Sanford's ready to sparkle

Sixth annual fireworks show expected to draw more than 60,000 people

SANFORD — The sixth annual Festival on the Fourth is expected to draw 65,000 people to one of Central Florida's biggest fireworks shows.

Sponsored by MDX105.1, 102 Jamz, Orock 105.9, the city of Sanford and Sanford Main Street Inc., the free family event will take place at Fort Mellon Park on Lake Monroe in historic downtown Sanford on Thursday, July 4.

The festivities start at 5 p.m. with the fireworks show exploding after sundown over Lake Monroe. The patriotic fireworks display will be choreographed with a live music simulcast on all three radio stations. Beer and concessions will be available from 5 to 10 p.m.

"The fireworks will be expanded this year," said Linda Kuhn, chairwoman of the Sanford Main Street committee organizing the festival. "They'll be bigger and better and very patriotic."

One key aspect of this year's fireworks show is that the pyrotechnics will be launched from the marina point, allowing spectators all along Seminole Boulevard to enjoy the show.

"We've been trying to do this for several years," Kuhn said. "It allows us to open up the entire park. Before we had to close off part of Seminole Boulevard and Ft. Mellon Park because you have to keep a 550 foot perimeter from the launch site. Everyone will have a much better view, including those who choose to watch from their boats on Lake Monroe."

Logan Heights offers children new program

By Michelle Jeria Managing Editor

Laura Reeves believes apartment complexes are receiving a bad rap in Sanford.

That's why the community manager for Logan Heights Apartments wants people to know there are a lot of good things happening at these multi-family residences — especially for children.

"I'm concerned about all the criticism apartments are getting lately," Reeves said. "There are a lot of positive things going on at our complex, and we aren't the only ones who are doing these types of things."

During the past few months, Sanford City Commission has discussed a possible freeze on new apartment complexes while the city tries to find a way to control the impact of rental housing. Officials are concerned about the impact on traffic, the environment and housing trends. Many city residents have also voiced their concerns about the number of rental complexes within Sanford.

Nevertheless, Reeves said existing complexes shouldn't be the recipients of disfavor. In fact, she wants people to realize apartment managers are trying to make life a little easier and better for their renters.

At Logan Heights, Reeves is very

Mims receives third bugle pin

Firefighter Seminole County's first female assistant chief

By Michelle Jeria Managing Editor

History was made in Seminole County Friday when a third bugle was placed on Leeanna R. Mims' collar.

Mims, who has moved up through the ranks in public service during the past two decades, is now the first female assistant chief for the county's EMS/Fire/Rescue Division. Current and former colleagues gathered to honor Mims during Friday's bugle pinning ceremony at Seminole County Fire Station No. 35.

"In the short time that she has been with us, she has excelled in everything she does," said

Seminole County Fire Chief Terry L. Schenk. "She has served with distinction. She was definitely the leading candidate to fill this position."

Mims is only the sixth person in the agency's 26-year history to be named assistant chief, Schenk said. It is a key position in the fire department, and she will now directly report to the fire chief.

"Since we hired her from Longwood in 1999, Leeanna has done a marvelous job for us," Schenk said. "And, this is an opportunity that doesn't come around too often."

According to Seminole Director of Public Safety Ken Roberts, area west of Orlando.

"For the first four hours and 20 minutes, we saw a total of 4,000 calls," said FDOT spokesman Steve Homan.

On Monday, the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) officials launched a voice-activated 511 Travel Information Service which is now available to most Central Florida wireless telephone users.

By dialing 511, wireless customers of AT&T, Cingular, Nextel, and Sprint will be able to get around-the-clock, real-time traffic and road condition updates along the Interstate 4 corridor from Volusia County to the attractions

With the pothole problem on I-4 just north of the St. Johns River Bridge beginning at approximately 2 p.m. Tuesday, Homan said the number of calls increased. From noon Monday until 4 p.m. Tuesday (after the potholes had been reported) the number of calls had already reached 18,000.

Later, he said that during the

Smith honored with department's first Medal of Merit

By Dan Ping Editor

SANFORD — Spit-shined sergeants may use the slogan "An Army of One" to recruit young men into the U.S. Army, but Alan Smith could make it his motto, just ask the bad guys on the street, said Sanford Deputy Police Chief Mike McCoy.

In the last year, Smith established probable cause for 75 search warrants which led to the seizure of large amounts of illegal drugs, including three major narcotics trafficking cases.

"Alan does an outstanding job for his,"

McCoy said. "He's a one-man army."

Smith was honored for his work Friday morning by becoming the first Medal of Merit recipient in the history of the Sanford Police Department.

"I was surprised when I heard my name," Smith said. "I knew we were having an awards program, but I had no idea I'd win the medal."

The ceremony was the first formal awards presentation the department has held to recognize officers throughout the ranks for their dedication and hard work.

"Alan is a key player in our tactical unit," said Police Chief Brian Toohey.

The award may have been a surprise to Smith, but considering his pedigree, it's no mystery. Law enforcement is the Smith family business. Smith's dad is a Florida State Trooper, his mom works for the Orange County Sheriff's Office, and his sister is employed by the Winter Springs Police Department.

"It seems like we're always going to each other's awards presentations," Smith said.

The Medal of Merit honors Smith's cumulative efforts as an officer, however, his supervisors said one incident epitomizes why Smith was

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Under the radar: Maybe it's because summer is upon us, but there has been little news about new developments downtown. Visions of condominium high-rises, new retail shops and revitalized offices remain, but for now there's not much action.

Publicly.

Word Around The Clock is that some heavy hitters are taking a hard look at Sanford's downtown. No particulars for the moment, but it Around the Clock appears that something is happening. Evidently a group or groups of investors have spent substantial sums of money to formulate plans.

With the Riverwalk money secure (or as secure as government funding can be in a tight budget year) and the project just weeks from breaking ground, chances are good that a number of interesting projects could blossom this fall. Stay tuned.

by Dan Ping

Under the radar, part 2: Downtown is not the only hot spot for new business ventures in town. The Clock Keeper is hearing rumors that a new airline is eyeing the Orlando Sanford International Airport.

Word is it would be a start-up company with somewhere in the neighborhood of $300 million in capital to fund flight service to several domestic routes.

Suntan lotion and ice cream: Not all the business news is hush-hush. There are some intriguing tidbits coming out of the Sanford Planning and Zoning Commission.

For starters, Blue Bell Creameries received site plan approval to build a distribution center on Gordon Street off Aero Lane. The Texas-based ice cream company is building a 12,500-square-foot facility as part of its expansion into Central Florida.

Is the ice cream any good? According to a company representative, Blue Bell's slogan is "We eat all we can and sell the rest."

P&Z member Ross Robert was concerned about security at the site.

"If the ice cream is that good, do you think a six-foot chain link fence is high enough to keep people out?" Robert laughed.

If ice cream is not your thing, then maybe BellaVisions Inc. might interest you. The Altamonte Springs company distributes Hawaiian Gold brand suntan lotions. The company received site plan approval to build a 7,000-square-foot building for its operations.

Considering Ross's thinning hairline, maybe he should stop at BellaVisions for some sunscreen before trying that fence and Blue Bell.

Naming names: When Daryl McLain announced his bid to run for congress against Florida House Speaker Tom Feeney, everyone knew he was the underdog.

That was reinforced last week at a fundraising reception held for Feeney at the CNL Center in Orlando. Among the reception's co-chairmen were Ray Valdes, Seminole County tax collector, and Don Eslinger, the county sheriff. In addition, beer man John Williams of Wayne Densch was listed at a member of the host committee.

McLain's going to need all the big-name Seminole County supporters he can net. Losing those three might not hurt, but it sure can't help.

CCIB Crackdown

Members of the Seminole County Sheriff's Department City/County Investigation Bureau (CCIB) conducted an undercover drug sting operation in noted drug areas of Sanford Wednesday afternoon. A number of arrests were reported.

Deon Perkins, 21, of Yale Drive in Sanford was arrested at West 13th Street. He was charged with sale of cocaine in a school area.

Deandre Devon Ware, 26, of McKay Blvd. in Sanford was arrested with cocaine and charged with obstruction of justice in reportedly attempting to inform others of the drug sting.

Willie Claw Brown, 34, of West 11th Street, was apprehended at Jasmine and 11th Street. He was charged with attempted sale of cocaine near a school and possession of narcotics equipment.

Donald Tanner, 35, of William Clark Court, was arrested at 10th Street and Mulberry Avenue. He was charged with selling cocaine within 1,000 feet of a public housing area, and possession of cocaine.

Barry Leonard Montgomery, 19, of Byrd Avenue, was arrested in the 3500 block of E. SR-46. He was charged with selling cocaine near a school, possession of cocaine, and possession of under 20 grams of marijuana.

Troy Letray Dixon, 23, of Church Avenue, Sanford, was also arrested in the 3500 block of E. SR-46. He was charged with selling cocaine near a school and possession of cocaine. On Monday, June 24, Dixon had been arrested by Sanford police as the result of a traffic stop. He was charged at that time with a number of drug related charges.

David Davis, 20, of Lake Monroe, Sanford, was apprehended at 3rd Street and Avacado Avenue. He was charged with sale/delivery of crack cocaine, possession of crack cocaine, possession of under 20 grams of cannabis, and possession of narcotics equipment.

Home Raid

Charles Grayson, 31, of Bob Thomas Circle, Sanford was arrested by Sanford police Wednesday. Officers served a search warrant at his residence and reported finding quantities of marijuana in his house and his van. He was charged with possession of more than 20 grams of marijuana.

Home Burglary

Robert Alan Rossetter, 29, South

Magnolia, was arrested by Longwood Police Wednesday. An officer said he heard a woman shout "Get out of my House", and investigated. The arrest report said Rossetter had entered the woman's home and sat on the sofa, waiting for the officer to leave, after following him for several blocks.

Rossetter was subsequently apprehended in the 170 block of West Warren, and charged with two separate counts of burglary to a dwelling, and two separate counts of resisting an officer without violence.

Dog Bite

Darin Metz of Winter Springs, was attacked by two Rottweilers Wednesday while jogging in the 300 block of Moss Road. Winter Springs police said Metz was bitten on the left upper arm, lower right arm, upper left leg and lower back. He was treated by Winter Springs Rescue and taken to South Seminole Hospital.

Seminole County Animal Control quarantined both dogs and warnings have been issued to the dogs owners.

Business Burglary

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office is investigating a burglary late Wednesday night at a Longwood area business, which reportedly suffered an estimated loss of at least $80,000. The burglary was discovered at Nobles' Marine, 1580 south U.S. 17-92 when the business opened Thursday morning. Management reported three outboard drives from expensive inboard-outboard boats were taken as well as several outboard motors with electronic ignitions. Entry was made by cutting through the fence just to the south of the marina, on property used by a dentist's office.

Anyone with information regarding this case is asked to call the sheriff's office at 407-665-6600 or Crime Line at 1-800-423-TIPS.

Traffic Stops

Sam Baker, 28, of Woodmere Blvd., Sanford, was stopped by Sanford police early Thursday in the 500 block of West Airport Blvd. He was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol/drugs, and failure to obey a traffic control device (Stop light at 13th and 17-92).

Shawn Anthony Moore, 30, of Deltona, was stopped by sheriff's deputies on the I-4 ramp on West SR-46. He was charged with possession of a controlled substance and possession of narcotics equipment.

Can't Spell

Ell Blanton, 29, (aka DeFettes Andrus Jackson) was stopped by Lake Mary Police Wednesday at Wilbur and 2nd Street. Officers said he reportedly gave them the name of Jackson, but officers became suspicious when he couldn't spell "Andrus" properly. It was subsequently proven his real name was Blanton. During the interrogation, a K-9 dog uncovered drugs in the front seat. Blanton was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia, driving with a suspended license, and giving a false name to a law enforcement officer.

