

PEACEFUL SOLUTION ARRIVES IN THE NEAR EAST TANGLE TURKS WILL GET THRACE

WITH PROPER SAFEGUARDS
FOR CHRISTIAN MINORI-TIES GUARANTEED
ALSO NEUTRALITY

In the Dardanelles—Martial Law Declared in Athens and Greece is Boiling

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 11.—Peaceful solution of the Near Eastern tangle apparently has been reached on a basis of the surrender of Eastern Thrace to the Turks with the proper safeguards for Christian minorities and neutrality of Dardanelles.

ATHENS, Oct. 11.—Martial law was proclaimed in Athens last night. This action has been taken to prevent hot heads in the army from opposing the government's decision in accepting the peace of Eastern Thrace.

A decree of martial law, signed by Constantine on the eve of his abdication, was not made operative because of the fall of the government.

MUDIANA, Oct. 11.—The armistice agreement was signed here last night by the Greek representatives of the conference. The representatives of the Turks accepted the revised protocol of General Harrington had present and acceptance to Ismet Pasha and to the national delegate, for warded to the Angora government for ratification.

General Harrington had informed Is-met Pasha that the convention and protocol of Britain's last word and the Turks gave their unqualified acceptance to the terms. On his part, Is-met Pasha replied that he hoped his government would accept the conditions of the armistice and promised a reply by 5 o'clock that evening. In the meantime, the British commander returned to Constantinople where he remained yesterday afternoon, proceeding later to Mudiana on the Iron Duke to watch the Turkish decision.

Turkish delegates were somewhat dismayed and disappointed over the attitude taken by France and Britain. Paris conference puzzled them because they were amazed that French friendship, on which they counted as a main prop in the negotiations, did not yield the results they expected.

At the session of the conference on Monday night, Ismet Pasha expressed his satisfaction at the terms of the armistice. He said to General Harrington that his new armistice consisted of a contradiction to the assurance given to me by General Charpy.
The convention, instead of placing the Dardanelles in Turkish hands, only makes matters worse.

General Harrington replied merely that General Charpy has consented to the terms.

ATHENS, Oct. 11.—After numerous delays and interruptions, the work of the Mudiana conference reached a concluding point yesterday with the signature to Ismet Pasha, the National representative, for acceptance of the protocol agreed to by all the parties, which as Lieut. General Harrington described it, would give the Turks Eastern Thrace within 45 days.

The convention, consisting of 15
articles, is drawn on liberal lines, showing strongly traces of French influence on the side of the Kemalists.
Under it, the Greeks will evacuate Eastern Thrace within 15 days and complete the transfer to the Turks in additional month. The Turkish civil administration will follow closely on the heels of the departing Greeks, the orderly transfer being under the supervision of the Allied missions and Allied forces provisionally occupying Thrace, not exceeding seven battalions. The number of Turkish generals in the province during the interim period is decided to the discretion of the Kemalists subject to Allied approval.

The Turks, on their side, undertake not to place an army in Thrace until peace is ratified, while new neutral zones will be limited by fixed commissions.

The protocol gives no time limit for

SEMINOLE COUNTY FEDERATION WOM- ENS' CLUB BETTER HOMES WEEK—MRS. PORTER WAKEFIELD ON CAKE MAKING

Yesterday afternoon the model house was filled to overflowing when Mrs. Porter Wakefield demonstrated one of her famous cakes, and several kinds of icing. Mrs. Wakefield says:
"That while cake makers are born still any one with a reasonable amount of common sense can become an expert cake maker."
Mrs. Wakefield advises the ladies to use confectioners sugar rolled very fine and sifted and then rolled again and sifted before measuring and using.
To obtain the best results the flour should be heated and sifted before measuring and then sifted again before placing in the cake.

Batter should be mixed with the sugar with the hands for the human contact just the degree of heat necessary for the proper mixing of a cake.
Mrs. Wakefield says that two people can make a cake better than one for while one is mixing the ingredients the other can be heating the eggs and that after the eggs are beaten they should be added to the cake and not allowed to set.
Many other useful and instructive things in cake making were told while Mrs. Wakefield expertly mixed the cake. Then while the cake was making things were explained.

