

New Youth Labor Law Annoys Educators

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

A new state law effective July 1 permitting 16 and 17-year-olds to work until 1 a.m. whether or not they are students and whether or not there is school the following day has some educators and parents concerned.

And Seminole County legislators, as well as some educators and parents say the education of students in this age group will suffer as a result.

Both of Seminole's resident legislators—State Reps. Bobby Brantley, R-Longwood, and Robert Hattaway, D-Altamonte—voted against the legislation.

Brantley said he voted against the bill primarily because of the change in working hours which now allow a 16- or 17-year-old to work until 1 a.m. rather than 11 p.m. "I'm not convinced it was necessary to do that," he said. "There are enough kids out of high school to fill the late hour needs of fast food establishments."

Brantley said the major concern expressed by a large number of House members during discussions of the bill is that fast food chains use so much teenage labor. There was no indication fast food chains are abusing that privilege, Brantley added.

Brantley said the law bothers him more than ever since during his current tour of state correctional facilities, he found many young people in the state prison system who cannot read or write.

"Many of the managers of the fast food places are kid-oriented and hopefully will not require the young people to work those late hours," Brantley said. "Education is more important than the few dollars the kids will earn between 11 p.m. and 1 a.m. If a kid gets off work at 1 a.m., the chances are he will not get to bed before two. With some schools starting at 7, four hours sleep just won't cut it," he said.

Tom Miller, manager of Burger King, Sanford, said today his restaurant in the past has worked 16 and 17-year-old students until 1 a.m., especially on weekends when the students had an extension of hours approved by both the parents and the school board.

"They would close up at 12 and finish clean up at 1," Miller said.

"In the past this has not worked out too well unless the student was on a work-study program and didn't have to go into school until later in the morning," he said. "It's pretty rough to get in bed by 2 and up by 6 for school. Some students have had to do it because they need the money," Miller said.

Don Hughes, manager of Sanford McDonald's, said that most of the students he employs for late night working are 18 and over.

"What's happened is that the new law has made the employer totally responsible for establishing the age of their employees. We establish proof of age before we hire anyone," Hughes said. Those students 16 or 17 years old who have worked past 11 p.m. have done so with an extension-of-hours permission slip signed by both parents and the school board, Hughes said.

Those students have worked weekends almost exclusively, he said.

Hughes said the types of employees are changing from teenagers to persons in their 20s who are seeking supplemental income to their daytime jobs. "We have a lot of applications from persons wishing to work dual-jobs," he said.

Mrs. Virginia King, president of the Seminole County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations (PTA), said she is also concerned about a student who works until 1 a.m. and then must leave his home at 6:30 a.m. for school. "I don't know how much those students are going to learn if they stay in school," she said.

Mrs. King was concerned about the child labor laws in Florida prior to the amendments passed during the 1981 session. "There was no enforcement of the laws," she said, adding the funding for enforcement had been cut off. At least under the new law, someone has the responsibility of enforcement," she said. The State Department of Labor and Employment Security, which has the responsibility under the new law of enforcing the state's child labor laws, notified the Seminole County public school system earlier this month that the new law has taken effect.

The letter from Edwin F. Norwood, director of the state department, said the school system is no longer required to issue work permits for any minor.

However, minors 12 to 17 may request an age certificate from the school system.

The county school district last year issued 231 work permits for Seminole students. Of this number, 95 were for students 15 and under and 136 were for students 16 to 17.

Mrs. King said the child labor laws in Florida permit students 15 and under to work no more than 10 hours per day, nor more than 8 days per week, nor more than 40 hours per week. Children 12-13, according to Florida law, cannot work before 6 a.m. nor after 9 p.m.

Jack Heisler, assistant principal at Lyman High School, said the school is "kind of relieved that we do not have to do the paper work, but I'm not too happy with freeing up the restrictions on the number of hours students will be allowed

All In A Day's Work For Sanford Police

Nineteen-year-old Harold Lee Tanner of Sanford told police he just wanted to go for a Friday afternoon ride, but things got out of hand and he wound up scuffling with police and getting arrested for grand theft and resisting arrest.

Tanner, of 1109 Willow Ave., was being held in the Seminole County Jail today under $5,000 bond.

According to police accounts, the episode began about 4:15 p.m. Friday when Tanner walked into the Phillips 66 station at Airport and McCracken boulevards and allegedly snatched the keys to clerk Rick McMurry's motorcycle off the counter, jumped on the motorcycle and sped away.

Sanford police officers chased Tanner through a nearby residential section at a high rate of speed. Police theorize Tanner, realizing he couldn't escape, drove back to the Phillips station where police caught up with him.

He claimed he had just borrowed the motorcycle and was returning it, but police didn't believe him and tried to arrest him.

As photographs show, Tanner took violent exception and had to be subdued by three officers. No one was hurt in the fracas.

Essence: The Sanford Salvation Army

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

"Heart to God and Hand to Man" — that's the slogan of the Salvation Army. Although the Salvation Army is probably the most well known charitable and religious organization in the world, many local residents are unaware of many of the services offered by the Corps Community Center in Sanford, according to Corps Commander Capt. Carl E. Phillips. "It's not just for the down-and-out, it's a community-centered program," he said.

In its 50th year in Sanford, the Seminole County Corps has served more than 26,000 persons of all ages through welfare and other programs during the past year from its community center at 700 W. 24th St.

A fund-raising campaign is currently underway with a goal of $150,000 to be used for paying off an existing mortgage on the Salvation Army building and for capital improvements such as the completion of the interior of the gymnasium. To date $22,000 has been raised in pledges and donations, Phillips said. "As it comes in it is being used to make mortgage payments which amount to $1,200 a month."

"Our primary goal is to pay off the $78,000 mortgage. We had a mortgage at nine percent interest, but on renegotiating it recently, the best we could get was 14.5 percent. If we can pay off the mortgage, we can put that money to much better use in terms of service to people."

The secondary goal is to complete the interior of the gymnasium, which is available to any outside group, Phillips said. It is presently used by the Sanford Gymnastics Association, local city basketball programs, and houses a thrift shop.

"Items in the thrift shop are sold at a low price to 'people who have pride and want to pay for them or are given to those who need them and can't afford them. The only requirement is that they show proof of residence," explained Phillips.

Planned improvements for the gymnasium include lighting, ventilation, and protective walls to cover the insulation. The gym is 124 by 90 feet with a 26 ft. high ceiling. In the front of the facility are offices, meeting rooms, and a chapel which will seat 150 persons. Worship services are held there on Sunday and Tuesday.

"The center is in use seven days a week," said Phillips, "right now we're holding a Bible School for all children."

The local Salvation Army also sponsors a year round youth program for Boy and Girl Scouts and a new group for boys 6 to 11 years old which already has 27 charter members. It is known as SABAC (Salvation Army Boys Adventure Corps).

There also is an adult program open to the general public including a Men's Club for ages 16 and older and a Ladies' League. They meet once a week to enjoy recreation and crafts and do public service projects. The women work with the Army's League of Mercy at local convalescent centers and support the Army program.

Probably the most visible time in the community the Army is noticed is at Christmas when they raise funds in order to distribute toys, food and clothing to the needy and for winter relief. Giving has tripled in the past three years, according to Phillips.

"The Army is here 12 months a year, it's not just a one-month thing," Phillips said.

There is a music program for young people and a beginning band and a string band. Capt. Phillips teaches the youths to play various instruments.

The Salvation Army also provides meals for transients and tries to get them to the nearest army shelters in Orlando and Daytona Beach.

A helping hand is also given to stranded families.

Among other services offered by the Army are a lost and found program for locating missing persons and a job referral program.

Tickets are still available from advisory board members or at the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce for the victory dinner set for July 28 at the Sanford Civic Center. The $25 tickets include a roast beef dinner, performance by the Ballet Guild of Sanford-

Seminole and a "slave auction" of advisory board members.

"This is our first "Friends of the Army" dinner and we are going to try and make it an annual occurrence," said Phillips.

