

Crackpots Seem Always To Flock To Paper Offices

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—The place where I work is full of desks but this stranger in the soiled white shirt naturally had to walk up to my desk.

"I been up all night," he said belligerently. "You don't expect me to stay up all day, too, do you?"

"No indeed," I murmured.

"Well, I'm going to stay up until I get the rules clarified," he said.

"Does a baseball fan have legal rights or doesn't he?"

"Of course, he does."

"They can't throw a fan out of the ball park just for hollering, can they?"

"Oh, no, indeed."

"That's what I told them after they threw me out of the park last night," said the stranger. "I knew I was right all along."

And he walked out of the office, completely happy.

My visitors was obviously slightly screwball, and I fell to thinking: "Why, out of all the ears in sight he could bend with his tale of woe, did he pick on my ears?"

The only answer I could find was that in me he instinctively recognized a kindred soul.

Screwballs seem to love me, and I must confess I find them fascinating, too. Looking back on 20 years of newspaper work, I expect I must have spent at least 15 of them listening to screwballs.

Every newspaper office is visited by an almost daily parade of mildly daff crackpots, and the man assigned to the chore of hearing them is sometimes known as "the screwball editor." I always loved this title myself, although it makes some reporters nervous, particularly if the visitor is carrying a small parcel that could turn out to be a homemade bomb.

My trouble with crackpots is that I usually end up on their side. If an addled inventor shows up with plans for a flying submarine, he has no trouble at all convincing me submarines should have wings. I remember the fellow who wanted to launch a crusade to get raspberry-flavored stamps. That seemed so sensible to me that I sat down and helped him draft a letter to the post office.

My favorite screwball, however, was a lady we came to know as "Rambling Mary." Every week she wrote a long rambling letter, telling of her fight with the landlord and the neighbors, and the small children down the hall who teased her.

The letters, bearing no return address and signed only "Mary," came year after year, and I got so I felt I knew the lonely old lady real well. When the letters finally ceased, I missed them for a long time. I was like losing a friend, and I never learned whether death had taken Mary or they had just shut her away.

I suppose the most interesting screwball was "Operative X-37." He was a distinguished-looking young man laboring under the delusion he was an FBI agent engaged in counter-spy work.

Every few nights he would slink up to my desk and whisper, "Operative X-37 reporting." I would give him a typewriter and he'd write a detailed account of the spies he was shadowing, then slink out mysteriously.

One evening "Operative X-37" showed up with his sister. While he was pouring out his report, she said: "My brother is harmless. I hope he isn't too annoying."

"Not at all," I told her. "But he only shows up at night. What does he do during the day?"

"He keeps office hours," she said. "He's a psychiatrist."

THIS MAY NOT BE "the unkindest cut of all" as far as the Reds go, but the Communists in East Berlin didn't like it overly much when this West Berlin worker chopped the cable linking Red Radio and the Russian Zone. The incident occurred after the British sealed off the Soviet-controlled station in retaliation for hostile Red acts. (International)

Red Tide Lab That Studies Sea Plague Will Leave Tampa

SARASOTA (AP) — The Red Tide Research Laboratory set up here to study the sea plague that kills fish is to be moved to Galveston, Tex.

Dr. L. B. Slobodkin, chief of red tide research for the U. S. Fish and Wild Life Service, said the laboratory would be moved about July 1. At the laboratory are two scientists and several technicians.

He explained a more elaborate laboratory would be established at Galveston. One of the big reasons for the move, he said, is to take advantage of the Marine Laboratory at Texas A. & M. and government research facilities in the region.

The laboratory staff has been seeking out the red tide and what causes it in East Gulf waters. The move means that West Gulf waters now will be studied.

Dr. Slobodkin said he hoped to be able to work out a formula for predicting when the red tide would strike.

He said preliminary studies had shown these conditions appear to favor the incubation period of red tide: Very hot weather, a dead calm followed by a heavy rainfall.

The laboratory was established here several months after the disastrous red tide along the Florida West Coast in 1947. Tons of fish were killed then.

Marine life experts say the fish were killed by a minute organism which entered gills of fish and strangled them.

The interior of continents usually have greater extremes of heat and cold than do islands surrounded by the sea.

Farming Grows Faster Than Most Industries In U.S.

By SAM HAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The American love of good food is making farming one of the nation's fastest growing industries.

Despite all the grumbling about food prices, Americans are eating more and better food than did their parents. Since prosperous 1929 the food consumption in this country has doubled, the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland concludes, after adjusting food dollar volume to price changes. Neither the auto nor home building industries can show a unit volume gain equal to that in agriculture as a "growth industry."

If the population continues to grow at its present rate, and if Americans find the money to maintain their present high dietary standards, the market for American farm products in 1975 will be twice what it was just before Pearl Harbor, the bank figures.

Only if the birth rate drops and Americans go back to their diet standards of 10 or 15 years ago will the future demand for agricultural products fall below present high capacity to produce, the bank says.

Taking a shorter-term view, the American Institute of Food Distribution says almost all retail food store operators expect to go right on the rest of this year at least, selling more food than last year. They credit the continued heavy spending of prosperous consumers.

Chief factor in recent years has been the ability of lower income groups to enlarge their buying of food, both in the amount they buy and the better quality they can afford.

The sharp increase in total food sales in this country is due in part to the big baby crops which push population totals higher. But other factors are more important.

Chief is the change that has come over the national diet. Since the Depression years the lower-priced bulky and starchy foods have lost ground, relatively, to meats, eggs, milk, fresh fruit and vegetables. Over the years Americans also have tended to spend more of their income on choicer meats and better quality vegetables and groceries.

All in this can change quickly if incomes drop, due to unemployment or other reasons. Families quickly trim food budgets when the pay check shrinks.

Also they shift away from certain foods when they get too costly. One example was the cutback by many families in meat buying when meat prices were at their highest. A more recent one is the shying away from potatoes when they temporarily became collectors' items.

Another large factor in increased food consumption has been the great strides in production made by American agriculture in recent years. Increased mechanization of farms and the constant advance in farming methods — aided by fairly good growing weather in recent years — has enabled American agriculture to show an increase in capacity matched by only a few of the newest growth industries.

Without this capacity increase, food prices (high as they are now) would doubtless have gone much higher during the inflated years.

American personal income totals will determine whether agriculture continues to be the growth industry it has been for the last 30 years, the Cleveland bank concludes. The baby crop will be a secondary consideration.

The more money Americans as a whole make, the better they'll eat. And the higher their standards of diet, the greater will be the demands on agricultural capacity.

