Russia Explodes Nuclear Weapon

WASHINGTON—Russia has exploded another nuclear weapon, the Atomic Energy Commission announced Sunday.

The reminder of Soviet power came only two days after three U. S. B-52 H-bombers circled the world non-stop in a demonstration of American strength.

The AEC said Russia exploded the nuclear weapon Saturday.

The terse announcement gave no indication whether the test involved an atomic or hydrogen weapon or its size.

The blast apparently was the fifth in Russia's current test series the Russia announced it had completed. The series started in August.

The announcement brought to 17 the number of times the United States has reported a Soviet nuclear test.

As usual the AEC gave no indication where it got its information. However the country has an elaborate monitoring system for detection where it got its information.

THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC became the first member country of the United Nations to contribute money to the U.N. Emergency Relief Fund. Here, Ambassador Dr. Enrique de Marchena, chief of the permanent Dominican Republic U.N. delegation, is shown as he delivered a $2,000 check to U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in New York City.

He said the possession of powerful modern weapons could not in itself assure peace—peace must be rooted in the lives of nations through justice and law "steadily involved and respected by all nations."

He envisioned a United States friendly and helpful to all nations that are or would be free.

"When, in time of want or peril, they ask our help, they may be assured we will respond; for we seek to buy their sovereignty that we would sell our own—sovereignty is never bartered among free men."

Desire for Freedom
"We seek neither their military alliance nor any artificial limitation of our security," he said. "But they can know the warmth of the welcome that awaits them when, as must be, they join again the ranks of freedom."

had been dabbling without success in the field of radio-controlled ships, planes and tanks.

But Bailey's group of experimenters harnessed the power of radio beams and were able to eventually make empty planes do almost anything. As a result, the United States led the way in using "flying bombs" planes loaded with explosives, to harass the enemy in World War II and the Korean War.

Much of the work done by the group with which Bailey was connected is still "highly classified" in military files in Washington.

Concerning the awards, Bailey said, "It's nice to know they finally are to be recognized. I'm especially happy for Oscar Smith." (Oscar Smith was in charge of putting the drop airplane into practical use at a time when many Navy men strongly opposed the project).

Today in Tallahassee Bailey said he rarely does any electronic experimenting or flying. He said he does tinker a bit with radios and television and gets a big kick out of hi-fidelity music.

Bailey said his teen-age son "has no inclination whatsoever" toward the field in which his father was so proficient. He said he and his wife decided to live in Tallahassee after his retirement from the Navy because it was the only place both ever have been able to agree on as a good place to.

Navy To Defend City Of Tampa Against 'Invasion'

Chief Hand of the Orlando Navy Recruit Station announced today that the Navy is enlisting young men from all parts of Florida for the invasion of Tampa on Gasparilla Day, Feb. 4, in the day Jose Gasparilla and his crew aboard the "Jose Gasparilla," the world's oldest galleon, will storm into Tampa Bay with all guns blazing and capture the City in their annual ritual as has been done over the past fifty years.

The Navy's special All Florida Company, known as the Gasparilla Buccaneers, will be sworn into the Navy at the Florida State Fairgrounds Stadium immediately after the pirate invasion. Special seating arrangements have been made for this company of young Navy recruits to view the entire parade as it passes in review before dignitaries.

Gasparilla day in Tampa, says Chief Hand, will draw the largest single-day crowd in the state. More than 600,000 people will jam the streets, riverbanks, and fairgrounds for the gala occasion.

Young men enlisting in this company will be transported to Tampa, at the Navy's expense, to join in the festivities. Upon completion of the day's activities these men will board a special train which will take them to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center for recruit training, where they will train together as a unit in competition with other companies.

Only a small percentage of this Navy company can be enlisted from the Sanford area, Chief Hand explains. Young men interested should make application for enlistment at the Navy recruiting station. Chief Hand will be in Sanford at the Post Office each Tuesday.

Police, FBI Say Telephoned Bomb Threats Cranks

HONOLULU—Police and FBI agents in Honolulu, Seattle and three other West Coast cities blamed cranks today for telephoned bomb threats that touched off a series of airliner searches during the weekend.

One threat was received in the FBI office in Honolulu early Sunday and another threat was telephoned to the United Airlines office in Seattle Saturday night.

Seattle police held a 29-year-old former mental patient they said admitted making two telephone calls to the United Airlines reservations desk at Seattle. Detective said FBI agents and United officials interviewed the unidentified man. He was to be questioned by a psychiatric police said was familiar with the ex-patient's case.

Planes operated by Pan American World Airways, Northwest Airlines, Qantas, and Japan Airlines underwent searches when they landed Sunday at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland and Seattle.

At least a dozen planes and probably more were searched at all five airports.

Morals Charges Placed Against 3 Men, Youth

New Prime Minister Faces Parliament For 1st Time Today

LONDON — Harold Macmillan faces parliament for the first time as prime minister today. Opposition Socialists planned to greet him with new demands for guarantees against another Suez-style "armed conflict."

His official status as prime minister to succeed Sir Anthony Eden will be only a few hours old because he first must be formally elected as leader of the ruling conservative party.

Extra Guard Ordered

Scotland Yard ordered extra guards around Parliament to prevent Communist demonstrations.

The Big Questions

Parliament demanded personal answers from the new prime minister on five major questions:

1. Immediate general elections which Macmillan has already rejected.
2. A "summit" conference with government heads of the United States, Russia, France and India.
3. An invitation to President Eisenhower for "Big Two" talks in London.
4. New moves to have Communist China admitted to the United Nations.
5. A disarmament and proposals to ban further nuclear arms tests.

