MARX BECOMES CHANCELLOR OF NEW COALITION

SUCCEEDS STRESEMANN IN GERMANY REPORT IS ISSUED

Former Chancellor Becomes Foreign Minister According To Official Announcement Made Today

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, Nov. 30.—Official announcement of the formation of a new three-party coalition cabinet for Germany, with Dr.
Wilhelm Marx, as chancellor and former Chancellor Stresemann as foreign minister, was made this afternoon.

Coalition Succeeds Stresemann
BERLIN, Nov. 30.—The seven-day parliamentary crisis which was chiefly devoted to inter party bickerings and barterings and a n a t tempt definitely to do away with socialistic influence in national politics through the creation of a bourgeois bloc terminated tonight in a three-party coalition, by virtue of which a minority coalition, comprising members of the Clerical, the German Peoples' and the Democratic parties will succeed the deposed Stresemann government which was constituted with the same component parts. Dr. Wilhelm Marx, the Clerical leader, will head the new cabinet as chancellor while the other portfolios will be held by men who were in the last government.

As at present constituted the government will be: Chancellor, Dr. Wilhelm Marx; minister of the Interior,
Dr. Jarres; minister of Defense, Dr.
Otto Geiser; minister of Food, Dr.
Hans Luther; minister of Posts, Dr.
Anton Hoefle; minister without portfolio, Rudolph Oeser.

Dr. Stresemann is reported to have accepted the post of foreign minister.
Aside from being a pronounced minority cabinet, the present revamped coalition is anything but a firmly co-ordinated three-party bloc within its own ranks and it also will be called upon to assimilate much of the animosity and partisan acerbities which it inherits from the seven day crisis, both with respect to the an-tagonism waiting it from the German Nationalists as well as the yet wholly problematical attitude of the united Socialists.

THREE WISHES FOR SANFORD

By E. T. WOODRUFF

Responding to the invitation of the Herald my first wish for Sanford is the thing vital that fundamentally is indispensable to real success, national, community or individual. Success and prosperity are the bounty of Providence. They come directly from the beneficent Supreme. Have we a right to or can we expect them if by utter disregard of His known wish and command we commit ourselves to contempt of the giver? All through the ages, history records the disaster and fash of the people who have no thought of or obedience to the Creator. And the foundation of the whole plan of Divine favor is the Christian Sabbath. It is expressly commanded that there shall be neither omission or careless performance of the religious duties of the Sabbath, nor profaning the day by idleness in regard to God's worship, nor doing that which is in itself sinful, nor by unnecessary thoughts, words or works about our world employments or recreations.
All worldly employments except those of real necessity and of mercy, are proscribed. In the keeping of the day as Divinely appointed is the certainty of success.

My first wish for Sanford is, a Reverently Observed Sunday.

Accomplishment is only attained in highest degree by organization, united effort, and keeping everlastingly at it. Sanford has a good and efficiently functioning organization. This organization is doing great things for our City in numerous lines. Not in the least would we have any of these enterprising improvements abated in their development, but we believe we are safe in saying that, at last, after years' laborious and finance-deplet-

Former Sanford Woman Cuts Relatives Off In The Making of Her Will

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—The will of Mrs. Mabel Loughton Fernald of Boston, formerly of Sanford, Fla., who died in New York on June 30, 1923, has been allowed by Judge Dolan of the Suffolk County Probate Court.
Hanson H. Adams of Leominster, 90-year-old uncle of the deceased, contested the will on the ground that Mrs. Fernald was of unsound mind when she executed the will a week before her death. In the will she stated that she purposely made no provision for any relatives because of lack of interest shown by them in her affairs and trials.

After legacies of many friends and creating trusts of $5,000 and $2,000 for the benefit, respectively, of Maria Batay and Maria Horton, servants, both of Sanford, Fla., Mrs. Fernald left the residue of her $50,000 estate to be divided equally among the Boston Lying-in Hospital, the Boston Floating Hospital, the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, the Cambridge Welfare Union and the New England Moral Reform Society.

"Protect the South regardless of

tion in the South to see that the South

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Support of Ku Klux Klan in his candidacy for governor of New York was spurned in a letter from Theodore Roosevelt to the national Association for Advancement of Colored People. The not conceive of such as he had come out flatfooted against them.

The report that the Klan would ground.

Union Services HELD YESTERDAY

Union services of the local churches were held yesterday morning in the Congregational Church. A good sized crowd was in attendance, and their devotional spirit for the Thanksgiving exercises, according to Dr. Carpenter, was excellent.

Dr. King conducted the services, and preached a short sermon on general world conditions, showing many causes for universal thankfulness.
Testimonies were called for from the congregation, and many responded telling what each had to be thankful for.

Good music was rendered by the Congregational choir, and a beautiful solo was favored by Mrs. Lucille Takah, whose sweet voice is always a pleasure to her audiences.

The collection, which was liberally subscribed to, according to Dr. Burmans, will be devoted to the Children's Home at Jacksonville.

Eldridge Boy Is Shot While Hunting

Duck Hunt of Three Youths on Miami River in a Skiff Comes to Unexpected End Saturday Afternoon

According to the Miami Metropolitan Alfred Eldridge, 12, whose father Alfred S. Eldridge, is a state livestock inspector residing at 1118 S. W.
Sixth st., is at the Terrace hospital recovering from wounds received Saturday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a small bore rifle in the hands of Clement Reitz, also 12, while the two boys, with Smith Mc-Ivy, of the same age, were in a row-boat on the Miami river, going "duck hunting" as they told the police afterwards. Attending physicians say the boy will be out again in about 10 days.

Eldridge was "master" of the skiff when Reitz, the "gun bearer" seated in the stern, lost his balance and the gun went off. Eldridge was struck in the right shoulder by the bullet, which deflected and lodged near the backbone.

The companions of the wounded boy rowed ashore. While Clement was dragging Eldridge ashore, with blood flowing from the wound, the McIvy boy ran to a fisherman's shack, and Eldridge was taken in an automobile to the office of Dr. R. B. Mc-Feters. Later he was moved to the hospital in a King ambulance.

Young Eldridge is a pupil at the Junior High school and a member of the Coral Gables troop of Boy Scouts.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE MILANE

The Milane will feature today and tomorrow Douglas Fairbanks in "Robin Hood."

An idea of the magnitude of Douglas Fairbanks' most ambitious undertaking involving the production of this stupendous cinema drama may be had from the following statistics:

Over twenty thousand persons were employed in the various branches of industry to make this production.

The royal banquet room in the castle is the largest room in the world, being larger even than the concourse of the Pennsylvania Terminal Station in New York City.

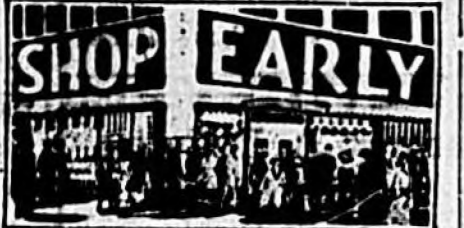

Error in Ad

A typographical error by The Herald in the advertisement of The Milane Theatre on Wednesday was cause of much confusion at that theatre last night. Instead of the price of admission being 35 cents the advertisement stated the price was 25 cents.

The picture featuring Mary Carr in "The Custard Cup" drew a good sized crowd.

The air is full of things. You shouldn't miss. Get a Radio.

You can start with only $5.00. Before you realize it you will be driving your own Ford car.

government is not measuring up to the true duty of a citizen."

"Every citizen should feel the same interest in the affairs of his state and government that he does in his private affairs," he continued. "For one who is not in public life this requires but little of his time and attention, yet nothing can be of more consequence to himself and to his children than for the government to keep clean and pure, that its trusts be put in the hands of men true and able and that those who are unfit to manage public business or who would use it for selfish purposes be kept from getting control. To accomplish this every citizen should make definite views as to public policies so that he may form his own opinions and align himself intelligently with that party which he thinks will best serve the best interest of the country."

"Loyalty to the state of Florida," Governor Hardee declared, "not only demands that we should abide by the decisions of its and adhere to wholesome policies, but also forbids that one should do anything which would lessen the influence, dignity or effectiveness of any department of our state government. The practice of abusing those in authority has done much harm in the past, not only in weakening the effectiveness of those to whom the government has been entrusted but also endangering them and the stability of the government itself. If we make the best use of every day, if we learn to love our state, its history and the story of the great men, if we acquaint ourselves with its geography and its government that we know the meaning of the problems that will arise, if our hearts thrill with the tales of heroism and songs of patriotism and the sight of the Stars and Stripes, then we would be serving our state nobly and well."

Governor Hardee said he always welcomed the opportunity to visit Marion county where the greetings were and the generosity unbending whose people "from the earliest days have played an important part in the development of this commonwealth and they have met their responsibility of whatever nature loyalty and devotion equal to that of any other county in the State of Florida."

"You are to be congratulated on your fair with its splendid display of products and resources of the state," he said. Fairs, he added are educational, "the time-keepers of progress."

"Florida speaks through this fair to thousands of people from different sections of the country and it is here where we may see much evidence of the past progress of the state, its opportunities and its future possibilities."

"If one would make an inventory of the material resources of Florida, I am sure that they would first think of that basic industry, 'agriculture,'" the governor continued. "It is the product fields and groves and occupies the largest place in this fair and to which we can point with so much interest and pride."

It is interesting to know, he said, that of the product values of the whole United States for 1922, more than 37 per cent of the whole were grown in the thirteen southern states, and of the increase of 1922 over the year 1921, 47 per cent of such increase was in the South.

"The South with rapid gait is coming into its own. Included within the thirteen southern states to which the above figures are applicable is Florida," he continued. "It sometimes does us good to take stock as it were, of our resources and oftentimes in our stock-taking we are encouraged for the future. A soil survey will show that more than twenty million acres of land of the state is available for cultivation and suitable for the growing of profitable crops. If all our agricultural lands were developed we could easily produce a billion dollar crop, including livestock dairying, poultry, etc. This would only be $50 an acre and it is not an unusual thing to produce $1,000 worth of produce from an acre in Florida. With something growing every month in the year and with a greater variety of crops than any other state agriculture should be easy in Florida and we should produce more than ten times as much as we do." Florida, he said, is the marketing center of the world by water.

