LOSE COUNTS FEATURE RACE FOR SHERIFF

Leonardy, White
Wage Even Fight
Second Choice Votes
Will Probably Decide Sheriff Race

Close contests for sheriff and county prosecuting attorney today overshadowed all other features in Tuesday's primary election. On the basis of incomplete returns indications were that Leonardy choice votes would probably determine the sheriff's race while that of prosecuting attorney might be decided by a scant margin.

The gubernatorial contest also came in for a great share of attention. Local returns are incomplete but indicate that Carlton had been pitted up by some attorney over the rest of the field. Carlton's vote was 1,220. Hathaway, his nearest opponent, had polled only 652. Carlton, 1,985. Mr. Leonard, incumbent, carried the Longwood precinct and ran a close second to Carlton in Lake Lanoux.

In the sheriff's race, C. M.
Leonardy, incumbent, was leading J. J. Parrish by 66 votes. E. E.
Brady was third and E. E.
Walker was a poor fourth. The vote was as follows: Leonardy, 858; Parrish, 794; Brady, 595 and Walker, 140. Sheriff Hand carried six precincts and was leading in another. Mr. McClelland carried four and Brady and Walker one each.

Incomplete returns showed John F. Leonard, incumbent, leading J. F. White by 17 in the race for county prosecuting attorney, the closest contest in the county ball. The two candidates were running neck and neck throughout the entire tabulation today.

The state's vote was: Leonard, 1,392 and White, 1,375. Leonard carried six precincts and Mr. White two and each had 212 today noon precinct vote.

Senator J. J. Parrish polled 702 votes to P. W. Roberts' 193 in the race for state senate. A message from Brevard County reports that with two precincts remaining to be counted, Senator Parrish has received 1,602 votes and P. W.
Roberts 664. With such an overwhelming lead, Senator Parrish has won an easy victory.

C. W. Entzinger had amassed a commanding lead over M. M.
Lord for the state legislature in group one. The total was Entzinger 604 and Lord 270. Lord carried only two precincts and led in another while Entzinger carried seven, tied one and was leading in two others while pre-sinct had not been received.

In group two L. P. Hagan was leading in a three-cornered race.
R. Lyles was second, nearly 300 votes behind the leader, with K. W.
Pearman Jr. bringing up the rear with 401. With one precinct missing, Hagan had carried eight Lyles one, Pearman two and another was incomplete.

In the race for clerk of circuit court, Vance E. Douglas was well out in front with 919 votes as against 571 for D. L. Thrasher, his nearest opponent. R. H. Dear-rilled with 559. Douglas carried precinct three of Sanford by a large margin as well as running ahead in several of the county precincts. The second choice vote is not expected to alter the results.

Southern Cross Aviators Will Take Off Tomorrow On Third Leg Of Journey

SUVA, FIJI Islands, June 6.— (INS)—After a day spent in tireless inspection of benches and level lands, Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith commander of the America-to-Australia expedition in the monoplane Southern Cross, late today selected a long stretch on firm sand at Nacelal, 20 miles from here, as the site of the takeoff of the trans-Pacific craft to Hiribara, Australia.

Captain Kingsford-Smith definitely announced the hop for Bribane, 1,795 miles away, on the third leg of the expedition will be made tomorrow.

In replying to the official welcome extended to him and his companions at a public reception in front of the Suva town hall today, Captain Charles T. P. Uihou, co-pilot of the America-to-Australia air expedition, portrayed in a few sentences the hardships and perils encountered on the memorable flight from Hawaii to Fiji.

His speech follows: "I must state this stock opening phrase from my colleague, Smith: 'The only difference between a caped bird and an aviator is that one can speak but cannot fly, while the other can fly but cannot speak.' I wish to convey to you our sincere thanks for all that has been done for us in Suva. This is the first reception we have had since starting on our jaunt. We are not used to them.

"We have had so many critics because so many people have drowned on flights such as ours.
But Smith and I spent 10 months we started and got together the finest equipment ever taken across the ocean on an airplane. We also faced the further difficulty that usually besets aviators. We were broke most of the time. Finance is the hardest part of flying.

"I had no previous knowledge of everything except naming the controls. I knew a little bit of everything. One morning I talked to Captain Miller, the expert navigator of the America, by telephone.
He said he had the very man we wanted as navigator. He told me about Lyon. Of course, Capt. Miller said, Lyon has his faults. For one thing, Lyon is a humorist. But it is a valuable fault and combined with his expert knowledge of way-points (Continued on page 1.)

HERALD ELECTION RETURNS VIEWED BY LARGE CROWD

More Than 3,000 Persons In Throng Which Packs Magnolia Avenue; Miller Caricatures Elicit Much Applause

With interest and enthusiasm at high tide, more than 3,000 persons last night received election returns from the Herald upon a large stage erected especially for this occasion. Despite rain, which fell in torrents in the early part of the evening, the crowd packed to shelter and returned in full force as soon as it had subsided.

