in the final period. Oklahoma's Wendell Moore recovered on the Nebraska 27, and four plays later Fulcher kicked the 41-yard punt to give Oklahoma the victory.

In the other big Turkey Day battle, Cotton Bowl-bound Texas overpowered traditional rival Texas A&M 38-3 as quarterback Alan Lowry threw his first touchdown pass of the season and ran for two more scores to lead the Longhorns to victory in the Southwest Conference game.

With Texas trailing 34-0, Lowry connected with Jimmy Moore on passes of 39 and 29 yards to set up touchdowns. The first score came on a three-yard run by Lowry, the second on a 16-yard pass to tight end Julius Whittier.

The Longhorns, 9-1, put the game away with three second half touchdowns, including a 61-yard punt return by Moore.

Keep Reputation Lanier, Taylor Still 'Chiefs'

By MURRAY OLDERMAN KANSAS CITY, Mo. — (NEA) — Although it has been almost three years since the Kansas City Chiefs won their Super Bowl championship, they have not relinquished their reputation as one of the most imposing teams in football.

And their two most impressive players continue to be, as they were then, Otis Taylor for the offense and Willie Lanier for the defense. It isn't just the physical skill, considerable though it is, which distinguishes Taylor and Lanier. They have the dignity and poise all the more remarkable because they came to professional football from small black schools.

Otis Taylor gets more attention, literally, from every team in the Chiefs' fan base. He never talks about it. We just have a good time. If I had to go out for a pass against him bump-and-run, I wouldn't like it. More physical in his style of play than Otis is Willie Lanier, also known as "Contact" or "Honey Bear." In half a dozen seasons, Willie has taken over the reign of the middle linebackers, a position which traditionally attracts the hardest-hitting smartest, even meanest of defenders.

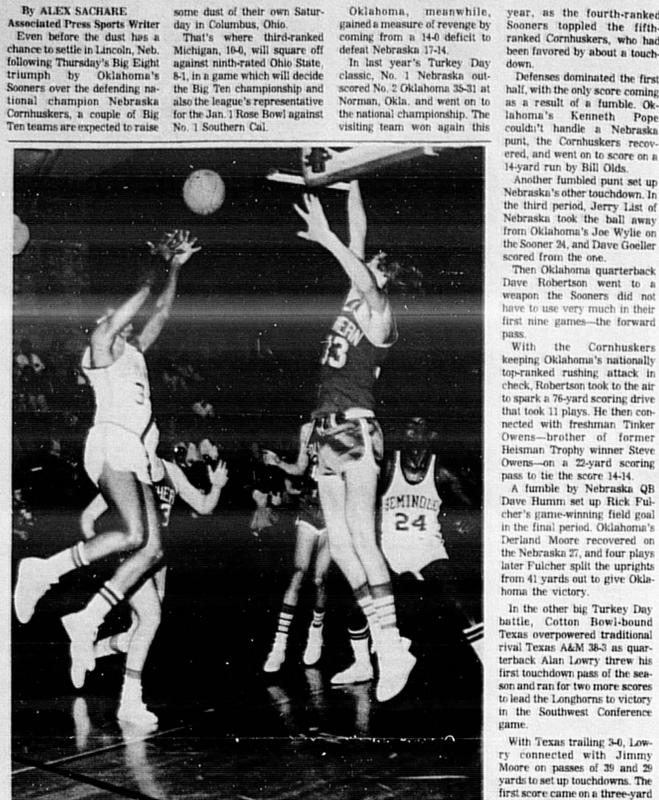

He is proud that he is now recognized over Dick Butkus and Mike Lucic and Mike Curtis because he, too, thinks he's the best. Until he arrived from Morgan State, there were no black middle linebackers. "I just like the good, clean shot," he says. "You don't get 'em too often."