"It's basically a Band-aid operation. We try to meet needs in crisis situations. We're not welfare, we're not food stamps," he said.

The Salvation Army gets 40 percent of its budget from the United Way of Seminole County and the rest from local contributions and solicitations.

Boosters Need More Funds For School Stadium

By SYBIL MITCHELL GANDY
Herald Staff Writer

The Lake Mary High School Boosters won't reach their $100,000 goal to complete the stadium, said Lake Mary High School Principal Don Reynolds. So they'll borrow the money. "We want to start playing football, soccer, and holding track meets right here at our own school," Reynolds said. "But the stands and lighting still have to be put in."

The group, which is composed of parents whose children will be occupying the new $12 million structure, kicked off a fund-raising effort earlier this year. But the money continues to trickle in slowly. So they will open a line of credit with a local bank and complete the stadium before sports activities begin.

"We raised $10,000 so far, but we just installed a $15,000 sprinkler system for the grass," Reynolds said.

As part of construction, the Seminole County School System built an eight-lane track and donated goal posts. But it was left up to Lake Mary Boosters to take care of everything else, Reynolds said.

"The boosters' building committee is looking at a couple of banks right now for the money — Flagship and Southeastern which is formerly the Bank of Forest City," he said.

"Now we're going to need more donations than ever. The bank will require 10 signatures on the note to make sure the entire sum is paid back."

"When the 10 of us sign that note, we'll work that much harder," Reynolds added.

Classes will begin Aug. 31. But staff members moved into new offices June 22.

School Board Chairman William Kroll and Supt. Robert Hughes recently scheduled open house and dedication ceremonies for Lake Mary High on Thursday, Aug. 20. Further details, though, have not been finalized, as yet, officials said.

The general public will be invited to tour the school which is situated on a five-acre plot. With a lunch area that seats 700 and a gym that accommodates 2,500, this new school is one of the most innovative educational buildings in the country, Reynolds said.

An auditorium with a professional stage and catwalks, an exclusive multi-purpose center for student assemblies, and advanced vocational and technical facilities make the school unsurpassed by any school ever built by Seminole County Schools, Reynolds added.

Dr. Melvin D. Pettit, county schools building inspector, said last minute checks to make sure Lake Mary complies with state building codes will be completed by early August.

Somali Plane Crash Kills 49

MOGADISHU, Somalia (UPI) — A Somali Airlines plane crashed today shortly after taking off from Mogadishu on a domestic flight, killing all 49 people aboard, Somali authorities reported.

Officials said all 44 passengers and five crew members died in the crash, which occurred 22 miles north of the Mogadishu, near the small town of Balad.

Authorities withheld the names of the passengers and would not say if any foreigners were among the dead.

Authorities gave no cause for the crash. Passengers at the Mogadishu airport said the plane took off on schedule, but returned to the airport a few minutes later for repairs. It soon took off a second time, they said, before crashing.

Somali airlines workers said it was the first crash in the company's history.

The plane was on a flight from Mogadishu to Hargeisa, near the Ethiopian border and 560 miles north of the Somali capital.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Trial Begins Today Over The Shooting Of The Pope

ROME (UPI) — Three hundred guards armed with submachine guns guarded the courtroom today for the opening of the trial of the Turkish terrorist accused of trying to kill Pope John Paul II.

The suspect, Mehmet Ali Agca, 23, who was enclosed in a special bullet-proof glass dock, faces a life sentence without parole — the maximum for an attempt on the life of a pontiff.

The trial is expected to last three to five days, and chief Prosecutor Niccolo Amato said he plans to call more than 30 witnesses, many of whom will testify they saw Agca shoot the pope in St. Peter's Square May 13 before 10,000 horrified witnesses.

Agca, arrested immediately after wounding the pope and two American tourists, is being defended by a court-appointed attorney. His fate will be decided by a six-member jury and Chief Judge Severino Santalupich of Rome's First Court of Assizes.

Hunger Striker Nears Death

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI) — IRA hunger striker Kieran Doherty neared death today in his 60th day without food, but both British and Irish Republicans refused to compromise to end the grim fast that has killed six.

A special room was set aside at the Maze Prison hospital so Doherty's family could be at his bedside, a move that previously signaled the imminent death of a hunger striker.

The death of Doherty was expected to have even greater impact in the Irish republic to the south than earlier deaths because he was elected from his cell to the Dublin Parliament last month.

Woman Elected In Poland

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — Poland's Communist Party swept away tradition by electing a member of the rival Solidarity independent labor union as the first woman to sit on the key 15-person Politburo that guides the nation.

Less than a year after the union's birth, Zofia Grzyb, a Solidarity member and foreman at a shoe factory in Radom, was elected to the newly expanded body on the eve of today's final session of the emergency Party Congress.

Israel Attacks Lebanon

By United Press International

Israel ground forces struck into Lebanon early today, destroying Palestinian targets in the first land attack by the Jewish state in its current offensive against the Palestinians.

Israel's military command said in Tel Aviv, "a number of terrorists" were killed and seven Israeli soldiers were wounded — the first since April 1 in a ground attack.

The Israeli command said the Israeli force withdrew after completing the mission 27 miles into Lebanon.

Reagan Attends Summit

MONTEBELLO, Quebec (UPI) — President Reagan makes his debut in international summitry today while keeping a close watch on the "tense and worrisome" escalation of violence in the Middle East.

The stage for Reagan's thrust into multilateral diplomacy was the seven-nation economic summit.

While financial and trade issues dominated the agenda for today's session, the deteriorating situation in the turbulent Middle East overshadowed other problems on the table.

Mystery Deaths Are Probed

BRUSSELS, Belgium (UPI) — Police today sealed the posh apartment where the diplomat son of former NATO chief Paul-Henri Spaak was shot to death with a hunting rifle and his wife was electrocuted in the bathtub.

A European Common Market official said the mysterious deaths of Ferdinand Spaak and his wife may have resulted from a domestic quarrel, but would say no more.

Spaak, 57, was killed with a hunting rifle and his wife was found in a bath tub where she appeared to have been electrocuted, police said.

Former City Official In Court Over Debt

Former Sanford City Commissioner John Morris has been ordered by Seminole Circuit Judge Robert McGregor to repay $12,400 he borrowed from ComBank last fall to pay off political campaign debts and to keep his now-defunct title insurance business operating.

Morris individually was ordered to pay back the $7,250.95 he borrowed in late November to pay off the campaign debt incurred during his unsuccessful run against Bill Kirchhoff for the Seminole County Commission's District 5 seat.

Also, Morris and Robert Johnson, vice president of Morris' Mid-Florida Title Insurance company, entered into an agreement with ComBank to pay back $12,400 of an original $15,000 loan taken out Oct. 17 to keep the title insurance firm operating. The repayment plan will stretch over the next few years.

The money wasn't enough to save the ailing business, and Morris was forced to close his Sanford office in late May and his Altamonte Springs branch June 26.

A separate lawsuit by the Safeco Title Insurance Co. against Morris, his wife Bernadette, Johnson and his wife Maria is still pending. That suit seeks $20,292,565 in back rent on Morris' Sanford office and repayment of a $115,540.10 loan.

ride Friday afternoon robbed him.

Plumley told Seminole County sheriff's deputies that he hitched a ride from two men driving an old blue Cadillac around noon. They picked him up in downtown Orlando and were headed for Altamonte Springs.

But the trip ended badly. Somewhere along Brantwood Drive in Altamonte Springs, one of the men pulled a pair of grass shears and stole Plumley's wallet containing $32.

The men then released Plumley unharmed.

QUICK-HANDED THIEF

Marilyn Wooten, a 55-year-old self-employed antique salesman, was robbed of $5,000 worth of jewelry at the Maitland Flea Market Sunday afternoon.

Wooten told deputies that she was showing a boy about 15 years old some jewelry when the youth grabbed a handful of gold necklaces and fled.

The juvenile ran across U.S. Highway 17-92 to a waiting car and sped away.