Most of the audience remained until midnight and fully 200 were still on hand when the service was closed at 3:00 o'clock. So great was the interest in both county and state races the crowd kept up an almost continuous demonstration for one candidate or another. Tremendous applause greeted practically every announcement especially those that had to do with close county contests and the race for governor.

The occasion was enlivened considerably by a series of cartoons drawn by A. J. Miller, Sanford artist, whose caricatures of the several candidates for county and state offices elicited laughter and applause on numerous occasions.

Except for the rain, the election service was practically uninterrupted from the time it began shortly after 8:00 o'clock until it was closed in the early morning hours. Reports either on county or state returns poured into the office in an almost constant stream.

State results were obtained over a western union wire and the county returns were received by telephone, the local telephone company through its manager, Howard Overlin, lending every assistance in making the service prompt and efficient.

The Herald acknowledges with thanks the use of a stereotyping machine loaned by the Sanford Odd Fellows lodge and appreciates the courtesy and co-operation of City Manager George H. Cairns and Chief of Police Roy G. Williams in the loan of a large number of benches and the roping-off of a part of the street so the crowd could be comfortably seated.

The Herald was enabled to receive returns from the outlying precincts through the assistance of a number of friends, who handled the tabulation in their precincts and reported to this office by telephone. Those who assisted in this work included Mrs. J. W. Bell of Lake Monroe, George Smith of Palms, Rev. Max Cook of Oviedo, B. G. Smith of Oviedo, S. F. Long of Chuluota, H. H. Pattishall and C. W. Colpepper of Geneva, J.
Henry Conick and C. W. Entzinger of Longwood, Frank Evans of Lake Mary, A. E. Kilbe of Altamonte, and Lloyd Land of Ocoee.

CARLTON GETS BIG LEAD OVER HIS OPPONENTS

Hathaway And Sid Catts Trail Tampa Aspirant For Honors Of Gubernatorial Campaign; Martin Is Losing His Race

Ruth Bryan Owen Is Leading Joe Sears

Amos Reported In Front With Wide Margin To His Credit; Mayo Is Opening Large Gap

TALLAHASSEE, June 6.—At an early hour this afternoon Doyle Carlton of Tampa continued to increase his lead over Pons Hathaway and Sidney J. Catts in the race for the gubernatorial honors of this state. In his home town friends of Mr. Carlton were claiming him as the next governor of Florida although no concession of his election had come from the camps of either of his leading opponents.

At one-thirty o'clock this afternoon a total of 65 of the 67 counties heard from, Carlton was leading Hathaway by nearly 70, 000 votes. At this time nearly a 100,000 votes had been counted.
Carlton had 34,981, Hathaway 25,116 and Catts 21,911. Carlton took the lead early in the counting and has maintained it ever since.

In the gubernatorial race Martin is rapidly losing. His campaign headquarters admitted that the Governor was trailing by over 3,000 votes after 70,000 had been counted. Early this afternoon a report from Jacksonville stated that Trammell had a total of 51, 218 and Martin 38,005. From Monroe county came the word that Martin was leading there by almost a two to one majority.

Ruth Bryan Owen has a decided lead over her opponent in the congressional race. Her campaign manager reported majorities in Floyd and Broward, Clay, Dade, Indian River, Marion, Manatee, Orange, Palm Beach, Putnam, Seeminole, St. Johns, St. Lucie and a slight lead in Duval. The figures reported early this afternoon show Mrs. Owen as having 21,110 votes and Sears 15,243.
Monroe county which gave Sears a big majority in 1926 reported Mrs. Owen leading by over two to one.

For comptroller, Amos was reported as being comfortably in the lead. His total at 1:30 o'clock was reported at 18,921 while Emory Martin was second with 5,995 and Stewart third with 5,980 votes. Mayo was leading in the race for commissioner of agriculture by nearly a 10,000 majority over his opponent. Wells was leading Phillips for railroad commissioner. In group No. 2 Mrs.
R. L. Eaton had a plurality of nearly 2,000 votes.

British Authorities Refuse Harry Thaw Permission To Land

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 6.—(INS)—Harry K. Thaw, who arrived here from New York on the liner Aquitania, was barred by the immigration authorities and not allowed to land on British soil. Thaw was told that he must remain on shipboard and return to the United States on the same vessel. The Aquitania will sail on Saturday.

The action of the immigration authorities came as a surprise as it had been intimated by the home office several days ago that no bar would be put in the way of Thaw's landing.

On account of his sensational escapes and especially his trial for the murder of Stanford White it had been intimated in some quarters that the British authorities might take a leaf from the notebook of the United States immigration officials and invoke a charge of "moral turpitude" against Thaw. However, the Home Office officials at London last week said that nothing of the kind was under contemplation.

MIAMI BEACH—102 residences were built here in year ended May 1, 1928, costing an average of $18, 000 each.

STARKE—Resources of banks in Bradford County increased from $230,000 in 1907 to more than $1, 000,000 in 1927.

Carson Expresses Satisfaction With Election Outcome

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., June 6.
(INS)—Captain George White, owner and inventor of the bird-like antihopter, tinkered at out the wing flapping plane today confident it will leave the ground on its own power as soon as he gets a favorable wind.

