Stadium Restrictions Scored By Newcomer

By STAFFORD DERRY
An enthusiastic appraisal of the future for Sanford and Seminole County, tempered by some less enthusiastic views of the way Sanford uses its young talent and restricts the playing field of the stadium, was given the Sanford Rotarians at its weekly meeting in the Civic Center yesterday by Reid Brodie Jr., personnel director of Seminole Memorial Hospital.
Brodie, who put his remarks into perspective, noted that he was a newcomer to the city and a rabid football fan. What got A 1 ratings for the city in his eyes were its overall friendliness and the co-operation afforded by the local newspaper and radio station. He pointed out that he had lived in 18 states since WW II but none had been "more friendly than Sanford."
Brodie, former state president of the Jaycees in Ketchikan, told of his pride in finding the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees the "No. 1 club." But it was as a newcomer, 21 months ago, that the hospital director, found his first impressions as favorable. "The hotel staff, staff of the marina, and the zoo" stand out in his memory. Especially he was happy to see the bus loads of school children coming to the zoo.
"I am tremendously impressed by the religious programs which all denominations are carrying out in Sanford. We need to be proud of what we are doing in Sanford, and strong in Sanford," said Brodie. He also had nice things to say about race relations in this city. People here should be proud of what they have accomplished in race relations. "We have many colored employees and patients and from what I've seen, race relations are splendid," said he.
The personnel director's son, Reid Brodie III, is a nuclear physicist on a nuclear powered frigate commissioned in Philadelphia yesterday. The senior Brodie is so enthused over the prospects of Sanford—"and not as a satellite of Orlando"—he is keeping his son informed of all moves being made and is looking forward to a future in Sanford in which he and his son can find a permanent Florida home.
Brodie is sure, however, that Sanford is not using its young men as it should. They need places on civic boards, church committees, municipal commissions, and the like—not just on such organizations which are composed primarily of the youthful. He would welcome the experienced people whose good sense was formed over years of worthwhile service either here or in the north, but would still the vigor of youthful zest in all guiding or developing bodies.
His other criticism was levied at the practice of restricting the stadium to a few football games. He would open it for all athletic contests and do it despite the fact that he is a football fan who would keep football even if all other sports were obliterated.

'Thunder' Escapes Knife, And Dognappers

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Thunder, a 3-year-old collie, is back home after a three-month disappearance that apparently started with dognappers and ended with medical men.
Thunder disappeared in February from the home of Jim Shorter and his family. After repeated checks with the Pontiac dog pound, the Shorters concluded the dog had been stolen.
Thunder turned up last week in an experimental laboratory of the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor. He already had undergone one operation in preparation for an eventual lung transplant.
The dog, still wearing his identification tags, was discovered by Dorothy Dye, Detroit representative of the National Animal Welfare Institute.
Mrs. Dye happened to stop at Thunder's pen in the hospital as she was checking on the conditions of animals used in experiments.
After his retirement from the Central Florida Experiment Station, Mr. Whitner plans to continue his work with Holy Cross Episcopal Church where he is an ordained perpetual deacon.

City Ending Hickson Case

The City of Sanford is expected to wrap-up its case against Lt. Joe T. Hickson when the Civil Service Board reconvenes at 5 p.m. today.
The board heard testimony for some four and a half hours last night on three out of four specific charges on why Hickson was fired in late March.
The key witness was Chad Ben Butler who was called by the stand twice during the lengthy session.
Butler, under oath, cited Hickson's arrest record and explained he (Hickson) had made only three "prima facie" arrests during 1956 and was involved in 67 others. He called Hickson's performance as an officer "considerably lower than men under similar conditions."
However, Gordon Frederick, Hickson's attorney, hammered away at Butler saying, "Are you judging his performance by the number of arrests?" Frederick explained that Hickson was in a "supervisory" capacity and would not make the same number of arrests as a line officer.
Butler also testified that Hickson took only one book of traffic citations from August of 1956 through March of this year. He explained there were 25 tickets in each book.
"Is that how you judge a police officer?" said Frederick.
Hickson also was charged with threatening bodily harm to two officers involving an incident at the Pig N' Whistle, neglect of his canine, letting him roam loose and frequenting places that sell alcoholic beverages.
In the drinking charge, Mrs. Charles Baker, a waitress at the "Pig" testified that she saw Hickson on several occasions drinking beer while in uniform. Under oath, she assumed "he was off duty."
Regarding Cato, the police dog, Lt. Earl Bouquard, in charge of the K-9 corps, testified that the dog was in "poor" condition when Hickson turned him over to the department in March. Bouquard testified that all officers had orders that the dogs were to be kept on leashes or penned. The lieutenant admitted that one time he visited Hickson and the dog was lying in the front yard. City Worker Dean Johnson also testified that the dog was a "threat" and "almost bit me."
He explained he was putting up a pen for the dog after Hickson was relieved of him. "He made a move to attack me and I turned my back on him."
"Why did you turn your back?" challenged Frederick.
"I didn't want to get bitten in the face," he said.
William Hutcheon, city attorney attempted to show that Cato, as well as any of these dogs, was dangerous. "An unusual motion could trigger them off," the attorney stressed.
Circuit Judge Roger Dykes, cited Butler testified on this charge, saying he had several complaints the dog was roaming in the neighborhood and was not penned up.

Kirk Blasts NAS Move

TALLAHASSEE (Sp1) — Republican Gov. Claude Kirk termed the removal of the Naval Air Station from Sanford to Albany, Ga., a "political ploy" at the State Cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon.
Kirk criticized the federal government for the proposed move after the Cabinet approved use of a $50,000 federal grant to study utilization of the base facilities after the Navy moves out in mid-1968.
"We shouldn't really have to lose it," said Kirk. "I understand the plan is to move it to Vietnam and in the Mediterranean."
General Electric Corporation is making a feasibility study of a training school for 600 or more students at the base. GE presently "hand-picks" to find skilled mechanics and artisans in Florida—would train these persons for their Florida plants.
Apparently GE would join with the state in making the study, since federal funds are to be utilized. However, Kirk's motion called for the state to be notified. However, Kirk's motion called for the state to be notified. However, Kirk's motion called for the state to be notified.
Hickson also with federal agencies, Robert Bush, stated there is no assurance the Sanford Navy complex will be used as a manpower training base.
Counts one and two claim Sanford is only the "temporary" county seat and that no public notice was published of the county's intent to build a new courthouse.
Trial on the two remaining counts is expected in late June. The suit was filed by Robert F. Tucker of Casselberry, William T. Pratt Jr. of Altamonte Springs and James F. Latner of Forest City. Attorney for the complainants is Harlan Tuck of the firm of Giles, Hedrick and Robinson.

Lawmakers Split On Dividing Judicial Circuit

TALLAHASSEE (Sp1) — State Legislature is divided on how to break up the Ninth Judicial Circuit, including Seminole County.
The House of Representatives yesterday approved a measure which would divide Seminole and Broward Counties into one district, Orange and Osceola Counties in a second district and the other four counties in the present circuit in a third district.
The Senate today was scheduled to consider a committee-approved measure which would combine Seminole, Orange and Osceola Counties in one district and the other five counties in a second district.
The matter will have to be resolved in a joint Senate-House conference committee.
Action was delayed in the Senate yesterday on the House-approved Seminole County Fourth District. The House authority measure which would permit the County Commission to earmark race track tax funds for the Port. Sen. Robert Elrod said this morning he hoped to bring the bill to a vote in the Senate today.
The Seminole-Orange legislative delegation last night, according to Elrod, approved for introduction in the House a county water and air pollution measure, a county zoning bill, a county minimum housing (slum clearance) measure, a county improvement district bill and a proposed amendment to the Altamonte City charter.

Courthouse Suit Hint Judge To Strike Out Abuse Charge

Circuit Judge Roger Dykes, at a hearing scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Thursday, is expected to strike count three of the county injunction suit which charges "abuse of discretion" by the County Commission.
Count three, amended recently by permission of the court, claims that with almost 100 per cent of the residents of the county living to the south of the proposed new courthouse, "it is manifestly inconvenient, unfair and discriminatory to at least half the residents of the county to operate the courthouse at the extreme northern boundary of the county."
Counts one and two claim Sanford is only the "temporary" county seat and that no public notice was published of the county's intent to build a new courthouse.
Trial on the two remaining counts is expected in late June. The suit was filed by Robert F. Tucker of Casselberry, William T. Pratt Jr. of Altamonte Springs and James F. Latner of Forest City. Attorney for the complainants is Harlan Tuck of the firm of Giles, Hedrick and Robinson.

