Charge Of Over-Sized Roster By Islets Declared Untrue After League Investigation

Sanford Has Met With Rules And League Regulations To The Greatest Extent During Current Season

Daytona Beach's charges against the Sanford Lookouts for carrying an over-sized roster, filed at a Florida State League meeting held in St. Augustine yesterday afternoon, were not upheld. Officials of the loop ruled that the games would not be taken out of the standings and also that Sanford had complied with rules and regulations governing the league to the fullest extent.

All the clubs in the league were represented except the Leesburg Gondoliers, however, they left their decision up to Henry L. Gray, president of the league, if any necessary action should have to be taken.

The Sanford case, according to Jimmy Wright, was entered by Daytona on the charges that Sanford had used an over-sized roster for the two games played with the Islanders on Aug. 8 and 9, respectively. Daytona charged that the games should be given to them in accordance with regulations appearing in the loop constitution and by-laws.

In this case, said Mr. Wright, Mr. Gray said that he had examined the files in his office and looked up the records of the Sanford players and found that Sanford had lived up to all the laws governing the classification.

It was learned early today that the Daytona Beach Baseball Association plans to take the Sanford investigation case before Judge W. G. Branham, czar of all minor league baseball, after an investigation held by the directors of the Florida State loop had decided not to uphold the charges at a meeting in St. Augustine yesterday. Mr. Gray said yesterday that if any action should be taken it would not be necessary to vote due to the fact that if the protest were upheld it would affect seven out of the eight clubs in the circuit. Therefore, under the league rules and regulations no vote could be taken. Mr. Gray then asked the directors to voice their opinion on the matter.

Mr. Gray said that Sanford had no black spots on its record and in his opinion the protest should not be upheld. The directors unanimously agreed with Mr. Gray except Daytona's director, Al Baker.

President Gray, after other business had been discussed, informed league directors to warn their home town ball clubs that he did not want any more of the abusing of umpires and using slang language on the field for the duration of the season. Mr. Gray pointed out that if it did not stop the player or players will be fined and suspended for the remainder of the season.

Attending the meeting yesterday were Jim Butler of Gainesville, Rex Packard of Sanford, Bill Page of DeLand, Fred Farnside of Palatka, J. M. Bradley of Orlando, Curtis Cox of St. Augustine, Al Baker of Daytona Beach, President Gray of Gainesville, Vice-president Earl Combs of St. Augustine and Peter Schaal of Orlando who is league statistician.

Shirley Hanover Sets New Record To Win Big Race

Crowd Of 35,000 Sees Trotter Carry Off Hambletonian Cup

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Shirley Hanover, a chip off the old block, turned in the most brilliant speed exhibition in the 12-year history of the Hambletonian yesterday as she whipped 11 other great three-year-old trotters in the blue ribbon event of light harness racing.

Stunning a crowd of 35,000 with the ease of her triumph, the light-waisted filly from Lawrence H. Shepard's, Hanover, Pa., farm, carried on in the ways of her parents. She won in straight heats and established a new time record for a winner of the rich stake.

With Henry Thomas handling the reins, the daughter of Mr. McElwyn and Hanover Bertha, traveled the first mile in 2:01 1/2 and then came back to the second in 2:01 3/4. Only once has the time for the first heat been beaten and that was in 1922 when Hollywood Dennis won one heat in 2:01 1/4.

Shirley Hanover came rightfully by her speed. Her sire was the champion two and three-year-old trotter of 1923-24, having up a mile of 1:59 1/4 while her dam won the 1930 Hambletonian and later went on to step a mile in 1:59 1/2. The victory also gave the mare, who is the first owner to win two renewals of the stake.

Shirley's triumph was none too popular with the crowd, unusually large considering the fact that the race was a lightly regarded in the nation pool betting that she was sold in the field and was given no better than a 10 to 1 chance to take the first heat.

There was little reason to believe that Shirley, beaten in her only two starts this year, would be able to

Who is Sanford's number one fan? Why it is Basco, new mascot of the Sanford Lookouts, personal pet of Ella Clary and owned by Volie A. Williams. The bound was named Basco by Clary although his real monicker is Mack, tagged to him by Mr. Williams.

Basco had taken such a liking to ice cream and base ball that he has a box seat on top of the home club's dugout every night and also possesses a season's pass.

Basco is scheduled to make the trip to Palatka today with the Lookouts on the bus and have his usual seat.

Sam Holbrook's Hitting Aids Locals In Recording 2-1 Win

Lookouts Play A's Two Today

The Sanford Lookouts tallied their eighth straight victory tonight when the Rodgers' outfit downed the Palatka Azaleas by a score of 2 to 1 before a crowd of nearly 900 Sanford patrons.

On the mound for the locals was none other than "The Earl of Crisfield" who limited the visitors only 6 hits which was good for only one run. Crisfield's curve ball was the feature of his hurling performance as he fanned four of the Palatka crew while allowing only two bases on balls.

Facing "his highness" on the hill for the Azaleas was Clyde Miller, tall lanky right hander who came to the Buckman as a first baseman. Miller also limited the locals to six scattered hits, while issuing three walks to the initial sack while striking out only one Lookout.

Leading the hitting during the contest was Sammy Holbrook who secured a single and a long triple to the left field wall in four appearances at the plate. Taking the honors for fielding was Billy Moore, left fielder, who was formerly with the St. Augustine Saints. Moore made a marvelous catch of Kingdon's liner into left field off his shoe strings to save two runners from crossing the plate in the fifth inning. Again in the seventh he made another thrilling catch of Clary's long high drive to the left field wall.

The Lookouts will go to Palatka today where they will meet the Azaleas in a dual bill. The first tilt is scheduled to start at 8:00 o'clock and the nightcap at 8:15 o'clock. Bill Dan Brainard and Owen Wright will get the calls as starting hurlers.

