

SALUTING THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA ON THEIR 58th ANNIVERSARY.

"I suppose every boy wants to help his country in some way or other. There is a way by which he can do so easily, and that is by becoming a Boy Scout."

Baden-Powell

Scouting has become increasingly more important to the future of our country. This is one reason why the Scout movement aims for a high standard of citizenship, character and physical fitness. In the program there is a strong emphasis on training for citizenship. Every boy must learn respect for the flag, loyalty to country, and an appreciation of our American heritage. We salute the Scouts and the great work they are doing in making better citizens.

It is beginning to appear that Sanford leaders are working at cross purposes in the matter of acquiring the Sanford Naval Air Station property when the Navy moves out in about four months.

Don Rathel, director of the city-financed Sanford Industrial Commission, had a hand in Gov. Claude Kirk calling a conference for last Jan. 30 here in Sanford, when the Chief Executive was to detail plans for General Electric to establish a training school here.

City commissioners prevailed on the Governor to cancel the meeting until such time as the acquisition of title (for a dollar or so) had been completed. Seems the Democratic administration in Washington doesn't want the Sanford city administration playing footsie with the Republican administration in Tallahassee.

New this morning comes into R. E. Porter's hands a letter signed by Rathel telling of a meeting "arranged in Tallahassee on Feb. 13 at 9:30 a.m. in the office of the Governor . . . to brief the area people on the proposed skilled training center." GE and the Governor's staff are to make the presentation. (But the letter does not say the "proposed skilled training center" at Sanford Naval Air Station.)

An unexpected legacy of $500 has come to the United Fund of Seminole County from the estate of Mary Heibach. This caused considerable stir at a meeting of the board of directors as it brought the 1967 campaign within $500 of its stated goal of $50,000, with an especially low bow toward Wendell Springfield, who planned this campaign.

It's a comedy situation often seen on television. But here it is in real life.

The scene is the courtroom at North Orlando.

City Attorney Tom Freeman informs the court that he is obliged to turn the case in question over to the prosecuting attorney, Tom Doffs his city attorney's hat.

Prosecuting Attorney Tom Freeman then informs the court he is not yet ready to go to trial and moves for a continuance. Tom doffs his prosecuting attorney's hat.

Municipal Judge Tom Freeman announces from the bench he will grant the motion. He steps down from the bench and doffs his jurist's hat.

Tom Freeman, bareheaded, goes out for a single cup of coffee. He's 3-10-1.

Temper of the County Commission might be a little less frayed at adjournment time on Tuesdays if they limited themselves to meeting during the morning hours only. By end of a lengthy meeting in the late afternoon, tempers are not only hot and gray, but are in no mood to conduct county business.

Aw, c'mon, Chief Butler! It's pouring down rain outside at this writing — 2:08 p.m. Tuesday — and E. E. Porter responded a telephone call from two police officers in a cruiser . . . one with a 12-foot pole, a bag of powder on the outer end, dusting trees of parked cars. In the rain!

Seaboard RR Cancels Passenger Service

Passenger service was stopped today by Seaboard Coast Line Railroad between Florida and New York City pending developments in the strike of trainmen. Pickets still were on hand at the Sanford depot and local spokesmen said they have no idea when service will be resumed.

The railroad canceled trains to and from Chicago Tuesday when the walkout began. Service to and from New York was curtailed but three passenger trains were operated by supervisory personnel.

When those trains reach their destinations today, all passenger service halts indefinitely.

W. Thomas Rice, Seaboard president, called for a presidential emergency board to investigate the dispute, with employees returning to work during the probe.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen walked off their jobs on the Seaboard early Tuesday, following a walkout a few hours earlier on the Missouri Pacific. They protested notices filed by Seaboard asserting the right of the company to determine how many men are necessary to operate a train.

The issue was decided temporarily by arbitration in 1961. Since then, a Seaboard spokesman said, the union wants to turn the clock back and increase train crews to what they were before the arbitration decision.

C. Jordan of Florence, S. C., BRT general chairman for members on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, now merged with Seaboard Air Line Railroad in Seaboard Coast Line, said the line posted notices at 2 a. m. Tuesday that train crews would be reduced.

The strike followed within two hours and picket lines were set up at many crew points.

Seaboard issued a statement saying its proposal that the company have the right to determine the number of men it needed on its road and switch crews followed the union's attempt to "provide jobs for unemployed employees."

About 2,000 to 2,500 BRT members "left their jobs. They are the flagmen, switchmen, brakemen and conductors on road and yard trains."

A company spokesman said he had no idea how many of the 21,000 Seaboard employees were observing picket lines.

Rinehart Rd. Gets Push

The "quickest, most expedient method" to start the rail rolling for construction of Rinehart Road to the proposed new General Dynamics plant was taken by the Board of General Commissioners yesterday with adoption of a resolution calling for borrowing of $500,000 from the state trust fund.

The plan, according to the resolution, is to be repaid out of gasoline tax at the rate of four equal installments over four years of $75,000 each at 4 1/2 percent interest.

Agreement, however, as expressed by Commissioners W. Lawrence Swoford, Edward Yarborough and Robert Parker is that the funds will eventually be repaid out of the road bond issue to be floated by the county, probably immediately following receipt of the feasibility study of the Lake Jessup Causeway.

Swoford warned that if the costs of Rinehart are not included in the bond issue, the entire road program for the county could be jeopardized.

In other business, the Board accepted the bids of Wall Supply for $1,074.15 and $189.17 and A. D. Hostler for $304.12 for materials for the county recreational facilities and rejected two other bids when it was determined materials in these two instances could be purchased at a better price on the open market.

