FLORIDA SENATE PASSED MEASURE TO ABOLISH CONVICT LEASE SYSTEM

SENATE MOVED AHEAD OF HOUSE IN PROPOSED PRISON REFORM

McWILLIAM'S BILL

Provides Convicts Can Be Leased From One Florida County to Another

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, April 20.—The Florida senate passed the measure by Senator MacWilliams, which would abolish county convict lease system. The vote was 31 to 1. Senator Wicker voting against it alone fighting it on the floor. The senate in thus acting moved ahead of the house in proposed prison reforms growing out of the death of Martin Tabert which is alleged to have occurred at a private convict camp at Clara. Senator MacWilliams is a member of the investigating committee. His measure provides convicts may be leased from one county to another. It differs in important details from a similar measure now facing final passage in the house, in that it does not ban corporal punishment, and does not provide for turning prisoners over to the state road department for work.

The official legislative expedition to the logging town of Clara to inspect the grave of Martin Tabert, who died while an inmate of a private lumber camp, was called off by Senator Stokes, chairman of committee investigating alleged brutalities in state and county convict camps. G. Grissom, assistant attorney general of North Dakota, returned from Clara late yesterday and informed Senator Stokes the condition of Tabert's grave was good and in his opinion would not be necessary for members of committee to make the one hundred mile trip.

MORSE TO STAND TRIAL ON MONDAY IN FRAUD PROBE

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Despite his plea of illness, Harry F. Morse must go to trial next Monday with his two brothers, Ervin and Benjamin, his father, Charles W. Morse, and four others on indictments charging conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with war time ship contracts.

This was the decision today of Justice Stafford in the District of Columbia supreme court after he had heard conflicting opinions of physicians as to whether young Morse had heart trouble. When the doctors were through, the defendant was called to the stand to describe to the court symptoms of heart derangement which he claimed had been manifest since an attack of influenza last February.

In overruling the motion of Morse's counsel that their client be given a separate trial at the next session of the court, Justice Stafford said it seemed to him, considering delays already encountered and the expense involved in such trials, that young Morse never would be tried if he were not tried at this time.

SPECTACULAR FIRE AT JACKSONVILLE

Orlando Boy Dies in Michigan Prison Suspicious Circumstances

Was in Reformatory and Alleged that He Was Beaten to Death

An investigation into circumstances surrounding the death of the 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson of Idlewild Park, Orlando, in a Michigan reformatory, Tuesday, will be made by members of the family, it was learned yesterday.

Late last week Mr. Patterson received an anonymous letter from an inmate of the reformatory which declared that young Patterson had been brutally beaten at the school and that he was in a serious condition. It was said the letter asked if somebody could not be sent to conduct an investigation. It expressed the fear that the boy would not recover. The letter was signed, "A Good Friend."

Three days afterward Mr. Patterson was notified by officers of the reformatory that his son had died. He immediately telegraphed the request that the body be sent here for burial. It is expected to reach here today and a postmortem examination will be made.

It is believed the examination will determine whether the investigation is to be taken into Michigan as was done in the case of Martin Tabert, the North Dakota boy who is alleged to have died of injuries he received in a severe beating administered in a north Florida convict camp.

Mr. Patterson and members of his family made it known they would not discuss the case until it could be determined whether there is real ground to charge the reformatory officials with responsibility for the death. Their son had got into a slight difficulty through unfortunate circumstances while the family was in Michigan some time ago. He had not long to serve in the school.

Members of the family, it transpired, have discussed the case with authorities here, asking their advice as to how to proceed with the investigation. Although nobody could be found yesterday who would discuss the affair, it was inferred from hints obtained in an authoritative quarter that the Pattersons had been advised to await the arrival of the body and the subsequent postmortem before taking the matter up officially or unofficially with the Michigan authorities.—Orlando Sentinel.

COMMUNIST BANDS TERRORIZE MULHEIM FOR THREE DAY— UNDER CONTROL OF POLICE

City Officials and the Police Were Besieged in Rathaus

(By The Associated Press) MULHEIM, April 20.—After being terrorized for three days by Communist mobs which held it, Mulheim today again was under the control of constituted German authorities. A force of three hundred police and city officials which had been besieged in Rathaus made sortie from this great fortresslike building this morning and cut through the lines of besiegers and caught them in rear and reentered many and again took control of the city.

