

DEMOCRATS OF INDIANA SEEK '28 CONVENTION

Evans Woolen Is Boomed By Hoosiers As A Candidate For Party's Nomination

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Apr. 14. (INS)—Indiana Democrats are in a doubtful state themselves these days. For they are embarrassed by two national ambitions that threaten to cross each other. These aspirations are to hold the 1928 national convention in Indianapolis and to induce that gathering to nominate Evans Woolen, president of the largest bank in the Hoosier Capital for the presidency.

Backers of Woolen are fearful about pushing the boom nationally because, since the tumultuous demonstrations for Al Smith at the 1924 convention in New York, party leaders are shying away from the national gathering in the home city of a candidate.

Former United States Senator Thomas Taggart, wily member of the "big three" that rules the party, is behind both the Woolen and the convention movements and is having hands full. Taggart first must stage a come-back in politics in his own state, for he has suffered a few organization reverses during recent years.

Woolen, a Harvard graduate has a national reputation as an economist, but has had little political experience other than an unsuccessful race against Senator Arthur R. Robinson last November.

Opponents of Woolen in Indiana say that he is the only playing the old favorite-son brand of politics with the hope of trading during the convention for political prestige.

However, friends of the former senator point out that he could have obtained the presidential nomination for the late Senator Samuel M. Ralston at the 1924 convention, had Senator Ralston not declined to accept the honor because of ill health.

Filmdom Gossip From Hollywood

THE very smartest thing along Hollywood boulevard these days is the ugly little "Scotty," or Scotch terrier, and all of better known names of the film colony have one or more, usually three.

Percy Marmont may be seen almost any day walking down the boulevard with three of the dogs in leash. They walk one after the other in what the boys call "Chinaman style." Tom Mix, never a man for commonplace fads has a whole kennel of the dogs.

The dogs are very smart socially and mentally and the director has trained his "Scotty" to fetch and carry his canvas backed arm chair as well as his megaphone, without which a director is quite mild.

It is said of the "Scotties" that they can kill a police dog by working it to death. In Scotland these dogs are Aberdeen terriers and were bred as badger hunters, being long and squat.

Speaking of dogs there is quite a mystery in filmland. What has become of the famous Strongheart? He was the hero of many film dramas. Numerous dogs have appeared since Strongheart and for a time one of the standard jokes of Hollywood was, "What dog are you supporting this week?"

Nobody seems to know whether or not Strongheart is dead. A group of film players were dining in the fashionable Montmartre the other evening when the subject turned to dogs and somebody asked about Strongheart. Everybody had a different version of his fate one declaring he was dead, another that he was dead and a substitute was masquerading under the name.

The only unanimity of opinion was that after Strongheart married the beautiful Julie he was never the dog he used to be.

Colorful Hollywood has added a new touch of color to its social activities. Electric refrigeration devices have added social dignity to their utility. The little pans which automatically freeze convenient cubes of ice are filled with distilled water and a little coloring matter, usually the kind used by candy manufacturers. For an orange drink the cubes come forth in red or green.

CROP REPORTS

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Apr. 15.—(INS)—Above seasonal temperatures prevailed over Florida during the week ending yesterday and the percentage of sunshine was high, according to the weekly weather and crop bulletin issued by A. J. Mitchell, meteorologist in charge of the United States government weather bureau here, today, his complete bulletin follows:

"The temperature during the week averaged above the seasonal, maxima being 90 degrees on several days over the central and southern divisions. There was a high percentage of sunshine—rather too much in some districts considered in connection with the need of moisture. Showers occurred several days, chiefly, over the northern and central divisions where local rains ranged from one to two inches; other localities nearby still need moisture; and the drought continues severe in the southern division where irrigation has been used to save young citrus trees.

"Dry weather in the central and southern divisions, however, has not been an altogether unmixed evil, as it was rather more favorable than otherwise on low lands for tomatoes and other truck. The planting of corn and cotton continued in the western division where corn made good progress; cotton is a fair stand; much is up in the northern division, and the early is being 'chopped' in the central division.

