Lutheran Services To Be Held Here

Lutheran services will be conducted at Sanford, beginning Sunday, May 10. These services will be held in the Lutheran Club on Lake Monroe at 7:30 p. m. each Sunday evening. The Rev. Albert H. D. Besalski, pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church, Orlando, will conduct the first service. The public is cordially invited.

This initial Lutheran service at Sanford is the consequence of considerable interest and developing impetus by both Lutherans and non-Lutherans in the community. The Mission Board of the Florida Georgia District, under the chairmanship of the Rev. Albert H. D. Besalski, will assist the parish in the procurement of properties and the calling of a full-time ordained minister.

The Rev. Stephen M. Tuhy and his parishioners at St. Luke's Lutheran Church (Slavia) have broadcast Lutheran services over the facilities of station WTRR, Sanford, for many months.

All Church Notices must be presented at The Herald office by 4:00 P. M. on the day before publication.

"There is an enduring tenderness in the love of a mother to a son that transcends all other affections of the heart. It is neither to be chilled by selfishness, nor daunted by danger, nor weakened by worthlessness, nor stifled by ingratitude. She will sacrifice every comfort to his convenience; she will surrender every pleasure to his enjoyment; she will glory in his fame and exult in his prosperity; and if adversity overtake him, he will be the dearest to her by misfortune; and if disgrace settle upon his name, she will still love and cherish him; and if all the world beside cast him off, she will be all the world to him."

If they asked anything in His name they would receive it. He would not even have to plead for them if they loved Him, because then they would not ask anything displeasing to God.

As the subject "ADAM AND ALLEN MAN" is developed in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science churches Sunday, one sees the opportunity to forsake a wholly material concept of man.
The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:14): "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."
The following from II Peter (1:12) is among the Bible citations: "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord."
Correlated passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "When speaking of God's children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you'; that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal" (p. 478).

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1953
TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

After Rebekah was more beautiful after she had grown older and had lines of kindness and gentleness in her face. Beauty is much more than skin deep and daisies don't have it. They are pretty may be but not really beautiful. It takes the halo of gray hair and lines of kindness and sympathy round the eyes. A smile of understanding and patience. Live right and your beauty will grow with the years.
The daisies were fair to look upon.
—Gen. 24:16

When you build, build well. It is folly to build cheaply. The new $120,000 Leesburg Armory, dedicated only last October, is already suffering from buckling flooring, making it unfit for use. Cost of taking up the floor and putting in a new one is estimated at $3,800.

When you run off the paving on to a highway shoulder, don't be in too big a hurry to get back on.
Mrs. Chivers of DeLand was the other day and ran clear across the highway over the bulkhead and into the lake. The best thing to do when you run off the paving is to slow down, or stop if necessary, and take your time about getting under way again.

No one would want to be a "sports fixer" in this state if a bill passed in the Senate the other day becomes law. It would subject a person to ten years in jail and a fine of $10,000 who offers a bribe to anyone in an attempt to influence the outcome of an athletic contest. Sports fixing is the lowest form of the gambling racket. It demoralizes the athlete in order to win the bet.

Interesting statistics about the South come from "The South," published in Washington, D. C.
The South has a higher percentage of married men than any other section of the country. It also has the lowest divorce rate, but it is rising the fastest. And the South has a lower percentage of children enrolled in public schools than the nation as a whole. Among 16 and 17 year olds, it is 65 percent in the South; in the nation 79 percent.
We have got to do something about that.

No spirit of optimism pervades the Sanford State Farmers Market where Sandy Anderson reports a decrease of 10,000 units handled during April of this year as compared with the same month last year, and a valuation drop of $269,718. Though he insists "We are still in the ring slugging and will not admit defeat," Sandy submits the following obituary: "Here lies the remains of what was once a Market. Born 1950. Died 1953.
In and memory of Mrs. Catherine
M. Collier, wife of the late Mr. C. G.
Sanchez Vignabier, Gentle But
Not forgotten."

