FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1938

The British are frantic over an increase in government expenditures which brings their total to something like five billion dollars a year.

As the old saying goes, you can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't keep on getting elected to office after time taking the same old whacks.

The State government is bragging about how effective the new occupational license law is now that it has got "teeth" in it resulting in nearly twice as large tax collections so far this year as at this time last year.

Most of those who can vote in the coming election but have never taken the trouble to do so in the past are already registered, but there may be a few even yet who are not qualified.

Out in Owyhee the other night the report was going around that Senator Pepper failed to make much of an impression among ordinary farmers when he told them that the government had been buying their celery this winter for $1 per crate.

The government has added $1,400,000,000 in gold to the bank deposits of the country, which is used as a base for the expansion of credit.

There are 539,842 persons in Florida who are registered with the Social Security Administration and who are weekly contributing their share to a fund which is expected to provide for them in their old age.

Though Henry Ford has never been a member of the Labor unions, and he has occupied most of the time of his life in the automobile business, he was the first to propose a proposition from his company for a guaranteed minimum wage.

Of National Interest

Most important story in this week's issue of Time News-magazine is Florida's senatorial contest which is attracting attention throughout the entire United States not only because of its three powerful oratorical contenders but also because of the issues involved in the race.

Florida is described as a state of magnificent contrasts. It mentions "the world's healthiest and scrappiest cattle" and the poverty of the Everglades folk as compared with the multi-millionaires only a few miles away at Palm Beach.

It is in an atmosphere such as this that Time writers describe Dave Sholtz's "Dipsy Doodle", which political audiences from Pensacola to Key West have heard much of late. Pepper's proud boast to vote for the Townsend Plan even if President Roosevelt vetoes it is also mentioned.

The issues in Florida's senatorial race are described by Time, as follows: the wages and hours legislation, the Townsend Plan, relief, and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Of wages and hours Time says "Most Southern whites are against this type of legislation... think it would not only put Negro and white labor on an economic basis of equality, but also ruin the State's lumber business."

On the Townsend Plan Time gives Sholtz credit for the shrewdest attitude, pointing out that he supports "H. R. 4199" "confident that only Townsdenites would know what he meant." Mark Wilcox is revealed as having altered his Townsend stand only to the extent of advocating larger old age pensions, while Pepper is shown as having renewed his faith in the Plan last week after being endorsed by Dr. Townsend.

The relief issue is probably the hottest. There are 32,500 names on Florida's WPA rolls. Of these 6,600 were added in March, to make votes for Pepper, according to Sholtz and Wilcox, but only because the State's quota was enlarged, according to Pepper.

Of Franklin D. Roosevelt Time says that 34 of the 96 Senate seats will be refilled this year and that Pepper who stands by everything the President does and presumably ever will do, is the first of the 34 to face the electorate. Thus rightly or wrongly, Time says, the senatorial election in Florida is being hailed "as a weather-cock indicating how the U. S. in general now likes its current Administration."

Population Rates

"Is a dwindling population in store for the United States?" ask the statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, pointing out that the persistence of adverse reproductive conditions now prevailing may eventually lead the country to such a fate.

Other factors beside the excess of the birth rate over the death rate must be given consideration in determining possible future population trends, the statisticians say, because both rates are affected by a prevailing drift in age distribution, and any adequate criterion must "be independent of the effect of this change."

Between the periods 1918-1921 and 1929-31, the gross reproductive rate dropped in every state of the Union, with a maximum decline of 31 percent in South Carolina, they say. "In the nine States of California, Oregon, Washington, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, the gross reproductive rate not only dropped, but in the 1929-31 period fell below the critical minimum of 2.057, beyond which even the most favorable mortality can no longer ensure population equilibrium.

While the situation throughout the country is less critical than in the nine States headed by California, certain significant facts of nation-wide interest are noted. "With few exceptions," the statisticians say, "the States with high gross reproductive rates in 1918 to 1921 showed the severest declines in productivity, while States with low initial rates had relatively low declines."

Aboard Nelson's ship observers called his attention to the signal. Nelson, feeling he was capable of turning in a winning battle, had no intentions of retreating. However, to dispose officially of the incident, he raised his telescope to his blind eye and scanned the horizon in the direction of his commander's ship, then lowered it, announcing that he could see no signal.

