LaGuardia Urges Speed In Shipments

U.N.R.R.A. Chieftain Asserts Only Fast Action Can Prevent Famine Disaster

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP)—U.N.R.R.A. Director Fiorenzo LaGuardia today looked back at the work accomplished since the world relief organization adjourned five weeks ago at Atlantic City. According to his report laid before the 48-government council, the situation is as grim now as then. LaGuardia declared flatly that famine relief food allocations are grossly inadequate. He begged nations with available supplies to speed their efforts to prevent what he said would be a catastrophe.

Before the session opened, it appeared that the council would lack LaGuardia in a move to secure a bigger allocation from the combined food board which has been set up by the United States, Canada and Britain.

LaGuardia complained that at present U.N.R.R.A. cannot learn even a month in advance just what foods will be available and in what amounts. He stated unless he can obtain commitments in advance the U.N.R.R.A. will be unable to prevent a chaotic food situation between now and the next harvest. At the same time he reminded the council that the harvest would not solve the world food crisis. LaGuardia warned that unless individual members of the United Nations and existing organizations continue their present efforts, 1947 will see repetition of the famine situation of this year.

First Step Taken In County To Hike Teacher's Salaries

A committee of the Seminole County Council of the P.T.A. made its first step toward constructive plans for an increase in salaries for local school teachers by appearing before the Seminole County School Board this morning at the office of Supl. T. W. Lawton, to seek proper and authentic information as to the finances of the County to support such a move.

"Such a vital need has been felt throughout the entire State and it is the opinion of the committee that much water has gone over the dam in this connection with nothing really concrete having been accomplished," Mrs. C. K. Carter, P.T.A. committee chairman, declared.

"It is the P.T.A.'s desire to bring the matter before the County Commissioners as a second step toward enlightenment as to whether or not a step may be taken at present, or if not, whether they will further the matter from some other necessary angle, she continued.

"Members of the P.T.A. are working with a solid determination and are anticipating complete harmony along the line of fulfillment of so necessary a procedure knowing that they not only have the full cooperation of all parents but also of all officials of the county in the upbuilding of the schools of the State of Florida.

"This is the first time there has ever been a full 100 percent P.T.A. representation in all of the schools of the county. Under the council, which combines all of the individual P.T.A.'s, a program heretofore unknown in the county has been realized. This matter of acquiring only teachers of the highest qualifications is the foremost project of all P.T.A. programs through the county."

Rotarians Enjoyed Picnic Yesterday

Rotarians yesterday enjoyed a picnic at Lemon Bluff where more than 50 present partook heartily of a delicious corn roast and Earl Turner's steak. About 30 of the party were aboard Gene Roundell's "Skylark" on the St. John's River trip, while the remainder motored to the picnic grounds.

Guests included Capt. Comdr. K. H. Wheeler, commander of the Sanford Naval Air Station, Police Chief Roy G. Williams and Vivian Spear.

COLLECTIONS DEBATED

The entirely weekly tithe and collection of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Sanford was devoted Saturday to famine relief in Europe and Asia with the result that this small church raised $132 for the purpose, according to W. E. Wallster, church steward.

Koreans Receive Warning By U. S. General Hodge

SEOUL, Korea, May 9 (AP)—The American occupation commander in Korea—Lieutenant General John Hodge—warned Koreans today against undue excitement over what Hodge called the "temporary adjournment" of the United States-Russia Trusteeship Commission. Said Hodge:

"Mud-slinging, personal attacks, demonstrations and derogatory remarks about any Allied powers or their representatives can only operate to hurt the cause of Korean independence."

Hodge's remarks were broadcast in translation to the Koreans. The Russian delegates to the stalled conference left today on two sections of a special train for their occupation zone in northern Korea.

An American-supervised pilot locomotive preceded the train, but only as far as the 30th parallel, to see proper and authentic information as to the finances of the County to support such a move.

"Such a vital need has been felt throughout the entire State and it is the opinion of the committee that much water has gone over the dam in this connection with nothing really concrete having been accomplished," Mrs. C. K. Carter, P.T.A. committee chairman, declared.

EXTENDS SERVICE Doenitz Claims Subs As Weapon Nearly Obsolete

BERLIN, May 9 (AP)—Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz told the Nuremberg War Crimes Tribunal today it was his belief that the submarine is almost rendered obsolete as a weapon of war. The aged German war criminal added that in his opinion, plane-direction radar was the most decisive weapon of World War II, next to the atomic bomb.

Doenitz declared that radar-directed planes had compelled the Germans to develop the so-called "Schnorkel Tube" which enabled U-boats to charge to batteries under water. The device enabled the submarines to take in air without being detected, he said, and permitted them also to travel from Germany to Japan without once surfacing.

Earlier, Doenitz told the tribunal that Adolf Hitler himself proposed in 1942 that German U-boats kill survivors of the sunken ships at the scene of sinkings. Doenitz claimed the German Navy refused to do so.

If correct, Doenitz's admission that he suggested as an alternative that a quicker torpedo launcher could be developed for quicker sinking of ships.

Doenitz claimed further that his U-boats fleet had instructions to rescue survivors of ship sinkings when it was not dangerous to the submarines. Doenitz said he believed he had lost 15 boats through rescue work, and that he could not prove that contention.