AMERICAN LEGION BACKS PHYSICAL EDUCATION PLAN

Less Than Twelve Per Cent of School Children in the United States Are Now Receiving This Education

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 30.—Because less than twelve percent of the school children of the United States are receiving the benefits of physical education, the American Legion will present a definite physical-education program of legislation to the next Congress, John R. Quinn, National Commander of the legion, announced today. The announcement followed a conference of representatives of leading patriotic and educational organizations in America which was called by Garland W. Powell, the legion's director of Americanism.

"The American Legion has been astounded to learn how small a percentage of school children of the nation now receive the benefits of physical education," Mr. Quinn declared. "A misleading impression has resulted from the large publicity given to athletic sports and games in which only a few participate while great numbers look on and applaud. These contests do not provide training pupils according to individual needs.

"In spite of thirty-two state laws which in greater or less degrees stimulate local provisions for physical education, today not more than 12 per cent of the school children of the nation are receiving this fundamental training. There undeniably is need for national stimulation and leadership. Without it we must face delay, ineffectiveness and waste.

"In the meantime, millions of children will grow to maturity physically handicapped and morally ill-equipped for the responsibilities of citizenship. This can only be avoided if the federal government will act promptly and effectively.

"Competent experts have testified that adequate physical education in younger years would have prevented the disqualification of more than a million recruits for national service in the recent war emergency. From the standpoint of national defense alone it seems obvious that the federal government is obligated to immediate action. But this training is equally important in preparing the youth of both sexes for the full discharge of all the duties of post-time citizenship. Freedom for the pursuit of happiness, equality of opportunity and protection of life and property are but empty phrases for the youth who has been denied the training of body, mind and character essential to joyful and serviceable self-expression. If there should be only one way in which the federal government could appropriately promote the general welfare of the citizenry, could there be anything more fundamental than to guarantee for all a preliminary training for physical fitness and moral and mental balance through physical education?"

FLORIDA'S NEEDS.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 30.—Florida needs, more than anything else, the completion of its state and county systems of paved high-ways—and this it will realize within comparatively few years.

The greatest needs of Florida are thus described by Mr. W. F. Stovall, of the Tampa Tribune in a letter to The Associated Press.

"It needs a broader and more comprehensive program of statewide advertising," the letter continues, "that will bring directly to the attention of homeseekers and investment seekers all over the country the specific advantages it offers as a place for health, wealth and recreation. It needs more men like Collier, Ringling, Connors, Babson, Bok, Curtis, Halldeman, Ford and Edison to become directly interested in its present and its future.

"It needs the thorough co-operation of its every citizen, its every business enterprise, its every civic and commercial body and its every newspaper in developing its resources, improving its industrial and living conditions and in keeping it everlastingly before the rest of the world."

Democrats Consistent Advocates of Tax Reduction Says Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—An analysis of Secretary Mellon's tax revision proposal based upon recent history of fiscal legislation and attempted legislation shows that it is neither new nor original. The two outstanding features are the proposed reduction of surtaxes from the present maximum of 50 per cent to 25 per cent; secondly, a reduction of 25 per cent in the tax on earned incomes over unearned incomes.

The first proposal was made in 1921 when a Republican Congress attempted to reduce the higher surtax from 65 per cent to 25 per cent, which was defeated by Democratic and progressive Republican votes, retaining the higher surtax at 50 per cent.

The second proposal for a reduction on unearned incomes was a Democratic amendment to the revenue bill, offered by Senator Harris of Georgia, and defeated on October 24, 1921, in the senate by a solid Republican vote.

The history of tax reduction since that war shows that the only effective equitable tax reduction that have been made were made by Democrats; that the only attempted reductions by Republicans have been for the sole benefit of the multi-millionaire and profiteering class, whose taxes have been reduced over $500,000,000. The attempt of Republican legislators to reduce taxes of this class of taxpayers another half billion dollars was defeated by Democratic and progressive Republican votes in the 67th Congress.

Actual, comprehensive and equitable tax reduction was inaugurated by a Democratic Congress immediately after the war. In February, 1919, a tax revision act, known as the Revenue Act of 1918, was passed in which the Democrats effected an estimated reduction of taxes from $6,000,000,000 for 1918 to $4,000,000,000 for 1919—a reduction of $2,000,000,000—until further tax revision could be taken up.

In pursuance of the Democratic policy of further tax revision, President Wilson, then in Paris, convened the administration's foreign policy and advocated the national bonus and also a definite reduction in taxes. He also advocated a constitutional amendment that would make child labor laws and women's minimum wage laws legal; suggested remedies for farmers' troubles and then began an attack on the administration's policy toward the European situation and also against America joining the reparations conference.

Real Estate Sharks Swindle Foreigners

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Foreigners in the last few years have been swindled out of approximately $12,000,000 by a ring of real estate sharks selling undeveloped marsh lands within a fifty-mile radius of New York, James G. Wilson, deputy assistant district attorney, testified today before the joint legislative committee investigating immigrant exploitation.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California in his first public address since he announced his candidacy for Republican presidential nomination, sharply criticized the administration's foreign policy and advocated the national bonus and also a definite reduction in taxes.

He also advocated a constitutional amendment that would make child labor laws and women's minimum wage laws legal; suggested remedies for farmers' troubles and then began an attack on the administration's policy toward the European situation and also against America joining the reparations conference.

Methodist Boards In Annual Reports

BRADENTOWN, Nov. 30.—With a large portion of the work at a done by boards and committees, the chairmen of the several boards and committees of the Florida annual conference, are getting their forces lined up for a week of strenuous effort and service, beginning on Wednesday, December 5, and lasting five or six days.

Although the Florida annual conference is called to assemble in this city on Thursday morning, December 6, for its opening session, several boards and committees will meet one day early, so that everything will be in readiness for the conference proper.

Despite the fact that every board and committee is a necessary part of a Methodist conference, there are some boards that are generally looked on as being more important to the church and these hold the greater interest of the church.

Original Cake

Cream together one cup sugar and a half cup butter; break into this one egg and beat all together, sift one cup flour three or four times and the last time add a pinch of salt, teaspoon of baking powder (heaping) and a third cup of cornstarch; use half cup of milk (scant) and another egg. Now add a little of the milk beating thoroughly all the time, bake in a loaf tin about forty-five minutes.

Coffee Cookies

Cup sugar, cup of shortening, cup cold, strong coffee, cup molasses, teaspoonful cream of tartar, two full teaspoons soda, a little salt. Cloves and cinnamon to suit taste and flour to roll. These are delicious.

Soft Frosting

To make a soft frosting that will be soft and thick and cut without cracking take two tablespoons of milk or water (cold) and add as much pulverized sugar as it will absorb, and flavor. Spread on cake.

White Lily Cake

One cup flour, one cup of sugar, a pinch of salt, three teaspoons of baking powder. Sift these ingredients together three times and pour over them a cup of boiling hot milk. Stir smooth, add the whites of two eggs beaten until stiff and dry, folding these in carefully. Put the cake into the oven, having this only warm at first, then increasing the heat until the cake is done. Bake for at least forty minutes. This amount fills a pan four inches wide by three inches deep.

Feather Cake

Beat two cupfuls of sugar into a half cup of butter, whip until it is like a white, creamy sauce. Then add one cupful of sweet milk and three eggs with the whites and yolks beaten separately. A half teaspoon of soda should be dissolved in the milk and two teaspoons of cream of tartar should be mixed and sifted with the flour. Flavor with fresh lemon juice and bake in jelly tins in a quick oven. Frost with lemon frosting if desired.

Plain White Cake

One egg, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream tartar, 1-3 cup butter; beat all well, add 1-2 cup sweet milk, 2-2 cups flour, 1-2 cup finely chopped raisins; bake 1-1 1/2 hours in a medium oven. Very delicious. Nice for ice cream socials.

Sift three cups flour with a heaping teaspoon of baking powder and stir in enough of this prepared flour—about two cupfuls—to make a good batter. TEA OR COFFEE, MADAM

Make it "Tea for Three" if you choose—but at forty-three in the afternoon, of course, it is tea! "Lemon please, and two lumps of sugar." In certain localities tea will always be the thing. There is something so hospitable about. Something that makes the place look cozy and appeal to you—and put you at your ease.

Whether it is tea at the Biltmore or Plaza—tea at one of the many popular tea rooms with only ten or twelve tables, or tea before your own fireplace, the one need be no more attractive than the other. What you serve in your own home, if carefully planned, can be just as delicious. Of course, there may be music and dancing at the Ritz, prettily capped and aproned waitresses at the tea room—but there is a refinement in your own home, which nothing else can replace.

A pleasing hostess, dainty appointments, a congenial group of guests—faultless food, and you are a success, and envied by your friends who wish they knew your secret.

College girls trained in the East have gradually carried back the custom of afternoon tea to their friends in the middle and far Western states, eastern people moving West, and new tea rooms springing up over night, have all given us the suggestion of what to serve.

At a ote! tea dansant for a dollar and a half, you may have a choice of tea, coffee or chocolate, a choice of chicken or lobster salad, or a stuffed crab—bread butter, or assorted sandwiches, and for dessert, pastry or ices. In a tea room, though it is a little less expensive, it is very often out of the question if one wishes to entertain very many guests. At home, an assortment of attractive sandwiches, cakes or pastries, can be prepared at very little cost—frozen or molded salads or desserts with very little trouble, ten served in the latest approved fashion—and many outstanding debts of hospitality cancelled at very little cost. Either formally or informally, repay your indebtedness this way. Try these little cakes for your next tea party.

Yolks of 3 eggs,
2-3 cup melted fat,
1 cup milk,
2 eggs,
3-4 cup sugar.

Sift flour once, then measure, add baking powder, cinnamon and salt, and sift three times; then put in a mixing bowl. Add sugar, nuts, then eggs, fat, milk and flour. Beat all together thoroughly, drop in small spoonfuls on well-oiled pan and bake in a hot oven until light brown.

Calumet Cake Squares

2 cups pastry flour,
2 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder,
1-2 level teaspoon salt,

Cream butter, add sugar, milk and vanilla. Sift together thoroughly the flour, baking powder, salt and add. Roll as thin as possible, cut with round cutter, and bake in a moderate oven.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Gem pans are fine for baking individual omelets. Serve the omelet on pieces of toast.