Sanford Industries, Inc. seems to have struck pay dirt with the announcement that a Flushing, Long Island, clothing manufacturer is about to open a branch factory on the second floor of Kent's Garage in the near future. It will employ about 50 people at first and sell pajamas, robes and sportswear all over the country. That much additional employment will help to keep the wheels of commerce turning this summer. Meanwhile if we could get busy and bring in a few more like it, business might be better here this summer than it was last winter.

While we are on the subject of prices and agricultural problems, it is interesting to note a report from the American Nutrition Foundation which states that "The world food situation is getting worse." Increased production is barely keeping pace with the growing population. In the United States food consumption has increased from 3,170 to 3,210 calories in the last two years, while in India it has dropped from 1,630 to 1,500, which is only a meager amount. The problem is that the world is not producing enough food to feed its growing population.

Newspaper Diplomacy

The Russians use their newspapers as an instrument of their diplomacy. Often changes in Kremlin policy are first printed in Communist papers and the reaction of the rest of the world to the new idea is carefully noted. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles made it clear, however, that the United States will not respond to any Russian messages which are not delivered in the regular diplomatic manner.

While the Soviet press reflects the attitude of the Kremlin, the leaders of Russia are not bound by what appears in the paper; if a new policy is met with enthusiasm by the West after it has appeared in a paper like Pravda, then the Red diplomats can begin negotiations on the subject at a distinct advantage. If reactions are not favorable the Russians can ignore the pronouncement or insist that it was not issued by the government.

Secretary Dulles is wise to take the stand he has on this technique of diplomacy through the newspapers. If the Kremlin wishes to contact our government and inform our leaders of changes in Russian attitude, let it be done in the usual manner so that the matter can be considered carefully. It is one thing for news analysts to base their interpretations of events on what appears in the Communist newspapers. It is something else again to expect the free world to base its relations with Russia on what is printed in Pravda or other official Russian organs.

Fair Tax Collection

No government agency has had worse public relations than the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Taxpayers have come to look on it with fear, suspicion and animosity. The new Commissioner of Internal Revenue, T. Coleman Andrews, wants to change all that.

Commissioner Andrews, in an interview in the U. S.
News and World Report, has made it clear that he recognizes the fact that members of the Bureau of Internal Revenue are employees of the taxpayers and not their bosses. He is aware that in the past many taxpayers have been frightened out of seeking rebates on taxes or into paying more than they should by legal sounding letters from collectors. He is determined that the citizen shall have the benefit of every reasonable doubt. He said that his bureau will make an effort to collect every penny in taxes that is owing but will not seek to collect one cent more.

It is refreshing to hear a public official admit that he and his associates and subordinates are employees of the taxpayer. In a democracy that is the way it should be and there is no room for the type of official who will intimidate or take advantage of the people he is appointed or elected to serve. Courtesy helps, too.

Collecting taxes is an important job, vital to the administration of the government. If Commissioner Andrews follows the policies he outlined in his interview he may be able to move far toward regaining the confidence and respect which the Bureau of Internal Revenue needs.

Interdependence

Our civilization is so complex that almost every one is dependent on other people. The businessman is dependent on the mechanic who fixes his car, on the radio repairman who fixes his radio, on the office staff who help him carry out his business. They in turn depend on him and on each other for money and services.

This interdependence has managed to conquer geography.
The man in New York drinks coffee grown in South America, shipped, perhaps, on a European vessel, unloaded by American stevedores. The South American coffee grower spends money that the man in New York earned by working for still another man or company.

The little bit long past when isolationism was practical.
The dweller in a respectable suburb is in danger of disease epidemics as long as there are people living in unsanitary slums. America cannot hope to be freed from threat of war as long as there are possible aggressors strong enough to invade any country in the world.

We forget this interdependence sometimes and seem to think America can go it alone. But World War II taught us the danger of that kind of thinking. "We are all members of one another."

No. 10: Edward I. Ruled England 1272-1307.