The Lookouts started the scoring in their half of the third stanza when, after two men were out, Clary dumped one in front of the plate for a hit and went to second on an error by Mathias who threw wild to first in an attempt to get the fleet-footed shortstop Wes Kingdon connected with long single into right field. Score Clary from second base and Kingdon advanced to second on the throw-in to the plate. Langston went out; Culbreath to Buck; to end the inning.

The Azaleas came back in their half of the fifth frame when they pushed a runner around the macks to knot the count. With one away, Fred Brunle was issued a free pass to the initial sack. He advanced to second base on Miller's single through the box into center field. Thus Billy Moore, with the count three and two also singled into center field to score Brunle. Culbreath and Buck went out in order to retire the side.

The Lookouts regained the lead once more in their half of the sixth inning when, with one man out, Swede Martin worked Miller for a base on balls. Martin scored from first base moments later when Sam Holbrook tripled to the left field fence. Pritchard popped up to catcher Mathias for the second out. Ruggiero also was issued a base on balls but Kaso went out Trammel to Buck to retire the side.

Police Escort Red Manager From Game

ST. AUGUSTINE, Aug. 12.—Pat Patterson, fire pilot of the DeLand Reds, made too much noise yesterday afternoon at St. Augustine during the Red-Saint tilt and in the fourth inning he was escorted from the park by St. Augustine police at the request of umpire "Phoney" Smith.

Umpire Smith also slapped a ten dollar fine on Patterson and refused to allow Patterson to even see the game from the stands.

Scant Signal Stirrs Hope Of Finding Fliers

Brief Message Leads To Belief Russian Airmen Are Down In Vast Arctic Wastes

Birdmen Were On Hop Across Pole

Plane Was Long Overdue And Much Anxiety Was Being Felt

SEATTLE, Aug. 14.—(AP)—“No bearings. Having trouble with wave band,” was the brief message received early today when a signal corps station heard the first word from Sigismund Levansky and his five companions since they took off Thursday from Moscow in an attempt to seal the top of the world.

Although considerable anxiety had been felt this morning by U. S. Government officials, the communication indicated the possibility that the flying Russians are safe somewhere in the vast Arctic wastes.

The message, heard at 9:44 a. m. today, was only partly readable and was translated with unreadable blanks.

The signal corps of the Alaska Communications System said, “Stations have been instructed to make every effort to guard that frequency assistance which is required.”

It had been previously stated that with the aid of a tail wind, the airmen should reach Fairbanks, Alaska, in three days in spite of strong headwinds in the vicinity of the North Pole.

Horseback riding, swimming, boating, games, and campfire stunts will be featured at the three-day pioneer camp which will begin Aug. 16 for many Sanford Girl Scouts, it was announced today by Miss Irene Hinton, captain of the local troop.

A Court of Awards at which the girls will present themselves for advancements will be held Aug. 20 at 7:00 o'clock.

Lieutenants who expect to attend the camp include: Marie Chapman, Doris, McCall, Gail Chapman, and Joyce King, who is patrol leader; Olive Chapman, Margaret Spencer, and Katherine Spencer will also go.

Additional campers are: Lauralee Dutton, Gene Harper, Marys Gotsch, Nellie Gene Bell, Virginia Chapman, Lattie Gormly, Ruth Spencer, Ethel Root, Louise Nordgren, Mary Anna Gormly, Milta Lovjoy, Katherine Hart, Elizabeth Whigham, Martha Wright, Betty Whigham, Betty Sangman, Kenzie Tatum, Jeanne Howard, and Edna Collins.

Loyalists Surprise Rebels With Attack

HENDAYTE, France, Spanish Premier, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Government troops thrust forward a mile in a surprise attack on the Brunete front outside Madrid on August 14, the long and unbroken line of the front of Spain's principal city.

The offensive, looked in a 15-month-old civil war, concentrated their battle efforts on several Central Spanish war fronts and 1936 chalked up victories in the short term.

Spanish Fiesta To Aid Children Runs Into Difficulties For Trailer Camp

Rebel And Loyalist Sympathizers Have Hot Disagreements

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Sponsored by a group of stage, screen and literary luminaries, and with the name of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt heading the list of patronesses, a proposed fiesta to aid the children of Spanish loyalists was the focus of a storm of protest last night from American sympathizers of Rebel General Franco.

The fiesta is scheduled on the extensive estate of Adolph Zukor, film magnate, Ballantyne of the popular art and theater colony heretofore—Mr. H. Pope was made chairman of a committee consisting of J. L. Marcotte, H. H. Coleman, and Fred Wilson, which will draw up a prospectus.

The decision was not made without much controversy and many varied opinions, but the group considered the plan to be the best submitted.

A plan for a subscription list to be signed by donors of funds was one of the first considerations. Mr. Wilson read the plan to the members present. It provided that contributors would be repaid from the profits of the camp after they had become sufficient to warrant it.

Mr. Pope stated that in his opinion, persons who lent money for the project should be paid back with interest in order that they might be compensated for their loan.

Although several of the assembly were not of the opinion that the lake front was the best location for the camp, they decided to back it to the utmost in order that no time would be lost in construction of the camp.

All were certain that all business concerns would directly and indirectly benefit from the trailer camp and that building should be begun as soon as possible.

Present at the meeting last night were T. E. Simpson, president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, Ralph Bagwell, secretary, Edward Higgins, mayor of the city of Sanford, Walter Coleman, Mack Cleveland, E. H. Lawry, Fred E. Wilson, H. H. Coleman, H. B. Pope, Al Lee, M. J. Lodge, and J. L. Marcotte.

