Anti-Slot Machine Week Is Scheduled For Sept. 6 To 14

Anti-slot machine week will be observed throughout Florida by closing tomorrow and ending Sept. 14, according to press dispatches received here today.

The movement follows closely the action by the Sanford Ministerial Association which recently circulated a petition to be submitted to County Commissioners with a request for a referendum on the slot machine question in Seminole County.

J. E. Barbee, president of the Florida Anti-Slot Machine Committee, was quoted as having said active committees are functioning throughout the state in all but ten counties.

Further, Mr. Barbee, declared that there are strong indications that every county in Florida will vote on slot machines Nov. 3 during the general elections.

County Judge Holds New Mailing Record

Judge James G. Chason today held a possible local record in the transportation of legal documents.

On Sept. 2, he mailed a letter to Minneapolis. The time was cutmarked as 1:30 P. M. At 1 P. M. on Sept. 3 the document was on the desk of the consignee in Wisconsin.

This morning the judge received a letter of thanks for the speed with which the matter was handled, since it enabled a Minneapolis attorney to close a realty deal.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 5.—(AP)—A Federal Grand Jury today indicted William Lee Pughan, his wife, Maude Miller Pughan, and William A. McEne on six counts involving the use of mails to defraud in connection with stock exchange in a long list of companies.

Pughan, self styled Florida lawyer, had served more than a century in the Atlantic Federal Penitentiary on one of the charges.

He was indicted where he was in the Federal Penitentiary.

Four Schools To Open Doors On Labor Day

1,000 Students Will Start Terms Monday; 4,000 Others Begin Year Sept. 14

One thousand Seminole County children will return to school Monday morning at Lyman, Orleto, Chuluota and Lake Mary.

On the morning of Sept. 14, 4,000 more youngsters will jam school buildings in Sanford, Palatka, Geneva and Lake Monroe.

Registration for the latter four schools will be accepted Thursday. Regular bus schedules will be run on that day.

Eighteen principals and other school attaches assembled today in the office of County Superintendent T. W. Lawton to discuss special plans for the school year.

All principals were instructed to report all delinquent attendance to the County Superintendent so that the probation officer may investigate. A hope was expressed that through this method of operation much "school skipping" could be eliminated.

Prof. R. E. Kipp, of the Sanford Grammar School, was named chairman of a committee to work out a program of intelligence tests for pupils.

Professors W. L. Sieg of Geneva, H. E. Morris of Sanford Junior High and C. W. Sabill of Lake Mary, were appointed to consider the advisability of re-instituting calisthenics in County schools to improve the posture of students.

After receiving the Seminole report of jobs to be available under the National Youth Administration, (the principal allocated $9,000 to the local high school.)

Cleveland Urges Fire Prevention By Weed Cutting

Local Chief Points Out Dangers Of Home Vegetation

Fire Chief Mack Cleveland today appealed to Sanford residents to keep weeds and grass cut short at this particular time of the year, emphasizing the danger of fire if the growths are allowed to continue unchecked.

He said that even though there has been some rain, such as yesterday, hot weather soon dries out the vegetation so much that fire will sweep through it quickly.

"Some grass fires, it is true, do little actual damage," Chief Cleveland asserted. "But on the other hand, they often destroy fine trees and shrubbery. There is also the constant danger that a grass fire will communicate to buildings."

Grass fires weaken the fire protection of the community, the chief pointed out. When fire apparatus is fighting such a fire, it is not available if a more serious fire should break out, he said.

"Careless smokers are responsible for many brush and grass fires," Chief Cleveland reported. "In the winter and spring, when everything is moist, this danger is not so great. But smokers often continue the habit of discarding their smokes carelessly after grass has dried."

He said the heat from a smoldering cigarette stub has been found by scientific testing to be sufficient to ignite dead leaves or grass.

"Another cause of these fires is the bonfires built by persons who do not watch them carefully so that they cannot spread," Chief Cleveland declared. "Even when they are watched, sparks sometimes fly out of reach and cause damage. For real safety, bonfires should be built during the wet season."

Millions of dollars damage to forests and crops every year are caused by carelessness, the chief concluded. This huge loss could be largely avoided if everyone exercised the proper care in preventing outdoor fires, he maintained.

City, County Will Clear Decks For Budget Action

City Fathers Planning Discussions For Friday Night

City Commissioners next week will begin a serious session from which they expect to produce a 1936-37 municipal budget.

The first assembly is called for Friday night when the body will study proposed figures, presented by City Clerk Frank S. Lamson, based on expenditures of the current year.

One of the major problems which the Commission may tackle is that of a bond refunding program, although it is possible that this phase of the year's program may be delayed a bit.

Wednesday night the body conferred with representatives of the Bondholders' Committee. However, the discussion was purely tentative and no definite course of action outlined.

A tentative agreement was reached to continue, for the present at least, the arrangements now in effect between the Commission and the City.

The plan sets forth that for each one dollar expended by the municipal government in operation, a similar sum is to be

Checker Tourney To Begin Monday Night At Valdez

Plans have been formed for a county-wide checker tournament to be held under the auspices of the Sanford Chess and Checker Club, beginning Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the club's room at the Valdez Hotel.

The tourney is open to the public, and each participant is expected to bring his own board. A series of six games will be played between the two men matched, with the two highest players meeting in a match to decide the championship of Seminole County.

Secretary A. C. Madden of the club issues an invitation to everyone to attend the matches and witness the games.

A granddaughter, Miss Sara Barnett of this city, and eight other grandchildren, all of Alabama, also survive.

Emergency Crop Loan Deadlines Fall Wednesday

Applicants Urged To File Requests At City Hall Office

Wednesday marks the last day on which applications may be filed for emergency crop loans, it was announced yesterday by H. Deal, field supervisor, on a brief visit here.

Applications are being received at the City Hall by Mrs. Helen Moore. Persons seeking loans should call Tuesday and Wednesday, Mr. Deal said.

Monies obtained from the government under the emergency crop loan stipulations are to be used on fall crops, the supervisor pointed out.

A $200 limit per farmer per loan is placed on all transactions. For use on one acre, no more than $25 can be borrowed.

All loans are payable at harvest time, and bear five percent rate of interest. Crops are used as collateral.

Under terms of the contract by which the money is borrowed, the entire sum must be used only for the purchase of seed and fertilizer, Mr. Deal emphasized.

Approximately two weeks are required to put such transactions through necessary channels, according to the supervisor.

All applications are sent from Sanford to Columbia, S. C., where they are acted upon by the Federal Land Bank.

