

Garry Moore Returns To Television Wars

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — That steady, ploddingly pleasant win-ter replacement for Andy Williams, the Garry Moore Show, returned to CBS-TV Tuesday night. While Moore isn't going to match the inventiveness and excitement generated by the Williams gang during the summer, it is obvious that Moore can catch anyone around when it comes to a knowing, professional, big league production. This was evident in the premiere, which I saw at a screening because of the show's conflict with Bing Crosby's special.

Garry's cohorts, Marion Lorne and Duward Kirby, had more to do than in past years and were on target with their material. Special guests were Gertrude Berg, Vic Damone and Jane Powell, all of whom were entertaining in their special ways, but I was sorry that Miss Lorne and Miss Berg didn't have a tele-a-thon.

—A new feature on the show is "Candid Camera," where unsuspecting people are put through the wringer by Moore & Co. while a hidden camera records their behavior. Practical jokes will get laughs, of course, but there is a touch of anguish in the experience that is not funny. I prefer unadorned comedy.

A notable summit meeting occurred on ABC-TV Tuesday night as Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra, Peggy Lee and Louis Armstrong blended their talents in a show called "The Bing Crosby Show."

It was a ring-a-ding-dong-dandy hour.

All stood and performed their songs with overpowering style, feeling and happy tones. It was enjoyable and refreshing. Although an effort was made to give these entertainers an imaginative decor of glass knickknacks, the music was what made the show. If I had to pick set numbers, I'd choose Sinatra's "Willow Weep for Me," Armstrong's "Mack the Knife," all of Peggy's numbers, and the few numbers that Bing performed.

Of course, a meeting of Bing and Frank also serves to advise us of the latest "in" conversational devices. Unfortunately, their chit-chat Tuesday night produced no new feathes, only a scordid plug for a chain of health clubs and poorly-timed Slnatrasms about motel living. The lad does seem to be enjoying his bachelor status.

Max Shulman's new series, The Many Loves of Andy Hardy . . . ooops; I mean Doble Gillie, starring Dwayne Hickman, went through the usual saccharined teen-age nonsense in its CBS-TV debut Tuesday night. The highlight was selling on crime movies, in which a lawyer said, "Take that, you loathsome criminal types." If the rest of the show could rise even to this satirical level, it might be worthwhile. Unfortunately, the impression is that we're supposed to care about Doble and his tire-some love life. Must we? No, Virginia, it isn't true that Doble is based on Frank Sinatra.

The Channel Swim! Person To Person, which returns to CBS-TV on Friday, Oct. 16 with visits to Jack Webb and Mae West, is moving its entire production staff from New York to Hollywood in order to visit more than one screen star a month, as it did under its old budget. NBC-TV's Jack Paar will be Jack Benny's guest star on Sunday, Nov. 29 over CBS-TV. George Bernard Shaw's "Misalliance," starring Robert Morley, and Kenneth Haigh, in CBS-TV's Playhouse 90 production for Thursday, Oct. 29.

Sheldon Reynolds will turn out the Desilu Playhouse's first foreign-based drama, "Thunder in the East" in Tangiers and Rome. Filming starts in November. NBC-TV's Bell Telephone special on Nov. 20 will star Vic Damone, Marge and Gower Champion, and will originate in Hollywood for the first time. Jane Powell and young Eddie Hodges join Jimmy Durante in NBC-TV's Sunday Showcase production, "Give My Regards to Broadway," on Dec. 6. Ronald Reagan will be Cliff Arquette's hobby luby guest on ABC-TV Oct. 14.

Pisano Attended Underworld Dinner Before Slaying

NEW YORK (UPI) — Little Angie Pisano and Mrs. Janice Drake attended a dinner hour together of top underworld figures at a midtown Manhattan restaurant 45 minutes before they were slain, authorities disclosed today.

"It was close to being a little Apalachin," said a spokesman for Queens County District Attorney Frank D. O'Connor, comparing dinner at Marino's restaurant last Friday to the gang convention at Apalachin, N. Y., in 1957.

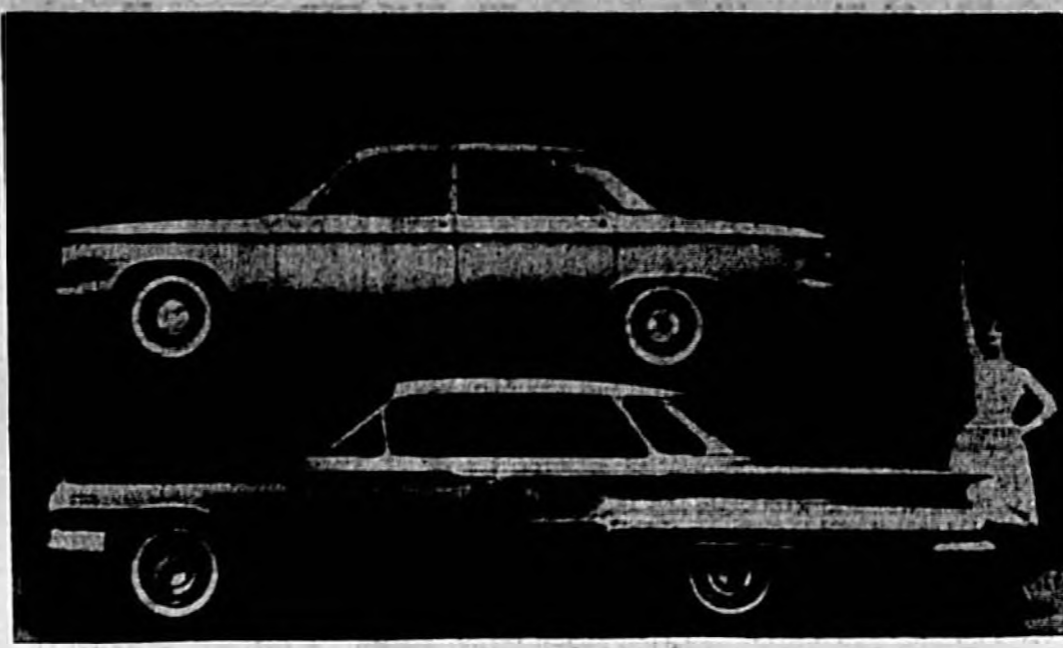

The spokesman said Pisano and his companion, Mrs. Drake, dined at the restaurant on Lexington Avenue with Anthony (Tony Bander) Strollo, reputed waterfront racketeer. At nearby tables were Vincent Mauro, reported Strollo aide, Anthony Mira, identified as a young underworld leader, and other known gangland personalities.

"It was damn near a conclave," the Queens official said. "It seems very doubtful they met by chance."

Assistant District Attorney Bernard M. Patton questioned Strollo and Mauro Wednesday at the Bergen County courthouse in Hackensack. Patton said Strollo was "cooperative to a degree" and had given a list of names of men who were in the restaurant.

"Strollo told us the conversation at the restaurant was just small talk, just passing the time of day," a spokesman for Patton said. "But he gave us some very good information and has set up another tack of our investigation."

The bodies of Pisano, 62, and Mrs. Drake, 32, were found shot to death in Pisano's new Cadillac on a residential street in Queens at 10:30 p. m. e.t. last Friday, shortly after Pisano had been called away from Marino's restaurant by a mysterious phone call.

Trained Pigeons Were Unsuccessful Missile Guides

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Now it can be told. The Navy tried for three years to train pigeons how to steer guided missiles but the effort failed.

The idea was to enclose a pigeon in a missile and have the bird play a partnership role with an elaborate electronics system. A camera-like device was to be put in the nose of the missile. It would pick up a picture of the intended target which then would be shown on a screen inside the missile.

A spot would move across the screen whenever the target image got out of focus. The Navy's plan was to have the pigeons peck at the moving spot, thus putting controls to work which would bring the missile back on course.

The pigeons would be rewarded with corn.

Scientists at Harvard University and the Naval Research Laboratory found after many tests that under ideal conditions pigeons could be trained well enough to do the job.

But in combat, conditions seldom are ideal. So the Navy dropped the idea in 1951 without ever having flown a pigeon in a missile.

Top Florida Demos Meet On Smathers

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A 33-member committee formed Wednesday to further the "favorite son" presidential candidacy of Sen. George Smathers will hold its organizational meeting Friday.

The committee, composed of some of the state's top Democrats, will have as its principal job a selection of delegates to run with Smathers in the presidential preferential primary next May.

Political observers here say the committee's formation indicates Smathers has decided to run in Florida. He had not yet publicly okayed the move to make him the state's favorite son candidate.

Former Congressman William C. Lanstaff of Miami is committee chairman.

Raiford Brutality Under Investigation

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida's former penal director Richard O. Culver heads the list of witnesses expected to testify next week at a federal investigation of alleged mistreatment of prisoners at Raiford Prison last summer.

The Justice Department in Washington notified state officials Wednesday a civil rights jury will meet in Jacksonville Oct. 5 to look into reports that unruly convicts were put in leg irons, subjected to tear gas and waterhosing, and fed bread and water diets.

Culver, who was in charge of the state prison system at the time, was exonerated of any part in mistreating convicts in previous hearings. But he was fired on other charges a few months later.

The Justice Department said his successor, Penal Director H. G. Cochran Jr., will be furnished a list of prison personnel to be called at next week's meeting. Handling the case for the government will be John Murphy of the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division, who spent nearly two weeks in Florida gathering information.

Besides Culver, other witnesses expected to be called before the grand jury include two prison officials who were fired after a state legislative and Cabinet investigation of last summer's riots at Raiford.

James Dunn, who was captain of the guard, was believed to be employed now as a security officer at Cape Canaveral. And his lieutenant, Earl Chesser, has a home at Starke.

The Cabinet said these two were mostly to blame for "shameful mistreatment" of maximum security prisoners. Several guards were disciplined because they apparently helped carry out the brutality of Chesser's orders.

Chesser admitted devising a method of handcuffing prisoners to bars and said he left some there as long as 72 hours.

Testimony given at hearings held by the Legislature's prison committee also brought out reports of handcuffing, leg-ironing and bread and water diets.

There were contradictory reports prisoners were subjected to water hosing and tear gas. Another unconfirmed report was the convicts were forced to sit naked on a cement floor sprinkled with salt for hours at a time.

A recent poll showed that 70 per cent of all Austrians over the age of 18 play at least one musical instrument.

Unusual Will

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actor Wayne Morris wrote his own final will in which he asked that $300 be spent for booze and canapes instead of a funeral, so his friends wouldn't go away sober.

Morris, 45, died of a heart attack Sept. 14 while on a Navy warrier in San Francisco Bay. He was an ace in World War II.