Approved rezoning on 15 acres on West First Street near the Florida Power and Light Company yards from agricultural and commercial to industrial.

Reasoned from industrial to residential 7.5 acres north of Lake Mobile and west of RR 427.

Allocation Of Space Criticized

Proposed allocation for the county clerk's office in the new courthouse as well as the two-unit center for the new facility came under criticism of County Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr. today.

"Basically the design as outlined . . . fails to allow smooth office operation for the office of Clerk of Circuit Court," Beckwith said. Primary problem involved is the absence of a sizable storage area for records, the clerk insisted.

"This design provides for enough storage space but it will be two floors away from the office. This would make it mandatory that a clerk be hired to do nothing but work between the two floors securing and returning files."

"I am of the opinion," Beckwith stated, "that the property being considered for this construction could be better utilized with construction of a one-building multi-storied multi-providing a floor or two for expansion. The needs for Clerk's office oriented functions are too great to have them divided as is indicated. There appears to be no solution in this arrangement as presently suggested."

Schools Confab Slated

The Seminole County Board of Public Instruction will officially change its regular meeting time to 3 p. m. and will convene for the first time at that hour tomorrow at the School Administration Building in order to accommodate teachers who are interested in attending the meeting.

In addition to the normal items on the agenda, the members will hear the Junior Col. Eisenhower Advisory Committee report; receive bids on audio-visual equipment, and discuss graduation date for high schools; purchase of physical education equipment for Seminole High School, and entering a state pool for purchase of equipment so that the school system can have self-inspection of its own transportation department.

Fitzpatrick Lambasts Solons

Tallahassee with Rep. E. Pope Bassett, secretary of the delegation, said the four alternatives had been offered by the delegation. They would leave current legislation as it stands or amend local legislation to put them in it, 3. place regulating of utilities with 35 to 399 connections under the Board and larger companies under FPSC or 4. place all regulating under the Board of County Commissioners.

The Commission chose the fourth alternative, but not without complaint. Commission Chairman John Alexander declared the best controls would be accomplished under the FPSC "realize than dumping the pro-

Fire Control District Eeyed

Creation of a new fire control district in South Seminole County to serve the Zayre Shopping Center, Jai-Alai Fronton, Indian Hills, Lakewood Shores and that area south of SR 436 and east of 17-92 to the county line was discussed by the Board of County Commissioners Tuesday and referred to district Commissioner Arthur Beckwith for investigation and report at the next meeting.

Commissioner W. Lawrence Swoford brought the matter to the attention of the Board with report he had been approached by area residents and property owners requesting such a district be created.

Presently that area has no formal agreement for fire protection with any organized department except for Zayre's which has contracted with the City of Altamonte Springs for the service.

Parker was authorized to check mechanics necessary for placing the matter on the ballot either during the primaries or the general election and to talk with area residents on the matter.

In other business, the Board referred to Parker request of the City of Longwood as relayed by Councilman H. A. Scott for participation in improving the west side of Marvin Avenue.

Took no action on request of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen of the Public Service Commission.

Approved payment of a bill from the county Auditor for $14,425 for defraying of the in the circuit court in the injunction suit.

Officer Rescues Woman

Eva Mae Collier, 37, was pulled from a burning house last night by Patrolman Gary Swain.

Patrolman Swain was making a routine patrol on West 13th Street at approximately 10:30 p.m. when he spotted flames shooting out of the back of a house at 822 West 13th.

"I got out of my patrol car and several people standing around were yelling that someone was inside the house," Swain said.

"I went into the house but couldn't see anything for the smoke so I was feeling around for the woman. I was assisted by Officer John Moore and Ronald Getman. An unidentified man also assisted with the rescue."

The fire department arrived and put out the fire. However, the house was completely gutted.

Sister Meets

SISTER will meet at the Florida State Bank at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. All women who have attended any past meetings are urged to be present as well as all who are interested in the project of rejuvenation of downtown Sanford.

McCaslin Funeral Thursday

Funeral services for Dr. H. H. McCaslin, Sanford dentist who died at 10:55 p.m. Tuesday at his home, 1920 Hibiscus Avenue, will be at 3 p.m. Thursday at First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Virgil L. Bryant Jr. officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

A native of Sweetwater, Tenn., Dr. McCaslin had resided in Sanford since 1916 and had marked his 50th year in practice of dentistry, at which time A. L. Wilson, then Mayor of Sanford, presented him with a gold tray and his wife, Mrs. Alice McCaslin, with a gold vase.

The dentist was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, where he had served as deacon and elder and also as organist for 11 years. A veteran of World War I, having served in France, he was a charter member of the Sanford American Legion post.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. McCaslin, include a niece, Mrs. Rives Member of Memphis, Tenn.

Funeral and burial arrangements are under direction of Brisson Funeral Home.

Big Deal - Now Even Olympians Clashing

CHAMBOULSE, France (AP) — Competition picked up momentum today at the 10th Winter Olympic Games after an opening day devoted mostly to ceremonial pomp and the stillness of a troublesome ski squabble.

French President Charles de Gaulle presided at the colorful ceremonies which officially opened the Games Tuesday. A crowd of some 60,000 fans jammed the Olympic Stadium to watch the festivities.

The IOC had clashed with the Ski Federation when the latter ruled that competitors would be allowed to use skis carrying manufacturer's names on them. The Federation argued that competitors would be allowed to show the trademarks at the end of a run.