Born: 1229 at Westminster, eldest son of Henry II and Eleanor of Provence. Of Edward I, John Richard Green said in his great History of England: "His very tongue was English to the core. In good as in evil he stands out as the typical representative of the race he ruled; like them, willful and imperious, tenacious in his rights, indomitable in his pride, dogged, stubborn, slow of apprehension, narrow in sympathy; but like them, too, just in the main. . . . It was his approval that 'what touches all should be approved by all,' and under him began the political institutions of modern Britain. He began the conquest of Wales, and endeavored to bring Scotland within his realm. He stole the Stone of Scone, the coronation seat of Scottish kings for centuries, and carried it to Westminster. This and other acts of his postponed the union of the two kingdoms for 300 years. It is said, Edward was the first to make his hair white with Wales. That he did so when the hair was on

Parley Of Top Leaders Urged By Churchill

Suggests Conference Without Any Delay

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill said today he is in favor of a high level conference of the leading powers without any great delay.

In a House of Commons speech on foreign policy, Churchill said the high level conference should not be hampered by any "agenda," and should be carried out in an atmosphere of informality and privacy and even seclusion.

Churchill was not specific, but supposedly meant he should get together with President Eisenhower and Premier Malenkov. He referred to a "conference at the highest level of the leading powers."

Churchill said this conference might not come to any hard agreement but at least it would lead to a better understanding.

The prime minister reviewed what he called the "change in attitude" and we "hope" mood, that has taken place in Soviet Russia and the Kremlin itself since the death of Stalin.

He appealed for caution in "deliberations" and said that the Soviet leaders ground for suspicion. He said "it would be a mistake to assume that nothing could be settled by us or until everything is settled."

In a review of foreign problems Churchill told the House of Commons:

"The compromise treaty proposals offered by the Communists in Korea should be given sympathetic and patient examination.

"Western Germany needs to be incorporated soon into the Western defense set up. Britain intends to stand firmly behind her commitments to Western Germany.

"Britain will discuss arrangements for providing an international defense of the Canal Zone but British troops will defend themselves if the Egyptians try to start trouble there.

"A piecemeal solution of problems with Russia is better than no settlement at all. This could be interpreted as an indication of President Eisenhower's recent all inclusive peace plan.

"The inclusion of French-Indochina in the improved security pact is the subject of the Western defense set up. He warned the West not to assume too hastily that Moscow is calling the tune for the military movement in Indochina.

McCarran Bill Upping Salaries Given Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved a bill by Sen. McCarran (D-Nev.) increasing salaries of all members of Congress and federal judges by $10,000 a year.

The measure also would raise salaries of U. S. attorneys over $25,000 a year to a maximum of $50,000 a year.

Salaries of the 96 senators and 435 House members would be $25,000 a year under the bill. They now get $12,500 salary and $2,500 expense money, which is all lumped together as taxable compensation.

The committee said the net cost of this congressional pay boost would be $5,538,256 annually.

The only exception to the $10,000 pay hike for judges under the bill would be the chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court who would get an annual increase of $14,500.

This would take him up to $40,000 a year. The boost is designed to put him on a par with the Vice President and the House speaker, both of whom now get $30,000 an annual salary and a $10,000 expense allowance.

The committee also recommended government officials after the president who gets $100,000 salary and a $50,000 expense allowance.

The new salaries of other judges under the bill would be:

Supreme Court Justices—$35,000.

U. S. Court of Appeals—$27,500.

U. S. Court of Military Appeals—$27,500.

And Patent Appeals—$27,500.

District Courts—$25,000.

Tax Court of the U. S.—$25,000.

U. S. Customs Court—$25,000.

The committee estimated the net cost of the judicial salary boost would be $2,200,000 a year.

Present conditions make backing the jumbo truck up to the loading platforms twice a day a neat trick. In addition to having trouble hitting the driveway, the driver also has trouble stopping just the right distance from the platform. In pulling trailers bumped the roof of the platform jarring the entire building.

Truck delivery and pickup between Jacksonville and Orlando began Apr. 1.