White flew the plane for about 200 feet yesterday, winging the foot apparatus that makes the wings flap like a great bird. He failed to get the plane to leave the ground on its own power, however, and White got an automobile to tow him down to the beach. With the automobile towing the queer looking plane, White got it off the ground and flew for about 200 feet.

White said that he was thoroughly satisfied with the campaign and am satisfied with the results. I did what I set out primarily to do. Sidney J.
Catts has apparently not only been defeated but has been forever eliminated from Florida politics. As for myself, I have only to say that my cracker ancestors never admitted defeat. They were always too busy planning the next fight.

As soon as I learn who has won I shall telegraph my congratulations. I am deeply grateful to those who supported and voted for me. They followed what they knew was a forlorn hope as a sheer matter of principle. Defeat is temporary but principles are eternal.

Soviet Expeditions Expected To Leave For Dirigible Hunt

MOSCOW, June 6.—(INS) The Soviet expedition, carrying an airplane and a searching expedition headed by professor Vi-za, a famous authority, is expected to leave Archangel Russia Saturday to scour Franz Josef Land for Gen. Umberto Nobile and the other 17 members of the missing Italia expedition.

The expedition will establish an airplane base in the northwest region of Zova Zembla. The plane will reconnoiter from the base in an attempt to verify messages picked up by Russian radio stations which stated that Nobile had made a safe landing on Franz Josef Land.

Professor Viza is thoroughly familiar with the geography and topography of Franz Josef Land.
He said today that Nobile knows of the existence of a cache of food supplies at Flora Cape.

Vance Douglas was nearly 400 votes ahead of his nearest opponent in the race for clerk of court. County Commissioner John Melsch and Frank Evans had piled up tremendous leads in their races for re-election.
S. F. Long was leading J. F. Mc-Lain by 150 votes for commissioner in district five.

Committee Probes Favoritism Charge Of Senator Heflin

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(INS)
—The Senate Presidential Nominating Committee inquired today into charges of favoritism leveled by Alabama Senator Heflin (D) of Alabama against the committee.
The committee was shown in New York City contracts in return for financial support to Governor Al Smith's presidential candidacy.

In a senate speech, Heflin declared the Todd Construction and Repair Company and the W. F.
Kenny Company were getting a large share of the contracts and that Tammany was getting a "cut." The heads of the two concerns contributed to Smith's campaign and testified they did it out of "love" for the governor.

Two witnesses, Albert Goldman, commissioner of plants and structures of New York City, and John J. Dorman, city commissioner, were questioned about the charges.
Goldman testified that out of $12, 522.02 spent by the city during the past 10 years for boat construction and repair work, the Todd Company got $2,200,000 in contracts.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 6.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

GOD SEES—The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.—Prov. 15:3.

PRAYER—O that we may live each day happy in the knowledge that Thou seest our very secret thoughts.

THESE THINGS

In the New York Herald Tribune. Not knowing my own madness when I spoke, I said, "I wish it were tomorrow—now."

And ere this madness loosed its chains, I woke And had my wish: and wished it were not so.

Tomorrow was to day, and I had lost Another day of living fervidly. The pain of beauty is a trifling cost.

For wonder, reverence, and ecstasy, These things are precious, dwellings, bridges, ships; Voices, sound of seas, and silent spaces;

The feel of feathers, wind, and young red lips; The mystery of ancient ruined places.

The breath of blossoms, sting of bubbling wine; The love of men; the thought of God—and light;

The health and splendor of the warm sunshine, And all the strange jeweled richness of cool night.

Must we, tomorrow, withered as the grass, Lose these? O Time, let not one moment pass!—By Monroe Heath.

The storm is over.

Now that election is over, wonder if there will be any slush fund probes in Florida.

An experienced wife is one that can tell whether he is being dignified or just pouting.—St. Petersburg Times.

They are now growing celery near Titusville said to be as good as Sanford celery. Something to think about.

Encountering a storm on the way to Suva, the Southern Cross demonstrated its ability to fly through adverse weather conditions.

Well, they haven't found the Italia yet, but the search for it is in full swing. We try to keep our readers posted on this subject now that we don't have to devote so much space to candidates.

Those who have been opposing Fona Hathaway's election will nevertheless regret his accident yesterday when he broke three ribs and suffered other injuries, and will wish him a speedy recovery.

What! Doubt the Master Workman's hand because my fleshly ill increase? No; for there still remains one chance that I am not His masterpiece.—Ridgely Torrence.

The Southern Cross, at the time we are writing, has reached Suva, having but seventeen hundred miles to Australia remaining. If this hop can be made successfully, as it appears it will be from the beautiful functioning of the plane so far, a new record will have been made.

A Chicago grand jury remanded one hundred and one persons in a sweeping indictment against a rum ring which was reputed to be making five million dollars annually. Most of those indicted will doubtless be released. A few will have to pay a small fine, which will be charged in the books of the company as a license for doing business. The profit will still be five million dollars annually. And do you believe they will like to see the prohibition amendment repealed.