PARIS, April 20.—A Dusseldorf dispatch to London gives the information that three hundred German security police who have been besieged overnight in Rathaus are expected to surrender any moment to a mob of unemployed. The correspondent reports Essen where demonstration occurred yesterday was quiet throughout the night.

BERLIN, April 20.—Eight persons so far reported are dead and more than thirty wounded as the result of disturbances in Mulheim according to dispatches which state although the city had been freed from Communist grip armed bands still causing trouble in outskirts.

CONVICT LEASING MEASURE READY FOR LAST JOURNEY THROUGH HOUSE TODAY

Has Several Amendments But Main Idea is Still Intact

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, April 20.—The house spent yesterday on its measure abolishing convict leasing and tonight the bill weighed heavily with amendments, but with the soul of the thing intact, was resting in the engrossing committee preparatory to its final journey to the house.

The measure, originally providing for the abolition of the practice of leasing county convicts, to prevent firms or individuals, after the end of the year, but with provision for one county to lease its prisoners to another county, now stands with the following amendments, none of which can be changed except by a two-thirds vote:

By Representative Davis of Leon to prevent the whipping of county prisoners.

By Representative Matthews of Bradford to permit the counties to turn the convicts over to the state road department if they so desire.

By Representative Taylor of Highlands to separate the state and county prisoners, wherever they are worked, and housed separately.

By Representative Carmichael of Palm Beach, providing that guards be required to give bond of $1,000 and captains $2,500 against which suits may be brought in case a prisoner sustains an injury at their hands or thru their negligence.

There were other amendments that failed adoption, their consideration with those that received favorable treatment was enough to keep the house occupied all of yesterday's three hour session.

Representative Lewis of Jackson wanted it compulsory for the road department in cases where they used the convicts to keep them in the county in which they were convicted. Here the debate ran all over the house with Representative Weeks of Holmes actively in support of the amendment.

The department would in order to get a few road workers, they thought, have to undertake a county project entirely outside its program. Mr. Weeks and Mr. Lewis both said they wanted some provisions that would make the counties bear themselves in road building.

When Mr. Lewis' amendment failed thru a measure providing that they could not be worked out of their judicial circuit but it likewise met defeat.

Mr. Taylor's amendment to separate the classes of convicts brought support from quarters hitherto opposing amendments. Representative Miller of Duval, took the floor in its behalf, but Representative Willard of Dade wanted to know if it would not carry an appropriation for the building of extra jail.

The longest discussions came over an amendment to make the eradication of the lease system effective immediately upon passage of the bill, Representative Stokes of Bay, hailed it as the joker that had been referred to yesterday. The supreme court would hold the law unconstitutional unless it provided for the fulfillment

WEEKLY WEATHER AND CROP REPORT

The temperature was about normal for the week, although the nights were rather cool; sunshine was generally below the average. Some low lands were rather wet, resulting in delayed work in some localities. The planting of cotton and some corn continued, but mostly up to a good stand. Melons are up, and some being thinned out. Satsuma trees are blooming satisfactorily; they are in good condition. Pastures are fair to good. Warmer nights and more sunshine are needed. Hail did some local damage.

Showers occurred throughout the division—heaviest in the interior, diminishing to insufficient amounts on the coast, and, also, in some interior localities, especially on uplands. As a rule, all crops made good progress. Cotton chopping continued; plants are in good condition and growing well. Corn is generally good, although that on uplands, where dry weather has persisted, is poor; good stands are reported; there is some complaint of grass, but as yet probably not serious. The setting of sweet potato slips was more general; melon vines are running—some bloom is reported. Peaches are late; the crop will be short. Truck generally made good progress and large shipments of beans, cabbages, cucumbers, and other truck were made daily; tomatoes are in good condition. The digging of Irish potatoes continued; the early crop is short; the late planted is doing well; some complaint of insect pests. Oats are mostly poor. Citrus fruits are setting and holding well; irregular bloom is reported in some localities; trees are generally vigorous. Peanuts and cane mostly a good stand—and made fair to good progress; some late local planting of peanuts during the week. The strawberry season is about over. Hail did considerable damage to truck in the vicinity of Moore Haven, where crops are unusually good; too much rain, however, was unfavorable.