Fruit popovers are excellent served with a sauce for dessert.

Pastry requires a hotter oven than any other variety of cooked food.

Before putting the clothes boiler away after using dry thoroughly, then rub the inside with a cloth dampened with kerosene. It prevents the boiler from rusting.

If gum is accidentally besmeared on furniture rub a little olive oil with a soft cloth on the spot and all traces of gum will disappear.

The odor of paint may be removed from a room by throwing a handful of juniper berries on the coals made by a pan of lighted charcoal. Several pails of water left in such a room for several hours will also dissipate that paint smell.

When my lace curtains are worn out I cut them up and stitch three or four layers together. They make lovely dish cloths and wear as well as those knitted or crocheted out of yarn.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Look at the generations of old, and see; did ever any trust in the Lord, and was confounded? Or did any abide in His fear, and was forsaken? Or whom did He ever despise that called upon him?—Ecclesiasticus 2:10.

Prosperity lives in Sanford.

Sanford has facts to prove it.

It isn't the high cost of living that bothers people at this time of year, but the high cost of incomes.

Why is it people wait until the day before Christmas to do their Christmas shopping?

When a man begins to play poker, he'd rather have fours than a full house, but after he gets married he can't see much difference.

What are Sanford's three greatest needs? Write your opinion for The Herald and help bring needed improvement up for discussion.

What has been done about band concerts in Sanford during the winter months? Wouldn't it be a good idea to have some capable band furnish people in this city with music.

Christmas comes next. Everybody will be busy for a few short weeks getting ready for this important day. Sanford merchants are offering suggestions for gifts in Herald advertisements every day.

Taxpayers should be thankful that the city commissioners are going to provide four new wells in the business district just as soon as possible. This will relieve in a measure the shortage of water during a fire in the downtown section.

A city is judged by its appearance. Many of the front yards in Sanford can be made to look more attractive. A little grass, some flowers or a few shrubs would add greatly to the looks of this city. First impressions are lasting impressions. Sanford can be made even more beautiful.

That's a thoughtless, selfish mother who makes no effort, or no persistent effort, to keep the mental and emotional atmosphere of her children invigorating and uplifting. It is a great thing for parents to learn that we all "become like that on which our hearts are fixed."

The people of Sanford and those of the Episcopal Church in particular are to be commended on the spirit they have shown in immediately taking steps to rebuild their church buildings, after the disastrous fire of a few days ago. It is this spirit that builds cities and spells progress in any community.

Officials of the Clyde Line recognize the growing importance of Sanford as a port, and their own business as it is, compels them to more than double their local terminal capacity, according to an announcement made yesterday. This is the second time in the past two years that enlargement of facilities was made necessary by increased business.

Sanford should be proud of her golf course. It is the best in this part of the state, and even in the north, there are few cities which can boast of better municipal links. If tourists knew Sanford had a golf course as good as this one, many would come to this city for the winter months. Sanford's golf course should be advertised.

Road building and improving continue to be the prime construction projects in west Florida. In addition to the recently completed Pensacola Gulf Beach Highway, costing more than $400,000, which extends directly on to the shores of the Gulf of Mexico at a point seventeen miles from the city, there are other road building projects new in work.

Must Serve the Community

Public utility companies must serve the community in order to prosper and when this is not so, there can be no prosperity either for the utility companies or for the communities concerned. The Herald is indebted to the Southern Utilities Company for the following item appearing in their house organ with reference to the work of public service companies for the community: "The utility's existence is bound with the existence of the community. A company cannot be healthy and prosperous if the utility is not. Gas and electricity go to thousands of homes, stores, factories, hotels, schools, public buildings, in this state, and the conditions that affect the companies furnishing gas and electricity affect also the comfort of the homes, the health of the families, the volume of business done by the stores, the sanitation and safety and economy and efficiency of the operation of the factories. The condition of the companies affects the community—its prosperity, its desirability as a business location and a place of residence.

Since this is so, it is to the interest of the utility to work as hard as its organization knows how to make its community a good one; and it is to the interest of the town to treat the utility so that it can thrive. Specifically, what does this mean? It means that the utility must furnish its commodity and the service which enables you to use that commodity surely, continuously, and as cheaply as the laws of business permit. Also it must live up to this standard courteously and willingly, without being prodded and nagged by the public or the public's official representatives to compel it to do so."

The advancement of Sanford will always be retarded until the public utility problem is solved. If the local utility company is doing its best to serve Sanford, then it is time for the municipality to take a hand and provide adequate service as to water, gas and electric lights.

Beware of the Stock Salesman

At this season of the year it is customary for strangers, having questionable stock for sale to drop in on unsuspecting Florida people and with a smooth tongue and convincing argument sell them stock in some apparently gilt-edged proposition, that is in reality valueless.

The Herald just wants to caution its readers and to urge them to be careful and to go slow in investing their money elsewhere. It is always wise to consult a banker and get his advice before purchasing stock.

It is seldom that valuable stock is offered the public by strangers. Few reliable concerns and money-making institutions have to go hunting for stock purchasers.

Beware of the spurious stock salesman. They are swarming all over the country offering people ground floor opportunities and first chances to put good hard earned money into worthless projects, for which all the purchaser ever receives is a pretty piece of paper with his name on it.

Where is there any investment that has greater earning possibilities than real estate in Florida? And where in Florida is there any real estate offering a bigger return for the amount invested than Sanford and Seminole County property or in local business enterprises?

Invest all surplus money in Sanford and the investment will prove a big money maker to the investor and of great assistance to the entire section.

WILLIAM WRIGLEY, JR., is one of the biggest and most successful advertisers in the world. Here is his secret of successful advertising:

"Tell 'em quick, and tell 'em often. You must have a good product in the first place and something that people want, for it's easier to row down stream than up. Explain to folks plainly and sincerely what you have to sell, do it in as few words as possible—and keep everlastingly coming at them."

"Advertising is pretty much like running a furnace. You've got to keep on shoveling coal. Once you stop stoking, the fire goes out. It's strange that some people's imagination can't compass this fact."

My Favorite Stories

By Irvin S. Cobb

An Englishman of a noble family, who lately had come into an inheritance, was telling a friend in his club what he expected to do with the legacy.

"I shall go out to Australia," he stated. "Wonderful country to grow up in and all that sort of thing. I've arranged to buy 10,000 acres of grazing lands out there and 5,000 head of sheep. Jolly—eh, what?—to sit and watch all those babas trotting about the place and to think of what joy I shall have out of them as the years roll on."

"My word, yes," agreed his chum. "Think of all the wool you'll get!"

"Bother the bally wool," said the legatee. "I'm thinking of the kidneys!"

There was a proofer on a New York paper whose name was Cooms. He was the father of nine living children. One morning about four o'clock Cooms, utterly exhausted after a hard night's work, was going to his flat uptown. He climbed on a subway train at Parw Row and curled up in a seat and almost instantly was sound asleep. A printer on the same paper, one Taylor, also homeward bound, boarded the same car. Taylor, who had been married less than two years, had a few months before become the father of a male child. Naturally, he was proud of his first-born. In his opinion, his boy was probably the brightest and the lustiest and the most promising boy of like age in the known world.

He nudged Cooms with intent to tell him about the sprightliness of his offspring. Cooms drowsily opened one eye and then, as the intent of his friend percolated his drowsy brain, he exclaimed: "For the love of Heaven, Taylor, quit talking shop!"

COMPETING WITH OURSELVES

J. Ogden Armour

It is hard enough, to compete with the other fellow.

But the hardest job any man has is to compete with himself.

There is a mystery about competing with others. They beat you, or you beat them, and that's all there is to it. Everybody sees the results. But a man may be thoroughly outdone by himself without recognizing the cause.

There are several danger signals which we may all watch, however, and they will guide us.

First, we should beware of being dilatory. Putting things off is one of the sure indications that our feet are on the brink of the "slippery slope." It is easy to deceive ourselves. We say we are "waiting for the proper inspiration." Or we allow ourselves to think we are "too busy" to attend to this or that—meanwhile sorting out all the easy things to do and sidetracking the jobs that are hard or distasteful.

Inspiration comes from action. It is the result of making up one's mind to take the plunge. Resolve, for instance, that you are going to call today on the hardest prospect you know; see for yourself if that won't start your visit to working or pick out the hardest job on the schedule for today's program—and go at it. Then note how mountains of difficulty fade away.

Some men never have "inspiration" and never do big things—not because they lack the ability, but because they can't make up their minds to act.

Another danger signal is losing interest in one's work. This is a red flag that denotes calamity ahead. No one ever yet lost interest in a job at which he really worked up to the limit of his capacity—unless he happened to be a misfit. And the misfits are very few compared with those who grow stale through indolence. Don't ask yourself if you are a misfit. Ask, rather, "Am I doing my work to the limit of my ability?"

It is when we quit working our job and it begins to work us that we get bored. We don't get something for nothing in this world—least of all do we get happiness out of our daily

A SONG OF PRAISE.

There's never a sun that rises
On a day that's born anew,
There's never a breeze that passes
But wafts a message to you.
There's never a flower that blossoms
And nods across the lea,
But blooms a blessing to us—
If we would but see!
If we would but see!

There's never a night but brings us
A time of peace and rest,
There's never a start but leads us
To thoughts highest and best.
There's never a bird that's singing
From the depth of a quiet tree,
But trills a blessing to us—
To you and me!
To you and me!

Oh, friend—are you not thankful
For the wonderful, beautiful way
God has of watching o'er us
And blessing us day by day?
And can't you be doubly thankful
That He let this blessing be—
That I have you for a dear good —Friend
And you have me?
And you have me?

SURPRISE PARTY.

On Wednesday, November 28, a large number of the friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lord, of Lord's Station, gave them a surprise party, the occasion being the fifty-fourth anniversary of their wedding, which occurred in 1869.

The party gathered at the home of Mr. W. E. Steward, and proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lord, taking them entirely by surprise.

The older people enjoyed conversation until a late hour, while the younger people played games on the porch. Everyone left assuring Mr. and Mrs. Lord that they had spent a very pleasant evening, and wishing them many more days of happiness together.