More Negotiations Planned For Water Main Extension

City Manager Warren E. Knowles will negotiate further with the Wefour Corporation of Miami Beach relative to the extension of City water mains to an area more than half-mile outside the City limits.

A request has been directed to the City of Sanford as to "what they will do" about the water lines to a sub-division site near the Sanford Naval Air Station on Sanford Ave.

The development, announced several weeks ago, would ultimately number up to 2,000 homes according to officials of the firm in Sanford to close property deals.

However, commissioners expressed concern that there is a possibility lots will be sold in the sub-division as well as homes.

Concerning reimbursement to the Wefour Corporation for funds expended in the payment for water mains outside of the city limits, Commissioner Earl Higginbotham said "We will reimburse them at the end of each year on the basis of the number of homes built and sold."

Commissioner Merle Warner said "I'm afraid that this is just a lot selling venture."

Doctors Can Now Pay Annual Fee To Park Anywhere

Parking spaces marked "For Doctors Only" is a thing of the past for the City of Sanford according to action taken at last night's special meeting of the Board of City Commissioners.

Instead, doctors will be given the privilege of paying an annual $90 for the privilege of parking in any available parking stall that is metered.

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham argued "Everyone should have the same privilege — there isn't any doctor making emergency calls now — every citizen should have the same right."

Mayor David Gatchel said "This will cut out deadwood parking places in the downtown area."

Four commissioners voted for the measure with Commissioner L. Wilson voting "no" because "I think it is too much money."

City Attorney Willis C. Hutchison Jr. explained that "the primary purpose for parking meters and truck loading zones is to keep traffic moving in an orderly manner."

Truck loading zones are for the purpose for which they are marked. These zones, said the commissioners last night, are not for parking trucks. The Sanford Police Department will enforce the regulations.

Top News In Brief

Three white men and a 16-year-old youth are being held in the Sanford jail today under charges of committing lewd and lascivious acts in the presence of a minor and with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The quartet, ranging in age from 18 to 31, was apprehended last night by Lt. Joe Hickson and Patrolman Carl C. Dodson, following a complaint from the father of a 12-year-old girl.

Two girls, one 12 and the other 13, were involved in the acts.

The men being held and who are being turned over to Seminole County authorities today are: Clinton Underwood, alias "Lucky", a sawmill worker from Tennessee, a married man with a family who made his home at 210 1/2 W. First St.; Spencer Dugan, 17, an automobile painter whose address was given as West 2nd St.; Charles Edward Rich, 25, a bulldozer operator who allegedly lived with Underwood; and a 16-year-old juvenile. Another man involved in the escapade is to be picked up later, said Chief Williams. "We have the warrant for him now," he said.

According to Chief Williams, the five white men had the two girls, one who has not been taken into custody, in the woods out from Lake Monroe. They later had had the girl in the "vime of Underwood."

On a complaint from the father of the young girls, Lt. Hickson and Patrolman Carl Dodson found the men. The girl, who was lodged in the Seminole County jail by order of Judge Ernest Householder, Juvenile Judge for Seminole County, attempted to get away by crawling out on the roof of Underwood's home. The other child, 13 years old, had returned home.

Chief Williams said "We have had the same girl three times for running away from home and had turned her over to her parents and to Judge Householder."

The three men and one youth are being turned over to Seminole County authorities today under $2,000 bonds for the lewd and lascivious acts in the presence of minors charge and under a $500 bond for contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Follies' Rehearsing, Casting Starts

"We want as large a cast as possible and plan to have a lot of fun," exclaimed Dean Reeder at last night's Talent Party at the Mayfair Inn.

The party was held to get talent for the High Fever Follies, sponsored by the Seminole Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, which will be presented Feb. 8, 9.

Due to the tremendous turnout of last night's "Talent Party" Cargill Associates have decided that the quality and quantity of the talent warranted another director Dean Reeder will work with the new director in producing the High Fever Follies.

"Those who want to sign up for the talent in High Fever Follies may do so by calling 2356," said Mrs. Stone, General Chairman of the production.

The new man will arrive in Sanford either today or tomorrow to take over the co-directing of the forthcoming show.

Mrs. Robert Stone, chairman of the Follies, introduced Reeder, who is associated with the Cargill Producing Association of New York and who will direct the Follies.

Jaycees Schedule Open Directors Session Tonight

The Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold an open Board of Directors meeting tonight at 7:30 at the Jaycees Information Booth on Park Ave. at Seminole Boulevard.

Purpose of the meeting, said President George A. Speer, is to acquaint local citizens of the activities of the Jaycees and to make them aware of the tremendous program undertaken by the young businessmen's organization.

The event is being held on the second day of National Jaycee Week which is being observed in Sanford by the local Jaycees organization.

Library, Museum Problems Solved By Board, Committee

Complete plans to clear all details of the General Sanford Memorial Library and Museum up to its dedication on Friday Feb. 1 were discussed last night at a joint meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners with the General Henry Shelton Sanford Memorial Library and Museum Committee.

Also present at the meeting were two members of the Board of Seminole County Commissioners, Commissioner John Krider and Commissioner Homer Little.

Problems concerning the financing of insurance, protective measures for the new library and building, and the landscaping of the grounds around the library were (Continued on Page 4)

Commission Okays Proposal For New Post Office Here

The Sanford City Attorney, W. C. Hutchison, Jr., was instructed last night to prepare a resolution favoring a new Post Office building for the City.

Action on the matter came following a discussion with the Board of Sanford City Commissioners by Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider.

Krider told the Commissioners, "I would like to explore the possibilities of constructing a new Post Office for Sanford."

"We need a resolution from the City Commission pointing out the deficiencies of our present Post Office building," he said. And Krider explained that the present location is in a crowded area, there is no possibility for expansion in the present building, we need additional Post Office boxes.