Corn is being worked generally in the central and much of the northern counties where some reports state that it is in splendid condition. The shipping of beans, tomatoes, and other truck continued from the southern division, although in smaller quantities, and tomato shipments began in a small way from the favored districts of the central division. The tomato crop in the Manatee district, rather between Manatee and Tampa, is very promising. The shipping of beans continued from the northern division; the bulk of the crop has been shipped from most of the central counties. Cane, peanuts, melons, strawberries, citrus fruits, and oranges were benefited by showers—more is needed on uplands. Oats are poor on uplands. Tobacco was improved by showers; stands are fair to good.

Northern Division
"Showers fell over much of the northwestern portion of the division, diminishing westward, with no rain of moment in the Suwannee, and the Apalachicola River, valleys. Corn, Cotton, Cane, peanuts, tobacco, and truck were improved by local rains.

Central Division
"Beneficial showers and locally heavy rains improved truck and citrus over the east and west-central portions of the peninsula; more rain is needed on uplands. Corn is in good condition.

WESTERN DIVISION
"The weather was favorable for farm work, but rain is needed on uplands for potatoes, satsuma groves, and melons. The planting of corn and cotton continued. The weather was much warmer than the seasonal average.

Southern Division
"The continued dry weather is

Joy And Happiness Pervade The Entire Christian World At Easter

The meaning of Eastertide to the Christian world is so all embracing and so far reaching that this season always brings thoughts that are uplifting to the individual and the community.

Commemorating the rising of our Savior and the significant birth of higher and nobler things, this Eastertide calls upon us to look into our lives and bring forth all that is good and spiritual.

Attend Easter Services

To the Christian World Easter Day means a day of worship—a day where faith in the ultimate end of our lives predominates. Soul inspiring messages and music, based upon the resurrection of our Lord and its personal call to each individual to the higher and better things in life will be heard at all churches in our community. While every day in our lives should see this same spirit of Christian love, this Easter urges all to worship in one of the churches.

NEWS FOR THE MOTORIST

EASTER WILL BE COLORFUL EVENT IN WASHINGTON

Hundreds Clamor For Passes To Church Where President And Wife Will Attend; Secretary Kellogg Absent

WASHINGTON, April, 16.—(INS)—Assured of clear skies and summer breezes, the capital prepared today to celebrate a colorful Easter tomorrow. The Easter display of feminine finery and masculine silk hats promises to set a record.

While many government officials have left town to spend the holiday, their absence will be more than made up by the thousands of visitors who annually come to Washington for Easter.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge will set the national example by going to church. So great has been the press for tickets at the church that the services have been transferred to the big Washington auditorium. This shift will enable several thousand people to attend the services.

Cabinet officers, diplomats, members of the Senate and House and various other governmental officials will join in the fashion parade that always follows church services. However, have gone elsewhere for the weekend.

Secretary of State Kellogg is spending Easter at Hot Springs; Secretary of Commerce Hoover is in New York; and Secretary of the Interior Work is on the Pacific Coast.

Chicago society prepared today for one of its most noteworthy Easter parades. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars have been expended by the social leaders for their annual display of finery, according to department store and smart shop owners.

When the thousands line fashionable Lake Shore Drive and Michigan Boulevard, affectionately known to Chicagoans as the "boulevard" and the "blue mich," they will be greeted generally by printed chiffon dresses. They have been purchased by milady in a variety of colors, with beige, green and blue predominating. Stocks are in the same bright colors.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Apr. 16.—(INS)—Ablaze with color and with a carnival spirit in the air, Atlantic City today prepared with evident relish for its annual Easter Sunday parade tomorrow.

Special trains arriving at brief intervals brought visitors by the thousands from all over the east, tumbling over each other in their eagerness to take part in the festivities.

It was estimated today that 300,000 persons, huddled in Easter finery, will parade along the expansive boardwalk Sunday providing, of course, that the weather is as nice as anticipated.

Woman's Club Notes
By MRS. HENRY WIGHT

Mrs. Henry Wight

The main event of the week just past was the fine work of the club committee which served lunch for the ladies of the Presbyterial Convention on Thursday and Friday. Mrs. L. P. Hagan was the efficient chairman of a large and enthusiastic group of club members representing the four departments, and with perfect coordination of work, lunches were served each day to more than a hundred visitors.