Rural Common Sense
By SPUDS JOHNSON

DESPITE HOT WEATHER, SUMMER IS TIME FOR
HARD WORK. PLANNING
Although old Sol really "pours
it on" and the shade of a big tree or the banks of a creek may be of pleasant, tantalizing appeal, important work and planning must be done on many Florida farms
during the period of tepid temperatures.
Despite the summer temperatures, tobacco must be harvested, corn must be cultivated, livestock must be cared for, peanuts must be harvested, grass planted, hay
cut, cured, and stored, cotton picked, and equipment repaired and stored during the next three months. It will be a "slack" season for some farmers, to be sure,
but it will be a season of hard work for others.
In the summer many farmers realize more than ever before how valuable is a cover on the land.
Those who have their land in some cover crop know that valuable topsoil will not be washed away even though thunderstorms occur with great frequency, while those whose land is bare, exposed to the hot sun and driving rain, realize too late that a cover crop would have prevented losses of rich soil.
Summer is the season when farmers who grow tobacco and other crops that mature during this period obtain their chief income for the year. With returns from their crops they pay debts,
buy needed supplies and equipment, and buy bonds or invest in other ways the busy summer season,
the University of Florida Agricultural Extension Service says, it is well for all who work in the field or do other hard physical

Hints to Housewives
By ALICE L. CROMARTIE

Though sunshine is one of the best and safest bleaches for white clothes after laundering and though it often fades colors, it may have just the opposite effect on some common stains. That word or caution comes from Margaret Furry, textile chemist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
The heat of a long summer sun
may set and darken stains containing tannin, such as those from cherries, peaches, pears, plums,
soft drinks, or the mustard served on hot dogs or ham. Fly droppings, sunsets, house dresses or aprons,
even bathing suits worn at beach
parties, may be permanently marked by leaving these stains exposed to the sun.
Give such stains first aid immediately by sponging with cold water while they are fresh and moist, Miss Furry advises. If any traces of the stain remain, they may be treated at home by rubbing glycerine or soapless shampoo into the stain, then sponging with cool water. Sometimes it helps to apply a few drops of vinegar to the stain after the glycerine or shampoo treatment, rinsing thoroughly afterward with cool water. Never use soap or heat until the stain has disappeared.
Miss Furry adds that sunning
may make other stains more difficult to remove. Givens may penetrate fabric more deeply if heated in the sun. Egg, milk and meat stains may be "cooked" into fabric
by hot sun.

PRICE CEILING UPPEP
WASHINGTON (AP) — OPS has just authorized price ceiling increases for baby and "junior" foods. The increases range from 3 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents a dozen cans or jars, at the factory.
The agency estimated the retail price will rise by about a cent a can for canned baby meats but not more than half a cent a can for other baby foods. The increase reflects increased transportation and wage costs in the industry.

work to be careful to avoid acci-

and crop returns, to do as much as possible to produce and arrange for feed and other things that will be needed in winter, and to plan

plant next year's summer crops.
And the Extension Service also recommends that when the work is fairly well "caught up" on the farm that the farmer and his

and take a much-needed holiday that will do wonders toward keeping one in good health and spirits.

QUADS DOING FINE
WEYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — The
quadruplets—a girl and three boys
—born Wednesday night to 27-year-old Mrs. Marietta Manning at the South Shore Hospital were reported by physicians as "doing very well" today.
They also reported that Mrs.
Manning is "fine and doing well."
The quads are expected to get day.

Dr. Robert R. Ryan, Weymouth
general practitioner who delivered the babies, reported that newborn infants are rarely fed for 24 hours.

The superiority of spiritual power over material resistance is the theme of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, next Sunday,
when the subject is: "In The Universe, Including Man, Evolved By Atomic Forces".
The Golden Text is from Amos (4:12): "Lo, he that forgetteth the mountains, and stretcheth the wind, and declareth unto man what he thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth
upon the high places of the earth,
The Lord, The God of hosts, is his name."
Bible passages include the account of Jesus walking on the water as found in Mark (6:51).
"And he went up unto them into the ship, and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered."

Also include, see that passage, and ponder and realize that Jesus walked on the water and that he was not a wizard
but a man who had faith in
God. He was not a wizard
but a man who had faith in
God. He was not a wizard
but a man who had faith in God.

Blues In The News

By BOB WISE

All was activity here on the base this morning as three of the five squadrons of Carrier Air Group Three departed for a short operational cruise in the Atlantic.

Comdr. Donald Gay, the newly appointed Commander of Carrier Air Group Three, is in hopes of starting a Little Theater organization here on the base.

Plans of presenting a variety show of skits, pantomimes, comedies, etc., Comdr. Gay intends to bring out some of the hidden talent in the sailors of NAAS. This unique bit of stagery is scheduled to take place on or about the 1st of July, in the Air Station cinema.

To all of the personnel aboard the station, a cordial invitation is extended. Comdr. Gay is seeking to discover any of the personnel who possess a talent for acting, singing, playwriting, or perhaps clowning.

The success of such an undertaking depends largely on the wholehearted cooperation of each and every one who may be in the position to lend a hand. Anyone interested is to get in touch with Comdr. Gay, or in the event of his absence, contact Mrs. Elizabeth Bitters of the Station Welfare and Recreation Department.

Don Fiamm, who recently announced his engagement to Miss Betty Cagle of this city, has been honorably discharged from the Navy. Don is another of the many aboard the station who plan to make Sanford their home. The approaching marriage of Don to Miss Cagle is scheduled for the middle of next month. Having already purchased a plot of land, Fiamm intends to build a home here in Sanford. He also plans for a future in the insurance business.

The Faron Softballers have done it again in the City of Orlando Recreation League. By defeating the Lewis Recapping Team by the decisive margin of 6 to 3, the Faroners chalked up their 14th consecutive win, without a single loss thus far in the league. Going into the last inning trailing by the score of 3 to 2, pitcher Morris Hall smashed a driving double that scored two runs, thus winning his own game.

The Faron Nine will engage the Orange Bulk Team, which is running a close second to them, this coming Monday at the Grand Avenue Park in Orlando.

Autos Provided For Disabled Veterans

Funds to provide automobiles for seriously disabled veterans and to pay indemnity claims to dependents of deceased servicemen were made available to Veterans Administration in a bill signed by the President on June 5.

The Third Supplemental Appropriations Bill provides VA with more than $285,000,000 for veterans' benefits which includes $25,000,000 for automobiles and $2,300,000 for servicemen indemnity claims.