A Sign Of Progress

The Sanford Herald's new press complex was put to its full capacity today, nearly a year after the newspaper moved into its new facility on French Avenue. Robert's Perfection Dairies' advertisement in four colors and Park & Shop's ad in two colors—in today's paper—brought about the capacity run today.

Focal point of the Mideast crisis is the Strait of Tiran which controls access to Eilat, Israel's only non-Mediterranean port. Egyptian guns at Sharm el Sheikh can close the narrow passage to shipping. Eilat is vital to Israel's trade with the Far East since Egypt bars Israeli traffic from the Suez.

Deltonan Is Representative Of Animal Unit

By MILDRED HANEY
Mrs. Shirley Shore, of Deltona, is the new volunteer representative of Friends of Animals, Inc. for Volusia County. This is a non-profit organization formed to help financially those pet owners who cannot afford to pay to have their pet spayed.

Mrs. Shore said in an interview that many people stand convicted of cruelty to animals. They cruelty stems from the fact that these owners permit their pets to breed each year several litters of puppies and kittens for which there are no homes. Unwanted by their owners, they are passed on to whomever will take them, and are eventually abandoned in woods, roadsides or country yards. The ultimate result is tragic, because the abandoned pet will undoubtedly suffer starvation, disease and death.

Startling statistics on overproduction indicate that American pet owners each year permit some 35 million puppies and kittens to be born. Many of these animals are unwanted and are eventually abandoned or starved to death.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Albuquerque lawyer Benjamin C. Hernandez, who has no diplomatic experience and never has been to South America, says he doesn't know why President Johnson selected him to be the next U.S. ambassador to Paraguay.

Johnson announced Tuesday he would nominate Hernandez, 48, to succeed William P. Snow, a career diplomat who is returning to Washington. The appointment is subject to Senate confirmation.

Hernandez said the first he heard of the nomination was two weeks ago when the State Department advised him he was under consideration. "They didn't say how they got my name," he said.

On Tuesday a "Mr. Cox from the White House called and said I had been selected. I'm very honored," Hernandez said.

Hernandez, who served four years on the New Mexico Board of Finance and was a Navy aviation instructor during World War II, said he would go to Washington Tuesday to meet with State Department officials.

He is a member of two national advisory committees, the Health, Education and Welfare Department's committee on rehabilitation and an Office of Economic Opportunity committee on poverty.

Classically the cradle and crossroads of civilization, the Middle East in modern times has also been a cockpit of crisis. Chronic unrest dates back to World War I and the beginning of the return of the Jews to their long-lost homeland in Palestine, then under British mandate from the old League of Nations. The Palestine war which followed British withdrawal after World War II established Israel as an independent state but spawned Arab-Jewish enmity which has kept the Mideast in a state of half-war and at times threatened the world's peace.

A letter from Dr. Frank Leone, director of the County Health Department, to the United Fund president, Richard Keogh, expressed his grateful thanks to ARC for procuring a substantial amount of polio globulin when it was most needed. He now has an ample supply on hand. He stated this was a given free of charge. If it had been purchased through regular pharmaceutical sources, the cost would have been excess of $1,500. Dr. Leone pointed out that this is another community service furnished by Red Cross which derives its support from the United Fund.

The seventh bi-annual state conference of the ARC came to a successful conclusion on May 27 in Clearwater. Seventeen persons, both volunteers and staff members, attended from the Central Florida Chapter, part of 280 from all over the State of Florida. Much valuable information was learned to take home to each local chapter, and the inspiration from listening to the speeches of General Collins and former Gov. Farris Bryant will carry them through the coming year.

A Step Backward

The responsible action last week of the Florida Education Association (FEA) to censure Gov. Claude Kirk and impose sanctions giving nationwide notoriety to Florida as an "unsatisfactory place in which to teach," serves no useful purpose.

The action of the FEA represents a total disregard for logic and conduct that should be closely identified with such a powerful and influential segment of Florida's population.

Although it is doubtful that the action of the FEA leadership is completely backed by the great majority of individual educators, sanctions now in our state will not create a satisfactory environment for "quality education."

It is regrettable that leaders in both political parties have attempted to make hay out of such a critical issue as Florida's public school system. The real victims of his controversy and the ill-advised issuance of sanctions will be school children and our state educational system.

Whether or not the governor and the legislature have acted or were planning to act, in the best interests of public education is purely academic. The sanctions issued will not be an incentive to pending legislative action that may have satisfied many of the demands now sought by the FEA.

It is difficult to believe the FEA would call for such extremist action as "Urging teachers to seek work elsewhere" walking off the job on so-called "professional days," and wanting new college graduates that it would be "unethical" to work in Florida.

A common term too frequently thrown back and forth by the FEA is "Quality education." A more practical definition of this over-abused term would be "more money for teacher salaries."

It is inordinately to note that the FEA, which claims to represent the best interests of education and school children, would use sanctions in the name of "quality education" to force legislators and taxpayers to submit to their real demands of a "pay raise."

In their demand for "more money" the FEA has invoked a practical labor union tactic, without shouldering the responsibility agreed to by most unions. In bargaining for higher wages, labor unions also agree to standards in production and quality workmanship.

When the majority of qualified and dedicated teachers and professional educators finally realize that the leadership of the FEA has been irresponsible in their obligations to their profession and the citizens of Florida, there may still be time and hope for a sensible solution to this mammoth problem.

It will take immediate corrective action by individual members in the FEA to rectify the excessive sanctions issued by their leadership. It should be the goal of every professional educator to avoid the serious possibility of placing Florida's education system on the verge of taking a step backward.

Teachers Chief Gift

In the light of the Florida Education Association's "sanctions," and which presumably speaks for the teachers of the state, the comments of Seminole County's STAR (Student - Teacher Achievement Recognition) student about the STAR teacher of the county are interesting.

Miss Ann Carlson has this to say about Paul Hickson:

"Dedication is perhaps the chief gift of any teacher. When this dedication overreaches the normal bounds of the teaching profession, a great teacher is born. Mr. Paul Hickson is a truly dedicated teacher... perhaps even a great one. This dedication assumes a variety of forms. First, of course, is knowledge. A good teacher must thoroughly understand his subject, and must also be involved in a continuing process of learning. Yet, more than this, he must be able to communicate his knowledge to his students. Chemistry is not an easy subject, even for those with a high aptitude for science. Overcoming this barrier, Mr. Hickson expertly guides his students in the complicated study of the nature of matter. He strives not for simple memorization of facts, but rather for an understanding of the why of formulas and chemical processes.

