WASHINGTON, July 31 .- Deduring the 1931 1933 depression centage than has been true bank failures over a period of 25 Tears, Jesse H. Jones, R. F. C. chairman, declared today.

At the same time Jones vealed that of the nation's 15,000 banking institutions the R. F. C. has made loans to 5,000 banks since 1932 and has purchased preferred stocks and capital notes in more than 7,000 banks.

Jones declared that depositors in cloed banks on the whole will receive an average of 65 percent 8:00 o'clock to participate in a sell Broughman of Orlando, of their deposits in banks which discussion at to the advisability the State Board of Health. failed during the wholesale closing of the last two years, as compared with about 58 percent in

He said that closed banks dur ing the years 1931, 1932 and 1933 Orlando Junior organization. Gorhad aggregate deposits at the time of closing $6,500,000,000. One half of this amount has already been he and the Orlando speakers will distributed to depositors, and a lead the discussion. fair estimate of the ultimate loss in all closed banks will be from two billion to two billion hundred million dollars.

In its campaign to strengther the banking structure of the coun try, Jones said, the R. F. C. au thorized investments in capital notes and preferred stocks in banks amounting to $1,116,000,

This policy will be until every bank in the United States has had an opportunity of becoming a really strong bank in point of capital. Such investments serve the double purpose of pre venting further bank failures and in insuring deposits, Jones said.

Hitler's Dilemma

War, which seemed so imminent in Europe a week ago, now appears to have been indefinitely postponed, not because of the enlightenment of the various governments or the removal of the underlying causes of war, but simply fickled to death to see him again. because of the unpreparedness and military inferiority of It is almost certain that Morgan the German people. When Mussolini rattled his, sabre, will take a fishing trip before he Hitler ignominiously capitulated. Had the war machine of resumes his duties on the road. Von Moltke been at his command, who can doubt that the parallel to 1914 would have continued to the bitter end?

But if it is true that the events of the past week have postponed the war, it is equally true that they have brought into bold relief the relentless forces which are driving Europe to the brink of another precipice. It was not stupidity on the part of Hitler which encouraged him to permit the propaganda leading to Dollfuss' assassination. Nor was it cowardice which prompted his strategic retreat before the determined stand of Italy.

Hitler was elevated to the position which he now oc-The Hernis is a member of the cupies by the voice of the German people who for years always entitled to the out of the condition. The return of these lands to the Fatherland, Hitier RIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY told the people, would make them all prosperous again, would give them all the economic security and the standards of living which they had enjoyed in those glorious days of the German Empire between 1870 and 1914. How he was to accomplish these things without war, Hitler did not say, and it probably never occurred to the majority of the German people that war might be necessary to accomplish these ambitious aims.

> Hitler has been in power now for a year and a half, has ruled Germany with the iron hand of a dictator for more than one-third of the entire time for which dictatorial powers were originally granted him. But in all this time Hitler has not added one square inch of territory to the German hation. He has inspired a frenzied persecution of the Jews, which appealed to some of his countrymen, but which has been disastrous to Germany commercially, the Atlantic Ocean, some twenty He has probably made considerable progress, in violation of the Versailles Treaty, toward re-armament. Because he has not, appreciably, done anything, there has been growing discontent in recent months among the German people. Taste Is The Real Test Of Any Ice Cream .

There's an old expression that runs like this: "You can't make a silk purse out of a new's our." Practically the same thing is true of ice crosm. You can't get that month, velvely taste with anything but the BEST in materials and ingredients and the most careful handling. Right there, in few words, is the secret of the overwhelming success of Seminole. It's best because it HAS to be?

The grown maggots burrow into the ground to a depth of from 1 to 4 inches. Here they grow a hard shell and become known as pupae. The flies emerga from the pupa in 3 to 14 days worm flies would be enormous I careasses for their breeding were present. Careful estimates indi-cate that as many as a million flies may be produced from the body of a single cow. Control of the screw worm simple but difficult. Control capsists of treating infested animals and burying or burning dead anfmals. The importance of destroying carcasses of all sorts of ani mals can not be over estimated. If all dead animals could; be burned within a few days after death, trouble from the screw worms in living animals would be unknown But the obstacles are many. The complete destruction of all dead animals by burning is by far the best method of control. This not only stops the breeding of all blow flies but helps to prevent the dissemination of such dangerous disesses of live stock as anthrax and

Warden LawesSays Dillinger Enjoyed His Last Film Show

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—(P)— Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing prison, says John Dillinger probably enjoyed the movie he saw just before he was killed by federal agents in Chicago.

It was a gangster picture dramatizing the sort of life Dillinger had led.

Lawes attributes great egotism to men of Dillinger's brand, and supposses the criminal felt flat tered by the movie. "They like to think of them-