Change In Parking Plan Is Announced For Park Avenue

No diagonal parking will be allowed on Park Avenue from Second Street south to the city limits, City Clerk F. S. Lamson announced today.

Parallel parking lines have been painted on the pavement in the interest of safety, the clerk said.

It was pointed out that by employing diagonal parking, there existed a danger of night motorists, especially strangers, running into cars which protruded from parking spaces.

Originally it was designed that parallel parking would be allowed on one side of the Avenue while diagonal parking would be enforced on the other side.

Clerk Lamson pointed out that even with the parallel arrangement, parking space has been doubted, since before widening the Avenue, automobiles were allowed to stay on but one side. Now parking is permitted on either side.

Exams For Teachers Billed This Month

Examinations for Seminole County teachers will be held Sept. 17, 18, and 19, according to a statement issued today from the office of T. W. Lawton, county school superintendent.

Candidates for certification must enroll with the county superintendent not later than Sept. 12, the statement declared.

National Forest To Get 19 New Rangers In Region By Ocala

Nineteen honorary game wardens have been appointed by the state Commission of Game and Fresh Water Fish to serve in the Ocala National Forest, according to press dispatches received here today.

The men will devote their out-of-door time to the enforcement of game and fish laws in an effort to protect the wild life and preserve it for the future.

The wardens, according to Ranger J. T. McCullough of Ocala, have been selected from personnel employed by the U. S. Forest Service in national forests.

A policy announced by Ranger McCullough is to the effect that every effort will be made to see that hunting and fishing is done in obedience to the law.

Approximately 21,500,000 homes in the United States, say statisticians, are radio-equipped.

Government Fails In Counter Drive On City Of Irum

Leffler Asserts Bond Refunding May Bring Harm

City Commissioner Says Welfare Of Taxpayer Omitted

City Commissioner W. A. Leffler today asserted that the Seminole County bond refunding program, authorized only a few days ago, will handicap the City in its refinancing plan.

In a canvass of lending businessmen here, The Herald was forwarded the following statement from Mr. Leffler:

"I notice you have solicited opinions of various citizens about the county refinancing plan. From the information, I am of the opinion that the total cost in fees for refinancing, printing the bonds, and validation costs will probably amount to $50,000.

"While it is true that the refinancing will facilitate the preparation of forthcoming budgets, the renewal of the bonds at high interest rates does not take into consideration the welfare of the taxpayer.

"And again, the refinancing of the County obligation at this time, at the interest rates mentioned, will handicap the City in its refinancing plan.

"The City of Sanford and the County of Seminole are so intimately connected that what affects one will have its influence on the other.

"Why all the publicity and lack of advanced information about the plan, and why the cost of $10 per bond to make the exchange?"

Sanford Youth Is Accidentally Shot In Foot At Armory

Norman Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Glenn of 109 East Fourth Street, was accidentally shot in the left foot this morning while cleaning a target practice gun in the National Guard Armory.

The youth was admitted to Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital where he was treated by Dr. J. N. Tolson.

The physician said young Glenn was "getting along fine" at noon, pointing out that sufficient time has not elapsed to determine conclusively the seriousness of the wound.

Flagler Youth Is Slain In Attempt To Escape Prison

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Tommy Denton, 21-year-old white convict from Flagler county, died today of wounds received in attempting escape from a road department prison camp near Ponce de Leon.

Notice of the death was sent here by Elva Irvine, camp captain, in a report to the prison bureau. Irvine gave no details, merely reporting that Denton was shot in attempting escape yesterday. He died today.

The Prison Bureau sent supervisor B. H. Dickson from Marianna to investigate. Denton was sentenced Apr. 27 this year from Flagler county to serve 10 years for robbery while armed.

Chamber Will Elect Officers For Year At Tuesday Session

The meeting is called for 8 P. M. at the Chamber building.

Rebels Swarm From Charred Ruins To Inflict Heavy Loss On Red Soldiers

'Human' Effort Tossed To Junk

Prince Bismark Will Represent Nazis On Neutral Group

(By The Associated Press)

Government resistance to the rebel-captured City of Irum collapsed today after an unsuccessful counter attack while new Spanish government in Madrid subordinated all political interests to military emergency.

Germany appointed Prince Otto Von Bismark, grandson of the "Iron Chancellor" to sit on a proposed London neutrality committee, while foreign diplomats at Saint Jean De Les abandoned efforts to "humanize the Spanish civil war."

Abandonment of the decision was made after the Madrid government "positively rejected the diplomat's proposals that Spanish belligerents exchange hostages rather than execute them."

Government forces swept back toward charred Irum and seized the approach to the international bridge into France. Hundreds of their comrades who had fled to France joined the Iruian River and swamped Rebel positions before the insurgents had a chance to fortify them.

The Rebels rallied again and drove government troops from the international bridge with heavy casualties. A Rebel cannon, blasting away at counter attackers near the French frontier, dropped several shells near

Society Airwoman Wrecks Ship After Spanning Atlantic

LAUREL, Nova Scotia, Sept. 5.—(AP)—A bulletin in Canadian Press reported today that Mrs. Beryl Markham, English society woman flying solo from England to New York, crashed in a forced landing at Iruian Cove on the northern tip of Nova Scotia but was not injured.

(Copyright 1936 By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Beryl Markham, English society woman airplane pilot, apparently had conquered the north Atlantic today on a flight from England but aviation experts feared she would run out of gasoline before reaching New York.

The small monoplane powered by an engine of only 200 horsepower, was believed to have flown over Cape Race, New Foundland, this morning 19 hours and 55 minutes after her takeoff from England.

Aviation men estimated the woman pilot had enough gasoline to carry her to Maine but not to New York.

A coast guard plane took off from Salem, Mass., to serve as a guide down the eastern shore of North America to the woman who appeared to have made the first solo Atlantic crossing from East to West achieved by her sex.

Her navigation was accomplished without radio and in bad weather. Dr. James H. Kimball, government meteorologist, said if the report of her crossing is correct "her performance is so remarkable it is almost incredible."

He said the blonde young flier—she is only 33 and the mother of a seven-year-old son—must have fought headwinds at least half way across the Atlantic.

Devil's Island

Whether it is true or not that Devil's Island is the most severe penal institution and the dread of every criminal in France, it is a fact that the name of Devil's Island conjures up all the horrors that one can associate with a prison, isolated on a remote island, where the most hardened offenders against society are sent to spend the rest of their lives.

