of life. The Greek Presbyterians, Greeks, Romans and Jews are but a few of those who believed the egg to hold the mystery of life. The Persians celebrated the new year with a "Fest of the Eggs," and the Jews used colored eggs to celebrate their Passover, which is held on the first full moon of spring. The Easter rabbit is a survivor of an ancient Egyptian custom, because hares were born with both eyes open, they were regarded as sacred to the "Open-eyed" or full moon. In Norse mythology the hare was sacred to Freia, the goddess of life and spring. The idea of hares laying Easter eggs is believed to be a later German innovation. In America, the hare became a rabbit, or Easter bunny, an error for which the candy-makers were probably responsible.

Warren Calls Probe Head 7 Kinds Of Liar

Governor Lashes Out At Dan Sullivan In Blistering Attack; Younger Also Hit

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 26—(AP)—Governor Warren today called Daniel P. Sullivan, director of the Greater Miami Crime Commission, seven different types of a liar.

In a prepared statement issued by press secretary Loyal Compton, Warren challenged Sullivan to prove he has asked the State Racing Commission to reinstate Charles Broad, alleged bookmaker, to Florida racing tracks.

Warren, who is in Jacksonville attending a 50 years of progress celebration, referred to Sullivan as an "experienced liar," a "most slippery and persistent liar," an "intemperate liar," an "egregious liar," a "liar-for-a-price," and a "continuing liar."

Last week Warren branded Sullivan as a "third liar" after the Crime Commission official claimed the Governor asked the Racing Commission to let Broad come back to Florida tracks at the request of an official of the National Democratic Party.

Bookmaking is illegal at Florida race tracks. All bets must be placed through state supervised pari-mutuel windows and taxed. Warren also charged Jack Younger, president of the Crime Commission, visited the home and associated with a notorious gambler and had received a mysterious envelope under a table in a Miami bar.

Younger denied the accusations, voluntarily went before the grand jury for questioning about them and challenged the Governor to name the alleged "notorious gambler." The Governor has not given the name.

Warren's complete statement about Sullivan:

"The experienced liar, Daniel P. Sullivan, who broadcasts for a certain canal, has told yet another lie about me. He is reported in the press to have broadcast last Saturday night that 'the (meaning me) cannot deny that he knew (Continued On Page Two)'"

Coordination Of American Defense Urged By Truman

$80 Million Aid For Latin America Under Consideration

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26—(AP)—President Truman urged the nations of the new world today to strengthen and coordinate their defense forces against "great perils" posed by the "aggressive expansion of the Soviet system toward our own hemisphere."

"We must now plan as a primary task for the strengthening and coordinated use of our defense forces in this hemisphere," Mr. Truman said in a speech prepared for the opening of the inter-American foreign ministers' meeting.

Southern Democrats May Oppose Truman In Bid For Third Term

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26—(AP)—

The signs indicated today that any new term bid by President Truman may meet with opposition within his party.

Most Washington politicians think Mr. Truman has hit a new low in popularity because of recent exposures of alleged influence peddlers within his Administration.

Many of these politicians agree that the Korean war venture has had a bad political reaction on the Truman Administration, despite its recent military turn for the better.

Blight Resistant Celery Is Shown To Local Growers

New Variety Achieved By Inbreeding Of Tame, Wild Types

A new type of blight resistant celery, the seeds of which will soon be introduced for commercial use, was viewed by growers, shippers and technical specialists from Gainesville at the University of Florida's Central Florida Experiment Station's field day here Friday.

Dr. R. W. Rupprecht, director of the station, pointed out that the new variety has been named Emerson parcel, in honor of Dr. Emerson of Cornell University, whose experiments, in cooperation with those of the local plant pathologists had resulted in the new variety. This was obtained through interbreeding of wild and tame varieties.

The seed was released to the trade last fall, he stated. The celery is tasty and grows both on sand and muck land. Tests at Belle Glade have shown that it thrives best on muck land.

Efforts are now being made to produce a blight resistant white celery, but so far this has not been possible, he stated.

Dr. Philip Westgate showed growers the results of his experiments in applying varied amounts of fertilizer to celery. The heaviest application, five tons to the acre resulted in definite signs of blight heart. Plants on the other hand which had received no fertilizer were of dwarf size.

Among other experiments, the results of which were evident in full grown celery were applications in varied amounts of manganese sulphate, lime, wood ashes and (Continued On Page Two)

High Court Turns Down 4th Appeal Of Negro Rapist

Law Requiring Loyalty Oath Of Candidates Is Upheld

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26—(AP)—William McGee, Mississippi Negro twice sentenced to death for the rape of a white woman, failed for the fourth time today to win a full-scale hearing before the Supreme Court.

The action means McGee must go to the electric chair unless his lawyers can find another delaying device.

McGee's case has attracted world-wide attention. Governor Fielding Wright of Mississippi has charged that Communists were leading the fight to save the Negro from execution.

The latest appeal to the high court claimed McGee never had a trial, including his contention that he had had "voluntary" sex relations with the woman he was convicted of raping.

Mississippi's attorney general, both state and lower federal courts had gone into that an other angles and were convinced of McGee's guilt.

