Defenses Of Nazi Neighbors Are Increased

Netherlands Moves Inhabitants In Water Line As Belgium Mobilizes 600,000

French Report More Activity Chamberlain Doubts Satisfactory Move For Peace By Hitler

Germany's neighbors, Belgium and Netherlands today gave fresh evidence of preparing for any turn the war may take.

The villages in the "water line" region of the Netherlands were cleared of inhabitants in readiness for flooding to prevent any invasion. Belgium raised her mobilization to a near peak of about 600,000 men.

Prime Minister Chamberlain expressed a doubt that Germany would make "a satisfactory response" to the mediation offer of Queen Wilhelmina of Netherlands and King Leopold of Belgium.

At home ill with the gout, the Prime Minister made his statement in a speech read at the Lord Mayor's luncheon by Sir John Simon, chancellor ex-officio.

Britain will not lay down arms until we are assured Europe has been freed from the threat which have so long paralyzed the life of her peoples," Chamberlain said, adding that Britain would apply to the mediation offer only if it was accompanied by a promise to bring about a general armistice.

The French War Ministry reported increased activity on the Western Front, especially between the Moselle and Saar rivers where there were "sharp encounters."

The French also reported more German troop concentrations on the Netherlands frontier.

New fuel was added to India's unrest by the leader of the powerful Congress party, Mahatma K. Gandhi, who demanded political freedom for India and rejected the British contention that internal unity must be achieved before India gets a dominion status.

Board Of Public Instruction Seeks Medal For Earle

A resolution requesting that David Earle of this city be awarded with a medal for his bravery in saving the life of Mrs. A. E. Crocker at the railroad crossing near Lake Mary several weeks ago, was passed at the meeting of the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction yesterday afternoon.

The motion authorized Superintendent T. W. Lawton to contact proper authorities in an effort to obtain the Carnegie Hero Medal for his "heroic action" which cost him his automobile, a late model Ford sedan.

Earle was on his way to Orlando to pick up his papers when the mishap occurred. As he approached the Lake Mary railroad crossing he saw a blue Dodge coach with headlights on the tracks with a woman slumped over the wheel.

Unable to arouse the woman he attempted to push the Dodge off the tracks with his sedan, but failed also in this effort, and when he heard the train whistle in the distance, he discovered that the front bumper of his car was hooked to the rear bumper of the Dodge.

Earle dragged the woman from her automobile to a point of safety, and then attempted to obtain the Carnegie Hero Medal for his "heroic action" which cost him his automobile, a late model Ford sedan.

Andrews will be the principal speaker.

The parade will begin promptly at 10:00 o'clock and participants must be on hand at 9:30 o'clock. The reviewing stand will be at the steps of the Court House where General Andrews and his aides will be stationed.

FDR To Rule On Transfer Of Shipping

Maritime Group Favors Letting U. S. Vessels Sail For Foreign Countries

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt returns to the White House today to take personal command of a blistering fight within his administration and in Congress over attempts by the U. S. Lincs to circumvent the new Neutrality Act by placing eight companies under the flag of Panama.

Fate of thousands of tons of American shipping hangs about the Chief Executive's action. Success of the pending maneuver would lead to similar moves by other shipping interests to maintain their North Atlantic commerce.

Chief dispatches are Secretary of State Cordell Hull, mid-winter No. 1 adviser on foreign policy, and the hard-boiled Maritime Commission which is charged with the responsibility of preserving and building up America's merchant marine.

Legality of the proposed shift of registry is not at issue.

The question which Mr. Roosevelt must decide today is the controversy is to be settled there: Would the ship transfer violate the integrity or spirit of the neutrality law?

But the position that it would, and opposed the transfer when the commission sought his views.

The commission took the opposite position. Overriding Hull's position, it had conditionally approved the transfer when the President stepped in and spoke a temporary delay.

A Maritime Commission spokesman said yesterday that the commission had approved transfer of 75 ships to Panama.

The ships were to be transferred to the Jersey to Panama registry prior to the expiration of the American flag vessels to all belligerent ports in Europe.

The ships were all old vessels, which were being sold last year. Mrs. Andrew Garaway, publicity chairman for the Roll Call said.

