

MATT MCGRATH TELLS BOYS HOW TO BE ATHLETES

Police Hammer Throwing Champ Reveals Secret Of Condition

NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 7.—Mighty Matt McGraith, the Police Department's great weight-throwing champion, who spoke recently to the children of the city in the third of a series of talks arranged by the Department of Health and Education to teach the children how to take full advantage of the recreational facilities provided for them, discussed the importance of keeping in good condition and the part that well-known athletes can follow in their footsteps.

"Every young athlete needs some one to follow when he starts out," he said, "and that's the idea of these broadcasts. The Health Department is arranging a series for the children of the city and they asked me if I would give one of them. They get athletes to tell how they train and how they keep in condition, and that teaches the kids how to get started."

Whatever his methods, the veteran hammer-thrower's own appearance is enough to vouch for their efficacy. He is spry and erect and light on his feet for all his 220 pounds.

Deputy Inspector Matthew J. McGraith, of the 1st Traffic District, as he is officially known, has a record in field athletics that has never been equaled. Competing in four successive Olympic games he has won two first places, one second and one fourth. The fourth place, at Antwerp in 1920, is explained by the fact that on his first trial throw he tore a cartilage in his right knee so badly that he had to go to a stretcher, but that single throw was good enough to win fourth place.

Now at fifty-eight, he is not even considering retiring from competition. "I won the last metropolitan championship in the 56-pound weight throw," he said, "and I expect to keep on taking part in meets for several years yet. A man's all right while he keeps in condition, but if he once lets down, he's through."

He has won twenty-four national championships and enough medals and other trophies to fill several large trunks.

"The way to stay on in a sport while other people burn themselves out and retire, he said, "is to vary your activity. Don't do just one thing. Keep in condition all the time; try your hand at other sports, and always keep up a little regular practice. A man who drops out even for a year or so will never be as good as he was before."

"I've always found time to keep in training," he said. "I'm no heavier now than when I came on the force in 1903, and I'm twenty pounds lighter than I was five years ago. That's what keeps me going. I don't have a lot of useless weight to carry around."

McGrath was born in Nenagh, Tipperary, Ireland, and came to New York at twenty. His administration for a local strong man of Tipperary, whose name he has not forgotten, first inspired him to want to be a weight thrower.

General Motors Split $20,000,000 Dividend

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Directors of General Motors Corporation yesterday cut a melon for stockholders of more than $20,000,000 in the form of a 50-cent share extra dividend.

Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president, said among considerations motivating the payment was that this sum "passing into the channels of active trade, will act as a worthwhile stimulant to business in general."

This is the second of the fruits of recovery for the owners of the approximately 43,500,000 common shares, the first having been a 25-cent share disbursement last December.

Shareholders, however, still see their regular annual disbursements maintained at the depression low of $1, since directors yesterday ordered another regular quarterly disbursement of only 25 cents.

The 50-cent extra is the largest extra since 1929, when 60 cents a share was ordered in addition to the regular payments at the rate of $3 a share annually then prevailing.

COTTON CROP PREDICTED AT 9,195,000 BALES

Department Of Agri- culture Officially De- clares Crop As 66 Percent Of Normal

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(AP)—An indicated cotton crop of 9,195,000 bales this year is announced today by the Department of Agriculture in its first official forecast of the season.

Last year 13,047,000 bales were grown.

The condition of the crop, Aug. 1, is reported as 60 4-10 percent of normal.

The Florida crop is given as 66 percent normal with an indicated yield of 21,000 five hundred pound bales.

The South yesterday was awaiting a fair idea of how well off it is to be during the next 12 months, when the Department of Agriculture releases its final estimate of 1934 cotton production.

Low production means higher prices—may mean 15 cent cotton, a blessing unknown since 1929.

None expected the estimate to indicate a crop larger than the 10,460,251 bales which the Bankhead Control Act exempt from virtually prohibitive taxation.

Private guesses placed production between 8,325,000 and 9,600,000 bales. The smallest crop in the past 12 years was in 1921 when only 7,945,000 bales were harvested.

The July 1 Department acreage report estimated that 28,034,000 acres were under cultivation. An average yield, computed on a 1928-33 basis, of 173.34 pounds per acre would produce 4,870,000,000 pounds on this acreage, or 1,908,000 bales.