It is the club members who have given unstintingly of their time and effort who really know what it means to let the best out of the Woman's Club, and it cannot be too often repeated that as one sows, so one reaps. The club member who merely pays her dues, enjoys such parties and entertainments as may have personal appeal to her, and gets by with just as little unselfish effort as possible, cannot be expected to understand very much of that spirit of good fellowship which others, of

"Reptile" Shoes And "Black Bottom" Stockings Are Popular For Easter

NEW YORK, Apr. 16.—(INS)—Easter styles, as viewed along fashionable Fifth Avenue today disclosed that skirts continue to reveal the knee cap, that bobbed heads are adorned with helmet hats and that reptile shoes and "black bottom" stockings are all the rage.

Not in years have the Fifth Avenue shops done such a heavy Easter business. The weather men have more than done his part.

The gowns are colorful but not freakish, snappy yet tasteful—and all of them express the spirit of youth.

Inquiry in the shops revealed that girls are spending less money for their Easter outfits than they used to. They "change" oftener, instead of one or two Sunday gowns they now have quite a wardrobe.

Miss Gertrude Andrus, assistant manager of a Fifth Avenue shop, told International News Service that girls and women are going in for more but less expensive clothes. She estimated that the average Easter outfit the girls will parade to church in tomorrow will cost between $15 and $20. Talking pencil in hand, she outlined a "typical" outfit, the cost amounting to $160. Here it is:

Shoes $10, stockings $1, dress $25, hat $10, gloves $6, underwear $10, either a fur piece or spring coat $75, accessories $20—total $160.

"I notice the girls are getting away from masculine modes," said

Miss Andrus. "They're wearing fluffier things. The skirts are fuller and many of them have pleats. We are getting away somewhere from the severe, straight lines that make for the boyish figure."

"Greens, violets and beige are the favorite colors for dresses. There is a warm spot for black and whites, too."

"Snake skin oxfords, garish in design and quite unique, have taken the popular fancy."

"Every other girl you see is wearing the black bottom stocking with a black heel."

"Furs—silver fox, beige and red fox—are part of every girl's attire."

"I think the straight lines are passing; that skirts will remain fuller with the waist line more ample. The only masculine style being affected is a brown man-tailored suit that many of the very young girls regard as especially snappy. For evening wear there is a popular dress which is cut above the knee in front and comes down below the knee in back. But for the most part skirts are exactly knee length. I don't see how they can go any higher."

In another shop the information was imparted that many of the girls in the Easter parade are wearing what is called a "pantecote"—a combination and a corset together which doesn't do the shape a bit of harm.

Methodist Children Of Two Departments Enjoy Easter Egg Hunt

The children from the Beginners and Primary Departments of the Methodist Sunday School enjoyed an Easter egg hunt on Friday afternoon at Central Park. The party was given by the teachers of the two departments.

The afternoon was merrily spent in games of all kinds. The main feature however was the search for brightly colored eggs. Little Miss Jane Jackson found the golden egg and was awarded the prize, a large box of Easter candies. For having found the most eggs among the children of the Primary Department, Dorothy Stewart was given a basket of Easter eggs. Little Ann Laird was the fortunate one in finding the most eggs among the Beginners. She won a pretty Easter basket. A huge marble filled er basket with candy was awarded Byron Squires, who found the most eggs among the boys of the Primary class, and James Adams won the prize among the boys of the Beginners Department.

Following the hunt the children were given ice cream cones. Of especial delight was the taking of group pictures which will be given the children.

The afternoon proved one of exceptional pleasure and much credit is due Mrs. John W. Sneed and her efficient corps of teachers, whose untiring efforts made this affair a success.

On Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock there will be a business meeting of the Music Department, when the program for the next year will be discussed. All members are requested by the chairman to be punctual and to bring with them some interesting current music. The program of German music will be rendered at 3:30 o'clock will be in charge of Miss Eleanor Herring, and will be announced later.

The Welfare Department will meet on Wednesday at three o'clock and instead of the box luncheon as announced in the year book, several odds and ends of business will be taken care of at this time. Members of the standing committees of the club for finance, membership and program will be elected, and appointments made for members of courtesies, home and press committees will be announced for next year. At this meeting the full financial reports of flower show and plant sale will be made, and contributions to the building fund are to be voted.