In other actions today, the high court:

1. Ruled 5 to 4 that suits to compel landlords to refund overcharges to tenants in decontrolled areas are not limited to a one-year period before rent controls were lifted. The high tribunal overturned a lower court's action in throwing out a $1,063 refund to a Dallas tenant for overcharges covering a period of 20 months.

2. Agreed to rule on the validity of a section of Maryland's so-called Ober law which requires a loyalty oath by persons running for state or city office. Thelma Gerende, who sought to run for (Continued On Page Two)

McGrath Tells Senate Committee Costello Is Immune From Deportation Action

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26—(AP)—

J. Edgar Hoover said today a man who later became a deputy police inspector in New York used to have meetings with "one of the most prominent criminals in the underworld." Telling the story to the Senate Crime Investigating Committee, Hoover did not name the police officer but identified the "criminal" as Irving Sherman, a man long sought by the senators as a witness for their hearings.

NEW YORK, Mar. 26—(AP)—James J. Moran, resigned New York city water commissioner, was indicted on perjury charges today growing out of testimony before Senate crime investigators. Moran indicted on charges of lying under oath to the Senate committee was Louis Weber, acknowledged Brooklyn number bookmaker. The indictments were returned by a federal grand jury.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26—(AP)—FBI director J. Edgar Hoover today urged the Senate Crime Committee to continue its exposure of organized crime which "has polluted all too many communities of our nation."

He called also for local communities to take the lead in ruthlessly eliminating criminal elements and their ally, "the political renegade." Every community, Hoover suggested, should have a yearly grand jury investigation to scrutinize the administration of justice.

Hoover and Attorney McGrath were before the Senate committee to discuss what new laws may be needed to combat crime.

McGrath urged that Congress tighten the laws against perjury—false testimony under oath—and give him authority to grant (Continued On Page Two)

U. S. Scientists Are Skeptical Of New Atomic Discovery

BUENOS AIRES, Mar. 26—(AP)—

The Australian credited with discovering Argentina's new cheap method of producing atomic energy told foreign newsmen about it for three hours yesterday but left little doubt and no proof to what President Juan D. Peron announced Saturday.

The scientist is Ronald Richter, 42, now an Argentine citizen. He said, as did Peron, that Argentina would use the process not for bombs but in a long-range program to provide industrial power.

Peron announced Saturday that "controlled" atomic energy had been liberated by fusion of atoms under "enormous heat, as contrasted with "uncontrolled" energy liberated by U. S. atomic explosion produced by splitting the atom.

Argentina's atomic reaction, Richter said yesterday, was produced in a "solar reactor furnace" protected by stone walls that hundreds of millions of degrees—like the surface temperature of the sun—released controllable atomic energy, Richter reported.

He declined, for security reasons, to disclose details.

Someone broke into the Reconstruction Finance Corporation offices the other night and tried to steal some of their secret files. Oh, well, if you steal from others, you got to expect to be stolen from.

We are glad to see that one man accused of being a Communist has come clear, and he was Frederick Vanderbilt Field a grandson of old Commodore Vanderbilt, one of the biggest freebooters of them all, who coined the phrase "The public be damned". But Frederick was cleared, not of being a Communist, mind you, but of contempt of Congress, which is quite another story.

An interesting suggestion is made that teen-agers jalopies be required to fly red or yellow banners from their windshields like naval ships taking on fuel or ammunition so that others seeing the danger signals may take unusual precautions to avoid a collision. And while we are at it, why not some special sign too, for drivers who are blind or deaf, or liable to do at any moment from heart trouble? And why not a large black dot with a coffin scribbled over it for those who like to drive while drunk?

While the world tries to catch its breath after the revelation of evil mixed in an organized gambling, Bishop Bromley Ornam, president of the World Council of Churches, denounces those churches which sponsor gambling games. "Whenever a church supports legislation to permit gambling for revenue purposes, it becomes an ally of the Costellos and the Capones," the Bishop declared.
"How can prelates summon gamblers to repentance when support of gambling at the amateur level trains men for gambling at the professional level?" And when will the churches and similar organizations begin that they have no more right to break the law than anyone else.

One of America's top atomic scientists says that Russia may have as many as 50 atom bombs which could be used against this country in case of war. Just how such the betrayal of this country by Communists within the government and connected with atom bomb projects had to do with this accumulation of atom bombs in Russia is not easy to prove, but 50 bombs, while not many in comparison with this country's stockpile, is nevertheless large enough to do considerable damage to New York, Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, and a number of other American industrial centers. Any one who contributed in any way whatever to Russian scientific data on atomic bombs is in for a rough time if war comes to town.

It's funny that some people think it important. But only a newspaperman knows how deeply and sincerely everyone thinks that the thing he is interested in, his pet hobby or project, is the only important one in the world, the only one in which the public is interested. It is interesting, the only one deserving of free publicity, on the front page, too, please. And oh, when George Bernard Shaw made out his will, disposing of an estate of some $1,026,000, without taking into consideration the government's 50 percent cut of the estate, what do you suppose he was thinking of?