As soon as the cake was baked it served and our expert cake maker, Mrs. McLaughlin said that it was quite as good as Angle Food.
The following were the receipts that Mrs. Wakefield demonstrated.

laying the foundation for their future training and life work. If you read over the statement which Mr. Everett makes, you can understand just what he is driving at—dances, jazz parties, auto rides, picture shows, card playing, boys smoking cigarettes, girls parading their painted cheeks and highly rouged lips, all have a part in keeping some of the children back with their studies. The majority of the cases, however, do not fall upon the shoulders of the children but upon those of the parents who, if their child fails, blame the teacher right away, when, as a matter of fact, the main reason is that the parents themselves have been lax, they don't pay enough attention to the schooling of the children and they don't have the nerve and courage to set their foot down upon the things mentioned above and show the children wherein such a thing is not right and out of place for those who are going to high and grammar school.

Parents have a responsibility in the teaching of the young, just the same as the teacher and unless those parents help keep their children morally, spiritually and physically clean the same condition is going to be reached in Lakeland that prevailed here three or four years ago. Prof. Everett is right. He is merely hinting now as to what he is trying to stop and he deserves the support of every citizen for the sake of the children in keeping them where they belong, it will be the greatest blessing for them in the end that it means better citizens in the future and the children themselves will later thank those who were so kind and considerate in having a part in the character building of the young men and women of this locality. COUNTRY NEEDS LAW ENFORCEMENT, NOT NEW LAWS, SAYS GEORGIAN WHO IS FIRST WOMAN CHOSEN U. S. SENATOR

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 10.—"The woman who retains her good sense and intellect will realize that it is not new laws but enforcement that we need." This was the statement of Mrs. W. H. Felton, who has become the first woman United States Senator, as she declared at her home here yesterday that she is succeeding the late Senator Thomas E. Watson, without exciting herself over such questions as the tariff, the bonus and the fast-disappearing "flapped" style of girl.

"Good laws and good law makers," she continued, "we already have. I shall not strive to win glory in statesmanship. If only I can aid in making men and women live cleaner, sweeter and more wholesome lives, I shall be well-satisfied."

Mrs. Felton reminds one of the old-fashioned mother portrayed on the American stage today. Her hair is as white as snow and her face wrinkled, but despite her age she is very active. She possesses a magnetic personality. Although retiring in her manner, the "grand old woman of Georgia" as she is known throughout the South, talks as fluently as she writes and does not hesitate to express her views on the important issues of the day.

"I am not interested in the fast-disappearing flapper type of girl," she smiled as she removed her gold rimmed glasses, "but I am interested in the modern young woman. The light has been accustomed to consider our normal due. Naturally we are great builders. We are constantly building new towns, and these must be provided with houses for the citizens, stores for traders, churches and schools for all the people, roads to make connections with outside points and a multitude of essential conveniences. This is especially true of Florida, where towns spring up overnight and quickly grow to city size.

During the war building of all kinds was done, but because of the more pressing consideration of the war, their lack of material and labor and the uncertainty of the future. After the war it required a few years for the people to regain their equilibrium, and settle themselves down to normal conditions once more. But they were really waiting, and they had to be prepared for the best. They were waiting for a crash. The people's mind to take up suddenly. It was a great relief to them. It was a great relief to them. It was a great relief to them.

With the beginning of 1922 began a new era of great building activity. More than 100,000,000 worth of building contracts were let in Florida, and the total value of building contracts in the United States was $1,000,000,000.

Residential building still maintains its lead with $100,000,000 worth of contracts, or 11 per cent of the total building contracts. Public works and utilities amounted to $40,000,000 or 15 per cent; business buildings, $38,122,000, or 12 per cent; and educational structures to $2,000,000, or 10 per cent.

Compare these facts with the news that the railroads are almost submerged with the flood of business that is pouring in upon them; the money is working to capacity; the banks have plenty of money for legitimate investment, and you will admit that prosperity is no longer lurking "around the corner"—it is right with us here and now.

of a new day is growing in America and I believe that with its advancement we shall see a new type of citizen. A strong nation is dependent upon its women and the manner in which the women of this country grasp their opportunities.

"The most romantic development in this country's history comes about because our problems today are social and economic and this is work in which women are needed.

"I am thankful for the good laws that we have now, but even more important are the greater laws that society must observe if we are to have a strong citizenry. We must have more thought of the simple, sweet virtues of life."