Also included in the bill are $148,000,000 for subsistence and tuition payments for veterans receiving education or training under the GI Bill; $60,000,000 for compensation and pension payments; and $50,000,000 for extraordinary deaths under the National Service Life Insurance Act.

Funds to pay indemnity claims to dependents of servicemen and eligible veterans who died since the beginning of the Korean conflict have been exhausted since the latter part of April, when 7,553 claims had been approved for monthly payments. VA will make retroactive payments to these dependents.

Under the Servicemen's Indemnity Act of 1951 (Public Law 23), servicemen on active duty on and after June 27, 1950 are automatically covered against death in active service in the amount of $10,000—less any National Service Life Insurance or U. S. Government Life Insurance in force at the time of death.

For those called to active duty for 31 days or more, this free indemnity continues for 120 days after separation or release from service.

Station Dispensary. Lloyd will leave Sanford next Tuesday, when he will undergo minor treatment for a foot ailment.

The Faron also has three of its staunch supporters laid up in the NAAS Sick Bay. Peter Van Dyken, AN, William H. McGee, AN, and Richard A. Ferrara are all reported doing well, and are expected to be discharged before this weekend.

De Bary Doings

By KAY HENNINGER

Ray E. Peck, DeBary realtor, attended the all-day Seminar of Florida Realtors at Kissimmee last Saturday. He found the program to be most enjoyable and educational. Two sales were closed by Mr. Peck this week. The Mortenson house was sold to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Esterkamp of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the Graham House was bought by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Oldfield of Hastrock Heights, N. J.

At the final meeting of the DeBary Civic Association, Inc., which was held last Friday evening at the Dickinson Memorial Library in Orange City, 40 members were present and they made up for numbers with their enthusiasm. Plans were made and committees appointed to consider ways and means of starting the ball rolling early in the Fall toward our goal—a Community Center for DeBary.

On Thursday evening, the DeBary Democratic Club met in Christopher Manor. Final plans were made for the picnic on Sunday at Sanduski Springs. Everybody is welcome to come along with the crowd.

Miss Elizabeth Giacchino, who was an employee of the Mayfair Hotel in Sanford last winter, started in her summer position at Ft. McHenry Hotel at Lake George on Wednesday.

On June 14, Mrs. William Archibald reached her seventy-fifth birthday and on the seventeenth, she and Mr. Archibald celebrated their forty-eighth wedding anniversary. Friends in DeBary extend congratulations and best wishes to them.

Mrs. Fred W. Schaffert of Reifton, Pa., is spending several weeks at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Fuller. Her children, Fred Jr. and Barbara, are with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klepper have been quite busy entertaining and being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Warden of New York, who are spending some time at Daytona Beach. Mrs. Warden is Mrs. Klepper's daughter.

Mrs. Thomas Brown of Valencia Circle brought a good report back with her from her physician in Pennsylvania. Her brother is back on a visit and brought a business associate, Charles V. King, of Pleasantville, N. J. with him.

Good news of Mrs. Robert Edwards this week. She was well enough to be allowed to leave the hospital and return to her home. William Langbein was not so fortunate. He has been admitted to the Air Base Hospital in Orlando for an indefinite stay.

After having been back in New York for almost two years, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pappas have returned to DeBary and have rented an apartment in the Bolster house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lippelman were house guests for two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Peck. They returned to their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, on Thursday.

Those of you who attended the Christmas entertainment of the DeBary Civic Association will recall the "Bride and Groom". It and Mrs. Glenn Ferris. They left DeBary this week and will live for the next two years in Corpus Christi where Lt. Ferris will be stationed.

Newcomers to our community are Ens. Howard Schump and his bride who have rented the Moylan Home.

The Wilfer children are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Savage, while their father is undergoing surgery in the Jacksonville hospital. Last Sunday, Wilfer, aged 7½, caught a ten pound sheephead at New Smyrna Beach.

American Red Cross Marks Anniversary

WASHINGTON (Special)—The American Red Cross marked its 71st anniversary Wednesday with a tribute to the millions of volunteers who make its work possible.

The organization was founded here May 21, 1881, by Clara Barton and a group of friends as the American Association of the Red Cross. In March of the following year President Arthur signed a congressional act of the Geneva Convention, making the American society a member of the International Red Cross. In June 1900 the organization was re-incorporated by Congress as the American National Red Cross, its present official name.

In noting the anniversary, E. Roland Harriman, Red Cross president, said, "From the beginning, Red Cross service has been based largely on the work of volunteers. And although it has grown to 37,000,000 chapters covering every county in the United States, the Red Cross remains today essentially a channel through which individual citizens give of their time, their energy, and their money to help their fellowmen."

"It is impossible even to estimate the total contribution of voluntary effort through the Red Cross since the year of its founding. Last year alone 1,650,000 men and women rolled up the equivalent of 2,124,000 forty-hour weeks of unpaid Red Cross service to their neighbors in need. Only this free outpouring of the generosity of millions of Americans makes it possible for the Red Cross to stand

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

The faith of Israel in bondage is one of the finest tributes to the leadership of the race. That faith we now know was justified.
It always is. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the doubting knees.—Is. 35:3.

Definition For Today: An extrovert is an introvert under the influence of liquor.

From Jan. 1 through April 30, 1952, some 88 Americans died each day in traffic accidents. Was all that murder and suicide necessary?

General Eisenhower is coming in for a lot of ribbing, particularly from supporters of Senator Taft,
as well from the Senator himself,
because in a recent speech he advocated a "40 billion dollar tax cut". What the general obviously meant was a 40 billion dollar cut in federal spending. But we don't think the average American citizen would object to a tax cut of such spectacular proportions as that inadvertently mentioned by the General.

The Germans are supposed to be people who must follow orders explicitly, who cannot entertain any ideas of deviation from their instructions, must not use their heads
when confronted by a situation which calls for action at variance with what they have been told to do. The application of this unfortunate personal concept reminds us of the nurse who awakened her patient to give him a pill to put him to sleep, because the order was for one pill every four hours.

It seems to us that Ingrid Bergman Rossellini, who had to face the scorn of a Hollywood which is none too clean itself but eager to cry "immoral" at anybody who steps out of its pattern, is probably going to prove one of the happiest wives and mothers to come out of the movie capital in years. Perhaps this is because, in fact, she did come out of it, several thousand miles out of it. Congratulations to her on the birth of twins, and congratulations, too, for quitting Hollywood and sticking to her decision.

