Grand jury indicts alleged killer

The Seminole County Grand Jury issued a first-degree premeditated murder indictment today against Darnita Adams, 42, in connection with the May 18 death of Robert G. Rabun, 41, said Assistant State Attorney Pat Whitaker.

Adams has been held in the Seminole County Jail since her arrest May 21 for grand theft of a motor vehicle, a truck that belonged to Rabun. Seminole County deputies arrested Adams for Rabun's murder on May 23. The truck was discovered missing after a relative found Rabun dead in his home at 755 St. Joseph's Court, Lake Monroe.

The jury heard from three witnesses: a Seminole County deputy sheriff, the Volusia County Medical Examiner, and a Seminole County Sheriff's Office crime scene technician.

Commission offers $150,000 incentive

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Seminole County Commission voted 4-1 Tuesday to award Florida Extruders International, Inc., a $150,000 incentive package to expand its manufacturing company in Sanford.

"We look forward to the expansion," said Seminole County Chairman Daryl McLain. The company, which manufactures extruded aluminum products for outdoor pool enclosures, screened porches and window frames, has been located in Sanford for more than 15 years. The group recently decided to relocate in order to expand the facility. "We're ecstatic about the Commission ruling," said Stephen Little, director of safety and regulatory compliance at Florida Extruders International, Inc.

In order to assist Commission in coming to a decision, the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council presented an analysis of the effects the project would have on Seminole County and the surrounding areas. The report took into account the expansion construction, new employment, additional business, and the direct and indirect impacts of the project.

According to the report, the expansion and creation of new jobs will generate $336 million in additional personal income for Seminole County households throughout the next seven years.

However, not all commissioners were in agreement about the benefits of the project. "While I welcome manufacturing compenies into the county, any business can expand, including mine, without negotiating a handout of government funds," said Commissioner Grant Maloy, who owns a foliage nursery in Seminole County and voted against the incentive package. "With all the infrastructure needs the county has, I think it [spending money on incentive packages] becomes a bigger issue as the budget gets tighter."

"How can we justify this spending when fundamental items are not being satisfied," he added.

Tomorrow's leaders experience American way of life

By Sarah Scoles

WINTER PARK — The future lies in the hands of today's youth. To affect tomorrow, one must affect the tomorrow's leaders. That is the philosophy of Bassem Chaaban and the rest of the staff at the World of Knowledge Foundation.

The World of Knowledge Foundation is a nonprofit organization focusing on youth scholarship. The major program of the foundation is called FLEX, which stands for Future Leaders Exchange.

Because of the breakup of the Soviet Union in 1991, there are many newly independent nations with receptive governments. Congressman Bill Bradley wanted to foster friendship between the United States and these nations, so in 1992 he proposed FLEX.

Sponsored by the State Department and evaluated annually in Congress, FLEX allows youth from countries in the former Soviet Union to study in the United States for a school year.

"The purpose of FLEX is essentially to bridge the gap of cultural divide," said Chaaban, the international exchange coordinator for this region.

While here, students must complete thirty hours of community service. They have recently participated in Youth Service Day 2003 and have volunteered with Habitat for Humanity and the Christian Sharing Center.

Approximately fifteen students have been involved in FLEX since its inception in this area. This year, there were three students at Lake Mary High School and one student at each Lyman High School, Lake Brantley High School, and Seminole High School.

A Hungarian student was a kayaker and had tried out for the Olympics but was injured and unable to be on the team. During his stay in the United States, he was placed with a family who owns a kayaking business. A Japanese student stayed with a Lake Mary music teacher and played piano in Arts Alive and sang with Lake Mary's choir in a Disney presentation.

Pedestrians have a new way to cross Interstate 4.

The $3.6 million Seminole-Wekiva Trail I-4 Overpass officially opened Monday with a ribbon cutting ceremony. The 373-foot long, cable-stayed suspension bridge, located just south of County Road 46A, connects the Seminole-Wekiva Trail west of I-4 to the Lake Mary-Rinehart Road Trail east of the interstate.

"I refer to this as the nature trails' missing link," state Rep. John Mica said. "Local leaders, the community and many others made this project possible."

During the ceremony, Mica honored Bill Taylor, who recently received the American Hiking Society's Volunteer of the Year Award for the state of Florida. During the past 10 years, Taylor has been trail coordinator for the Halifax-St. Johns Chapter of the Florida Trail Association and has spent thousands of hours leading maintenance hikes and planning for trail maintenance projects.