Master Wylie Clark Entertains At Party On Twelfth Birthday

Master Wylie Clark entertained a number of his visiting friends Thursday afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. T. R. Higgins on Summerlin Avenue. The affair was in honor of his twelfth birthday anniversary.

Most delightful in every way was the afternoon which was merrily spent in games of all kinds. Late in the afternoon the children were asked into the dining room when refreshments of ice cream, cake, and candy eggs were served. As a fitting climax to the enjoyable afternoon, photographs were made of the children and prints will be sent to each guest. Among the children enjoying

May the message of Easter give strength during every day of the year, and may Jesus Christ be crowned Lord of our lives.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. E. D. Brownlee

This the happiest seasons of all the year for Christians.

Our Lord Jesus had long and repeatedly predicted His death in Jerusalem and His power over life and death. In the fullness of time these predictions were fulfilled. This week commemorates His death on the cross and His resurrection in His own power from the grave. Thus He gave proof of His marvelous claims as to His nature and Mission, so we joyfully worship Him this Easter season.

He came forth the first fruits of them which sleep and so on Easter we rejoice in a confident hope that He will bring us our loved ones from the power of death to a resurrection life with Himself.

I wish for you a hope of resurrection in Him who has power over death and the grave, for He is the Son of God.

This occasion were: Gertrude Porter, Mary Belle Smith, Dorothy Ann Voorhees, Aleita Dyson, Clifford King, Quilla Porter, James Henry Dyson, Jack Hughes Pierce, Randall Randall Priest, John Morgan and Wylie Clark.

Chandler has hit a stride that is making them all talk!

WHENEVER something better comes along—something actually, visibly, intrinsically better—the world quickly welcomes it.

Witness the great spontaneous success of the magnificent new Royal Eight and new Sixes by Chandler—here, there and everywhere!

Pressing Rapidly Ahead
Four different price classes are feeling keenly the widened extent and increased volume of Chandler sales.

In every state, every city and town, motor car owners are shifting to Chandler.

The good and ample reasons for this success are very apparent.

In Eights and Sixes alike just see how Chandler has glorified the present trend of motor car design.

See how Chandler has embellished the customary standards of luxury.

See how Chandler has surpassed all ideas of modern performance—with the mighty power of its marvelous Pikes Peak Motor!

A Company of Strength
The cars themselves reflect the fortified stability back of the cars. And this stability of Chandler is important to bear in mind—for everybody wants to be sure the car he buys is backed up by an organization of strength and permanence.

Chandler owns two modern large-volume plants—"lock, stock and barrel"—and not a penny against them on paper or in fact.

Chandler is wholly independent of anybody and everybody in the entire industry.

Chandler Really Builds a Car!
Chandler cars are Chandler-built, not assembled—built in practical entirety in Chandler's own plants—all the way from the raw products to the final operations.

Chandler's distributing and dealer organization not only blankets the United States and Canada, but extends throughout the world.

And as a direct result of the leaping increase in Chandler sales more new dealers are applying for the Chandler franchise than in any other period of Chandler history.

The Line is Complete
Chandler now sponsors one of the very largest and most selective lines of fine motor cars before the public.

Twenty-five custom body styles—the Sixes ranging from $945 to $1895, the Eights $2195 to $2295; (f. o. b. Factory). All models have the famous Chandler "One-Shot" lubrication system. We proudly ask you to look at these cars—drive—compare them with anything else on wheels!

WASHINGTON LETTER

RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON, April 16—When George Norris of Nebraska leaves the Senate, as he is threatening to do, there will be regret in this prosaic world as would attend the passage of few other human cog in the great machinery of government.
He has his enemies, for he's not a peanut. But there is less peanut and more genuine sincerity and more purpose in this 68-year-old man than in almost any member of Congress. It's hard to find anyone who won't admire him, whether they like him or not.
He is a simple, unaffected, blond old cuss, with an old-fashioned, floppy, square-cut bow tie, old-fashioned high top shoes, and plain, ordinary clothes.
He has no pretensions and a predilection for stained horse sense. His is no more pompous than his is. He doesn't talk about wisdom, in his wisdom, doing what he can and he doesn't play galleries.
His old fellows head pokes itself out of the clouds sometimes, but he is generally on the ground.
One of the most justified criticisms of even the best of senators is that very few of them have the stamina to wage a hard, long and bitter fight in the face of huge majorities. That sort of thing, which indeed gave Hiram Johnson's career a tremendous boost in the Senate, is the best sort of thing Uncle George does.
He came to the house a partisan Republican. Soon he began to object to the tendencies and the future of peanut politics. He became more and more independent and Nebraska sent him to the Senate. In 1924, after "Uncle George" had again and again emphatically refused to run for re-election and after he had been elected a candidate forcibly, by trick-ery, against his will, Nebraska elected him by a 110,000 majority.

