Twenty years ago the Armistice was signed resulting in unrestrained expressions of joy over the fact that peace had come at last. Today we honor those brave men who made it possible to celebrate that occasion and to commemorate their memories on Armistice Day, Nov. 11.

Work Of American Red Cross Shows Volume Increase

(Continued from Page One) sons had been qualified to stop bleeding, treat for shock, splint fractures, and give other emergency treatment following accidents, and that 5,600 persons had been trained in life saving and water safety in an effort to bring about drastic reductions in deaths from drowning.

"While there were few disasters of spectacular national importance during the year," Mr. Sharon said, "The Red Cross through this period has rescued, fed, clothed, and given nursing and medical care to 108,585 victims of floods, fires, storms, explosions, and many other types of disasters. These have been scattered over 38 states and included ten types of natural catastrophes."

Mr. Sharon described the nation wide campaign against death and permanent injuries on highways inaugurated three years ago by the Red Cross, and said that with 676 new stations reported in operation during the past year, the total number of emergency first aid stations has grown to 2,519.

All this work, Mr. Sharon pointed out, is made possible by the annual Red Cross membership Roll Call, held each year between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving Day.

Foreclosures, Wages Law Are Hit By Growers

Mr. Schmehl intimated that the growers association might ask for a hearing with Administrator Andrews in which exemption from the provisions of the wage and hour law will be sought for the possession of vegetables.

If this law is enforced on the processors, it may be necessary to ship a large volume of celery to market without washing and pre-cooking, Mr. Schmehl said. Already the cost of processing the celery crop is nearly as much as the cost of production, he pointed out.

The president of the growers association advocated statewide co-operation of both citrus and vegetable growers in a combined effort to secure legislation for a moratorium on mortgage foreclosures until some adjustment can be made. Minnesota farmers, faced with a similar problem several years ago, secured a moratorium on farm mortgages for two years and the legislation was upheld by the Supreme Court in view of the emergency which existed, he said.

Although the wage and hour law does not directly apply to laborers on the farms, Mr. Schmehl pointed out, not only the processors but all allied industries such as fertilizer manufacturers, cane manufacturers, and others are affected. The price of these necessities will be increased considerably without any assurance of higher returns for the growers, or any improvement in market conditions. If the price level of the coming season is reflected in the returns from vegetables which have been sold so far this season, consisting largely of Fall crops such as beans, the farmers are in for another bad year, Mr. Schmehl concluded.

The meeting will be held in the Vocational Agricultural Building in the rear of the high school Monday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Varied fillings for baked apples might be: brown sugar, jelly, raisin, maple sugar, raisins, nuts, figs, prunes, dates, coconut, mince meat or sausage.

Bemus Salvage Two Conceded Senate Races

Gillette Is Apparently Re-Elected In Iowa And Van Nuyts Named In Indiana

GOP Wins 8 Senate, 78 House Seats

Triumphs Make Certain Strong Minority Opposition

In belated returns from Tuesday's general election the Democrats today salvaged two senatorships in races where they probably had apparently been defeated.

Senator Guy M. Gillette, Democrat, apparently was re-elected in Iowa as a result of the muddied general election returns given him a safe margin over E. J. Dickinson (R), while in Indiana results Senator Frederick A. Van Nuyts, Democrat, had a lead of more than 2,000 votes over Roland E. Willis, Anglo-American Republican, with only scattered precincts in counties in which Van Nuyts had been running ahead, were reported.

Even so, the Republicans carried 11 new senatorships, eight new senatorial seats and at least 75 more House seats, though their gains at this year began a two-year struggle with the Democrats for power.

The Democrats, characterizing many of their losses as merely attributable to Roosevelt and Willkie, minimized the Republican claim of widespread anti-New Deal sentiment. But the Republicans came out of the election with 14 senatorial seats compared with seven before.

These triumphs were even more than many Republicans had predicted, made certain strong minority opposition in both the House and Senate next session.

Against the Republicans, to consider, there were effects. One of these was a narrow Democratic victory in the all important state of New York, which returned Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, to the governor's chair.