"There's no future in the expansion of the present Post Office," Krider told the commissioners. "We've increased in population and we serve a larger area."

It was also stated that new plans for a Post Office Building here could include office space for the numbers of federal agencies operating in Sanford at the present time.

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham proposed that the City Attorney be instructed to prepare the proper resolution. The proposal received unanimous approval by the Board.

Ike Gives Personal Approval

WASHINGTON — H. Meade Alcorn Jr. of Connecticut today was elected Republican National chairman.

Alcorn was elected unanimously, without contest, by the GOP National Committee after he was given the personal endorsement of President Eisenhower.

He succeeds Leonard W. Hall, who is retiring Feb. 1 after almost four years as chief of the party organization.

Alcorn, 49-year-old former speaker of the Connecticut Assembly and onetime district attorney for Hartford County, was Hall's second in command last year for handling arrangements for the GOP national convention.

His election as national chairman came as no surprise.

Easy Choice

The President's support for Alcorn was reported to a committee meeting by former Sen. Harry Darby, Kansas national committeeman. Darby headed an eight-man subcommittee which conferred with Mr. Eisenhower earlier this morning.

"He made it clear to us that he would like Meade Alcorn to be chairman," Darby said.

Rotarians To Take Part In Erection Of Scout Building

Sanford Rotarians, at their weekly meeting yesterday afternoon at the Yacht Club, voted to participate on a strictly voluntary basis, in the erection of the main building at Camp La-No-Che, in Lake County to be used by Boy Scouts of the Central Florida Council.

Taking part in the discussion as to the best means of building the matter on an individual basis were H. B. Pope, H. H. Coleman, George Stine, William A. Laffler, Randall Chase, M. L. Raborn, Henry Simpson and Charlie Morrison. Since Rotary rules and regulations preclude the assessing members to provide funds for any project regardless of merit, the club voted to endorse participation in the building and to ask the board of directors to work out ways and means of having each Rotarian, if he so desired, make his pledge to the project.

The idea of increasing the luncheon fee was turned down as being an assessment rather than a voluntary pledge and it was finally decided that the average contribution should be about $10 per member per year for a three year period. The project got off to a good start with the donation to the fund of $100 by Robert Gregory of the Big Lumber Co. here.

George Stine presented to the club its newest Rotarian in the person of D. S. (Bud) Talley, President Charles L. Parsons welcomed back Andrew C. Stine, after an absence due to illness.

Letter-Contract Fails To Meet Board's Approval

"This thing is getting further away and more fantastic," said Commissioner Earl Higginbotham at last night's meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners when the matter of a contract with Fred Blair Jr. for his services as a consulting engineer in City Planning was discussed.

A contract submitted by letter was presented to the Board of Commissioners by City Manager Warren E. Knowles who immediately said "I cannot recommend this."

Commissioner Merle Warner said "I just want to drop the matter at this time."

The contract was not made public but in discussions by the commissioners it was revealed that Blair had proposed a $75 per day charge for his services in supervising a city-paid engineer, for a period of approximately 18 months, which was recommended by the City of Sanford's Zoning and Planning Board.

"We're interested in City Planning but we're not interested in building an empire for one man such as this contract suggests," said Commissioner Higginbotham. The City Manager was instructed to notify Fred Blair Jr. that the letter-contract submitted on Jan. 16 did not meet with the approval of the Board of Commissioners.

There was no indication that the Board of Commissioners would renew their city planning proposal (Continued on Page Four)

Home, Backyard Place To Build Stamina In Youth

CHICAGO (AP)—Home and the backyard is the place to get building muscles and stamina, American youth, says Dr. Shane MacCarthy, head of President Eisenhower's drive for youth fitness.

And parents must join their youngsters at play to teach them to be strong and active, he said. MacCarthy recommended that the nation's backyards be turned into playgrounds and that many of its streets — including New York's Fifth Avenue — be set for family sports one day a week. MacCarthy, executive director of the council on youth fitness, addressed a conference sponsored by the Roller Skating Foundation of America.

He urged that parents build basketball courts or gym sets instead of fireplaces in their backyards and install a love of sports and physical fitness in their children.

If New York can turn Fifth Avenue over to hoop-and-toss games, he said, it can give the famous thoroughfare "back to the family one day a week."

Other cities should do likewise, he said, and families should use the streets for cycling, hiking and roller skating.

Names Are Chosen For Monaco Heir

MONACO (AP)—Monaco's expected heir, will have four names if a boy, three if a girl, Prince Rainier has announced.

The prince said he and Princess Grace had agreed to name a son "Gregoire Georges Pierre Richard" or a daughter "Caroline Louise Marguerite."

Rainier told a press conference today that the child will be born in the same hilltop palace where he was born and not in the Monaco maternity clinic as previously planned.

He and his American wife arrived at the names by drawing up individual preferred lists and then bartering between themselves, he said.

The name Gregoire appeared on both lists, he said, but Caroline came from the princess.

The child, of course, will bear Rainier's 1,000-year-old family name of Grimaldi.

Gregoire would be a new name in the family, but there was a Princess Caroline born in 1879.

Rainier said the birth had been estimated at between Jan. 20-25. But, he added, "I don't even trust those doctors myself, because a gynecologist will tell you one date and write down another in his notebook."

The child's godfather will be

Rainier's cousin, Prince Georges Festeche, 17, a Hungarian who lives in Vienna. The godmother will be Margaret Davis, 12, eldest daughter of Grace's older sister.

"I'm very happy to get back to the traditions of a palace birth," he said. "I was very pleased when the doctors said it would be perfectly feasible to have the birth in the palace."