When the dreaded prison ship La Martinique leaves Marseilles with its cargo of human detritus a scene of tragic realism is enacted. To leave one's native country for a visit makes a lump come into the throat, but to say goodbye forever must be a lot like dying. And to these men with their one-way ticket it is death in a sense, for that part of their life lived in France is dead.

No more will they breathe the fragrant air of the country, no more will they hear the merry voices of children playing in the city streets, no more will they see the change of seasons in all their loveliness, no more will they taste the foods and the wines which all Frenchmen love with a passion. When they take their last look at their native soil they will be covering themselves from the life gone before as definitely and finally as an amputation severs an arm from the body. They will be going to a land as different from France as night is from day.

Devil's Island is one of a group off the coast of French Guiana. It is tropical and hot. Life on it is supposed to be most dreary and burdensome. In fact, prisoners dislike it so much that they are often willing to risk everything in order to gain liberty and many famous and bold escapes have been made. Only two weeks ago seven convicted murderers escaped and reached Trinidad in the British West Indies. Three of the fugitives were so weakened by starvation and sunburned that they required hospitalization. The other four after being allowed to rest for a fortnight, were set adrift in the Caribbean Sea by the Trinidad government in a small boat with provisions enough to last for three weeks.

For a long time the French penal colony has been under fire from liberal sources and now that the People's Front government has come into power plans are under way to abandon the institution, which, since 1852 has harbored France's toughest criminals and has brought fear and terror to those who came near or within its shadow.

Safety For Pedestrians

Since the pedestrian got there first, it seems only fair that some effort, along with the campaigns to curb highway accidents, should be made to make walking along our roads safer.

"Last year," says the Tampa Tribune, "3000 people were killed, nearly 12,000 were injured, as they walked along highways and country roads. This, says Mr. Pennybacker, is a roster of victims which could be wiped out altogether by the simple expedient of bordering all highways with some form of sidewalk."

"In the past, on rare occasions when this suggestion has been discussed, it has been set aside because of the prohibitive cost." Careful estimates by engineers, however, indicate that waterproofed paths, three feet in width, can be constructed in their simplest forms for an average of 12 cents per linear foot, or $534 per mile. Allow $368, however, than 50 percent of the estimated cost for extras in the form of occasional drains and unforeseen contingencies, and the average per mile is still only $1,000.

"In the light of such a cost factor what would an appropriation of $400,000,000, the equivalent to the proposed grade-crossing program, accomplish? It takes the simplest sort of arithmetic to show that at $1,000 per mile 400,000 miles of highway (or about 20 percent more than the combined federal and state systems) could be made safe."

Artist Says Hands Give Person Away; Face Doesn't Count

MIAMI BEACH, Sept. 4.—(AP)—It's not your face but your hands that give you away, thinks Nathalie Davis, portrait maskmaker and painter.

"Hands do not lie," the 26-year-old former New Yorker declares. "They reveal one's true character by their shape and movements where faces usually hide it beneath a cloak of complicated and artificial poses."

That's why the slender, blue-eyed brunette finds it necessary to study a subject's facial expressions for a time before attempting to catch characteristics in plaster of paris or papier mache.

Psychology, she says, is handy in helping her obtain a person's honest expression. Sometimes, if the attractive maskmaker is alert and hits on the right conversation, she can solidify a fleeting expression before the liquid plaster just applied to the face hardens.

First, however, she must study the subject's interests and gain his confidence. For some persons are frightened by the thought of having their face entirely covered for several minutes while the plaster is setting. During this operation they must breathe through straws penetrating the mold and she must assure them there is nothing to fear from the heat thrown off by the plaster's chemical reaction just before it solidifies.

After the one sitting, Miss Davis who also is a sculptor, calls forth her knowledge of one's character and accentuates the expression on the final impression taken from the original.

"It's easier that way," she explains, "because most people haven't the patience for the long poses required by painters and sculptors."

The first circulating library in America was established in Philadelphia in 1721.

CANDLELIGHT

By NINA OLIVER DEAN

"Foolery, sir, does walk about the orb like the sun, it shines everywhere!"

And it seemed to me to shine particularly bright in the person of Eric Blore as the English butler in the picture, "Piccadilly Jim," starring Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans. If Mr. Blore is your dish, and I may as well admit at the outset that he is mine, then don't miss this one, because he's served up in his very best style—capping the Shakespeare quotations of his master's father, (incidentally, the quotation at the top is purely a gesture toward Mr. Blore), and calling down Mrs. Richavitch in a proper manner by reminding her of Crutskank when she said that a cartoonist could never be an artist.

All of us have our favorite stage butlers—there's Ivan Simpson's characterization in "The Green Goddess" with George Arliss, one of the unforgettable portraits of the theatre, and Halliday Hobbes, who is always so infinitely correct and so touchingly loyal.

But give me Eric Blore—who can express with one eyebrow an entire disgust for the credulity of the world, who can squeak with one scornful puff of his drooping lips the pretensions of the new-rich, who can roll a sock as if he were arranging a portfolio for the court of St. James, and who, in his off-vultering moments, can give a sly little skip so debonair that it would put a sparkle into the dullest movie!

A decade ago, Mr. Blore and another Englishman, Stanley Logan, who has also migrated to Hollywood, came to America for the first time in a play in which Irene Bordoni did the most seductive bit of humming I've ever heard, in her song called "Eve Eet Love?" The day after Mr. Blore landed in Manhattan, he went to an American party which he literally took by storm with his very special brand of fooling. Suddenly, he turned to Miss Bordoni and with that half plaintive, half stupid, infinitely wistful expression that borders on Chaplin pathos, he asked just the same question that he asked when he arrived in New York in the movie, "Piccadilly Jim," "Irene, I think I'll like America, but do you think America will understand me?"

But, Mr. Blore, my dear, do you cheer?

In these "salad days," here's a recipe for your Labor Day menu that's as cool as the water creek with which it is garnished. As the glorified leading lady of this jellied masterpiece is citrus, there is a personal appeal for the Florida hostess.

