Watson's Charges Will Have Proof By Several People

Hanging of American Soldiers Seems to Have Evidence

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Letters and telegrams from persons offering to submit proof of charges that American soldiers overseas hanged without trial presented in senate today by Watson, of Georgia, whose presentation of the original charges in the senate several days ago resulted in the appointment of a special committee to investigate.

One of the telegrams, Watson said was from a former major in the army and said he could assist in substantiating charges. In presenting documents Watson, with feeling, clashed with several senators and was reminded by Vice-President Coolidge he should proceed in order and observe the senate rules. Watson again attacked Senator Wadsworth, Republican, who first called the senate attention to Watson's charges. "It is only a few hours since I was put on the rack in a most supercilious manner by ex-associates of William Barnes, a crook," Watson said. Wadsworth did not reply.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—A reduction of about $465,000,000 in the public debt during October was announced today by the treasury. FLORIDA OUTLAW WAS KILLED BY DEPUTIES SENT UP FOR LIFE, ESCAPED AND HAS BEEN HIDING IN LAKE COUNTY.

TAVARES, Nov. 3.—Luther Wilson, aged 32, white, escaped convict and outlaw who has defied authorities of four central Florida counties for more than a year, was shot to death by deputy sheriffs while resisting arrest at a point some 15 miles south of Clermont Tuesday evening.

The body was brought to Tavares and a guard established here Tuesday night for fear that a raid might be made to secure it. There was no trouble, however, and all was quiet here yesterday.

Wilson escaped from the state prison farm at Raiford the early part of 1920. He was serving a life term for the murder of a deputy sheriff who sought his arrest after he escaped authorities who had taken him into custody on a charge of assaulting his sister-in-law. Since his escape he had dodged and resisted officers of Polk, Osceola, Lake and Orange counties. He is said to have lived in an outlaw camp near the corners of the four counties and to have had at least one other escaped convict with him.

Last week former Sheriff T. C. Smyth was defendant in a suit brought by Joseph Wilson for $5,000 damages for false arrest in connection with the charge on which his brother was sent up for life at Raiford. The trial was hotly contested, Hons. Mat MacFarlane and N. B. K. Pettigill, of Tampa, represented Wilson, and Hon. Ed. Davis and local attorneys represented Mr. Smyth, who is now clerk of the circuit court of Lake county. Incidentally the jury awarded Wilson one cent damages. Naturally this trial brought out many of the Wilson clan from south Lake county and it is presumed that during the week when the witnesses were present that there was a leak as to the whereabouts of Luther Wilson.

Acting upon the information Sheriff Cassidy sent out deputies C. W. Cooper and H. C. Cash to bring in the escaped convict. As a circuit court was in session the sheriff could not undertake the hazardous task with his fearless deputies.

Cooper and Cash left their car on the main road and walked some five miles off the beaten paths through swamp and underbrush, through the wild country known as Green Swamp. When they approached Henry Walker's house they saw Luther Wilson in a Ford car driving in their direction. They headed out into the rutted roadway and with leveled guns called upon Wilson to surrender. Instead he jammed on the brakes of his car, reached for his gun beside him, and in a second had the gun raised to shoot, but was a second too late. Two loads of shot entered his face and chest. He died instantly. The deputies brought the body on

Hanford MacNider, of Iowa, Chosen as National Commander

MOTION WAS LOST

FOR REMOVAL OF NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS FROM INDIANAPOLIS TO K. C.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 3.—The national convention of the American Legion adjourned here last night after electing Hanford MacNider, of Mason City, Iowa, national commander; selecting other officers and adopting resolutions covering a wide range of subjects. The convention had been in session without a recess since early morning.

The election of Mr. MacNider to succeed John J. Emery of Grand Rapids, Mich., was made unanimous after more than half of the state delegations had seconded his nomination and three other candida tes nominated, Roy Hoffman of Oklahoma City, Earl M. Cline, of Nebraska City, Nebr., and John F. Williams, of Joplin, Mo., had withdrawn in his favor.

The vice commanders chosen were George L. Berry, of Rogersville, Tenn., H. Nelson Jackson, of Burlington, Vermont, and Charles Kendrick, of San Francisco, representing the army, and Raymond Brackett of Marblehead, Mass., and J. A. McCormick, of Fort Lyon, Colo., of the navy.

The Rev. Earl Blackman, of Chanute, Kans., a minister of the Christian church, Disciples of Christ, was elected national chaplain.

A fight for the removal of the national legion headquarters from Indianapolis to Kansas City, which the Missouri delegation promised in pre-convention campaigning to bring on the floor, did not develop.

The election of officers concluded an all day session marked by debate and wrangling over certain sections of the resolutions committee report. Particularly heated was the discussion of a resolution criticizing severely the speech delivered by George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, before the Pilgrims' Club in London, upon his arrival in England to assume his duties as ambassador and in which Mr. Harvey discussed the reasons why the United States entered the war. The original resolution was thrown out of the report on a roll call vote and later a substitute was adopted. The substitute was written in less sharp terms and expressed the belief that the ambassador's remarks did not represent the true feeling for which the American Legion stands. It directed that a copy of the resolution be sent to President Harding.

Two resolutions bearing upon federal compensation for soldiers were among the mass adopted. Both declared in favor of immediate compensation legislation. One submitted by the convention's legislative committee declared that "after careful consideration of all of the arguments advanced in opposition to the measure, including the letter of the secretary of the treasury and the address of the president to congress, we still firmly believe in the justice, fairness and immediate necessity of the adjusted compensation measure."

The resolution declares that the legion reaffirms its stand upon adjusted compensation, and asks that the "congress of the United States pass this measure without further equibocation or delay."

The other compensation resolution adopted was offered by the resolutions committee. It asserted that, the American Legion reiterates its position in favor of the adjusted compensation for discharged soldiers, and "deplores the request of President Harding to delay passage by congress of a measure for the same, and the acquiescence of congress in that request."

to Tavares about 8 p. m., and a jury was empaneled, viewed the body, after which it was turned over to an undertaker at Eustis. The body was notified yesterday that the family was at their disposal.

The Samuel Schwartz home on Lake Golden was broken into and ransacked by thieves recently and also a work shop. It is impossible to know what was taken, as Mr. S. is not here.

Mrs. Buyers arrived here from Frankfort, Ky., last week, and was met by Louis Kinard, and they were immediately married and have gone to housekeeping in Mr. Kinard's home in Cameron City, the house formally owned by Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Minick. Mrs. Kinard is well known here as she was a resident on Beardall avenue several years. They have the good wishes of many friends. A large party from the west side came and gave them a rousing charivari the next evening.

Mrs. Margaret Marshall, in sending her renewal each year for her home paper in Edenburg, Scotland, receives a spray of Scotch heather as acknowledgment and pleasant reminders of home, besides Scotland and Florida. Mrs. M., has lived in Australia, New Zealand, England, and several points in the United States.

The storm has not done as much damage here as it was feared it might although there is some bad places seen in many fields where water is standing. Soil washed out in gullies where the soil was loose and covered newly set out small plants. Much work will have to be done over again. A good many telephone poles are down on Beardall avenue, and a limb blown off a large oak tree was carried some distance and landed in front of a house on B. J. Stearling's farm. Mr. Corley had a large clump of banana trees loaded with fruit blown down and some palms were uprooted at various places. We have rain enough now for some time.

According to the Key West Citizen, the cigar industry has shown real improvement during the month of September. Every establishment is now understood to be working full time, with all hands employed for which they have room and equipment.

The Citizen, quoting E. H. Gato, Jr., tells that there are now six hundred employes in the Gato factory, and additional men will be employed as soon as space is made for them. Holiday orders will soon be coming in, and this is always an important period in the cigar-making industry. There were more than five million cigars made in Key West factories during the month of September.

