Enjoy Your Baby For What He Is

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
A new booklet for what he is. Don't put him in competition with every other child.
This advice is to be found in "Baby's Daily Time Cards," published by the U. S. Children's Bureau of the Federal Security Agency. It can be yours by simply writing to the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. enclosing 10 cents.

These cards are grand guides to help you plan your new baby's days. You'll want to help him have good health and make a good start for a happy life. Here are some of the things the Bureau suggests you can do for your baby.

See that he has a complete physical check-up at the time of birth and again when he is about a month old.
Take him to a doctor at set times for check-ups and advice.
Make his home as healthful as you can.
Get him comfortable clothes that will let him be free to grow and to use his powers as they develop.

Prize him when he does new things. But never try to force him ahead faster than he wants to go. Help him learn to like the food he needs.
Play with him.
Give him a chance to get plenty of sleep.
See that he gets sunshine and fresh air as much as you can.
Keep him away from all sick people.

Make sure that he gets inoculations to protect him against diphtheria and smallpox and whooping cough and tetanus, too.
Try to give him a peaceful happy babyhood.
Your doctor says so!
If you can plan our baby's days that his father will have a chance to be with him and even help to care for him.
Parents who have difficulty in getting their youngsters to bed will be interested in "A Treasury of Good Night Stories," edited by Caroline Horowitz and just published.
Designed for the three-to-seven-year-olds, it is a carefully selected group of stories well within a child's range of comprehension. When mother completes the reading of a story, her child should be left in a completely relaxed mood. There are no disturbing ideas, no situations which strike terror, no attempt to capture interest through a frightening focus. The 36 stories in this

Miss Ruth Stenstrom And Edward Czajka Married In Beautiful Catholic Ceremony

In an impressive ceremony at All Souls Catholic Church Miss Ruth Adelaide Stenstrom and Edward Peter Czajka were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Wright Salisbury of this city and Mr. Czajka is the son of Anthony Czajka and the late Mrs. Czajka of Middletown, Conn. The double-ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ft. William Nachtrab before a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Forming a background for the ceremony the altar rail was banked with palms and baskets of white gladioluses with greenery. Tall white tapers were placed on the altar. Prior to the exchange of vows Mrs. F. E. Roumillat, organist, rendered soft organ music and sang "Ave Maria." "O Perfect Love" was played during the service and the traditional wedding marches by Mendelssohn and Lohengrin were used.

Decorating the reception rooms were beautiful arrangements of white gladioluses, pom-pom chrysanthemums and greenery. Tall white candles were used in lighting the rooms. The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a graceful arrangement of the white flowers and greenery. White candles in silver candelabra were placed at each end of the centerpiece and at each end of the table, punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. At the other end of the table was a three-tiered wedding cake surrounded with greenery.

Meeting the guests at the door and assisting with entertaining were Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, Mrs. Roumillat, Mrs. Thomas Mero, Mrs. Bacot Ellerbe, Mrs. Volie Williams, Mrs. A. W. Lee, Mrs. W. E. Kirtchhoff, Mrs. John Galloway, Mrs. Harry Lee, Mrs. E. C. Harper, Mrs. H. Wayne Rucker, Mrs. W. C. Hill and Mrs. W. W. Horne. Mrs. Bill Tyre kept the bride's book which was placed in the living room and the punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. William Stemper and Mrs. Douglas Stenstrom. The bride was served by Mrs. George Wells.

After spending some time with the guests the bride and groom left for an extended wedding trip in Southern Florida. For traveling Mrs. Czajka wore a suit of lightweight wine colored gabardine with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will visit in New York City for about a week before arriving in Middletown, Conn. where Mr. Czajka is employed by the Post Office Department. They will make their home at 6 Flower Street.

Golf Association Has Playing Meet

Members of the Sanford Woman's Golf Association held their second playing meeting of the season yesterday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock at the Seminole Country Club. A blind bogey tournament was featured for play during the afternoon with the first prize being won by Mrs. Earl Higgenbotham, second prize by Mrs. John Ivey and third, Mrs. Cecile Joseph. Winners from last week were Miss Dorothy Powell and Mrs. Price Heard with Mrs. Verne Smith winning the putting contest.

Members were urged to play as often as possible and turn in their scores in order to establish handicaps by Mrs. Higgenbotham, handicap chairman. The club operation has been taken over by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Levy and plans are being made for an active season to begin in the near future.
Players participating yesterday and 1 week included Mrs. Harry Weddruff, Mrs. Ivey, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Hugh Wheelchell, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Higgenbotham, Mrs. Andrew Curraway, Mrs. George Thurston, Mrs. Joseph, Mrs. E. C. Hayman, Mrs. W. G. Fleming, Mrs. John Stuck, Mrs. T. F. McDaniel, Mrs. Ed Levy, Miss Helen Cahas and Miss Powell.