In addition the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, which has had a Republican governor for many years, and replaced the Republican governor of North Dakota with one of their own party. They also placed a Democrat in the governor's chair in Maryland, previously held by a Republican.

But while the Democrats and the New Deal lost much, they had much to live. The results left the party securely in control of both house and senate, although the Republican gains vastly increased the potential effectiveness of coalition of Republicans and anti-New Deal Democrats.

The return pushed the stock market into an energetic upward swing that produced new highs for the 1938 bull trend. And the bullish spirit was apparent, too, in gains for bonds and commodity prices, although the latter were moderate.

Dr. Langley Shows Slight Improvement

Dr. W. T. Langley, local physician, is slowly improving from the serious arm injury he sustained several weeks ago. Mrs. A. W. Lee reported today on her return from the Bay Pines Veterans Hospital near St. Petersburg where the physician is now receiving treatment.

Dr. Teague and Dr. R. P. Puleston reported, Mrs. Lee said, that no amputation would be necessary from all appearances although Dr. Langley will probably lose the use of two fingers on the injured limb.

Miller Testifies Dingfelder Tells Arsenic Is Not Kiwanis Of World Harmful To Fruit War Experiences

More Testimony Heard Major Deltotes Introduces Speaker Who Served For Germany

TITUSVILLE, Pa.—A second considerable testimony was given yesterday in the criminal trial taken at the conclusion of the second day's session. The trial began here before Judge Michael J. Smith, in which Dr. Edward L. Deltote, a member of Seminole County, Fla., and Dr. Nathan Mayo, Commissioner of Agriculture, introduced enforcement of the State antitrust spray law in the citrus-growing districts from sprayed with arsenic. Testimony of Dr. Robert F. Miller, entomologist to the Florida Agricultural Supply Company of Orlando, who took the stand shortly before noon, occupied most of the afternoon session. Much of Dr. Miller's testimony was of a technical nature which, lowed in the progress of the hearing as frequent repetition was resorted to before even complex points were clarified.

The entomologist testified that experiments he had shown that arsenic in small amounts acts as a tonic on fruit, and noted that most of the chemist had sold into the food situation through the fall, that no adverse effects upon the quality of the fruit as treated had been shown and that it had not proved dangerous to the consumer.

The remainder of the Wednesday session was taken up with the testimony of Norman Vessinger of Tampa, owner of 350 acres of groves and head of the Seminole Packing Company near Lake Wales.

Vessinger who said that he had used arsenic in his fruit since the Mayo effect against it early this year, told of configuration of fruit in his packing house, after he had noticed that it was by state chemists were reported to have shown traces of arsenic, and of his unsuccessful attempts to have other tests run in an effort to prevent the damping of the entire lot.

The Lake Wales grower and shipper reiterated the contention of the plaintiff in the case that arsenic hastens maturity and makes better fruit, and declared that when he sprays with arsenic it is done not in spots—a practice deplored by Commission Karpf.

LaGuardia Proposed Meet For Progressives

NEW YORK (AP)—A call for a conference of progressive political leaders to be held by the American Association of Laborers, was issued today by Mayor Fiorello La Guardia.

He proposed meeting in Washington next week.

On Tuesday, national election results were to be declared in the New Deal, the Mayor believed the damage could easily be repaired if more united on "well-defined, concise" program.

Mr. Dingfelder gave a vivid description of life in the German trenches, and in conclusion stated that he had sustained only one bullet wound.

During the business meeting which was presided over by president Sidney J. Nix, Secretary Karl Nordgren gave a report of the directors meeting held on Nov. 8 in the Valdez Hotel.

Twenty Years After

It was at 11:00 o'clock in the morning exactly twenty years ago tomorrow morning that the Armistice was signed and the World War came to an end. The war to end wars had been fought and the world finally had been made safe for democracy. Victory was overwhelming on the side of the Frenchies, the Tommies, and the Doughboys.

But as we celebrate Armistice Day in this year of 1938, we will realize perhaps for the first time that the victory which was so easily won outlasts twenty years.

