Budenz Says Group Was Called Little 'Red School House'

By HARRY P. SNYDER
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22—(AP)—Louis Budenz said today the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR) was "completely under control of the Communist Party" when he was a party member several years ago.

He said the Communist spoke of the IPR as "the little red school house."

Budenz is a former editor of the "Daily Worker," Communist publication. He broke publicly with the party in 1948 and is now on the faculty of Fordham University.

The one-time Communist leader testified before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. The senators are inquiring into whether there have been subversive influences on U. S. Foreign policy.

Chairman McCarran (D-Nev.) said the IPR has influenced official policy. The IPR is a private organization, formed in the 1920s, with the declared aim of promoting knowledge of the Pacific area.

Budenz told the senators that he attended Communist political meetings at which IPR officials received orders from the then Communist leader Earl Browder.

He called IPR a "captivity" or "within its ranks, he said, was organization 'completely under control of the Communist Party.'"

A joint Communist cell with "Amerasia," Amerasia was a magazine dealing with Asian affairs, but was not officially connected with IPR. It no longer is published.

Budenz said he knew from "official communications within the conspiracy" that Owen Lattimore, one-time editor of IPR publications, was a Communist and that so was the millionaire New York leftist, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, a former IPR official.

Lattimore, a Johns Hopkins University professor, denied such oath at a Senate inquiry last year that he was or ever had been a Communist. Field once refused to answer questions as to whether he had held Communist connections.

Budenz said he and other high leaders used to get detailed reports of Communist activities in which persons on "duke" assignments for the party were identified only by blank spaces, or by initials. He said Lattimore was identified in these reports as "A. B. C.,"

Budenz said he attended Political meetings at which he saw and heard a road, receive instructions. Field sometimes operated under the code name of "Comrade Frederick Spencer," he said.

Polishing, Budenz said, was the name given the Communist Party's policy-making body in this country, but the name later was abandoned.

Budenz and Lattimore received at least some Political instructions through Field, and was considered valuable because he could bring support of Soviet policies in language which was non-Soviet.

The Senate committee and the House Un-American Activities Committee are presently conducting investigations which overlap at times.

Field as Budenz was testifying before the senators the House group called in General Douglas MacArthur's former intelligence chief for questioning about a Soviet spy network who operated in the Far East before World War II.

Mr. General Charles A. Willoughby, the intelligence officer, had related some parts of this story to the senators earlier in their hearings. The House committee sought more details on operations of Richard Sorge, the Russian agent who was executed by the Japanese in 1941.

Only one attended the famous of Louis Metropolitan Opera, where "underneath star-studded skies, we enjoyed Rodgers and Hammerstein's Music Festival."

There were 523 delegates, alternates and visitors present at the convention, said Mrs. Messenger, who listed Pilot memberships as over 8,000 business and professional women, forming 296 clubs in nine countries of the world, including Canada, England, France, Hawaii, Mexico, Japan, Bermuda, Amsterdam and the United States.

Miss Helen Hoffman, with the United States Treasury Department in Washington, D. C., president-elect, received personal congratulatory messages from President Truman and other notables in Washington, said Mrs. Messenger.

"Truth and Vision for Peace and Freedom" was chosen as the theme for 1951-52 and Mackinac Island, Mich., was selected as the 1952-53 convention city.

It was revealed at the convention, that $2,000 each year for the past two years has been contributed toward recreation and rehabilitation projects for Vimy, France, a village adapted as an international project for five years following reports of its demolition by U. S. Airmen through false information during World War II.

The convention body approved the sum of $1,000 to be used during the next year for a project to be selected by the Vimy authorities as being most beneficial to the community; also to provide $200 for a Pilot member or other suitable woman to be brought to the U. S. through KCA Tour for European Business Women. $500 to be used to develop "packaged programs" in connection with Pilot International projects; to continue efforts to develop Exchange Persons Programs on a non-academic training plan; to assist with CARE programs; to help develop UNRRA's Gift Coupon Plan for Educational supplies and materials and cultural organizations; and to continue efforts to raise funds to replace church windows in Vimy.

Emphasis was also placed on the participation of all club members in Civil Defense programs and the Crusade for Freedom.

Mrs. Messenger reported that she and Mrs. Stone were privileged to hear two enlightening panels directed by Wilbur Phillips, UNESCO Liaison Officer, on UNESCO and "The Second Front" by Miss Adeline Lee Taylor, Treasurer of the Whittaker Cable Corporation of Kansas City, Mo., and Dr. Harley L. Lutz, Professor Emeritus of Princeton University.

Mr. Phillips explained the 12-year range plan for a fundamental education in Public Health, Personal Hygiene, Food Production, Hand Crafts, and Home Economics. The UNESCO, Mr. Phillips was quoted as saying, is made up of 60 representative national organizations, designed to promote two important programs: Technical Assistance to underde-

U. S. position remained unchanged.

A release from U. N. command advance headquarters pictured the Reds as "obdurate in their politically tainted demands" and "incurable in presenting them."

It said the Communists were "immune" to the "military logic" of the Allied command.

