DEATH OF EVELYN MCLAIN

Evelyn McLain the thirteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McLain died last night at the Fernhill Lighthouse Hospital after an illness of several weeks. Evelyn was living at the McLain home at Geneva and was making preparations to go to school in Sanford when she was stricken with typhoid fever. She had almost recovered from the attack when she had a relapse and was taken to the hospital where all that medical skill and careful nursing could accomplish was done for her but it seemed that she was needed in heaven and she was taken hence from the sorrowing parents and relatives and friends. One of the saddest features about her death was the fact that her mother was in Wisconsin at the time of the daughter's death having gone there for her health and was unable to be home to see the little one before her death. The funeral will occur from the McLain home today at three o'clock P. M. Wright of Oweida officiating and interment to be made in Geneva cemetery. Parents and family have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

PEOPLE OF SEMINOLE CO. SEEM VERY APATHETIC OVER AMENDMENTS

SOME FINE TALKS

Were Made Pro and Con Regarding the Various Points of Re-apportionment Amendment

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce has disapproved the reapportionment amendment and several meetings seem to have disapproved it in this city but the mass meeting called the other night in the court house did not approve it or condemn it as there were many in favor of the amendment and many against it and anyone hearing the able arguments for and against it were probably at sea regarding the matter.

The meeting was called by the Woman's Club, the Woman's League of Voters and the Chamber of Commerce and the citizens generally to discuss this amendment as well as other amendments and matters political.

Hon. Forest Lake, as chairman of the meeting called it to order and stated the object of the call and introduced Hon. George A. DeLoates, who spoke on the affirmative, and gave some very good reasons why the reapportionment amendment was all right for all parts of the state and he made a most convincing talk in favor of the amendment as did Judge Dickinson and Attorney Fred Wilson. Hon. F. A. Douglass made a strong argument against the amendment and his argument was based upon the fact that the wording in regard to the apportionment of the senators was ambiguous and vague and no one could tell just where the new senators would go or how the apportionment was to be made.

Several others were called upon to throw additional light on the subject and they were in favor of the amendment and thought it was couched in the proper language. Both Mr. Lake and Judge Dickinson made a strong plea for an immediate state without much delay about a combination of similar terms and other matters that tended to keep the state divided in spirit.

Mrs. Blackman spoke on the idea of an educational board for the state that would come up at the next session of the legislature and gave some very good reasons why this board should be charged from a "home board" to one that more nearly represents the people.

It was the consensus of opinion of those present that another meeting should be called before the election in November to have a more thorough discussion of the reapportionment. It was regretted by all present that Hon. F. P. Forster was prevented from being present by illness. Mr. Forster was Seminole's representative in the last legislature and voted for the amendment and is still in favor of it as being a step forward in getting the state re-apportioned.

The meeting was not well attended probably on account of so many other entertainments and meetings being held at the same time and not even the Sanford Band could get a crowd at the court house although they played some very entrancing music before the meeting. It seems that the people are either apathetic over the reapportionment or they have made up their minds about how they are going to vote but the Herald predicts that about half the voters in the county will not know how to vote on the amendments at the general election in November.

I AM YOUR TOWN

Make of me what you will, I shall reflect you as clearly as a mirror throws back a candle beam.

If I am pleasing to the eye of the stranger within my gates, if I am such a sight as, having seen me, he will remember me all the days as a thing of beauty, the credit is yours.

Ambition and opportunity call some of my sons and daughters to high tasks and mighty privileges, to my greater honor and to my good repute in far places, but it is not chiefly those who are my strength. My strength is in those who remain, who are content with what I can offer them and with what they can offer me. It was the greatest of all Romans who said: "Better be first in a little Iberian village than be second in Rome."

I am more than wood and brick and stone, more even than flesh and blood—I am the composite of all who call me Home.

I am your town.

SEMINOLE LAUNDRY HERE

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chubbery will be glad to learn that they have started the Seminole Laundry and will hereafter operate their laundry business under that name. Heretofore they were the local agents for the Lakeland Steam Laundry but they have made new connection and expect to give quicker and better service under the new arrangements. They live in Sanford and have built up a fine business here in the Laundry line and will continue to have the same old stand in the Hynes block as heretofore and guarantee quick service and the best of work at all times.