Southern Division

The week was warmer than the average, the daily excess in temperature ranging from 2° to 5°; midday temperatures were 88° to 90° at some stations during several days. Corn it is making good progress; truck is in good condition, except that rain damaged tomatoes in the Miami district. The bulk of the bean crop has been shipped. ## LOVELY BRIDGE PARTY.

One of the loveliest social affairs given this season, was that of yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Fred Walsma and Mrs. John Charles Smith were the gracious hostesses, entertaining at bridge at the Welaka. There were twenty-two tables of players.

The Welaka Lobby, which is such an ideal place to entertain, was converted into a veritable bower with its decorations of cut flowers and ferns. Tall French baskets, ferneries and jardeniens on pedestals were filled with snap dragons, carnations, roses, and ferns. In the alcove, the prettily appointed punch table was placed, and peacefully presided over by Mrs. J. S. Wilson. The punch bowl was embedded in a bed of feathery asparagus ferns studded with pink roses. Over head baskets were suspended, these folding feathery ferns and bouganvillas.

The guests were greeted upon their arrival by Mrs. Walsma and Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Walsma was beautifully gowned in American Beauty figured chiffon over satin. Mrs. Smith was attired in cream silk lace veiling silver cloth. The tally cards were given out by Mrs. W. E. Watson, who wore a becoming frock of black crepe satin with trimmings of green.

Pink and green, the colors used, were carried out in every detail of this pretty party. The tally cards were fascinating designs of hand-painted flowers, and when scores were counted after an usually interesting game of bridge, it was found that Mrs. Percy Mero held high score, and was given an exquisite vase in the colors of blue and gold. The cut prize, a set of luster glass teed tea glasses, was won by Mrs. Osborne Herndon. Low score was held by Mrs. W. D. Gardner, who was presented silk hose.

Following the card game, the tables were laid with dainty covers and refreshments consisting of chicken salad, saltines, hot rolls, coffee and cake, were served. On each plate were favors of candies, fashioned into miniature bouquets.

Mrs. Walsma and Mrs. Smith were assisted in entertaining and serving their guests by Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Mrs. Harry Walsh, Mrs. Hal Wight, Mrs. W. D. Gardner, Mrs. W. E. Watson, Miss Lucy Byrd Smythe, Miss Fern Ward, Miss Marguerite Clarke, Mrs. Don Smith, Miss Lettie Caldwell and Mrs. Alice Landman.

Low Cost—Comfortable Motoring

This Buick four cylinder, five passenger touring car affords dependable, comfortable motoring for every occasion.

Improvements in the design of both the chassis and the famous Buick Valve-in-Head engine have contributed further to the well known Buick qualities of dependability and economy. Innovations in equipment have provided comfort in the open model that approximate those found in much more expensive closed cars.

For instance, with the Buick designed storm curtains, reinforced by the Buick weather strip, closed car coziness in bad weather has been closely approximated. A signal pocket for the driver, complete instrument board, transmission lock and many other conveniences are features every motorist appreciates.

ACCIDENTS ON THE HIGHWAYS.

Accidents on our highways are all too frequent. Every day reports of more or less serious wrecks are brought to town. The people ride on the highways and find cars in all sorts of car disfigurements—bent fenders, wrecked front wheels, sideswiped running boards, punched in radiators and so forth indefinitely.

Now we are persuaded that the majority of wrecks are caused by reckless driving. Either too rapid a pace is set or too many close chances are taken in passing other cars.

If people would exercise a little more plain common judgment, it would be an easy matter to do away with eight out of every 10 wrecks that now are reported. Only once in a blue moon does some part of a car break and cause a wreck. This sometimes happens it is true. But seldom. Most wrecks are the fault of the drivers of the cars. Of all the wrecks that are reported, the most useless is that caused by an intoxicated driver. If any crime is heinous, this is it. So we of the best people in this county have been injured at times by thoughtless drivers, who intended no harm but whose nerves and eyes were not in the best of shape and who thereby brought to grief excellent people.

