

CARLTON INCREASES HIS LEAD

Court Action To Be Used To Block Sale Of Municipal Bonds

City Commission's Refusal To Accede To Receiver's Demands Brings Ultimatum

Shrafft Charges City With Showing Preference To Creditors

The proposed sale of $608,000 in refunding bonds which the city commission scheduled to dispose next Monday, to lay faced the prospect of being blocked by litigation. Notice to this effect was filed this afternoon with a commission by E. H. Ashcraft, receiver for the Seminole County Bank.

Following the commission's refusal to accede to the demands of the receiver, Ashcraft with reference to the bank claims, held by the bank against the city, the bank receiver announced that he had instructed his attorney to institute proceedings tomorrow morning, asking that validation of the proposed bonds be denied. This would be taken as the form of answer to the citation and to be supplemented by a petition for intervention with the proposed sale.

The proceedings will be brought in the name of the bank receiver in his official capacity and a receiver, he said. He will file to block the sale upon the ground that the bonds are invalid. As outlined by S. R. Dugan, attorney for Mr. Ashcraft, validity of the bonds is attacked by two allegations as follows:

1. That the city is seeking to validate bonds now past the expiration of state statutes.

2. That the city is issuing bonds to a trustee, which is declared to be in violation of the law.

The receiver said the city had had the First National Bank approximately $80,000 in claims similar to those held by him or third parties, which he represented, and which he proposed legal steps had been made all the more necessary because "I have learned recently that the city has charged our indebtedness on its books."

"We've been sidetracked and are going to stand for it unless some action is taken to adjust this matter," he continued.

Some action, which would have the effect of rescinding the city's repudiation of the bank's claims, the only thing that will avert a court battle, the receiver said in delivering his ultimatum.

The city's position with reference to the bank's claims was explained by city attorney George A. McCotter, who said they were not legal because the municipality had never received value for them. He said the question of their legality is now before the courts in the city's suit against the Chase National Bank.

It was also pointed out that as against the bank's claim of more than $700,000 the city had on deposit in the institution over a million dollars, which could be claimed as an offset.

WOMAN FLYER TAKES OFF ON ATLANTIC HOP

Miss Mabel Boll, Sometimes Called 'Queen Of Diamonds' Leaves Roosevelt Field For Maine To Begin Sea Flight

Plane Is One Used By Charles Levine

Sensation Is Caused When It Is Reported Destination Of Atlantic Aviators Is Rome

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 7.—(INS)—The Columbia stately monoplane which carried Charles Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine from here to Germany hopped off from here at 8:15 A. M. today for Old Orchard, Me., on the first leg of the second flight across the North Atlantic.

The plane carried Mrs. Mabel Boll, Oliver Le Bonfleur, of Montclair, N. J., her pilot and captain, Arthur Angles, formerly of Omaha, Neb., her navigator.

Levine, who seemed to be directing the flight, caused a sensation just before the start by announcing that the fliers would head for Rome after leaving Old Orchard. He said it was planned to have the ship follow the same route as the first flight, the one that skirted the southern tip of Greenland, France and the Pyrenees Mountains.

The plane has a gasoline capacity of 189 gallons, which is equal for 48 hours of flying. At this rate the craft could easily make Rome or Berlin, unless it encounters storms.

At Old Orchard there is a run way long enough to make it possible to take off successfully even with a load of more than 10,000 lbs. of gasoline. There the fliers will await favorable weather for the trans-Atlantic attempt.

Miss Boll, called "the Queen of Diamonds" because of her many gems she wears, is a woman who has been in the news since she became the first woman to cross the North Atlantic in an airplane. Miss Boll, awaiting favorable weather conditions in Tappan, N. Y., with the plane Friendship, is reported to have said that she will be the keynote of her flight and that she will make no premature start merely for the sake of trying to beat Miss Boll across the Atlantic.

The possibility of this meaning, however, today or tomorrow will see the two planes engaged in a spectacular race across the treacherous sea, an expense which has claimed the lives of many aerial adventurers.

Harry Thaw Seeks To Have Banlifted Against Entering

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(INS)—Harry Thaw, former "play boy" of Hollywood, passed the door of the Aquitania today impatiently awaiting an answer to telegram he had sent in an effort to have the ban of the British immigration authorities lifted. Thaw frequently walked to the rail and looked longingly at the row of ship and barn-like warehouses and pier sheds along the water front.