SERVICE STATION ROBBED

An attendant at the Terneco service station, 1800 French Ave., Sanford, was robbed of an undetermined amount of money Saturday night.

James Marshall, 29, told Sanford police that the bandit was 30-35 years old and had come into the station about 8 p.m. to buy a beer. Marshall said that when he turned his back, the man grabbed his wallet and fled.

SANFORD HOME BURGLARIZED

Police were continuing their investigation today into the Friday burglary of a Sanford home during which $1,702 worth of cash and jewelry was taken.

According to a police report, someone broke into a house at 1319 Palmetto Ave. between 7:50 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. by prying open a bedroom window. Once inside, the burglar(s) took five watches, an assortment of rings and necklaces, and $32 cash.

BAD COMMUNICATIONS

Sanford firefighters Saturday reported the theft of a portable two-way radio from the front seat of a rescue vehicle parked at the fire station at 1315 French Ave.

The radio is believed to have been taken between 8 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., possibly by a young boy 10-13 years old. Firefighters reported that a youth talked to them over the radio while on a rescue run.

99-Cent Tax Increase On Agenda In Longwood

The Longwood City Commission will be asked to accept a $1.6 million budget for 1981-82, which includes a 99-cent tax rate increase, when it meets today.

The $1,581,000 budget, prepared by Longwood City Administrator David Chacey, will be presented to the commission at 7:30 p.m.

Chacey has proposed a tax rate of $3.18 per $1,000 assessed taxable property value. The proposal is 99-cents over the current rate of $2.17 per $1,000.

A public hearing on the budget is scheduled for Sept. 14 and the final approval on Sept. 28. The commission also will conduct public hearings on ordinances annexing Lot 3 on Longwood Hills Road at the request of the owner, Raymond J. Thibodeaux, and Lot 14 on Central Park, Dog Track Road at the request of owner, Fred L. Flannigan. The commission is scheduled to take final action on the ordinances.

A public hearing and final vote also are scheduled for an ordinance that would prohibit nude and topless entertainment at establishments selling or serving alcoholic beverages.

Other items on the agenda include:

- An ordinance which would assess an additional $1 fee in criminal proceedings to be used for law enforcement and training.
- Approval of bids for paving of Wayman Street on recommendation of the city engineer, who was given bids of $58,357 from Orange Paving and Construction Co. of Altamonte Springs, $57,825 from K&L Contractors of Kilarney and $55,424 from Basic Asphalt & Co. of Orlando.
- A final resolution approving the assessment roll.
- A site plan for Tiberon Hills, which is to be developed by Florida Residential Communities Inc. east and west of Lake Emma Road and north of Longwood Hills Road.
- Site plan for Meadow Ridge submitted by Gallinore Homes, to be located on the east side of Range Line Road.
- An application for a conditional-use permit for a veterinary clinic at 1450 State Road 434 by Carmen Bravo, petitioner.
- Request by John Hedrick of People's Transit Organization concerning the need for public transportation in Longwood.
- Request by Miss Linda Webb of La Petite Academy for an exemption from the sign moratorium. — JANE CASSELLBERRY

Lawyer Of Accused Atlanta Killer Worried Over Fair Trial

ATLANTA (UPI) — Choosing impartial jurors to try Wayne B. Williams, indicted in two of the city's 28 murders of young blacks, will take "extraordinary measures" and may be impossible in Atlanta, his parents' attorney says.

Williams, 23, a black free-lance photographer and would-be talent scout, was indicted Friday in the murders of Jimmy Ray Payne, 21, the 26th victim, and Nathaniel Cater, 27, the last and oldest of the victims.

The bodies of Payne and Cater were found almost a month apart but within 500 yards of each other in the Chattahoochee River — a suburban waterway in which the bodies of four other victims were found.

Harold Horne, who represents Williams' parents, Homer and Faye Williams, said Sunday that massive publicity in the case may make it impossible to choose an objective jury in Atlanta.

"Extraordinary measures will be required wherever you try this case," Horne said. "I personally have an opinion that I would prefer to try the case outside the city of Atlanta."

Horne last week fired off a letter to prosecutors and various judges protesting the recent questioning of Williams' father without an attorney present. Prosecutors questioned the elder Williams at length July 10 while his wife was testifying before a grand jury hearing the case.

Prosecutors, who said their interview did not violate the elder Williams' rights, have offered to provide Horne with transcripts of the questioning session.

Horne said he has "no concrete" information whether prosecutors are trying to implicate Williams' parents but said the fact that the couple lived with their son in the same home where fiber evidence was found has generated suspicion.

"Since the Williams lived there, stayed there 24 hours a day, there is at least the implication that they should have known something about it," Horne said.

Mary Welcome, Williams' own attorney, told UPI Saturday that she would decide at "a later date" whether to ask for a change of venue in his trial, but added that "the intensity of the publicity has been the same everywhere."

Prison 'Troublemakers' Transferred

SNEADS, Fla. (UPI) — Seventy-nine "troublemakers" considered responsible for the racial clashes that left 41 convicts injured at the Apalachicola Correctional Institution have been parceled out among eight other prisons.

Regional Director Phillip Shuford of the State Department of Corrections said the 79 included both whites and blacks.

All left the prison at Sneads Sunday. They went to the Baker, Brevard, Lancaster, Lawley, River Junction, Tomoko and Polk Correctional Institutions and to the Lake Butler Reception Center.

No more outbreaks occurred at the Apalachicola facility Sunday, but an extra force of 50 guards remained on duty.

to work at night. It will definitely interfere with their studies and could contribute to students quitting school," he said.

"There are a large number of students who work in Seminole County," he said. "Violations of the child labor laws have been reported to us and we in turn have reported them to the county school office. There are also many other students who are working without us knowing about it," Heister said.

"I know there has been a problem in the past, I hope the problem will not worsen with the new law," he said.

Ivan Bower, program director of student services in the Seminole public school system, said the state Department of Education has had the responsibility of enforcing the child labor laws in the state for the past few months. He said this responsibility shifted from the state industrial commission after the Legislature last year eliminated the industrial commission office which had handled enforcement previously.

C.V. Franklin, vice principal at Seminole High School, said if state law compels students to attend school until they are 16, by the same token those students who want to attend school and take on the responsibility of working at the same time should also have that opportunity.

But, he added, he's sure the later working hours will have an effect on a student's interest in his school work.

Navy Helicopter Crash Kills Four, Injures Six

NORFOLK (UPI) — A "Sea Stallion" cargo helicopter crashed on the deck of the amphibious landing ship USS Guam, killing four Marines and injuring six others, the Navy said.

The crash during amphibious maneuvers by a Pennsylvania Marine Reserve Squadron sparked a brief fire on the 532-foot vessel Sunday — less than two months after a fiery crash aboard the nuclear aircraft carrier USS Nimitz killed 14 people.

All four Marines killed in the accident were aboard the helicopter, said Cmdr. Mike Cherry, an Atlantic Fleet spokesman.

He said four of the injured were flown to Camp LeJeune, N. C. for treatment.

The names of the dead and injured were being withheld until their families could be notified, Cherry said.

Navy officials said the cause of the crash was not immediately known.

Family Of Three Missing

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — A businessman whose airplane went down last weekend off the coast of Florida had received his pilot's license in January and had been flying less than a year, the Federal Aviation Administration says.

Gary Owens, his wife Peggy and his 14-year-old son Steven have been missing since their single-engine plane crashed in the Gulf of Mexico west of Fort Myers July 11.

Authorities said fragments of the six-seat Piper Lance aircraft and clothing of Mrs. Owens were recovered during a search, which was begun on Monday and was called off late Wednesday. Officials and Owens' relatives assume there were no survivors.

45 Injured In Stampede

CHICAGO (UPI) — About 45 people were injured in a stampede set off by the collapse of a plywood fence at a rock concert in a city park, but the band played on.

Officials said the fence gave way just before soul singer Larry Graham took the stage Saturday at Grant Park.

Dozens of people went crashing into the bandstand and many others were trampled in the stampede.