Our Fruits

When we ride through the fragrant and luxuriant orange groves of Seminole and our neighboring counties, we often wonder what in the world becomes of all these beautiful fruits. Thousands and thousands of trees, loaded down with oranges, grapefruit, or tangerines are encountered everywhere near here. This is what the Miami Daily News, in a recent editorial, says becomes of most of them:

"Fresh fruit exported from the United States in 1927 totaled $60,000,000 in value, approximately a $7,000,000 increase over the figure for the preceding year. The increase was registered chiefly in oranges, grapefruit and other citrus fruits. The value of orange shipments was $3,600,000 more than in 1926. Grapefruit exports increased $1,500,000.

"Oranges ranked second in point of aggregate value with a total of $15,000,000, but the humble apple retained its first-place leadership with $30,000,000. Pears, grapefruit, lemons, peaches, pineapples and other fruits accounted for the balance.

"Apple exports, while they represent the largest single item on the list, did not vary greatly in value in 1927 from the preceding year's figure. Citrus fruits, on the other hand, appear to be riding a new wave of popularity abroad. A shipload of oranges and grapefruit was consigned from Florida directly to Europe during the last winter, the first unit in what is evidently to be a series of such cargoes. The healthful qualities of these typically American fruits, along with their titillation of the palate, seem to command a universal appeal.

"All in all, fruit for foreigners last year proved to be fruit for American producers."

Crime Traps Legal

Considerable difference of opinion has existed in Florida at various times as to the moral right, and even the legal power of arresting officers to "trap" persons whom they suspect of violating laws. The so-called "speed trap" has been one of the commonest forms, but we believe that for all practical purposes this is no longer used in capturing speeders.

However, a Missouri judge has recently handed down the following ruling: "If a person is induced by anyone to commit a crime for the purpose of procuring a conviction, the conviction will not stand. But if the purpose to commit the crime is in the mind of the defendant at the time or suggested by him, defensive entrapment will not avail. Officers or other persons may make an opportunity for one to commit a crime for the purpose of securing a conviction and the conviction so obtained will be upheld if the criminal intent originated in the mind of the accused."

The decision was rendered in a case involving the sale of intoxicants to a fifteen-year old school boy. The evidence showed that a man named Spano had induced the youth to sell whiskey for him. Before making a sale, the boy informed a policeman who gave him a marked one-dollar bill with which to purchase a pint of the liquor. The defense, of course, contended that the boy's testimony was in error on the ground that he had been used by the police to trap Spano.

The judge promptly ruled that the evidence was admissible since it was shown that a criminal intent existed in the mind of the accused.

INDIANA POLITICS INDIANAPOLIS STAR

Thomas H. Adams, Indiana's premier crusading editor, is one figure that will stand out after the smoke of battle has cleared away and Republicans get a real perspective of the events of the last few years. He was not honored by nomination as standard bearer, but his party owed to him a lasting debt for services performed. If the Republican organization is lifted from the low estate into which it has fallen in Indiana; if it is purged of Stephensonism; if its candidates are restored to the confidence of the people, that will be traceable to the efforts of Editor Adams, who started the campaign for a house cleaning. Some belittled his efforts, some double-crossed him, others tried to steal his thunder, but it was his initiative and relentlessness that turned the light of day into the dark corners.

More than three years ago Thomas H. Adams began his crusade in his paper, the Vincennes Commercial. He was on the trail that later led to Stephenson's "black boxes," to the three later grand jury investigations and to the indictments that are now history. He started single-handed. He employed Court Asher and Earl Kluck, both associated with Stephenson and the latter indicted with that Klan leader, to help uncover the evidence of perjury and worse. Mr. Adams spent his own money, and spent it liberally, in the hope of performing a real public service. He was, as he said in his paper of last Wednesday—double-crossed in the house of my friends plotted against, and the very parties I most helped turned against me. I have examples of the most consummate ingratitude any public man ever encountered, and what I can not fathom is why such opposition has been developed even in the very house of my friends.

When Mr. Adams had gone far enough to convince himself that a thorough investigation should be made, he appealed to the Indiana Republican Editorial Association for Co-operation. Those whose memories are not short will recall that he came to Indianapolis and opened headquarters under the title of the Press Probe Committee. He got letters from Stephenson in the Michigan City prison and was a clearing house for information and evidence touching on his charges of supergovernment. As the result of his activities, and demand for an interview with Stephenson, which was not at first granted, state-wide attention was centered on what he was trying to do.

Prosecutor Remy presented the evidence offered at that time to the grand jury two years ago. No indictment was returned, but enough was disclosed to prompt the recommendation that there be further investigation by the succeeding grand jury. Then came the charges of attempted jury tampering and another grand jury investigation which resulted in indictment of men high in the councils of the Republican party in this city and state.