EPISCOPAL MEETINGS

Seminole High School Feds Will Face Eustis Panthers In Contest Here Tonight

Dick Bass And Gene Harper Are Named Co-Captains For Celerymen In Tilt

By ARTHUR BECKWITH Jr. Herald Sports Editor

Coach Carl Kettles sent his Seminole High School charges through a lengthy dummy scrimmage yesterday afternoon in final preparation for tonight's encounter at the Seminole High School Athletic Field with the Eustis Panthers. The game is scheduled to get underway at 8:00 o'clock. Assistant Coach Fred Ganas junior varsity youngsters ran Eustis plays in order that Coach Kettles could set up defense formations for tonight's contest.

"This is the only time this year that we will face a ball club about the same size as ours," Kettles asserted during the session.

"I think that this will probably be the best game of the 1948 season for the Sanford club, and should be the most exciting for the spectators," Kettles added.

The boys have been working hard this week. They even slushed through a couple of mighty rainy days in order to prepare for the game. The squad is in top shape, and I think we have a pretty good chance of coming out on the winning side, when the final whistle blows," Kettles asserted.

Eugene Harper and Richard Bass, the starting guards have been named as co-captains for the contest tonight.

The probable starting lineup will include George Dague at center, Harper and Bass at the guards, John Krider, Jr., and Ed Myers at the tackles and Walter Tyre and John Keeling at the ends. The backfield will include Charles Andersen at the spinner, Ray Dunbar at the blocking back and Cedrick Dunbar and Donald Deal at the wings.

Rickert Brought Up By Braves For Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 1, (AP)—Marty Rickert's chances to play in the World Series were wrapped in red tape today.

The Boston Braves bought Rickert, an outfielder, from Milwaukee of the American Association last night. They told him to get here as soon as possible to get "We own him," said Manager Billy Southworth. "Whether we'll be able to use him in the series depends on the American League champion and Commissioner (A. B.) Chandler."

The procedure now is for the Braves to get the American League winner to agree to let Rickert replace Heath.

Chandler has said he won't act until the A. L. pennant chase finally unravels.

Detroit Tigers Stand In Way Of Cleveland Tribe

Indians Can Assure Themselves Tie By One Bengal Defeat

By RALPH RODEN ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS WRITER

The Detroit Tigers once again stand in the way of Cleveland's bid for its first American League pennant since 1920.

The Indians can assure themselves of at least a tie by beating the bengals today. It's the first game of Cleveland's three-game series with Detroit.

The front-running Tribe leads Boston and New York by a game and a half. Two Cleveland triumphs or one victory plus one defeat for the Yankees and Red Sox will enable the Indians to clinch the pennant.

The only way the Yanks or Red Sox can beat the Indians out is for one of them to win the two remaining games while the Indians lose all of their three. Today the two second place clubs clash in Boston tomorrow in the opener of a two games cut throat series.

In order for the race to end in a three way tie Boston and New York would have to divide their two games while Cleveland drops all of its three.

Eight years ago the Tigers not only blocked a Cleveland flag but won the pennant. The Indians lost all of their three, but were unable to grab the pennant themselves.

This time the Tribe expects to reverse the tables. For the opener today Bob Lemon (20-13) will face the tigers with Virgil Trucks (12-13) on the hill for the Bengals. Tribe Manager Lou Boudreau plans to follow up with Gene Bearden and Bob Feller. Tiger Manager Steve O'Neill will counter with Fred Hutchinson and Hal Newhouser.

The Yanks beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-7, and the Red Sox knocked off the Washington Senators, 7-3, yesterday to keep their faint flag hopes alive. The Indians had the day off.

Nifty relief pitching on the part of Vic Raschi saved the day for the Yanks. The Star Yankee right-hander entered the game in the ninth inning with Elmer Valo at bat with a 3-1 count, the bases loaded and one out.

Raschi threw a fourth ball to Valo to force in the A's seventh run but then he fanned slugger Sam Chapman and got Buddy Rosar to fly out to end the game.

The Red Sox, led by Don Dimaggio and Johnny Peaky, socked three Washington pitchers for 15 hits. Peaky and Dimaggio collected three safeties apiece and drove in five runs. The Sox clipped Early Wynn, who suffered his 19th loss, for two runs in the first and drove the Washington right-hander in cover with a five run bombardment in the fifth.

Lefty Mal Parnell started for the Red Sox and gained his 15th victory and fifth of the season over the Nats.

The Tigers turned back the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-2, in the other American League game.

In the National League the St. Louis Cardinals took a day-night doubleheader from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-1 and 4-1, to tie the Brooklyn Dodgers for seventh place. Elan Musial's 20th homer with two on and Ron Northey's 11th with none on in the first inning featured the Cards' day name victory.