The passenger in the rear seat of Blanton's vehicle, Eddie Lee Mike, 31, was charged with possession of cannabis, and tampering with physical evidence.

The passenger in the front seat, identified as David Wright, was found to be wanted on a warrant for violation of probation on a conviction of resisting an officer without violation.

Domestic Case

Robert Ray Burley, 48, of Ridgewood Street, Altamonte Springs, was arrested by deputies at his residence Monday, following a dispute with his wife. The officer said during his investigation, Burley had attempted to have his dog attack the officer, but later recanted, saying the dog wouldn't hurt anyone. Burley was charged with battery, domestic violence, and aggravated assault against a police officer.

Sleeping If Off

Kevin Charles Larson, 26, of Williston, Florida, was arrested by Sanford police Wednesday. Officers said they found him apparently passed out in the driver's seat of his vehicle, parked in a parking lot at 1200 South French Avenue. He was arrested on a charge of driving under the influence of alcohol.

A Pat on the Back

Congratulations to the Sanford police officers honored for their service

Parents like to remind their children that satisfaction in a job well done is its own reward. That's true, but it's nice to be recognized by your peers and supervisors once in a while, too. Ask Alan Smith, the Medal of Merit honoree for the Sanford Police Department, or any of the other officers honored Friday morning at City Hall.

Police Chief Brian Tooley and his staff conducted the department's first formal awards ceremony. Tooley has handed out awards in the past, but Friday's event was the inauguration of what will become an annual affair. That's a positive step for the department that has made tremendous strides during Tooley's three-year tenure. It reinforces the accomplishments the chief and his officers continue to make in their quest to create one of the top law enforcement agencies in Central Florida. From innovative policing techniques to a earnest effort to implement community policing, the Sanford Police Department has made a commitment to provide the city with a top-notch police force.

The awards also remind the community of the good works Sanford's finest perform day in and day out. Sometimes we take for granted the department's efforts, especially when most citizens do not have day-to-day contact with officers. When that contact occurs, however, the men and women in blue are there to meet our needs — as noted in the letters to the editor section adjacent to this editorial.

The Herald would like to congratulate those officers who were recognized, as well as those whose names were not mentioned. For now, those officers must rely on their own satisfaction that they are doing it right. We offer them collective pat on the back. You can't hang it on the wall, but please understand we appreciate the job you do.

Chamber Success

Angella Gordon has made good strides to turning around the Sanford Chamber of Commerce

While we're handing out kudos, we would like to offer a patented Herald Pat-On-The-Back to Angella Gordon and her staff at the Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas is a time for giving, but Gordon certainly didn't have in mind asking the city for a bailout when she took over the chamber job. With less than $500 in the bank, the chamber needed assistance. The City Commission agreed, and Gordon and her staff took it from there.

Six months later, the chamber is on much better financial footing. The bills are paid, money is in the bank, membership renewals are up and 81 new members have joined the chamber. Those accomplishments didn't occur by magic. They were achieved through hard work, and Gordon should be commended for her efforts.

There remains more work to do, as Gordon herself acknowledges. The chamber must continue to broaden its base and become more involved in recruiting businesses and industries to Sanford. If the last six months are an indication, those goals will be reached.

Family thanks cop for stopping

To the editor:

Officer T. MacDonald, I wanted to thank you again for assisting my family and me on the night of June 5.

What made it so unique was the fact that you were on patrol and just happened to stop by and assist. I appreciate the time you took to explain to us what was happening and checking to make sure that everything was being handled appropriately.

The day had been full of chaotic events, but we felt at ease once you assisted us in getting to the bottom of the situation. I know that you think it is your job, but you could have easily continued down the street. The amount of care and concern showed was beyond the call of duty and I appreciate it.

Thank you,
Angela Jones and Family

Officer's gift is one more reason to stay sober

To the editor:

My name is Kelly, and I am a 45-year-old resident of the "Sanford Bridge Program" on South Holly Ave. I have more than one year of sobriety, mostly due to this fine program. I have been blessed with a job while in the work phase of the program. I work for Theo and Linda Hallerback of the Willow Tree Cafe in Historic Downtown Sanford.

I've worked there for two months and have been leaving my bicycle inside the hallway at the back of the restaurant every day. I felt it was safe. It was not.

Someone stole my only means of transportation on June 20. An officer of the Sanford Police Department, Claudia is her name, happened to be there and asked if I wanted to fill out a report. I said yes, and she called in.

Officer Kelley Wells responded, and we spent about 10 minutes going over the details. I told Officer Wells, I was upset and that I was really trying to make a change in my life and also that I was at "The Bridge."

What happened next is truly why I am writing. Officer Wells asked how to find me if she came back to the restaurant, as I work in the back. I told her though the alley and ring the bell. Twenty-five minutes later the bell rang, and I came to the delivery door to find Officer Wells with a practically brand new 15-speed bike, which she presented to me.

Officer Wells is one more reason why I will stay sober today and strive to be productive citizen. Her kindness made me feel a part of this community, and I will never forget it. By the way, Officer Wells, lunch is on me anytime you come by The Willow Tree Cafe.

Yours Truly,
Kelly E. Orton

School applauds police K-9 show

To the editor:

Police Chief Brian Tooley, we would like to express our sincere thanks to your department for the excellent presentation presented to our students by your K-9 officers and police dogs.

Officer Shull and Officer McCoy, along with their K-9 partners presented an excellent demonstration for all students, grades K-4 and it seems that you may have many recruits from this area. Officer Shull's presentation to the students was done in a way that all ages were able to comprehend the information and present Officer Shull with excellent questions in return. Your officers presented themselves as professionals. They are excellent representatives for the Sanford.

We would like to invite the K-9 unit back again next year and to keep in touch with our K-9 friends.

Sincerely,
Cheryl Nicholas
Principal

Did Eisenhower ever imagine I-4?

The Ripley Museum in St. Augustine may be looking for a "Believe It or Not" person — someone who can honestly say they drove a car, any time between 5 a.m. and midnight, from the Orange City exit on Interstate-4, to just past the attractions southwest of Orlando, without running into a traffic tie-up.

Most of the I-4 traffic snarls are caused by auto accidents, which lead to rubber-neckers wanting to see what's happening. They slow down to get a look — and people behind them ram them causing a chain reaction which causes even worse snarls.

Others have been prompted by sinkholes, and most recently the potholes just north of the St. Johns River Bridge which were repaired, then re-repaired the following day — with the possibility of more to come.

Nick Pfeiffauf

I recall, several years ago, there was a well-constructed young lady standing near an I-4 exit ramp in Orlando. She had on a bikini and was just standing there. Needless to say, cars backed up for a number of miles. (It was some type of test sponsored by a local radio station and the police made them stop).

This Saturday, June 29, is the 46th anniversary of the start of the Interstate system in the United States. On this date in 1956, President Dwight Eisenhower signed into law the allocation of $33.5 billion to begin the work. It was considered the largest public works project ever enacted.

If it were done today, it would possibly take most of that money just to get I-4 to a usable, delay-free highway wide enough to handle our ever-expanding traffic.

According to Steve Homan with the Department of Transportation, the present work on the I-4 bridge over the St. Johns River is $102 million. For other work on I-4 between the bridge and Orlando, either underway or planned by the year 2005, it's another $500 million, not including the I-4 Greenway interchange which in itself is an additional $100 million.

The bridge, without side areas onto which a person can pull off a stalled vehicle, has long been one of the biggest trouble spots. Homan said that work is expected to be finished by late spring or early summer in the year 2004.

When we take into consideration the work on I-4, the shortest interstate highway we have, plus work needed or underway on I-75, I-95 and I-10 here in Florida, we could spend Eisenhower's $33.5 billion all by ourselves.

We all know it — Interstate-4 is an accident waiting to happen. The only way to handle it is to drive with extreme caution, as if you may well be the next accident. Keep those eyes on the road, and exercise the best driving skills you can muster.

OK, so we practice good driving skills. But what about the other person? He (or she) is the biggest danger, especially when you consider the number of persons driving under drug or alcohol intoxication.

If you drive I-4 or any other interstates Eisenhower created, take heed. We don't want to see your smashed up vehicle on the pages of our newspaper.

On the Street

The Herald asks people what they think ...

Judge Alfred Goodwin blocked his own ruling Thursday regarding a decision that held the Pledge of Allegiance is unconstitutional because of the phrase "under God." Although the order won't take effect while the case is being appealed, we asked people what they think about the judge's decision regarding the Pledge.

I think it was a mistake. It's part of our heritage, and it has always been in the schools. I think it's silly to go back and exam it. If it's not broken, don't try to fix it.
Dorrie Forrest
Deltona

I disagree with the decision. If the Pledge of Allegiance is unconstitutional, so is our money. It says "In God we trust."
Angel Nater
Orlando

Personally, I think it is un-American. How can we have the word "God" on our money? Please!
Bob Hodges
Sanford

I certainly don't know about all the laws, but it's a tradition and part of our American history. It shouldn't be taken out of the schools.
Paula Ritchey
Sanford

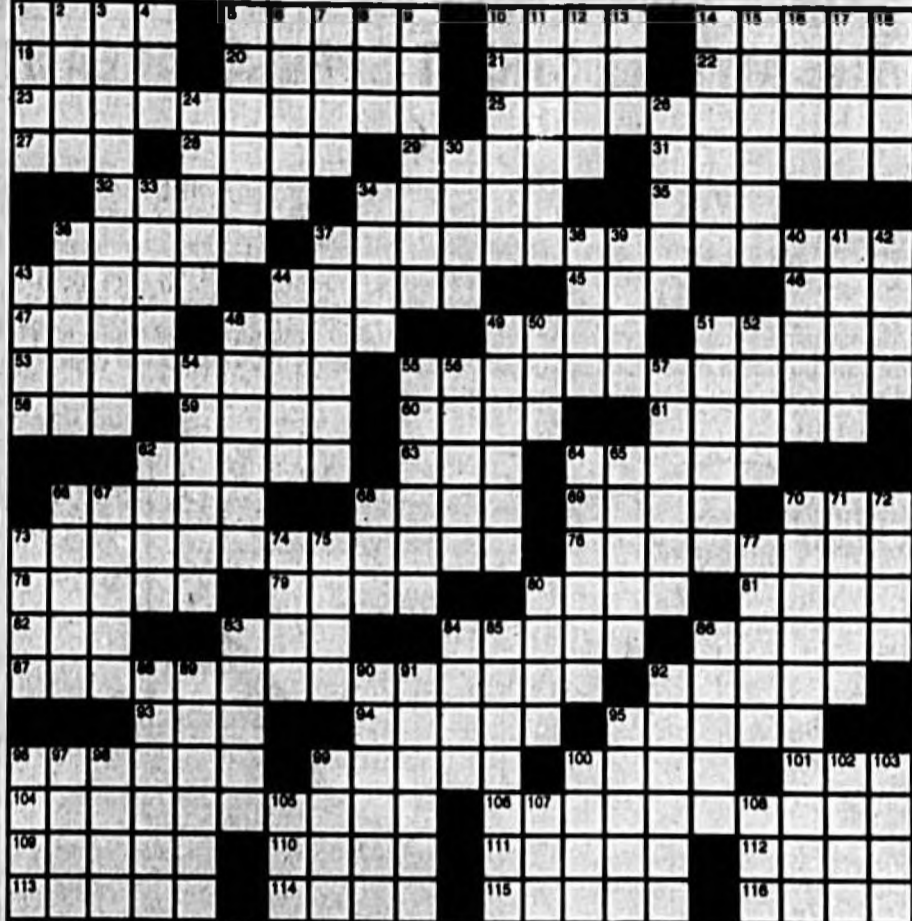

We've said the Pledge of Allegiance for years in this country. I think what the judge did was silly.

