XIETY RUNS HIGH FOR KING WHO WEAKENS

Although His Temperature Is Lower, Ruler Spent Restless And Disturbed Night

ext Few Days To Be Anxious Ones

ince Of Wales Continues Trip Home On Train Across Europe

LONDON, Dec. 10.—(INS) King George passed a disturbed restless night, but temperature was slightly lower at noon today. Sir Stanley Hewitt and Lord Carson of Penn issued a legal bulletin at Buckingham Palace at 11:30 o'clock stating that "anxiety" still continues.

The text of the bulletin follows: "Though the King passed a disturbed night there has been some improvement this morning; there was slight improvement in general condition. Anxiety, however, continues." This bulletin made no mention of the heart pains which developed from a strain of fever.

Though the infection of the heart has been localized, medical experts pointed out that the condition of strength due to long illness was bound to have an initial effect upon the heart. The King has now been ill for nearly three weeks.

Medical officials refused to comment on the morning bulletin, it was understood they had more important things to do in the last sentence than the announcement of "slight improvement." The next few days are anxious ones for the royal family and the court. The illness expected to reach the turning point before the middle of the week.

Sir Stanley and Lord Dawson came to the palace in the afternoon for a consultation.

RINDISI, Italy, Dec. 10.—(INS)—The Prince of Wales left for London at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon after thanking the officials for the facilities provided to enable him to make speed.

The British cruiser Enterprise and the outside harbor at noon. The Prince with his luggage and other baggage was landed in a marine chaser at 12:30 o'clock.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 10.—(INS)—The moral turpitude trial of W. S. Carroll, noted neurologist, entered its final stage of summations before the jury started with the opening session of court today, and probably continue well into tomorrow.

W. C. Harris allowed the prosecution six hours to present their side of the story. The jury will deliberate or not Dr. Carroll "really fit" to operate his Highland Hospital at Asheboro.

In prosecution alleged that Dr. Carroll was guilty of "gross misconduct" toward women patients and their immoral advice. "Fooling" men patients, on the stand, denied charges, but admitted that one of the sex lives of patients in a "purely professional way."

John Jones, special state prosecutor, opened the state's arguments to the jury, which has been sitting for three hours. He testified that willfully Dr. Carroll's license to practice law was suspended as an "immoral institution."

The testimony of the witness, Jones, pointed to the fact that Dr. Carroll's license to practice law was suspended after he was found guilty of "gross misconduct" toward women patients and their immoral advice. "Fooling" men patients, on the stand, denied charges, but admitted that one of the sex lives of patients in a "purely professional way."

Herald To Print Letters Written By Sanford Boys And Girls To Santa Claus

Arthur Jimenez, 8, Writes Asking Saint Nick To Bring Him Cap Pistol, And Ball And Other Toys For His Two Sisters

With the Yuletide season here, Jim says good bye. Good day, and Christmas only two weeks Santa Claus. Thank you for the gifts.

Arthur Jimenez
Box 122, Route A

The Herald hopes every boy and girl in Sanford will write Santa a letter. All letters should be addressed to Santa Claus, in care of The Herald. The letters should be written plainly so Saint Nick won't have any trouble reading them, and each little boy is asked to sign his or her name and address. Even in this column a few of the letters is as follows:

"Dear Santa Claus,
Will you please bring me a cap pistol for Christmas Day?"

The plan of publishing letters to Santa has never been tried before by The Herald although this paper each year has received a number of communications from young boys and girls. This year, however, The Herald hopes that the first letter will be received from Arthur Jimenez, eight year old boy who wants Saint Nick to bring him a cap pistol. Arthur also wants Santa to be sure to bring something for his little sisters, Evelyn and Dorothy. The letter is as follows:

"Dear Santa Claus,
Could you please bring me a cap pistol for Christmas Day? I am eight years old and am in the third grade. I will thank you for coming and will go there for it. Could you bring some playthings to Evelyn and Dorothy? If you are bringing a ball and bring something to both of them. Be sure to bring something for Christmas.