The Cocoa Tribune shows a picture of a project half-million-dollar hotel to be built at Cocoa. In construction, it will be of native coquina rock with Tennessee marble trimmings. the middle of the state, reports about $200,000 damage, mostly to crops.

Daytona had a sixty-mile gale for a short time Tuesday morning, but comparatively little damage was done there. St. Augustine experienced high winds and some damage. There is a report that four fishermen in a boat were lost, but this has not been confirmed.

Bartow, Lakeland, Winter Haven, Arcadia and all other towns in the South Florida section suffered more or less, but the inland cities did not feel the force of the gale to the extent that the coastal towns did.

LOSS $500,000 FOR SARASOTA, ESTIMATED.

Half of the city dock at Sarasota was washed and blown away, the estimated damage over the entire city being placed at $500,000, it was stated late last night by residents who made their way yesterday from Sarasota to Tampa. The entire bay front with its docks suffered the heaviest damage, the destruction in the business and residence sections of the city being slight.

Parts of the Sarasota county court house was blown in. Several boats, docked at the water front, were piled high and dry, three miles in the woods around the city. The railroad track was completely washed out.

The party from Sarasota, on their way to Tampa, passed through Palmetto, Bradentown and Ruakin. At Palmetto the power plant and telephone service was wrecked. The power plant at Bradentown was also put out of commission.

The little town of Cortez was completely wiped out, the fish houses and docks being swallowed by the storm in its path. The partially constructed bridge over to Anna Maria was wiped out.

Manatee apparently went through the storm unhurt. The bridge over the Little Alafia river was destroyed.

The approaches to the bridge over the Little Manatee river were washed away and the bridge itself so loosened that traffic over it is dangerous.

At Sarasota the barometer reading at 11:20 a. m., Tuesday, was 29.2. The barometer stayed at this point until 1:30 p. m., when it commenced to rise. At 5 p. m., the reading was 29:40.

Ruskin passed through the storm with little or no damage.

The party from Sarasota reported that no lives had been lost at any of the places through which they had come on their way to Tampa yesterday.

M. H. Sheldon, residing at No. 210 Carter street, was in Bradentown Saturday. He returned to Tampa yesterday with the report that Bradentown's river front was badly damaged. The vegetable farms suffered heavily, as did the fruit trees. The estimated damage to the fruit crop was placed at twenty or twenty-five per cent of the crop.

Terra Sela was not badly damaged. Lack of communication with Anna Maria has left this town's fate in doubt. Buildings could be seen on Long Beach. West View was apparently completely wiped out.—Tampa Tribune.

TAMPA, Oct. 27.—Reports from all sections tell of heavy damage to citrus fruit and truck crops, estimates ranging from a loss of fifty to sixty per cent in the coastal region of Pinellas county, thirty to fifty per cent in Hillsborough down to five to ten per cent in Orange and Polk.

(From Monday's Daily)

Miss May Thrasher was the charming honor guest at one of the most delightful parties of the early fall season, Saturday afternoon when Mrs. E. M. Galloway entertained at bridge at her lovely country home.

The Galloway home was prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and green carried out with quantities of Mexican pink vine and pink roses. Three tables of players enjoyed a spirited game. The tallies were artistically and appropriately designed in miniature brides in full wedding attire and dainty bride's maids.

The honoree was presented a lovely piece of Georgette lingerie, while top score prize a pink chiffon sash was won by Miss Adelaide Higgins, Mrs. C. R. Kirtley won second prize, and was also given lingerie. In cutting for the consolation Mrs. Ed. Betts was the fortunate one and received a vase.

Following several progressions, the tables were laid with dainty hand-made covers and delicious refreshments of chicken salad on shredded lettuce, olives, hot rolls and nuts in baskets were served. Later the guests were invited in the dining room for coffee, the table had as its centerpiece a large wedding cake gaily decorated with a "Lolly Pop" bride, surrounded with bride's maids, and other attendants, around the cake were "Lolly Pop" dolls as spectators.

Miss Thrasher was most becomingly gowned in brown cordon crepe with hat to match.

Mrs. Galloway was assisted in entertaining the guests by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher and Mrs. R. E. Newman.

Mrs. Galloway's guests included Miss May Thrasher, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. R. E. Newman, Mrs. Ben Caswell, Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, Mrs. Joe Chittenden, Miss Adelaide Higgins, Mrs. Ed. Betts, Misses Sara and Geraldine Muriel, Mrs. Robert Hines, Miss Agnes Dumas, Misses Fern Ward, Mrs. Dick Brown, Miss Daphne Wimbish, Miss Marie Teague, Miss Florence Henry, Mrs. Karl Schultz and Miss Mary Elizabeth Puleston.

MAYOR AND EDITOR VISITING SANFORD FRIENDS.

(From Saturday's Daily)

W. R. Frier, editor of the Douglass Enterprise of Douglass Ga., is in the city visiting his old friend, J. A. Dean, of the Union Pharmacy. Aside from being the editor of the Enterprise and engaging in other business, Mr. Frier is mayor of his town. He thinks Sanford is growing fast since his last visit and likes Florida very much although it is natural that he should think Georgia the best State in the Union. Mr. Frier says that his home State is rapidly recovering from the depression due to the low price of cotton, and business is picking up along every line.

TO DEVELOP ST. JOHNS RIVER IS OUR PROGRAM

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS COMMITTED TO PROGRAM OF SHIP BY WATER

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Ship by water. The Chamber of Commerce is committed to a program to develop the St. Johns river. It will be necessary to secure federal appropriations for deepening the channel and interesting the government in the proposed St. Johns-Indian River canal. Volume of water borne tonnage will force the government to make the much desired improvements. Through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce, tonnage carried via St. Johns river has been greatly increased in fact to such an extent that the Clyde Line has been compelled to put on a daily boat service. When the Chamber of Commerce sends its committee before the government officials requesting the much desired improvements, it is hoped that water borne tonnage will have been increased to such proportions as will cause the government to see the necessity of opening up the St. Johns river to the coast and deepening the present channel. This condition, however, cannot be brought about unless every merchant in Sanford has shipments consigned to him routed via water when possible. The sole excuse for the existence of a Chamber of Commerce lies in doing the greatest good for the most people, in civic, commercial, agricultural and industrial production and also transportation affairs; in rendering service which will help the community, whether it knows it or not; and in handling matters of general interest, which ordinarily no individual will attempt, and which he COULD not handle if he SHOULD attempt. It behooves every merchant in Sanford to support the movement originated by their local Chamber and become affiliated with the Central Florida Water Traffic League, an organization consisting of the shippers of all sections contiguous to Sanford who are interested in the ship by water movement, not only from the monetary benefits to be accrued, but also from a desire to develop that great rate equalizer, the St. Johns river. The Central Florida Water Traffic League will maintain an efficient traffic bureau as an integral part of its organization, to guard the lawful rights and promote the interests of the shipper. This department or bureau will maintain a complete tariff file to afford service in the quotation of rates and routing of shipments, tracing of de-layal shipments, advice with regard to claim matters, decisions of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the State Commission, decisions of the courts and advice regarding many questions that arise in traffic matters. In addition the bureau will undertake to check and audit freight bills for a nominal fee to members. The Central Florida Water Traffic League will serve the interests of all communities of this section on all matters affecting transportation and in addition will carry on a work of education amongst the merchants and shippers to the great benefits to be derived in shipping by water. The special committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce assigned to this work will endeavor to secure a large membership from Sanford for the Central Florida Water Traffic League.

