Listing Tourists

Secretary Higgins of the Chamber of Commerce has asked all residents of Sanford and Seminole County who know the home addresses of winter visitors who stayed here during this past winter to fill out a little coupon now being published in The Sanford Herald and send their names and addresses either to The Herald office or to the Chamber of Commerce.

We believe it is generally admitted that Sanford, as well as the other county towns, had more visitors last winter than ever before. A good many of them stayed at the hotels. The apartment houses were filled. The new Armitage Cabin Court did a fine business. And many tourists took rooms for a few weeks in private homes.

If the Chamber of Commerce had a complete list of all these visitors including their home addresses, it could write them during the summer inviting them to return here next winter. It could send them special literature showing them various attractions and entertainment features offered for next winter.

In addition it could probably get some of them to send in names and addresses of friends in the North who might also be interested in coming to Florida next winter. The Chamber of Commerce could get in touch with these people and sell them on the advantages of wintering in Sanford or some other Seminole County town. Thus our tourist business could be greatly built up.

So if you know the names of any tourists who were here last winter, particularly if any of them stayed in your home, fill out this coupon published tonight in The Herald, list their names and addresses and send to The Herald office or to the Chamber of Commerce. If you do not know their addresses, send their names anyway. And even if you think someone else may send in their names, you send yours in anyway. The Chamber of Commerce will weed out duplications.

There is a lot in this tourist business. It has meant a great deal to Sanford this past winter. It will mean more in the years to come. If you want Sanford to grow and prosper, do your part to help the Chamber of Commerce bring in more visitors next year.

Indian Treatment

The Miami Daily News tells a story on the method of handling drunken drivers as now practiced in rigorous tribal fashion by the Seminole Indians. One is not likely to think of the Seminoles as an important factor in highway safety or as drivers of automobiles at all. Nevertheless a number of them do possess old broken-down jalopies in which they are wont to commute between their Everglades camp and coastal towns.

According to the News, there are now between 580 and 590 Seminoles and these, appreciating the hazards of the highways and realizing that rum and gasoline do not mix, have taken drastic steps to prevent any further depletion in their numbers. They haven't exactly quit drinking but they have adopted a very strong tribal custom which provides that at least one member of a party, and he, the driver, must remain sober.

"The Indians didn't flinch much over the white man's laws," says the News, "because they were always let off lightly. But tribal justice is harsh, so now they are trying to be good boys. While arrests of Indians have dropped near zero in the last year, there have been a few violations detected by tribal chiefs."

When such a violation is detected, there are no "fixers" among the tribe on whom he can depend to get off lightly. Offenders are lined up and "worked on" by young bucks of the tribe under the watchful eyes of the chiefs who make sure that the work is efficiently done. And in at least one instance, that of a drunken driver who had an accident, the culprit is placed in a large roasting pot where he is partially boiled.

The treatment is not fatal, but very effective. It is safe to say that no Indian is likely to get boiled again for a long time who has once been boiled in this primitive fashion. While more civilized white men may not want to adopt the full custom of the Indians regarding drunken driving, there is much to be said in favor of at least one member of the party remaining sober. And let him do the driving.

Boyle Admits He Intends To Vote For R. B. Chapman

"I would like also to remind Mr. Householder that in 1934 while on the pay roll of the people of Seminole County as their County Attorney he actively supported and took stump for the re-election of U. S. Senator Park Trammell against Claude Pepper."

"I certainly have as much right while Assistant State Attorney to campaign against Mr. Householder, if I should so desire, as he has while County Attorney to campaign for himself or for others."

"This is the first time I have ever known of a candidate campaigning against supporters of his opponent. These tactics seem to me to be an admission on the part of Mr. Householder that his opponent's character and reputation are unimpeachable."

"Although I have not exercised my right as a free American citizen to campaign against or for whomsoever I desire, I want to say that Mr. Householder is sincerely correct on one point. I do intend to vote for Earl Chapman for State Senator because I conscientiously believe that he is the best qualified to represent the interests of all the people of this District and will give government an performance instead of political promises."