"One hundred dollars shall be expended at the discretion of my closest surviving relatives for the purpose of buying booze and canapes for my friends," he wrote in his Aug. 16, 1955, will. "On second thought, make it $300, because I don't want my friends to go away sober or serious. This is to take the place of a funeral or memorial service."

Morris' will was filed for probate Wednesday. He left his entire estate to his widow, Patricia, except for $1, which was left to Bert De Wayne Morris III, his son by his first wife, Leonora (Bubbles) Schinasi Morris Hornblower, a New York tobacco heiress.

"My family is my first love," he wrote. "The U. S. Navy is second. If Pat and I go together, cremate us. Put us both (ashes) that is in a jug—mix us up and dump us in the ocean."

Morris left his Colt revolver to the future husbands of his two daughters, Pat 15, and Melinda, 8, in these words:

"They are to go to Pat's husband and to Melinda's husband who ever they might be."

The will ended:

"You see, I couldn't take it with me."

Nikita's Promise May Be Pipedream
MOSCOW (UPI) — U. S. Consular officials said today there has been "no developments whatsoever" in connection with the promise by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to a Lithuanian refugee couple to permit their children to join them in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Pauline Leonas stopped Khrushchev in a hotel lobby in Des Moines, Iowa, during the Premier's tour of the United States and told him they had been trying for years to get their daughter Regina, 20, and son, Thomas, 17, released from Lithuania.

"You'll get your children," Khrushchev promised and told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to take care of the matter.

The American Consular officials pointed out that Khrushchev and Gromyko spent only one day in Moscow after returning from the United States before going on to Peiping.

They noted also that such matters are usually a lengthy process and likely to take at least weeks, if not months.

Skindiver's Find
BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) — Young Patricia O'Connor dug up some history when she went skindiving off Point Breeze south of Buffalo.

The 12-year-old boy spotted a rusted cannon in eight feet of water. With help from his mother and sister he dragged the 200-pound weapon to shore. Authorities believe the cannon dates back to the War of 1812.

U. S. Parks Busy This Past August
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vacationing Americans paid a record-breaking total of 12,100,000 visits to national parks and other national park system areas in August.

The Interior Department said today that visitors poured into the parks at the rate of 390,224 a day. The previous record-high month was July when visits totalled 11,875,000.

Conrad L. Wirth, director of the national park services said total visits for 1959 probably would top 62,000,000 to set another new record.

Ratio Of Doctors To Drop Sharply

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Public Health Service (PHS) says the ratio of doctors to the U. S. population will drop sharply by 1975 unless medical schools start graduating substantially more students.

The PHS estimated that there would be only 126 doctors per 100,000 persons by that year if the present trend continues. Based on the 100,000 figure, the ratio has ranged between 131 to 135 for the past 20 years.

In a publication released Wednesday, the service also warned that the ratio of dentists may decline even more sharply by 1975. That ratio was 62 per cent 10,000 persons in 1910, 57 in 1958 and is expected to decline to about 50.

The ratio of nurses, however, has increased nearly five-fold in the United States since 1910. This ratio, 258 in 1958, is expected to climb to 284 in 1970.

Where It All Goes
BOSTON (UPI) — New Englander Magazine, published by the New England Council, estimates that during a lifetime the average American family has an income of around $250,000 and spends:

- $58,000 for housing; $48,000 for food and drink; $30,000 for taxes; $20,000 for church, clubs and education; $24,000 for the family car; $14,000 for insurance; $12,000 for clothing; $12,000 for recreation; $6,000 for medical bills, and $12,000 for miscellaneous items.

Back-To-Work Move Fizzles Out On Docks

NEW YORK (UPI)—A back-to-work move by Brooklyn dock workers fizzled today, sending the Atlantic and Gulf coast strike into its second day with a tightening grip.

The Brooklyn longshoremen had been ordered back to work by Anthony (Tony) Anastasia, a vice president of the striking International Longshoremen's Assn. in defiance of "stay out" orders from I.L.A. President William V. Bradley.

A few longshoremen reported for work at 8 a. m. but there was not enough manpower to form work gangs.

Anastasia had ordered his men, members of the only I.L.A. local with a sizeable treasury, to work in the face of a million-dollar damage suit threatened by the New York Shipping Assn. The association claimed the I.L.A. broke an agreement to extend its labor contract to Oct. 15.

Bradley had threatened to use pickets to keep Anastasia's men from working the Brooklyn piers, but no pickets were necessary.

Anastasia, toured the pier and passed the word at 8:35 a. m. for the men to go home.

"This is effective from Maine to Brownsville, Tex., including Brooklyn," Bradley said.

Coastal ports from Maine to Texas were thronged by the strike with unworked cargo on ships and docks. Passengers struggled off and aboard liners with their own baggage.

Bradley called the Maine-to-Texas walkout of 85,000 longshoremen Thursday to bolster demands of Southern dockworkers in their negotiations for a new contract. The strike cancelled a 15-day contract extension for North Atlantic dockers which Bradley had agreed to less than 24 hours before.

The I.L.A. claimed the strike was 100 per cent effective. It tied up approximately 200 vessels with cargoes worth 750 million dollars and inconvenienced passengers on several major luxury liners, including the American export liner Constitution which will depart Halifax, N. S. Saturday instead of New York.

Shipping industry sources said the strike would cost the nation's economy about 20 million dollars a day and cut off 50 per cent of foreign steel imports critically needed because of the steel strike.

American workers on strike or called by strikers to more than one million.

Federal authorities in Washington were reported preparing legal papers for a Taft-Hartley Act injunction which would send the dockers back to work for an 80-day cooling off period. The move was requested Thursday by the New York Board of Trade in a telegram to President Eisenhower.

The back-to-work movement sparked by Anastasia, an international vice president of the I.L.A. and longtime contender for the presidency, apparently was designed to prevent legal action against his well-heeled local.

The pier boss called a meeting of his men Thursday night after the New York Shipping Association threatened to file "the largest and costliest damage suit ever" against the I.L.A. for breach of contract.

"A contract is a contract," Anastasia shouted. "I believe in living up to agreements."

DOCKMEN STRIKE — With the liner "Berlin" in the background, Mike Sinto (left) and Frank Deppolder, of the International Longshoremen's Association in New York, picketed in front of pier 88. Dockworkers from Maine to Texas went on strike and threatened a swift tieup of ocean shipping on the nation's Eastern and Southern seaboard. A last-minute truce for further negotiations evaporated and the I.L.A. called out its 100,000 members. (UPI Telephoto)

Outlook Dim For Steel Negotiations-McDonald

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald said today he was "not hopeful" that White House-ordered negotiations could bring a swift end to the marathon steel strike.

As the union and 12 basic steel companies resumed deadlocked negotiations McDonald said "I am afraid I am not hopeful."

The industry bargainers refused to comment.

Both sides also refused to comment after emerging from the morning session which lasted about 90 minutes. They said they would meet again this afternoon.

A source close to the negotiations told United Press International that the two bargaining sessions Thursday may have resulted in a "change" of thinking.

"I believe the way is open for each side to at least reword their stands," the source said.

"Let's say there may have been a change of menu on that so-called bargaining table. Of course that's no guarantee either side will like it but at least it's a change."

A joint announcement at the hurriedly-called news conference that followed Thursday's recess said merely:

"We have been considering our problems . . . and will meet again tomorrow . . . We have no further comment and we do not wish to answer any questions."

The meeting was set for 10:30 a. m.

The cryptic announcement was made by chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper of United States Steel Corp. as USW President David J. McDonald stood nearby.

McDonald refused to say whether any progress had been made when the talks moved here for the first time since 50,000 Steelworkers began the nation's longest steel strike July 15.

The steel union president said Cooper's statement would be the "sole comment."

Underlying the negotiations was speculation that government intervention in the form of invoking the Taft-Hartley Act may be forthcoming if headway is not made toward a "negotiated settlement" by Oct. 8. That is the date President Eisenhower is scheduled to return to Washington from a West Coast vacation.

The President implied after meeting with both sides in the nation's capital last Wednesday that the federal government would act if the steel deadlock is not broken in renewed negotiations.

At Thursday's late afternoon press conference, McDonald and Cooper huddled briefly as newsmen and photographers filed into a room at the Penn-Sheraton Hotel in the downtown section of Pittsburgh.

"Mr. Cooper, would you like to make the statement?" McDonald asked cordially. "We have a short statement that will be our sole comment."

Experts Taking Charge Of Blaze

CHARLESTON, S. C. (UPI)—Two experts in fighting oil fires today took charge of the battle against a gasoline fire that already has consumed nearly two million gallons.

The fire, triggered by an explosion of unknown origin early Thursday, injured 10 persons.

Fire fighters from Charleston, North Charleston and nearby military bases turned out to fight the flames now believed under control.

The ferocity of the blaze was reported considerably diminished and the threat to the more than 50 other storage tanks in the 192-acre terminal was believed relatively slight.

John A. Kirk and Dick Jeffrey arrived by plane Thursday night and today took charge of fire-fighting operations at Esso's refinery and bulk terminal three miles north of the city limits.

J. H. Brooks, director of sales for the local refinery, said both men were experts in fighting oil fires.

McCanna Names Peck Deputy

The newly appointed Seminole County tax assessor today named an Altamonte Springs man as his deputy assistant and indicated that he will use the Dowling Appraisal Company's figures as one guide in coming up with a 1959 assessment roll.

Richard McCanna, who was sworn in as tax assessor Wednesday afternoon, said also that he will inform the county commission of the need for an equalization meeting to be held "sometime this month."

McCanna reported this morning that John C. Peck, 41, of Altamonte Springs will act as a field deputy for assessor's office.

"Other than that, McCanna added, "no changes are contemplated by this office."

McCanna said he has held conferences with all the employees in the office and they all have indicated that they want to remain at their jobs.

Discussing the Dowling Company appraisal, McCanna said, "We hope to work as fast as possible to get the assessment rolls ready by December and I plan to use all information available in this office."

McCanna said "the county commission spent a great deal of money on the reappraisal and it should not be wasted."

He added that the Dowling figures contain a great deal of valuable information.

McCanna, appointed by Gov. LeRoy Collins Monday, thanked the county commission and other county officials for their support.

A native of Rhode Island, McCanna has been a real estate man in this area for 10 years and served as mayor of Maitland for three years. He lives with his family in so-th Seminole County.

Discussing the controversial assessment roll, McCanna stressed that his office plans to produce the most equitable roll possible to the interests of all people of Seminole County.

Additions To 3 Area Schools Set To Start Immediately

Construction on three Seminole County School additions will start immediately.

The low bid offered last night to build Midway, Rosenwald and Lake Mary elementary school additions was $793,949 made by J. Hillbert Sapp of Orlando. The bid will be awarded to Sapp today, Seminole County school Superintendent R. T. Milwee said this morning.