The Way We Were: Memories of McReynolds Drug Store, Part 2

We continue the story of McReynolds Drug Store; today you will learn what it was like to work there, according to the employees.

The majority of the employees were high school students who would work after school and on weekends. There would also be at least one older person there during the day. Several students began working there when they were 13 or 14 years old. It was mentioned that Mrs. Barfield worked at the store from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The employees wore little white jackets with "McReynolds Drug Co." embroidered on the pocket. Doc McReynolds and Dr. Rector wore tan jackets with long sleeves.

Wesley Dees described how he was trained by Doc McReynolds and this was probably typical. His first job was working behind the soda fountain waiting on people who walked up to the counter. He would also have to remember the orders being shouted out by the curb hops. When you heard an order you'd say "checked." He and several others stated that you were not allowed to write down the orders.

When they were busy Doc would stand at the end of the counter and have the curb hops repeat the order, if he didn't hear "checked." After a few days, an employee was given a key to the cash register and was allowed to ring up his own sales.

After learning the soda fountain, the next job was curb hopping. In this job, you had to remember both the order and which car it went to.

The next job was working in the back part of the store selling medications, toiletries, etc. When that job was learned there was a store room where you restocked the store.

Every morning when the store opened, the magazine racks had to be rolled outside and then rolled back in every night. There were two long racks that went under the glass windows and two tall ones that fit the corners next to the door.

During a summer rainstorm, the wind would sometimes start blowing the magazines and papers out of the racks. An employee would have to chase them across Sanford Avenue or 25th Street.

There was a glass counter in front of the store which held boxes of candy. Since there was no air conditioning, just ceiling fans, a block of ice was placed in the center of the counter each day.

When the store was opened in the morning all the glasses had to be shined. Doc would come along and check them by holding them up to the light to see if there were any spots.

All glasses were washed in the corner sink at the end of the counter, some kind of disinfectant was always placed in the water. When they were real busy, Doc would step in and help wash glasses.

The employees took turns

Unhappy ex-wife wants to win back the husband she divorced

DEAR ABBY: I had what I thought was a great marriage to "Grant" for nearly 15 years. Like many women, as I entered my 30s, I became bored and unhappy and, as our marriage suffered, I blamed it all on him. (I mean, wasn't he supposed to keep me happy?)

Dear Abby

To make a long story short, I filed for divorce. Grant was shocked. I don't think he would have ever filed. It devastated our 10-year-old son and 8-year-old daughter.

It has been three years since our divorce became final, and after a series of boyfriends — each more disappointing than the last — I still haven't found what I'm looking for. Grant has had only two girlfriends since, and he is fairly infatuated with the woman he is seeing now.

Our children adore their dad, and I now realize how handsome, how nice, and what a great man Grant really is. I now believe he really is my soul mate.

Did I make the biggest mistake of my life? Can I, or should I even try to win him back? Help me, Abby!

REGRETFUL IN MICHIGAN

DEAR REGRETFUL: The answer is yes to all three questions. Sometimes we don't appreciate what we have until we lose it.

Before you start campaigning to win him back, you would be wise to get some counseling to be sure you're serious about wanting him back and not acting out of frustration about your inability to connect with another man.

If it turns out that Grant really is the person you want to spend the rest of your life with, pray that he is more forgiving than most would be after having been hurt the way he was. It will take a miracle for him to forgive you. But miracles have been known to happen. And you'll never know unless you try.

DEAR ABBY: My 90-year-old grandmother had been a devoted member of her church for more than 50 years. She has been home-bound for the last two years. The first of each month, she continues to send 10 percent of her Social Security check to her church, hand-delivered by friends and family — whoever is attending.

Is my grandmother's pastor required by a "higher power" to come to her house on a regular basis to visit and pray with her, so that she feels she's still a part of her church community?

During the past year, my grandmother's pastor has come by her home only once. Grandma's modest home is always spotless, and she is pleasant to be around — she's just old and lonely.

Her world has always revolved around her church, and now is the time that she needs their support. To tell you the truth, I'm so disappointed by their lack of compassion, it will be hard to look at those church people if they show up at her funeral.

VENTING IN OKLAHOMA

DEAR VENTING: There is no excuse for your grandmother to be ignored any longer. Whoever takes her money to the church next time should have a heart-to-heart chat with the pastor and tell him or her what you have written to me.

The responsibility to visit belongs not only to the pastor, but to the elders, deacons and the church members in general. Sometimes there is even a committee of volunteers to minister to the needy, elderly and infirm.

DEAR ABBY: My grandmother died recently, and while going through a box of old photographs I was reminded of some advice you've given to readers: Always write the names of the people (and the date the picture was taken) on the back of your photographs.

One of my grandmother's snapshots was of a lady and a dog. Neatly printed on the back was, "Me and my dog."

SAM IN PENNSYLVANIA

DEAR SAM: It could have been worse. It could have said, "Me and my gal," signed with a paw print.

polishing the soda fountain. It has to have a mirror finish, before they left at night. No one liked this job.

Also all glasses had to be washed and put away, the counter top wiped clean, dirty towels put away and replaced with clean ones and the floor had to be swept.

Every Saturday morning someone had to clean to big glass windows in front of the store. Bon Ami was applied to the window with enough water to form a paste, then after it was dry it was washed off with cloth towels or newspapers.

There was an ice maker in the stockroom with a crusher, but sometimes it was broken and ice had to be crushed with a little hand crusher. It held about five or six ice cubes and had a handle on the right side.

As fast as you could, you had to raise the lid, and hold it with your left hand while you turned the handle with your right hand. This process built up muscles in your right forearm and improved coordination. While crushing ice, you still had to wait on customers and fill orders from the car hops.

Sandwiches were also made and sold. Viola Frank remembered going over to Doc's house on Palmetto Avenue to get eggs that Mrs. Mac had boiled. Viola would take them back to the store and made egg salad sandwiches. She and others also made pimento cheese sandwiches.

McReynolds Drug also sold hand dipped pints of ice cream. The employees were provided with a scale and had to meet Doc's firm standards to the weight of these.

Pay and Hours

Typical hours were similar to these mentioned by Wesley Dees. His shift during the school year was 7 to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday, 1 to 11 p.m. on Saturday and a split shift on Sunday: 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 4 to 11 p.m. During the summer he worked 1 to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday with the same weekend hours as before.

This was 41 hours during the school year and 71 during the summer. Others would work 4 to 7 p.m. hours during the school year and the morning hours during the summer.

Several stated that they started at .15¢ per hour and were raised at .25¢ after a few months. In 1954 Jimmy Moyer started at .40¢ and was making .95¢ four years later. After nine years, Don Knight had reached the princely sum of $1.25 an hour.

Doc McReynolds kept a small time book with a page for each employee giving the date and time worked. On payday, he would total the hours worked with his hourly rate and each employee would be paid in cash, minus small amount for taxes.

Dr. Rector and Ashby Jones

Another pharmacist, Dr. Albert C. Rector, worked at McReynolds beginning in 1946. The two men would take different shifts. It is believed that Dr. Rector and his wife Eileen came from the Chicago area.

Dr. Rector was described as a short man who was a big tease and liked to tell jokes. He always has a Camel cigarette hanging out of his mouth with the ash ready to drop. And he could type faster with two fingers than anyone the traditional way.

Ashby Jones was another older employee. He had been laid off from the railroad in 1955 and needed a job. Since he had experience working in his dad's City Drug, formerly located on First Street, he was hired by Dr. Mac.

He usually worked on Dr. Rector's shift since Rector had problems with his feet.

Since Ashby has knowledge of plumbing and heating, he also became handy man for Doc McReynolds rental houses. He worked at the drugstore until 1965 when he became employed by the county.

 course, but Sanford fire officials are reminding people to leave their personal fireworks at home, including sparklers.
 "I know it seems unpatriotic, but it's a serious safety concern," said Jerry Ransom, deputy fire chief. "While sparklers are safe, the tips heat up to 1,100 degrees. Every year we get more and more people and they're packed in pretty tight. A kid with a sparkler could cause serious injuries with people that close. Last year I saw a kid drop a sparkler right next to a baby's head."
 Ransom said the fire department will have several teams patrolling throughout the event.
 "This will be the first big event for our bike patrol," Ransom said. "We'll also have a walking EMS patrol, as well."

Organizers are expecting 65,000 people for the Festival on the Fourth, though there may be an even larger turnout.
 "There's been much more patriotism since Sept. 11, so I expect a big turnout," Kuhn said. "It also helps that we have the three radio stations promoting the festival, and Channel 9 will use this as their base for live news and weather coverage that night."
 In addition to the fireworks, which should start about 9:20 p.m., festival goers can enjoy an inflatable obstacle course, bounce houses, a rock climbing wall courtesy of the U.S. Army, kiddy carnival rides ($1.50 per ride...price subject to change), live music on-stage with pop bands "Upstairs" and "Sensation," and the chance to win "$4,000 on the Fourth" courtesy of Holler Chevrolet.

Festival on the Fourth Reminders

- Event organizers strictly prohibit attendees from bringing personal fireworks to the event. Police and Fire officials will confiscate all flammable devices and sparklers for the well being of public safety.
- Parking will be available throughout the downtown area.
- Concessions including beer, non-alcoholic beverages and food will be served from 5 to 10 p.m. Coolers are allowed. Cannot bring your own alcohol.
- No pets allowed.
- Bring blankets, chairs and your radio for the live fireworks simulcast on MIX105.1.
- Seminole Blvd. will be closed from Palmetto Ave. to San Juan Ave. on July 3 at 7 a.m. and reopen the morning of July 5 at 7 a.m.
- Mellonville Ave. from 1st St. to Celery Ave. will become one-way in both southbound lanes at 9:15 PM on July 4, 2002 and

- continue until all traffic has cleared the downtown event.
- The Sanford Marina will be closed at noon on July 4 and reopen at 11 p.m. NO vehicle, boat or people traffic will be allowed on the East side of the marina until the completion of the fireworks event. No open alcohol containers are allowed for boaters.
- After the event, please follow police traffic route's in the assigned areas and obey street closures. Mellonville Street will be one-way heading south as of 9:15pm.
- The aerial fireworks can be viewed from every area of the park and along Seminole Blvd. from Sanford Avenue to Chapman Avenue.
- For more information, call Angela Schlesman, MIX105.1 Promotions Director at 407-919-1195 (work) or 407-788-5670 (cell).

Red Hot and Boom planned for July 3

From staff reports

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — The city of Altamonte Springs is expecting a record turnout of over 150,000 citizens to attend this year's Fourth of July fireworks - the Red Hot and Boom Celebration.
 Festivities are scheduled to begin on July 3 at approximately 3:30 p.m., with a water ski show on Crane's Roost Lake. Earlier in the year there was concern about water levels, but recent rains have solved that problem.

 Following the ski show, music will continue at approximately 9:15 p.m. Pyro Shows Incorporated, a pyrotechnic corporation based in Tennessee will be conducting the fireworks with approximately 3,500 shells to be fired off at 9:30 p.m. lasting about 25 minutes. Like past years, the show will include music.

 The city is expecting a record crowd this year due to phone call inquiries and responses from citizens. Citizens are encouraged to arrive early to find parking, and those who live close to the park are encouraged to walk.
 Emergency crews are expecting warm temperatures and encourage all persons to drink plenty of fluids.