Long Ballot To Be Given Voters At Polls May 7

(Continued From Page One) cratic Committee explained they voted for an unrestricted delegation and against the unit rule last fall at St. Petersburg because at that time sentiment had not crystallized in favor of several presidential candidates and they wanted Florida delegates to be free to trade at the convention for "weight rate differentials or other benefits to the state. Otherwise, they argued, an instructed delegation might be tied to an unpopular candidate and would be left off convention hand wagons. Efforts have been made at several previous legislatures to list candidates for presidential nomination on the ballot alongside those of delegate candidates, but nothing was done about it. Other efforts have been made to simplify the ballot without results.

CANADIANS AMAZE BRITISH - LONDON, Apr. 11.—(AP)—Why Canadian soldiers prefer "cubans" and other soft drinks of American origin to a "new hot cup of tea" is something that W. MISUSES OF THE TELEPHONE - Here are some of the common misuses of the telephone which account for a large portion of service interruptions. It is surprising, for example, how many people forget to hang up the receiver when they finish talking. Whenever you do this you put your telephone out of order until your replacer the receiver or a telephone "trouble man" is sent out to replace it for you. When using a dial telephone never touch the receiver hook. If you move it at all while dialing or after you have dialed a number it will disconnect you. Also when dialing a number let the dial return of its own accord. Don't try to hurry it. Many people have difficulty in making others understand them over the telephone, simply because they talk too fast. Instead of fast talk, when speaking over the telephone keep the lips about one-half inch from the mouthpiece and speak directly into it in a natural tone of voice. One of the most common causes of telephone trouble is twisted cords. Keeping these cords free of kinks will avoid trouble on your line. Telephone attachments are another source of trouble. Many of the devices sold hinder or interfere with the operation of the telephone. Nothing should be attached to telephone instruments unless approved by the Telephone Company. Care in avoiding these misuses of the telephone will result in improved, more satisfactory and dependable telephone service. STRAIGHT FROM THE ALTAH with his MINUTE-OLD BLUSHING BRIDE, DOTTIE WARREN, to the north where he'll resume duties as pro at his summer country club is the plan RALPH STEWART has in mind for May 3. Who knows some day we might have a doughnut factory and be famous for our fresh, hot cinnamon, powdered or buttered doughnuts. We could convince the world that coffee without doughnuts is like bread without butter. Many a campaigning politician has trod heavier shoes than that and gotten away with it. Paty Promises To Aid Mentally Ill In Political Talk

CHATTAHOOCHEE, Apr. 13.—Pledging unwavering devotion to every governmental resource to the care of Florida's mentally ill as well as all their unfortunate in need of a helping hand, B. F. Paty of West Palm Beach, candidate for governor speaking here last night at a county-wide political rally, told a capacity audience of Gadsden county voters that his administration would not only safeguard the State's investment in its hospital here but would favor further additions to the present plant.

"These splendid buildings," Paty said, "stand as monuments to this government's fulfillment of its obligation to a class of citizens unable to help themselves. Much has been done to alleviate their sufferings. Yet our task in this regard is not completed because the need for new structures becomes greater with each passing year. As your governor, it will be my duty to provide our State wards with every possible comfort as well as to see to it that these engaged in the arduous task of caring for these patients receive adequate compensation."

At the beginning of his address, Paty described the warm reception accorded him in Tallahassee Thursday night, including the greeting at the Leon county line by a motorcade of 50 cars. His introduction before an audience conservatively estimated at 1,500 in Tallahassee's courthouse by Colonel G. L. Walker and the enthusiasm manifest by the crowd.

THE FATE OF THE "TITANIC"

They stood on the decks of the great "Titanic" as she lay proud, in that great, grand ship; they waved farewell to those who remained on the shore, and they called on her final trip. They waved words and smiles, each one gave, they walked the decks to the end of the world. They sailed to England, to America's shores, and when they came to the Atlantic and calm they go, and the waves and jewels to be seen, and the Titanic was seen.

palace," they listened to music and song and lulled in their last long sleep. After "God night" had been said by the throng.

When a sudden crash came through the ship—"She has struck an iceberg," many said. But few who awoke thought seriously of it, and many went back to their bed.

But soon, on that star lit Sunday night, went out clear, the signal of distress, above the cold dark waters of the sea, the Marconi's wireless, S. O. S.

Then rushing on deck went passengers. In grief and in tear and prayer—Clasping loved ones, so dear to their hearts. Pleading to God for His merciful care.

"To the lifeboats, all the women and children." Cried the Captain, in fear and grief. "I'll stay with the crew, and the ship," he said. Now seeing that life would be brief.