It is understood that he sent off a batch of messages protesting against the decision of the British Home Office not to allow him to land on English soil. Among those who have Thaw sent telegrams and cables, it was reported, were Home Secretary Sir William Johnson-Hicks, Secretary of State Kellogg and Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon. The Mellons and Thaw families were neighbors of Pittsburgh.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(INS)—The State Department has no interest whatever in England's action in barring Harry K. Thaw, officials said today. They pointed to England's perfect right to keep Thaw out, and no protest will be made. The entire affair will be ignored by the department, spokesmen indicated.

Pullman Porters To Begin Strike Friday

CHICAGO, June 7.—(INS)—Six thousand or more porters employed by the Pullman Co. throughout the country will go out on strike tomorrow at 1:00 P. M. unless the federal mediation board intervenes. Officials of the brotherhood of sleeping car porters announced here this afternoon.

The announcement was made by H. P. Webster, division organizer. His statement was made in reply to one issued by E. F. Curran, president of the Pullman Company, that if the strike were called the places of the porters would be filled with competent men. The men are seeking a wage rate of $150 per month and a 240 hour monthly working basis.

Mother Is Sent Hint Of Death By Kidnaper

NEW YORK, June 7.—(INS)—A cruel hint of death for her kidnapped daughter Graer, came in a letter today to Mrs. Della Budd, while the child's school mates were preparing to search a "haunted house" and detectives followed a vague clue that led to Chicago. Mrs. Budd was sitting in her home, when the death threat came.

Tampa Police Search For Ballot Raiders

TAMPA, Fla., June 7.—(INS)—Police and county officers today searched the city for three men who raided a polling place in Hyde Park and shot two election inspectors who resisted their efforts to steal the ballots cast in yesterday's primary.

Secretary Wilbur Makes Address To Graduating Class

ANNAPOLIS, June 7.—(INS)—The American Navy is constantly in the pink of fighting condition, Secretary of the Navy Wilbur told the graduating class at the U. S. Naval Academy today, in the annual commencement address.

A never-ending program of replacement and experimentation, carried on irrespective of the lack of prospect of war, is keeping the fleet on a par with those of all of the other world powers, he said, pointing out that over a billion and a quarter dollars had been expended in this work during the past four years.

Instead of waiting the Navy Department suggested and Congress acted upon the suggestion that the modernization be made as rapidly as reasonable and consistent regardless of the fact that there appeared no likelihood that these ships would be engaged in hostile operations before they became obsolete.

Wilbur reminded the new entrants of the great trust imposed in them by stressing the fact that only they and the members of the judiciary are given a life tenure in office. He told them they were graduating at a particular propitious time because "there never has been a time in peace when the people of the United States are so well disposed toward the Navy."

SECOND CHOICE VOTES TO PICK NEXT SHERIFF

Latest Tabulations Indicate Hand and McClelland To Be Running Closest Race For Important Seminole Office

Leonardy Wins His Battle With White

Canvassing Board Will Give Positive Returns On Some Of County Offices Friday

The second choice votes cast in the 11 precincts outside of Sanford will decide the race between Sheriff C. M. Hand and his closest opponent in the sheriff's race, J. F. McClelland, returns tabulated today indicated. Seminole County's canvassing board will decide the contest tomorrow morning when they count the second choice votes in the county precincts.

With first choice votes from all precincts in the county complete, the two candidates stand: Hand, 1,095; McClelland, 972. This gives Hand a lead of 123 first choice votes. Second choice votes in the two Sanford precincts, however, cut Hand's lead to 20 votes.

All other county contests are almost definitely settled. The closest race definitely decided so far ended with the defeat of W. E. White by a margin of 31 votes. John G. Leonardy won the race against White for prosecuting attorney with a total of 1,516 against White's 1,485.

The majority of the candidates who were leading in the early returns have continued to pile up larger advantages as the tabulating has progressed. Today only one precinct is partly incomplete. In the Welaka Building, the precinct No. 1 polling place, tabulation is still going on with a prospect of completion early tonight.

The canvassing board, composed of County Judge James G. Sharon, H. C. DuBoise, supervisor of registration, and J. H. Meisen, chairman of the board of county commissioners, will give positive returns on the sheriff's race and other county contests tomorrow. The board will meet in the office of the supervisor of registration on Park Avenue.

The candidates who have victory either assured or almost certain are: C. W. Entzinger and L. P. Hagan, for the legislature; Vance Douglas, for circuit court clerk; J. G. Sharon, for county judge; A. Vaughan, for tax assessor; T. W. Lawton, for superintendent of public instruction; John Meisch, Frank Evans and S. F. Long, for (Continued on Page 6)

Tampam Appears To Be Establishing Position As High Main In gubernatorial Race

Has 10,000 margin Over "Sid" Catts

However, Final Result Will Depend On The Second Choice Votes

TALLAHASSEE, June 7.—(INS)—Early this afternoon Carlton appeared to have established his position as the leader in the gubernatorial race. His plurality was slightly over 10,000 votes with nearly 190,000 already counted, and his nearest opponent was Hathaway who had nosed out Catts for second place.