STOKES HAD BIG FLORIDA BEEF

C. W. Stokes brought in a Florida beef yesterday from the farm of John Padgett across the lake that was a fine specimen for one that had not been stall fed but fed on the grass of the prairie. The beef weighed 766 pounds dressed which is going some for a Florida heifer. It is just another demonstration of the fact that Florida beef can be fattened if you know how.

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED THROUGHOUT ALL ITALY FACISTI ATTACK TOWNS

PUBLICITY TAX FLORIDA CITIES SHOW PROGRESS

ALSO SHOW THAT TAXES PER CAPITA ARE MUCH LOWER IN SANFORD

(By The Associated Press) BARTOW, Oct. 28.—It is generally known to the people of Florida that Florida cities and counties are raising larger sums through tax levies, for the purpose of advertising their advantages throughout the country but few have more than a hazy idea of the magnitude of the work. A committee from the Bartow Chamber of Commerce appeared before the city commission recently to urge a tax levy for the creation of an advertising fund and presented statistics to show what other Florida cities are doing. The smallest tax levy in the state, for advertising purposes, so far as is known here, is that of the city of Bradentown, an assessment of three quarters of a mill, the fund to be expended by the city and the Board of Trade jointly. The city of Clearwater appropriates $200,000 while Pinellas county appropriates $100,000. DeLand levies a tax of two mills for a total of $1,100,000 or $1.75 per capita. The money is spent by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce as publicity director. Tampa appropriates $18,000 for advertising. The city of Orlando for a year levies a tax of one mill for a total of $1,000,000. Jacksonville appropriates $200,000 through city and county. Fort Meade appropriates $20,000 from the city taxes on a two mill basis or $4.45 per capita. Lake county levies one and one half mills for a county advertising fund. The city of Leesburg is planning a two mill tax levy. Frostproof boarders are seeking a one mill levy. Miami's 1922 budget provides $92,000 for advertising at the municipal city hall. The city of Ocala appropriates $100,000 for advertising. The city of Panama City appropriates $200,000 through city and county. The city of Live Oak appropriates $500. South Jacksonville's municipal government appropriates $500. The city of Sebring has levied a one mill tax, the fund to be expended jointly by the city and the Board of Trade. St. Augustine raises $39,200 from a one mill tax, or $5.22 per capita. Sanford creates a fund of $9,500 with a two mill levy. Tampa raises a fund of $62,000 by a one mill levy each for city and county. West Palm Beach obtains $47,055 through city and county taxation on a basis of one mill each, or $3.09 per capita. St. Petersburg by taxation raises $71,420, or $4.46 per capita. The Jacksonville city council for this year has appropriated $25,000 for publicity work, to be expended by a committee of three councilmen. For the next year the council has appropriated $25,000 on condition that civic organizations will raise a like amount, the whole to be expended by the council committee.

SEVERAL OF THE BIG CEN- TERS HAVE BEEN CAP- TURED TODAY

DEPOSE OFFICIALS

And Assume Command, Meeting With No Opposition and No Resistance

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 28.—Martial law has been proclaimed in Italy to take effect throughout the entire country from noon today says a dispatch from Stefani agency, semi-officially Italian news organization. Special dispatches early today told of the beginning of concerted movement by Fascists against several towns. Florence, Pisa, Cremona, and other chief centers declared to have been taken over by Fascist forces who deposed state authorities and assumed command. Apparently, according to these advices, there was no resistance. Communication with all parts of the country is badly disorganized.