Concert Stated Thursday

Bermudez High band will be presented in concert for parents, guests and friends at 8 p. m. Thursday in the high school auditorium under the direction of Bandmaster William Elinors. The program will be a preview of the music which the band will perform at the district playing contest in Orlando on March 2.

Atty. Jones, president of the Band Parents Association, stated the public is cordially welcomed.

The concert will be preceded by the monthly meeting of the Band Parents Association commencing with covered and fish supper. Serving will start in the school cafeteria at 6:30 p. m. and all members are urged to attend and bring covered dishes.

A trial business meeting will be held following the supper to further the planning of the concert and the world wide stencils and auction which are tentatively scheduled for March and April, respectively, as well as other items of interest and importance to the association.

Area GOP To Hear Poucher

Four major issues in the nation today will be discussed Monday for the Delaney Republican Club by J. Wayne Poucher, Republican candidate for U. S. Representative from the 4th Congressional District of Florida.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. in the Delaney Community Center.

Issues Poucher will include in his talk are: (1) Law and order in the courts instead of riot in the streets; (2) A balanced budget and a stop to deficit spending; (3) The Johnson foreign policy of helping our enemies; and (4) Sovereignty of the United States.

It is noted by Howard Shattuck, public relations chairman, that 75 will be of interest to the club's 850 paid-up members that the 40-400 pound, 45-year-old father of two teenagers has been a fulltime minister of the gospel and originated "Life Line," a five day a week television commentary from Washington, D. C. which is seen on approximately 160 stations.

Club officials advise that other Republican candidates for public office are welcome to appear at the regular monthly meetings to be held on Wednesday, Feb. 11, at 8 p. m. at the Delaney Community Center.

All interested residents of the community and surrounding areas are invited to attend the meetings and programs. Refreshments will be served during a social hour following the meetings.

NARCE Has Installation Of Officers

Newly elected officers of the National Association of Retired Civil Employees (NARCE) of the Delaney-Delton area were installed by Mrs. Charles Ulrich at a January meeting.

Serving for the year will be: A. N. Goetz, president; Mrs. Ulrich, vice president; Mrs. Lillian Teeln, secretary, and George Elliot Hoef, treasurer.

New directors are Harold E. Wren, three year; George L. McWilliams, two year; W. C. Jordan, two year, and Mrs. G. Meeking and W. H. Weish, one year.

Mrs. Teeln will be chairman of the telephone committee.

It was announced that the state convention is scheduled April 24 in Key West.

A program of color slides on the Far East was shown under direction of Mrs. McWilliams following the meeting. Refreshments were served.

Pueblo Crewman Dead, 3 Wounded, Pentagon Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon today said it has received the names of four Navy men who are dead or wounded as a result of the seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo in North Korea.

One of the men is dead, one is seriously injured and two are less gravely injured, the Defense Department said in a statement.

The Pentagon which declined to reveal the source of the information said none of the names would be released publicly until the families of the dead and injured crewmen have been notified.

The questions raised by the Pueblo's capture off the North Korean coast of Wonsan continue to echo in Congress.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., asks why the United States, work, can't say for certain the Pueblo did not violate North Korea's territorial waters.

The South Dakota Republican asked his question as Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., opened the administration in a speech in apology to North Korea for violating the sea limit in hopes of getting back the ship and survivors of her 83-man crew.

Top administration officials have said the Pueblo must have radio silence from Jan. 10-23, before the North Koreans captured her Jan. 23, so it can't be said for sure she did not violate the Communist nation's sea limit.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen told a Tuesday news conference: "There was some mounting doubt and there are some tapes. I think most everything was known."

But Dirksen, who attended Pueblo radio silence, declared in a statement that the Pueblo must have been in the area of the sea limit when it was captured.

Sen. Milton E. Eisenhower said in a separate interview the same question is likely to be explored at a select committee's hearing by the Central Intelligence Agency on the Pueblo matter.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara said on a national broadcast Sunday that they cannot say beyond a shadow of a doubt the Pueblo did not enter territorial waters. Such an assertion, they said, must await release of the captain and crew.

The State Department said subsequently that Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg had been talking about the ship, of the ship's capture when he told the United Nations the ship was on the 12-mile limit Communist countries set.

The North Koreans have made an American apology and the punishment of the Pueblo's captain, Lt. Commander Michael J. Smith, has been suspended. The ship may have been inside North Korean waters," he said. This might be made the basis of a "confession" to get the crew back.

Battle Looms On Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill busting against the administration's civil rights bill is taking shape following defeat of a substitute measure backed by Deep South senators and introduction of an even more sweeping proposal.

After three weeks of desultory debate there were these rapid fire developments Tuesday on the bill aimed at protecting Negroes and civil rights workers against racial violence:

The Senate voted 54 to 29 to table and thus kill a substitute offered by Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-S.C.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, who had been seeking to work out a compromise, said the vote left no doubt as to their position.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., said he opposes the bill as long as it is necessary to enact it.

Mansfield said his intention is "to allow the debate to go on for a reasonable time and then to file a cloture motion and vote what results."

Dirksen said he didn't think cloture would be voted. He said he would not help a cloture attempt.

Mansfield had said earlier that if cloture could not be obtained the administration bill would have to be amended.

Although defeat of Ervin's substitute represented an initial victory for the bill's backers, Mansfield and Dirksen said it also marked the end at least for the time being of the efforts they and others have been making to work out a compromise.

"What disturbs me is that we may wind up with nothing," Mansfield said in an interview.

Dirksen said the legislation may be turned into "a Christmas tree bill" with a lot of amendments or there may be "no bill at all."

The administration bill would make it a federal crime to interfere by force or threats with the exercise of specifically enumerated rights because of a person's race, color, religion or national origin.