DELIGHTFUL PICNIC.

One of the most delightful picnics of this year was one given by the friends and acquaintances of Mr. Robert King, of Fort Myers, formerly of this city, at Thomas Ford, on Lake Jessup, Thanksgiving day.

The crowd began to come about ten o'clock. Mr. King had brought with him a barrel of salt water mullet, and these were fried over a large fire by part of the men in the crowd, and the ladies cooked palmetto cabbage. About twelve o'clock, when the fish were fried, the tables were spread under the large oak trees, with their festoons of moss, the basket lunches were unpacked, and the crowd assembled. Rev. M. M. Lord gave thanks for this bountiful repast, and everyone voted a "thank you" to Mr. King for the fish by raising his right hand, after which everybody "helped himself."

Nearly a hundred people enjoyed this day spent in the open outdoors, and everyone departed declaring it was one of the very best known.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Mrs. August Swanson was a caller to Mrs. Hirschi on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cramer are planning to be here for a few days visit with friends at Thanksgiving, en route from Orlando to Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lundquist were Sunday callers at Mr. Malm's. Norman Swanson and friends of Celery avenue were Sunday visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Niel Swanson.

Rev. Eckardt of Pierson, Fla., spent a few days here the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stedt.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krell of Arcadia, Fla., are the proud parents of twin boys of six and six and a half pounds so the word came to Grandma and Grandpa Tyner last week.

Mr. J. M. Lewis of Texas who it will be remembered was here last winter, arrived Saturday and is the guest of old friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hirschi at their pretty country home. Mrs. Trumond Bollen and baby came home Friday of last week from the Fernald-Laughton hospital. Her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hodges of Sanford were Sunday callers to see them and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ehrensperger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sutton and children, Mrs. Susie Holt and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lloyd and children and Miss Johnnie Lucas enjoyed the afternoon fishing at Deep Creek on Sunday, catching quite a few bream.

We are indeed sorry to lose our former good editor, Bob Holly, but wish him well in his new work.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lundquist and children went to Piedmont Saturday afternoon to bring back his mother, Mrs. J. E. Lundquist who has been visiting friends there for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd and children and Miss Lucas have been on a trip to Waycross, Ga., and back making the trip in their car to visit relatives and also stopping in Jacksonville. Her sister's child was very ill but is better now. They are expecting to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lucas at Astor, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Wester and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Rehberg and the twins of Lake Mary were over Sunday, adding much to the service at the church with their music on the guitar, violin and vocal. They are always a treat when they come. Rev. Eckardt spoke interestingly of his recent trip to Moline, Ill., where he went to hear the Archbishop of Sweden speak for two hours on the second coming of Christ to over 12,000 people inside the building while hundreds could not get in. There was a choir of one hundred trained voices and the great pipe organ. After the service was over Rev. Eckardt was introduced told him he was pastor of a little Lutheran church down in Florida at New Upsala. The Bishop himself comes from Upsala, Sweden, and sent a greeting to this church. Rev. Eckardt was a guest at the Lundquist home.

In spite of the cold weather there was between 40 and 50 out at the party given in honor of Mr. Malm's daughters, Mrs. Elsie Hansen and Miss Florence Malm at the home of their father. Everyone seemed in the best of spirits and out for a good time. The young folks roasted marshmallows by a good bonfire. All enjoyed the fine sandwiches and cakes and good coffee at the daintily appointed table. It was Saturday evening. Their sisters, Mrs. Tolar, Mrs. Haskins were out from town as was Miss Nelson.

We'll Show You the Road to Bigger Profits on Vegetables!

No doubt you have been told by scores of individuals and concerns that they could get the highest prices for your vegetables. But you cannot afford to take anybody's mere say so for this.

A clever talker for even an irresponsible concern could probably convince you that his house is the most reliable.

We are willing to let facts talk for themselves. We are willing to let you compare prices at which we sell vegetables at auction with prices you receive for your goods at private sale. Such a comparison will talk for itself.

Further, we are willing to let our customers—many of whom have dealt with us for a quarter of a century—tell you that they have received the best prices and fairest treatment from us. We will gladly furnish names on request.

Not only do we get full market prices for your vegetables, but we return to you the full amount received less our small selling commission. Of that you are assured. We could not do otherwise even if we were so disposed, because you can easily find out what auction goods sell for by referring to prices printed in the New York Daily Fruit Reporter. No other method gives this publicity.

Another thing, our large financial resources make bad credits a thing of the past for you. We guarantee you your money within 24 hours after sale.

Let's get together. Write today for booklet "More Dollars for Fruit Growers."

SANFORD HIGH WINS CLOSE GAME FROM SPRINGFIELD ATHLETIC CLUB

Bach and McLucas Were Outstanding Stars of Game For Celery Feds, Reed and Lewis Featured for the S. A. C.'s

With a fair sized crowd thronging the sidelines, Sanford gave Springfield Athletic Club's first defeat of the season by a field goal in the third quarter and a touchdown by McLucas at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

The game was marked by Sanford's fumbling in tight places, many times costly ones which might have netted touchdowns on the next plays. The pigskin was in Springfield's territory during the entire game.

The Springfield club played a hard game, and showed real class in breaking up passes and also in making them. The S. A. C. boys fought to the very last minute, never giving up hope of a last minute victory. The S. A. C. half played a brilliant game, especially Lewis, left half who was great on the defensive. Lewis broke up many well planned end runs attempted by the locals and was always on the spot to break up passes. Ted Reed, S. A. C. right half was more than on duty, and was practically the only one on the S. A. C. team who could make any gain through the Celery Fed's line. Their quarterback, Daniel was a fast fellow and his brilliant head work gave the Celery Feds many a scare.

On the Sanford squad Bach and McLucas were the outstanding stars, passes from Bach to McLucas making the locals biggest gains. In the last half both Peck and Moye made hard smashes on the S. A. C. line and several times literally tore it up. On the line, Wade, Whitfield, Moye and Meisch displayed some real classy football.

The scores came in the third and fourth quarters, when Bach kicked a field goal during the middle of the third quarter for three points. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Bach made a lateral pass of thirty yards to McLucas who ran twenty yards more for the first and only touchdown of the game.

The lineup as follows:

Springfield	Position	Sanford
Bartholmess	Left Tackle	Stone
Williams	Left Guard	Meisch
Fo ne	Center	Pope
Phillips	Right Guard	Whitfield
Steadman	Right Tackle	M. Moye
Coarsey	Right End	Wade
H. Daniels	Quarter	Bach
Lewis	Left Half	McLucas
Reed	Right Half	Peck
C. Daniels	Fullback	E. Moye

Substitutions: Sherbine for Mason, Jones for Sherbine, Sherbine for Coarsey, Brown for Daniels, Daniels for Steadman, Lewiskey for McLucas, McLucas for Wade, Fields for Peck, Thurston for Flowers.

Officials: Referee, Chittenden; Umpire, Harris, (Va.); Headlinesman, Hines, (Mount Vernon).

Score by quarters:

GATORS VICTORIOUS OVER CRIMSON IN THANKSGIVING GAME AT BIRMINGHAM

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 29.—A muddy field that contained pools of water and an occasional drizzling rain from a murky sky failed to deprive 10,000 spectators of a thrilling football game here yesterday afternoon when the University of Florida eleven eliminated the Crimson Tide of University of Alabama from the southern championship race by score of 16 to 6.

Displaying a stubborn defense in the first half when Alabama scored after no less than five threats within the visitors ten yard line, the 'Gators came back in the third quarter with the phenomenal punting of "Ark" Newton and the brilliant running of Edgar Jones to obtain a safe lead.

Jones scored all points for Florida with a pair of touchdowns and a place kick from the 13 yard line. Captain Robinson, playing his final game at tackle, Merrin a 140 pound end, and Goldstein in guard featured for Florida with the entire Florida line playing an excellent game. Gillis, Alabama's star punter, got away to a splendid start but weakened in the latter part of the contest.

The 'Gators were entirely on the defense for the initial periods. Gillis, of Alabama, had the better of the punting duel in this half. Hubert continually drove the Florida line and his final efforts, after three attempts brought Alabama's lone score. Comp-ton's place kick was good but Alabama had but six men on the line of scrimmage and the point was lost.

A few minutes after the resumption of play in the second half, Newton completed a spectacular pass to Brown for a 12-yard gain, carrying the oval to Alabama's 20-yard line. Brown then swept around the Crimson's left wing for nine yards. Jones pulled out of the plunging 'Gator interference to dash around right end for ten yards and the tying touch down. Newton failed at an attempt to place kick for the extra point.

An exchange of punts after the kickoff to Florida left the ball on the 'Gators' 20-yard line and Newton booted the ball for a distance of 70 yards to place the oval within 20 yards of the Crimson goal. Gillis punted bad and Florida took the ball on Alabama's 20 yard line.

Middlekauff smashed left guard for six yards on two plays and Newton added two off right tackle. From the 12-yard line Jones placed Florida in the lead with a perfect replacement kick.

After the kickoff Newton again kicked the ball to Alabama's 10 yard line and Florida remained in Alabama territory. Newton's attempt at a placement kick from the Alabama 47-yard line missed by inches. Again Newton attempted a placement kick from Alabama's 40 yard line and the kick was blocked, Merrin of Florida, recovering on Alabama's 20 yard line.

MIAMI BEATS THE PURPLE HURRICANE YESTERDAY

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 30.—Miami high school defeated Gainesville 16 to 13 here yesterday afternoon after a thrilling battle. Miami's first score came in the first quarter when Izor made 25 yards after a fake play but Gainesville tied the score on the very last play of the half when Truby passed over the goal line to Long.

An intercepted pass and a 15 yard run by Izor gave Miami another touchdown in the fourth period and a moment later Izor drop kicked a field goal from his 36 yard line. Gainesville came back and forward passed its way down the field from its five yard line. Gainesville gained twice as much ground as Miami and completed 9 to 20 passes. Quarterback Truby's great playing, but Miami gained when it counted most.

TECH-AUBURN TIE

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 30.—Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets and the Auburn Tigers yesterday failed to cross each other's goal line in their annual football classic before the largest crowd, estimated at 37,000 persons, to witness a football game in the South. The punting of Howe was responsible for the scoreless tie.