GOVERNMENT FAILS IN MOVE CLEAR MORSE

JUDGE REFUSES TO ENTERTAIN SUCH A MOTION

(By The Associated Press) ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 28.—Attempts by counsel for the government to withdraw all charges of conspiracy and fraud laid against Charles W. Morse, New York shipbuilder and his various companies in the case now in progress here failed yesterday when Judge Waddill in the federal court for the eastern Virginia district refused to entertain the motion. The court upheld attorneys for the companies in their contention that it would be most unfair to their clients to amend the bill so drastically at this day after the charges had been so widely published. The government's motion was submitted by former Senator Edgar T. Brackett, acting as special assistant to Attorney General Daugherty in the case against the Morse companies. His action created a surprise in the crowded court room which had listened throughout the day to dull testimony regarding the financial condition of the associated companies and details of the contracts given some of them by the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

Fine weather after the big day. But today should be the big trading day after all.

It showed what advertising will do for the Sanford merchants. Get the band out oftener and visit the neighboring cities.

Lloyd George says "If you listen to the never do's you will never get anything done." You are right, little one. Sanford is not listening to them any longer.

Another eye witness to the Hall Mills murder has come up this week and gets first page notice in all the daily papers. There is yet time for at least 5,000 more eye witnesses to make their appearance.

Men in Tallahassee 30 days pasting worthless checks and asked the judge to give him at least ten years in the penitentiary as he was tired of buffering the crime world.

The east coast road from Orlando to the coast will be called the "Honey Highway." A well deserved compliment to a man who in his life time worked as hard and accomplished as much for good roads as any man in his county.

Despatches say that Burleson is in accord with Daniels over the late Franklin Lane's letters over the late letter as to was formerly in the "letter business."

Washington turned out yesterday to observe the naval holiday but aside from being a royal holiday it was also a tribute to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt.

The Herald has been commended upon the stand against the liquor sellers and especially the selling to young boys and the young boys hanging in police court from time to time.

The list of qualified voters who will be able to vote in the general election in November appears in this issue of the Daily Herald.

THE PASSING OF THE WEEKLY

With this week the Daytona Halifax Journal, the weekly edition of the Journal, goes out of existence.

The Daytona Halifax Journal was established just fifty years ago, in 1872. It is the oldest newspaper on the Florida East Coast.

As a historical record, many copies of the first edition of the Halifax Journal are still in existence.

More and more people are getting away from the weekly newspaper and demanding the daily with its up to the minute news and advertising.

FROM OTHER SANCTUMS

MANY BAITS TO CATCH "SUCKERS"

The United States now holds 800 persons under arrest charged with the perpetration of frauds through the mails, according to a statement made recently by John H. Edwards.

We in Florida have plenty of all strata every winter of the success of these swindlers, for popular letters where men with money congregated make the favorite hunting ground of these seekers after easy money.

Not all the swindler, however, are so elaborate in their methods. Mr. Edwards told the New Orleans meeting of others conducted through the mails with great success and profit.

Another firm advertised a drink with a "kick" in it, and sent the following recipe: "Procure a gallon of water and put a grasshopper in it."

LIFE AS IT IS

A dear old lady who is a real good friend of the Star-Telegram asked for an explanation yesterday as to why so much prominence is given not only in the Star-Telegram but in almost every newspaper in the country.

The trouble is that the hideous side seems to be ever uppermost and that too little attention is paid to the brighter things that tend to equalize the balance between good and evil.

Regardless of the fact that people say they don't want to read of the murders, scandals and bitter and bloody transactions that fill the universe, yet it is the public demand and the people who crave this desire for such publicity that forces the newspapers to print it.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Personal security, property rights and human safety depend upon law-enforcement. Law-enforcement depends upon public officials.

It is an unexaggerated fact that a man can take his family and establish his home in the wild regions of Africa in greater safety than in a great American city, where millions are spent by the tax-paying public for law-enforcement.

There are but two places where people can provide themselves with protection against these twin evils. At the ballot-box and in the jury-box.

and incapable officers. There is no virtue in voting for party principles when those principles are to be placed in the hands of a dishonest and incapable man.

In the jury box how many a man lifts his hand to high heaven and in the name of his God swears he will decide a case according to the law and the evidence.

Just as thousands of dishonest and corrupt men go into public office every year because a careless public allows itself to be swayed by prejudice and false testimony.

It can be said, with all assurance of staying within the bounds of truth, that the courts themselves, as an institution, have kept freer from the corroding influences of sickly sentimentality and official corruption than any other civil institution.