Narrow highways also are a source of numerous accidents. So long as cars meet, they will pass. When a highway is too narrow for comfortable passing, occasionally a timid driver will come along and fail to get over on his side of the road sufficiently to permit the other car to pass. His nerve fails him at the last second. The result—a wreck. Broad highways are wonderfully effective in reducing wrecks and bringing comfortable riding into vogue.

Volusia county should make a strong effort to eliminate this last named menace as soon as possible. The stretch of road between the brick at the boat landing and the bridge on the road to Eustis is dangerously narrow, it is with difficulty that two cars pass. And if either goes into the ditch there is likely to be a bad spill. The bank of the road is high and the lowlands at times filled with water.

Some counties are known for their wrecks. Volusia does not need to become one of them.—DeLand News.

SUGAR SOARS TO NEW HIGH PRICES TODAY

NEW YORK, April 19.—New high records for the past three years were established in the refined sugar market today when leading refiners advanced list prices 10 to 20 points. Some quoted fine granulated as high as 9.60 per hundred. The jump was due to the continued strength of the market and bullish news on the Cuban crop.

Cuban raw reached 8.05 cents duty paid, the highest price since 1910. There was continued buying by both domestic and European refiners on persistent reports to the effect that the Cuban crop will fall short of requirements this season, which was chiefly responsible for today's advance into new high ground.

Back of this was the persistent demand by house wives all over the country who fear a shortage of sugar during the coming season. This unusual big buying movement from consumers has forced refined into the raw market and has led to steadily advancing prices.

Efforts to convince the public that supplies will be sufficient for all needs, if buying is conservative, proved unsuccessful.

It was learned today that the president and Attorney-General Daugherty, who is ill at Asheville, N. C., had two long distance conversations during which the sugar situation was discussed. The result had not been developed but an early forecast was that the reports of conditions in New York and the east were in the hands of Attorney-General Daugherty and that some action might be expected soon.

Senator Wadsworth, New York, discussed the sugar question with the president, telling of observations he made while in Cuba, Jamaica and Panama. He said conditions in Cuba had convinced him that production there this year would be about 20 per cent below normal. This, he said, was due first to the over-production of previous years and second to the drought on the island. It had been predicted that 4,500,000 tons would be brought out, but the senator said he was convinced, after talking with producers that not over 3,500,000 tons would be produced.

Tabert Had Burial in Presence of Witnesses, is the Report

Physician Claims Dakota Boy Had Good Treatment

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, April 19.—The funeral of Martin Tabert, alleged North Dakota victim of the whip of a convict boss in the community cemetery of sparsely settled Clara, Florida, with a small group of kind-hearted townspeople, singing hymns, wide-eyed school children looking on, and an itinerant pastor officiating, was described before the legislative investigating committee here yesterday. B. Duffel, an employee of the Putnam Lumber company, which had Tabert under lease, said he asked two women of the town to attend and on the way to the burial grounds, the two women testified, they ran across the preacher enroute to his periodical service, and asked him to deliver the rites.

The women, Mrs. Mayte Mills and Mrs. Ollie Rhodes, asserting they knew nothing at the time of the identity of the boy, endeavored to give him a christian burial. They only knew that the youth had died away from his mother, they said. Their testimony was introduced by the lumber company to refute that already given to the effect that the youngster's body was placed in a plain box in the garb of an escaped negro convict and without any aid put under the sod.

About the time the body was lowered into the grave, a country school nearby turned out, according to Mrs. Rhodes, and a Miss Phillips, the school teacher, huddled her charges over to the scene in order to add to the attendance.

Counsel for the Putnam company through B. Duffel introduced evidence that Tabert was buried in a coffin costing $30. Statements previously made by G. Grinson and J. W. Kneeshaw, assistant attorneys general of North Dakota, was to the effect that Tabert was laid to rest in a $10 coffin. The undertaker's receipted bill was also placed in evidence.