The drought has taken its toll of cotton as well as of grain. Weather conditions east of the Mississippi River are mostly satisfactory except in scattered regions where too much rain has resulted in too many boll weevils.

But in Texas and Oklahoma, which have a combined planted area of 12,580,000 acres or almost half the total for the entire belt, drought damage grows more serious daily.

Experts pointed out that the cotton crop was not "made" by Aug. 1; that all estimates were tentative; and that a good yield still is within the range of possibility.

Nevertheless, a private estimator whose past predictions have been regarded by the trade as astonishingly accurate, placed production at less than 8,000,000 bales. Last year's crop totaled 13,047,000 and its condition at this (Continued On Page Three)

Constitutional Amendments On General Election Ballot To Be Numbered, States Gray

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Aug. 8.—(AP)—Secretary of State R. A. Gray today said that for the first time in Florida history proposed constitutional amendments appearing on the Nov. 6 general election ballot will be numbered.

Seven proposed changes in the basic law of Florida will be before the voters for their approval. It will be the greatest number of amendments ever submitted to the electorate in Florida at one time. Previously the greatest number was four.

Because of the great number of proposed amendments, Gray said he had numbered the seven joint resolutions submitted to the voters by the 1933 legislature and had asked the county commissioners of the state to retain the numbers and the order of the proposed amendments on the general election ballot.

Voters, Gray said, will find it helpful to familiarize themselves with the amendments and remember them by number. In accordance with state law, Gray is advertising the text of the proposed amendments in changes in newspapers of each county.

Proposed amendment number one would reduce the number of Judicial Circuits to 15, the 1935 legislature being directed to provide for the new division of the state into court circuits.

Number two would exempt homesteads from taxation, other than from special assessments for benefits, up to a valuation of $5,000.

FEE OFFICERS' EARNINGS GAIN OVER 1933 MARK

Semi-Annual Reports Reveal Nearly $3000 Increase In Profits

Compared with the first six months of 1933, net earnings of four of this county's six fee officers showed sizable increases while the combined earnings of the six officers was $12,138.04, or $298.73 greater than their net earnings for the six month period ending June 30, 1933.

Net earnings of each officer, for the six months period, compared with his 1933 earnings for the same period, are as follows: County Clerk V. E. Douglas, $3228.31 this year, $2145.31 last year.

County Tax Assessor A. Vaughan, $1314.16 this year, $738.58 last year.

Justice of the Peace J. C. Roberts, $720.49 this year, $607.39 last year.

These figures were taken from the semi-annual reports filed with Comptroller J. M. Lee at Tallahassee last week according to law, and with the Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday.

Net earnings of the six officers for the entire year of 1933, the records also revealed, were as follows: Sheriff, McClelland, $5149.81, Clerk Douglas, $4971.46; Collector Jenkins, $4194.41; Judge Shannon, $2990.13; Assessor Vaughan, $2398.73; Justice Roberts, $1982.29.

Net earnings for the past six months are approximately 25 percent better than the net earnings for the same period last year, and Court House attaches take this as an indication of the general improvement in business conditions locally.

Income of the officers is derived from fees charged for services. With the exception of the tax assessor's and tax collector's offices, these fees come mainly from the pockets of individuals and (Continued On Page Four)

BARNETT NAMED HEAD OF JUNIOR COMMERCE BODY

Formal Organization Effected As 26 Men Make Pledge

Formal organization of a Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce was effected at the Sanford County Club last night, where, despite a heavy downpour of rain, 40 young residents of this city and county gathered for a session which produced the election of officers, adoption of a constitution and by-laws, and decision to hold a social meeting and dance next Thursday night.

Gordon J. Barnett of Fern Park was elected as first president of the organization.

Other officers chosen to serve until the annual meeting in May are: George Thurston, Sanford, vice-president; Maxwell Stewart, Sanford, secretary; Roy F. Mann, Sanford, treasurer; G. W. Spencer, Andrew M. Carraway, and Roy Frank Symes, Jr., as directors.

As adopted, the constitution and by-laws are copies of those used by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce and cover of its affiliations. Exceptions in the form of amendments were few, having to do mainly with the amount of dues and membership age limit.

