Soviets Zoom To '10-Year Lead' In Space

LONDON (UPI) - The Soviets are 10 years ahead of the United States in space use and experience - "almost out of sight" - while NASA is still reeling from the Challenger disaster. Jane's 1986 Spaceflight Directory said.

"The Soviet lead in space is now almost frightening." Jane's said.

The U.S. space shuttle Challenger exploded shortly after liftoff in January, killing all seven astronauts aboard.

Jane's said the "Challenger disaster ... (left) the U.S. faced with a bitter period of retrenchment, recrimination and reorganization. NASA is working on the basis that February 1987 is likely to be the earliest that resumption of shuttle flights can be expected," Jane's said.

"For all NASA's brilliant interplanetary successes ... (they) are now 10 years behind the Soviets in the practical utilization" of space, it

Jane's, which publishes a full range of authoritative publications, said the Soviets "are so far ahead of the U.S. in space experience that they are almost out of sight: the Soviet cosmonauts have clocked up more than 4,000 days in space, compared with the astronauts'

British scientist Reginald Turnhill, editor of the authoritative 600-page volume that was released Monday, said "excessive caution as much as excessive haste could have contributed to the Challenger disaster."

He noted that the shuttle was sitting on its Florida launch pad for several weeks "deteriorating in the worst of the winter weather" before the "flawed" decision to launch was made.

Turnhill also said the concept of the U.S. Strategic Defense Initiative, a space-based antimissile plan commonly known as "Star Wart." "could be positive if it stopped the nuclear terrorists of the future" and prevented small countries from launching nuclear attacks.

In an interview with United Press International. he said, "The super space powers may in the end conclude that a joint space defense system would threaten neither, and protect both East and West against the growing likelthood of irresponsible random nuclear attack from temporarily hostile smaller nations.

'Today's car-bomb terrorist will be operating in 10 years' time with nuclear-tipped missiles. The Soviets and the West will need 'Star Wars' for such an occasion where it is necessary to deal with irresponsible nations such as Libya or terrorism," he told UPI.

Turnhill said. "Despite their protests, the Soviets too have their own well-advanced 'Star Wars' program.

"The fact is that 'Star Wars' is a phony controversy. ... Space has always been militarized," he said.

Jane's said the United States once mistakenly identified the apparatus on Soviet spaceships as devices capable of destroying U.S. aircraft.

"The U.S. Defense Department deluded itself that Cosmos 1267 was an anti-satellite battle station equipped with clusters of infrared-homing guided interceptors that could destroy multiple U.S. aircraft," Turnhill wrote in his foreword.

"The gunports and podded miniature attack vehicles turned out to be cylindrical fuel tanks surrounded by the necessary plumbing." he said.

The Classic Machine

You don't see too many of these old-time Coke machines these days, but if you've a mind to, you can drop by Senkarik Glass and Paint Co. In Sanford to see how it works. The machine is more than 40 years old and orginally took a nickel to operate, then 10 cents. But don't get your hopes up. If you want a Coke, the owner will be glad to pull one out — for a quarter. Senkarik employee Larry Schreiber, Sanford, demonstrates. Bottles are placed into cylindrical spaces of mechanism constructed of galvanized metal. In center is a place for keeping other items cool.

Property Tax Cut Possible

By Karen Talley Herald Staff Writer

A property tax reduction is possible with Sanford's proposed 1986-87 budget, a result of last year's development of taxable city property, city commissioners were told Monday.

But, while Commissioner David Farr said he is in favor of the decrease, his four colleagues voiced no opinion.

year's $4.38 per $1,000 assessed property value, commissioners could plan to spend $134.453 more than proposed in City Manager Frank Faison's $15,948,543 budget plan. But they could still add $47,566 to the budget while reducing the tax rate to $4.17 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

Commissioners were told the Seminole County tax assessor's cut from 34 to 20 the number of estimate of their tax take under ear's rate but with the added property on the tax rolls during the first of three budget reviews Monday.

The taxable property figure will be certified by the tax assessor's office July 1.

Farr said he would like to see the city adopt the lower 84.17 rate and the accompanying $47,566 budget expansion. while Faison has recommended the city maintain its $4.38 rate and add the $134.453 in newly generated revenues to the Monday's review concentrated on staff salaries, and included a discussion of a pay raise for Falson that was tabled due to lack of commission consensus.

Yet to be taken up are departmental funding requests. including those pared by Falson in the budget he presented to commissioners last week. Faison new staff members requested by city departments during tast spring's budget preparation process.

Faison's budget proposal does. however, increase next year's departmental funding by $388,000 for police, $190,000 for fire, $98,000 for engineering and $63,000 for administrative services.

Accumulated revenues from last fall's utility rate hike and the increased property tax rate adopted for the $13.5 million 1985-86 budget provide the flnancial stability for Sanford to adopt a $16 million budget this year with departmental expansion and without a tax rate increase, Faison said. The paring Falson undertook to departmental funding requests includes a deletion of six percent merit raise. $400,000 sought by the parks Museum and Library.

$90,000 in 1986-87 funding Thomas. would be used as matching funds to comply with requirements for receipt of a grant from the Central Florida Capitol Fund Committee.

Both Mayor Bettye Smith and Commissioner John Mercer said museum funding in the 1986-87 the grant. Grant representatives surveyed the museum last week and said word of its placement on the committee's grant eligibility list will come early next month.

Falson's budget proposal also deleted Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett's $38,500 funding request for a mounted patrol. Harriett said he plans to discuss with commissioners the possibility of including the monies when they address the police department portion of the budget proposal either this afternoon or Wednesday.

Fatson has also budgeted for a four percent salary increase for all city employees. Some staff are slated for an additional 6.8 percent merit pay raise through job reclassifications.

The city manager position would also receive a four percent cost of living salary increase. and Mercer called on Monday for Falson to receive an additional Farr said he was uncomfortable with adding 10 percent to the city manager's $52,000 annual salary after his having been in the position for one year.

Farr also said in light of the "lean and mean" watchwords for the 1986-87 budget prepartation, providing Faison with a 10 percent increase might be "misunderstood" by some residents in light of last year's property and water and sewer tax increases.

Commissioners bandled several percentage figures about the table before calling for an end to the discussion as it became evident a consensus would not be reached. The matter will be raised during one of the budget reviews the commission has

Sanford Man Dies After Truck Crash

A 19-year-old Sanford man has died from injuries received in a June 5 accident near Longwood.

Charles Ruffin Jr., 319 Pecan Ave., died Sunday at South Seminole Community Hospital in Longwood. He had been in intensive care for treatment of internal injuries following the single-vehicle accident.

According to a Florida Highway Patrol report, Ruffin was driving west on State Road 434 at about 3:55 p.m. when he lost control of his truck at State Road 419.

The 1980 Ford pickup. owned by Ruffin's employer. Solar Tite, Inc., of Casselberry, hit a curb, a sign post and then a small tree. The truck hit a second tree 29 feet from the roadway, the report said.

Ruffin was not wearing a seatbelt and troopers report that there was apparently no alcohol use involved.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)

- The government said today that 11 people died during Monday's nationwide strike by up to 1.5 million blacks to mark the 10th anniversary of a black uprising that started in Soweto.

Blacks returned to work in force today but continued absenteeism was reported In some areas, including Durban, where about 40 percent of black employees stayed home for a second day.

Newspaper reports said about 1.5 million blacks struck to mark the anniversary.

Government spokesman Leon Mellet told a news conference in Pretoria today that authorities managed to prevent major violence on the anniversary of the June 16 uprising in 1976.

'Nowhere in the country was there one big mass of violence," he said.

Mellet said 11 people died in what he called "isolated incidents." pushing the death toll to 42 since President Pieter Botha invoked emergency rule on Mellet said at least two of those killed were shot by police in the Port Elizabeth townships of Kwazakele and New Brighton.

Two blacks were knifed and burned to death by other blacks in Kwandebele. north of Johannesburg, and two more in Daveyton. Blacks also were killed in Umlazi, Munsieville, Port Alfred, Fort Beaufort and Balfour, Mellet said.

He said the government's nationwide security clampdown prevented a major outburst of violence.

"Planned violence that the African National Congress worked so hard on did not materialize," he said. "The incidence of violence was nowhere near what was anticipated."

The Business Day financial newspaper, drawing on reports by employers and the independent Labor Monitoring group, put the total number of strikers at about 1.5 million.

Soweto residents sald traffic today out of the township of more than a million people was almost normal. Roadblocks and traffic checks were evident on the main access and exit roads. Buses picked up passengers under escort, and trains to Johannesburg were almost full. Monday, they carried less than a third of the usual commuters, and many bus stations were described.

In Cape Town, reporters said commuter traffic from black and mixed-race areas early today was normal.