 Due to a heightened level of security, citizens are encouraged to leave coolers and backpacks at home.
 Personal fireworks will not be permitted in the park.
 For additional information, phone Alan Harris, Public Information Officer with the Altamonte Springs Fire Department.

 to time the pothole work had started and some lane closures were made, "between 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Tuesday, there were 10,320 more calls, with over 3,000 received in just one hour beginning at 3 p.m."
 Homan suggested motorists, especially those using I-4 north of the St. Johns River bridge keep up to date on conditions, adding, "I can't say for certain, but I expect we certainly haven't seen the end to this sinkhole situation in that area."
 The operation is a recording, updated every 20 minutes in the Regional Downtown Headquarters in Orlando. Homan said whenever there is an emergency such as a sink hole or pothole problem, updates will be made as quickly as possible.
 This is the first 511 Travel Information Service in Florida, and only the sixth in the nation. Callers are now able to get up-to-the-minute information without punching a lot of buttons. Callers are encouraged to seek the information before they are on the road, but the voice-activated system allows drivers to keep their hands on the wheel when calling from their car.
 The Central Florida service will utilize the resources of FDOT District Five's Regional Traffic

Management Center (RTMC) to provide timely management monitoring 58 cameras along 50 miles of Interstate 4 from U.S. Highway 192 in Osceola County to Enterprise Road in West Volusia County.
 Traffic Management, Inc. will provide additional personnel to record updated traffic and road condition reports at least every 20 minutes, or immediately as incidents occur along I-4. That system will ultimately include a monitoring and reporting system along I-4 all the way from Daytona Beach to US 27 in Polk County, portions of I-95 in the Daytona Beach area; the area of the I-95/BeeLine Expressway (State Road 528) in Brevard County, and the East-West Expressway (State Road 408) in Orange County. More areas could be included in the future as Intelligent Transportation Systems throughout the region are expanded, and/or implemented by FDOT and other transportation agencies.
 The annual cost to operate and maintain the system will be approximately $400,000. A $50,000 grant from the US DOT will be applied to the first year of operations in Central Florida. There is no cost to users of the system, other than regular time charges for cell phone usage.
 Responding to a 1999 U.S.

Department of Transportation Petition, The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) in July, 2000 designated 511 as the national traveler information phone number, just as 911 was designated the national implementation issues and schedules are left up to state and local transportation agencies and telecommunications companies.
 The nation's first 511 service was launched in June, 2001 in northern Kentucky and the Cincinnati, Ohio metro area. Two of the other five systems nationwide are voice-activated (Utah and the Interstate 81 corridor in rural western Virginia.) Other 511 services are in Nebraska and Arizona. The states of Washington and Minnesota and San Francisco Bay area of California are scheduled to launch 511 service later this year. 511 services is to begin in southeast Florida (not a voice-activated system) later this summer.
 Voicestream customers are expected to have access to this service by early July. Verizon wireless customers will not have access to this service. Work is in progress to enable land line customers of Bell South and Sprint to also utilize the 511 Travel Information Service. That service is expected to be available by late July.

Sheriff's office awards ceremony slated for July 8

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office will conduct a Law Enforcement Memorial and Awards Ceremony on Monday, July 8.
 The date coincides with the passing of Deputy Eugene Gregory, who was shot and killed July 8, 1998, during an encounter with a mentally ill man. The event will also honor four other deputies, who lost their lives in the line of duty: Cleveland Jacobs (9-14-22), Robert Moore, Jr. (6-9-75), George Pfeil (12-29-77), and Hugh Thomas, Jr. (3-28-89).
 Seminole County Sheriff Don Ealinger will also recognize the many dedicated men and women who work and/or volunteer for the Sheriff's Office. Several citizens will also be recognized for their efforts in assisting law enforcement during the past year.
 The event will begin at 7 p.m. at the Seminole County Sheriff's Office at 100 Bush Blvd. in Sanford. In the case of inclement weather, the event will be rescheduled to Tuesday, July 9.

selected for the award.

During a covert cocaine buying operation, a male forcefully pulled a $20-bill from Smith's hand. When confronted, the man opened his jacket to reveal two handguns tucked in his waistband, pointed to the weapons and made threatening remarks.

The man left on foot, and uniformed officers were notified. Officer Fredrick Eldridge responded and began a foot pursuit of the suspect. Because all other units were answering other calls, Eldridge did not have back-up. Realizing the situation, Smith ended his covert operation and helped corner and arrest the suspect. The weapons were recovered, and officers discovered that the suspect was involved in a drug-related shooting earlier that same day.

"He's a natural leader who has done a terrific job for us investigating drugs and prostitution," Tooley said. "Whatever loose ends need to be tied up, he does it. He's always willing to jump in to get the job done."

Smith started with the force in 1996. A native of Winter Springs, Smith said spent his formative years in Sanford. As a teen-ager, he worked at Duggers General Store on 2nd Street and the Publix in Sanford.

"I like this area and enjoy working in Sanford," Smith said.

State to issue seven more specialty plates

By Nick Pfeiffert
Staff Writer

The state of Florida had 49 separate Specialty License Plates at the end of May. Beginning July 1, seven more are to be phased into the system. They give financial assistance to a myriad of activities and organizations around the state including Save the Manatees, Save the Florida Panther, and many others including Universities.

Plates designated Indian River Lagoon, mostly in Brevard County, are also helping the local area. While money from those plates is divided between Brevard, Volusia, and Indian River Counties, and the St. Johns River Water Management District (SJRWMD), the district helps preserve and protect the St. Johns River and its tributaries here in Seminole County.

Recent reports indicate that since the Indian River Lagoon plates were first issued in 1994, a total of $2.5 million dollars has been allocated for SJRWMD and the counties. (Figures compiled are through the end of June, 2001. New figures are expected through 2002 within a few weeks.)

At least $15 from the sale of each plate is combined with funding from other sources and used in a variety of ways to restore and protect the most diverse estuary in North America. At least 80 percent of the plate proceeds go to habitat restoration, and up to 20 percent to environmental education. No administrative salaries or studies are paid for

from the plate revenue. Annual revenue from the plates is presently estimated at $400,000.

proud of a program she created called The Gator Club. Children between the ages of 4 and 12 are welcome to participate in the program, which has all the qualities of a summer camp without the cost.

Each day from noon to 6 p.m., children in the low- to middle-income tax credited community gather for activities, including arts and crafts, swimming and field trips. They also learn about community pride through picking up litter in the small neighborhood and planting a garden on the apartments' grounds.

"A lot of the people here are single parents," Reeves said. "This program offers them a choice and it promotes community. This kind of thing also helps to keep crime down, and it lets the children meet their neighbors."

Each day, children, even those not participating in The Gator Club, are provided free meals from Eagles Landing Enterprise Inc., a sponsor of the Summer Food Program.

"During the school year, many children receive meals through the free and reduced lunch program," said Eagles Landing Enterprise

President/ CEO Bennie Shaw. "But, children still need a nutritious meal each day during the summer."

Along with Eagles Landing Enterprise, The Gator Club is sponsored by various other businesses in the community, which provide food, craft supplies and other items. Parents, who live at Logan Heights, volunteer their time to supervise and direct various activities during the day.

Chris and Darlene Robidoux, who moved to Sanford three months ago, volunteer numerous hours to the club.

"The club helps give kids pride in where they live," Chris said. "We love working with the children, and they seem to really enjoy the program."

"And, this program helps keep the kids out of trouble during the summer," Darlene added.

As for the children in The Gator Club, they have no complaints. Eleven-year-old Christian Soto likes the fact that everyone in the club works as a team and gets along.

"No one ever feels left out," Christian said. "It's just a lot of fun."

opportunity is something Mims welcomes.

"When opportunity comes knocking at her door, Leeanna invites it in for dinner," Roberts said during the pinning ceremony.

Mims began her public service as a volunteer with the city of Lake Mary in the early 1980s. In 1984, the city of Longwood hired her as a firefighter/EMT. During her tenure with the city, she served as a firefighter/paramedic, engineer, lieutenant and battalion chief.

Mims transferred to the Seminole County agency in March 1999, where she began as battalion chief of planning. Her responsibilities included grant writing for several projects and taking a lead role in the development of the firefighter wellness program.

The new fire chief is a graduate of the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Program and has completed her associate's degree in both emergency medical services and fire science and the one-year "Leadership Seminole" Class.

Mims' new duties will include long- and short-term planning for the Seminole agency, grant proposal writing and heading the EMS division. She said she is ready to take on the new challenges.

"This is a great opportunity for me," Mims said. "I hope to do the position justice."

For Mims, Friday's honor wasn't about receiving an extra bugle (as battalion chief, she wore a two-bugle pin). She said the real accomplishment came from the words of encouragement she received from friends, family, co-workers and members of the community.

"I think those kinds of things are what really moves you on," she said. "And, I think the honor comes from the words of thanks I have received during the past few days through phone calls, letters and e-mail."

Bill Payne was recently named the NJCAA Division III Region X Coach of the Year.

Payne reaches pinnacle

Ex-SCC head coach makes it to nationals

By Dean Smith

BOONE, N.C. — Bill Payne recently got to visit hallowed grounds. The former Seminole High School and Seminole Community College basketball coach got to take a team to a national tournament for the first time.

"After all of the years we tried and worked so hard to get the national tournament and I have to retire to get there," said Payne by phone from North Carolina.

Payne is now the head mens coach at Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute in Boone, where he and wife Barbara moved after retiring four years ago.

Payne had no intention of being a head coach in North Carolina, instead wanting to teach and help a local high school team whose head coach was also named (no relation) Payne.

At the same time CCC & TI was putting together a basketball program for the first time to compete on the NJCAA Division III (no scholarship) level and hired a coach who was at Hiwassee Community College in Tennessee.

But after a few weeks that coach decided to return to Tennessee, leaving Caldwell without a coach.

The school asked Payne to take the reins and he decided to take them up on the offer.

After modest success the first two seasons, the Cobras came together this season and were co-champions of the

SAC has 19 recognized on All-State lists

SANFORD — The Seminole Athletic Conference was more than amply recognized when the FHSAA All-State Baseball Teams were announced recently.

Selected by the Florida Sports Writers Association (FSWA) the Class 5A and 6A teams included 18 players from Seminole County schools.

Topping the list were Lake Mary's Ryan Bono and Oviedo's Brett Murphy, both of whom made the Class 6A Second Team.

Bono, a senior who has signed with the University of Central Florida, was the catcher and top hitter for a Rams team that only lost one game in the regular season.

Murphy was one of the main reasons the Lions went from the No. 5 seed in the district tournament and advanced all the way to the state semifinals.

The Clemson University signee was selected as a Utility Player because he was a star as both a pitcher and a hitter/outfielder and trying to choose which he is better at would not be easy.

SAC players dominated the Class 6A Third Team with Lake Mary's Kyle Bono, who will also be attending UCF, making it as a Utility Player because of his versatility.

Also making the team were infielders Jason Louwsma of Seminole, headed for Manatee Community College in Bradenton, Jeff Strickland

Seniors Brett Murphy (above) and Ryan Bono were named to the FHSAA Class 6A All-Second Team announced recently by the Florida Sports Writers Association. Murphy, who helped carry the Oviedo Lions to the State Semifinals with both his bat and arm, was named as the Utility Player because of his versatility. He will be attending Clemson University this fall. Bono was the leader of a Lake Mary team that only lost once in the regular season and was a favorite for state honors before falling to the Lions in the district semifinals. He, along with twin brother Kyle who made the Third Team, will be attending the University of Central Florida. All told the Seminole Athletic Conference had 19 players make some form of an All-State Team, including at least one player from each of the seven schools.

FWC ends registering of off-road vehicles

Special to the Herald

OCALA — After June 30, the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC) will no longer register off-highway vehicles.

In place of registering vehicles, new legislation will require a certificate of title from the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) for all off-highway vehicles purchased by a Florida resident after July 1 or any off-highway vehicle that is owned by a resident and is operated on public lands in Florida.

Trucks, half-trucks and buggies will not have to be titled under the new legislation.

The change is a result of the Florida Legislature passing House Bill 1681. A provision in the bill established the T. Mark Schmidt Off-Highway Vehicle Safety and Recreation Act. The legislation repealed the part of the law that required the FWC to register off-highway vehicles.

Florida law defines an off-highway vehicle as any ATV (all-terrain vehicle), or off-highway motorcycle that is used off roads or highways for recreational purposes and is not registered and licensed for highway use.