Chevrolet shows you some important differences in low-priced cars just by the look on its face!

Wouldn't you say that most of the '57 cars look good from 50 feet away, but what about from 50 inches away?

What does a close-up of the grille tell you, for example? Is it solidly made like the new Chevrolet grille? Or, in comparison does it look less rich in design—feel less strong and solid? Compare the quality and construction of the bumpers and headlights, the fit of the chrome trim.

The more closely you look all around the car, the more clearly you'll see that Chevrolet has the edge in the way it's put together. You'll find, for instance, that Chevrolet is the only car in its field with a lacquer finish... that only Chevrolet Bel Air models give you foam rubber cushions in front and rear seats as standard equipment. These are just a few of the advantages of Body by Fisher. And Chevrolet, you know, is the only low-priced car that has a Fisher Body.

We'll be glad to give you a close-up, comparative look at this new Chevy anytime you care to come in. This week, maybe?

Getting To Sleep Poses Real Problem For Some

By HERMAN H. HORNBERGER, M.D.

HAVE a tough time getting up this morning? Wouldn't you rather have stayed in bed a little longer? Well, I guess just about everyone feels like this once in a while.

Actually, though, eight hours' sleep usually is enough for the average person. There can be no steadfast rule. You might need more or you might need less.

If you go to bed early and arise early, you'll probably get along best with eight or even nine hours' sleep. If you're a night owl, you may get by with only six or seven. Some do with even less sleep.

Sleeping Period

Your efficiency is geared to your sleeping period. If you're in bed early and up early, you will be most efficient during the early part of the day. As evening approaches, you lose a good part of your efficiency.

For night owls, who sleep pretty late and just hate to get up, efficiency reaches its peak during the evening hours. Usually, it will be very low when you awake.

You men are apt to be in a daze while shaving and you'll probably stumble through your early chores. And you women might find getting breakfast a difficult task.

Whatever time you go to bed, the first three hours of slumber will benefit you most. That's when you sleep the soundest.

Slow Trend

After three hours, there is a slow trend toward waking and you're apt to lose and turn more. Getting to sleep, however, is the real problem for many of you. You'll lose and turn and spend a good deal of time trying to force yourself to sleep. However, there are several do's and don'ts to follow to help you into the land of nod.

Let's consider the don'ts.

Don't depend upon sleeping pills or potions. While they might be all right if prescribed by a doctor in case of an illness, they are only a crutch which you might come to depend upon. They might lead you into the drug habit, if you misuse them.

Don't exercise before you go to bed, if you sleep poorly. If you want to reduce or develop your body, wait until morning to perform your aerobatics. Exercise, both physical and mental, tends to alert you rather than soothe you.

For that reason, don't try to solve any troublesome problems just before turning in. With a good night's sleep, you'll be able to tackle them much easier the next day.

Tomorrow I'll give you some helpful hints on how to get to sleep quickly and easily.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

M. S.: What causes warts under the armpits and what can be done to remove them?

Answer: The cause of warts is not known, but it is possible that some are due to infection.

Some types of warts may be removed by cauterizing them with acetic acid, or by freezing them with carbon dioxide snow. Others may be removed by the application of nitric acid, or by means of an electric needle.

Aliens Have One Week To File Address Report

Joseph Savoretti, District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, said today aliens in Florida have only one more week in which to comply with the Federal law requiring that aliens report their address to the Government during January of each year.

The Immigration official urged all aliens who have not yet complied to go as soon as possible to the nearest post office or Immigration Service office to file the report.

Parents or guardians must file the report for alien children under 14 years of age, or those incompetent, or under custodial care.

Savoretti said the address report is required each year from all aliens except those in diplomatic status, foreign representatives assigned to the United Nations and Mexican national laborers.

He pointed out willful failure to comply carries penalties including a fine and deportation.

The official said an estimated 48,000 aliens have already complied with the address report requirement, compared to 58,000 who filed address reports last year.

Oatmeal: Favorite Hot Breakfast For Cold Weather

Start the day with an adequate breakfast and you will feel better and work better, especially in the late morning hours. This conclusion was reached by a team of scientists at the State University of Iowa after six years of research on the importance of breakfast.

Medical and nutrition authorities recommend that a basic breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter be followed to ensure an adequate breakfast. For those people whose doctor has prescribed a low-fat diet, a basic cereal breakfast pattern is ideal because it is low in fat and low in cholesterol.

Modern hot breakfast cereals are so easy to prepare and serve the family. Quick or regular type take just a short preparation time.

A serving of oatmeal with milk contributes protein, valuable B-complex vitamins, minerals, and food energy at low cost. For variety serve brown sugar with the cereal and milk serving.

Citizens: Get Behind Boat, Ski Club; Help Push Boat Regatta

Sanford was in store for a great surprise last week when the announcement was made that speedboat racing has been scheduled for our City, in the near future, on Lake Monroe.

We have contended time and again that Sanford has great potentials in the field of water sports with Lake Monroe right along our edge. And we have stated before that sooner or later the area along Lake Monroe would be alive with activity.

A part of that contention has come true with the Sanford Boat and Ski Club taking the "bull by the horns" and arranging an annual event which will bring, no doubt, thousands of people to the Central Florida area.

The speedboat races is a large project to undertake right from the start and we commend these enthusiasts for their forward-looking ambitions.

Without a doubt, Sanford people will be called upon to support this undertaking and in addition, Sanford people will be asked to help put over the project in some way.

We have noted that the Sanford Boat and Ski Club has gained some members because of their venture. As a matter of fact, they should gain hundreds of new members with such an enthusiastic group of sports people in the area, many of them especially interested in boating and its many aspects.