The statement appeared to support the belief that the subcommittee has made no progress on the buffer zone issue which stumped the full five-man truce teams for three weeks.

Air Force Maj. General L. C. Craigie replaced Rear Admiral Arleigh Burke for the second time on the two-man Allied subcommittee for Wednesday's two-hour and ten-minute meeting.

Craigie, with South Korean Maj. General Park Sun Yup, a member of the full U. N. delegation, had accompanied Joy to Tokyo for the talk with Ridgway.

Joy, for the moment, withheld his formal reply to the two latest accusations that U. N. forces violated the neutrality agreement.

North Korean Lt. General Nam Il, head of the Red delegation, rejected Joy's preliminary reply on one protest.

U. S. 8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 22—(AP)—South Korean infantrymen, attacking behind the most concentrated sustained artillery barrage of the Korean war, captured a dominating hill in rugged eastern Korea today.

From its crest the South Koreans took down the 300-foot Communist hill on the north side of Yangju, Associated Press correspondent George A. McArthur reported.

South Koreans seized two other hills on the eastern front, recapturing one from counterattacking Reds. Communist forces slung to three other eastern ridges that had held in fierce counterattacks Tuesday.

A briefing officer estimated Reds lost about 2,000 men in five days of fighting north and northwest of Yangju.

All heavy fighting was along Eisenhower as a potential presidential candidate.

Shepherd, in his Maine travels, was Maine's Senator Owen Brewster (R), who is pushing the Ohio senator's candidacy with the slogan "Taft Or Chaos."

Taft predicted the Republicans would present a "united front" in 1952 and declared: "The real split in Washington is in the Democratic Party because half of them are left-wing 'Socialists' who dominate the executive administration, but can't control the Congress."

Taft described the Truman Administration as "wrecking and unbuilding" in both its foreign and domestic programs.

behind a point on the coast south of Tampico. Her radio was silent after the storm started. Another tanker, the "18 De Marzo," was released that she was riding out fierce winds and high seas in the shelter of Lobos Island, also south of the port.

City trucks drove as far as they could into the flooded districts, bringing out loads of refugees. The heavy rain and rising waters of the Panuco River which curves on two sides of Tampico had already flooded many of the low-lying suburbs. The center of the city, on high ground, was safe from the flood out exposed to the full blast of the gale.

The people had spent a tense, sleepless, prayerful night. Hundreds sought shelter in school houses and other buildings stronger than their own homes. Mountainous waves, ten feet higher than normal, pounded the coast during the night as the hurricane rushed at the city after whirling around in the Gulf of Mexico for half a day.

Swollen Panuco River and two lagoons, the Chirri and Carriatere, overflowed, flooding the lowlands.

Soldiers throughout the night patrolled the streets, many of them strwn with cars caught in the fierce showers.

Ambulances stood ready to pick up those injured when the storm struck.

Dozens of railroad cars were kept in the station for a possible evacuation of the populace. The eastern front. Planes and warships joined United Nations artillery in supporting Republic of Korea (ROK) infantrymen.

The U. S. cruiser Toledo and destroyer Waddell, both "18 large groups of Red soldiers" along the east coast with 23,000 pounds of high explosives, the Navy reported.

Mustang fighter planes fire-bombed and strafed Red ridges. Most of the 465 sorties flown by Fifth Air Force pilots Tuesday through rain showers and under clouds concentrated on hitting intensified Red efforts to resupply their front lines.

Shooting Star Jets and Thunderjets ripped rail lines in western and central Korea. B-26 bombers and Marine planes concentrated on highways, where 2,200 trucks were sighted.

It was another day of unusually heavy traffic. The Air Force described it as a "massive motor truck resupply effort."

From the east-central front, correspondent McArthur reported massed Allied guns, supporting ROK infantrymen in a four and one-half day attack, fired 12,000 rounds of high explosive mortar and the high velocity guns of tanks added to the barrage.

cellists who were policing their own members and the operations of those who were not permitted to membership. This was another factor which led to better adherence to the law.

The present controversy seems to be over the switch back to the old State rule of allowing sales of liquor until 2 A. M. and sale of beer on Sunday. This is not an undersecretary secret matter, but is a matter of record and was done at a public meeting.

"The County Commission met in special session on an equalization board. There being no complaints on taxes to settle with the exception of a number of written complaints, I presented a request that be permitted for sale after church on Sunday beginning at 2 P. M. This request the Chairman of the Board, returned to me and said if I would include this together with a request to rescind the former resolution and return the hours for the sale of liquor to 2 P. M. instead of midnight, it would be favorably received. This matter I considered. I know that many of the sellers of intoxicants had large sums of money invested and were losing their businesses. I knew that with the military aid in policing these places which had been crowded by hundreds and hundreds of military men, conditions were greatly improved."

"While I may have been in error in this judgment, and I feel that all humans err, I did make the request as advised by the Chairman of the Board, and the Commission with the exception of one member, voted in the change of hours."