"People just scattered," said Black Gold, 37, one of the injured taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment. "I saw a 3-year-old baby whose face had been walked on."

Ms. Gold, who also saw a man fall into a charcoal pit and near the entree side of his body, said she was shocked because Graham's band began performing immediately after the excitement died down.

"I just can't get over them starting up like nothing happened," she said.

Police Sgt. Marshall Andrews said about 50,000 people were at the "Back to School" picnic, sponsored by WJPC radio, when the plywood section of fence gave way from people in the crowd leaning on it.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Murder Victim Forced To Leap From Bridge

TAMPA (UPI) — Hillsborough County sheriff's police were still attempting today to locate relatives of a young man who was beaten, knifed and forced to leap to his death from the Sunshine Skyway Bridge.

The Coast Guard recovered the body of the 24-year-old victim late Saturday about a mile from the bridge.

Carl Allen Casey, 25, Ruth Evelyn Paschal, 31, and Douglas Eugene Hedges, 30, all of Land O'Lakes, have been charged with murder in the death. All were held without bond at the Hillsborough County jail.

Sheriff's Maj. Cal Henderson said the victim was abducted from a Tampa apartment early Friday following an argument over stereo equipment. Friday night the man was driven to the bridge, severely beaten, had one of his wrists slashed, and forced to jump 150 feet into the water.

A witness saw the incident and supplied deputies with information leading to the three arrests.

Miami Crime Hearings Set

MIAMI (UPI) — The attorney general's special task force on violent crime comes to Miami Tuesday for two days of hearings, during which it will attempt to explore possible ties between drug smuggling and street crime.

Miami is the fourth of five stops for the eight-member task force before it reports to Attorney General William French Smith in Washington Aug. 17.

The task force, co-chaired by James Thompson of Illinois and former Attorney General Griffin Bell, previously held hearings in Atlanta, Los Angeles and Chicago. After it concludes its Miami hearings, it moves on to New York.

Jeffrey Harris, executive director of the task force, said, "We tried to choose major metropolitan areas with a serious crime problem."

Death Toll Climbs To 113 In Kansas City

Search Teams Probe Hotel Disaster

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The band was playing "Satin Doll" and guests packing two glittering aerial walkways swayed and tapped their feet to the swing rhythm as they watched the tea dancers in the posh hotel lobby below.

Death came with little or no warning. Revelers standing on the second-story "sky bridge" heard two loud "pops," then were crushed as an identical walkway two stories above them folded at its center, broke from its moorings and fell.

Today, the atrium of the Hyatt Regency was dark and silent. Investigators reconstructing the deadly 15 seconds Friday and surveying the shattered remains of the area where 113 people died and another 106 were injured, considered whether the jazz beat and the tapping feet could have started in motion a sympathetic rhythm that splintered the tons of concrete and steel.

But unraveling the mystery of the nation's worst hotel disaster in 35 years and determining who, if anyone, is to blame in the tragedy Friday was expected to take months.

At least five separate teams of investigators today sought to pinpoint the cause of the accident at the $50 million, 40-story Hyatt Regency, including the corporation that owns the hotel, the firm that operates it, architects who gave the structure its unique design and the general contractor who built it. The city also plans to launch an inquiry.

Mayor Richard Berkley said: "The city has a moral right to find out what happened here. We owe it to the ones who suffered here to find out what happened so it will never happen again."

Out-of-town expert investigators hired by the hotel's owner, Crown Center Redevelopment Corp. — a subsidiary of the Hallmark Cards Inc. — were in town for on-site inspections of the crumpled remains of the two 10-foot-wide walkways.

As the bridges fell, many victims were crushed just a step inside the lobby through the hotel's revolving front doors.

A total of 108 victims were pulled dead from the debris. Five more died later in hospitals, the latest two early Sunday. Of the 106 injured, 21 remained in intensive care with at least a third of them in critical condition.

And three victims — all women — remained unidentified at the county morgue.

The building, scarcely a year old, remained sealed. Except for investigators, the only visitors Sunday to the Hyatt Regency were a few hotel officials and reporters. The hotel will remain closed to guests indefinitely.

Although saying they would be willing to pay the hospital expenses for all victims, officials for Hyatt Hotels Corp. — which operates the hotel — said their company was blameless in the incident and that they had been assured the "sky bridges" were indestructible and could carry more weight than tea dance revelers offered that night.

The problem of "harmonic vibration" is well known to any Army officer who has led his troops across a bridge, said theoretical physicist John Gamble.

"When crossing bridges, troops are supposed to be out of step and not in step," he said. "In dancing to music, for example, you supply lots of energy and the vibration is going to get large. And if you have more energy than the structural design can take, then you have things happening like bridge collapses."

As possible.

"People's guts are starting to twist. I'm all tied up in knots inside," George said as he packed ripening plums and nectarines. "I don't really panic, but sometimes I feel like I'm going to lose control."

George also said there would be expanding layoffs as a result of the quarantines. First to go, he said, would be the pickers and then the packing house workers and truck drivers.

Nobuo Ebisuda, a Central Bank branch manager in Parlier, said 95 percent of his loans involved agriculture. "A full quarantine would just close up the bank as far as business goes," he said.

Five Southern States Quarantine California Produce

LOS GATOS, Calif. (UPI) — Five Southern states today imposed quarantines on all California produce to check for possible Mediterranean fruit fly infestation — a move state officials vowed to fight all the way to the Supreme Court.

Agriculture Secretary John Block said Sunday the Reagan administration would try to dissuade Texas, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and South Carolina from initiating the quarantine measures and assured consumers: "California fruits and vegetables are as good as they ever have been."

Texas officials said roadblocks would go up at noon today in Amarillo and El Paso, but the director of California's Department of Food and Agriculture, Richard Rominger, scheduled a meeting with officials in Dallas today in an attempt to change their minds.

If unsuccessful, he said he would file suit in U.S. District Court in Dallas.

In addition, California Attorney General George Deukmejian said he would seek to overturn the quarantines before the U.S. Supreme Court — possibly on Tuesday.

The quarantines, announced Friday, require that all California produce be banned from the five states unless they are fumigated or come from farms where traps showed no infestation of the Medfly.

California's fruit fly infestation is so far confined to 150 square miles in three populous counties south of San Francisco — Santa Clara, Alameda and San Mateo.

Medfly strategists at Los Gatos said they hoped to finish the initial application of the pesticide malathion over the counties today. Heavy fog forced helicopters to land Sunday, delaying completion of the first round of spraying.

"I'm convinced right now that we're on schedule with the aerial spraying," Block said on CBS' "Face the Nation" Sunday. "We really are getting hold of the situation."

A federal quarantine is still possible, he added, but unlikely. He expressed displeasure at the quarantines being imposed by individual states while the federal government is trying to address the problem.

"The damage is not really significant in terms of the crops being damaged," Block said, but there has been some "unfair" effect on California's reputation as the supplier of about half of the nation's produce.

Steve George, director of operations at the George Bros. packing house in Sultana, said his company was trying to set up a big $40,000 fumigation chamber as soon as possible.

George also said there would be expanding layoffs as a result of the quarantines. First to go, he said, would be the pickers and then the packing house workers and truck drivers.

Nobuo Ebisuda, a Central Bank branch manager in Parlier, said 95 percent of his loans involved agriculture. "A full quarantine would just close up the bank as far as business goes," he said.

40 Refugees Flown From Miami

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (UPI) — Forty Haitian refugees who arrived at the Federal Correctional Institution at Ray Brook Sunday night will be segregated from the rest of the prison population, a spokesman said.

The 40 refugees were flown from Miami, Fla., to ease crowding at the Krome Avenue Camp refugee camp near Miami. They arrived at about 10:15 p.m. Sunday night at the Saranac Lake Airport and were bused to the prison which housed athletes during the 1980 Winter Olympics.

Paul Lefebvre, executive assistant at the medium security prison, said the refugees have not been convicted of any crimes so they will be in a separate housing unit. He said he expected the refugees to be at the prison for about three weeks.