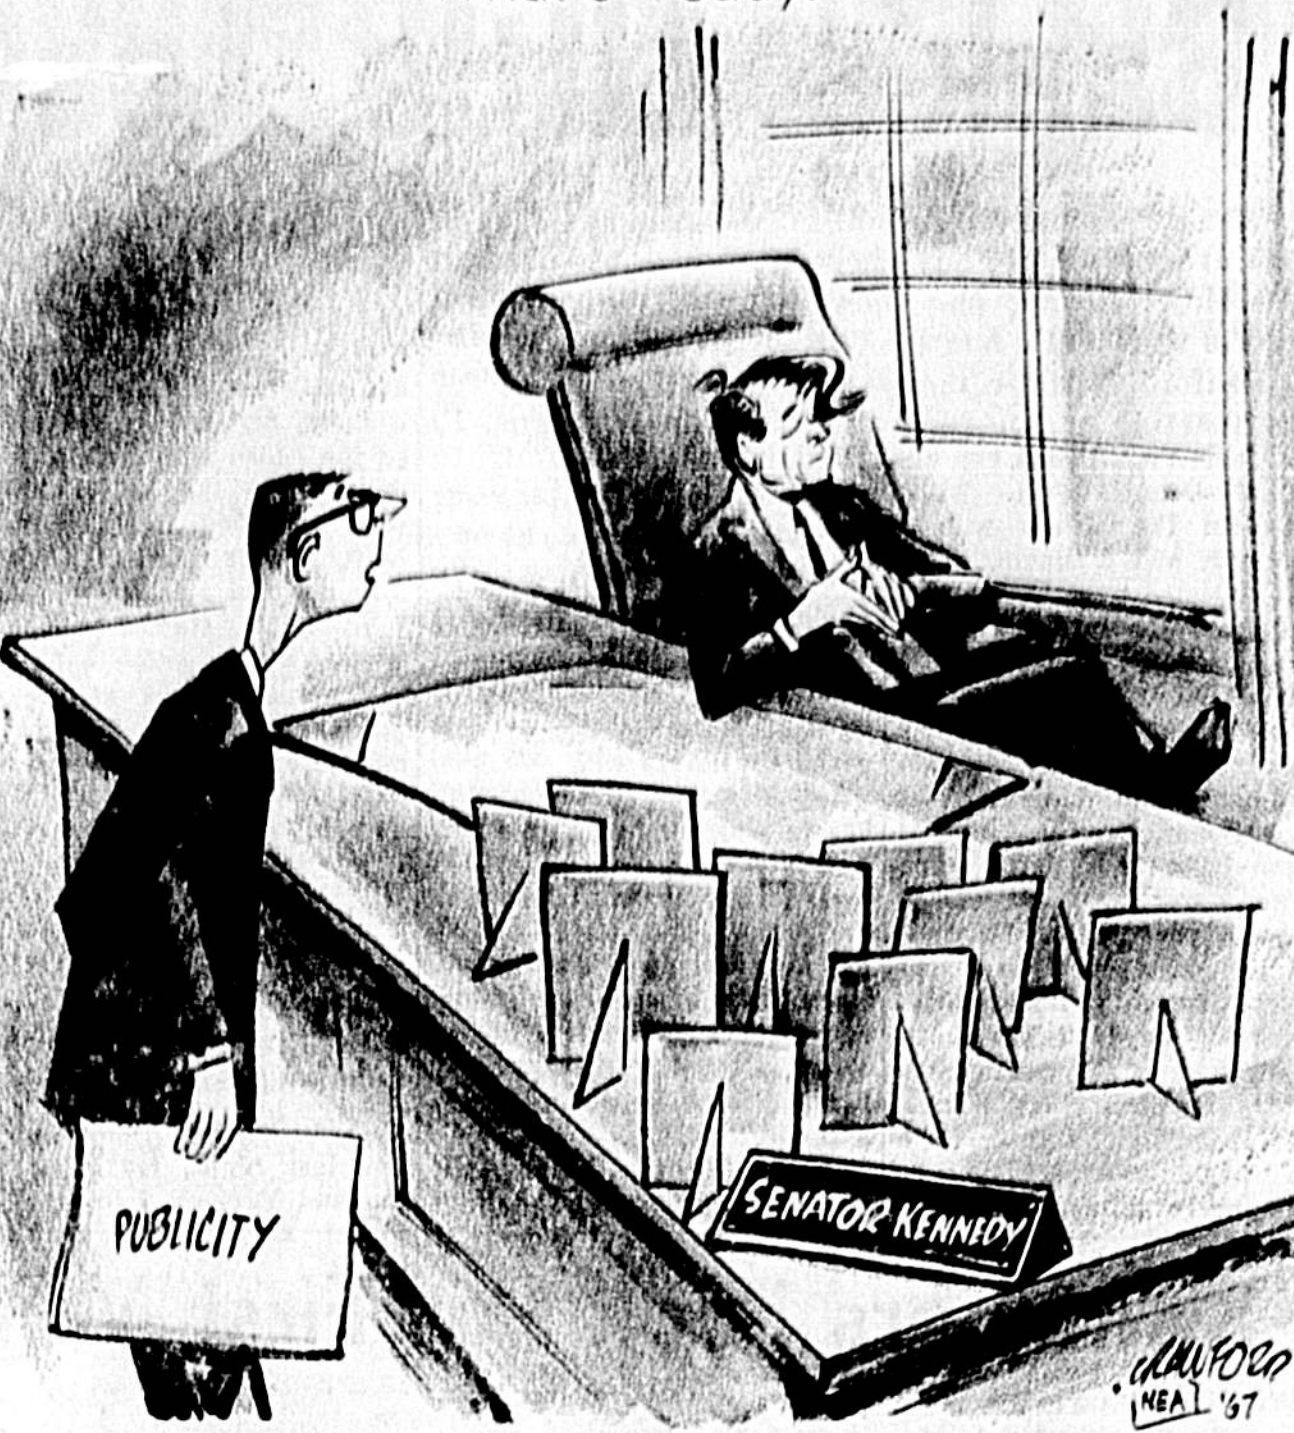

Secondly, what I shall call, for lack of a better term, availability. Many teachers feel that their responsibilities to students end with their last class of the day. On the other hand, Mr. Hickson is always there when you need help—before school and after. Often, before tests, he will hold after school classes to review the students. Attendance at these classes is, of course, entirely optional. Especially for a science teacher, the preparation of labs takes up additional time. Often, late at night, Mr. Hickson can be seen mixing solutions for a lab the next day.

Many teachers become wrapped up in their work that they forget there is more to life than English or science or math. Total involvement in all facets of school activities is necessary. As sponsor for the Student Council, Mr. Hickson ably guides probably the most active group at Seminole High. His Council work seeps into all phases of school life.

Finally, genius is required of a great teacher. This genius is not the kind that involves the thinker in high, distant thoughts. Rather it leads not only to a depth of understanding and a remarkable memory of a student's work, but also enables a teacher to win his students' sincere respect and admiration. Mr. Hickson possesses this type of genius in abundance. For these reasons, which probably only begin to describe this remarkable teacher, I have chosen Mr. Paul Hickson as my Star Teacher."

WASHINGTON (NEA) — This absence of local self-rule and the injustices that have resulted in, in consequence, a long time, in fact, brought no great change in the caliber of men elected. One way or another, three out of four of the village council members are chosen by province chiefs, not by popular election. More than half elected were farmers. There was a goodly scattering of housewives, professional men, small merchants, shop employees. But at first sight it does not look as though the new village councils will be much different from the old ones.

It likely will take two or more local elections before these villagers realize their strength.

But once the villagers awaken to the fact that they hold the power to make changes in their local hamlets and villages through these elections, then the strength of the Viet Cong subversive insurgency should be responsible to the citizens, there will be a democratic revolution in South Vietnam.

Such a "revolution" can be through loud and clear in this first election, except in a few places. This go-round, the people were interested largely in their right to vote.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Donna's problem is shared by almost 1,000,000 other wives, for after 10 to 20 years of marriage, your husband grows afraid of you so they try to eliminate affection in order to camouflage their real terror. But smart wives see behind this danger in one night, so send for the medical booklet below.

CASE CASE: Donna T., aged 34, has a problem husband. "Dr. Crane," she began, "my husband is only 38 but he is in a bitter frame of mind. He tells me that I am more attractive than when we were first married. "But then he kills all the effect of that compliment by saying he thinks he will run away and desert me and our 3 kiddies. "And the past my marriage has been quite platonic. So I eagerly followed your advice and bought a diaphanous nightie. "Also, I adopted a new and supposedly more seductive brand of perfume. I also had my hair done differently. "But he still remains inert in his own twin bed. "So what can I do to salvage our former happy marriage?"

ROMANCE

All those aids which I have recommended for making a wife more alluring don't work very well at long range! For that 5-foot distance between your twin beds may still remain a terrifying chasm that causes divorce, UNLESS. And that big "UNLESS" means, UNLESS you wives take the initiative. If your husband will not cross to your bed, then have no hesitancy about crawling into his twin bed. In fact, if you would never meet with your wife you'd often find it easier to salvage a romance that has grown cold. For most wives are reticent and feel embarrassed about making more gestures than changing to a diaphanous nightie and altering their perfume and hairdo. But never let etiquette interfere with your happy home. There is no "Smile-Post" in the bedroom of men and wife. Besides, you wives should realize that the reason your husbands show personal contact is to protect his own deflated ego. He is scared lest you find out that he is impotent. Which is why most platonic husbands are surly and hyper-critical. They chew out their wife on flimsy excuses, figuring that if she thinks they are angry this will explain why they do not seek her ideas. Others literally run away from home (35,000 missing husbands per year in the U.S.A.). Another large number run away, psychologically, by drinking heavily as they stagger home at 2 a.m. Others flee into excess golfing, bowling, poker playing, or even into good works, like excessive activity with the Y.M.C.A., Boy Scouts, church, etc. You wives should increase your seductive charms by all the aids mentioned heretofore, but don't stop there! For you alone can easily banish your husband's secret dread. It's his "fear" of being platonically that actually produces impotence. Yet a smart wife can banish this terror in one night and easily restore their marriage to its honeymoon state. But if you don't do so, either a divorce may ensue or he will find that a strange parasite with no scruples stalks you with his booklets "How to Prevent Platonic Marriage," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents.