"Men and women must be good because they want to be good. No amount of legislation can make them good," she asserted, "although the future of our nation and of our race depends largely upon it.

"I see a better citizenry coming to America only through efforts to improve our living standards. The working man must have a living wage. He must not be forced too much in competition with unskilled labor from abroad. There must be every encouragement."

Senator Felton declared that the legislation this country most needs today is that gained "at the knees of the mothers of America—laws that are greater than laws."

FLOODS NOT BAD IN EVERGLADES

Flood conditions in Florida's Everglades are not so alarming as some folks believe them to be, according to W. A. McRae, state commissioner of agriculture and member of the Everglades drainage commissioners, who left Monday in Jacksonville en route to the capital after an inspection of the entire area with other officials of the drainage department.

The progress of drainage work in the Everglades, Commissioner McRae said, is in no manner comparable to those of 1912 and he predicts that the chance for a recurrence of the flood such as was recently experienced will be extremely small after the completion of the St. Lucie canal, the main artery of central, next summer. The St. Lucie canal will be completed early next July, he said.

Accompanying Mr. McRae on his trip to Tallahassee were State Treasurer J. B. Lanning, also a member of the board of drainage commissioners; F. C. Lott, chief drainage engineer of the state; and Colonel Gilbert A. Youngberg, United States district engineer for Florida.

The inspecting party spent all of the last week in the Everglades, traveling about 1,000 miles. The party was accompanied by a large number of officials of the drainage department. The party was accompanied by a large number of officials of the drainage department.

the report of circuit judges who met here at the call of Governor Cary A. Hardee, to formulate a proposed revision to the legislature at its next session.

The judges recommended that in cases where a jury of 12 men is required, the verdict of eleven be accepted while in panels of six men, all except capital cases are tried by juries of six men.

Another recommendation deals with present procedure under which a case in which two electors sign affidavits that he is prejudiced. The judges suggested that the presiding judge be allowed to sit in judgment of himself in determining whether he would be prejudiced if the allegations set forth in the two affidavits were true. As an effort to thwart the freeing of law violators on technicalities, the judges' conference proposed that the state be given the right of appeal from the judgment of lower courts where cases are dismissed on demurrer, quashed indictments, or the like.

The provision in the code that counsel for the defendant shall have the last argument before the jury when the defendant does not take the stand, would be eliminated in the proposed changes. The conference also adopted Governor Hardee's suggestion that the jury selection method be stabilized by establishment in each county of a jury commission who would draw up for prospective jury service the names of not less than 200 nor more than 500 qualified "male" persons. This, with a view to improving the personnel of juries.

No provision has been made in this state as yet for service on juries by women. The present law also would be amended to allow the removal for trial to another county of criminals when, in the opinion of the governor, circuit judge or sheriff, a fair trial would not be accorded in the immediate community.

FESTIVE FLORIDA GUAVA HAS ODOR ALL ITS OWN

POSTOFFICE MAKES KICK (By The Associated Press) BUFFALO, Oct. 11.—The festive guava, that semi-tropical fruit which, when dead, ripe, has an odor all its own, again has come to the front—this city, recently mailed by parcel post, a box of guavas to a daughter in South Carolina. When the package arrived at the South Carolina post office it needed no badly ho expert to notify the postmaster of that fact. The postmaster deposited the package in the garbage can and reported to the postoffice department that "the shipment had been dead too long."

The incident is similar to the one that occurred near Clearwater about Cracker driving to town in a wagon picked up a tourist going afoot the same way. After riding awhile the tourist snuffed several times and queried: "What's that powerful odor?"

ROTAS HAVE A GREAT TIME AT DAYTONA BEACH

Members of the Orlando Rotary Club made the trip to Daytona Beach to put on a model afternoon for the Rotarians of that city, most of the party returning last evening and reporting a most enjoyable visit. Seven members of the Sanford Rotary Club joined the local delegation on the trip.

The Rev. W. A. Cooper, pastor of the First Methodist church here, and a Kiwanian, was the principal speaker, taking for his subject "Cooperation of business men in all walks of life."