For Beating Dallas Redskins 'Thanking' 49ers

By DENNE H. FREEMAN Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — George Allen and his Washington Redskins, sitting all comfy in their living rooms, were the recipients of a Thanksgiving Day present from San Francisco, which shattered a succession of jinxes with a 31-10 rout of defending Super Bowl champion Dallas.

Of course, the 49ers had pursued selfish motives as they staged a half game ahead of Los Angeles in the National Football Conference on a West with the sweet victory on a 6-4 record.

However, the Redskins can claim the host spot in the NFC East with victories in two out of their last four games, leaving Taylor scored on a 35-yard touchdown run with 1:49 left after linebacker Charlie Weaver intercepted a Namath pass.

Keep Reputation Lanier, Taylor Still 'Chiefs'

By MURRAY OLDERMAN KANSAS CITY, Mo. — (NEA) — Although it has been almost three years since the Kansas City Chiefs won their Super Bowl championship, they have not relinquished their reputation as one of the most imposing teams in football.

And their two most impressive players continue to be, as they were then, Otis Taylor for the offense and Willie Lanier for the defense. It isn't just the physical skill, considerable though it is, which distinguishes Taylor and Lanier. They have the dignity and poise all the more remarkable because they came to professional football from small black schools.

Otis Taylor gets more attention, literally, from every team in the Chiefs' fan base. He never talks about it. We just have a good time. If I had to go out for a pass against him bump-and-run, I wouldn't like it. More physical in his style of play than Otis is Willie Lanier, also known as "Contact" or "Honey Bear." In half a dozen seasons, Willie has taken over the reign of the middle linebackers, a position which traditionally attracts the hardest-hitting smartest, even meanest of defenders.

He is proud that he is now recognized over Dick Butkus and Mike Lucic and Mike Curtis because he, too, thinks he's the best. Until he arrived from Morgan State, there were no black middle linebackers. "I just like the good, clean shot," he says. "You don't get 'em too often."

Where will you find yourself in a year or two?

Shugart won five straight feature races at the Volusia oval. With a top prize of $1,000 the favorites LeRoy Yarbrough and Richie Panch. Appearing at intermission will be the famed gangbusters in the heavyweight fighter, Muhammad Ali. They met when Ali was in Houston, Otis' home town, for a bout.

Bell's Palsy New Crisis In Life Of Pete Maravich

By IRA BERKOW NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Pete Maravich is suffering from Bell's Palsy, a temporary nerve disorder which has caused headaches and a partial paralysis of the right side of his face. It developed in early November. In one game recently he wore a pair of motorcycle goggles to prevent a possible scratching of his eyeball since he cannot now close his eye.

Last season he was attacked by mononucleosis and the season before that, as a rookie, he was attacked by envy. Perhaps the first led to the second which has led to the last.

Maravich received $2 million to sign a basketball contract with the Atlanta Hawks in 1970, after three All-American seasons at Louisiana State University.

He drew large paychecks, big crowds, extravagant publicity and wholesale resentment from his teammates. He joined a team that had won the Western Division title of the NBA the season before. Joe Caldwell, Walt Bellamy, Lou Hudson, Walt Hazzard and Bill Bridges—last year's stars and the year's bit players—did not accept Maravich's presence. Caldwell wanted a dollar more than Maravich received. He didn't get it and fled to the ABA. Hazzard and Bridges were eventually traded.

The fact that Maravich was white and they were black—in a Southern town—and he became so rich so fast was part of the resentment. So was his show-biz style of play. One banner in Philadelphia read: "HEY, PISTOL, PETE, WHY DO HOT DOGS COST TWO MILLION DOLLARS IN ATLANTA AND ONLY 35 CENTS IN PHILADELPHIA?"

Meanwhile, Pete's classy passes were bouncing off teammates' heads. In practice, those same guys were after his scalp. In games "Pistol" Pete was shooting from the hip. He felt the pressure to score big, look fancy and thus carry his keep.

Others think that such an honor might help clear up his headaches. "You know, Pete's a pretty unlight guy," said McCollister. "Everything in the world both bothers and impresses him. For instance, he'll be so distraught after a loss, he'll stay in the shower for an hour after the game."