The people of the United States can look for no tax reduction if Harry Truman, or any Trumanite, is elected President next fall. We have it from no less an authority than President Truman himself. It simply can't be done, he says. Of course it can't be done if you are going to keep on increasing the costs of government, no matter how much you go into debt to do it. And it can't be done if you are going to keep on passing around bigger handouts, tolerating graft
and corruption, and undertaking
each year some new experiments in socialism. But if you do high federal taxes and don't mind paying them, be sure to vote for Mr. Truman next November, or the man he selects as the next president.

Florida's Attorney General has held invalid a New Orleans order making it a crime to peddle
merchandise from door to door.
The case is a Supreme Court ruling to the effect that such peddling is either no evidence of all or of some of such a private nature as to be punishable by a criminal law. But because this does not mean that no crime is committed when it should be prosecuted by the local authorities, the Department of Justice has asked the Supreme Court to reconsider the ruling. The Department of Justice has
asked the Supreme Court to reconsider the ruling. The Department of Justice has
asked the Supreme Court to reconsider the ruling.

Honoring The Worthy

Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain has, like other British rulers, celebrated her birthday by handing out titles and other distinctions. The most varied achievements rate this reward, including the promotion of skilling, novel writing, research on the effect of high altitude on airmen, and the chairmanship of the Scotch Whiskey Association.

Compton Mackenzie, henceforth to be addressed as Sir Compton, is a novelist whose products range from thoughtful works of genius to potboilers. "Sinister Street", issued 36 years ago, is still admired as a portrayal of Oxford University life, contrasted with the evils of the London slums.
Of late he has stoutly advocated home rule and possible independence for Scotland. Evidently the government thinks that these views will not get far enough to be harmful.

Crisis For Rhee

Reports from Pusan, South Korea, claim that government officials there have confiscated copies of Newsweek magazine which carry an account of the crisis between President Syngman Rhee and the Korean National Assembly.
The Newsweek article criticized Rhee for what it called autocratic action in declaring martial law and imprisoning
several members of the National Assembly who oppose Rhee.

Rhee was elected President of the Republic of Korea because he was a symbol of the fight the people of that country were making for freedom. If the old statesman is now to renounce democratic principles he will be betraying the faith placed in him not only by his own people but by the United Nations who hastened to support his country against Communist aggression.

President Rhee faces a grave personal crisis. Does he have a real faith in democratic practices? If he does he can trust his people to hear both sides of a controversy and come up with the right answers.

Bill To Aid Migrants

A bill before the Senate would co-ordinate activity of the states and the federal government in meeting the problem of migratory workers. The bill has a double purpose. It is designed to provide help for those who need seasonal laborers to harvest crops and at the same time to improve educational and living standards of migratory workers.

At present pay for migratory workers and the migratory worker is employed only about 101 days each year. Educational standards show that the fourth grade is about their average in education. The children of the migrants are actually getting less education than their parents did. John Steinbeck in his novel "The Grapes of Wrath," John Steinbeck wrote sympathetically of the problems of people who were forced by circumstances to leave their homes and seek seasonal employment following the harvest. It is almost 13 years since his book was published and there have been some improvements made in the lot of the migrants. But their problem is still acute. Perhaps the bill before the Senate at present will help to alleviate some of their misery, aqualor hopelessness.

Price Controls

WASHINGTON (R.Kan.)—The Senate
Finance Committee today approved a House-passed bill raising Social Security insurance benefits for retired persons by 300 million dollars a year.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) said
the measure would be reported to the Senate floor Monday and that he expected prompt passage.

The benefit provisions would hike payments to the 4 1/2 million persons now on the Social Security insurance rolls by $5 a month or 13 1/2 per cent, whichever is greater.

Payments for those retiring in the future also would be similarly raised.

The committee also discussed a proposed amendment to increase the other branch of Social Security payments—the assistance grants to needy persons—but took no action.

However, Sen. McFarland (D-Ark.) has served notice he will offer a floor amendment to hike
these grants by $5 a month for old persons and also increase the welfare payments to dependent children, the blind and the totally disabled.

also was a prime target of the crime probers.

Both men were called as witnesses before the Senate Crime Committee and were accused of contempt for refusal to answer
some questions.

Costello was convicted after a trial in New York and sentenced to 15 months in prison. He also was fined $5,000. The case is now pending on appeal.

The charge against Kastel was dismissed in Louisiana.

Williams said the Treasury "explained this failure" to audit Com-stock's tax returns by saying a shortage of men means it is impossible to audit only a small percentage of returns.

"It recognizes that it is impossible for the Treasury Department to audit every taxpayer's returns," Williams said. "It is necessary to have an adequate record should be on the preferred list for an annual audit."

Enrollment in the City swim-has reached 170, he said. City swimming team is to be formed at 8:30 Friday morning. Bill

Florida.

The City softball program has also met with great success. Mr.
Stringer indicated. Four teams, sponsored by local merchants and the U. S. Navy, engage in double-headers every Monday, Wednes-

game is scheduled for 7:30 run-

Three of the men's softball teams are sponsored by Robson's

The fourth is a Navy team from the Sanford Naval Air Station.

A women's softball program including teams from Lake Mary,

President Truman Signs Foreign Aid Bill With Its Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President
Truman today signed the $6,447,
730,750 foreign-aid bill.
The amount is 18.6 per cent less than he had declared was the minimum necessary for next year.
The cuts were "imposed" by a Congress which voiced support for the principle of foreign assistance but sharply criticized some aspects of the President's program.
This measure merely authorizes the expenditure of $6,447,730,750—in effect setting that total as a ceiling for military and economic assistance during the fiscal year beginning July 1. The actual appropriations still have to be voted,
with the possibility that the whole question of foreign aid may be debated again.
The authorization bill fixes a limit of $4,500,000,000 for worldwide military assistance and $1, 900,000,000 for various types of economic aid.
The President had requested $5,
425,000,000 for military and $2,445, 300,000 for economic help. So the bill's total is $1,688,730,250 less than the President asked.

Water may be perfect for ducks but not for ducking! To swimmers who feel at home in the water the fright of non-swimmers who get "ducked" is something funny! Actually, it's about as funny as kicking away a lame man's cane. The non-swimmer has just as much right to enjoy the water as an Olympic champion. He'll enjoy it too, sure, however, if he learns to swim. Call your Red Cross chapter at 80 and enroll in a free swimming course to be conducted at Municipal Pool on Tuesday and Thursday.

HOLLYWOOD (Special)—Bob Hope will attend the national political conventions in Chicago next month, but he won't take sides. Says he: "I'm just like a California driver—I stay right in the middle of the road."