Scouts Take Part In Camporee Held Friday, Saturday

Twenty-one scouts from Troop 345 of the First Presbyterian Church participated in the Central Florida Council Camporee at Alexander Springs on Friday and Saturday.

The camporee was held at the Seminole District Camporee. According to Scoutmaster Sidney Vihlen, the camporee was for the purpose of developing and demonstrating camp skills. The pioneering camping was run on the patrol plan with each patrol camping as a separate group. After the scouts checked in, they were on their own with no advice obtained from the adult leaders.

All judging was done by council-selected judges. The Wolf, Hawk, and Buffalo Patrols won blue ribbons in the camporee judging.

The Eagle Patrol finished first in the competition with 36 other troops in flapjack flipping. The team for that event was composed of Tommy Baker, Randall Robbin, and Al Collins.

Attending from Troop 345 were the following: Owl Patrol—James Pearson, David Brown, Bill Stewart, and Eugene Harty; Wolf Patrol—Allen Madatt, Robert Mitchell, Randall Lavender, and Jack Young; Eagle Patrol—Teddy Walker, Al Collins, Randall Robbin, Gregory Walker, and Bobby Little; Hawk Patrol—Sunny Fald, Harvey Stucky, Roy Hudson, James Scott, Richard Phagan, Bruce Hold, and Charles Stafford.

Chester Bowles Sees Situation In Asia Better

By MARVIN L. ABRAMSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chester Bowles, former ambassador to India, said today the White House today the light against communism in Asia is going better from a military standpoint than it was a year ago.

Bowles talked to newsmen at a 45-minute conference with President Eisenhower. He has just returned to the United States after serving as envoy in New Delhi during the Truman administration.

On the trip back, Bowles spent six weeks touring Southeast Asia. He described the situation as "a little better" in Asia, but he added it would not be proper for him to make their conversation.

"Speculating that he was speaking without reference to what he may have said to President Eisenhower, Bowles said that in Asia generally, he thinks the military situation against communism is better today than it was a year ago.

"He added, however, that the basic problems "are not military," they are economic and political. He said that the military situation "is better" between communism and free world democracy and said it probably will continue to improve in the future.

Bowles said that the danger of communism will be lessened if the United States must have economic and financial help from the United States.

The following schedule will prevail in the County:

Longwood (at park)—Wednesday from 1:00 to 4:00 and 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Forest Lake Academy (at Lake Forest)—Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Allamonte Springs (at post office)—Friday from 1:00 to 4:00 and 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Slavia (at Duda and Sons)—May 19 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and 3:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Mrs. Chalmers Harkey, public health officer, pointed out today that tuberculosis can be caught if found in the early stages. Those who do not have x-rays taken are endangering themselves and others.

She explained that tuberculosis is caused by a germ. It cannot be inherited, but it can be given to anyone by such means as coughing, sneezing or using dishes or other articles handled by a person who has the disease.

Mrs. Harkey said there is no more disgrace in having tuberculosis.

Williams Bill Hitting At Gaming, Narcotics, Obscenity Is Passed

Measure Is Passed By House By 8-1 Vote

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The Senate passed SB893 by Senator Hyatt regarding garbage dumping.

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—A bill declaring no one has any property rights in illegally possessed gambling equipment, narcotics and obscene literature or pictures today was passed by the House 8-1 and sent to the Senate.

The measure would forbid the return of such articles when seized under search warrants or by search without a warrant. Rep. Williams, Seminole County, sponsor of the bill, said it puts the entrepreneur in the same class with bootlegged liquor which is not returned to its possessor if it is seized.

The lone voter against Williams' bill was Rep. Akrilids, Brevard County.

Scratch Sheets

A bill which would outlaw racing scratch sheets and bill charts in Florida was introduced in the House today by Rep. Williams, Seminole County.

The measure would prohibit publication of racing information in newspapers or in official track programs.

The bills would make a legislative declaration that dog and horse charts and scratch sheets are designed primarily to serve the interest of illegal off-track gambling through bookmakers.