Garbage Leader In Jail

NEW YORK (AP) — The leader of a five-day strike by sanitation men begins a 15-day jail term today for defying a court's back to work order as 40,000 tons of garbage clog the city's streets.

John J. Deary, president of the striking United Brotherhood of Carriers and Helpers Local 659, was sentenced Tuesday and fined $250 for criminal contempt under the state's Taylor law which forbids strikes by public employees.

State Supreme Court Justice Saul S. Streit continued today a hearing on contempt charges against the union itself. Under the Taylor law the union could be fined up to $10,000 a day or $100 for each of its 35,000 members.

Meanwhile the garbage piles continue to grow as progress in negotiations aimed at ending the walkout. The 40,000 tons already on the streets is enough to fill a freight train's length of 100 miles long.

In one concession, Deary said the union would require garbage pickups at hospitals, schools and other places which the city will designate for emergency collection. He said the men would work without pay.

Residents of a five-block area on the lower East Side took their own action by dumping trash and garbage in the streets. One block on 10th Street was closed until 2 a.m. and several fires broke out.

The bizarre uprising was triggered when members of a neighborhood action group dumped trash and garbage in a chain reaction residents began overturning cars and tossing trash from apartment windows.

The neighborhood is a mass of tenements housing mainly Negroes and Puerto Ricans and is also the center of the East Village hippie colony. Police arrested six persons in the incident including a former city anti-poverty worker.

LOCATION of proposed new schools to meet the bulging needs of Seminole County school system is discussed by Supt. William J. Phillips (left) and Ray Dugan, a member of the State Department of Education team in town to make an up-to-date survey of requirements for the next five years.

area and immediately after the movie, "When the Boys Are," immortalized the youth migration that began with 300 youngsters in 1938.

During the riot which erupted on Good Friday, police were pelted with rocks and sand filled beer cans. A bus was rocked and trucks loaded for ammunition. Ninety local police and 200 legionnaires who will eclipse a four-block stretch of city beach from Friday, March 15, through Easter, April 14. Dances for day and night, orange juice bars, con tests and welcome booths are planned.

Voices were raised against the 31st college convention. A protester called it "a spectacularly degrading booze and sex orgy."

But the City Commission Tuesday told City Manager Robert Butler to send invitations to all the campuses.

The ultimate police threat this year, included in the letters to collegians and described as "un-equivalent policy" is a promise that officials will go to the parents and school of every student arrested in Fort Lauderdale.

Last year, after the oceanfront intersection of East Las Olas and Atlantic Boulevards became a battleground, 87 persons were convicted of offenses ranging from indecent exposure to inciting a riot. Police records showed 130 persons convicted of liquor violations, 37 for disorderly conduct, 121 drunkenness, 59 unlawful assembly, 36 resisting arrest, 24 vagrancy and lesser numbers of other charges.

The other riot was in 1961 when 50,000 students crammed the beach during a year when many tourists still were in the

Godiva-1 Battles Godiva-2

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — This town, says Lady Godiva No. 1, isn't big enough for two Lady Godivas. She and her faithful steed, Adonis, are going to court today to try and get the Lady Godiva out of business.

Circuit Court Judge Grady will be asked to pull the reins on the allegedly "fraudulent" Godiva now operating slightly at the Carlton Hotel's "Spice-cappades."

The request for an injunction was filed on behalf of Dagmar Rele, a ruffled 21-year-old who claims she brought the Godiva bill all the way from Las Vegas.

"They fired me because I wouldn't ride Adonis through the audience," she said.

Then Dagmar said a brunette took over the blonde wig — just about all there is of the Godiva costume — and the show was on.

The "Spice-cappades" people claim Dagmar left her job because she couldn't do all the tures a Godiva contract calls for.

The new Godiva at the hotel is Debra Hampton, 23, who had never ridden a horse before.

 RECIPES
 1-2 cup finely sliced watermelon (green rind)
 1 cup (4 1/2 ounces) whole small watermelons, sliced
 In an 8-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter. Add the watermelon, cook gently, stirring often until softened. Add the watermelon rind, heat, serve over cream. Makes six simple servings.

RECIPES NOTE
 If you like, you may use only the rind part of the watermelon or both the white and green part. If available, use a delectable substitute for the scalin.

 1 and 2/3 cups milk, scalded
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 container (6 ounces) heavy cream
 1/2 cup filtered syrup
 preserved ginger
 In a cup, sprinkle the gelatin over the cold water to soften for about five minutes or so. Add to scalded milk; stir until gelatin dissolves. Add sugar and salt; stir to dissolve. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Whip cream until stiff; fold into slightly thickened gelatin along with the ginger. Turn into a square mold. Chill until set. Cover lightly with transparent plastic wrapping; keep chilled until shortly before serving; unmold. Makes six servings.

NEW PUMPKIN CHIFFON PIE
 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
 1 1/2 cups firmly packed light brown sugar
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons pumpkin pie spice
 1 1/2 cups milk
 4 large eggs, separated
 1 can (1 pound and 14 ounces) pumpkin
 1/4 cup granulated sugar
 2 1/2-inch graham cracker pie shell
 Sweetened whipped cream
 In a three-quart metal mixing bowl, thoroughly stir together the gelatin, brown sugar, salt and pumpkin pie spice. Stir in milk. With a whisk, beat in the egg yolks, then the pumpkin. Place the bowl over a saucepan of boiling water; cook, stirring often, until heated through and gelatin and sugar have dissolved—about 10 minutes.
 Chill until mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon. Beat egg whites until they hold soft, slightly bent peaks. Gradually beat in granulated sugar; fold into gelatin mixture. Turn into pie shell; chill until firm. Before serving, cover each pie with whipped cream. Makes nine-inch pie.