"Some of the very recent accomplishments in making Seminole County a clean and safe place for its citizens to live in might be listed as follows:

"Ten young women have been apprehended and given a VD check-up; no disease found; one dope addict has been apprehended and is awaiting trial; we are constantly checking all liquor dispensing establishments for sales to minors; there is positively no known dope peddling in Seminole County and women of questionable character who have been detected, have been sent out of the County."

"I sincerely feel that this controversy would not have occurred had interested citizens come to me and talked it over. The operations of my office are not secret, except those matters that lead to the solving of a crime, and I am after all a public servant attempting to do the will of the majority of the citizens of Seminole County."

Howie Jackson, pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, is a native of Hebron, Ill., and played ball for the University of Illinois.

Wes Davis, star player for the Boston Braves in the NBA, is also a top flight golfer.

about the time of local 11 that when it seemed everybody around headquarters was the chief of a branch or a section of some sort. The workhouses said "Too many chiefs and not enough Indians."

The chief was the man who said to a junior officer: "See what you can do about this." And the junior officer would get it done.

Gradually these men who got things done worked out their own system of cutting through the formalities of military red tape and avoiding delays of "going through channels."

When one of them had a problem that involved the decisions of other chiefs and through them find out what the top brass thought too long, he would go to his in-

Then he could go to his own chief and say "Here's what they think about it." And the problem usually could be solved without an interminable exchange of papers.

The Chiefs have time out for a friendly lunch or dinner—or they may have their food served in their offices. But the Indian doesn't have enough time for such service. He must grab a sandwich and cup of coffee on the fly in the cafeteria along Ucer Gulch. He usually smokes two or three packages of cigarettes a day, work all hours of the day and night, and is on call at all times.

instead of shouting 'Har.'"

Swinging down east in a political pulse-taking tour of northern New England, Taft insisted he has not yet made up his mind about running for President—but admitted he might be "forced" to make a decision early next year.

Taft frankly conceded he is thinking about the early presidential primary—the first in the nation being in New Hampshire in March.

And a group of Portland Republicans, whom Taft addressed last night wondered if he had suited the beans about his plans.

Urging hard organizational work in '52, Taft said: "If Republicans get out there isn't any doubt of my election." When the applause and laughter died down, Taft added: "I mean there's no doubt in my mind we can win."

The Ohio Senator opened his five-day junket with a swing through New Hampshire, where he met party leaders—and was told privately that the sentiment there has not yet crystallized.

While swinging out with both feet in his denunciation of the Truman Administration's policies—at home and abroad—Taft brushed aside attempts to put him out on General Dwight

Report Shows Blondes And Redheads Smell Better, Worse Than Brunettes

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK. —(AP)— A brunette girl smells better and worse than a blonde.

And a red-haired gal. Well—she smells better and worse than either a blonde or a brunette.

Naturally you fellows already know this.

I didn't until I met Miss Barbara Allen, the first real professional odor consultant who ever came into my life.

Her name may sound like a sad and famous old British ballad, but this Barbara Allen is a strapping five-foot-eight-inch blonde Texas girl who nose her business.

"The nose is a built-in radar," she said in a full accent, redolent of Palestine, Tex. "Our sense of smell is 10,000 times more sensitive than our sense of taste. But few people today know how important odors are... and how they change our lives."

Miss Allen, now 23, got interested at the age of 14 in the theory of smells while working at a cosmetics counter.

"I like to know what I am doing," she said. "I ask about odors, and the people who ought to know didn't know about them."

So she studied odors for years—on her own. The books didn't give her all the answers she wanted, for the odor field.

"But I found there wasn't any odor field," she said. "So I became, so far as I know, the first person to make a career as an odor consultant."

Miss Allen looked, and a gentle-liege fragrance from her own fair form beset the air. A nearby copy boy immediately began to quiver at the nostrils.

"Different odors have different effects," Miss Allen said, drawing as the general report of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

"Most people are unaware of it, but I prefer lilac because it is soothing to the nerves. Lavender is used to attract and trap lions and tigers. Menzies has been found successful in stimulating the appetites of children."

She said that women have a better sense of smell than men, but even women are far behind insects. And fish smell best of all. Better than a bound dog.

"A brunette girl will have a more acute sense of smell and more body odor than a blonde" and a red-head has more of both than either of them. It's a matter of glands and skin pigments.

Miss Allen says America spends $200,000,000 a year on industrial and home deodorants, including $60,000,000 on body deodorants. But she still thinks housewives are naive because they don't plan specific odors as well as specific colors for each room.

"It would make life more colorful," she said, pointing out that some hospitals now are using scented sheets to improve the morale of patients.

"And in factories pleasant odors can be introduced to spur working efficiency in the same way that music is now employed."

She has deodorized everything from a miniature golf course to three goats in her rear-circus. Right now her pet project is the testing of a new body odor-riding Chlorophyll product. This is used in the form of tablets which are swallowed and deodorize from the preparations which are rubbed in inside out, unlike standard cream and try to deodorize from the outside in.

To give the pellets the action, she is looking for a full-functioning skunk.

"I believe that 30 minutes after I give him the tablets the skunk will be completely deodorized," she estimated.

Who will hold the skunk when she finds him?

"I guess I'll have to," said Miss Allen. "I held the goats."