The scheduling of these races for Sanford is just the start for numbers of similar water sport activities for which the St. Johns River and Lake Monroe can be used, but in order to attract the many attractions this one must be a success — and a decided success.

It behooves all of Sanford to help put over this project of such huge dimensions for, all of this time, so far as we can see.

Job Well Done

The job of national chairman of a major political party is not an easy one. Leonard Hall proved himself to be one of the most successful Republican chairmen in years. Twice he brought his candidate to victory.

There are indications that President Eisenhower will find a high place in government for Hall now that he has retired as chairman. If he can put his knowledge of politics, his gift for administration, his ability to encourage compromises, to as good use in government as he has in his party he will be able to render valuable service to the nation.

Doing it yourself can be a lot cheaper than having it done, even when you add the cost of time, material and bandages.

Library

eliminated in the discussions. Heads by Gen. J. C. Hutchinson, 18 members of the General Henry Shelton Sanford Memorial Library and Museum Committee attended the meeting.

The building and contents of the new library in Fort Mellon Park were insured for $50,000 in comprehensive insurance following a discussion of the item with costs ranging up to $7,431 per million dollars. However, Gen. Hutchinson revealed that the library and furniture, as well as other items which arrived in Sanford yesterday, were valued at approximately $1,000,000.

Commissioner Higginbotham asked: "Why should they be insured when some of the volumes, if stolen, could not be replaced? Who would get the money?"

Gen. Hutchinson told the Board of Commissioners that the "books, paintings and objects belong to the City of Sanford. We thought some nominal sum to cover the value of the building and contents would be sufficient."

Flood lights will be installed from the funds already on hand and the possibilities that the building will be wired with a burglar alarm system tied in with the Sanford Police Department's panel will be investigated.

Data for the windows are to be estimated, according to H. B. Pope, chairman of the association's building committee. However, cost for these, if found feasible, will be paid for from the committee's building fund.

C. R. Dawson reported to the Board of Sanford City Commissioners that the books in the library are in "excellent condition." He added, "I don't see how books could have been kept, some for over 300 years or older in such good condition. Some look as if they have never been touched."

The possibilities for securing a librarian will have to be discussed further with Rollins College and State University, according to Dr. J. B. Root. "I do not know what kind of salary they would demand or whether one is available or not," he said.

On a question from Mayor David Gatchel directed to Gen. Hutchinson: "Can you tell us of your plans relative to a full time librarian when the library is open to the public?" Gen. Hutchinson replied: "We have a committee to arrange the books and furniture. I hope that very soon we can recommend a librarian. Someone asked about this at a previous meeting — and I replied that the library belongs to the City of Sanford and it is up to the City to hire a librarian. The committee has been working toward carrying out the wishes of the City."

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham directed a question to Dr. Root — "Is there any possibility that you will be able to serve in that capacity (librarian)?"

C. R. Dawson answered for Dr. Root when he said "Dr. Root is very much interested in the library — but he cannot take the position. His Church does not like the thought to come up — his school does not like for the question to be asked — so his answer is No."

Gen. Hutchinson revealed that the Sanford Garden Club had been approached on the question of landscaping the grounds according to a landscape architect's plans that had been contributed to the committee. Mrs. Fred Ganas, president of the Garden Club has agreed to take over the project said Gen. Hutchinson and he agreed with the Board of Commissioners that cost for the landscaping would be paid from funds on hand.

Hendall Chase proposed that the $50,000 comprehensive insurance be secured for the building and contents, which the Commissioner approved for immediate coverage.

High Fever Follies Chairman D. Reede Arrives Yesterday

Dean Reeder of Cargill Producing Association arrived in Sanford Monday morning. Mrs. A. W. Epps Sr. met Reeder at the Greyhound Bus Station and escorted him to the Valdes Hotel where he will stay during the next three weeks. Reeder studied at the American Theatre Wing of Ohio State University, and is a native of Mount Vernon, Ohio. He has done theatre work in Philadelphia, Clinton Hollow, New York, and played the straw hat circuit in Detective Story with Wynonna Bessie, and Tom and Sympathy with Mary Fickett, who replaced Deborah Kerr. A veteran of the Navy, Reeder served in '31 to '33. He is unmarried.

As director for the High Fever Follies, Reeder will train the latest recruited from last night's talent party. The Cargill Organization will also supply all scripts and costumes. Reeder remarked that the general chairman, Mrs. Mike Stone, and all the committee had done an excellent job of organization, especially since a production of this sort has never been attempted in Sanford before. To quote "A wonderful job!"

When asked about his first impressions of Sanford, Reeder exclaimed about the friendliness of those he has met, and his delight in seeing that oranges really do grow on trees. This is his first trip to Florida, and after the hard winter New York has been having, it is hoped that the balmy weather will attract him again. Immediate plans for the Follies were discussed with Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Epps.

Mrs. Charles Cole, chairman of the Patron Committee of the High Fever Follies, announced today that patron tickets will be available to the general public. "It has been impossible," said Mrs. Cole, "to reach every one on the patron's list." Please contact one of the committee members if you wish to buy a patron's ticket, she said. Serving on the committee are Mrs. R. W. Jackson, Mrs. J. W. Hill, Mrs. J. Dooley, Mrs. R. N. Blackwelder, Mrs. A. E. Jewell, Mrs. H. N. Sawyer, Mrs. W. V. Blitting, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, and Mrs. R. ## Conring The News

BY VIRGINIA COONS

Mrs. Hazel Anderson called to ask all Navy bridge players to come down to the Duplicate bridge club, which is held at eight o'clock on Thursday nights at the Yacht Club. This coming Thursday the Navy will be guests—no charge. It is hoped that in the future Navy bridge friends will become regular members. The fee is exceedingly nominal ordinarily a master points tournament. I know we do have a lot of exceptionally good players here, so hope that many will take advantage of this generous opportunity.