But such one will be in public office as we put there. If we encourage honest men to seek public office by voting for them, law-enforcement will be the rule instead of the exception.

BILLION DOLLAR BUG

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Oct. 28. In view of the sensational reports relative to conditions in the South, especially due to the boll weevil, Roger W. Babson has been asked to make an analysis of the Southern situation as it now appears from the viewpoint of a statistician.

"In the so-called 'cotton belt,' which stretches across many of the Southern states, is produced 60 per cent of the world's supply of cotton. In fact, this cotton crop has been so important that the South has practically given its entire attention to cotton and thus become a 'one crop' country.

The boll-weevil is now destroying a large percentage of this cotton crop, so that in many sections only one bale of cotton is gathered where two were originally produced.

"Secondly, the South, which has been a 'one crop' country, will be forced to raise other crops and become at least self-supporting.

With the many channels of publicity; with the many public speakers that campaign the country, there is no valid excuse for voting for dishonest

"The third factor to consider is that the South will steadily increase its manufacture of cotton into finished goods. Already it is shipping large quantities of these manufactured cotton goods into the northern states.

"A fourth factor is that the southern farmers are employing less labor on their farms than under previous conditions, many of them reducing labor one-half.

"Fifth and finally, the South is realizing its need of effort and struggle in order to hold its economic position. The boll-weevil is forcing upon it a new economic condition which it is now bravely struggling to meet.

Thus, as the South more fully realizes and grasps the opportunities which it holds, it will grow and develop rapidly into commercial importance.

The Babsonchart index dropped off one point this week, standing now at 4 per cent below normal. This recession, however, has no special significance. Further advance should be expected during the coming month.

Sanford Swamps Orlando Makes it Four Strait Wins

OUT-GENERATED, OUT-PLAYED AND OUT-WEIGHTED WERE CAUSES OF THE DOWNFALL OF ORLANDO

Before a record-breaking foot ball crowd the local high school eleven of the mighty Orlando High School came back to their lair with an overwhelming score of 33 to 0. This victory over Orlando was the worst beating administered to any eleven to date Sanford this season.

Orlando, with many cars filled with devoted fans, began arriving in the city shortly after noon yesterday. With the defeat administered Sanford still in mind, they were not expecting any trouble in repeating the feat.

But as the smoke of battle gradually cleared away, to their surprise they found that they were not only out-weighted, but out-played as well. From the first kick-off until the last whistle the result was never in doubt. The Tigers never even threatened, with one exception, and then they were so far behind that one touch down would have been lost on the sheet. And this one chance at touch down slipped away from them when they found that the Sanford line was like the Rock of Gibraltar, and their repeated efforts to push the ball over from the eight-yard line went for naught. After that Sanford would not let them get within striking distance of the goal.

To get the devil his dues we must admit that Orlando did game. They fought every inch of the way and were credit for the exceptionally hard game they put up at all stages. The fact would have been even more disastrous for them.

The game itself was a clean brand of foot ball, with the possible exception of one or two little shady plays pulled by Orlando, which resulted in some of Sanford's players getting hurt. Witnesses state that there was no foul play for either one of these players getting hurt when they did, but as many, the game was as clean as any game played on the local grounds this season. Sanford played such a clean game of foot ball that not once was time taken out for an injured Orlando player.

Sanford scored in every period and it is hard to state who the outstanding star of yesterday's game is. It looked like the team as a whole were stars. Every man playing his position, on his toes with his head up all the time. The Moye brothers made the seven points in the first quarter, Ed carrying the ball over the 20 yard line, carrying the ball over the 20 yard line, and Bill kicking goal, and we might mention here that this try for the extra point was carried through successfully for the first time this season. In the second period, with the ball on their five yard line, Orlando tried a kick, said kick being blocked by Vic McLaulin, who proceeded to fall on the ball after it rolled back of the goal, for a touch down. Bill Moye again kicked goal. It was at this time that the aerial work of the locals began taking effect, and on a beautiful forward pass, Stone secured the ball, on the seventy yard line, with open field ahead, and carried it across for the third touchdown.