The comic, who has done just about everything, will be playing a new role at the Republican and Democratic meets. He'll be a political commentator on television. But he will be strictly for laughs. "I'm not getting partisan," he remarked. "I'll just comment on what goes on at the conventions and hope I get a few laughs. I'll be on for five minutes every day. There's a room off the main convention hall which will seat about 200 people. I'll do my stuff there. I can't just throw gas at a cold camera. I've got to have an audience reaction."

It will be the first time he has attended a presidential nominating convention, and he may be called on to perform before the delegates. "I'll be a strictly observer. In order to get the material for his daily act, Hope repeated his long held credo against politicians taking a position on political matters. He criticized those who make cracks about President Truman and other public figures.

"It doesn't show good taste or judgment," he said in a rare serious mood. "There are millions of listeners who admire Truman besides, everyone should have respect for the office of the President and not do anything to decide it."

I asked Hope if he thought there could be a successor to Will Rogers, who evoked laughs from his political comments.

"Absolutely not," he replied. "Rogers was great, there can't be anyone like him. A man would be a fool to try to imitate him."

"Back in 1943 I played the White House Press Photographers' Ball before President Roosevelt. It was wonderful, because I was just back from entertaining the troops overseas and I had a lot of lively material. Some columnist then named me as the guy to replace Will Rogers. But I never had any ambition to do that, and I'm not going to start now."

Having been tied down in picture making for a few months, Hope is about ready to take off on another of his fabulous trips. He expects to finish his film with Bing Crosby and Dotty Lamour Saturday. He and Bing did their television for the Olympic and Saturday night, they will leave for a vacation at Lake Tahoe.

The Chicago conventions come next, and Paramount hopes to "sandwich" the premiere of "Son of Paleface" between them. He expects to play golf at Colorado Springs, then sail to Europe. He will watch the Olympic Games, play two weeks at London's Palladium and one night stands in London.

After his fall movie, Bob will take it easy. Except for 10 TV shows, a weekly radio show and several dozen benefits and tours.

"Diplomatic Courier" concerns the efforts to get a super secret document from behind the Iron Curtain in Europe. It is the jeopardized mail boy, and he gets into all kinds of scrapes with sinister characters. The film moves along at a break neck pace, which is in its advantage. Sometimes the dialogue is a little on the thick, but things usually straighten out. Patricia Neal, Hillegarde Nell and a covey of Soviet agents are among Tyrone's hazards.

If you have chives growing in your backyard you can use them in many dishes during the summer. They're delicious added to creamed cottage cheese, scrambled eggs, or to buttered noodles or elbow macaroni. Try sprinkling them on sliced tomatoes that have been marinated in French dressing; add them, also, to a tossed green salad.

Geneva Garden Club

The Geneva Garden Club held its final meeting of the year in the form of a picnic at Fort Lane Park on Lake Harney, Wednesday, June 11. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon to 25 members and visitors. After luncheon the regular business meeting was held, Mrs. Henry A. Simpson, President, presiding. The following officers were elected for 1952: President, Mrs. H. M. Sellers, Vice President, Mrs. Donald Norton; Secretary, Mrs. Don Perry; Treasurer, Mrs. Henry Harrison.

At the request of Mrs. Sellers, the nominating committee and appointed the program committee and chairmen of the various standing and special committees, and these names were read.

Mrs. Donald Norton presented the revised constitution and by laws which she and her committee had prepared. It was unanimously adopted.

Rollcall was answered by naming something to study next year. It was decided to have a picnic at the Community Hall Saturday, June 14, weather permitting. The men and boys to paint the hall, the women to serve lunch.

The two new concrete walkways were given to the county by the Park were discussed and admired, and Mrs. Charles Cole was delegated to write a letter of appreciation.

Mrs. Cole conducted an open forum. She called out attention to the work being done by the Hibiscus Society in standardizing names of hibiscus. In the past there has been some confusion in names, which they hope to entirely eliminate in time. She explained that the mallows which we see blooming in rank profusion along the roadides, are the native Florida hibiscus, the hollyhock belonging to the cotton family, and the cultivated hibiscus grown in our gardens originated in China. Extensive work has been done with them in Hawaii, but now Florida ranks first in the culture of hibiscus.

There are about five thousand varieties of hibiscus in Florida. Practically all of them can be rooted from cuttings. Mrs. Cole said that she would be encouraged, for after all, they cannot be grown in many places.

Mrs. Cole reminded us that garden club members do not have "yards", they have "gardens". She said to anyone for having a messy yard, but you can shame or educate them into having a beautiful place into having a beautiful place, she said us. Questions were answered regarding planting, mulching and care of various plants. Axes, citrus and planted high than too deep in the palms in particular, are better ground.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL

OCALA (Special)—James C. Nelson, 31, facing a life sentence in the slaying of his wife and their 5-year-old son, has asked a new trial.

A Circuit Court jury convicted Nelson of first degree murder Thursday but recommended mercy. Judge Edwin L. Jones deferred sentencing and set a hearing for June 30 on the new trial motion.

Nelson said on the stand he remembered nothing of the killing. The defense said he took three or more sleeping pills shortly before the shooting and pleaded temporary insanity.

750,000 American Citizens Visiting Foreign Nations

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Another bumper crop is in the making. By surface ship and airliner the United States is sending a record 750,000 of its citizens off to see other parts of the world.
They will leave from 600 million to one billion Yankee dollars abroad. Steamship lines and transatlantic air carriers report they are booked solid eastbound into August, with heavy bookings westbound into October.

Warren Gives Back Job To Joe Spicola Cleared Of Graft

TAMPA (AP)—Gov. Warren today reinstated Justice of the Peace Joseph G. Spicola who was cleared in court of charges he took money from defendants to fix cases.
The Tampa Times said Warren who is at Miami attending the Shrine convention had signed the reinstatement order.

This means W. Marion Hendry who was named by Warren to succeed Spicola during his suspension will leave the post he has held since Feb. 1. However, Hendry will go back into office the first of the year. He ran for the job and Spicola didn't.

Spicola and his clerk, A. S. (Shirley) Millan, were accused of 11 counts of extortion, conspiracy and embezzlement. Among the charges were that Spicola had conspired to set up a bond racket. Circuit Judge Truman G. Futch, assigned by Gov. Warren to hear the trial, ordered a directed verdict of acquittal on all the charges against Spicola and 10 of the 11 against Millan.

A Criminal Court jury deliberated only four minutes before freeing Millan on the remaining charge.