The dues were set at $5 per year, payable semi-annually, and 26 of the men attending the meeting made first payments on semi-annual dues.

After a discussion in which G. W. Spencer, president of a Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce which functioned here in 1923 and 1924, held that by limiting membership and eligibility to hold office to persons between the ages of 21 and 35 years inclusive, the effectiveness of the organization may be diminished because of the difficulty in securing enough aggressive men to hold office and direct the organization.

He proposed basing his proposal on the general improvement in business conditions locally.

SILVER SHIRTS PLAN REVOLT SAYS MARINE

Probe Into Affairs Of New Group Reveals Surprising Tale Of Plot To Control U.S.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Vigilant Mayor, former United States Marine, testified at a Congressional sub-committee hearing here yesterday that he was offered $10 each for stolen government rifles, $50 each for machine guns and $20 a case for ammunition by an official of an organization known as the Silver Shirts.

Hayes, testifying at the request of Representative Kramer, chairman of the sub-committee investigating asserted un-American activities throughout the nation, described how he instructed the Silver Shirts in military tactics, small arms firing and street fighting at a rendezvous near San Diego.

The ex-Marine said he joined the Silver Shirts under instructions of the intelligence department of the Marine Corps at San Diego, to which he had reported the offer to purchase stolen arms.

Hayes named W. W. Kemp as the official who made the offer. He described him as commander of the San Diego Silver Shirts.

Dr. George Gysling, German vice consul here, declined to appear before the sub-committee.

"The committee will have to get the consent of the German embassy in Washington," Dr. Gysling said. He said he understood he was wanted "for questioning in regard to a $215 check made out to cash and endorsed by a person whose activities are under suspicion."

Hayes asserted he had seen Silver Shirts drilling with rifles presumably obtained from San Diego military sources, and that they had been arming themselves and drilling in a plot to take control of the United States government.

The Marine observer said he had been told of large caches of ammunition stored by the Silver Shirts, and said he had seen small amounts.

Asked by the committee attorney what the purpose of the Silver Shirts was, Hayes said: "To change the government."

William Dudley Peley, the national organizer, told me of the plan was to incorporate the nation, giving each adult a share of stock. This would be a monthly dividend of $50 a share, he said. He also planned to deport the Jews.

"Was force advocated to gain control of the government?" Hayes was asked.

"Yes, I was commissioned as an instructor in military tactics with the Silver Shirt. I taught them the use of small arms and street fighting."

One of the first witnesses to appear before the committee was Corporal Edward T. Gray of the United States Marines, stationed in San Diego. He was assigned by superior officers to investigate the activities of the Silver Shirts. The corporal gave an account of the (Continued On Page Four)

West Virginian, 29, To Oppose Veteran Hatfield For Senate

By The Associated Press
Three states tallied off-year primary ballots today and posted these apparent results:

In West Virginia, Rush D. Holt, whose age, 29, is one year under the constitutional age requirement for United States senator, wins the Democratic primary and the right to oppose Senator Henry D. Hatfield, Republican, in the November election.

In Missouri, Harry S. Truman, candidate of "Boss Tom" Pendergast of Kansas City is the Democratic senatorial nominee. The Republican nominee is Senator Roscoe Patterson who was unopposed in yesterday's primary.

In Kansas, Republicans renominated Governor Alf M. Landon for a second term. Omar B. Ketchum, youthful mayor of Topeka wins the Democratic nomination for governor.

VON PAPEN IS ACCEPTED BY AUSTRIA

Cabinet Okeys Hitler Appointee As Special Envoy In Vienna; One Nazi Hanged

VIENNA, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Chancellor Schuschnigg announced last night the government's agreement to Vice-Chancellor von Papen of Germany as special envoy to Vienna, at the same time taking powerful new measures to end Nazi propaganda in Austria.

A government communique announcing von Papen's acceptance revealed at the same time the granting of sweeping powers to Major Emil Fey, minister of the interior. In his capacity of special commissioner for security measures, Fey is charged with snuffing out Nazi influence.

The long-delayed acceptance of von Papen by the new Austrian government as Chancellor Hitler's special appointee came during a cabinet meeting.