Titling fees for off-highway vehicles will go into a trust fund administered by the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (FDACS) to expand opportunities for off-highway vehicle use on public lands. The legislation also created an Off-Highway Recreational Advisory Committee that will establish policies to guide FDACS in establishing new off-highway vehicle areas and their use.

For questions regarding certificates of title, contact the DHSMV at (850) 922-9000.

Eight make All-State in softball

By Dean Smith

GAINESVILLE — Led by seniors Kelly Cruz from Winter Springs and Carlee Wood from Lake Mary, the Florida Sports Writers Association (FSWA) put eight players from Seminole County on its FHSAA All-State Softball Teams.

Cruz, an infielder, was named First Team in Class 5A, while Wood, an outfielder, made First Team in Class 6A, the only Seminole Athletic Conference players in either baseball or softball to be so honored.

Cruz, who helped the Bears to their first ever district championship, was joined on the Class 5A list by fellow Winter Springs senior Kristen Schrupp, who was picked for the Third Team at designated hitter.

Wood, who helped the Rams advance to the Regional semifinals, was joined on the Class 6A team by sophomore teammate Caitlin Mahoney, who was chosen an Honorable Mention designated hitter.

District No. 1 seed and tournament runner-up Oviedo, which also advanced to the regional semifinals, had a pair of player's make the Class

6A Third Team.

Junior pitcher Kelly Raw made the team along with Lion batterymate Megan Miller, a senior catcher.

Surprising Seminole, which just missed getting to the district championship game and set a school record for wins in a season, also had two players make All-State.

Junior second baseman Beth Gase was a Third Team All-State pick, while junior pitcher Andrea Poloche was an honorable mention selection.

Western Tarheel Conference and earned the right to host the Region X Tournament.

Payne's group got off to a good start, whipping Central Carolina Community College, 111-67, in the semifinals, then got past Surry Community College to win their first championship.

The team then took part in the District 7 Tournament at Hagerstown, Maryland and posted a pair of easy wins, waltzing past Montgomery College, 81-68, then blasting Butler Community College in the Championship Game, 107-49.

The conference, region and district championships also netted a little hardware of his own, as he was named the Coach of the Year for all three wins.

The NJCAA Division III National Tournament was held at Delhi, New York.

Caldwell lost its opener to No. 2 nationally ranked Keystone Junior College, 84-79, but bounced back to eliminate Springfield Tech, 72-70.

The Cobras then had to face No. 1 nationally ranked and host SUNY-Delhi College and fought hard all the way despite playing without their point guard before falling, 77-68, to finish sixth in the nation.

Overall, Caldwell was 22-12.

The trip to the nationals came after a 20 year try that saw Payne take SCC to the semifinals of two state tournaments and then moving on to St. Petersburg Junior College and leading the Trojans to a second place finish in the State Tournament, losing only to eventual national champion Okaloosa-Walton Community College that later was stripped of the title for using ineligible players.

GOVERNOR BUSH

SELECTS FIVE FINALISTS FOR FLORIDA'S QUARTER TALLAHASSEE

— Governor Jeb Bush today selected five designs to be submitted to the United States Mint for approval for Florida's quarter, which will be unveiled in 2004.

The five designs were selected from 10 recommendations given to the Governor by the Florida Commemorative Quarter Committee. Approved designs will be returned to Florida in November 2002.

"The response to this program has been amazing, and all ten finalists were deserving of being sent to the Mint. Choosing just five was a challenge," said Governor Bush. "The committee reviewed over 1,500 designs in less than a month, and did an excellent job of choosing designs that reflect all Florida is known for. It is evident from these designs that, no matter which one ends up on the back of the quarter, Florida will have the best quarter."

The artists of the five designs to be submitted to the US Mint are:

1. Tim Prusmack, Ft. Pierce.
2. Tim Boatright, Tampa.
3. Ralph Butler, Bayonet Point.
4. Jack Luedke, Jacksonville.
5. Diane Peebles, St. Petersburg.

FOOD

Barbecued meats add sizzle to celebration

On Independence Day, fireworks light up the sky as backyard chefs nationwide fire up their grills. This national holiday commemorates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence by the Continental Congress in 1776. Dazzling fireworks, lively music, parades and barbecues are customary of this festive annual celebration.

Add spark to your Independence Day party and dazzle friends and family with some sizzling barbecue dishes that are sure to fire up the appetites of any crowd. The following succulent recipes are courtesy of "The Kansas City Barbecue Society Cookbook: Barbecue ... It's Not Just for Breakfast Anymore" (Kansas City Barbecue Society).

Smoked

Barbecued Brisket

Bob Brown, Holy Smokers
Yield: 30 servings

- 1/2 cup barbecue spices
- 1/2 cup red wine
- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 1/4 cup packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 (7- to 10-pound) beef brisket

Pour mixture of barbecue spices, red wine, soy sauce, brown sugar, oil, Worcestershire sauce and lemon juice over brisket in large nonreactive dish, turning to coat.

Marinate in refrigerator for six hours or longer, turning occasionally. Drain, reserving marinade. Place brisket in smoker. Cook at 200 F to 250 F for 10 to 12 hours or until cooked through, mopping with reserved marinade occasionally.

• Que tip: Buy short, thick or whole briskets with a heavy layer of fat. The bigger the brisket, the better for smoking.

Garlic-Studded

Kansas City Strip Loin
Paul Kirk, K.C. Baron of Barbecue
Yield: 40 servings

- 1 (10- to 12-pound) beef strip loin
- 1 large head of garlic, separated into cloves, crushed
- 1/4 cup seasoned salt
- 1/4 cup coarsely ground pepper

Trim silver skin from bottom of strip loin; trim fat cap to 1/4 inch. Make slits with sharp knife in strip loin; insert garlic cloves into slits.

Sprinkle with seasoned salt and pepper.

Place fat side up on grill rack in grill with water pan. Cook with lid down over medium heat for two hours.

Turn strip loin over. Cook for one hour; turn. Cook for 30 minutes longer or to 140 F on meat thermometer for medium-rare.

'Fire Up' on the Fourth of July

Independence Day festivities are chock full of fun. From spirited parties to boisterous parades to fireworks at the boardwalk, Fourth of July brings out the child in everyone.

Nothing sums up the holiday better than spectacular fireworks displays. Why not bring the excitement of those sparklers, rockets and noisemakers into your holiday meal by putting some bang into the food you serve. Firecracker Wings are sure to fire up your festivities. Follow this recipe, courtesy of "Backroads and Sidestreets" (FRP), by Dave Anderson.

Firecracker Wings

Yield: 24 wings

Dragon Wing Dust

- 2 tablespoons anise seeds
- 2 tablespoons salt
- 2 tablespoons Chinese 5 spice
- 2 tablespoons superfine sugar
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 1 tablespoon garlic seasoning
- 2 teaspoons cayenne
- 2 teaspoons black pepper
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder

Wings

- 24 chicken wings

Chicken Marinade (recipe follows)

- Peanut oil
- 4 cups flour
- 1 stick butter, melted
- Sweet and sour sauce for dipping

To make wing dust, grind anise seeds into powder in an electric coffee grinder. Mix next eight ingredients together with anise powder. Grind this mixture again in coffee grinder and set aside.

Wash wings. Place in marinade and refrigerate for four hours. Drain and discard marinade. Heat oil to 375 degrees in a heavy skillet. Oil should be about 3/4 inch deep. Toss wings in flour until well coated. Turn heat to medium. Fry wings until golden brown. This takes about 12 to 15 minutes. Place wings on a sheet pan. Dip pastry brush into melted butter and dab on wings. Generously sprinkle with wing dust. Serve with sweet and sour sauce.

Secret Fried Chicken Marinade

Yield: 1 Gallon

- 1 gallon plus 2 cups cold water
- 6 tablespoons chicken base
- 2 tablespoons salt
- 2 teaspoons fine ground black pepper
- 1 teaspoon cayenne
- 1 tablespoon liquid hickory smoke

Prepare two days before frying chicken. Bring 2 cups of water to a boil. Add chicken base and dry ingredients. Mix well and remove from heat. Add hickory smoke and immediately add to 1 gallon water. Let marinade stand overnight before using.

The dos and don'ts of hot dogs

What goes better with warm summer weather than a mouthwatering hot dog piled up with all the fixings? Whether at the ball field, in the backyard or at the park, hot dogs are an American favorite fast food. While it can be debated as to what are the best toppings for a hot dog, many people may not be aware of the proper ways to enjoy their dogs.

Hot-dog etiquette is not a topic to take lightly — there is an art to eating frankfurters. Just in time for National Hot Dog Month, follow the hot-dog dos and don'ts, provided by the National Hot Dog and Sausage Council Web site, www.hot-dog.org.

• Don't put toppings between the hot dog and the bun. Always "dress the dog," not the bun. Condiments should be applied in the following order: wet condiments like mustard and chili are applied first, followed by chunky condiments like relish, onions and sauerkraut, followed by shredded cheese, followed by spices like celery salt or pepper.

• Do serve sesame seed, poppy seed and plain buns with hot dogs. Sun-dried tomato buns or basil buns are considered gauche with franks.

• Don't use a cloth napkin to wipe your mouth when eating a hot dog. Paper is always preferable.

• Do eat hot dogs on buns with your hands. Utensils should not touch hot dogs on buns.

• Don't use ketchup on your hot dog after the age of 18.

• Do lick away condiments remaining on the fingers after eating a hot dog.

• Don't bring wine to a hot-dog barbecue. Beer, soda, lemonade and iced tea are preferable.

Cool entertaining ideas add flavor to any occasion

No matter what the occasion — a child's birthday party, an elegant dinner or a Fourth of July get-together — ice cream always is the perfect dessert. It can be a snack, the end to a meal or even the main attraction at parties.

However you serve it, you can be rest-assured that it will be enjoyed by all.

Today's hosts, often busy career families with little leisure time, are opting for simple, elegant entertaining. The less time spent in the kitchen, the better. Ice cream is an easy, delicious and, if desired, fancy solution. Old favorites, like sundaes, root-beer floats, banana splits, milkshakes, pie a la mode and cones, still are the most popular and easy. However, serving ideas for ice cream only are as limited as your imagination.

Holidays are perfect for ice cream. Strawberry, vanilla and blueberry scoops create a patriotic treat on the Fourth of July. No one would say "bah humbug" to a Santa Claus ice-cream cake on Christmas, and a jack-o'-lantern ice-cream cake is sure to scare up smiles on Halloween. Thanksgiving wouldn't be the same without apple pie a la mode. Cherry-vanilla ice cream molded into a heart shape is perfect for your valentine. St. Patrick's Day begs for mint chocolate-chip floats, while Easter calls for ice-cream eggs.

Ice cream is even more delicious when topped off — try hot fudge, chocolate, caramel or even a special liqueur. Add some whipped cream, nuts, fresh summer fruit, sprinkles or cookies for a real treat. A "build your own sundae" party is a great way to get everybody in on the fun. And don't forget the cherry!

While July happens to be National Ice Cream Month, any day is a good day to celebrate with ice cream. So, add some flavor to your next celebration with the following "cool" combinations, courtesy of the International Ice Cream Association.

Peaches n' Cream Sundae

6 to 8 servings

To toast nuts, spread chopped nuts on a cookie sheet and bake at 300 F until browned.

- 1/2 cup honey
- 1 cup (1/2 pint) whipping cream, whipped
- 3/4 cup chopped toasted almonds or other nuts
- 1 quart ice cream
- 4 fresh California peaches, peeled and sliced

Whip honey with an electric mixer until light and foamy. Gently fold in whipped cream and nuts. Hold in refrigerator until ready to serve. At serving time, drizzle some of the sauce over ice cream and sliced peaches.