Leftovers Can Be Tempting
 By CLARA BROWNSTONE
 Associated Press Food Editor
 Being food leftovers for the first time? They urge women to call leftovers "planned-over" and to plan religiously ahead for their use. What's wrong with leftovers? Why does their name have to be changed? Leftovers have been with us since man first tossed a hunk of meat on the fire and he and the cave woman hanging around — to say nothing of the cave children — couldn't gobble it all up. Undoubtedly whatever meat was left was used for the next feast — and no great planning was involved. Leftovers they've been, until some smart kitchen clinicians started twisting the name around. So let's face it: tradition and leave them alone. Leftovers are great because you can make good dishes with them. You don't have to apologize for them and you don't have to plan for them. All you have to do is to choose a recipe, or invent one, that intelligently uses whatever leftovers you happen to have around. Why do we feel so strongly about not forcing leftovers into planned-over? Because we know our women. Once a mother gets the idea that she absolutely has to have two cups of chicken left from the family's Sunday dinner for a "planned-over" dish, it's definitely I.A.B. — family hold back. She may not say a single word about her intention, but it sure will seep into the air. When father helps himself to that second chicken leg, he'll probably feel a little guilty. The wife, Heaven knows there are enough important things in life to feel guilty about. We'd rather see the family enjoy the leftovers than have to worry about holding back to there to them enough left for another meal. Next day let them eat beans. So now to our leftover dish — chicken or turkey roll. If there isn't any chicken left to use in the roll, save the recipe and use it the next time you have a turkey. We've never yet seen the roast turkey that didn't allow the family to have all they wanted and still yield a couple of cups of meat for another dish. CHICKEN OR TURKEY ROLL. 1 tablespoon butter or margarine. 1 small onion, peeled and finely chopped. 1/4 cup finely chopped celery. 1 tablespoon flour. 1/4 cup milk. 1/4 teaspoon salt. 1/4 teaspoon aromatic biters. 1/2 cup half-chopped (fine) chicken or turkey. 2 cups commercial blanching mix. 1/4 teaspoon ground poultry seasoning. 3-4rd cup milk. In a 18-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter; add onion and celery. Cook, stirring often, until onion is golden. Stir in flour; add 1/4 cup milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Remove from heat. Stir in the salt, aromatic biters and chicken; set aside to cool while preparing blanching dough. In a small bowl, with a fork, mix together the blanching mix and poultry seasoning; add the 3-4rd cup milk and stir to form a dough. Turn out on a prepared pastry cloth. With prepared stockinet covered rolling pin, roll out to an exact 18 by 18 inch square. Spread with the chicken mixture. Roll up tightly. Place seam side down, on a lightly greased cookie sheet. Brush top with extra milk. Bake in a 400 degree oven until golden brown — 35 minutes or longer. Serve hot, cut into crosswise slices, a favorite sauce. Makes six servings.

Recipe Note:
 If you want to make a richer blanching mixture than the one given above, do it this way: Turn 3 cups blanching mix and 1/4 teaspoon ground poultry seasoning into a medium bowl. With a pastry blender cut in 3 tablespoons butter until it is the size of small peas. Add 1/4rd cup light cream and 1-1/2 cup milk. With a fork stir to form a dough. Proceed as directed in recipe.

Miss Returning
 Clara Browning Stewart, c/o Callaway today was receiving Clara's Miss Browning from Cincinnati to the county jail here. She had been there for three days because she had not work from the jail by getting a job in the town. She was apprehended last week by police in the Ohio city.

5th MRS. R. B. THOMAS JR.

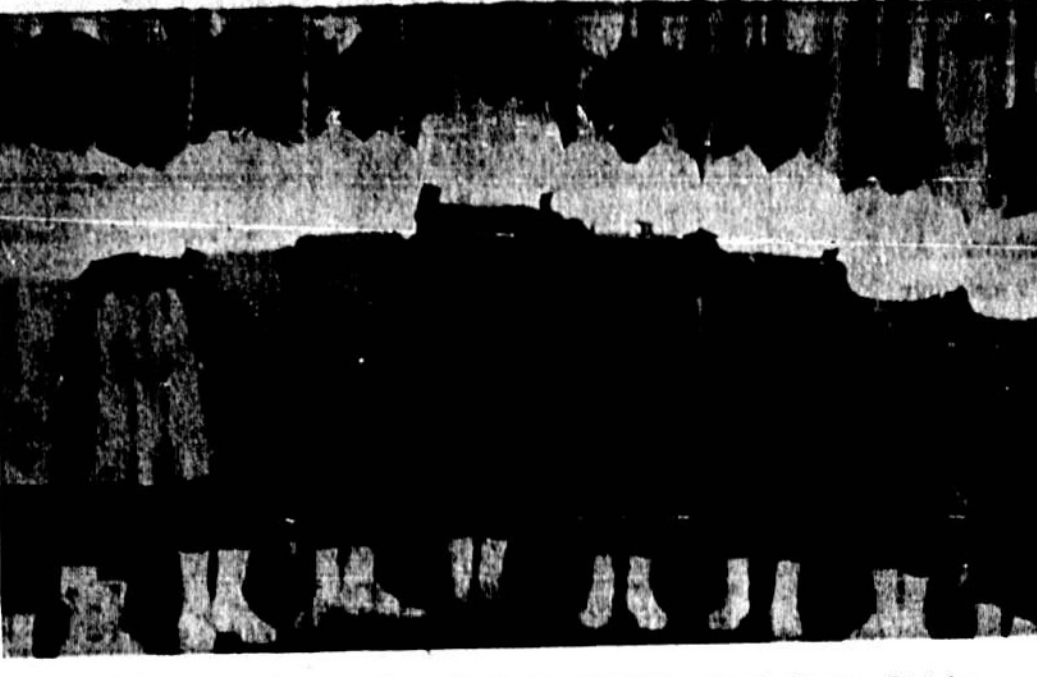

County fourth grade physical education program committee met at Goldsboro School. This committee under the chairmanship of James Beck, discussed the proposed philosophy and objectives of physical education on the fourth grade level. Mrs. M. Mitchell presented the objectives.