The Rev. Mr. Cooper stressed the spirit of the civic organizations of Daytona, Sanford and Orlando, as heralding a new day in our progress. The Sanford and Orlando Rotarians then gave what is known as a Rotary lesson, the Daytona members of the Orlandoans made up the session of Sanford as "the little city just north of Orlando." A Sanford Rotarian immediately said that he represented the statement, and said that we are not a little city, we have a population.

"No you haven't," declared S. Y. Way. "The last census of 1920 gave you a little more than five hundred." Then the argument grew warmer and finally the Sanford speaker and Mr. Way advanced toward each other with their fists ready for action. The play ended when they were within striking distance and the Orlando and Sanford Rotas broke into the song, "It's always fair weather when good fellows get together."

The Sanford and Orlando Rotarians then gave what is known as a Rotary lesson, the Daytona members of the Orlandoans made up the session of Sanford as "the little city just north of Orlando." A Sanford Rotarian immediately said that he represented the statement, and said that we are not a little city, we have a population.

"No you haven't," declared S. Y. Way. "The last census of 1920 gave you a little more than five hundred." Then the argument grew warmer and finally the Sanford speaker and Mr. Way advanced toward each other with their fists ready for action. The play ended when they were within striking distance and the Orlando and Sanford Rotas broke into the song, "It's always fair weather when good fellows get together."

Sanford and Orlando speakers then related how the two cities were bitter rivals, had become fast friends. That was the Rotary lesson. S. Kendrick Guernsey, of the local club presided at the meeting. The Daytona club will return to the visit within the near future, Orlando Sentinel.

COLORS INFLUENCE CHARACTER

When a child has been born upon a bright and sunny day, a home is not only a place in which to be sheltered by care and comfort, but of fact, and inspired by a love, it is literally the chemical laboratory for a new creation. And the furnishings and color of this laboratory produce either desirable or disastrous effects on the sensitive minds of children, just as acid or alkali turns litmus paper red or blue in a chemical laboratory.

The bright red, for instance, will overstimulate the already restless spirit of a fidgety child, while the blue and white type of young person may be benefited, perhaps, and awakened by the use of red.

Equally important is the question of design. To most children, a spot by or too often repeated design is a torment. A child's confinement in a room of this type, due to parents' oversight in counting up and down the number of colors, may be a disaster to the child's future.

Words should be restful, and a careful study made of the temperature, sex and age of the child in question. This will help to produce more balanced men and women, and make happy the home life of the boy and girl.

Too often mothers thoughtlessly send their children off to study or play, themselves in their own rooms, and neglect to consider the child's needs and necessities in their rooms that will assist them to produce better school work and make happy their leisure hours.

All children's rooms are usually a combination of bedroom, play room and study, so it is well to keep in mind colors, design, arrangement and practicality for all purposes.

Mothers whose boys and girls are started off to school again, who are anxious to make the home rooms the most desirable places for play and study, will do well to visit the model house at Park Avenue, Demonstration Week is the Better Homes in America campaign, in which Seminoles county Federation of Women's Clubs has enlisted with hundreds of other communities throughout the United States.

HARVEST LARGER THAN LAST YEAR

(By The Associated Press)
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. Crops generally suffered loss in prospective production during September, but the harvests will be larger than they were last year, except in the case of corn, buckwheat, sugar beets and peanuts, according to preliminary estimates and forecasts of production announced today by the department of agriculture. These showed a reduction, as compared with a month ago, 25,000,000 bushels of oats, 21,000,000 bushels of corn, 8,000,000 bushels of spring wheat, 16,000,000 bushels of peanuts, 5,000,000 bushels of white potatoes, 2,000,000 bushels of apples. There were increase, however, in the forecasts of tobacco, barley, buckwheat, rice and beans.

FREIGHT RATES MUST COME DOWN

Railroad officials estimate that for the last five months of this year the Class I roads will earn net operating incomes of 480 million dollars. This will make a total of 900 millions for the year, compared with earnings of 615 millions for 1921. Nine hundred millions net income equals five per cent on 18 billion dollars, the total property value of the roads, and that doesn't take into account other income amounting to a considerable item in figuring to a considerable.

Compare this with the reported net income of more than half of the country's great fruit crop being over 100 million dollars, and it is not hard to see the fruit growers to suffer. The fruit growers will come next year with lower freight rates. These we have lower freight rates from the crop from which we have hoped to much will become more profitable than an asset.