What has happened during these twenty years that has so completely changed a glorious victory into one of dismal defeat? Were the terms of the post-war treaties so severe, were they so oppressive and vengeful as to incite inevitable reaction? Or were they too easy? Should all allies have marched straight on to Berlin and given Germany a bitter taste of their own medicine?

These are questions which twenty years after no one seems to know the answer. Suddenly in the Fall of 1938 we seem to have awakened from a long and peaceful slumber to find that while we have been enjoying our repose, burglars have entered our home and are rifling our pockets. In our excitement we cannot remember where we put our gun or whether we ever had one.

Though it seems now that Germany rearmed overnight and the tables were upset with the flash of a single hand, in reality the bankruptcy of the Treaty of Versailles can be said to have started even before it was signed with the overthrow of the Kerensky government by the Russian Bolsheviks. Certainly by the time Mussolini led his Fascists into Rome European democracy was on the rocks and the fire had been started under the present boiling pot.

When the Japanese marched into Manchuria and took possession of his rich North China province, this treaty violation received the tacit consent, though not the public approval, of the other Allies. What of it? Wasn't Manchuria an insignificant outpost on the borderland of civilization? Hadn't Japan been a faithful ally during the war?

But from then on the march of the dictators was fully under way. Hitler came into power in Germany, and apparently with the approval of the Allies. A word from England then could have prevented him. With Hitler came the steady repudiation of the Versailles Treaty, re-armament, re-militarization of the Rhineland, Italy's conquest of Ethiopia, the civil war in Spain, supported if not promoted by the Fascist powers, the war in China, the seizure of Austria, the Czechoslovakian crisis.

Before them all the victorious Allies have steadily re-reated. Why? Heaven only knows! The retreat could have been stopped at any point with a single blast on the bugle and without the loss of a single life. But the bugle was not blown and now the retreat has turned into headlong flight. Only brave men can retrieve our lost victory now.

Radicalism Reversed

Though the results of Tuesday's elections throughout the country are being roundly hailed as a triumph for the Republicans and a defeat for the Democratic party, they are in reality more of a blow for the New Dealers than for the Democrats. The donkey can recover; the New Deal is shaking fast.

On the face of present returns the Republicans gained right additional Senate seats, and between 70 and 80 new seats in the House. Furthermore, the Republicans now have 17 governorships which will have an important bearing on state machines during the 1940 campaign. The extent of this reversal for the Democrats can be gauged by the fact that pre-election boasts of Republicans placed the maximum House gains at 70, while Democrats limited them to 35.

But the effect of these elections on New Deal prestige cannot be seen merely by looking at Democratic and Republican victories. Party men in most parts of the country nowadays mean very little, if anything at all. The winners must be classified as to their radical or conservative bent to judge the effect on the New Deal, and in this respect Tuesday was the beginning of the end for the parties of the left.

In New York, for instance, where the Democrats achieved their most notable success, Gov. Lehman, who was re-elected by a very narrow margin, was in no sense of the word a New Dealer, though for personal reasons he did have the support of President Roosevelt. And in California, where the Democrats gained another notable victory, Sheridan Downey who won the Senate race was as bitterly opposed by Roosevelt in the primaries as by the Republicans in the general election.

Such radicals as Gov. Murphy of Michigan, who sponsored the CIO sitdown strike, the LaFollettes of Wisconsin, and such political racketeers as Curley of Massachusetts and Earle of Pennsylvania were almost universally defeated. Even a number of good men among the New Dealers, like Bulkley of Ohio and Gillette of Iowa, were also swept out of office.

Where the Democrats achieved their greatest victories were in those states where Democratic candidates had survived the "purge" of last Spring and summer. Senator Tydings of Maryland, among the most vigorous anti-New Deal Democrats, was overwhelmingly re-elected. So were those other "purge" survivors, Senators George and Smith, while D. Worth Clark, who defeated New Deal Senator Pope in the Idaho primary, was elected over his Republican opponent.

All in all it was not so much a defeat for the Democrats as it was a victory for sound government and intelligent thinking.

Bolita Peddler Is Fined $750 In Tampa

TAMPA, Nov. 10.—A convicted bolita peddler was fined $750 in criminal court Tuesday, and charges were filed by Solicitor Williams against two others accused of being in the racket.