Because of a lack of any practical way to make it, sorbose remained a laboratory curiosity for years. Its structure makes it especially suitable for starting material for the chemical synthesis of vitamin C, according to scientists.

stated that on learning of this nature telegrams were forwarded to the Governor for a veto and finally the residents financed a trip to the capital and in a parley with the Governor secured a veto of the measure. Mr. Bridge charged that Mr. Barnett had betrayed a campaign promise although the candidate seeking re-election denied making any campaign promises in connection with the incorporation of Fern Park.

Mr. Bridge, who cited his previous activities in civic affairs as qualifications for the office to which he is aspiring, also attacked Mr. Barnett for voting for the passage of the Occupational License Tax Bill, which he declared reduced license taxes for the larger concerns and hiked the annual taxation on the small business man and concern. "Is this protecting the interests of the small man in this county?" Mr. Bridge asked.

In the other House race, H. J. Lehman characterized as false rumors which have been circulated by his opponents, charging that he had introduced, worked for, and voted for the passage of this same Occupational Tax Law. He cited a telegram from the capital which stated that he had been one of the 18 members of the House to vote against the bill.

He said he voted for a bill which provides pensions for the aged and also carries a provision in which the State and Federal governments may share in the proceeds of a lien on the property of recipients.

Mr. Lehman declared that his desire to help the aged of the County prompted his action after he saw that the old folks would receive no benefits at all under the Social Security Act for another two years if the highly contested bill had not been passed with the lien rider. This matter, he said, will be ironed out in the next legislative session.

In his address, former County Judge James G. Sharon, cited his public life in Seminole County as qualification for his election to the House of Representatives in Group One. Hitting at the State's statute which provides for liens on the property of pension recipients, Mr. Sharon declared that the aged should not be penalized for receiving assistance to which they are entitled.

Advocating the revolving pension plan as an insurance to the aged in their declining years, Mr. Sharon declared that he was 100 percent in favor of the General Welfare Act which is known as House Bill 4190, and pledged support to legislation aiding the aged. He declared that he knew the needs of the County and pledged support particularly to legislation benefitting the stock industry which he declared is moving rapidly forward. He declared he also favored adequate school legislation and increase of teachers salaries. He said he would seek greater economy in government operation through elimination of superfluous commissions which have been created. He said he believed in the Townsend Plan and stated that he is a member.

Mr. Sharon also intimated the candidate for re-election to the House in Group One had endeavored to have the Governor veto the marketing bill which provided, he said he had been informed by those connected with the farmers market, here, for construction of a cold storage plant in connection with the present market.

In a three minute rebuttal, which was offered each of the candidates, but was taken advantage of by only the two House candidates in Group One, Judge Sharon stated that he would certainly have supported any measure which would have resulted in a $60,000 improvement that would redound to the benefit of local farmers. However, he apologized if he had been misinformed, after Mr. Lehman in his rebuttal quoted the Governor as saying, "Lehman, you tell them they're damn liars," after he told Gov. Clegg on a recent visit of current rumors that he had worked with him to obtain a veto of the marketing bill.

Mr. Lehman denied that there was a specific appropriation in the bill for construction of the storage plant, and pointing to the fact that he had been elected on a platform for efficient government, he stated that this bill provided for setting up another commission with a blanket appropriation for construction of state markets at any point in the state where this commission saw fit.

He declared that this would be ruinous to the farmers in that markets in every city of the state could not be operated for the greatest benefits to the farmers. He advocated the present restriction providing for the construction of state markets no closer together than within a 100 miles radius.

Mr. Sharon cited his legal training as an additional qualification for the House seat and pointed out that after serving the people of Seminole County for 18 years, 12 years as County Judge, he was well acquainted with their needs.

Declaring that he had been a good servant while in the Legislature, Mr. Lehman pointed to his civic services here and as Mayor and City Commissioner of the City of Sanford and his close study of tax problems, which he declared prepared him to serve efficiently the people of Seminole County. He declared that he would strive for the efficient and economical operation of the government if re-elected to the House seat.

for the House seat in Group Two, pointed out that he was outside of the wrangle of the other two candidates. He said that he had been a resident of Seminole County for the past 20 years, coming to this county from Volusia county where he was born and reared.