The relentless campaign of the Austrian government against the Nazis yesterday claimed another life on the gallows—this time a soldier in the regular army.

Ernst Feike was hanged in a courtyard here for participating in the plot in which Chancellor Dollfus was slain.

Another death sentence was imposed yesterday in Klagenfurt, the prisoner, Karl Kosterling, also a Nazi, received a commutation to 15 years imprisonment from President Miklas.

Feike in his court martial trial brought in the name of Emil Fey, former vice-chancellor and still a cabinet member, who was imprisoned in the federal chancellery when Dollfus was killed.

"Feike testified the Nazis who seized the government building desired to establish a 'ministry of national concentration' with Anton Rintelen, then minister to Rome, at the head and with Fey as a member.

The defense in the trial sought a hearing by the new chancellor, Kurt Schuschnigg, as to whether safe conduct to Germany had been promised to the putschists. This the court rejected.

As the death sentence was imposed, the soldier raised his arm in a Nazi salute and shouted "Heil Hitler."

He was pulled back to his bench by a guard.

Pair Leave Canada On Non-Stop Flight To Baghdad, Iraq

WASAGA BEACH, Ontario, Aug. 8.—(AP)—James Aylmer and Leonard Reid took off at dawn today in an attempt to fly non-stop to Baghdad, Iraq and break the world's long distance flight record.

After a mile and a half run down the beach, the heavily loaded plane started the north Atlantic hop, biggest hazard along the 6500 mile route to Baghdad.

The plane, "The Trail of the Caribou," is the same one in which Captain James Molison and his wife, Amy, British fliers attempted to take off from the same beach last year on a long distance flight only to crack up at the start.

New Heat Wave Claims Four Lives In Iowa

By The Associated Press
Scorching temperatures burned again today mid a continent already hard hit by heat waves and drought.

The new heat wave extends from the Rocky Mountains to the Appalachian highlands and southward into Gulf states, further damaging crops in sections that had been suffering all summer.

Temperature readings of 100 degrees or more are common throughout the stricken area.

Hot winds in some parts aggravate the situation, particularly in Missouri, which with Kansas, is among the sections hardest hit.

Four deaths are attributed to the heat in Iowa. The East escaped especially hot weather.

Genial Jim Farley Believes That Fletcher Is "Whistling In Dark" Over Fall Elections

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Chairman Farley of the Democratic national committee yesterday said that his rival, Chairman Fletcher of the Republican national committee, "is whistling in the dark."

Back from a month's political survey of the West, the genial, ruddy-faced postmaster general seemed exuberantly enthusiastic over the party's fall election prospects. He smilingly professed sympathy for Fletcher and said the Republican campaign against "the New Deal" had fallen flat.

Referring to Fletcher's recent charge that the Administration would pour out more treasury relief and crop reduction funds as the congressional campaign progressed, Farley told newspapermen:

"He is doing the best he can in a tough spot but nobody is worrying about what he has to say."

In a formal statement on the findings of his extensive trip, Farley expressed the view that Democratic nominees for Congress were certain to hold their party support and retain much of that given by Republicans and independents who voted for President Roosevelt in 1932.

At a press conference, the Democratic chief said he dismissed the attacks Senator Borah has been directing at NRA and AAA by commenting that Borah "is not making any impression even on the people of Idaho."

He termed "propaganda" reports that the national Democratic organization had allied itself with state factions in the primaries. Farley said it had kept out of primary fights and was playing no favorites but would help any Democrat who was nominated.

"Something I have learned from this recent trip of mine around the country," the postmaster general said, "is that pretty much every body agrees with the Democratic forecast of the coming election. That is, that we will gain more than six seats in the Senate, and that no Republican cares to name any congressional district now represented by a Democrat that they will win this year."

"Our state organizations are in excellent shape, and our nominees are certain not only of the united support of their party but will hold pretty much of all of the Republican and those of independent tendencies who voted for President Roosevelt in 1932."

Contracts were awarded as follows: South route, awarded to M. C. Ginder who will be paid $300 per month to transport an average of 200 children per day. Mr. Ginder will operate three buses over the route this year. Last year he operated two buses, and his salary was $250 per month.