City accepts Dixon's resignation

By Jamie J. Anderson-Potter

SANFORD — Sanford City Commission voted unanimously Monday to accept the terms of Roger Dixon's resignation as the city's interim city manager and deputy city manager.

"I've talked with Roger a couple of times about his resignation," said Commissioner Randy Jones. "I wish him all the best in government work or the private sector. His assets of energy and enthusiasm will serve him well."

Commission agreed to grant Dixon three months severance pay, as requested in his resignation letter, at the higher salary of $90,000 he was being paid as the interim city manager instead of the $75,000 he earned as deputy city manager. According to his contract, the city was only obligated to pay him a 90-day salary if the city terminated his employment without cause, not if he resigns. Dixon asked the city to honor that clause even though he resigned.

Dixon's resignation comes amid an allegation that he made sexually-related comments to a subordinate, Paula Freytes-Torres. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) sent a letter to the city indicating there was "reasonable cause to believe" Freytes-Torres. When the EEOC letter was made public two weeks ago, Dixon had stated he had no intentions of resigning. He said he changed his mind as more attention was focused on the allegation.

"[The sexual harassment complaint] put the city commission in a bad space politically," Dixon said. "It was affecting the way Sanford was viewed by other cities in the county and people who did business with the city."

Dixon said while the allegations were part of his reason for resigning, a larger factor was the change in city leadership. Dixon applied for the vacant city manager's position, but did not make the list of eight finalists.

"I realized when I didn't make the short list for city manager that the city was moving in a different direction," Dixon said. "For me to stay on even as deputy city manager would have been a challenge with the new city manager coming in because I'm viewed as being in the [former city manager

Lake Mary business specializes in cuts for kids

Sarah Scoles

LAKE MARY — A salon seems an unlikely place to see Barbie, a Jeep, and a Mercedes-Benz. However, at the new Kids' Cuts in Lake Mary, this is nothing unusual.

Kids' Cuts is the first and only full service salon for children. The grand opening was held on Saturday, May 31. Families were entertained by the Radio Disney DJ, who brought his broadcasting van. Colorful decorations filled the building, and upbeat music filled the air.

According to manager Holly Monahan, decor is central to the success of Kids' Cuts. From the Barbie and Jeep chairs to the decorations on the walls, everything is child-friendly and geared toward making a haircut a memorable and exciting experience.

A regular haircut is $15, and baby's first haircut with a photo included is only $20. Haircuts, however, are just the beginning. Kids' Cuts also specializes in preparation for pageants, proms, and dance recitals.

Makeovers are an additional favorite, especially for those interested in "glamour girl" birthday parties. Included in these parties are makeovers, glamour shots, and a fashion show. With all these services, there is something for everyone.

"If you have kids, they will love Kids' Cuts," stated Monahan. "Every day is a day for children. You really have to come see for yourself."

Kids' Cuts is located at 2894 W. Lake Mary Blvd. The office can be reached at 407-328-1120.

Stylist Andrea Abruzzino, with help from her son Garrett, show off the various chairs and amenities for children at Lake Mary's new Kids' Cuts.

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Expectant mom doesn't expect much from baby's father

DEAR ABBY: I am 23, enjoy a good job working for two lawyers, and plan to go back to school. I am also four months pregnant with "Kevin's" baby. In the beginning, he promised he'd support me and the baby and help us every step of the way. Kevin even promised my mother he'd finally get a job.

Dear Abby

Well, I constantly have to remind Kevin about the promises he made. He finally admitted that he doesn't want to work — period. He plans to take side jobs here and there and make money under the table, and says I shouldn't expect to change him. I asked him the other day why he promised he'd help me in the first place. His reply: "You put me on the spot." With this baby on the way, I need to set goals and move forward. Is there anything I can do to make Kevin understand that he HAS to get a real job? Or should I accept that I'll be playing the parenthood role solo?

MOM-TO-BE IN PHOENIX

DEAR MOM-TO-BE: It is clear from your letter that unless he is compelled by law, Kevin is going to flake out on his responsibilities, and he will be a poor role model for your baby. You are working for two lawyers. I urge you to discuss with them your options for convincing Kevin to act like a man. They are familiar with Arizona law, and I'm sure they'll be happy to help.