Busy Tourist Season Seen In Inquiries

Shortage Of Housing Facilities Pressaged Problem By C. Of C. Official Statement

Problems for the accommodation of the many people who have expressed an interest in Sanford as a winter home are already troubling the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce due to a shortage of housing facilities, it was stated today by T. E. Simpson, president.

Usually it is October before the Chamber office is flooded with northern inquiries concerning accommodations, according to Mr. Simpson. If all the winter-visitor prospects who have requested information about Sanford and Seminole County should arrive during the Fall, many would be turned away because of lack of conveniences.

“Last year saw Sanford’s first real endeavor to place itself in line for a part of Florida’s rich tourist business, through the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, and profitable results were realized,” Mr. Simpson said.

“Practically 95 per cent of our inquiries are for information on furnished apartments and cottages, which we are rather short of. A survey shows that the city’s increased population during the summer months has taken a great many accommodations that have heretofore been available for winter visitors, thus creating a shortage.

“Last year it has been estimated that approximately a hundred families desirous of stopping in Sanford had to go elsewhere because we were unable to take care of them.”

Airliner Took Off At Usual Altitude Witnesses Report

DAYTONA BEACH, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Airliners living near the airport yesterday told a federal board of inquiry the Miami-bound airliner that crashed here Tuesday morning crossed the highway at the usual height.

Officials of the Florida Power and Light company charged Thursday the plane struck the highway because it was flying too low after it left the runway at the south end of Shofa field.

Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, general manager of the Eastern Air Lines, declared there would have been no accident if the temporary line had not been erected without notification of airport and flying service employees.

As Denis Mulligan, department of commerce inspector, directed the investigation through it, second day, F. M. Thompson, of Greenville, S. C., continued in the unpropitious condition he has been in since the accident.

Peter Philippotis, 13, boarded a train with the body of his father, J. F. Philippotis, for Miami, where he called for Jamaica. The lad who escaped serious injury in the disaster, learned of his father’s death Wednesday night.

Another of the passengers, prepared to take a plane to continue his trip to South America, Paul Alfred, of Daytona Beach, found $500 in bank drafts among the wreckage of the plane where Hamilton had left them on the fatal morning and turned them over to the owner before he left the hospital.

The dairymen who testified yesterday said they had watched many takeoffs of the airplane from the south end of the field and the rising ships averaged from 20 to 30 feet over the highway when they crossed.

Two of them said they watched the 14-passenger ship as it started its trip Tuesday morning and told the board the craft was about 25 feet high when it struck the pole across the road opposite the end of the runway.

Missy L. Shannon, of Miami, operations manager of the Eastern Air Lines, told the board the records of Capt. Stewart Deitz and Co-Pilot Robert W. Reed, killed in the crash, were

Public Education Cost County $50 For Each Student

Annual Report Is Submitted To Superintendent By Superintendent

Education of children in this county last year cost taxpayers $50.41 per pupil according to the annual report submitted recently to State Superintendent Colin Kessler by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction.

Last school year there was a total enrollment in this county of 4,872 pupils, 2,773 white and 2,099 negro students. The average attendance for last year was reported as 85 percent for the white children and 80 percent for the negroes.

During the 1936-1937 school year, it was reported, the Board of Public Instruction received $122,680.00 from the State, $4,280 from the Smith Hughes fund, $40,899.10 from the County’s general fund, $52,477.07 allocated from the current districts and from district bonds $70,901.59, or total receipts amounting to $237,346.82 besides $2031.48 in free books furnished by the State.

Approximately $166,553.10 of the total was paid to the 176 teachers and principals of the County at an average salary of $904.59.

Transportation of 1471 pupils to and from the schools last year cost the Board of Education $37,109.73 or $25.29 per student.

The health program of the schools cost $2,913.24 and administrative $777.82, bringing the total current expenses of the County’s school system to $251,528.11. The property belonging to the school is valued at $1,035,905 and making an investment of $212.31 per pupil.

During the past fiscal year, $44,910.72 was paid out by the Board for the purpose of retiring bonds and payment of interest on outstanding bonds which amount to $673,000.00.

At the time the annual report was made to the State Superintendent, the Board of Education had a cash balance of $78,254.61.

Last year, the general millage for school purposes was 8 and the district millage 10, and according to present indications the millage will be approximately the same to cover operating costs the coming year.

Gaffney Death Is Still Mystery As Clues Are Sought

Autopsy Fails To Reveal Definite Evidence Of Violence

Whether or not Gene Gaffney, Orlando basketball star, whose body was found in an oak scrub thicket just south of Altamonte Springs yesterday, was murdered hasn’t definitely been decided by Seminole County authorities, County Sheriff C. M. Head reported today.

The autopsy performed on the body by Dr. W. T. Langley late yesterday afternoon failed to reveal any definite proof that the Orlando had met with violence, however, the physician declared that he found bruises about the man’s body which he did not believe were self-inflicted.

In the pockets of the dead man was found a watch, $7.40 in currency and $25 worth of Post Office receipts which Gaffney was reported to have withdrawn from the Orlando Post Office last Tuesday when he was making preparations for a fishing vacation at Coronado Beach.

Sheriff Head today declined to give any definite theory in the case until after all evidence has been presented the coroner’s jury at the request and their verdict is rendered which will probably be early next week. He added, however, that he and his force were working overtime following every plausible clue in the case.

An Orlando painter, Jack Martin, is being held for questioning in the local jail pending the result of the inquest. It was learned that a shirt identified as that of Martin’s had been found and appeared to contain splashes of blood.

President Approves Local WPA Project

A WPA project which would provide community sanitation in the amount of $2,810 in Seminole County has been approved by the President, according to information received today from Senator Charles G. Anderson.

Provision for such services in other counties was also made. Duval will receive $2,450, and Taylor will be awarded $3,641.