Judge Himes denied new trials to Lloyd Kelly and George Evans, Bradenton negroes, convicted of profiting from lottery tickets, and ordered Kelly to pay a fine of $750 or serve six months. He delayed sentencing Evans at the request of defense attorneys, but indicated he would fix the same penalty in that case.

"Cheer up, Mandy," said Mrs. Evans consolingly, "there's no use in worrying."

But Mandy held other views.

"How come there's no use worrying?" she demanded. "When does God send me tribulations?"

"He sent me to tribulate, didn't He?"—Sarcasm Harold and Tri-stheen.

Doing Her Part

Mandy Walker, the old negro who washed for Mrs. Irish, came one day with a tale of woe calculated to awaken the pity in the hardest heart.

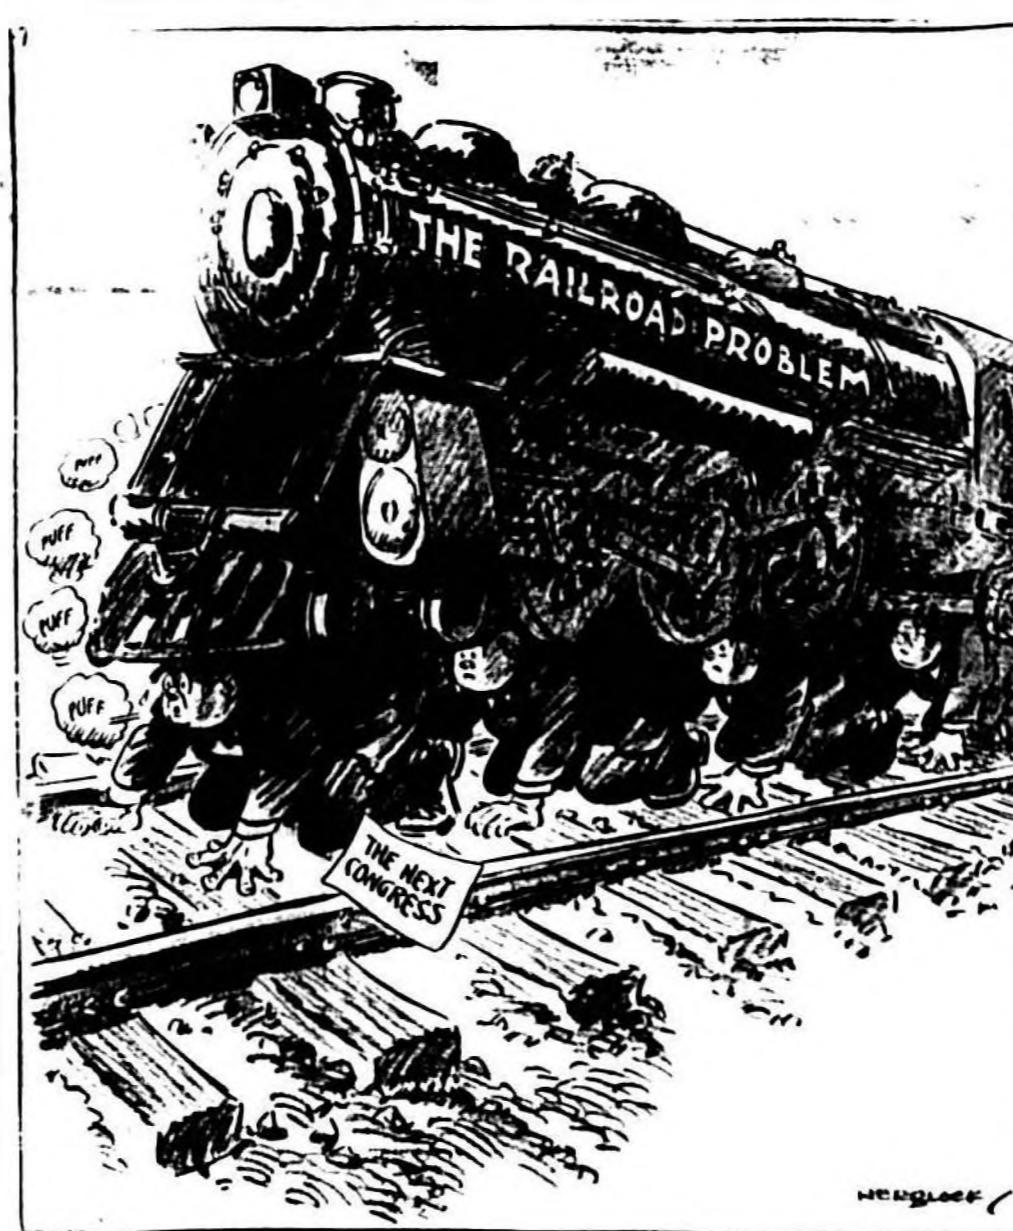

"Cheer up, Mandy," said Mrs. Irish consolingly, "there's no use in worrying."

But Mandy held other views.

"How come there's no use worrying?" she demanded. "When does God send me tribulations?"

"He sent me to tribulate, didn't He?"—Sarcasm Harold and Tri-

stheen.

RIDING BACK TO WASHINGTON IN JANUARY*Production Increases 5 Percent in October

WASHINGON, Nov. 10.—The federal reserve board estimated Tuesday that industry production increased of about 5 percent last month, reaching the highest level since October a year ago.

The board, using 1921-25 levels as 100, rated October factory output at 95. The month was the fifth consecutive one in which industrial production advanced. The 5 percent increase, however, with 102 in October, 1937.

In its monthly bulletin summarizing business statistics in virtually all lines, the board estimated 1,000,000 persons had been employed since Spring.

Some of the conclusions included:

Industry Production index up from 56 in May to 55 in October.
Average work hours per week increased from 34 1/2 in June to 37 in September; number of workers also increased, raising total man-hours of work 15 percent.

National Income—Wages, corporate earnings, relief and farm income up in third quarter of year; dividend payments unchanged.

Building—On seasonal basis, construction contracts highest since 1929; residential and public projects up most, little change in private non-residential work.

Railroads—Index of carloadings up from 58 in Spring to 68 in October; net operating income up.

Trade—Sales of department variety and mail order houses up since second quarter; retail and wholesale inventories reduced.