The children, beautifully costumed for the occasion, demonstrated a series of fitness exercises showing why the program is needed at the elementary level.

They presented a welcome song, clapping and motor activities. They also did the hot air balloon, marching exercise, aqua thrust and body bender. Such exercises are needed daily because they contribute to the development of strong healthy bodies: good body mechanics such as posture, balance, coordination, and agility to develop endurance as well as provide an opportunity for children to release stored up emotional tension developed in today's high pressure living.

The best teachers served as assorted open-faced sandwiches, cake, coffee, assorted candies and Spanish peanuts.

journeyed to St. Petersburg Saturday to attend a district luncheon meeting at the Bradford Coach House. Keynote speaker was Edward D. Miller, FBLA-PB State Chairman. All chapters were commended for the work they have done during the year. Crooms received recognition for having the largest delegation, and also for having the largest club membership of any of the clubs attending the district meeting.

The club is presently making plans for attending the state meeting to be held at the Jack Tar Hotel, April 18-20, Clearwater.

The 19 members attending were Irvin Johnson, Gregory Sessions, Hollida Golden, Grandville Eubanks, Eva Mae Robinson, Margaret Tillman, Santella Brooks, Madelyn Turner, Zillerstine Murphy, Geraldine Bryant, Wanda Williams, Yvonne Beasley, Evelyn Hubart, Linda Morgan, Edward Guy, Henry Howard, Evelyn Watson, and Norma Crumedy.

Chaperones were Mrs. J. B. Merritt, D. C. McCoy, Alex Oosta and Guy Lingco. The junior attendants are Becky Palmer, Carol Burns, Bob Tolson and Randy Janssen. The two senior attendants are Sandy Brown and Phillip Walker.

The Coronation Ceremonies are slated for 8 p.m. The court entertainment will include solo numbers by Susan Duda and a state performance by the OHS 8-a-ga Band. Theme for the setting will be an "old garden of romantic air." Master of ceremonies for the evening will be Larry Neely.

Music at the formal dance following the coronation will be provided by the "State of Mind." Dance tickets are available from members of the student council. Mrs. B. S. Colburn and Mrs. Louise Gere are the parents in charge.

Hermon Lowery Jr. of Philadelphia, along with other relatives, was here recently to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Euloe Lowery. Lowery is employed as a commercial printer for the Curtis Publishing Company. He also serves as a part-time bowling instructor at Westside Bowling Lane, west branch of the YMCA. He is a former student of Midway and Crooms High Schools.

Ladies Association met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Cooper to hold its regular weekly meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Valentine Dance Set At OHS

Mark Colbert and Beth Gore were named Mr. and Miss OHS High School by their fellow students recently. The teenage monarchs will reign over the Valentine Court and Dance to be held Saturday night in the OHS cafeteria.

Sophomore attendants in the court will include Stephanie Biskamp, Mary Courier, Lee Oosta and Guy Lingco. The junior attendants are Becky Palmer, Carol Burns, Bob Tolson and Randy Janssen. The two senior attendants are Sandy Brown and Phillip Walker.

AP What Quality Beef Does A&P Sell?

That's a fair question. But not an easy one to answer because we have our own quality standards, different from any other meat merchant.

These standards don't fit exactly the familiar terms you know for grades of meat. As an example, did you know that some beef, graded U.S. Choice, just doesn't meet our "Super-Right" specifications? It's true! You see... we don't buy by grade. We use our own high standards to bring you the best value.

That doesn't mean we don't approve of such grading—not at all. It just means we're very busy about the beef we label "Super-Right." It stands to reason we have to be or A&P wouldn't be America's number one meat merchant.

My group has less cavities Mom.

When some of the big toothpaste companies took another look at toothpaste, very few people had heard of fluoride. Now it's a household word. And we're all in the group with fewer cavities. The toothpaste companies weren't bombarded with letters about toothpaste. They did it on their own initiative. And then advertised the results. When "you pays your money and you takes your choice," on toothpaste, you saves your money on dental bills. Call it the American way of selling toothpaste.

Barbara Anne Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Webb, of West Sixth St., has returned after spending three months with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Webb, in Mt. Pleasant, Tenn. Welcoming Barbara home was a baby brother, Bobby DeWayne.

Captain and Mrs. Guy Morgan (USN Ret.) from Baton Rouge, La., will be the guests of the E. W. Whites for a while. Speaking of the Whites, hope that you can keep Friday night open for the Bingo game which our friendly Geneva Volunteer Fire Department lead.

Guests at the Mathieux home recently were mother, Mrs. W. H. Weatherstone, and sister-in-law and children, Mrs. Thomas Weatherstone and William and Michele, all of Jacksonville Beach.