A total of 178 Haitians were transferred out of the detention center west of Miami Saturday on two chartered flights. Ninety of those refugees were flown to Big Spring, Texas, and the rest to Brooklyn.

Mike Trombini, Cuban-Haitian project coordinator for the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, said 20 other Haitians originally slated to be part of the weekend transfers would be flown out "sometime next week" — 10 to Lake Placid and 10 to Big Spring.

He said no more mass transfers were scheduled, but added, "I have been advised that the INS is looking into additional space elsewhere."

At Big Spring, Texas, Sunday, many of the Haitians who were transferred to the minimum security Big Spring Federal Prison Camp spent their time playing dominoes, isolated from regular inmates.

Duty Officer Anthony Geanopolos reported prison officials were working to coordinate a recreation program for the newly arrived refugees.

Haitians Arrive At Lake Placid

"They're all gentlemen and have been very cooperative," said Geanopolos, who added that Big Spring residents had staged no protests so far.

The transfers, ordered by the Justice Department late Friday, came on the heels of a suit filed by Florida Gov. Bob Graham seeking to force the federal government to reduce the Krome camp's refugee population by about 1,000 inmates by July 24.

The weekend transfers lowered the camp's population to 1,186 — 586 more than the camp is designed to house.

"This isn't the answer," said Rep. Clay Shaw, R-Fla., who toured the camp Saturday as the refugees were herded aboard the chartered jets. "But it's a positive step in the right direction."

However, Haitian leaders in Miami have protested the transfer of refugees outside Florida and attorneys for the Haitian Refugee Center, Inc., filed suit in federal court late Friday seeking an injunction to stop the moves.

Attorneys for the Haitians fear immigration officials will act secretly to deport the refugees moved out of Krome without "due process" or legal counsel.

U.S. District Judge Alice Hastings is expected to hold a hearing on the suit either Monday or Tuesday.

The Krome Avenue tent-and-barracks encampment was designed to house a maximum of 600 people, but with hundreds of Haitians arriving in south Florida each week, the camp's population has swelled at times to more than 1,600.

The severe overcrowding has caused sanitation problems, including contamination of the drinking water. Federal immigration and refugee assistance officials have been unable to find relatives and sponsors for the new arrivals fast enough to keep the camp population at a reasonable level.

Newspapers Seen As Top Enforcers Of Speeding Law

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Newspaper stories help enforce the 55 mph speed limit more effectively than platoons of ticket-dispensing police officers, researchers said.

The greater the number of newspaper stories concerning the speeding law, the greater the public's compliance, said Carol Kohfeld, assistant professor of political science at the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

As newspapers carry fewer stories about the speed limit and related stories about gasoline and oil supplies, speeders proliferate, Ms. Kohfeld said.

"We think driving is a social behavior, and you're influenced by the people around you," Ms. Kohfeld said. "You tell them there are police out there giving tickets, and if you've read a story, it's more liable to affect you."

Ms. Kohfeld, who is working on a study of speeding with Tom Ikenes of the University of Denver, said: "You can't give people enough money to make them obey or punish people enough to make them obey."

Two 'Miss Universe' Hopefuls Disqualified

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two would-be contestants were expelled for lying about their age or anatomical proportions but the Miss Universe 1981 contest tonight will be as glamorous as ever.

The 1981 contest will feature 77 women who are considered to be among the most beautiful in the world, and the woman who wins the title will be awarded more than $100,000 in cash and prizes.

During the competition to represent the U.S.A. in the pageant, Miss New York, Debra Ann Fountain, was tossed out of the running because she was caught padding her bra.

Miss Fountain said she probably would not attend because "I can't get a ticket. Nobody will sell me one."

Moose right-hander William Carr will be on the mound tonight at 8 when the Florida Junior Major League All-Stars open the District 4 Tournament at Chase Park against Daytona Beach.

Late-Addition Carr Gears Up For Junior Opener At Chase Park

William Carr, the hero of the 1981 city championship series in the Sanford Junior League, will be on the mound tonight for the Sanford all-stars as they open competition in the Florida Junior Major League District 4 Tournament.

The six-team, double-elimination tournament is being played at Sanford's Chase Park on Celery Avenue. Sanford plays Daytona Beach at 8 tonight. The tournament runs through Saturday.

Carr was not on the all-star team when it was first selected. He was not nominated because he was expected to be out of town. However, a vacancy developed and he was added to the team last week.

During the regular season, Carr had only one pitching decision. He was 1-0. But he pitched the second game of the city championship series and hurled a two-hitter while striking out 11.

A .333 hitter during the regular season, Carr went 7 for 9 during the championship series for a .778 batting average and was named Most Valuable Player for the role he played in leading Knights of Columbus to the city crown. His seven hits in the series included a pair of doubles and a triple and he had a dozen RBIs in the two games.

Carr's batterymate tonight will be K of C teammate Lee Frederick, who batted .400 during the regular season.

Two other Knights of Columbus players are expected to be in the starting lineup tonight. Fred Miller will start at first base, while Glen Landress, who played shortstop much of the time during the regular season, will play center field.

Miller batted .371 during the regular season and Landress hit at a .319 clip, including three home runs. He was second in the league in home runs.

Miller and Landress are among the top pitchers on the all-star team, also. Miller was the winningest pitcher in the league this year with an 8-2 record, while Landress, at 7-0, had the best pitching record in the league.

Bruce Franklin of Kiwanis and Donald Grayson of Elks may also see action on the mound for the Sanford all-stars. Franklin, who batted an impressive .451 during the regular season, will start at shortstop tonight, while Grayson, a .455 hitter, will be at third base. Grayson led the league in home runs with four.

The other infielder tonight will be Kevin Smith of Kiwanis who will play second base. Smith batted .333 during the regular season.

Joining Landress in the outfield will be Steve Dennis of Elks in left field and Larry Thomas of Masters Cove Apartments in right field. Dennis batted .357 during the regular season, while Thomas led the league in hitting with a .481 batting average.

Rounding out the Sanford all-stars are Theron Ligon (.405) of Knights of Columbus; Mike Cameron (.321) and Chad Braden (.286) of Masters Cove Apartments; Bryan Debose (.347), Mike Wright (.339) and Alvin Jones (.243) of Kiwanis; Aundra Williams (.327) of Moose; and Phil Harris (.346) of Rotary.

Knights of Columbus manager Alvis Whitted is manager of the all-stars. His coaches are Bill Dube of Moose and Ray Bronson of Kiwanis.

If Sanford wins tonight, they will play defending district champ Ormond Beach at 8 p.m. Tuesday. If Sanford loses tonight they will play again Wednesday night in a losers' bracket contest.

Clermont Battles Back For District Championship

It might be a year later, but the results are still the same for the District 4 Tournament at Clermont.

Right-hander John Heinrich struck out 14 batters and slammed a first inning home run as Clermont battled back through the loser's bracket to whip Holly Hill 4-3 and advance to the state tournament in Jacksonville July 27, 28 and 29.

On Saturday, Clermont, who lost the opening game of the district to the Sanford Americans, whipped Holly Hill 1-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Willie Wilkerson and Chad Hart to force Sunday's rubber match.

Efforts to play the pivotal game Sunday were foiled by inclement weather. In Saturday's nailbiter however, a broken catcher's mitt led to the game's only run.

In the fourth inning, two passed balls with a new glove moved a runner to third base from where he scored on an infield single by Craig Leaczynski. It was the only Clermont hit off loser Mike Ader, who fanned 11 hitters.

Hart relieved Wilkerson in the third inning for Manager John Reagan's ball club and shut out Holly Hill the rest of the game to pick up the victory.

In Sunday's game, Frankie Brown crashed a two-run homer off Holly Hill ace Brian Morris in the fifth inning to provide the winning margin. Morris struck out seven hitters in a losing effort.

officials called the race about 3:20 p.m. EDT — nearly 90 minutes after the scheduled 2 p.m. starting time — because of the heavy rains.