Dairy Expansion

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Bureau of Agricultural Economics predicted that because of ample supplies of feed available at favorable prices the dairy industry would continue to expand during the next few days.

SUCCESSORS from customers like yourself are responsible for the dramatic changes in the practices of operating methods of your telephone company during the first six months of this year.
Telephone men and women strive constantly to provide a series of steadily improving quality through adequate research for developing better apparatus, and training to create a more efficient personnel.

But in addition to furnishing you with telephone service that is technically excellent, they want to provide it in the way that best suits you best.

Develop your telephone service in time with changing conditions and let us know what you want when and where you want it.
We will do our best to make arrangements to see that you never go astray.

A committee representing the different departments fast consults suggestions from customers and employees in the immediate

THE FIRST ARMISTICE DAY TO BE OBSERVED AS A NATIONAL LEGAL HOLIDAY

Twenty years ago the joyful news of the Armistice rang around the World. To most of us the time has passed quickly . . . It seems only yesterday that we proudly watched our returning heroes marching home. The cheers and tears of joy are still vividly with us. But what long, lonesome years they have been to those mourning Gold Star Mothers . . . What tortuous years have they been to those shell-shocked, blinded, maimed and crippled martyrs, many of whom are merely marking time to the relief that will be theirs when taps are finally sounded.

What Price Glory, if they be denied on this, the Twentieth Armistice Anniversary, a dedication of Remembrance.

SEMINOLE COUNTY HONOR ROLL

Lest we forget their part in the Great War which ended twenty years ago, the following names are published:

TWENTY YEARS OF PEACE for America . . . may we have many more twenty-year periods of Peace. There is no tribute that can recompense our lost ones for what they have contributed. But we can manifest to them today that they are not forgotten. They died for Peace not War. We must keep the faith. We must dedicate to them our everlasting thought and energy to insure for their posterity the goal they sought and the sacrifice they made TWENTY years ago.