Report of the local chapter's activities last year shows that it spent $12,283 for civilian relief, $18,072 for veteran relief, $52,259 for first aid supplies and instruction, $67 for emergency maintenance, $1,000 for the purchase of a truck, and $15 to the milk fund of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Comptroller Lee Says State Levied Unnecessary Tax

Seminole County Tax Assessor Douglas Doudney, county Comptroller J. M. Lee yesterday told delegates of the State Tax Assessor's Association that Florida had levied $75,000,000 more taxes than needed. It was a union opened Tuesday and will close today under the direction of President W. Homer Smith of Deland.

"Look at the figures," continued the Comptroller. "The $75,000,000 marked off the tax rolls as a result of the Murphy Act. We got along without it. It wasn't needed or it would have been collected."

Lee went into details of how assessors usually prepared and adjusted tax rolls and advised them to take the tax payer into their confidence and permit them to examine the rolls for inequities. He said there was nothing wrong with the present tax laws and attacked a proposal to appoint a tax commission to study the statutes, saying the assessors could handle the situation themselves.

Lee listed undeveloped industries which he said could be made to bring millions of dollars in revenue to the State.

Attorney General George C. Gibbs suggested the need of a specific provision in the intangible tax law to cover trusts held out of state by Florida residents.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Colin English predicted twice as many high school students in 10 years, increasing the financial problem.

G. Pierce Wood, 1939 Speaker of the House, asked assessors for recommendations in solving tax problems.

W. M. Walwright, State Auditor, predicted many millions would be added to the State intangible personal tax collection through the aid of information from federal income tax reports made available to assessors.

J. N. Lummus Jr., Dade County Assessor charged some assessors with neglecting to collect intangible taxes because the money went to the State.

The assessors appointed a committee to study the feasibility of levying a ways and means committee of members of the association act as a tax equalization advisory committee.

Session of officers and handling of other business was to conclude the convention program today.

Red Cross Will Make Final Plans For Drive Tonight

Goal For Roll Call Beginning Nov. 11 Is Set At $800

The goal of the chapter for this year has been increased to $800 and the members are hopeful that they will exceed this amount.

The ships were to be transferred to the Jersey to Panama registry prior to the expiration of the American flag vessels to all belligerent ports in Europe.

The ships were all old vessels, which were being sold last year. Mrs. Andrew Garaway, publicity chairman for the Roll Call said.

Report of the local chapter's activities last year shows that it spent $12,283 for civilian relief, $18,072 for veteran relief, $52,259 for first aid supplies and instruction, $67 for emergency maintenance, $1,000 for the purchase of a truck, and $15 to the milk fund of the Parent-Teachers Association.

A goal of $650 has been set as the amount necessary to purchase the uniforms for the 23 members of the band. Mrs. Dyson who acted as chairman of the general committee in charge of raising the funds, pointed out that if this goal can be exceeded, the extra money will be used to purchase some of the larger instruments not now possessed by band members.

Individual donations may be turned over to E. E. Kipp, principal of the Grammar School, who is business manager of the band. Director of the band is T. M. Dollison.

Veterans Appreciate Ovidians' Courtesy

Commander George Weinstein of the Campbell-Losing Amvets Legion Post today expressed appreciation to the veterans of the World War in Ovid who "extended them so many courtesies" at the meeting of a local post in Seminole County's second largest city on Monday night.

The Drum and Bugle Corps of the local post paraded through the streets of the city and joined the legionnaires at a banquet served by the Home Economics Class of the Ovid High School following a business meeting during which several of the Ovid veterans joined the local post. Following the banquet the legionnaires took up a collection totalling $10 to give to the class to be used in connection with their picnic to be held this weekend.

Mr. Weinstein said that more of these meetings with the Ovid veterans are being planned.

Nazis Blame Jews, British For Beer Cellar Explosion

First Lord Of Admiralty Predicts Long, Unrelenting Fight

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Winston Churchill told the House of Commons yesterday that Great Britain must be prepared to cope with a fleet of 100 German U-boats in a "long and unrelenting struggle" on the high seas to protect British merchant shipping.

Germany is building new submarines at the rate of two a week, he said, and "our expectations was that we must face a limited U-boat force available by January less whatever sinkings occur in the interval."