Source Of Corruption

One of the reasons why commercialized gambling is an evil in itself has its beginning in the fact that an even chance is not good enough for the professional gambler. He makes his living from gambling. Hence a gambling chance, the odds of the game, are not suited to his purpose. He has to have assurance that he will win more than he loses.
Otherwise he cannot stay in business.

This fact leads to all kinds of schemes to provide that assurance. The recent disclosure of the bribery of three star players of the basketball team of the City College of New York is an illustration of gambling operations. The three players were bribed to make certain that specified games, on which the professionals could then bet with confidence, would be lost by City College. This was the fourth such basketball scandal in New York since the war. There have been scandals of the sort in football, in boxing, and in other sports, both collegiate and professional. They have been so common in horse racing that they are part of the legend of the track.

The use of bribery to "fix" sports events does more than deny an even break to the sucker, the customer who does the non-professional betting. It introduces corruption into every field which is touched by commercialized gambling. The three City College players were ordinary college athletes, heroes of their classmates, young men like the ones we know in our own community, going to college to prepare themselves for a life work. Acceptance of gambling bribes makes a poor start.

"Do You Like Yourself?"

Once a friend of mine named Ed said to me, "For a very long time I didn't like myself." It was not said in self-pity but simply as an unfortunate fact. "It was a very difficult time," he said, "and very painful. I did not like myself for a number of reasons, some of them valid and some of them pure fancy. I would hate to have to go back to that."

"Then gradually," he said, "I discovered with surprise and pleasure that a number of people did like me. And I thought, if they can like me, why can't I like myself? Just thinking it did not do it, but slowly I learned to like myself and then it was all right."

This was not said in self-love in its bad connotation but in self-knowledge. He meant literally that he had learned to accept and like the person "Ed" as he liked other people.
It gave him a great advantage. Most people do not like themselves, put on masks and pomposities. They quarrel and boast and pretend and are jealous because they do not like themselves. But mostly they do not even know themselves well enough to form a true liking, and since we automatically fear and dislike strangers, we fear and dislike our stranger-selves.

Of Wider Interest

We don't know how many persons read very closely the report of a leading Southern newspaper publisher here concerning the supply of newspaper in the year ahead. Many readers may have dismissed it as a subject of interest only to the newspaper world.

Actually, the implications are far wider. In his discussion of the problem, George G. Biggers, president of the Atlanta Journal, said two large sawprint paper manufacturers are considering erecting mills in the South. Newspaper demands of the larger dailies alone would assure them a steady market, he said.

That is bringing the matter home to all the people of the South, particularly its farmers. Ever since the late, great Charles Herty proved it possible to make good newsprint from Southern pine, a new and expanding market for this raw product has been available for development in the South. Already two mills are in operation there in room for others, and when they are established, many farmers may find it as profitable to grow short-leaf pine as any of the more usual row crops.

The question of an adequate supply of newspaper is, of course, of vital concern to publishers. It also lies in, more and more directly, with the South's economy in its growth and search for greater stability. . . The Chattanooga Times.

Inter-American

He assailed the theory—advanced by some of his political opponents in this country—that the American nations can protect themselves regardless of what happens to the rest of the world.

"There will be no security in the world without the U.N.," he asserted. "Powerful and productive as the Western Hemisphere is we cannot make it safe by building a wall around it."

While he did not specify the precise steps he hopes the congresses meeting here for the next two or three weeks will take, it is known that the U. S. hopes to get agreement (1) for development of a strategic plan for Western Hemisphere defenses, (2) for building up the local strength of the Latin American nations on which the U. N. could call for help against aggression anywhere.

have drawn our cultural heritage," he said. "If Soviet subversion and Soviet armed force were to overthrow these nations, the consequences for all of us in the Western Hemisphere would be disastrous."

"We would lose these cultural and religious ties which mean so much to us. The international trade on which we are so dependent would be violently disrupted. Wars of all, we would be confronted by the hostile power on the shores of the Atlantic, capable of using the great economic resources of our conquered friends to strike across the ocean at our own independence."

"We must not and will not let that happen. We in the Western Hemisphere must help the free men of Europe who are resisting Soviet expansion."

In the Far East, Mr. Truman said, Communist imperialism presents another threat to the American nations.

"If Soviet Communism were to be successful in this venture," he said, "it would be a terrible blow to the great promise of the principle of freedom and peace which we uphold."

struction of a new type of colony.

An he suggested that dropping pamphlets on the Russians might help, but that too few of them could read, and those who could would probably not understand or believe what the pamphlets said.

Declaring that the Russians are cowards, and will not fight unless they have everything in their favor, Mr. Sheppard said American diplomats do not understand the Russian mind, and he pointed out the horrible mistake this country made when it called General Patton out of Czechoslovakia and lost that great country with its millions of fine soldiers and great Skoda armament works to the Russians. And he recalled the mar's assertion that "The ruler of Bohemia (Czechoslovakia) is the master of Europe."

The annual primary election for Rotary directors was held with the following men receiving the largest vote: Clarence Redding, F. D. Scott, Earle Turner, Roy

Four of these men will be elected directors at the next meeting.