The life boats were lowered and pulled away. And by the light of the stars, they saw Brave men aboard, willing to die, later. While the band played: "Nearer My God to Thee."

As the ship was sinking, two brave men were seen, each clasping a child to his breast. (The Captain was one) they jumped in the sea, handing the children in a boat with the rest.

Then the Captain, swam back to the ship. And sank, with a thousand or more. Who went down, with that costly ship. That had heaved America's shores.

Off the "Banks" of Newfoundland the look, they saw. That cold night, beneath the stars. Over thousand brave men, good and true. To lonely Atlantic's wide shores, and the Titanic was seen.

Florida State League Will Open Season Tomorrow

Orlando Nats To Meet Sanford At Local Municipal Ball Park

Cleo Jeter To Draw Opening Assignment; Seminoles To Put 'Extremely Fast' Team On Field Tomorrow

By League Service Bureau

ORLANDO, April 13.—With only 23 of the 1939 players in the starting lineup of the eight clubs enrolled, the Class D Florida State League opens its fifth consecutive season of play at 3:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in games at Sanford, Daytona, Ocala, and Leesburg.

What with new managers, new club owners, and scores of new players at almost every point, opening games are scheduled to hold more than their usual share of interest, particularly at Ocala, making its first entry in professional baseball.

Obviously, the day's record crowd is expected at Ocala where a 2500-3000 sports fans have gathered for two seasons. League officials headed by President Henry Gray of Gainesville plan to attend the game in which Fred "Famous" St. Augustine Salts do battle with the Ocala squad managed by the veteran Wilbur Good, former major league star.

However, opening games have been so arranged to provide for the meeting of teams long bitter enemies on sports fields. For instance, Orlando plays at Sanford, DeLand at Daytona, and Gainesville at Sanford.

As the loop swings into its fifth season, its thousands of fans are believed awaiting with interest the effect, if any, a new "rookie" ruling will have upon the speed and color of games.

Recognizing the fact that Class D baseball is really the first step forward in a youngster's climb toward the majors, league moguls last fall adopted a rule requiring that all clubs carry at least six "simon-pure" rookies, men without previous professional experience, throughout the season.

That rule accounts for the fact that of today's 73 starters, only 32 are hold-overs, and of that number only six were able to hit 300 or better in 1939.

They are: Skeen (311) and Marion (311) of Sanford; Wayton (317) of Daytona; Risk (235) of Leesburg; Valei (311) of DeLand; Bauer (311) of St. Augustine.

That rule, plus the fact that three of the eight clubs have been in rehearsal only a few days, makes pre-season predictions of the possible season-long outcome an impossibility.

What with their long lead and complete domination of the league last year, Wilbur Campbell's Sanford Lookouts are installed as favorites to repeat for 1940.

Yet, there are scribes around the league who hold that Wilbur Good, Ocala pilot, has a potential champion that Alan Mackley, St. Augustine pilot who'll have the expert advice of Fred Francis, will soon have a powerhouse, and that Manuel Onis, John Gantzel's manager at Orlando, also has a squad with definite possibilities.

No one, not even the managers themselves, now can predict the outcome at DeLand, Leesburg, Daytona, or Gainesville, although there are unusual prospects in sight at each point.

President Gray looks for a great season as do other league officials. The loss of Palatka, one of the league's charter members, was a serious blow in that Palatka fans have been most loyal.

However, the consensus is that Ocala, offering a fine ball park, an outstanding manager, a group of likely looking veterans and rookies, and a townful of anxious

Seminole Make 23 Runs As Game Is Rained Out

Whitehair Says Florida Needs Good Leadership

A withering, blistering batting attack netted the Sanford Seminoles 23 runs in four innings last night but rain at the end of the fourth inning broke up the one-sided contest between Sanford and Fort Lauderdale, of the East Coast League.

Only a handful of spectators was on hand to see the Seminoles play under the lights for the first time this season.

During the four innings the game lasted, Manager Whitey Campbell gave evidence that he is going to be an active leader by unlopping out a double multiple in three times up Campbell was all over the infield and he was playing last night was any indication, he'll be the leading second baseman in the league.

Frank Hudson started on the mound for Sanford and showed plenty of the stuff that is expected to make him among the top flight hurlers in the league this year.