ROOSEVELT FETED IN MINNESOTA

President Joins Noted Resort In Tribute To Famed Doctors, The Mayo Brothers

ROCHESTER, Minn., Aug. 8.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt shared the spotlight today with Rochester's most famous citizens, the Mayo brothers as this city combined its entertainment for the Chief Executive with ceremonies honoring the medical men.

Praising the two world-renowned physicians, Dr. William J. and Charles H. Mayo, operators of the Mayo clinic for their services, Mr. Roosevelt added that their "true distinction is in the simple fact that you have put men's sense of brotherhood and interdependence into a setting and have given it a new meaning."

Addressing them as "neighbors," the Chief Executive participated in ceremonies in which the American Legion presented to the brothers' citizens voted at the last convention, honoring them for their humanitarian accomplishments.

Making no promises, the President frankly told a dust-laden crowd at Devils Lake, N. D., yesterday morning that he did not know the solution, but he gave this assurance amid cheers: "I will not give up until I can give my good service to solving the problem of North Dakota."

Smiling faces looked hopefully at the President as he left his special train there to motor through clouds of dust about the receding shores of Devils Lake. Signs pleaded for diversion of the Missouri River to revive this lake and region.

"Engineers have not found a place for a dam to make this possible," he stated. "I have a responsibility. I can't build a dam unless I have the best engineering assurance that it is not only the right thing to do but the safe thing to do."

But he did promise an early conference to review intensive studies being made of the project.

Lindbergh Law Is Invoked Against Young Extortioner

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—(AP)—The Lindbergh law was invoked today against a young chauffeur for Colonel Henry Haddleton Rogers after an extortion plot against the Standard Oil millionaire was blocked.

The chauffeur, John Cavanaugh, 26, native of Pueblo, Col., was arrested last night when he called for a suitcase he believed to contain $10,000 demanded on threats of violence to Colonel Rogers' third wife, Lieutenant Charles E. Neuman said Cavanaugh confessed to writing two letters which dictated Rogers to leave the money in a suitcase at the shop of an innocent tailor.

Instructions were followed with dummy stacks of paper covered with about $100 in real bills. Cavanaugh was seized by detectives who converged on him as he left the shop.

FIXED TAXES RATE

COTTON CROP PREDICTED AT 9,195,000 BALES

time of year was 74.2 percent of normal.

Planning for a crop of less than the Bankhead limit, AAA officials were developing details of a pool or exchange to be set up to negotiate the interchange of tax exemption certificates and bale tags. Farmers will not be allowed to swap these tags directly but must deal through the pool.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace will set a price for exemption certificates. Obviously, it will be less than the certificate's face value or the purchaser might just as well gin his extra bales and pay the tax.

The procedure was tentatively described as follows:
A Georgia farmer has produced more than his allotment and is anxious to sell his extra production but has no way to do this without paying the 5.6 cent a pound gin tax.

A Texas farmer, because of drought and other reasons, has not fulfilled his quota. He has extra exemption certificates and wants to sell them. Drought has destroyed some of the cotton he might have sold at a good price and he needs cash.

A federal county agent or representative of the AAA in the Georgia farmer's county will ask Washington where some exemption certificates can be bought. Pool officials have been informed of the Texas producer's situation. They negotiate the transfer and the Texas farmer is paid for his certificate—about $18 on each exempted bale.

Inasmuch as our boulevard project is on the department's preferred list," Mr. Papworth said, "We can reasonably look for early completion of the project."

St. Pete Commissioner Says Passage Of Homestead Act Will Delay Bond Settlements

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Continuing his discussion of the proposed homestead exemption amendment, City Commissioner Henry W. Adams has turned to a study of the effect the amendment will have on the city's efforts to refund its bonded indebtedness.

On a recent article, Adams discussed the probable loss to the city in operating revenue should the proposed amendment be passed, and raised questions as to how the loss in revenue would be replaced.

"The proposed amendment," Adams said today, "will inevitably delay a definite settlement of the city's bonded indebtedness because it does not explain whether homesteads will be exempted from taxation to support a refunding bond issue."

Under the agreement reached between the city and the bondholders committee, refunding bonds will be issued to replace sinking bond issues in default.