He recommended, too, legislation aimed to deny use of communications facilities for gambling information. But he emphasized that any such law should take into account the importance of maintaining the freedom of the press.

Those indicted were James J.
McGrath, indicted for the New York water commission; and Louis Weber, acknowledged Brooklyn numbers bookmaker. They were accused of lying in testimony about their association with the water commission.

McGrath opposed suggested creation of a federal crime commission, saying it might lead to creation of a national police force.

Hoover also opposed a national police force. And, he declared, "what is really needed is not more laws but the will to enforce those laws already on the statute books."

"If the laws against gambling presently on the state and local statute books were uniformly and vigorously enforced, organized gambling could be eliminated within 48 hours in any community in the land," he said.

He said there were "local stars" in any community where gambling exists.

"Without question, these local stars have common purposes and working tools and may well have contacts with national figures in gambling, the so-called tycoons of the underworld," he went on.

But these same national figures are themselves dependent in their operations, upon the local gambling caesars.

"Blast the foundation of the local gambling czar, by vigorously ground that errors were made in instructions to, and admissions of evidence before, the jury.

Sanford Forum

Mr. R. L. Dean, Editor
Sanford Herald,
Sanford, Florida
Dear Mr. Dean:

We have been having a very satisfying response to our Easter letters of appeal, and want to express our sincere appreciation to you for publishing in your fine paper, the Sanford Herald, in your issue of March 6, 1951, the appeal, and for giving us such an effective space for it.

There is no other single factor that has meant as much to the Children's Home Society of Florida through all the years in whatever success we may have had in raising funds and rendering effective services to thousands of utterly homeless and helpless children from every portion of the State, and of every creed and belief, as the fine support that has come us from practically every newspaper in Florida.

Thanking you for being such a helpful partner in the continuance of our absolutely necessary services to children of all ages, and credits, and from every county in the State, including your own, and with best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,
Daniel P. Sullivan
State Superintendent

Warren Calls

about the Board case on Feb.
27, 1950, at the time the State Racing Commission unanimously refused to reinstate Broad. This is still another lie by Sullivan, apparently cooked up by him to keep his enormous salary contingent.

Sullivan is one of the most slippery and prevaricating liars in practice. A week ago, he broadcast two willful, deliberate, malicious and premeditated lies about me. Members of the State Racing Commission promptly branded them as lies. So it is six against one that Sullivan lied. Sullivan produced no proof whatever to support his two premeditated lies of a week ago.

"Yet he came right back a week later, last Saturday night, with an additional and supplemental lie. Sullivan certainly is a most prolific liar, combing and producing a new lie every time he is called on to lie. A normal man called in a lie would remain silent for a while, at least. Not so Sullivan. He goes right back into full production.

Again, I challenge the interperate liar, Daniel P. Sullivan, to prove his two charges of a field of the national Democratic week ago, to wit, (1) that an official Party telegraphed me in behalf of Charles Broad; (2) that I telephoned the State Racing Commission in behalf of Broad.
Again, I say both these charges are absolute, unqualified lies. I further say Sullivan made them known to the public.

"It seems unfair to the people that the egregious liar, Daniel P. Sullivan, should broadcast weekly an assortment of lies, knowing, what he knows, that he is not telling the truth. I know of no more effective way to protect the people from this liar-for-a-price, I have no way of knowing about other liars who may fool upon those who listen to his broadcasts, or otherwise circulate, a lie about me. I feel it my duty to let the people know he is lying.

(Incidentally, it is very revealing that Sullivan, by his own admission, should serve as spokesman for a Miami gambler who called him up to say he was not an associate of Colonel Younger.) "It is my earnest hope that the House Committee on Un-American Activities will deal in his lying about me during the ensuing two months, so that I may devote my full time to serving the people."

Korean War

defensive positions north of Seoul only last week, had been drawn. The only Reds spotted between the Americans and 38 was a single company. It was equipped with tanks. This unit was sighted north of Uijongbu.

Until the link-up, the Reds fought a stubborn delaying action along the road leading north from Uijongbu.

Heavy Red troop concentrations were reported just north of the 38th Parallel. Parts of six Chinese and North Korean armies were spread between and around the North Korean towns of Yuchon and Hwachon.

Yuchon is about six miles north of the border, almost due north of Seoul. Hwachon is about seven air miles north of Seoul. An American division was reported to be in the central front. Hwachon is also about 10 miles northeast of the point where the main highway from Chunchon crosses the Parallel.

Fifth Air Force headquarters reported 350 sorties flown by night strikes also were made against Kuncheon and the military crossroads town of Kunhwa.

On Korea's east coast Republic of Korea (ROK) units operated with the United Nations. Allied ships lying offshore pounded Red installations as ROK patrols jabbed across Parallel 38.