Spicola, one of the big political powers in Hillsborough County, has held the justice of the peace post for years. He has extensive business interests here.

Horde Of Crickets Is Threatening Village

RENO (AP)—A horde of Mormon crickets—25 miles wide and 14 miles deep—is marching toward the water supply of Austin, a little mining and ranching town 150 miles east of Reno.

Residents of the community of 325, sheriff's deputies and state cricket control men from the state Department of Agriculture temporarily stopped the invasion about half a mile from the town's water reservoir Thursday.

But they ran out of poisoned mash.
Later reports placed the crickets only a quarter-mile from the reservoir.

Townsmen fear the horde will contaminate their water supply. The Mormon cricket—a large, black, voracious insect—got its name by common usage after swarms invaded the grain fields of early Mormon settlers in Utah in 1850.

The fields were saved when seagulf appeared and gobbled up the crickets.

Sales Tax Fraud Is Charged In Sarasota

BRADENTON (AP)—A Sarasota couple accused of failing to turn in sales tax receipts to the state has been charged with embezzlement.

Informations charging embezzlement against Henry L. Owens and his wife, Dorothy, are believed to be the first such instance since the sales tax law was passed in 1949.

State Attorney W. M. Smiley charged the couple who formerly operated a restaurant in Sarasota with converting $380 in February sales tax collections to their own use.

Smiley said that under the sales tax law the Owenses are subject to prosecution for embezzlement just as any city, state or county official.

Owens was arrested in St. Petersburg Monday and held in jail at Sarasota until Wednesday when he was released on $1,000 bond. Smiley said he believed Mrs. Owens is in California.

Line Given Big Ship Despite Objections

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite objections by Comptroller General Lindsay Warren, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer today let the United States Line have the 10 million dollar luxury liner United States for the company's contract price of 28 million dollars.

Warren objected three weeks ago that the 42 million government contribution to the ship's cost was much too generous. He urged Sawyer to hold up delivery of the ship unless U. S. Lines would agree to pay a bigger share of the cost.

Sawyer, who replied the contract was binding and unchangeable, said today transfer of title had been completed at Hoboken, N. J. With it, he said, the ship was formally delivered and accepted by the company at Newport News, Va., where construction was recently completed.

Perry Murray Is Elected Head Of Citrus Mutual

LAKELAND (AP)—Perry E. Murray, Frostproof legislator and former speaker of the Florida House, is the new president of Florida Citrus Mutual.

Murray, an attorney who has grove interests near Frostproof, is a veteran member of the Polk County House delegation. He is serving his second term as a Mutual director.

The directors picked him Thursday to succeed Lacy G. Thomas, Groveland, who was not eligible for the post again because he had served two consecutive terms.

The board named these vice presidents: Thomas; Dan McKinnon, Winter Garden; Dallas Simmons, Bradentown; and A. B. Michaels, Wabasso. Re-elected secretary was Vernon L. Conner, Mt. Dora, and County Judge Clyde Maddox, Wauclava, was renamed treasurer.

Average Grower Of Citrus Made Profit During Last Year

LAKELAND (AP)—The average Florida citrus grower made a profit this season but he received less for his fruit than he did in 1950-51.

Using U. S. Department of Agriculture figures, Florida Citrus Mutual says the citrus grower averaged 72 cents per box for oranges on the tree; 56 cents for grapefruit and $1.26 for a standard box of tangerines.

This means, says Mutual, that growers netted 22 cents per box on oranges; 16 cents per box on grapefruit and 18 cents per box on tangerines.

Last season orange growers received about 92 cents more per box on oranges, 38 cents more on grapefruit and 18 cents on tangerines.

Of course some growers received higher prices this season for their fruit than the average on-the-tree figures show and some got less.

This season's citrus crop was a record one. Prices were referred to many times as "give-away."

Mutual estimates Florida growers have received 72 million dollars so far from their crop. Oranges brought in 50 million of this on-the-tree return, grapefruit 17 million and tangerines five million.

Reds Resume Their Assault On T-Bone Hill With Barrage

SEOUL (AP)—Chinese Communists, striking behind a heavy artillery barrage, resumed their assaults late tonight on strategic T-Bone Hill, 50 miles north of Seoul.

The Communists had been off the attacks Wednesday after suffering at least 2,000 casualties in six days of futile slugging. The Allied positions on part of the hill dominate one invasion road to Seoul.

A brief front-line dispatch said only that the Chinese had launched another attack just before midnight. It did not give the size of the attacking force. The Reds previously had used about 750 men in each attack.

The revival of ground action coincided with new clashes in the air. Six U. S. Sabre jet pilots said they destroyed two and damaged two of six Communist propeller-type planes just south of the Manchurian border.

On the ground, action neared a halt on the T-bone Hill sector west of Chorwon in the west, and on the east central front southeast of Kumson.

AP Correspondent Milo Farnett reported only a light artillery exchange between Reds dug in on T-Bone and Allied soldiers who defended the area during six days of bitter fighting which finally simmered Wednesday.

A Chinese battalion directed small arms fire and pitched hand grenades on an advance U. N. position southeast of Kumson on the east central front. The action was quieter than Thursday, when Allied soldiers hurried back sporadic Red attacks on the outpost.

New Charters Are Granted As Shrine Chooses New York

MIAMI (AP)—The Imperial Council of the Shrine today approved charters for new temples in Long Beach, Calif., and Alexandria, Va., and chose New York for the 1953 convention.

The council also gave temporary permission for a temple in Wilmington, Del. A petition from St. Petersburg, Fla., for a charter was withdrawn.

An amendment to allow Shrine hospitals to invest in mortgage properties and purchase common and preferred stock of private corporations was adopted.

Previously hospital funds could be invested only in low interest rate government bonds. The new regulations specified, however, that only 30 per cent of the funds available could be invested in other than government bonds.

The Shrine wound up five days of noise-making, prank-playing and mass frolicking with a spectacular parade into the Orange Bowl Thursday night.

An estimated 150,000 persons lined the 16-block parade route for the 8-hour march and another 25,000 saw the glittering show in the Orange Bowl Stadium.

Harvey J. Beffa, Moola Temple, St. Louis, will be installed as Imperial potentate, succeeding Robert Gardner Wilson Jr., Boston. Remmie L. Arnold, Acca Temple, Petersburg, Va., replaces Beffa as deputy Imperial potentate.

Only contest in Thursday's election was for imperial outer guard, in line for eventual succession to the top post in the Shrine after 13 years.