Among the prominent visitors to the city today, were Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Randall, who are touring the State. Dr. Randall is a globe trotter, and has travelled from Greenland to Mexico in North America, and seen all the foreign lands. He went into the world war at the Mexican border and remained until he had seen Berlin, being with the medical corps. He was with the first Perry expedition to Greenland, and the Arctic Circle, and when he speaks about that country, he speaks authoritatively. He said this morning that he had never, in all his travels, seen any country that had the possibilities of the Sanford section, and he intends to write an article soon for the American Magazine about this part of Florida. He was taken around the farming section by Secretary Pearman and fell in love with Sanford and the farming industry, and above all, the sub-irrigation system as practiced here by the "winter truck growers."

Sanford, just passing through the big storm, and able to take care of the flood of waters caused by three days of rain and showing but small effects, tells the story, and the dry season of the entire summer and fall told the rest.

PINELLAS COUNTY WANTS SPECIAL TERM CALLED.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Nov. 1.—The county commissioners of this, Pinellas county, are expected to request Governor Hardee to call a special session of the legislature to authorize counties to issue time warrants to finance the rebuilding of highways and bridges destroyed by last week's storm.

"SPURLING'S SUBDIVISION" is attracting attention—lots are being sold right along and building in this section is such as to gladden the heart of those who have the good of Sanford at heart.

This is no idle talk—I have weighed the statement and to say just what is my candid convictions would put it most too strong for the careful, conservative person—that person whose eyes are turned backward—the fellow who has VISION will agree with me now—the other later.

PERSHING AND FOCH RECEIVE BIG OVATIONS

LEGION GREET WARTIME COMMANDERS WITH CHEERS

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Nov. 2.—The American Legion received its wartime commanders—Marshal Ferdinand Foch, of France, and General John J. Pershing—here yesterday, with a welcome fit for the heroes of victorious armies. Ten thousand guests and visitors to the national convention gave the great military leaders a tumultuous greeting that spoke of the feeling of the American soldier and people for the two men.

After hearing the visitors, the convention adjourned until today to permit the delegates and visitors to attend the dedication of Kansas City's memorial to its war dead and to participate in the big Legion parade yesterday afternoon.

Marshal Foch brought to the Legionnaires a personal declaration of comradeship and from his government bore the official greetings of France. Just the appearance of the marshal was enough to throw the big hall into a frenzy of applause and General Pershing was given an equal ovation by the former soldiers and visitors.

John J. Pershing commander of the American expeditionary forces, yesterday extended on behalf of American Expeditionary forces, extended on behalf of the American Legion and his own native state, Missouri, a formal welcome to Marshal Foch of France, commander-in-chief of the allied armies.

"I cordially greet you," said General Pershing, in an address delivered before the national convention of the Legion at which the French commander was guest of honor, "not only recalling the affectionate relationship of other days, but also recognizing the patriotic unit that has grown out of those associations and the common purpose that exist to uphold more faithfully those things that lie at the foundation of this great republic of ours."

"I am, le Marechal, the American Legion is particularly honored by your presence here among us. We extend an equally cordial welcome to that inspired leader of Italy's victorious armies that crushed the military autonomy of Italy, General Diaz, and to the representative of the brave Belgian army, whose courage defied the staggering blows of German militarism, Gen. Jacques, and the great captain who commanded the British naval forces whose victories on the sea made the land victories possible, Admiral Beatty."

"American people everywhere wait to do you honor. Personally, I am extremely delighted to extend to you the greetings of the American armies that crossed the sea to fight beside you. I am also honored to speak for my friends and neighbors here in Missouri and accord you a most sincere welcome to this grand old state where I was born and where I lived in boyhood."

General Pershing then turned his attention to the Legion and praised its campaigns for Americanism and kindred ideals. He urged the Legion to continue its efforts to bring into being a military force, representative of the people which "in any future war will escape the results of unpreparedness that you suffered." He urged that the Legion bend its efforts also toward obtaining all possible relief for incapacitated veterans of the war. He predicted that great good would come from the conference on disarmament in Washington, and that an agreement would be reached which would lessen the chances of war.

Delegates to the American Legion's national convention here extended an official greeting to their "buddies," Foch and Pershing.

Indications were that the ceremony would exceed even the vociferous demonstration to the two leaders Monday night upon their arrival when thousands met them at the station.

Greetings of Marshal Foch and General Pershing were the principal events of the morning. In the afternoon the Legion's big parade took place with thousands of Legionnaires, members of the Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish War Veterans and others in the line of march. Legion officials expected to sandwich the convention routine into the meeting proceedings, after which the gathering was to proceed to Union station Plaza where the Memorial Kansas City is to erect to its war dead, to be dedicated.

OUR WEEKLY BUSINESS REVIEW

By Henry Clews & Co.

The nearer approach of the Arms Conference at Washington, and the increasing certainty that that conference will necessarily deal with financial questions is the most important factor of general significance to the market now on the horizon. Not only the revision of our tax system, but the whole problem of the funding of the international indebtedness may largely be influenced by the outcome of this meeting. It has become a factor in the financial situation which must be ranked as of first importance.

The calling off of the threatened railroad strike is a great moral victory for the government and is of course good for the railroads as well as the whole country. Those in a position to know, however, have felt that there could be no other result for the reason that a number of affiliated unions were not in sympathy with the walkout, public sentiment was against it, and the great number of people out of employment rendered the success of the undertaking very doubtful at the outset. This situation has, of course, been well understood by the union heads, nevertheless they deserve great credit for displaying good sense in rescinding their strike order, notwithstanding that it was delayed until the eleventh hour. So far as the roads are concerned, however, it still leaves open the matter of lower freight rates which the railroads under present conditions can ill afford to make so long as operating costs continue at their present high level, and these can only be materially reduced by a further readjustment in wages which the Labor Board apparently is not inclined to sanction for some months to come. Pending the decision, not merely of the strike, but of the wage and rate situation of the roads it is not strange that the general public should have held aloof from the market and especially from railroad securities, fearful of the consequences of the controversy.

It is gratifying to note that general business has been singularly little disturbed by the strike prospects. In some parts of the country there would seem to have been an effort to produce and ship rather more largely than would otherwise have been the case had there not been a prospect that the movement of freight would be "tied up" at the end of the month. Business, however, in not a few branches is still showing the continued results of the depression. The quarterly report of the U. S. Steel Corporation, although exhibiting an improvement for September over the preceding August and July, is a favorable factor, notwithstanding that the combined figures are bad when compared with previous quarters of this year. The showing made by Central Leather may be regarded as a moderate improvement. In the oil industry Mexican Petroleum's large reported earnings have naturally been taken as a helpful element. Continued firmness on the part of the copper shares has been an encouraging phase of the week's developments, although it is still uncertain just how much real improvement has taken place in the copper business itself. Excellent reports from textile and leather industries continue to support the belief that those lines of trade have been fairly thoroughly readjusted. Particular encouragement is to be drawn from the fact that prices have apparently been more fully stabilized. Current index numbers show that the average level is now either holding its own or else advancing. The definite determination of the strike threat ought to confirm the greater confidence of business in the outlook.

The failure of congress to adopt the tax revision bill during the past week has been a disappointment to those who believed that an early vote would be taken. Adoption of the excess profits tax repeal has, however, been rendered certain through the preliminary vote of the senate, while other measures of amendment have on the whole been unsatisfactorily dealt with. It is now promised, however, that the conference committee will greatly reduce the surtaxes. A notable feature of the Congressional situation has been the increasing favor granted to the Smoot sales tax proposal. There are many who believe that it may yet gain at least a partial foothold in the bill during the conference between House and Senate. Adoption of the railway refunding bill is again promised, but is apparently conditional upon the making of concessions with regard to rates which the managers of the roads believe should not be granted. The House of Representatives has acted upon the international debt funding measure and it is likely there may be action on the bill by the Senate prior to the meeting of the Arms Conference. Meanwhile the continued effort to put some portion of our large gold reserves back into common circulation may succeed, and if so will result in lowering the reserve ratio which for the system as a whole has now reached a figure of nearly 71 per cent. With our banks steadily withdrawing from foreign trade financing there has been little reason for improvement in foreign exchange.