Send for the booklet "How to Prevent Platonic Marriage," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents.

Strikes And Spares

BY: JOHN A. SPOLSKI

By now you must have read and seen pictures of our highly successful Junior Bowling League banquet. I'll not dwell on the subject any more than is required to say that the kids appreciate all of your cooperation... the coaches are 'ditto'... and I'm still walking on the proverbial clouds.

Thanks to both of the local bowling associations for their generous financial support and a special shout-out to Scott Burns of the Florida Power and Light Co. for being so very cooperative during the past number of years.

Sanford is lucky indeed to have adult coaches like Eugene Steadman, Marion Magee and Mac MacLeary to guide one of the most successful junior bowling programs throughout the entire state.

A deserving selection as the Junior Bowler of the Year in the form of young Frank Patterson, who led the league with a 373 average, too.

Registrations are being taken this Saturday for the Summer League. It's open to boys and girls between the ages of seven and 18.

Come on out this Saturday at 7 p.m. and watch former Senator Mack Cleveland roll the first game in the ALSAC Bowling Tournament... All the proceeds from this two-week event are going to the ALSAC Leukemia Stricken American Children. In the event you've not picked-up your ticket yet, there are a number of civic organizations around town who'd be more than pleased to sell them to you and your party.

New leagues starting this week are the City League on Wednesday at 7 p.m., which had their meeting last week and will bowl with eight teams. At 8:30 p.m. on Wednesdays, following the City League is a new three-man scratch league with 10 teams to meet on Wednesdays. The earlier league has been the Navy Mixed League, which is reorganizing for the summer session next week, too.

Thursday evening Ellnor Volkswagen Mixed League will bowl at 9 p.m. with ten teams of bowlers. The regular league will meet on Wednesdays at 7 p.m., the popular Parent-Teacher League will start with about 14 or 16 teams in the Youngster League will start with about 14 or 16 teams in the Youngster League.

On all of these many new leagues, remember, you still may enter as an individual bowler or with a complete team.

Pete Peterson was the big gun in this week's No. 10 Tournament when both he and Jesse Carathers rolled perfect games, each with 300.

The top prize went to Peterson ($25.25) with Carathers rolling second for $19.15 and Steve Hudra and Jim Gateman taking third and fourth places, respectively.

It's open to both men and women and run each Friday and Saturday starting at 7 p.m. each night.

Wow... stop those presses men!

The Monday afternoon Seminole Junior College bowling class had Felicia Carroll in hysterics. Now normally, Felicia has her problems on teaching that elusive ball pin. But on this particular afternoon, she got the first strike... and then a double!

... AND THEN A TURKEY! ... Well, when that fourth one curved into the one-three pocket and all ten pins dropped... (Oh, how do you describe one loud shriek... LASTING TEN MINUTES...)

On that same part of lines, Libbie Cox bowled a 185 scratch game. (Gee, these babes sure can make typing this column a little difficult for you, can't they Spill-shit?)

Challenge

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

JAKARTA (AP) — Erlang Kops of Denmark and champion of all England will play against Malaysia's number two player, Yew Cheng Hoo, Wednesday night in the challenge round of the Thomas Cup badminton championship.

FELICIA CARROLL SEN-MACK CLEVELAND

Not supposed to mention this but almost every lunch hour, Johnny Jones and Betty Hudson have their own "private challenge." Whenever Jones does well, he carries the scores back to work and "razzes" Betty about it.

Seems awfully funny that the "dirt" take the score sheet along with him this week. Jim Mann. Now it all becomes clear. Hey, Johnny. In case you want to post those scores this week, Betty had a 345 series and you had a 314! HA! (Sorry "bust that Johnny-boy.")

Look, if I'll make you feel better, there are lots of us who don't break 300... and even some who miss 400... there are other fellows who can't break 400, too... SO, YOU HAVE EVERY REASON IN THE WORLD TO CRY THE BLUES, JOHNNY!

Congratulations to the league champs for the Monday afternoon NPTD Doubles group, Henry Skinner and Bert Fischer. The Sanford Men's Bowling Association held their Annual Meeting at the Troby Lounge this past Saturday with the following elected to the various offices for the coming season: Alex Serrano, President; Al Chaffin, Vice President; Jim Brewer, Secretary-Treasurer; Dick Zuckerman and Rich Murphy as Executive Board Directors.

It was mid-and-late between Bobby Borsdorf and Harry Pentecost in the Monday evening Single Classic League, with the first place going to the smooth straking Borsdorf and the first prize of about $175.

Coming in third was Rich Murphy, who along with all of the other legends in this league will receive their trophies and prize money at the meeting on Monday at 8 p.m.

Also at that time, the summer "double" deal will take shape. So, if you've bowled before in this "better than average" league as a newcomer to the area and would like to be a participant, be at the meeting on Monday.

"Money Bags Tie At Top"

Bank's Little League Teams All Even

The two bank teams, Sanford Atlantic and Florida State, are trying to "buy their hits" in the American Little League play, now that each has identical logs of 2 wins and 4 losses.

Sanford Atlantic moved into a tie for first place after feasting on the collar-dwelling Goodyear nine, 13 to 2 behind the pitching and hitting of Dennis Roberts. The big blast in the game came off the bat of Freddie Robinson as he stroked a mighty grand slam home run slugging for the losers was Joe Platter with two singles.

Strickland Morrison rose to the occasion by hitting the then league leader, Florida State Bank team, dumping them 10 to 3. Donald Brown whiffed two times for the winners when he collected three hits for the winners. George's staved with about 100 yards of distance of the two leaders as they stumped Navy 7 to 2. Johnny Sheffield turned in a fine performance out of the Navy bats.

Claude Berwiesch scared the hitters with his fast ball and the pronunciation of his last name. Claude keyed 13 batters with his slippery slider and collected two hits for the winners, and brother Dave aided the cause with a safety. Almost all of the Yanks' power was contained in the bat of Marty Foster who had two hits, a homer and a triple.

All Souks started all over again as they came back into the winning paths at the expense of the first half champion, First Baptist, downing them 8 to 6. Nicky (the Pennin) Constantine was the winning hurler and received fine hitting support from Rick Gibson, Mike Rowes and Paul Pivette, each with two hits. Bob Barbour led the losers with three base knocks.

Pinecrest Baptist skinned First Presbyterian 8 to 7 as a trio of sluggers collected two hits apiece—Don Estes, David Taber and John Connely. Buddy Burton and Wendell Brooks went 3 for 3 for the losers.

In the Metro Softball League, American Oil knocked off Pinecrest 8 to 3 and Cobia won 8 to 6. Nicky (the Pennin) Constantine was the winning hurler and received fine hitting support from Rick Gibson, Mike Rowes and Paul Pivette, each with two hits. Bob Barbour led the losers with three base knocks.

Today's action in the Sanford Junior Baseball League has two winners vs. Elks at 4:30 p.m. and C.P.O. playing Shirts at 7:30 p.m. at the Pinehurst Park.

In the METRO SOFTBALL LEAGUE, Modern Mobile Homes vs. American Oil (7:30 p.m.) and Cobia vs. Pinecrest (8:45 p.m.) at Ft. Mellon Park.

Bar-B-Q At Downs Sports Scholarships At Crooms

The Crooms High School Athletic Department held its first Annual All-Sports Banquet on Saturday night, May 27 in the Crooms Cafeteria.

Dr. J. C. Ringling, a member of the Quarterback Club, served as toastmaster for this occasion.

Napoleon Ford, head football coach and physical education teacher at Jones High School, Orlando, was the speaker of the evening.

These excerpts from the speaker's discourse, should have had a lasting impression on the mind of each athlete in attendance.

Jones Leads Indy; Andretti In The Cold (Oops, Rain)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The 31st 500 mile race field was called back at 10 a. m. today to resume the contest postponed by a rainout Tuesday after 45 miles. It was the first overnight recess ever for the historic event.

The order of line, single file instead of the initial three abreast, changed considerably after the Memorial Day sprint, dominated completely by a new type of car.