Though definite allocation of the funds depends largely upon the total allocation to the state, the fact that the President has signed the project places it in favorable position for definite consideration sometime within the near future, it was stated.

Missiles Dumped Into Busy Down-Town District Of International Settlement

Police Estimate Wounded At 900

City In Uproar As Jap And Chinese Plan Engage In Fighting

SHANGHAI, Aug. 14.—(AP)—At least three Americans were killed and at least two wounded in Chinese and Japanese aerial warfare that hurled death into the crowded parts of the international settlement.

Dr. Frank J. Rawlinson, one of the outstanding missionaries in China, and H. H. Holsberg, wealthy motor dealer, met his death as Chinese bombing planes, supposedly aiming at Japanese associations, dumped missiles into the crowded downtown area, killing hundreds.

Dr. Robert Reischauer, Professor of international relations at Princeton, who is in China on a tour, was hit by a bomb in the lobby of a hotel and died a few hours later. His leg was blown off. It was feared other Americans were among those killed.

Police estimated 500 killed and nearly 900 wounded in the attack on the city.

Chinese and Japanese warplanes rained over the city of three and half million people with its large international settlement. Bombs were dropped into the busy streets.

American authorities expressed grave fears for other Americans in scattered parts of the city.

The Chinese seemed to be getting the better of the aerial fighting.

The heavy cruiser Augusta, flagship of the United States Asiatic fleet, arrived in the harbor after a forced draught run down the coast.

The Fourth Regiment of the United States marines, 1950 officers and men, was on patrol duty along the northern edge of the international settlement. All available civilian volunteers were put under arms.

The American company in Shanghai numbers more than 4,000 persons.

Chinese refugees, driven from the Chinese quarter of the city by flames which followed the fire, swarmed over the town. The city was in a furor. Rain fell, adding to the discomfort of residents but failing to stop the battle.

The aerial bombing from large oil storage tanks on the Whangpoo River and a stiff wind fanned the flames over a wide area.

The Machine Age

The development of air-conditioning has been an increasingly important factor in the industrial world during the past few years. Not only does this system, of rendering air more pleasant to feel and breathe, give added enjoyment to life but it is providing many jobs for workers.

That is just one of the answers to the old argument about the machine age causing all our economic ills. True, the makers of electric fans may find the going tough, but look at what the automobile industry did to the livery stable business, and yet who would suggest that it was uneconomic for the automobile to drive out the hack.

When the radio was invented, that spelled trouble for phonography; and when talking pictures came in, musicians in theater orchestras lost their jobs; when electricity became popular the candlestick maker was out of luck.

The makers of phonographs got in the radio business and made twice as much money; musicians in the orchestras got jobs playing for the radio companies at better salaries; the candle stick makers became linesmen at greater remuneration; and the hand type setters found many more jobs running linotype machines at higher wages and less work.

The mechanical age is responsible for giving employment rather than taking it away. There is a labor saving device is discovered it means that more persons have a chance to get a job.

So Say We All

Roosevelt Reaffirms His Threat To Veto Proposed Sugar Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—President Roosevelt has written to Chairman Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, of the senate finance committee, reportedly reaffirming his threat to veto proposed sugar marketing legislation if enacted in its present form.
Senator Harrison's office tonight confirmed that the president had communicated his views to the finance committee chairman but refused to reveal the contents of the letters.
However, it was regarded as significant that it was coincided with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace's denunciation of the proposed sugar bill as "completely and utterly indefensible."
Wallace, at a press conference, said the president was more opposed to the compromise bill reported favorably by the senate finance committee than to the measure approved by the house last week.
Both, he said, were discriminatory to Hawaii and Puerto Rico by restricting the amount of refined sugar they may ship to the mainland.
The finance committee attempted a "compromise" by placing similar restrictions on the amount of refined sugar that might be turned out by continental plants, but this proposal merely resulted in "freezing" the refining industries at the present levels.

Awed Farmers Watch Rich Fields Drop In New Sinking Valley

BUHL, Idaho, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Awed farmers watched their rich fields literally drop from under them recently in southern Idaho's new "sinking valley."
Muffled rumblings and billowing dust clouds marked the mile square area where normally flat fields and huge slabs of lava rock are sinking like a huge fallen cake to form a new canyon eight miles north of here.
Geologists said the phenomenon probably was caused by the earth's surface dropping into a subterranean cavern.
Five acres of valuable cropland on the farm of H. R. Robertson dropped 125 to 150 feet in two weeks. Twelve others are cracking up.
Farmers who said they could actually see the land sinking dropped a 200-foot weighted rope into one of the giant fissures breaking across the area and said it failed to reach bottom.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul" is the subject of the lesson-lesson in all Churches of Christ, Science, August 15.
The Golden Text is from Palm 42:2. "My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God; when shall I come and appear before God."
Among the citations which comprise the lesson-lesson is the following from the Bible: "And I will set my tabernacle among you; and my soul shall not depart from you. And I will walk among you, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people" (Lev. 28:11, 12).
The lesson-lesson also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul and Spirit being one, God and Soul are one, and this one never included in a limited mind or a limited body. Spirit is eternal, divine. Nothing but Spirit, Soul, can be life. Life, for Spirit is joy; that all else. Because Soul is immortal, it does not exist in mortality. Soul must be incorporated to be Spirit, for Spirit is not finite. Only by losing the false sense of Soul can we gain the eternal unfolding of Life as immortality brought to light" (p. 325).

Il Duce Stresses Preparedness In Speech At Sicily

CATANIA, Sicily, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini yesterday stressed a two-point doctrine of military life and social justice, for the Italian people.
Speaking before 100,000 cheering Sicilians, Il Duce exalted "ever-increasing military preparation of the people" as the only alternative to misery and slavery.
"History shows that when a people does not want to bear its own arms, it is forced to bear the arms of someone else. Mussolini declared, "Count on your soldiers and have faith in your soldiers."