Whitehair Says Florida Needs Good Leadership

BRADENTON, Apr. 13.—(Special)—What Florida needs in government is leadership, Francis P. Whitehair declared in an address here last night to a record audience in front of the Manatee county court house.

"What Florida needs is aggressive, fearless, unincumbered leadership, and not theoretical so-called statesmanship," shouted the young candidate for governor.

"This state will never grow and will never prosper until it performs its moral obligations to its human beings," he continued. "And proper leadership is the remedy."

Among the "moral obligations" cited by Whitehair: "Good schools and not hot air talk about education; adequate assistance for the old folks, who, through no fault of their own, find themselves without the necessities of life, aid for the dependent children, and the crippled, and the blind; and as important as any of the others, an orderly health department with enough money and enough power to wipe out our health problems."

British Sea, Air Forces Rain Blows On Nazi Invaders

Government Reveals More Allied Troops Landed In Norway; Pledge Fulfilled

Warplanes Raid Stavanger Airport

Germans Say 2 More British Submarines Sunk In Skagerrack

Britain announced today her forces "now have landed" at several points in Norway while the combined might of British sea and air strength rained new blows on the German invaders.

Disclosure that troops had arrived raised the veil on how Britain intended to fulfill her pledge to the Norwegians that "ship is coming." It also explained the ferocity of Britain's sea and air raids on Germany's coastal shipping at Narvik, Norway, the British reported yesterday. German destroyers were sunk at Stavanger where British warplanes made repeated raids, and where the British landed troops. The number of troops was not disclosed officially.

Norwegian officers reaching Stavanger said the British landed 100 troops under the protection of the warships, and said the Germans had withdrawn into the interior, where they were being surrounded by British forces.

Britain said two British troops had been killed and 100 wounded in the fighting.

Britain said two German transports were sunk and four torpedoes were launched.

Higgins Speaks To Rotarians At Weekly Luncheon

Chamber Secretary Stresses Need Of Attracting Tourists

Declaring that the Chamber of Commerce is the promotion and sales division for the city and county, Edward Higgins, secretary of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, addressing the Rotary at its weekly luncheon today, said that the chief problem at present is to stop the business which has been coming in by Seminole Boulevard and going out on Park Avenue.

"If you can get the tourists to stop," he said, "then you can go about the job of selling them your city." The best way to get them to stop, he said, is to develop you roads and beautify your city since these have the same effect as beautiful widows have for a store.

Prospects for a new swimming pool in Sanford looked as Secretary Higgins, who is also a City Commissioner, stated that plans are under way to have such a pool here by the first of the year, as he pointed out that recreational facilities of all kinds are essential to tourist entertainment.

On motion of Andrew Carraway, program chairman, who introduced Mr. Higgins, the Rotary Club voted to donate 50 pounds for the beautification of the Seminole High School grounds.

C. W. Spencer moved that a boat race be held in the near future.

Mr. Higgins presided and Mr. J. H. Turner as a committee to make necessary arrangements.

George Rollins announced that Henry Colquhoun who has been in the City Hospital at St. Petersburg suffering from an eye infection is definitely improving.

The task of developing a town rests with the entire community, he said, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Declaring that tourists are the greatest potential source of new income from the town, Mr. Higgins made it a point to contact all those who visited here last winter in an effort to induce them to return again next winter.

"Tourists have developed hundreds of towns in Florida," he said, "and they can develop Sanford and Seminole County in the same way."

Visitors at today's luncheon included: Mr. Smith, Mr. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Gifford and Rep. Reppard of Orlando, Willis Baer, J. M. Smith, James Tribble and W. M. Muller of Deland.

U. S. Camps Being Built For Migrants

Occupants Of 500 Homes Ordered To Move Or Be Evicted April 16

BELLE GLADE, Apr. 15. —(AP) — Two federally constructed camps will await several hundred families of Florida's "Orange of Wrath" migrant farm laborers if they are evicted this week from tumbledown living quarters condemned by the State Sanitation Bureau.

Health leaders have declared living conditions along Lake Okechobee the "filthiest, most unsanitary" they have ever seen.

Condemnation notices were put on more than 500 dwellings and occupants were ordered to move or correct the situation by April 16.

The farm security administration has rushed to completion a 175-family camp for whites, and a 358-family camp for negro laborers, at a cost of $600,000.