Pointing out that he had served as prosecuting attorney for 10 years, he stated that he had aided Seminole County residents in their efforts to divide Orange county while a Volusia House member in 1913.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

In spite of the modern conveniences which grandmother did not have, it seems that our homes are not near so spotless as great-grandmother's was.

Have you ever thought about this? Grandmother's time was taken up with tallow-dipped candles, wooden washjubs, water from the well or wing dusters. What a laborious job it was.

However, Grandmother didn't have so many interests outside the home, and, certainly, she did a good job of giving her thoughts to the home and the loved ones. Now, the complexity of modern life makes it necessary for women to have both time and energy for many activities other than house work. However, let us still feel as grandmother did—that a woman or mother hasn't done her first duty if the home is unkept.

Kitchen linoleum can become very unattractive when the design disappears in spots where wear is the heaviest. In spite of the fact that it looks as if its days of service are over, it can still be saved and put in such condition that it will add to rather than detract from the appearance of the kitchen.

Clean it thoroughly with soap and water. Allow it to dry for a day and then go over it with turpentine to remove all grease and wax left by the water cleaning. Broken places or spots where it has worn through can be cut out and replaced with good pieces.

After this is done, it is ready for its basic coat of paint. Apply it carefully and put on two coats if necessary. If a solid color is desired, add a coat of floor varnish; if a design is desired, use a stencil or stipple it with an enamel soaked sponge.

Wage Cut Is Asked By Railroad Group

CHICAGO, Apr. 29.—(AP)—The Association of American Railroads adopted a resolution under the Railway Labor Act today to serve notice of 15 percent wage reduction effective on July 1 for all classes of labor.

The cut would represent a savings of $250,000,000 annually to member roads, the Association said.

In a memorandum, the Association stated the cut was necessary because of the losses in revenue and increases in operating costs.

New Political Party Begun By LaFollette

MADISON, Wis., Apr. 29.—(AP)—Gov. Philip F. LaFollette, of Wisconsin, announced to the nation last night formation of a new political party—the national progressives of America—dedicated to a philosophy of preserving the "right of a free people to work, and by their work to add to the wealth of the country."

The Wisconsin governor, son of the fiery late "Old Bob" LaFollette, who failed in a campaign for the presidency on an independent ticket in 1924, told a mass meeting of liberals that the Democratic and Republican parties never can unite on a fundamental program to restore economic equilibrium and that the time had come for an entirely new movement to go forward.

The decision to create a new party, which he said had been joined by liberals the country over, as announced in these dramatic words:

"A beginning has been made here and now, not in 1911, not in 1940, but now, in 1938.

"The national progressives of America are now organized. State by state we shall build as rapidly as firm foundations can be laid

Settlement From Fern Park Voters Called Dirty Politics By Barnett

Sanford, Fla., April 28.—(AP)—The settlement from Fern Park voters in the recent election was called "dirty politics" by Mr. Barnett, who charged that the Governor had betrayed the promises made in the campaign.

Mr. Barnett, who cited his previous activities in civic affairs, said he is aspiring, also attached to the settlement for voting for the Governor, to the fact that the settlement was secured for the Governor and his friends, and that the settlement was made on the small business and concern. "Is this the interest of the settlement in this county?" Mr. Barnett asked.

On the other House race, H. J. Lehman, characterized as false, which have been circulated, charging that he had worked for, and for the passage of this Occupational Tax Law. He said a telegram from the capital stated that he had been one of 15 members of the House who voted against the bill.

Mr. Barnett said he voted for a bill which provides pensions for the aged, and also carries a provision which the State and Federal governments may share in the cost of a loan on the property of the aged.

Mr. Barnett declared that his bill was to help the aged of the State, and that the old folks would receive no benefits at all under the Social Security Act for the two years if the highly touted bill had not been passed. He said the bill rider, which will be tacked on to the bill, will be tacked on to the bill, and that the bill will be tacked on to the bill.