DEAR ABBY: What is an "emotional affair"? An office worker hinted to me that my husband is having one with a member of his staff. Does it lead to the ultimate affair?

NEEDS TO KNOW IN LAS VEGAS

DEAR NEEDS TO KNOW: An emotional affair is a relationship in which the two people have a special kinship. It is very intimate, and often a prelude to a sexual affair. It includes sharing confidences, marital problems, emotional support — and it's time taken away from the spouse and family that rightfully should be spent with them.

For the sake of your marriage, find out why your husband has chosen to communicate on this level with someone other than you. Some sessions with a marriage counselor would be helpful for both of you. If he is unwilling to go, go without him.

DEAR ABBY: I am recently engaged and have started planning my wedding. The problem is, certain members of my family and my fiancé's family bring extra people to events. We both come from large families and can't afford for each family member or friend of a family member to come to everything.

I have planned a breakfast and shopping day for a few female family members and close friends. Unfortunately, a few invites are already trying to invite more people. Is there a nice way to stop this from happening? Before planning anything, I worked very hard to decide whom I would like to attend, and why. I'm afraid if I don't nip this in the bud it will snowball by the time of my wedding. How does one politely explain to people that they are not planning the event — they are guests?

CONCERNED IN THOUSAND OAKS, CALIF.

DEAR CONCERNED: Be nonconfrontational and direct. Tell the offenders exactly what you have told me. Sometimes people do things without thinking them through, and the only antidote is to politely draw the line.

Ducks in a row

Keeping your ducklings all in a row is a lot tougher than it's quacked up to be, or so it appears for this mother duck with her babies near the retention pond behind Albertson's on Lake Mary Boulevard. Although she managed to keep them in line for a while, the old adage, you can lead a duck to water but you can't make them drink, was true. All the little ones wanted to do was paddle around in the water.

Bridge

"Trail volunteers are the driving force behind the creation of trails in Florida and the reason why tremendous projects such as this trail bridge are envisioned and made possible," Mica said.

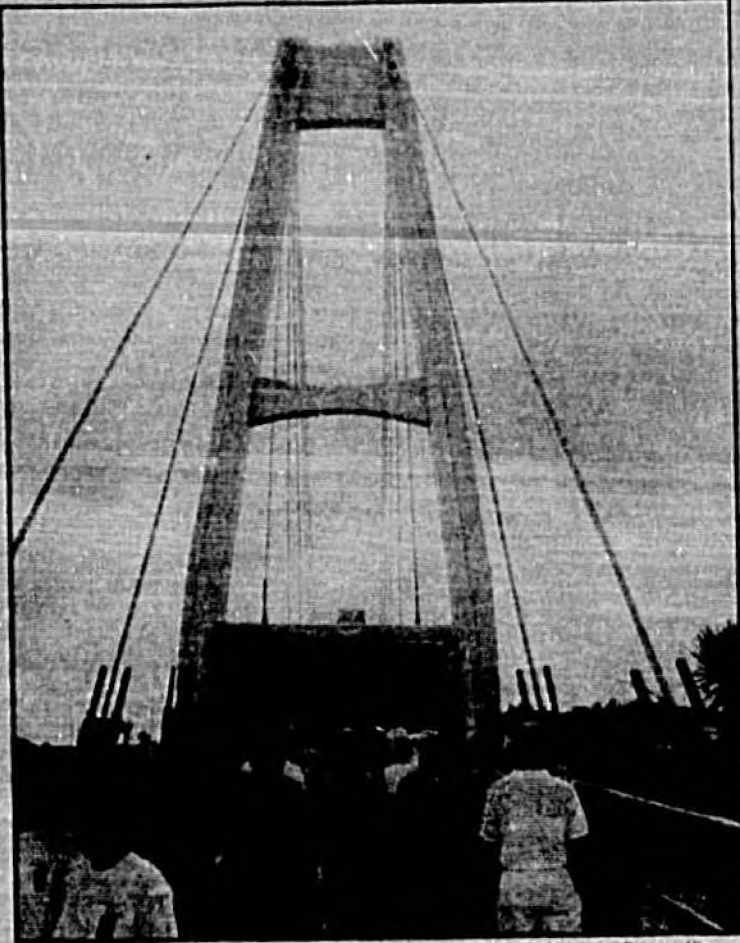

The opening of the overpass demonstrates Seminole government's commitment to its nature trail program, which began in 1998 when the first 4-mile section of the Cross-Seminole Trail was completed. Following a unanimous vote by County Commission in late 2001, construction began on the overpass the following year. At the same time, 7.7 miles of trails were added to the Cross-Seminole Trail Trail.