"On this refunding issue is hinged by the same security as the former issues that the agreement will stand. But if the proposed bond 'rocketers,' writes Wyman, 'are also convinced that loss of operating expenses through adoption of the amendment will result in taxing officials raising tax valuations on homesteaded properties, now valued for taxing purposes at less than $5,000, so that on a $7,000 increased valuation, for instance, operating tax might be levied on the $2,000 non-exempt excess. This would result in a per capita increase in levy for debt service.'"

"As things now stand, the city's financial position with regard to its creditors has been clarified, and business conditions more or less stabilized as a result. But the proposed amendment will disrupt this clarification and stabilization."

Adams also related two other points which must be settled in the courts if the amendment passes, and which will cause considerable confusion until the courts make their first ruling.

"First," he said, "there is the question of whether bond owners who rent their homestead for even one month of the year are entitled to exemption under the proposed amendment."

"Several lawyers have voiced the opinion that a homestead, to be entitled to exemptions, must not be rented for even a day. If that is so, it's going to cut down the number of homesteads in this city to a small number."

UTAH BANKER URGES NATION HALT SPENDING

O. W. Adams Hits Rising Taxes, Sees No Substitute For Thrift

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 3.—With more than 25 percent of our national income absorbed by taxes and 37 percent expended by governmental agencies, Orval W. Adams, vice-president of the Utah State National Bank at Salt Lake City, in an article in the current issue of "The American Bankers' Association Journal," urges that the country "stop petitions for public improvement far beyond our means to afford; realize that we cannot solve our problems of governmental finance by easy expedients" and admit that nothing can replace "collective thrift."

"The government," Mr. Adams writes, "and all its political subdivisions under which we live are spending annually $14,700,000,000, which represents approximately 37 percent of our total national income. While this is far beyond our ability even to estimate or imagine, this thing we can understand; that it is far beyond our ability to meet. How and when shall we bring all our power, concentrate all our intelligence to call a halt to such wild abandon?"

"But that is only half of the picture. While we are spending $14,700,000,000 to meet the obligations of government, we are paying out of our current taxes only $7,975,000,000 annually. What of the balance? That is the legacy which we are transferring to the future generations as an impressive evidence of our solicitude for their well-being."

He says that in 1913 our tax bill was $22 per capita, in 1923 $70, and in 1932 public expenditures per capita amounted to $80, and in 1933, as compared with 1913, on per capita basis, taxes were 230 percent, government costs 300 percent and public debts 600 percent increased.

Farley declined to say in what states the Democrats expected to gain Senate seats, but predicted that Sherman Minton, Democratic nominee, would defeat Senator Robinson in Indiana.

"A joke" was the way he described the move in New York to put Col. Henry Breckinridge up as an independent candidate for the Senate, Senator Copeland, Democrat, is up for renomination. Pressed for a statement on Copeland, Farley said he was not even a delegate to the convention that would nominate the Democratic senatorial candidate.

Farley said he would support Governor Lehman for re-election in New York.

Another speaking tour was announced yesterday by Farley but the dates are indefinite. He plans, however, to leave Aug. 15 for Nashville, Tenn., and then will swing west through Little Rock, Oklahoma City, Topeka, Kan., and Denver, where he is to speak either Aug. 21 or 22 to a rural mail carriers' convention. He said he probably would stop at Des Moines enroute back, and that in September he might dedicate a post office building at St. Paul.

SILVER SHIRTS PLAN REVOLT SAYS MARINE

(Continued from Page 1) planned "capture" of the San Diego city hall by force, saying: "It was planned for early in May, when the communists were to stage a May day celebration. The Silver Shirts were ready, too. The 200 armed the Silver Shirts had orders to converge on the city from the outskirts. They counted on the communists going in before them and taking the city by storm. Then in the confusion the Silver Shirts were to overthrow the communists, their avowed enemies."

The "capture" of San Diego failed, however, Grey said, when the communist demonstration failed to materialize.

In declining to appear before the committee Dr. Gysalind displayed a $215 check to newspapermen. It was indorsed by E. W. Rehmer. "Somebody must have made a foolish confusion," he said, "as E. W. Rehmer is a lady—my personal secretary."