Big Motor Transportation Lines
Fail To Show Profit In Business

INDIANAPOLIS, Apr. 16—(INS)—Motor transportation is profitable to the small operator but seldom pays the big investor, figures in the auditing department of the Indiana Service Commission show.
Receipts and disbursements of 30 companies picked at random from the annual reports being filed with the commission showed, with one exception, that firms with receipts totaling more than $10, year.

The one exception, an Indianapolis company, showed a profit of $15,000 out of gross receipts amounting to more than $425,000.
The figures from the companies selected showed 16 made a profit, 13 lost money and one broke even

Small Lines Pay

Greenawalt advocated the interests of the smaller operators. He said that a great deal of the business that would be profitable to the smaller investors, was not, and would not be a paying enterprise for the larger companies.
"The travelling salesmen, nowadays, uses a car to go from place to place in summer," Greenawalt said. "That eliminates one good source of revenue. The regular business, then, comes from the woman in the smaller communities who wishes to do her shopping in the large centers."

Many Deficits

The deficits, on the other hand, range from $866.12 for one year, to $204,530.08 during a similar period by another firm. The average profit was little more than $4,000, but the average loss was in excess of $37,000.
One peculiarity was apparent in the reports. The companies operating the largest fleets of motor buses and receiving the largest amount of gross revenues, lost the greatest amount of money.
When questioned about the heavy losses to the larger firms, one operator, Ross I. Greenawalt, of Goshen, blamed it on attempts

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Tagging All Bases

By International News Service

NEW YORK, Apr. 16.—Lady Luck, that fickle goddess, continued to frown upon Bill Sherdel, southpaw of the champion St. Louis Cardinals. Wee Willie, whose tough luck was one of the features of the world's series last fall, held the Cubs to two hits yesterday—and lost.

Sherdel lost because one of the two hits happened to be a home run by Hack Wilson. The score was 1 to 0, three double plays by the Cubs enabling Percy Jones to hold the Cards scoreless.

The Pirates walloped the Reds, 10 to 6, and still lead the league. The Blues nicked Rixey and Neif for 14 hits.

With "no hit" Charley Robertson on the mound, the sprightly Braves made it three straight from Brooklyn by score of 3 to 1. The Robins, still on a pop-fly diet, made only five hits.

Philadelphia, supposedly restored to legarity by the departure of the fiery Arthur Fletcher, was the scene of a near-riot as the Giants beat the Phillies, 6 to 3. When Eddie Hough delivered his first hit of the season, a grounder along the third base line, the fans thought it was a foul and said so with cushions, hot dogs and assorted debris. Manager Stuffy McInnis further distinguished himself by being ejected from the pastime for the second time during the series.

The American League got under way yesterday when Babe Ruth clouted his first homer of the season. This blow, combined with grade A pitching by Herb Pennock, enabled the Yankees to trim the Athletics, 6 to 3, for their third straight victory.

The Washington Senators kept pace with the Yanks by swamping the Red Sox, 7 to 1, sweeping the series. General Crowder held the Sox to five hits and Speaker and Goslin led the attack on the back-bay hurlers.

Jon Shaute of Cleveland limited the White Sox to one hit in six innings but the Sox bunched their blows thereafter and won 6 to 1, evening the series.

The Tigers and Browns finally got started, but rain stopped the contest at the end of the fifth inning, with the score tied, 2 to 2. Sisler knocked in both of the Browns' tallies.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE
The crackers made it two straight over Chattanooga, 11 to 3, landing three pitchers for 12 hits. CMT Marks allowed the Lookouts 11 bingles but kept them well scattered.