The latest returns were:

Carlton	62,276
Hathaway	51,421
Catts	51,155
Taylor	24,255
Carson	2,671
Total	191,822

Although Carlton had a lead of over 10,000-it was admitted that his election would depend upon the second choice votes. Either of his leading opponents, in an establishment of second place position at the final count, might be declared the winner if he secured enough second choice votes to throw him ahead of Carlton.

Political observers were declaring today that there was little likelihood of this since Carlton is generally expected to pick considerably more second choice votes than Catts, and to be able to hold his own with Hathaway. Although the Hathaway headquarters had not conceded defeat, little hope was felt among his friends.

Ruth Bryan Owen still held a commanding position over her opponent in the congressional race. With 247 precincts complete out of 365 in the fourth district, Mrs. Owen had 34,088 votes and Joe Sears 24,046 votes. Reports stated that Mrs. Owen had lost Duval county by a slight majority but indications were that in the whole district her final lead would be something over 10,000 or 12,000 votes.

United States Senator Paul Tamm had been defeated by testing Governor John W. Martin by more than 15,000 majority. About 400 precincts remained to be counted today but these are not expected to change the result.

Returns were coming in slowly, and the complexion of the Florida delegation to the Houston convention may not be decided for another day. The delegation will be unimpaired, but those candidates who have favored Governor Al Smith were trailing the field.

G. B. Stockton, of Jacksonville, who has definitely declared himself against Governor Smith, led the field of candidates for Houston delegates in the returns. Meanwhile two women, Mrs. Howard Goulding of Pensacola and Mrs. Oscar Felkel, of St. Augustine, both of whom have declared for Smith, were trailing the other candidates.

Results from incomplete returns from all sections of the state, showed the following line-up in the other important offices:

For congress, third district: Tom A. Yen, 8,418; W. L. Wilson, 6,087; J. H. Smithwick, 4,789.

For congress, first district: H. J. Drane, 17,973; E. H. Wilson, 16,509; L. L. Bean, 3,003.

In the fourth district, Mrs. Owen had 20,762 against 21,208 in 228 precincts with Sears.

For Comptroller: Ernest Amos, 44,590; E. S. Martin, 9,217; Judge J. B. Stewart, 15,440.

For Commissioner of Agriculture: Nathan Mayo, 36,702; W. S. Sparkman, 17,672.

For Railroad Commissioner, group one: W. W. Phillips, 18,030; A. S. Walls, 21,623.

Railroad Commissioner, group two: F. K. Anderson, 7,623; J. O. Cassidy, 9,991; Mrs. E. L. Eason, 16,509; and Earl Hargrave, 8,853.

Deland, Fla., June 7.—(INS)—Twenty six precincts complete out of 29 give Carlton 2,123, Carson 195, Catts 1,058, Hathaway 664, and Taylor 1,185, Martin 825, and Trammell 2,491, Sears 4,568 and Sears 2,706.

Tampa's output of manufactured cigars peaked at 1,000,000 over March.

CLOSE COUNTS FEATURE RACE FOR SHERIFF

Lain of Geneva. The totals were: Long 1,013 and McLain 851.
E. T. Haines and L. J. Hartley were running close for the school board on the basis of meager returns. G. W. Culpepper was leading M. E. Dooley for the other position on the board.

Returns on the races for Constable and Justice of Peace in District Four were scant, making it difficult to compile a comprehensive report on either.
Seminole County has given Governor John W. Martin a good lead over Senator Park Trammell. The incomplete count gives Martin 1,217 and Trammell 947. Ruth Bryan Owen's lead over Congressman Sears was 327, with a vote as follows: Mrs. Owen 701 and Sears 374.
Comptroller Ernest Amos was leading on the basis of the incomplete tabulation. The vote was Amos 419, Martin 131, Stewart 340.

Alexander Vaughan, incumbent, led the field in the race for tax assessor, being nearly 400 votes ahead of J. D. Chittenden, who polled 679. E. H. Kilbee of Geneva with 416 was third.
Superintendent of Public Instruction T. W. Lawton appeared a certain winner over Mrs. Maybelle Maxwell. He had more than doubled the vote of his opponent and was reported to be well in the lead in precinct one. The incomplete total was Lawton 1,404 and Mrs. Maxwell 650.