Things improved on his team, as he slowly began to settle down last season. But mononucleosis laid him low. He missed 15 games early in the season and never hit high form. His weight dropped as low as 172 pounds from his usual playing weight of 205.

Last season he took karate lessons. He was to build his body up and to help his basketball defense. Maravich is passing more and better, hitting men who are looking. And he is discarding that off-balance, 35 foot shot.

DEAR POLLY—Mrs. P. R. H.'s blooming mother-in-law tongue plant is not a freak. I have one that has bloomed more than once...

DEAR POLLY—How would one remove rust stains from tan inlaid linoleum? The stains were made by the metal buttons on the legs of breakfast room chairs...

DEAR POLLY—My Pet Pevie is with those men in grocery stores who open cardboard cartons of food such as cake mixes, cereals, etc. They use a sharp instrument to cut off the carton tops and cut so deeply that it cuts into the tops of the boxes inside—MRS. N. F. C.

DEAR POLLY—My daughters, ages 4 and 6, decided they were too big to have their hair braided. However, when left on their own, cleaning became a "dressing" game. They use the soap to plant clothes such as blouses, blouses, coat mittens, a scarf around the neck, etc., on themselves. They then remove the "soap clothes" with a washing and come out of the tub sparkling clean—MARGARET

CAN WE WORK TOGETHER?

In our town a factory employs most of us. But we live under the pall of smoky chemical fumes.

Both labor and management attend our church — and they are concerned about pollution and our environment. They know it is a human dilemma. We must have jobs; we must have the products we make. And taxes from the factories support schools, clinics and public works. These are realities.

But we cannot continue destroying in the process of creating. It is God's world and we are the caretakers. That's also a reality.

As Christians we will seek the answer under God in His Church. We will work together and build a better world. Will you be in church next Sunday?

Kissinger, Duc Tho Recess Paris Talk

PARIS (AP)—Henry A. Kissinger and North Vietnam's Le Duc Tho met Saturday for the sixth day in succession, and decided to recess their talks until Dec. 4. The two met for two hours despite an apparent Communist leak disclosing details of serious differences said to have arisen during the meetings.

The North Vietnamese delegation issued a communique after the meeting and said Tho and his fellow negotiator, Xuan Thuy "will meet Dr. Kissinger again on Dec. 4, 1972."

In New York, White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler also said the talks had been interrupted until Dec. 4. Ziegler said Kissinger is returning to the United States tonight to consult with President Nixon on the status of the negotiations. Nixon and his family are in New York for the weekend.

Ziegler said the President has agreed to meet early next week with South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu's special assistant, Nguyen Phu Duc, who is coming to Washington to discuss the negotiations.

In Paris, U.S. delegation spokesman David Lambertson said he had no comment on the announcement, which came amid reports of a crisis in the negotiations.

The two delegations met in the same house in suburban Choisy-Le-Roi, four blocks from the Hanoi delegation headquarters, where they reportedly had a stormy one-hour meeting Friday.

Ziegler said the President has agreed to meet early next week with South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu's special assistant, Nguyen Phu Duc, who is coming to Washington to discuss the negotiations.

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education alone will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

Nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education alone will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

Nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education alone will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

By Area Lawmen Three Chases, 4 Arrests

Wild chases on Interstate-4 and east SR 46 highlighted the arrest of three people on charges of attempting to flee.

Sanford Police Patrolman Foster Meyers and Sgt. Bill Foster chased two youths some 35 miles on east SR 46 early Saturday morning before apprehending them in Geneva.

The car, a 1963 Chevrolet, was reported stolen from 2209 Cordova Drive, Sanford, is owned by Mildred Griffin. Meyers was on patrol and spotted the car at 26th Street and Elm Avenue.