But in Durban, Chamber of Commerce spokesman Ken Hobson said absenteeism was 40 to 50 percent among black workers today, and the Natal province Chamber of Industries said about 30 percent of factory workers did not report.

In a new restriction on the foreign media working out of South Africa, the government today barred live satellite television interviews.

Sakkie Burger, director of news at the state-run South African Broadcasting Corp., said the SABC was ordered by the government information bureau to relay only prerecorded material.

"The reason is to determine responsibility for what is broadcast outside South Africa," Burger said.

U.S. television producer Mike Gayshon said the government apparently wanted

AMA Says Liquor Warning Not Hypocritical

CHICAGO (UPI) - An American Medical Association officer fended off criticism the group is hypocritical for considering whether to recommend warning labels be placed on liquor while owning $1.4 million of stock in a liquor company. Some health groups have called the AMA's stance against alcohol hypocritical in light of the liquor stocks in its Members Retirement

Alcohol advertising and labeling are among the topics the AMA's House of Delegates will debate beginning today as all 388 members policy. Delegates met in committee and said Monday he did not want it Monday to decide which of more than 100 resolutions and reports would make it to the full house.

Also on the agenda for today and Wednesday are proposals for a complete overhaul of the Medicare system, guidelines concerning AIDS and school children, and several resolutions concerning smoking in public places.

Dr. Robert McAfee, a member of the AMA Board of Trustees, called the controversy over the liquor stock meet to determine official AMA Plan "more than a little overblown" to distract from the public health issue at hand.

The AMA is not trying to ban alcohol. McAfee noted, but only to curtall its abuse. He said the AMA's position on this was different from its stand on tobacco because while alcohol can be used in moderation without ill effect. "there is no purpose in society for tobacco."

As of the end of fiscal 1985, the $72 million retirement plan had invested $1.4 million in Joseph E. in the AMA Members Retirement Seagram & Son Inc., of New York.

one of the world's largest distillers and the second largest winemaker in the United States.

John Turner, director of investments for the AMA, said while it is true the retirement plan has such holdings, the AMA has no control over them.

"The assets of the membership retirement plan belong exclusively to the plan participants, and the AMA cannot dictate the contents of that portfolio," Turner said. "Those decisions are made by the Bank of New York."

Judge Orders $12 Million Of Marcos Assets Frozen

LOS ANGELES (UPI) - A federal judge has frozen nearly $12 million in property belonging to ousted Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos until a lawsuit accusing him of bilking his country of $1.55 billion can be tried.

The restraining order was the first legal step in a $54.6 billion racketeering lawsuit filed Monday by the government of President Corazon Aquino against the deposed Philippine leader.

The new government is also trying to seize properties in New York and Texas that may be owned by Marcos.

Lawyers for Aquino's government requested the court order to stop Marcos from disposing of or hiding the assets before a trial on the lawsuit, which accuses Marcos of looting his country of $1.55 billion during his 20-year rule.

Monday's order covers a $4 million home in Beverly Hills, $797,000 in currency in a bank account under the name of former first lady Imelda Marcos, and jewelry worth an estimated $7 million that the Marcoses carried with them after they fled the Philippines on Feb. 25 into exile in

Dutch To Open Agent's Grave

ROTTERDAM, Netherlands (UPI) - Dutch authorities ordered the grave of the notorious World War II traitor "King Kong" opened today to determine if the body buried there is really that of the Nazi double agent.

Authorities said they would open the grave at dawn today. The action was prompted by recent research indicating that Christiaan Lindemans, alias King Kong, might not have committed suicide in 1946.

"Many people, particularly in the resistance, want to know for sure," Rotterdam Mayor Bram Peper said in ordering the body exhumed. "We want to put their minds to rest."

The exhumation, Peper said, would answer two questions: "Is there a body there, and is it Lindemans?"

History records that Lindemans committed suicide in a Dutch prison in 1946. But amateur historian Willem Tiemens speculated Lindemans was either killed to avoid a trial at which testimony damaging to the Dutch royal family might have surfaced, or escaped death and could be Tiemens said his research led him to believe that the person buried in Lindemans' grave was not the Nazi agent but a Palestinian shopkeeper who died the same day Lindemans allegedly committed suicide and whose body was reported missing.

Gorbachev Says Summit Possible

MOSCOW (UPI) - Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev accused the Reagan administration of "militarist blackmail" but said he was still prepared to meet President Reagan in a second superpower summit later this year.

"We are for a dialogue with Washington. We are not slamming shut the door. A new meeting with the President of the United States is possible but clearly, this requires such an atmosphere that would open up prospects for the attainment of real agreements." Gorbachev told a plenary meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee.

"And how is the United States administration acting? It sabotages the disarmament talks, states its intention to stop abiding by the SALT 2 treaty ... and (takes) such actions throughout the world which still further aggravate international relations.

'The lawful question arises, do they in Washington really want a new meeting? Or is talk about it simply an attempt to delude the world public opinion?" Gorbachev

Gorbachev said the Soviet Union would respond to any U.S. nuclear buildup with a buildup of its own and pledged. "We shall never allow U.S. nuclear missile superiority."

OTTAWA (UPI) - Prime Minister Brian Mulroney. speaking on the eve of historic free-trade negotiations between the world's largest trading partners, said there would be no deal with the United States unless it meant jobs and greater prosperity for Canada.

Mulroney, in his first televised national address since being elected in September 1984, said the negotiations starting today and aimed at allowing free trade between the two nations represented a "turning point in the life of our

The challenge of the trade initiative, Mulroney said, was security of access to the "biggest, richest market in the world." He admitted, however, that any free-trade deal struck with the United States would have to be phased in over a period of years.

Meanwhile. Canadian trade negotiators told reporters Monday there was a "significant" risk of failure that would have major economic implications for the country.

Afghan Rebels Seek More Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Reagan told U.S.-backed Afghan rebel leaders that the administration "will not let you down," but for now has declined to recognize the resistance movement as the government of Afghanistan.

In a statement, Reagan told the visitors: "Your goal is our goal: the freedom of Afghanistan. We will not let you down,' Burhanuddin Rabbani, the current leader of the resistance coalition, said in a written statement the resistance needs "more military and nonmilitary support" and called on "freedom-loving people throughout the world to cut off diplomatic, political and economic ties to the puppet regime and to recognize us as the legitimate representatives of the Afghan people.

ficials with the Federal Aviation Administration said it may take several weeks to determine what caused the crash of a television traffic helicopter that killed two people and critically injured a third.

David Richardson, news director at Channel 12, said there was no advance warning that the chopper was about to go

"There was no indication from the helicopter that there was anything going on out of the ordinary," he said. "Everything seemed fine with the people on board.

"The first indication we had of something wrong was when we could see from the on-air video that the helicopter was spinning out of control to the right."

Richardson said.

"At first, we just thought they were having video difficulties." Richardson said. "But then, you they were totally out of control. The helicopter was spinning wildly to the right and the landscape (in the pictures) was whizzing by.'

Eyewitness reports indicated that the pilot-side door of the chopper flew off just before the craft hurtled to the ground and the intersection of Interstate 10 and Interstate 95 on the west side of Jacksonville.

AIDS Victim Denied Benefits, Insulted

MIAMI (UPI) — Social Security officials said they did not understand why an AIDS victim was advised to return to work in a gay bathhouse — a job he had held more than two years ago.

Damien Scot, 36, said he is outraged that the letter he received from the Social Security office rejecting his application for disability benefits told him to return to his job as manager of a health club. "Based on the description of two years, manager of a health club, you should be able to return to that job," said the Social Security form letter he received, telling him his condition was not severe enough to receive benefits.

In many cities, gay health clubs have been closed because of the possibility that AIDS could be contracted by customers or employees.

Social Security allows state health officials to screen disability claims using federal guidelines, said Jim Brown, a spokesman for the Social Security office in Baltimore, which handles disability claims.

AIDS is not specifically included in Social Security's disability guidelines, but AIDS victims are eligible for disability benefits if medical records indicate their condition is as severe as that of patients with an illness listed in the guidelines.

The letter should simply have said the applicant appeared able to perform the work he had done before, Brown sald.

Beating Death Prompts Trial Of Two Playmates

WEST PALM BEACH. (UPI) -Attorneys for two playmates charged with manslaughter in the 1984 beating death of a 6-year-old retarded child will present defense arguments today before a juvenile court judge.

Palm Beach County Judge Emery Newell heard testimony from state witnesses Monday including preteen schoolboys in sneakers and blue jeans - on the death of Torrence Davis. The state rested its case in midafternoon.

Davis died Nov. 26, 1984, of heart and liver damage. He had been playing in Pleasant City Park in West Palm Beach the day before and was scuffling with other boys, records show. Davis suffered from learning. hearing and speech disabilities.