The game was played in a sea of mud and with umbrellas up in the stands. Auburn taking the field with the betting against them displayed a brand of football that Tech could not shake off.

HILLSBOROUGH DOWNS DUVAL

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 30.—An early rushing ability displayed by the Hillsborough High School eleven enabled it to score a field goal and a touchdown, followed by a placement kick, in the first period of the annual clash with Duval High school here yesterday and the visitors won, 10 to 0. After the first quarter the ball was see-sawed up and down the field.

TULSA HIGH SCHOOL SYSTEM AIDS BOYS IN ATHLETICS

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 29.—A new order of athletics, providing team competition for every boy, and with less emphasis on winning squads for interscholastic games, is the rule in Central High School here, one of the largest high schools in the world, under Athletic Director E. W. Rau.

Rau's methods, and his system of student classification, have attracted wide attention.

A formula for grouping boys according to their physical prowess, regardless of class room standing, assures equalized competition with a chance for every participant.

The students are classified by this mathematical equation—four times the age, plus half the weight, plus the gives the index number.

New students are classified and assigned to their proper group, usually eight in number. Each group is in charge of a trained professional coach.

In addition to the sports usually found in high schools Rau has regular teams in boxing, wrestling, tennis, swimming and volleyball. The school has eight regular football teams; 16 basketball squads; 16 track teams; six baseball teams, and several tennis groups. More than 1,500 boys already are on teams, against less than 100 prior to the inauguration of the present plan. Interclass football this year brought out 245 players.

Belgians to Withdraw

(By The Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Nov. 30.—The Belgian government, it is learned in official quarters, soon will raise in friendly conversation with France the question of a partial withdrawal of forces in the Ruhr. Now that active and passive resistance is considered ended, the Belgians hope to bring back 5,000 of their men from the Ruhr by Christmas.
The question will be discussed with the Paris government as soon as the Ruhr situation is stabilized. M. Jaspars, the Belgian foreign minister, in a recent speech in the chamber, recalled the fact that France and Belgium were pledged to leave the Ruhr proportionately as the Germans fulfilled their reparation obligations. M. Jaspars said neither would fail in their promise. He reiterated that Brussels and Paris were acting in complete agreement and there was no question of separate action by Belgium for a reduction of her troops. He believed it certain France would take the same view. Nevertheless, would exert pressure to obtain a partial withdrawal of troops if conditions in the Ruhr continued to improve.

The temple was completed at a cost of $75,000 and was financed largely by local Masons. It is three stories high, housing two store-rooms and a theatre on the ground floor, twenty-one offices on the second floor, and the lodge rooms on the third.

ILLNESS CAUSES LOSSES

AMONG ENGLAND'S WORKERS

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 28.—The value of public health to the nation may be judged from the following statistics.

During the past 12 months, persons with health insurance lost 19,500,000 weeks of work. Add those who are not insured, and experts say this total would reach 30,000,000 weeks of work lost to the country through ill health of the working population. At an average wage of $10 a week, the figures mean $30,000,000 for the year.

Robs Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotab"

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotab" (Calomel), the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity. It is a purified and refined form of those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. (Adv.) 8-29-wed-fr.-&wkly

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 28.—Spending freely, not wastefully, but spending without stinting and for things that really are needed, or which will add to the comfort and happiness of the people, is a powerful aid to business progress, according to Atlanta commercial leaders. Only in panic times, it is asserted, do buyers' strikes exist. Buyers never strike when they have money with which to buy, it is claimed, and when they have the money and turn it loose, they make business good.

AT THE PRINCESS

Never lie to your best girl, or what is much better, don't tell her everything connected with your affairs. That is the point conveyed by the theme of "Don't Tell Everything," a new Paramount picture, in which Wallace Reid and Gloria Swanson, Paramount stars, and Elliott Dexter, popular leading man, have the principal roles.
 The eternal triangle in the lives of three develops in the story and results in several thrilling complications with a surprising climax. It is an outdoor picture that will delight
 the average fan.

THE WEATHER

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 20.—The
 For the week ending November 26, weather during the week was dry,
 sunshiny, and moderately cold, frost having occurred on several days as far south as the central division with temperature about freezing in exposed places in the northern and western divisions. There was a reaction to warmer weather at the close of the week throughout the peninsula, where subnormal temperatures had persisted for several days.

The dry weather of previous weeks featured the conditions during the last seven days, except that light, local showers occurred on the 23rd and 24th; the amounts were generally less than one-quarter inch. Rain set in, however, over the western division on the last day of the week, amounts approximately one-half inch being reported from the west coast to date; Fort Lauderdale has received about 34 inches less rain than at the same date of 1922; Fort Myers about 32 inches less; Miami 25 inches less, and Jacksonville 16 inches less.
 A conspicuous exception was Titusville with about 12 inches in excess of 1922.

Northern Division.
 The lack of soil moisture, especially on uplands, is being acutely felt by oats, truck, ranges, and, in many instances, citrus trees. The bright, cool, and dry weather, however, was very favorable for the harvesting of sweet potatoes and the grinding of cane. Plowing for spring crops was well advanced. Fall potatoes in the Hastings district are fair to good—some were slightly damaged by frost.
 Truck is doing well on low lands.
 Lettuce is heading nicely in the Sanford district. The shipping of citrus fruits was active. Ranges are poor.

Central Division.
 Light, scattered showers occurred on one or two days, but the benefit was slight, soil, especially on uplands, being very dry. Fields are dusty, and some citrus trees are wilting, an unfavorable condition at this time. Truck on low lands is in fair to good condition, and shipments of beans, eggplants and other truck continued. Strawberries made fair progress, but moderate rains would greatly improve them. Oats are mostly poor; to dry to plant at this time.
 The cool, weather was very favorable for the shipping of citrus fruits.

Western Division
 Dry, cool, and sunshiny conditions were followed by moderate rains during the last day—a timely change throughout the division, as soil moisture was insufficient, especially on uplands. Shipping satsuma oranges, digging sweet potatoes, and syrup making continued. The planting of oats and rye was delayed; the early planted making slow growth. Frost did slight damage to truck and standing cane. The dry weather was favorable for general farm work. Ranges are poor.

Southern Division
 The need of soil moisture is general in the division, except the recently overflowed portions of the Everglades, where dry weather has enabled trucking to be resumed—now actively prosecuted. The shipping of beans and other truck was reported from the Moore Haven district; plowing and planting continued. Some beans were damaged by frosts west of Lake Okechobee. Rain is needed in the coastal region for fruit trees, pineapples, and truck.

YOUR 1924 FOOD BUYING

By HELEN HARRINGTON DOWNING

It is not too soon for the home manager to start planning the next year's food supply, and to look into the various phases of family expenditures and activities.

In the established home, the buying of food comes first in importance in the matter of expense analysis, as a large portion of the average income is spent for food. As in financial circles we must put the main force of our capital where it will earn the most. In arranging our individual budgets we readily see that it is not how much income we have but what we do with it, that counts. There are so many excellent suggestions for making a household budget in national women's magazines, and in bulletins issued by the state colleges and university Home Economics departments that every home manager should be able to secure a budget which is flexible enough to be made to fit the needs of her family. Of course, to establish and maintain such a budget, the entire family must co-operate. System is the great protector of home happiness.

Real economy in food buying lies in buying good quality, every bit of which will be eaten and employed, and the one big thing to remember in stocking your pantry shelves is to buy only foods which you know will be satisfactory. Brand names are the sign posts in food buying and the ways pay to choose a dependable brand. The best foods are always the cheapest in the long run.

The up-to-date home maker who is far sighted and open-minded, reads and studies all about the best products on the food market, adding to her fund of knowledge about her own business as well as saving much time and energy.

During the summer months she will be stocking the pantry with fruits and vegetables canning them as they come in season, that is if she can obtain these fresh foods at a reasonable cost or has her own fruit trees. However, during the last few years, especially in the larger cities where the housewife, in order to secure fruits, etc., for canning, must not only pay the farmer's price, the cost of transportation, the wholesaler's and retailer's profit, but also a share in loss and deterioration suffered by these perishable foods during the time of transit.

The manufacturer has responded to the need of a more economical way of supplying these foods to the housewife, and although some lines of manufacture are entirely outside of the possibilities for substituting inferior alligators around." The grand jury of the county has, in substance, made recommendations to this effect, asking for legal protection of the alligator which the members consider "one of Florida's greatest attractions." The recommendation was made in the presentment of the grand jury at the present term of court. Expressions of alarm were sounded in the recommendations regarding laxity which it is declared is prevalent everywhere in enforcement of the game laws and consequent rapid extinction of game, which is a great asset to the state in the opinion of the jury.

Talking Auto Is Coming To Sanford

Studebaker Company Announces Exhibit To Be Held In City Next Week—"Eighth Wonder of World."

The San Juan Garage, local dealers for Studebaker automobiles has arranged to bring to Sanford next week for a three days exhibit, "The Talking Studebaker," something that has been characterized as the 8th wonder of the world. So far the talking Studebaker has been exhibited in only the large cities of the country and while Mr. Fort has made repeated efforts to bring it to Sanford he has only just succeeded in doing so. As to the "Talking Studebaker" this thing has created a sensation. There is no doubt about the fact that car talks, carries on conversation in different languages, and it will sing to if asked. The car will call any person who approaches it by name and will describe their clothes, etc. It will answer questions, turn its lights off and on, and do many other things that will cause astonishment. No mechanical apparatus has ever been found in or out of the car and those who have seen it have concluded that the Studebaker Corporation has actually produced an automobile superabundantly endowed with brains.

The car will be on exhibition in Sanford Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6, 7, 8, afternoon and evenings. Special arrangements have been made to accommodate the crowd who will see it. Every one is invited who will see it. Every one is invited, it's free.

Stetson University Glee Club at Theatre December 6th, 8 p. m., 50 cents, children 25 cents. Benefit Brotherhood of St. Andrew.—Advertisement.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 28.—When business is good is the best time to push it along.

So the advertising men are saying here and it might be said anywhere and everywhere just as well, with equal force.