The Class of '46, '47 gathered at Mike and Bob Stone's Saturday night for their monthly pot luck supper. Actually, it is a covered dish supper, but I have a new ribbon in the typewriter and hate erasures. Much fun was had by all as Mike had dreamed up some interesting games, and the highlight of the evening was the baby shower for Johnny Johnston, since it was his birthday. This switch caused much hilarity, and at this stage of the game, I'll bet Virginia would enjoy his taking over the whole production. During the course of the evening a round robin letter was written to Bob Metzger, who is in the Med. with VAIL-11. Welcomed into the group were Jean and Ernie Fritz. Attending were Lew and Marty Millspaugh, Sally and Howie Weight, Malita and John Barlow, Virginia and John Johnston Camille Metzger, Cliff and Rosemary Duncan, Anita and Bob Hadden, and Ollie and Mildred Loper and Jean and Ernie Fritz.

FRUITI-APPLE RICE PUDDING WITH ALMONDS

Here's a dessert with lots of favorite foods—maraschino cherries, apples, coconut and almonds. All these are combined in an apple juice-rice pudding mixture. Since the dessert cooks on top of stove, you don't have to have the oven on.

Rice is cooked to pudding consistency in apple juice. Then applesauce, maraschino cherries and coconut are added. Just before serving, whipped cream is folded in. Each serving is garnished with slivers of wonderful tasting toasted almonds.

FRUITI-APPLE RICE PUDDING WITH ALMONDS

INGREDIENTS:

1 cup uncooked white rice
3 cups apple juice
1 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup beet or cane sugar
1 1/2 to 2 cups canned apple sauce
1/4 cup sliced maraschino cherries
1 cup grated or flake coconut
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup whipping cream, chilled
1/2 cup slivered almonds, toasted

METHOD: Mix, together the rice, apple juice and salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Place over a high heat. When bubbles appear, stir well and turn the heat down. Cover and simmer about 40 minutes or until the rice absorbs the apple juice. Stir occasionally. Remove from the heat and allow to stand, covered, 10 minutes. Stir in the sugar. Cool slightly. Stir in the applesauce, maraschino cherries, coconut, vanilla and almond extract. Cover and chill.

Just before serving, whip the cream. Fold the whipped cream into the apple-rice mixture. Serve garnished with the toasted almonds. (Toast the almonds by placing them in a pre-heated 350°F. oven for about 15 minutes. Stir a small amount of butter or margarine through the almonds after they are hot.)

This recipe makes 8 to 10 generous servings.

Judge Is Sold On Gardening For Couples

CHICAGO — A common interest in flowers and vegetables can lead to a happier marriage according to a leading Illinois divorce judge.

Judge Julius Miner said the leading cause of divorce is that married couples have "nothing in common."

"Let them get out in their back yards and share the mutual interest of a vegetable garden and they'll be happier people," Judge Miner said.

Miner, a gardening man himself, also suggested that couples read together.

"Personally, I'd recommend books on gardening," he said.

ENCHANTED HARBOR

By DOROTHY WORLEY

CHAPTER 23

PEGGY stood on the deep porch watching the rain sweep down the street. The storm was not responsible for her dark mood. She had weathered several rather severe hurricanes and had no fear of them. Apalachicola took them in stride.

Peggy's mother came out on the porch. "Peggy, what on earth are you doing out here in all this dampness? Aren't you chilly?"

"No."

"Well, you shouldn't be out here, anyway. Why are you so restless? You've been walking around all morning. Why don't you get a book and sit down? Or play records. I've never known you to take hurricane weather seriously."

"It isn't the weather," Peggy said with a shrug. "I'm—I'm just bored."

Her mother looked at her in astonishment. "You've never been bored in your life. Is anything wrong?"

"I think I'd like to go away," she said. "I'm—I'm just bored."

"I thought you were so happy to be in Apalachicola this winter. I was, but—"

Peggy's voice stopped. It sounded as though she were about to cry.

"Thinking to divert her, her mother said. "Why don't you ask those two girls at the Glass cottage over for dinner some night? It would be a friendly gesture. I liked them both so much when I met them on the Silver Song."

The suggestion met with no response, and her mother said tentatively, "You don't like them?"

"Not particularly," Peggy said. "Oh, I don't dislike them. They're nice enough, I suppose. I just can't work up much enthusiasm over them. All I hear from Dick and Pete is Priscilla this and Priscilla that."

So that's it, her mother thought. "Isn't that partly your fault?" she said mildly. "You've kept them both dangling. You might make a party of it—ask the girls and Dick and Pete. You might also ask that nice man, Bill Duval, which would make it even . . . There comes Peter, now."

The old Ford shuffled to a stop. The rain had let up a little and Pete hopped out and dashed for the porch, holding a raincoat over his head.

He shook the raincoat, pitched it on a chair. "Think we're in for a pretty stiff blow. Hello, Aunt Susan."

Susan. Pete had always called Peggy's mother Aunt Susan. He added, "Think the worst is supposed to strike here around eight o'clock tonight."

"I've been trying to get Peggy to come inside, but she won't. Would you like some coffee?"

"Sure would. Thanks."

"What brings you out this time of the day in such weather?"

"I like such weather," Pete said cheerfully. "You know that I had intended looking at new cars today, but no chance now. I'm going to buy a new one."

Peggy said wistfully, "We've had a lot of fun in Lizzie. Isn't she anxious enough for Miss Paige to ride in?"

Pete looked at her for a long moment. "Take your claws in, honey-chile. You never used to show them. Frankly, I don't think the girls mind riding in Lizzie. What's the matter? Don't you like Priscilla?"