Mr. Barnett, who is a candidate for the House of Representatives in the next election, said he was a resident of Seminole County for 12 years, 12 years as County Judge, he was well acquainted with their needs.

Humans Caged At Miami Zoo While Watching Monkeys

MIAMI, Fla., Apr. 29.—(AP)—There is an odd zoo here where the usual status of man and animal is reversed.

In it, monkeys—dozens of them—swing through the trees. But human beings who come to watch them are caged in.

The idea of confining spectators came from necessity, says Mrs. Joseph DuMont, an attractive brunette, who runs the strange zoo with her husband.

"We started the monkey jungle originally to study the life and habits of the breed known as the Java monkey," she explained. "It was to be a scientific hobby while my husband worked at his regular trade as a commercial artist.

"We acquired this 10-acre 'jungle' and released six of the species. Word got around, and so many visitors came that the avocation soon occupied all our time. People did such foolish things, for they wouldn't believe the monkeys really were wild. We were fearful the whole tribe would gang up on somebody. So we determined to leave the monkeys free and cage in the spectators."

Now the Simians swarm through the trees, chattering gleefully at the human beings fenced in beneath them, or race for the wire netting if food appears in a visitor's hand. Despite their freedom, the monkeys never try to escape because food is plentiful in the zoo.

Mary, a chimpanzee, being closer to the human race than the others, is likewise caged in. She seems to resent this. She places bits of food outside her cage in the hope of luring one of her cousins close enough to seize.

"When she catches one," Mrs. DuMont said, "she gives it the beating of its life."

Gdynia, port on the Baltic, is not only a busy harbor, but the seashore playground of Poland.

Mr. Goodspeed said that all vocational courses will be given by regular teachers employed by the State Department of Education.

He declared an average of five hours a day will be required in all vocational classes and three hours a day on NYA project work approximately eight hours total work a day. A certain amount of routine work connected with the operation of living arrangements will be credited on the pro-

Open Letter to a Speeder

ISAW YOU barely miss a little boy on a tricycle this afternoon and heard you yell, "Get the H— out of the way! Don't you know any better than to ride in the street?" He didn't answer because he hasn't learned to talk very well yet. So I'm going to answer for him.

No, the little boy doesn't know any better than to ride his tricycle in the street. He has been warned not to, but little boys don't always heed warnings. Some adults don't either, especially traffic warnings; for example, the one limiting the speed of automobiles.

I'm going to tell you something about that little boy. He has a mother who endured considerable inconvenience, anxiety and suffering to bring him into the world. He has a father who has worked hard and made many sacrifices to make him healthy and happy. The supreme purpose of their lives is to have their little boy grow up to be a useful man.

Now stop a minute and think. If you should kill a child, how would you feel facing its parents? What excuse could you possibly offer Him whose Kingdom is made up of little children?

Children, my hasty friend, were here long before you or your automobile were thought of. All the automobiles on earth are not worth the life of one little boy. We don't know what that little boy may some day be. But we know what you are, and it's unimportant. We could get along without you, but we can't spare a single little boy on the street.

WHAT FLORIDA NEEDS

Is A Progressive All Florida Man In The UNITED STATES SENATE

Floridaans recognized the ability of Dave Sholtz when they overwhelmingly elected him Governor. The powerful national organization of Elks recognized his ability and honored him by making him their grand exalted ruler. The people of Florida—the people in every state—high officials in Washington and business men as well as men in every walk of life admire Dave Sholtz for his demonstrated ability as a leader. He has shown citizens of Florida and of America that he is a fighter—a man of vision and industry.

Vote For Former Governor DAVE SHOLTZ

DAVE SHOLTZ GAVE YOU

Dave Sholtz' record as governor proves that he gave the people of Florida free text-books, nine-month school terms, the teachers' tenure act, workmen's compensation, the mechanics' lien law, home-land exemption, payment of interest on the citrus commission and obtaining $85,000,000 in federal funds without having to match a cent. These accomplishments were attained through co-operation with the President, federal officials, members of the legislature and county commissioners. For thirty years prior to the Sholtz administration, the Democratic Committee was never recognized. They were fully recognized under his administration, but are not being recognized again today. During the Sholtz administration citrus prices were up—unemployment was at a minimum—and wage scales were up.