The hearing yesterday was devoted mostly to the taking of testimony from witnesses summoned by the Putnam company to appear before the committee. Prior to these witnesses being heard, Glen Thompson, Sidney Johnson, Iowa; John Gardner, Fort Sam Houston, Tex., and A. B. Shivers, Doerun, Ga., the first two being former convicts and the latter a former guard, testified as to the number of floggings given to prisoners while they served at the camp, and the flogging of Tabert, which they said resulted in his death four days later.

Dr. H. G. Jones, who attended Tabert, said that Tabert had been afflicted with a disease that produced running sores and pneumonia and that he had made the death permit read otherwise to save his family embarrassment. On questioning, however, Dr. Jones admitted he did not know whether the boy had any relatives.

GROWTH OF CALUMET A BUSINESS ROMANCE

Single Room Expands Into Largest Baking Powder Factories in World

When W. M. Wright founded the Calumet Baking Powder Co. in the spring of 1889, he leased one little room on the top floor of a small three-story building that still stands in Chicago, on North State street, just at the north end of the bridge over the Chicago River.

This little room was Office and Factory. Mr. Wright himself was manufacturer, Office Manager and Salesman.

His total manufacturing equipment consisted of a hand masher, with an extremely small stock of supplies. This was all hidden behind calico curtains that stretched across the room. An empty starch barrel with a board across the top, served as a desk.

Salesman Wright worked on the outside getting orders that came in and turned them over to Office Manager Wright, and then had Manufacturer Wright sell up his stock and make enough baking powder to take care of Salesman Wright's orders.

But behind the calico and ambition that gave life to these early efforts, was a flaming purpose to make a better baking powder to break the retail dealer as a business partner, and to protect the consumer from an inferior product.

The road to such a business, however, has been phenomenal. Today the Calumet Baking Powder Co. has the largest baking powder factories in the world and its sales have grown to be 2 1/2 as much as those of any other brand.

The Company's home plant in Chicago, built in 1914, has a total floor space of 160,000 square feet,—250 times the amount of floor space provided by the little State Street store room where Calumet first heralded its slogan: "Best Baking Powder."

By Text. This home of Calumet is the largest, best equipped and most capacious plant of its kind in the world.

Early in 1920, the demand of Calumet's had outgrown the Chicago plant, and plant No. 2 was located in East St. Louis, Ill. This increased the Company's production about 40 per cent and put Calumet in close reach of the Southern States, where it plays such an important part in baking the famous hot breads of the South.

W. M. WRIGHT

During 1920 Calumet had difficulty in obtaining sufficient materials of the high grade required. To safeguard against any possibility of inferior materials entering into the manufacture of Calumet the Company at a cost of $1,600,000 purchased an immense material plant at Joliet, Ill., covering six acres, with 48 individual buildings and a total space of more than 1,000,000 feet. This also guaranteed Calumet's ability to back up the Calumet slogan—"Best in the can—pure in the baking."

It is a far cry from the little 29 foot room in which W. M. Wright founded the Calumet Baking Powder Co. to the Company's present mammoth quarters—the largest baking powder factories in the world. But Mr. Wright himself, now Chairman of the Board of Directors, refuses to admit there has been anything wonderful in this growth. "Only one thing has brought this all to pass," he says, "and that is I had from the beginning the unsurpassable quality of Calumet Baking Powder."

against ordinary courtesy, and sometimes against law. There is parking on the wrong side of the street, or in improper and forbidden place, illegal speeding and various infractions of law as well as of courtesy.

We sometimes think there is more lack of real courtesy among automobilists than anywhere else in life. Perhaps because they meet and pass so quickly they think there is no need or time to be courteous.

THE SHERIFF OF LEON.

If Governor Hardee permits J. R. Jones, Sheriff of Leon County, to remain in office, after reading Jones' own testimony before the joint committee of the Legislature on Tuesday, it will be a source of surprise to the entire state.

Jones' previous admission that he had the letter containing money for young Tabert's release returned to the parents without making any effort to deliver it to the prisoner was sufficient in itself to cause his suspension from office.

Jones testified before the committee that he had entered into a contract with the Putnam Lumber Company to receive personal pay for delivering convicts to that company.