W.F.W. Auxiliary To Be Organized By Seminole Post

Commander Briley Oldham of the Veterans of Foreign Wars announced yesterday that Mrs. Estelle Davy, president of the Fourth District of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, will supervise the organization of an auxiliary for Seminole County, Post No. 3282.

Mrs. Davy will be the guest speaker during a meeting to be held Monday night at the Legion Hut on the Lakeland. A dinner will precede the meetings and members, veterans, eligible for membership, wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of veterans with overseas service are invited to attend.

Mrs. Davy, who is also Department Rehabilitation chairman, has organized six auxiliaries within the past few months. She pointed out yesterday that the W. F. W. Auxiliary was organized in 1939 in behalf of the veterans with service beyond the territorial limits of the United States. The organization has worked to assist the V.F.W. National Home, relief, veterans' legislation, Americanism and in support of American ideals and traditions.

City Will Share In State-wide Power Rate Cut

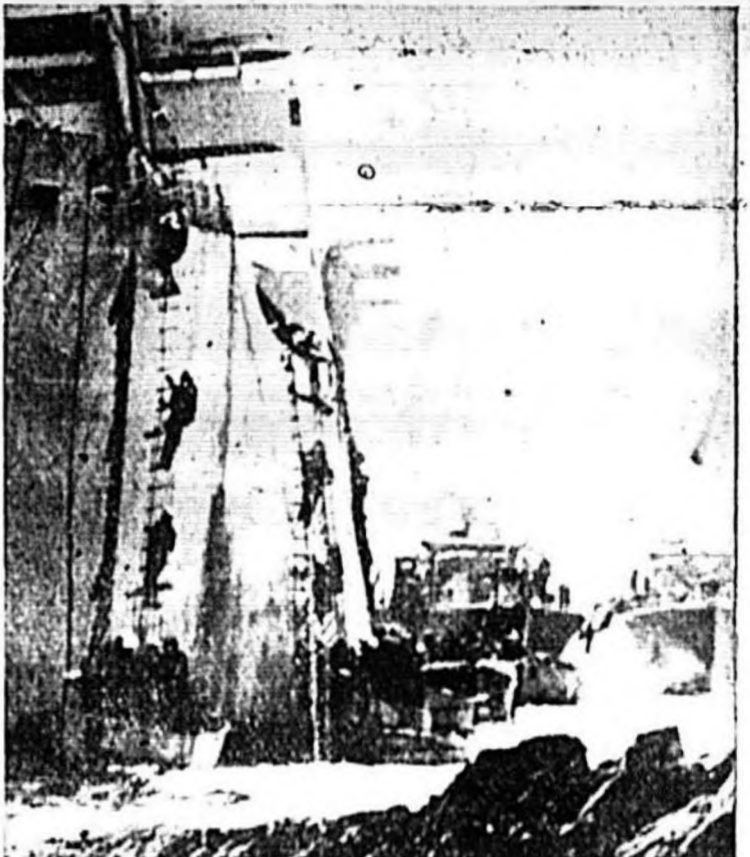

Reductions, On Every Class Of Service Effective June 1st

Sanford and surrounding communities will share in a $2,000,000 state-wide electric rate cut announced by Florida Power & Light Company today. This sweeping rate cut affects customers of all classes and becomes effective on June 1.

Principal beneficiaries will be the small residential users and the small stores and shops. H. H. Coleman, local manager, said these will get a cut of approximately $2,000,000. The balance will be spread over industrial users and large commercial establishments. Over 200,000 customers in 121 Florida communities and independent rural utilities across the county will be affected. These are listed by the rate reduction include: St. Augustine, Daytona Beach, Palatka, Lake City, Live Oak, Madison, Monte Carlo, Perry, Sanford, Macclenny, Melbourne, Titusville, Cocoa, Naples, Ft. Pierce, Ft. Pierce Beach, Stuart, Delray, Miami, Indian Beach, Hialeah, Coral Gables, Ft. Lauderhale, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood, Pahokee, Belle Glade, Okeechobee, Arcadia, Bradenton, Sarasota, Palm Bay, Punta Gorda and Fort Myers, and twenty other cities in these municipalities.

"Despite increased fuel prices and higher wages," Coleman said, "the rate reduction is possible because of the steady growth of Florida and the resulting increase in production."

County Earmarks Funds For Road Building, Repair

The Board of County Commissioners yesterday afternoon earmarked $400,000 for road building and repair in Seminole County. The county board today set the program for the financing of which they had been assured some time ago that they would receive Federal aid. This aid, said County Clerk O. P. Herndon, had not yet been received.

As a result the Board has earmarked all of the increased tax money that will be allocated to the county by the State for a road building and repair program that will last through the year 1950. Most of the road work will be worked out first, said Mr. Herndon.

The Board appropriated $400,000 to the Seminole Sportsman's Association toward the program of cleaning out water hyacinths and other obstacles to navigation by fishing boats in the Wekiva River. The sum of $100,000 was appropriated to the local post of the Salvation Army, which will make the total yearly appropriation for that work, $1,000.

Appreciation for the efforts of women voters in stimulating voting interest in the primary election of Tuesday was today expressed by J. H. Lee, chairman of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee.