Thousands Jailed
As Terror Spreads

New Decrees Prevent Race From Conducting
Any Business

BERLIN Nov. 12 (AP)—Germany's remaining 500,000 Jews were uprooted from German economic life today and fined 1,000,000—600 marks—$400,000,000—for the murder of Ernest von Rath, a German diplomat in Paris, by a Jewish youth.

How the huge fine will be paid was not disclosed. It was imposed in a decree issued by Field Marshal Hermann Goering after a conference of ministers.

The fine was augmented by other rulings further isolating Jews from the nation's cultural and economic life. At the same time other arrests and isolations of Jews were reported in Berlin, Salzburg and Frankfurt on the Main.

In some smaller towns the arrest of male Jews appeared to have been 100 percent. The Nazi goal, apparently, was to push Germany's remaining Jews into a Ghetto, or small corner, if not to force them entirely out of the country.

The new decrees today prohibit Jews from conducting any kind of business and from attending theatres. The announcement said other measures "for solving the Jewish problem" would be made public in a few days.

The decrees followed three

Invitation Given Medical Group To Meet In Sanford

A move was started to bring next year's meeting of the Central Florida Medical Association to Sanford at a meeting of the Seminole County Medical Association held at the Fernall-Lauthon Memorial Hospital Wednesday. A delegation was authorized to be sent to Erie to extend the invitation.

A report by Dr. Hugh West of DeLand on the October meeting of the American College of Surgeons in New York City was also given. The local association, Dr. West described some of the new methods and proceedings emphasized at the New York meeting.

A resolution was adopted by the Medical Association urging that the swamps near Lake Jessup be cleaned up as soon as possible because of the fact that they are malaria breeding grounds.

Another resolution was adopted authorizing a letter of appreciation to the Editor of The Herald for the publicity and support given the new County-owned hospital.

The Association also approved a new fee system and sent a telegram of encouragement to Dr. W. T. Langley at Bay Pines where he is recovering from a recent accident.

Butler Named Senate
President At Caucus

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Members of the 1938 Florida State Senate were pledged today to support J. Turner Butler of Jacksonville for president. They met in an unofficial caucus here. Butler previously had been picked by leading members of the 1937 Senate.

The Senators and Senators-elect then named D. H. McCollum of Crestview to be sergeant-at-arms. He was an assistant to the late John W. Kelly of Live Oak whom he will succeed.

Hospital Project Being Placed In Order For Okey

President, Ickes, And Senators Asked To Seek PWA Approval

Although little encouragement has been given by PWA officials in regard to securing funds under the present appropriation of the Public Works Administration, members of the hospital cannot today announced that every thing is being placed in order so that the hospital project will head the list in the event a new appropriation is made by Congress next year.

Following an official canvass of last Tuesday's bond election, telegrams were sent from the County Clerk's office to President Roosevelt, Harold L. Ickes, PWA Administrator; Senator Andrews and Pepper, Congressman Joe Hendricks and H. T. Cole, regional PWA director, advising them of the results of the election and requesting that they work for the inclusion of the hospital project in this year's PWA program.

A telegram in reply was received by the Clerk's office to say which reads as follows:

"Your request is being transmitted to Washington. However, this late in the program practically all funds have been allotted and no encouragement can be offered and any steps taken will be at the applicants risk with no commitment from this office."

On his recent visit here, Senator Pepper advised that it may be possible to obtain the allocation from funds available through re-election of other projects. However, if this is not done, he expressed a confidence that the public works program will be continued for another year.

Excited Crowds Storm
Palace Of Cardinal
Following Address
By Leader Of Party

MUNICH, Nov. 12 (AP)—A excited crowds stormed the palace of Michael Faulhaber and broke all the windows in the building. The attack followed an address last night before 5,000 persons by Adolf Wagner, a Nazi district leader in which he read a letter from the cardinal asking police protection in case popular protest should result in attacks on the Catholic clergy in the present tense situation.

If von Faulhaber's demand to ways he will be protected before the police can act," Wagner shouted. He added he was offering no excuse for the Anti-Jewish violence.