NARCOTIC PROBE ELDERLY MAN TO IS PUSHED AFTER TESTIFY AGAINST BIG HAUL IS MADE HIS WIFE AND SON

Rothstein Death Has Revealed Huge Ring Working Over World

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—(INS)—Officials of the Federal Narcotics Division hacked sharply today at half-a-dozen tentacles of a monster drug ring—a "Dope" alliance whose ramifications are believed to extend to the underworld and political worlds and to the largest cities of the universe.

Spurred by their seizure of drugs valued at three million dollars, on information obtained from the confiscated records of Arnold Rothstein, slot gambler and alleged financier of an international drug ring, and the arrest of four men and two women in connection with the shipment, the investigators today furnished sensational revelations.

The narcotic ring is being probed under the direction of United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle and Colonel J. N. Nease, chief of the Federal Narcotics Division. Col. Nease arrived here from Washington last night with Rep. Stephen G. Porter, who was chairman of the American delegation to the Geneva narcotics conference.

Tuttle said a grand jury would convene today and that he expected indictments "before Friday."

The federal investigators determined on the immediate indictment of Joseph Unger, who held the checks for the trucks containing the $3,000,000 drug shipment seized in New York.

Under who was pulled from his birth on the twentieth century express outside Buffalo on Friday night, will be brought here later today.

Gordon is also accused of slaying Alvin Karpis, a Mexican youth. He is scheduled to go to trial here on Jan. 2 on that charge. The two Windows boys and Walter Collins were killed, he said, because Rothstein feared they would tell of happenings on the Wigeville chicken ranch. The Mexican was slain, according to Clark, when Rothstein discovered he became an accomplice.

After telling officers that his son had often struck him and had threatened to kill him, the elder Rothstein said that he had never seen any belligerent at the ranch he told of a strange nocturnal journey by his wife and son.

"One night they went out to the chick yard, and they told me I had better stay in the house," he declared. "They worked out there until a while and finally they had something in." Gordon's car had been fired and driven away. Both were tired and dirty when they returned soon the next day. They told me they had been out on the desert.

Thrasher Gets $5,000 Verdict In Court Here

A jury in circuit court today awarded a verdict of $5,000 to D. L. Thrasher against Robert E. Beets on the basis of a suit to recover money on a real estate transaction. The jury also voted the plaintiff interest from April 1928 to the present date, the amount being approximately $3,000.

The case was tried on Saturday, but arguments of the counsel were not heard until this morning. The verdict was brought in shortly before noon. George G. Herring represented Mr. Thrasher and Newell and Boyer of Orlando were attorneys for Mr. Beets.

GRANTS HEARING

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 10.—(INS)—The Louisiana State Board of Pardons today agreed to grant another hearing to Dr. Thomas E. Dreher and Mrs. Ada Leboeuf before they are hanged at Franklin, La., Jan. 5 for the murder of the woman's husband, James Leboeuf, in Lake Pontchartrain, July 1, 1922.

Some Of Youth's Time Is Unaccounted For, Authorities Insist

SHERIDAN, Ark., Dec. 10—(INS)—Surrounded by state police and officers, Lee Bracey, 18-year-old Olivet College freshman, sat in an undertaking establishment here today and stared at the body of his sweet heart, Miss Phannie Carter, 19, last summer, who was found slain in her automobile in a lonely road near Sheridan.

Meanwhile the officers sought to draw from him a complete account of his activities during the time since he left college Friday night until he returned there Saturday.

Bracey was arrested on suspicion and despite the evidence which had been brought to the young man, the officers refused to cease their questioning. He had adored intermittently during the inquisition several times, gazing at the body of the girl and exclaiming, "My poor dear!"

EDENFIELD WINS VALUABLE PLAYER TROPHY

BOB YANCEY TO CAPTAIN TEAM FOR NEXT YEAR

H-Y Club Banquets Grid Players Tuesday Night When 90 Guests Are Present

Schaal Presents Cup To Captain

Coach Whelchell And Assistant Tom Bolt Are Also Speakers

By Peter Schaal

Climaxing one of the most successful football seasons in the history of the school, the banquet tendered on Tuesday night to the men of the eleven by the combined H-Y clubs was one of the most memorable events on the school calendar this season.