The fruit growers have not three months ago, and the war than any other crop. This year, however, our crop is being crushed by the more than 100 million dollars of other crops. The fruit growers are not getting any of the benefit of the great increase in freight rates. The fruit growers are not getting any of the benefit of the great increase in freight rates.

year ago. We are making 78 tons of pig iron for every 63 tons that we were making before the war.

The steel makers have increased the wages of their army of day laborers 20 per cent, or one fifth. It is evident the steel makers expect plenty of business.

Wheat has always been considered the regulator of prices by economists. Today it is probably the cheapest product in the United States—the one great staple product which is below the pre-war price. Wheat sells for from 70 to 80 cents a bushel at country shipping stations. The buying power of the dollar is down to 80 cents. So our farmers are only realizing between 50 and 55 cents a bushel actual money for this price-regulating food product.—Kapper's Weekly.

STATE DIVISION—NOT NOW

"Just how strong is the Herald for state division?" asks the Palm Beach Post in discussing the suggestion of the Miami Herald that after all state divisions is the only cure for the situation growing out of the failure of the succeeding legislatures for the past thirty years to handle re-apportionment as specified required by the constitution.

The question might well be asked. State division talk now only belittles the issue. The state is now engaged in considering the reapportionment amendment which the last legislature submitted to the people of Florida for ratification or rejection at the forthcoming November election. The Herald has endorsed the fight of the Tribune against the amendment but it is not holding the cause any by suggesting a state division agitation at this time. If the people of Florida in these sections already more than fully treated in the matter of representation in the legislative halls at the forthcoming November election, the Herald has endorsed the fight of the Tribune against the amendment but it is not holding the cause any by suggesting a state division agitation at this time.

HOOD HAS FINE APPLE ORCHARD

J. D. Hood brought some fine wine sap apples to the Herald office yesterday that were of most excellent appearance and fine quality. About eight years ago Mr. Hood planted out this fine orchard in the Blue Ridge section of Georgia and the editor of the Herald thought he was foolish talking about good apples in Georgia. We are forced to confess that Hood was right and we were wrong for his apples are among the best that we ever seen and if he has 3,000 bushels of them this season he should worry about paying freight bills. With such apples as these in Georgia our own state should get all the apples they need this winter with the high freight rate cut out.

NEW FOOTBALL SCORE RULING IS EXPLAINED

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Football officials in various parts of the country have given such conflicting interpretations of the two important changes in the rules inaugurated this year, one of which changes radically the scoring system of the game, that the Intercollegiate Football Association yesterday issued a statement in an effort to clear up the situation.

One of the troubles is over the rule which was designed to prevent a player from kicking a try for goal through a goal post after a touch-down. Some teams have interpreted this as "try for point" through the goal post, while others have interpreted it as "try for point" kicking the ball through the goal post after the kickers had their men recovered.

Referees and other officials have also been confused by the rule which provides that a player who has been substituted during the game may not be substituted again at any time during the game. A player who has been substituted may, however, be substituted again if he is injured and is unable to continue.

Mr. Hall's statement regarding the rule is that a player who has been substituted during the game may not be substituted again at any time during the game. A player who has been substituted may, however, be substituted again if he is injured and is unable to continue.

ALL OLD PLAYERS AND MANY NEW ONES FARMERS AN DBUSINESS MEN WILL HAVE TEAMS THIS SEASON

SANFORD HAD THE MOST SAND

The O. H. S. Wildcats began to lose their game with Sanford when they first began practice for the season. They had the Sanford boys entirely out-classed in technique and speed but when it came to the old endurance stuff the Sanford lads were there with the goods.

The day was hot and the field was sandy and the Wildcats were not accustomed to the heavy going. For the first three quarters of the game they went like a house afire and succeeded in piling up a 12 to 0 score against the Celery City lads, but when the whistle blew for the final period of the game the tongues of the Wildcats were hanging down to their knees or thereabouts and the Sanford lads had little trouble in running around them for three touchdowns ending the game with an 18 to 12 victory.

Endurance is what the Wildcats came up missing and endurance can only be had by intensive training and hard work. Training rules must be strictly kept if a football player expects to have the pep in the fourth quarter of a hard game. Ocala's team will have to concentrate on hard work and less sugar and less tobacco, if they wish to put out a winning team.