Developments during the week have appeared once more to show that liquidation is a thing of the past, even the prospect of a serious railroad strike having failed to bring out any stocks of consequence, and without this there is no reason for fearing any retrograde movement of importance. To be sure the general public is inclined still, to hold aloof until it has been more fully demonstrated that what extant business conditions are mending. The calling off of the railroad strike, which threatened to disrupt business in all sections of the country is of course, a favorable market factor which cannot be overestimated, and to that extent the market has been benefited; still it is very doubtful if a sustained upward movement of consequence can be expected at the present time as the demand for stocks will necessarily have to run well ahead of the supply before this can legitimately take place. Looking ahead several months, however, the outlook is promising.

West Palm Beach charges $500 license to peddlers or street vendors of medicines, drugs or other proprietary preparations purporting to have medicinal virtues.

Armistice Day will now be a national holiday. We thought it was one already.

Citrus growers will find that by carefully removing dead wood from the trees the dropping of fruit will be reduced.

Warnings are in the Florida papers about certain people going about the state selling so-called furs. They are fakes pure and simple.

One thing the modern housekeeper is thankful for is that Thanksgiving approaches in that nowadays it isn't good taste to load the table full of so many kinds of food that no one is able to make even a pretense of eating it.

Now the coal miners in Indiana have decided to walk out right in the middle of the cold weather. We often wonder how they expect to gain the favor of the public by cutting off their supply of winter coal.

Dispatches yesterday said that the new Democratic chairman would "pull the cover off the Republican administration."

Governor Hardee has no fear now of anarchists, bolsheviks or bull weevils. He has appointed his personal staff of Lieut. Colonels and has four newspaper men on it which should hold him for a while.

The Gainesville Daily Sun came out yesterday with 32 pages of a big fair edition, and it was some paper. Getting up a special edition of a weekly paper is not so bad, but a special of a daily paper is a big job.

The Alachua County Fair sent the Herald a complimentary ticket and we wish it could be used. It was some eighteen years ago that we helped to hold a county fair at Gainesville, and all the exhibits were placed in a stable that stood near the old Sun office.

"Sanford is developing into a factory town," declares the Herald, and while some places might not understand and fear that things were not improving in Sanford, it is evident that the Herald means the best and most desirable impression to be carried. New factories are locating at Sanford, and additional wholesale firms, and all of these things means more payrolls and better business all around.

SAY THE KINDLY WORD.

Dr. Walker in his sermon Sunday night talked about the gossip and the scandal monger, and he flayed them right and left, and he did not say a word too much or a word too strong about them.

Every town except Sanford. We know of a dandy new home furnished renting for $100 per month which is some different from Orlando.

You can talk about this much mooted question all you please, but if you will look at it from all angles, you will discover that a license on beer, that would give a bonus to the soldiers, or give it to any department of the government, would be better than the present system of allowing everybody to sell rotten liquor in any quantity.

But cut it out. Shine on. Brighten up, say something good. Use honey instead of vinegar. Say good things about people even if they happen to be had in spots. In time they will be good.

YOUNG BOYS ARE BUYING LIQUOR.

There was never so much liquor being drunk by young boys when the open saloons were here as there is right now in Sanford. You can go down the streets of Sanford any night and the young boys are filled up on moonshine liquor and reeling around the streets dead drunk.

FACING FACTS

It is our firm belief, Orlando in particular, and Florida in general, will have a prosperous season. But there are certain facts that must be faced, which if they are not will in our opinion add materially to lessening the inflow of money to this community.

We speak of exorbitant rents. There is no use to try and get around the fact that times in the north are hard. They have been felt by the rich as well as the poor.

In view of which fact it is ridiculous to think people are coming down and pay some of the exorbitant rates asked for rooms, apartments and furnished houses in Orlando and other towns. We will be kicked and cursed by a few of our fellowmen for these few words, but it is because these few are either aiding the present high-priced condition or have a wrong impression as to what just criticism will accomplish.

who had gone off on the wrong track, but in that it benefited the town.

We know of burglarages, scarcely worthy of the name, that are being held for $1,000 for the season. One thousand dollars for approximately twelve weeks' rent, on an investment of not more than three or four thousand dollars. It is ridiculous.

As we say, this condition does not only exist in Orlando and vicinity, but in practically every town in Florida. We must meet readjustment of conditions face to face.

PROHIBITION LAWS ARE A JOKE.

You can talk about this much mooted question all you please, but if you will look at it from all angles, you will discover that a license on beer, that would give a bonus to the soldiers, or give it to any department of the government, would be better than the present system of allowing everybody to sell rotten liquor in any quantity.

There is more booze being sold here in this county, and probably every other county in the state, than was ever sold while the saloons were here, and the worst feature of the whole business is, that no restrictions govern the sales whatever.

PLANT PETUNIAS

The Civic Committee of the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club will give petunias to anyone in the city desiring to plant them if they will phone in their name.

MENDICANTS, SOLICITORS, SNOWBIRDS.

Read the statement from various cities regarding the beggars and solicitors and mendicants of all kinds. It demonstrates how other cities in Florida handle this vexatious question and Sanford could undoubtedly take a few pointers from this report.

solicitors who work Florida only in the winter and take this money home with them. We do not want our home people and our tax payers to suffer by these migratory birds who pay nothing in many instances and in others a small license.

PUBLIC OPINION SETTLED THE STRIKE

Public opinion settled the railroad strike. Cancellation of the general strike order is neither a victory for the railroads nor the unions, but a victory for the great American public.

The government is an organization representing the general public, and the unions are to be commended for recognizing this, since the general public was looking to its government for a settlement of this strike.

There is a significant sign in the outcome. The unions, and doubtless the railroads, too, have awakened to the importance of the great majority and its power.

A Jackson, Mich., paper gives an illustration of the blighting effect of a too-high freight rate upon a flourishing industry, as well as upon the railroads themselves.

FARMER ORGANIZATIONS ASK REPEAL OF TWO R. R. ACTS.

Following the recent petition to the Interstate Commerce Commission asking an immediate reduction in freight rates of from 10 to 20 per cent plus subsequent reductions based on all savings in operating costs, the Washington office of the American Farm Bureau Federation was instructed to request Congress to repeal both the Cummins-Esch law and the Adamson law.

ands of acres of choice products, such as apples, peaches and even potatoes, for which northern cities are hungering, rot in the fields, because the freight rates are so high they cannot be sold with any profit to the producer.

The railroad managers have not yet learned the first principle of successful business, which many retailers have learned to their great advantage and profit, viz., that a quick turnover of stock at a small profit is better than a slow turnover at a big profit.

Just as a large part of Europe still thinks in terms of war, so do a considerable portion of the world's workers persist in clinging to the artificial prerogatives that were theirs between 1914 and 1919.

FUN AND VANDALISM.

The Herald, each year, speaks about the boys having fun on Halloween, and our idea of fun and our idea of vandalism and rough stuff, is clearly defined.

A crowd of boys, some almost men, who should have known better, went about town, upsetting flowers, smashing chairs and creating havoc where occupants of the house were not at home.

ORANGE OUTLOOK NOT BAD

With apples scarce and high priced this fruit is practically eliminated as a competitor of oranges. Together with the fact that a large number of boxes of oranges will be shipped this year than last, should have a good effect on the market for Florida oranges.