Hodges held Mobile to five hits and New Orleans won, 6 to 2. Van Alstyne pitched Birmingham to a 4 to 2 victory over Nashville, yielding only six hits while his teammates collected 10.

Rain halted the Memphis-Little Rock contest.

ATHLETICS FAIL TO IMPRESS THE NEW YORK FANS

Connie Mack's Collection Of Human Heirlooms Unable To Live Up To Pre-Season Forecasts Of Their Speed

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Apr. 16.—Connie Mack's collection of human heirlooms were out of New York today, leaving in their wake three ball games and, apparently, a highly unfavorable impression upon the local intelligencia. The latter, after a reasonable interval of tolerance during which they viewed with some restraint the combined efforts of Eddie Collins to get a base hit and Ty Cobb to catch a fly ball, today felt the barrier was raised and they laughed at Connie's speculative investments with great enthusiasm.

"Cobb looks like one of the worst outfielders in the Major Leagues" wrote one man, after the four game series with the Yankees ended yesterday.

Frankly, Cobb so far looked exactly what he happens to be: an old timer who might get by on what he knows. As to that it may yet develop that he knows too much for the good of the ball club.

I saw Connie come out in front of the dugout yesterday to wave Cobb over toward the foul line with Gehrig at the plate. Ty moved with apparent good grace, but the next moment he returned to his former position.

This time Connie let the matter go by default. Cobb's hitting during the series was good; yet two of them were scratches and on the whole he seemed to lack something of his old punch. However, Cobb probably will be a hitter at fifty.

Now for Eddie Collins.
"Collins didn't get a hit during the series", declared one of our most eminent minds today. "And, at that, he figures to hit better than he fields."

Having said which, he then launched into a learned dissertation, purporting to show that Collins' advancing years had made him too stiff in the joints to get down rapidly on sound balls and that no longer could he wheel rapidly on relay throws when trying for double plays.

What the boys in the back room seem to be concerned about is how long Connie plans to string along with his antiques. They candidly declared today that the Philadelphia Athletics, as it present constituted, are going nowhere with considerable haste and, in a spirit of helpfulness so characteristic of the enraged journalist at large, they intimate that wish to remind Connie that he has a first class ball club sitting placidly on the bench.

Of course, boys will be boys and the natural rejoinder is that you can't convince a ball club on four games. But, as to that, men of the age of Cobb and Collins figure to become less effective as the season wears or into the double headers and their legs wear out.

Connie has $50,000 tied up in Cobb and $20,000 in Collins and, if the old club continues to cull the cloak and suit trade at its present rate, the "put" on this pair will be written off in a few weeks. But I don't think Mack is concerned about that, although it may as well be admitted that no dollar ever will be able to sue him for $30,000 for Dudley Brundson and, alienated affections. Still, he paid after the second game, hesitated less than 9-3-5 seconds in removing Dudley to a zone of safety in favor of Jim Pogue. He also paid critical money for Zach Wheat but when he found that the veteran couldn't throw hard enough to break a window, he also took Zach right out of there.

Connie himself admitted last night that he was uncertain about his course with the team.

"Some of them don't look so good," he said, sadly. "However, we are only getting started."

Being notoriously charitable in my views, I will merely venture that perhaps the whole ball club is off to one of those standing starts. However, as to Cobb and Collins, I must refuse to alter an opinion I contracted carelessly in the South; that neither of them will be able to finish the season.

Ocala, Duval Loom As Contenders For State Track Honors

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Apr. 16.—(INS)—Ocala and Duval High of Jacksonville were favored today in the finals of the annual state high school track meet to be held at Murphree Field here this afternoon.

Ocala's followers were rejoicing today over the remarkable showing made in the preliminaries of the meet yesterday afternoon by Ed Newcombe, sensational cinder star.

He was entered in seven events in the preliminaries and semi-finals and crossed the finish line first in each one, breaking his own record in the 120 yard high hurdles by lowering the mark to 16.7 seconds.

Lynn of Hillsborough High Tampa, shattered the discus throw record by tossing the massive more than 112 feet and Hubbard Davis of Miami broke the broad jump record by leaping 21 feet and nearly eight inches.