Jellied Fruit Salad Ring
 2 cups grapefruit juice
 1 cup canned pears, diced
 2 tablespoons gelatin
 one-fourth cup cold water
 one-half cup malaga grapes, peeled and cut in half one-half cup orange sections, free from membrane
 1 cup cream cheese
 one-half cup chopped cherries
 one-half cup chopped toasted almonds
 mayonnaise and lettuce

Place cold water in bowl, sprinkle with the gelatin and soak until the water is absorbed. Heat the grapefruit juice to boiling point and pour over soaked gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Cool. Arrange fruits in ring mold, (if gelatin, and chill in refrigerator until firm. Unmold on platter and fill center with cream cheese mixed with cherries and almonds. Garnish with water cross. Serve with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

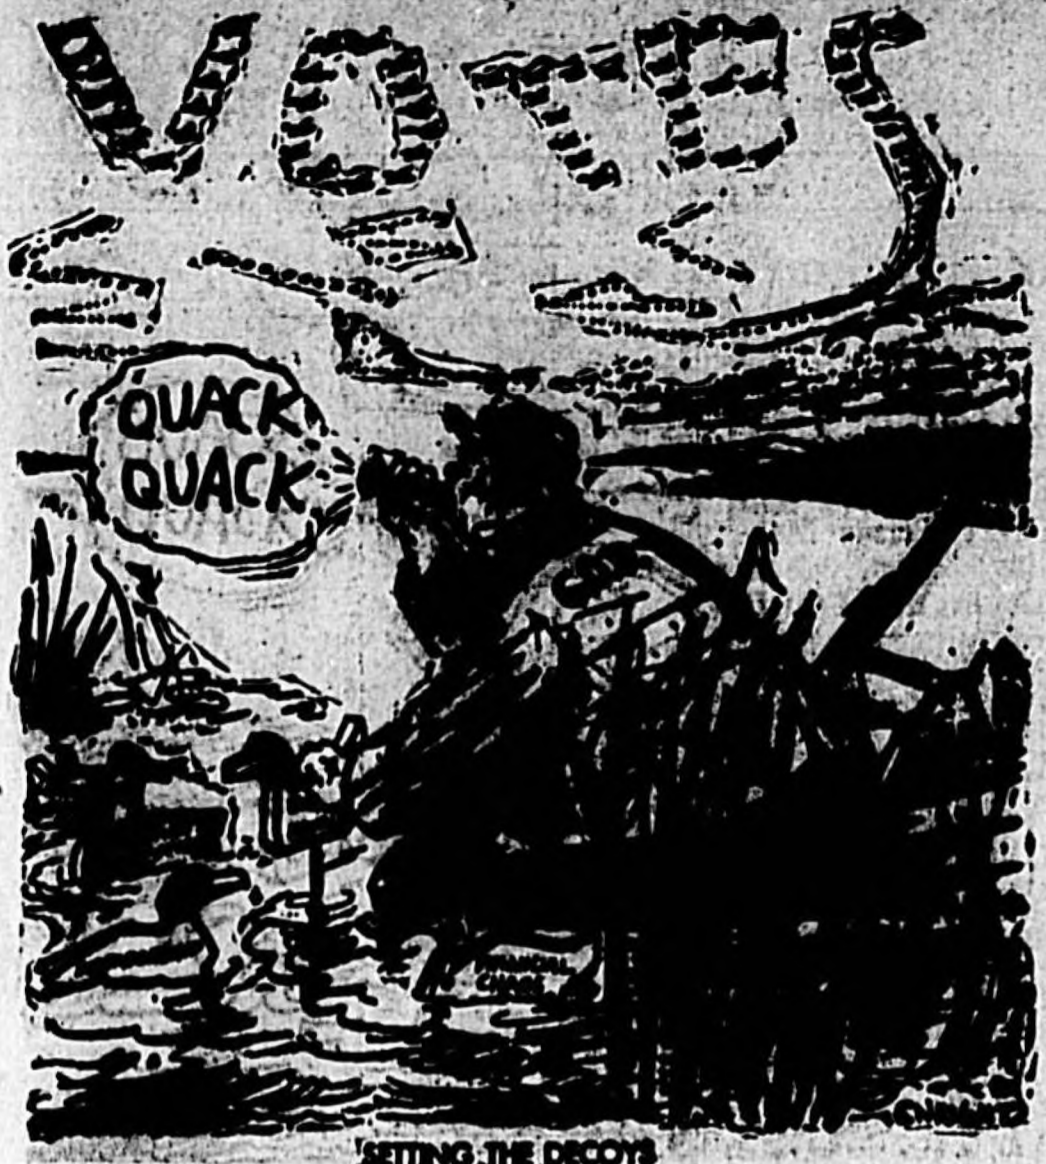

In a world harnessed by wires, laced with roads, linked with rails, there are those who long to keep some spot safe from civilization, some tangled wilderness with pathways traced only by the animals and with noises made only by the birds. Between Georgia and Florida, there is such a place, and it measures six hundred square miles, the Okefenokee Swamp.

This name, given by the Seminoles, means "Trembling Earth," but the spirit that broods over this jungle must have a stout heart, for men have tried to drain and possess the swamp for half a century. It remains still uncaptured, a haunt for the wood-duck, the crane, and the alligator, as "lost and lovely" as in the days when the Indian camp fires used to curl their smoke around the moss-hung cypresses.

Naval Air Station Being Groomed To Treaty Stipulation

PENSACOLA, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Naval air station activities have increased steadily as the Navy started bringing its flying force up to 1928 treaty strength.

Recurring war threats in Europe, joined with growing defense sentiment, have led Navy officials to order personnel increases here, along with modernization of aircraft, and operation of the Pensacola channel to a depth which will accommodate the largest warships.

The 325-foot dredge Bayward of the U. S. Engineering Department probably will complete the channel within a month, the present maximum depth is 24 feet, and the channel is too crooked to permit passage of large aircraft carriers.

Supreme Court Must Decide On Socialist Vote

Party Seeks To Have Names Of Candidates On Tickets.

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Florida's Supreme Court will decide whether Socialists may have names of their candidates for public office printed on the No. 3 general election ballot in Florida.

The Socialist party had put the question directly before the court yesterday with a quid pro quo action against Secretary of State Robert A. Gray, who earlier said there was no provision of law by which he could certify the names of Socialist candidates to county commissions for preparation of the ballot.

The court issued an order directing Gray to show cause by Sept. 15 why he should not be required to comply with the Socialist demands. This will result in bringing the case before the full court for arguments by attorneys on a question of law involved.

E. L. Bryan, Tampa attorney, filed the case. "The Socialist party," he petitioned, "is a recognized political party in the United States and as such has had the names of its candidates on the official ballots of practically all the states for the past several state and national general elections."

Bryan said the Socialist party executive committee held its convention in Tampa Aug. 3 and 4 and nominated candidates for office, including Charles E. Jensen of Tampa for governor and Eugene P. Foutnot of Tampa for congressman. There also were candidates for United States Senate and other congressional offices, and one for presidential elector.