Naval sieges were maintained on Wonsan and Songjin, far north of the border. Wonsan was pounded Sunday for the 37th straight day. Songjin was hit for the 16th straight day.
Cruisers, destroyers and supporting craft took part.

ident Syngman Rhee called for

The Lamplighter

By TOM DOYLE
The mournful, dignified strains of Brahms' German Requiem were heard Easter Eve at the Municipal Auditorium in Orlando. Yves Chardon and the Central Florida Symphony, the Central Florida Choral Society, and two soloists shared the spotlight for the event, thus closing the first season of the organization—a season which has seen Central Floridians turn out in great number in taking the Symphony Orchestra into their hearts.
The Requiem was done very well. The hand picked voices sounded beautiful although the enunciation at times was not quite clear. The chorus looked very imposing upon the stage.
The soloists were especially good. Mr. William Carlen, soloist of the First Methodist Church in Orlando, was adequate. He seems to lack just a hair's breadth of having that extra "something" that would make him better than good. Marilyn Colton excelled in her soprano part, possessing a splendid voice of strong texture. Miss Colton won the Metropolitan Auditions of the Air in 1948 and has sung in concert, radio, television, and opera.
With the Brahms Requiem, the concert season closed. Chardon and his men have given us what we have wanted and what we have needed—music of the highest caliber, faithfully interpreted. Each concert has been a good sized audience record in suburban approval. Yves Chardon has taken Central Florida by storm and, we believe, has exceeded all expectations held at the outset. He has brought to the podium energy, imagination, and good taste—and a desire for the best possible. Can we ask more of him?
He has conducted most of the time without a score, which is the mark of the well-seasoned musician who has the greatest part of the work of his profession behind him, and is now able to acquire further insight and greater stature as an artist.
Next season's guest artists will appear with the Symphony among whom will be William Primrose, Jan Peerce, and Eleanor Steber. Thus the appeal will be greater than ever. It can safely be expected that next season will be a better season.
And there will be another change next year, we believe. Many people will frequent the Lamplighter as never did before. They have been exposed to the fever of good music—a fever that nothing will abate. This is one time we don't want a doctor in the house.

In a lovely candlelight ceremony marked by quiet dignity, Miss Mona Ruth Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Frank Mills of this city, became the bride of Richard Ten Eyck Walker, son of Mr. James Reginald Bond of Toronto, Canada, on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the First Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. P. Brooks Jr.
Forming a lovely background for the service were potted palms, tall baskets of white gladioluses and calla lilies and standards of seven-branched candlesticks holding burning tapers.
A program of nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Evans McCoy, organist, who rendered the following selections: "He My Love", "Green Cathedral" and "Schubert's Serenade." The traditional wedding marches were used and "Liebestraum" was softly played during the ceremony. Evans McCoy, soloist, sang "You're My Heart Alone by Lehar and "I Love Thee" by Grieg.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length two piece tulle dress of bridal blue which featured a full skirt and fitted jacket with tiny self covered buttons. Her accessories were white and she carried a bouquet of white sweet peas centered with two white orchids and showered with orange blossoms.
Mrs. Charles B. Flinders, as matron of honor and only attendant, wore a dusty rose two piece tulle dress with navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, sweet peas and blue iris.
Serving as best man was Charles B. Flinders, and usher, Walter Wallace Tyrre and Wallace Ahrlinton.
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mills chose a navy crepe dress with navy and white accessories. Her carriage was of white roses. The bridegroom's mother selected a navy dress with navy and rose accessories and wore a carriage of pink roses.
Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in... aid Gaine of the Eighth Cavalry regiment sat down and wrote a letter in pencil. He put the leaflet in the envelope and mailed it to me.

"We realize that enemy propaganda is one of their greatest weapons," he wrote. "But in my opinion how can we help but believe parts of this? So we'd like for you to help us get an answer to some of these questions."

"I don't feel I'm the one to give the answers. But here is my reply to Sergeant Gaine and the boys in the Fourth Squad of the First Platoon of the First Battalion of the Eighth Regiment of the First U. S. Cavalry Division, fighting somewhere in Korea since last July:

"That leaflet would trouble any honest man if it were true. But it isn't true. And it isn't simply an earnest plea for peace, written by one soldier to a soldier on the other side.

"It is the effort of a skilled propagandist. He wants to confuse you, to make you homesick, to make you doubt your cause and feel your sacrifices are useless and unnecessary.

"If he should succeed in making a majority of American soldiers feel this way, we will have to pull out of Korea entirely. And, in time, I think that means we will have to fight a third World War in our own homeland—and our own families will become the refugees.

"You aren't fighting for the profits of Wall Street financiers or just to save Seoul or Taegu. You're fighting for a chance to keep your loved ones away from your own town — Main Street, U.S.A.

"Of course, it is true the average Chinese soldier doesn't in his heart bear you any real ill-will. You probably don't bear him ill-will.

"That would be quite all right, too, if it meant a better life finally for us all. But Communism hasn't been able to do that anywhere. Freedom has always brought more happiness than has slavery. And it is better to fight for a free world than a slave one.

"It is a lie that the Korean people want you to go home. They want you to stay and help them win a real peace. They dread the Chinese, and you know it.

"The truth is you are a military pioneer, fighting for the first time on a barricade defending all mankind's yearning for a final world peace. It's always lonely on a barricade, but no soldiers ever fought to hold a higher wall of hope.