DAVE SHOLTZ STANDS FOR

Dave Sholtz has repeatedly stated that he will fight for the passage of the General Welfare Act of 1937 without amendment, that he will also fight for an amendment to the nation's Federal Social Security Law which authorizes States to take a lien on the property of persons applying for old-age pensions, the creation of a national public works program to assist cities and counties in bringing more tourists and more pay-rolls to their respective parts of Florida and to assist the citrus growers in securing new markets as well as better marketing agreements. He is for forest conservation, the Burdigales National Park and complete recognition of the State Democratic Party and its duly authorized representatives.

Dave Sholtz as Governor, demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt, that he was All-Florida's friend. He invites citizens of the State to make their own independent judgment of his record as Governor of the State, and he is more than willing to let their findings determine whether he is worthy of this further trust. He has frequently said that a man who lives in Florida is a Florida man and that he is a "Good Neighbor." But when seeking an important State-wide public office, he says: "A Man Who Is National Is Too Small To Serve The People of the Entire State."

More Than 500 Persons Assemble In Lake Mary To Hear County Candidates

Continued from Page Seven... The present State law which prohibits such distribution within 200 feet of the polls, agreed not to pass out any literature during the election day.

As speaker in behalf of Mark Wilcox, Mr. Witmer declared that he had made a number of trips to Washington in the past few years and that he had found Mr. Wilcox to be well liked in the capital.

Declaring that he was not a man of promises but a man of action, and pointing out some of his activities during his three terms as representative, as qualifications for elevation to the Senate seat, Mr. Witmer mentioned the support Mr. Wilcox had given the Social Security Act as showing his desire to assist in caring for persons in their declining years.

Mr. Brady, in speaking for Mr. Sholtz, declared that Sholtz in his campaign was not promising to do things he should have done while in office as was the case of the other two candidates.

Mr. Brady outlined accomplishments of Sholtz while Governor of the State, and declared that the people needed a duplication of this work in the United States Senate.

O. J. Pope, candidate for County Commissioner from District One, was the first of the candidates in this group to speak. He declared that he did not wish to make a speech but cited his slogan, "Vote for Pope and live happy ever after."

M. B. Smith also requested the support of the residents of Seminole County in his candidacy for the Commissioner seat, and was followed to the platform by D. L. Thrasher, seeking re-election in this district, who reiterated some of the accomplishments of the present Board. Declaring that he was running on a platform of merit for the services rendered during his two year term, he said it is his one ambition to be re-elected to the Board in order to render even greater service to the people of the County in which he said he has lived for the past 40 years.

F. A. Dyson, unopposed candidate in District Two, expressed appreciation for the support given him by the residents of the County two years ago and declared he would continue his best efforts in behalf of Seminole County.

W. R. Ballard, seeking re-election from District Three, told of the County's bond refunding program and the economical efforts of the Commission in operation of the County government in face of revenue reductions on a reduced millage. He promised continued economies if re-elected.

Ross L. Huaparey, candidate for the Commission in District Three, stated that he had run for this office in the previous election and finished in third place. He asked support of residents of the County on May 3.

Advocating the advertisement of Seminole County, C. N. North, candidate in the same race, pointed out that at the present time there were even matters on the high seas leading into the County designating the boundaries. He pledged cooperation with other members of the Board in securing the greatest benefits for the County.

Candidates in District Four B. C. Dodd, J. E. Parlin, and W. R. Williams also requested support of voters and pledged to work for the best interests of the County.

Candidates for Commissioner from District Five, W. G. Kilbee and J. T. McLean also gave short talks. Mr. Kilbee, who is seeking re-election, told of accomplishments of the present Board and pledged continued support to measures for the interests of the County.

W. M. Tall, W. R. Dupree, and Samuel A. B. Wilkinson, speakers in behalf of their candidates for State Representative's Committee, U. W. Ebel, president of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce, welcomed the visitors and the speakers to the meeting and the committee in charge of the meal.