The fire of his zeal was so great and the charges he made were so astounding that many were disinclined to take his crusade seriously at the outset. Some believed that, while sincere in his own convictions, he was being hoaxed by those he had employed to aid him. But he kept at it. When he produced evidence of being on the right track, he found no dearth of helpers. Some were not bashful about accepting credit that belongs to him. The fact remains that whatever has been done would never have been accomplished had it not been for the lead taken by Mr. Adams and the tenacity with which he kept at the task in spite of opposition and discouragements.

UNAPPRECIATIVE ORLANDO REPORTER-STAR

In this column in the Jacksonville Journal, "This Afternoon," John Temple Graves II says: We do not thank Carlton for introducing us last night to the howls of his own special henchmen, or for weaving audit pages, phoostats and invoices over our head as if they proved something or anything.

Now this is a fatal admission by one of the brightest supporters of Dr. Hathaway. He says the scene was before a howling crowd of Carlton's henchmen. That crowd has been variously estimated at from 4,500 to 10,000. The Times

TOUCHE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

They were only an elderly farmer and a young poultryman of south Jersey, a flat, sandy region, utterly lacking in the heroic usually associated with such romantic sections as the Old South and the Far West. Yet they knew an "affair of honor" when they experienced it through with more dignity than not enjoy the performance which Mr. Carlton called him to the platform and made him read the questions he had propounded through the columns of the Journal and then handed him the photostatic records that furnished the answer and made him read those to the audience. The final blow came when Mr. Carlton compelled the editor to read the last question: Hathaway or Catts; which?" Carlton's reply to that was, "My father taught me that of two evils, choose neither."

But why laugh at Mr. Graves? He did as well as anyone would have done under the circumstances. No one but the head of the state road department is in a position to answer the charges Carlton makes against him and Mr. Hathaway declines to meet him either on public platform to discuss these questions that affect the money of the taxpayers of Florida, or to meet him in office at Gainesville where the records are available. Of course, Mr. Graves or no other man can stand up under those charges if Dr. Hathaway cannot. Dr. Hathaway owed it to his earnest supporters that he meet Mr. Carlton either at the Gainesville office and make some better explanation than he has yet made, or else meet him in a public discussion. Personally, we would like to have had those charges explained to our satisfaction. They haven't been. Dr. Hathaway is a public servant. The charge is that he is wasting public funds; he has no right to ignore the challenge no matter what the source. His own reputation should have prompted an acceptance of the challenge.

such affairs have inspired in their principals for a century, either here or abroad. Modern duels have been a joke these many years. One is reminded of the latest to stir the fashionable world, that between two students at Oxford, who fought at dawn with swords until one received a scratch on the shoulder and their seconds closed in and stopped the sanguinary encounter. Very likely they will be gossiping of this episode—they who gossip—long after the names of Charles Siewert, 65 and William Ruscom, 20, of Cologne, N. J. have ceased to perfume the zephyrs that sigh among the scrub pines of their plebeian habitat. But Charles and William have shown the way to all the knights who still shake their plumage in the murky atmosphere of an industrial age.

You probably read the report—how Charles warned William's girl against him, and William meeting his detractor on the White Horse Pike, offered to knock his ancient block off. "I guess you can do it," said Charles with a smile. "You look like you could fight. But I'll tell you. Let's fight a duel! That'll give me more of a chance."

So it was arranged. Charles picked shotguns and they met on the same spot that evening. No seconds to interfere. They made their own rules, which were that they should stand back to back, march fifty paces in opposite directions, wheel and fire. They did so. Ruscom turned first. He loosed one barrel and missed. Then two explosions rent the air and he fell, a load of bird shot in his chest and face. He is now in Atlantic City Hospital, with they say, a good chance of recovery, and Charles has explained the whole thing to the state police.

Rather sporting, eh, what? Of course, this dueling must cease, but—well—one still takes off his hat to men, and the farmers are the backbone of our country, sir.

Reflecting the cordial hospitality of the hostess in every way was the buffet supper given Tuesday evening by Miss Olive Newman at her home in Rose Court, complimenting her house guests Miss Naomi Scoggin of Washington, D. C. and Miss Frances Ewing of Passagrille.

In the living room quantities of red and yellow zinnias were used in baskets and bowls, while in the dining room the colors of pink and lavender predominated. The dining table was overlaid with a handsome lace cover and graced with a silver basket filled with pink Radiance roses and lavender candy tuft.

After a delicious supper, cards were enjoyed. The first prize, silk hose was won by Miss Claire Zachary, while Robert Dodson who held top score among the men was given a tie. The two guests of honor received boudoir sets filled with bath salts.

Y. W. C. A. CIRCLE MEETS
The Y. W. C. A. Circle of the First Baptist Church sponsored by Mrs. W. D. Gardner held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the church. The topic discussed throughout the evening was "Just Suppose You Had Been Born In Heathen Africa."

The members at this meeting were Ruby Martin, Pauline Stinson, Mildred Sloan, Vera Phillips, Eleanor Cameron, Martha Johnson, Essie Arthur and Mrs. Gardner.

Jesse Neely, a member of the graduating class of Seminole High School, 1928, leaves Monday for Ann Arbor, Mich. where he will spend the summer with his sister and next fall plans to attend the University of Michigan.