Can anybody who knows anything about an obstreperous skunk figure what he'll be doing in the half hour before the tablets take effect?

"This I gotta see. From a distance."

Here's A Riddle for you— WHY IS DONALD DUCK LIKE A PEACOCK?

The reason Donald's so much like a peacock is because he's so proud that he struts... and the conceited little character keeps swelling up at the chest. Naturally there's reason for Donald being this way... and we gotta admit these reasons are mighty good. Take these for instance:

DONALD DUCK Means FLAVOR!

His salad products are packed with something "extra"... something that gives you "plus plus", "plus taste", "plus eating pleasure", AND THERE'S "SUPER" ... always speed-shipped from factory to table!

DONALD DUCK Means VALUE!

You get that "extra" something... and YOU PAY LESS FOR IT. That's pretty unusual isn't it? But it's true... because DONALD DUCK'S regular retail prices are far lower than other name brands... and what he's "superior" he fairly stands.

DONALD DUCK'S The "FRONT MAN"

Actually, Donald's only the "front man". He gets while Walt Disney's food experts do all the work. Several times each year they inspect the plant where Donald Duck is packed. They super-test the products regularly and insist that they must pass a rigid test for quality, flavor and freshness. That's why you can always count on top quality in Donald Duck products—your best bet for good eating and money saving.

Miss Wolfe, Mr. Brumley Married In Lovely Ceremony In Hastings

The United Methodist Church in Hastings was the setting for the marriage of Mary Alice Wolfe and Herman Lester Brumley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Frank Wolfe of Hastings and Mr. Brumley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Seth Brumley of this city. The Rev. W. J. Gardner conducted the ceremony at 8:30 o'clock on Aug. 18.

Forming a background for the lovely service were cocus plumosa and arica palma, tall baskets of white gladioli, tuberose, carnations, giant chrysanthemums and dahlias. Burning tapers in tall cathedral candelabra cast a soft glow over the scene. White tapers and flowers were used in decorating throughout the church.

Prior to the service a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. E. D. Davis, organist. She played "Ave Maria," "Liebestraum," "To A Wild Rose," "Venetian Love Song" and "Beaute." Solist was Stanley Brumley, brother of the bridegroom who sang "Oh Promise Me." "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mr. Brumley during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of heavy ivory duchesse satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a deep yoke of French bridal illusion outlined with a border of Point d' Venise lace. From the pointed waistline the very full skirt fell in deep graceful folds into a voluminous court train.

She also wore a double fingertip veil of sheer imported bridal illusion held with a cap of lace encrusted with pearls, and gauntlet mitts of satin trimmed with lace medallions. She carried a cascade bouquet of Fujii chrysanthemums centered with white orchids framed with seamist mantle leaves. Tucked in the bouquet was an exquisite heirloom lace handkerchief. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. S. C. Gross and bridesmaids were Mrs. James McCraw, Mrs. Gerald Allen, Jr. with Miss Rhonda Causey as junior bridesmaid. Little Gayle Matby was the flower girl. Mrs. Gross was gowned in gold satin overlaid with white nylon tulle, with bronze Juliet cap, and she carried bronze daisy chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of white nylon tulle over satin in Autumn shades of green, rust and rose. The fitted bodices were designed with V-necklines, front and back, and the floor-length skirts were very full. Stoles and mitts worn by the attendants were of nylon tulle and they carried cascade bouquets of daisy chrysanthemums with laceon puff and satin streamers matching their gowns. Gayle Matby wore an all-white gown of satin and nylon net with matching mitts and a Juliet cap of white. She carried a basket of rose petals and carnations.

Serving as best man for Mr. Brumley was Charles Kenecht and ushers were Gerald Allen, Jr., George Hughes, Mack Cleveland and Kirby Pike. Young Ronald Gross was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Wolfe chose for her daughter's wedding a lovely gown of mauve chiffon and lace. She also wore a hat of matching chiffon and a corsage of brown and chartreuse hybrid Cypripedium orchids.

Mrs. Brumley, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in an attractive gown of violet crepe. Her accessories were pink and roses and tuberose of the same shade formed her corsage.

Following the church ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe entertained with a brilliant reception at their home in Hastings. Members of the wedding party received in front of the fireplace in the spacious living room. Gracing the mantel were two arrangements of white gladioli, carnations, dahlias and tuberose with white burning tapers. Effective arrangements of white flowers and greenery were used throughout the rooms of the home.

The punch tables and bride's book table held rosegay arrangements with white satin streamers. The bride's table placed in the bay windows of the dining room was overlaid with a cloth of Point d' Venise lace shadowed with sheer illusion. A four tiered Temple wedding cake with Grecian pillars was the central point of interest on the table. At one end of the table was a silver container holding Fujii chrysanthemums and white pompons. At the other end was a five-branched silver candelabra. Garlands of southern smilax graced the table. White gladioli, tuberose and dahlias were used on the credenza and buffet.

After spending some time with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Brumley left for their wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Hastings where Mr. Brumley is athletic director at the Hastings high school.