The I-4 pedestrian overpass was funded through a $2.5 million federal transportation grant, money from the local Trails Referendum and the Florida Department of Transportation. It is the first trail overpass in Seminole County and is one of the first pedestrian suspension bridges in the southeast.

"This truly is a unique trail bridge for the region and probably America," said Kent Wimmer of the National Trails Association. "I've never seen anything like it before."

The bridge uses a cutting edge cable stay/suspension bridge design technology to cross the interstate, spanning 373 feet of I-4 right-of-way. The design accommodates future interstate widening plans by FDOT and the possibility of a light rail system in the interstate's median.

It also features a switch back ramp that actually runs underneath the overpass, similar to ramps seen at large football stadiums. "It is quite a facility," Commission Chairman Daryl McLain said. "I am very proud of it. It's the citizens of Seminole County who made this project possible."

Seminole's Trails Program won't stop now that the bridge is complete. This year, construction will start on an additional 6.3 miles of trails, including a major highway overpass on State Road 434. In 2004, an additional 8.5 miles of trails are anticipated to start construction, with completion scheduled for 2005. At that time, the entire county will be connected with trails linking Orange County and connections to Oviedo, Winter Springs, Longwood, Altamonte Springs, Lake Mary and Sanford.

Incentive

the approval. According to the terms of the incentive package, the city of Sanford must follow through with the package it approved in mid-May. The city's package, also worth $150,000, includes a cash incentive of $94,510, plus to up $55,490 in waived permit and review fees.

City commissioners delegated $39,000 of the funds from the Economic Development Trust during this fiscal year. In order to forego transferring $60,000 from the General Fund Reserve to accommodate the incentive package, the remaining $55,510 will be subject to the availability of funds in the coming year.

According to William J. McDermott, director of the Seminole County Economic Development Office, there should not be a problem with the condition because he believes the city will have the money available in next year's budget. The city, however, is not as confident.

"We don't know at this point if the funds are available," said Kevin L. Smith, city of Sanford finance director. "It's still subject to budget and remains to be seen. I'm sure we will make every effort to make this happen."

According to Smith, a preliminary budget must be presented to city commissioners by July 1, and will be followed by several budget meetings. The city will not know officially if the funds are available until the budget is adopted in November.

When Florida Extruders International, Inc., recently decided to expand, company executives evaluated sites within Seminole County as well as the rest of the southeast. The group is currently in negotiations for 34.5 acres located at Beardall Avenue and State Road 46 in Sanford.

"We're definitely moving forward with that location," said Little.

According to Little, construction could begin during the first part of 2004, and should be complete within 12 months.

The capital investment by the company for this project is an estimated $11.5 million, including the land purchase, construction of a 224,000 square foot facility, and the purchase of machinery and equipment. The group plans to hire 155 new employees at an average annual salary of $26,387.

"As we grow, Seminole County will grow," said Little.

Dixon

Tony VanDerworp administration. In another circumstance it might have worked because I came here to be part of the city of Sanford, not to be Tony VanDerworp's boy."

Dixon vehemently denies the allegation that he called Freytes-Torres almost daily for two years and made suggestive comments to her.

"The truth will come out," he said, refusing to elaborate. "I don't want to try the case in the newspaper."

Dixon said he is weighing three different job opportunities and intends to stay in Sanford.

"My wife and I both love this city, and this is where we want to be," Dixon said. "I'm going to remain active in the community and be involved with a number of groups."

"Overall, I've had a very positive experience in Sanford," he added. "The city commission has been a pleasure to work for and I hope my future career allows me to work with them again."

With Dixon's resignation leaving a vacancy in the city's top administrative seat immediately following Monday's city commission meeting, Commission appointed Andrew Van Gaale, a project manager in the city's community development department, to act as interim city manager until the search for a permanent city manager is complete.

According to Mayor Brady Lessard, this should take approximately 45 days. Still in the running for the job is James F. Coleman of Lady Lake, Danny Crew of Gastonia, N.C., Al Grieshaber, Jr. of Albany, Ga., and James Ross O'Connor of St. Charles, Mo.