Four bids were submitted.

Sapp's bid includes $16,453 for acoustical ceilings which the school board may or may not accept.

The Midway and Rosenwald additions will include a cafeteria, library, administrative suite, storage room and lavatories for each school, with six classrooms for Midway and three for Rosenwald.

Fifteen classrooms will be added to Lake Mary Elementary, plus a cafeteria, storage and lavatory facilities.

The present Lake Mary school building will be renovated to house a library and administrative suite. The three projects will be finished by the fall of 1960.

The second low bid of $808,900 was submitted by Richardson Construction of Fort Lauderdale. The high offer was $949,925.

Oldest Building In City Slated To Be Torn Down

The Sanford building believed to be the oldest in town will be torn down by tomorrow night.

The Hill Lumber Co. office, built in the early 1870's must make way for a modern, one-story entrance and office building to be used by the lumber firm. Company owner W. C. Hill was born in the frame house 73 years ago. His father, W. J. Hill founded the Hill Hardware and Lumber Co. after an arrival from England. The elder Hill put the first sulphur wells on First St.

To new one story office will be built within 60 days, W. C. Hill said this morning.

EVERETT SUMNER, governor of the 69th district of Rotary International will address the local club Monday and confer with President Sonny Powell on Rotary activities. It was reported Friday. Sumner is past president of the Rotary Club of St. Petersburg and is one of the 261 district governors supervising Rotary activities.

Spacecraft Rockets May Be Ready Soon
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Space Agency said today it is negotiating the first contract of its kind for research vital to development of nuclear rockets for spacecraft.

An official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration called the research project "simply one step toward trying to find out if a nuclear rocket system is actually feasible." He said that "at this point we just don't know."

The contract, which will run more than three years and cost about a million dollars, is for basic research to find out how rocket materials stand up under the combined effect of intense radiation and extreme cold. Preliminary work will be done at the Dawsonville, Ga., plant of Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

Termite Damage Ruled Deduction
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Tax Court has agreed with a Florida taxpayer that termite damage to his home was, in fact, a casualty loss and thus a proper income tax deduction.

The decision upset an Internal Revenue Service ruling which had disallowed a $2,042 deduction claimed by E. G. Kilroe, of Winter Park four years ago.

Kilroe said this was the amount he spent repairing his home but the government insisted he owed an additional $465 in income taxes.

The court ruled that he could not be expected to prove exactly when the first termite began chewing on his house but that was creditable evidence that all the damage occurred during the 1955 taxable year.

Grid Action On Tap
The Sanford Seminoles met a strong Apopka eleven at 8:15 tonight at Municipal Stadium in a crucial Orange Belt Conference game. See complete story on sports page.

Nanford Junior High's "mid-get" football team will play an Ormond Beach Junior high team at 7:30 p. m. today. Thirty-three local boys will be in uniform for the contest at the Ormond Beach civic center field, says Sanford coach Dan Polham.

Dreams Theme

Two Sanford youngsters beat out 33 other contestants in the Jaycee contest to pick the theme for this year's Christmas parade.

The youngsters, Diane Muskin and J. Christopher Thomas will be awarded a check for $10 each.

A special Jaycee committee met last night and chose "Christmas Dreams" as the theme for this year's parade which will be held Dec. 4.

Both youngsters picked the theme as their entries.

Agriculture Census To Start Shortly

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—The U. S. Commerce Department will begin its 1959 agriculture census in Florida Wednesday, taking in counties south of Jacksonville.

Counties west of Jacksonville will be canvassed starting Nov. 18.

The census, designed for use as a basis for planning for virtually all persons connected with the agriculture industry, will collect information on the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock production and inventories, and other subjects.

The University of Florida's Agricultural Extension Service said that farmers should make available to census takers such records as harvest data, products sold and major farm expenses.

Auto Walkouts Hit Additional Plants

DETROIT (UPI)—At least 8,500 more auto workers in various parts of the nation were laid off today, boosting the total laid off by two strikes to almost 26,000.

The layoffs, caused by shortages resulting from the nationwide steel strike and a strike at a Key Chrysler Corp. stamping plant, were expected to swell to upwards of 54,700 early next week if the strikes continue.

Industry spokesmen said the layoffs have only minor effect on production of 1960 model cars so far, but they were expected to hurt attempts to provide enough new cars for public sale if they continued.

The layoffs came just as dealers across the country were showing the first shipments of 1960 models. The initial shipments will be held in the showrooms for display and additional stocks are needed before orders can be filled.

Hospital Ridden

Harry Robson of Robson's Sporting Goods is still in Orange Memorial Hospital at Orlando for treatment of staphylococcus, a serious infection of the right leg. His family said today Robson still is in isolation, but expects to be home in about two weeks.

Woman Bound Over On Shooting Count In Sanford Court

Charged with assault with intent to kill, Mrs. Mamie Ruth Brown of Orlando, 33, was bound over to the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court here this morning on $1,000 bond.

Mrs. Brown is charged with having shot a 33-year-old widow, Mrs. Martha Abernathy about 7:15 a. m. yesterday, after she said she found her husband Charlie Brown with Mrs. Abernathy, in a Lake Harney cabin, officers said.

Seminole County Justice of the Peace Hugh Duncan also bound Charlie Brown over to the circuit court this morning on a charge of lewd and lascivious conduct. Bond of $200 was set for Brown.

Mrs. Abernathy is in critical condition at Orange Memorial Hospital, Orlando, after receiving a 22 cal. rifle bullet in the abdomen. Mrs. Brown made no statement at today's hearing upon the advice of her attorney.

Cattlemen's Group Postpones Meeting

The Seminole County Cattlemen's Association will postpone their annual Fall meeting until Saturday, October 17. The meeting will be held at Sweet Water Park in Oviedo.

This is the annual meeting during which the election of officers will be held for the coming year. The October meeting is ordinarily held the first Saturday in October (October 3).

There will be a Directors' meeting of the Seminole County Cattlemen's Association at the County Agricultural Agents' office, Court House on Monday, October 5, 7:30 p. m.

Scouts Fish Fry Plans Completed

The Lake Mary Boy Scouts have completed plans for their big fish fry Saturday by obtaining the services of Constable Slim Galloway to do the cooking.

The fish fry, to raise funds for Scout activities, will be held at the Scout Hut in Lake Mary starting at 2 p. m. with entertainment. Meals will be served at 4 p. m.

MONEY FOR HOSPITAL was presented to Seminole Memorial Hospital Administrator Harry M. Weir Tuesday by Pink Ladies representative, Mrs. Irving Prior. The check for $750 from the Pink Ladies will be used to buy a spectrophotometer for laboratory blood studies and a blender for kitchen use. (Bergstrom Photo)

Hurricane Hannah Moves Away From Mainland

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Hannah, still packing 125 miles an hour winds, curved slowly away from the U. S. mainland today.

The big storm began veering toward the east during the night and the Weather Bureau said the North Atlantic coast appeared to be out of danger. But New England was advised to watch future advisories in case of a change in course.

At 5 a. m. today hurricane hunter planes located the center of the hurricane some 420 miles east-southeast of Cape Hatteras, N. C., at Latitude 22.8 north, Longitude 68.5 west.

Hannah was moving toward the north-northeast at about 10 miles per hour. Forecasters said they expected the eighth tropical storm of the season would turn to a more northeasterly course during the afternoon.

The Weather Bureau said Hannah continues to show signs of weakening, although winds of 125 miles an hour still howled near the center.

"Further very gradual decrease in intensity is expected during Friday and Friday night," the advisory added.

Hurricane force winds extend 70 miles to the north and 45 miles to the south, with gales pushing out another 175 miles on the stronger northeast side of the storm.

Church Worker Training Class Held Tuesday

A teacher training class for Christian workers was held at the Ebenezer Methodist Church Thursday night. Attending the class were representatives of seven different churches, some coming from DeLand and Winter Garden.

The purpose of the class, which is being taught by Rev. and Mrs. John Buck is to offer special instruction to Christian workers. Mr. and Mrs. Buck are workers with Child Evangelism Fellowship, an interdenominational group working among children.

The opening period of the class was led by Mr. Buck, stressing the Christian's responsibility to grow in grace and to bring others to faith in Christ. Mrs. Buck then gave an interesting presentation of practical methods in teaching children. The class closed with a demonstration of several visual aid materials, illustrated songs, and object lessons.

There will be another class next Thursday evening at 7:30. Christian workers from all churches will find this an excellent opportunity to learn a great deal that will help them become more confident and effective at their work.

The next class will also be held at the Ebenezer Methodist Church south of Sanford on the old Orlando Highway.

Church Officers To Be Installed Next Sunday

Officers of the First Baptist Church in Oviedo will be installed during the morning worship hour next Sunday.

The Rev. Jack T. Bryant, pastor will present the general church officers, heads of all the departments, and other officers to the congregation before the installation prayer.

Special recognition will be given to all the new members added to the church during the past year. The Lord's Supper will be served as a climax to this significant service, the pastor will preside.

The General Church officers are: W. H. Martin, Treasurer; Robert Ward, Clerk; Mrs. A. B. Tedford, Financial Secretary; W. A. Ward Jr., Sunday School Superintendent. Mrs. W. H. Anderson will be the W. M. U. president, and Mr. A. B. Tedford will be the president of the Men's Brotherhood. Leadership of the B. T. U. will be placed in the hands of an Associate Director, Bill Gammage.

Ministers Add To United Fund

The Seminole County Ministerial Association decided to contribute $50 to the United Fund drive at the Association meeting yesterday. The ministers were urged to support the fund in their own congregations.

A committee to make a county wide religious survey was chosen, along with a group appointed to study the feasibility of an annual budget for the association.

Salvation Army assisting officer, Miss Eleanor Hill, and Lt. Commander William M. Horn, new Naval Air Station chaplain received membership.

Methodist Church Plans Songfest

The Ebenezer Methodist Church, on the old Orlando Road, will hold a songfest at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, Rev. William Edward Timms, pastor, announced today.

Rev. Timms announced also that a youth fellowship revival will be held this week.

Officers Named

New choir officers have been elected at the First Baptist Church in Oviedo. Robert A. Dewberry is the new president; Mrs. George C. Means, vice president; Carol Beasley, secretary and treasurer; Julie Gore and Bessie Fleming, co-social chairman; Mrs. Arthur T. Fleming, librarian. Absentee chairmen for the sopranos, alto, and basses will be Mrs. Mae E. King, Junie Fleming, and W. A. Ward, Jr. respectively.

Cash receipts from farm marketings in the United States reached a peak of $34,300,000,000 in 1958 - about 265 per cent above the 1937-41 average, reports the National Industrial Conference Board.