Parrelly Jones and his glow red turbine car, sixth in the original lineup, were in first place with four track records already.

Marie Andretti, who started first Tuesday after smashing all records in the 10 mile elimination heats, not only was down to 10th in the Indian file but actually was six laps behind Jones. His crew had to change his clutch Tuesday.

Roger McCuskey, dogged by mechanical trouble in the qualifications, had charged up from 22nd to 10th place in the short run before the rain.

Lloyd Ruby, one of the favorite fifth laps of the Tuesday session at a fantastic 164.92 m.p.h., compared with the previous one lap competitive record of 159.17 last year by Scotsman Jimmy Clark in a Lotus Ford.

Three-time winner Mauri Rose took the pace car from previous amateur drivers from automotive industries and led the field to a fast, clean start—probably the fastest the pace car ever ran.

Gordon Johncock, on the outside of the front row, got in front of Gurney, who started in the middle, before the first turn with Andretti pulling ahead. That opened a hole for Jones, who was outside on the second row and he charged past Gurney and Johncock.

By the time the cars had rounded the second turn, Jones had pulled alongside Andretti and the turbine simply whisked away on the long backstretch.

Jones, in addition to his single best lap for the race, set a first lap mark of 154.74, 158.156 for two laps and 154.47 for the first 10. He had held his average to 155.117 for 18 laps in spite of the fact the yellow "hold position" light was on two minutes after Lee Roy Yarbrough spun in the northeast turn.

Bookie Yarbrough, a south-eastern stock car ace now at Indianapolis, was not hurt but one car missed him by no more than two feet. He had to change some flattened tires but was back in today's lineup.

There had been rain over night Monday but it let up long enough for the track to dry and for 17 minutes of running. Threatening skies had cut down the general admission "infield" crowd substantially.

Thousands of out-of-town spectators abandoned Indianapolis Tuesday night, but thousands of others remain here.

The cars were impounded overnight and no work was to be permitted on them until they were brought back to the pits this morning.

Despite Jones' stellar performance in the first 18 laps, the race had 102 more to go. As Jones put it, "I should win if I don't have any problems." There can be a wide assortment of problems in a long race.

Still very much in contention at the resumption were second position Dan Gurney in his own Eagle Ford, followed by two-time winner A. J. Foyt Jr. and his teammate Joe Leonard. Al Unser, Art Pollard, Bobby Unser, Johnnyoek, Jim McReith, McCluskey, Mel Kenyon, Cale Yarborough and Ronnie Dunham.

15th Straight Win Buckpasser--'The Great'

NEW YORK (AP) — Horse racing buffs were talking today of Buckpasser's record. He was outdone by Kentucky Derby winner Proud Clarion and Preakness winner Damascus hook up Saturday in the 99th running of the 1 1/2 miles of the $125,000-added Belmont Stakes at Aqueduct.

With nine starters, the Belmont will be worth $148,450 with the winner earning $104,700.

If there were any doubts that Buckpasser rates among the turf's all-time greats, the year-old son of Tom Fool, who was carried 130 pounds over the one mile of the $100,000-added Aqueduct Handicap in 1:34.45 at the first turn in his career.

With that 19-16 mile race in mind, Buckpasser next will try his speed and stamina on the grass in the Bowling Green Handicap at Aqueduct June 17. At Aqueduct he'll head for poppin Handicap in 1:34.45 at the first turn in his career.

How Hughes' Fast Ball Let Him Down

His patience proved to be a virtue — but his fast ball let him down just a few steps short of the home plate.

Hughes, a 29-year-old rookie who labored for eight years in the minor leagues before catching on with St. Louis late last season, pitched seven perfect innings against Cincinnati Tuesday night, striking out 12.

Pros Prep For Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The pros had a chance to cut up $5,000 today but the amateurs could hope only for some glory and a bucket of reminiscences from playing with the big-name golfers in the pro-am preliminary to the Memphis Open.

For many of the pros, the four over the par 34-36-70 Colonial Country Club Course served as their only lineup before play begins in earnest Thursday.

Those who did make it all around the 6,666-yard course reported scores around par. Roger Ginsburg reported a round of 68 from a foursome with the downpour.

More Trades By Orioles!

BALTIMORE (AP) — Harry Dalton, gaining a reputation as a bold baseball trader, has 16 more days to pull off another big deal before being stymied by the June 15 deadline.

"Nothing is imminent," Baltimore's director of player personnel said today. "But if we find in talking to other clubs that we can help ourselves, we're interested. We haven't shut the door to further deals."

Dalton made a major swap Monday night, sending suspended rookie first baseman Mike Epstein and young pitcher Frank Bertaina to the Washington Senators for veteran pitcher Pete Richter.

"We made the first deal of any consequence," Dalton said, and we landed what we were looking for—an established pitcher.

"But in the next 16 days, there's a good chance we'll want to make trades. We're willing to listen, and if we can strengthen our club, we'll do it."

Dalton was given credit for making the final decision—after outgoing Orioles General Manager Leo MacBeth had the groundwork—on the 3-for-1 deal which brought slugger Frank Bertaina to Baltimore after the 1965 season.

"I was just trying for a strike," he said. "My slider was not going where I wanted it to, and after the rain stopped the game I began relying on my fast ball."

Bunning's second homer of the year broke up a 4-4 duel with Marichal, who had won eight in a row after dropping his first three decisions. Tom Haller hit two homers for the Giants, tying the score with the Giants empty the bases in the eighth.

Volkswagen's unique construction keeps dampness out.

For years there have been rumors about floating Volkswagens. (The photographer claims this one stayed up for 42 minutes.) Why not?

The bottom of the VW is like ordinary car bottoms. A sheet of flat steel runs under the car, sealing the bottom fore and aft. That's not a better car, it's a better car. It's just a better car. The sealed bottom protects a VW from water, dirt and salt. All the nasty things on the road that eventually eat up a car.

The top part of a Volkswagen is also very seaworthy. It's practically airtight. So airtight that it's hard to close the door without rolling down the window a bit.

But there's still one thing to learn in mind if you own a Volkswagen. Even if it could definitely float, it couldn't float indefinitely. So drive around in the big puddles. Especially if they're big enough to have a name.

State Planning Unit Approved

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—A bill creating a State Planning Commission which could help such projects as Disney World, what Florida plans for the future has been given unanimous Senate approval and should reach Gov. Claude Kirk — who favors it — soon.

The legislation was among several major bills which cleared the Senate and House Tuesday in one of the most productive workdays to date.

"It will give us an opportunity to plan ahead in this state for the first time in a more orderly procedure," said Sen. George Holliban, D-Miami, spokesman for the planning commission idea in the Senate.

The bill has cleared the House which amended it to form a planning and budgeting commission and giving it additional powers. Holliban said he felt the legislation would help the state in landing new industry.

He said the measure would greatly aid officials of such projects as Disney World, to be established in Central Florida, take their own plans in relation to Florida's future ideas.

The Senate also approved a bill setting up a central State Purchasing Commission which would be required to hold competitive bidding on all purchases over $2,000 and another measure for a historical code of ethics for legislators and state workers, while the House adopted a bill aimed at giving conservationists a dominant voice in the sale, dredging and filling of submerged lands.

The legislation is in answer to a moratorium placed on the sale of submerged lands by the trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund, said sponsor Rep. Red Randall, D-Port Myers.

The House also approved a bill by Rep. Jess Yarborough, D-Miami, making it a misdemeanor for "towers" to return to a race track. Towers give "bum racing tips," Yarborough explained.

A bill exempting junior colleges supported by two or more counties from the regulation of any county's civil service system was approved 114-4.

Navy Jets Bomb Fuel Dumps Near Haiphong

Avenue Of Flags Dedicated On Memorial Day

An Avenue of 50 Flags was dedicated Tuesday at Highland Memory Gardens in memory of the servicemen and women who gave their lives serving their country during a Memorial Day Service participated in by eight area veterans' organizations.

The flags were donated by Miss Ann Sheldon, a student at Lyman High School, Barracks 2808 of Altamonte Springs.

Principal speaker was Chaplain E. W. Miller, Major, U.S.A. (Ret.) and the invocation by Father David Page of St. Mary Magdalen Catholic Church.

A recitation was given by Miss Ann Sheldon, a student at Lyman High School.