"She can always be assured," he added, "of the co-operation of the Democratic Executive Committee of this county."

Murray Opens Verbal Attack On Lewis; Postoffice Places Limit On Parcels

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP)—President Truman today questioned the legality of paying royalties to the coal miners. One of the key issues in the deadlocked negotiations between soft coal miners and mine operators.

The President said he thought that a royalty payment to a union would be illegal by a provision of the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

The President of the Southern Coal Producers Association, Edward Barker, said that the coal operators have taken the same stand toward the purported demand of John I. Lewis that the miners get 10 cents a ton royalty on coal to finance a welfare fund for the miners.

Also in Washington, the union-management negotiators in the coal dispute met briefly this morning and then recessed while Federal mediators conferred for the second day with Secretary of Labor Shawcross.

Meanwhile, as the bituminous coal strike gradually paralyzed transportation and industry, the Postoffice Department placed a ban on most parcel post shipments weighing more than 11 pounds. The ban is designed to prevent express and freight packages which have already been emplaced from being diverted to the streets.

GOOSE HAT, LABRADOR

Up the great geese come from the South... Rippling with sound the thin gray air... Cast one backward look, and circle... Then sit down by the river's mouth... Snow-smoke eddies whirl from behind... As the air-splitting engines strain and pull... Into line these monsters; the small men run... With rope and canvas to lether and blind... A knife in this soil thrusts the cutting cold... Edge barely dulled at the year's end... Called here by mountains encircled by frost... Live men by the challenge of war made bold... To better the fox and the eskimo... And bring their South to this world's edge... They aim their chimneys against the sky... Through Christmas trees and the ancient snow... ROBERT RESOR.

It was just exactly a year ago yesterday that the year in Europe ended, and you still can't buy a stick of chewing gum.

"British Will Withdraw from Egypt," "Russia Won't Remove Troops from Bulgaria" - headlines Wednesday in the Tampa Tribune. Which just goes to show what it goes to show.

The American people are being asked to give a can of beans, a slice of bread to help feed the hungry people of Europe. But if this coal strike isn't settled pretty soon, they won't have the can of beans or the slice of bread to give.

The British government which has frequently been accused of militaristic penetration of other nations has decided to withdraw all its armed forces from Egypt. This may be a good joke on the Egyptians, particularly if the Arabs decide to go on the warpath.

Down in Bartow the City Commission urges Congress to take immediate action to settle the coal strike. "The city will be without power and lights" soon if something isn't done, says the City Manager. And so will a lot of other towns.

The Senate debates a proposed loan to Britain while the country's economy is demoralized by strikes. What good will it do to lend the British four or five billion dollars if we don't produce anything in this country for them to spend it on?

The United States is not able to provide the wheat required by the starving nations, according to Secretary Anderson. It seems that they would have to call off the coal strike and put some folks to work in order to get all the wheat that is needed.

Thirty-two thousand negroes are reported to have voted in Tuesday's Democratic primary for the first time that they have been permitted to participate in Democratic primaries, though they have voted in general elections for some time. But despite efforts of the UIC to organize them, their voting seems to have produced no particular effect on the outcome of any county race was unaccompanied by any violence or unpleasantness. The way it was handled in Seminole County particularly reflects credit upon the officials in charge as well as the voters themselves.

President Truman roundly raps the coal miners and their union... He quite agrees with the miners that the dividing line between those who are competent to mine and those who are not... He will say, a trifle too far to the left, that he is "wondering" if it is dangerous to the peace and physical welfare of the country to permit the miners to drive automobiles.

Checking On Heroes

At the moment when Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's reputation with the American people appears to have reached a new pinnacle of admiration and even affection, a book is published that will result in some reconsideration of the general's fame. Ralph Ingersoll in "Top Secret" attempts an appraisal of the British and American generals responsible for the war in Europe. His qualifications for writing it are his experiences as a lieutenant-colonel under Generals Devers and Bradley, and as an observer on British Field Marshal Montgomery's staff, as well as a tour of duty in Normandy.

There is a great deal of interest for the average American in the book. Possibly the most arresting parts will be the author's deflation of Eisenhower and eulogy of Bradley, present head of the Veterans Administration. Eisenhower, to quote a reviewer, is pictured as a "genial, incompetent procrastinator" who lacked the "will, resourcefulness and courage" that a Supreme Commander should have had. During a good deal of the European campaign he "went around in a fog." He is accused, also, of discriminating against Bradley.

General Marshall comes in for criticism, too. Montgomery comes off worse than any other, described as bad-tempered, insubordinate, arrogant. There will be answers to Mr. Ingersoll's book by Eisenhower's ardent and numerous admirers. Only history can settle the matter.

Coal And Courtesy

So far as a fair-minded American is concerned, there seems to be no good reason why the people and industries of this country should be deprived of so essential a commodity as coal. And it is doubtful whether the miners themselves have anything to gain in the long run by an extended strike. What they may seem to win by force they may lose in public ill will and other ways.

The most lamentable thing about the whole procedure is the pressure introduced and enforced by a bold labor leader, virtually at the point of a gun. There are other, and better, ways of deciding the industrial equities. Various other great industries have long operated justly and without trouble, and there seems to be no good reason why it should not be likewise in the coal industry, if the problem were approached in a decent and fair-minded way.