Over 90 true football fans, including several guests outside the school, were on hand to honor the crowd for their creditable record this season and with numerous short talks being made and the election of a captain for the coming year, holding keen interest, the evening passed all too quickly.

Miss Margaret Wright, as toastmaster, introduced the speakers of the evening, and was in the main responsible for the complete success of the affair. H. C. Waters Jr. was the first speaker, offering thanks to the football squad, which was responded to by Captain Tom Bolt on behalf of the team.

Coach Schaal, donor of the trophy, followed with interesting talk by Professor Schaal was the next speaker which was received with hearty applause.

Possibly one of the most interesting parts of the program was the presentation of the trophy awarded to the most valuable player on the team, and the award drew thunderous applause from the gathering upon learning the selection of the fifteen judges.

The presentation was made by Peter Schaal, donor of the trophy, who, in a short talk extolling the ability of the winner and the purpose in making the award an annual event called upon Captain Lofton Edenfield to arise and accept the trophy.

Captain Edenfield was the almost unanimous choice of 15 judges comprising expert football judgment in this city. He received 14 out of a possible 15 votes. Captain Edenfield has received throughout the entire season much favorable comment for his loyalty, obedience, cooperation and particularly the tremendous amount of enthusiasm and consistent splendid play, which featured his every move and the selection seemed a most popular one. His work at right end has been deadly in its effectiveness and he is a most polished player, being one of the most valuable men to return to the squad next year.

Short but clever, and inspirational talks were made by Tom Bolt, coach; Mrs. R. C. Maxfield, Professor J. Bell, Head coach and Miss Bob Yancey and Miss following which Coach Schaal made known the letter of the year. The fortunate man of letters for their season's letter was addressed to the editor of a captain and an alternate captain.

Upon their return to the banquet hall the gathering again gave a hearty demonstration when it was learned that Bob Yancey, the most popular and outstanding player ever known to Seminole High, was elected captain of the team, with Fulton Hester as his alternate halfback as alternate Yancey, like many other young men, had prospects ahead over the horizon, but his plastic nature made him a master of the game. There is no doubt in the minds of the spectators that he will be a valuable addition to the team.

Following the happy occasion, Captain Edenfield cut the huge cake representing a football gridiron with players on the field, a gift of the Ruthie Bakeries and each guest was served a generous portion of the delicious confection.

The Ruthie Bakeries "fixed the cake before the seated guests, providing that Sanford won over Orlando, and since their thrilling 15 to 12 victory over their traditional enemies, the men have been hotly awaiting the choice of the captain to lead the garrison of the Seminoles.

After the cake was served, the members of the football team, including the captain, marched in review before the spectators.

PATRONIZE HOME BUSINESS FIRMS, STUDENT URGES

Practice Of Golden Rule Asked In Plea For Local Trading

By J. H. McHugh

What would you think if you were to go to a football game, or any other interschool athletic contest, and see a student of the home school cheering the opponents?

Suppose the answer were given that he was supporting the opponents' team because it was the better of the two teams? But, you realize that is natural as their school is larger and they have more material from which to select, and no team can do its best without support. In this, you are correct.

But have you thought that your duties, as a citizen, to your city and fellow citizens, are somewhat similar to the duties of a student to his school and school teams?

If a team cannot do its best without backing, how can you expect your town to do its best without your support?

The stores are larger and the stock more nearly complete in a larger city. There is more material from which to select. However, the stores at home can increase their size and stock only when the people of the town support them.

Otherwise, they must debase their supply to meet the demands of those who buy at home, and the town will grow smaller instead of larger.

Do you shop in nearby towns because prices are lower? If so, consider the gasoline required for the trip. Do you shop out of town because you enjoy the ride? Go anywhere you wish for a joy ride, but before you go buy plenty of gasoline from some local merchant.

Practice the golden rule. If you wish your yellow citizens to support you and your business, do not be led astray by supporters of other towns. If you want to buy in some other city go there to live.

Loyalty helps a town to grow. Let us all be loyal to our city, put together, and buy at home.