Geneva Personals

By MRS. JOS. E. MATHIEUX

Recently it was a privilege for Joe and me to act as curators of the Geneva Historical and Genealogical Society Museum and my goodness, what an experience! If you have not tried, please do not hesitate. It was a most enlightening experience to learn of the ways of life here in our own little village. The museum is open to the public from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. each Sunday afternoon.

Chatted with Jim Stowell for a moment — he seems much improved after his recent heart attack but still has to take things slowly.

Hosts each week at the community hall at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Fred Langenfelder (our lovely water skiff!) has gone up to Washington, D. C., to bring daughter, Mrs. James Hatfield (my Melvyn around) back to recuperate from recent surgery.

Double Ring Rites Unite Karen Balken, Max Price

MR. AND MRS. MAX W. PRICE

Miss Karen Elizabeth Balken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Balken, of Deland, and Max W. Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Price, also of Deland, were united in Holy Matrimony, Jan. 12, 1968, at 3 p.m. in an impressive ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, 302 E. Beresford Ave.

Rev. L. A. Colding was the officiating clergyman at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her vows a street length crown of white chantilly lace over organza, fashioned with a fitted bodice. Her shoulder-length veil of imported illusion was secured to a Queen's crown embellished with iridescent and brilliant. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Thomas Virginia DeBary, attended her sister as matron of honor. Serving the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Duane Price, from Rockledge. Ushers were Mark Price, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and John Balken, Ed Balken and Robert Balken, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Balken chose a tulle style dress in metallic powder blue complemented with a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Price, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a two-piece ensemble of multi-colors, accented with a white chrysanthemum corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at the reception.

The theme of the Silver Tea to be held Sunday, Feb. 11, by the Deltona Women's Club will be "Happiness is Helping." The United Cerebral Palsy Fund will be the beneficiary of the proceeds.

Mrs. McClain and her committee are hard at work and have promised a gala affair. There will be organ music and entertainment by the Deltona Women's Chorus, Mrs. V. Lee Lloyd will be in charge of the drawing for the door prize, a Silver Tea Service. The girls of the Little Women's Club will assist in serving.

An appeal is being made to everyone in Deltona and the surrounding area to support this very worthy project. The tea will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Deltona Community Center.

Enlisted Wives Slate Meeting Thursday

The January Board meeting of RVAH-12 Enlisted Wives was held recently at the home of Yvonne Strauss. Chocolate and strawberry ice cream cake and Cokes were served to those attending.

Feb. 8 will be the last meeting to be held at NAS Sanford. This meeting will be held in the Wives meeting room adjacent to the ballroom on the base at 8 p.m. All members are urged to attend this meeting as a few surprises are in store. All Enlisted Wives are invited to come out to get acquainted and find out more about the club.

Weeks away from the move to Albany have dampened the spirits of the "Dragon Ladies." Plans are being made for going-away parties for the club members and their husbands. Also, February is the third birthday for the club and an annual bake sale is planned for the near future.

Sandra Weiss, Seminole County Home Economics Agent, will present a program on materials and fabrics at the Feb. 8 meeting. A film entitled "Textiles for Today and Tomorrow" will be shown also. Those who sew or would like to learn will benefit from the program.

Rainbow Girls Install

By MARYANN MILES

Judy Eckard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Eckard, of Altamonte Springs, was installed as Worthy Advisor of the Winter Park Assembly No. 82, Order of the Rainbow Girls, on Jan. 28, 1968, at the Winter Park Masonic Temple.

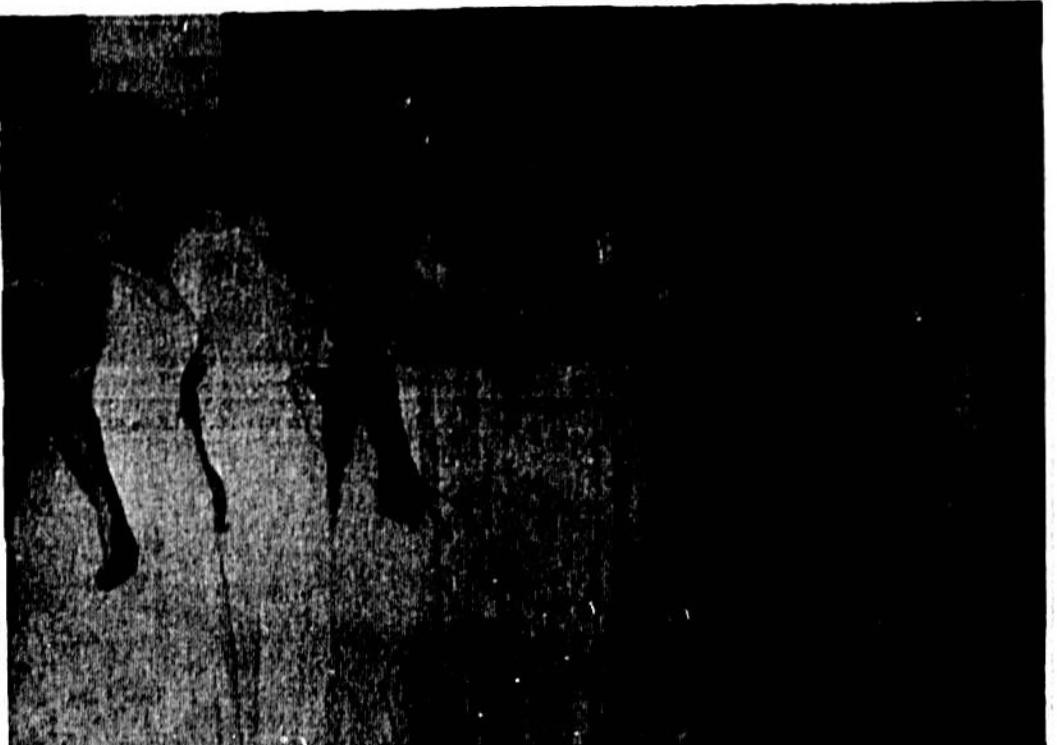

Installing officer was Miss Janice Papp from the Winter Park Assembly. Other installing officers were Drenna Bohm, installing Marshall; Joan Young, installing chaplain; Marilyn Wilson, installing recorder, and Mrs. Marcia Gullick, installing musician.