ORLANDO BROKER IS INJURED WHEN AUTO CRASHES INTO TRUCK

LAKELAND, Oct. 31.—R. B. Keene, an Orlando broker, sustained broken ribs and numerous cuts and scratches when the automobile he was driving crashed into the express car of the Sanford "short" train on Atlantic Coast Line railroad yesterday morning at Carter's crossing.

Commission to fix railroad rates to produce a minimum net return of 5 1/2 per cent above all expenses and taxes on the present value of American railroads.

"At the time of the passage of the Transportation Act we urged the preservation of the powers of the several states to regulate rates and practices of the carriers relating to interstate transportation and distribution of cars.

"The provisions of the act in setting up a Railway Labor Board did not properly take into account the necessity for coordination as between the Interstate Commerce Commission, which determines the income of the roads, and the Railway Labor Board, which has control of the largest item of expenditure.

"The American Farm Bureau Federation has long been on record favoring the repeal of the Adamson Law. Our executive committee, with representatives from all sections of the country, declares that it is responsible for the unreasonable transportation rates, and, if continued, will affect all industries, including agriculture, toward increasing the cost of production beyond an economic basis.

Time was when financial panics and depressed conditions in the country meant demoralization in the citrus business. The distribution area was small, small commission handlers cash speculative buyers knew but few markets and continued pilferage of fruit in these few markets meant a smash in prices.

Depressed conditions should not interfere, and do not, with the shipment of fruit. The shipper comes out best in the end is the one who has a steady supply in market day after day, taking the bad with the good.

WHAT THE AMERICAN ARMY ACHIEVED IN WORLD WAR RECITED BY GEN. FOCH

In Speech to American Legion Convention at Kansas City
IS PROUD OF THEM

MARSHAL OF FRENCH ARMY TELLS OF POWERS OF
UNCLE SAM'S MEN

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 2.—Marshal Foch, principal guest of honor for the day, entered the Legion convention hall from a side entrance and went to his box amid cheering just as the convention was called to order yesterday. He was preceded by a guard of Americans, holders of the congressional medal of honor.

The text of Marshal Foch's address before the convention follows: "Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Great American Army:

"My Dear Comrades of the American Legion:

"I cannot tell you how great is my satisfaction at finding myself among you, valiant soldiers of 1918, to live again our glorious memories. Three years ago, on the first of November, 1918, the entire American army in France took up vigorously the pursuit of the defeated enemy and did not halt until the German surrender.

"The hour of glory for the American army, a proper culmination for a military effort was prodigious alike in its intensity as in its rapidity. One and all you have had your share in it. You may well be proud.

"In responding in mass to the call to arms of your government, in equipping, training and organizing ourselves as rapidly as possible you had in view only the purpose to take your place as soon as possible in the line of battle.

"In numbers: Eighteen months after the declaration of war by the United States on Germany the American army had passed from effectives of 9,500 officers and 125,000 men to 180,000 officers and 2,500,000 men.

"Effort of organization: If in the month of March, 1918, you had in France but six divisions, six months later you had 41, of which 31 engaged in battle.

"Effort in instruction: In order to have officers, non-commissioned officers and men rapidly trained you multiplied in America as in France your schools and camps which became centers of prodigious activity.

"In order to arm you and camp you the American manufacturers worked without receipts and supplied all your needs.

"Admirable effort also in transportation: You swept away every obstacle which interfered with bringing your units from the centers of instructions to the ports of embarkation.

"In France, you improved the ports of debarkation, created new installations, increased the traffic of the railroad system by work of all kinds and multiplied your store houses and hospitals.

"Your shipyards were organized for intensive production in such a way that when the war ended you utilized for your ocean transportation almost four millions of marine tonnage, instead of 94,000 available at the beginning of the war.

"And meanwhile your splendid war fleet, thanks to its vigilance, and its fine military qualities, protected with an efficiency to which I am happy to pay tribute here, the transportation of your troops and material.

"A prodigious effort on the part of your entire nation's intelligence, will power and energy. A prodigious effort which has filled your associates with admiration and gratitude and confounded your enemy.

"This splendid spirit of an entire nation we find again on the battlefields of France, where it was blazoned in the admirable virtues of bravery and heroism.

"It was the spirit of the second and third American army divisions which one month later took part in the battle of the Marne and distinguished themselves immediately in operations around Chateau Thierry and Belleau Woods. Again it was the spirit of these five divisions which, on the 18th of July, participated in the victorious counter offensive of the tenth and sixth French armies between Alame and the Marne and contributed in great measure to that victory.

"Finally it was that spirit which animated all the American army when, on the 24th of July, General Pershing formed your splendid units under his own direct command.

"On the 12th day of September, 1918, the first American army delivered its first battle on the soil of France. It dislodged the enemy from the St. Mihiel salient where he had entrenched himself for nearly four years, threw him back beyond the foot of the hills of the Meuse. From the very first the American army entered into glory. How many further laurels was it yet to win?

"The St. Mihiel operation was nearly ended when the American army attacked on a new front. On the 25th of September it was engaged on the right wing of the vast allied offensive. The point of direction assigned to it was Metzere, on the Meuse.

"Deployed from the left bank of the Meuse to the eastern confines of Champagne, it had three army corps in line on a front of nearly 40 kilometers.

"The St. Mihiel operation was nearly ended when the American army attacked on a new front. On the 25th of September it was engaged on the right wing of the vast allied offensive. The point of direction assigned to it was Metzere, on the Meuse.

"Deployed from the left bank of the Meuse to the eastern confines of Champagne, it had three army corps in line on a front of nearly 40 kilometers.

"Before it stretched the region of the Argonne, formidable emplacement of the German defense, a wooded terrain, rugged, difficult in its very nature and rendered more so by all the defensive organizations which had been accumulated there during the last four years.

"Nothing could discourage or check your army. It threw itself with generous ardor into the immense melee. The task was a rude one, but it was carried out to a thorough finish. Night and day for a month you advanced in spite of numerous pitfalls and counter attacks of the enemy. It succeeded from pure tenacity and determination. After St. Mihiel I now inscribe upon its proud banners the name of the Argonne.

"On the 16th of October, this great task finished, it joined hands with the fourth French army in the defile of Grand Pre. In consequence of this the enemy's resistance was severely shaken; the moment had arrived to give him the final blow.

"On the first of November, just three years ago today, the first American army again attacked and, in a splendid advance, reached Buzancy, penetrating the German line for more than 10 kilometers.

"The enemy this time retired definitely; the stars and stripes at once took up the pursuit, and, six days later, floated victoriously over the Meuse reconquered.

"After St. Mihiel, after the Argonne, the American banners now bore the name of the Meuse. In a few days you had taken 45,000 prisoners and 1,400 cannon from the enemy. Glory to the first American army! Glory also to those of your divisions, which, distributed among the French and British armies contributed in great measure to the final success, whether with the Fifth French army to the northwest of Rheims, or with the Fourth French army, in which they carried in magnificent assault, the strong positions of Orfeulles; or again with the British armies for the capture of the famous Hindenburg line, or with the group of armies in Flanders pursuing the enemy upon the road to Brussels.

"During the time your second army impatiently awaited to attack in its turn in the direction of Methew, which was already stretching its arms to us for deliverance. But, harassed and defeated, the army of the enemy laid down its arms. The solemn hour which compensated all the sacrifices freely honored our cause.

"You have made those sacrifices; more than 75,000 of your countrymen were buried in the soil of France. May they rest in peace. Your French brothers in arms watch over them.

"Glory to you who survive them and who enjoy victorious peace. You may well be proud of your past exploits.

"Your country had asked you to lay low a redoubtable enemy. You have placed him at your mercy and after having assured every guarantee for the liberty of your peoples which your government has dictated. Has not your task been completely fulfilled? As for me, the great honor of my life is for me to have guided along the road to victory the American army of 1918, which was a real grand army, beginning with its commander."