These other camps have been planned since the new ones would accommodate only 225 of the estimated 20,000 migrants in the area. A $1 a week, plus two hours work, mainly in garbage collection, and other sanitary details.

Elizabeth Harkey Addresses Lions In Far Western Town

Addresses Lions In Far Western Town

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Apr. 15. — Margaret Elizabeth Harkey of Waycross, Ga., described by her audience as a charming example of southern womanhood, who is conducting a series of meetings here this week for the Salvation Army on a tour of the Pacific Northwest, completely captivated the Lions club of Walla Walla at its luncheon Friday in the Grand hotel.

An adopted member of the Lions club in her home city, Miss Harkey demonstrated to the local group why she was drafted as a permanent "pitch-hitter" on the entertainment committee for the Waycross Lions. She played two selections on the accordion.

A native of Florida but a worker in Georgia, the visitor described briefly the problems of the negro in the South, pointing out that there is a progressive improvement in the educational advantages being made available for the negroes. "The negro young people are being educated in order that they may be trusted with the full rights of citizenship," she said.

Difficult to describe in print, her descriptions of the southern moon, and sunsets, the Florida lake country, the red clay hills of Georgia, which she said after seeing the Northwest mountains, "make a southerner realize that our hills are really only little irregularities in the landscape," the tobacco auctions and tropical vegetation completely captured the attention of club members.

If she should ever desert her chosen occupation of "showing others the real dividends to be secured through practical religion," her home states would do well to employ her as an unofficial ambassador of good will.

Luncheon visitors were H. Gradwohl, member of the University club at Seattle, and the Rev. William T. Eberle of Caldwell, Harry Manahan discussed a school relation program. Herschel Kidwell and Carl Frank were awarded special membership plaques. Dr. E. M. Schaeffer discussed the coming here April 11 of the Pentecost.

Bright Sunshine Routs Invasion Of Unusual Cold

Clear skies and bright sunshine routed a cold invading early in most sections Sunday with only a small part of New England and the eastern lake region reporting light snow and clouds.

The South, although moderating, remained chilly, with light frost reported as far south as the Florida line.

In Tennessee, temperatures at Memphis returned to the 70's, although further reports from Friday's below freezing cold indicated much damage resulting.

L. A. Fitzer, of the western Tennessee agricultural station, said 25 degree temperatures recorded there took estimated 25 percent toll on the strawberry crop and damaged the peach crop about 25 percent throughout the state.

Fitzer said all strawberries which had blossomed and those just beginning to bloom were killed, as were some tomatoes, Irish and sweet potatoes.

High temperatures that reached a maximum of 80 in Little Rock Sunday afternoon ended a threat of field damage to fruit and vegetables in that state.

The agricultural extension service said latest reports reaching it indicated most fruit and vegetables had escaped serious damage.

In Nashville, it was reasonably warm and clear. Officially indicated that middle Tennessee probably escaped with slight crop damage. Strawberries and peaches were reported all right.

Several million dollars was estimated in Alabama by extension editor F. O. Davis as a result of Friday night's cold. The Alabama report was that the Alabama winter wheat, rice, sorghum, Irish potato and other crops from North Alabama damaged was believed to be confined to a narrow strip along the coast.

The meeting will be the fourth political rally sponsored by the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee.

Sandwiches and refreshments will be served by the Home Demonstration Club of Longwood and Altamonte Springs.

Mr. Morrison will act as conference planner for the 10th consecutive year at the state-wide meeting.

Music Planned For Meeting Of Group

There will be plenty of music for the entertainment of those attending the regular meeting of the Seminole County Progressive Club to be held in the Court House tonight at 8:00 o'clock.

President W. E. Dupree assured the members of the club today in reminding them an invitation to attend.

Several vocal selections will be rendered by a quartette from Jacksonville, and a string band will present a new number. The members of the entertainment committee for the occasion, however, are not yet named.

Reunion Of Dixie Division Planned

A reunion for the veterans of the famous Dixie Division will be held at Jacksonville Beach June 8 to 9 and veterans in Sanford will be members of the Dixie Division have been extended an invitation to attend. Guy Stafford, local delegate, said today.

Further details of the reunion will be announced at the American Legion meeting tonight. Information may be obtained from Mr. Stafford or by writing to Harold Van Orman, Dixie Division Association, c/o R. W. 25th Street, Jacksonville.