Naturally, with this $23 personal profit in each case, the Sheriff cared little what became of these unfortunate victims after he had safely delivered them to the soulless purchasers of his official favor.

personal profit, carrying out a private deal with a convict lessee, is sufficient to demonstrate to the people of Florida, if not to the Governor, that he ought to be kicked out of office and, if possible, visited with some further and more vigorous punishment.

The Tribune believes that Governor Hardee, now that he has the facts before him, will act promptly and effectively, doing all in his executive power to show that Florida as a state does not tolerate such shameful violations of public trust.—Tampa Tribune.

DeLEON SPRINGS TOO MUCH FOR THE ATHLETICS

Win Opener at Lake Monroe to the Tune of 12 to 0
The Athletics of Lake Monroe were not equal to the occasion in their opening game yesterday and the nine from DeLeon Springs snowed them under a 12 to 0 defeat. Many of the regulars for the Athletics were out of the game on account of shipping beans, celery, etc., and these Lake Monroe boys promise something better the next time they meet this team.

The Club's picnic and entertainment last night went over with a big bang, being a success both financially and otherwise. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was the singing of the popular songs by Ocie DuBose. Victor Cheek joined the club last night, sending his application and check from El Paso, Texas. More interest is being displayed in the welfare of this new association every week and before the summer passes this promise to be the most popular athletic club in Seminole county. Watch for the announcements of their games and their other big doings.

AMERICAN POSITION ON RHINE EXPENSES CREATES DEADLOCK

ESSEN, April 19.—The authorities of occupation have been tightening their hold on the Ruhr noticeably the last few days and the adoption of even sharper measures is expected in German quarters as the result of the Paris conference between the representatives of France and Belgium, M. DeGoutte's recent order for the seizure of coal in transport, inside the Ruhr, has been applied with special force lately and under steps have been taken to screw down the clamps on all unauthorized traffic within the occupied zone. The occupation of the mines also has been extended and the Germans expect the present week will see the taking over of a number of additional pits by the occupying troops.

question, it was stated in well informed quarters. Elliot Wadsworth, assistant secretary of the treasury, representing the United States, was awaiting a call for another conference session from the representatives of the Allies, who, meanwhile, were awaiting instruction from their governments. Mr. Wadsworth declared there was no warrant for the report that the conference had broken up.

The Allied delegates assert that if absolute priority were given the United States, the first effect would be to block the movement of German coal to Italy and also for England to stop payment of its army on the Rhine or else withdraw it. This point is disputed in informed circles, where it is asserted the British now are getting more from the Germans than the cost of their army through the recovery agreement which is yielding annually 6,800,000 pounds it is stated.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The request for priority of payments which was submitted by Elliot Wadsworth to the Allied representatives in Paris is interpreted here as meaning only that the United States would receive first payments from the yearly quotas fixed by the Allied powers for the distribution among them of German reparations. It is not believed the American delegate has asked for a priority of payments for the full amount of the American claims which total about $255,000,000.

WOMAN'S CLUB COLUMN

WOMAN'S CLUB COL

In co-operation with the nationwide effort towards observance of Garden Week, the Woman's Club, through its President, Mrs. Tolar, presents the following program, assisted by Mrs. John Leonard, who acted as her vice chairman.

Garden Week, April 22-28.

Sermons in all churches touching upon the Garden.

Chapel Talks in the schools every morning, on wild flowers and trees, protection of birds, native flowers now cultivated, and the spiritual worth of a garden.

On Wednesday, April 25th, special effort will be made at all the schools toward beautifying the school grounds and prizes will be offered for the two best papers in the Grammar School and one in the High School on any of the three subjects: Florida Trees; Florida Wild Flowers; Florida Gardens.

A prize will also be offered for the best collection and identification of leaves, ferns and grasses assembled by the last day of school, the collection to be started during Garden Week, and names of all contestants to be handed to Mrs. John Leonard before April 28th. All the work at the schools on Wednesday is to be in charge of Mr. McKay, Miss Millen, Mrs. Arrington, and the teachers.

The City Commission has agreed to give attention to the condition of street trees as regards pruning and removing Spanish moss.