Track officials and NBC, which had been prepared to televise the race from start to finish, the first-ever live coverage of a 500-mile race, had hoped to see the race despite intermittent showers, but a cloudburst at 2:45 p.m. forced a postponement until next Saturday.

Rain Postpones Norton

BROOKLYN, Mich. (UPI) — The Michigan International Speedway was more fit for hydroplanes than the Indy-style cars that sat idle in the rain, waiting to roar around the track in the inaugural Norton Michigan 500-mile race.

The rain never let up and the engines never started Sunday.

Orlando Tops Altamonte, 14-5

When the Orlando and Altamonte American Legion squads meet it is guaranteed to be an offensive display. Saturday afternoon was no exception, either, as the two met for sole possession of first place. Orlando captured the honor with a late-inning explosion for a 14-5 blasting of Post 183.

Altamonte rebounded on Sunday with a 4-0 win over Apopka to clinch a playoff berth opposite Orlando with the two-of-three series opening July 31.

A Jeff O'Dell two-out, bases-loaded triple in the seventh broke open a 5-5 nailbiter and snapped an eight-game Altamonte win streak.

Coach Bob McCullough's crew is 10-2 in league play and 16-4 overall after Sunday's victory, one game behind Post 286 the defending league champs.

"We haven't played a good ball game since the (Firecracker) tournament," McCullough complained.

With four starters out of the lineup on Saturday, McCullough wished he would have stayed in bed.

Altamonte had kept pace with Orlando until the seventh. Post 286 filled the bases off starter Gary Smith with no one out and its 2-3-4 batters coming to the plate.

Smith got two-thirds of the way to the dugout by popping up Dan Hayes and fanning Ronnie Lamkin.

"I was a pitch or two away from getting out of the inning," Smith recalled. But O'Dell stroked a 1-1 pitch in the right-center field alley to clear the bases. Left fielder John Lambert, who had three singles on the afternoon, followed with one of his hits, scoring O'Dell and giving Orlando a 9-5 lead.

They added two more runs in the eighth and three unearned tallies in the ninth turning the game into a rout.

An O'Dell homer sparked a three-run second inning for an early Orlando lead.

Altamonte answered with three runs of its own in the bottom half of the inning. Rob Reich led off with a walk off winning

John Reich singled up the middle in the bottom of the fifth, moved to second on a sacrifice and scored on a throwing error to give Altamonte a short lived 4-3 lead.

Two singles, a pair of wild pitches, and a safety squeeze by Lambert resulted in two Orlando runs in the sixth.

However, Altamonte tied the game again when the hot-hitting Chiodini scored on a sacrifice fly before Orlando's outburst in the final three frames.

Altamonte never trailed in its shutout victory over Apopka on Sunday. Two runs in the top of the first was all Post 183 needed to dump Apopka for the third consecutive time this summer.

Rick Marcello pulled off the rare feat of gaining the mound victory and also getting credit for the save. Working the middle three innings, Marcello fought out of a bases-loaded jam in the fifth with a slim 2-0 lead.

Reliever Bob Parker came on in favor of Marcello in the seventh, and with one on and one out in the eighth, first baseman Rodney Brewer lined a shot off Parker's knee to finish the redhead for the afternoon. Marcello went back to the mound for the injured Parker and was greeted with a single up the middle to fill the bases again with one out. He struck out the next two hitters to end the Apopka threat. For the afternoon, the Blue Darters stranded 11 base runners.

Altamonte padded its lead with single runs in the sixth and seventh. Jim Chickowski and Bryan Holzworth were both 2-for-4 with an RBI apiece.

Post 183 travels to Winter Park Wednesday afternoon in search of its fourth straight win over the Parkers.

JOLLY ROGERS

Texan Bill Breaks Slump With British Open Victory

SANDWICH, England (UPI) — In Bill Rogers' own words, "It has been a very unusual year."

This season saw his worst slump since he joined the pro tour — he missed five cuts in a row.

Today, however, Rogers is the British Open champion after coasting to victory four strokes better than West German Bernhard Langer over the 6,822-yard Royal St. George's course.

But even in his moment of glory Sunday, the bizarre nature of the Texan's season revealed itself. As he strode toward the 18th green to receive rapturous applause from the fans in the crowded bleachers, Rogers was obstructed by a policeman.

"I told him 'I am just trying to finish pal and then we can talk later.'"

It did nothing to tarnish his win.

"It's easily the biggest thrill of my life," claimed the man who came out of that barren early season spell to win the Heritage Classic, then finished second in the U.S. Open to Australian David Graham.

The final round looked like a walkover, with the Texarkana resident carrying the biggest lead — five strokes — into the fourth day since 1964.

And on the face of it, it was a one-sided victory, with the 29-year-old Rogers carding a 1-over-par 71 for an aggregate 276, while Langer could only match the course in 70 for a 280 total.

But Langer did his best to raise a challenge, and at one stage was only one stroke behind Rogers.

The powerful, blond 23-year-old from Augsburg basically played steady golf, flitting between the even par he started on and 1-under-par, but never getting more than one stroke ahead of the course.

However, his persistence put pressure on Rogers, who bogeyed the fifth, and then double bogeyed the seventh to slip from his 5-under-par overnight position to just 2-under.

Britain's Mark James, who started the day at par, and American Ray Floyd, charging from a 3-over start, were also closing in on the leader at that stage.

After losing the first shot, Rogers started to let things slide away.

"It was my first bogey of the round and I told myself not to panic," he said. He was still four strokes clear of Langer, but he met with an even bigger disaster when he double bogeyed the 529-yard seventh and Langer birdied the hole to cut the American's lead to just one shot.

"All of a sudden four people were in the golf tournament — Bernhard, Mark, Ray Floyd and myself. I just hitched up my pants and said 'don't worry.' A lot of times when you have a major foulup you just have to say 'now is the time to go.' The No. 1 thing that popped into my mind was the Heritage Classic when going into the last nine I had a sixshot lead knocked down to one and still won."

That was precisely what Rogers did, dropping in two vital birdies at the ninth and 10th, while the German dropped a stroke at the 11th.

Floyd, the 38-year-old from Fort Bragg, N.C., could not sustain his challenge.

He dropped a shot at the par-4 first, but immediately birdied the next and surged up the leader's board by stringing together three successive birdies from the sixth to hit level par with a three at the eighth.

However, his game deserted him and when he bogeyed the 13th he was back to 3-over.

James had to settle for a share of third place after starting the day tied for second with par. He was disappointed with his last day form, producing four bogeys and a double bogey against two birdies in his worst round of the tournament.

James and Floyd finished one stroke ahead of Scotman Sam Torrance, who became the third player of the tournament to ace the par-3 16th hole on his way to carding an even-par round.

American Bruce Lietzke and Spain's Manuel Pinero were bracketed a further stroke back on 284 after posting 69 and 70 respectively.

Caponi Overcomes Double-Bogey For Jericho Win

JERICHO, N.Y. (UPI) — Donna Caponi says she used to be able to hit the golf ball only one way — a nice, high hook.

But 17 years after arriving on the LPGA tour, the 36-year-old veteran now says she can make the ball do dances on the way to the green. She also has learned to control something other than the flight of the ball — the lump in her throat.

"I probably am thinking better now (than in the past), but I don't know that I'm playing any better," said the two-time U.S. Open champion, who Sunday held her game together in the wake of a potentially disastrous doublebogey to win a $125,000 LPGA tournament by two shots over unheralded Julie Stanger.

Caponi was sailing along with a four-shot lead over Stanger when she hooked her drive on the narrow 333-yard, par-4 14th hole into a nearly unplayable lie. The ball was nestled in heavy rough on the downslope of a fairway bunker, and Caponi had to stand in the sand to take a whack at it.

"That was the only fairway that I would get to Julie."

She was right. Stanger, a 24-year-old former Arizona state amateur champion who has yet to win in three years on the tour, gave away a shot at the 18th when she hit a poor chip and missed the putt for a bogey. That gave Caponi a twoshot cushion with two holes to play, and it was enough.