At the same time, however, he estimated that Allies had sunk two to four enemy submarines every week since the beginning of the war. He added that Britain now has three times as many hunting craft at work as at the start of the war and large reinforcements are expected next spring.

"I must warn the House again that continual losses must be expected," he said. "No immunity can be guaranteed at any time."

Surface Raiders Too

In addition to the U-boat menace, Britain is confronted with the threat of surface raiders, Churchill said. He declared that it was "certain" that one and possibly two so-called pocket battleships have been out on the Atlantic trade routes for the last six weeks.

He referred to the British reported only yesterday to have captured a pocket battleship.

The two prominent local figures today confirmed rumors that they had asked to be relieved of their duties in connection with the market building which is to be given up as a result of their action.

The Supervisors' committee is composed of nine members, five representatives of the city, two for the county, three from the Seminole County Agricultural Club, one member-at-large and one member-at-large from the county. Mr. Stanley is a representative of the Agricultural Association.

Other members of the committee are H. M. Papworth, W. A. Leffler, Henry Nackle, Gus Schmah, C. R. Dawson, Charles Dunn, and C. S. Lee. Successors of the committee will be named by the board of supervisors.

Large Quantity of Electricity Used

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 9.—Florida residents and industries used 88,784,000 kilowatt-hours of electrical energy during the month of September, according to a compilation released today by the research department of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

Total generation within the State amounted to 87,816,000 KWH, with 8,047,000 KWH being received from and 8,178,000 KWH exported to other states. Compilation was made from the latest report of the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C.

September utilization in Florida was 4 percent ahead of that reported for the preceding month of August, while the national average was 2.8 percent over August and 12 percent ahead of the September a year ago.

Production for the State during September was 2,516,000 KWH from water power and 84,300,000 KWH by fuel. No coal or natural gas was used during the period covered, all the generation coming from 254,280 barrels of fuel oil consumed.

A Means To An End

Whenever you see a Nazi ground, look out for treachery or some kind of a trick.

Yesterday the Burgerbräu beer hall in Munich was blown up by a bomb shortly after Adolf Hitler had addressed a meeting celebrating the anniversary of the abortive "beer cellar putsch" 16 years ago. Six veteran Nazis were killed and scores of others, among them a number of women, were injured.

There are many people in Germany who might have been responsible for the plot which Hitler unfortunately escaped. German Communists might have done it. The friends of Ernst Rhoem, whom Hitler personally murdered five years ago, might have taken this means of revenge. The friends of Gen. Von Fritsch, who was shot in the back by Hitler's Gestapo, might have planted the bomb. The mother of some young fellow killed in the Polish campaign might have done it. Or a Jew.

The German propaganda machine insists that the attempted assassination was perpetrated by "foreign investigators." Before they get through with it, they will call it a diabolical plot personally attributable to Winston Churchill. The British contrived the attempted assassination of Hitler in order to get rid of the only man who can save Germany from disaster and give it its rightful place in the sun.

It is hard to understand, however, if the plot was conceived by Churchill, why the explosion didn't get Hitler or at least some high Nazi officials, instead of just a few humble rank and file members of the party. If it were at all possible for some British agent with a bomb in his pocket to get by the cordon of soldiers who surrounded the beer hall, to elude the hordes of secret police who investigate everyone coming and going, and to escape the detection of Hitler's personal bodyguard which accompanies him everywhere he goes, it should have been possible to time the explosion right.

It would have been much easier and far more likely for some agent of Hitler himself to have planted that bomb. An attempt on the life of Hitler in which a number of innocent bystanders were killed would furnish him with just the excuse he needs for launching his "blitzkrieg" against England and to inflame German public opinion to the point where it would stand for the horror, brutality, and casualties of intense modern warfare.

After all it should not be forgotten that these same Nazis once set fire to the German Reichstag in order to blame it on the Communists and thus provide the excuse for their rise to power. They also sank the Athenia for no other earthly reason, since it was only carrying refugees back to America, and not loaded with arms for the Allies, than to blame it on Churchill and turn American public opinion against the British.

It is interesting to note that no high Nazi officials, who might be useful to Hitler in the future, were killed in the Munich explosion, only a few rank and file whom Hitler could afford to sacrifice to achieve his great purpose. We have not forgotten how recently he explained that the end justifies the means.