It is quite in line with Courtesy Week that Mrs. Tolar has had such splendid co-operation from other civic organizations, Rotary, Kiwanis and the Chamber of Commerce each having contributed five dollars for the school prizes. The Parent-Teachers had already worked out a complete plan for planting the grounds around the Southside Primary School, with plants donated and others grown by High School students under Mr. Cooper's direction, but when Garden Week was announced they set their efforts to co-ordinate their efforts with those of the Woman's Club, so that on Wednesday of next week, Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Harry Heeren and Mrs. E. P. Morse will be very busy in the grounds of this beautiful new school building.

The Ball Hardware Company, Hill Hardware Company, and T. J. Miller & Son will have windows decorated in line with Garden Week.

Articles have been promised for the Herald as follows:

In a Florida Garden, Mrs. Henry Wight, Monday.

Beautifying the Back Yard, Mrs. Harry Heeren, Tuesday.

Plants and Seeds to be Set Now, Mr. Cooper, Wednesday.

Beautifying the Station Grounds, Miss Mell Whitney, Thursday.

Beautifying the School Grounds, Mr. Tilden Jacobs, Friday.

The Sociological Effect of a Garden, Mrs. John Leonard, Saturday.

A recent item in the General Federation News calls attention to the fact that the Atlanta Woman's Club recently graduated a class of 300 women in one of its classes. Now we know nothing of what this class studied, but it brings to mind a thought that something concrete and very worthwhile might be worked out in a woman's club study class. A great deal of fun, more or less good-natured has been poked at club papers, and the desultory methods of club study, but the women who have found relaxation from drudgery in writing and listening to these same papers are not the ones who are making the criticism. However, the fact remains that just as much of relaxation, and a great deal of practical value can be found in a well planned club course of two or three years duration, with some definite objective. It should include a study of citizenship, a review of practical home economics, perhaps a drill in parliamentary law, a bit of public speaking, and a study of sociology, as well as any frill in the way of an art or literary review that might be chosen. This, with something in the way of a certificate at the end of the course would be something any woman might well be proud to win, as it would hold many of the requisites in the way of preparation for service.

General Federation President Makes Practical Suggestion for Specialized State Work.

Here is a suggestion. Why not hold club institutes in all our states and districts to deliberately train ourselves in the ethics and efficiency of our work, the best methods of organization, the relation to the community and other organizations, the ethics of our relation to each other.

Our work is getting too big to just drift or to be directed only by half knowledge or the impulse of the moment. Two million of trained, wise, purposeful determined, unselfish, far-visioned women it is the dream of a not impractical urge toward a better world.

ALICE AMES WINTER, From March General Federation News.

USE OF STRAP IS BARRED BY HOUSE ACTION

TALLAHASSEE, April 19.—The use of the strap on misdemeanor or county convicts was placed under a ban by the house today in the adoption of an amendment to the measure looking to the abolition of the county convict lease system. The amendment, offered by Representative Fred H. Davis of Leon, went through with but half of the struggle anticipated for it. Fifteen members voted against it, while Representative Taylor of Hillsboro took the floor against, asserting there are cases when prisoners cannot be handled, especially true of negroes, without the use of the whip. To send out the word to the convicts of the state that their guards cannot apply the lash, he said, would make them unmanageable.

The house started discussion of the convict bill at 11 o'clock under a special order of business, and was still with it when they adjourned at 1 o'clock. It is scheduled for another round tomorrow, with somewhat in prospect for those members who would make it possible for the small counties to turn their convicts over to the state road department for work on the roads.

The bill as it now stands, provides that counties having to few convicts to maintain a camp can lease them to a state county, but never to a private firm or individual. Representative Matthews of Bradford, sought to add an amendment providing that the convicts may be given to the road department, and in the vote that followed, considered another expression of feeling towards that department, it lost heavily on a standing vote. Later, however, it was decided to reconsider Mr. Matthews' amendment tomorrow.

Mr. Matthews explained that his amendment merely made it optional with the county commissioners to give their convicts to the road department but Mr. Weeks shouted that he didn't want to give the road department anything.