"That's the second time I've been asked today, I hardly know her." Then in a low voice more like herself, she said, "Am I supposed to like a girl who comes to town and takes both my boy friends?"

Pete lit a cigarette before replying. He blew a ring of smoke. "Then why haven't you made up your mind and kept one of us for yourself? It's dead certain you can't have us both—there's a law against it."

Fanny spoke from the doorway. "Y'all come on inside to drink this heah coffee. 'Tain't no weathah for sittin' in the swing on a low table, grumbling."

"Do, Fanny," Pete coaxed. "It isn't wet out here. The wind is the other direction."

Fanny brought chocolate cake and the coffee and put the tray on a low table, grumbling. "Oh, I don't know. Maybe to see my uncle in Washington. I'm getting bored."

"You? Bored in Apalachicola? Since when . . . Oh, I get it. You can't take it because someone else has temporarily taken the spotlight, and because Dick is showering attention on Priscilla. Well, don't worry too much about that. She'll be gone soon and Dick will be perked on your doorstep again, as often as you'll let him."

"And you, Pete?" Peggy inquired, sarcasm dripping from her words.

"I'm here now. And you don't give a darn whether I'm here or not."

"Maybe you stopped to get out of the rain. Maybe you were on your way to see Priscilla."

Pete laughed. "As a matter of fact, I was. This storm is supposed to get worse before it gets better—and they're liable to be scared to death. Besides, that little cottage isn't the safest place in town. I thought I'd go over and tell them what to do if it gets too bad."

"Well, don't let me keep you from your Boy Scout deed for the day."

"Don't tell me you're jealous of me. Or is that wishful thinking? I could do you a favor if you like. I can take up as much of her time as possible to keep Dick away."

"I thought that was what you'd been doing. But I don't care what you do. Either of you."

Pete moved the old creaking swing with his feet, swallowed the fragrant coffee, munched the chocolate cake. He seemed to be debating something.

"When I was a very small lad I pushed you around in your perambulator. I've been around more or less since and now it's you who're doing the pushing around and in a different way. I've been at your beck and call, seeing that you were never dateless, stepping aside for others, as I did when Dick Devereaux came to town. The girls all wanted him, were flattered by his attention, so of course you must be foremost. I couldn't let you be a back number in anything, even if it did put me in the background. I suppose if you had wanted the moon, I would have tried to get it for you. But I've decided it's time you made up your mind. And fast."

"Made up your mind about what?" Peggy asked, startled.

"Whether you want Dick or not. I won't help you get him but I'll clear out for good." Pete's voice was determined.

Team Goes To Cocoa For Tonight's Game

The revitalized Sanford Seminoles travel to Cocoa tonight to put their new unity to the crucial test. This will be the last game before the Seminoles swing to return engagements with teams they have faced previously in the season.

Cochs Bud Laver voiced hope for an upset tonight. He said the boys stayed together well enough, played calm enough, and their defense looked almost strong enough to begin adding a few more notches into the win ledger.

"We're hopin we can come through again," Laver said. "We've had some more time to put on our weaknesses and smooth out the rough spots since last Friday, and we're going to capitalize on our speed again."

He said, however, that Cocoa would have a lot of speed. "This boy Dave Williams is great," he remarked, "and we've got our hands full figuring out a defense for him."

Laver said he would not attempt a full court press because "we don't have the experience." He called attention to the attempted full court press during the Oviedo game in the Christmas tournament. During that period Oviedo made its most improvement with just down to earth basketball," he remarked, "and I'm not going to spoil it with a new shift to razzle-dazzle—even if it means winning to a tough team like Cocoa. It's been too hard to pull the team together and get them where they are, just to disregard it all with reckless abandon. We're still looking to the future."

From all indications the gamble of the mentoring staff has a brilliant chance for a bright future. Before the new trend in basketball thinking at SIS it wasn't out of the ordinary to see the Seminoles get beat by 30 points or more. 15 points has been the maximum since then.

Dick Silvers, JV mentor, said his battling baby warriors were in for another tough night with Cocoa. "The tremendous reserve strength of Brevard County, and Cocoa in particular, gives them the opportunity to field several teams with equal ability. We'll be relying on team unity, drive and desire to make it a good contest. I wouldn't even be surprised to see the boys get tired of losing and take this one."

Meantime, both coaches are intently trying to give the boys some method of overcoming their crying lack of basketball experience that shows so keenly in their defensive playing. "We can hope this will be another big one for us," Laver said, then remarked reflectively, "If only our defense holds together!"

President Warns Nation Of Dangers Of Mounting Inflationary Pressures

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower again warned a prosperous America today of the dangers of mounting inflationary pressures.

In his annual economic message to Congress, the President painted a gloomy picture of stage of the nation's economy.

He reported a record national output of 413 billion dollars, goods and services last year. Still, climbing, the output hit an annual rate of 434 billion in the final quarter of 1956.

But he coupled this favorable development with a stern lecture on the responsibilities of private firms and unions to help check threatening inflationary forces.

He warned again—as he did earlier in his State of the Union message to Congress Jan. 10—that continued prosperity depends largely on management and labor exercising restraint in wage and price boosts.

Mr. Eisenhower was cautiously optimistic about 1957.

"There are grounds for confidence that the nation's overall prosperity will be extended into the months ahead," he said.

He said prospects are good as to employment, earnings, consumer spending, government expenditures, business capital outlays, construction, foreign trade and investment.

Mentions Current Problems

"However, uncertainties and problems are always present in the economic situation and remain."