Heavens Predict Good Times And No Drought In '37

Astrologer Forecasts New Real Estate Boom Next Year

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The star gazer foresees good times and no drought in 1937.

At least that was the pronouncement yesterday to the leader of the All-American Astrological Convention, D. M. Davidson of Chicago, as consensus of the 500 astrologers meeting here.

Although he said the purpose of the convention was to discourage indiscriminate predicting and put astrology on scientific standards, Davidson consented to disclose the astrologers' read in the heavens that:

The general economic outlook for America during the next year is good.

The average citizen is going to fare well.

There will be a boom in real estate.

There will be no recurrence of this year's disastrous drought which star-gazers believe was caused by an excess of ultra-violet radiation from the sun.

There will be no general European war for at least a year.

Japan will not advance on China until 1940.

"We want to put astrology where it belongs—on a scientific basis," Davidson said. "We are meeting to discuss ways by which astrologers all over the country can get together. If we obtain facts and data and record them properly, they will stand scientific tests."

Mrs. Max Heindel of Oceanside, Calif., addressed the convention on how crime might be reduced by the use of horoscopes. She cited the horoscope of a well known criminal, who, she said, might have changed his life if he had been subjected to the proper training suggested through astrology.

The convention was described as the first general meeting of American astrologers in three years, the gathering having been in California.

Hornet Arrested After Discovery Of Bomb Caches

Hold Grudge Against Everybody; Given 30 Days In Prison

BAY SHORE, N. Y., Sept. 5.—(AP)—State police yesterday seized a 67-year-old hornet—a grudge against everybody—and his arsenal of home made bombs and firearms with which, they said, he threatened violence to prominent persons.

A justice of the peace immediately locked him up for 30 days.

The arresting officers made their prisoner, who described himself as Joseph Kuehnal, an anarchist, make rambling statements in which he named prominent persons, and asserted "the country is not being run right." He mentioned President Roosevelt's name, but did not make any direct threats against him, the state police said.

He was found in an isolated shack on Artisan's Lake, Long Island. Around him was a hoard of dynamite, home-made cartridges and guns; and a queer bomb-contrivance, fitted to be strapped to a human's back, with nine sticks of dynamite.

Arraigned immediately before Justice of the Peace Gustav Neuss, of Yaphank, Kuehnal was placed in county jail for 30 days for observation.

His finger prints were rushed to the Department of Justice in Washington as a routine measure in an attempt to learn if he had any record as an anarchist bomb-maker.

Sergt. Daniel Glasheen said Kuehnal told the arresting officers "the country is not being run right. The Frenchmen are also after me. They have been after me for years."

When they seized a bomb lying on the floor, Kuehnal was quoted as warning: "Be careful, those are murderous instruments."

Sergt. Edward L. Tatley said "Kuehnal made no direct threat against the President—he was just against everybody."

"He seems to have a grudge against everybody," Sergeant Glasheen said.

OLD PEOPLE find way to keep breath wholesome

Halitosis (bad breath) quickly yields to Listerine, safe antiseptic and deodorant.

Either because of stomach disturbance, food fermentation, or the wearing of false teeth, etc., people frequently have halitosis (bad breath). No wonder others consider them a nuisance.

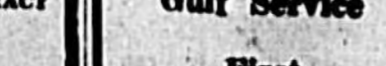

But now Science has found that the regular use of Listerine will stop over-accumulation of mouth odors due to the fermentation of tiny bits of food on mouth, teeth, or dental plate surfaces.

This safe antiseptic and quick deodorant works quickly. It cleans mouth, teeth, and gum surfaces. Halts fermentation and putrefaction, a major cause of odors, and then counteracts the odors themselves.

Try using Listerine every two or three days. See how much more wholesome it leaves your mouth. How it sweetens your breath. Listerine Pharmaceutical Co., St. Louis, Mo.

"WHERE DID YOU GET IT?"

SOMETIMES, in a friend's house, you see a particularly handsome rug or lamp, a new vacuum cleaner, an attractive chair or table. Or perhaps it's a new coat or dress, or some delicious new food-product.

You ask: "Where did you get it?"

Your friend says: "I got it at Blanks."

You don't ask: "How did you know Blanks' had it?" There is no need to ask; there is no mystery about that. You know your friend reads the advertisements in this paper. You merely sigh enviously, and think: "I must have missed reading the ads that day."

Franklin Bennett Airs Opinion On Gator Team

Florida Eleven Appears Physically Fit As First Week Of Practice Is Ended Under Josh Cody

According to information received by the Herald sports department from Franklin Bennett, head coach of the University of Florida, the Gators appear to be in the best of condition with many of the players having added weight during the summer months.

Bennett, who is also in-charge of the football at the university yearling camp, stated that the system now being used by Coach Cody, whereby all the players live at the same house, eat at the same place, and have training hours limited to 11 o'clock at night, was proving to be the best training system ever used at Gainesville.

MAINEVILLE, Sept. 5.—Losing surprisingly little weight in spite of the hot sun which has been down on University of Florida football practice this week, the Gators seem to be in the best of physical condition and are hitting the scales at a higher average than was generally expected.

Although Florida will lack such weight in the line as 220 pounds on the Stark and Starbuck of two years ago, five gridders, all of them Heenan, still tip the scales at over 200 pounds after nearly a week of practice.

Luke Kelsel, tackle, of St. Petersburg, holds the distinction of being the heaviest Gator, weighing 212. He is closely followed by four more boys including George Owen, Martin Tamm, George E. L. Tom, of Winter Park, tackle, 200; Paul Wheeler, of Jacksonville, tackle, 197; and Joe Hardwick, Daytona Beach, guard, 192. Hardwick is the only one of these gridders who has gained weight instead of losing it during the first few days.

Duke Warren, right halfback of Jacksonville, tops the heavyweights in the backfield with 197. Paul Branch in the same department of Pennamith weighs 196.

The heavyweights include four backs who all balance at 175 pounds. They are Russell Campbell, St. Augustine, left halfback; Hugo Hendricks, Thomasville, Ga., fullback; Ray Grosvenor, of Martin Tamm, and Ed Manning, Florida, Ala. Hendricks reported for practice the usual normal lightweight of the squad, but has held his own against the men who the others have lost a few pounds.

So far, the whole squad holds an average of 180 pounds. All have lost some weight, but very few have gained up more than three pounds since the end of the first trial Tuesday.

The Florida squad, boasting 49 regulars now, has not been called together for a full practice by Head Coach Josh Cody yet. They have been learning new plays every day, all of them from Coach Cody's formation. Cody has outlined all the single wing-back variations which were used almost entirely last spring.

