NUMBER 177

At The Capital

By GEORGE HENRY

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 10—This happened in the corridors of the Capitol this morning: A gentleman from down state was talking to me, and a man walked up, asking him if he was a member of the Legislature, and my friend replied: "No, I have had a very bad case of influenza, which makes me this way."

The ferventness of many hundreds of bills were introduced today. Several pertaining to the municipalities of Longwood and Altamonte Springs, were introduced by Mr. Hagan and myself.

Representative Taylor and myself introduced a resolution asking for the appointment of a "new industries committee" in the House.

Bob Holly and Paul Shoemaker were here today. I met them on the Capitol grounds, and it was good to see somebody from home. They expect to be here several days.

The House adjourned today until Monday, and I am making good use of the time to catch up with some correspondence, and to have several bills drawn, which there are not so many representatives here to keep the Capitol crowded during this adjournment.

In buying groceries and other necessities here we find that almost every article is much higher than in Sanford. The stores here do not carry as nice stocks as ours do at home, although Tallahassee is about the same size town. Retail business is good here owing to the large payrolls from the many state employes. This applies to clothing stores also.

In this connection, there is a bill planned to be introduced to prohibit state officers from employing their relatives, and there has been some introduced seeking to put all state employes under a civil service system. This will probably be fought hard, but I hope it will pass.

The McMullen Air Line, flying five ships each way, daily, between Jacksonville and Tallahassee and Tampa and Tallahassee, still running on schedule.

They were landed on their feet of here today, owing to heavy rain, returning home for the night.

No session of the House or Senate until Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This will give time to the state officers to get some work and study on the bills that have been already put into the hopper.

VIVIAN GORDON IS REVEALED AS POOR WOMAN

Reputed Wealth Found To Have Shrunk To Not More Than $200; Police Seek Slayer

NEW YORK, Apr. 11.—(AP)—The brilliant life of Vivian Gordon, stage-Broadway playgirl, noted her just a pitiful $200, it was revealed yesterday when application was made to Surrogate Foley for letters of administration in her estate.

Instead of $100,000 which the "white light" district had taken for granted as the minimum of her blackmailing and other nefarious profits, Public Administrator Egan in asking the letters, revealed she had no real estate whatever and that the personal property she was known to have left would not exceed $200 in value.

What happened to the many thousands of dollars the strangled beauty was believed to have extracted from the willing or unwilling wallets of her wealthy admirers became, with the filing of Egan's affidavit, almost as much of a mystery as her tragic death 43 days ago.

Police believed that the shrunken condition of the estate furnished a motive for the slaying.

Detectives said she had depleted her own estate to finance shady transactions for underworld characters to such an extent that she had little or nothing left when she was slain. She was killed, they asserted, when she demanded some

Aviator Who Spent Winter Here Lands At Home In North

Word was received here this week that Pilot John B. Kratzer, whose stunt flying entertained many Sanford people during the past winter, arrived at Lewistown, Penn., a few miles from his home at Clearfield, Penn., after an 11-hour air-time flight from Jacksonville.

Rough weather accompanied him during his entire flight from Sanford to Lewistown. Leaving Sanford, he encountered strong cross winds near DeLand which made him change his plan to fly inland direct to Jacksonville. He veered toward Daytona, made a landing, but was unable to secure weather reports. Not wishing to lose time during daylight hours, he immediately took off, running into such strong winds that the 90-mile jump from Daytona to Jacksonville required one hour and 40 minutes of flying.

I followed the railroad line from St. Augustine to Jacksonville, and believe me when I saw a freight train below me outrun me, I was mad as blazes," he wrote friends here.

Conditioning his plane at Jacksonville for the long flight to Pennsylvania, Mr. Kratzer left at 6:00 o'clock in the morning with weather said to be only fair accompanying him. He stopped at Charleston, S. C., Raleigh, N. C., and Washington during the day, and arrived at Lewistown at 7:00 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Kratzer spent two months in Sanford. He expects to make this city his winter home every year, and upon his return in 1932, he expects to have a newer and larger plane which he will use as a training ship in the aviation school he will open here.

Drug Store's Safe Is Robbed Of Narcotics
MIAMI, Apr. 11.—(AP)—C. L. Trumbull, salesman for the Trumbull Supply Company, Inc., reported to police yesterday that a safe was forced by two armed men to open the company's safe, which was filled with narcotics, in the rear of the building at 1000 N. W. 1st street, and drive away.