Among those participating were American Legion Posts 182, Altamonte Springs; Casselberry; and 87, Apopka; Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1000 of Casselberry and 638 of Apopka; WWI Veterans Barracks 1185 of Apopka; Orlando Branch 17 of the Fleet Reserve Association; and the Forest City Community Association.

Mayor Arthur C. Wheatley, Casselberry Mayor, Longwood, Mayor John Land, Apopka, also took part.

The firing of a rifle salute by VFW Post 1000 rifle squad and the playing of Taps by Hal Dyer and Fred Dunn, of Apopka Memorial High School, served as a fitting climax for the inspiring program.

Heavy Ground Fighting Told

SALGON (AP)—U.S. Navy jets from the carrier Hancock flew through a hail of missiles and anti-aircraft fire today to bomb two fuel dumps less than four miles from the center of Haiphong.

The daylight raid on the dumps just across the Kim Kow River was the closest attack to either Hanoi or Haiphong in more than a week. There had been reports from Washington that U.S. raids on the immediate areas of North Vietnam's two major cities were being suspended temporarily while U.S. planes concentrated on less well defended targets.

Heavy ground fighting was reported in South Vietnam Tuesday and today. U.S. Marines were fighting near the demilitarized zone, troops of the 1st Cavalry, Airborne, Division had a rough fight south of Da Nang, and South Vietnamese forces reported they killed 106 Communists, also south of Da Nang, and 41 Viet Cong in a battle 85 miles southwest of Saigon.

U.S. headquarters reported three U.S. planes lost in the past 24 hours, two over North Vietnam, and a helicopter shot down and destroyed in South Vietnam. This raised the total losses to 561 combat planes in the war against North Vietnam and 181 in South Vietnam. One Navy pilot was missing and one Marine pilot was killed.

The Navy said the Haiphong raid hit the Loi Dong and Cong My petroleum dumps. Loi Dong, a major facility, had been bombed three times previously, but the raid on Cong My was the first. Both consist of fuel tanks, riser pipes and some buildings and other facilities.

Returning pilots reported black smoke billowing from both targets.

The Navy made no mention of any planes lost on the Haiphong raid.

North Vietnam also got a deluge of 1.7 million leaflets re-printing the statement May 17 by its U.S. Senate critics of American policy in Vietnam. The statement warned the Communists that despite internal criticism of U.S. policies, America will not quit the war without an honorable settlement.

U.S. headquarters reported two ground battles continuing today.

A spokesman said about 400 Marines jumped off at dawn behind the demilitarized zone to clear off a north-south ridge where 45 Marines were wounded and one killed Tuesday. The Marines were up against the bunker, fortified ridge line from the air and with artillery.

What the Marines were up against was a Communist underground force found the day before three miles from the Marine outpost at Con Thien. The Leathernecks uncovered a heavily camouflaged base camp of about 100 bunkers stocked with food and supplies.

In coastal Binh Dinh Province just south of the Marine operational zone, a company of the U.S. 1st Cavalry hit what was evidently the base camp of an elite unit enemy. The fighting began in mid-morning just to the west of main Highway 1 up the coast of Vietnam, and initial battle reports said 25 North Vietnamese regulars were killed.

There were believed to be about 200 Reds in the bunker complex which was being pounded by air strikes and artillery.

In Quang Tin Province, which threatened northern area, about 500 South Vietnamese rangers pushing into the foothills behind the coast reported they killed 106 Communist troops Tuesday. The rangers ran into a Communist force equipped with heavy anti-air and anti-artillery support. The Communists fled after a three-hour fight.

Park & Shop Opening Set Thursday At 8

A ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held at the new "Park and Shop" Supermarket at the corner of 25th and Park Avenue, Thursday at 8 a.m. with County Commissioner John Fitzpatrick wailing the shears.

Well-known food merchant Joe Gail has made this the third Park and Shop Food Store in the Orlando and Sanford areas.

Formerly the "Thriftyway" Food Store, the Park Avenue location has been redecorated inside by professional decorators in a decor of French walnut-colored paneling with accents of Florida orange and turquoise.

Gail, president of Gail, Inc., stated that the new name change was made to incorporate the store into a chain of food stores fast becoming No. 1 in percentage of growth in Central Florida. Already the corporation operates 16 food stores and four more are under construction. These include the Handy Food Stores and the Tip Top Supermarkets with the Park and Shop Supermarkets.

There are seven stores in the Sanford area under the Gail operation, and an overall total of 228 employees are used throughout the Central Florida locations, Gail said.

"Of prime importance to our many satisfied customers," Gail stressed, "are the hand-picked quality meats bought at volume prices and sold at the lowest prices possible."

Along with new color interior, the Sanford Park and Shop Supermarket has new aisles for easier shopping with a larger variety of merchandise. Top brand name products, frozen foods, dairy products and fresh fruits and vegetables will be sold at the new low prices which will be maintained by all Gail stores.

Sixth Fleet 'Standing By' For Mediterranean Action

ABOARD THE CARRIER AMERICA IN THE MEDITERRANEAN (AP)—The commander of the powerful U. S. 6th Fleet, which is standing by for any call to action in the Middle East crisis, says he has what he calls expanded military options to achieve his mission of keeping open international sea lanes.

Vice Adm. William I. Martin did not amplify on his statement Tuesday.

In an interview, Rear Adm. Lawrence R. Geis, commander of the fleet's Task Force 60, said, "We will do whatever we are directed to do by the President and that includes a whole range of options." Like Martin, he did not elaborate on the options.

Geis did say the immediate plan was for the carrier striking force to stay near Crete in the Mediterranean and, as he phrased it, wait and see.

The 6th Fleet carries America's nuclear ballistic missile force of the fleet's aircraft carrier, the carriers of the Gulf of Aqaba, focal point of the dispute between Egypt and Israel. Egypt has proclaimed a blockade of the gulf for Israeli ships and of vessels carrying what it considers strategic goods to Israel.

The carrier Intrepid, with 20 attack planes, originally was bound for Vietnam but has been held in the Mediterranean. It is the only carrier of the three small carriers to pass through the Red Sea and could be kept up American naval strength in the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aqaba. Martin declined to speculate on whether the Intrepid, which is not under his command, might be ordered to sail through the canal.

There appeared to be no serious concern about two Soviet vessels—a destroyer escort and a spying trawler—which have been cruising near 6th Fleet ships for several days, although they have sometimes come within a few hundred feet of the carrier's search radar.

Martin said the Soviet action was similar to "someone coming to a party uninvited, knocking over your chairs and chewing your guests." But he would not describe it as harassment.

"We're not overly concerned," one officer said. "They're usually friendly."

Beefed-Up Sheriff's Bureau Is Favored

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—A bill to strengthen the Florida Sheriff's Bureau and place its responsibility primarily into the hands of the state was approved 94 today by the Senate Governor's Reorganization and Efficiency Committee.

The bill by Sen. Robert Shevin, D-Miami, would rename the Bureau the Florida Sheriff's Bureau and have its membership consist of the governor, attorney general, three sheriffs and three police chiefs.

"I don't think this is the ultimate answer in the governor's eyes," said Shevin, "but he sees it as a step in the right direction."

Shevin said that the proposed initiative bureau would investigate homicides, robberies and other crimes, as proposed to organized crime, and corruption—which is to be covered by other agencies.

Agents of the bureau would go into any county for investigation, have arrest powers and the right to bear arms.

Shevin said that all state, county and local law enforcement agencies would be required to submit regular uniform crime reports. The bill cleared the House Tuesday and will go to the full Senate.

Mid-East, Vietnam 'Tops' With LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Middle East and Vietnam are expected to get priority attention at top-level White House meetings today with President Johnson back from a Memorial Day weekend in Texas.

He had joined the nation on Memorial Day in prayers for its war dead and expressed hopes for "a brighter day of peace" as tensions mounted in the Middle East and fighting continued in Vietnam.

The President and his Cabinet were to gather at noon Johnson plans a luncheon meeting an hour later with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Walt W. Rostow, Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs.

The President spent almost four days at his LBJ Ranch in the Texas hill country near Johnson City. He flew back with Mrs. Johnson aboard his big Air Force jet plane, landing early today.

The First Lady had gone to Texas Thursday to spend time with her younger daughter, Mrs. Patrick J. Nugent, who is expecting her first baby in the next few weeks.

The President and his wife joined members of their staff and neighbors in a special private memorial prayer service on the ranch house lawn, with Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Christian Church preachers from nearby churches participating.