Occasionally business man are found who think they can get along without the usual amount of newspaper advertising in the busy seasons, arguing that business is good therefore advertising is not needed. They resolve that, when business gets dull later on, they will advertise more and make it better. The idea is a mistaken one, according to Atlanta advertising men.

"The time to push business progress and activity is when business is rushing," said an Atlanta advertising man. "Buyers are open-minded to business arguments when they are in the market for bargains and the impressions made upon them during the busy season lasts when the dull seasons come and they more readily accept the offerings made then and do the buying they ordinarily would put off doing until later, merely because they have been impressed with the goods and the prices offered."

Not one person in 50 of the present population uses his or her brain to half its full capacity, says a famous scientist.

Building State Roads

Enough newspaper comment is going the rounds, coupled with the existing necessities which stare the public in the face, to warrant the assumption that a bond issue of fifty or seventy-five million dollars may be proposed by the next legislature to improve the highway system of Florida.

Under proper safeguards, and with the right layout of roads, this would be a good thing.

But there is one point which ought to be made in advance. The notion which is current in some quarters that automobile owners, as such, should bear the burden of road building expense is unsound in both economics and morals and should be eliminated entirely from the program.

It is true that the majority of the people now own automobiles, and for that reason auto owners will have to bear the burden of the taxes. But the taxes should be apportioned among the people in proportion to their wealth and not on any quasi-prorata basis, such as has been imposed upon them through the gasoline tax and the title registration law.

Good roads please auto drivers. They permit long tours for pleasure, as well as transaction of business over a wider area. But the man most directly benefited by good roads is the owner of the lands through which the roads run. Every new road is followed by a big increase in the value of lands; and this value insures to the benefit of the owner, although he may not have contributed a cent to the cost of building the roads.

Lawmakers should follow results to their ultimate end. A tax on gasoline is justified, perhaps, in the minds of the majority, on the ground that it is applied to road building, which helps the state. But if they would go a step farther they would see that it is, in effect, taking the money from the pocket of the man who buys gas and putting it into the pocket of the man who owns land.

A million dollars collected and spent in opening a new road will add at least a million dollars to the value of the real estate adjacent to it. This increase may not be immediately visible, but it is certain. And, on the principle of fairness to all, the man who receives the most permanent benefit from a given improvement should not be permitted to dodge his fair share of the cost of that improvement by imposing it upon the man who enjoys only a transient and incidental benefit therefrom.

This question ought to be settled, along with other principles of just taxation, to the end that Florida may build her future financial policy upon a sound foundation.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

GIVE THANKS:—Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies;

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.—Psalm 103:1-5.

Tomorrow is "Golden Rule Sunday."

Every taxpayer in Sanford should attend Monday night's mass meeting.

Sanford ought to put up a few signs to show motorists how to get through those detours.—Tampa Tribune.—You can't blame us much for not labeling them, can you?

Every effort should be made by the officials of Sanford and Seminole county to co-operate with the Titusville officials in the construction of the road from this city to the east coast via that city.

"Fellowship binds, unites and makes possible accomplishment that single-handed would be utter failure and stagnation" writes a prominent Sanford business man who wishes for the city "Fellowship in thought, effort and energy."

More than 60,000 people saw the Yale-Harvard football game last week. And yet, it is reported that unemployment is almost unknown at this time.—Times-Union. True, but nevertheless, a money-making proposition for the Yale men present.

After Tuesday morning's catastrophe it might not be amiss to warn Sanford citizens, subject to careless tendencies, against the dangers of fire-setting. Every fire has its origin. Lighted matches, negligently thrown away, and cigarette butts, out of the ash-tray, have been the cause of many a disaster. The best way to prevent a wholesale conflagration is not to start even a tiny local fire.

Said Henry Van Dyke: "I had a teacher once who helped me to think for myself—the first of my real teachers; and what the others gave me came through the door that he opened." Blessed is the child who has at least one teacher who will do for him as did Van Dyke's good teacher. What a fine thing it is to be able to think for one's self, to think one's own thoughts. He who is able to do this may find some day that he is "thinking the thoughts of God after Him."

Mrs. Warren G. Harding has served notice to the public that she will winter at Washington. At any "White House" function this season, among those expected to be seen, will be two ex-presidents, Taft and Wilson; three former mistresses of the White House, Mrs. Taft, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Harding; two presidential sons, Robert Todd Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt, one presidential daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, one presidential daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant. That's about as much "royalty" as one of the older countries could turn out.

Last month, three towns in the county, Taft, Oakland and Clareona, organized local chambers of commerce, Friday night, November 16, the two towns of Winter Garden in West Orange, and Fort Christmas in East Orange, organized local chambers of commerce. Soon every town in Orange county will have a local organization co-operating with the Orange county chamber of commerce in the development of this great county. There are now nine towns with chambers of commerce and three rural communities with community councils organized in Orange county.

For the Taxpayers to Decide

Twenty-seven miles west of Jacksonville is a ragged pile of broken bricks and twisted iron—a monument to the procrastination of the people of Macclenny.

Just such a pile of bricks on the shore of Lake Monroe is what Sanford might have been, yes would have been but for the good fortune that no wind was blowing when the Holy Cross Episcopal Church was destroyed by fire.

The town of Macclenny had plans for a water works system more than a year ago. That waterworks system would cost somebody money, so the people delayed and discussed. A cigarette stump was tossed into some rubbish and as a result the entire town burned while the citizens looked on and wished that they had voted for waterworks.

Macclenny paid dearly for that fire. It cost more than twice the estimated cost of the proposed water system. This happened only a few months ago on the main road between Jacksonville and Lake City.

It almost happened last Tuesday morning on the main road from DeLand to Orlando. Sanford almost paid the price for her negligence and delay.

Sanford is today playing a great game of chance and is as sure to lose as the day is long unless such a policy is discarded and the people awake to the realization of their great danger. In any game of chance we lose sooner or later. It is only a matter of how long luck stays on our side.

Last Tuesday morning Sanford played in luck, but will Sanford play in luck again tonight or tomorrow should a fire be started?

In the corporate limits of the city there is one and one half million dollars worth of houses and half as much in personal property unprotected and without any fire protection whatsoever. Taxpayers and voters are depending on luck. The entire city for that matter might be classed in the same division, if Tuesday's experience counts for anything.

Sometime ago the fire chief of one of America's largest cities was asked to name the first essential for successful fire fighting and he replied, "Water, water, then some more water—and fight from the middle of the fire."

Sanford lacks the first essential. With the best prospects for growth of any city in Florida, with possibly one exception; and the best prospects to be burnt up of any city of Florida, with no exception, it is time for action not words.

Good business men, thoughtful citizens, and careful taxpayers can remedy this situation. If the Southern Utilities company cannot give the city the necessary protection which is very evident, then the city must build her own waterworks.

If the taxpayers really want relief they will attend Monday night's meeting—every man and every woman—and demand not only ACTION but immediate action and the successful floating of a bond issue to bring about a speedy solution to this big problem.

Golden Rule Sunday

John D. Rockefeller defines Love as God's spirit working in man—true religion stripped of its man-made creeds, its dogmas and theologies. And in the Spirit of Love the people of all nations will tomorrow observe Golden Rule Sunday. Mr. Rockefeller says:

Love is a simple, homely quality; anyone can practice it, anywhere, any time.

It is as applicable in Africa as in America; on weekdays in the struggle of life as on the Sabbath day in the churches.

It is applicable in business, for only as business puts the rendering of service first and the making of profits second will it be more successful and all of the elements of love are essential in service.

It is applicable in industry, where its absence explains the bitterness, distrust and antagonism which too often prevail. It worked in the coal mines of Colorado, where the greatest bitterness had been engendered and where as soon as the human elements of love were introduced, understanding, tolerance, good will and co-operation quickly replaced the distrust, enmity and animosity which had existed. It is applicable in all of the relations of life.

I am convinced that love is the greatest thing in the world, the greatest power, the greatest influence.

The pronouncement I make with all the force of my being, not as a cloistered theorist who dwells among the stars, but as a practical man, whose feet are upon the earth, who is daily facing practical problems and who is concerned only with a practical solution.

Love is God's spirit working in man. Love is true religion, stripped of its man-made creeds, its dogmas, its theologies.

For the test of religion is not what we believe nor what religious forms we observe, but whether love permeates and dominates every relation of life.

And finally, love lasts; it is eternal. Wealth, power, fame, knowledge, even friends, may pass away, but "love never faileth."

In the spirit of love, every right-thinking American will see in Golden Rule Sunday an opportunity to express human sympathy for the unfortunate orphans of war. It estimated that it will only cost one dollar and fifty cents per week for the Near East Relief to feed an orphan.

Tomorrow people of fourteen nations are asked to forgo their usual noon-day meal and eat instead the frugal ration usually partaken by the refugees and orphans of the Near East, contributing the difference in cost to the relief work.

The opportunity to practice the Golden Rule will make you happy. Don't let it slip by.

THE PEN is a formidable weapon; but a man can kill himself with it a great deal more easily than he can other people.—Geo. D. Prentice.

RELAXATION IS a physical and moral necessity. Animals, even to the simplest and dullest, have their games, their sports, their diversions. The toil-worn artisan, stooping and straining over his daily task, which taxes eye and brain and limb, ought to have opportunity and means for an hour or two of relaxation after the task is concluded.—Horace Greeley.

FOR THIS END we must knit together in this work as one man. We must entertain each other in brotherly affection. We must be willing to abridge ourselves of our superfluities for the supply of others' necessities. We must uphold a familiar commerce together in all meekness, gentleness, patience and liberality. We must delight in each other; make each other's condition our own; rejoice together, mourn together, always having before our eyes our commission and community in the work, as members of the same body. So shall we keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.—John Winthrop, 1630.

My Favorite Stories

On the day following the announcement that the Ku Klux Klan intended to take over Valparaiso University in Indiana, the sporting-editor of one of the Chicago papers was attending a ball game. On the wire from the office, the telegraph operator received a personal message directed to the sports expert.

It was from the exchange editor, a scholarly old gentleman who had a strange passion for witnessing or reading about physical combats, and it ran as follows:

"Dear Max:—Ordinarily, I don't care for football; it's too tame, for my tastes. I prefer prize-fights, as you know. But before somebody else beats me to it, I want to file my request that you save me a good seat for the first game this fall between Valparaiso and Holy Cross."