What Henry Ford Says About Machine Power Farming

"In the tractor the farmer now has a machine in which is harnessed one of the most adaptable, efficient, economical sources of power in the world—the internal combustion engine.

"The tractor will multiply the productive capacity of each individual farm worker from three to four times over.

"It will put the farmer on a par with the city manufacturer. It will put his produce-producing factory—for that is what a farm is—on to an efficient production basis.

"It will enable each worker to earn so much more that he can be paid more and still leave a greater profit for the man who hires him. It will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life.

"I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth."

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui, I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully in the treatment of many women's ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists.

At a late hour the guests departed pronouncing the affair a decided success.

By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so natural, so evenly, so gently.

LYNCHING BILL A JOKE VIOLATES THE CONSTITUTION PUTS BLAME ON COUNTY

And Widely Conflicting Views Put Forth on the Bill DYER BILL IS UP

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE BRINGS IN REPORTS ON ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Widely conflicting views on the anti-lynching bill, now before congress, were presented in the house yesterday in majority and minority reports from the judiciary committee.

The bill, introduced by Representative Dyer, Republican, Missouri, would undertake to wipe out lynching by heavy penalties to be imposed on persons participating and officers charged with enforcing the peace. Counties in which persons are put to death by mobs also would be subject to heavy fines in the federal court.

Citing the demand in the platform adopted by the last Republican national convention to end lynching, the plea of President Harding in an address to congress "to wipe out this barbaric stain" and the appeal of President Wilson in 1918 to citizens to help stop mob law, the majority report, prepared by Mr. Dyer declared that these and similar appeals "have gone for naught and lynchings continue."

"Congress must provide the means for ending this cowardly crime," the report continued. "It is in punishing those who take part in it or who permit it."

"The prevalence in many states of the spirit which tolerates lynching, accompanied too often with inhuman cruelty, and the inability of unwillingness of the public authorities to punish the persons guilty of this crime, threaten very seriously the future peace of the nation. Lynching blots our fair name as a nation for we cannot claim to be civilized until our laws are respected and enforced and our citizens secured against the hideous cruelties of which we are constantly furnishing fresh examples. The report added that while it had been impossible to get accurate figures, available records showed 3,224 persons had been lynched in the last thirty years, of which number 2,522 were negroes.

Declaring the bill unconstitutional, the minority report presented by Representative Summers, Democrat, Texas, contending it would tend to destroy the sense of local responsibility without adding to protection of people.

"This bill, in the judgment of the minority, is without constitutional warrant," said the report. It is definitely and directly antagonistic to the philosophy of our system of government and within the limit of its effectiveness, if it should be held constitutional, would be destructive of that system.

"If enacted and operative it would not add to the protection of persons or general efficiency of government, nor strengthen the relationship between the federal government and the states. On the contrary, this proposed intervention of the federal government directed against local power, supplanting and superseding the sovereignty of the states, would tend to destroy that sense of local responsibility. * * *

THE SANFORD SMALL BOY DID NOT RESENT THE EARLY MORNING EDICT.

There was a great stirring at dawn today. Boys were not routed out of bed in time for breakfast, for they were down in the railroad yards bright and early waiting the arrival of the flying squadron of the four trains that carry the wonders of Howe's Great London Circus and Van Amburg's Trained Wild Animals.

Yes, the bands will play, the calliopes will hoot and the great lumbering elephants—nineteen of 'em—will ambulate heavily through the thoroughfares at the end of the street parade, for which many things are claimed as to length, beauty and novelty. All the cages and dens of the combined menageries will be open to the view of the crowds along the curbs, and seven bands and three calliopes will arouse the true circus day spirit with their quickening lilt.

There'll be something doing on the lot from morn' midnight, from the interesting sight of "getting the eblig thing up," to the last chariot race, from the parade to the departure of the fourth section of the trains after the last big top wagon has been loaded.

The performance will start at 2 and 8 p. m., and the doors of the double zoo will be open one hour earlier for the visit of the ethrons before the opening pageantry inaugurates the big show performances in the three rings, on the stages, in the steel arenas, in the air and on the track.

With hundreds of feature circus and wild animal acts, fifty clowns and many novelties, the Howe-Van Amburg circus day, it is claimed, will be one that will be pleasantly remembered for its hugeness, its speed, its color and its all around "all circus" appeal.

DELAND, Nov. 3.—Volusia county's tax assessment roll for the ensuing year is $15,945,684 according to the records in the office of the county tax assessor. The assessed valuation of real estate is placed at $11,884,010, personal property $2,434,090 and railroads and telegraphs at $1,636,584. The total county, state and poll taxes to be collected in Volusia aggregates $714,951.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLORIDA FOR WEEK ENDING NOV. 1ST.

Temperature: The week averaged warmer than the seasonal, except the last day, which was quite cool over the northern and central portions.

Precipitation: There was no rain of moment, except showers during Monday, the 31st. Torrential rains attended the east-northeast movement of the hurricane of 24-25 from above Tampa on the West Coast to Titusville on the East Coast; there were, also, high winds throughout the peninsula.

Condition of Crops: Great damage was done truck crops, especially on low lands, in the central portion of the peninsula; much replanting will be necessary. Cane was prostrated, and citrus fruit was blown off or damaged to a considerable extent in the immediate vicinity of the storm track, although the damage in that respect was not so great as first feared; some trees were uprooted, and considerable timber was blown down. The planting of oats was resumed, as a result of the improved condition of the soil, although more rain is needed west of the Suwanee river. The rainfall was very heavy in much of the central division from the 24th to 25th—the last days of the previous week: Gainesville reported 4.4; Sanford, 5.7; Ft. Myers, 3.9; Lakeland, 3.2; New Smyrna, 4.2; Ocala, 5.7; Tarpon Springs, 8.7; Eustis, 4.6; Clermont, 6.9; Tampa, 7.9; St. Leo, 13.7; Pinellas Park, 10.8; Brooksville, 11.6; Orlando, 6.2, and Jacksonville, 5.1 inches.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

(From Wednesday's Daily)
The Hallowe'en party given last evening by the members of the St. Agnes Guild, at the Parish House, was a decided success.

The Parish House was very attractive with decorations of palms, crepe paper, black cats, witches, jack-o'-lanterns, goblins and other Hallowe'en symbols. Gay colored lanterns were strung from the four corners of the room and with the lights covered in black and yellow paper cast a soft glow over all. In one corner a fortune teller's tent was spread, and here Miss Sara Muriel dressed as a "witch" told fortunes for the guests.

A splendid program was rendered under the direction of Mrs. Julius Takach. Mrs. Newberry gave two delightful groups of reading and was called for several encores. Mr. Maurice Helston sang two solos accompanied by Miss Sara Mardre. Mrs. Takach rendered two numbers in her usual charming manner.

After the musical program games and contests were enjoyed under the leadership of Clifford Peabody, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Key and Mrs. Clifford Peabody.

A number of the G. F. S. girls dressed as "goblins" served delicious sandwiches and coffee.

Here were about one hundred and fifty who enjoyed this delightful evening's entertainment and a goodly sum was realized.

ST. PETE MUST HAVE FRESH EGGS, OR—?

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 3.—With eggs retailing here at 80 cents a dozen, Dr. W. E. A. Wyman, pure food inspector, declares purchasers must get their money's worth, and to that end he has launched a campaign against aged specimens of the hen product.
"Eggs unfit even for baking purposes are brought to be daily," he said. "Eggs are high in price and the public must and shall get an equivalent for its money. It is up to the merchants to either recandle the eggs they buy or take the consequences."