The team of General Ulysses S. Grant, which overtook the Hudson River in New York City, was built by popular subscription.

Southern Teams End First Week Of Light Drills

Monitors Have Squads In Unusually Good Condition For Work

ATLANTA, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Georgia Tech's football players elected Middletown (N.H.) officials, star guard, as their 1936 captain yesterday. Lawrence Hayes was elected alternate captain.

The Yellow Jackets got down to the serious business of tussling the football around in yesterday's workouts.

ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Coach Harry McPherson said the Georgia Bulldogs were further along from the standpoint of conditioning yesterday than at any time so early in the season since he has been their mentor.

As a result, the Bulldogs worked in their regular again yesterday, when they hit the charging sled, Ray Katcher, guard, fell in going over a punt and injured his knee.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Coach "Red" Dawson appeared gloomy yesterday as he put Tulane's football candidates through morning and afternoon workouts, as indicated he was displaced at a lack of pep.

"We have a mighty tough schedule and the team has to be ready," he said. "Auburn follows Ole Miss and I haven't found anyone who gives me any encouragement at Auburn."

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Sept. 5.—(AP)—A prolonged use of liniment was in order yesterday as Coach Ed Walker pushed Mississippi's football candidates through two workouts of blocking dummies.

The pace was intense, but Walker served notice it will be speeded up further today when the squad begins its final fortnight of pre-season practice.

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 5.—(AP)—The hard work of the Louisiana State University football squad went through last spring helped Coach Bernie Moore speed up stiff practice yesterday, necessary because of the hard season opening game with Rice Sept. 26.

The good condition of many players from having done laborers work during the summer also aided Moore to open the throttle.

AUBURN, Ala., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Coach Jack Meagher increased the tempo of Auburn's football drills by sending three backfield combinations through a signal drill. Considerable punting and passing activity also was held.

Line Coach Del Morgan lined up several forward combinations for rock scrimmage. Tackle Hugh Rodgers and Herbert Baton were leading one of the best looking lines Auburn has had in several years.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Coach Chet Wynne and his assistants sent the Kentucky Wildcats through their hardest practice session of the week yesterday.

Much bodily contact work was on the program and an even harder session is expected today.

Bob Davis, halfback, and Sherman Hinesheim, center, were missing but monitors expect them to be in uniform when school opens.

SEWANEE, Tenn., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Sewanee's 20-man football squad went through two hours of dummy blocking on its second day of practice yesterday.

Billy Crook, end, and Ruddy Cravens, back, joined the team. At least a dozen more are expected by Coach Hek Clark within the next few days.

Rambin' Wreck! In the red clay hills of North Georgia there is in the making a football team that, perhaps, may be a return of the "Golden Tornado" of 1926, for the Yellow Jackets from Georgia Tech are bringing favorable comment from the best of experts and coaches.

Lean years have accompanied the Rambin' Wreck teams since their capture of the National Championship from the grunting boys of California in 1928, but a return to good times has been forecast for this coming season.

We witnessed, last fall, two or three of the Yellow Jacket contests, and to be exact, this writer has never seen a finer array of backs than Coach Alexander trotted on the field in those games. First, there was little "Scrappy" Edwards, 145 pounds of one of the scrappiest, most elusive backs that we have ever seen.

Dutch Kosman, a big Jewish lad with tons of speed and power; Harold Appleby, a pile-driving fullback; and Lawrence Hayes, shifty half-back, were a few of the other ball carriers who looked good in those games.

Not only have the boys from the Plate of Atlanta plenty of power and speed in the back field, but they have a group of linemen that would have made Knute Rockne sit up and take notice in his day.

There is no doubt but that the "Golden Tornado" deserves a great deal of credit for their accomplishments in the past, for they are the only Southern football eleven ever to gain a win from the Notre Dame, that one coming in 1928 when the Irishmen had one of the best teams in the history of the school.

Then, too, the Jackets are the only Southern team which can boast a real National Championship, undisputed from any section.

Sweet William! One hears very little about Bill Dickey, New York Yankee catcher—what with Lou Gehrig making threatening gestures toward Babe Ruth's record of 60 homers and having just about the best year of his long career, and Rookie Joe Muggie performing in sensational style. Yesterday after day, Dickey does his cumbersome routine and stays behind the plate to give the Yankees the steam roller of the American league. His batting average, in the neighborhood of .262 is all the more impressive when you note that he has driven more than 100 runs across the platter, with most of them coming when they count most—in the pinches. His home run total of 21 in less than 100 games is not to be sneezed at, even though some of his transients far outstrip him in this specialty.

So, William for us, as the outstanding receiver in the American League.

Short-Nosed—Maybe better times are coming after all, since our high school football team can perform in satin and silk?

Seminole Grid Luminaries End Week's Practice

Battles Are Waged For Backfield Jobs By Fifteen Youths

By JIMMY CHAPMAN
Coach Leonard L. McClure's forty-odd grid hopefuls ended their first week of training yesterday afternoon, with the heaviest practice session which they have undergone during that period.

Preliminary blocking drills were given by C. James McClure and Gordon to the linemen, while backfield coach, Russell McCracken, drilled the backs in punt practice and kicking.

Monday should find heavier sessions with less men on the squad, since the first week usually sees several youngsters drop from practice. According to present plans, the Seminole coaches will begin scrimmage practice work after next, when they will attempt to judge the qualities of their material and divide them into groups as to position and ability.

At present it appears there will be a battle waged for the field general position, with both men showing unusually good skill at the quarter-back's job.

The half-back positions are expected to be capably filled by Billy Zachary at one wing and Leon Lawton at the other, with Zachary handling the passing assignment and Lawton the kicking. Both men are elusive, speedy types of runners with plenty of drive on defense.

There is a pertinent possibility that the full-back position will be well divided between three men, all of whom are plenty capable. Those three are Robert Stottford, Lester Phillips, and Leonard McClure.

On the line the toughest struggle seems to be at the end posts, with a good many candidates showing skill at the wing positions. At center, Big Bradley (Ohio) is a pretty sure fixture, with "King Kong" Williams expected to hold down one guard post next to him.

All-Star Football Team Is In Gotham

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The College all-star football team, which battled to a 7-7 tie at Chicago Tuesday with the Detroit Lions, arrived here aboard a special train yesterday to begin preparations for its second test.

The all-stars are slated to oppose another National League professional team, the New York Giants, at the Polo Grounds next Tuesday night.