School Cafeteria Is Praised By Parents

The Cafeteria Committee of the Seminole High School Parent Teachers Association are very much gratified with the results of its year's work. The cafeteria, under the management of Mrs. M. T. Deitrich, has tried to give full value to the pupils for every nickel spent with it. The idea of the management has been to make no profit but to furnish the very best food possible in the most wholesome and palatable form.

On account of having to add to the equipment to the extent of $225.48 the final balance was a trifle short ($10.00). This has been taken care of by the Parent Teachers Association and the year's work closed with no indebtedness. The number of students buying lunches each day averaged 250 and an average of 25 lunches were given each day to pay for service rendered to the cafeteria, and various student groups have at times been treated to a dinner. The actual expense of these dinners was met by the Parent Teachers Association, but the interest and cooperation of Mrs. Deitrich made his possible.

The Cafeteria Committee wishes to thank the business men of Sanford who so generously cooperated with it in securing these results, and wishes also to express its gratitude to Mrs. Deitrich for her untiring efforts and skillful management, giving to the children of Seminole High School a service which has added much to their health and happiness.

Mrs. M. H. Mabry and Harlan Mabry returned home Tuesday evening from Lexington, Va. where Harlan has been attending Washington-Lee University.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Thomson are expected to return home Thursday from Montgomery, Ala. where they were called by the death of Mrs. Allen, mother of Mrs. Craig Thomson.

Miss Zachary Honors Mrs. Linton E. Allen With Bridge Party At The Forrest Lake

Exquisite in every detail was the bridge party given Tuesday afternoon at the Hotel Forrest Lake, by Miss Claire Zachary, honoring Mrs. Linton E. Allen, a recent bride.

The artistic color scheme of yellow, purple, and white was effectively carried out in every detail. In the foyer and drawing rooms numerous tall colonial and French baskets filled with yellow daisies, white and yellow zinnias and purple petunias combined with ferns were placed with unusual pleasing effect. These colors were repeated in both the tallies and other bridge accessories.

Greeting the guests upon arrival was Mrs. Clyde Byrd, while in the receiving line were Mrs. W. B. Zachary, Miss Claire Zachary, Miss Mary Ives of Orlando and Mrs. Linton E. Allen. Tallies were distributed by Miss R. B. Griffin and Miss Margaret Thompson.

Mrs. Zachary was beautifully gowned in a stunning frock of white taffeta made bouffant effect, while Miss Zachary was lovely in white lace over yellow crepe made with the uneven hemline. Mrs. Allen was a picture of love in a creation of pale green organdy with waist made basque, while the full skirt was fashioned entirely of ruffles.

Miss Ives was becomingly attired in a French model of turquoise blue taffeta made basque effect. The skirt was of matching tulle ruffles.

Fashioned of white chiffon with yellow flowers was the dainty frock worn by Mrs. Byrd. The games of progressive auction bridge proved exceptionally interesting and when scores were counted after the usual number of games, the first prize, a lovely rhinestone studded party bag was awarded Mrs. James P. Ridge.

Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, who held next highest score, received silk hose. The guest of honor was presented a set of crystal leed tea coasters. The cut prize was given in a novel manner. On one of the tallies a small red heart had been fastened, and Miss Margaret Peters, who held this was given a boudoir set filled with bath crystals.

Late in the afternoon the bridge accessories were removed and the tables spread with hand made covers and refreshments consisting of frozen fruits, individual angel food cakes and such were served. On each plate were yellow flower-shaped mints with lavender and yellow mints. Those serving were Miss Jane Torrence, Miss R. E. Griffin, Miss Katherine Schirard, Miss Margaret Thompson, Miss Rose Hurt and Miss Beverly Bender. Each guest was presented a corsage of purple and gold flowers in lace holders. There were thirteen tables of players invited to meet this charming guest of honor.

Lloyd Boyle plans to leave Wednesday afternoon for Laurens, S. C. where Mrs. Boyle is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Dill Gray.

Rickard Plans To Advise Public About Details Of Coming Tunney-Heeneys

By Davis J. Walsh
 International News Service
 NEW YORK, June 6.—(INS)—Tex Rickard plans to apprise the New York Boxing Commission tomorrow of his "plans" for the Tunney-Heeneys heavyweight championship fight, and, four days later, he will have another big story for release. He will tell us when and where the fight is to take place. The writer, for one, can hardly wait.

In fact, my impatience is such that I am about to fool Mr. Rickard. I won't wait. He it known, therefore, that tomorrow he will tell the board just how many seats he has in mind at $15, $30, $10.00 and so on, and, on Sunday, he will say that, after due deliberation, he has decided to hold the fight at the Yankee Stadium on the night of July 26.

The citizen who hasn't heard all this before automatically wins the curfewless fight book, which only goes to show how devoutly Mr. Rickard is laboring to bring life to the dead.