Zoo visitors can now experience the wild, nocturnal behavior of various animals

By Michelle Jeris
Managing Editor

What happens when a kinkajou awakens from its daytime nap? And, what does an opossum do when many other animals are preparing for their nightly slumber?

Visitors to the Central Florida Zoological Park now have the opportunity to see the habits and behaviors of these nightly critters during July's Summer Safari Nights. Every Friday during the month, the zoo will extend its hours so guests can explore the facility as dusk descends in Sanford.

"We were looking at things to do this summer that might attract more guests," said Andrea Farmer, the zoo's director of marketing and public relations. "It gets hot during the summer, so we thought we would keep the zoo open longer so people can explore during the cooler part of the day."

Animals on display will include a kinkajou, an opossum, an alligator, a bearded dragon and a hedgehog. People will have the opportunity to touch many of the animals, as well as learn about their various nightly behaviors.

Farmer said Safari Nights are held on Fridays so people can use the event as a time to unwind from the hectic week.

"It's for people looking to get into the weekend groove with friends and family," she said. "They don't even have to cook."

Hot dogs, hamburgers, ice cream, and soft drinks will be available in the snack bar, and the gift shop will be open for wildlife treasures.

Summer Safari Nights admission is $5 for adults, $2 for children 3-12 years, and $3 for seniors 60 years and over. The Family Pack is available for $14 which includes two adult and up to four children.

This month, the zoo is also celebrating its 27th birthday, with various events planned for the Fourth of July.

Red, White & Zoo will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday. Visitors wearing red, white or blue will receive $1 off admission to the Zoo.

Activities include games for kids, face painting, and a scavenger hunt. A watermelon-eating contest at 1 p.m. will pit humans against elephants to see who is the fastest consumer of this tasty, summer treat.

Visitors may sign the Salute to America's Birthday banner, which will be sent to U.S. troops serving overseas.

Other holiday programs include the elephant demonstration at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., snapping turtle demonstration at 11:20 a.m. and 2:20 p.m., hippopotamus demonstration at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., bird training demonstration at 2:40 p.m., feline feeding program at 3:00 p.m., and primate feeding program at 3:30 p.m.

For more information, call 407-323-4450, extension 149 or visit www.centralfloridazoo.org. The Central Florida Zoo is located at 3755 N.W. Highway 17-92 at I-4, exit 104 in Sanford.

Christmas in July

At the last Senior Friends Advisory meeting, members agreed that during the holiday season, people are only too happy to share with the less fortunate. But what about spreading cheer the rest of the year? Thus, Christmas in July was born.

After talking to Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center of Sanford, "Friends" learned that residents are in need of the following: Large socks for men and women, sweaters, coverups, lap blankets, turbans and hair accessories.

Michelle Hendrick, Senior Friends Advisor, asks that members join the Christmas in July crusade and bring these items to the July 11 meeting to be held at the Sanford Senior Center.

Senior Friends invites those interested to join the organization. For information, drop by the office at Central Florida Regional Hospital or call 407-321-4500, ext. 5784.

Lion's Club honors police officers, firefighters of the year

As part of their everyday work life, the men and women who work for the fire department and the police department put their lives on the line for strangers. They do this for little pay and little recognition. They serve and protect; they stand ready to rescue those in need at a moment's notice.

That's why, every year, the Longwood/Lake Mary Lion's Club chooses a Police Officer of the Year and a Fire Fighter of the Year for both Longwood and Lake Mary. Officer Donald Lajic was chosen as the Police Officer of the Year for Longwood and Eng/PM Cindy Crawford was chosen as the Fire Fighter of the Year for Longwood. Sgt. Leo Brunelle, Jr. was chosen as the Police Officer of the Year for Lake Mary and Lt. Rick Fudge was chosen as the Fire Fighter of the Year for Lake Mary.

Officer Lajic was nominated for Police Officer of the Year by Longwood Police Chief Thomas Jackson. Don distinguished himself during 2001 by excelling in DUI enforcement. He made over 166 DUI arrests during the year. This is highly significant because Don is not a member of the specialized DUI enforcement unit. Officer Lajic was unable to attend the presentation.

Eng/PM Cindy Crawford has worked for the Longwood Fire Department for 18 years. (Eng/PM stands for Engineer/Paramedic) Cindy was nominated for Firefighter of the Year by Longwood Fire-Rescue Chief Charles M. Chapman. In addition to her outstanding performance on the job, Cindy uses her spare time to volunteer for the community. She has maintains her status as a CPR instructor for the Fire-Rescue Department and also instructs city employees in other departments. Cindy volunteers to be a guest speaker at local elementary schools talking to students about the fire service. She also volunteers for emergency and non-emergency response with the American Red Cross. Cindy has completed her training and been appointed to the FI-6-DMAT team in the Central Florida area. (This is a specialized Red Cross emergency response team.) Chief Chapman was unable to attend the award ceremony, so Fire Fighter Corey Cohen read his nomination letter to the club.

Sgt. Leo Brunelle, Jr. was nominated for Police Officer of the Year by Lake Mary Police Chief Richard Beary. Leo is has served for five years as the city's representative on the City/County Investigative Bureau (CCIB), a countywide task force. The task force works primarily with drug and vice related crimes throughout the county. While working on the unit, Leo designed and implemented a pharmaceutical diversion program for CCIB. In December, Leo was the lead agent in a seizure of 1,256 pounds of marijuana, which resulted in the arrest of 2 suspects, the seizure of a firearm, over $19,000 in cash and a 2002 Ford pick-up. Police Chief Beary was in Washington for a Police conference, so Deputy Chief Sam Belfiore read his nomination letter to the club.

Lt. Rick Fudge was nominated for Fire Fighter of the Year by Lake Mary Fire Chief Craig E. Haun. Rick was instrumental this past year in implementing Lake Mary's rescue program by beginning the Rescue/Transport Program. Up until this year, Lake Mary has had to rely on nearby cities and the county for transport. Lake Mary now has it's own Rescue/Transport, thanks, in no small part, to Rick. He put in a lot of time and effort, both on duty and off, to get this program off the ground. Chief Haun was unable to attend the ceremony, so Division Chief Ed Koch read his nomination letter to the club.

In recognition of their accomplishments, the Police Officers and Fire Fighters receive a Certificate of Appreciation, a $100 savings bond, a plaque and a pin. The Longwood/Lake Mary Lion's Club also gave a Certificate of Appreciation to Carolina Kate's and Katie Daniels for their help at monthly meetings. Carolina Kate's on 427 in Longwood is the restaurant that has been playing host to the Club's monthly meetings for quite some time now.

Lt. Rick Fudge receives the Firefighter of the Year plaque from Debbie Taylor of the Longwood/Lake Mary Lion's Club.

Moles sometimes falsely accused of ruining backyard landscapes

Moles are insect eaters like shrews and hedgehogs. The most notable aspect of the mole is its large, powerful front feet, designed for pushing soil out of the way.

The mole found in Florida is the eastern mole, which is about 5 1/2 to 6 inches long with a short, sparsely haired tail 1 to 1 1/2 inches long. The fur is very soft and differs from that of most mammals because it does not point toward the tail, but upward.

Moles can move forward or backward within their tunnels without rubbing their fur the wrong way and trapping soil in their coats. The coat is so fine and dense that it keeps out water and dirt.

Habitat and Food

The eastern mole prefers loose, well-drained soils. It has been found in dune sand and rich forest humus. The characteristic mole ridges that lie just below the surface are foraging tunnels.

These tunnels are created as the mole searches among the plant roots for the earthworms and insects, on which it feeds. Moles are beneficial because they eat mole crickets, white grubs, wire worms, ants, cutworms, armyworms, and slugs. They also help to loosen and aerate the soil. In loose soil, moles can tunnel up to 18 feet per hour.

Reproduction

The mole's nest chamber is 4 to 6 inches in diameter and lined with fine grass and leaves. Moles have one litter of two to five young per year. The young are born in March after a 45-day gestation period. They are large at birth relative to the size of their mother and are able to fend for themselves in about four weeks.

Al Ferrer

Damage

The damage caused by moles is almost entirely cosmetic. Although moles are often falsely accused of eating the roots of grass and other plants, they actually feed on the insects causing the damage.

The tunneling of moles may cause some physical damage to the root system of ornamental or garden plants and may kill grass by drying out the roots, but this damage is usually minor.

Control

When mole tunnels become an intolerable nuisance, moles may be captured and removed without a permit by homeowners, renters, or employees of the property owner.

No poison may be used on native wildlife without a Poison Permit issued by the executive director of Florida Game & Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Traps

Moles can be live trapped using a simple pitfall. Find an active surface tunnel, collapse a tunnel with your foot, and then come back in an hour or two to see whether the tunnel has been reopened. If the tunnel has been pushed back up, it is an active tunnel.

Dig a hole through the tunnel large enough to insert a large coffee can, wide-mouth jar, or similar container. Sink the can into the ground so the top of the container lies just below the bottom of the tunnel. Cover the area with a piece of cardboard or a board and the soil from the hole to keep light and air currents from alerting the mole to the trap. When the mole falls into the trap, the whole container can be pulled out of the ground and the mole carried to a forested area and released.

Check your live trap several times a day. If this is not done, trapped moles may die from starvation or thirst.

Commercial mole traps are available in two main types; the choker-loop and the harpoon and both are designed to kill the mole. If the trap is not sprung within 3 days, move it to a new, more active location.

Castor Oil Solution

Using a blender, mix 1 tablespoon of castor oil and 2 to 4 tablespoons liquid detergent into 1 gallon of water. Water your lawn first and then soak it with this solution.

Predators

Snakes, owls, herons, and sometimes cats and dogs will kill a mole, but moles are distasteful to most animals and they will not eat them.

Things That Do Not Work

The use of ultrasonic and vibrating devices, lye, creosote, tar, smoke, human hair, bleach, mothballs, razor blades, broken glass and stick of Wrigley's Juicy Fruit gum to drive away moles has not been proven effective in scientific trails.

Al Ferrer is Seminole County Urban Horticulturist. Inquiries may be directed to him at the Cooperative Extension service, 250 W. County Home Road, Sanford, FL 32773 or phone 685-5558. Annual dance awards presented at 'Strike up the Band'

"Strike up the Band," a dazzling recital, ended the dance season for students of Miriam's and Valerie's School of Dance Arts. Held in the Performing Arts Center of Winter Springs High School, the three performances attracted full house audiences.

For 37 years now, Miriam Doktor and Valerie Weld have been contributing to the cultural enrichment to the community by teaching thousands the art of dance and spotlighting them in a showcase, Broadway-style recital at the end of each season.

Miriam and Valerie will be the first to admit that parents, friends and former students have been the core of these highly successful productions. In Showcase 2002, one number featured mothers dancing with their children, while another spotlighted dads showing off with their dancing children.

"Strike up the Band" brought back a medley of nostalgic and America's favorite melodies to which dancers had a lot of fun tapping, swaying, swinging, strutting and singing. Even the adorable little pre-schoolers got in the act to draw thunderous applause from the audiences.

A number of School of Dance Arts alumni have gone on to professional circuits around the world. Others have danced in various capacities and have returned to their Alma Mater. Among the former students who are on the teaching staff at SODA are: Melissa Garris, Gina Holbrook, Thom Lake, Shvon McLamb, Keli Sullivan and Helaina Vernon. Associate teachers are: Sandra Brooks, Robin Pfeiffer and Holley Ricker. The production staff consisted of about two dozen dedicated volunteers who enjoy being involved in the wonderful world of dance.

"Strike up the Band" was more than a dance recital when annual awards were presented as follows: Betty Williams Foundation Awards - Dion Leonhard, 2002 Outstanding Performer; Daniel Hunalp, 2002 Star Brite Award; and Shelby Ratchford, 2002 Shining Star Award.

Receiving the Tom Weld Scholarship Award was Daniel Hunalp while Christina Prusak was the recipient of the Mark Hoffman Memorial Scholarship.