Harry Brecheen posted his 20th triumph against seven losses while stopping the Pirates on seven safeties in the night game.

The Chicago Cubs tied the Cincinnati Reds for seventh place as young Chief Chambers shaded veteran Ken Raffensberger of the Reds, 1-0.

The Dodgers' scheduled game with Boston was postponed because of rain. New York and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Hogan Takes Favored Spot In Portland Tilt

PORTLAND, Ore. Oct. 1, (AP)—Hogan occupied a familiar role Always there or thereabouts Ben at the top today as he teed off in the second round of the 72-hole Portland Open Golf Tournament.

The little man from Hershey, Pa., odds on favorite to win shared a three-way tie with Fred Haas, Jr., of New Orleans and Gene Webb of Springfield, Mo. Gene Webb of Springfield, Mo. The trio tracked up sparkling five under par 67s for the Portland Golf Club course in the initial round yesterday.

Beltin Ben, the triple champion of U. S., Western Open, and PGA tournaments, warmed up slowly from a month's layoff before hitting his stride on the 18th hole.

Winter Haven; Chris Steinmetz, W. Va.; Bill Orr, Deland; Charley Broadway, Leesburg; Jim Olson, Daytona Beach; Jim Jenkins, Deland; Tom Ewing, Hialeah; Tom Deen, Brooksville, and Fred Hogan, Daytona Beach. Guy Garrett has been chosen Captain for this game.

The team, accompanied by Jack Grigaly, trainer; head coach Brady Cowell and line coach Ben Chomons left Deland at 7 a.m. yesterday by chartered bus.

Harold Claassen Picks Florida To Defeat Tulsa's Hurricane

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 1, (AP)—Compared to a deflated pigskin picker a punctured football is as fat and round as the neonatal debt. So here's trying to better a .776 average suffered last weekend on 52 correct selections in 67 chances.

Notre Dame at Pittsburgh: Notre Dame is the forecaster's delight. In this fray appear as certain as Texas. Notre Dame.

North Carolina at Georgia: Last week the Georgians had a hard time catching the Chattanooga Choo Choo, 14 to 7. They'll never catch up with North Carolina's Choo Choo Justice. North Carolina.

Oregon at Michigan: Michigan is proud of what it did to the coast's best in the Rose Bowl game. They'll dish out more of the same Saturday, Michigan.

Purdue at Northwestern: Purdue lost a bruiser to Notre Dame a week ago. The Wildcats had an easier time winning from UCLA. In the belief that not all the Purdue bruises have healed, the choice is Northwestern.

Stanford at Washington State: The Indians have a couple of tough games under their belts. Stanford.

Columbia at Harvard: In all their years rivalry Columbia never has scored on Harvard. The New Yorkers will correct that oversight in a hurry. Columbia.

Southern California at Ohio State: When Ohio State's ace back crashes into the Trojan line he will be a Joe Whizzer in the dark. Southern California.

Tulane at Georgia Tech: As long as Dinky Bowen plays for Tech the Yellow Jackets will be surprised as Tulane surprised Alabama last week Georgia Tech.

Arkansas at Texas Christian: Arkansas not only has Clyde Scott in its back field but also owns one of the best defenses in the nation. Arkansas.

Mississippi at Kentucky: Barney Poole opened his seventh year of college football competition last week by failing to catch a single pass. He won't catch enough in this game either. Kentucky.

Dartmouth at Penn: The Quakers' great center, Charles Benarik, still is with them. Penn.

Tennessee at Duke: The squaring by rival coaches will surpass anything seen on the field, Duke.

Finishing the rest in a hurry: Friday night.

Boston College over Georgetown, Detroit over Marquette, Miami over Rollins, Mississippi over St. Louis, South Carolina over Furman, Chattanooga over Tennessee Tech, the Citadel over Presbyterian.

Saturday:

East: Army over Lafayette, Holy Cross over Syracuse, Maryland over Delaware, Navy over Cornell, Penn State over Buck-

U. Of F. Is Hard Hit For Starting Team For Tilt With Tulsa

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 1, (AP)—When Florida's Coach Ray Wolf was asked for a probable starting lineup for the Saturday night battle with Tulsa's versatile Hurricane here, he came through with just that—and nothing more.

"You aren't kidding," the Gator mentor said. "It's probable, all right. If you can tell me whether Tackle Frank Dempsey, End Pat Johnson and Fullback Billy Parker will or will not be able to play, I'll name the lineup."

With Dempsey, Johnson and Parker in sick bay and with Wolf on the fence, it begins to look as though letterman Joe Hawkins will start at right end, rookie Ben Ewing at left tackle, and junior college graduate Russell Godwin at Fullback. If Ewing starts, it will be his first college game.