George M. Klepper, Al Chymia Temple, Memphis, Tenn., was elected to the post, winning on the second ballot over five others. Under Shrine custom of advancing one grade each year, Klepper should become imperial potentate in 1964.

Acheson Lands In London For Big Three Talk

Wide Range Of Discussion To Be Carried On By Secretary And European Heads

LONDON (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson arrived here today for Big Three talks he said would deal with the "great common tasks our three countries are carrying forward."

He held newsmen in London Airport in talks with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman would range over Europe, the Far East and Korea. Acheson, accompanied by his wife, arrived aboard the Presidential plane the Independence. Dr. Philip Jessup, U. S. ambassador at large, and Assistant Secretary of State George Perkins and Mrs. Perkins, came with him.

The secretary of state will hold his first talks with Eden Tuesday and lunch with Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

Schuman will join the talks Friday. They may continue Saturday morning. Acheson takes off Saturday afternoon to visit the people of Berlin and Vienna who, he said, "are maintaining their freedom during a period of great harassment."

He then plans to fly across the South Atlantic for a visit to Brazil before returning to the United States.

One of the main points of the talks here, Acheson said, would be on the Far East and Korea. Acheson's defense minister, Field Marshal Lord Alexander, is now in Washington after a personal visit to Tokyo, Korea and the Kojie Island prison camp.

Acheson took off in President Truman's plane, with the President at the airport to wish him success Sunday night, a few hours after Alexander flew in from Korea.

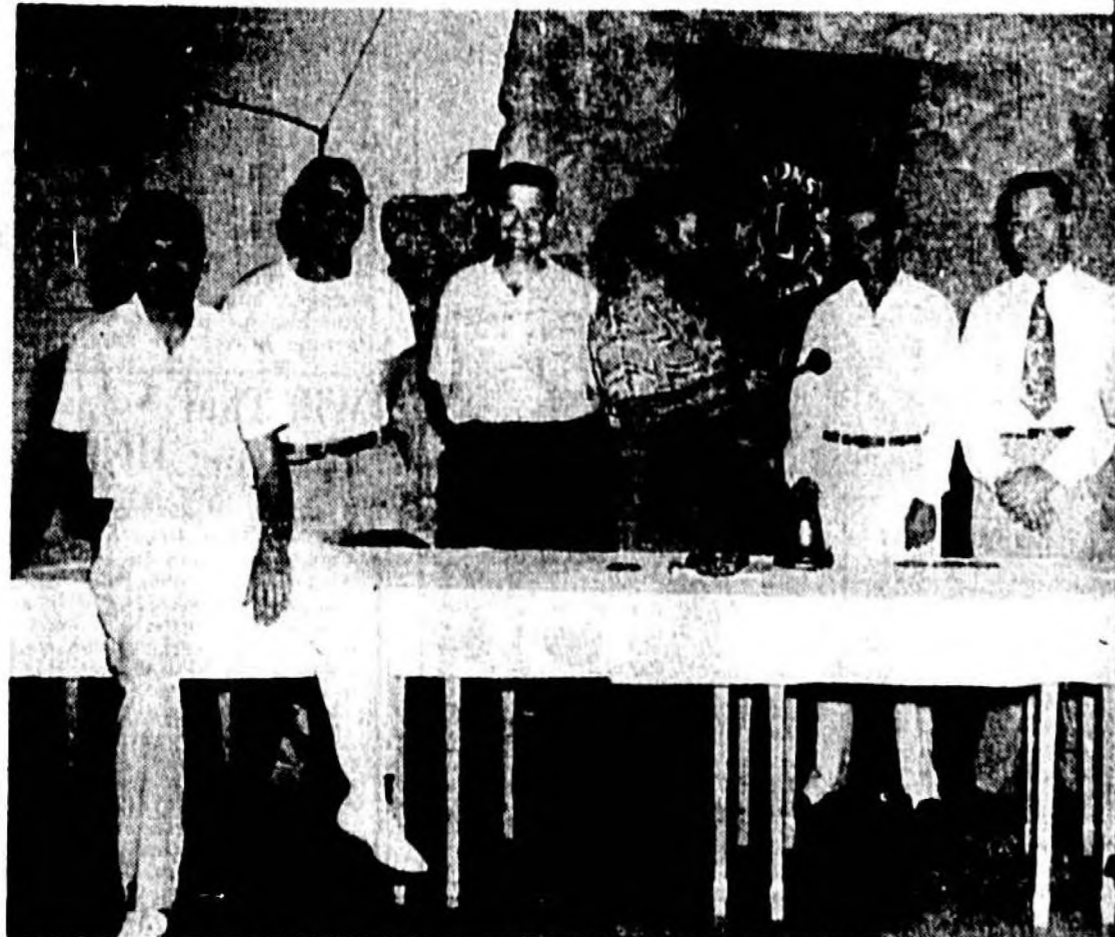

Acheson's mission abroad is expected to center around problems in Europe and the Middle East. Alexander is expected to talk about Korea with top level officials here.

Acheson plans to visit London, Berlin, Vienna, and — on his way home — Brazil.

His most important conferences are expected to be in London, with British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Schuman, and later with George Kennan.

Ratigan Reveals Sanford Growth During Past Year

Retiring President Of Rotary Club Is Luncheon Speaker

Jack Ratigan, president of the Rotary Club, in his last meeting of the year, outlined the achievements of the club during his administration, attributing them largely to the work of the members and the board of directors.

He pointed out significant changes which have occurred in Sanford during the past 12 months.

"One year ago," he said, "we had just started a major volume when one of our largest industries found it necessary to move away. Since then as a result of the Navy's moving in, the whole complexion of living in Sanford has changed. The men stationed here are bringing in their

Oscar Ewing Asks Public Funds For College Degrees

WASHINGTON (AP)—Oscar R. Ewing asked Congress today to enact a law to provide federal funds to help boys and girls go to college.

Ewing, who is head of the Federal Security Agency, said he had President Truman's authorization "to transmit to Congress a student bill to provide educational opportunities for boys and girls attending our colleges by economic hardships."

The program would cost 32 million dollars in its first year and increase annually until it reached a total of 125 millions a year.

Congress was asked to provide scholarships of up to $800 a year for the "neediest" students among the nation's high school students. The funds would go in 50,000 or 60,000 students a year.

Under the plan, the students would borrow from educational institutions sums of up to $400 a year. That would provide a four-year maximum of $2,000. The government would insure up to 80 percent of the unpaid balance.

State scholarship commissions would select the students. The bill would prohibit any federal influence in the selecting of the students. The students would be permitted to pick their own colleges.