Dawson Employs System Of Work For Greenies

Face Tough Schedule Of 10 Games, Expect To Lose 8

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—Red Dawson, Tulane football coach, likes the newspaper leads concerning his team these days to deal with crimson sunsets, purple haze and misty twilights.

He wants to sports writers to turn posts, as it were.

That, in essence, is about the only lead that can be enticed from Mr. Dawson when the subject of his 1936 Green Wave comes to the floor.

He admits that his team will try a punt now and then and maybe a pass. Sometimes a halfback will run with the tail and now and then the fullback may grow so brassy as to hit the line.

On defense, the linemen will try to break through and nail the ball carrier. Think of that!

That is the sum and substance of a hedging, backing forty-minute interview with the "young sphinx of football."

When Bernie Bierman used to do his coaching on the Tulane campus, the folks couldn't pry a word out of him about his team.

Dawson, as a student and quarter-back at Tulane, was of the same silent type. He always seemed to think he was gabbing, even when he called the signals on the field, so frugal was he with his words.

Now he hardly needs to have knowledge of the English language when it comes to talking about his team's prospects. In any other conversation, Dawson can go merrily along. Just let the subject of Tulane football come and he starts stammering his pace.

Yet, there's a business-like air about the method in which he utters bustles and his assistant's engage in backboard sketches, pencil marked football fields and make-believe players stretched across it. And, out on the practice field, the Greenie squad is never permitted to loaf a minute.

Dawson has every minute planned. There's a session for cat-bathes, a session for warming up and handling the ball, punting and passing drill and then the big setts with dummies or in scrimmage.

Eight big, hard games out of ten on the schedule face the new coach. His team will probably rate the underdog in every one of them.

Small wonder that he shivers when he hears:
Knock! Knock!
"Who's there?"
"Itain't me!"
"Itain't who?"
"Itain't every time I think of this schedule!"

ST. AUGUSTINE, Sept. 5.—The St. Augustine Saints continued their sensational march toward the Florida State League pennant here yesterday by making it two straight over the Daytona Beach Islanders in the championship series.

It was a wild 8 to 4 decision marred by rain and darkness and 11 bases on balls by six moundmen.

The scene of the series shifts back to Daytona Beach today where the Saints meet the Islanders in the third contest. Game time is 3:30 o'clock. It will be "Andy Anderson Day."

The Islanders were off to a flying start, nicking young Bill Butland for five hits and four runs in the first two innings. But the Saints bounced back with a nine-hit attack off two islander moundmen and went on a five-run scoring spree in the second frame.

Manager Andy Anderson's double was turned into a tally by the Islanders in the opening frame and a four-hit attack featured by Alton's long triplet to center tangled over three more runs in the second frame. Vesle, Wetzel and finally Emerson followed by Butland on the mound but off their deliveries the Daytona Beach crew failed to tally although on four occasions they loaded up the sacks. Emerson made a dazzling finish, fanning five Islanders in the last three innings.

During the will! second frame the Saints loaded up the sacks with none away off Jack Hall, Bill Kinsel was called in but walked in two runs and before the locals could finally be stemmed they pushed over five tallies. The Saints scored a run on a walk, Kinsel's error and Louner's squeeze bunt in the third and came back on Andrews' single, Swindell's double and a single by Bonnet to add their final runs in the fifth.

The highlights of the contest came in the fourth when the Islanders filled the sacks with six puts and a base-out—

Minor's fly to center and with a beautiful throw out Martin off at the plate. In the fifth Fitzgerald lagged Martin's finer and with another great throw doubled Storkie off first. Both double plays killed the Islanders' chance of overthrowing the Saints.

McGowan and Andrews lead St. Augustine's attack with two hits each. Anderson topped the visitor's nine-hit attack with a double and single.

During the heat of the contest Olympic Harvin ordered Halicki, Brown and Gornick out of the park for giving him a bench tiding.

Joan Crawford Seen In First Costume Picture At Ritz

Four Leading Men Support Crawford In New Picture

Taylor, Tonn, Douglas And Stewart Fall For "Hussy"

The one but four young, handsome and romantic leading men come with Joan Crawford in her new picture, "The Gorgeous Hussy," dramatic romance of the nation's capital in the early nineteenth century, which plays the Ritz Theater Sunday and Monday.

Co-starring with Miss Crawford along with Lionel Barrymore, is the sensational Robert Taylor, the most talked-about "discovery" since Clark Gable. Taylor, in a brilliant performance, appears as "Bow" Timberlake, officer of the U. S. S. Constitution and the first husband of tempestuous Peggy O'Neal, daughter of a tavern-keeper who rises to an amazing career as the first lady of Democracy.

Gary Cooper Only One Without Stage Training In Film

Gary Cooper is the only one of the imposing array of stars appearing in "If I Had a Million," showing Wednesday and Thursday in a return engagement to the Ritz Theater, who had no stage experience before going to motion pictures.

WEARS OAKLEY HAT

A hat, a saddle and a rifle were owned by the famous marksman, Annie Oakley, are today in the possession of Fred Stone, stage veteran who appears with Francis Lederer and Ann Southern in the film romance at the Ritz Theater Tuesday, "My American Wife."

NEW FASHION NOTE

Designed by Orry-Kelly for dinner wear, a satin gown with slim black skirt and white top has the bodice covered with white yarn braid, this being one of the new style tricks the Warner Bros. designer employed to advantage.

Georgia and other southern farmers are undertaking big vegetable planting to offset drought losses.

Richard Arlen's One Of Happiest Of Hollywood's Pairs

Despite the fact that Dame Fortune has smiled benignly upon Richard Arlen, he lives quietly and sanely in a small but rambling early American home north of Hollywood. He has no retinue of servants, no string of high-powered cars or stable of racing ponies. Instead he has a home that he can thoroughly enjoy with his wife, the former Jobyna Ralston, and his three-year-old son, Richard Ralston "Ricky" Arlen.

Arlen's home is a picturesque one, it is comfortable, with garled oak, cobblestone walks and a swimming pool. Dick brags a little about having put in the cobblestones, much of the gardening and the cement fish pools himself. As for the Dick in connection with "reception parties" held every year ago. On the other hand, he loves company at home—the more the merrier—and frequently entertains with small, informal dinners. The Arlen's have their own circle of friends, among them the Bing Crosby's, the Jack Oakies, the Gary Coopers and others.