John Meisch and Frank Evans experienced little difficulty in their races for re-election although Mr. Evans had two opponents and a vigorous fight was waged against his candidacy. Mr. Meisch beat D. H. C. Rabun 1,557 votes to 357. Mr. Evans polled 1,135 against 757 for Mr. Ballard and 174 for D. M. Douglass.

"Customer Ownership of Electrical Industry Safeguards Public Interests"

Says Minneapolis Journal

In more than one sense, the electric light and power industry is a public utility.

In point of fact, this industry is now publicly owned through the investments of some three million share holders, insurance companies, savings banks and public institutions in its securities.

Only because of the intrinsic soundness of electric light and power companies which the American principle of individual initiative has built, has this support been made possible.

Given the incentive which individual enterprise always provides, the power companies have carried their services to more than seven million homes, and effected economies in the production and transmission of service, which in turn have made for enduring financial structures and substantial reductions in rates to the public. Only as this principle of individual initiative is safeguarded in the future, can the public be assured that its interests, individually and collectively, in the ever-increasing solidity and usefulness of the electric light and power companies will be adequately protected.

"Power consolidation is on the cards. It is an economic necessity and will prove, as it has already begun to be, a blessing. The ownership of power securities is already widely distributed and the distribution goes on apace. When, and if greater power consolidation is ultimately effected, it will be owned by millions and will be operated in the public interest by private management." — Minneapolis Journal.

A GROUP OF BABIES IN HOME OF VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA

Major L. A. Odom of the Volunteers of America of Jacksonville, is in Sanford this week in the interest of rescue work. For a number of years, the Volunteers of America have conducted a state-wide institution at Jacksonville, wholly in the interest of wayward girls and babies; which is now computed to be one of the most successful institutions of its kind, throughout the South. A carefully kept record reveals the fact that 85 per cent of the girls passing through the home are permanently restored to lives of usefulness.

A remarkable feature of the work, is the never ceasing influx of babies being born in the home, which in most cases must be held by the organization for adoption; owing to the extreme youth of their mothers. This places the

Volunteers under a great moral and financial responsibility. Major Odom states that his organization is constantly seeking homes for the many wee bits of humanity being left through misfortune and necessity. Hence, an appeal is made to the citizens of Sanford who have not been blessed with any children, to adopt one or more of these homeless children. Major Odom is stopping at the Valdez Hotel and will be pleased to meet any one who may be interested in the adoption of a

AVIATION SHOWS PROVE INTEREST IN AIR PROJECTS

Elaborate Exhibitions Indicate A Rapidly Increasing Enthusiasm of General Public In Regard To Air World

BOSTON, June 7.—(INS)—A rapidly increasing interest in aviation is evidenced in New England by the elaborate flying shows planned in connection with the dedication of the enlarged Barnes Airport at Westfield and Holyoke, Mass., and the new airport at Lowell, Mass. The Barnes airport shows were held May 25 to 27, while that at Lowell will be held June 21 to 23.

First dedicated four years ago, but now enlarged to nearly four times its original size, the Barnes airport boasts of a modern and commodious hangar, just completed. Nearly 50 planes took part in the races and other events. One of the features was a small airplane contest.

At Lowell the new field is rapidly nearing completion and the feature of its dedication ceremonies will be the attendance of the Navy dirigible Los Angeles.

New Services
A new aviation company, the H. and H. Transportation Company, has been recently incorporated at Hartford, Conn., to conduct passenger service and air transportation work at the Hartford airport. An aviation show was held at Hartford a short time ago. The Colonial Air Transportation Company, in checking the air mail load out of and into New England when first organized in 1926, learned that twice as much was coming in as was being carried out. Now, however that condition has reversed itself, and they carry out of New England double the load that is regularly brought here.

First steps toward the establishment of two airports in Rhode Island, one at Island Park, Portsmouth and the other at Howland are under way.

Build Airports
At Springfield, Mass., options have been obtained on 350 acres of land in East Agawan, where according to present plans, a new airport suitable for use by both airplanes and dirigibles will be constructed.