Two boys, now ages 12 and 14, are charged with manslaughter and aggravated battery in the death.

The trial began Monday, Testimony from the school-age witnesses about the playground scuffling was contradictory and spotty.

A 12-year-old boy, against whom prosecutors dismissed charges last week, said Davis climbed up a slide, and that the two boys now on trial followed

"Anthony told him to go down the stairs because he might get hurt. (They) swung him, he hit the ground and started crying," the 12-year-old testified. The child later denied to a defense lawyer, Cathleen Brady, that he previously told investigators a different story. He told Brady her questioning confused him.

Another boy, 8, testifying later, confirmed the two boys on trial tossed Davis off the slide.

"They swinged him off," the 8-year-old said.

sliding board," the 8-year-old

The 8-year-old then testified that he saw his 14-year-old playmate kick Davis off the slide. "He kicked him from the steps," the 8-year-old said. Davis left the park late in the afternoon and went home with his mother, Florence Ellison. She testified that he seemed fine and said nothing about a fight in the park.

"Some things he didn't understand. Some things he could say, some things he couldn't," said Ellison, 22.

The 6-year-old atc only a bit of his dinner, watched television and vomited. His mother put him to bed around 11 p.m. The next morning, she tried to wake "I went in his room, shook him, and he wouldn't move," Ellison said. Doctors said he had probably been dead for a couple of hours. Dr. John Marraccini, deputy county medical examiner. testified Davis died from blows to the body that caused his heart and liver to rupture.

He said the sac around the heart filled with blood and popped three to eight hours after he was beaten. The medical examiner's office could not determine the precise time of death.

Marraccini said the boy was either kicked or struck, causing bruises and fractures to the ribs.

He said the boy had old scars indicating past abuse. Ellison testified she never beat her son. but said her former boyfriend hit young Davis repeatedly a year before the park incident.

Japanese-American Awarded Diploma - 44 Years Late

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI) - A teacher who was banned from her graduation in 1942 because of her Japanese ancestify returned to the University of Oregon to receive her diploma and recall the "dark time" of World War II.

"Mine is not a singular story," Micho Yasul Ando. 65. told 15,000 people Sunday at commencement exercises. "I represent 120,000 people who were denied rights as American citizens due to unreasonable hysteria."

"I cannot forget the events of 44 years ago." she said. But time has mellowed me and I am no longer embittered."

Ando, a native of Hood River, Ore., was the only Japanese-American in the 1942 graduating class at the university. Her family had been sent to a wartime relocation camp for Japanese. Americans, but she was allowed to complete her degree in English if she observed certain restrictions.

The restrictions included a curfew that prevented her from attending the evening commencement. The university sought permission for her to attend with a chaperone, but the Civil Control Administration denied the appeal.

Not knowing about the effort on her behalf, and fearing she would also be sent to a relocation camp, Ando boarded a bus and went to Colorado a few days before school ended. Colorado was then a free zone for Japanese-Americans.

On Sunday, at the invitation of university officials who recently learned of her story. Ando received her diploma to a standing ovation.

"I have come home again,"

Among those in the audience were 22 members of Ando's family, some of whom were interned during World War II.

"The contrasts in my life defy description." said Ando. who has taught first grade in Denver public schools for 24 "Then, I was truly a sad and lonely coed feeling wronged and in anguish because my life had been violently disrupted. It was a dark time. "Today, it is a joyous time for me and my family. We feel it is a beautiful gesture that the university has made to ask me to particpate in commencement.' University President Paul

Olum presented her with a diploma found in school archives that matched the documents handed out in 1942. Olum said that denying

Ando her diploma "was a sad event and in its own small way, a bitter symbol of the terrible injustice done to all Japanese-Americans in 1942. "It is a part of the evil of war that it creates among the people of the land a kind of unreasoning hysteria, a great loss of good sense and ordinary human compassion and understanding," he said. The incident came to public light recently when Keith Richard, a university archivist, found correspondence in a file asking that the curfew be waived so Ando could particpate in her commencement.

Richard brought the case to the attention of other university officials who contacted Ando and invited her to receive the diploma.

State Attorney Wants Vampire Rapist Sentenced To 40 years

TITUSVILLE, (UPI) - A Brevard County circuit court judge has been asked to exceed state guidelines in sentencing John Brennan Crutchley, who held a California woman captive 22 hours while raping her and drinking her

At a sentencing hearing Monday, State Attorney Norm Wolfinger said the convicted "vampire" rapist should go to prison longer than the maximum 17 years guidelines would allow for Crutchley's confessed crimes of kidnapping and sexual battery.

"He was like a cat playing with a mouse," Wolfinger said. "Her life was hanging from a string, and he held the string. This was outrageous, bizarre behavior. This is a defendant who is full of fantasies."

Crutchley, 39, of Malabar pleaded guilty in April to one count of kidnapping and three counts of sexual battery in the attack on a 19-year-old woman from the Los Angeles

In exchange for the guilty plea. Wolfinger dropped charges of aggravated battery and possession of marijuana brought against Crutchley following his arrest. A charge of theft by stealing the victim's blood also was dropped.

Tax Bill Changes Predicted By Dole

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Senate challenges to the bill. Republican leader Robert Dole senators may try to attach more special tax breaks to the tax this week.

Dole, of Kansas, told reporters he expected there would be a number of senators who would push what they believed were "legitimate transition rules" as amendments to the bill in the next two days.

The so-called transition rules are special tax breaks designed to help specific companies of projects cope with new tax laws.

Sen. Howard Metzenbaum. D-Ohio, has launched a campaign against the provisions and last week successfully pushed an amendment climicating a part of the bill that would have given a $50 million tax break to a California-based off company.

The special tax breaks in the Senate bill are worth about $5.5 billion in five years, while the House bill's transition rules are worth about $25 billion.

Dole said Monday he still hoped to have the Senate finish work on the radical tax plan by late Tuesday, However, a number of amendments that could prompt lengthy debate, even if they have little chance of approval, are pending.

Thus far, sponsors of the bill, heeding the "no-amendment" strategy of Dole and Finance Committee Chairman Bob Packwood, R-Ore., have suc- of the tax burden on the ceeded in beating back all major > Dole and Packwood have contended that any major alteration to the bill could cause the entire measure to fall apart.

Their toughest challenge came on the amendment to restore IRA tax deductions, which they defeated 51-48 last Wednesday.

That group now shows no signs of breaking up and Packwood has said he expects the bill to pass by midweek and be sent to a conference with the House. Leaders of both parties have said the vote could be

Whose Camp Are You In?

Whose camp are you in? The camp of patriotic Austrians, led by former U.N. Secretary General Kurt Waldheim? Or the camp of the Socialists, abetted by the World Jewish Congress?

The Austrians, to whom this rather biased question was put by Waldheim's party, voted overwhelmingly to elect Waldheim president. Former Nazi youth party member Waldheim's pledge: to return moral vigor to

And so Austria, birthplace of Adolf Hitler and intellectual home of Sigmund Freud, makes history by repressing its memory of Austria's Nazi party. And the world, led by the Soviet Union, sends its congratulations. Except Israel, where a humble grocery clerk mutters accusations about an incident that the world would rather forget.

The clerk remembers a young, tall Nazi officer with a prominent nose coming to his village to round up Greek Jews and ship them off to a concentration camp. The Jews were forced to remove their gold jewelry to pay for their deportation. When the clerk's brother was ordered to carry the baskets of gold for the officer, he failed to understand the German command. So the officer beat him on the head with a round club. The officer, says the clerk, pointing at the television, is Kurt Waldheim.

Is the clerk mistaking Waldheim for another man? His brother can't corroborate the account, because he died in a slave labor camp.

Waldheim's memory of his part is fuzzy. For years it slipped his mind that he served as a German Army officer in the Balkans. In his autobiography he had himself studying law in Austria at the time. A minor forgetting. considering how many momentous memories Waldheim has had since at the pinnacle of diplomacy. But when Waldheim ran for Austrian president, Yugoslavia unearthed some questions about his past. A photograph of Waldheim standing on a tarmac in uniform with German generals responsible for slaughters of civilians jogged his memory.

Ah, yes, I was there, Waldheim admitted. But I did nothing wrong. I knew nothing.

So Waldheim wrapped himself in the American flag and presented his accusers as a conspiracy of Jews and Socialists.

And the Austrians responded to the call. It didn't hurt, of course, that the Socialists had been in power continuously since the war and had alienated the voters.

Is it more disturbing that Waldheim lied about his past? Or that the Austrians joined him in wanting to forget it?

A former Yugoslavian Intelligence chief says his government turned over to the Soviet Union evidence implicating Waldheim in war crimes. The Soviets never acted officially on it. But did the Soviets use the information over the years to blackmail Waldheim?