Orlando Drops 6 To 4 Tilt To McShane's Nine

DeLand And Daytona Each Take Games In State League

ORLANDO, Aug. 14.—Tromping Orlando by a 6-4 score with a three-run rally in the final inning, Gainesville set up a game and a half margin over the Sanford Lookouts in the Florida State League's penultimate race yesterday. Sanford lost yesterday afternoon to Palatka, 4-3.

Going into the ninth inning on the short end of a 4-3 score, the G-Men shoved over three tallies and Lefty Sparkman, sent to the hillock to hurl the last half frame after Elbert Padgett had been lifted for a pinch hitter, held the Gulls at bay to protect the lead.

Reds, 7-Saints, 1 DELAND, Aug. 14.—Alex Swails, DeLand fireballer, was in rare form here tonight as he pitched the Reds to a 7 to 1 victory over St. Augustine. Swails held the visitors to five scattered hits and was deprived of a shutout when an infield error allowed a runner to cross the plate in the fifth inning.

Motorship Sinking, All Of Crew Rescued

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The motorship Invader sank late yesterday that she was standing by the sinking motorship Majestic off Uncle Sam Bank, in the tuna fishing grounds near San Diego.

The message, received here by Mackay Radio, said the crew had been taken off.

The message from the Invader said: "Majestic was six days out of San Diego on maiden voyage. We got a line aboard—soon after Majestic had turned its side and tried to right it, but too much water in front end before we could do anything. The engine room was flooded."

The Majestic was reported to be going down slowly, bow first. "Don't think ship can be saved," the Invader added.

FLORIDA EXPOSITION TO OPEN IN MIAMI DEC. 1, 1937

"MAGIC CARPETS" WILL RIDE VISITORS OVER THE "STATE" IN TWO-HOUR TRIP

Miami, mecca of two million winter visitors in the 1937 season, is at long last to have an exposition. Lilliputian Florida is the romantic name, in keeping with the theme of the fair. An enclosure 3,500 feet long, shaped to follow the contour of Florida, houses 350,000 square feet of exhibits in a scenic fairyland.

You can start the tour at any one of the four doors or "ports of entry"—Jacksonville, Miami, Tampa or Pensacola. A Seminole guide awaits with a "magic carpet" and Presto! you are whisked away through models of the cities, between exhibits of Florida's industry and commerce, past Bok Tower and other star attractions, over silver lakes and rivers teeming with life, seeing every worthwhile sight reproduced in life-like replicas.

Lilliputian Florida is not a diorama nor a picture but a clever imitation of the Sunshine State. One and a quarter miles of highway cover the exposition grounds, zig-zagging over the "state" to show the visitors everything of interest. A leisurely trip can be made in two hours with numerous stops. One million sightseers are expected to avail themselves of the opportunity to see the model state.

The Lilliputian Florida Exposition, in publicizing the entire state, will undoubtedly encourage travel even to little known points. Enthusiastic expressions of approval of the exposition have been voiced by civic and business leaders throughout Florida.

"Captains Courageous" To Be At Ritz Sunday, Monday

Rudyard Kipling's Saga Of The Gloucester Fisherman Is Filmed For Screen With Feature Cast Of Stars In Lead

One of the great sea stories of modern literature, Rudyard Kipling's thrilling saga of the Gloucester fishermen, comes to the Ritz screen Sunday and Monday with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's picture of "Captains Courageous," with Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore and Melvyn Douglas in the leading roles.

For the first time in his screen career Freddie Bartholomew plays a wholly American boy, a wide departure from any previous role. As Harvey Cheyne he is the pampered son of a millionaire who has never known the meaning of work and worthwhile effort. Bound for Europe on a super-liner he falls overboard off the Newfoundland banks and is picked up by a fishing dory manned by Spencer Tracy, the latter playing the part of Manuel, a Portuguese fisherman. This role, the most colorful that Tracy has yet had, rivals even that of the priest in "San Francisco."

The boy is taken to the fishing schooner "We're Here," captained by Lionel Barrymore as Capt. Dink. His tale of being a millionaire's son is attributed to the shock of having fallen overboard. He is put to work and gradually his regeneration begins. The hardy, heroic Gloucester fisherman makes a man of him.

Mickey Rooney, teamed with Freddie Bartholomew in "The Devil Is a Sissy," again appears with him in "Captains Courageous" as Dan the captain's son. The large supporting cast playing the schooner's crew includes Charley Grapewin, Jack Larue, John Carradine, Walter Kingsford, Donald Briggs and numerous others.

When Edgar Allan Poe reviewed books, he often included disparaging remarks about the authors' characters.

Movie Thriller Has New Angle As Part Of Plot

It seems impossible these days to get a new angle in a movie thriller, but the screen achieves it most ingeniously in "Talk of the Devil," the British and Dominion film which shows Friday night at the Ritz Theater. Ricardo Cortez and Sally Killers are co-starred, with Basil Sydney as the "heavy."

The story tells of an American, Ray Allen, cursed with the gift of mimicry who is persuaded, under the supposition that it is an innocent prank, to imitate the voice of a noted London financier over the telephone. The "faked" voice brings financial ruin and death to the father of the girl he loves. The girl, moreover, is faced with the horrible charge of patricide. Allen sets about desperately to save her, and to remedy, so far as is possible, the gruesome results of his practical joke.

How he unmasks the villain who used him as a cat-in-the-hat is the most dramatic sequence of a tale that is packed with tense situations. Suffice it to say that, by an act of poetic justice, it is the same gift of mimicry that brings about the villain's doom. Here is an original story, backed with sprightly dialogue, with unobtrusive comedy, moving with a fast pace to its unique and ingenious ending.