If the site is approved by aviation authorities, financing of the purchase and the development of the property is expected to be ar-

Mystery Envelopes Name Of Miss Boll Tearing Ocean Hop

NEW YORK, June 7.—(INS)—at most fascinating of human antics. Mystery surrounds Mabel Boll who climbed into the sky and the headlines again today with her proposed airplane flight to Italy. Just who is Mabel Boll? Nobody seems to know exactly and she won't tell, preferring to be known as "the woman with the bracelets," the "Queen of Diamonds," or the $250,000-day bride. This much is known. She is a blonde, pretty woman, in her early thirties, with plenty of money, a magnificent apartment, and above all, $1,000,000 worth of diamonds all piled up and all her own. She first recalled the headlines several years ago when she stepped from a trans-Atlantic liner. She was content to sail in those days, wearing her $1,000,000 worth of diamonds. Mabel said they had been given to her by her husband, a wealthy South American whom she had married in Paris. They were his gifts, she explained, during the first four days of their marriage. Thus her first step was a $1,000,000-day bride, a simple matter of dividing $1,000,000 by four. Later she became the "mystery bride" for the husband failed to allow his bride across the ocean and she disappeared. Then Mabel began appearing at all the fashionable places both here and across the water. One night, at Cico's, in Paris, she dimmed the scintillating splendor of Peggy Hopkins Joyce, in her right hand she wore a 48 carat diamond, while on her left arm were 33 diamond-encrusted bracelets. They flashed and winked and glowed in the light and Peggy went back to her table. She grew the legend of the Queen of Diamonds, and the woman with the 33 bracelets.

Rogers Has 2 Plane Crashes In One Day

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 7.—(INS)—Will Rogers, nationally known humorist, was none the wiser today from his second airplane accident in one day. Rogers popped off from here this morning en route to Omaha. The plane he was flying in from Los Angeles sustained a slight accident yesterday while making a landing at Cheyenne, Wyo., west of here. One of the wheels was broken as it sank into a gopher hole. Rogers was uninjured. Another plane in which Rogers was a passenger turned over while attempting to land in Las Vegas, Nevada, early yesterday.

ROBBERY LOSS SLIGHT

DETROIT, June 7.—(INS)—Losses from robberies of freight transit in the United States last year were the smallest since 1920, according to a report today by the American Railway Association. The losses totalled $1,161,666 a decrease of almost $200,000.

Southern Cross To Depart Today Upon Third Leg Of Trip

Suva, Fiji Islands, June 8 (Friday)—(INS)—Having been delayed by difficulties in refueling, the Australian bionic monoplane Southern Cross probably will hop off for Brisbane sometime before noon today. The huge tri-motored Fokker is poised on Naselai beach, 16 miles from here, awaiting an opportune moment for starting the 700 mile jump over open waters. A stiff wind was blowing from the east as the final drums of petrol were emptied into the fuel tanks. The four men of the crew—Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith, C. T. P. Uhm, Harry Lyon and James Warner—had hoped to get away last night, but the refueling proceeded slowly and winds were unfavorable. They flew their giant steel bird from the improvised airport at Albert Park here to Naselai beach, yesterday noon. Hoping to be ready for the "hop" when low tide left them a mile straight away of clear white beach. The aviators were unable to land at Naselai on their first takeoff from Albert Park. They found the tide had not cleared sufficiently to insure a safe landing, so they circled the city until the beach was finally clear of surf.

They are now all set to go. A word from Commander Kingsford-Smith will set the huge plane booming out over the last great "watery hazard" of the expedition's 7,800-mile flight from California to Australia.

SAILOR WINS HUGE SUM

LONDON, June 7.—(INS)—Marten Webb is just an English sailor working on a coal ship, but he's also a millionaire, although he probably doesn't know it yet. His ship is due at Colombo, India today. When it arrives, Webb will learn that the ticket he drew at the Calcutta Sweepstakes for Felstead, the winner, is worth about $1,250,000, if he still has it in his possession.

Aviator Saves Plane From Having Crash

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 7.—(INS)—In pulling a Pacer monoplane out of a tail spin a fraction of a second before it crashed to the ground, Dean C. Smith, air mail pilot, saved the lives of his two passengers, one of them a woman, and emerged himself with a scratch on his nose at Hadley Field here. The plane was wrecked. The injured now in a hospital are: Mrs. Marion Moyer, of Plainfield, and Frank Di Filippo, of South Plainfield. The former suffered a fractured arm and leg and the man fractured ribs, according to physicians. Untroubled by his escape, Smith said he would take the air mail out as usual on his regular route to Chicago. According to spectators, the plane spun up about 3,000 feet on a pleasure jaunt, went into a tail spin which Smith managed to work it out of after a 1,000 foot drop. It immediately went into another, from which he swung it just before it hit the earth.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 6.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

GOD'S DELIGHT—The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord; but the prayer of the upright is his delight.—Prov. 15:8. PRAYER—We rejoice, O Lord, in the simplicity of that which pleases Thee.

Cor Cordium Thomas Hardy

In the Stratford Magazine—The solemn resonance of funeral march.