As much as many would like to repress their memories of the war, the world must not forget the Holocaust. Accusations concerning Waldheim's possible role in Nazi slaughters and deportations in the Balkans should be investigated fully and impartially, until the facts come out and the charges are either proven or laid to rest.

On election day, a tall, dignified man in a tailored suit beamed above a bouquet of flowers. Forgotten in the streets of Vienna, where Hitler nursed his fanatic hatred of Jews and Freud pioneered his theory of psychological repression, hung a few posters.

"Kurt Waldheim - Austria is in your camp." they said.

Which camp is that? The camp of moral renewal, triumphing over a "conspiracy" of Socialists and Jews? Or of immoral psychological repression of another camp, far way, where Greek Jews were sent to die?

Don't Fire Until You See Color Of Manicures

WASHINGTON (UPI) - It was reported the other day that a deputy sheriff in Maryland had lost her job because of trigger finger weakness. That element of physical fitness can be a problem for male, as well as female, law enforcement officers. All deputies should be able to fire all weapons at all times. But some lack the strength to pull the trigger.

In the case of which I speak, a member of the state's police training commission was unable to shoot, with just one finger, a newly issued 9mm pistol. Her aim, apparently, was strictly second-

We all have heard of the gang that couldn't shoot straight, but a gangster, or a deputy, who can't shoot at all is in even deeper trouble.

One problem is the lack of specific exercises designed to put our trigger fingers in shape. It is difficult to embark on a finger fitness program with getting the rest of the body in good condition as well.

Jogging, for example, may do wonders for our finger muscles. But it also is inclined to trim fat from our legs, stomachs, chests, shoulders and heads. Which can ruin the image of a good deputy.

What is needed, and needed badly, are some finger calisthenics.

We could, of course, let our fingers do the walking through the Yellow Pages, but mine seldom get past the restaurant ads. Which may be one reason I have overweight fingers.

Musical exercises, such as running the scales on pianos and other instruments, do little more than limber up our fingers. Most of our fingers are supple enough already.

We generally have no trouble curling our fingers around triggers. The difficulty lies in pulling them. The triggers, that is.

What this situation calls for is a special physical fitness program that would tone up and develop finger muscles while leaving our breath. cardiovascular system and other parts of the anatomy to fend for themselves.

For me, these prayers were essentially answered recently when I joined a health club that specializes in finger workouts. I simply enrolled in one of the "digiticize" classes.

The instructor, a former Maryland deputy sheriff, is marvelous.

Rather than furnish patrons with exercise tubs and whiripool baths into which sweaty bodies can be plunged, this club passes around finger bowis after classes. Furthermore, you can let your fingers splash around for as long as you please without extra

The classes themselves are practically guaranteed to whip your fingers into good enough shape to pull the trigger on nearly any pistol. rifle or shotgun.

But you have to be conscientious about exercising your fingers. Cursory calisthenics won't get the job done.

Also always keep in mind that, triggerwise, musclebound fingers are almost as bad as lack

Should you lack the will, rather than the strength, to pull a trigger, that is another problem.

Don't forget the ammo.

Trade, Punitive Taxes

Despite adminstration assurances that the trade situation will improve, the nation's trade deficit problem is worsening steadily. Just about the time the President cited the "success" of the Tokyo economic summit, economist Steven Cerier of Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. reported that "Japan's surplus in its trade with the U.S. will hit at least $60 billion this year as compared to around $50 billion in 1985.

On top of this depressing news comes word of the Senate Finance Committee "tax reform" bill. According to a Prudential-Bache spokesman. "the Japanese could not have written a better bill.'

The "tax reform" bill is good news for the Japanese because It will strike a heavy blow at new. high-technology venture capital firms and at established industries already reeling from Japanese targeting offensives. Japanese toods will lace less competition.

According to William R. Hawkins. economics analyst for the U.S. Business and Industrial Council, the "obvious losers" under the new tax plan are "capital intensive industries in dynamic fields where new equipment and research are a must to remain competitive, and in industries which are in a depressed condition." Many of these are industries in fierce competition with Japan, Inc.

G.N. Hatsopoulos, Chairman of Thermo Electron of Waltham, Mass., writing in The Wall Street Journal, points out that high technology industries provide no refuge in the trade battle. "The Japanese," he said, "are now actively targeting such industries for special marketing, research and development, and investment support. Just as they have done in the past with steel, automobiles and other basic industries.

Mr. Hatsopoulos went on to say that the "proposed tax reform legislation is likely to retard capital formation and further slow U.S. progress in this area."

It is tragic that the Senate Finance Committee acted with such haste in approving a plan which is anticapital formation. The American people cannot afford that type of tax plan, especially in view of the colossal and growing trade deficit with Japan. The serators on the committee should have borne in mind that Japan's national savings rate is much higher than America's, and that Japan's financial and political environment is much more favorable to investment.

Evangelist Clouds Issue

WASHINGTON (NEA) - Televi- on the precinct level and then go on sion evangelist Marion "Pat" Robertson has still not announced his candidacy for the 1988 GOP presidential nomination, but his potential presence is starting to influence the contest.

Robertson is becoming the focus of the growing power of fundamentalist Christians in Republican politics, and his possible candidacy is already affecting the early moves of Vice President George Bush and Rep. Jack Kemp.

Where all his opponents are spending months and millions of dollars building up campaign organizations and grass-roots support. Robertson has an extensive national organization already in existence: a combination of "The 700 Club," his own evangelical network and the network of fundamentalist churches throughout much of the South and Midwest.

Organization, especially grassroots organization, is of much greater importance to a Republican seeking the presidential nomination in 1988 than to a Democrat. Several key Republican states - Iowa and Minnesota for example - have a precinct caucus system. In this system a candidate who can turn out a couple of dozen people in every precinct in a congressional district can control that district. If he can control enough districts he will end up with a majority of a state's delegates to the national nominating convention.

Most of the candidates have to go into these precinct caucus states and build a grass-roots organization from scratch, competing with other candidates for the hearts of party activists who will get out and vote to district and statewide meetings and continue to vote.

Pat Robertson doesn't have to build his own, separate grass-roots backing. All he need do is go to the many fundamentalist churches and he will find a ready supply of politically active people who will flood the precinct caucus.

This is already happening. Of all 50 states, the most complex nominating procedure for 1988 is in Michigan. There, on Aug. 5 of this year, voting will be held at the precinct level, beginning what amounts to a long process to choose the state's 77 GOP national convention delegates.

George Bush and Jack Kemp spent months recruiting potential nominees friendly to them. Robertson, through his quasi-religious "Freedom Council," simply went to Michigan's many fundamentalist churches.

The Freedom Council, backed by an estimated $300,000 budget, used a network of pastors and small churches to turn out what it estimates as about 4,500 of the 9.600 persons who filed nominating petitions. If this number proves correct, Robertson has gained a tremendous advantage towards eventually getting a majority of Michigan's delegates, if he decides

(It should be noted that the Bush camp is claiming that half of the 9,600 nominees are theirs, and the Kemp camp is claiming more than 3,000. This means either they can't count, they are inflating their numbers or some petition filers have promised their hearts to more than one candidate.)

Treating Water Retention

By Rob Stein UPI Science Writer

BOSTON (UPI) - A woman appears to be recovering normally after undergoing minor surgery to repair a ligament torn during aerobics class when she suddenly suffers a scizure, stops breathing and lapses into a coma.

Doctors are baffled but suspect she may be suffering from hyponatremia, a condition in which the body retains too much water. As many as 1 percent of all hospitalized patients may be affected this

In most cases the condition never becomes serious. But some researchers believe hyponatremia may be responsible much more frequently than commonly believed in mysteriously causing brain damage and even death among otherwise heathly patients.

Dr. Allen I. Arieff of the University of San Francisco recently published a study in The New England Journal of Medicine describing the cases of 15 women who were stricken after undergoing elective surgery.

Two were left with permanent paralysis, nine women were left in a permanent vegetative state and four women, including the woman from the aerobics class, died.

Arieff contends the condition could have been prevented if doctors simply gave infusions of salt water to patients who undergo surgery on a routine basis and carefully monitored the salt concentrations in their blood.

Salt water helps the body maintain a normal balance of water.

Dr. Richard H. Sterns of the Rochester General Hospital in Rochester, N.Y., however, is among a group of doctors who believe the infusion of salt at too high a rate may actually worsen the condition.

"I'm not convinced by his argument," said Sterns, referring to Ariest during a recent telephone In the same edition of the journal.

Sterns cited the cases of eight patients he said showed that salt transfusions can draw water out of the brain too quickly, actually causing severe trauma.

"Our concern is when you treat this with large volumes of salt solutions you might cause even more damage," said Sterns.

Dr. Robert G. Narins of the Temple University Health Science Center in Philadelphia, in an editorial accompanying the studies. called for more research to clarify the Issue.