Hayes said that as an intelligence worker in the Marines he obtained membership in the San Diego Silver Shirts.

"I was made an instructor," Hayes testified. "The Silver Shirts were armed with rifles, pistols and shotguns, but mainly Springfield rifles bearing a United States government mark."

"I was told the rifles had been purchased from members of the military forces in San Diego. I saw 2000 pounds of ammunition and was told there was another 12,000 pounds cached in four places near San Diego. The ammunition, I was told, had been purchased from Corporals Hudde and Edelson at the North Island naval base."

The former Marine testified the offer for guns and ammunition was made by W. W. Kapp, who was described as commander of the San Diego Silver Shirts.

Hayes quoted Kemp as saying "anything the Silver Shirts did was countenanced by the San Diego sheriff's office with the exception of the under-sheriff who is a Jew."

"The Silver Shirts," Hayes quoted Kemp as saying, "will not be bothered when the time comes to act. Firearms of both the sheriff's office and the police department will be turned over to us. The under-sheriff will be liquidated."

Barnett Named Head Of Junior Commerce Body

This proposal had about a dozen supporters but it was defeated when 16 members approved Andrew M. Carraway's motion that persons below the age of 25 be accepted as associate members with full power to vote on any questions brought before the body of the organization but with no right to hold office.

Announcing that he would delay the appointment of standing committee heads until later this week, President Barnett proposed that as a first step, the organization stage a private dance at the Trianon Dance Club on Thursday night Aug. 16, for the purpose of acquainting members and their families with other members, enlisted or prospective, and their families.

Among the speakers at the meeting were Dewey Hooten and Bill Henry of the Orlando Junior Chamber of Commerce. They reminded their audience that the Orlando Jaycees will play host to the Sanford Jaycees at a "stag" party at Waterwitch Club south of Orlando on Thursday afternoon, and they urged a large attendance from this city.

Young men who became members last night with the payment of a portion of their semi-annual dues were: Rev. J. J. Kellaghan, Wallace Phillips, Roy Symes, Jr., Gene Adams, S. O. Shinkholer, Jr., Joseph O'Connor, Fred T. Williams, Jr., Fred Stanley, F. D. Scott, Bill DuBose, George Thurston, James A. Wright, Andrew Carraway, Gordon Barnett, Peter Schaal, Irvin L. Jackson, O. E. Goff, Clyde Ramsey, D. E. McNah, L. P. Hagan, Jr., Roy F. Mann, V. A. Williams, Maxwell Stewart, D. L. Harper, and B. H. Scott, Jr. of Fern Park.

Joe Melch, Glen Ingraham, M. E. Blankenship of Longwood, Joel S. Field, and Babe McCall also signified an intention of affiliating at once, while others attending were Dr. H. W. Rucker, B. C. Moore, J. H. Truluck, and Roy Howell and H. D. Gleason of Lake Mary.

Fee Officers' Earnings Gain Over 1933 Mark

For this reason, an increase in net earnings and gross receipts is held at the Court House as a fairly accurate indication of the improvement in general economic conditions.

From their receipts the fee officers deduct the expenses of operating their departments, and from the net income they take their own pay. This pay is limited by law to $7500 a year. Last year the route went the bus down Sanford Avenue to Geneva Avenue and then to the schools. This year the bus will come through Ft. Reed and down Melville Avenue to Geneva Avenue and on to schools.

All contracts let this morning will expire in one year. Next year bus contracts will be let on the basis of the bus being all steel construction as provided by a recent state law.

During an earlier morning meeting of the Board, J. E. Fox of Paola, trustee of that district, was given approval of plans for the erection of a garage near Wilson School.

R. D. White of Lake Mary district was named as inspector of all school buildings in the county until he had completed a survey to be made in a few days.

Upon the recommendation of Mrs. A. G. Wagner, S. F. Long, and E. T. Hamill as trustees of Chulotoa School District, Mrs. Lucille B. Jacobs was appointed an intermediate teacher at Chulotoa this year.

Mrs. Helen T. Morse's resignation as county book clerk was accepted by the Board, and Mrs. Helen H. Schultz was appointed as Mrs. Morse's successor at a salary of $25 per month.