Throbs in deep organ tones, as down the nave, In twilight shadows from dim Gothic arch.

They bear the master-prophet to his grave; Where laid in hallowed ground,—his mind shall meet

Forever with old poets of glowing fame; Where pilgrims come from far with eager feet,

To kindle rushlights at the quickening flame. But here the heath, "under the greenwood tree",

Is hallowed ground; here simple peasants come; No poets, but sun and rain for company.

Buds and green fields of the dear Dorset home. And lingering twilight hush that softly falls—

Here rests his heart—and not in Abbey walls! Abbey walls!—By Charlotte Farrington Babcock.

There has just been concluded in Tampa an convention of podiatrists. This religion has put many a man back on his feet.

Senator Fletcher came all the way back from Washington to cast his vote. The Senator is a good citizen. Wonder if he voted for his neighbor or his brother senator.

With all due respect to the "leading candidate for governor" it would seem that a man who could build the roads would be able to ride on them.

A Jacksonville man dropped dead Tuesday as he started to mark his ballot. We had a peculiar feeling of exhaustion ourselves as we gazed at that thirty-five inch ballot.

Jim Carson entered the race with the primary object in mind of keeping Catts out of Tallahassee, and in this, we believe, he was eminently successful.

The Republican Nomination

What will Kansas City do? The eyes of the nation are upon it as the time arrives when the convention is less than a week off. What will Mellon do? Everyone is asking this question as the treasury secretary holds his peace confident in his control of enough delegates to ruin the Hoover boom.

The fun has started at Kansas City. Contests over delegates are being heard, those who will have prominent parts in the convention are on the scene and soon the delegations will be there in full force, with perhaps the farmers who are going to Kansas City to impress upon the party their demands for recognition.

With the convention itself but a week off there is more of it now than there has ever been since Mr. Coolidge announced he did not choose to run. Mr. Hoover, designated the leading candidate, is not as happy as he was a few weeks ago. The veto of the McNary-Haugen bill and West Virginia have dampened the spirits of his supporters and we can't say what now will happen.

Republicans, gleeful over the question the Democrats had to meet, have one of their own which may mean defeat in November. They must placate the farmers. They have seen through the fallacy of the tariff which is a detriment and not an aid to them. They wish the kind of governmental aid which will really help them. The denial of their plea throws the whole economic policy of the Republican party into the convention for a determination.

West Virginia hurt Mr. Hoover for the results in that state did not support the assertion that he is a great vote getter and that is what the Republicans must have. They cannot afford to go before the country without a popular man if they expect to defeat Governor Smith, whose nomination they think certain. At least they are proceeding upon the assumption that he is the man they will have to meet in November and they are forming their plans accordingly.

Mr. Hoover claims 531 1/2 votes but of this number 181 are in dispute which places the Hoover strength far from the 545 necessary to get the nomination. There is in the convention a sufficient block to prevent Mr. Hoover's nomination if it doesn't waver.

Something For The Colleges To Do

Writing in a recent issue of the Forum magazine, Professor Irwin Edman of Columbia university explains what he considers to be the character of the average college student. He admits that it is rare indeed to find a really bad character in college, but he regrets that it is almost equally rare to find any character at all.

"If it is the business of a college to do anything at all," he writes, "that business certainly includes the function of enabling students, before they have quit its precincts, to find some peace in their own souls and some steady adjustments to their world. It is very rare on a campus to find genuinely vicious or depraved characters. But it is equally rare to find character at all, in that definite sense in which one speaks of the character of a writer or a composer—character in the sense of a clear direction, a personality with a centre, edge, sturdiness, and depth. Indeed, one may say that in so far as the colleges have succeeded in enabling students to approach a unification and clarification of themselves—in so far, in a word, as they have enabled them to achieve a character—they have performed the chief of their functions."

The Columbia professor advances three ways in which the colleges might better do their jobs. They should take into account the mental strains and stresses of their students. They should add to their staffs trained psychiatrists, to study the mental make-up of the student. They should provide courses in morals which really touch modern problems.

However much we can disagree with Professor Edman that there are no characters in college, even if bad, we must admit that the colleges could improve their services to the student body by the suggestions he makes. Modern courses dealing with modern subjects, to take the place of other courses long past their usefulness, we believe, would be a particular improvement.