"I'm honored by the appointment," said Van Gaale, who applied for the city manager position, but did not make the shortlist of candidates. "I think it's indicative of my commitment to the city over the past eight years. I appreciate the commission's confidence in me."

"It's a step in the right direction for me," he added. "As I had said to Mayor Lessard, I've always been here for the city to fill in, in whatever they needed. This just so happens to fit along with my career goals."

Van Gaale will work closely with the mayor and Commission to balance the budget, which is currently $1.4 million over budget, before July 1.

"Today [Tuesday] we did housekeeping, but by the end of the week I will diving into the budget," he said. "We'll be setting up a series of meeting and working diligently on that. I'm confident that between the mayor, commission and myself that we can resolve all the budgetary issues."

Before appointing Van Gaale, Commission entertained the idea of appointing a city department lead as the interim city manager. According to Lessard, this was not a good idea because each department lead is busy running their department and working on the upcoming budget.

"I'm confident Andrew will do an excellent job," said Commissioner Velma Williams. "He was one of the three applicants for the job and received five votes. He only needed one more to make the top 12."

"Because of this, I believe he will be well received by the city employees, the commission and the community," she added.

Lessard adds, "He's not asking for more money, and I will certainly take him up on that. It's nice to see someone stepping up to the plate and showing devotion to the city."

memorable experiences," said Chaaban.

Participants are not the only ones who benefit American cultural opportunities. Host families can experience culture and customs unlike their own.

"It is one thing to read about other cultures in a book,"

Chaaban said. "It is another to actually experience them."

"It has been very pleasing to see a young generation learn from our way of life," said Chaaban, when asked about the FLEX's success. "Hopefully, FLEX will continue to spread culture and help shape the future leaders of Eurasia."

Host families, volunteer drivers, and local representatives are always needed, and donations are always appreciated. For more information, please contact Bassem Chaaban at (888) 953-7737; 4037 Metric Drive, Winter Park, FL, 32792 or online at www.worldofknowledge.org and bassem45@hotmail.com.

Anheuser-Busch donates $1 million to help spouses, children of those killed in Iraq War

Anheuser-Busch has donated $1 million to create the Intrepid/Anheuser-Busch Fallen Heroes Fund, which will provide scholarships to spouses and children of U.S. military and coalition personnel killed during the war in Iraq.

The Intrepid Museum Foundation will administer the scholarship program. The foundation also operates the Intrepid Family Support Fund that provides financial assistance for the families of U.S. military personnel lost in the line of duty; the Intrepid Sea Air Space Museum in New York, a U.S. Armed Forces memorial, educational and charitable institution, and Fleet Week, an annual celebration honoring the men and women of the U.S. military.

The donation continues Anheuser-Busch's 150-year history of support for the U.S. armed services. The company recently announced Operation Salute, a broad effort by the company to thank the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces and their families for their sacrifices in the war. The program includes free single-day admission to its SeaWorld, Busch Gardens and Sesame Place parks to active duty military, active reservists, U.S. Coast Guard, National Guardsmen and coalition forces and up to four of their direct dependents.

Record home sales

The real estate residential market has exploded for Southern Realty. While the firm usually sells 40 to 50 homes per month, in April, the group sold 123 homes. "Some of this may well be attributed to several associates recently joining us from other firms," said Frank Filippelli, president of Southern Realty.

Doctors provide essential supplies to the Safe House of Seminole

Dr. Joseph Boyle and Dr. Joseph Sicurella of First Health Chiropractic in Lake Mary took part in a promotion, "Doctor's with a Heart," from Feb. 14 through March 14. During the promotion the doctors offered complimentary chiropractic consultations as well as massage therapy in exchange for non-perishable food items and clothing to be donated to Safe House of Seminole.

Keewin Company celebrates its 25th anniversary

The Keewin Real Property Company, one of the area's most active real estate companies and the major force behind Windsong and other communities throughout Central Florida, is celebrating its silver anniversary.

Founded in 1978, the company began in a small office on Park Avenue. Since that time, the permitting, development and marketing of more than 9,000 single-family residential lots has been the company's main focus. In addition to residential development, Keewin has been involved in numerous other real estate projects and properties throughout Central Florida. The company was the exclusive real estate brokers for Universal Studios Florida in the acquisition of more than 800 acres of land that is now Universal's motion picture studio and theme park in Orlando.

Since 1978, the company has been involved in the purchase, sale and development of more than $400 million of Central Florida real estate.