The action is thrilling enough to border at times on melodrama, but without ever losing its realism.

Of small fruits, strawberries are richest in sugar content.

The Successor To "Mutiny On The Bounty" Stage Players Win New Honors In Screen Play

Land Rush Picture Filmed For Screen

Once again, in motion picture history, the land rush into Oklahoma territory has been filmed on a grand scale.

It was first done several years ago for the picture "The Maroon," one of the most successful ever made. Now First National has staged an elaborate reproduction of the event for "The Cherokee Strip," a new picture starring Dick Foran, singing cowboy. The photograph shows Saturday at the Ritz Theater.

The scenes, in which hundreds of extras, horsemen, wagons, buggies and even ox teams took part, were staged on the great plateau known as Lasky Mesa, where spectacular scenes of "Charge of the Light Brigade" were filmed.

Ritz Picture Features Established Stars In Mystery Story

Three established stage players win new honors on the screen in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's mystery picture, "London By Night," which shows Tuesday at the Ritz Theater.

George Murphy, former Broadway dancer, more recently in pictures, has his first dramatic role and proves his ability without question. Rita Johnson, likewise a product of the theater, who starred in George M. Cohan's "Fulton of Oak Falls" and other plays, makes her screen debut in the feminine lead and assures her career in Hollywood.

Leo D. Carril, also a former stage actor, appears in a role of mystery and promises to become a make-up wizard of the Leo Chaney school. Others in the cast are uniformly good in their respective parts.

DEATH SHADOWED THEIR LOVE

Henry Fonda is one of those daredevil lineamen who live high but not long, and Margaret Lindsay is the one girl he loves and doesn't leave, in "Slim," Warner Bros.' electrifying melodrama which plays at the Ritz Theater Wednesday and Thursday.

Girl Who Poses For Magazines Is In Ritz Film

Terry Walker, famed "magazine cover girl," is one of the blondes who causes the trouble in "Blonde Trouble," the gay comedy romance with Eleanor Whitney, Johnny Downs, Lynne Overman and Benny Baker, which plays Wednesday and Thursday at the Ritz Theater.

Miss Walker became an actress when Hollywood studio executives were impressed with her portrait, which appeared on a magazine cover, and started a search which lasted almost a year to find her. She was seen for the first time in films in the recent comedy success "Mountain Music."

"Blonde Trouble" is the motion picture treatment of a recent stage success by Ring Lardner and George S. Kaufman. It tells of a youngster who went to New York to make good in the song writing business and soon found himself up to his ears in trouble.

FILM LOVERS

George Brent and Beverly Roberts have the best roles of their careers as the stars of "God's Country and the Woman" the Warner Bros. Technicolor production which shows Friday at the Ritz Theater.

"Slim" To Show Wednesday At Ritz Theater

Drama Of PowerLine Portrayed In Film Featuring O'Brien

A class of American workers whose trade has never before been touched by the movies—those adventurous and hardy lads who string electrical power wires across the remote waste places—are depicted for your entertainment in the Warner Bros. melodrama, "Slim," which is scheduled to show at the Ritz Theater Wednesday and Thursday.

The popular Henry Fonda, borrowed from another studio for this one picture, carries the title role of "Slim," a young farm lad who, fascinated by the work of a wire-gang crossing his father's land, becomes one of them, with the aid of "Red," a jovial and gallant wire-stringer who is portrayed by that perpetual favorite, Pat O'Brien.

They are both in love—after a while—with "Cally," a hospital nurse, who is none other than the lovely Margaret Lindsay. But there's no enmity between them; they're great pals and comrades, each willing to offer his life to save the other's—and that's what it comes to in the end.

"Slim" was made from a best-selling novel by William Wister Hinsley. It has what are described as breath-taking scenes, with the high-tension gang building towers 100 feet high, scrambling up and down them, and stringing wires across them, sometimes in the face of blizzards and dust-storms. It's no easy life, apparently, that these lineamen lead. They're always on the move—town to town, state to state.

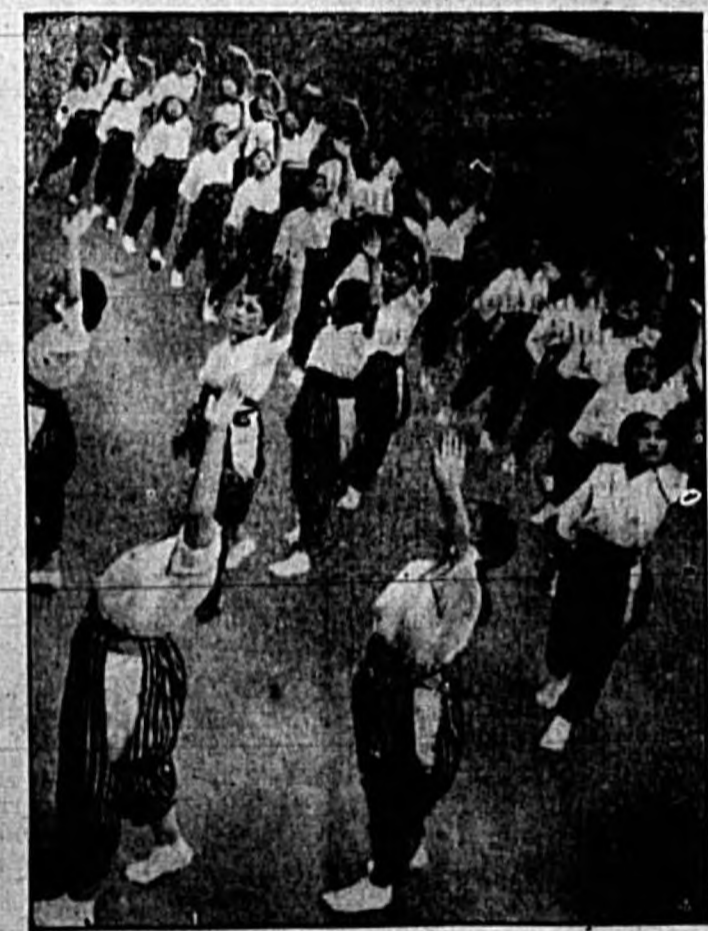

One of the pals of the two boys is Stuart Erwin, who never fails to win laughs. The boss of all the gang is J. Farrell MacDonald, who in this picture turned in his one-thousandth performance before the cameras.