For traveling, the bride wore a smart suit of plum colored light weight wool and a hat of dark gray valour with jet trimming. She wore a blouse of pearl gray nylon crepe and matching gloves with darker gray shoes and bag. An orchid from her wedding bouquet formed her corsage.

Mrs. Brumley attended Brenau College in Gainesville, Ga. and was graduated from Florida State University in Tallahassee with a B. S. degree. She was pledged to Zeta Tau Alpha, social sorority. Mr. Brumley was graduated from Rollins with a B. A. degree and was pledged to Lambda Chi Alpha, social fraternity.

Among those from Sanford who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Brumley, Sr. and sons Rodman and Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Brumley, Jr., Kirby Fite, Jr., George Hughes, Mack Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. John Brumley, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McKinnon, Mrs. L. I. Frazier, Mrs. J. N. Robson, Mrs. J. W. Wells, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. George Stine, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meriwether and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Hunter.

Neville Hurls 7-Hitter As Giants Defeat Islanders 10-1

McBride Clouts 5th Home Run To Lead Sanford Offense; Giants Get 12 Hits

Al Neville hurling his sixth win in his last seven starts last night as the Sanford Giants hung within an eyelash of the first division by defeating a listless Daytona Beach 10 to 1.

The game was no contest after the first inning when Mickey McBride lofted his fifth home run of the year over the left field fence with Frank Therina aboard. It was the first of three hits for the ace Sanford third baseman now rehabbing for injured manager Niall Klaus at shortstop.

Neville, a new pitcher since undergoing x-ray treatments during a six-weeks layoff, walked only two men while giving up seven scattered hits, four of which were dubious infield balls.

The only inlet run off the rambly right-hander came in the fifth when Cutcliff and Wattering singled and the former came in on McBride's single. In the third inning the locals went wild as Dolan led off with a single, Seala sacrificed and reached first on a fletcher's choice and both came in on Jackson's double. That was all for inlet starter Al Lange and George Cave farled little better in relief as Neville singled, McBride doubled and Parise singled to push in a total of five runs during the inning.

The Giants laid two tallies crossed in the fifth when Neville and Therina singled to come in on Parise's sharp one-base blow. Ed Jackson played superb ball in left field dragging down a towering foul fly in front of the scoreboard off the bat of Rocky Calvito in the second and making a running catch of Allobelli's short liner in the third. Joe Parise also made a magnificent catch of Truss' fly to right center in the eighth. The rearranged Giant infield seems to be working fairly well with McBride handling shortstop quite effectively.

PALATKA, Aug. 23—(P)—The Leesburg Packers took advantage of four Palatka miscues to snatch a 5-3 game here last night, backing the seven-hit hurling of Pat Brickley with near-perfect support.

The Packers worked four hits and two Azalea errors into a big four-run fifth frame to sew the game up and added an insurance run in the eighth.

Don Poston's double was the only extra base blow.

COCOA, Aug. 23—(P)—The Cocoa Indians rolled over the Gainesville G-Men, 13 to 2 last night, taking advantage of wildness of starter Charles Mickey, who issued 10 walks in the three and one third innings pitched.

Cocoa's Jim Vickery gave up four hits to the G-Men but they came in pairs to net Gainesville runs in the second and eighth innings.

ORLANDO, Aug. 23—(P)—The Orlando Senators racked up and tenth win in 12 games as their seventh straight victory edged DeLand 8-1, here last night.

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

By ED HARPER

"Youth will be served" some smart philosopher once said and in the case of the City Tennis Tournament this is true—with a couple of notable exceptions.

Several youngsters still in high school or recently graduated have shown amazing promise—George Herndon and Clarence Clause particularly.

Both play the same infuriatingly effective retrieving game which often nullifies beautiful placements with somewhat awkward but highly effective returns.

Every match has come to be an upset as every seeded player except City Champion Gene Tucker has gone down to defeat in the men's singles division.

Probably the finest addition to the local tennis hierarchy is Rev. Bob Dady, a smooth-stroking, steady player with every shot in the book. Boating a particularly fine backhand, Dady pulled the most startling upset of the year in defeating former City champion Clay Williams decisively in straight sets.

The most striking exception to this trend of youth are the incomparable Mozzius who have shown time and again an ability to give smooth-stroking lessons to the youngsters.

In defeating this writer and Women's Champion Betty Doris Williams in the first round of the mixed doubles, they displayed a superb command of court strategy plus the soundest ground strokes we have seen all year.

Mrs. Morrison, remarkably consistent, repeatedly passed her younger opponents with a blistering cross court backhand which skinned the net and cut the lines.

But with this one exception youth has so far been served almost too well. The winning youngsters are healthy evidence that the court game is finally taking hold with the younger generation and will have a solid basis in the next few years.

On concrete courts agility and speed are at a premium as the ball travels on a much lower trajectory after hitting than on any other surface. The bounce is quite low, relatively, and demands quick reflexes to return the ball effectively.

A powerful serve is probably fielder, and Bill Shores, Orlando center fielder, had a flat fight as the sides changed in the top of the sixth inning and both were banished from the game.