Nixon Back, Watergate Never Left

By Jack Anderson And Joseph Spear

WASHINGTON - Fourteen years after the "third-rate burglary" that led to the first presidential resignation in history. Richard Nixon has emerged once again on the national scene as a respected confidant of President Reagan. He has gone from the cover-up of Watergate to the cover of Newsweek, his status as an unindicted co-conspirator conveniently ignored by the revisionist pop historians.

But if Nixon does have the nine lives of a cat, it must be a black one. Evidence continues to bubble to the surface that Nixon brought misfortune to the American public when he set out to engineer his re-election in 1972 by whatever means necessary.

One still-unresolved mystery of the Watergate scandal involved Greek-American businessman Thomas Pappas. An investigator for the Watergate special prosecutor concluded in a report that Pappas who admittedly cooperated with the CIA "anytime my help was requested" - was the conduit for illegal contributions to the Nixon-Agnew re-election campaign from Greek businessmen in 1972. He had performed the same service in 1968. funneling money to the Nixon-Agnew campaign from the Greek military junta, according to House Intelligence Committee testimony in 1976 by the former U.S. ambassador in Athens, Henry Tasca.

Since the Greek junta's central intelligence service was not only the source of the funds sent to the Nixon-Agnew campaign via Pappas, but was itself being subsidized by the CIA, this meant that the American spy agency was indirectly contributing to the Republican

Documents prepared by the special prosecutor's staff and recently discovered in their files by

Greek journalist Elias Demetracopoulos indicate that Pappas had also solicited at least $25,000 for the Nixon-Agnew campaign from a Greek businessman who subsequently was awarded a fuel contract for the U.S. Sixth Fleet.

The prosecutors stopped short of calling the campaign contribution a quid pro quo for the fuel contract, but they did note that the Pentagon had received lower bids for the fuel. Pappas' own company was given a sub-contract.

Pappas was also suspected by prosecutors of contributing some of the money demanded by the seven men arrested for the June 17, 1972. burglary at the Watergate offices of the Democratic National Committee. He told prosecutors, however, that the only money he had provided was a $50,000 personal loan to Attorney General John Mitchell to buy an apartment.

"Some documentary evidence indicates that those involved in the cover-up may have expected funds for it from Pappas," one special prosecutor report says. Notes selzed from convicted Watergate figure Dwight Chapin referred to a meeting with Pappas and contained the cryptic notation: "7." The prosecutors said: "We have no explanation of the meaning of this notation. although it has been suggested that there were seven (original) Watergate defendants."

Indeed, one of the many references to Pappas on White House tape transcripts during the cover-up period was this one by Nixon: "I think it's a matter of fact, though, that somebody said be sure to talk to Pappas because he's being very helpful on the, uh, Watergate thing."

And when White House counsel John Dean asked Mitchell if he had asked Pappas for money for the burglars' defense, Mitchell replied that he had.

Cardinal's Defense Upends Sunniland

Herald Sports Writer

Willie Williams and Terry Williams didn't exactly make any noise at the plate Monday night. In fact, the Williams, who are not related, were O for 4 combined.

But what catcher Willie Williams and left fielder Terry Williams did in the field made them the unsung heroes of Cardinal Industries' 2-1 victory over Sunniland in the opening game of the Sanford City Championship Series before 201 fans at Fort Mellon Park.

Willie Williams let nothing get by him behind the plate as he committed no passed balls while Cardinal scored what turned out to be the winning run on three Sunniland passed balls. Each time a Sunniland runner reached base, Williams was more determined not to let anything past him and Sunniland had to earn every base it took.

Terry Williams saved what could have been disaster in the top of the fifth when he made a lunging stop of a ball headed for the left field corner. If the ball had gotten by Williams, at least one run and perhaps two runs would have scored.

The best of three City Championship Series resumes tonight at 6:30 at Fort Mellon Park. Britt Henderson is expected to be on the mound as Cardinal tries to close out the series. Sunniland could go with either Don-Hunt. Richard Petterson or Tyrone Chibberton as it tries to stay alive.

Monday night's game was dominated by pitching and defense as Cardinal starter and winner Anthony "Redman" Roberts held Sunntland to just two hits while Sunniland's David Dunn held Cardinal to only three. Cardinal committed just one error in the game as did Sunniland.

"Both teams played really well tonight." Cardinal manager Otis

Baseball

Raines said. "Both pitchers did their iobs and the defense did a good job backing them up."

After Roberts set Sunniland down in order in the top of the first, Cardinal Industries did all of its scoring in the bottom half. Jamie King beat out an infleld single to lead off and moved to second on a passed ball. Dunn retired the next two hitters before Matt Wilk lined a double off the fence in right center to drive in King. It was the third double in the last two games for the hard-hitting Wilk. Wilk then moved to third on a passed ball and scored on another passed ball for a 2-0 Cardinal lead.

Sunniland came back with one run in the top of the second to pull within 2-1. Dunn drew a walk to lead off, took second on a wild pitch and, with one out, moved to third on Chibberton's groundout. Ned June then came through with a big two-out single up the middle to score Dunn.

Both teams had runners in scoring position in the third frame but couldn't capitalize. For Sunniland, Derrick Brinson led off with a walk and took second on a wild pitch, but Roberts then struck out the next three hitters. For Cardinal, Henderson rapped a two-out single to right. Roberts reached on an error and the two moved up on a passed ball. Dunn reached back and struck out the next hitter to end the inning.

Sunniland didn't threaten again until the top of the fifth. With one out, Brinson drew a walk and Hunt then drilled a grounder that went between the legs of Cardinal third baseman Leroy Kitt. The ball was headed toward the left field corner when Terry Williams made a nice stop and gunned the ball back into the infield where Brinson, who had taken a wide turn at second, was thrown out by Roberts. Quinn Byrd then popped up to short for the third out.

"That was our chance right there." Sunniland manager Skip Mitchell said of the fifth inning. "He (Brinson) hesitated at second instead of going straight to third. That's the breaks. though. We have to be ready now when we come out tomorrow (Tuesday) night."

After Cardinal came up empty in the bottom of the fifth. Roberts retired the middle of the Sunniland lineup in order in the top of the sixth to end the game. For the game, Roberts struck out 10 and walked just three.

Dunn, on the other hand, allowed no runs on one hit after the first inning. He struck out seven, walked none and hit one batter.

The final game, however, won't be played until Wednesday, June 25.

The victim in both losses Saturday was Hughes Construction, which went into the game without a loss in the playoffs. Seminole Suzuki handed Hughes its first loss, 6-3, and Lake Mary Rotary then eliminated Hughes Construction, 7-4.

Jon Eltonhead pitched the first six innings for Lake Mary Rotary, allowing seven hits, striking out four and walking just two. Mike Senechek pitched the seventh inning for the save.

Culverhouse: Bo Must Decide Monday

Monday may become decision day for Auburn's Bo Jackson whether he likes it or not. Tampa Bay owner Hugh Culverhouse said that he will reduce his offer to the team's No. 1 draft choice if he has not decided between football and baseball by Monday.

Jackson, who is also the No. 4 selection of the Kansas City Royals in the major league free agent draft, has been noncommital on whether his future lies on the gridiron on the diamond.

Culverhouse has said on numerous occasions that he will make Jackson the "richest NFL rookie ever." He said Monday that he will top any offer by the Royals.

Kiwanis had only one hit off hard-luck pitcher Eric Washington in the first inning. an RBI single by Terrance Brown and all nine of Kiwanis' runs were unearned.

Ball Motor Line had five hits in the game off winning pitcher James Jackson while Kiwanis managed just three hits. David Roberts had two hits for Ball Motor while Mike Hartman. Thomas Williams and Carlos Smith had one hit apiece. Brown had two of the three hits for Kiwanis and Oscar Edwards had one hit and scored three runs.

MOOSE UPENDS ROTARY

Mike "Dr. K" Merthie tossed a four-hitter and smacked a tworun triple in a four-run first inning as Moose downed Rotary. 9-5, in Monday's second game at Chase Park.

Moose, 16-1 overall for the season, now stands at 6-1 in the second half, one half game ahead of Knights of Columbus which was idle Monday. Rotary. 8-9 overall, is 2-4 in the second half.

Rotary scored twice in the top of the first on RBI singles by Robert Whitaker and Andre Stokes but Moose bounced back with four runs in the bottom half. Merthie got the rally started with a two-run triple and Tony "Oz" Chavers followed with an RBI single. Chavers later scored on Jeff Byrd's base hit.

With Dykstra on third base, New York starter Ron Darling laid down a bunt that catcher Dann Bilardello fielded. The throw went to first, but Galarraga dropped the ball and Dykstra scored.

Galarrage said he thought the Mets pitcher should have been called out.