OIL STOCK EASY MARKS

PALATKA DAILY NEWS

More than one billion dollars have been wrung from the pockets of the gullible who could ill afford the loss through the manipulators of oil stock in the south!

That is the estimate reached by careful statisticians and investigators. It may be overrated a little or it may be underestimated a great deal; but that amount is sufficiently close to the actual figures as to bring to the minds of the multitude an aversion to anything that bears the scent of oil.

Mythical as was Rufus Wallingford, the get-rich-son artist exploited in all journals and magazines a few years ago in a clever series of stories, the life of a Wallingford, a thousand times increased, has been developed in unknown quantities. Fort Worth, Texas, appears to be the storm center of fraud, yet there are other localities where chicanery has been carried on; and the hand the government is playing; and the success that has followed the many arrests should prove to people the "paternity" principles displayed by the administration in trying to save the simple from themselves.

The thinking man can but wonder why it is that poor people are so easily gulled. These oil stock promoters get nothing from the rich; all their ill-gotten gains are from the purses of the poor who have managed to put away a few dollars to be used when age or illness or infirmity of any sort might incapacitate them from the earning list. The dramatically-worded announcements in publications and in "personal letters" attract the modestly poor, who feel certain that the immense profits of the Standard Oil investors will soon come back from the little store of funds they contribute to the thieves.

Only from those totally unable to stand the loss of a dollar are these immense aggregates wrung. It is the hope of "getting something for nothing" that spurs the aged widow to take her little fund from the bank

Governor and Mrs. Cary Hardee Honored at Reception Last Night

Pursuant to the call for aid and assistance to rebuild the Parish House and plant recently destroyed by fire the big hearted people of Sanford are willing to do all in their power to replace the buildings with modern and up-to-date structures that will assist Father Peck in carrying on the great work here among the boys and young men of the city. The first organization to respond was the Sallie Harrison Chapter, D. A. R., and they have arranged to give a bridge and Mah Jong party at the Woman's Club next Friday afternoon, December 7th, at three o'clock to which everyone is cordially invited. There will be bridge and five hundred other games for those who want to play and sewing circle for those who want to sew and others can sit around and visit with each other. It will be a real party and one in which there will be much wholesome enjoyment and sociability and it is hoped that everyone in Seminole County will attend the party and assist in the great work of rebuilding the Parish House.

The ladies will sell the tickets for one dollar and you should purchase a ticket even if you cannot attend for it is devoted to one of the finest causes in the city—that of making young men and young boys into real citizens and equipping them with

Mrs. Hardee was attired in an exquisite black sequin robe.

All during the evening music and dancing were enjoyed. An orchestra from Orlando furnished splendid music.

In the Palm room an attractively appointed punch table was placed. Mrs. Raymond Key and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen served punch throughout the evening.

At a late hour refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, saltines, olives, coffee and salted nuts were served by Miss Mildred Simmons, Miss Sarita Lake, Mrs. Benjamin Whitner, Mrs. Edmond Meisch, Mrs. Ben Caswell and Mrs. Braxton Baggett.

Assisting in entertaining the guests were Mrs. W. T. Langley, Mrs. R. A. Newman, Miss Katherine Wilkey, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher and Mrs. B. J. Starling.

About two hundred guests attended this affair.

MRS. HARDEE HONORED AT LOVELY BRIDGE PARTY.

Entertaining in her usual charming and gracious manner, Mrs. James G. Sharon, was hostess yesterday afternoon at bridge, honoring Mrs. Cary Hardee, the guests were the members of the Every Week Bridge Club.

The rooms where the card tables were placed were converted into a veritable bower with baskets and sound minds and bodies for the great struggle of life.

The Parish House is a Sanford and Seminole County proposition and is not confined to the Holy Cross Church or to people of any particular faith or sect. It is the one and only plant in the city devoted to the youth of the city with the earnest endeavor of keeping them from the pitfalls of life and bringing them into an atmosphere of higher ideals, developing strength in athletic games and giving them a place to spend their evenings in the right sort of environment. Under the guidance of Father Peck and his associates the Parish House has proved all that it should be as a common meeting place for all the people all the time and the people will not let it perish from the earth on account of destruction by fire but will all join together in building a bigger and better plant for the future and one that will take care of the needs and inhabitants.

Sallie Harrison Chapter, D. A. R., rallying to the call have inaugurated the first of these series of entertainments and it is hoped that the Women's Club will be thronged next Friday afternoon by the folks who will show by their presence that they are in favor of assisting the youth of the land in becoming better citizens.

bowls of exquisite red roses and poinsettias. The scores were kept on dainty tallies in fascinating designs in red and green.

At the December business meeting which will be held next Wednesday, December 5th, our representatives to the Annual Convention of Florida at West Palm Beach will be heard from. This is a year of unusual interest to Florida women, not only in the way of its own state elections, but because a Florida woman, Mrs. May S. Jennings of Jacksonville will go to San Francisco next June as a candidate for the presidency of the General Federation. Our delegates to these state conventions bring back so much to us in the way of information that we might otherwise miss, and be present to us our club work and policies as they show up in a state wide way, that no member of our- they report their impressions and views. From the Sanford club went Mrs. R. E. Tolar, its president and Mrs. D. A. Kelley as delegate; Mrs. Child Welfare and Mrs. E. M. Galloway, state vice-president at large. Mrs. Kelly's convention report will take the place of the program on our city government which will be given in January.

The November number of the Garden Magazine is featured as its Southern number and along with some very lovely pictures of Florida homes and gardens has interesting articles by Mr. Cook who is known and esteemed for his enthusiastic spirit for the beautification of our state, and "Flowers for Florida Gardens," by Miss Grace Edwards, president of the Winter Park Garden club, which is replete with practical suggestions. Incidentally the fact is mentioned editorially that the Winter Park organization is the oldest garden club in the state, and has stood sponsor the movement in other cities.

Next Sunday, December 2nd, is being observed by club women all over our country as "Golden Rule Sunday." The plan is to serve on that day a very simple midday meal—such as the orphan and the destitute might have and give the differences in cost between this and the usual Sunday feast to the fund for the relief of suffering in the Near East. Mrs. Tolar requests her club membership to enter into this plan, which was brought very vividly before the Federation at West Palm Beach by a woman who has spent much time in relief work in these stricken parts and knows whereof she speaks—Mrs. Emerick of New York. A basket will be provided at the business meeting on next Wednesday, the 5th, to receive these gifts of self-denial.

That idea of a Golden Rule Sunday might well have a wider application than the self denial for the sake of sufferers across the sea. Let us do this, and not leave the other possibility unregarded. If for just one day, Sunday or any other day, serve the Golden Rule in thought as well as in every act, influences would be set going that would surely change the current of many lives. Let us cast out the bitter thought, the remembrances of hurts and disappointments as applied to others, let us refuse to pass on the unkind story, the bitter judgment, and if this is hard let us try to remember how little we enjoy such things when directed to ourselves. Sometimes just a sunny look, where one has received coldness or frowns, will be the beginning of a whole fabric of thought, changed from the somber to the hopeful, for the beginning of trends of mental activity is nearly in some gaitmmmmivity is nearly always in some little things unimportant enough in itself. One Golden Rule Day would surely mean many other Golden Rule days in the course of the year.

The Literature Department on Wednesday afternoon enjoyed a most delightful reading of Sheridan's "School for Scandal" under the able leadership of Mrs. L. R. Phillips. Several of the members who were to take part in the reading found it necessary, on account of the coming holiday, to be absent but a complete cast was secured through the kindness of our visitors, Mrs. E. M. Galloway and Mrs. Henry M. Stuckney, who entered heartily into the spirit of the comedy and by their expressive rendering made the reading a real pleasure. The subtle humor and ridiculous situations of this old classic proved again their power of entertainment; a power which for a century and a half has remained undimmed and undiminished.

tray Mrs. Hardee, honoree, was presented a set of hand-painted bridge table markers.

Following the awarding of the prizes, Mrs. Sharon served a delicious salad course with coffee.

The cordial hospitality of Mrs. Sharon was reflected in every detail and the afternoon was one of exceptional enjoyment to the guests.

The characters as presented on Wednesday were:

Sir Peter Teazel—Mrs. L. R. Phillips
Sir Oliver Surface—Mrs. E. M. Galloway.

Joseph Surface—Mrs. W. T. Langley
Charles Surface—Mrs. Henry M. Stuckney.

Crabtree—Mrs. R. M. Peeples.
Sir Benjamin Backbite—Mrs. Wm. McInnon.

Rowley—Mrs. Bullock.
Moses—Miss Ida M. Grey.

Trip—Mrs. W. F. Talbot.
Snake—Mrs. W. F. Talbot.

Careless—Mrs. W. D. Brownlee.
Lady Teazel—Mrs. S. P. Arrington.
Maria—Mrs. S. O. Shinholser.
Lady Sneerwell—Mrs. C. C. Woodruff.

Mrs. Candor—Mrs. W. T. Langley.

The department voted a sum to secure some andirons for the fireplace in the sunparlor of the club house. This cozy room makes a delightful place of meeting for the literature circle but we find an occasional fire is necessary and the irons were found a very necessary article in the little fire place.

We are glad to welcome several new members to our department this year. Among these are Mrs. S. Bullock, Mrs. R. M. Peeples, Mrs. Wm. McInnon, Mrs. W. F. Talbot, Mrs. D. P. Drummond and Mrs. G. E. McKay.

The program committee is planning to present one of the plays at some time early in the coming year for the purpose of raising funds for the new club house. Mrs. R. C. Maxwell will have charge of the planning and presentation and this assures to the undertaking a successful outcome.

Our department is promised an ex- ingly pleasant afternoon on December 12, when Mrs. John Leonard as leader will present a Christmas play "Why the Chimes Rang." This beautiful and familiar story has been dramatized in a very charming way and aside from being seasonal will give delight in its wholesome teaching of truth. The officers of the department are planning a social meeting after the reading and invite all members of the club to come with us on this afternoon.

In bringing to Sanford the gorgeous film production of "Robin Hood", the Milane Theater is to be commended for the greatest possible step just now in creating a taste for the really fine in pictures. It is certainly to be hoped that the future will show many of these higher class shows.