The Governor's Orders

Yesterday Gov. Cone took the State by surprise by ordering 67 county sheriffs to clamp down on gambling just as the tourist season is about to begin. Today he further confuses public opinion by declaring that he is planning to run for the United States Senate against Senator Andrews next year.

In connection with the Governor's latest drive against gamblers, the following editorial published by the Miami Daily News a few days before, is interesting:

"Governor Cone apparently belongs to the school that believes the nastiest mess, if you keep quiet about it, will eventually blow over. Certainly he is sitting tight on the matter of the Illinois-ripleaves granted the convicted bookmakers and congenial trouble makers, Frank Hyde and 'Red' Slaton. Nor has he offered any explanation of the slightly less recent reprieve given the notorious bawdy house operator, 'Madame' Ruth Sherry.

"We are inclined to think Governor Cone has failed to appreciate Miami psychology. The release of persons like Hyde, Slaton and Sherry, almost in the shadow of the arrest of persons who had failed to buy their 50-cent state auto licenses, strained the patience of the people of this section beyond easy forgetting. It is our guess the matter will not blow over until the governor has furnished an acceptable explanation of his actions. The longer he waits, the harder the job of selling his excuse is going to be."

Commenting on the frequent reprieves granted Miami criminals, the Tampa Times draws an analogy with Tampa's experience, as follows:

"Miamians are currently protesting—and with good reason—against 60-day reprieves just granted in Governor Cone's name to two notorious gamblers as they were on the way to serve jail sentences at Ralston Penitentiary.

"The reason given by the Governor's office for the reprieve of the gamblers was 'to straighten up their affairs.' The attorney who interceded, a Tampa lawyer, is quoted as saying he doesn't know the nature of the affairs; Miamians don't know what legitimate business they have, but it has been nearly two years since they were convicted, giving them ample time to straighten up any sort of affairs.

"Tampans aren't surprised. They will recall that it was Branch Cone who allowed the only convict, Judge Albury, of Key West, here last year to handle several gambling cases. The judge made a ruling which ended all chance of convicting the gamblers, although one of them admitted that he was 'the brains of the Tampa underworld.'

"Doing favors for this kind of person while at the same time ordering search for the most otherwise decent citizens who haven't bought their State drivers' licenses yet, is a contrast particularly cutting in Miami because a number of these drivers were jailed by the sheriff while the Governor's office was planning convalescent reprieves."

It is interesting to note that no high Nazi officials, who might be useful to Hitler in the future, were killed in the Munich explosion, only a few rank and file whom Hitler could afford to sacrifice to achieve his great purpose. We have not forgotten how recently he explained that the end justifies the means.

THE RETURN OF THE CORSET

LEMAN NOTES

The members of the Home Economic Club of Lyman School have been practicing diligently for their play, "Society Tavern," which is to be presented at the school auditorium on Friday, Nov. 10 at 8:00 P. M.

Basketball practice has begun at Lyman with only four of last year's varsity team still active. Coach E. T. Miller will have his hands full rounding them into shape. However, Mr. Miller states that he is very pleased with the material at his disposal.

Last year's members, who are still with the team are: Carlisle Swafford, Herbert (Speck) Swafford, Delbert (Dippy) Yates, and Bobby Blankenship. New members include O. C. Peoples, Charlie Githier, Charlie Dike, Tom Van Horn, Forbes Simpson, Norman Feller, Wallace (Flash) Smith, Jack Howell, J. C. Jahn, Howell, Babe, (Eve) Gills, Walker, Ed (Squawter) Lane, Edward Locke, and John (100%) Hixline.

The Lyman Greyhound "Pups" defeated the Ruston "B" team on the Ruston gridiron Monday, by the score of 19-12. The Ruston eleven scored in the first and third quarters while the "Pups" scored one tally in the third and two in the final stanza of the fray. Offside penalties were issued freely against Lyman; they were penalized a total of 35 yards, 36 of which were for offside. Ruston drew 20 yards in penalties, 12 of which were for holding and 5 yards for illegal use of the hands. The "Pups" met St. James on their own field Friday.