"There's no way that run should have counted," he said. "I had Ron Darling out all the way, but he interfered with me running to first base and I couldn't see the ball. Darling should have been out for intereference.'

Red Sox Rip Guidry, Clemens Snares 12th

NEW YORK (UPI) - The Boston Red Sox would have rather saved some of their 10run outburst for someone who needed it, instead of wasting it on Roger Clemens.

Clemens tossed a four-hitter Monday to remain undefeated in 12 decisions this season and the Red Sox pounded the New York Yankees 10-1 in the first game of a three-game series between the American League East rivals.

The Red Sox. who boosted their lead over New York to 4 1-2 games in the AL East, provided Clemens with a 7-1 lead after four innings and he was able to coast the entire game.

"If anything we want to score more runs for some of the other pitchers who have not been pitching well," Boston catcher Rich Gedman said. "After we got ahead Roger simply relaxed and used his fielders.

Clemens struck out four and did not walk a batter in going the distance for the fifth time. The only run off the fireballing right-hander came in the second inning when the Yankees put Hassey.

"I challenged the hitters," said game which

Boston jumped on Ron Guidry, 4-7, for three first-inning runs. Guidry, who has lost six straight decisions, allowed a leadoff single to Marty Barrett and then walked Ed Romero. The runners moved up as Bill Buckner grounded out and scored when Jim Rice singled to center. Don Baylor, playing his first game against the Yankees since being traded away in spring training. singled Rice to second and, after Dwight Evans flied out. United Press International You would think after about 20 trips to Florida that Charlie Hough would know better.

During the regiments of spring training, managers and coaches try to pound fundamentals into their players. Hitting the right cutoff man, bunting and covering bases are things that are gone over every day. That all recaped Hough Monday night.

Hough, in his 14th majorleague season, lost a no-hitter after 8-1-3 innings and then lost the game when he failed to cover home plate on a passed ball which allowed Wally Joyner to a ore from second has and give the California Angels a 2-1 victory over the Texas Rangers

Jury Acquits Williams, Opens Door To NBA

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) - John "Hot Rod" Williams, the former Tulane University basketball star accused of shaving points in two 1985 games, can now pursue a career in the NBA after being acquitted Monday of all charges in his sports bribery retrial.

A jury of five women and one man deliberated 2 1/2 hours Monday before finding Williams, 24, innocent of two counts of sports bribery and three counts of criminal conspiracy to commit sports bribery.

"I feel great," Williams said outside the courthouse while holding his 3-year-old son, John Jr. "I feel like I can

Williams, who was selected by the Cleveland Cavalters in the second round of the 1985 draft, has been in limbo because the NBA would not allow him to play while charges were pending.

Williams now appears headed to the Cavallers, who sent a signed contract for the 6-foot-10 center to the league office in New York Monday.

The contract — which still needs to be approved by the league — arrived in New York at 3 p.m. EST, even though Williams was not acquitted until several hours later. A Cavaliers spokesman, Bob Zink, said the team wanted the contract to be in the league's hands in the event the case was resolved quickly.

Terms of the contract were not announced but it has been learned Williams signed a two-year pact with a base salary of $300,000 per season with incentive bonuses built in.

Dick Watson, the Cavaliers' legal counsel, said he expects approval of Williams' contract "to be as routine as it would be with any other contract.'

Assistant District Attorney Dale Atkins said she thought the prosecution presented a strong case against Williams, but that the jurors apparently felt sorry for him. Prosecutors had painted Williams as a frequent drug user who eagerly agreed to take part in a game-fixing

IN BRIEF

DeLuca's Clutch Hit, Stufflet's 4-Hitter Lead Dodgers To Finals

Pat DeLuca delivered the clutch hit and Shane "Right Stuff' Stufflet hurled a four-hitter as the Altamonte Senior Dodgers downed Maitland, 7-3, Monday night in the District 14 Division II Top Team Tournament at the Eastmonte complex in Altamonte Springs.

The Dodgers advance to the Division II finals Thursday night at 7 at Eustis. The Dodgers, needing only one win, will take on the winner out of the losers' bracket. The losers' bracket survivor will have to beat the Dodgers twice to advance to the district finals.

The Dodgers and Maitland were locked in a 3-3 tle Monday going into the bottom of the fifth. With two outs. Carlos Abreu singled, Jimmy Kremer was intentionally walked and Val Cintron walked to load the bases. With a 3-2 count. DeLuca lashed a shot down the third base line to drive in all three runs for a 6-3 Altamonte lead.

Stufflet then closed the door on Maitland the rest of the way. For the game, Stufflet allowed four hits, struck out 10 and walked none. Bobby Lieflander took the loss for Altamonte got on the board in the first inning on a sacrifice fly by Abreu and solo homer by DeLuca. Lieflander drilled a solo homer for Maitland in the top of the third but Aaron latarola slugged a homer in the bottom half for Altamonte for a 3-1 lead.

Maitland tied it in the top of the fifth when Lieflander doubled and Rich Cloud socked a two-run homer.

Martina, Hana Win Warm-Ups

EASTBOURNE, England (UPI) - Top seed Martina Navratilova and No. 2 Hana Mandilkova started their Wimbledon warm-up Monday with straight-set victories in the first round of the $200,000 Eastbourne grass court tennis championships.

Navratilova of the United States climinated Catherine Tanvier of France, 6-1, 6-3, and Mandlikova of Czechoslovakia ousted Australian Janine Thompson, winning 6-1, 6-2.

Other winners Monday in this tune-up for Wimbledon, which begins next Monday, were fifth-ranked Helena Sukova of Czechoslovakia, No. 8 Barbara Potter of the United States and 10th seed Jo Durie of Britain.

Sukova beat American Camille Benjamin, 6-3, 7-5; Potter stopped Britain's Sally Reeves, 2-6, 6-7 (3-7), 6-2, and Durie pleased the home crowd with a 6-2, 6-2 triumph over Adriana Villagran of Argentina.

Baseball Gators Will Return

GAINESVILLE (UPI) - Seven University of Florida baseball players chosen in last week's summer free agent draft will turn down the chance to go to the professional ranks and return to the Gators next season, it was announced Monday.

Seniors Tim Touma and Steve Rosenberg, along with former Gator Scott Ruskin, are expected to sign professional contracts.

Touma, a shortstop, is expected to sign a free agent contract with the Montreal Expos; lefthanded pitcher Rosenberg was drafted by the New York Yankees, and Ruskin was picked by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Ruskin, a lefthanded pitcher/outflelder, was drafted by Cleveland last year but decided to finish his education instead of signing with the Indians.

Earnhardt Holds 29-Point Edge

DAYTONA BEACH (UPI) - The 29-race NASCAR season has reached its traditional halfway point and Dale Earnhardt, the circuit's only three-time winner in 1986. leads the Winston Cup standings by 251 points over 1985 champion Darrell Waltrip.

Earnhardt's lead is big enough to ensure that he will win the $150,000 bonus given to the driver leading the points standings following the July 4 Firecracker 400 at Daytona International Speedway. The bonus, coupled with his $651,615 in earnings, means Earnhardt, the 1980 Winston Cup champion, will surpass the $1 million mark just by starting the remaining races.

Morgan Sparks Pants Past Jay's

Robble Morgan hurled five strong innings and tripled as Seminole Pants USA knocked off West Seminole Forest City's Blue Jays, 13-5, in Pony Baseball Mustang Division Top Team Tournament baseball Monday night.

Morgan hurled the first five inning before giving way to Greg Hirsch, who finished up. Pants USA will play either West Seminole or Casselberry Wednesday night at the Seminole Pony complex.

Along with Morgan's triple Eric King contributed a double and Steve Candler stroked two singles. Defensively. first baseman Shawn Shapiro, shortstop Vince Scott and right fielder Scott O'Brien turned in stellar efforts.

Sajek Maintains Bowling Lead

DUBLIN, Calif. (UPI) - Two-time champion Rick Sajek. of Coral Springs, overcame a fast start by Dave Husted Monday night to maintain the lead in the $125,000 Professional Bowlers Association tournament after four Sajek, who was tied with Don Genalo for the lead after three qualifying rounds, trailed Husted by 124 pins midway through the fourth round. He rallied with games of 239, 280, 238 and 221 to regain the lead with a pinfall total

Argentina Tips Rival Uruguay

MEXICO CITY (UPI) - A torrential downpour diffused Monday's potentially explosive World Cup second-round match between Argentina and Uruguay.

The old soccer adversaries clashed at Puebla Monday with Argentina advancing to the quarter-finals with a 1-0 victory. Unlike the two nations only previous World Cup meeting -56 years ago in Montevideo there were no chants of "Victory or death."

The game, however, still carried a lot of meaning for both teams.

"The Uruguayan players left their souls and their enthusiasm on the field," Uruguayan defender Eduardo Acevedo said.