"Are you hearing anything about the Tunney-Heeneys fight?" an official of the Madison Square Garden asked a Broadway racketeer in the elevator today. The latter said "no" and then reconsidered with the air of one who wished to be fair about the thing. "Yes, I am," said he finally. "I hear them laughing at it." At the same time, I wish to deny that I am claiming the fight is dying on its feet. It has never been on its feet.

However, weep not for Mr. Rickard. The right feller who forgot his sun glasses won't need your tears either. He will have plenty of his own and the only reason I'm mentioning the matter is that he reminds me of Mr. Rickard, who is so different. Basing the contention on the current belief that they, meaning the mugs always turn out for World Series and heavyweight championships, it was popularly estimated around the Garden today that Tunney and Heeneys would gross somewhere in the neighborhood of a million dollars. If they do, Mr. Rickard will be out from under like an exposed chassis.

He, in fact stands to win several hundred thousands under those conditions, with Tunney taking some $525,000 and Heeneys what he can get, including a punch on the nose.

No, Mr. Rickard never seems to be in immediate need of sympathy. He is the only promoter in the racket who can guarantee to finish in the dark ink year after year. I did hear once that Hardy Downing of Salt Lake City, has made as much as a quarter of a million in the game but most of the boys in the field in definitely the inevitable "angel" who feeds a few headlines and then runs out into the light of day looking for a promoter who might consent to accept money from strangers.

However, the original "Angels" who supported Rickard soon lost their sanity aspect. He didn't need them after his first successes here—except as a means of overcoming his natural aversion to using any but strictly impersonal money in his pocket.

High Prices For Seats To Cut Attendance For Title Night, Says Davis Walsh

By DAVIS J. WALSH
 NEW YORK, June 4.—(INS)—With many of our great intellects hastening to confess that the frost is on the pumpkin insofar as summer boxing in New York is concerned, it is worthy of note today that men in his organization have warned Tex Rickard that he is overplaying his hand.

They didn't actually mention the Tunney-Heeneys heavyweight championship match in this connection but it is suspected that this forecast was intended among others. They think that Rickard has reached the point where he imagines that the sap starts running in the spring mostly because it is in such a terrible hurry to reach the garden box office.

In fine, they fear Rickard is charging too much for ordinary fight, particularly in view of the blight that is supposed to be on the industry this year.

Rickard plans to top the tickets on the granium for $40 or more in the ringside rows at the Tunney-Heeneys enterprise and today, in face of his recent admission that it looks like a very short line before the paymaster's window this season, he re-affirmed his broadcast that this fight will cross a million and a half dollars. He said he could tell this in the way the reservations are coming in and I guess that expansion will suffice until somebody thinks of a good one.

Any fight between Gene Tunney and Tom Heeneys shouldn't gross much over a million and I can't help it if Rickard is a man who ought to know what he is talking about. He guessed wrong on the Manny McLaughlin fight, that doesn't make him so much better than a mugg who somehow can

Rainy Weather Holds Baseball Teams Idle

NEW YORK, June 6.—(INS)—The St. Louis Cardinals, New York Yankees and other clubs which are handicapped by injuries are profiting by the rain which yesterday held most of the big league teams idle for the second day in succession. The fans are getting a good break, for a feast of double headers is in store for them later in the season.

In the only game played yesterday, the Washington Senators trimmed the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 1 with the aid of Braxton's good pitching and homers by Goslin and Reeves. Cleveland, 1 to 0, club which gave the Yankees a battle when the Western teams of the American League invaded the East, starts a series with the world's champions today. In the National League, the Cardinals will try to take second place away from New York; Cincinnati goes to Brooklyn; the Cubs invade Philadelphia and the Pirates take on the Braves.

JOE DUNDEE WILL DO BATTLE WITH SPANISH FIGHTER

Welter Weight Champion To Sail For Europe In June To Fulfill Contract With One Of Spain's Finest Battlers

By SID MERCER
 NEW YORK, June 6.—(INS)—Joe Dundee, welterweight champion is flirting with another suspension. Joseph has accepted an offer to box Hilario Martinez, Spanish welterweight, at Barcelona on June 7, and with his pilot, Max Waxman, will sail from these shores on June 10 for the European adventure.

A ticket entitling Joseph to loaf for an indefinite period as far as New York is concerned probably will be issued by the state athletic commission which has produced a legitimate contender for Dundee's title in the person of Sergeant Sammy Baker.

Two weeks ago Baker defeated Nick Testa by a decision in Brooklyn in what was portrayed as a final elimination bout to develop a successor to Ace Hudkins.

For many months Hudkins held the welterweight challenging rights here but Dundee was under suspension for his failure to go through with a Hudkins match in California.

The six-months time limit had expired in Dundee's case but it was automatically extended by the suspension. Then, when the champion was out to good standing, Hudkins pulled out and made a match with Mickey Walker for the middleweight title.

Waxman doesn't rate Baker as a strong enough challenger to pull a good "gate" with Dundee and has declined to close the match.