The Lewis procedure tends to defeat its own purpose, in spite of his self-assumed power, by resorting to arbitrary force. That may succeed temporarily, but fails in the end. The only real security for labor is honor, fairness and courtesy on both sides.

Conventions For All

With the day of conventions upon the country once more, the Hoboes of America, Incorporated, met recently in Los Angeles. Next year's meeting will be in Miami, Boston and Toronto, which had been suggested, were voted "too cold." The leader of America's men who make tramping a vocation is 63-year-old Jeff Davis, whose title is "Emperor of the Knights of the Road."

These are the migratory workers who follow the grain and fruit harvests and other work which needs laborers according to season. They hold their conventions in hotels, sleep in beds and eat in dining rooms, just to keep in practice with habits of the less nomadic population. There were 186 officially accredited delegates at this last one, who discussed the fine points of hopping freight trains and eating roadside lunches out of tin cans. It all goes to show that in this convention-loving country, an annual meeting can be organized over any subject.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

By RUSSELL KAY

Alarmed over the increase in juvenile delinquency and feeling that present efforts to meet the problem on the part of state and federal agencies are inadequate and ineffective, a group of leading citizens of Glynn County, Ga., announced plans recently for the establishment of a haven for homeless and delinquent boys.

It will be known as "Boys' Estate" and will be located at the historic Santa Domingo Park, fifteen miles from the town of Brunswick, Ga. and only a mile off the Savannah-Brunswick Highway.

Although located in Georgia and financed by Georgians, this home will be open to homeless and delinquent boys between the ages of 8 and 18 from anywhere in the South. These interested in the project have acquired this beautiful 350 acre park, mostly woodland, and plans for development of an agricultural program that will include general farming, dairying and poultry raising.

Modern fireproof cottages are now being constructed and will be ready for occupancy early in June and applicants are now being signed up, not only from Georgia but from other Southern States.

This Boys' Estate will be a democratic institution. No boy will be made to feel that he is being given charity, instead he will be made to feel that he is his reform.

At "Boys' Estate" homeless and neglected youths will receive every encouragement. They will not be treated as inmates of an institution but will be given an opportunity to govern themselves, to realize that their actions and conduct as citizens of the community directly affects the welfare of the entire group.

While competent adult leadership will guide and instruct, the boys themselves will make and enforce the "rules." Courtesy and consideration of others will be stressed. Sportsmanship and fair play, tolerance and justice will be instilled in the hearts of these boys in the character building program which they themselves will shove through an elected government as free and democratic as that of any state or community.

While up to the present time Boys' Estate has been financed by public spirited citizens and civic leaders of Glynn County, Georgia, and its board of trustees is made up of Glynn County folk, as the organization grows and develops, support will be encouraged from throughout the South and trustees will be selected from throughout the area.

It is the firm belief of those behind the project that given the proper surroundings and a sympathetic, understanding leadership, coupled with a liberal amount of responsibility in the

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Rep. Joe Hendricks has been advised by the War Department that should Daytona Beach or the state want Welch Army Hospital for the hospital, it will be turned over intact, but if it has to be turned into a vocational school for veterans, only such property and equipment as is needed for that purpose will be turned over. Sen. Claude Pepper is of the opinion that the veteran's administration should take conduct of their affairs, boys who might otherwise become a burden or a danger to society can be developed into worth while citizens.

At this time when the problem of juvenile delinquency is pressing, this experiment in Georgia is being watched with keen interest by social workers of the nation. Applications are now being considered and as soon as housing facilities are provided, boys will be taken in from Georgia, Florida and neighboring states.

Anyone interested in securing further information should write J. Ardell Nation, Boys' Estate, P. O. Box 333, Brunswick, Georgia.

The Port Myers Lions Club, after a special meeting of its board of directors telegraphed President Tra-over the hospital.

The clock turned back in Hillsborough County, and it was not because of a wrangle about Eastern Daylight or Standard time. It went further back than that, back into the days of horses and buggies, although the horses and buggies were not there. It was a good old fashioned singing convention at which 5,000 sophisticated moderns turned out at Pleasant Grove near Durant. Many brought picnic lunches and there was plenty of ice cream and stacks of Southern fried chicken. The gathering represented church people of all denominations.

Many people stay away from the polls at election time and then wonder why their spineless representatives in Congress get bulldozed by such would be Hitler as John L. Lewis, whose self glorification in the form of a coal strike threatens the nation with disaster. As an example of failure to vote, Florida has 1,482,362 residents of voting age of which 1,139,951 are white and 342,412 are negro. New registration figures show that of these 691,575 white and 47,783 are qualified to vote either as Democrats or Republicans. Of these probably about half voted in the primary election Tuesday.

Celery Feds Trounce Leesburg Packers In 7-3 Contest

Jim Schantel Scheduled To Hurl For Locals In Tonight's Fray

Sanford Tallies Twice In Initial Frame And Five Times In Third Inning To Obtain Margin For 12th Victory

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Manager Ed Levy's Sanford Celery Feds re-entered the win column of the Florida State League last night when they bunched seven hits off Leesburg's ace moundman, Red Williamson, to score two runs in the first inning and five more in the seventh frame to gain a 7 to 3 victory over the Packers.

