Johnny Davis of 802 Catana Drive received a surprise telephone call the other night from a brother whom he has not seen nor heard from since 1929. The brother is Jim Davis, now living in Winston, Calif., a suburb of San Fran-cisco. Johnny's son Ronnie, in the Navy, looked up the long-lost brother while on liberty from the USS Hector, somehow pinpointing the right telephone book. Ronnie reports pitable, taking him on sightseeing tours around the area.

LONDON (UPI) - A British expedition will set sail May 8 for Vinland, that mysterious part of North America which the Vikings are said to have discovered long before Columbus sailed from Spain for the New World. The Guardian newspaper, sponsor of the expedition, said today the expedition will sail from the North Sea port of Scarborough and try to use the currents and tidal streams to reach the same landfalls the Vikings found.

"It will make first for southwest Greenland and then attempt to reproduce Laif Erikson's voyage to Vinland of about the year 1001 from such sailing directions as are recorded in the old icelandic sagas," the Guardian said.

The crowd gasped in unison.
The American braced and felt them closing in.
And then he ran faster than he had aver run before.

An aver run before.

An aver run before.

And then he ran faster than he had ever run before.

It was well he did, of course. Reetless and rebellious factions in this nation are again in collectively nasty moods and the U.S. population here finds that the best, if not the bravest, solution is to keep out of their way.

But it isn't easy. Increasing numbers of local troublemakers are spoiling for fights as the anti-American pot bubbles anew.

Strange how a landscape sets the imagination to work. Right now, looking at this scene, I can imagine all sorts of things. Winged steeds riding to heavy music . . . . ploneers in the wilderness . . . eastles on the cliffs . . . boating at high speeds,

Look at the magic that enables the lake to mirror the rocky mountain peak and the heavens! The vastness and stillness of the scene sets my mind to wondering about time and space and things I will never understand. But in standing here and wondering so, I feel like I've been near God. There is a place where I can find Him always-in Church. Will you come

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factors on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a store-house of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither desucercy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound research why every person chauld attend services regularly and support the Church. They have tild from the children's make. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church fiself, which needs his moral and material.

which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regu-larly and read your Bible daily.