The Greyhound "A's" being from Apopka Home Friday, on the short end of a 7-0 score. The Blue Darters lost a total of 19 yards from scrimmage while Lyman gained 116. Outstanding performances were turned in by Jack Howell, thirty fumbles who dodged the entire opposition to score the lone tally of the game.

Candidate Arranges Things For Opponent

HERNDON, Ky., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Frank Whales, defeated for state senator in this district, made it possible for the name of his successful opponent to go on the ballot in the Nov. 7 election.

The nomination was won by J. M. Tapp, but Tapp failed to file his certificate of nomination with the secretary of state before the deadline.

It was necessary for Whales, as chairman of the Webster county Democratic committee, and the chairman of the other county in the district, M. R. Pooey of Henderson county, to meet and renominate Tapp.

They did.

Churchill said today that, though these powerful vessels have been lying at anchor in the Atlantic, they have been available or have not been so far—and I speak with the greatest reserve—to make any captures worth considering.

Only two merchant ships, aggregating 10,000 tons, have been lost by surface action, he said.

Churchill stressed that the 187-ton British submarine Oxyd had been destroyed by an accidental explosion "in circumstances which made its publication inadvisable at the time." The Oxyd, launched in 1926, was built for the Australian government, which had leased the craft to Britain.

Later, she admirably announced the loss of officers and 49 men were lost in the Oxyd disaster. It was understood unofficially that there were only two survivors.

He admitted that the great naval base at Scapa Flow was protected in efficiently in the early weeks of the war. A German submarine, entered the base Oct. 11 and sank the battleship Royal Oak with a loss of 800 lives.

Churchill said measures have been taken to strengthen the base and Lord Churchill, minister for defence construction, made a similar statement to the House of Lords.

Widow Of War Of 1812 Gets Pension From Government

PORTLAND, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Mrs. Esther Ann Hill Morgan is the only surviving widow of a Revolutionary War soldier still receiving a federal pension. At 82 she is as far as she knows, blind as a result of the Civil War and 82 years old, Mrs. Morgan has had hardships in most of America's wars. She doesn't want any more relatives to march away. She is sure there is "some way" for America to stay out this time.

Mrs. Morgan's grandfather, Joseph Hill, enlisted at the age of 17 and fought for two years in the Revolution.

Her father, John Hill, who was 21 when she was born, enlisted in three brothers for the War of 1812, and served in the New York militia. The soldiers furnished their own clothing and got no pay, Mrs. Morgan says, while the government furnished guns and ammunition.

Mrs. Morgan had uncles in the Civil War and nephews in the World War, too.

She lost her sight at the age of 7 in an epidemic brought home by soldiers after the Civil War. Some persons afflicted obtained expert attention and recovered their sight, she recalls, but hundreds remained blind. The scourge was called simply "sore eyes."

M. P. Russell of Sweet Home, Ore., is reported to be using a wagon that came across the plains in a covered wagon in 1852.

Florida Gators Sent Through Rough Scrimmage For Game Saturday

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The Florida Gators drew their third straight scrimmage yesterday as they completed rough work in preparation for their Southeastern Conference football game with Georgia's Bulldogs Saturday afternoon in Jacksonville.

The Gators and the Bulldogs met at 2:30 in Municipal Stadium in Jacksonville's only collegiate football game of the year. Advance ticket sales point to a capacity crowd of 20,000.

Punting and passing still dominated the offensive portion of the afternoon drill, with shifting the variety eleven split against the freshmen in scrimmages. The workout was ended with a defensive session against Georgia play as run by the Baby Gators.

mark, guard trouble and pass defense were the main items of work in the Gator camp.

Emerson Vetter, Chubby Ferrigno, reserves and Milton Hill, regular guards, all took a heavy yesterday in light uniform running minor injuries. Vetter was out with a bad ankle. Ferrigno nursed a bruised shoulder and Hill was on the sidelines with a bad knee injured against South Carolina last weekend.

Musk Baltista, the Gators' star first string guard, took his usual position and a big part in the day's scrimmages for the first time this week. Baltista spent Monday and Tuesday in the university infirmary with a bad cold.

Miami To Tackle Drake Bulldogs In Orange Bowl

CORAL GABLES, Nov. 5.—University of Miami's Hurricanes play their third consecutive inter-sectional football game in the Orange Bowl here Friday night against the Drake Bulldogs.