Richter said Argentina's power plants and smelters would be driven by atomic power in the future, but that no one could forecast the exact date this would be possible.

President Peron was obviously annoyed by foreign scepticism regarding the Argentine discovery. Writing for the semi-official newspaper, Democracia, he said:

"I know the word freedom may sound ponderous and hollow in ears filled with the noise of cringing mortars. But it is a basic word — basic as hunger and fear. And freedom is your goal. Eventual freedom in the world from war and fear and hunger.

"You came into Korea under a blue and white flag of the United Nations, pledged to bring unity and freedom to that country. Why is the Chinese so-called 'volunteer' there? He came under the Red flag of real slaughter — the slaughter of the long dream of Korean independence.

"And if he wins there it won't be just Korean independence that will disappear. Step by step the Red armies of China and Russia will march across other countries unable to defend themselves alone — and gradually swallow the world piecemeal.

"That would be quite all right, too, if it meant a better life finally for us all. But Communism hasn't been able to do that anywhere. Freedom has always brought more happiness than has slavery. And it is better to fight for a free world than a slave one.

Hoover Declares FBI Has Agents In Communist Cells

WASHINGTON, Mar. 26—(AP)—J. Edgar Hoover disclosed today that the FBI has secret agents among a group of American Communists which he said "has gone underground for possible action at a later date."

The disclosure was reported in a copyrighted interview in the magazine "U. S. News and World Report."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation director was asked if he had means of checking up on Communist party members "even though they have gone underground."

"Oh, yes," he replied. "The next question was: 'You have uncovered agents in various parts of the United States?'"

"Yes," Hoover answered. "This technique is necessary in keeping abreast with clandestine operations of any subversive organization."

The FBI chief said "all that remains of the Communist Party above ground is a self-constituted core, which for appearance's sake maintains a public contact."

A new FBI "count" of party members in the U. S., puts their total at 43,217, Hoover said. This is more than 20 per cent less than the 55,000 figure he gave newsmen last year. The Party itself has stopped issuing membership figures.

"While this has been a decline in Communist Party strength," Hoover said, "this simply means that the Party has purged itself of those concerning whom it had doubts."

He added that others have dropped out of the Party "because of the pressure of public opinion, or because of a fear of legislation which has been enacted on local, county, state and federal levels."

"I am not interested in what the United States or any other country in the world think," Hoover said. "The President said he had not invited the first announcement of the discovery because he wanted to speak only to his own people, thus avoiding the course followed by politicians and newspapers in other countries of the world who lie knowingly and direct their own people and abroad."

"They have not told the first truth and I have not told the same lies as the communists."

Third Term Bid

This action confirmed reports that Byrnes, who broke with the President after he resigned as Secretary of State, intends to play a leading part in the next Democratic convention in opposing the President or possibly anyone the President might back to succeed him as the nominee.

The South lost its power of veto in the convention when it lost the two-thirds nominating rule. But anything like Southern unity could make its weight felt in a race where several candidates are entered.

And Byrnes has demonstrated his experience and ability in the past as a worker behind the scenes. The general political opinion around Washington just now is that the President doesn't intend to seek another term.

That opinion can change fast, however, and it might be affected if the President decides to take the case for his Administration to the country as he has in the past.

A prospective May or June tour, which might be undertaken in the guise of an inspection of military installations and defense factories, is reported under study now.

Some Democratic officials have cautioned against interpreting such a tour, however, as any clear indication that Mr. Truman is thinking of running again. These officials say his

TELEPHONE EXPANSION is paid for by INVESTORS

More facilities, more investors' dollars, are required to meet Florida's need for more and better Telephone Service

WHEN you see telephone construction under way in Florida, you see investors' dollars at work. These dollars and the expanded service they make possible are important to you as a Floridian.

They mean a growing, a more prosperous Florida. They mean that telephone service—with all that it means to personal convenience and to business success—will be available to still more of the people you know... and the people you need.

You'll be able to reach more friends by telephone, and more can reach you. Should you move to another neighborhood or another Florida city, you'll be more likely to find telephone service there.

In just the last five years, telephone expansion in Florida has cost the Company $105,000,000. This is nearly twice as much as we had invested in the state at the end of 1945.

These millions of dollars did not come from the monthly service payments of Florida telephone users. This money had to be secured from investors who were willing to invest their savings in the telephone business rather than in some other business.

There's a big job still to be done, as Florida's growth continues to break records. It's a job that will call for still more millions of dollars from investors. That's why telephone rates and earnings, adequate to attract investment, are a matter of importance to every citizen who has a stake in the growth and progress of Florida.

Chinese Withdraw To Defense Line North Of Parallel

Allied Troops Mass At Dividing Line; Air Force Hits At Red Reinforcements

TOKYO, Mar. 27.—(AP)—American troops fought through a Chinese regiment today on the western front in a slow advance toward the Red Korean border. They killed 350 Communists.

Nearby another U. S. unit battled three battalions of rear-guard Chinese. By late Tuesday afternoon the Americans had squeezed the Reds into a trap. United Nations warplanes dropped incendiary leaflets.