D & A wins water management district contract

D & A Building Services, Inc., a facility maintenance company headquartered in Altamonte Springs, has won a multi-year contract to provide janitorial and carpet cleaning services to the South Florida Water Management District's office complex. The four building campus, comprised of 264,000 square feet of office space, is located in West Palm Beach. D & A recently opened a branch office in West Palm Beach to closely monitor its work for the water management district and to develop additional business in the area. With more than 500 employees, D & A Building Services, Inc., is one of the few facility maintenance companies that perform all aspects of a contract by its own trained staff, instead of hiring subcontracted labor.

SAC trio earn trip to World Series

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

Seminole County will be fairly well represented when the 2003 NCAA Division I Baseball College World Series kicks off Friday in Omaha.

Former Lake Brantley High School teammates Justin Harris and Kevin Melillo helped lead the way as the University of South Carolina became the first team to qualify for the tournament with a two-game sweep of the University of North Carolina in the Super Regionals in Columbia.

This will be the second straight year that Harris and Melillo, the starting shortstop and second baseman, will be in Omaha as both were major reasons the Gamecocks finished second to National Champion University of Texas last year.

Both former Patriots went 1-for-3 with a run scored on Friday as USC edged the Tarheels, 5-4.

Trailing 4-2, Harris led off the third inning with a double and later scored to make the score, 4-3.

Melillo then led off a two-run fourth inning with a single and later scored the tying run as the Gamecocks took the lead for good.

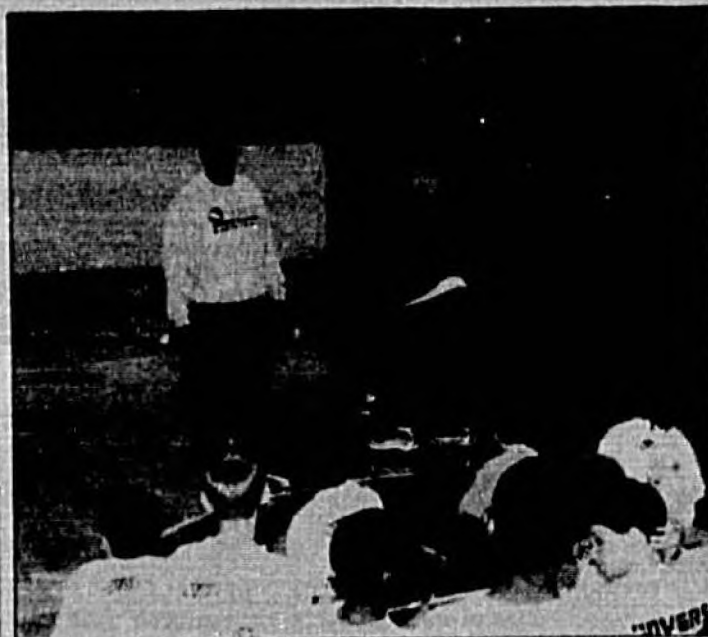

But on Saturday the duo really stood out, combining to go 6-for-10 with a double, four runs scored and an RBI as the hosts crushed UNC, 14-4.

Harris was 4-for-6 and scored three runs, while Melillo was 2-for-4 with a double, a sacrifice fly, a run scored and an RBI.

Harris and Melillo could get another shot at Texas as the Longhorns completed a two-game sweep of top-seeded Florida State in Tallahassee on

Athletics and academics do mix

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

SANFORD — The Seminole Community College softball team has proven once again that academics do not always take a backseat to athletics.

On the field this season the Raiders posted an impressive 47-16 overall record, came home second in the incredibly strong Mid-Florida Conference with an 19-8 mark, and finished third in the State Tournament, but the squad may have been even better in the classroom.

Head coach Courtney Miller had 12 of her 16 players on the roster make either the Mid-Florida Conference All-Academic Team (3.00 or higher GPA / min. 24 hours) or Academic All-State (3.30 or higher / min. 18 hours) and as a team SCC accumulated an overall Grade Point Average of 3.23.

All told, 10 Raiders made both lists with seven being graduates of Seminole Athletic Conference schools.

Locals making both lists were sophomores Stephanie Mathieux (Oviedo) and Melanie Pace (Winter Springs) and freshmen Ashley Bitzer and Carlee Wood (Lake Mary), Megan Miller (Oviedo) and Kristen Schrupp (Winter Springs).