Red Cross To Aid In Norwegian Relief

Handling of contributions for Norwegian relief by the American Red Cross has been announced by Norman H. Davis, national chairman of the organization in a letter to Mrs. James G. Sharon, Jr., chairman of the Seminole County chapter.

Mr. Norman's letter stated that it "seems almost certain help will be needed as a result of the invasion of Norway and the widespread suffering among thousands of helpless men, women, and children which is sure to follow."

Mr. Norman continued with the statement that "the American Red Cross will receive and administer contributions designated for Norwegian relief and that all funds so designated will be applied wholly to that purpose," and he added that the "Red Cross continues to welcome contributions designated for relief of war sufferers of all nations already involved in conflict."

Mrs. Sharon reported that she was prepared to receive inquiries from any one having friends or relatives in the Scandinavian countries with whom communication is desired or about whom information is wanted.

Holland's Armies Keyed For Possible German Blitzkrieg

AMSTERDAM, Apr. 15. —(AP) — Holland's defense forces were keyed to special watchfulness last night to prevent being taken unaware by any moves of belligerent powers.

Various rumors about this country's precarious position in the storm corner of Europe caused tension in many circles but, in general, the public displayed no uneasiness.

Official sources expressed indignation over rumors abroad that there was an imminent threat of action by one or the other of the belligerents which might spread the war to the lowlands. They called them either ill-considered or malicious.

Radio programs throughout the country were interrupted Saturday night for a special broadcast of a British denial that English troops were en route to the Netherlands. The announcement said the rumors appeared to have been published in the Berlin newspaper Nachrichten and to have been headlined by the German radio.

Both Holland and Belgium appeared concerned about the possibility that, in the event of an invasion, an independent government would suddenly appear in the north.

President Roosevelt Tells Pan-American Union Force Must Be Met With Force

Speaks At Group's 50th Anniversary

Tydings Says Navy Should Expand By About 25 Percent

WASHINGTON, Apr. 16. —(AP)—Terminating wars abroad "more horrible and destructive than ever," President Roosevelt today said 21 American republics could keep open the way to eventual peace "only if we are prepared to meet force with force if a challenge is ever made."

He spoke before the governing board of the Pan-American Union on observance of the organization's 50th anniversary. He proclaimed the western hemisphere determination to "live in peace and make that peace secure." He said "we of this hemisphere have no need" to seek a new international order; we already have found it.

"This was not done by hysterical outcries, or violent movements of troops. We did not stamp out nations, capture governments, or uproot innocent people from their homes, he asserted.

"What happens in the old world directly and powerfully affects the peace and well-being of the new," he added, "and it was for this very reason that we have adopted procedures that enable us to meet any eventuality."

Wagner Act And Wage Hour Law To Be Considered

WASHINGTON, Apr. 16. —(AP) — The House will come to grips with one of the most controversial questions of the session, whether to amend the new deal's basic labor legislation — the Wagner act and the wage-hour law.

The legislative calendar calls for consideration of three sets of proposed wage hour revisions late in the week. Machinery has been set in motion to force debate soon after on proposals to amend the Wagner act.

The division in the House with respect to each of the laws is all agreed that there should be amendments to exempt from the basic law certain white collar workers, telegraph messengers and the insular possessions of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

There are indications, however, that whatever action the House takes will be nullified by Senate failure to act.

Sponsors of the three wage-hour bills pending in the House are all agreed that there should be amendments to exempt from the basic law certain white collar workers, telegraph messengers and the insular possessions of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The principal point of dispute is over what farm processing operations should be exempted. The House Labor Committee would permit a 60-hour week for 14 weeks each year for 16 operations. A bill by Representative Barden, North Carolina, would exempt entirely most of these activities. A third bill by Representative Ramspeck, Georgia, is similar to the labor committee's except that it contains no changes for agriculture.

The committee would exempt $200-a-month white collar workers, while Barden would exempt those getting $150.

Present basic standards call for a maximum work week of 48 hours and a minimum wage of 50 cents an hour.

A letter objecting to the Barden farm amendments was sent to House members yesterday by the American Association of University Women which said their adoption would mean a return to subsistence wages in agricultural processing industries.

LOCAL WEATHER

Generally fair, slightly cooler tonight; Tuesday partly cloudy.