Martinez, a fighter who improved greatly in two years of campaigning in American rings, returned to Spain with Paulino Uzcudun last March. The same syndicate that is to stage a return bout between the Basque wood-chopper and George Godfrey at Barcelona late in July made Dundee a tempting offer to box Martinez at Barcelona, the match to be 10 rounds at catchweights. Dundee, therefore, can't lose anything but his life as the title will not be at stake.

The welterweight champion has never been lucky outside of New York and should give pause before undertaking a hazardous trip abroad.

Two years ago before Dundee won the title he took a little vacation trip to California and was bowled over in a round by Eddie Roberts. Last fall he was matched with Hudkins in Los Angeles and refused to enter the ring when the guarantee was not forthcoming. For that he was suspended in California and New York and got into all sorts of trouble with the local authorities in California.

More recently Dundee was thrown out of a Milwaukee ring for an unsatisfactory fight with Pinkey Mitchell and is now trying to collect his end through the courts. Two weeks ago Joe and George Levine were chucked out in Detroit and he is under suspension in Michigan as a result of that incident.

When those Spaniards get Joseph on their home grounds there is no telling what will happen to him and if he doesn't stay here to fight he will most certainly be set down again in New York. Verily, the life of a champion is now always a happy one.

GOLF STAR COMING

LONDON, June 6.—(INS)—Miss English Wilson, 18, year old English girl, who was strongly fancied to win the British Women's open golf championship, plans to go to the United States to compete in the American Women's championship, it was learned today.

Mickey Walker Wins Slow Boxing Match

St. Paul, Minn., June 6.—(INS)—Showing a burst of speed in the last two rounds, Mickey Walker, middleweight champion of the world, last night won a newspaper decision over Jock Malone of St. Paul. The bout was tame and slow for the first eight rounds, neither fighter exerting himself. In the last two sessions, however, Walker speeded up, driving many hard punches to Jock's body and head.

As a boxer, Malone had the edge. He had the champion missing often, but his own blows were not heavy enough to score any points. They bounced off the toy bulldog like a tennis ball.

From large shipments of cucumbers I have many small ones just as good as any others for pickling, but not suitable for mixing in with table cucumbers going to the northern markets. They are fresh, firm and except for size as good as any others not only for pickling but for table use. Will deliver them anywhere in Sanford for $1.00 per bushel if ordered immediately.

Also a large accumulation of SMALL POTATOES "cully" good potatoes but not as easily or quickly prepared for cooking as the large ones. While they last, will sell these also at $1.00 per bushel delivered. Telephone your orders in the evening to No. 775.

Thomas Heeneys To Transfer Quarters To Training Camp

NEW YORK, June 5.—The old rock of down under, Thomas Heeneys, is about to transfer his activities to his elegantly appointed summer training camp at Fairhaven, N. J., to polish his boxing technique for the test to be administered by Professor Gene Tunney on July 26 at the Yankee Stadium.

Heeneys moves in at Fairhaven next Saturday and with him will go Squire John Mortimer and Phil Mercurio. The Squire is Tom's Boswell and Mercurio is a sparring partner. The heavyweight challenger, being a man of deeds rather than words, has imported Squire Mortimer from England to handle the talking.

Heeneys will not settle down to serious training until the first of next month. The New Zealand der has been doing light work almost daily at the St. Nicholas gymnasium where he prepared for all of his bouts here last winter. He really would prefer to remain there for he says he could work in a cellar and be in shape for Tunney. However, the necessity of the old "Ballyhoos" calls for a more elaborate program.

More sparring partners will be added from time to time. After the fourth of July Heeneys will have half a dozen human targets.

Tunney has set no time for a formal opening at Speculator where he has been rustating for several weeks. Just now the champion is annoyed by a stone bruise on his heel. A flock of sparring partners will be shipped to him after the middle of the month.

"It is not my place to mention Smith here, but everyone knows his records and can judge his ability by the landing he made at Suva, where landing conditions are not too good. I am glad to say that Lyon and Warner are both ex-American navy men with a record of war service with the Allies.

"It's not a lucky moment. He is a ship's navigator, but no ship ever dodged and turned to the right and left at a speed of 100 miles an hour.

"We dodged, turned to the right and to the left, but Lyon displayed a tremendous amount of skill. When we came out of the bad weather, he said, 'here we are boys', and pointed to the exact spot on the chart where we were. He had plotted every moment. He is a ship's navigator, but no ship ever dodged and turned to the right and left at a speed of 100 miles an hour.

George Sisler On Batting Spree Since He Became Member Of Boston Braves

NEW YORK, June 5.—(INS)—and inspired both of the former St. Louis rivals to greater efforts. Nearly every time the Sisler gets on base, the Kapah drives him home.

Yesterday Hornsby's eighth homer of the season, was Sisler on base, staked the Braves to a 5 to 3 win over the Reds in the five circuit clouts in the past week.

Dressen and Ep Rixey also hit homer for the Reds. Rixey's was his first of the season and he is now one ahead of his last season's record, if memory does not fail us.

In the only other game which Jupe pluvius permitted to be played the Athletics trounced the Yankees 6 to 0. Grandpa Ty Cobb drove in three runs and boosted his batting average above .300.