Drake defeated Miami 7-0 in 1937 and 18-4 in 1938 so the home folks have an additional incentive in this game in addition to their desire to make it two victories in three inter-sectional starts.

Catholic defeated Miami 11-0 two weeks ago but Texas-Tech was roped and hog tied, 19-0 last week to even up.

Coach Jack Harding has his team clicking for the first time this fall and has developed good reserve strength all the way. The backfield of John Kuruca of Rahway, N. J., at blocking tack, Mike Corcoran of Savannah, Ga., and Carl Jones of Mobile, Ala., and the halfbacks and Terry Fox at Newark, N. J., at fullback will probably start most games but Johnny Noppenberg of Menomine, Mich., and Bill Steiner of Jefferette, Pa., will play as much or more than any of these men as they are the high scorers and leading ground gainers of the squad. Noppenberg plays every backfield position while Steiner is a half back.

The line of six seniors and a junior is clicking nicely now with Walter Kiehoerski and Frank Paskevich at ends, Stan Haski and Jim Peare at tackles, Chuck Guineto and Jolly Snowden or John Oapovich at guards and Don Salisbury or Joe Dixon at center. Two star sophomores, Joe Krutulis an end and Tom Keenan a big tackle are practically regulars also.

Miami takes on Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina State and Georgia in order after the Drake game and must win all five to come out with the same winning record as was hung up in 1938. While the home fans do not expect this, they will be more satisfied if the Hurricane victories 252 points in 11 coming out for this fall include Florida and Georgia as victims.

AN AGILE ball hawk and fierce tackle, Hicks Arnold of Jacksonville will be on duty at left end for Stetson University Friday night when the Hatters battle the University of Tampa Spartans at Tampa. Arnold is an expert blocker and is expected to assist his team's offensive strategy in this crucial game. A Junior, he weighs 190 pounds and is just over six feet tall.

New teams have been selected for the second tournament which is already underway. Play is conducted every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 8:00 o'clock over Kent's Garage. Visitors are welcomed by the two ships.

Soviet Must Give Up 5-Year Plan To Aid Germany

Writer Doubts Russia Will Sacrifice Its Economy For Nazis

By MORGAN M. BEATTY
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(AP)—One glance at the blueprint of the current Soviet Five-Year plan, and you wonder whether Stalin is (1) sacrificing the plan on the altar of Russo-German trade, or (2) pulling Hitler's leg.

Go back, as I did, to January of this year, when Stalin signed the law for the third Five-Year plan (1933-37). Here's a part of what he said:

"It is undeniable that... the country (U.S.S.R.) still lags behind the capitalist states in an economic sense... Because of the low level of industrial production which prevailed before the World War, the present level is still below that of capitalist countries with respect to per capita production: in such respects as electric power, pig iron, steel and coal production and the manufacture of consumption goods, such as textiles, paper, soap and some others, the U.S.S.R. is still backward... This backwardness must be completely overcome before communism can triumph in its historic competition with capitalism..."

Stalin was concerned with communist stomachs, too. He said: "The third-plan period is to carry further the satisfaction of the needs and desires of the workers for foodstuffs, housing facilities and services of a domestic and cultural nature..."

He decreed in the same speech an increase in production all along the line. He ordered industry to increase the value of its output by 20 percent, come 1937. Agriculture got instructions to step up its output 53 percent.

All of this was duly reported in the official Russian newspaper, Pravda, and translated and reproduced in bulletins by the United States Department of Commerce. Again very soon after the Stalin orders were published, Pravda made the plight of the Soviet even plainer to the communist in the street, by comparing Russia's production with capitalist America. The pictogram, headed "Production," is based on Pravda's comparison.

Now, asks the American economist who knows Russian trade, how can Russia step up the production of raw materials to feed an industrial machine charged with increasing production by 80 percent, and at the same time export raw materials to Germany? Or, if it's grain they're going to export, here's another picture in statistics: Official Soviet figures listed by the United States Department of Commerce indicate total grain crop production at an annual rate just now of some 2,300,000,000 bushels, or about 21 bushels per capita. (You can compare that with the United States per capita production of 38 bushels.)