Pedro Pasculli's goal at the 41st minute vaulted the Argentinians into the next round.

Three-time champion Brazil swamped Poland 4-0 in Monday's other second-round match at Guadalajara, thus eliminating the last east European team.

Brazil will play the winner of today's game between defending champion Italy and France. while West Germany meets Morocco in another second-round clash. Uruguay, which had receive two red cards and six yellow cards in its three first round group matches, was threatened with expulsion from the tournament if its rough play continued. As It was Coach Omar Borras was barred from the game because he called the referee of Uruguay's previous match a "murderer." Borras coached the team with a two-way radio.

Although their tackles were more over-enthusiastic than vicious, three more Uruguayans were issued yellow cards along with two Argentinians.

Argentina advanced despite wasting the performance of star midstelder Diego Maradona. The 25-year-old midlielder, snowing the dazzling skills that have made him the world's most expensive player, created havoc in the Uruguay defense by creating many scoring chances that were wasted by his teammates.

Despite Maradona's virtuoso performance, the Argentinians needed a defensive error by Uruguay. Fullback Eduardo Acevedo stabbed the ball across the face of his own goal, and the unmarked Pasculli made no mistake from close range.

Argentine coach Salvador Bilardo was upset by his team's missed opportunities.

"Argentina had many opportunities but lost them," he said at the post-match conference. "Nevertheless we made sufficient plays of merit to defeat Uruguay.

Argentina will face either England or Paraguay in the next round and Bilardo had no prefcrence.

"It's all the same to me," he said. "Argentina has to adjust to whatever system of play. whatever technical style, whether it be Paraguay or England. 'We know Paraguay, like we know Uruguay. England would be a different kind of rival.' Brazil scored three goals in a 15-minute span to dispense of Poland at Guadalajara. Brazil has yet to allow a goal in four matches, but were within inches of being down 2.0 in a nervous opening 10 minutes. The second-round match at Guadalajara's Jalisco Stadium was only 1-minute-old when Ryszard Tarasiewicz rattled the post with a low shot. Nine minutes later Jan Karas unleashed a thundering 30-meter drive that shook the crossbar. After weathering the early storm. Brazil raised the tempo and was rewarded in the 29th minute when Careca was brought down by Tarasiewicz in the area. Socrates planted his penalty shot into the net, not even bothering to run up to the

Einhorn: USFL's Owners Warned About Location

NEW YORK (UPI) — USFL owners were warned not to base their team locations on a possible merger with the NFL, according to testimony of Edward Einhorn, owner of the inactive USFL Chicago franchise and the league's chief television negotiator.

Einhorn, also co-owner of baseball's White Sox. was cross-examined Monday in the USFL's $1.5 billion antitrust suit against the NFL. The trial. now in its sixth week, is in U.S. District Court in Manhattan.

The order of the USFL's case has been shuffled by the illness of the USFL's lead attorney, Harvey Myerson. The trial was delayed for two days last week when Myerson was reported to be suffering from a potassium deficiency. Monday, he failed to appear again and was said to be undergoing tests for an intestinal infection.

The damages sought by the USFL will be detailed for the remainder of this week with Myerson's associates handling the case in his absence. The USFL has postponed the rest of its ease, including major witnesses - USFL Generals owner Donald Trump and NFL Raiders general managing partner Al Davis among them until next week.

Einhorn Friday described his unsuccessful efforts to obtain a television contract from any of the three major television networks to broadcast the USFL's games after the league switched from a spring to a fall schedule.

NFL attorney Frank Rothman Monday concentrated on the USFL's decisions to move teams out of major television markets - against Einhorn's advice - and into cities that had no NFL teams, such as, Portland, Ore., and Orlando.

Football

One of NFL's contentions in the case has been the USFL caused its own financial problems by mismanagement and then sought to increase the value of its teams by filing the antitrust suit to force a merger with the NFL.

Rothman introduced into evidence part of the minutes of the Aug. 22, 1984, USFL owners' meeting in Chicago in which Einhorn was quoted as saying: "We're starting to look for merger cities. Let's be honest about it. We're getting out of certain cities because we don't - they're getting taken in by the other league, and we're looking for merger cities. ... "It's great to get out of them if we're absorbed:

but if you're going to exist and need someone else to pay us television money, we can't get out of every city we've got here and just move into cities that aren't in the NFL or we're not going to have any (television) product." Einhorn said his comments were made in the context of the "survival talk" of several of the other USFL owners, who were "extremely nervous" about the lack of television revenue and the league's mounting financial problems. Einhorn denied he sought a merger of USFL teams into the NFL. Although acknowledging his contract for the purchase of the Chicago franchise contained a clause providing for the possibilitity of a merger. Einhorn said he did not desire such a

Raiders' Lawyer Vows To Re-Prove Damages

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) - The lawyer for the Los Angeles Raiders says he expects little difficulty convincing a federal court jury for a second time the team deserves $34.6 million in damages from the National Football League.

A federal appeals court Monday sent back to a lower court the damage settlement awarded to the Raiders in its antitrust case against the NFL.

The decision was the latest club out of Oakland, Calif.

A year later. Davis launched a damage suit against the NFL and in 1982 moved the Raiders to Los Angeles. Davis claimed in his suit the NFL's rule requiring approval of the other owners for a franchise move was a violation of federal antitrust law.

Though the 9th U.S. Circuit twist in a legal battle that began Court of Appeal referred the in 1979 when Raiders' owner Al issue of the Raiders damages Davis, in search of more back to a lower court, it left lucrative television revenues, intact the award of $14.6 million—today's ruling would be that the —Collseum and $48 million to $50 to pay the Los Angeles Memorial award. Collseum Commission.

'We therefore think we should be able to convince the Jury in Los Angeles they should not offset the damages by a single dime," Raiders attorney Joe Alioto said of the new trial. However, NFL spokesman Joe Browne said, "Al Davis's own words were that an NFL franchise in Los Angeles was worth somewhere in the neighborhood of $20 million to $25 million more than an NFL franchise in Oakland. Using that as a and interest are added, they barometer, the net result of announced he would move his in damages the NFL was ordered Ratders would not get any million for the Raiders.

"As long as (the difference in value) is $11 million or greater. it's a wash."

The first antitrust trial ended in a hung jury, but Davis emerged victorious at a second trial. The jury awarded $11.5 million in damages to the Raiders and $4.8 million to the Los Angeles Collseum.

When those awards are tripled, as they must be in antitrust cases, and court costs equal about $20 million for the

Pollard's Security Clearance Revoked But Restored, Report Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Confessed spy Jonathan Pollard once lost his security clearance, but the Navy restored it and he got an even higher one - after he threatened to file a grievance against his superiors, it was reported today.

An administration official, cited but not identified by The New York Times, said Pollard's clearance was revoked in 1981 because Pollard, was having emotional problems.

The nature of Pollard's emotional problems were not known to the official, who added he had "heard the word 'bizarre'" used with reference to Pollard's actions. Another source close to the case told the Times Pollard had seen a psychiatrist for an undetermined period of time. Pollard, a civilian counterterrorism analyst, confessed earlier this month to selling U.S. military secrets to Israel for tens of thousands of dollars from at least as early as Pollard's wife, Anne Henderson-Pollard, also pleaded-guilty to lesser charges in the esplonage ring case, which

Tax Reform Expected To Pass

has strained U.S.-Israeli relations.

WASHINGTON (UPI) - A slowdown in debate forced Republican leaders to adjust predictions of exactly when the Senate will approve its tax reform plan, but they insist it will pass intact this week, even if it means a rare weekend session.

In a day marked mostly by inaction, the GOP-led Senate spent hours Monday talking about the sweeping bill drafted by the Finance Committee, but took only one vote, agreeing to save an estimated $100 million tax break written into the bill for the Phillips Petroleum Co.

The tax break for the Phillips Petroleum Co. was saved when the Senate, on a 73-14 vote, killed an amendment from Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, that would have eliminated the so-called transition rule and used the money to help farmers average their incomes.

The vote contrasted to one the Senate took last Friday when it made the first change in the bill and agreed to drop a special tax break for Unocal, a California-based oil company.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you print this real soon so we can get the response from other people. I know you probably won't agree with me, but I am being realistic. It's June, the time for wedding gifts. I think it is a very good estimate that about half of the gifts will never be used.

I have decided that unless I know what a couple needs. I am going to send money. It may only be $5. but it can be put toward something that newlyweds need and will use.

4-H Riders Compete In State Show

Thirteen Seminole County 4-H'ers will travel to Tampa July 10-12 to participate in the Annual State 4-H Horse Show after they qualified for the State Show during the District Show held recently at Clarcona Horsemans Park, Orlando.