The SODA-Scott Page Awards went to Mallory Gladman and Joshua McLamb; and the SODA Pops Scholarships were awarded to: Roxanne Hirt, senior; Tamiya Johnson, intermediate; and Rayna Hirt, junior.

Many of the dancers are presently enrolled in classes this summer in various parts of the nation, while some are studying on the home front in anticipation of another year of dance beginning in August.

Happy Anniversary
Congratulations are in order to Grace and Robert "Bob" Chewning. The Sanford couple observed their 36th wedding anniversary on June 11. They were married on that day in 1966 at the Winter Park Presbyterian Church. The Chewnings boarded a train and criss-crossed the United States and Canada in celebration of their anniversary.

The couple are the parents of one daughter, Barbara Ann Chewning of Scottsdale, Ariz. Bob is a retired police chief of the Orlando Police Department and Grace is a retired Orlando city clerk.

Husband should get counseling before giving ultimatum to straying mate

QUESTION: My wife has been involved in an affair with her boss for six months. I've known about it from the beginning, but just haven't been able to confront her. Melanie acts like she doesn't love me anyway. If I give her an ultimatum I could lose her completely. Can you assure me that won't happen? Have you ever offered the "love must be tough" advice and had it backfire, ending in divorce?

DR. DOBSON: Yes, I have, and I certainly understand your caution. I wish I could guarantee how Melanie will react to a firmer approach. Unfortunately, life offers few certainties, even when all the probabilities point in one direction. Sometimes well-conditioned athletes drop dead from heart attacks. Some outstanding parents raise children who rebel and become drug addicts. Some of the most intelligent, cautious businessmen foolishly bankrupt themselves. Life is like that.

Things happen every day that shouldn't have occurred. Nevertheless, we should go with the best information available to us. I saw a sign that said, "The fastest horses don't always win, but you should still bet on them." Even as a nongambler, that makes sense to me. Having offered that disclaimer, let me say that there is nothing risky about treating oneself with greater respect, exhibiting confidence and poise, pulling backward and releasing the door on the romantic trap. The positive benefits of that approach are often immediate and dramatic. Self-respect expressed in a loving way virtually never fails to have a salutary effect on a drifting lover, unless there is not the tiniest spark left to fan. Thus, in instances when opening the cage door results in a spouse's sudden departure, the relationship was in the coffin already. I'm reminded of the proverb that says, "If you love something, set it free. If it comes back to you, it's yours. If it doesn't come back, it never was yours in the first place." There is a great truth in that, and it applies to your relationship with your wife. Now, obviously, it is risky to precipitate a period of crisis. When explosive individuals are involved in mid-life turmoil or a passionate fling with a new lover, great tact and wisdom are required to know when and how to respond. That's why professional counsel is vital before, during and after the confrontation. It would be unthinkable of me to recommend that victims of affairs indiscriminately pose ultimatums with 24-hour deadlines, or that they push an independent partner in a corner. Great caution is needed in such delicate conflicts.

In short, I suggest that you seek the assistance of a competent counselor who can help you deal with the problem of Melanie's affair.

During last month's City Commission meeting, the mayor and his fellow commissioners honored the group of students for its national championship victory in the high kick division during the National Championships held in February at Disney's MGM and World Wide of Sports.

Skate park set to open in September

LAKE MARY — Commissioner George Duryea wants people to know the cement bowl-shaped structure in the Sports Complex is not a swimming pool.

"I've received calls from people telling me that if that's a swimming pool, it is small," Duryea said during a recent Commission meeting.

The structure, in fact, is the first construction phase of the city's new skate park. According to Parks and Recreation Director Bill Carrico, the entire facility should be completed by mid-September.

"There's one little section to go before the bowl is completed," Carrico said. "However, the street course, pavilion, irrigation and landscaping need to be completed before the park opens."

Although the cement bowl may be tempting for local skaters, Carrico said people will not be permitted to use the park until construction is completely finished. The area is still a construction site, and entry is not allowed until the facility officially opens.

In 1999, the state legislature passed a law encouraging governments to make land available for skateboarding, in-line skating and bicycles. The legislation stated no government or employee would be liable to a person who is injured during an activity in the park.

Commission authorizes downtown service studies

LAKE MARY — Plans for the city's proposed downtown revitalization are moving forward.

Commission recently authorized the engineering firm Rockett & Associates to conduct downtown feasibility studies at a cost of $221,605. Funds for the project are available from the 1996 Bond and Capital Projects Fund budget.

According to City Planner Bill Spivey, the overall study will provide an incentive for developers by expediting the permitting process while giving the city a plan to manage and address any traffic and utility issues in the downtown area. The needs will be addressed through six elements, including a full right-of-way survey; permitting assistance for stormwater; preliminary engineering plans for water, sanitary sewer and stormwater; a fiber optic layout; a traffic study; and an improvement plan focusing on sidewalks and street lighting.

Although a completion date has not been set, Larry Rockett informed Commission an interim report will probably be ready during the first week in August. At that time, the engineering firm will update the city on the progress of the studies.

During the next five years, cost of the downtown revitalization project is estimated at $1.6 million, which includes the construction of a large fountain similar to the one found in downtown West Palm Beach. Spivey said the city is currently working on obtaining a $200,000 trails and recreation grant that will help fund the fountain.

"If we put in the fountain, that will be the city's commitment," Commissioner Janet Jernigan said during a recent work session. "The developers will then see the city's commitment to downtown."

a radio and television repairman. It wasn't until seven years ago when he retired from the profession that he decided to start an art hobby.

It was his wife, Bettye, who inspired him.

"My wife has done art shows for 30 years," he said. "I decided it would be good to do something together, so I went away to school."

Reagan traveled to an artisan school in Gatlinburg, Tenn., where he learned the basics of wood sculpture. In the past few years, he has made numerous trips to the crafter's Tennessee Mecca, where he perfected his woodworking skills.

"I don't go anymore," he said. "Now, I just practice, practice, practice."

Eventually, Reagan decided to find a niche for himself. He turned to an ordinary household object — the teapot. The result was the intricately sculpted tree pot.

"I have always been fascinated by teapots, but few are made of wood," he said.

Reagan expanded his collection to include wall hangings and huge ornamental bowls. Today, he attends with his wife, who is a painter, more than 20 art festivals and shows a year, and displays the objects that take months to create.

Every piece of art Reagan makes begins on his custom-built lathe. Following numerous processes, the pieces take form. The tree pots get an added touch with hand carved spouts and handles. Every piece is finished with a touch of turquoise — Reagan's signature.

Don Reagan inspects a piece of wood that will be used to make one of his tree pots.

artist months to complete. The wall hangings, which start with a 200-pound piece of rare Buckeye Burl from California, can take just as long.

"A lot of times, I go to art shows and I don't have enough work," he said. "I wish I could speed up production, but I can't. If you do something as fast as you can, it's not going to turn out, and you aren't going to be proud of it."

With the exotic wood and time needed to make one tree pot, the wood sculptures are not for the average teapot collector. Prices range between $1,500 and $2,500, while the wall sculptures can carry a price tag of $10,000.

Nevertheless, the cost doesn't discourage true art collectors from adding a piece of Reagan's art to their collections.

"It's hard to keep up with demand," he said.

COMMUNITY NOTES

• Ever heard of flint-knapping? Few people have. Flint-knapping is the art of making stone tools (including arrowheads). Today, there are only about 200 flint-knappers in the United States. The Lake Mary Historical Society is very lucky to have gotten one of them for their next meeting.

David Wolfe has displayed his craft at the Orlando Museum of Art and many historical fairs, such as Pioneer Days and Olde Lake Mary Days. David will be demonstrating his art on Thursday, July 11 at 7 p.m. at the Lake Mary Historical Museum.

After Wolfe's demonstration, the audience can join in learning other old crafts. You can learn how to make your own dreamcatcher, a handkerchief doll or a shell/bead necklace.

The event is free and open to the public. Children are welcome. If you would like to participate in the make your own activities, the Society asks only that you pre-register so they can have enough supplies on hand for everyone. To pre-register, call Historical Society President Peggy Wolfe at 407-327-8207 or email Mjhrwell@netscape.net

• Seventeen Seminole County Public School educators are gaining real world experience of the new knowledge economy and the skills their students will need for this new economy.

Through the Seminole County/Lake Mary Regional Chamber of Commerce's Business Internships for Educators, the teachers will be better able to prepare and graduate citizens with good social skills, good written and spoken English, and a broad education. The teachers will receive stipends sponsored by the participating businesses or grants.

The Chamber is also sponsoring Technology Workshops for educators. Four-hour workshops will be held at AT&T, Florida Power, Lucent Technologies, Perot Systems, and Seminole Community College. The workshops will be held on July 23 and 24. It is a joint project of the Seminole County/Lake Mary Regional Chamber and the University of Central Florida.

For more information on how your business can sponsor Business Internships for Educators, teacher workshops, or Success at Work, call the Chamber at 407-333-4748 or Seminole County Public Schools Community Involvement Department at 407-320-0178.

• Good old-fashioned family fun is in-store as the Central Florida Zoo celebrates 27 wild years of serving the community during Red, White & Zoo on Thursday, July 4, 2002. For starters, visitors wearing red, white or blue will receive $1.00 off admission to the Zoo. The fun continues from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. with games for kids, face painting, and a scavenger hunt. A watermelon-eating contest at 1:00 p.m. will pit humans against elephants to see who is the fastest consumer of this tasty, summer treat. Visitors may sign the Salute to America's Birthday banner, which will be sent to U.S. troops serving overseas.

Other holiday programs include the elephant demonstration at 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., snapping turtle demonstration at 11:20 a.m. and 2:20 p.m., hippopotamus demonstration at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., bird training demonstration at 2:40 p.m., feline feeding program at 3:00 p.m., and primate feeding program at 3:30 p.m.

Support the Central Florida Blood Bank by donating the gift of life. Make a donation at the Blood Mobile at the Zoo from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on July 4 and receive free admission to the Zoo.

Since the early 1920's, there has been a Zoo in the community. Legend has it that a bankrupt circus left a small collection of animals with the Sanford fire department in 1923, including a goat and rhesus monkey. In 1941, what was known as the Sanford Zoo relocated to new facilities in downtown Sanford, where Sanford City Hall currently stands. A support group, known as the Central Florida Zoological Society, Inc. raised over $200,000 to build a new zoo and on July 4, 1975, the Central Florida Zoological Park opened at its present location.

The Central Florida Zoo is located at 3755 N.W. Highway 17-92 at I-4, exit 104, in Sanford. For more information, call 407-323-4450, extension 149 or visit www.centralfloridazoo.org.

Admission is $7.00 for adults, $3 for children 3-12, and $4 for seniors. Admission is free for children 2 and under and Zoo members. The Zoo is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Lake Mary Girl Scouts hold Flag Day celebration at City Hall ...

On June 14, 2002, I had the honor of attending, with the Girl Scouts and the Lake Mary Historical Society, the Flag Day celebration held at City Hall.

Unfortunately, this holiday has become almost forgotten, even though the flag is now 225 years old (June 14, 1777).

Thanks to these organizations for celebrating and recognizing this holiday. I hope

Mayor's Message

By Lake Mary Mayor Thom Greene

in the future, more organizations become aware of this holiday and join the celebration honoring our flag.

Lake Mary Goes To Washington

The City Manager and myself traveled to Washington, D. C., at the request of our consultant. The consultant wanted us to make personal pitches regarding our funding requests for the city. The pitch — a request for $ 6 million from the federal government — was to occur on Day 2 of our visit, leaving Day 1 to get prepared.

Leaving the Washington, D.C., airport when we first arrived, I began to realize what the expression "Big Government" means. It seemed as though there were miles and miles of government office buildings, along with government buildings for each of the various departments. Government is not big, it is HUGE!