Federal Agents Raid Al Capone Brewery

CHICAGO, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Fifteen federal agents raided a large brewery, supposedly owned by Al Capone today, seized manufactured beer which they estimated to be worth $100,000, and arrested five men. The raiders battered down the front door with an automobile truck and crashed in six side doors simultaneously. The brewery was a two-story affair and every door was wired so that when broken down electric bells rang all over the building. The agents guarded all exits and none of the operators escaped.

HOOVER PLEDGED SUPPORT FOR HIS DRY LAW STAND

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Nation-wide educational campaign fortified by a "good example in the home" was named today by the unofficial law enforcement commission of 22 women as their chief recommendation for improving the present prohibition situation. This was the conclusion of a composite prohibition report presented yesterday to President Hoover.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11.—(AP)—A pledge of support to President Hoover for his stand on prohibition was given the Chief Executive personally yesterday by a delegation of women, described as representing organizations with an estimated membership of 12,000,000.

The pledge was taken to the White House along with a composite report recommending dryness by an "unofficial" woman's national commission for law enforcement.

Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of Orlando, Fla., chairman of the women's national committee for law enforcement, who appointed the

Progressive Club Of Railroad Holds Dance Last Evening

Five hundred members and friends of the Sanford Progressive Club of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, gathered at the City Hall last night to hear prominent railroad officials speak, enjoy a musical program furnished by local amateur talent, and dance to the strains of the Lake Mary Casino Orchestra.

It was another of a series of monthly get-together meetings which have been drawing large crowds since last Fall, and members of every branch of the railroad profession were present.

Mayor T. L. Dumas, superintendent of the Sanford division of the railroad, was the principal speaker of the evening. He was introduced by P. B. Langley, superintendent of transportation, Jacksonville, who made a short talk.

J. C. Benson, general foreman of the mechanical shop here addressed the gathering briefly at the opening feature of the program. Following his talk the following program was presented:

Solo, Miss Cecelia Truick, accompanied by Miss Larnson Guthrie; novelty act, Messrs. Cameron, Hayes, and Odum, and accompanist, Miss Carmen Guthrie; address, the Rev. H. Irving Lattin, representing the Sanford Rotary Club; novelty act, members of the orchestra; address, T. L. Dumas; tap dance, John A. REDS INSULT JAP ROYALTY IN NEW YORK

Police Break Up Demonstration Against Visiting Brother Of Nipponese Emperor

NEW YORK, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Communists attempted a demonstration against the Prince and Princess Takamatsu of Japan, as the Japanese emperor's brother and his wife, under heavy guard, landed yesterday at the Battery from the reception boat Macon which had brought them from the liner Aquitania.

One communist attempted to force his way to the visitors. He was felled with a blow to the jaw by a policeman's fist.

Others pressed on shouting, "Down with the Japanese murderers!" and "Down with the Japanese hangman!"

As the communists pushed and crowded toward the automobile in which the official visitors were riding mounted police and others on foot threw in a solid line to hurt them back.

The disturbers were too weak numerically to get any further with their plans and were dispersed.

On the Macon to officially welcome their highnesses were Stanley Hornbeck of the state department, representing President Hoover; Col. George W. Burleigh, representing Governor Roosevelt; Henry W. Taft and Commissioner Phil D. Hayt, representing Mayor Walker.

Comment on the prince's beauty swept over the crowded tug with spontaneous unanimity. Commander Takao Yamaguti, master of ceremonies in his highness' household, was authorized to express the royal ideas. For amusement they expected just to "see Americans." They enjoy skiing but don't expect to do any during their month in America. They do not dance. They will "never" visit any night clubs.

The princess—no one thought to announce her own name—wears the piano. She looks forward to seeing the "greatness of America." She does not smoke, no Japanese ladies do.

Chicago Capitalist Is Robbed By 4 Gunmen

CHICAGO, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Four gunmen invaded the automobile of Edward R. Litsinger, Chicago capitalist and politician, Thursday night, and robbed him, his wife and two friends of cash and valuables. It became known yesterday. Litsinger said the total of the loss was not large.

Litsinger, a member of the county board of review, was reluctant to discuss the affair and did not report it to police because, he said, "I have had too much publicity already and don't want any more."

FORT MEYERS—Jeff Gatlin opened service station at corner of Hendry and Jackson streets.

BUFFALO GNATS KILL CATTLE IN RIVER LOWLANDS

More Than 1000 Head Of Livestock Have Already Succumbed

WASHINGTON, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Red Cross today dispatched E. P. Krick, field district representative, to the Mississippi delta region to investigate the scourge of buffalo gnats. The organization said it had received messages that the gnats' ravages had developed into an additional disaster problem.

CLARKSDALE, Miss., Apr. 11.—(AP)—A baffling infestation of buffalo gnats in lowlands fringing the Mississippi River in Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana yesterday had brought a scourge of death to livestock in the area.