BREATHING SPELL for war-torn Europe may result from Italo-British agreement signed in Rome by England's ambassador, Lord Perth (white hair) and by Italy's foreign minister, Count Ciano (right). Agreement patched up British and Italy's African and Mediterranean quarrels and, some observers believe, may lead to a four or five-power peace line-up.

United Front Of Workers Is Urged By Soviet Russia

Manifesto Asks Mass Demonstrations Against Aggressors On Labor's Holiday

New Anglo-French Peace Moves Made

30 Killed, 50 Injured In Rebel Air Attack On Barcelona

By Associated Press
Moscow, on the eve of Labor's international holiday, prescribed for the world's ill while France and Britain concocted a salvo of compromise for Europe's sore spot—Czechoslovakia.

The Communist International, uniting moderate labor leaders in Democratic countries, called on socialist and trade union internationalists to form "a united workers' front against Japanese, German and Italian aggression."

The manifesto by the International's executive committee urged mass demonstrations of workers, economic, political and other actions, and agitation for the withdrawal of Germans from Austria, Japanese from China and Italians from Spain.

Steps to be taken under the might alliance of France and Britain in their policies to avert a further European war included:

• A British approach to Germany to use her influence for modification of demands by Czechoslovakia, France and Italy in the Munich agreement; French pressure on Czechoslovakia to grant as many Nazi demands as possible without the sacrifice of national honor and independence; a conference of British and French diplomats with the Czechoslovakian government in an effort to complete a compromise between Prague and the 3,500,000 Sudetans led by Konrad Henlein.

Little Switzerland, precariously perched in the midst of nations talking peace but girding for war, plucked a delicate question of neutrality in the League of Nations lap, a demand for freedom from obligations to help punish aggressor nations.

Bombs fell on Barcelona—the only outstanding development in otherwise bogged-down Spanish civil war.

Officials estimated 30 were killed and 50 injured in the last-mentioned air attack.

In China, a Japanese force was reported to have occupied a village only five miles from the Lungshai railway, the spinal column of the Chinese central front.

Italy's most potent editorial spokesman, Virginia Gayda, upheld the United States for granting loans to Italy and asked whether the American people were seeking "war" by such "efficiency."

The authoritative editor's article, sharing front-page space with the editorial, was a preview of the economic preparations for Reichsmarshaller Hitler's visit May 2, as said by informed circles to reflect the growing fascist irritation over American criticism.

Gayda took particular exception to Representative Byron Scott's, Kellogg pact be identified as "aggressors."

$124,000,000 Is Sought To Build Army Air Bases

May Asks Construction Of Five Bases; Alaska To Get One

WASHINGTON, Apr. 30.—(AP)—Chairman May (D-Ky) of the House Military Committee said today he had asked the House appropriations subcommittee to set aside $124,000,000 of President Roosevelt's proposed new public works fund for construction of five major army air bases and improvement of existing army posts.

One of the new air bases would be located in Alaska, May said, and others would be established at strategic points in the United States proper.

May made the request while the movement developed within the subcommittee to appropriate funds directly rather than to the President.

That would end the system under which the relief money has been handed over to Mr. Roosevelt, who in turn has allocated it to the Works Progress Administration and other government bodies.

R. D. Baldwin Speaks At Shriners' Dinner

The foundation and aspirations of the Shrine Club were mentioned by the illustrious Past Master R. D. Baldwin in a short address at the dinner of the Shrine Club last night in the Valdes Hotel.

Mr. Lane declared that attendance at the meeting was the largest since the re-organization of the club in Sanford. President George Weinstein presided over the meeting.

Frank Norris also of Jacksonville and Past Potentate of the Morocco Temple was introduced and told local Shriners of the plans being made for the Southeastern Convention of Shriners to be held in Jacksonville in September. A short talk was also given by Malcolm McCrory on the value of the Black Camel Fund for Shriners.

Local entertainers who were on the program for the evening were: Elaine Winn, Laurence Harold of Plant City, Nancy Rossetter and Mr. and Mrs. Evans McCoy.

Firemen Fight For 2 Hours To Put Out Fire

After extinguishing a great fire back of the Zachary Vasser Plant yesterday about noon, the Fire Department answered a call to the same place about 2:00 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Fire Chief Mack Cleveland said today.