With such happy home surroundings, it's easy to understand why Richard Arlen's enjoyment of life is reflected in such wholesome screen portrayals as that of Bob Harvey in Columbia's screen version of Harold Bell Wright's novel, "The Mine With The Iron Door."

Arlen is surrounded by a cast which includes Cecilia Parker, Henry B. Walthall, Stanley Fields, Spencer Charters and Barbara Bedford. David Howard directed. Farmer's Market Shows Expansive Step In Progress

Smaller Growers Of County Benefited By Car-Lot Shipments To North

Sales Trend Runs To Truck Buyers

24 States Served By Organization In Year's Operation

By JIMMY CHAPMAN
Proof that unusual success has accompanied the growth of the Sanford Farmer's Wholesale Market, Florida's largest state-owned farmer's market and the first to be established in this state, is exemplified in the seasonal report on the market's activities, released today by Manager J. G. Michael and the Florida State Marketing Board.

Scope of activities, which include general activities, sources of supply and sources of distribution, together with the market's operations since its establishment together with a survey of the results which have been obtained to date.

Advantages of the market to the small farmer is shown by the fact that the market enables them to include their vegetables and produce in car lot shipments to the north, together with those of other farmers. Persons farming on a small scale would be unable to do this without this special service, because their volume would not be sufficient to warrant such large shipments.

Naturally, the largest trend of sales has run towards the truck buyers, who purchase in quantities ranging from one package to as high as ten tons. Therefore, (Continued on page two)

Deadline For Crop Emergency Loans To Fall Wednesday

Final date for acceptance of applications for emergency crop loans has been set for tomorrow, according to an announcement by H. Deal, district supervisor. Requests for loans are to be filed with Mrs. Helen Morse at City Hall.

A limit of $200 per farmer per year is placed on all according to stipulations set forth by the federal government. The fund can be used only for the purchase of seed and fertilizer to be used in the next crop.

The money is repayable at harvest time.

Last year about 100 Seminole County farmers and growers used the loan to tide them over financial difficulties.

Indications this year point to a larger number seeking loans, since many sources of government loans have been closed in the past few months because of the drain on relief funds caused by the mid-west drought.

Thousand Pupils In County Open Texts For Year

Seminole High Will Begin Activities Monday Morning

Public schools at Lake Mary, Lyman, Oviedo and Chuluota opened yesterday for the 1935-37 term with approximately 1,000 students.

T. W. Lawton, county superintendent, said that because of the press which always accompanies the opening of schools the exact enrollment will not be available for a few days.

The remaining schools in Seminole County, those at Sanford, Palmetto, Geneva and Lake Monroe, are scheduled to begin work next Monday.

Registrations for the unopened institutions are to be held Thursday when regular routes will be followed by school buses.

Teachers at all Seminole County public schools were on duty today to direct classes where classes were in progress, and to arrange for the term's activities in schools which still have nearly another week of vacation.

Approximately 5,000 children will attend public education institutions in this county this year. Buildings and equipment here have been put into first rate condition through the expenditure of school funds and other allocations contributed by the federal government and administered by relief organizations.

Among the improvements which received most attention were repairs to plumbing and sanitary systems at many of the schools.

Rebels Reject Surrender Of San Sebastian

Naval Revolt In Portugal Spreads Tension Of War Over Iberian Regions

By The Associated Press
Spain's Fascist leaders scornfully rejected an offer for the surrender of besieged San Sebastian today while a short-lived naval revolt in Portugal spread war tension all across the Iberian peninsula.

The surrender offer was turned down at a conference in France and defenders of San Sebastian informed they would be punished if they bore arms against the advancing insurgents. It appeared almost certain that anarchists within the northern resort town would set it afire rather than surrender.

In offering to give up San Sebastian, the governor asked for amnesty for its defenders in an effort to prevent destruction of the city.

Sanford Brought To Eyes Of Boating Enthusiasts

Capt. W. W. Acheson Tells Of Trips Down St. Johns In September Issue Of Motor Boating

Sanford and the St. Johns River are thrown into the national limelight of yachting and boating enthusiasts through an article from the pen of Capt. W. W. Acheson, Jacksonville, appearing in the September issue of Motor Boating.

Capt. Acheson's story is titled, "Florida's Wonder River, the St. Johns," and in it he takes the reader winding down the dark waters of the stream which has gained world-wide distinction because it flows to the northward.

The captain advises the yachtsman to stop in Sanford where minor boat repairs may be had. He continues, if one is inclined to cruise any farther southward it is advisable to secure the services of Tony Smith as the pilot.

"Tony can be found at his father's boat yard," writes the captain.

Unveiling the splendor of the St. Johns, Capt. Acheson paints verbal pictures of Silver Springs, of Salt Springs, of Silver Springs, Glen, of Blue Springs and other natural beauty spots.

Included in the story are instructions for the best enjoyment of a cruise down the river. There are recommendations of places to stop, explanations of charts and other data which the yachtsman finds indispensable.

The captain, an ardent sportsman, does not overlook the fact that large and fine black bass may be found almost at will while one drifts along the surface of the St. Johns.

There are many side trips mentioned in the story.

Seminole Commission Approves Petition Signed By 1,056 Qualified Voters

Ministers Score Public Victory

County Group To Set 1936-37 Budget In Afternoon Session

By PAT PATTERSON
Seminole County Commissioners today wrote a decided okeh to a petition of qualified voters that a slot machine referendum be called on Nov. 3.

The board took action when the Rev. Martin Bram presented a document containing 1,056 names of voters who signified their approval that the slot question be decided by popular vote.

Instructions are to be prepared for the clerk of the circuit court to make arrangements for the slot machine question to appear on the Seminole County ballot in November when the general elections are called.

The petition presented by the Rev. Bram was originated by the Sanford Ministerial Association. A greater portion of the signers affixed their names during the recent senatorial primary election last month.

After taking action on the slot machine petition, considered one of the major items of the day's work, the Commission jumped into another hop-o-hop of adopting a 1936-37 budget. The work was expected to consummate the annual session and possibly some activity tomorrow.

A tax roll also is to be adopted. Indications were that a slight slash in County millage would be effected.

The board voted to purchase from Pearl Malby a right-of-way running across her property lying between Altamonte Springs and the state road.

Purchase of two trucks from the Strickland Motor Company was authorized.

Approval was written in the application of Houtf Maljick for a liquor license.

Other activities of the morning assembly included the approval of a notary bond for R. R. DuBart, the awarding of the month's grocery contract for the county home and farm to C. W. Zarinz, and the receipt of a request from George H. Bridge that the County abandon a road traversing his property near the Markham Road.