Joey Maxim Beats Irish Bob Murphy To Retain Title

NEW YORK, Aug. 23—(P)—Light Heavyweight Champion Joe Maxim proved he was far from washed up last night as he boxed Irish Bobby Murphy dinky to retain his crown with a one-sided 15-round decision victory over the San Diego slugger in Madison Square Garden. Maxim weighed 173½, Murphy 174½.

A 12 to 5 underdog in his first defense of the crown he won from Freddie Mills 19 months ago, the Cleveland cutie was in trouble in only one round—the first—as he outgeneralized and outgunned the game, swash-buckling ex-sailor.

Calm and cool all the way, the tall, swarthy champion surprised his narrow escape in the first when he was slammed to the ropes by a smashing left hook, and then came back to hand the powerful, crude challenger a losing lesson he never will forget.

Irish Bobby's right eye started to swell in the third round, was half closed by the fifth and was completely shut in the tenth.

There was a grotesque grip on the red-haired challenger's face as he absorbed a stream of carefully aimed shots from the slick champion.

When the fifteenth was over there was no doubt as to what the decision would be.

Referee Ruby Goldstein scored it 10-3-2 and both judges had it 10-5, all for Maxim of course. The Associated Press had Maxim the winner, 11-4.

ably the greatest single asset in this type of game is the ball is practically unreturnable, or at best a blooping lob easily killed at the net by the server. Another definite disadvantage is the closeness of the backstops on the Mayfair Inn courts which are too close in to handle a well placed lob effectively. . . an unobtrusive politician in view on the generosity of the Hotel and Club members in allowing one of the guests for the tournament.

The tennis tournament this year is far and away the most successful yet held—principally due to the untiring efforts of Thomas Stringer, Association Director. Each service has wealth of entries and the men's singles are loaded with talent.

If the affair can be built into an annual competition it might well eventually become a recognized United States Lawn Tournament contest, playing host to the best netmen in Central Florida and giving Sanford valuable tourist publicity in the national sports pages.

Herndon Defeats Melvyn Fleischer In Junior Match

George Herndon was extended to the limit by Melvyn Fleischer yesterday in a quarter-final match of the City Tennis Tournament, but his inimitable retrieving pulled the match out of the fire 9-7; 7-9; 6-2.

This pushes the 17-year-old Seminole High School senior to the quarter-finals in both the Junior and Senior tournaments as he shows down opposition of all ages and tennis styles.

The match was a three and one-half hour marathon which saw both contestants on the verge of exhaustion as darkness descended over the Mayfair courts.

Rallying superbly in the second set, Fleischer scored on his way to victory in the match but his staid opponent, allied this hope by taking a quick lead and never relinquishing it in the third.

Herndon rushed the net most effectively in this match exhibiting an unsuspected skill at angling volleys out of the reach of his agile opponent.

No other matches were played yesterday.

Red Troops Swarm Into Lines After End Of Conference

Eighth Army Braces For Huge Assault As Possibility Of Peace Seems Slim

U. S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 24—(AP)—Increased numbers of Communist troops appeared today all along the eastern half of the Korean front, possibly building up for a new offensive.

Allied observers spotted two large Red troop concentrations north of Yangju in the eastern mountains and above Kumhwa, eastern anchor of the old "Iron Triangle" in the center of the front.

Small groups of Reds were observed all along the front.

The increased Red build-up could signal either preparations for an offensive or simply a concerted effort to bring the front to believe battle worn units.

Air strikes and artillery fire were called down about 1,000 Reds with 200 trucks moving toward Yangju from the north.

About 1,000 Chinese with pack animals were seen moving south toward Kumhwa. However, in late afternoon a number of small groups with pack animals were seen going north.

If the Reds are preparing for attack, General James A. Van Fleet said his Eighth Army is ready for them and will stop them.

The U. N. ground commander said the Reds probably have more artillery and tanks than they've had before—"It's something serious to think about"—but "the enemy cannot beat the Eighth Army."

High Court Voids Prosecution Of Miami Gamblers

S. And G. Syndicate Operators Freed By Supreme Court

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 24—(AP)—Gambling charges against 22 alleged Miami big-time operators were thrown out today by the Florida Supreme Court.

The court said the charges were based exclusively on private records of the defendants seized on search warrants that amounted to requiring them to testify against themselves, which is unconstitutional.

It issued orders prohibiting the judge of the Dade county criminal court of record from trying the group that included all partners in the notorious S. and G. bookmaking syndicate and operators Club 86 and the Tee Club.

It said they are immune from prosecution for anything disclosed by the seized records.

However, the court declined to stop the trial of the Rife Armored Truck Service, Inc., which was charged with hauling and storing money for the gamblers. It said corporations could not claim any personal privilege against self-incrimination.

With its action, the Supreme Court completed setting aside most of the acts of a Dade county grand jury which indicted special agents and attorneys who worked with the Miami Crime Commission in a campaign against alleged racketeering last year.

The court previously declared an unusual neglect of duty indictment against former Sheriff Jimmy Bell, who was in under federal charges of irregularities against the state.

Price Boss Warns Of Danger Inflation Poses For Nation

By WILLIAM L. MADDIGAN
FRENCH LICK, Ind., Aug. 24—(AP)—The nation's price stabilizers said today inflation will destroy America if direct controls are not imposed.