"That was the turning point really," said Stanger, whose second-place finish was the best of her career. "But it was really neat to play well. I made a lot of good shots under pressure."

Canadian Barr Grabs Sudden-Death Victory

COAL VALLEY, Ill. (UPI) — When eight sudden-death playoff holes at the $200,000 Quad Cities Open boiled down to Dave Barr's 3 1/4-foot putt, something happened that the strapping Canadian said he never expected.

The putt went in and he won.

"A lot of times you don't expect it and this was one of the times I didn't expect it," said Barr, who picked up his first PGA victory. "I knew I had the capability to win, but I just didn't expect to today."

Barr's putt ended an eight-hole battle that began with five golfers who tied at 10-under-par 270 after the final round at the Oakwood Country Club course. Tied for second place were Woody Blackburn, Frank Connor, Victor Regalado, and Dave Hallderson.

The field of five narrowed to two after Barr and Blackburn posted birdies on the first playoff hole. The two were in a putting duel until Barr's putt on the eighth hole eliminated Blackburn.

Blackburn missed a 20-foot putt after his tee shot went into the left bunker on the par-3 hole, and Barr said he played it safe after watching that.

"I wasn't going for the pin there. I was going for the center of the green," said Barr, 29, who collected the first prize of $36,000.

The win also gave Barr a one-year exemption from qualifying for PGA tournaments.

The eight-hole battle tied the record for the second-longest playoff in PGA history. The five-way tie for the lead also matched a PGA record for the most golfers in a playoff.

Regalado, who began the day with a two-stroke lead, was ahead by one shot going into the final round. But he missed a 6-foot putt on the 18th hole and was forced to compete for the lead in the playoff.

Barr increased his 1981 earnings to $44,517. Although he was a winner of five events on the Canadian tour, it was his first victory on the PGA tour.

"I had confidence because of doing well in Canada but this was a long time coming," said the native of Vancouver, British Columbia. "You never forget a tour win out here."

Blackburn, who also was bidding for his first PGA victory, took in $13,200 along with Regalado, Connor and Hallderson.

"I hit the ball much poorer in the playoff than in the round," Blackburn said. "I was just a little tired, I guess."

Four were tied for sixth place at $6,475, while Curtis Strange was alone in 10th place with $5,400.

Defending champion Scott Hoch and Rod Curl, leader of the first and second rounds, began the final round close behind the lead. But both dropped out of contention early in the day and posted 3-over-par 73s.

Curl ended up tied for 17th with six others while Hoch was among eight golfers tied for 24th.

Although the weather was hot, muggy and humid, tournament officials estimated that 16,000 to 18,000 people attended the event.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Lowe's Captures Third Place In State Recreation Tourney

Lowe's of Sanford captured third place in the Florida Recreational Softball Women's Tournament at Mulberry Park in Daytona Beach.

Anne Greime's home run gave Lowe's a 2-1 opening-game victory over Southern Express Saturday morning. Veteran hurler Betty Turner picked up the mound decision.

Lowe's suffered its first defeat Saturday night to Daytona's Superstars, 16-4. The Superstars held a narrow 5-4 edge until the fifth inning when Lowe's fell apart.

Third baseman Sherri Bledsoe was injured in a collision at third base Saturday and was unable to play the rest of the tournament. "That really hurt," said team spokesman Betsy Chavis. "We had to play a bunch of people out of position."

In a third game Saturday, Lowe's dumped Tropigas 10-4 and came back with an 11-7 victory over T-Shirt of Ormond Beach before being bumped from the tournament by the Superstars 13-3.

The Blue Machine of Daytona Beach won the 12-team affair, while the Superstars were second ahead of Lowe's. "We felt we did pretty well for our first state tournament," said Chavis about the third place trophy.

Greime and Deena Flamm were Lowe's top hitters for the weekend.

Barons Bounce O-Twins, 9-8

The Orlando Twins return to Tinker Field tonight after concluding an unsuccessful road trip by dropping a Sunday-night game to the Birmingham Barons, 9-8 at Birmingham.

The loss was the third in a row for the Twins who smashed three home runs in the setback. Catcher Tim Laudner rapped his league-leading 30th, while Gary Gaetti popped his 21th and Scott Ullger slugged his 17th.

Tonight, the O-Twins try to break out of their slump with a 7:30 game against the Chattanooga Lookouts.

Dickerson Unanimous Winner

Sanford's Jerry Dickerson scored a unanimous three-round decision Saturday in his first amateur fight over Jacksonville's Ken Hill at the South Orlando Boys Club in Pine Castle.

Dickerson, who is trained by Mike Fordham, Bruce Nelson and Victor "Taco" Perez, floored Hill in the first and third rounds with right hands.

"The referee said, 'Jerry was the best fighter he'd ever seen for a guy fighting his first fight,'" said Fordham, who had a near altercation with Hill's manager.

"He called me a (expletive deleted) liar," said the former heavyweight. "He didn't believe it was Jerry's first fight."

Thirteen-year-old Chris Smith won on a technical knockout in the second round over Jimmy Coldiron of Oklawaha for Sanford's other victory. "Lap" Fillmon and Jay Laney — Sanford's other two fighters — didn't fight because no one "matched up" with them.

Altamonte Teams Battle On

Altamonte Springs' Major League and Senior League all-stars continue the battle tonight at two different playing sites.

Gene Letterio's Major League outfit can wrap up the Division II half of the district 14 title with a victory over Eustis at Deland tonight at 7:30.

Letterio will send right-hander Anthony Laszaic to the mound to nail down the victory. A loss would set up a winner-take-all game Tuesday night. An Altamonte victory would send Letterio's crew against the division I winner July 23 in Ocoee. Apolka is sitting in a position similar to Altamonte in that division.

Elsewhere in Altamonte baseball circles, Manager Russ Whittington's Senior all-stars stayed alive Saturday with a 14-4 rout of Oviedo to move into tonight's 8 o'clock game against Eustis at Eustis.

The Seniors must beat Eustis twice for the division II title and a spot opposite the division I winner. Saturday, Mark Coffey struck out five, while Mark Cochran and Tony Johnson each belted two hits. Coffey added a double.

Tonight, Whittington will send Cochran against Eustis. A victory will setup Tuesday's deciding game where Whittington will probably go with Craig Bolton.

Altamonte's third entry in post-season play—the AAA all-stars of Vance Ambrose—hope to wrap up their share of Division I with a victory over host Eustis at 8 p.m.

A win would send Ambrose's team into the District 14 championship game Thursday night at Eustis against the Division II winner. Eustis needs two wins over Altamonte for the title.

43rd Victory Since 1923

Evert Leads Americans To Wightman Cup Win

CHICAGO (UPI) — Chris Evert Lloyd has a message for President Reagan: "America has won the Wightman Cup for the 43rd time since 1923."

Evert's team swept all seven matches — including three on Sunday — in the 53rd annual competition between the United States and England at the International Amphitheater, to give America five wins in the last six years.

"Because there is so much going on in this country, and because the event may not be as important as other things, I want everyone to know — especially the president — that our team won," she said.

Evert earned her 20th straight victory in singles competition Sunday by defeating Sue Barker 6-3, 6-0.

But for the world's No. 1-ranked player and the rest of her teammates, America's easy triumph has left the tennis world grasping for ways to improve the tournament.

Methods to change the format brought forth a multitude of answers from tournament players in a news conference following the matches, but nearly everyone agreed with Virginia Wade.

"It would be a shame to change what has come to be a great tradition just because we have not been doing well lately," said Wade, a ranking English player.

Wade — who lost two singles matches, including a match Sunday to Tracy Austin 6-3, 6-1 — said, "When the matches are played in England, the fans are really behind us and we seem to play a lot better."

Her remark sparked a flurry of responses from the U.S. players, including Evert, who said, "Something must be done to live up to the American spirit when it comes to playing the Wightman Cup."

"It was not until Sunday that I personally felt that the American fans were really behind us and this is the way it always seems to be, especially when we are playing the underdog."