FOR MISS THRASHER

Mrs. Raymond Key entertained at a lovely bridge party last evening at her home on Park avenue, honoring Miss May Thrasher, a charming bride-elect.
Mrs. Key, Mrs. Thrasher and Mrs. Forest Lake formed the receiving line welcoming the guests on their arrival. Miss Thrasher was beautifully attired in black charmeuse with ostrich trimmings.
The decorations were elaborate and beautiful and featured a dainty color motif of pink, green and lavender. In the reception hall the table was centered with a "Kewpie" bride, in full wedding attire and groom with the conventional evening full dress suit, and a cunning little "Kewpie" flower girl. In the living room and dining rooms where the card tables were arranged lovely pink roses, lilies and lavender flowers were artistically placed. At each guests place at the card tables little pink baskets with lavender flowers held coated almonds carrying out the color motif.
Several interesting games of bridge were enjoyed, the prize for high score, a Maderia handkerchief and case were won by Mrs. Ashby Gibbons, of Tampa; while Mr. Kirtley making high score among the men, was awarded silk socks. Mr. Woodruff and Miss Thrasher were presented a beautiful framed picture as souvenir of the evening.
Delicious refreshments of ice cream in pink and green, cake coffee and mints were served.
Among those present were: Miss Thrasher, Mrs. Forest Lake, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mr. J. D. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hines, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Caswell, Mrs. Ashby Gibbons of Tampa, Misses Agnes Dumas, Marion Phillips, Daphne Wimbish, Norma Herridon, Sara Wight, Lettie Caldwell, Adelaide Higgins, Marjorie Clay, Florence Henry, and Marie Teague, Messrs. Ed. Meisch, Paul Lake, Ned Chittenden, Benjamin Whitner, Randall Chase, Raymond Phillips, Billy Holden, Hawkins Connelly, Hodgson Ball, Walter Connelly, Bob Deane and A. R. Key.

PAPER CAN BE SHIPPED FROM SCANDANAVIA CHEAPER THAN AMERICA CAN FURNISH

The Sanford Herald is Using Paper That Was Made in Finland

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—It costs $2 less to ship a ton of newspaper paper from Scandinavia to New York City than to ship a ton of the same paper from Niagara Falls across the state of New York, R. S. Kellogg, of New York, secretary of the News Print Service Bureau, told the Salesmen's Association of the Paper Industry here today.
"America's paper industry," Mr. Kellogg said, "faces serious competition from foreign lands not alone because of the fact that foreign paper is made by cheap labor, under depreciated exchange conditions, but also because of the cost of freight shipments."
Figures showing comparative freights between foreign shipping points and American points, as evidence of conditions confronting the paper industry in general, were supplied by Mr. Kellogg.
"The rate from Hamburg to New York and other eastern ports is $4 per 1000 kilos or $3.84 per ton of 2,000 pounds, and $6 per long ton or $5.36 per 2,000 pounds from Scandinavia," he said. "Compared with this are rates from various important American mills."
"The rate from Watertown and Glens Falls to New York is $5.90 and from Niagara Falls, $5.70. The Watertown rate to Philadelphia and Baltimore is $6.30. Typical rates from important Canadian shipping points to New York are: Espanola, Ont., $10.50; Grand Mere, Que., $7.60; Iroquois Falls, Ont., $9.60; Jonquiere, Que., $8.60; Ottawa, Ont., $7.60; South Ste. Marie, Ont., $10.50; Three Rivers, Que., $7.60.
"Maine-New York City rates are not much better than the Canadian. The Livermore Falls rate being $6.40 and Millinocket $7.70. From Fort Edwards, Wis., to New York City the rate is $11.30 per ton; to Philadelphia $10.90, and to Baltimore $10.70.
"America, even with the best, fastest and most modern paper mills in the world," Mr. Kellogg declared, cannot successfully compete with the prices of European paper made and shipped under these conditions. It is the publishers who will suffer in the long run, for American mills cannot make paper to meet present European prices, and Europe cannot supply America's permanent needs. The normal result would be wide swings in prices which are always disadvantageous to producer and purchaser alike in any commodity where price extremes are found.
"It is better for the American user of newspaper to have a dependable source of supply at home at a price which affords a reasonable profit to the manufacturer and thus encourage greater production than to have a temporary supply from abroad at prices fixed by ruinous unfair competition, which will vanish when world conditions again approach normal."
The Herald received a shipment of paper from Finland last week that was much cheaper than American paper after paying transportation charges from Scandinavia.
A. W. Smith announces that he will double the present capacity of his saw mill near Plant City in the near future to take care of the increase of his business in that section.

The contract for the construction of about ten miles of road east of Lake City on road No. 1 was awarded to J. Y. Wilson, Jacksonville, the HERALD ADS get results.

MICKLER—TAYLOR.

(From Tuesday's Daily) The following clipping from the Tampa Tribune will be of interest to the many friends of the bride, who, during her frequent visit to her aunt, Mrs. Alfred Lilja, made many friends: Plant City, Oct. 29.—Miss Rena Alberta Taylor, daughter of Representative and Mrs. C. H. Taylor, was married to Mr. Russell Theodore Mickler, of Tallahassee, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives at the First Baptist church here Wednesday evening. Dr. A. M. Bennett performed the ceremony.

The decorations were very beautiful and artistically arranged. The bridal motif was featured in the rainbow color scheme. Stately palms formed a dark background for the bright colored flowers arranged upon pedestals before the altar.

A program of nuptial music in charge of Mrs. Eunice Tucker, pianist, preceded the ceremony. Mrs. Tucker was assisted by Mr. Roy Williams, violinist. Miss Lorene Weaver sang "Because" and "Love, Here Is My Heart." The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was rendered as the procession. "O Promise Me" was softly played during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as the recessional.

The bridesmaids wore frocks of tulle in rainbow shades and of Colonial design. Carrying bouquets of chrysanthemums, they entered opposite aisles to the groomsmen. They were Misses Inez Wiggins, Erin Proctor and Esale Ellis. The groomsmen were Messrs. H. S. Nelson, R. A. Taylor and Clarence Martin.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Herbert Nelson, sister of the bride, was charmingly attired in a gown of two-toned orchid Canton crepe with trimmings of handsome satin flowers. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Little Misses May Arline Goddard of Lakeland, and Doris Virginia Yearwood of Plant City, were flower girls. They carried baskets of rose petals which they scattered for the entrance of the bride. The groom attended by Dr. Lywood Evans, of Jacksonville, as best man, met the bride at the altar. The bride entered with her father, Hon. C. H. Taylor. She was a picture of loveliness in her gown of ivory moon-glow satin with trimmings of chenille lace and pearl bands. Her veil of softest tulle was arranged in coronet fashion, caught up with orange blossoms. Her flowers were bride's roses and valley lilies. The only jewelry worn by the bride was a string of pearls.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where the young couple received the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. They left on a bridal tour of the east coast, going from here to Miami, by automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Mickler will make their home in Tallahassee, the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Mickler. Young Mr. Mickler is connected with the State Agricultural Department.

The out-of-town guests included, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Goddard and Mrs. M. D. Trier, Lakeland; Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Nelson, Ft. Myers; Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Mickler, Tallahassee; Mrs. I. E. Rodgers, Savannah; Dr. and Mrs. Lynwood Evans, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lilja, Sanford.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

Miss Eva Malm, of Ormond, on the east coast, is spending a week of her vacation with her cousin, Mrs. Alma Nitce, of this place, and visiting other friends in the neighborhood and in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. West and son, Leonard, who are camping out here, motored over to New Smyrna on Friday to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Hubble, of that place.

The fishing seems to be good; our neighbors took out fourteen trout or black bass as we northerners call them in an hour and a half, and again on Monday, 11.