Every American taxpayer needs to travel to Washington and see where and what his or her taxes are supporting. Government is not getting any smaller, especially with the call for a new agency of "Homeland Defense".

Needless to say, I was a little discouraged about our access to this Imposing Federal Bureaucracy.

During the first day of our visit, we decided to venture to the Congressional offices to get our bearings and visit Congressman Mica's office. As we entered his office and indicated we were confirming our agenda for Day 2, Congressman Mica appeared with several people surrounding him.

Congressman Mica saw us as he rushed by, stopped, brushed off the people surrounding him and approached us. He first shook our hands, greeted us warmly, and acknowledged our White House tour and the meeting with us on the following morning.

In parting, he shook our hands, said "I'll see you in the morning," and returned to his business. At this point, my perception of Washington had changed.

As we proceeded to dinner and received V.I.P. treatment at the Washington Hard Rock Cafe — thanks to my friend and former Lake Mary resident Katie Clements — I was thinking that Day 2 was going to be very interesting.

Editor's Note: Mayor Greene will continue his column about his visit to Washington, D.C., in next month's edition of the Lake Mary Herald.

Groundbreaking held for trail's pedestrian bridge

By Dan Ping
Editor

LAKE MARY — When Seminole County applied five years ago for federal money to build a pedestrian bridge over Interstate 4 it could have been called the "Bridge to Nowhere."

The bridge was designed to connect Wekiva Trail on the west side of I-4 to Rinehart Trail on the east of the interstate. Neither existed when county officials submitted the funding application.

"We actually got the money before those trails were built," said Randy Morris, Seminole County Commissioner. "It's called vision."

That vision became reality with the recent ground-breaking ceremony on International Parkway about a half mile south of County Road 46A. The $3.4 million, 373-foot cable stay/suspension bridge is scheduled to be completed in May 2003.

The trails program has garnered wide support, but it was Morris who has led the push for countywide system of trails. He's been a proponent of a trail system since his service as Lake Mary mayor a decade ago.

"It all started because of safety and the lack of sidewalks," Morris said. "It's a safety hazard to have school kids walking in the streets because there aren't enough sidewalks or trails. Same for those who exercise."

The county agreed to work with Lake Mary, Morris said, and he continued to push for more enhancements when he was elected to county commission. Voters in 2000 approved a $20 million natural lands program that will protect important environmental areas and build 68 miles of paved and 20 miles of unpaved trails.

"What you got to remember is that $20 million is the local portion," Morris said, "we also get a $20 million match in state money."

Residents along Rinehart Road see the value in the trails. Five home owners' associations — Hills of Lake Mary, Timacuan, Woodbridge Lakes, Manderley and The Forest — have pledged to raise $500,000 to make improvements to the Rinehart Trail.

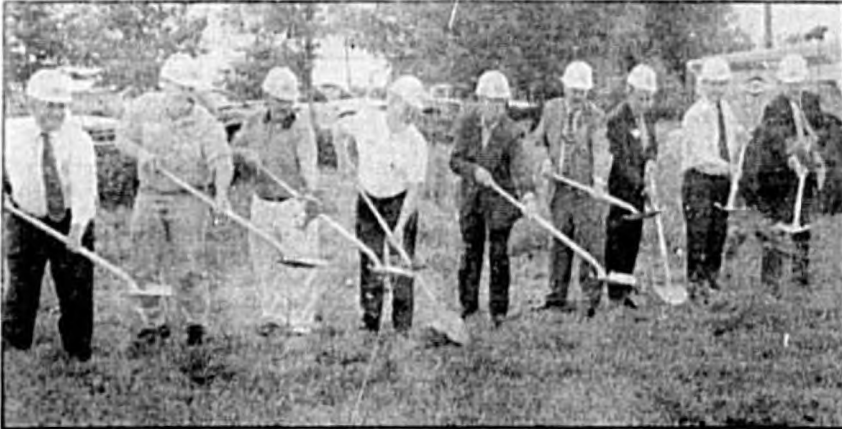

"We're going to do the grass roots thing," said Darrell Jarvis, vice president of the Manderley Home Owners' Association. "We're going to secure 10 business sponsorships of $25,000 and raise the rest through citizen participation."

Jarvis said the money would be used to improve the aesthetics of the Rinehart Trail.

"Over the years the associations and the residents agreed to share information so one subdivision isn't pitted against another — which can happen," Jarvis said. "As a group, we had approached the city on other issues. The city has been good to work with, so our idea was 'What can we do along Rinehart Road to help the city.'"

County and Lake Mary officials participate in the ground-breaking ceremony for the pedestrian bridge.

While the partnerships between the residents, county, municipalities and state agencies were key to developing the pedestrian bridge project, Morris singled out two for special praise. The Pizzuti Companies and the United States Postal Service. Both entities provided property at no cost for the "landing areas" pedestrians will use to access the bridge.

"That was a big help and certainly keep the total cost of the project down," Morris said. "If we had to pay for the landing areas, it would have been much more expensive."

The pedestrian bridge will be part of the Cross Seminole Trail, which is part of the Cross Florida Trail, a nationally recognized trail system.

Business Notes

Harkins Development Corporation, a Lake Mary-based general contractor and design-builder, has secured a new contract for an 8,300 square foot office/warehouse building.

Developed for a private investor, the project will be leased upon completion. Located on a 1-acre site in the North Star Industrial Park, Sanford, Florida, the steel and masonry block building was designed by Michael Perun, R.A. The project is expected to break ground in early July and be completed in five months.

Industrial projects on Harkins Development Corp.'s resume include: Tailored Foam Warehouse, Sub-Zero Refrigeration, Taylor Corporation and Encompass Electrical Technologies (Tri-City Electrical Contractors).

Founded in Central Florida in 1974 by C. William "Bill" Harkins, Harkins Development Corp. provides design build services, planning, land acquisition, land development and general contracting. The company's Residential Division builds luxury custom homes. The company employs nine at its headquarters in Lake Mary, Florida. For more information visit www.harkinsdevelopment.com only is the consumer poised to make a significant return on their investment, interest rates continue to remain quite low, which has created the highest national home ownership rate (67.8 percent) in history," he said.

David Lereah, Ph.D., senior vice president and chief economist at the National Realtor Association agrees. "This is a great housing market and don't let anyone tell you different."

What's selling? The largest number of sales in this area during May was 1,679 in single-family dwellings. That same month, 159 sales were condos. Both of those categories exceeded mobile, modular, townhouse and other categories every single month in 2002 thus far.

Regarding size, the majority of single-family units (51.18 percent) were three bedroom styles, and 71.64 percent had two bathrooms.

Signature GMAC Real Estate, Central Florida's largest locally owned and operated real estate company, has named longtime real estate executive and trainer Lisa Harr branch sales manager for its Lake Mary office.

Harr, a 16-year veteran with extensive experience as a real estate trainer in North Carolina, Pennsylvania and Florida, will be responsible for day-to-day sales and administrative operations of the 12-person office that services the north Seminole and West Volusia county markets for Signature, said President and COO John Nadler.

Before relocating to Central Florida, Harr was affiliated for four years with Howard, Perry and Walston GMAC Real Estate in Raleigh, North Carolina, one of the top GMAC companies in the country. Prior to that, she owned and operated a real estate school in Raleigh for aspiring Realtors.

Sales of single-family existing homes set a record for the month of May, as over 1,900 transactions were recorded by the Orlando-area Realtors, (ORRA), which includes the Seminole County area.

According to the association's latest report, 1,953 homes changed hands in May, the second highest number of homes sold in one month. It also marked the most homes ever sold in the month of May, topping the previous record of 1,894 set last year.

While interest rates dropped to 7 percent, the median price of an area home increased to $1,349,031. Again, it's the highest median price ever recorded in the area, an 11.88 percent increase over last year.

ORRA President Ron Acker said this is one of the hottest markets he has ever experienced. "Not

In July 2000, City Commission voted to accept a $112,000 grant from the state Department of Environmental Protection to be used toward the construction of the facility. By accepting the grant, the city also agreed to match it by $37,500.

Earlier this year, Commission gave Team Pain Enterprises Inc., the go-ahead to construct the park. Team Pain, based in Winter Springs, is owned by Tim Payne. Other employees at the company include skaters with extensive design and building experience in skate structures.

Previous design and construction projects include public skate parks in North Point, Fla., Ripon, Calif., Laramie, Wyo., Asheville, N.C. and most recently, Deltona. Team Pain is the only concrete skate park designer on the East Coast recognized by the Skate Park Association of the United States, and Payne serves on the group's design and safety board.

"When we were doing our research, we were told to get people who knew what they were doing to build the park," Carrico said. "I do believe we have the best in the world designing and building our park."

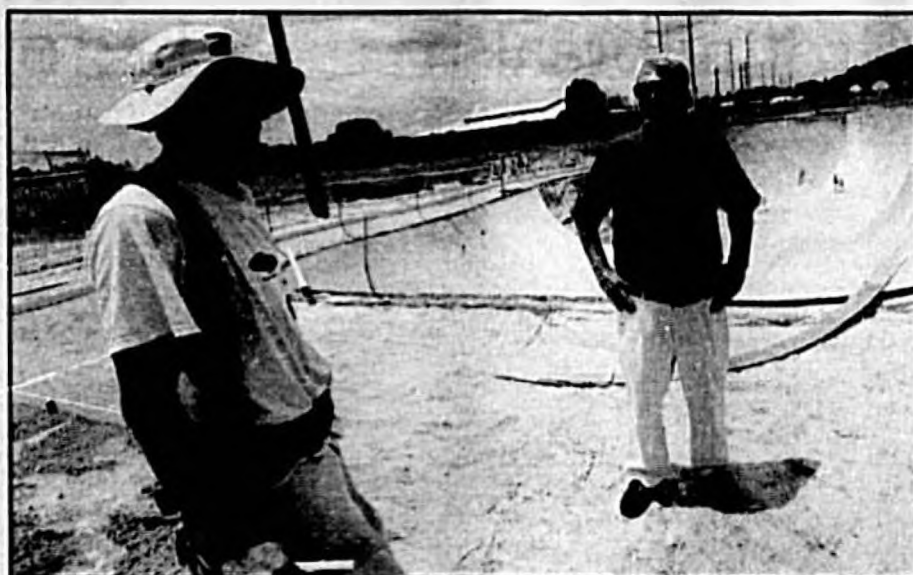

Located on Rantoul Lane, the park started taking formation several weeks ago. When complete, the facility will include the bowl, a street course a 20-foot by 36-foot shelter, lighting and landscaping.

According to Lance Spiker of Team Pain, the street course will include handrails, ledges and bank hips. The bowl ranges from 5 1/2 feet to 7 feet deep.

The city's park is relatively small compared to other facilities, but there is room for future expansion, Spiker said. Size, however, will not limit the entertainment value of the park.

"It should be a really fun park," Spiker said. "Skate parks are really popular with kids right now. Cities are always surprised with the user abundance when a park opens."

The skate park will probably be open during the same hours as the ball fields, Assistant Lance Spiker, left, of Team Pain and Lake Mary Parks and Recreation Director Bill Carrico discuss construction of the city's skate park. The almost completed bowl is in the background.

Director of Parks and Recreation Kathy Gehr said. Approximate hours will be from 4 to 9 p.m. during the week, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and noon to 6 p.m. Sunday. There will be different times for skateboards, in-line skaters and bicycles to use the park.

"The park will normally be open when school's out," Gehr said.

Anyone under 18 using the park will need to have a notarized waiver signed by either a parent or guardian, she said. Safety equipment will also be required, including helmets and knee and elbow pads.

As for the park's grand-opening celebration, Duryea nominated Mike McLean to be the first commissioner down the bowl's slope.

"I make a motion that the first one to go down the slope to be Commissioner McLean," Duryea said, "because he is the youngest and would be hurt less."