Which of these Babies is J. D.?

This is the nursery of a large metropolitan hospital. Six times a day these precious bundles visit their happy mamas. And every night their proud papas gaze at them through the glass. Nurses watch over them constantly. Doctors examine them daily.

But the statistics in the files of the police department cast a black shadow over this innocent scene. For one of these babies is J.D.

J.D. is short for a juvenile delinquent. And from police records and census figures we can estimate the proportion of new-born infants who will become juvenile delinquents in ten to twenty years. The one factor that threatens the accuracy of our calculations is that juvenile delinquency is increasing.

There are just two ways to deal with the problem. One is to enlarge our jails. The other is to give every child's spiritual well-being the same thorough attention that this hospital gives his physical well-being.

Is yours a church-going family? Is yours a religious home?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Fish Killer Near State West Coast

ST. PETERSBURG (UPI) — Scientists watched a 50-mile strip of fish-killing "red tide" today and hoped for westerly winds to keep the carcasses from washing onto West Coast bathing beaches.

The tide, the first since the fall of 1957, was located 7-10 miles off shore Thursday afternoon in a strip stretching from St. Petersburg Beach to Venice.

Dr. Robert Hutton, biologist in charge of the Board of Conservation marine laboratory here, said the outbreak was not yet serious and that no fish had yet been carried to shore.

The fish-killer is caused by tiny micro-organisms which multiply to intensive concentrations under certain conditions and give off a poison that kills fish.

Only small amounts of dead fish reached shore two years ago. But in years gone by beach dwellers have had to evacuate because of the stench of millions of carcasses.

The poison secreted by the organisms also is vaporized by the crashing of waves on the beaches. Once airborne, it irritates the mucous membranes of humans and causes much discomfort.

Hutton said he was not surprised at the outbreak, since the organisms are likely to intensify in times of heavy rains which reduce the salt content of the Gulf water near the shore.

TV Drama Comes Close

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — "Target For Three," the season premiere for CBS-TV's Playhouse 90, misses the bull's eye but wins a cigar for coming close.

This may sound like hedging, but it's because the original story by David Davidson was really too thin for a 90-minute drama. It took a lot of ingenious detours to keep the plot perking along.

Davidson's story, which asks us to question our reform movement and never to treat justice and democracy with disdain, involved a trio of rebels in an unidentified South American country who plot the assassination of their bloody dictator.

The story narrowed down rather quickly to a search for a chick in the dictator's security armor. Ricardo Montalban, one of the trio, finally becomes buddy-buddy with the dictator, Pedro Armendariz, and the dictator's daughter, Maria Pavan, by foiling a rival rebel's assassination attempt.

This wasn't the only far-fetched twist. Another involved a Flamenco dancer who it turned out, was the dictator's girl and a rebel's girl, too.

Because such theatrical effects were dragged in, the show took on the aspect of a foreign intrigue melodrama, despite Davidson's lofty dialogue.

Montalban and Armendariz took the acting honors, with the latter doing the best job as a tyrant with charm and the richest characterization in the roster.

Law of the Plainman, starring Michael Ansara, had an undistinguished premiere on NBC-TV Thursday night. Ansara plays Sam Buckhart, a long-haired Harvard-educated Indian working as a U. S. marshal in the untamed Southwest. There seemed to be an attempt to establish full-dimensional characterizations and relationships among the principals, but the threadbare plot doomed the effort to failure. It adds up to another in a long list of mediocre Westerns.

And then came the Betty Hutton show on CBS-TV, perhaps the worst new show of the young 1959-1960 season. Miss Hutton, torn between being a comedienne and a dramatic actress, was unable to function as either since the script was so bad. One thing about a premiere like this one: The next episode can't be any worse.

Johnny Ringo, another new CBS-TV Western, that debuted Thursday night, features Don Durant as a former gunman who becomes a sheriff. He is armed with a seven-shooter and kills two men with that one extra bullet. The old TV Western assembly line is really speeding things up.

Community Shows Signs Of Strike

McKEESPORT, Pa. (UPI) — Delectives walked beats and police captains handed out parking tickets today in this once-booming industrial city crippled financially by the long steel strike.

The strike has idled more than 6,000 steelworkers in this western Pennsylvania community and forced the city to "reluctantly" furlough nearly 20 per cent of its municipal employees.

Among the workers laid off until the financial outlook brightens were eight policemen and six firemen, along with personnel from every department. A total of 63 employees will be furloughed temporarily and five others will be staggered "on a week-about basis."

"We simply cannot accumulate a deficit and then carry it over into next year's budget," Mayor Andrew J. Jakomas said.

He explained that the steel strike has caused a sharp reduction in the city's income. Water receipts alone were cut in half last month, Jakomas said.

McKeesport is a city of about 25,000 residents nestled along the Monongahela River about 15 miles south of Pittsburgh. It depends on the steel mills for most of its income. The National Tube Division of U. S. Steel Corp. is its largest plant.

With the blast furnaces cold and silent and the customary glow from the open hearths absent from the skies, the city tightened its belt in the only way it knows — by cutting down on its own employees.

Collins Thinks Governor Should Succeed Himself

Ervin Sets Rule On Negro Patrons In Restaurants

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin ruled Thursday that white restaurant owners do not have to serve Negro patrons.

If a customer refuses to leave, the owner can have him thrown off the premises, Ervin added.

The ruling, asked by State Atty. Richard Gerstein of Miami, apparently was prompted by several recent attempts by Negroes to be served in downtown Miami lunch counters. The most recent attempt Monday ended in a fist fight between a white patron and a Negro and white who said they were members of the Committee of Racial Equality (CORE).

Ervin quoted a North Carolina Supreme Court decision which ruled that the right of an operator of a private business to select his customers and to make the selection on the "basis of color" has been recognized by the nation's appellate courts.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins thinks Florida's government would operate more efficiently if the governor were allowed to succeed himself.

But he didn't indicate that he would push for such a change.

Collins, who admitted "sometimes I feel that four years is enough," said at his news conference here Thursday that "I see over and over again how much benefit a governor can derive from experience in the office."

Collins actually succeeded himself in office through a legal technicality. He was elected to fill two years of the late Gov. Dan McCarty's term, then ran again for his own four-year term.

The governor said fears that a governor would set up a political machine "have largely faded out of the picture" because of press coverage of the state government and a rule the prevents state employees from participating in political campaigns.

"It is now impossible for the governor to pull strings and have state employees out beating the bushes for him," Collins said.

Collins, who goes out of office in January, 1961, said the new governor should put constitutional revision at the top of his business list.

He said he regretted his administration could not manage a general rewrite of the Constitution "but what we have done will be a big help."

Collins said he has not discounted calling a special legislative session on constitutional revision if the voters okay the new 44-senator, 103-representative re-appointment plan in November.

"But," he added, "at the same time I do not think it is probable." He said he will soon make a television film for statewide release asking that voters approve the reappointment formula.

Art Group Meets For Workshop

The Crafts Building in Fort Mellon Park was made active Monday night with the first workshop gathering of the Sanford Art Assn.

Approximately 18 persons with art material attended the workshop, according to Chairman J. E. Mathieux.

The Sanford Art Assn. will meet every second Monday during the month in the lobby room of the civic center at 7:30. All interested persons are urged to attend and join the workshop.

Convicts To Be Questioned On Brutality

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — At least 63 Florida convicts will be questioned starting here Monday when the federal government opens an investigation into alleged brutality at Ralford State Prison.

A government attorney Thursday filed a habeas corpus writ ordering the 63 prison inmates to be brought here for questioning.

The attorney, Frank M. Dunbaugh, said other prisoners also will be called to give testimony. State prison system officials have also been subpoenaed, Dunbaugh said.

The alleged incidents were said to have taken place at Ralford last summer when prisoners were disciplined for rioting.

After a state investigation, the Cabinet fired guard captain James Dunn and his lieutenant, Earl Chesser. Several other guards were disciplined.

Prisoners charged they were put in leg irons, fed bread and water for long periods, and subjected to tear gas and water hosing.

Gov. LeRoy Collins said Thursday the state has given the federal government its records of the investigation. He said Penal Director H. G. Cochran Jr. has been in direct contact with federal authorities.

Far East Experts In War Of Words

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — U. S. Far Eastern expert Walter S. Robertson and Leon M. Guerrero, Philippine ambassador to the United Nations, resumed today a bitter battle of words which turned a purely social lunch into an international incident.

Each issued sharply conflicting statements today on the argument which waxed so heated Wednesday that delegates from Japan, Canada and The Netherlands were reported shocked and embarrassed. Robertson was the host, and Guerrero sat on his left.

Police Manhunt

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Police Thursday sought the thieves who stole a rented automobile from city Councilman Wolfe Cohen and lifted $23,000 in jewelry from the trunk.

The car was found Wednesday, the jewelry missing.

Cohen reported the car was stolen Tuesday while he played golf. He said he had taken the jewelry from his safe deposit box and was delivering it to his wife.

Police did not announce that the gems were in the trunk hoping they would be undiscovered by the thieves.

Utility Stocks Often Get Overlooked

By GORDON J. TOLL
Manager, Security Associates, Inc.

The prices of public utility "growth" stocks have generally not been subjected to violent market swings. True, at certain times and during certain market periods, the prices of individual stocks have failed to reflect the continued growth of the companies and have either been lagged or have backed down to temporarily lower levels. For the most part, the pain has been eased by the fact that dividends have continued uninterrupted and usually at growing rates.

During a time when market psychology has emphasized electronics, chemicals, drugs and other wonder companies of the future, many investors, and particularly the more recent investors, have failed to see the romance in power and light "utility" stocks. Says Carl Stolle, president, G. A. Saxton & Co., Inc.: "How can anyone who sees growth for stocks of the industries fail to realize that in the great new world of tomorrow which these companies are going to serve the power and light companies in strategic areas of the country, where many companies of this type are located, are also going to expand and build earning power for their equities?"

We have seen dynamic results marketwise in stocks of public utility companies in Florida, Texas and Arizona. This is due not only to the growth of the territory but also to the ability of management to improve operating results.

Mr. Stolle has chosen Southern Nevada Power Company as an excellent means of participating in the growth of that area of Nevada. Located mainly in the vicinity of Las Vegas, known primarily as a spot of glamour and gambling, the company serves an area which is rapidly attracting industry through the efforts of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce. Companies that use the service of Southern Nevada Power Co. are Titanium Metals Corp. of America, (a subsidiary of National Lead), Stauffer Chemical Co. of Nevada American Potash and Chemical Corp., United States Lime Product Corp., Manganese, Inc., and Pabco Products, Inc. Other large users are the military installations, including Nellis Air Force Base, a permanent installation, which is the largest jet base in the U. S., Indian Springs Air Force Base, a satellite field under Air Force Special Weapons Command, and Lake Mead Ammunition Depot, an ordinance storage facility.