An American division staff officer said he did not believe the Chinese would put up another stand south of Parallel 38. But he added:

"I think if we hit them above the Parallel we'll find them fighting like sons of guns."

Elements of six Chinese armies were reported massing just north of the border. A report said Red defense positions were built directly in front of the persons U. N. line about two miles north of the Parallel.

The Chinese 20th Army Corps has pulled back across the Imjin River.

An American spokesman said the Chinese regiment massed by the Americans Tuesday was part of the 77th Division. He said the division could no longer be regarded as an effective, organized fighting force. The second Chinese force was not identified. On the American's left flank.

Bill Authorized By County Board For New Hospital

State And Local Bills Planned To Raise Limit On Bond Issue

The County Commission in special session this morning conferred with Senator L. F. Boyle and Rep. Volie Williams, Jr., regarding a local bill for submission to the State Legislature to enable Seminole County to construct and maintain a hospital. O. E. Fouracre presided.

The bill will embody most of the provisions of the state law governing financing and construction of hospitals, with a few sections to apply to the Seminole County project.

The State hospital law now sets the maximum bond issue for a county-owned hospital at $200,000. The Commission said that the hospital would cost considerably more than that amount, and accordingly will ask that the limitation be raised.

Similar legislation, said H. H. Pope, will be introduced as a general bill, but if this does not pass, or if it fails to satisfy local requirements, the local bill will be introduced. Both bills would expand the permissible maturity of the bonds now set at 30 years to 30 years. The local bill would embody other desirable requirements for the local hospital.

O. P. Herndon, county clerk, was directed to advertise the County's intention to seek local legislation authorizing a bond issue for the hospital.

Acheson Calls For American Unity To Face Red Menace

Inter-American Conference Told Of Need For Strength

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson urged the American republics today to take immediate action to meet a menace posed by international Communism.

He said no free nation anywhere in the world is secure against the menace, and called for full economic and military cooperation with the United States.

Acheson delivered the keynote speech of the first regular session of the Inter-American Conference of Foreign Ministers.

"Never before have we faced a menace of this magnitude," he continued. "Never before has there been so great a challenge to our determination to preserve our independence as nations."

The freedom of the individual man as well as the independence of governments is threatened, he said, and the threat demands "action now."

Only by building up their strength can the free nations provide a deterrent force which "is the only real road to peace," the Secretary said.

To do this, he said, each nation must contribute its full share in the spirit of cooperation characteristic of the inter-American tradition.

Acheson suggested that the American republics might prepare a coordinated defense plan for the hemisphere as soon as possible, in considering military strength, he said, any disturbance to the peaceful relations of the republics would be detrimental and hence all should "make fullest use of available machinery for the present."

MARGARET SIGNS NEW YORK, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Margaret Truman's often-reported contract with the National Broadcasting Company has been signed.

NBC did not disclose how much Miss Truman will be paid. But it previously was reported unofficially that she would get $2,500 for each radio show and $4,000 for each TV appearance.

Crime Committee Told Of Increase In Narcotics Sale

More Than 200 Youths Undergo Treatment To Halt Addiction

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—(AP)—A startling increase in narcotic addicts among young persons was reported to the Senate Crime Investigating committee today.

Hary J. Anlinger, chief of the Treasury's Bureau of Narcotics, said illegal drugs for addicts were being smuggled in from Italy, Turkey, Communist China and Japan.

In a prepared statement Anlinger said two years ago there were three addicts under the age of 21 at the U. S. Public Health Service hospital at Lexington, Ky.

"Next of these are young hoodlums," the federal official said. "The high school student followed in the wake of a wave of exception. The increase has followed juvenile delinquency."

Anlinger said the high school "teenagers" associate with criminals, become hoodlums, begin to smoke Marihuana and then graduate to heroin.

"They have to spend from $5 to $15 a day to maintain addiction, and they obtain this money through criminal activities. The type of young hoodlum addicts we are encountering today are not the type who can be deterred by copy-book maxims, or reached by an educational program."

Anlinger said that while drug addiction had been increasing since 1940, "it is not general throughout all sections of the country, and is confined mostly to certain segments and certain neighborhoods."

Fulbright Says Moral Corruption Gnaws At Foundations Of Nation

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Senator Fulbright declared today that moral corruption beyond the reach of the law is eating away the foundations of American democracy. He called for revival of the precepts of the Pilgrims and founding fathers.

The Arkansas Democrat who leads the sensation-packed probe of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) said it was not a condition to be remedied by politicians or policemen. He said it calls for the wisdom of the nation's most respected private citizens acting as a commission on national morality and backed by an indicting public.

Baby Is Found Playing Happily On Blanket Near Dead Father

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Mar. 27.—(AP)—Search was intensified today for a pretty young mother because of fears that she may have been kidnaped by her husband's slayer.

Mrs. Doris Trank Cook, 18, has not been seen since the body of her 18-year-old husband, Richard Lawrence Cook, was found on a blanket near the body of the father, who had been shot to death, when the tragedy was discovered.

Police continued to question Lawrence Cook, 29, a Negro of March Air Force Base here who was booked on suspicion of carrying a concealed weapon. He carried a stolen .45 caliber pistol.