Meyers tried to get the car stopped but it headed north on 26th Street and off SR 46. The wild chase, at speeds in excess of 90 miles per hour, continued to 195 in Brevard County, with other law officers joining in the effort to stop the car.

At 1:05, the car whipped around in a service station and headed back west, toward Geneva. The car was finally stopped in Geneva when engine trouble disabled it.

A 15-year-old Sanford youth was charged with grand larceny of an auto, reckless driving and attempting to flee and elude a police officer and no drivers license.

Dixon was working traffic at Lake Mary Boulevard at 1-4 when he received a radio call that a car was north-bound at a high rate of speed. Dixon, who was later joined by McIntyre gave chase, and went into Volusia County at over 100 miles per hour.

After about two miles at those speeds, McIntyre managed to get in front of the car, with Dixon behind, and they boxed the car in and forced him to stop.

In a third incident, Sgt. William Vinton of the sheriff's department charged Carl Allen Lowe, 17, of 340 East Fifth Street, Chuluota, with attempting to elude a police officer, reckless driving and no drivers license.

Skirt Lift Banned At Largo

LARGO, Fla. (AP)—A new ordinance banning the lifting of girls' dresses was enacted this week at Boulder Elementary School where arrest warrants are handed out for hair-pulling, talking in class and throwing food.

Thirty-three such statutes are on the books in Tom Hackenberry's second grade classroom where the store detective-turned-teacher is bringing the long arm of the law into the study of social sciences.

A court system has been established with pupils, aged 6 to 8, acting as judges, prosecutors, defense counsels and police.

"This court, this study has been very effective in curbing school offenses and students are learning respect for the law," Hackenberry said.

The worst punishment is to be sentenced to go to the principal's office, Hackenberry said.

A note to the parents, being kept in from recess and a missing art class are among other punishments doled out in the classroom.

"We took a trip to the Largo Municipal Court last week," he said. "The children... were impressed by the fact that the court they were seeing in action was very similar to the one they run themselves," he said.

Back from the city court, the pupils passed a law banning dress-lifting following a complaint filed earlier in the week by a distraught second-grader.

Hackenberry, 30, said the court system evolved as he tried to bring home what social studies was all about and establish discipline at the same time.

The first-year teacher who worked as a store detective while studying at the University of Florida said the system has been "much more successful than I could imagine."

"I was told it would never work," he said. "But the second graders are actually conducting themselves professionally."

City Commission Sets Monday Public Hearing

DUBLIN (AP)—Irish republican leader Sean MacStiofain, Grey-faced and weak after seven days on a hunger and thirst strike, collapsed in court today and a physician said he may only have three more days to live unless he is fed.

The sandy-haired MacStiofain, 44, was given pain-killing injections after he slumped to the floor and a Roman Catholic priest knelt beside him as he was carried to an anti-room.

The resignation of City Attorney William Hutchison from the post he has held for 17 years will be considered.

Hutchison resigned to devote more time to his private practice and indicated he would serve as city attorney until a replacement can be hired. He also said he would represent the city in a present law suit filed by a number of Georgetown on Seminole Blvd. west of Standard Oil tank farm and consideration of changing the policy of an additional vacation week to over time pay for refuse personnel working on holidays.

The faded, but recognizable name painted on the bow was "Good Luck." With surfboards as windbreakers, the two huddled in the wheelhouse of the wrecked shrimpboat but breaking waves forced them to the bow.

"It was dark—the moon finally came out and we were cold," Alonzo recalled.

In the meantime, Alonzo's girlfriend became worried after they had not showed up for Thanksgiving dinner about 8 p.m.

The Coast Guard was called and a nighttime search was launched. The search-boat was on the way back to port when Gorman spotted it and climbed onto the Good Luck's cabin to wave his surfboard.

"I guess it was about two miles away," Alonzo said. It was there they spotted and made it home in time to get some cold turkey.

awarded and approval is expected of surveyor's statement for the legal description of the city limits included in the proposed new charter to be voted upon by the people in the Dec. 5 municipal election.