Southern Nevada Power Co. was incorporated in 1929 but the common stock was not publicly offered until 1954. It supplies electricity in Clark County, Las Vegas and North Las Vegas, the military installations mentioned before, Whitney, Pittman and Goodsprings. Average residential usage went up from 9,373 kwh., in 1957 to 9,860 kwh., in 1958, about three times more than national average usage, and believed to be the highest of any investor-owned public utility in the nation. The directors of the company recently increased the dividend from $1.00 to $1.10. Net income of the company for the 12 months ended June 30, 1959, equaled after preferred dividends $1.78 per share.

Herbert Heftler, with home building projects under way in three different parts of Florida—Howell Park near Sanford, Coral City, and Heftler Homes Southwest—expects that 1960 will be the biggest year in the history of his Heftler Construction Co. Within less than two months from the August 2 public opening of the Howell Park development—completely air conditioned homes from $12,350 to $14,950—more than 125 of the houses have been sold. This new 5,000 home community is east of Highway 17-92 near Casselberry.

Recently published in this column was a paragraph concerning American Marc, Inc., makers of diesel engines, generator sets and boats. A current report from the Wall Street Journal states that the company is "reaching for" sales of $10 million in the current fiscal year ending next May 31 and a profit of about $1.3 million, reported by W. Denis Kendall, president. In the fiscal year ended May 31, the company had a net profit of $371,829 or 13 cents a share. Included in net profit was a tax-loss carry forward of about $300,000. Mr. Kendall stated that the recently formed marine division will play a significant part in this year's sales gains. He predicted the split between military and commercial sales in the current fiscal year will be approximately 50-50 against 90 per cent military in fiscal 1959.

Church Music Discussed At Meeting

A unique program was presented at the Seminole County Ministerial Association meeting Thursday morning. The Rev. John T. Thomas spoke of the development of Church Music and illustrated various types of music by high fidelity recordings.

Rev. Thomas pointed out that music has always been an integral part of man's religious feelings and expressions. Non-Christian religions, as well as the Judeo-Christian religion, rely greatly upon the use of music.

The New Testament Church, at its inception naturally adopted much of the musical tradition of the Old Testament Judaism from which the Church sprang. The development of a distinctive style of music in the Christian Church did not come until about the fourth century after Christ when the Church first began to have general acceptance. Even then the music was heard with its plain song unison arrangements of the Lord's Prayer and an English translation of the Kyrie eleison. Traditional classical Church music was played in organ arrangements and sung by a choral group.

Among these were: "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," and a Bach chorale entitled "Commit Thou all that Grieve Me."

The program concluded with several selections written in the modern 20th Century idiomatic style. Some of the traditional Christian words have been set to music with an appeal to the common ear. Reactions were varied as the ministers heard some of the great hymns of the church rendered first in the style of swing music, played on the organ and sung by a choral group.

There is a wisdom in God's Mercy and 'The Lord's Prayer' were played. Then with a Jazz combo furnishing the accompaniment arrangements of the Kyrie eleison, The Lord's Prayer and the 150th Psalm were presented.

The program was quite well received and though few, if any were ready to accept or adopt the modern style of music into their church services, all were agreed that such trends are evident in church music today.

HAPPINESS THROUGH HEALTH
BY DR. F. LEO KERWIN

Your Child:

Many persons ask, "Do you think you could help my child? Her appetite is so poor and she gets colds so easily." Many people are of the opinion that "Children's diseases" are different from those of the adult. In reality there is little difference for the child's body is the same functionally as the adult's. You were once a child.

A child, as a rule, makes about the best patient . . . mainly for the reason that he has not carried nerve interference as long and, since his body is in the formative stage, will respond better and more quickly than the adult. It is only sound reason that if Chiropractic will work for one person (adult) it will work for another (child). The principle is immutable; and is applicable to any condition. As we have said before, Chiropractic is good for any part of the body which nerves supply, and nerves supply every part.

It is well worth your while to have your children checked by a Chiropractor if there is any suspicion of disease or lack of ease in the body. For the sooner the block to that vital life

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Assignment Washington

By ED HOTHERA
WASHINGTON—The personal tragedies that John Foster Dulles endured in steering the ship of state may never be known in full. But one incident, held tightly secret for five years, may now be revealed for the first time.

It dramatizes the penalties the outrageous man paid for his resistance in directing our international affairs.

It also tells the anguish which the Secretary of State must have suffered in silence while certain people over the world spewed vitriolic phrases upon his name.

It was in 1954, when public opinion started to go against him in some quarters that maniacs took up the cudgel in their own way and threatened to take his life.

Security agents intercepted the madman letters. The threats were so violent that it was determined to guard the life of John Foster Dulles day and night—around the clock.

For nearly a half year, a man with a gun stayed at Mr. Dulles' side, though the rest of the world knew nothing about this extreme precaution.

Dulles, as the Secretary of State

Chico Has To Work To Support Bookies

LONDON (UPI)—The eldest and poorest of the Marx Brothers comedy team went to work Thursday to support his bookies.

"I have been betting on horses since I was 26 and I calculate I must have lost approximately two million dollars since then," 67-year-old Chico Marx told a news conference Wednesday.

Chico (he's the one who wears the dunce-cap hat and plays the piano) arrived in England to begin a series of television engagements.

Honesty!

BOSTON (UPI)—A newly-enacted Massachusetts law provides that no person shall require an employe to take a lie detector test as a condition of employment.

No One's Perfect

BOSTON (UPI)—The monthly magazine of the Massachusetts State Police carried this definition of a law-abiding motorist: "One who slows down as he passes a stop sign."

left his Rock Creek Park home for work, a plain-clothesman from the security division accompanied him. Upon his return from the office, the guard was again at his side, his eyes peeled for those possible fulfillments of those threats.

Even as he slept in the upstairs bedroom of his quaint, stone French-type home, a man with a gun remained nearby. The night detail came from Washington's Eighth Precinct which has jurisdiction over the Dulles neighborhood.

The presence of the guards visibly irritated the Secretary of State. For that reason Mr. Dulles often did not know he was being guarded.

The night watch was stopped abruptly by his order on Christmas Eve of 1954 when the Secretary, looking out of his window, saw the man standing in the shadows. He said he couldn't tolerate seeing a man being away from his family on the holiday, just because of him.

The night policemen would secrete themselves in an alcove leading to the servants' entrance. A brick wall afforded good cover and the policemen had an excellent view of the surrounding yard and also the walks that step down to the front entrance.

Actually, the Dulleses had their own built-in alarm. That was Pepi, the family pet. No intruder could have gotten by Pepi, a coalblack French poodle, which slept in the Dulles drawing room.

Today, Pepi still guards the Dulles home, now occupied by the Secretary's widow, two servants and a part-time secretary.

There is no longer need for armed guards in that neighborhood. Things are peaceful, though lonely, on this winding, narrow hillside street under the trees.

Seminoles Host Apopka In Crucial OBC Tilt

Sanford Set To Employ 2 Platoons

The Sanford Seminoles are getting ready for their most important game so far this season, an OBC battle with Apopka to be played here at 8:15 tonight.

You will see a radical change in the following Orange Belt Conference change, namely the two platoons system.

The change was made by Orlando Pignatelli and Landa in an endeavor to get the maximum team effort from the maximum number of players. This type of strategy has been and is used successfully by many famous teams.

The Sanford team is not so heavy as the two teams Pignatelli has coached previously, but they have more speed and are well on their way to becoming a top-notch ball team.

The Indians have outgained their opponents in the games so far, but their mistakes are hurting them. However, Pignatelli explained, "with the help of films made of the best games we can find out where our weak points are and avoid making the same mistakes again."

The team has been working hard this week and is in high spirits Pignatelli said. Should the Seminoles take this game they will be on their way toward a repeat as OBC champions, winning last year. The other obstacles are Winter Park, Leesburg and Lakeview.

Tries For Mark

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (UPI)—Mickey Thompson of El Monte, Calif., begins preparations today for a weekend assault on the world land speed record of 264 miles an hour set by the late John R. Cobb of England. If present favorable weather conditions hold, Thompson says he will make the attempt either Saturday or Sunday.

Fight It Out

CHERRY POINT, N. C. (UPI)—Pvt. Phil Rogers of San Diego tied M. Sgt. Al Greer of Hawaii for the third-round lead in the all-Marine golf tournament Thursday with a two-under-par 70 that gave him a 22 total.

New Coach

REGINA, Sask. (UPI)—Frank Tripucka has been named to replace George Tipton as head coach of the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Reds Buy Infielder

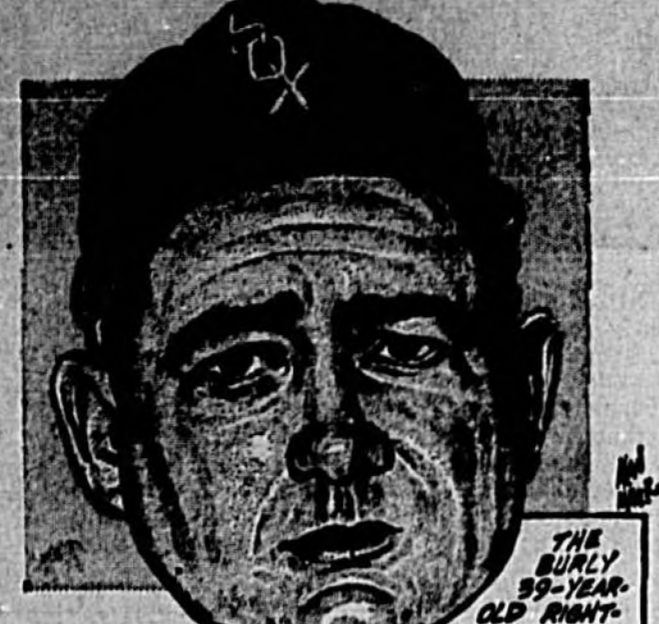

CINCINNATI (UPI)—Third baseman Cliff Cook of the Savannah club in the Class A South Atlantic League, the circuit's runs batted in and home run leader, has been purchased by the Cincinnati Reds.

Major SEC Action Set

ATLANTA (UPI)—This weekend offers the best chance of the season to see a major southeastern team in action, with a total of 12 games on the schedule.

The headliners find Georgia Tech host to Clemson, Mississippi State at Tennessee, Georgia at South Carolina and Louisiana State versus Baylor in Saturday afternoon contests, and Alabama at Vanderbilt, Miami at Florida State and Mississippi Southern versus Texas A&M Saturday night.