Tonight the Celery Feds return to the Municipal Park for a return engagement with the sixth place Packers. Manager Levy announced this morning that Jim Schantel will go to the hill to pitch against Bill Good's nine. Levy also revealed that Jim Payne will face the Orlando Senators in one of the two games with Orlando and that Goose Kettles will go to the mound in the other Senator tilt. The first game of the two-tilt series will be played tomorrow night here at the Municipal park while the second will be played at Tinker Field in Orlando Saturday evening.

Levy said this morning that the pitching staff is shaping up well and that his hurlers are getting around to taking their regular turns on the hill. He was well pleased with Cal Blanc's performance against the G-Men Tuesday night in Gainesville. Blanc, he said, had plenty on the ball and was very fast.

Levy also praised the fielding ability of Byron Sharpe, the Fed third sacker. Sharpe should be ranking among the leading fielding third basemen in the league and his throw from third has added the Feds considerably. Sharpe is also hitting well. Last night against the Packers he garnered two singles in four trips to the plate. He scored one Fed run. Sharpe is piling up a considerable number of stolen bases and received credit for stealing home twice in the Gainesville game here last Monday evening.

Howington was on the hill last night for the Feds and although he was nipped 11 hits, he scattered them well enough to leave 13 Packers stranded on the racks during the contest. The lefthander walked four batters but fanned one less than a half dozen.

The Feds scored their first two in the initial inning. Leesburg tallied once in their half of the second but the Feds promptly

Poland's Teachers Work Day And Night

POZNAN, (AP)—Poland is hard up for school buildings and school teachers, so children go to classes by day and night shifts.

It is not uncommon to find seven teachers charged with the task of instructing 500 children. The teachers partially solve the problem of trying to give attention to all of them by teaching classes on four-hour shifts. This continues until long after nightfall.

John Mansour Nabbed By F. B. I. Agents

WASHINGTON, May 9, (AP)—The last of five men who escaped from the District of Columbia jail last Nov. 4 has been captured. Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation J. Edgar Hoover announced today that John Mansour was captured early this morning. The capture took place at a tourist cabin in L'Wenecyville, N. J. Hoover said.

F. B. I. agents surrounded the cabin and gave Mansour a count of five to come out. Mansour refused and the agents then fired a shotgun blast into the cabin. Mansour came out.

The F. B. I. chief said the captive will be charged with violating the Federal Escape Act. Hoover added that when Mansour escaped from the district jail he was under a charge of robbery.

City Will Share In State-Wide Power Rate Cut

in our business, plus expected greater economies from the operation of new and more efficient generating plants now under construction.

"This is the fifth major rate reduction made by Florida Power & Light Company since it was organized in 1925. Based on the new rates, the average rate to be paid by residential customers will be only half as much as the average rate in 1934."

All of the company's 177,000 residential users will benefit from the new rates with the largest savings going to those who now pay monthly bills of around $5 or lower. Nearly three-fourths of the company's residential customers are in this group and savings will average 125%.

Reduction in commercial and small power rate will benefit 65% of the company's commercial and small power users. Of these, 7,000 smaller commercial establishments, such as small stores, shops, garages and the like, will get reductions averaging more than 20%. Two thousand others will get reductions averaging 12%.

"These new rates and our $21,000,000 expansion program go hand in hand," said Smith. "We are building four large, new generating units with combined capacities of 120,000 kilowatts (160,000 horsepower) and this is greater than the maximum demand on our entire system prior to 1940. You can see we are planning for a lot of growth. I don't know of any better way to demonstrate our faith in the future of Florida."

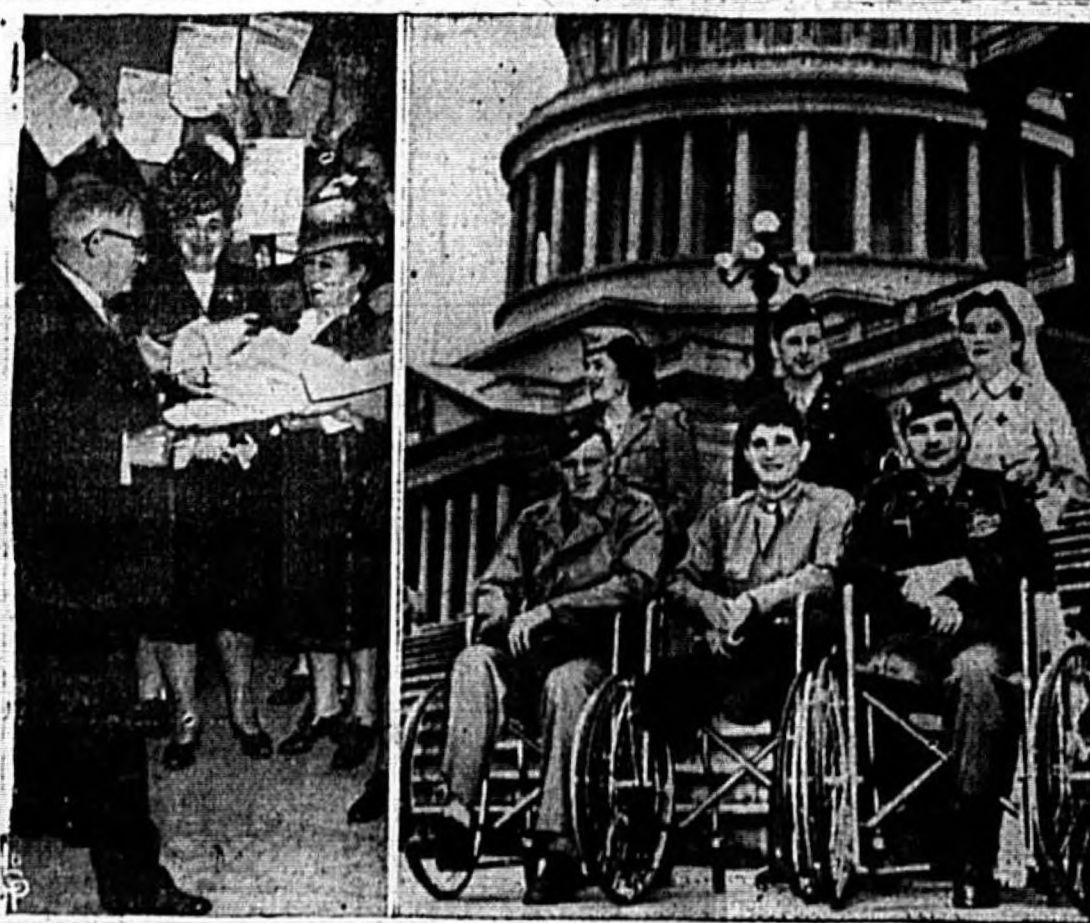

New industrial and pumping rates announced by the company last month reduced the bills of 450 customers by $313,000 annually.

Peanuts Enhance Supply Of Food

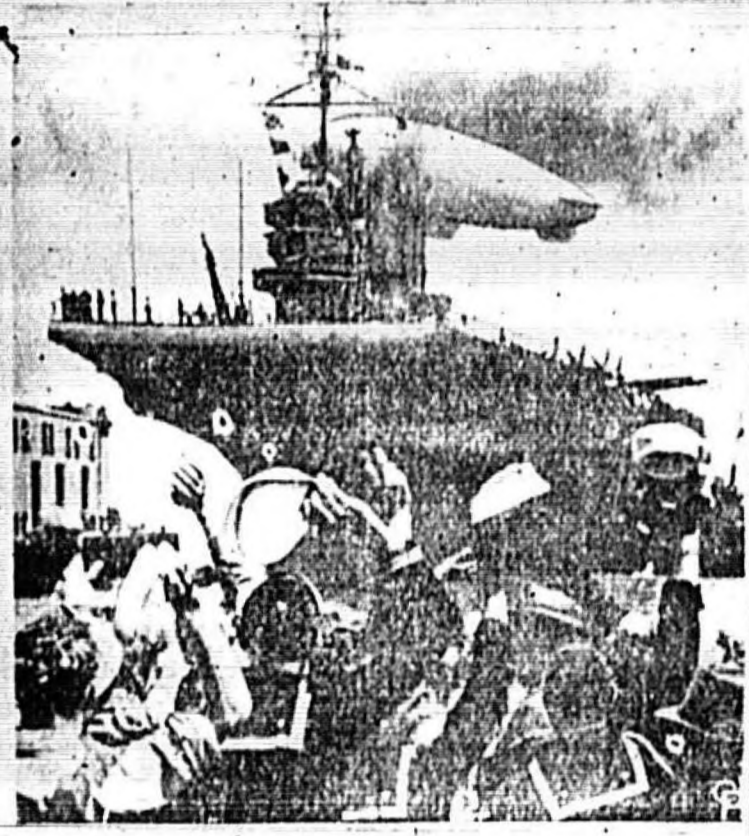

CLEAR WATER. (Special)—While they don't grow peanuts themselves, Pinellas County people know how delicious—and how nourishing—these lowly ground peas are, and so they have bought nearly 5,000 pounds from growers in northern Florida during the last two and half years, according to Miss Tillie Roedel, home demonstration agent.

The peanuts were purchased cooperatively, and have made a worth while contribution to the food supply while meats and other protein foods have been scarce.

Miss Roedel says home demonstration club groups used the peanuts themselves, sold to their neighbors, and sent some aversens to members of their families in service. Those not used fresh three times a day.

"I like to play four or five times early every morning, and a few more right after dinner," he explained. "And at night—well, I usually play about fifteen to twenty numbers before I stop."

"I feel better when I play the violin than at any other time. I think about the days when I was younger. Each tune reminds me of someone I used to know long ago."

As for the effect of fiddling upon people en masse, he says of the monthly meetings of the county association which he organized:

"The people who attend these meetings like each other now lots more than they did before the association was organized. When you hear all those happy-sounding old tunes played on a fiddle, somehow you don't want to disagree with anybody about most men his age take their tonic anything, and you forget your troubles, too."

When he was ten years old, Bryant had his first wooden violin, which a friend made from a white pine drygoods box.

At fourteen he bought a violin for $10 by made picking cotton. He purchased two more during the ensuing years, but at 60 decided to make his own. This he did, fashioning the back and sides from maple, and the top from white bay. Five years later he made another, with a maple back, cucumberwood sides and a fat pine top.

At 70, he started a third, now completed. He looks at it so wistfully, it must be his favorite. Its face is striped with cherry, chestnut, sassafras, mulberry, sumac, Rappesine, rattan vine, cross-vine, yellow jessamine, holly, pine and mahogany. The back is poplar, the sides cedar.

Resolution On Atomic Power Is Proposed

British Labor Party Says U.S. Monopoly Of A-Bomb Secrets Menace To Peace

LONDON, May 10 (AP)—A resolution proposed today for debate at the British Labor Party's annual conference next month declares that what it terms "the U.S. monopoly" of the secrets of atomic energy is a menace to world peace.

A suggestion was advanced that Britain's United Nations delegation attempt to put on the U.N. agenda a plan that all technical information and equipment for the production of atomic energy be placed in the hands of the United Nations.

Another proposed amendment to the Labor Party's conference agenda calls on Britain to act with Russia, France and the United States to break off diplomatic relations with the present Spanish government.

Runge Gets Award At Camp Gordon, Ga.

CAMP GORDON, Ga., May 10.—Maj. William F. Runge, security and intelligence officer at the Southeastern Branch of the United States Disciplinary Barracks here, has received the Army Commendation Award. The major, a native of Sanford, has been stationed here since February of this year. Prior to this duty, he was director of training at Camp Blanding from August 1943 until October 1945. It was for Runge's outstanding record as Blanding's director of training that he was awarded the Army Commendation Ribbon.

Col. Hugh Adair, commander of the U.S.D.B., made the presentation to Maj. Runge in a ceremony held at the drill field. Music was rendered by the D.B. band.

While stationed at Camp Blanding, the major in addition to his assignment as director of military training, also served as post range officer and post adjutant.

Mrs. Runge and two daughters, Mrs. Sanford and Mrs. Runge, are on active duty with the Navy.

Merchants Favor Closing Stores At 7 P. M. Saturdays

A survey of Sanford merchants has shown that the majority favor closing at 7:00 o'clock on Saturday evenings. It was reported at a meeting Thursday of the Sanford Merchants Association, Andrew Stine, president, announced today.

Following this report the board passed a resolution urging the merchants of Sanford to carry out this closing program on Saturday evenings, and hope was expressed that merchants will follow this recommendation.

Mrs. H. W. Rucker appeared in behalf of the Sanford Women's Club of which she is president, and requested cooperation with the club sponsored food salvage campaign for overseas relief.

General Strike Halts Business In Middle East

Jewish Stores Were Bombed Last Night In City Of Beirut

LONDON, May 10 (AP)—Business activity in most important cities in the Middle East was halted today by a general strike of Arabs. The Arabs are protesting British American Inquiry Committee recommendations that Palestine be opened to 100,000 Jewish immigrants from Europe.

Dispatches from the Middle East said two bombs exploded in Jewish stores in Beirut last night. Heavy damage was caused and four persons were injured. Elsewhere, however, there was little violence.

In Cairo, Egyptian Premier Ismail Sidki Taha toured the streets with an escort looking for any signs of trouble. Most Cairo shops were closed and streets were not patrolled. Extra police were on duty and large reserves were held in readiness for any emergency.

The work stoppage was almost 100 percent effective in the Egyptian port city of Alexandria. Diplomatic sources in Egypt said the strike was nationwide in Iraq, while dispatches from Palestine told of a series of minor incidents.

CAIRO, May 10 (AP)—Police in Cairo have broken up a Moslem demonstration against the British-American report on Palestine. Hundreds of Moslems, a crowd of more than 200 Moslems who were throwing stones from the roof of the Azhar Mosque. The police also dispersed a crowd of thousands who had gathered in the square on the Mezzeh Sabbath. One policeman was injured before the demonstrators took refuge out of range on side streets.

Local Food Collection For UNRRA Being Sponsored By Woman's Club

The emergency food collection on behalf of UNRRA is being sponsored locally by the Sanford Women's Club under the supervision of County School Supt. T. W. Lawton. Mrs. H. W. Rucker, club president and chairman of the club food committee, today urged all civic and business organizations to lend their support and co-operation in this "worthy cause."

The Rev. Ed McKinley, president of the Sanford Ministerial Association and chairman executive of the movement here, has pledged support to the relief campaign. The Junior Chamber of Commerce at their meeting Thursday, evening, promised aid in the work, according to Jack Rutigan, president. M. L. Collier, president of the Seminole County Farm Bureau, said today that he would appeal to growers to contribute food for canning to the drive, and that they had never failed in such a crisis.

The Sanford Garden Club pledged support in the food collection as has also the Sanford Merchants Association. Many of the merchants are placing collection boxes in the front of their stores.

Following the luncheon next Wednesday at the Sanford Women's Club, there will be a canned food show. The Board of County Commissioners, Wednesday, promised to finance the purchase of cans at three cents apiece and to allow the use of the Sanford Canning Kitchen in order that women of the county may can food for overseas relief.

Mrs. John Lee will serve as chairman of the Woman's Club canning committee. Mrs. Irving Palmberg will contact grocery stores and attend to collection boxes. A committee of 15 women of the Woman's Club will can all food donated to the club.

Mrs. S. D. Highleyman will serve as chairman of a committee to sponsor food gifts in the city schools. Mrs. Ralph Goodspeed will serve as chairman of the Monroe section. Anyone wishing to donate money to the cause may send it to Mrs. B. C. Moore, 809 East Second Street, said Mrs. Rucker.

12-Day Truce In Coal Strike Called By Mine Workers Boss; Walkout Paralyzing Country

Several Courses Are Open For Congress To Act On Strike Control Legislation

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The continuing coal strike and what it is doing to the nation's economy had Congress hopping mad today. The legislators are determined to act, to act quickly and drastically, whether or not the White House comes forward with some proposal.

A Detroit newspaper, The News in a copyrighted story, declared today that President Truman already has proposed a basis of settlement. According to the Detroit newspaper, Mr. Truman has suggested a wage increase of 18 1/2 cents an hour and a health and welfare fund to be paid for by the operators. The newspaper account quotes a conversation directly Snyder as saying that the cost of the fund would be covered by the U.S. as a "national expense of business in subsidizing an increase in the price of coal."

The newspaper story goes on to say that the health and welfare fund would be financed by the operators as a percentage of output. It would be managed by a fund of 10,000,000, consisting of representatives of labor management and the public.

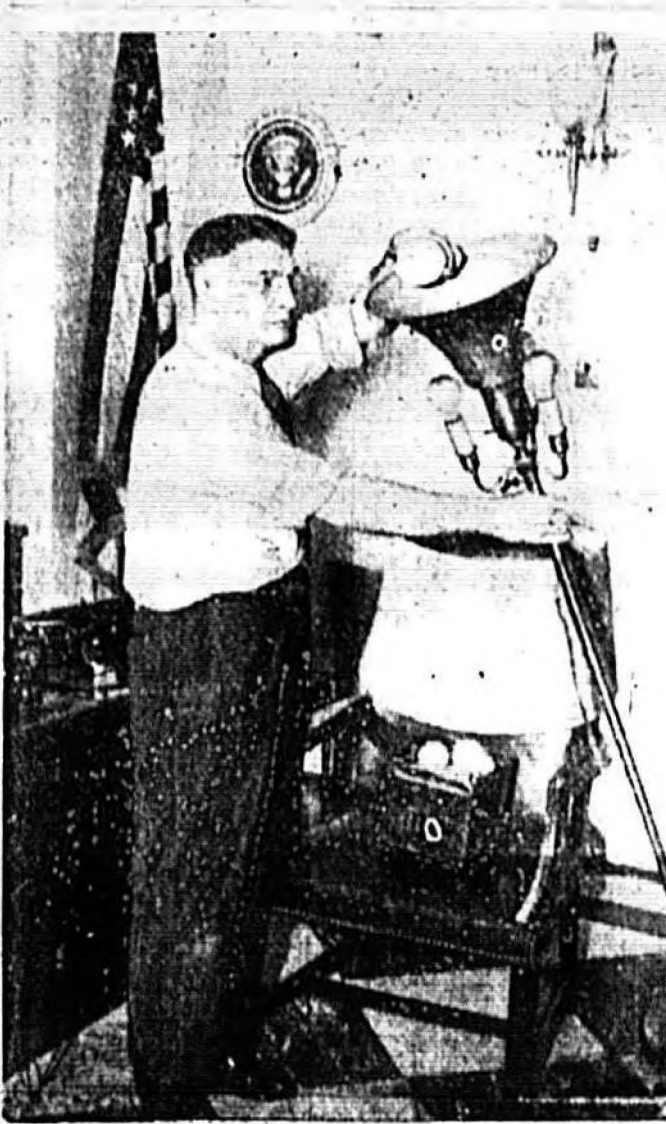

According to the operators, John L. Lewis has been demanding that the health and welfare fund be paid from a ten-cent royalty on every ton of coal mined. Furthermore, Lewis also said he had demanded that the union should administer the fund.

If the Detroit newspaper account proves to be correct, President Truman would have made a major concession in settling the miners' demands, but not quite the entire way. Whether or not such a basis of settlement would satisfy Congress remained to be seen. The Senate already has given some thought to a bill that would prohibit royalty payments. It also has several other possible courses of action open to it.

There is the case strike control measure, already approved by the House, that has been lying in a Senate committee for several months. The Senate Labor Committee has been studying the case. And the draft which comes up for consideration may provide chiefly for a federal mediation board to encourage and assist parties to a labor dispute to settle their differences through collective bargaining.

However, the federal government has been mediating, advising and assisting like mad throughout most of the stalemate coal negotiations, with the result that an apparent throughout the country today. It is likely, therefore, that the Senate will take up far more drastic legislation. One such bill to be sponsored by Senator Louis C. Howe, D-Iowa, is a bill to outlaw the President in issue a declaration when a strike is seriously impeding the public welfare. After making such a declaration, the President would call upon both parties to the dispute to go back to work. If the parties refused, the President would seize the mines and operate them under the conditions prevailing before the work stoppage. The effects of the labor union involved would be required by law to try to get their men

DIMMING THE WHITE HOUSE

A 300-WATT BULB is removed from a floor lamp in the lobby of the White House by electrician Charles M. Brooks. It is replaced with a smaller one.