More than 1000 head, principally mules, were reported dead, either bitten to death, or victims of mechanical pneumonia induced in inhaling the swarming pests.

Test Pilot Seeking Trans-U. S. Air Mark

WICHITA, Kansas, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Captain Ira C. Eaker, air test pilot, landed here at 11:43 A. M. Central Time today for the only stop scheduled in his attempt to lower the transcontinental flight record.

He left Burbank, California this morning. His flying time here was six hours, three minutes, and 29 seconds, virtually equalling the time of Captain Hawks over the same distance. An airport crew quickly refueled the plane for the last dash to New York.

Dempsey Arrives In Reno For Vacation

RENO, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey arrived here today for what he described as a "six weeks rest." He declared emphatically he had no intention of starting a divorce. He said the matter had not entered his mind but that he did not know what might happen.

Kidnapers Reduce Ransom Figure In Case Of Wisconsin

MONROE, Wis., Apr. 11.—(AP)—R. K. Blumer, secretary of the Blumer Products Company said today he had received an anonymous letter from Chicago reducing to $100,000 the $150,000 ransom asked for the return of Fred J. Blumer, head of the Monroe Brewery, who is reputedly held by kidnapers.

Blumer has been missing since Thursday when he left to keep a "business" appointment. Shortly afterwards a note was received saying he was safe, and demanding a ransom.

Sheriff Myron West of Rockford, Ill., said he believed the kidnaping was the work of amateurs, operators of wildcat breweries in Northern Illinois.

The sheriff pointed out that roadside operators could buy near beer from the Blumer company and "spike" it with alcohol more cheaply than they could purchase real beer from the illicit brewers.

Mrs. Blumer and Wells insisted, however, in the belief that Blumer was abducted by Chicago gangsters. They recalled that Blumer sold the brewery with the advent of prohibition, only to find that the purchasers were connected with the Chicago liquor "racket."

Blumer and his associates then repurchased the property, one of the largest in Southern Wisconsin, and operated it in the production of near beer.

Bill Would Limit Salaries Received By County Officers

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Salaries of sheriffs, court clerks, tax assessors, tax collectors, county judges and county attorneys would be held between $1800 and $2400 a year under provisions of a bill introduced yesterday by Representative Strom, Gadsden.

The bill would require strict accounting of all fees, a daily deposit of fees in such manner as to show their source and a monthly report of receipts to the comptroller.

AMARYLLIS SHOW STARTS SUNDAY ON BENDER FARM

Exhibition Of Bulbous Blooms Expected To Attract Big Throng

Having successfully completed its first annual Flower Show, the Sanford Garden Club will tomorrow and for the next two weeks turn its attention to the fourth annual Amaryllis exposition held on the F. W. Bender Farm north of the Country Club.

The exposition opens Sunday, Mrs. Eddor Curlett, president of the Club, said this morning, and the "general public is invited at all times." Through the courtesy of Mr. Bender, it is being handled by the Garden Club exclusively.

Approximately 2700 separate and distinct specimens, incorporated in a display of some 15,000 blossoming Amaryllis bulbs will attract a record throng, it is believed. Last year nearly 4200 people from all parts of the United States (Continued on Page 4)

Nolan Fore's Case Ends In Mistrial As Jurors Can't Agree

For the first time in years, the trial and final verdict of a case in Judge James G. Sharon's county court went into a night session at the court house last night when a jury of six, receiving the case of Nolan Fore, white man charged with possessing a still, failed to arrive at a verdict although it stayed out until nearly 10:00 o'clock. The case ended in a mistrial, and will probably be continued until the next term.

Fore was tried by a jury composed of W. L. Tyler, A. D. Smith, W. H. Allen, E. L. Hyotlaine, J. H. Beck, and E. D. Green, with John G. Leonard, handling the prosecution for the county. The state introduced as witnesses Sheriff J. F. McClelland and deputies D. C. Broadway and Jack Wickness. The defense offered 23 witnesses, V. D. Reaves, W. M. Jacobs, Dan Hart, and the defendant, Nolan Fore.

The April term of court is expected to be closed late this afternoon. James McClellan, negro, charged with petit larceny, was scheduled to be tried at 1:30 o'clock following which case, Judge Sharon expected to hear a motion for a new trial in the case of A. D. Roster, found guilty of attempting to defraud. Because of the illness of principals and witnesses several cases will be continued until next term.

STARKE—New state mill erected in northern part of town by W. P. Smith started full-time operations.

