Ty Cobb And Eddie Collins Must Play Better Ball To Make Team, Asserts Walsh

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 20.—Neither Ty Cobb nor Eddie Collins will start the season in regular positions with the Philadelphia Athletics unless they can prove they are better men than those now sitting on the bench more or less by courtesy, Connie Mack intimates to the writer today. He made the inference by candidly admitting that to date the human luxuries he acquired during the winter at hot-house prices.

Connie named his names but I learned that one of the pick-ups who hasn't looked so good is Eddie Collins and that one of the hangovers who has started the natives is Max Bishop. It is an excellent bet that Bishop and not Collins will be the regular second baseman of the club before the campaign goes too far.

Collins, they say, can't cover a fraction of an inch around second base. Cobb hasn't been hitting. Neither has Dudley Branson, senior of west from Enid, Okla., via Kansas City, nor Joe Boley, the expensive young man from Baltimore. They still are in the line up but no one is guaranteeing how long, least of all Connie Mack.

"I haven't picked my club at all," he said today. "It is early to pass judgment. I had a good deal of club last year and that some of its members have looked better so far than several of the additions I made to the club during the winter."

"I paid a lot of money to build up the team this year but my 1926 men prove to be better players, they will get the call, regardless of box office values. Fundamentally I am in the game to make money, but in reality I am trying to do it with the pennant. And if I succeed the box office will take care of itself. All I want to say now is that I have reached my definite conclusions about the respective abilities of the men under me and that my line up has not been picked in advance."

Collins says the loss of injury which threatened to end his season last year has bothered him not at all this spring; yet Eddie Collins can't seem to get around. Cobb has been troubled by a lame back but, even so, his failure to hit is one of the baffling mysteries of the trip. He hit two yesterday, however, just before Umpire Will made him hit the air.

Both Cobb and Collins vow that they will be ready to start the season at top speed and then increase the pace.

"The ball club is top heavy with talent and when you have too many good players around, you generally have too many problems. It is a club with two men for every position."

Branson is the regular first baseman at the moment. He has been hitting but his fielding is above reproach. Jim Pons, the 1926 model, is ready and willing to start.

The second base seems to be all broken up against Collins. Max E. Zulman has been hitting and sliding like the greatest second baseman in the league.

At short stop Chick Galloway, Joe Clinton, S. C. speelman, is to have brought himself back to the speed he knew five years ago when some thought him the best in baseball. Boley has done anything asked of him except to sock some one on off with an occasional base hit.

Sam Hale, Wheeler, Tex., and Jimmy Dykes, upper Darby, Pa., hit played last year at third base, 1926, cannot go third here, so is the regular third baseman.

The writing although baseball on around the circuit think that is the better bet.

ROBINS HAVE TOO MANY PITCHERS, WALSH REPORTS

Brooklyn Club Has No Speed But Will Probably Beat Out Phillies For Cellar; Team In Weak Defensively

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service
CLEARWATER, Fla., Mar. 22.—If Edward Payson Weston had had feet but no legs, he might have been able to walk across the continent provided he started with Lincoln's Administration, and forgot to stop. In other words, Mr. Weston would be going nowhere with great haste and so is the Brooklyn Club.

It has the feet of a ball club in its pitchers but W. Rotund Robinson neglected to provide the other and wholly necessary portions of its anatomy, and, in consequence the thing can slide but can't climb. Fortunately, the Phillies can slide faster, further and funnier, so the dodgers probably will escape the ignominy of the cellar.

Robinson always has had pitchers but, otherwise, there hasn't been a real good ball club in ten years. Dazzy Vance, of course, heads the array of pitchers. Then there are Jess Barnes, ex-giant and ex-brave, Bill Dink, the salivary gland back again a year with the subdivision Bob McGraw, Doug McWeeny, Jess Petty and Lube Ehrhardt. All were regulars last year and with one or two additions will constitute the staff. However, Big Jim Elliott who won 27 and lost 20 with Seattle the past year, is a certain regular. He seems to be one of those rarities, a left hander who has both control and ability to stand up under work. It is not difficult to see how Elliott pitched 45 complete games in the Coast League, for his delivery is as effortless as the glide of a swan. Elliott simply can't miss.

The team in brief, is topheavy with pitchers and, in fact, battery candidates in general. It had three fair catchers last year in Charles Hargreaves, George O'Neill and Hank Deberry who must be carried to work with Vance. They obviously weren't enough, so Robbie traded Grimes away for "Butch" Henline, of the Phillies.

Meantime, the infield was permitted to stand pretty much as is. It was rightfully to behold in 1926. In place of Chick Fawcett at second base, Jay Vintage was called from Memphis and seems to be an improvement on his predecessor. Patridge, a native of Mountain Gap, hasn't hit much to date and doesn't look as though he will. But he is aggressive, fast and has what they call a "double play arm" and probably will make the raffle. Fawcett and Bill Rheil, up from Greenville are the remaining second basemen in camp and the former is certain to be carried for he can play good ball for a week or two at a time.

Babe Herman is playing first base with marked indifference but he has no one to beat out for the job. Johnny Butler's great steadiness will get him the nod at short. Bobby Barrett, ex-cub, is up from Memphis to play third base but the tip is that Bill Merritt will appear at the bag again this year.

Friendly To Florida

Judging from comments in certain northern newspapers during the latter part of 1925, we get the impression that Florida was about as popular as an American debt commissioner in Paris...