Making the Mid-Florida Conference All-Academic Team was Seminole High School's Mindy Crouse.

Other making both lists were sophomore Leah Holbrook (Boone High School), and freshmen Holly Lacko (Middleburg High School) and Karen Padgett (Clay High School, Green Cove Springs).

Making the Mid-Florida Conference All-Academic Team was sophomore Stacey Spell from Merritt Island and making the Academic All-State Team was sophomore Kiley Sieffert from Colonial High School.

Several of these players were also recently honored by being named to All-Mid-Florida Conference and All-State teams.

Making First Team All-Conference and All-State were Miller and sophomore Lacey Swarthout.

In addition to being named, for the second straight year, First Team All-Conference and All-State, Swarthout, from Colonial High School, was also named the Pitcher of the Year in the Mid-Florida Conference.

She finished the season with a 28-10 record, a minuscule ERA of 0.32, which was the best in the state, and over 300 strike outs, again No. 1 in the state.

Miller, a catcher, led the team in seven offensive categories, including batting average (.337), hits (.66), doubles (11), and RBI (30).

Making the All-Conference Second Team were: Sieffert, the Raiders' starting second baseman, who led the team in triples (two) and had ten stolen bases on the year heading into the state

Area nines meet up in Top Team

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

LAKE MARY — The Little League postseason has begun.

After months of head-to-head competition, regular season champions from the various leagues in Seminole County are currently playing in the District 23 Top Team Tournament.

Top Team takes all of the regular season winning teams and pits them against one another to determine the best individual team.

Following the completion of that tournament, the All-Star teams will be selected and get ready for postseason play beginning next month.

The Top Team Tournament got off to a fantastic start for at least one of the local entries as Lake Mary's Minor Division (9-10 year olds) champion, the Royals, rolled over Casselberry, 11-1, Monday night.

The Royals and the Longwood charter champions, the Pirates, had gotten ready for the tournament by playing a pair of scrimmage games last week at the Lake Mary Sports Complex.

The first game saw the Pirates get a super pitching performance from Jeff Sladek as he struck out 14 of the 19 batters he faced.

The two teams were actually supposed to play three times, but a Wednesday matchup was rained out.

In fact, it rained for three consecutive evenings and the series was shortened to two games, with the final being played on Saturday morning.

The Royals got their revenge in this game as Trevor Jones and Matt Flynn combined on a three-hitter as the hosts rolled to an 14-2 victory in a game stopped after the top of the fourth inning by the 10-run rule.

The Royals actually only had See Royals, Page 2B

Standing room only for SpeedWorld's CRASH-A-RAMA

Special to the Herald

BITHLO — The weather was very disheartening but the program said "rain or shine". And the fans took their word at that and packed Orlando SpeedWorld to "standing room only" capacity last Friday night.

All around the 3/8's mile oval there were people, standing, sitting but packed in to watch the first of two CRASH-A-RAMA shows at SpeedWorld.

Chuck Rush put on the first show of the night when he did the Wall of Steel.

This consists of three cars standing upright so far apart and a junkyard car that is going to hit each car and make it fall like dominos on a table. Just the right speed must be gotten for the stunt to work but Rush is good at this. As the crowd held their breath, Rush hit the first car, then the second, and then the third. He did suffer just a little roof damage but was fine.

Next up was the boat/trailer race. This consists of any size boat, any size trailer for 15 laps around the track if at all possible. Nineteen entered this event with boats from the size of canoes to small cabin cruisers. Of course the motors are gone and they are striped, no need for a motor going through anything.

Bobby Riley, one of the regular Super Stock drivers at SpeedWorld, had the pole for this race but it Scooter Gabel who took the lead on the green. With boats, axes, and a partial removal of the pit grandstand fence, it was Rusty Rinaldi in the Winner's Circle. Following Rinaldi were Dave Verter, Ken Hall, Bobby Riley and Jimmy Hester.

The it was "Green Mamba" time. This is a jet car that can throw some heat literally. Some young children were scared and had to go behind the bleachers but the majority loved Green Mamba. She lit the sky, blew some heat and made you think she was ready to take off to the skies with her engine geared up for "take off". After about four trips around the track, she needed to cool off.

The V-8 demo derby brought out cars from all over Florida and even North Carolina.