The Air Force sergeant was questioned for three hours last night and sheriff's officer W. W. Walrath, chief criminal deputy, said he had known nothing of the case. After the questioning a sheriff's posse left at midnight to search the area where the car was found.

Sheriff's captain Don Schrader said bumper bolts found at the scene of the slaying matched those on Walker's car. Cook's auto parked near his body, had a dent and torn fender, as though another machine had sideswiped it and forced it off the road.

Schrader said Walker was arrested as police patrolled the city, searching for a car with damaged fender. They found Walker's car, which answered this description, in a garage being repaired. It had pieces of green paint on the damaged fender, officers said. Cook's car was green.

Walker told investigator his automobile fender was smashed in an accident in Hollywood last (Continued on Page Two)

Prior to re-entering the Navy he was self-employed as a civil engineer in the National Bank Building, Sanford. He received his BSC degree from the University of Florida in 1945 and is now moving to California 24 years ago.

Fulbright said investigation after investigation has shown up evil that is "beyond the reach of the law." Now, he added, it (Continued on Page Two)

Senate Crime Probers Ask Treasury About Racketeers' Lax Tax Returns

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Senate crime investigators pressed Treasury officials today for an explanation of why racketeers and gamblers have been able "to get away" with tax returns just listing $100,000 or so as miscellaneous income.

In its cross-country investigation, said Senator Tobey (R-NH), the committee has found many instances where "miscellaneous" was used in gamblers' income tax returns and "it carried them through."

"They've been getting away with murder for years," Tobey boomed. Similar words were previously used in a Senate crime committee report complaining that federal tax authorities accepted conscientiously "payments from underworld figures that they would not accept for ordinary citizens."

"I don't believe they have been getting away with murder," said Edward Foley, Under Secretary of the Treasury.

He said the department's Internal Revenue Bureau has been conscientiously trying to force "full disclosure" of income and expenses on such returns. But he said he thought the committee itself had found that in the criminal element the bureau did not have "willing, responsive taxpayers."

Federal Aid On Project Is Possible, McKibbin Asserts

CITY MANAGER Clifford McKibbin reported to the City Commission last night that the engineering firm of Smith and Gillespie had revised former estimates of the cost of construction of a sewage disposal plant here to a lower figure put at $440,000.

This would include the construction of gravity interception sewers on the bulkhead, two lift stations to permit the continuation of flow of sewage from east to west along the bulkhead route, and a disposal plant located west of Mills Creek.

The Commission's attention has been called to the matter by the fact that before any more local public housing projects can be approved by the Public Housing Authority, the approval of the State Board of Health regarding sewage disposal here will have to be secured.

Mr. McKibbin stated that the city is looking into the possibility of securing federal financial aid for a sewage disposal project, in that this is an area with a military installation, the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Purchase of a "Drumometer" at a cost of $225 was authorized. (Continued on Page Six)

Mobilization Director Says Further Curbs On Inflation Needed To Halt Price Rises

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Mobilization director Charles E. Wilson said today the country has "to fight" the military power to deter any aggressor.

Wilson also told a news conference the inflationary spiral has been "moderated." But he said the government may have to "put on the brakes a little harder."

"We still have the internal enemy of inflation that we must lick if we are to win the whole fight."

Wilson indicated his office of defense mobilization will seek further power to curb prices, including revision of the Defense Production Act's restrictions on price ceilings for farm products.

But he said that precisely how this should be changed has not been decided.

The mobilization chief expressed hope that the Wage Stabilization Board, now out of business because of labor's walkout, soon will be reorganized and functioning.

Nation labor representatives walked out in January after the board approved a wage control formula limiting pay increases to 10 percent above the level of each year they were protesting also January, 1950. The labor men other dissatisfaction with the mobilization program. They have demanded that a new board have power to settle wage disputes.

Wilson indicated the new board will have some dispute-settling powers, but said it is still uncertain whether President Truman must call a full-dress labor-management conference before disputes settlement machinery can be set up.

Progress in restoring labor to participation in the defense program is indicated, he said, by the fact that labor representatives evidently will serve on a new labor-management agriculture committee on manpower.

The committee, having as co-chairmen Dr. Arthur S. Fleming and Dr. Frank P. Graham, will be in operation shortly as an add-on to him on defense and other (Continued on Page Six)

Holland Declares Lake City Hospital Will Be Approved

By WILBUR JENNINGS AP Special Washington Service WASHINGTON, Mar. 27.—(AP)—Senator Holland (D-Fla.) expressed belief today a House Subcommittee on appropriations will soon approve $4,400,000 for a new veterans' hospital at Lake City.

The present facilities serve 18 counties in north and northwest Florida and 25 counties in southern Georgia.

Holland told a reporter he was favorably impressed by the reaction of the subcommittee on independent offices when the Florida congressional delegation presented a statement recently asking for the money.

A representative of the Budget Bureau, which would pass on such an appropriation, is to visit the present hospital sometime after Apr. 1 to make an investigation. The subcommittee was told by the delegation that because of their age, condition, and location, three of the hospital's present buildings "can be neither economically maintained nor efficiently operated."