STRIKE FODDER. Strike-affected steel plants in Ohio were humming with activity, but CIO leaders insisted that hundreds of men still were refusing to work. Here is one of them carrying a bag of food from a commissary maintained by the union in Cleveland.

LADY FIGHTERS. Sturdy, pantalooned peasant girls of Japan have daily military drill to qualify them as soldiers in case their country goes to war. These hardy daughters of the soil are less than 16 years old, but have physiques and strength of mature women.

SWAPS HIS MOP. University of Pittsburgh's alumna, Dr. Edward Lee Harris, who earned education's highest degree while working as janitor, then quit to trade his mop for a microscope. Harris will head the chemistry department of that Ohio institution.

THE BATTALION BEAUTIFUL. With Japan's war fever daily soaring to new heights, even women and girls offer to go to the battle front. Here is a group of "sailor girls" participating in rifle drill in Tokyo. They are required to attend lectures and drills in national defense, handling of rifles, use of gas masks and administration of first aid. They look toward the China war front unafraid.

GOED WITH IT. When James J. Connelley, mayor of New York, was elected, he was elected to a term of office. He was elected to a term of office.

OVERLOADED STORK. This baby boy, born to Mrs. Valentin Amos in a Brooklyn hospital, weighed fourteen pounds, eight and a half ounces, according to the scales—and the stork kept her head off the balance beam. His mother weighs 125 pounds.

Judiciary Committee Okeys Nomination Of Alabama For Supreme Court Job

G. O. P.'s Serve Notice Of Fight

Confirmation Will Be Called Up Before Senate Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16. (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee approved today the Supreme Court nomination of Senator Black, Alabama Democrat. Voting down all proposals for delay, the overwhelming Democratic majority on the committee agreed to report the liberal Alabamian's nomination favorably and at once.

Democratic leaders planned to call the nomination up in the Senate tomorrow for confirmation.

Republicans already, however, had served notice they would seek its reconsideration for hearings forthcoming at least a bitter debate over the appointment.

The committee turned down requests for general hearings on the nomination and also refused to delay action long enough to permit Black to appear and be questioned about his views on judicial procedure.

Financial Success Of Future Farmer Body Is Recounted

Financial success surpassing that of the winners of national honors last year in the world of Future Farmers has been attained by the local group, it was announced today by Alex Johnson, advisor of the Seminole Chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

During the past year, the young farmers earned a total of $661.37 which was placed in the chapter treasury. The funds were gained by co-operative projects and the winning of prizes at fairs. Of that amount, $299.59 still remains in the treasury.

Individual earnings of the 35 active members amounted to $7,902.60, which is an approximate average of $225.78 for each boy. Land, livestock, tools, and other equipment represent an investment of $1,004.85, making an average of $28.71 worth of farm equipment, belonging to each member.

The Future Farmers each have an average of $125.78 saved in the chapter thrift fund which has been maintained for eight years, or the cash value in insurance or bonds.

It is upon these high figures that the local group will base its claim for national honors this year, Mr. Johnson said.

Gaffney Case Still Continues Mystery

Officers of two counties are continuing search today for evidence which might unravel the mystery connected with the death of Eugene Gaffney, Orlando bartender and former professional baseball player, whose body was found in the scrubo south of Altamonte Springs last Friday morning.

Sheriff C. M. Hand stated today that apparently the Orlando man had died from exhaustion, whether or not there were wounds inflicted by an unknown assailant remains to be decided at the coroner's inquest to be held, probably, late this afternoon.

The sheriff also indicated that he expected a break in the case soon but declined to discuss any further developments.

Famous Flyer Will Seek To Find Russians

Jimmy Mattern Plans Dawn Takeoff Upon Search For Daring Over-Pole Aviators

FAIRBANKS, August 16. (AP)—Jimmy Mattern, noted American aviator, made preparations today to leave at dawn today in his speedy twin motorized monoplane to search the Arctic wastes for the six missing Russian flyers.

Mattern arrived only last night after a record-breaking non-stop flight from Oakland, California, to join the search for Sigismund Levsneffsky, Soviet Ace Pilot, and his five companions.

The American flyer said that he would traverse the 148th meridian in quest of a clue to the fate of the daring Russians who disappeared Friday on a 4,000-mile flight over the North Pole from Moscow to Fairbanks.

The last word received from the ill-fated aviators came Saturday morning when a signal corps station intercepted a brief, partly unusable message.

Previous statements indicated that the famous flyer and his companions might have been safe somewhere in the vast Arctic regions, but lack of further communications has caused considerable anxiety.

40-Pound Snapper Caught Off Beach

By Lloyd F. Boyle

A 40-pound red snapper, considered by many anglers to be the largest caught near Daytona in the past 5 years, was landed yesterday by Assistant State's Attorney Lloyd F. Boyle.

Fishing with light fresh-water tackle while the other members of his party used "plow lines" and window weights for sinkers, he added a nine foot shark to his catch prior to a driving storm which forced the boat to come to port.

He expects to have it mounted to be sent to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D. C. Other fishermen in the group registered catches of large sharks, weighing about 800 and 900 pounds.