For the first three quarters of the game the Wildcats went well. Dan and the lightweight quarter went in during the second quarter with the ball about one yard from the goal and took it over for the first touch-down of the game. Moses at quarter played a good game of ball all the way thru. Moses and Lewis alternated with the ball and ran it the entire length of the field when Lee Lewis made a broken field run for Ocala's second touch-down.

Ocala's second touch-down was made on a play which was made with short forward passes, and two of their three touchdowns were made with this play. Ocala Star

SQUADRON TO ESCORT VETS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—A squadron of French troops will be sent to attend the national convention of the American Legion at New Orleans. The destroyers will escort the French steamer to this port reaching quarantine early tomorrow morning. The army, navy and police airplanes will flock over the steamer as she reaches port. The visitors will receive a greeting from General Pershing and high military and political leaders. Mayor Hylan will receive them at city hall after which they will parade up Fifth avenue and then board a train for Washington.

The foreign warriors will visit the grave of the unknown soldier in Arlington cemetery and then proceed to New Orleans.

$3,000 A SQUARE FOOT

(By The Associated Press)
ORLANDO, Oct. 11.—A new figure in real estate values was noted here today when Charles Rock leased his home at $3,000 a front foot, the lease calling for 7 per cent on a valuation of $200,000. The Rock building is located on the corner of Oak street and Orange avenue across from the new eleven story hotel and another nine story hotel.

The lease was taken by Clifford C. Sopering of New York, who announced that the present building would be torn down in the near future and "one of the largest and finest structures in the south" will be erected in its place. The deal will be the means of bringing a business of national scope. In the 99-year term, the Rock interest will receive $600,000 for the property.

This coming week will see the re-organization of the Sanford Bowling League and two new clubs added. The Farmers and the Business men will be the two new clubs.

A schedule of twenty-five games for each club is the idea of the league now, and if this idea is put into effect the schedule will consist of three games a week and the season will last until the latter part of April.

The Men's Club, Congregational Club, Rotary, Farmers Club and the Business Men's Club are all in the process of organization at this time and the Kiwanis Club is expected to get in line before the first meeting of the league which takes place next week.

The personnel of the different clubs will be changed but little and in such cases where there is a change being caused by some of the old players joining the new clubs.

R. C. Bower, the best bowler of the League last year, will in all probability be lined up with the Business Men's team this year. This will put a dent in the Kiwanis Club's good bowling. This season another club is given its berth, then Lloyd, another member of the Kiwanis Club's good bowling last season, will join the Men's Club. But the Men's Club will lose an exceptionally good player in Amann, who will play with the Farmers this season.

The Congregational Club will offer a team which looks like the strongest organization, using in addition to the same old players of last year, several new ones that are rated among the best in the city. The Congregational Club won the pennant last year but this was cancelled in addition to their good bowling, by the other clubs not being fully organized at the start.

The Rotary Club will be one to be recognized this season. There is little doubt that they will be a strong force in the league. They did towards the end of last season, they will be able to hold up with the rest of them.

Claude Couch, Ralph Chapman, Clyde Chapman and Emil Amann will be the farmers' best bet, as all these mentioned are good bowlers and expect to let the rest of the league know that they are present and active this year.

The Business Men's team will include a team with the exception of R. C. Bower, but we are sure they will be enough good bowlers on First street to give them a strong line up.

Arrangements are being made to play on the Parish House alleys as last year, with three games a week instead of two. The alleys will be in readiness for the opening game, the date to be decided later.

If there are any bowlers who have not as yet been approached by their different organizations, get in touch with them at once so that you may get lined up for the start off.

A full account of the first meeting, together with the different line ups and schedule for the season will be published next week.

Announcement that a group of American professional base ball players, including six that participated in the world's series, will use a ship carrying a foreign flag to transport them to the Orient on a barnstorming trip has brought a protest from the National Merchant Marine Association.

The Association wired Landis and asked that he assist that they use an American ship. We say, what's the difference, they are not going to play while on the ship.

Rain today caused the fourth postponement of the Cubs and White Sox battle for the championship of Chicago. Better just call it off and toss a coin to see who's who.

Omer Zell is one of the Browns new pickups. They obtained Zell from St. Louis for the Texas League. He is a third baseman and batted over .300 last year. The purchase price was not disclosed.