As they filed in and lined up against the frontstretch wall and the bottom of the track to do battle, just by the number of cars you knew you were in for a show. Smashing, crashing, rear-ending, radiators blowing, a few little fires, and a lot of dead cars later, it was called a tie for the win.

Joe Curry, who has run almost every demo derby that Orlando and NSS has put on from Melbourne, and Jim Froman took the win jointly. And both were very deserving in that joint win.

The Powder Puff School Bus Figure 8 race consisted of eight real school bus drivers from Seminole County. These brave women were able to practice this new form of school bus driving and really did a good job in their first feature event. Cindy Labrie had the pole and led the entire 8 laps from green to checkered. Only a small amount of rubbing went on in this race since these gals were not used to rough driving a bus which normally is full of kids. Hats off to each of these ladies for their braveness and exceptional good driving.

The Steel Ball showcased a family of three who enter a steel ball and go around on motorcycles. First the 10 year old son does some pretty good driving then the father and then the mother stands in the middle (brace soul) while the son and father go around her but never touch her.

Enter the chain race. One car pulls another car around by a chain with the second car more or less the brakes for both. This will in fact give you a lot of out-of-control wild rides for the second car and some pretty crazy turnarounds. Nine lead cars, nine tow cars took the green for the figure 8 chain race. Billy Cuddy and Bobby Riley had the pole and were doing okay until they found out it was not as easy as one thought. Around they went and with that, went their lead. At the end it was S. Gabel and R. Riley who made it to the checkered with both cars in tack and the chain still attached.

The chain race took out some of the 4 cylinder demo cars as they were the second cars on the chain. But the ones that were left did a great job of taking each other out for the win. In the end, it was Ben Croft crowned "4 Cylinder Champion" for CRASH-A-RAMA Night. And as they say in racing, "I will be back for round two in November."

The Outlaw Demo may have been short on cars but not action. These guys were beating and banging and hitting and stumping each other until the bitter end. This was one of the best Outlaw Demos we have seen. Coming out on top was "Big Mack" who entered every demo Friday.

"Taking one out of three ain't bad when you have this much good competition," said Big Mack. "Well worth coming to Orlando SpeedWorld," he added.

Here comes the main event, the wild and crazy school bus figure 8 drivers of Orlando SpeedWorld. Nineteen lined up for the green but only one could take the win. Doug Samion, one of SpeedWorld's Sportsman drivers, took the win but for awhile it looked like Todd Hutto, co-owner of East Bay Raceway, was headed towards his first win.

Hutto was doing really well until he somehow lost his steering which went out just at the moment he was approaching a dead bus. Hutto and the dead bus collided. Hutto was able to continue but not for long, and retired on the field.

As the fans were checking out the winner Doug Samion, Chuck "Junkyard Dog" Rush was giving the fans another show as he took his bus around and round in turn 4 until the point she rolled over to the roar of the crowd. As Rush sat in the bus on it's side buckled in his seatbelt, the fans went wild. Rush came out to a standing ovation.

Green Mamba now returned for her last appearance and last event of the night.

Two junk cars were placed on two of each other with Green Mamba the incinerator. As she sat there building up her engine, the smoke was pouring. Suddenly, a flame shut out and cars were disappearing fast.

Jim Jones, the track photographer, thought he was safe on a bus away from this event, but he found out quickly how far the heat and debris travels when Green Mamba is working. Jones was off that bus and on the ground before you could say "jack rabbit".

As the cars disappeared before your eyes, Green Mamba had done her job. And the first of two CRASH-A-RAMAS was done.

This Friday night (June 13), the 911 Series returns to SpeedWorld with some of the fastest "cop cars" around. Also on the program will be a 50 lap Sportsman race plus Super Lates, Open Wheel Modifieds, Mini Stocks and Strictly Stocks. The Super Stocks will have the night off. See Racing, Page 3B three hits themselves, but they were patient at the plate and took advantage of Pirates pitching wildness to pull off the convincing victory.

Cody Leiffer led the Royals at the plate with a double, two runs scored and two RBI.

Chris Hazel had the other hit and also scored a run.

Other contributors for Lake Mary were Matt Flynn (two runs scored, one RBI), Rudy Williams (three runs scored), A.J. Mlotkowski and Jones (two runs scored each) and Derek Flynn and Travis Foels (one run scored each).

For the Pirates, Sladek and Joey Woods both singled and scored a run, while Blake Castillo had a single and Jeff Moss drove in a run.