Judge Stenstrom Is Installed As Jaycee President

Judge Douglas Stenstrom was formally installed as the president of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce, succeeding Tim Crawford last Friday night during the Jaycee barbeque at the Seminole County Club.

The new president presented Mr. Crawford a past president's pin and a gift from the club. Installation ceremonies, conducted by Reggie Moffat, past president of the Orlando Junior Chamber, brought the following new men into office: Clarence Knight, second vice-president; Gordon Sweeney, secretary; James B. Gut, treasurer; and as directors, John Kader, Elton Moughtin, Jr., Gordon Fiedler, Cliff Ables and Mack Cleveland, Jr.

The formal occasion was somewhat marred for Judge Stenstrom when prior to his installation, he was arrested at the barbeque by Highway Patrolman R. D. Harrison and City Policeman Bill Hillman, handcuffed and convicted in mock trial for "obstruction and perjury." Local attorney William Hutchinson, Jr., acting as judge, sentenced Judge Stenstrom to a year of hard labor as president of the Jaycees. The defendant will begin his sentence on July 1.

Mr. Stenstrom became dumbfounded when he had to go through the installation with the handcuffs still locked snugly around his wrists, since the two policemen had exited immediately after the trial apparently with the keys to the cuffs.

It wasn't until several hours later that Mr. Crawford "discovered" that he had the key to the handcuffs.

Taft Puts Forth Idea On Seating Texas Delegates

U. S. Superliner Reaches Gotham Amid Wild Noise

Disagrees With Ike That All Contested States Be Barred

America's New Queen Of Seas Heralded By Harbor Whistles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Robert Taft said today he believes Texas delegates temporarily admitted to the Republican national convention should be barred from voting on the permanent seating of that state's delegates.

But Taft had a news conference he did not agree with Dwight D. Eisenhower that delegates from all contested states should be barred from voting.

He said he thinks those seated temporarily from contested states must be permitted to vote on contests outside their own states.

"I think," he said, "that if contests could be brought in a majority of the states and the convention would be helpless to act."

Some of Eisenhower's backers have contended that Taft's proposal would be tantamount to the members of the Republican National Committee which will approve the temporary roll of the Chicago convention.

"I expect the national committee to expect temporary delegations favoring Taft in most of the contested states. I have no doubt that such delegations ought not to be allowed to vote on the permanent seating of contested delegations."

Taft said he wants to answer later in a formal statement, or in a speech, charges made by Eisenhower in a radio address Saturday night that there was a "steal" of Texas' 20 delegates by the Taft forces.

But Taft denied the charges and said "The law was on the side of Henry Zwerfel."

Zwerfel is Texas national committee man and a Taft supporter. Zwerfel's group managed to get Taft delegates after refusing to seat many Eisenhower delegates in a state convention. The Eisenhower group halted and named its own delegation.

In response to questions, Taft said he wanted to repudiate campaign material he said was circulated by Gerald Winrod as well as

County Woodlands Come Under Fire Protection July 1

$12,000 Program To Prevent Fires Was Approved In 1950

Seminole County's 133,307 acres, according to the Florida Forest Service, are under fire protection by the Florida Forest Service on or about July 1. District Forester Harold K. Mikell said today.

Pointing out that this action is a result of the decision in favor of the protection of the citizens of the county in the general election of 1950, he said the program will cost the county approximately $12,000 a year. Additional expenses of $4,000 will come from state and federal aid.

The funds will be spent in Seminole County alone except for items and equipment which cannot be purchased here, Mr. Mikell said.

The program will be under the general direction of County Engineer Joe Carroll of Orlando. A tower, an eight mile fire watching cable is to be constructed in the unincorporated Springwood area.

The tower will be the standard 100 foot tall and will supplement the only other tower presently in Seminole County, the 40-foot tower, and towers at Pleasant Grove, Aulay, and Orlando in providing complete fire protection to the county's woodland acreage.

The service wishes to put out under stress, Mr. Mikell said, upon the assistance which will be given to the county with the cutting of their own land.

"The service is not here to keep you from burning your land, if you want to," Mr. Mikell said, "but to keep it from burning when you don't want it to."

The county fire fighting and all light fires in houses and buildings in rural areas as well as forest fires. Although the service is not here to prevent you from burning your land, if you want to, it is to keep it from burning when you don't want it to."

Top Priority Targets Thoroughly Demolished By Carrier, Air Force Aircraft

By JOHN RANDELPH

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese news editors took a grave view of the massive Allied bombing today of Japan's industrial engine-plant, and one of the world's largest hydroelectric developments.

U. S. Superliner Reaches Gotham Amid Wild Noise

NEW YORK (AP)—The supersonic United States' America's new queen of the passenger sea lanes, was welcomed to her home port of New York today with a throng of thousands of waving whistles.

Thousands of lovers thronged the shores of Lower Manhattan as the largest American passenger ship (about 1,000 tons) arrived in the harbor's approach in the morning steampan of what is called the "superliner."

The ship, built by Long Island Sound, moved into the harbor today at 11:00 a.m. after a 100-mile voyage from Newport News, Va., where she was built.

As the huge ship was shepherded up the Hudson River by four destroyers, scores of smaller craft circled nearby, and the vessel buzzed her with their whistles.

The United States' supersonic sea harbor early Sunday with 1,000 passengers aboard. Among them were government officials, ship owners, armed forces officers, ship ping officials and newsmen.

Manning put the vessel through her paces in a smooth 10-minute haul of speed, 13 knots. The average for the entire day's run was 19 knots.

The short and fast performance was better than the 22 knots averaged by the British Cunard liner Queen Mary, who has held the record since August 1938 when it set the world's record for the fastest Atlantic passenger crossing.

"Shipping circles expect that the United States' supersonic sea lanes will be a competitor for the Queen Mary's record."

While the United States' supersonic sea lanes, secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer made new plans for a competitor, General Louis Warren in their dispute over the government's policy for the United States.

Sawyer in a statement released by his office in Washington, said Warren was seeking to create a public impression that the competitor would be a knock-out blow to the United States' supersonic sea lanes.

"Shipping circles expect that the United States' supersonic sea lanes will be a competitor for the Queen Mary's record."

Under a contract made with the old Maritime Commission in 1949, the government agreed to pay 15 million dollars for the cost of the ship. The company paid about 80 million.

Warren protests that the ship is too high and heavier than the Queen Mary, and that the competitor would be a knock-out blow to the United States' supersonic sea lanes.