In the third quarter, McLucas, playing his usual good game, got in the way and intercepted one of Orlando's forward passes and carried the ball forty yards for the fourth touchdown of the game. The fifth and last touch down came in the last period, when Peck, who had been hitting the line like a ton of rocks, found a big hole in Orlando's line and carried the ball over from the fifteen yard line.

And as we said before, Orlando had no chance whatever yesterday, and just what their alibi might be we haven't heard. It can't be because Sanford had better players this year than last, because it was exactly the same line up as last season, with the exception of Ed Moye and Sweeney, and both these boys were in but a part of the game. Sweeney being carried off after getting hurt and Moye coming out to let Peck go in.

We would state that the only possible alibi that the Tigers could have is Coach Wilkinson. And we would state here that "we told you so" when we said that once the Chamber of Commerce, the other civic organizations and the general public got behind our boys they would make smoke fly. And results show for themselves. Without this help the boys would be playing as they did in years past, with no opportunity of showing just what kind of real young manhood there is in Sanford.

And our hats are off to the whole team this morning, not any one in particular, but the whole darn bunch, for the way they have accepted Coach Wilkinson's instructions and the way they have put it into practice. Our hats are off to Coach Wilkinson for the way he is handling the boys and our hats are off to the whole darn gang that is backing the boys and the coach up, and here's hoping that the same interest will prevail throughout the years to come, not only in football but all high school athletics.

The score by periods follows:
Sanford 7 13 6 7 33
Orlando 0 0 0 0 0
Sanford scoring touchdowns: Ed Moye, McLaulin, Stone, McLucas and Peck. Kicked goal, Bill Moye 2, McLucas.

And again, "we told you so." And Orlando was turned back.

Or should we say that they were either thrown or pushed back. Sanford will give Orlando another try this season, if she thinks she can stand up to it.

Ed Moye got the five dollar prize given by Lloyd Shoe store.

Vic McLaulin's nose was pushed around on the side of his face again. We would suggest that Vic have his nose nailed in place.

But a sore nose doesn't keep Vic from getting into every play.

Flowers, McAlexander and the rest of the line were hard rocks yesterday. Ask Orlando if you don't believe it.

And did you notice how Lee Peck hunted out the holes in the line. Lee goes through with head up and takes advantage of weak spots.

Orlando has little to say about the defeat yesterday. But there wasn't much they could say except that Sanford had the easiest time of their lives yesterday.

Bowling league opens Monday night. Come out and see the first game. Everybody welcome and no admission charged.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

"Her Gilded Cage" was all that was shown last night.

Capacity house at both performance times last night.

And the rest of Sanford will see it at the afternoon and night performances today.

Pathe Review and Fox News with an exceptionally good feature picture like "Her Gilded Cage" makes up one good program, and the last chance to see it at the Princess is tonight.

"The Term Comedian" coming Monday, is the story of a man who falls in love with the daughter of an actress, formerly his mistress.

The play and the star that thousands of admirers have longed to see in a motion picture is George Arliss in "Diarrhoe" coming to the Princess Tuesday night with a South Pollard comedy.

The performance started at 7:30 sharp last night and lasted until 10:00 o'clock. Any program of pictures that holds an audience this long without tiring them must be extra good. "Her Gilded Cage" is a picture that will do that.

Look next week programme over. Some good ones billed for next week. "Nice People" next Friday and Saturday is one of the features.

GLORIA SWANSON CHARMING

Gloria Swanson is charming in her latest Paramount picture "Her Gilded Cage," which is now on view at the Princess theatre. She has an excellent role of which she makes the most and her support is admirable. The picture is thrilling and exerts a powerful appeal. The last time to night.

British Election May Bring on Coalition Govt.

London Papers Are Unable to Follow The Campaign

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 28.—The election campaign has now reached a stage where there is such a number of political speeches and pronouncements that it is becoming almost a physical impossibility for the newspapers either to report or follow them.