Rosie Casals, who joined Evert Sunday for a 6-3, 6-3 doubles victory over Wade and Glynis Coles, said Americans take too many things for granted, "especially a Wightman Cup tennis victory."

"We in America are blessed with a lot of great tennis players and other things, while in England and other countries, they all really back their players and the concept of team play really means something," Casals said.

Stars From The Lone-Star State

Farrah Fawcett

Jaclyn Smith

Rosie Vela

Kelly Emborg

Jerry Hall

From the state where the sun shines somewhat brighter, and the Great Outdoors is just that much greater, come these five Texas beauties with the fresh, healthy good looks that say it all.

Each a successful actress or model — or both — they didn't become stars by being timid, says the current issue of Harper's Bazaar.

It took that particularly Texan spirit of adventure!

Jaclyn Smith left Texas at 21 to study ballet in New York. There, she was discovered by a Paramount executive, whisked out to California ... and launched, eventually becoming one of Charlie's original Angels. Though she spends most of her time now in Los Angeles, Jaclyn likes nothing better than to return to her native Houston, "a big city with a small-town feeling."

"If I hadn't left Texas, I think I'd be teaching ballet," says the dark-eyed beauty. "Now I have my own life in L.A. which I adore ... but just so I can always go home!"

Another Angel, Farrah Fawcett has the kind of golden beauty that opens doors ... and the determination to be a star. In Texas, says Farrah, people say, "Yes, you're a beautiful girl, but let's see what else you have to offer."

"I think because of that, Texas women have a particular style. They're strong and their constitutions are strong. It must go back to those pioneer women."

Something of a pioneer herself, Farrah went to Hollywood on a dare, not knowing if she'd last two weeks. Would she have to come home? In L.A., "I was put under contract to a studio and signed to do a movie the week after that. I had only planned to stay the summer, but it didn't work out that way."

Long-legged beauty Jerry Hall grew up breaking horses and riding rodeo in Mesquite ... and ran off to Paris at 16 to become one of the world's most-wanted models!

So tall and thin when she graduated from high school at 16, no one asked her to the prom. "I was so depressed. But I had managed to save $800. So I got a backpack and sleeping bag and went to Paris."

"Discovered" on the beach at St. Tropez, Jerry lived and modeled in Paris for two and a half years.

"In Paris, I just loved to tell people how many times England and France could fit into Texas. People everywhere like to imagine that Texas is real 'Wild West.' But I tell you, I went back to Dallas and everybody did have a cowboy hat on. They've been watching J.R."

Model Kelly Emborg is a big-city Texan who first stepped down the runway with her mother in a Houston fashion show. From there, it was on to New York and straight to the top.

"I was 18 and all set to go off to college, when I got a letter from John Casablancas asking me to join his modeling agency in New York. I was petrified! Everyone in Houston thought New York was this big, bad place with lots of muggers."

"If my mother hadn't come with me, I never would have gone."

Rosie Vela. A little girl who came out of Texas into Arkansas and on to New York where she took the modeling world by storm with her look of waiflike innocence and magnolia-perfect skin.

Raised in Galveston, an island off the Gulf coast, Rosie remembers "watermelon shakes and chocolate malteds" and quintessential Americana — "all the highways."

A long way from New York to Hollywood (she recently made her film debut in Michael Cimino's controversial "Heaven's Gate," opposite Kris Kristofferson) Galveston was to Rosie idyllic teen life ... "days on the beach with pretty girls surfing, local bands playing and nights at the drive-in."

How would one guess, asks Bazaar, that this nymphet-beauty could be so downright All-American? But then again, that's what being from Texas is all about!

Boy Should Explain Graduation Status

DEAR ABBY: Please help settle a disagreement we are having in our family. My grandson sent out his high-school graduation announcements before he knew that he didn't have enough credits to graduate.

He received many lovely graduation gifts, including some nice checks from relatives. I say all the gifts (and of course the checks) should be returned because he didn't really graduate. His mother (my daughter) insists that he is entitled to keep the gifts because he completed 12 years of schooling.

Do you think my daughter is right, and I should butt out? ILLINOIS GRANNY
DEAR GRANNY: Your grandson should keep the gifts and send thank-you notes explaining that he did not graduate with his class, but he plans to make up the deficient credits and earn his diploma eventually — if indeed he intends to do so. Otherwise, he should return the gifts.

DEAR ABBY: My son, Allen, who is 18, has been going with Anna Marie for three years. She's also 18. They have been engaged since last Christmas, but no wedding date has been set. Allen lives at home and just started working at a bank. Anna Marie works there too. This bank has a great benefit package, which includes a $50,000 life insurance policy. Allen told me he made Anna Marie his beneficiary. I was very hurt. I told him that after they are married, Anna Marie should be the beneficiary, but until then, if, God forbid, something should happen to him, I should be the beneficiary of his policy.

Dear Abby

He said no, that if something should happen to him tomorrow, he'd want his girlfriend to collect on his policy. What is your opinion? ALLEN'S MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: I'm with you. Until Allen and Anna Marie are married (unless, God forbid, she's pregnant), Allen's beneficiary should be his mother.

DEAR ABBY: I've seen a lot of letters in your column from people who have no children but they're very content. I have one child and I'm satisfied to keep it that way.

My problem is relatives and close friends who keep coming up with stupid remarks like, "You have to have another one so Johnny will have someone to play with."

My sister, who has never been married and has no kids, is always on my case about the selfishness of raising one child. Worse yet, she keeps prodding my son, "Tell your mom you want a little sister."

Abby, I am at the end of my rope with these people. I've tried long speeches on why I want only one child, and I've even told them I'm doing my part to curb the population explosion, but nothing helps. Can you give me a good answer the next time a person asks, "When are you going to have another one?" ONE'S ENOUGH IN WORCESTER, MASS.

DEAR ONE'S ENOUGH: You don't have to answer a question simply because someone had the nerve to ask it. And you need not apologize.

DEAR ABBY: I cried when I read about the poor 11-year-old kid who still wets the bed, so his parents made him wear a diaper and put him out in the front yard where all his friends could see him.

Instead of writing to you about it, that neighbor should have called the proper authorities and had those parents arrested for child abuse!

They may not know it now, but they have lost their son. He will never forgive them in his dying day.

Cook Food Well Then Eat Or Cool It

DEAR DR. LAMB — Last year my family and other relatives got together for an outdoors Fourth of July picnic dinner. Everybody brought something and we had a great time.

DEAR READER — If you are correct, you had a staphylococcal food poisoning. There are a lot of bacteria that can cause food poisoning but this form usually occurs in less than eight hours after the offending food is eaten.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I was born without a womb. Will I go through the change of life just like a normal woman? I was told this happened to me at birth but I don't understand.

DEAR READER — It is rare but a girl may be born without a uterus. Considering the many complex changes that a few cells must undergo to form the entire normal female or male reproductive system, it is remarkable that there are no more defects than do occur.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Tuesday, July 21, 1981

YOUR BIRTHDAY

July 21, 1981

The aspects indicate you might greatly enlarge your circle of friends over the coming months.

CANCER (June 21-July 21) When giving advice today, tell it like it is rather than say what others hope to hear.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) The types with whom you associate today will have a great effect on your achievements and abilities to accumulate.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your possibilities for deriving material benefits from a second source are very good today.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your judgment in dealing with friends today is quite good, provided you decide to do what is right and proper rather than try to placate someone's special interests.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Major achievements are possible today, both financially and where your reputation is concerned.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're extremely skillful today in managing difficult situations, with the exception of those relating to finances.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Early in the day you might feel things slipping from your control a bit, but this will only encourage you to assert yourself more.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You have a knack today for quickly grasping things that others have trouble understanding.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) The types with whom you associate today will have a great effect on your achievements and abilities to accumulate.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Today should be quite rewarding. You're able to differentiate between goals that are truly worthy and those that are not.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Don't measure what you do for others today by what you hope to get in return.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Even though you'll know one whom you'll be dealing with today isn't as frank as he or she could be, it won't affect your fair treatment of this person.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Don't let unimaginative associates impede your progress today.