Here's a thumbnail sketch of the weekend action won - loss records in parentheses:
Friday night:
The Kentucky Wildcats (0-2) visit the unbeaten Detroit Titans (2-0). The Wildcats have looked effective on defenses but were unable to keep their offense from sputtering in losses to Georgia Tech and Mississippi. The Titans, playing a rougher - than - usual schedule, have beaten George Washington and Marquette.

Saturday afternoon:
The seventh-ranked Clemson Tigers (2-0) met 12th-ranked Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets (2-0) in what shapes up as one of the feature attractions in the nation. The game should include a passing duel between quarterbacks Harry White of Clemson and Fred Brantson of Tech.

The Tennessee Vols (1-0) fresh from that 3-0 upset that ended Auburn's streak of 24 games, look like a defensive power. Sophomore Mississippi state (0-1) showed potential in a 14-13 loss at Florida.

The resurging Georgia Bulldogs (2-0) are the Southeastern Conference dark horses after convincing wins over Alabama and Vanderbilt. The South Carolina Gamecocks (2-0) should be a real test.

Top-ranked Louisiana State (2-0) is rated three touchdowns better than the Baylor Bears (1-0). The Tigers will need a convincing win.

The Auburn Tigers (0-1), attempting to rebound from that upset by Tennessee, figure to take out their frustration on the pass-minded Hardin-Simmons Cowboys (0-2). The Tigers still have to jell their offense.

The Florida Gators (2-0) are off and running. They should have little trouble with the downrodden Virginia Cavaliers (0-2) who have allowed 84 points and scored none.

The unscathed - on Mississippi Rebels (2-0) take an apparent breather against small-time Memphis State (2-0). The Rebels hope to rely on its defensive talents.

Florida State (1-1) won a great morale booster last season when they beat the Miami Hurricanes (1-0), for the first time in five tries. A second victory may be harder.

Tulane (0-2) appears headed for its third straight loss as host to unbeaten Wake Forest (2-0). The Wave has been outscored 54-7 in its first two games.

Mississippi Southern (1-0) the nation's No. 1 small college team, steps into big time circles against Texas A&M (1-1) at Mobile, Ala. Based on the Aggies win over Michigan State, it appears that Southern's 10 - game winning streak is in dire danger.

The Vanderbilt Commodores (0-1) were set back on their heels by Georgia. But the Commodores have all - conference halfback Tom Moore and other offensive weapons while Alabama (1-3) has to rely on its defensive talents.

Florida State (1-1) won a great morale booster last season when they beat the Miami Hurricanes (1-0), for the first time in five tries. A second victory may be harder.

Tulane (0-2) appears headed for its third straight loss as host to unbeaten Wake Forest (2-0). The Wave has been outscored 54-7 in its first two games.

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago White Sox, off to a flying start in their drive to make up for the biggest blot on baseball's record, tried to make it two in a row over the defeated Los Angeles Dodgers today in the second game of the World Series.

Manager Al Lopez called on Bob Shaw, an 18-game winner, to aid the White Sox' campaign to erase the memory of how their last pennant-winner—the "Black Sox" of 40 years ago — threw the 1919 Series to the Cincinnati Reds.

Shaw, a fast-balling right-hander, will face John Podres who hurried the Dodgers to their only World Series triumph—back in 1953 when they were based in Brooklyn. Podres has a 14-9 record against Shaw's 18-4.

Early Wynn, 38-year-old veteran who bounced back to win 22 games this season, and heavily-muscled Ted Kluszewski, with two home runs and five runs batted in, were the chief heroes as the White Sox shut out the Dodgers 10-0 and rocked them back on their heels with an 11-hit attack which made it the worst first game runaway in Series annals.

But the Dodgers insisted that they weren't hanging on the ropes, pointing out that they had come back from a 12-2 loss to the Chicago Cubs to win the National League pennant in a feverish playoff with Milwaukee.

"It's losing the close ones that hurt you," insisted Dodger manager Walt Alton. "One like this, in, were the chief heroes as the Sox couldn't sell that to the White Sox or to the 48,013 fans who cheered and jeered as the home club racked up five Los Angeles pitchers for 11 hits in pinning the loss on young Roger Craig, took a two run lead in the first inning, crushed the Dodgers with seven more runs in the third, and then, just for good measure, added another pair in the fourth.

Nellie Fox, the tobacco-chewing sparkplug of the White Sox, started the journey of annihilation in the very first inning when, with one away, he drew a walk. Jim Landis laced a single to right and little Nellie went to third. That's when Big Klu started his heroics with a single to right which scored Fox and put Landis on third. Sherman Lollar followed with a long drive to center that kept Klu anchored on first, but Landis cantered home after the catch. That accounted for the first two runs — but the massacre really started in the third inning.

The pesky Sox started that fantastic third with a double. Landis singled him home and then Big Klu lofted a homer into the right field stands. Chuck Churn shouldered the load for Craig then, and the roof fell in on him as Duke Saider collided with Wally Moon in fielding — and dropping — Lollar's high fly. Lollar wound up on second and trundled home heavily-footed on Billy Goodman's sliced single to right. Goodman advanced to third on Al Smith's double to left center.

That's when Saider equalled the Series record for inept play as he threw wildly to the infield for his second error of the inning. Goodman scored and Smith went to third.

Second baseman Charley Neal got into the error act next when he gobbled up Jim Rivera's grounder and tossed it into the dirt in front of the plate while trying to nail Smith at home. The ball struck Rivera's discarded bat and bounced past catcher John Roseboro as Smith galloped home and Rivera went on to second.

Wynn contributed to his own cause next with a double to center, scoring Rivera. But the next two men went down to finally end it.

The game assumed comic opera proportions as the Sox added two more in the fourth. Landis started with his third straight single and then it was Big Klu again — smashing a homer against the upper rail in right field. As the ball dropped back on the playing field, Dodger right fielder Norm Larker picked it up in disgust and hurled it up into the roaring crowd.

That Kluszewski blast ended the scoring for the day, and, while it was five runs batted in to equal the World Series one-game mark held jointly by Yankees Tony Lazzeri and Bill Dickey, it also was more than the White Sox were to need on this actual anniversary of the day 40 years ago when they started their sordid trip into shame and infamy.

when I was with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh.

The White Sox didn't have a uniform like that when I came over to them from the Pirates last August 25th. They got me one for the World Series, though.

Am I going to wear the same one today? Are you kidding?

CHICAGO (UPI) — That wasn't too bad for a start, but what do I do now for an encore?

When you've been around the majors as long as I have, you don't feel there are many thrills left in store for you. This was by far my biggest one, though.

Here am I, a guy who has spent practically my entire career in the National League and never dreamed—not until a week ago, anyway—of ever getting in a World Series anymore.

And to start it off like this—well, sir, I don't think I can ever top it.

I didn't think that first homer of mine was going all the way in the third inning. I thought it was going to come down short. There wasn't any question in my mind about the second one, though. I knew that was gone for good.

Happy? Didn't you notice how I hot-dogged it around the bases after that fourth inning homer. Boy, I was really in clover trotting around those bases.

The thing that really pleased me was that my wife was out to the park and practically the whole town of Argo. What do you mean you never heard of Argo? It has a population of 10,000 and it happens to be right here in Illinois. It also happens to be my hometown.

Apart from my hitting, I felt good because I finally got a uniform tailored with the sleeves cut short—just like I used to wear

Southern California and Ohio State, a pair of top-ranked college football powers, will kick off another week end of major intersectional skirmishes Friday night when they collide at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The sixth-ranked Trojans, who trounced Oregon State and Pittsburgh in their first two games, are narrow two-point favorites over the Big Ten Conference invaders.

Ohio State shared 10th place with Notre Dame in this week's UPI rating and hopes to move up a couple of notches by defeating USC. The Buckeyes opened their season last Saturday by edging Duke, 14-13.

It will mark the first night game ever played by an Ohio State team.

West Virginia is a six-point favorite over George Washington and Kentucky is a seven-point choice over Detroit in other major Friday night games.

The biggest attractions on Saturday's card are Northwestern vs Iowa and Notre Dame vs Purdue. Northwestern was ranked second in the nation following its 45-13 victory over once-mighty Oklahoma last Saturday but is a one-point underdog against Iowa, which opened its season by clobbering California, 42-12.

Purdue, although unranked among the top ten, is a three-point favorite to hand Notre Dame its first defeat under new coach Joe Kuharich. The Irish romped to a 28-8 triumph over North Carolina last Saturday while Purdue battled UCLA to a scoreless tie in its opener.

Top-ranked Louisiana State is a 21-point favorite over Baylor.

Fourth-ranked Army is a 10-point choice over Illinois but seven-ranked Clemson is a one-point underdog for its meeting with Georgia Tech.

In other games, fifth-ranked Mississippi is an "out" favorite against Memphis State, eighth-ranked Texas is a 10-point choice over California and ninth-ranked Wisconsin is picked to defeat Marquette.

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Nearly 100 golf professionals set out on the second round of the $20,000 Portland Centennial Open today in pursuit of a young ex-Marine. Tony Lama, 25, of San Leandro, Calif., broke out of a summer-long slump Thursday to show the field his heels with a seven-under-par 65 on the velvety fairways and greens of the Portland golf club.

He had a two-stroke lead over the field in his quest for $2,800 first money.

Closest to Lama at 67 were Jay Liebert, Sanford, Fla., and Jim Ferrer, Crystal River, Fla. Seven were tied for fourth with 68's.

Hero Klu Gives His View Of Tilt

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ted Kluszewski, who has been with the White Sox only 28 days, paced them to an 11-0 victory over the Dodgers in the World Series opener Thursday with two home runs and a single. He gives his impressions of the game in the following dispatch.

Hypnotism Explained By Speaker

A hypnotized person's senses are almost dead when he is in a hypnotic state, official hypnotist Joe McCauley said today at the Jaycees luncheon.

A person under hypnosis is not always unconscious, McCauley emphasized at the Jaycees Civic Center luncheon. The first licensed official hypnotist in the United States defined hypnosis as "a state of heightened suggestibility in which a person will accept acceptable suggestions."

Thirty to 60 per cent of the average population can be hypnotized, McCauley said. He excluded children under six, the feeble minded and persons in a sane period who he helped by hypnosis hypnosis, McCauley explained. Hypnosis has been used to help with the will-power of the conscious mind while hypnosis deals with the subconscious, he said.

The mesmeric trance cannot be produced by drugs according to McCauley.

There is no possibility of remaining in a hypnotic state for any length of time since hypnosis must be fed by suggestion, McCauley emphasized. He said that when a person got hungry he would snap out of it.

No hypnotist can force a mesmerized person to commit an immoral or criminal act which the person deeply feels is wrong, the Orlandoan pointed out. What you will do in the waking state you will do in the hypnotic state and some have more susceptibility than others, McCauley explained.