OUR THANKS

The ladies of the Holy Cross parish wish to extend most grateful thanks to the loving kind friends who came to us in our time of need, after the terrible fire which destroyed our entire church plant. To the Knights of Columbus, who offered us the use of their hall for the bazaar, to the Presbyterian ladies for the use of their equipment for the supper, to Mrs. W. E. Watson for the use of the N. W. room of the Welaka Building and to Mrs. R. E. Tolar, representing the Woman's Club of Sanford, who so graciously offered us the use of the club rooms for the bazaar.

Our hearts go out in love and thanks for all these expressions of sympathy and good will. May all receive many blessings and from the dear Father of us all.

RECOMMENDS FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

"Your medicine worked a miracle for me," writes Mrs. C. Biron, 140 Fayette Street, Lynn Mass. "I was all run down had a cough all winter, also kidney trouble and after taking a few boxes of your medicine my cough and backache left me. I can eat and sleep well. I canvass and recommend it at every house I enter." Prompt relief secured from kidney and bladder irritations, rheumatic pains through using Foley Kidney Pills. Insist on the genuine—refuse substitutes. (adv.)

President Coolidge's proclamation was printed in whole or part in practically every newspaper in the country and was given much prominence outside the daily press. The press responded with special educational editions, editorials, and information in their columns based largely upon the facts sent out by the Bureau of Education.

Rob's Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotab"

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotab." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity, purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles Calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. (Adv.)

LAKELAND MUST BATTLE TAMPANS FOR STATE TITLE

Coch MacQuillan acting for the Lakeland High team, has put forth the claim for the State Scholastic Football title. Coch MacQuillan bases his action, naturally, upon the fact that Lakeland High has emerged victorious from every battle they have been in this year. Lakeland has had one of the greatest seasons that football fans in scholastic circles of Florida have ever witnessed.

Only one other team in the state has an undefeated record. And mark this—they have not won every game—Hillsborough High has not been defeated a single time this year but at the same time they have been tied twice. Several of the games they have won are from rather insignificant teams and by rather close scores. Lakeland has won every game they played by decisive and overwhelming scores. They have won every game and lost none and tied none.

Now Lakeland will have to play Hillsborough High to determine who is the real and official title holder in the state of Florida. While it is of a general opinion that Lakeland could easily defeat the Terriers, it is also of the same opinion that the Hillsborough boys should not be allowed to play Lakeland for the title. This is on the grounds that Lakeland triumphed 27 to 0 over Bartow while the best that the Terriers could do was tie Bartow. Lakeland has shown clearly that they have the best team in the state by their overwhelming defeats over some of the best teams, among them being Sanford, Bartow and Orlando.

The majority of Sanford fans are pulling for Lakeland and are on the war path against those who ruled that Hillsborough had even a chance at the state title.

In the event that Lakeland and Hillsborough meet, it probably will be in Gainesville under the charge of the Florida State Athletic Association. Here the two undefeated teams will have a chance to show their followers what they can do.

The teams are of about equal weight and should stage a great battle according to many of the sportswriters of the state, while at the same time it is asserted that Lakeland will emerge victor from the contest.

WILLIS MIDDLEKAUFF

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 30.—In Willis W. ("Wee Willie") Middlekauff is found one of the most consistent ground gainers of Florida's famous fighting aggregation this year.

This powerful piston in Coach Van Fleet's mighty offensive machine has yet found no lines that could stop his battering drives at their defense. His brilliant playing of this year is but the logical outcome of the brand of football he displayed on last year's southern champion freshman team on which he played first string full. He has played most of the time in many and part of the time in all of the Varsity games this year and has never failed to gain in a pinch. Both the army line and those of some of the strongest Southern eleven have bent and broken before his terrific plunging. Like some swift juggernaut, his 200 pounds bone and muscle drives through or over them with a reckless abandon.

This mighty Gator gridman played his prep school football with Porter Military Academy at Charleston, S. C. In spite of this he is truly a Florida product, his birthplace and home being in this state.

Sturdy, powerful and hard-hitting he swings into the home stretch of the football season as a strong contender for a coveted berth on the mythical all-southern. The largest man on the team, this gigantic 6 foot and 3 inch grid gladiator combines brawn, brain and speed to a happy degree. This is his sophomore year at the University of Florida.

Celery Seed

R. L. SHIPP

The "Springers" of the Springfield Athletic Club sprang quite a surprise on me Thursday afternoon. The consensus of local opinion was that the Celery Seeds would give the Springfield boys a first rate whipping.

Anyhow they did beat a team that holds the independent championship of the state! This makes the third game of the season that Sanford High has had with non-scholastic teams. The first was with the Seminole Athletic Club, whom they defeated by a 13 to 0 score, the second was with Stetson's Reserves who they tied with a 6 to 6 score and now they trim the Springfield Athletic Club by a 9 to 0 score!

Fortune, the S. A. C. center, was fortunate enough not to get hurt during the entire fray! Fortune told me before the game that according to my prediction in Wednesday's paper that he would be going back to the "Gate City" in an ambulance. He said that if he got hurt, I could have the pleasure of paying the expenses.

Thanks to my lucky stars he was safe and sound after the game!

In the first quarter the S. A. C. led most of their "very little" threatening. Fumbles by the Celery Seed backfield at opportune moments gave them a chance to put the locals in the worried class. Incidentally, I chewed three pencils to pieces when Lee Peck, our most worthy half, made his first fumble—just after I had put my hard earned pennies on the Celery Seeds.

The Springfield boys were great on forming new tricks. Quarterback Daniels called a conference for every other play and made a new framing to be used against the Celery Seeds. Evidently the "Springy" quarter saw that his former well planned plays would only be chewed up by the Sanford High boys.

As it was nearly everything new that he invented was trampled into dust—including himself. The Jacksonville boys must have been "blind to color" in the fourth quarter. McLucas, our star end and half, casually moved down the field, stretched himself out on the ground and waited for results. The Springfield boys had their eyes upon Bach, and as the ball was snapped to "Bookie" they made a useless attempt to go through the "Celery Seed" line to get him. "Bookie" made a beautiful forward pass to Mac who galloped the remaining distance for a touchdown. All the while the Springfield boys took in this section of a short story in a sporting magazine.

GATORS READY FOR ANY TEAM

(By The Associated Press)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 1.—Exception to a discussion of championship possibilities wherein was continued a statement to the effect that "Florida had a tendency to avoid conference encounters" was taken here yesterday by President A. A. Murphree and Athletic Director James L. White of the University of Florida, which Thursday eliminated the University of Alabama from the Southern conference race on a muddy field. The article was carried in a number of papers throughout the country.

"In preparing both its 1923 and 1924 schedules the University of Florida offered games to every important member of the S. I. C. within its territory," said Mr. White. "So far only two conference teams have agreed to play Florida next year. The statement is unfair to the excellent team we have and we are ready to meet as far as our schedule will permit, any representative eleven in the south in 1924. We accepted games with smaller colleges this season only after every effort had been made to secure games that would furnish us formidable opposition."

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 1.—G. E. Wilbur, Jacksonville, president of the State Athletic Association, has called a meeting of members at Gainesville for today and instructed all contenders to submit their season record for consideration in selecting the state inter-scholastic football champions for 1923, it was learned here today. Lakeland claimed the title because she had not been defeated. Hillsborough, of Tampa, undefeated, but tied twice, is said to be in the running as she defeated Duval, previously with a clean record, 10 to 0 yesterday.

FERNIS-WALLACE BOUT
JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 1.—Fearless Fernis of Atlanta and Young Wallace of New Orleans will meet in a ten-round bout here Monday night at the Duval county armory, under the auspices of the 164th infantry, P. N. G. Fernis has arrived and is in training for the match. In addition to the main bout there will be a preliminary of eight rounds, six rounds and four rounds in preliminary matches between other fighters.

FAMOUS RELIC WILL BE

VISIBLE DAY AND NIGHT
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—The Liberty Bell, treasured American relic, will be made visible to the public, day and night, summer and winter, under plans being formulated by Wilfred Jordan, curator of Independence Hall, where the bell rests.

Heretofore thousands of visitors have failed to see the famous old bell because the building is closed to the public during certain hours. Under the new plans it is proposed to place at the rear portals of Independence Hall a Georgian grill of wrought iron work, so open in character that the bell may be clearly seen at all times. At night it will be illuminated with floodlights.

PLANT CITY—Experts on grape growing are expected to be present here for the eighth meeting on December 5 of the Florida Grape Growers' Association, and will give talks on grape cultivation. Increasingly large acreage is being planted to grapes in Florida each, officers of the association assert, and a full attendance is expected at the meeting, the growers coming to get additional pointers on the best methods of grape production in this state.

A $5.00 deposit on a Ford car will be placed to your credit in any Sanford Bank and will draw interest at the regular rate.

Two Sides of Turnover

The alert business man dealing with present day conditions knows that the big word today is "Turnover." Whether he be a merchant, manufacturer, jobber, or banker, he sees that one thing with a clear vision unbiased by the limits of his own business. It is in the air, and on the tip of every tongue.

And yet many of them—entirely too many—thinking on only one side of Turnover. They think of it as meaning rapid selling—putting money in and getting it out quickly and at a profit. They realize that they must put greatly increased efforts back of all their plans for selling and distribution.

The other half of Turnover is the consumer. All selling plans and efforts fail if the consumer doesn't want to buy. His desire for the product must be created. He must meet the seller half way. He must be in a mood to buy before the salesman meets him across the counter.

That is the function of Advertising—to create consumer demand and consumer preference. With this demand as a fact all selling plans have a chance to succeed. Without it they fail. The only chance for salesmanship to succeed without an existing demand is for salesmanship to assume the task that belongs to advertising—the task of creating demand.

If the present efforts that are being put into selling were amply supported by a corresponding effort to create consumer demand through Advertising, the business conditions of this country would be rapidly changed into an era of great prosperity—in spite of Old World conditions and everything else.

The proof of this is in the fact that right now, under these very conditions, the manufacturers who are putting proper emphasis on creating a demand for their product, as well as selling it, are doing a big business and are actually getting the high turnover that others are trying so strenuously to get through intensive selling.