The President made public a Memorial Day message from South Vietnam's chief of state, Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu, which extolled the sacrifices of American fighting men.

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The leader of the move—the Capitol Fight—said Tuesday that he was considering legal action against the state to prevent construction of the new legislative offices here.

Sen. Lee Weisenborn attacked earlier Tuesday the move, as proposed to organized crime, and corruption—which is to be covered by other agencies.

Agents of the bureau would go into any county for investigation, have arrest powers and the right to bear arms.

Shevin said that all state, county and local law enforcement agencies would be required to submit regular uniform crime reports. The bill cleared the House Tuesday and will go to the full Senate.

Shortly after Faircloth made the decisions public, giving an affirmative answer on all three questions, Weisenborn accused Faircloth of "double talk" and said Faircloth was wrong on all three counts.

Weisenborn said a suit against the state would depend on whether he gets the backing of Orlando persons supporting the move the Capitol drive.

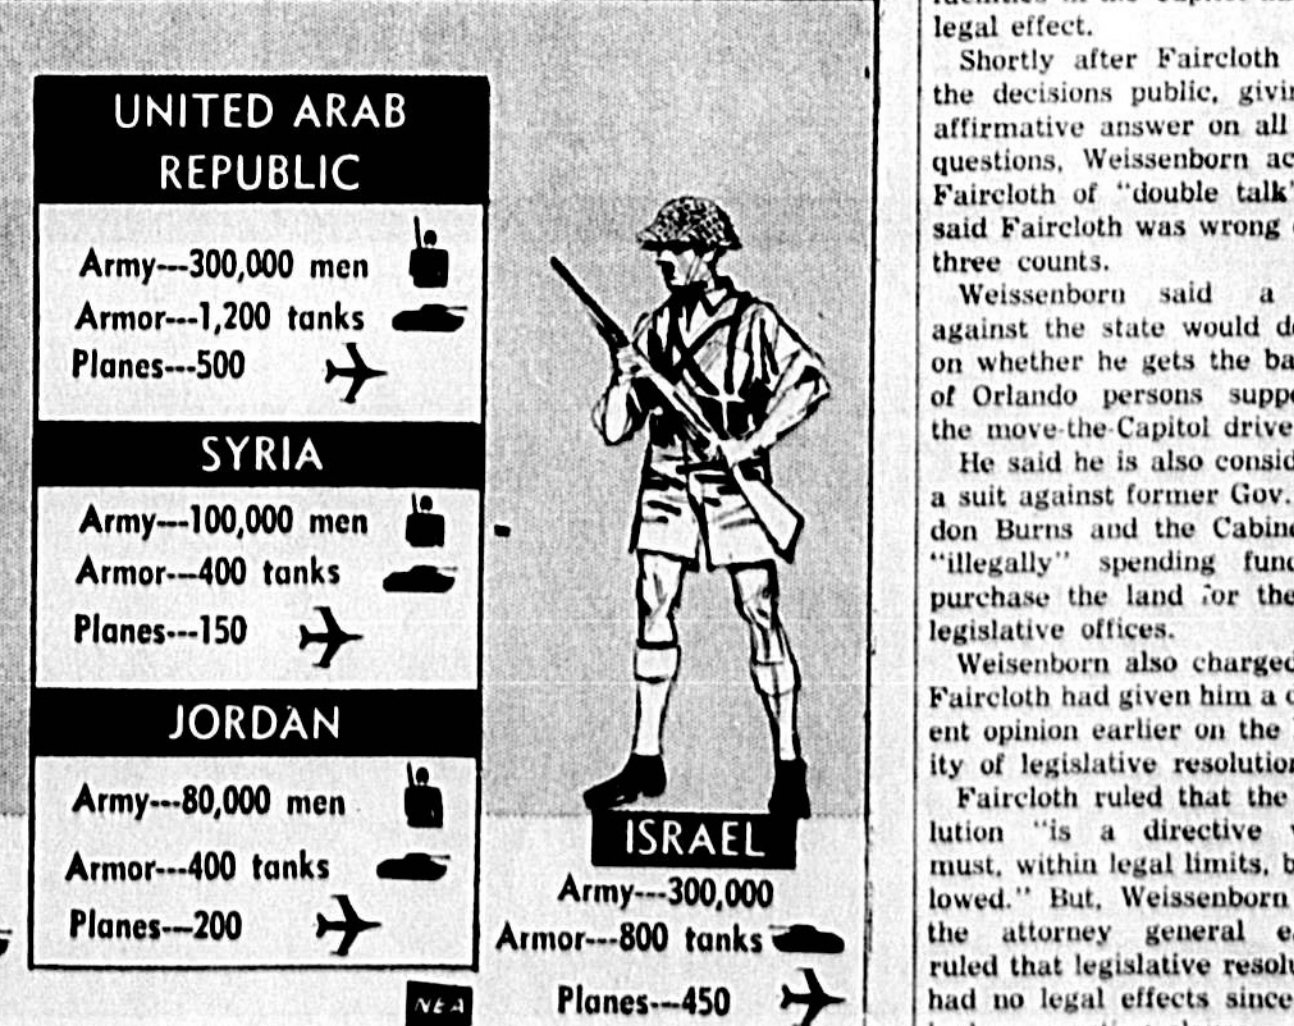

He said he is also considering a suit against former Gov. Haydon Burns and the Cabinet for "illegally" spending funds to purchase the land for the new legislative offices.

Weisenborn also charged that Faircloth had given him a different opinion earlier on the legality of legislative resolutions.

Faircloth ruled that the resolution "is a directive which must, within legal limits, be followed." But Weisenborn said, the attorney general earlier ruled that legislative resolutions had no legal effects since they had no enabling clause.

In his ruling, Faircloth said an act by the 1965 Legislature gave the Cabinet the authority to buy the land and one of the "statutory duties" of the Capitol Planning Committee was to "effect construction of a legislative building."

MIDEAST SHOWDOWN

Baptists' Meet Brings 'Fight'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A struggle shaped up today between Baptists who want to preach Christianity from the pulpit and those who want to go outside the church to help solve such problems as racial tensions, dope addiction and alcoholism.

The Baptists also are at odds over Vietnam.

The two questions are under consideration by the 15,000 persons attending the 110th session of the Southern Baptist Convention.

In the keynote sermon on Tuesday night, Dr. Lindrum P. Leavell II of Wichita Falls, Tex., objected to the trend of making social activists out of Baptists.

Jesus Christ never organized or led a protest march," Dr. Leavell said. "Jesus Christ never carried a placard. He never picketed the Roman forum, through slavery was a permanent insidious institution in his generation."

Billingsley Rites Friday

Funeral services for Madison H. Billingsley, 82, and his wife, Marie C. Billingsley, 78, of 2428 Willow Avenue, will be conducted by Rev. Ralph Brewster, Jr., of Geneva Church of Christ, at 3:30 p.m. Friday at Johns Funeral Home in Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. Billingsley were killed Saturday in an automobile collision at Midland City, Ala.

Funeral Notice

Funeral services for Kenneth L. Berry, 43, 1622 Orangewood Ave., Orlando, who died Monday at the Veterans Administration Center, Bay Pines, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Carey Hand Chapel, 26 W. Pine St., Orlando, with Rev. Paul Thomas, minister of First Baptist Church officiating. Interment will be at Greenwood Cemetery, Orlando with Franklin-Cole Funeral Directors, Carey Hand Chapel, in charge.

Mental retardation never kills anyone.

But who can count the lives it's wasted?

It's not a killer like heart disease or cancer. Yet, no human affliction is more wasteful than mental retardation.

Think of the babies doomed from birth to live out their years uselessly... the children who never have a chance to learn what they are capable of learning... the retarded adults, trained to work, but refused jobs.

What a waste! What a loss! We can change this. How?

Start by finding out what your community or state is doing to salvage many of these lives.

Are programs under way in education, recreation, vocational training? Are they directed by teachers and others who really understand the retarded and how they can best be helped?

Remember, fully 85 percent of the retarded can become productive citizens—if given the special help they need and deserve.

Don't wait for the other fellow to take the lead. Use your own influence, or that of a group to which you belong, to assure the retarded their rights as fellow human beings and fellow citizens.

For more information, send for the free booklet. Address: The President's Committee on Mental Retardation, Washington, D. C. 20201.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Randy and I both have full time jobs and we are tired when we get home at night. There is dinner to prepare, cleaning up afterwards, and the million and one other things that require time and attention to run a home properly. Abby, I know this is a woman's job, but I need help.