This has been so far, a very stormy week. A little rain all day Sunday, more on Monday and on Tuesday a regular gale, and our barometers gave the lowest figure I have ever seen it register, at 3 p. m., it was at 29.60, and by nine it had fallen a trifle below 28.90, and then began to rise again. Somewhere near, there was an awful storm. The wind shifted from the northeast to west on Wednesday. Hydrometer, 28.60.

Mr. and Mrs. Volle Williams had a house full on Sunday, among them their relatives from Sanford, her father from Orlando and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and children of this place.

Rev. G. J. Albertson writes us that Rev. R. W. Edwards has left us, which all will be sorry to hear, and that he is planning to be here on the first Sunday in November in his place, and at Lake Mary and Paola also, with an evening service, Saturday evening at Lake Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer and children, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Collier, in Sanford on Saturday, and Charlie on Sunday while his wife spent the day with a friend, Mrs. Battle.

We note that Mrs. Anna DeForest has arrived home after having spent the summer in the north.

We love the birds and our place has always been a refuge for them and no gun is ever used except for a couple varieties of hawks. Little Jenny Wren has arrived now, with her scolding note to keep the phebe company, but not the hobo as the misprint had it.

MAN AND FAMILY LODGED IN TREE ESCAPED THE FLOOD.

SARASOTA, Fla., Nov. 1.—Captain Corey and his family, who reside on Longboat Key, underwent a thrilling experience during the storm last week. When the waters of the Gulf began to rise into the Corey home, Capt. Corey and his family entered their small motorboat and set out for the mainland. The motor was put out of commission and the little vessel drifted before the wind, finally lodging in the top of a tree. Capt. Corey made the boat fast and he and his family were rescued next day after the high water had subsided, leaving the boat lodged in the tree top.

WOMEN MUST PAY POLL TAX—BUFORD.

In a communication from Rivers H. Buford, attorney general of Florida, the statement is made that "women will be required to pay a poll tax and qualify as voters under the same conditions under which men are required to pay such poll tax, from and after the day upon which taxes for the year 1921 become due, which is November first."

The Attorney General's statement that women must pay the poll tax like the men after November 1, as a condition of voting, sets at rest various constructions upon the Florida law. The poll tax must be paid after November 1, or there will be no franchise privilege for the women of the state who wish to cast their ballot at elections.

The committee of fifty appointed recently to see that a full registration of all Daytona women is secured reported Monday evening, considerable work having already been done.

In his decision the attorney general says that "under the act of the legislature of 1921 no person who became eligible to qualify as a voter in the year 1920 is required to pay a poll tax for that year to qualify to vote. Therefore until taxes become due for the year 1921 women will not be required to pay poll tax."—Daytona Journal.

BACK DOOR POLITICS CONDEMNED BY LEGION ON ADJUSTMENT PLAN.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 3.—A resolution demanding immediate passage by congress of the five-fold plan of adjusted compensation for ex-service men was passed by the third annual American Legion convention after speakers had scored "back door politics" which they declared was responsible for the bill's recent defeat.

The resolution was included in the report of the legislative committee. It contained no personal mention of President Harding or Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, other than to say despite the stand taken by the president and others, the legion reaffirmed its stand for passage of the measure.

A member of the German relch-stage for forty-four years has never addressed that body. Respectfully referred to congress.

HUNTERS FIND FLORIDA GAME IS ABUNDANT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—Florida boasts more ducks and geese and shore birds than ever before, according to a survey just completed by experts of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at the opening of the gunning season, which shows that game is more abundant than in many years.

The survey shows that quail, wild turkeys, and deer are reported also to be more abundant than for several years. There are also a number of bears scattered over the state and little trouble is anticipated for the deer or bear hunters who desire to get the limit allowed him under the law. There is a possibility, however, of the large quantities of ducks and geese in the northwest section of the state being scared away overnight, as they were last season, by an airship. The migratory birds do not take the presence of the birdman kindly and leave just as soon after his arrival as they can rise and fly.

This is to be a banner season for the American sportsman. Game of the sort usually hunted is more plentiful, generally speaking, than it has been for many years. In some localities there are more ducks and geese than the oldest inhabitants ever saw before. East of the Mississippi river migratory birds are making their southern flight in unprecedented numbers. The quail, or bob white, is present also in numbers not equaled for years. And the deer is not so scarce, apparently, as it used to be.

All told, the 5,000,000 hunters who will carry a gun into the field or to lake or river between now and New Year's are apt to find the happiest hunting grounds of many years, according to reports to the Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, from United States game wardens stationed from Maine to Florida and from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. The department recently set a letter of inquiry to each warden and a summary of their replies is given below:

In Maine there are a number of locations for deer hunting where indications point to good sport. Ducks are reported very abundant from numerous boys, with coot shooting good all along the coast. Pheasants were not very abundant but ruffed grouse were reported plentiful all over the state, particularly in the northern portions. Wild geese do not stop in Maine on their flight south but may be found in good numbers in Great South Bay, New York.

Through the ducking grounds of Virginia and North Carolina there will be more ducks and geese this season than there have ever been before—even measured by the memories of oldest inhabitants. Ruffed grouse, pheasants, deer and bob white are reported plentiful. In Virginia state authorities have requested all county game wardens to report available accommodations for hunters, anticipating a big movement to the field.

HEALTH BOARD URGES CONTROL OF AUTO CAMP.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 1.—The state board of health has issued the following statement regarding the supervision of tourists' camps:

"Tourist auto camps are an institution in Florida. Whether the camps are good or bad for the community they are here and must be supervised. During the winter season of 1920-21 there were many faulty camps in the state, the faults however were not so much with the camps as with the lack of supervision and management of them by municipalities wherein they were located. As a result of poor municipal supervision many of the camps were grossly criticised, condemned and subsequently abandoned. In several cities ordinances were adopted prohibiting any further municipal camps.

"What were the evils of the camps last year? First, many towns advertising camps and bidding for this class of tourist made no provisions for sanitary upkeep. The tourists came and lived as best they could in the midst of inadequate facilities; second, many of the campers were winter laborers who went forth in the respective communities bidding for employment, and third, in several of the larger camps, commissaries were established and food sold to campers at a price cheaper than in the neighboring town. These conditions could all have been regulated by the local authorities.

"Why should the citizens of a community criticise a condition for which they themselves are directly responsible? It is true that many campers were careless, in different towards property and rights yet the errors of a few should hardly be sufficient to condemn all when municipal regulations were wholly absent. A town or city should not bid for auto tourists unless each town or city is willing to be responsible for the camp maintenance.

"There were some excellent camps in Florida last year. The camp at DeLand was a model, also that in DeSoto Park of Tampa. In the latter camp there were at all times about 1,000 campers under strict municipal supervision and everything went well. "There are going to be some bad camps this year for reasons stated above, but as fast as found these camps will be condemned by the state board of health. The state board of health will not tolerate insanitary, poorly operated camps this season.

"The cities of West Palm Beach and Bradenton have recently promulgated very business-like, comprehensive ordinances to handle camps. The West Palm Beach ordinance defines the limits of the camp grounds; it creates an office of camp superintendent with police and managerial authority; it requires that all tourists desiring to enter the camp apply to the superintendent, giving name of person in charge of party, number in party, permanent home address, make and number of automobile, length of stay in camp. A fee of 25 cents per day is charged for the use of camp, this sum to go to a fund provided for the special service rendered the tourists in camp. The camp will operate in strict accordance with regulations of the state board of health. The ordinance goes into a number of details, regulating the conduct of the tourists and the orderly maintenance of the grounds. In every way the ordinance is complete and under it the camp will be assured of decent supervision. More cities should follow in the steps of West Palm Beach."