He called the Erida Murphy affair "fair bunk" and said there is no such thing as pre-natal regression. But hypnosis can make a person feel the same emotions felt at a younger period of his life, the hypnotist pointed out. McCauley said he does not relieve pain because pain is a danger sign telling that something is wrong in the body. If the pain were taken away the cause would still be present unnoticed, which would be bad, he said. On prescription from a physician, McCauley will work to relieve migraine headaches however.

Hypnotism, now at its highest peak, gained favor after World War II, when it was used to overcome the effect of shell-shock and other violent experiences. In conjunction with psychiatric treatment, McCauley explained.

Techniques are used in medicine for anaesthesia, for post-operative comfort and in dental work, he said. Hypnosis can also help people break habits like smoking and nail biting and can increase work efficiency he told the Jaycees.

THE RITZ has scheduled one of the first Florida showings of Clark Gable's new movie, "But Not For Me." Co-starred in the film is Carroll Baker, a St. Petersburg girl, who visited Central Florida recently to attend an

Jersey Epidemic Is On Decline

TRENTON, N. J. (UPI) — The epidemic of deadly eastern equine encephalitis was on the decline today but the death toll could continue to mount.

Dr. Roscoe P. Kandle, state health commissioner, said there still are some "pretty sick" people suspected of having EEE and there is "still a chance that some will die."

The death toll from encephalitis and suspected encephalitis stands at 18. Ten others are hospitalized with suspected cases. Of the 28 cases, 11 have been "presumptively confirmed" as EEE, including eight deaths.

The last death occurred Tuesday, leading Kandle to believe the epidemic was declining.

Kandle noted Thursday that the department "has no report of a case with an onset after Sept. 27. That is hopeful because the incubation period is 15 days."

The number of apartment units on which construction was started in the U. S. during 1959 was approximately 139,000.

... A Dash Of Salt

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — Housewives of America may find it hard to believe, but President Eisenhower is spending a good part of his vacation in the kitchen humming over his pots and pans with the same pleasure he reserves for a par golf score.

Eisenhower, quite fatigued and suffering from a nuisance cold, flew out here to one of America's more luxurious playgrounds for rest and relaxation.

In the comfortable desert home of George E. Allen, his Gettysburg and Washington friend, the President has at his command just about every domestic convenience known. The Allen house is on the grounds of the exclusive La Quinta Hotel 20 miles from Palm Springs. There are two swimming pools on Allen's two and a half acres.

Instead of having platoons of servants handle the groceries, the President has been cooking every meal since he arrived Wednesday. He cooks not only for himself and Allen, but for other members of his stag golfing expedition, including William E. Robinson, board chairman of Coca Cola, and Freeman Gosden, who took the fortune he made playing Amos of "Amos and Andy" and applied it profitably to California holdings.

The Allen house is interestingly equipped, including a TV set in one of the fireplaces. The kitchen is in a separate wing of the house and is thoroughly furnished with all the latest electronic aids to cooking. Eisenhower is not a fancy cook. He tends to the plainer, more rugged cuisine, leaving the cordon bleu refinements to the chefs back at the White House. Breakfast Thursday featured conventional ham or bacon and eggs. The President broiled a small strip of steak for himself.

His press secretary, James C. Hagerty, is not included in the highly exclusive Eisenhower boarding house arrangement and was unable to supply more than the breakfast menu, and that second hand.

Hagerty said, however, the President fixed lunch and dinner Thursday and undoubtedly would be busy at the stove this morning.

Mottoes Group Has Right Idea

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Let's Have Better Mottoes Assn. announced today its selection of the motto for October — "Please don't talk while I'm interrupting."

E. V. Roberts, secretary of the local chapter, said the following were also-runs in monthly competitions:

"Why worry 'bouta the boss — we're not afraid of you?"

"I like the way you put it — simple."

"Do it the ethical way unless there's no chance of getting caught."

"I think all the time, but I never think of anything."

Roberts said a new group would be formed within the association and that all members named John were invited to join. The group will be known as the society for the prevention of calling bath-rooms "Johns."

U. S. Consumers Deeper In Debt

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American consumers were deeper in debt at the end of August than ever before — $47,910,000,000.

That figure, reported by the Commerce Department, represents the total outstanding consumer credit, including both installment and noninstallment borrowing.

Installment credit rose in August for the second straight month. The 502 million dollar increase sent the total to $37,910,000,000.

Non-installment borrowing rose by $19 million dollars.

Auto credit expanded by 208 million dollars in August, a bit less than in July but about equal to average monthly gross in the second quarter of the year.

Orlando Minister To Conduct Service

Rev. Andrew M. Robinson of the Park Lane Presbyterian Church in Orlando will conduct the morning services at First Presbyterian Church Sunday.

World-Wide Communion service will be observed at that time.

Gomes Favored In TV Fight

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — World Junior Lightweight Champion Harold Gomes of Providence is a heavy favorite over Jay Fuller in tonight's 10-round nationally televised bout at Rhode Island Auditorium.

Fighting observers feel that the 26-year-old Gomes is more experienced, is a better puncher and has more stamina than Fuller, of West Jordan, Utah.

Fuller, the brother of newly-crowned World Middleweight Champion Gene Fullmer, has had 19 professional fights and has won 17 of them. Gomes' title will not be at stake.

The popular Gomes, who has been fighting for eight years and has won 45 of his 47 bouts, said today that he knows "Fullmer will be a tough one to get by."

"It's a Fuller and that speaks for itself. Also, he'll be out to get himself rated and I'll have to be on my guard," said Gomes.

Scientists Wait For Total Eclipse

FUERTEVENTURA, Canary Islands (UPI)—Scientists from six nations waited anxiously on this Atlantic Island today, hoping for a good look at the total eclipse of the sun.

The eclipse begins at 7:45 a. m. e.d.t.

Clouds at 9,000 feet obscured most of the Canaries Thursday, and ground observers feared they might not be able to see the sky during the 2 minutes and 40 seconds the moon obscures the sun from the earth.

Two American scientists appeared assured of a good look at the eclipse, weather or not. Michael Witonski and Edward Diller will chase the moon's shadow in a supersonic F-101B fighter plane capable of keeping up with the eclipse for six minutes.

Ruined Garment, Girl Claims; She Sues Laundromat

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 21-year-old girl has sued a laundromat here because one of its drying machines melted a pair of faldas and ruined her laundry. The suit, filed in small claims court, brought a counter legal action from the laundry which claimed that the melted faldas burned out the machine and resulted in $101 damages.

However, Pamela Champagne insists the laundry owes her $40 because the coin-operated machine's temperature was set too high.

The laundry firm, Warner-Wong Inc., argues that Miss Champagne should have heeded a warning sign telling customers to "dry nylon or miracle fabrics only two or three minutes."

Judge Dewitt S. Hyde took the case under advisement, announcing he would have to "research" the matter. He said the question of liability would be of interest to the dryer's manufacturer too.

"As a matter of fact," the judge said, "this question is fraught with consequences for a growing industry."

Painter Takes To Screen Role

ROME (UPI) — Princess Dorothy de Pollio, who painted Vice President Richard Nixon's portrait in Miami two years ago, has a leading part in Paramount's "Bay of Naples."

Princess Dorothy, who came by her title through her marriage to an Italian prince, portrays a beauty who turns Vittorio De Sica's head in the comedy starring Clark Gable, Sophia Loren and De Sica.

Navy Chief Retires After 20 Years

Chief James L. Markham became a permanent Lake Mary resident this week when he retired from the Navy in ceremonies at the Naval Air Station after 20 years of active duty.

Markham's family includes his wife, son James, Seminole High School football lineman; daughter, Jeanne, a sophomore in the band, and Joe, a Lake Mary Little League baseball player.

Markham said he will join the C. V. Mosby Co., publishers of medical books and literature. He will represent the firm in Florida and south Georgia.

Walter Anthony, San Francisco, of the Mosby Co. was among the guests at the ceremonies transferring Markham to the Fleet Reserve.

Commanding officer of VAW-7, Cdr. Harold F. Lang read the retirement orders.

Markham was assigned to the Sanford NAS Dispensary during his tour here.

Mountain Climb Gives A Kick

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Michael Rennie and James MacArthur recently spent three months scrambling up and down the Swiss Alps for scenes in Walt Disney's adventure drama, "Third Man on the Mountain."

"It's a terrific experience," reported Rennie. "But just to say you've climbed a mountain is a poor reason for doing it. There must be an emotional kick."

"It's the challenge, and the pride of conquest when you reach the top," added MacArthur. "The view is beautiful, too, but not beautiful enough to get me up there again."

3 Election Battle Shapes Up As Free-For-All

Sanford (UPI)—Sanford's very general election battle shapes up as a free-for-all between the Conservatives and the Laborites today.

The primary election was held on a Laborite platform to slash taxes and the party is returned to power on Thursday's parliamentary election. It brought charges of "vote buying" from Conservatives.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan charged today that the Labor Party's plans for nationalization of the country's leading industries amounted to "a stab in the back."

He said the Laborites "intend to get in by the front door if they can't get in by the back door."

Third Russian Rocket Races Toward Orbit Of Moon-Earth

Radio Photos Expected Of Unseen Lunar Area

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet press and radio hailed today the success of its third lunar probe and scientists pledged that Russia's space program is not aimed at establishing military bases on the moon.

The moon rocket was racing toward the moon in a great looping curve that was expected to bring it to within 6,000 miles of the moon today and then back toward the earth. It was to pass the never-seen back of the moon and radio back photographs.

Success of the rocket was expected to be determined sometime today.

Evgeny Fedorov, corresponding member of the Soviet Academy of Science, reassured the world today on Soviet space aims. He wrote in Pravda, the official Communist newspaper:

"Soviet scientists are studying outer space with peaceful aim. No one in the USSR is planning to fence off the regions of the moon where a Soviet pennant lies (carried there by the Sept. 13 Lunik II) and start building military bases there."

"It may be this will have some beneficial effect on those inordinately zealous Western brass hats who, much ahead of their practical possibilities, openly dream of keeping whole countries under a threat of 'bombing from the moon,' he said.

The fate of the probe hung in the balance and the scientist who worked out hairline calculations apparently were powerless to help it. Special transmitters aboard Lunik III were to switch on so its path may be determined exactly.

If the rocket performed as the Soviets expected, the 614-pound "interplanetary space station" contained in the 3,424-pound final stage of the rocket would career around a "corner" near the moon like a car skidding around a sharp turn.

It could skip out of control and plunge into the depths of space. It could stall, burn and plunge back to a fiery death in the earth's atmosphere.