"Apparently we are going to be up against an unusually good offensive team," Wolf said. "Our boys last week say that Jim Finks is a triplethreat back in that he calls an exceptionally head game offensively and is an outstanding passer and runner. He was seventh nationally in total offense last year."

Local folks will get a sneak preview of the Hurricane when they take the field here tonight for their final pre-game workout to limber up the kinks of their trip to the Sunshine State.

A high percentage of Florida's work this week has been devoted to mashing the gears of a running and passing attack which will take full advantage of Doug Heiden's throwing, the running of Chuck

Hansinger, Hal Griffin, Joe Michael and John Cox, and the receiving of Ends Tommy Bishop, Joe Hawkins and Pat Johnson—if he's ready to go.

Co-Is Garver 225-pound Florida sophomore tackle, is so definitely at all is held for his availability when the 8 o'clock kickoff time comes around.

Yankees Still Have High Pennant Hopes

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1, (AP)—The New York Yankees still had pennant hopes today thanks to a sparkling clutch performance by their strong armed right hander—Vic Raschi.

Raschi, belted from the box in recent starts, walked out of the bullpen yesterday to turn back a ninth inning Philadelphia Athletics victory but that would have spelled chaos for New York.

Manager Bucky Harris is hoping that Raschi's clutch effort portends better things for his Yankees as they meet Boston tomorrow and Sunday—in a series that has a double meaning. Not only is the American League pennant itself hanging in the balance but so is second place.

Truman Predicts

As for his job at the opposition in all parts of the country, Truman said he intends to keep waging the fight along present lines. It is a campaign, he said, that is "annoying the Republicans" but "pleasing the people."

WEEK-DAY SERVICES

Prayer meeting each Tuesday evening at 7:30 P. M. Woman's missionary service each Thursday evening at 7:30 P. M. The pastor will be speaking at both services, after the message an altar call will be given for prayer.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 1, (AP)—

Governor Thomas E. Dewey called on the United States today—as "the decisive world power"—to help unite Western Europe in meeting aggressive threats with "firm but even-tempered resistance."

The Republican presidential nominee headed across Wyoming for a talk in Cheyenne tonight (10:30 P. M., EST) on western livestock prospects—the last formal speech of a two-week campaign tour of the West.

He capped that campaign in Salt Lake City last night with proposals for a nine-point foreign policy he said was aimed at "a just and lasting peace."

"The means by which we seek to achieve that goal will be, first, the strengthening of those forces which make for peace in the world and, second, a firm but even-tempered resistance to the forces of aggression wherever they are seeking to break down and wear away the structure of human freedom," he declared.

A crowd which overflowed the 8,000-seat Mormon Tabernacle, filled two smaller closely built-up and stood on the Temple Square grounds applauded as Dewey said:

"The best way for us to get along with Soviet leaders is to deal with them as strong equals and by doing so to restore their respect for us."

"We shall deal with the Soviet, as with all other nations in a spirit of friendship and patience and fairness, but we should make it perfectly plain to now or hereafter we do not intend to be bullied or bluffed."

ABOARD WALLACE'S SPECIAL PLANE, Oct. 1, (AP)—

Henry Wallace was flying to California today for an intensive week of trying to win votes and influence people. He stops first at Los Angeles.

Wallace plans to speak tonight at a $12.50 per plate dinner on "The Movie Industry and Its Relationship to the International Scene."

Wallace's Texas visit was marked by his defiance of local customs with regard to segregation of negroes. He insisted, as he did earlier in the southeast, on addressing mixed meetings. And these meetings were held in spite of much head shaking disapproval among Texans.

The last three nights can be summed up as follows: Dallas—He drew less than 1,000 people at a rally, had little police protection, and was largely ignored by the city as a whole.

Houston—Aided by the presence of Paul Robeson, negro singer, he drew an excited crowd of about 3,500 and got added attention when eggs and tomatoes were flung at him. An army of 75 policemen at the auditorium failed to prevent this incident.

El Paso—Addressed about 700 people, most of them Latin-Americans, and talked to them in both Spanish and English. They applauded loudly when he said in Spanish:

"If my country deposits confidence in me, when I am President of the United States, I propose to end all types of discrimination originating in race, color, nationality, or religion."

BALTIMORE, Oct. 1, (AP)—

Governor J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina was scheduled to carry his campaign as States Rights Democratic presidential candidate into Maryland today.

Thurmond was due to arrive here at 3 P. M., hold a press conference, and deliver a major address at the Lyric Theater tonight.

After an overnight stay in Baltimore, Governor and Mrs. Thurmond will go to Charles County. There, at the county's Silver Jubilee Fair, the candidate is slated to wind up his two-day Maryland campaign with another address.