My day time job is every bit as demanding of me as Randy's is of him, so why should I have to come back to work after a hard day's work, while Randy comes home to "relax"? I think since I'm working, my husband should share in the housework. This leads to arguments. Please answer soon as the kitchen sink is still piled with dishes from two nights ago.

BUSHED

DEAR BUSHED: One question: Why are you working? If you must work, why shouldn't mind helping with the housework. But, if you're working for extra luxuries, you'd be wiser to eat beans and work harder at making your home one which your man will enjoy coming home to.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 16. I have short hair and I like it that way. Today I went into a drug store, and the man said, "Hello, Sonny." (He actually mistook me for a boy!) I used to like long hair on a boy (not down to his shoulders, of course, but "long") but now that I am wearing mine short I feel funny going out with a boy who has longer hair than I have.

Some of the boys wear their hair so long I have to look twice to see if they're boys or girls.

I don't understand how a boy would want to even take the chance of being mistaken for a girl. Can you explain this to me?

SHORT-HAIRED GIRL

DEAR GIRL: No, I don't think any more sense than the girl who would wear her hair so short she would cause being mistaken for a boy. I don't care which argument you counter with (I have heard them all from near to George Washington). I maintain that long hair is feminine and short hair is masculine, and the kind of impression one wants to create (consciously, or unconsciously) is his own business.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 16. I have short hair

THE BORN LOSER

Jacoby On Bridge

The student ducked two rounds of spades and won the third lead. Then he proceeded to play out dummy's six hearts with consummate care. At last, he went through deep celebration at each play after the second. East had discarded a card in the third spade and his discards in order on the next four hearts were deuce-seven of clubs and six-nine of diamonds. South's discards were three-four of clubs and deuce-eight of diamonds, while West jettisoned the nine of clubs, three of diamonds, jack of clubs and jack of diamonds. The card intently and the professor could almost see the wheels turning as he really huddled before the next play. Finally he led a diamond and cashed the ace and king for his contract. East took the last two tricks.

Jacoby and Son

"Is there anyway that I could have figured out from the play that East would hold the ace of clubs? I couldn't be sure and did not want to jeopardize my contract. After all, if West held the ace of clubs we couldn't make four hearts." The professor replied, "There was no way you could tell from the play but you did all your thinking along the wrong lines. I knew where the ace of clubs was at trick three."

"How could you?" asked the student.

The professor replied, "The moment East showed up on the third spade lead I knew that West held a five-card spade suit headed by king-queen-jack-ten. If West had held the ace of clubs he would have overcalled your diamond opening with one spade. He had not overcalled. He could not hold that ace."

DEAR POLLY—My pointer is for brides-to-be. A few months before my wedding I bought a large package card. Each week I bought a few inexpensive but necessary household items to go in it. By the time the big day rolled around the card was full and quite helpful when that first shopping trip was made. Also after attending the kitchen school in the head line at a hospital bed, he slips down during the night and has fallen out of bed a few times. I do hope that the readers have a solution for this—MISS A.V.

"The Apple Cookbook" by William L. Kaufman, was hailed with a party by the Processed Apples Institute. They called it an "Apple Happening." It took place the other afternoon at the famous Rainbow Grill, of which New Yorkers are proud. The apple has inflorescence history and in his cookbook, Mr. Kaufman gives a delightful short history of the fruit.

He says, "Arabian tales speak of it as the healing fruit; Olympus longs for it in the gardens of Aethiopia and Tantalus grasps vainly for it in Hades. In the Norse prose, 'apple' is the name of apples rejuvenates the gods when they feel old age approaching. . . the relationship of the apple to health is traceable to Arabia, while in earliest England and Germany an apple was scraped from the top and the pure was used to cure intestinal disorders—a method sometimes considered very effective by our best medical men today."

Not many cookbooks start off like this. It's delightful, but then the books by William

An over-the-shelf incense burner that I have had for years does the work for me. I start slips from this burner plant in cottage houses and other similar containers. Usually there is one bloom when I need it, so then I buy pretty containers and transplant the bloom in a gift. At times I have just wrapped the material in a container with foil, put ribbon around it and tied a pretty bow.

Death Plunge
CHERRY GIBBS, Miss (AP)—Paul C. Asteroid, 56, a pioneer nuclear physicist, plunged to his death Monday from the top of a 17-story apartment building near his home. The county coroner ruled the death a suicide. Asteroid sold his home in 1964 as director of the Atomic Energy Commission's Office of Isotope Development.

The student ducked two rounds of spades and won the third lead. Then he proceeded to play out dummy's six hearts with consummate care. At last, he went through deep celebration at each play after the second. East had discarded a card in the third spade and his discards in order on the next four hearts were deuce-seven of clubs and six-nine of diamonds. South's discards were three-four of clubs and deuce-eight of diamonds, while West jettisoned the nine of clubs, three of diamonds, jack of clubs and jack of diamonds. The card intently and the professor could almost see the wheels turning as he really huddled before the next play. Finally he led a diamond and cashed the ace and king for his contract. East took the last two tricks.

 Joe T. Hickson took the stand in his own defense last night before the Civil Service Board and vehemently denied he was ever intoxicated during an alleged incident at the Pig N' Whistle and that he threatened two police officers.

DEAR VICE PRESIDENT HUMPHREY — Aw, Buddy maybe you better forget about knocking yourself out getting federal funds for us. I mean we get a few hard-working guys trying to make urban renewal here... We organized "Downtown, Inc." to revitalize downtown and what happens? The Almighty buck! Let me get to the point. Ernie Southard and Bill Kirk told me they had a cash buyer for the Lee and Mallen properties on Sanford and First. Listen to this: The Mallen property is assessed by the city for $9,770... The offer was for $15,000. It would be the first step to cleaning up that area of downtown... And what happens?... The owners are holding out for $18,000... I check with the building inspector... he says the building should be condemned... It's dilapidated... I run down... looking from top to bottom... City will put it on the list of condemned buildings June 12... I want $18,000... I get $8,000... Oh, well, take the Lee property... An offer of $25,000 was made for a nice piece of property assessed by the city for $12,730... The owner wants $35,000. Maybe you better forget about helping us.

DEAR GOV. KIRK — Hey, why don't you forget about trying to save the Naval Air Station for us... Claude, we've resigned to the fact we're gonna lose the base and you keep on playing politics... Why not just buy out and have a good time on your trip to Europe and Israel? (I'll write to Nassar you're comin') and peddle our orange juice.

DEAR BRICKA KIRK — Gee, Mrs. Kirk, your husband really disappoints us... He comes on like the Superman with his promises of keeping politics out of getting the best pay for the job... I'm talking about a job of schools post. And what happens honey? Some of his so-called buddies in Tallahassee are pushing he appoint Bill Gordon of Winter Park for the job... We got this guy Walter Tague who doesn't want to get mixed up in politics and he told me this morning "It's out of my hands, I won't have to make a decision. Please speak to him, honey."

DEAR PRESIDENT JOHNSON — Hey, Lyndon... No I'm not gonna mention that Kennedy book. But I just want to thank you. I hear Sanford will be designated as an "economically depressed area." We sure could use that priority to get some of that federal funds... I mean like urban renewal and code enforcement. That's a h'a against legends, to the dogs.

DEAR SEN. SMATHERS — George — Maybe you know we're applying for this Model City grant... Now listen George... We've been supporting you for many years... Now you gotta help us. Get on the phone... Get with Spensard... Lyndon is on our side... But, let's not wait too long. We were told our model city application was "incomplete." Now please help us.

DEAR CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN — Earl, I may not agree with everything you have to say. But, come on. We got problems here... We got civil service board hearing that's become a farce. It's hard to tell who's on trial. The facts have been twisted and a lot of people are gonna be hurt before it's all over... The defense even got a hold of a mysterious traffic violation (city property) and gonna blow it up out of proportion. Come on down. Is this anyway to run a civil service hearing... You bet it isn't.

DEAR SEN. SMATHERS — I think like all we have been doing is spending money on administrative salaries. It would be better to wait to give raises until we have a funded program... Jones took sharp issue with Robert's stance insisting Community Action had done much good, pointing to street signs in the area... Jones said, "The people helped by Community Action should be asked if they think we are doing something. If all we have done does not mean $2,100; Lake, $9,000 and $6,000."