But if the Soviet scientist's calculations have been exact, it could negotiate the corner perfectly, whip around the back of the moon which no man has ever seen, take crude electric pictures of it and radio them to earth.

If perfection is achieved, the rocket could go around the earth as it did the moon, circling both earth and moon in a huge, cigar-shaped orbit for months to come. This, too, may be known today.

Scientists discussing the latest Soviet space triumph said Sunday night it would take a day and a half or two days to determine the course of the rocket precisely enough to say whether Lunik III will achieve its double orbit.

There has been no mention of the exact time the rocket will begin skidding around its corner, swimming some 6,000 miles from the surface of the moon. Today's transmission from the moon probe was expected to disclose that.

Soviet scientists hailed the third cosmic rocket as "the beginning of interstellar navigation" and that it was a far greater achievement than the moon hit of Sept. 14.

'Girls' Town
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The State Forestry Board today postponed consideration of giving 1,000 acres of land to former showgirl Gregg Sherwood Dodge for her proposed "Girls' Town, U. S. A." when she failed to appear.

Government Intervention In Dock Strike Slated

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Government intervention in the five-day-old dock workers' strike was expected today in an effort to end the paralyzing tie-up in Atlantic and Gulf ports.

Federal officials were reported to regard the dock walkout as more critical than the 83-day-old steel strike. Hundreds of ships and millions of dollars of cargo are tied up in ports from Seaside, Maine, to Brownsville, Tex.

Federal authorities prepared to seek a court order to stop walkouts by two New Orleans locals of the striking International Longshoremen's Association (ILA).

If they succeed, it may pave the way for similar injunctions to halt work stoppages at other Southern ports.

Gloom Hits Cape

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration revealed today it is studying plans to launch another moonrocket from the cape.

No date was indicated, but the brief announcement had the effect of wiping away a little of the gloom that spread among American missilemen with Russia's firing of Lunik III this past weekend.

U. S. scientists had hoped two weeks ago that the weekend would see a satellite headed for an orbit around the moon. The trick was accomplished—but with a bit of variation.

The "U.S." they had planned to mark the satellite became instead "U. S. S. R."—signifying the launching of Lunik III's 967-pound payload toward a programmed cigar-shaped orbit around both moon and earth.

NASA also said estimates indicated that about five months would be required to repair damage at "Complex 12" on the cape.

"Complex 12" was the launching pad for the Atlas Able moonrocket that was supposed to have carried America's own 315-pound satellite toward a lunar orbit sometime early this month.

But the Atlas-Able blew up during a static test Sept. 24 at the cape. The first and second stages of the four-stage behemoth were destroyed, and the pad itself heavily damaged.

NASA said it was considering plans "to conduct a similar experiment using other launching facilities at Cape Canaveral." The satellite remained in storage, but a new moonrocket appeared to be at least several weeks away.

Lunik III, while perhaps less spectacular than Lunik II which plowed into the lunar surface last month, will be considerably more beneficial from a standpoint.

For instance, it is designed to take and relay pictures of the moon's "far side," never before seen by man.

"Hurt, hurt—it really hurt," said one official here. It was a simple recognition that Russia had put even more distance between herself and the U. S. in the space race. The fact was met with calm acceptance here.

Gen. Donald N. Yates, commander of the Air Force missile test center here, had no comment immediately.

The moon satellite that U. S. missilemen have on hand—which also was designed to take pictures of the moon's "far side"—was left at the gate when an Atlas-Able moonrocket blew up during a static test Sept. 24. The shot had been set for sometime early in October.

Floods Slam Southwest Leaving Many Homeless

WORST FLOOD — About 1,000 families are believed to have been evacuated from Stillwater, Okla., as the worst flood in the city's history inundated the community. Shown is a view of state Highway 40.

United Press International
Floods and tornadoes combined to leave thousands homeless in the Southwest today. A five-day snow storm, meanwhile, stranded ranchers in southern Colorado.

At least 6 were dead and 65 missing from the multi-million-dollar floods and tornadoes in Oklahoma and Texas.

The Red Cross estimated that 1,000 homes in Oklahoma were damaged by flood waters. Hardest hit was Guthrie, Okla., which was flooded for the third time in nine days just as 400 families were returning to their homes.

"I've had it, I'm going to look for another location," said one Guthrie resident after the second flood.

Rains of 6 to 10 inches were common in Texas where eight twisters struck nine communities Sunday.

Up to four inches fell in Oklahoma, adding to a foot or more already fallen. Civil Defense Director Tom Trett said this year's flood may prove the most disastrous in Oklahoma history.

An estimated 10,000 head of cattle and sheep were threatened by starvation in Colorado, where most of the west mountain valley has been cut off from civilization since a snow storm struck a week ago.

Roofs of many ranch buildings were demolished under the weight of the four-foot snow fall.

No deaths or injuries have been reported, but an Army helicopter crew made a systematic check for stranded families in the snow-bound area.

The weatherman said shies would be sunny in the area today and the weather would be warmer.

In Oklahoma, some hope was offered that the flood-producing conditions might end. The forecast was for occasional light rain or drizzle.

Elsewhere, it was expected to be generally fair to partly cloudy for most of the area from the western plains to the Pacific Coast and from Georgia northward into New England.

Bridges Elected Parole Chairman
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Francis R. Bridges Jr. of Tallahassee, has been elected chairman of the State Parole Commission for the next two years, it was announced today.

Bridges, a member of the commission since August, succeeds Raymond Marsh.

Mrs. Barber Speaks
Sanford Lions Club luncheon speaker tomorrow will be Mrs. Georgia Barber, public relations director of the State Association of Justices of the Peace and Constables.

Mrs. Barber will speak on the functions of state government. She recently retired from a post in the Tallahassee office of Attorney General Richard Ervin after 30 years of service.

Pope Speaks
VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII Sunday told a group of American science students currently visiting Italy that he hoped future space exploration "shall create new elements for true human progress and for advancing towards the light of faith."

Reapportionment Fight Groups Being Formed
MIAMI (UPI)—Miami Attorney Carl Faircloth said committees are being formed all over the state to fight the legislative reapportionment amendment in the Nov. 3 referendum.

Faircloth, chairman of the Florida Committee for Fair Representation, predicted the amendment would be defeated "by a healthy margin."

Every day we are receiving encouraging reports of committees being formed throughout the state to oppose this formula which would cut off real representation for populous areas of Florida," said Faircloth.

The amendment would give several more seats to a few populous counties, Faircloth said, but still would leave control of the Legislature in the hands of rural lawmakers who represent a minority of the population. It also would delete a portion of the present Constitution requiring reapportionment to be made

FIREFIGHTERS from DeBary and the Sanford Naval Air Station fought a blazing lumber yard fire in DeBary for nearly 12 hours yesterday. Damage was estimated at $80,000.

Arson Being Checked In DeBary Fire

A theft of gasoline and arson combination may have caused the Davis Lumber Co. fire which destroyed $80,000 worth of lumber and supplies in DeBary yesterday, District Two Constable Oscar Pappineau said this morning.

A gasoline cap lock which bore screwdriver marks was found on the running board of a burned truck, the constable said. If the lock had been blown off after the fire started, it would have been found far from the truck, not on the running board, according to the constable.

The blaze at the 321 High Banks Rd. lumber and supply yard started about 2 a. m. yesterday. A lumber truck, car, dynamo and tools were destroyed, as well as half of Mrs. G. H. Davis' adjacent house. The fire was still burning yesterday afternoon. Edward A. Davis is the owner of the lumber yard which was a total loss.

The fire had been burning quite a while when the DeBary volunteer fire department arrived at the scene. Department Director Charles W. Schneider said. The Naval Air Station fire squad worked for about six hours on the blaze and the DeBary department put it in 11 hours at the fire.

Penal Tour Set At Chattahoochee
CHATTAHOOCHEE (UPI)—The Legislature's prison committee opened a five-day tour of the state penal system today with the assurance it is "not on any witch hunt."

The legislators and State Prison Director H. G. Cochran Jr., began the tour with the Apalachee Correctional Institution for first offenders and will wind up Friday at the prison for hardened criminals at Raiford.

SANFORD'S OLDEST HOUSE got a final survey Saturday from W. C. Hill, left, who was born in it before it became the office of Hill Lumber & Supply Yard, and vice president of the firm, J. H. Crapps, as it was torn down to make way for the new office of the company. (Staff Photo)

Making Way For Progress

The house where W. C. Hill was born was torn down during the weekend, but there are plenty more in the Sanford area which have part of his company in them.

W. J. Hill, founder of Sanford's Hill Lumber and Supply Yard in 1873, built the house where W. C. Hill was born and put his products into many homes and buildings in this area.

His son, who saw his birthplace demolished Saturday, already had announced plans for a new building for the oldest Sanford business as part of the observance of its 86th year.

Hill Hardware Co. and Hill Implement Co. were started by the father of present lumber company owner, W. E. Hill. The elder Hill started business here with a plumbing and tin shop and a well driving outfit. In 1916 the lumber com-

Recession Near, Labor Predicts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The AFL-CIO predicted today that another recession will occur in the next few years "if the current drift of national economic policies and developments is not halted quickly."

The prediction was made before a special Senate committee which opened an extensive investigation into why the United States has heavy unemployment in an era of general prosperity.

Geneva Telephone User Survey On

Telephone customers in Geneva will receive a post card from the telephone company in the next few days, asking for comments and criticism regarding telephone service and the company that provides it, according to Bob Shelden, local manager for Southern Bell.

Similar post card canvasses are planned for other areas where Southern Bell operates. We're not necessarily seeking compliments," Shelden points out. "The real purpose is to find out which customers have complaints so that the company can try to remove the causes of these complaints."

Union Rejects New Steel Wage Policy Proposal

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The powerful Wage Policy Committee of the United Steelworkers Union today rejected an industry proposal to end the crippling steel strike as "completely unacceptable."

However, USW President David J. McDonald said union negotiators would contact the industry bargaining team in an effort to arrange further negotiations, "possibly this afternoon."

"The wage policy committee has made a detailed analysis of terms submitted by the industry to settle this dispute," McDonald told newsmen in a hastily prepared statement.

"The committee members are being completely unacceptably," he said.

The USW's Executive Committee Sunday rejected the peace proposal aimed at ending the 83-day strike which has killed a half-million steelworkers and 200,000 in related industries.

The union president said Sunday he would advise the White House by telephone on the status of the negotiations in the nation's longest steel walkout. However, no report of the conversation was forthcoming from the union, Washington or President Eisenhower's vacation White House in Palm Springs, Calif.

The market for Hill goods is almost wholly in Sanford. Sales are mostly to individual homeowners.

A new one-story office building to be finished in 30 days will replace the house where W. E. Hill was born 73 years ago.