Last year, Russia had only 50,000,000 bushels to export, not necessarily because it was a true surplus over the needs of her people, but because she needed the gold it brought in the world market. Even so, 50 million bushels of grain for two nations mobilized to the hill as are Germany and Russia, is a mere drop in the feed bucket.

Now what about the products Germany could send to Russia? United States Department of Commerce figures on Russian imports, show pretty clearly that the deficiency Germany could supply would be machinery, tools, and similar finished products.

And what nation supplied that deficiency in Russia last year? The pictogram headed "Russian Imports," based on official Russian trade figures, tells the story for the last six years. The United States is the culprit. We've taken the place of Ger-

Germans Provide Good News Reels For Americans

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(AP)—So far, the news reel releases coming from Germany are very, very good and those coming through the British censor are very, very lousy.

The news reel companies distributing them are trying to overcome the difficulty. But in a recent show the announcer frankly avowed that because the quality of the one so far out shone the other, he cautioned that both were censored and perhaps reeking with propaganda.

The German release showing the cruiser bombarding the fort at Danzig was an epic of quality. A section of the British release showed the Maginot fortresses supposedly firing on the Germans. It appeared to be an old pre-war pickup, for the many in Russia's trade with western nations. And conservative estimates indicate that some 50 percent of our exports last year were machines, tools and products of that kind.

Therefore, if Russia plans to switch all the machines business to Germany, she must face the prospect of a costly re-tooling of many large machine units in her production plants. You can't turn out part of a product, and machinery of another pattern turning out the rest of it. Not only would the process of re-tooling be extremely costly, but it would have a tendency to slow down production all along the assembly lines. And that would probably slow down the pace of Stalin's ambitious third Five-Year plan.

Therefore, American economists are asking whether Stalin is going to sacrifice part of his plan or pull Hitler's leg and send no raw materials to Germany. Trying to swing both the trade agreement with Germany and a third Five-Year plan at the same time, would be a good deal like trying to have one's cake and eat it, too.

Navy's Luncheons Are World Cruises

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Join the Navy press box and see the world with a knife and fork. Sportswriters who attend the Naval Academy Athletic Association luncheons before games are taking an international gastronomic cruise under the guidance of Lieut. C. E. Ahlgren, who arranges the menu.

Guests have progressed from Norwegian smorgasbord through East Indian curry via Southern food choices in the luncheons to date, with the "host" booked to include other exotic recipes the Navy brings back from far parts.

French guns were firing blanks. Apparently the English people are kicking, too. Recently a new propaganda executive was put in charge. We hope we don't have to look at any more British piling up any more sandbags.

Washington doesn't know just what interpretation to put upon these reports of submarines in American waters which the President or Steve Early, his secretary, give out occasionally. There isn't any doubt that they are accurate. We heard a navy officer tell an inquiring reporter that he could just bank on it, that the White House statements were based on official information.

One wise-cracker jested: "A submarine a day keeps the Republicans away."

When a report told of a submarine in the Gulf of Mexico far from Florida, one of the right lads who occasionally are found in this city discouraged:

Steve Hannagan is back of it. If you'd open it up you'd find it full of chorus girls.

Hannagan is Florida's principal publicity agent.

He saw a picture of a pretty Florida girl parading on a Florida shore, chances are that Steve stage-managed it.

It is fairly likely the President uses this means of telling Americans that the war is already washing against our shores.

Revealing note: In Japan the "piggin English" word meaning an American is goddam.

And just to prove that the United States is really getting busy on the building of that 'bird series of locks at Panama, we quote from an ad in the New York Times:

"Wanted for the Panama canal—field and construction men, such as construction engineers, construction foremen, carpenter foremen, painter, crane operators, bulldozer and angle-dozers operators (what in thunder are those?); also journeymen mechanics of various sorts, such as blacksmiths, shipfitters, shipwrights, wiremen—and a lot more."

Attorneys Cannot Be Too Personal

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 8.—(AP)—The Tennessee Supreme Court will not permit attorneys to indulge in "personalities" such as calling an attorney by his first name.

Attorney R. D. Swann, during an argument, referred to Assistant State's Attorney General Jack Smith as "Jack."

"In this court," snapped Chief Justice Gratton Green, "attorneys must refer to attorneys on the opposing side as 'adversary counsel' and not indulge in personalities."