Herbert H. Asquith, former premier, and Winston Spencer Churchill, colonial secretary in the Lloyd George cabinet, were the two principal figures engaging attention today. Mr. Asquith, who had been rather slow in getting into action delivered his first speech at Peterborough. His address was devoted chiefly to criticizing the coalition government's shortcomings and the new Bonar Law Ministry. The speaker described the two wings of the coalition, hitherto in the same stable, as now separated, but still clinging wistfully over the temporary parting separating them.

Mr. Churchill is still confined to bed in consequence of an operation for appendicitis and although recovering he has had to entrust his campaign in London to others. Today issued a manifesto, containing a declaration that a centre party, such as his chief David Lloyd George, is credited with aspiring to create, is, in his opinion, needless.

Mr. Churchill declares himself a liberal and free trader, but says he is willing to cooperate with progressive unionists elements if this should be necessary to counteract what he terms the predatory and offensive policy of the socialist Labor party. He said there was virtually no difference in the Bonar Law program and that of the coalition and that he still prepared to cooperate with Bonar Law.

One of the most interesting features of the situation continues to be the possibility of the election bringing forth another coalition government, but under a conservative premier. "Coalition," as it is called, seems to be mentioned at in most of the addresses of the conservative and Liberal Unionist speakers and although there is still no open or official arrangement, there is evident no clear disposition on both sides for co-operation.

Confusion in party boundaries is still characteristic of the campaign and various tenders of support and cooperation give an air of unreality to the struggle as it affects the parties. Composing the coalition, the Labor party and the Asquithian Liberals being the only parties standing on Independent platforms. It is stated that Lord Birkenhead, former lord high chancellor, and Mr. Chamberlain will appear on the same platform with Mr. Lloyd George at a demonstration in Queens Hall, London, next Friday. Lord Robert Cecil has finally announced his intention to remain an independent conservative. In an interview, Lord Robert says he is profoundly relieved at the exit of Mr. Lloyd George and regards a change in government as a blessing. He adds that he is a personal friend and great admirer of Bonar Law, and that he intends to support him and his government so long as it pursues a policy he can approve.

Big Berean Banquet Brotherhood Class of The Baptist Church

An event of local interest was the banquet held by the Big Berean Brotherhood Thursday evening in the dining room of the First Baptist Church. The occasion of this affair was to stimulate class spirit, help to break down any existing barriers and plan for a greater work that is being undertaken by the class. All of thirty people attending were unanimous in declaring it one of the most successful meetings of a Sunday School class they ever attended. The program was carried with a number of talks by members of the class and a vocal number by Miss Gallagher, Mrs. Detorsey, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Boyd and Mr. Twilley, they with Mrs. Hansell and Sup't. Jno. D. Jenkins were honor guests at the dinner. Mr. Jenkins talked interestingly to the class as well as the teacher, Dr. King, and their timely thoughts together with the singing of P. M. Boyd added to the hour of enjoyment. The dinner served consisted of many good things and was prepared by Mrs. A. J. Lossing in her home like style of cooking and the appreciation of those present was expressed. Mrs. Lossing was ably assisted by Moses Whittle, Williams, Steele and Mrs. Parker.

The Big Berean Brotherhood are going after the young men of the city and this banquet is only one of the things planned for the treat of those who attend the class.

WHAT OSTEOPATHY IS

The science of Osteopathy primarily depends for its success upon a most thorough and comprehensive study of the anatomy of the human body. Osteopathy has for its object the maintenance of complete circuit of the motor, sensory and sympathetic nerves to and from all the organs and tissues and restoration of that harmonious action which must ensue when all parts are unobstructed by any cause, thus permitting a perfect freedom of all fluids, forces and substances pertaining to life.

"In the application of this knowledge to the healing art is where the School of Osteopathy differs from its predecessors. Osteopathy retains the knowledge gained in the medical world, but believes that by a thorough understanding of the mechanism of the human system, on an anatomical, physiological and hygienic basis, diseases can be prevented or controlled in an exact and definite manner by the application of principles peculiar to the Osteopathic practice.