The 69-year-old cardinal, an ardent Nazi, spoke on several occasions. The crowd, however, used sticks and stones in an attack on the palace. The cardinal apparently was not injured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 (AP)—A delegation from the American League for Peace and Democracy presented the German candidate yesterday Oscar Schindler, chairman of the league's New York division, delivered at the consulate a protest against the Nazis of "acts of unbridled vandalism, thuggery and bestiality" against Jews in Germany.

The Rt. Rev. Robert L. Paddock, Episcopal bishop of Oregon; William B. Spofford, executive secretary of the Church League for Industrial Democracy, and the Rev. Guy Emery Shipler, editor of "The Churchman," issued a statement in which they said "the brutal mentality of the Nazi persecution of the Jews is so great that no decent person can avoid grimacing at expression of hatred for Fanicism."

Rabbi D. De Sola Pool, president of the Synagogue Council of America, announced the council (continued on page Two)

Steady progress in the development of water safety, first aid, accident prevention, health activities, and continued relief to those in distress, marked the highlights of Red Cross accomplishments in Florida during the past year, according to Mrs. Jack Hall, Chairman of the Seminole County Chapter in a summary report on state and local Red Cross work.

In addition to these achievements, she said, and one of the principal reasons for them, Red Cross membership in Florida gained over 9,000 during the last Roll Call. This places the total enrollment at 60,886, higher than it has ever been since the world war.

Referring to the steady development in Red Cross services all over the United States, Mrs. Hall said Florida Chapters are not only holding their own but

Bender Speaks At
Men's Club Meeting

PARIS, Nov. 12. (AP)—Friends of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor express a belief that the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, who arrived in Paris yesterday, brought an invitation for the former king and his American-born wife to spend Christmas with the royal family in England.

The "Gloucesters," homeward bound from an east Africa hunting trip, flew from Marseilles to Le Bourget in the royal family's private plane and immediately motored to Hotel Meurice, temporary home of the Windsors.

The sale of medicinal and pharmaceutical products in France increased from $4,000,000 in 1936 to $5,000,000 in 1937, an all-time high.

What's wrong with Sanford? was the subject of the remarks of Fred W. Bender at the regular meeting of the Congregational Men's Club in the Parish House Thursday evening, according to Arthur Kirchhoff.

Mr. Bender outlined the prospects of increased activity in Sanford if construction of the St. Johns-Indian River Canal is approved. He also advocated more extensive advertising in the North and less criticism of City officials and public spirited men.

After the address, Eddie Kendall was in charge of serving an oyster supper which was followed by a bingo party. Harry Kent was chairman of the program committee.

Executive Committee To Select Nominees For Simpson's Post

Roland L. Dean, a vice president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, was appointed acting president of that organization at the monthly meeting of its board of directors. This decision was made at the Chamber's meeting, to be held Saturday, to select a permanent successor to the office recently held by E. F. Simpson.

The Chamber's joint Executive & Finance Committee were charged with the duty of selecting nominees for the presidency to serve during the remainder of the fiscal year which will end Sept. 30, 1939, and it is expected that their report will be made at an early date before a special meeting of the board of directors.

By unanimous action of the board, former President Simpson was elected to honorary life membership in the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, and a committee consisting of E. F. Householder, Walter N. Coleman and Fred R. Wilson was appointed by Vice President E. W. Talbott of Orlando, who presided over the meeting, to prepare suitable resolutions as a further expression of the organization's appreciation of Mr. Simpson's services during the past two and a half years.

FDR Says Election Results No Threat To Administration

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12 (AP)—President Roosevelt said yesterday he did not believe the results of the Tuesday elections constituted a threat to continuation of liberal government.

At his press conference Mr. Roosevelt said he thought the election returns were all right. A questioner referring to Mr. Roosevelt's speech on Friday before the election asked the President whether he believed the outcome of the voting, which resulted in heavy Democratic losses and Republican gains, constituted a threat to liberal government.

Mr. Roosevelt said he certainly did not think so. At the same time he predicted he would not encounter what one of his questioners called "coalition opposition," presumably the combining of Republican and Anti-New Deal Democrats against Administration measures.