CONGRESS APPROPRIATES BILLIONS

The House of Representatives today passed a bill appropriating $4,770,000,000 for the fiscal year 1929. The bill provides for the payment of the national debt, for the support of the executive branch, for the support of the judicial branch, for the support of the legislative branch, for the support of the military and naval forces, for the support of the public health and welfare, for the support of the education, for the support of the agriculture, for the support of the commerce, for the support of the transportation, for the support of the communication, for the support of the public works, for the support of the public buildings, for the support of the public lands, for the support of the public parks, for the support of the public monuments, for the support of the public art, for the support of the public science, for the support of the public history, for the support of the public literature, for the support of the public music, for the support of the public drama, for the support of the public opera, for the support of the public ballet, for the support of the public theater, for the support of the public cinema, for the support of the public radio, for the support of the public television, for the support of the public telephone, for the support of the public telegraph, for the support of the public post, for the support of the public mail, for the support of the public express, for the support of the public freight, for the support of the public passenger, for the support of the public water, for the support of the public air, for the support of the public land, for the support of the public sea, for the support of the public sky, for the support of the public earth, for the support of the public sun, for the support of the public moon, for the support of the public stars, for the support of the public planets, for the support of the public galaxies, for the support of the public universe.

A PITABLE SPECTACLE

Senator Tom Hefflin made a pitiful spectacle of himself by his anti-Smith tirade. He did not deny that the anti-Smith propaganda was being spread by the Ku Klux Klan. He admitted that he had been misled by the anti-Smith propaganda.

ing "a part" of the 505,000 copies of his address, broadcast throughout America under his frank, as testified by a clerk of the government printing office.

He threw himself into his usual rage, at the "presumption" of the committee in questioning him about the transactions; and, in resenting the orderly processes of the committee in its fact-finding efforts, threw up the usual smoke-screen of wild and extravagant charges as to alleged enormous "Tammany funds"—fully $10,000,000 he guessed—which charges he also admitted, unwittingly perhaps, were gathered only from "rumors" and "talk".

It is unthinkable that a member of a great deliberative body like the United States senate should "sell" his trades—based as to facts, as he admitted—at "so much per", and it is equally as unthinkable that one who has been in congress as long as he has, and has posed as a "reformer" as long, should so flagrantly abuse the franking privilege, and then get them mad and abuse the committee.

tempt to create "prejudices" by wholly hearsay gossip, and that he did not for one moment of fact to sustain his fanciful charges, of one sort and another.

In the swing of the political pendulum, relentless persecution by the utterances of unsubstantiated charges reflecting upon character, not only of individuals but of supporting groups, has frequently turned the tide of public sympathy in favor of the persecuted.

Whether Senator Hefflin knows it or not, and whether his employing organizations know it or not, he is strengthening rather than weakening the cause he—a professional "reformer"—is seeking, for pay, to arrest.

...but what will it cost me to buy that car on time?"

When you buy a car for cash, you pay the factory price plus freight, war tax and delivery charges. When you buy on time, you pay an additional charge which includes fire and theft insurance. This additional amount is known as a finance charge.

The finance charges on General Motors cars are low because the General Motors Acceptance Corporation was organized to assure sound credit practice and low rates to those of its customers who prefer to purchase on time. The Acceptance Corporation operates the GMAC Plan of payment. The Plan is simple, fair and economical. Its large volume of business reduces costs. It is conducted to give you satisfaction and to keep your goodwill.

When you buy a General Motors car on the GMAC Plan, you pay the cash delivered price—plus only the low GMAC financing charge—nothing more!

The Plan is available only through General Motors dealers. Another reason for buying your next car—whether new or used—from a General Motors dealer.

Buy your next car on the GMAC Plan

The General Motors cars are Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Oakland, Buick, LaSalle and Cadillac. Together they make up a line of 86 models, ranging in price at the factory from $495 to $5500. They are the quality cars of the various car price classes.

Whatever make and model you choose—whether it be of the highest price, or the lowest—you will get a beautiful body (the closed bodies are by Fisher), 4-wheel brakes, a powerful engine, and a quality of design, materials and performance that only General Motors, by reason of its resources and its policy of continuous improvement, is in a position to give.

And the final touch in your satisfaction will come when you buy it on the GMAC Plan. The transaction will be in your interest. The rates will be low. And the dealer will not lose interest in you after the down payment is made.

Flood Administrator's Going Along Smooth For Nomination

Washington, June 7.—With the major carnage of the presidential nominations humanely accomplished in a series of minor operations in widely separated states during the last six months, politicians look for the principal butchering of blood vessels at Kansas City and Houston in the next few days in the feverish labor of platform building.

The great safety valve of American politics, celebrated British historian once called strenuous and inveterate respectability, is being used to check the two parties in the mechanism of the operations will be the same as has ruled in party conventions for fifty years, but it is traditional that every quadrennial witness new and unimagined manifestations of the accompanying fire and thunder.