Included in the group of anglers were: Richard Hickson, H. A. Nelson, of Deland, Theodore Pope, Charles Dunn, Jr., Charles Dunn, Sr., Howard Long, John Hunter, Harry Thurston, Fred Bolly, Pete Peterson, C. E. Clem, Roy Pippin, Gus Schmah, St. Clair White, W. A. Patrick, George Gray, J. B. Little, and Mr. Boyle.

The group fished about 62 miles out to sea from Daytona Beach.

American Fugitives Flee Shanghai As Shell Fragments Rake Steamer; Land, Sea, Air Forces Continue Fray

SHANGHAI BOMBARDMENT KILLS HUNDREDS

Chinese Airplanes In Battle Formation Rain Bombs On Jap Base Of Operations

Both Sides Claim To Inflict Losses

Other Nations Decide To Evacuate People As Fighting Grows

The first American fugitives from the incessant aerial bombardment of Shanghai fled today through gauntlet of bursting shrapnel. Beginning the mass flight from the undeclared war between China and Japan, the group of 200, mostly women and children, boarded the steamer President Taft after a perilous two hour trip by tender.

United States sailors kept the frightened passengers some, with infants in their arms, huddled below while shell fragments splintered the deck floors and railings above.

In a matter of hours it was expected more than 600 American refugees would be started for home and safety aboard the liners President Taft and President McKinley.

The British and French made similar evacuation arrangements. Chinese warplanes flying in massed battle formation rained bombs again on Japanese sections and the waterfront in an attempt to destroy the Japanese base of operations.

The Chinese attack was answered by a dawn offensive by Japan's land, sea and air forces that spread all through the rich Yangtze valley, heart of China's commercial wealth.

Both sides claimed their air squadrons inflicted heavy losses on the other. The Japanese embassy at Nanking was ordered closed. But it was not known whether this meant a break in Sino-Japanese diplomatic relations.

The fighting engulfed the whole 15-mile front around Shanghai. Besides the aerial combat guns spoke from Chinese waterfront emplacements and from Japanese river patrol vessels.

Both sides were swiftly reeling, forcing their infantry and artillery strength. On the northern waterfront, Chinese soldiers clung to their positions behind rocks and hastily dug entrenchments guarding Nankow Pass, the only route over which Japan can move heavy armaments from Northwest Hopeh province to Chahar and inner Mongolia.

The population of the world was estimated at more than 2,000,000,000 in 1930.

Aims Of Rotary Are Related At Weekly Meeting

District Governor Of Organization Tells Of Club's Expansion

Aims of Rotary International which were promulgated recently at the International convention in Montreux Switzerland were presented to the members of the Sanford Rotary Club today by Roland Horton, district governor of the organization.

He brought out the fact that it had been previously supposed that Rotary could not be extended beyond North America. Later, when clubs were organized in the British Isles, it was thought that further extension was impossible.

Mr. Horton declared that because the club had continued to grow even beyond those points organization of groups in China and India might be started.

He stated that Morris DuPerry, a Frenchman who was recently elected president of Rotary International, presented the following definition of Rotary to the members of the club in Switzerland:

"Rotary is a world-wide association of men of good will drawn from the ranks of all trades and professions, holding all sorts of opinions, following all the creeds, yet inspired by the same ardent desire to be of service to their fellow men and sharing the same ideal of endeavoring to banish everything that tends to divide and bringing into action all that which may help to unite mankind."

"A Rotarian is the living emblem of usefulness and Rotary is the connecting link between men and nations."

Experiences while traveling in the northern part of the United States were related this morning by Robert W. Lord, who recently returned to Sanford. He was particularly interested in the sights of New York City. He visited the Aquarium, the Broadway district, the slums, Chinatown, and many of Gotham's most famous buildings.

The airport of the Pan American Airways presented an unusual sight for him. The Bermuda Clipper, the Cavalier belonging to the British Imperial Airways, and the P. A. A. Clipper III, which soon alone its route from Port Washington and England, were being made ready for flights at that time. Mr. Lord traveled with his daughter and son-in-law throughout many of the New England States and along the Eastern mountain ranges.

Experiences Told By People Caught In Shanghai Fray

Thrilling And Tragical Scenes Are Painted Of Recent Warfare

SHANGHAI, Aug. 15. (AP)—War in Chinese and Japanese in this luxurious metropolis meant adventure to Americans—some of it thrilling, some tragic.

Ten members of the original four party caught in the conflict were prepared to depart Monday Thursday without their leader—Dr. Robert K. Reischauer of Princeton university. He was killed by a bomb explosion.

Those who will leave aboard the Japanese steamer Tatsumi Maru are Lee Drey of St. Louis, Mo.; George Scranton of Harbor Beach, Mich.; Jane Gantonn and Anthony Cornell of New York city; William Verhage of Mankato, Minn.; Alice McGinnis of Boston; Paul Amos of Princeton, N. J.; John Masland of Philadelphia; Harlan Cleland of Harwichport, Mass.; and Dr. Robert Potter of Fresno, Calif., now the leader.

"We are all O.K. and this is a great adventure but I wish we were home," Amos said.

"The four party moved to the Palace hotel believing the Astor house unsafe," he said, describing the bombing.

"Most of the members were playing bridge, but I was walking along the (Wangpoo) river when I saw Chinese airplanes flying in battle formation toward the Japanese cruises Idzumo.

"The Idzumo fired. I ran toward the hotel and a Chinese bomb landed 40 yards from me. Everything was chaos. The detonation was stunning. Huge slivers of glass fell to the street from windows.

Street Lined With Bodies "The street was lined with bleeding bodies, torn and mangled. "I finally reached the hotel and learned by telephone that Dr. Reischauer was killed," Amos said.

He followed his luggage to the United States consulate and later to an apartment hotel in the French concession.