CAPITAL QUIET AS LAW BODY ENJOYS REST

Noise Of Typewriters Presages Flood Of Bills Which Will Be Introduced Shortly

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 11.—(AP)—The legislative halls were quiet today as both house and senate stood in adjournment until Monday. The clatter of typewriters and stenographers transcribing the flood of bills to be introduced and the presence of a few legislators were the only reminders that the Florida legislature was in its 23rd regular session.

Moving up the slate of business to allow the introduction of bills the house had before committees measures calling for a constitutional convention, workmen compensation, congressional redistricting, reduction of salaries allowed county officials and justices of the peace and for the regulation of the citrus canning industry.

The bills before senate committees included those calling for a constitutional convention in 1935, workmen compensations, income tax, abolition of occupational license, abolition of the hotel commission and repeal of the law requiring sworn tax returns.

Posse Captures 1 Of Three Escaping From Georgia Jail

LAFAYETTE, Ga., Apr. 11.—(AP)—A posse last night had captured one of three prisoners who escaped from jail here yesterday after seriously wounding A. W. Harmon, former sheriff of Walker County.

Harmon, shot just above the heart, was in a critical condition. His nephew, Lamar Glenn, was held on a charge of complicity in the jail break.

Police alleged Glenn furnished Alex Williams with the pistol which he used to force J. E. Cameron, jailer, to unlock his cell door. Williams was awaiting trial on an automobile theft charge. The two who escaped with him were Troy Crisp, under sentence of three years for highway robbery, and Earl Finney, serving a 10-year sentence for burglary.

Crisp was captured in the mountains near here several hours after the shooting but the posse had found no trace of Williams and Finney today.

Police said Clay told that Williams shot Harmon when the latter attempted to prevent them from seizing his automobile, which was parked near a cemetery where Harmon was putting flowers on his wife's grave. A farmer living nearby brought Harmon to the Lafayette Hospital.

Glenn, a brother-in-law of Williams lived with Harmon's father near here. Other members of the family said the former sheriff's pistol was kept in a trunk at the elder Harmon's home, and that they believed it to be the one with which Harmon was wounded.

Bank In Arkansas Is Robbed By 3 Bandits

HORATIO, Ark., Apr. 11.—(AP)—Three unmasked bandits held up the Bank of Horatio yesterday and escaped with $7,600.

Shortly afterward officers and three men believed to have been the robbers engaged in a gun battle at DeQuincy, Ark., when the officers attempted to halt the men at a filling station. Sheriff Jim Sutton said 35 or more shots were exchanged before the men fled in an automobile toward the Oklahoma state line.

J. E. James, cashier, Miss Marie Gilmer, assistant cashier, and three customers were forced to the bank vault after the bank was held up. The bandits in their haste to look for the door and on their way out.

ter a short illness which, like that of Longworth, developed from a cold. A state funeral was held in the hall of the House.
After finishing his work in Congress, he had come to Alaska to recuperate at the Curtis home, but soon after reaching the winter resort, he developed a cold.
The cold was not thought serious at first, and no physician was called until Monday afternoon. A second consultation was held by physicians Monday night and it was then determined that he had pneumonia.
The news, however, did not reach the outside world until Tuesday night, and by that time his condition had become serious. Mrs.
Longworth was summoned and came as soon as possible.

THE EYES

NEW YORK, Apr. 10.—(AP)— Zara Agos, the Turk who claimed to be 137 years old, called for home yesterday on the Brooklyn glad he was 4; across the way the United States from his American style shorts.

For this Turk, who says he is a veteran of five wars and eleven marriages, has had enough of life. He wants to get back to his home in Istanbul. Everybody has heard of King in his. He has not met American conditions as Elizabeth Merbury, Democratic national committee woman from New York, and Tallulah Bankhead, actress, but to a man who says he is 137, the fact of the matter is that Zara has been feeling coming up lately. He has lived in various hospitals during the last few months and he is now in a hospital here waiting. His physician is authority for the statement that he has covered 20 to 25 blocks daily.
Pretty good life for a man of 137.
But it hasn't been enough.

At Bournemouth he will be alone in the various relations. There are 26 sons and daughters, 100 grandsons and 100 granddaughters. A man can really outlive himself.
A couple of days before he died Zara had the misfortune to damage his most prized souvenir of America civilization. He dropped his set of false teeth.

"I told him I could get them fixed," said Osman Kivan, the traveling companion, "but he said there wasn't any sense in it. He said he would only drop them again."

The old Turk avers he has had three natural sets of teeth in his life, the last arriving when he was 105 and staying with him fifteen years.
But teeth aren't necessary to him, as he eats no food that requires much mastication. Rice boiled soft and whole wheat bread are his staples, together with sweets in any form available.