The human system is a perfect organism - a universe within itself - and being complete has the recuperative power of nature within it. The first step in Osteopathic attainment is a most exhaustive knowledge of anatomical structures and the physiological functions of the human body. Then is observed the fact that man is a complete being, capable of performing his mental and physical acts when in health, that disease is simply evidence of disorder, and to restore health necessitates a correction of disease. Vital functions are conditioned and amendable to the structural laws of physics. This fact determines the value of the science of Osteopathy.

its practicalness. Herein is contained the essence of the art of Osteopathy. In the restoration of health the Osteopath works entirely in harmony with nature, correcting disorder of mind and body upon a physical basis through the application of his knowledge of the laws and principles of the human body, thereby looking upon disease as some disorder of the normal functions of the body. LOYD SHOE STORE GIVES PRIZE

Sherman Lloyd of the Lloyd Shoe Store, the sole agent for the celebrated "which" shoe, again comes into the limelight by giving a five dollar prize to the boy making the first hole in a shoe during a game. Ed Stone was the lucky one and he takes advantage of Lloyd's generosity by calling around this morning and getting five dollars worth of anything handled in this fine shoe store.

Mr. Lloyd is to be commended on this stunt as it is little things like this that make the boys play harder and show more interest and little prizes like this by the local merchants this season will stimulate more interest in all athletic events.

WARNING TO BOYS AND PARENTS

Next Tuesday is Hallowe'en and it is always an occasion of much merriment on the part of the young and old alike, which is perfectly legitimate and in which all cheer. But in late years the boys have become entirely too destructive to property in their method of fun making, so much so that they have entered our school buildings, throwing the books of the students and those contained in the school library better and skelter and thereby effecting much damage to them, have broken many windows in the school buildings and have badly injured many of the desks therein, all of which is wanton mischief and should be severely punished. They have torn down business signs and thrown them about the streets, have upset the flowers and ferns on the lawns of many homes and seriously injured them, besides breaking many pots and tubs containing them, and in many minor ways have effected much serious mischief which has caused considerable loss to the owners. Therefore as mayor of the city I feel it my duty to issue a kindly warning to all the boys of our city against such forms of mischief, and to the parents that they both carefully instruct their children against such forms of amusement, and if possible keep them from such associations as would likely to engage them.

I want to assure the boys that I am with them in all innocent fun, and will myself join them in it, but we must all know that we never have the right to appropriate property in order to have amusement.

Orlando Officer Had Stolen Ring in Overcoat Pocket

But Negro Thief Had Placed It There In Hiding

(By The Associated Press) ORLANDO, Oct. 28 - A valuable diamond ring, stolen nearly a year ago, was discovered with which two negroes were arrested at the time, has been found in the overcoat pocket of sergeant Bozarth, of the local police department. The ring valued at $500 was owned by Mrs. W. Swayne and then negroes who had been employed in packing furniture at the Swayne home were taken in charge on suspicion.

The police failed to discover evidence that would connect the blacks with the theft and they were liberated and the case forgotten.

Sergeant Bozarth a few days ago recovered from a long siege of dengue fever and the weather being a little chilly unpacked his overcoat from the mothballs preparatory to having it put in shape for use. Before sending the coat to a pressing shop he explored the pockets and in one of them found a diamond ring valued at $500.

How it got there was easily explained. It was recalled that when the two negroes arrested as suspects were brought to police headquarters for examination they were stood with their backs to a wall. Back of them were hanging the overcoats and raincoats of several officers. One of them, without the shadow of a doubt, Bozarth believed, was guilty of the theft, and in flight to headquarters with the ring in his person he promptly set about to get rid of it before he was searched. The overcoat pocket was convenient and he dropped the ring into it.

Unearth Ancient Roman Barge. Important archeological discoveries have been made at Castello di Porto near Rome. The hull of an enormous Roman barge has been excavated near a small lake. It is presumably a relic of a mercantile fleet which was used to ship wheat from Sicily to Rome, before Castello di Porto shipped by the Tiber. The hull is like a similar relic of Nero's fleet at lovely Lake Nemi. Excavations are proceeding and other discoveries are expected.