There has been a noticeable tendency in recent months on the part of northern papers to say something nice about Florida. And most of them now, if they can't think of something nice to say are keeping still, with the possible exception of the New York Times, the New York World, and the Chicago Tribune...

The Oklawaha Argus-Press, published in Michigan, came to our desk recently and offers an appropriate illustration of what we have in mind. The editor was writing of the Florida for censure, and said that this was no reflection on Florida in general...

"Many a head, no doubt," he writes, "is wagging in the northern and western cities because of the bank failures in Palm Beach, Fla.; many a man is assuming the 'I told you so' attitude and chortling over the demise of the Florida."

"Somehow we can't quite agree—Florida may indeed be experiencing a depression now. But no financial depression advantages of climate, sea and soil. They are just as good as they ever were."

"We have a feeling that in a very short time Florida will be saying, 'Depression? What depression?'"

What Is It? Just as many doctors, evangelists, ministers and reformers of one kind or another are beginning to take heart and believe that girls were about to come out of the closet behind their make up, along comes the report of the American Chemical Society and declares that the use of cosmetics has increased six hundred percent since the War.

While our memory of the girl of 1918 generally may be somewhat dimmed, our recollection of her visage is swarmed by the memory of the girl of 1927. Day as they are marked as Indians about to go on the war path. Their cheeks flamed with the red stripes of the American flag. Certainly there was nothing to excite curiosity about a calcimined woman.

But the American Chemical Society says the use of cosmetics has increased six hundred percent since then. Grandmothers and old men must be falling to their knees and wondering how it happened. It is not only the use of powder and another twenty million on perfume and toilet waters, over a million and a half on hair dyes, and over eight million on lip sticks and incidentals, or a total of nearly one hundred million for all these things.

As Brisbane Sees It

By ARTHUR BRISBANE FOR CATHAY IS BOILING. GREAT PRICE WAR? NOT YET. WANTED—AN ISSUE. Copyright 1927 by Star Co.

IN CHINA the expected has happened, and that is the most unexpected thing that could have happened. Cantonese have fought their way into Shanghai, foreigners occupy a thin strip of territory, with the rest of American and Japanese warships in the harbor, ready to do what they can. Many foreign troops landed on Chinese soil yesterday, including 1,500 troops from this country. The situation does not look cheerful.

"China for the Chinese" is the slogan of the Cantonese. They are careless or too aggressive, some of them will be hurt.

FRENCH TROOPS have had trouble with the Chinese. A British officer and three men were wounded by snipers and the British opened fire with machine guns, but the Chinese did not retreat. It is a big order. The "entire neighborhood" contains 400,000 people.

CYRUS H. K. CURTIS' Newspaper discovers a "great automobile" based on Henry Ford's 1920 car, open model. Not much of a "price war" when you remember that the Lincoln price was reduced to $250 when you remember "six wheel brakes" was added to the model.

The news evidently does not disturb investors in General Motors yesterday, closing price $170. Earlier in the year it was $145.50.

GOVERNOR RITCHIE of Maryland tells Louis Schuler the Democratic party should stop squabbling and unite to fight for the fight for two Democratic candidates. He said at least would fight for a change. He will find it hard sledding.

FIGHTING "ISSUES" seem scarce. It is hard to take children's minds off Santa Claus at the Christmas time. It is hard to take the minds of Americans from property which happens to be a Republican brand. The Republican Club, and his "fighting" campaign issue will be, "If you like me, keep me."

IN MANY TRAGEDIES which plays a part. A man is found dead in bed, his head battered, wire twisted around his neck. A man did it to oblige the wife, younger than the dead husband. Detectives found a glassful of whiskey on the table beside the body.

MR. CLANCY is picked up dead. Having eaten "pleasantly enough" at a restaurant, they were told a lady upstairs had supplied them with drink. The man went up, the ladies waited. "What is it?" demanded the girl. "The dickens you say," replied the Admiral. "A parrot!" she cried. "What is it?" replied the girl. "A parrot!" she cried. "What is it?" replied the girl. "A parrot!" she cried.

THERE ARE in the city of New York at least 20,000 of these "parrots" which have much North-Carolina in their make up. They are found, presently, eating a breakfast consisting of flapjacks and sausage. They are found, presently, eating a breakfast consisting of flapjacks and sausage. They are found, presently, eating a breakfast consisting of flapjacks and sausage.

ROBLES, SPANISH Bullfighters killed bulls for two months in Mexico, earned $4,000. The California man border and the Juana border men have the $45,000.

"BULLFIGHTERS never have slowly, but steadily increasing revenue," says a friend of Robinson's. They are all gamblers. That fact keeps them working like mad.

MANY AMERICANS are not so different. They also rarely have any real estate. They have never paid money without gold. That keeps them working.

FOOLISHNESS is, perhaps humanity's greatest asset. If those that save money all lived on it in Illinois, instead of being it to sharpen, there might not so much idleness in the country.

FOR ONE THING we should be grateful. Our cousins in Europe will teach us to fly, whether we expect to send to New York next fall or simply as big as the "Maid of the Air" is to be a part of our lives. There is no more reason why the farmer should live on his farm than there is why the banker should live in his bank.

THE MIDDLE WEST FIGHTS over here with a new vigor. It is a fight for the future of the West. It is a fight for the future of the West. It is a fight for the future of the West.

ROY SCOTTS in England will fight barefooted. The boys will be "scared" by the sight of the "Maid of the Air" is to be a part of our lives. There is no more reason why the farmer should live on his farm than there is why the banker should live in his bank.