GATORS AND VOLKS CLOSE SEASON IN TITULAR CONTEST

Undefeated Teams To Grapple In Contest Of Much Importance

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 8.—(OFS)—The undefeated elevens of Tennessee and Florida bring their 1928 activity to a close here today in perhaps Dixie's choicest gridiron morsel of the year.

Florida, one of the few teams in the country that has withstood all comers, will match its puneri and skill against the Tennesseans, tied but once and aspiring to end their season in a blaze of glory by crushing the Gators.

In the event that Florida vanquishes its conference opponent, it will rank with Georgia Tech for the football supremacy of the Southeast, provided Tech defeats Georgia at Atlanta today, which is almost a certainty.

On the other hand, if Tennessee wins, then Georgia Tech's Golden Tornado will stand alone in the field of unbroken southern elevens. For Tennessee has a record against its otheriae perfect record, and Florida would have an ugly defeat chalked on its board.

Florida, in addition to being one of the few undefeated teams, is the highest powered scoring machine in the nation, and was a slight favorite in pre-game speculation. But now the Tennesseans are primed for a titan struggle that could put them near the top of the football ladder and may turn the Alligators back.

Illness has weakened the line strength of both the combatants. Florida is without the services of Joe Bryan, tackle, and Tennessee minus "Farmer" Johnson, guard, caught in the flu epidemic. He may play today, although he probably will not be at his best in the opening play. Waters will replace Bryan for Florida.

Roy Witt, handicapped by a shoulder injury for most of the season, will be out of the Tennessee starting line-up. It is the Vol's passer de luxe. Bobby Dodd will replace his post at quarter.

The probable line-up:

Tennessee — POS: Florida
Hug LF: Vanackle
Thayer LT: J. Clemmons
F. Johnson LG: Steele
Finney C: B. Clemmons
Tripp RG: Reeves
J. Johnson RT: Water
Alley RE: Stanley
Dodd QB: Crabtree
Hackman LRB: Brumbaugh
McEvry RHB: Goodhead
Horner FB: Cawthon

Officials: Lambert (Ohio State)
referee: Bagley, (Washington and Lee); umpire: Clark (Sewanee); head linesman: Franks (Army).

About $400 in prizes was offered in addition to the $100 silver loving cup awarded by the state department of agriculture to the team making the highest score. Madison Agriculture School won this cup at the last fair.

Sanford was represented by a team of seven boys who received a $50 incentive. One member of the team, Van Beekler, won third place among individuals in judging Lögberg here. There were 20 schools participating in this contest, a total of one hundred and 40 boys present.

Concerning the fact that one of the Sanford boys who made up a team at Jacksonville had over participated in a contest of this kind, representing against boys who had three or four years experience, the Sanford boys did exceptionally well.

The next state contest will be at the South Florida Fair in February at Tampa. Sanford plans to enter a team in this contest.

ST. CLOUD—Napley concluded his new equipment installed at his power plant.

MIAAMI—Installation of plant at Miami Cuban Sugar Co. completed.

ARCADIA—Maffett Hotel on North Polk Avenue being overhauled and renovated.

PALM CITY—Plans made for rebuilding Congregational Church.

CRAWFORDVILLE—Highway No. 10 under construction between here and Wakulla River.

Dr. Rucker Is Named Choral Society Head

The Sanford Choral Society met Friday night at the Episcopal Church house at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. H. R. Rucker was elected president.

Mr. J. E. Ritchie, vice-president; Mr. Henry Witt, Jr., as secretary.

The next meeting of the choral society has been postponed until second Friday night in January as most of the members will be away with the different church choirs that are preparing for the Christmas music.

It is expected that Professor Roy Holt will be the musical director for the new organization and all who are interested in the development of music in this city cordially invited by the society to attend the next meeting in January.

O. H. S. MEETS

Members of the Seminole Chapter Number Two Order of the Eastern Star met at the Masonic Hall Thursday evening and voted officers for the coming year with the following results: Mrs. Elizabeth Eddings, worthy matron; Mrs. Mary Eddings, worthy patron; Mrs. H. E. Eddings, associate matron; Mrs. Mary Eddings, conductor; Mrs. Mary Eddings, associate conductor; Mrs. Mary Eddings, treasurer; and Mrs. Mary Eddings, recording secretary.