Riders from around the state will compete in Hunter, Saddleseat, Games, Western and Invitational Cutting and Roping classes during this three-day show. Qualifying from Seminole County sre: Nancy Barnett. Sebrina Greenwell and Katie Schwallie, Oviedo: Barbara Ann Buccino, Kristi Alflebach, Scott Climer, Melissa Henry, Jennifer Bilotta, Laura Hardman, Andrea Massey and Cindy Sutton, Longwood; and Allison Wallace, Sanford.

Riding in the invitational classes will be Jennifer Duda from Oviedo.

Seminole County was also named High Point County during the District Show. This plaque was awarded to the county with the highest average number of points per entrant.

Deal with a good chum at Jim Chumbly Chrysler-Plymouth- Volkswagen.

Jim Chumbley Has Sale On New And Used Cars

Jim Chumbley Chrysler-Plymouth-Volkswagen car dealership of Sanford is holding a big sale on new and used cars this week in connection with its dealer group from June 19 through June 22.

With this special sale plus the fact special factory incentive interest rates are the lowest in years, general manager Jim Neely says now is the time to deal.

They have demonstration models with savings up to $3,000 each.

Celebrating his dealership's fifth anniversary at this location on 17-92 one-fourth mile south of Lake Mary Boulevard, Jim Chumbley takes an active part in the business setting a philosophy consistent with a "good chum." They invite you to stop by and pick up your "I'm a good chum" or "I'm a good chumette button."

Buy a new car now and receive 12 months membership with Auto Knight without cost to the customer. Should you have an emergency such as running out of gas, locking your keys in the car, a dead battery or flat tire Auto Knight Resucers will come to your aid and even provide complimentary transportation if necessary. They are on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Service is provided within a 50-mile radius of the

Jim Chumbley has close to $5 million in inventory in Chryslers, Plymouths and Volkswagens including many hard-to-get models such as convertibles, the Plymouth Voyager, or the VW camper. Unlike many dealers, Jim Chumbley offers a limited warranty on every used car it sells. He carries a $.5 million worth of used cars at any one time so there is a wide selection of many makes and models from $1,000 up.

Before they offer a used car for retail sale it is sent through the service department for thorough inspection, "Items we consider unsafe," Neely said. "are repaired before the car is put out for sale. Prices for one and all are clearly marked on the windows so there is no guess work. The cars are thoroughly detailed and the interior shampooed to make them in 'like new' condition.'

Industries Cut Back On Production As Consumer Debt Builds

WASHINGTON (UPI) - U.S. industries slashed production last month to 78.6 percent of capacity, the lowest in 21/2 years, as cheap oil and mounting consumer debt forced cutbacks in the mining and manufacturing sectors, the Federal Reserve Board said Monday.

The Fed reported capacity utilization in American manufacturing, mining and utilities declined 0.6 percent in May from a revised 79.2 percent in April - reaching its lowest level since December 1983.

The index, which fell to 69.5 percent at the height of the 1982 recession, averaged 81.7 percent between 1967 and 1985. It has lost more than two points this year after reaching a six-month high of 80.7 percent in December.

Last month's setback was in pace with a 0.6 percent drop in industrial production, also centered in mining and heavy manufacturing.

The largest percentage decline was in the motor vehicle industry, where the operating rate fell 5.4 points to a weak 75 percent because of a high level of inventories relative to sales, Fed analysts said.

Auto sales advanced by just 0.6 percent last month despite low-interest financing incentives, according to a report released last week by the Commerce Department. Retail sales overall inched up 0.1 percent.

Economist Cynthia Latta of Data Resources Inc. in Lexington, Mass., said lower interest rates have little appeal to many Americans burdened by debts that average close to 19 percent of their disposable income, an all-time

Savings as a percentage of take-home pay is now about 4.5 percent. Latta said, "quite low by historical standards." 'Income growth has been relatively weak and consumers are in debt up to their eyeballs," she said, noting the export sector has not responded as well to the declining dollar as many observers had anticipated.

The weak dollar also has failed to stem the flood of imports because many foreign producers are cutting profit margins to maintain their market share, Latta said.

The operating rate in mining, depressed by low energy costs and recent cutbacks in coal production, fell 1.6 points to 74.2 percent last month, its lowest level in four years, the Fed reported.

Capacity use in the manufacturing sector fell back 0.6 percent, pulled down by a 0.9 percent decline in the output of durable goods - the most expensive manufactured products and an important barometer of industry health.

The report characterized the decline as "widespread." noting that "only the aerospace and miscellaneous transportation equipment industry showed any increase in factory usage in May.

Florida HRS Ponders Tube Feeding Policy

ST. PETERSBURG, (UPI) - The state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is faced with changing its policy of not allowing removal of feeding tubes from patients for any reason in nursing homes in the wake of an appellate court ruling.

A 1984 state law specifically excludes artificial feeding as an "extraordinary measure" of sustaining life, and in April the HRS ruled nursing homes may never discontinue tube feeding, even in cases where the patient has a "living will" stipulation he or she does not want to be kept alive by machines.

But two weeks after the HRS ruling, the 2nd District Court of Appeal in Lakeland said in a unanimous decision it found no difference between the multitude of artificial devices that may be available to prolong the moment of

James J. McCartney, director of the Bioethics Institute at St. Francis Hospital in Miami Beach. told the St. Petersburg Times the court ruling will force HRS to allow doctors to remove artificial feeding when that is what the patient and family

"We do anticipate we will have to revise our policy." HRS spokeswoman Connie Ruggles told

She said the agency is researching the appeals court ruling and meeting with officials of nursing homes and others.

The Society for the Right to Die, which says it has 10.748 members in Florida, calls the court's ruling a strong affirmation of the right to withhold or withdraw all artificial means of prolonging life, including intravenous feeding and tube feeding.

Abandoned Property Up For Auction

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) - About 200,000 people and businesses have abandoned some $50 million worth of property, including more than $14,000 worth of old coins. Comptroller Gerald Lewis said.

The leftovers have accumulated since 1961 from abandoned savings and checking accounts, safe deposit boxes, stocks and bonds, dividends, and unclaimed wages. Lewis sald Monday.

State law regulres the comptroller to try and locate owners or heirs after institutions have held unclaimed funds for 10 years and safe deposit boxes and trust department Items for seven years.

Although there is no statute of limitations for recovering the items, the state will hold an auction after they have been left unclaimed for several years and have been advertised in newspapers, according to Harry Carson, who administers the refund program. The proceeds go into the state school "In the past month. we have returned more than $200,000 to Florida residents.' Lewis said. "Please remember to search your memories for forgotten safe deposit boxes, check your files for old refund notices and call the comptroller's office to claim your property."

Carson said only two auctions have been held since 1961; the last auction was in 1983 and the next one is tentatively scheduled for August in the Capital. II anyone claims an item that has been sold he will be reimbursed for its value.

Last year the state collected about $10 million in cash and refunded about $3.5 million to about 6.200 people, Carson said.

Floridians wishing to find out if they have a claim may contact one of the comptroller's area offices or write to Lewis.

Consult Neurosurgeon On Disc Operation

ruptured disc and other back problems. I've consulted with orthopedic surgeons. neurosurgeons and a rheumatology specialist, all of whom say surgery might not help. A day doesn't go by that I'm not in pain. I'm thinking of having the nerves elipped, or am lout of my mind?

DEAR READER - Back pain caused by a ruptured disc can be severe and chronic enough to make you think you are losing your mind, but I believe you are quite sane to examine options.

An operation may or may not help you. A neurosurgeon can assess the possibility of cure only if you are willing to undergo further testing - such as a myelogram (a type of X-ray to examine the spinal cord) - to establish whether the disc is. indeed, the cause of your pain. If It isn't, then you may wish to consider other alternatives, such as surgical interruption of pain fibers. In my opinion, a capable neurosurgeon is the best person to evaluate the cause and treatment of your back problem.

DEAR DR. GOTT - Every time I stand up for a while, a feeling of numbress starts at the bottom of my spine and goes down both my legs to my feet. I have to sit down for a minute or two to get rid of the numbness. I also get pain. I have told my doctor about it: he says it is a pinched nerve and that I have arthritis on my spine. Do you have any suggestions?

DEAR READER - A pinched nerve can certainly cause the symptoms you describe. Ask your doctor for a neurosurgical opinion. If an arthritic spur is the cause of your problem, surgical decompression is an alternative that may be appropriate for you.

DEAR DR. GOTT - Five years ago I had tubal ligation. Later I had it reversed, since we want another child. I had a dye test done, which found that the tubes are open. My husband's sperm count is 8 million. The doctor says that's too low, but all it

DEAR DR. GOTT - I have a takes is one sperm. What can we do to help us conceive? We live in a small town and can't seem to get any answers.

DEAR READER — Your tubes are open, so I suggest you try for a year to get pregnant. If you are unsuccessful, you may then de-