Local Girl Scout Fund Campaign Set Feb. 11-16

The first campaign for funds since becoming a member of the Citrus Council will be conducted by Seminole County Girl Scouts the week of Feb. 11-16. R. A. Cobb, chairman of the Seminole County Girl Finance Committee held yesterday.

Since becoming a part of the four-county council last June the number of Girl Scouts in Seminole County has more than doubled. Seven new troops have been organized and 26 leaders and auxiliaries look part in leadership training programs staged last Fall.

Funds in the coming campaign will share the operating cost of Citrus Council. The Seminole County portion of the budget earmarked for administration, leadership training, camping facilities and other overall costs is only $2,175 which is only 8 per cent of the total budget for the council, said Cobb.

The finance committee chairman pointed out that the growth of the number of Girl Scouts and units has been tremendous. Since last year when we had 142 girls and 7 troops we have grown to 213 Girl Scouts and 17 troops.

The four counties included in the Citrus Council Girl Scouts are: Seminole, Orange, Brevard, and Osceola. Orange County is responsible for 72 per cent of the annual budget. Brevard County 18 per cent, Seminole County 8 per cent, and Osceola County 3 per cent.

Cobb said that all of the funds raised will be used here within the four county council area. None of the money goes out of the area, he said. "Whatever you give, you may be sure it will directly benefit our youth—it will be a very real and worthwhile investment in the welfare of this community through its future leaders," he said.

Princess Grace Gives Birth To Girl Today

MONACO — Princess Grace of Monaco gave birth to a girl today and a nervous Prince Rainier announced the news to the world himself.

Princess Caroline Louise Marguerite was born at 9:27 a.m. 3:27 a.m. EST, during a heavy rainstorm.

The prince gave the news over Radio Monaco in his 2,300 subjects who are now guaranteed additional years of immunity from French taxes and the military draft.

The baby weighed 8 pounds, 3 ounces. She has blue eyes, like her mother, and brown hair.

Dr. Emile Herat, who officiated at the birth, said mother and child are doing fine, a palace spokesman said. Herat said labor began at 7 a.m. 1 a.m. EST and lasted just under 2 1/2 hours.

Had No Anesthetic

One of the four doctors who assisted in the delivery said Grace had less trouble than most mothers with their first-born. He said the princess took no anesthetic and was able to assist in the delivery. The birth was "remarkably normal and both mother and child came through in perfect condition," he said.

Rainier's announcement broke into a regularly-scheduled broadcast.

"I announce to you that on this Wednesday, Jan. 23 at 9:27 Princess Grace gave birth to a baby girl, Princess Caroline Louise Marguerite. I thank God that everything went all right."

The prince spoke in trembling, nervous French.

Monaco went wild at the news. People kissed one another in the rain-pelted streets. Champagne corks popped like punctured balloons. American flags and Monaco's red-and-white banner fluttered at almost every window.

Legislature Will Be Asked To Adopt Full Water Law

LEESBURG — The 1957 Legislature will be asked to adopt a comprehensive water law and wide powers to control Florida's water resources.

Byron E. Herlong of Leesburg, chairman of the Water Resources Study Commission, told the United Press his group has completed a study on the problem and will submit its recommendations about Feb. 1.

The report recommends that $200,000 be appropriated for the proposed new Department of Water Resources, to operate under the present Cabinet. The commission also recommended the hiring of a director of water resources. Herlong said the commission also is recommending that the new department be given injunctive powers and authority to hold public hearings.

Complaints Grievances Are Invited

Seminole Memorial Hospital Administrator Harry Weir, this morning, denied all of the implications made by County Commissioner Lawrence Swofford at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Seminole County Commissioners when he called for an investigation of the policies of the local hospital.

Weir said "The hospital is a community service and all persons connected with the hospital are dedicated to putting forth their best efforts in presenting the highest type of medical and hospital care."

In referring to the statements made by Commissioner Swofford at yesterday's commissioners meeting, Weir said "When charges are made against the hospital without securing all of the facts only harm can result," and he added "not to the hospital but to the community which it serves."

In answer to questions regarding the hospital's policies and records, Weir said "Anytime there are questions regarding hospital policies and procedures, whether they are directed by individual citizens or public officials, people who are really interested in helping the community should come to the hospital and secure the facts."

Slides Of Russia, Afghanistan Seen By Pilot Members

Members of the Pilot Club were delightfully entertained at their meeting in the Yacht Club last night by Miss Winifred Lovell, who showed colored slides of Russia and Afghanistan.

Miss Lovell, who just recently returned to the United States, has served for the past five years as secretary at the Consulate in Venice and as secretary to the ambassador to Afghanistan.

An interesting and informative talk was given by Miss Lovell which gave an insight into the ways and customs of the people in those countries. Of particular interest were the pictures of Russia which depicted the contrast in living conditions in the cities as compared to peasant surroundings.

Miss Lovell was introduced by Mrs. J. P. Hall, program chairman. Hostesses for the dinner which preceded the talk were Mrs. Al Hunt and Mrs. John Lambertson.

Mrs. Sue Stevenson presided over a short business session and welcomed Miss Dorothy Fourkors of Longwood as the club's newest member.

The club went on record as nominating David Gatchel as "Young Man of the Year" in the Jaycees sponsored contest. Mrs. Stevenson appointed Mrs. Joel S. Field to represent the Pilot Club at a meeting of civic clubs on Jan. 24 at which time Miss Sally Eastwood of Orlando will speak on behalf of a Community Chest in Sanford. Mrs. Stevenson will also attend the meeting.

An invitation was read for the newly organized Pilot Club in Palatka to attend its Charter Night program on Jan. 29.

Meeting Scheduled

A meeting of the Seminole Chiefs Club will be held tomorrow night at Seminole High School, according to John Schirard, president of the group.