The fire was burning fiercely, Chief Cleveland declared, adding that it took the Department well over two hours to extinguish the flames which spread over most of the territory between the Vasser Company and the highway.

Most of these great fires are set in defiance of a City ordinance requiring permission of the Fire Chief before setting such fires.

Chief Cleveland stated.

He added that he will seek enforcement of the ordinance if people do not stop setting them from here on.

About 2:00 o'clock last night another call was answered to Third Street and Myrtle Avenue. Chief Cleveland stated, adding that there was a small grass fire, that required little effort to extinguish.

Recession In Business Ended, Farley Declares

Postmaster General Defends New Deal In Whirlwind Trip

JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 30.—(AP)—Postmaster General James A. Farley, concluding a whirlwind and swing through the South-east, said today "the business-spiral downward has been stopped."

He said he based his statement on the business of the Post Office Department which is regarded as a good barometer of the condition of business as a whole.

The April business of the department, he declared, will show a substantial increase over the same month of last year.

Farley came here from Tallahassee, where he spoke last night, and took a train for New York where he is to speak tonight.

In the past few days he has made a series of speeches, mostly at dedications of new post offices, in the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama and Florida.

The Postmaster General and National Democratic Chairman, speaking at a breakfast gathering in Tallahassee yesterday, declared that, if the New Deal abandoned its recovery program "chaos" would result.

"I say without fear of contradiction that if the government took the advice of its critics and withdrew entirely from its present activities, the pile of chaos would come off fast that those self-same critics would be taking the first airplane to Washington to plead for Roosevelt's aid," he said.

Later Farley continued his defense of the New Deal in Tallahassee against charges of hostility to business.

He said it was "misconception" which "a partisan minority for its own selfish purposes has been trying to drive into the public consciousness."

"Far from endeavoring to cut off industrial profits," he said, "this administration has been at most neutral, at all times, to help in obtaining a fair return in every legitimate way."

"But the fact remains there are other groups in the population that must be helped as well as the employers, and business should not complain when the President and Congress do their previous duty for the benefit of the general welfare."

Farmers Ask No Limitation On Shipments

SCC Is Requested To Purchase 75 Cars Of Celery At $1.10 For Coming Week

No restrictions on the shipment of Florida celery in interstate commerce for the coming week were recommended to the Secretary of Agriculture by members of the Control Committee last night.

In view of the adverse market conditions, committee members requested the Surplus Commodities Corporation to purchase 75 cars of the commodity this week at $1.10 per crate.

According to information received late today, the SCC approved the purchase of 75 cars of celery of No. 2 grade or better at $1.00 per crate.

A though shipments during the past two weeks have been light, demand for the product and market prices have fallen far below the expectations of the growers.

Members of the committee expressed belief that the heavy shipments to markets three weeks ago which skyrocketed truck holdings at the terminal distribution points and the unseasonably warm weather which always results in a poor demand for the product, have been contributing factors in the downward trend of the prices and the poor demand.

The SCC was asked to purchase the 75 cars, in view of these factors, in order to facilitate a cleanup of all the holdings in the terminal markets.

The bulk 241 cars estimated as available for shipment this week will be marketed from the Ocala truck lands where the quality of the celery is reported as "good" with estimated yields in 700 crates per acre.

Committee members asked for continuation of estimations for at least another week and the committee will meet in the usual places in the Mosch Building and in Sarasota next Friday.

May Day Parade Is Staged In New York

NEW YORK, Apr. 30.—(AP)—Led by veterans of the Abraham Lincoln brigade of the Spanish Loyalist army, New York's annual May Day parade moved through Manhattan—an uproar of shouting songs and slogans, blaring horns and slithering feet of thousands.

There was no suggestion of disorder but 250 mounted police and 1500 patrolmen on foot guarded the way.

Unapproved Methods Believed Blast Cause

WASHINGTON, Apr. 30.—(AP)—The Bureau of Mines said today that the use of "unapproved methods" in the firing of a blast was responsible for the Grunly, Va., mine disaster in which 45 lives were lost last week.