Michael DiSalle, OPS director, told a 15 state Democratic conference at French Lick.

"If we don't impose direct controls to keep a balance in our economy, we're going to have the worst inflationary situation that any country ever faced, and that inflation has destroyed many more countries than you can count," DiSalle said in a prepared speech that government spending and business expansion during the next 12 months will boost consumer spending to such an extent that higher taxes and credit restrictions will halt the inflationary spiral.

"I agree with all the people who have said that production is the eventual answer," he said. "But we're not going to be able to get all the production we need for a period of 18 months to two years."

The OPS head declared national defense spending is still going to be higher than it has been in any postwar year.

He expressed doubt that impending higher federal taxes will serve to halt the inflationary trend. He said industry "three-fourth of which is thinking of expanding during the next 12 months" will get more credit stiller from the government or some other lending institution.

"In addition to that, this money that business will be spending—that government will be spending—will be going into consumer goods and consumer services that are going to have more money to spend." (Continued on Page 2)

Fractional Rise In Cost Index To Cause Wage Raise

Washington, Aug. 24—(AP)—The government's new cost of living index, issued today, was up only a fraction but it was enough to mean a one cent an hour pay boost for nearly 1,000,000 auto workers.

Warren Appoints William Kilbee To County Board

Former Commissioner Returns Following Court Exoneration

William G. Kilbee of Geneva was yesterday appointed by Governor Fuller Warren as county commissioner of the Fifth District of Seminole County. Senator Lloyd F. Bark announced this morning, W. L. Stoe, serving notice by Mr. Kilbee's place, he resigned as a commissioner.

Following the receipt of a writ requested by Mr. Kilbee, in December, Governor Warren suspended him from office as a commissioner. A writ had been held for several days until the State Supreme Court ruled on his appeal from a conviction by a jury in Circuit Court of a crime committed on Dec. 28 when he was held guilty of the theft of $4,000 from V. P. Allman, Dade county, on Nov. 8, 1949.

Mr. Kilbee, in his letter to Governor Warren last week, recommended that W. L. Stoe, retired school principal of Geneva, be appointed to succeed him temporarily, pending the outcome of the appeal which was heard through his attorney, C. H. Spencer.

Mr. Stoe was appointed in December by the Governor to serve on the Commission during the suspension of Mr. Kilbee. The State Supreme Court reversed the conviction of Mr. Kilbee by the Circuit Court because of the insufficiency of the evidence to sustain the charge of (Continued on Page 2)

Broken Bodies Strew Desolate Region In Which Big Aircraft Crashed In Flames

Oakland, Calif., Aug. 24—(AP)—Fifty persons died on the crest of a low hill near here today as a million-dollar airliner crashed and disintegrated. There were no survivors.

Hours later broken bodies were being taken from the shattered wreckage of the United Air Lines plane. At the top of the hill there lay the body of a little boy headed by his skull was crushed. Others lay in tangled debris in a ravine.

The plane, a DC-6B, was flying non-stop from Chicago to Oakland. The flight originated in Los Angeles last night, and the four-engine ship had stopped at Hartford and Cleveland, in addition to Chicago.

In Chicago, United Air Lines and the first 11 passengers were taken to a hospital. The rest of the passengers were taken to the hospital and two to the town hall.

Only five minutes before the plane was to have landed at Oakland airport, it crashed unexpectedly into a low hill 15 miles east of the city, a farming community about ten miles south of Oakland.

These minutes before the crash, pilot Arthur W. Hedden of Los Angeles, Calif., had given the control tower a routine report.

Then, a resident of the area was startled by a flaming flash and the sound of a blast. The crash was witnessed by many of the passengers when the huge liner plunged into the hill. The shattered debris rained down for 200 yards as the plane slid into the sharp ridge ravine at the base of the hill.

The DC-6B type plane had been in United Air Line service since Aug. 1. It was the only one of its kind in the fleet. It was built by Lockheed and the various air lines.

Just from the pilot's truck, United for ten days, including the day the plane was destroyed by the landing of the faster and larger plane.

There was no road to the wreckage scene. Ambulances and fire trucks were sent to the scene. (Continued on Page 2)

TOKYO, Aug. 24—(AP)—Only a tiny ray of hope remained today that Korean truce talks might be resumed.

If they break down completely, the United Nations group commander said his troops will go back to fighting "with jets and napalm."

"We feel very confident we can win the enemy in the present war," he said in a broadcast from Van Fleet said his Eighth Army Headquarters.

Record Number Of Auto Tags Sold In County This Year

All records for the sale of automobile tags in Seminole County have been broken this year, John L. Galloway, tax collector, announced today, adding that 1952 tags will go on sale on Sept. 8, 1952.

He revealed that 10,733 tags for this year have been sold to date, as compared with 9,698 last year and 8,498 in 1940, a 100 percent increase during an 11 year period.

"This is one very good indication of the growth of Seminole County," he declared.

Mr. Galloway, who acts as agent for the Motor Vehicle Department, pointed out that under the law enacted at the last session of the Legislature, auto tags will not go on sale until Jan. 5.

"The 1952 tags will be good until midnight, Feb. 20, 1952," he said.

"This law," he added, "was sponsored by the Florida Association of County Tax Collectors. The change will be helpful to the various tax collectors as it will give them an opportunity to complete the handling of taxes during the heavy tax paying months of November and December before commencing the sale (Continued on Page 2)

Senator Jenner Blasts Proposed Jap Peace Treaty

Republican Denounces Agreement As Booby Trap And Fraud

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—(AP)—Senator Jenner (R-Ind) denounced the proposed Japanese peace treaty today as "a fraud and a booby-trap." He said it may open the way for eventual Russian control of Asia.

Jenner told the Senate the treaty puts Russia in permanent possession of the Kurile Islands, northeast of Japan. He said this breaks the island chain of U. S. defenses in the Pacific.

He also protested that the pact would permit Russia to contribute troops to United Nations forces to be stationed in Japan. He said the "complete self-determination" which would be given to Japan would be a signal to the subversive fifth column in that country.

"How long will it be before Japan 'freely' votes herself into the Soviet world government?" he asked.

Jenner criticized the activities of John Foster Dulles, Republican state department secretary, who had much to do with drafting the treaty.

"Mr. Dulles found the usual apparent obstruction by the Communists and by Great Britain, but he flitted about like a duty moth and came up with 'settlements' of all the problems that vexed him or the State Department," Jenner said.

Jenner said the Communists were engaging in "double talk" in opposing the treaty, which is to be signed at ceremony in San Francisco beginning Sept. 4.

"The Soviet leaders do not want to stop this treaty," he declared. "This talk is merely a distraction to turn the attention of the American people away (Continued on Page Two)

Jaycees Reject Warren Charge Of Being In Politics

Odham Sponsorship Of Resolution Is Vigorously Denied

DELAND, Aug. 24—(AP)—A charge by Governor Warren's press secretary that the Junior Chamber of Commerce here was "exploited by a certain conniving politician" was labeled "unfounded and unfounded" by that organization today.

The rebuttal was voiced in a letter to Warren signed by Lincoln L. Jacobs, acting secretary and a member of the committee which drafted the original resolution about nominating the Governor.

Jacobs and other members of the committee said they didn't have "the slightest idea" who Press Secretary Loyal Compton was referring to as the "politician."

They denied Hraldy Odham of Sanford who has been at odds with Warren, had anything to do with Jaycees action.

The Compton statement yesterday followed release of a Jaycees resolution asking Warren if it was true he intended to issue reports on gambling in other states and if the data was gathered at Florida's expense.

"Our resolution will stand on its own merits as a move made in the interest of preserving the reputation of the State of Florida and in the interest of keeping the citizens of Florida informed as to what their employees and elected officials are doing."

"It is to be deplored that anyone connected with your office, especially a press secretary, should make such an irresponsible and unfounded statement as that made by Loyal Compton yesterday."

"Strong evidence of the true nature of Compton's statement may be found in the vague, sinister suggestion that Deland Jaycees had an ulterior motive in passing this resolution and that they had allowed themselves to be exploited by a certain conniving politician to promote his own political schemes."

"It is significant that Compton refused to name this mystery (Continued on Page Six)

Congress Approves Resolution To End Trade With Czechs

Liquor Dealers Held On Gambling Charge

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—(AP)—Congress has rolled up a 132 to 1 majority in favor of suspending U. S. trade with Czechoslovakia until that Communist nation frees Associated Press' correspondent William N. Oatis.

The Senate okayed the resolution yesterday, 81 to 0. The House had passed it Aug. 14, 136 to 1, with only Rep. Wood (D-Ga.) dissenting. Rep. Wood said he did so only because the resolution calls on the United Nations to help Wood do what he felt the U. S. Senate action, coming after a long fight on the floor, and some criticism of the State Department, is final. The resolution does not require signature by President Truman.

But neither is it binding on the government. It merely expresses the "strong indignation and disapproval" of the "arrest, detention and unjust conviction" of Oatis.

He was convicted by a Czech court on espionage charges, announced by this government as baseless, and sentenced to five to ten years in prison.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) said during a discussion of the resolution that this country should lead off diplomatically as well as trade relations with Czechoslovakia and and the close "potential espionage centers in our own country."

Senator Dirksen (R-Ill.) said the "good God-fearing" Czech people are in the grasp of "hostile forces." Senator O'Connor (D-Mid.) called the 37-year-old correspondent "a symbol of world opposition to the violation by Communist leaders everywhere of the basic individual freedoms."

Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) said efforts the State Department has declared it is making to obtain Oatis' freedom are "anathema to our country." He said the proposal U. N. convene on human rights is "a highly unethical and unjustifiable action." The Department is supporting the draft covenant.

The new Czech ambassador, Vladimir Fiala, called for the first time on Secretary of State Acheson yesterday, and Acheson told him he wants "thorough discussion" of the Oatis case soon.

Asked for a statement on the case, Fiala told reporters: "I will not make any remarks about it now."