Strong men faint when their plank for the compulsory teaching of Esperanto is rejected by the Committee on Resolutions. Nervous women grow calm and full of nose as they appeal for a Department of Maternity with a chief in the President's cabinet. A gentleman from Nebraska would abolish daylight saving by national fiat, and the professor from Peavitt College demands a strong debarment for the metric system in weights and measures.

Writing Platforms

The men who write the platforms are selected by the cause of the state delegations, during the two or three days immediately preceding the assembling of the convention. Each delegation designates one of its number for the Committee on Resolutions. The full committee is called together for organization the day the convention opens, with the chairman of the National Committee as its temporary presiding officer. The full committee selects its permanent chairman and then appoints a subcommittee, usually of not more than half a dozen members, to actually write the text of the platform.

The subcommittee conducts public hearings on as many controversial subjects as time will permit, generally two or three days. It is the stage of the operation which affords the greatest safety valve of the American political system. Many a cause finds a comely only at the party conventions. And many a cause is continued from generation by one day of triumph in every four years. The gold standard is abolished, freight rates are wiped out, education revitalized by the mere reading of a brief from the National Association to Do Something Now, Crime is checked with much pounding on the committee table and the nation given a new lease on life by the split infinitives of a plank advocating a garden in every backyard.

DEMOCRATS SITTING TIGHT

Will Decide Upon Their Own Platform When Republicans Have Disclosed What Planks They Will Use For Appeals

WASHINGTON, June 7.—(INS)—The Democrats are sitting tight while the Republicans stage their show at Kansas City. By the time the Democrats gather at Houston, June 26, the republican nominee will have been selected.

With but a few contests slated, the Democratic National Committee will not have to meet for the advance of the convention as the Republican committee did. So far only two contests, notices have been filed, with a probability, however, that a few others will come along later. There are contests in the Canal Zone delegation and in Philadelphia, where charges have been made of an alleged combination of Democratic and Vire Republican forces. This charge was first laid before the Senate Presidential Funds Committee.

Clem L. Shaver, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, now at his home in Fairmont, West Virginia, plans to leave tomorrow for Houston to confer with Jesse H. Jones and convention officers. He is not expected to leave until next week.

In the nomination race, the Democrats are faced by a situation somewhat analogous to that of the Republicans. Whereas in Kansas City it is Herbert Hoover against the field, in Houston it is Gov. Al Smith against a loosely knit combination of other candidates.

Smith is far out in front in pledged and instructed delegates, so far, in fact, that his supporters claim he has the nomination sewed up already. Rival candidates, and particularly Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, dispute this vigorously, and contend they will be able to shoo Smith.

Among Southern delegates unfavorable to Smith there is a discernible movement afoot to rally behind Rep. Correll Hull of Tennessee. It has gained some strength because of Reed's inability to defeat Smith in any presidential primary in which they have met. Senator Simmons, the veteran North Carolina leader, is drumming up Hull sentiment.

The Democrats, like the Republicans, are confronted with a sharp fight over the platform. The prohibition issue will figure prominently. The ardent drys want a prohibition plank of such sweeping character that it would obliterate Smith because of his wet views.

Former Altamonte Springs Marshall's Cleared Of Murder

C. M. Hogg, former Altamonte Springs marshal charged with the slaying of Joseph C. Cline last August, was acquitted last night by a jury in the circuit court after slightly more than 30 minutes' deliberation.

Motor Company Heals Raps Volstead

NEW YORK, June 7.—(INS)—Disaster, possibly even rebellion in the wake of prohibition, believes John S. Raskob, chairman of the finance committee of General Motors, who, despite affiliation with the national association against prohibition, touches liquor.

JEWELER ROBBED

CHICAGO, June 7.—(INS)—John Wohl, wealthy jeweler, was kidnapped by two bandits as he left his Oak Park home early today, forced to drive to his company's store on Madison Street, near the "world's busiest corner," amid his kidnappers, and watch them flee with thousands of dollars worth of gems.

FEDS WIN AGAIN FROM DAYTONA IN FINAL OF SERIES

Fast Double Plays Help To Stave Off Daytona Rally; Stapleton Hurts W. Ninth When He Gets Wild

Sanford copped the last games of the series with Daytona Beach here Wednesday afternoon by a count of 7 to 4. The game was featured by a number of double plays by the lords, which lent largely to their victory.

Stapleton pitched a good game until the last inning when he weakened and walked three men. Keith was put in the box and pulled the Fed's out of the hole with star hurling and a fast double play. Score:
