Crime Probes

(Continued From Page One) Snyder, in a statement read by Foley, told the crime probe is being set up in the revenue bureau to check on the tax returns of gamblers and racketeers. Snyder said there has not been and will not be any letup in the Internal Revenue Bureau's warfare against major league criminals. He noted it was the income tax men who bagged the late Scarface Al Capone, Chicago gang overlord of the prohibition era.

George J. Schoeneman, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, followed up Snyder's statement with testimony that his agents are now investigating nearly 2,500 tax cases "in the criminal area."

Foley, Schoeneman and other Treasury officials testified at what was billed as the crime probe's last televised hearing before the scheduled windup of their investigation at the end of this week. Several odds and ends are to be dealt with before the windup. Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said the group will decide on Friday what further action to take against three defiant witnesses who are already under $10,000 bond each for contempt.

The three are Morris Kleinman and Louis Rothkopf, both of Cleveland, described by the committee as top rank gamblers, and Jacob (Greasy Thumb) Guzik, Chicago's "Capone gangster." All refused to answer the committee's questions about underworld activities. Just before today's session began, three committee members disclosed to reporters they have received threats against their lives. Senator Tubey (R-NH) said he had received two threats by letter and one by telephone. Kefauver said he had received a number of threats "in crumpled letters" but did not take them seriously. Senator Hunt (D-Wyo) said he got a warning letter against "talking my nose in other people's business" during recent hearings in Miami.

Health Test Results

(Continued From Page One) this, he served on the staff of the Office of Scientific Research and Development of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn. The combined health testing experiment included free chest X-rays on blood tests to almost 6,000 Seminole County people. X-rays were given to locate TB, lung tumors, cancer, malformations of the heart and enlarged arteries. Blood tests will uncover diabetes, syphilis, anemia and other indications of disease. Promotional work before and during the health test experiment was done by the Seminole County TB association. The association also worked with the Seminole County Health Unit in operation of the project. A discussion of the report will be made by Dr. C. M. Sharpe, Jacksonville, director, Bureau of Tuberculosis Control, State Board of Health who worked closely with Dr. Smith in planning and execution of the project. The outcome of this and other such projects will determine whether or not Florida is now ready to embark on a combined health testing program, Dr. Sharp indicated.

Cavorting Lion Leaps Over Cars After Escaping

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Mar. 27 (AP)—A hungry lioness slipped out of her cage at a circus costume ball here early today and cavorted among movie stars and socialites for 15 minutes before being captured by a singer, a restaurant man and a photographer. Singer Allan Jones, Renaldo Ferrarri of San Francisco, and magazine photographer Earl Tiesen crowded the animal into a corner where her handlers could get a rope around her and lead her back to her cage. It happened at a birthday party given for his wife by Stewart Hopp, Rhode Island insurance man, at Rogers Ranch club. "Just as the animal trainer was leaving the cage after his act," Hopp said, "the lioness slipped out behind him and headed for the desert. She was distracted by all the cars parked outside the big circus tent, I guess, because she started jumping over the cars as if she were a gazelle. "If you've never seen a lion hopping over a car you've missed something. She was very casual about it. She just walked up to a car and over the top. "The lion wandered around outside for a while and then headed for the kitchen. She apparently was rather hungry. This was not pretty noisy about it all night. At the kitchen door Jones, Ferrarri and Tiesen, with props and chairs, kept her cornered until the trainer could get her back in the cage. The trainer's name was not learned immediately. Hero of the affair, said Hopp, was an elephant boy named Rudolf Hernandez. "Hernandez thought very fast. He moved one of his elephants over to the tent entrance, saying one of his beasts could whip any two lions in the world. This way he kept the people inside the tent and the lion outside where it could do little damage. "Funny thing was, everybody kept trying to peek outside to watch the lion jumping over the cars. "John Klingling North Jr., who happened to be in town, hired Hernandez on the spot. He said that's the kind of a boy who makes a circus great. Among the celebrities who attended the party with Hopp, Hennie, William Powell, and Marilyn LeRoy and Harry Joe Brown, movie directors, Hopp said 200 persons were there in circus costume. There were three rings in the huge tent, one for dining, one for dancing and one for entertainment. The lion circus acts, including Tiesen, were in the third ring. "It was a three-ring circus, all right," said Hopp. "At least." Police were summoned but the lion was back in its cage before they could reach the club at the edge of town.

Sewage Disposal

(Continued From Page One) This will be used by the Police Department as a chemical test to determine the alcoholic content of the breath of persons arrested for drunkenness. The purchase was made upon the recommendation of Chief Williams. The tests are reported to be valuable in determining the condition of diabetics who appear with symptoms similar to persons who are drunk. R. H. Beckham, operator of the Sanford Trailer Park, requested an extension of his lease ending in October, and stated that he will make improvements in the park. The Commission asked Mr. McKibbin to get more information on the matter. The Commission ordered that lots in the Marvonia second section outside the City limits be placed on the market for sale, with the exception of those lots that might be cut by the State Highway 46 extension to the lakefront. An ordinance was passed vacating a two foot strip on the north side of Commercial Avenue for a half block between Palmetto and Sanford Avenues. Lee Rockwell was granted a permit to operate a taxicab company here. It was stated that four taxicabs will be put into operation. The City rejected the bid of Foster Smith to demolish the old store on Sanford Avenue owned by Mrs. Isabelle Simon. It was condemned in December, 1949 by the building inspector. City workers were instructed to remove the contents of the store to a location designated by Mrs. Simon before tearing it down. The Commission authorized the advertising of intent to apply for special State legislation for Sanford to increase the police pension fund. This fund, said Mr. McKibbin, is insufficient to handle pensions adequately for retiring officers. Mr. McKibbin was instructed by the Commission to work with members of the Civil Service Board to determine methods of increasing the pension funds without using tax funds.

Even before it, he had been reported by aides to be much more optimistic than earlier over progress. Wilson said there is serious doubt whether the government will go ahead with the proposed "controlled materials plan" for parcelling out basic metals to industry on July 1. He emphasized the uncertainty does not reflect any lessening of urgency in the munitions drive. The question, he said, is whether less harsh controls might be used which would have lighter impact on civilian goods production.

21 Gun Salute Greet French Chief Of State

Tremendous Welcome Ceremony Is Put On For Auriol In First Visit To U. S.

NEW YORK, Mar. 28—(AP)—President Vincent Auriol of France arrived today for the first visit ever made to the United States by a French chief executive.

Whistles blew, airplanes roared overhead and champagne flowed in Auriol's honor as the liner Ile De France nosed through New York harbor.

The smiling president also was greeted with a 21-gun salute from an army gun at Governor's Island.

In a dramatic scene, Auriol doffed his gray hat and held it at arm's length over his head in a salute to the statue of Liberty—France's gift to the United States as a symbol of freedom.

The flag-bedecked liner was a scene of excitement and confusion as it entered the port.

More than 200 persons, including a press party of 165, boarded the ship off the quarantine station.

Photographers and newsmen crowded around the stocky president and his party standing near the ship's railing.

A New York City police department band on an accompanying float struck up "La Marseillaise," French national anthem.

Casey Refuses To Reveal Details Of Ship Transaction

Former Congressman Says House Group Exceeds Authority

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—Joseph E. Casey refused today to tell investigating Senators who were his partners in a war surplus ships deal that brought him $250,000 profit on a $20,000 investment.

Casey declined to give a Senate banking subcommittee the names of fellow officers and directors in the American Overseas Tanker Corporation, the company which he and the late Sen. Joseph P. Kamp, R-N.J., had formed to investigate charges of political influence in RFC lending, had no authority to go into the ship's matter.

The RFC, big government lending agency, was involved in the ship's transaction.

Casey, when before the banking subcommittee two weeks ago, had told generally of the transaction, it involved the purchase of five surplus tankers from the Maritime Commission, their lease to Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and their eventual sale at a profit of around $2,800,000. At that time, Casey said there were "30, 40, or 50" stockholders in (Continued On Page 8)

CIO Demands Revival Of Strict Control On Rents, Food Prices

By MARVIN L. ARROWHIMM
WASHINGTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—The CIO wants Congress to revive World War II federal food subsidies to cut the retail price of market basket items.

The labor organization urged that step in outlining an anti-inflation program to the Senate-House economic committee.

The program calls for subsidies—government payments to producers or processors—which would permit effective controls over retail food prices while at the same time assuring fair returns to the farmers.

The CIO views are made public by the committee today along with those of other organizations to which it sent questionnaires for information in preparing its annual report.

The report is to be submitted to Congress Friday. It amounts to a scathing indictment of the economic report which President Truman laid before the lawmakers early in January.

In summary of submission of the committee, Senators O'Mahoney (D-Wy.) and Taft (R-Ohio) continued to disagree sharply over whether the Democrat majority are going to support a program policy. O'Mahoney is chairman of the committee and Taft is the senior Republican member.

"The report," Taft said in an interview, "takes up the President's recommendations one after another and breaks them all for a loop."

But O'Mahoney insisted there is no basis for Taft's assertion. He said if the report is on the conservative side in those times, "it is because the President himself is a pretty conservative fellow."

As the CIO's anti-inflation views as well as those of the other organizations were submitted to the joint committee early last month, after the general wage-price freeze of Jan. 30. They were outlined before labor's representatives walked out of the government mobilization program in a protest against general policy.

Emil Rieve, chairman of the CIO's Committee on Economic Policy, told the congressional group the Defense Production Act "has failed as an anti-inflation weapon." That's the law which includes wage-price control authority.

Rieve also reiterated the CIO's recent complaint that wages are controlled but "no effective action has been taken to control the two major factors in the cost of living—food prices and rents."

Wagner Stands Pat As 3 Other Schools Make Faculty Cuts

JACKSONVILLE, Mar. 28—(AP)—Three Florida colleges today admitted faculty slashes for economy reasons while omitted Paul Wagner stood by his guns for a cut of 23 of 75 at Rollins College.

The decision to cut the faculty and abandon athletics at Rollins to prevent bankruptcy under an $82,000 debt touched off a series of explosions that reverberated across the nation and still has the small, expensive, exclusive little college in a turmoil.

A survey brought replies from presidents at the State-supported University of Florida at Gainesville and Florida State University at Tallahassee which said no reductions were seen.

On specific questions, Rollins University at Deland, Tamiami University and Florida at Lakeland. The University of Miami said, "No comment."

President Ollis Edmunds of Stetson said, "We may have to make some cuts but whatever we make will be below the national average."

Dr. C. E. Nance, president of Tampa, said, "We are not retreating anyone on permanent tenure but are releasing four, possibly five, at the end of the year not on permanent tenure. We will cut our budget elsewhere."

Previously, football coach Frankie Sinkwich and assistant John Vardian had resigned during talk of discontinuing football at Tampa. Dr. Nance said he decided on football would be made until a trustees meet in April.

President Ludd M. Spivey of Florida Southern said "naturally there will be some changes. Some teachers get better jobs. Probably some will have to go. I can't say anything until the trustees meet, the date for which is not set."

The New York Times said on Feb. 15 that 16 already had been discharged at Florida Southern with four or six more to go, but Dr. Spivey would not comment (Continued On Page Two)

3-Gun Man Attacks Station Attendant

DECATUR, Ga., Mar. 28—(AP)—A two-gun man is old stuff around here, Decatur police last night latched onto a three-gun man.

Will Grant, 33-year-old Negro filling station worker, told police a man pointed three revolvers at him after an argument, said "I got you now," and started shooting. "The first shot hit me in the arm and knocked me down," Grant related. "I don't know how many more times he shot—I wasn't there that long."

Police later arrested Robert W. Anderson, 39-year-old white man, and charged him with drunkenness, carrying concealed weapons, and assault with intent to murder. Chief Hoyt Sutton of DeKalb county reported.

Police said they found Anderson armed with three revolvers.

18 Negro Pupils Injured As Bus Runs Into Ditch

Driver Is Unable To Account For Wreck; 3 Are Hospitalized

About 18 Negro pupils of Crosson Academy were injured this morning shortly before 9:00 o'clock when a school bus, which was bringing them to Sanford from Geneva and Ovid, left the road on Geneva Avenue near Camerton Avenue and plunged into a ditch.

The injured, most of whom had cuts and bruises, were taken to Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital for emergency treatment. Of these, three were hospitalized, and one, Louise Givens, had a badly cut hand. The others were Jeanette Daniels and Clarence Sapp. The latter was cut on the left cheek.

Ossie Banks, Negro driver of the bus, received treatment for bruises and cuts. He stated that he had been thrown by the quick stop, half way through the windshield, and was unable to account for the bus leaving the road, stating that it bounced and then went into the ditch.

He said that he had been driving school buses for about six years and this particular bus for two months.

The wreck was investigated by State Highway Patrolman H. D. Harrison who said this morning that he had no one to make further investigation before making (Continued On Page Six)

All proceeds from the sale will be used toward the Kiwanis project for underprivileged children, she said.

The club voted to assist with the Red Cross Drive in any way in which it might be called upon by Gordon Bradley, chairman. Mrs. Bill Tyre, chairman on cancer information, announced that the cancer drive for funds will begin in April.

Mrs. W. E. Hollerhead, Milk Bank chairman, reported a total of 22 quarts of fresh milk and one case of canned milk given to needy families during the past week.

Mud-Mired American Artillery Pounds Chinese Red Positions

TOKYO, Mar. 28—(AP)—American artillery units from mud-mired positions today pounded Communist lines mazel along the 38th Parallel in central Korea.

Field dispatches said the Reds were digging in south of the border on both the western and central fronts.

Along the east coast, South Korean troops moved more than six miles north of 38. They occupied four North Korean towns and a border village.

But the focus of battle was on the central front, where 9000 Communist were reported in defensive positions south and north of the border.

Allied infantry patrols advanced through pelting rain seeking targets. When they met Communist fire they retreated to let the artillery lay down a roaring barrage. Allied warplanes dove out of the overcast and hammered the Reds with 1000-pound bombs and machine-gun fire.

The Allies were pushing a scorched earth policy in reverse, mercilessly pounding the ground they hope to take if the Reds withdraw.

They also hoped to thwart any Communist plans for a counter-offensive. If the Reds are building up for a new drive they probably will start it during this rainy season.

The rains were a serious handicap for the United States forces. They slowed the air attack and bogged down the ponderous armored forces.

Northeast of Seoul, a Chinese regiment stubbornly stood off an Allied attack with a wall of mortar and small arms fire. Air observers reported Red forces ranging up to battalion size all along 38 in this area. They seemed determined to hold a jagged line overlooking a valley north of Uijongbu.

An American patrol probed into Changgi, seven miles south of 38. Enemy fire halted the doughboys north of the town. Puerto Rican troops smashed a Red ammunition dump north-east of Uijongbu.

Red mortar and artillery shells landed in some Allied sectors. American patrols entered Changgi, northeast of Uijongbu, and then withdrew. Artillery was (Continued On Page Six)

More Than $7 Billion Reserve For Unemployment On Hand; Treasury Assets

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—Defense Mobilization Chief E. Wilson told members today that "by 1953 we will, if necessary, be able to fight an all-out war from the production lines and at the same time supply more goods for the civilian economy."

Wilson appeared before the Senate appropriations committee. He asked another $51,000,000 in cash and another $1,000,000,000 in loan authority to operate the expanding defense program for the next three months.

"Although the program has been progressing fairly well, I cannot (Continued On Page Six)

School Lunch Plan Aids 4,500 Students

Approximately 4,500 children in 21 schools of Seminole County were benefited through the distribution of surplus food commodities last year, T. W. Lawton, superintendent of public instruction, said today.

The foods are sent to the State without any direct cost, and are distributed to schools with lunchrooms and to State and charitable institutions.

In Seminole County, food served to school children had a total value of $8,254.65. Foods offered to the State included 18 different kinds. Among those received here were 150 bushels of fresh apples; 1,000 pounds of dried beans; 3,700 pounds of pecanary butter; 150 cases of canned corn; 12 cases of peanut butter; 150 cases of canned tomatoes; 3,700 pounds of frozen turkey; and many others.

"These commodities have meant a great deal to our school children in making it possible for them to have more nutritious lunches in the school cafeteria without any additional cost to the school system or to the children," Superintendent Lawton commented.

During the last calendar year, he said, foods with a wholesale value of $1,143,578.43 were distributed through this program to schools in every county of the state.

Hours of depression can be relieved by the certainty that it is dark before the dawn. Every one has days or hours of deep depression. But God is still our friend and will see us through.
Your sorrow shall be turned into joy.—John 16:20.

Sanford received a lot of good free publicity from a half page cartoon in colors by Lynn Hudson in Sunday's Orlando Sentinel. Such notable personalities as Herb Pope and Gene Houmiller were artfully portrayed while the Mayfair Inn, the swimming pool, the municipal pier, Sanford's clergy and Brailley Odham's gubernatorial bonnet were widely publicized.

The Miami Rotary Club has joined in the fight between Governor Warren and Dan Sullivan of the Miami Crime Commission by giving the latter an unprecedented vote of the confidence in the work he is doing. And believe us, when the Rotary Club enters a controversy, of that kind, it is certainly convinced beyond any question of doubt which side is right.

The Florida State Retailers Association advises 30,000 small businessmen in Florida that if they don't want a new state payroll tax tacked on to their present cost of doing business, they had better get in touch with their legislators and let them know their feeling in the matter. It is too late to worry about it after it becomes a law.
Seldom, if ever, is any tax ever repealed. And small businessmen will find this payroll tax is a very burdensome tax indeed.

The Kefauver crime investigation committee, unless its life is renewed by Congress, will automatically expire next Saturday. Although we agree with Senator Kefauver that crime and its eradication are primarily a local responsibility, we feel that the committee's investigation has served an invaluable purpose in throwing the spotlight of publicity on a number of notorious cases, but like a great many other people we feel that it has so far merely scratched the surface.

The Lions Club League and the Rotary Club League for junior boys are now in full swing. More important than learning how to throw a ball or knock a home-run, important as these elements of physical requirements are, is the development of co-operation among team mates. You can not do anything in this world without co-operation, the willingness to give co-operation to others in any joint enterprise, and the knowledge of how to induce co-operation from others toward any common goal. The reason America is the greatest country on earth is because it has learned this lesson of co-operation. And foremost among the teachers of co-operation is juvenile baseball.

A State law passed many years ago prohibits the limiting of any county for more than $300,000 for certain purposes. The County Commission, realizing that this sum is now wholly inadequate to build a modern hospital, has asked the local legislative delegation to propose an amendment to the State law increasing the amount of bonds which can be issued to $750,000.
This would require a majority vote of the entire Legislature and might be defeated. Hence, the County

Sales Tax Argument

Proposals for a federal sales tax are doomed to rejection, in the opinion of Congressman Robert L. Doughton of North Carolina, veteran chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. He thinks that public sentiment would be overwhelmingly against it. He advances the argument, not unfamiliar, that a sales tax "bears no relationship or very little relationship to the accepted theory of ability to pay." By this is meant that the rate of taxation is not higher against the wealthy than against the poor; on the contrary small purchases tend to be taxed in a higher proportion than large ones.

As the sales tax is a temptingly easy way to raise revenue, it has always had its supporters. Back in 1932 it was recommended for passage by the Ways and Means Committee. Doughton then led the successful fight to strike the tax out. He still feels the same way about it.

There seems little likelihood that the states which have the sales tax will do away with it. Few successful methods of raising money are ever abandoned by governments, except under the greatest pressure. The number of states with the sales tax is more likely to be increased than diminished. This is all the more reason why the federal government should not enter this field.

TV And Education

Television, with its dramatic impingement upon the home life of the nation's families, is causing much argument between educators and producers as to its use as a medium of education.

Realizing the immense possibilities of this method of communication, some educators contend that twenty-five per cent of the available channels should be set aside for the purpose of education as such. What they lose sight of, say the producers, is the fact that many programs classed as entertainment are educational in the widest sense, and contribute painlessly to the knowledge of the viewer. Some stations have resolved this difficulty by establishing a working agreement with local educational agencies and, in friendly co-operation, sharing the airwaves with them.

Education as carried on in the classroom would never have a wide appeal to the video audience. No one can deny, however, the real educational value of amphyphon broadcasts featuring the parts played by the different instruments, of good plays, of popular science programs, and of such things as the presentation of the United Nations sessions. These and others of a miscellaneous nature are both informative and entertaining.

Utopia In Florida

Governor Fuller Warren has visions of making Florida a Utopia on earth, where marlin jump out of the bays and coconuts drop in the front yard. This Utopia would be for folk who want to retire on something like $125 a month. The Florida State Improvement Commission, which is an admission there is room for improvement—says half the nation's retired folks over sixty-five want to come to Florida, but can't afford it. The rent is too high.

The Governor hopes to remedy that. He has a Citizens Retirement Committee which works with the Improvement Commission. Together they hope to obtain long-range loans to build a series of villages for the retired. Out from the villages will be dormitories, clinics, single homes and duplexes. The ocean is right of the driveways. Sea breezes sweep away diseases. Every home will have big front and back yards. Ovens in stoves will be waist high to prevent the aged from bending down. Ramps will be used in place of stairs.

There's only one hitch. By the time the projects are built the $125-a-month retired income, at the rate the dollar's value is plunging, won't buy a dozen flashhooks. That's why so many retired people are retiring in Mexico, where, on $100 a month, a couple can get a hacienda with servants. In Mexico, $100 buys three times what it buys in Florida. The big need for pensioners is not Utopia-on-the-Beach, but a dollar that's worth a dollar to retire on. The Dallas News.

Disdainful Women Take Joy From Masculine Habit Of Cigar Smoking

NEW YORK (AP)—I love a girl who loves a man who is man enough to smoke a cigar in the presence of girls who don't love a man who smokes a cigar. That sounds a bit confused, doesn't it? I know, but it isn't. It merely expresses my deep admiration for a girl who some enchanted evening belows across a crowded room: "Don't apologise, Golden Boy, light up another cigar. It's a pleasure to see you through your own smoke." These girls, said to add up, aren't as many as I'd like. Most women just don't have the same boyish carefree attitude toward nicotine indulgence that men do. They are tobacco snobs.

Fifty years ago a nice girl wouldn't dare puff on a cigarette in public. Today the average husband is musclebound from flicking a lighter to be sure that his wife gets a drag on her favorite lag at the exact moment that it suits her fancy to wriggle in smoke. I have seen grown men break down and cry because they weren't there in time to provide a light at the exact moment their wives needed it. No consolation was it that a stronger brother provided the ignition. They knew that in the end on the way home the mate of their lifetime would painfully say: "Why is it that whenever any other girl at the party puffed out a cigarette you had a hundred matches, but when I did it you suddenly were stricken with total paralysis?" And it does not need to point out that you were never capable

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—Although it's in the midst of a national emergency, this 82nd Congress won't set any records at the rate it's going. It's been dragging its feet.

True, it's supplied headlines and entertainment with its various investigations, particularly on crime and the R.F.C. But that's hardly a substitute for its main job of passing major legislation.

This Congress has been in session almost three months—since Jan. 3—and hasn't passed, by action of both houses, one major item.

Earlier this year when news from Korea was bad, members of Congress clamored for action. As the Korean news improved, the ardor of Congress for speed seemed to suffer a chill.

It's been juggling some important staff like a hot potato—troops for Europe, the draft, taxes—but has acted finally on none of them. This will give an idea of what's been happening.

Here are major items on which there's been no final action: Troops for Europe—Senate's been fusing with this for months, is due to vote next week. This is the important issue approving U. S. troops for Europe to help our Allies.

Taxes—President Truman asked Congress to increase taxes by $16,500,000,000. This hasn't reached the floor of either house and probably won't for many weeks or months. And if, and when, it does act Congress probably will cut the figure in half.

They've also approved changes in the draft law, particularly to permit taking 18-year olds and set up Universal Military Training after the present emergency. This hasn't come up in the house for a vote yet. Debate is scheduled next week.

Appropriations for defense—Congress hasn't voted on a single major bill giving money for defense in 1951. It did authorize a navy ship program to cost about $2,000,000,000 but hasn't voted the money as yet.

Here are the more important items which both houses of Congress have acted on: They've extended the present rent control law until June 30; approved a bill allowing the government to renegotiate defense contracts; revised the anti-Communist law to let more aliens into the country; and adjusted peanut marketing quotas and acreage allotments.

said, too, that the present law gives the government "unlimited and effective powers" over wages.

"On the other hand," said Green, "the government's powers over goods and services the worker has to buy are limited and substantially less effective. Food prices, in particular, cannot be subject to effective price control. Control over rent at the present time is only partially effective."

The National Association of Manufacturers told the committee wage-price controls during World War II "did not prevent, but only hid temporarily, the inflation resulting from deficit financing."

"The people paid for it in black market prices then and are paying for it in 50-cent dollars now. This is a lesson which we can ill afford to ignore."

The American Farm Bureau Federation opposed wage-price controls and also spoke out against rationing.

"Such measures," the bureau declared, "cannot control inflation because they strike at symptoms not at fundamental causes. The real cures for inflation are increased production, strict government economy, pay-as-we-go taxation, effective credit controls, and sound management of the public debt."

The National Farmers Union took the position that wage-price controls are essential. It said critics of such controls "are almost entirely to those who will be adversely affected by their imposition."

WAM added: "The people paid for it in black market prices then and are paying for it in 50-cent dollars now. This is a lesson which we can ill afford to ignore."

THE WORLD TODAY

By FERGUS MACKENZIE

It was the late Stanley Baldwin, noted British statesman who, as the British prime minister, was in the 1934, coined the then sensational line: "Britain's new frontiers are on the Rhine."

Since then America has recognized that her own defenses are not confined to her shores, but lie in Europe with those of her Allies. And what is true of the other nations also is true of the other nations of North and South America.

So it isn't strange to find this historic claim in effect (though not actually) the key-note of the important meeting of the foreign ministers of 21 American Republics in Washington, President Truman, in opening the first session yesterday, urged the nations represented to strengthen and coordinate their defenses against the great perils threatened in the "aggressive expansion of the Soviet system toward our own hemisphere."

"We must also consider," declared the President, "how we may best use our strength to support the cause of freedom against aggression throughout the world. There are those who are inclined to discount the danger of invasion of the Western Hemisphere across the wide reaches of the Atlantic. That is a very dangerous thought to entertain in these days when ships travel by air as well as on the sea and beneath it."

Propos of this my A.P. colleague, Mark Barron, who was a war correspondent with Italy's Marshal Graziani during the Italian invasion of Ethiopia in 1935, says the Marshal told him Mussolini at one time had the grandiose idea of invading Brazil. Graziani asserted that the Italian dictator had his plans laid for Brazil but abandoned them when he became convinced the United States would back up the Monroe doctrine.

It does feel that he had to invade some country, as a matter of picking up some ships travel by air as well as on the sea and beneath it.

U. S. Secretary of State Acheson, as America's representative at the Washington conference, is said to be aiming chiefly at achieving an agreement that the other American states should up their military strength so they can assume a bigger share of hemisphere expenses. These are now being largely by the United States.

In this connection it was noted that the conference of the United States is presently considering a record military aid program of $500,000,000 for Latin America. That's the highest figure in the history of the position in a practical way.

The Department of Education reported the state is paying $41,000,000 for driver education during 1950-51. The local contribution was $12,000.

Every Florida high school ofering behind-the-wheel training so far has had a car made available by local automobile dealers. The only expense involved is the salary of the instructor and all gasoline and insurance for the car.

"Read It In The Papers"

Editor & Publisher

Anyone who kept up with the running story in the newspapers or listened to it over the air must have been impressed by the number of times the phrase "I read it in the newspapers," or its equivalent, was spoken by witnesses before the Kefauver hearings in New York.

Although the names of some newspapers did not draw the most favorable reference from witnesses it became obvious midway through the hearings that newspaper stories formed a large part of the background for the testimony and provided many of the facts for questioning.

Taken as a whole, the testimony offers a strong counter-argument to the oft-used phrase: "You can't believe what you read in the newspapers." Here, before the public's eyes, we saw what dozens, perhaps hundreds, of newspaper reporters have written about New York politics in the last decade was true.

The Costello, the Ericksons, and the Anastasiadis might have been overlooked, but certainly would have been "small potatoes" if they had not been publicized for what they are by the newspapers through the years. Television may be the glamour girl of the investigation but it was the newspapers, not radio or TV, which did the leg work, the spadework, in uncovering and reporting a large part of the evidence on which the hearings were based.

However, several times during the hearings the old question of publication of racing information popped up and the suggestion was made that newspapers should be prevented from publishing race results. This put newspapers in an unfavorable light, especially with John M. Murtagh's who said "our testimony such as Chief Magistrate best newspapers are hypocritical in publishing this information."

"Why don't these newspapers which seem to have a genuine interest in stopping organized gambling stop publishing reports of how horses run? Certainly, no one is interested in what a nag came in for, except to find out whether he won money," Mr. Murtagh said. He said the "cry of freedom of the press is hypocritical" and "it is about time newspapers would be harnessed and ston publishing those."

Although Chairman Kefauver does not direct referees to this in his closing remarks (he did indicate the committee would recommend some action on racing wires to Congress) many people who heard or saw the proceedings may agree with Mr. Murtagh. This is one of those areas where it is going to be impossible for newspapers to fight against organized gambling. The publication of racing results is a business and unless we insist on it, it will continue.

Some officials insist on his resignation, defending favorite professors, demand the action be rescinded. The Rollins cuts were made after a survey by the administration showed that student enrollment next year would drop to $10 against the present $30.

Dr. Waugh had no comment today. A three-man committee is studying the situation but no date has been set for a report.

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 28.—(AP)—Here's an Oscar nominee who attributes her performance to being pregnant.
The mother making this statement is Eleanor Parker, one of the five actresses in the running for the top Oscar at tomorrow night's ceremonies. She was depicting her second child while making "Caged" which won her the nomination (and the Venice Festival award for the world's best female performance last year).
Like all award winners, Miss Eleanor Parker thanks all the script writer, director, photographer, producer, makeup man and press agent. But she also thanks that being with child helped her role.
"I think having a child is closely akin to the work of an actress," she explained. "Both are creating functions. Having a child is the most wonderful thing that can happen; it gives you a great thrill to know that you are giving life to another person. That creativeness is bound to show in your work."
"Also, I am one of those lucky women who feel perfectly wonderful when the first couple of weeks, I feel healthier than ever. Maybe it's all the vitamins and pills I get to build me up."
"Anyway, I really threw myself into the role in 'Caged.' I was dropping off eight-foot walls and tanning down hills and doing all sorts of stunts."
Miss Parker is so enthusiastic about the state of motherhood that she wanted to have 10 children. Her husband, producer Bert Friedlob, doesn't share this estimate and is holding out for four. His wife has come down to six. They already have two girls.
Motherhood presents certain hazards for film stars. It's not as bad as the old days when a woman was "ruined" when it was discovered that she had a child. (Gloria Swanson was the first to break that hex.) But motherhood forces an artist off the screen for a certain period, and this can be hazardous to her career.
"I don't care," commented Miss Parker, who is currently king in "Detective Story." "After all, a woman's most important function is having children, regardless of what some career women think. Besides, I was off the screen for two years when I had my first baby, and it didn't seem to matter."

Funeral services were conducted by a Christian Science reader at the grave in Longwood cemetery Monday afternoon.
The Cary Hand Funeral Company was in charge of the burial.

Hints To Housewives

Many homemakers are asking for help on ironing and sewing tricks that make for better quality finished garments. There are several factors involved like proper ironing, pressing and stitching.
To give clothes you make at home that "professional look" it is necessary to have an iron and a good clean ironing board and press. Press on warm cloth whenever possible, but if you press on the right side be sure to use a pressing cloth.
Pressing pads, such as a pressing mitt, tulle's pad, sleeve pad and seam pad, are excellent aids in giving the correct shape to curved seams and darts.
Press only one detail at a time. When you have two small darts at the back of the neckline, or two

Giants Batter Washington 10 To 4; Yankees Overloaded With Talent

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Crafty Casey Stengel, who has led the New York Yankees to two world championships in as many tries, is confronted with a "problem" today.

However, old Case's predicament would be welcomed by any other manager in the big leagues. Casey is being "forced" to make room for three rookies on his squad who are burning up the Grapefruit League.

Top recruit is Mickey Mantle, sensational 22-year-old switch hitter. Mantle, whose name is not on the Yankees roster, came to camp on a short-term basis when Joe M. Maguire came up with a bad ankle, the kid was ordered to take DiMaggio's place in center field.

The fleet-footed youngster was put in care of Tommy Henrich, who tried to show him the ropes of playing the outfield. Casey said he'd like to send Mantle down to learn the outfielding trade but the kid's terrific hitting is making old Case hold up on his decision.

Infielder Gil McDougald and pitcher Tom Morgan are the other recruits whom Casey would like to carry this year. McDougald, who sparked at second base for Beaumont of the Texas League last year, has been switched to third base—and the shift isn't bothering him. Gil, always a .350 hitter or better, probably will alternate at the bag with veteran Bill Johnson.

Morgan, who sparked at Birmingham last year, isn't on the Yankees' roster either but if he heats up his terrific work, may make the grade by opening day.

The three rookies teamed up to lead the Yanks to a 4-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Phoenix, Ariz., yesterday. Morgan pitched shutout ball for six innings to stretch his six-inning hitting act to 10.

Another rookie who shined yesterday was Charlie Maxwell, 24-year-old Boston Red Sox outfielder up from Birmingham of the Southern Association. Maxwell drove in three runs with a triple and two singles as the Sox trounced the Detroit Tigers, 5-1, at Lakeland. Ted Williams contributed four singles. Bill Wright and Ellis Kinder checked the Tigers on six hits.

The Cleveland Indians' kid infielder blasted out 14 hits as the tribe mauled the St. Louis Browns, 17-7, at Tucson, Ariz. Shortstop Ray Boone showed the way with five hits, including a homer and two doubles. Second baseman Bob Avila collected four singles. Third baseman Al Rosen drove in six runs on a homer, double and single. First sacker Mike Easter celebrated his first appearance in the starting lineup with three singles.

Home runs by Monte Irvin and Ed Yost paced the New York Giants to a 10-4 triumph over Washington in the first game of the Grapefruit League. Yost, Berber Bowman and Monte Kennedy, a pair of lefties, held the Senators to eight blows.

The Brooklyn Dodgers shined the Philadelphia Athletics, 10-9, in 13 innings at Miami. Cal Abrams doubled home Billy Jay with the winning run. The Dodgers lost the services of catcher Ray Campanella and outfielder Duke Snider for a spell. Campanella fractured his right thumb and Snider tore the nail from the middle finger of his right hand.

Earl Torgerson and Sid Gordon drove home two runs apiece to lead the Boston Braves to a 6-3, ten-inning victory over the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Petersburg. The Braves showed five runs across in the tenth off Tom Piskoski.

Ted Muszewski drove home three runs on a pair of triples to lead Cincinnati to a 7-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phils at Clearwater. Four Phillie errors also helped.

The Chicago Cubs also posted a 7-4 triumph, beating the Pittsburgh Pirates by that margin at San Bernardino, Calif. Ransom Jackson hit a homer for the Cub squad.

Baseball Notables Go To Collins Funeral

BOSTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—Notables of the sports, civic and political world today attended the funeral of Edward Thowbridge (Babe) Collins, 65, Red Sox vice president and member of baseball's famed $100,000, infield.

Collins died last Sunday night of a recurrent heart ailment after being admitted to a hospital Mar. 10.

Rev. Peter R. Blynn officiated at the requiem mass in the Church of the Advent (Protestant Episcopal). Burial services in nearby Hoston were conducted at the New Whitely Hall.

At about the time of the service a private mass was being said in St. Martin's Cathedral in Saratoga where the Red Sox he helped develop are playing for the coming season. The mass was cancelled because of the rain.

The Rotary Club's Junior Baseball League got underway Monday with a game between the Giants—managed by John Pope and Bob-Neyman—and the Pirates—managed by Jim Higgins and Brack Perkins.

The Pirates won the opener 4 to 0 which indicates that the older boys have discovered the elements of pitching and will have many high scoring games of the 27 to 25 variety.

Playing with an assurance bred in the Lions Club league in younger years the Rotary boys are the variety recruits in Seminal High School's team for the next few years. Ranging from 13 to 15 years old the kids play with an almost professional knowledge of the esoteric elements of game.

Lakeland, Mar. 28—(AP)—George Kell's injury is giving former Ohio State's Hal Daugherty an especially good chance to see what he can do for the Detroit Tigers.

Since 1948 Daugherty's former Duke football player, has been trying to make Detroit's diamond variety at third base.

Manager Red Rolfe said Daugherty is okay defensively but is weak at the plate. He's being given a thorough trial now with Kell benched on account of a spike wound in his hand.

BRADENTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—Boston Braves' rookie pitcher Jim Phipps of Akron, O., has been ordered to report there for induction into the Army Apr. 10.

The 20-year-old tall, blond southpaw improved rapidly last year at the Tri-Valley Evansville farm in the Class B League and had impressed Manager Billy Southworth in drills to date.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Mar. 28—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox will retain their spring training grounds in Pasadena, Calif., through 1952.

Vice President Chuck Comisky has signed a new 8-year option for the return of the Sox to Brookside Park.

The Sox opened their road season by absorbing a 4-0 licking by the New York Yankees yesterday at Tucson, Ariz.

Al Rosen, who has been sold to Memphis unconditionally and outfielder Bill Higdon has been returned to the same club on 24-hour recall.

EL CENTRO, Calif., Mar. 28—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs, who had five first basemen on their roster at the start of spring training, have clipped the last down to two rookies. Doc Ponder and veteran Phil Cavarretta.

The fleet-footed Ponder, obtained from the Brooklyn chain, has won out over Chuck Connor, temporarily recalled. Connor has been optioned to Los Angeles subject to 24-hour recall.

MIAMI, Mar. 28—(AP)—Bruce Edwards could be one of the most valuable players on the Brooklyn Dodgers this summer. He's that necessary catching insurance in case Roy Campanella is injured.

Campanella, the club's No. 1 backstop, fractured his right thumb yesterday while the Dodgers were shaming the Philadelphia Athletics, 10-0 in 13 innings. He will be out a week.

Edwards filled in for Campy, and did turn in a fine job.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Mar. 28—(AP)—Mickey Mantle, the New York prospect, doesn't think he's quite ready for the big leagues, even if everybody else does.

"I'm not a big league fielder," he explains, "and I hope I'm sent to San Antonio City."

Mantle has been the talk of the Yankees' camp, and his hitting and running have caught the fancy of many veteran baseball men.

Bill Veeck Seeks Iron Curtain Tilt For Globetrotters

Negro Team Would Go To Russia, Czechoslovakia, Rumania

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28—(AP)—Some people may think a baseball game between the Harlem Globetrotters and the Russian all-stars in Moscow is a daffy idea—but not Bill Veeck.

Veeck doesn't profess to be a political genius and says he doesn't see anything wrong with the idea.

"Last year the Trotters played all over Western Europe," he said in an interview, "and the fans really liked the team."

"I can't see any reason why the Trotters shouldn't play behind the Iron Curtain in Eastern Europe as well as in Western Europe. It seems sort of silly to me not to because we play all around the Iron Curtain but not inside it."

"I'm sure the sports fans in Czechoslovakia, Russia, Rumania and every place else in east Europe like basketball as much as the rest of the world."

The colorful promoter whose antics kept Cleveland baseball fans dazed for a few years passed the first hurdle in the proposed tour yesterday.

Without too much trouble he obtained not only permission but the enthusiastic support of the State Department.

"A thing like this can do a lot of good," Assistant Secretary of State Jack McFall told a reporter. "It's been my experience that if you avoid incidents, you can do more good in an hour with athletic competition than diplomats can do in a year."

Veeck decided to go about obtaining an okay from the Iron Curtain lions in his own way. Declining an offer from the State Department, he went directly to the embassies himself with his project.

"I received splendid treatment everywhere," he said, "and over the last few days I've talked to several of the tour was a good idea."

Veeck said the Soviet Embassy's Second Secretary (Zinobuk) was receptive.

"In fact, he asked me all about the team," Veeck said. "His record, the players and whom they have beaten. He seemed like a fan himself."

He has no control over the matter, naturally, but he promised to submit a detailed letter and promised it would be forwarded to the foreign office in Moscow for approval.

The same went for the Czech and Yugoslav officials he talked with. He said that Mirko Bruner, Marshal Tito's first secretary here, seemed the most enthusiastic of all.

Veeck said Bruner told him a letter on the matter would be dispatched to Belgrade in the next diplomatic pouch. He plans to try to get the tour to Moscow.

The famed Globetrotters already have a 100-plus game tour set up for South America, Western Europe and North Africa starting April 25. Last year a 75-game tour the Negro quintet drew 504,000 fans in Europe and Africa and won 76 of their games.

threat in spite of the odds. In the meantime Bill Fleming, two-time winner of the Peter Schmal trophy, will be standing in for Goose as many of the high school baseball team's road trips.

Baseball is a sport the local team has excelled in in recent years and the prospects for getting to the state tournament are excellent, because Goose informs us after looking over the prospects.

The Women's Golf Association of Northern California has 1,281 members. In 1950 it listed 67 teams.

Howell Is Fired By Idaho School; May Quit Football

SPOKANE, Wash., Mar. 28—(AP)—This sort of thing is the life of a coach—and the death too.

That was Millard (Dixie) Howell's attitude yesterday when the University of Idaho Board of Regents announced the school didn't want him any more as head football coach.

Howell, one of the football legends of the '30s when he was the passing star of Alabama's winning Rose Bowl team, now describes himself as "just a coach looking for a job."

He is seriously considering leaving football.

Idaho president Jesse Buchanan described the situation as one of those times "when there is just one course open for all concerned."

Howell was given a new one-year contract last December after his team had ended an unimpressive year among the bigger brothers in the Pacific Coast Conference. In his five years at Idaho, Howell coached his team to 12 wins, 20 losses and one tie.

The dismissal announcement mentioned "a lack of necessary harmony" on the coaching staff.

Two of Howell's assistants, Herschel Ramsey and R. A. Curfman, were shown the door along with him.

NCAA Swim Matches Begin In Austin

AUSTIN, Tex., Mar. 28—(AP)—Speedy practice times indicate numerous records in danger when the national collegiate swim championships open here tomorrow night.

"Our boys have been making excellent times here in practice," coach Tom Maynie of Stanford said last night. "I believe we'll see a lot of records fall."

Robert Brown of Iowa State, practicing for the 50-yard free style, covered the one lap in the Gregory Gymnasium pool at the University of Texas in 22.9 seconds—half a second under the winning time in the NCAA meet last year.

Swimming stars from Georgia, Iowa State, Purdue, Stanford, Southern California, Texas, Nebraska, Northwestern, UCLA and Michigan State have already checked in.

Yale and Ohio State, defending champions, are expected to fight for team honors.

Cubs Beat Tigers 6-1 in Junior League Tilt

LSU Plays Host To 3rd Annual Boxing Tournament Tonight

BATON ROUGE, La., Mar. 28—(AP)—Collegiate boxers throw punches in the third annual Southern Invitational Boxing Tournament starting tomorrow night.

Pairings will be made tonight for the three-day slugfest. The first match starts at 8 P. M. tomorrow.

The leather battles match 41 boys from seven universities in eight weight classes ranging from the 125 pound class to heavyweight.

Louisiana State University, tournament victor for the past two years, is the host team. The tournament will be staged at LSU's 10,000-seat arena with a near capacity crowd watching.

Fell teams of eight boxers—an entry in each weight class—have been entered by LSC, Maryland, South Carolina and Miami. Syracuse has entered five boxers, Virginia three and Georgetown, one.

Five winners from last year's tournament will be having again in this tournament. They are heavyweight Evans Howell of LSU, 165-pound Don Oliver of Maryland, 135-pound Gov. Masterson of Virginia and 125-pound Pete Campbell of South Carolina. Jim Briggman of South Carolina won the 145-pound class last year but will be fighting in the 165-pound division this year.

The tournament is sponsored by the Southern Intercollegiate Boxing Association.

Spivey Scintillates In Kentucky Win Over Kansas State In NCAA

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 28—(AP)—Ever start your car up a long hill only to have it stop half way to the top because it ran out of gas?

That's also a description of Lew Hitch, Kansas State center, last night in the NCAA title-deciding game which Kentucky won, 68 to 58.

For the first half Hitch, a mere six foot seven inch center, made seven foot Bill Spivey, his Kentucky rival, look almost inexperienced.

Then came the second half. Spivey kept right on going. Hitch all but stopped. And when Spivey took command of the rebounding, Kentucky wiped out a two-point halftime deficit to saunter to its third NCAA title in four years.

Hitch snagged nine rebounds during the entire game but only one came in the second half. Spivey split his 21 rebounds almost down the middle with 12 coming after the intermission, which found Kansas State ahead 29 to 27.

The big fellow's efforts brought a successful close to the second year of coach Adolph Rupp's current three-year plan. He started almost from scratch some 17 months ago with a hand of sophomores and an incidental upper classmen. His aim was to win the 1952 NCAA crown and a possible trip to the 1952 Olympics.

But he has the big title a year early. Nine of the ten men on the squad return next season. Only exception is Roger Layne, third string center.

After the title conquest, Rupp gave most of the praise to Spivey's amazing second half effort but he also singled out Cliff Hagen for bouquet. Hagen, who missed the final practices because of flu, entered the game when it was almost 16 minutes old and with Kansas State ahead. Within minutes the score was tied only to have Kansas State edge ahead again and remain two points ahead at the close.

After the intermission, Shelby Linville potted a free throw and then Spivey thumped in a two pointer to put Kentucky ahead. The Blue Grass Wildcats never again trailed.

North Carolina Pros Lead In Tournament

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Mar. 28—(AP)—North Carolina pros led the upper hand today after scoring a 2-11 in 13th victory over a group of "great golf professionals in the first half of their inter-state match, held as a benefit for Tar Heel pro Skip Alexander.

With both states using mostly native talent, the Tar Heel team shot ahead through the first round and never lost the lead. But it was not until Sammy Speed came blazing in with a 67 and Gary Middlecott weighed in with a 68 in the final match that the decision was clinched.

Receipts from the match went to Alexander. Lexington, N. C., pro, who was seriously burned in a plane crash that killed his three companions six months ago in Evansville, Ind.

The second half of the match will be played in Dallas, sometime in May.

Goliath Shines At Plate For Phils In Spring Games

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mike Goliath, a one-time coal miner in western Pennsylvania, is adding fuel to the Philadelphia Phillies' hopes of repeating as champions of the National League.

Goliath, who hit a meek .254 while batting in the eighth slot for the Phils last year, is hammering the ball with authority for the Quakers.

Now operating in the cleanup slot, Goliath is one of the leading hitters in the Grapefruit League circuit. Among his assortment of blows are five home runs. Besides socking at a terrific clip, Goliath is sparkling in the field.

Goliath paced the Phils to a 6-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Petersburg, yesterday. Mike drove a three run, The Phils pounded Wimer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, highly publicized left-hander, for four runs and eight hits in five innings.

The Boston Red Sox trounced the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-3, at Lakeland. First basemen Walt Dropp of the Sox and Lou Limmer of the A's suffered slight injuries.

George Kell, brilliant Detroit third baseman, suffered a spike wound that may sideline him for five days as the Tigers bowed to the New York Giants, 6-4, at Lakeland.

Kell was spiked between the fingers of his right hand while sliding back to first base in the third.

The Boston Braves downed the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, at Bradenton. Goliath scored twice in the eighth to win on two hits, a walk and error.

The Brooklyn Dodgers defeated a combination of their farm hands, 6-3, at Vero Beach. Mike Tison, first baseman of the Miami, Florida Int'l League club, fractured his ankle sliding home.

Mickey Mantle, sensational Yankee rookie, drove in seven runs on a pair of homers, bases loaded triple and single to pace the New Yorkers to a 15-1 victory over the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. Johnny Hopp also honored for the Yanks and Billy Johnson drove in five runs.

The Chicago Cubs neared out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3, at San Bernardino, Calif.

Penn State's freshman basketball team, its first since 1942, is coached by last year's varsity captain, Joe Tocci.

Hotel Man Tells About The Smartest Move He Ever Made

It certainly gives you an awful sinking feeling to wake up and discover you're losing interest in your work and in life in general. That's enough to make anyone start worrying, and that's exactly what happened to Tommy Allen, Hotel Peabody, Memphis, Tennessee. But he acted quickly, got himself back on the track in a hurry, when he heard how HADACOL was helping folks who were rundown due to a deficiency of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Nicotin.

The wonderful results prompted him to write us a letter about his experience. Here's what he had to say: "I am a young man twenty-nine years old and have been engaged in hotel work for the past four years. I had no appetite and was losing weight. I was constantly sick at my stomach and nothing I ate agreed with me. After eating, my stomach would become bloated and feel uncomfortable. My condition was so bad that I began to lose interest in my work and life in general. I kept hearing about HADACOL and I decided to try it. Believe me that was the smartest move I ever made. After taking two or three bottles, I began to feel better and now after taking HADACOL for two months I feel fine. No more am I tortured with stomach distresses. Truly I can't begin to tell enough about HADACOL. I intend to keep on taking it for a long time."

Thousands have found real help, real hope for tomorrow, by relieving the cause of their sickness when due to a lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Nicotin and Iron, with today's great HADACOL.

These precious elements are supplied in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And HADACOL provides helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too. They're all in a special, liquid form, already dissolved for quick, easy, absorption in the system.

Lt. Col. Adams Is Appointed To Head Interceptor Wing

NEW CASTLE AIR FORCE BASE, DEL., Mar. 21—(Special)—Lt. Col. J. Ross Adams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Adams of 1118 Park Avenue, Sanford, Fla., today was appointed commanding officer of the 112th Fighter-Interceptor Group located here.

Col. Melvin C. Garlow, Commanding Officer of the 113th Fighter-Interceptor Wing, parent organization of the fighter group, announced that Col. Adams had been promoted from command of the 142nd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron.

The 142nd was Delaware's Air National Guard squadron until ordered to active Federal service with the U. S. Air Force Feb. 1, Col. Adams joined the squadron in April, 1948, and three months later became its commanding officer, a post he held until his promotion to the group leadership today.

Col. Adams, after attending Seminole High School and the University of Florida, enlisted in the Army Air Forces in December, 1940 and was separated just five years later. During his overseas tour of duty from February, 1943 to March 1944 Col. Adams commanded the 316th Fighter Squadron of the 324th Fighter Group, in North Africa, Tripoli, Sicily, and Italy. He flew 81 combat missions, chiefly dive-bombing and strafing attacks, and is credited with the sinking of an Italian destroyer carrying German troops. Col. Adams wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters, and the European Theater ribbon with four battle stars.

After his discharge from the service, the colonel became a pilot for Trans-World Airlines and flew regularly to Europe and the Middle East. He is married to the former Miss Elaine Hammar of Springfield, Mo. They have one child, a year old daughter, Diane.

French President

But the cameras kept clicking. Then the band switched to "The Star Spangled Banner." Auriol, with more feeling, Auriol exclaimed:

"Please, no! That is your national anthem. Please don't."

In a formal statement delivered in French to the committee before the ship docked, Auriol said he was here "not only to confirm but to rejuvenate the friendship between France and America."

"It is necessary to continue this friendship in order to insure our mutual security and prosperity," he said.

He thanked President Truman for inviting him here and affirmed the deep affection held by the French people for the American people.

The French President said this friendship was "as old as our common history." He said it had become "stronger before a crisis through the sacrifices of both our peoples for the same cause."

Noting in particular the French struggle against Communism in Indochina, President Auriol said four main tasks confront France: reconstruction at home, prosecution of the war against Communism, renewal of industrial equipment, and disarmament.

The visitor recalled that French ports and the French merchant marine were destroyed in World War II, then added:

"It is not in the cabinets of Paris that you will see France today. You will see her in the fields and factories that you will see the French people."

Mr. Auriol was accompanied by his wife, their son, Paul; Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and a host of other French officials.

He was greeted officially by General Harry Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, and Maj. General William E. Hall, of the U. S. Air Force.

Kiwanis Club

Spoke to my lap as a preacher, my greatest pleasure comes through being a Kiwanian," Rev. Tuckett told the group. Forming Kiwanis a great school, he declared that "nothing is greater than a Kiwanis conference meeting on life."

It is a great school of tolerance, and gives a member the opportunity to practice and teach the Christian way of life.

President Tuckett proved the statement by pointing out that the Kiwanis Club is the only organization in the world that is not a church, synagogue, or mosque.

He said that the club is a "great school of tolerance" and gives a member the opportunity to practice and teach the Christian way of life.

Warren Says Acts Of '51 Legislature To Be Far Reaching

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 28—(AP)—Governor Warren predicts actions of the 1951 Legislature "will have a profound influence on the life of every citizen for the next two years and possibly for many years."

However, he gave no inkling in his regular monthly radio report to the state of the content of his own constitutionally required message to the Legislature, which will convene here April 3.

He noted only that the Constitution "requires the Governor at each regular session of the Legislature, to communicate information concerning the condition of the State and to recommend such measures as he may deem expedient."

He said the administration "has been very busy preparing to cooperate in every possible way with the Legislature. Its 133 members will come to Tallahassee as direct emissaries of the people whom we in the executive branch of government serve to the best of our abilities."

In a review of the State's economic progress, the Governor declared "Florida is growing; Florida is prospering. Florida's future prospects were never brighter."

He pointed to the flourishing citrus, cattle, timber, naval stores and building industries and said he has found citizens "healthy, happy and prosperous" wherever he has come in the state.

He said the road construction undertaken by his administration "may well stand out in the years to come as the most beneficial single achievement of the Warren administration."

The Governor added the $12,000,000 Duval county expressway project "is one of the most important and successful achievements of the Warren administration."

School Bus Wreck

(Continued from Page One) statements as to the cause of the accident. Deputy Sheriff Hood also investigated the accident.

Production Aims

Wilson said the "freeze" order on prices and wages had slowed down the inflationary trend since outbreak of the Korean war, but some changes must still be made.

"We are studying the entire problem of price controls and will recommend to you such legislation as we think may be needed to be made," he said.

Recalling that organized labor had walked out of defense production lines in protest against a formula limiting wage increases, Wilson said:

"Although this is not the way to settle differences and work out an equitable program, it is now history. The Defense Mobilizer said an effort now is under way to get labor leaders to return to the various defense production agencies."

Elsewhere in the nation's capital a fund of more than $7,000,000 for payment of unemployment benefits has been built up under the Social Security program since its start in 1935.

Taking into account more than $200,000,000 in a separate fund for railroad workers, Treasury records showed, there was approximately $7,800,000,000 available at the start of this month to help cushion the shock of job-loss for American workers.

That amount represents the accumulated excess of unemployment compensation tax collections over actual payments of benefits during an approximately 15-year period.

It is the total of assets owned by the unemployment compensation funds of the various states, territories and possessions and turned over by them to the U. S. Treasury as trustee. The Treasury has invested practically all this money in interest-bearing government securities.

Meanwhile, Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) called today for a revision of Western European defense to include western Germany, Spain, Turkey and Greece.

In a proposed amendment to the pending troops-to-Europe legislation, McCarthy also demanded (A) a free hand for General Douglas MacArthur in fighting the Chinese Communists and (B) an early Japanese peace treaty. The amendment has not been put before the Senate.

McCarthy, now in Phoenix, Ariz., outlined his proposal in a letter to fellow Senators, as reported by the Associated Press. He said the "Ohio" act which he introduced into a single bill requiring action by both House and Senate.

That, who bears responsibility for the situation, he will vote for a motion of this kind introduced by Senators Bricker (R-Ohio) and Gordon (R-Ore.).

SOVIET CONCLUSION BY BODY

PAUL HART, 28—Soviet Russia took a step toward the four power summit conference today when it announced that it had accepted the proposal for a summit conference in Geneva.

McCarthy, now in Phoenix, Ariz., outlined his proposal in a letter to fellow Senators, as reported by the Associated Press. He said the "Ohio" act which he introduced into a single bill requiring action by both House and Senate.

That, who bears responsibility for the situation, he will vote for a motion of this kind introduced by Senators Bricker (R-Ohio) and Gordon (R-Ore.).

Casey Refuses

(Continued from Page One) American Overseas Tanker Corporation. He said he did not recall the names of most of them.

Called back before the Senators today to supply all details, Casey simply took the position they had no right to go into the matter.

He quoted a Supreme Court opinion by Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes to back his contention such an investigation of the firm's affairs would amount to a "fishing expedition."

Casey is a former Democratic member of the House from Massachusetts. He has been practicing law in Washington for several years.

He said he and his colleague would be willing to make full disclosure of the ships deal to any congressional committee which they feel has proper jurisdiction and "where the complete story can be told in an atmosphere conversant with maritime proceedings."

The officials of American Overseas Tanker Corporation are confident that the conduct of their firm's affairs is wholly above question, he said.

In advance of the session, some members of the banking subcommittee had conceded to reporters questions whether the matter was within the scope of their investigation, conceded as it is primarily with the RFC.

Some members argued, however, that Casey himself had invited the questioning. They cited that he had "demanded" to appear before the committee because the members had made a report to the Senate that he was involved in "special influence" dealings with the RFC.

It was on Mar. 12, after Casey had made a formal denial of any influence in RFC affairs, that the Senators brought from him by questioning the story on the ships transaction.

Casey came to the witness stand today with a prepared statement challenging the committee's right to go further into the matter. Before he read his statement, Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark.) carefully reviewed the transcript of Casey's testimony about the big profits, taxes and other details of the tanker deal. Casey had testified Mar. 12 that he paid a capital gains tax, rather than higher income taxes, on his profits.

Fulbright read repeated offers by the former congressman on Mar. 12 to supply the Senate investigators with all details about the tanker deal, including names of the 30 to 50 stockholders, their actual investments, profits, taxes paid and similar details. At that time Casey offered to supply all this detail in writing.

Big Time Bookie

(Continued from Page One) Law which requires reporting of payments made to other persons of all amounts of more than $600 on which federal taxes are not withheld.

Carroll was summoned before the Kefauver Senate Committee investigating crime when the committee appeared in St. Louis recently. He walked out of the hearing because he objected to the questioning.

He later appeared before the committee in Washington.

The section of the Internal Revenue Code under which Carroll was charged requires: First, that all persons making payments to other persons of more than $600—other than those on which taxes are withheld by employers—are required to report those payments individually to the Internal Revenue Department's processing division, which is located in Kansas City.

Second, that all such payments must be listed collectively and reported annually to the processing division. These provisions are found in Section 217 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information, filed under the authority of a St. Louis attorney Sam M. Wear, cited Carroll as having paid the money to winning bettors and in the form of "commissions." All prosecutions under Section 217 of the code fall under the jurisdiction of Wear because of the location of the processing division.

The first information charges Carroll on 24 counts of Carroll's having failed to file the annual list, one in 1948 and one in 1949.

Classified as misdemeanors, each count carries a maximum penalty of one year in jail, a fine of $1,000 or both. Carroll could be sentenced to 26 years and fined $28,000.

Twenty individuals and companies were listed as having been recipients of payments from Carroll totaling $32,000.65 in 1948 and $20,601.50 in 1949. Four were named in both years to bring the number of counts in the first information to 24.

Wear said a warrant would be issued for Carroll's arrest. Bond could be made in St. Louis but Carroll would have to come here for arraignment and trial.

Carroll recently stalked out of a hearing in St. Louis being conducted by the committee investigating crime, headed by Senator Kefauver, objecting to the televising of the hearing. He appeared before the committee in Washington last week.

Governor Warren

(Continued from Page One) by the Racing Commission to be read today with a prepared statement challenging the committee's right to go further into the matter. Before he read his statement, Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark.) carefully reviewed the transcript of Casey's testimony about the big profits, taxes and other details of the tanker deal. Casey had testified Mar. 12 that he paid a capital gains tax, rather than higher income taxes, on his profits.

At that time Casey offered to supply all this detail in writing.

The Miami Crime Commission has charged the Governor intervened with the Racing Commission on behalf of broad. The Governor called the commission's intervention in behalf of broad.

Ervin said he sent the memorandum to the Governor at the request of the Racing Commission chairman who had not been able to get Warren on the telephone.

The memorandum said Edwards suggested the Governor call other members of the commission to tell them a resolution stripping the chairman of most of his powers and giving them to Secretary H. T. Beville was illegal.

Edwards "also asks that you strongly represent to the members of the commission in your telephone call that they not release any more bookmakers at the track otherwise a scandal would result," Ervin told the Governor.

"Mr. Edwards believes that unless the matter is straightened out at once that the administration is going to be seriously embarrassed and from what he tells me, he certainly seems to have very good reasons for his conclusions."

Compton's denial that the Governor had received such a memorandum came in a letter to John Kilgore, Miami Herald capital correspondent. Copies of the letter and giving them to Secretary H. T. Beville were distributed among other capital news reporters.

BODY FOUND

SEVERSIDE, Mar. 27—(AP)—The body of Doris Cook, 15-year-old wife of a youth found slain two days ago, was discovered today in a reservoir.

The body was located near the reservoir road where her husband was found shot to death on Monday. Their eight-month-old baby was found playing happily nearby, the father's body was not found.

Investigators reported earlier today that Lawrence J. Wilson, an Air Force sergeant, was arrested for the murder of Cook's husband, Richard O. Cook, the night father, was found.

Korean War

The South Korean drive across 28 apparently was more important politically than militarily. In Washington, Secretary of Defense George Marshall said General MacArthur had been instructed to cross when necessary to protect his forces. The South Koreans may have acted on their own initiative.

Strategically, the east coast sector has little significance. It is highly defended, probably only by North Korean troops. High mountains run up almost to the coastline. No big push could be made in this area by either side.

In addition to Yangyang, the ROKs captured Kapyong, Chonggok, Youmpo and the border village of Sorin.

The bad weather Wednesday failed to stop Allied bombers. B-29s hit two airfields and a troop replacement center.

Twenty bombers sighting on radar dropped 120 tons of bombs on airfields at Pyongyang, the North Korean capital. Other Superforts hit a barracks area at Hamhung on the east coast.

Allied Navy forces gave close support Tuesday to ground forces on both the east and west coasts. Wonsan was hammered for the 33rd straight day, and Songjin for the 28th consecutive day.

Trade Paper Says Holliday, Ferrar To Win Top Awards

HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 28—(AP)—Daily Variety, the film trade paper which correctly predicted last year's motion picture Academy Award winners, today picked the movie "All About Eve" as the winner of this year's Oscar derby.

The paper says Jose Ferrer will win the award as best actor for his performance in "Cyrano De Bergerac," and Judy Holliday the best actress award for her "Born Yesterday" role.

The award winners will be announced tomorrow night.

The paper bases its selections on a poll of a cross section of the 1200 members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Josephine Hull is slated to take home the best-supporting-actress trophy for her work in "Harvey," the paper says. It gives George Sanders the Oscar for best supporting actor.

Joseph L. Maniwicz is named for the direction and screenplay awards for "All About Eve." "Mona Lisa" will be voted the top picture tune of the year, says Variety.

The paper said balloting is close and a small shift in votes might give the best actor award to William Holden for "Sunset Boulevard." Jeff Chandler could take supporting honors, says the paper, for "Crossed Arrows." "The My Love" is crowding "Mona Lisa" closely for the tune prize, Variety said.

Allied Advance Is Slowed To Walk By Massed Red Forces

MacArthur's Offer Of Peace Is Contemptuously Rejected By Chinese Red Chiefs

TOKYO, Mar. 29—(AP)— Australian Diggers and Canadian Princess Pats rolled up sizable gains today on the muddy central Korean front.

But elsewhere in the central and western sectors, the Communists fought their stiffest defensive action of weeks. They were dug in about four miles south of the Red Korean border in both areas.

The Red stand came at China rejected General MacArthur's bid to talk peace with the Communist commander in Korea.

MacArthur's headquarters told of Red troop and supply movements which indicated the Communists might be making for a spring offensive aimed to strike when April's seasonal rains bog down the Allied heavy weapons.

In a Peiping broadcast spurring MacArthur's peace talk offer, Red China said it was impatient and insulting and "worth only a single laugh." It added:

"The entire Chinese people will fight unrelentingly until the aggressor is completely driven from Korea."

The British Commonwealth forces raked up their gains in rugged country northwest of Kaoping, Assam and Canadian troops found rushing streams and scrambled over hills boggy with three days of rain.

Kaoping is 18 miles south of the border and 12 miles southwest of Chunchun on the road to Seoul.

AP correspondent Nate Poinsett reported the advances were significant. He said the distance covered was 10 miles. He added:

"Only the difficulties of the going determined the speed of their advance."

Field dispatches said the Chinese were having south of the border in the Chunchun area. They were digging defense positions in the northern hills overlooking the (Continued On Page Three)

Professor Claims People Are Slaves In Time Of Christ

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 29—(AP)— Have you ever dreamed what a relief it would be to escape from today's tensions to the "good old days" of history?

If you have, you can stop kidding yourself, get the "good old days" are myth, not history. Things—and people—really have changed only the surface in nearly 4,000 years.

The authority behind this shattering of widespread illusions about a rosy past is Samuel Noah Kramer, a University of Pennsylvania professor whose specialty is studying the ancients, especially the Assyrians. He spoke at the annual meeting of the American Oriental Society yesterday.

Kramer has just finished translating documents described 1,700 years before the birth of Christ. Modern idiom apart, the documents have a surprising 80% century flavor, reflecting a variety of sentiment but little altered over the centuries.

For example, the people of antiquity worried plenty about their equivalent of Mar. 18. Kramer quoted:

"You can have a lord, you can (Continued On Page Three)

C Of C To Entertain Giants' Farm Club

New York Giants' officials, managers of 14 farm teams, coaches, and news and business men, will be the guests of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at a barbecue at the grounds of the Fifty Associates Monday at 6:30 P.M. Ed Williams, Chamber of Commerce manager, stated this morning.

He predicted that about 75 persons will be present. Included will be City and County officials, W. E. Hathaway, veteran barbecue expert, who prepares the meat, sauce and more food.

In case of rain the barbecue will be served at the Tourist Center, said Mr. Williams.

CABBAGE MEETING
All growers, buyers and sellers of cabbage in the county are invited to attend the 1951 meeting to be held at the High School building to discuss on the best method of marketing cabbage. It was announced by S. A. Hines, president of the cooperative, which is sponsoring the meeting. The public is also invited.

5% Sales Tax Is Recommended By Business Group

Tight Restrictions On Bank Credits Are Termed Necessary

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29—(AP)— A 5 per cent national retail sales tax and a $6,000,000,000 slash in government spending were among steps proposed today by the Committee for Economic Development to achieve a balanced and adequate federal fiscal program.

In addition to a $10,000,000,000 tax increase as soon as possible, the businessmen's research group suggested tight restrictions on expansion of bank credit, and a national program to encourage private savings.

"This program fully carried out," it said, "would yield a cash surplus of two to three billion dollars in fiscal 1952. Thus it would maintain the anti-inflationary influences of the budget but would not rely exclusively upon higher taxes to do this. At the same time, it would greatly strengthen the defense against inflation."

The committee's "emergency tax program" calls for raising an additional $5,250,000,000 from excise taxes, including the sales tax, $2,250,000,000 more from individual income taxes, and $800,000,000 more from corporations by means of a "defense profit tax," with profits above $25,000 taxed at 40 per cent instead of the present 47 per cent. No change was recommended in the present area profits tax on corporations.

"The taxation of corporate profits is already very close to the maximum possible," it said. No change is recommended in the present area profits tax on corporations.

The House Ways and Means Committee has held six weeks of hearings on the proposal and next Monday is scheduled to listen to a review of the current situation from Snyder. Whether he will present any new revenue raising plans at that time is not known.

The CED went along with Snyder in advocating an increase in the manufacturers' tax on automobiles.

AMERICAN CASUALTIES RISE TO 57 THOUSAND
WASHINGTON, Mar. 29—(AP)— Announced American casualties in Korea rose to 57,129 today, an increase of 1,306 since last week.

The total, representing casualties reported to the next of kin through Mar. 22, included 13,111 killed, 37,918 wounded and 10,891 missing in action.

The wounded figure included 1,004 who have since died and the missing total included 87 known dead, raising total combat deaths to 9,008.

Of the missing, 1,063 have since returned to U. S. military control and 111 are known prisoners of war, leaving 9,430 currently missing.

OLDEST LEGIONNAIRE
AUGUSTA, Ill., Mar. 29—(AP)— John E. (Dad) Newcomb, who says he is the oldest living member of the American Legion, observed his 90th birthday today.

When the United States entered World War II the 60-year-old Newcomb volunteered his services, but the Army gratefully declined. Instead, he helped with scrap drives and war bond sales at home.

Jaycees Parade To Sell Tickets For Armory Dance

Horace Monroe And Kings Of Rhythm To Provide Music

Fifty Jaycees today paraded through the City selling tickets to their dance being held Saturday night at the Armory. President Bill Stempier led the parade in a sound truck preceded by Chief of Police Roy Williams who periodically sounded his siren.

The parade began at the Yacht Club following the Jaycees' week-long luncheon and proceeded up Park Avenue to the clock tower east on First Street and ending at the Tourist Center.

Members of the club broke ranks at the urging of President Stempier and mingled with the crowd lining the sidewalk to sell tickets to the dance.

Music for the affair will be provided by Horace Monroe and his Kings of Rhythm featuring Sammy Davis at the drums, A. B. Earl vocalist, Ray Johnson and his silver trumpet and Roosevelt Richardson on the Tenor Sax.

A ten piece floor show will also put on a show described by President Stempier "well worth the price of admission in itself."

The dance is scheduled to begin at 9 P.M. and continued until the band or the crowd wears out. John Williams urged the Jaycees before the parade began to make the dance the most successful program ever attempted by the club. He pointed out that the (Continued On Page Three)

School Bus Driver Is Charged With Reckless Driving

Ossie Banks, 50 Oviedo Negro, the driver of the school bus that ran into a ditch on Greva Avenue yesterday morning, was charged by State Highway Patrolman E. D. Harrison with reckless driving, and bond was set by County Judge Douglas Stenstrom at $1,000 pending further investigation of injuries suffered by school pupils in the accident.

Harrison officers, 12, Oviedo, who had a badly cut hand, was sent yesterday morning to Orange General Hospital for special treatment.

The other victims of the wreck, Clarence Bagg, 17 and Janette Daniels, 16, both of Oviedo, are reported to be recuperating at Fernand-Loughlin Memorial hospital.

Patrolman Harrison reported that a total of 24 persons, including the driver of the bus, were given emergency treatment yesterday morning at the hospital.

An investigation of the bus after the accident disclosed no mechanical defects which might have caused the accident, and although the steering apparatus was not in the best of condition, it was not bad enough to cause the driver to lose control, he added.

Five pupils, he stated, expressed the opinion that the driver had gone to sleep at the wheel at the time of the accident. The bus is a 1936 Chevrolet with a passenger capacity of about 60.

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is reviewing many calls from persons desiring to rent apartments and houses. Mrs. Camilla Bruce, said today. Owners having quarters for rent are advised to telephone Mrs. Bruce at 1970.

Florida To Get New $15 Million Plant To Make Newsprint

By RICHARD FISKE
NEW YORK, Mar. 29—(AP)— A $15,000,000 plant to make newsprint from sugar cane bagasse—the waste material of the sugar industry—will be built in Florida.

The United Bagasse Cellulose Corporation, with offices in Cleveland, was formed recently to carry out the project.

President of the new company is Joseph A. de la Raza Cuban engineer who developed a new and successful process of making paper from bagasse.

De la Raza said today the process is less expensive, the raw material more abundant and the quality comparable with newsprint made from wood.

He added that utilizing the waste of the sugar cane preserves the forests and wild life and aids soil conservation and water supply because there is no problem of deforesting to obtain raw materials.

The new plant, he said, will be built on a tract of land adjacent to the United States Sugar Corporation mill at Clewiston. It will utilize the sugar mill's waste and its initial capacity will be 45,000 tons of newsprint annually.

Plans for construction are in the works, De la Raza said. No definite date for ground breaking has been set, but De la Raza added the plant can be in operation in 18 months if suitable permits for construction are obtained.

Anticipated cost of the formation of the new company came at a time when the tight supply of newspaper newsprint is about 6.8 percent above 1949 and production has gained only about 2.8 percent.

This means digging into stocks for the difference and stocks are dwindling. This supply situation has forced some papers to limit advertising.

The New York price is about $106 a ton, the highest in about 30 years.

De la Raza did not have any specific comment on price, but he did say commercial production of newsprint from sugar cane bagasse through his process was at a rough (Continued On Page Three)

Chamber Of Commerce Proposes 7-Point Plan For Local Progress

A seven-point work program, shaped to meet the future needs of a growing Seminole County, has been developed by the Chamber of Commerce and now is in use. Jack Hall, acting president, disclosed today.

"Remember," Mr. Hall declared, "that those points merely are our by-laws and streamlining our organization. We want to be ready for fast action."

The Chamber of Commerce has been emphasizing community service and better county relations of late, he stated. Directors have staged dinner and business meetings in Oviedo and Longwood the past two months and plan a Lake Mary assembly shortly. New literature lays stress on hotels and facilities in the county.

Providing state headquarters for the Florida Wildlife Federation; arranging exhibitions booths that featured fashion shows at the Central Florida Exposition, Orlando, and at the American Legion Show in Sanford; putting on a Kuge Easter Egg hunt for Seminole County kiddies; staging the big tourist farewell party, arranging a lease extension for Florida Fashions in its present factory site; arranging for 100 publicity pictures for the New York Giants' farm club in training here; presenting weekly news reports and working with Mayfair Inn officials to obtain conventions are a few of the Chamber's most recent activities, Mr. Hall reported.

Gambler Rapped For Refusing To Answer Questions

Kentucky Crime Chief Put Under $10,000 Bond By Committee

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29—(AP)— John Croft, linked to gambling in northern Kentucky, refused today to tell Senate crime investigators about his activities and associates.

After a brief session, Senator O'Connor (D-Md) announced to newsmen that Croft had refused to answer many of the queries.

O'Connor said Croft, along with four other "high" witnesses, had been directed to appear before the full committee tomorrow for further questioning.

That will give those recalcitrant witnesses a final chance to talk and escape possible prosecution for contempt of Congress. Conviction of contempt carries a possible penalty of up to $1,000 fine and a year in jail.

O'Connor said he will recommend to the full committee that it ask the Senate to cite Croft for contempt. He questioned Croft as a one-man subcommittee.

The others who will be given a chance tomorrow to change their minds and talk are Morris Kleiman, Louis Rothkopf, Jacob Greenglass, Thomas Guzik and William G. O'Brien. All recently refused to answer the committee's questions.

Kleiman and Rothkopf refused to answer questions at a public session, demanding that television cameras be removed from the room. Tomorrow's meeting will be behind closed doors.

Guzik also declined to answer questions at a public session, but gave a his reason fear that he might incriminate himself.

O'Brien, like Croft, would not talk to O'Connor as a one-man subcommittee.

Three Deaf Mute Fishermen Sight Missing Sailboat

Captain Of Tropicair Asks For Direction Of St. Petersburg

MIAMI, Mar. 29—(AP)— Three deaf mute fishermen told today of making contact with the missing schooner Tropicair and exchanging men aboard designed to guide them to port.

The fishermen were trying to get their own disabled boat going when they sighted the schooner missing in the gulf for three days.

Mrs. Hazel Ayres, manager of a fishing fleet stationed at Venice, told the story of the contact and of the towing of notes back and forth between the two boats. The three fishermen work for her.

"We're lost," the all-gut crew wrote the fishermen. They said the man aboard the schooner was "very bearded." Those on the Tropicair appeared in good spirits.

The Tropicair was using its auxiliary engine. The girls and the man asked the fishermen to report their position. The girls estimated that at the speed it was traveling the Tropicair should put into Boca Grande or Fort Myers each this afternoon. The fishermen repaired their craft and proceeded to Venice.

Earlier, the Coast Guard at St. Petersburg received a report of a fishing boat making contact with the schooner.

The coast guard announced the unconfirmed report of the Tropicair was relayed by a fishing boat and said the missing schooner had been sighted yesterday in the Gulf of Mexico.

The fishermen reported they gave the Tropicair a course bearing in Venice. The schooner was proceeding under auxiliary power.

Coast Guard officials said that under prevailing weather conditions it would take the Tropicair "some time" to cover the 95 miles to its home port at St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Hazel Ayres, manager of the east coast fisheries at Venice, told an amazing story of how three deaf mute fishermen sighted the missing schooner.

She reported they were on a disabled boat, trying to get it (Continued On Page Three)

French Leader Meets With Truman Over Communist Policy

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29—(AP)— France today pledged President Truman "all out support" of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

He also said the French people are determined "to defend themselves against foreign aggression."

Auriol and Mr. Truman had a conference in the cabinet room of the White House. Auriol spoke in French and Mr. Truman in English with interpreters translating their remarks. The conference lasted an hour.

The White House announced, afterward:

The remarks of the President of the French republic included a statement that the French people were determined to defend themselves against foreign aggression and that, in this spirit, they were giving all out support to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short said Auriol also assured Mr. Truman that the French forces and the associated states "are successfully opposing" Communist aggression in Indochina.

After the meeting with Mr. Truman, Auriol went to Lafayette park across the street to lay a wreath at the statue to the French leader who helped the United States win its Independence.

One purpose of Auriol's visit of state here is to dispel any American doubt about France's determination to arm, and fight if necessary, in defense of western democracy.

Following is the text of the White House statement as dictated by short:

"The President of the French Republic and the president of the United States conferred today for one hour on the common problems of the two countries.

"The President of the French Republic outlined to the president of the United States conditions in France, the progress of the French rearmament program and the present situation in Indochina where French forces and forces of the Associated States are successfully opposing Communist aggression.

"The remarks of the president of the French republic included a statement that the French people were determined to defend themselves against foreign aggression and that, in this spirit, they were giving all out support to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

"He emphasized that all these efforts were directed toward the maintenance and strengthening of (Continued On Page Four)

Possible Sentence Of Death Awaits Three Espionage Agents; Decision Is Quick

NEW YORK, Mar. 29—(AP)— A federal court jury today convicted three American citizens—two men and a woman—of being atom spies for Russia.

It returned its verdict at 11 A.M. after deliberating the fate of the three defendants for seven hours and 18 minutes.

The convicted trio, accused of the capital offense of wartime espionage, were Julius Rosenberg, 34-year-old electrical engineer; his petite, dark-haired wife, Ethel, 35 and radar expert Milton Sobell, 33. All are from New York City.

Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman set Apr. 5 for imposition of sentence. The death sentence was not mentioned during the trial but Judge Kaufman told the jury last night he alone would determine the severity of sentence.

After congratulating the jurors, Judge Kaufman said solemnly:

"I must say as an individual that I cannot be happy because it is a sad day for America. That citizens should lend themselves to the destruction of their own country by the most destructive weapon known, is so shocking that I can't find words to describe the heinous offense."

The defense called only Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg and two minor witnesses. Sobell did not take the stand.

Both the Rosenbergs emphatically denied they had any connection with a Soviet spy ring. The chief witness against them was David Greenglass, a former Army sergeant who worked on the atom project at Los Alamos, N. M.

It was the central figure in another drama when he disclosed atom bomb secrets never before revealed in a courtroom. The courtroom was cleared of all but participants in the case during the trial.

Greenglass said he supplied atom bomb secrets at the request of the Rosenbergs.

He produced sketches and a 12-page description of an atom bomb he constructed and it was late he (Continued On Page Four)

Fearless Fagan Is Looking For Home; Circus Job Folds

COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 29—(AP)— Fearless Fagan, who became the scoundrel lion when the Army took his master in homeless again.

For a time it looked like the three-year-old lion would go on the road with the Mills Bros. Circus that is wintering here. But Fagan's trainer Earl Humston and the circus had "little trouble" that neither cares to discuss.

Now Fagan is putting on a wrestling act with Earl in a Columbus night club. But this may not last.

Fagan spent his first night after his "rejection" by the circus in a cage in back of the night club. Earl says he found a temporary home for the lion.

"But we're looking around again for a place where I can exercise Fagan," he added. "Fagan began his home hunt several months ago, after his master, Floyd Humston, brother of Earl, was drafted in California. Floyd brought him into camp in a truck."