The Bureau in a preliminary report said the explosion was caused by what is termed a "building shot" for breaking up an accumulation of roof rock.

Chase Refutes Pepper Claims On Mediterranean Fruit Fly Measure

In answer to a circular addressed to "all Florida Growers" and distributed in this County yesterday telling of Claude Pepper's efforts to secure reimbursement for Florida citrus growers for Mediterranean Fruit Fly damage, Joshua C. Chase, vice-president of the Florida Water Conservation League, today declared in an open letter to the "Pepper for Senator" committee that Mr. Pepper had said more to do with securing favorable legislation than any other representative or Senator.

The letter is as follows: "The writer is in receipt of a circular signed by you as a member of the committee of Central Florida Growers who have claimed for reimbursement damage in connection with the Mediterranean Fruit Fly campaign.

"The efforts of Senator Pepper have not been any more instrumental in securing the approval of the House Agricultural Committee to a Bill calling for a survey of losses than any other Florida Senator or Representative.

A favorable report at this time by the Agricultural Committee is nothing but campaign material. What we want is the appropriation to back up the bill.

"If the efforts of Senator Pepper succeed in the construction of the Florida Ship Canal it would result in disaster to the water supply of the state that could never be remedied. As long as Senator Pepper holds office he is a menace to the future agricultural prosperity of Florida.

The state is now suffering from too much drainage. We should begin to study remedies to conserve our water supply to tide us over dry periods such as now prevail."

"The efforts of Senator Pepper

Large Crowd Turns Out For Political Candidates' Talks

Spencer, Sandefur, And Ayres Talk For Pepper, Sholtz And Wilcox Last Night

Speaking in favor of senatorial candidates at the political rally at the Court House last night were G. W. Spencer for Claude Pepper, Miss Mary Sandefur for Okechobee for Dave Sholtz, and Willard Ayres of Orlando for Mark Wilcox.

Mr. Spencer lauded Mr. Pepper's record and charged that Mr. Wilcox, and Mr. Sholtz were using the WPA as the background for political strategy. Miss Sandefur reviewed Mr. Sholtz' record of public service and asserted he was the only real friend of the Townsend Pension Plan; and Mr. Ayres, taking issue with Mr. Spencer, declared WPA officials were spending taxpayers' money to put Mr. Pepper back in the United States Senate.

First of the speakers for the senatorial candidates, Mr. Spencer flayed the former governor's stand on the loan provision in the State pension law, insisting that Mr. Sholtz had signed the bill which places a lien on old person's homes who have found it necessary to seek old age assistance.

Mr. Spencer said that Senator Pepper had taken a definite position in favor of the Townsend Plan, occasionally known as House Resolution 109, and that the Senator had declared that "I will vote for that bill even over the veto of the President."

Referring to what Mr. Wilcox had said here in his speech a few weeks ago about the Sugar Control Act, Mr. Spencer stated that Mr. Wilcox has been a member of the House for six years and has done nothing yet about the Sugar Control Act, whereas, he said, Mr. Pepper has been a member of the Senate only 14 months and already he has increased the sugar quota for Florida.

In reply to charges that Senator Pepper is a "rubberstamp," Mr. Spencer declared that Mr. Pepper ran on the Democratic platform as a member of the Democratic party and since going to Congress he has consistently voted for that platform—and that's what you sent him there to do.

Miss Sandefur, who claims the distinction of being the youngest active worker for Mr. Sholtz, was the second speaker of the evening for the senatorial candidates.

As one of the organizers of the Townsend Club in this State, Miss Sandefur devoted most of her time to explaining former Governor Sholtz's stand on the plan.

Miss Sandefur explained the purposes of the Townsend Recovery Act. There are three main purposes, she said. These are outlined as (1) To put more money in circulation. (2) To provide security for old persons. (3) To provide more jobs for young people.

Mr. Sholtz, the young orator continued, has denounced the Farm Control Act as the first move toward communism.

She heaped sarcasm on those who have accused the former head of the State of signing the law containing the loan provision. The legislature met in May, she declared, but Dave Sholtz left of.

However, the fireworks which were anticipated following the charges hurled at the meeting in Lake Mary Thursday night failed to materialize.