Judy chose for her theme, "The Glory of the Cross" the Emblem "The Cross" with yellow and green her colors.

Other officers installed to serve with Judy were Nancy Bruckenhough, Worthy Associate Advisor; Carol Nelson, Charity; Linda Maia, Hope; Debbie Kieseling, Faith; Drenna Bohm, Recorder; Jade Long, treasurer; Diane Turner, drill leader; Debbie Turnmyre, Loose; Karen Mahry, Religion; Debbie Means, Nature; Susan White, Immortality; Kathy Harig, Fidelity; Cheryl Walters, Patriotism; Frances Bohm, Service; Charlotte Martre, confidential observer; Karen Stringer, outer observer; Roxanne Hasty, musician; Jennifer Geny, choir director; Miss Jeanne Crescoda, Mother Advisor; and Suzanne Smith, Chaplain.

Following the program, a social hour was held in the dining room.

Judy is a senior at Lyman High School, where she is a member of the National Honor Society and the Paramedics Club. She plans to attend Florida Technology University this fall.

S. Seminole Women To Meet Thursday

Mrs. John Durham of Winter Park will demonstrate to the South Seminole Women's Club at a meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday at South Seminole Club how to make French Provincial fruit from Celu-Clay.

She will also display some of her more detailed craft work. If enough members are interested in learning to work with the clay a class may be formed.

Cream cheese may be used instead of butter or margarine in making a confectioner's sugar frosting. If the mixture needs to be thinned, use a little milk, water or fruit juice.

Irish Coffee Honors Kitty O'Gara

MRS. PATRICK O'GARA was presented with this beautiful silver chafing dish at a farewell coffee in behalf of RVAH-12 officers' wives by Mrs. Edward F. Foy, whose husband will replace O'Gara as commanding officer. (Herald Photo)

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

Mrs. Patricia O'Gara, wife of RVAH-12 Squadron, was guest of honor at a delightful farewell Irish coffee given by the officers' wives at the home of Mrs. R. M. Schlemmer at 2940 Sunderland Rd., English Estates, at 10:30 a.m. Friday.

Sure and it was like a breath of the Emerald Isle as the Irish theme was carried out with each guest wearing a green leopardskin name tag.

Genuine Irish coffee was served along with an assortment of exotic snacks, including such delights as coconut-egg Swedish meatballs, meat turnovers, cucumbers on garlic bread thin and fruit kabobs with lemon sauce dip.

A centerpiece of yellow jonquils, white chrysanthemums and fern decorated the serving table and bouquets of gorgeous roses decorated the living room.

The farewell gift from the group, a beautiful silver chafing dish, was presented to the guest of honor by Mrs. Edward F. Foy, wife of the incoming commanding officer.

Mrs. James Ackow is in charge of the party arrangements and entertainment.

THOSE HORRID AGE SPOTS*

FADE THEM OUT

"Weathered brown spots on the surface of your face and hair will be the world you're getting old—before you realize it. Fade them away with new ESTERICA. That medicated cream that breaks up masses of pigment on the skin, helps make hair look white and young again. Slightly effective on the face, neck and arms. Use a cover-up face in the skin-cream on it. Fragrant, grainless base for sensitive, hairless skin. It's a cream up those wrinkles. If you have those unsightly brown spots, blotches, or if you want clearer, lighter skin, use ESTERICA. At your favorite drug and beauty counter. ESTERICA SOAP makes hair, face and body softer. Contains perfume.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am dating a woman who is quite well-to-do, but he has a thing about money. He's not really poor or anything like that, but he always makes sure I know how much he spends on me.

For instance, he gave me a nice Christmas present, but afterwards he said, "You know, your sweater is just what I like. I'll buy you a new one." "Would you believe that evening dress I bought for you?" "I only bought that for you," she says. "I'll buy you a new one." "Would you believe that evening dress I bought for you?" "I only bought that for you," she says. "I'll buy you a new one."

When I first realized how she felt about me, I was so upset with myself I couldn't sleep. I bought myself a new dress and a new sweater. I bought myself a new dress and a new sweater. I bought myself a new dress and a new sweater.

8:10 p.m. NBC Special The Fred Astaire Show. (Color) This is Fred Astaire's first appearance since his last performance in 1955. He is joined by a young girl who has won a contest to be his dancing partner. The show is a celebration of his career and his love of dancing.

TV Time Previews

Italian City of Venice is presented in all its glory: the cathedrals, the palaces, the romantic canals. John Phillip Law, the show's producer, explains that with all the sight-seeing and romantic settings, this city of 10 islands and built on over 12 million piles faces a bleak future. The sea is rising high each year and the city is sinking and some day the popular tourist attraction will be gone forever, unless someone does something about it. The problem is no one knows how to stop the sea from rising. The show is informative and, if possible, check this one in color.

Business World Confusing Yanks

NEW YORK (AP)—An uneasy feeling that the worst of business, finance and economics is filled not only with complications but with contradictions is one of the factors irritating and confusing Americans today. Just this week another example was provided, when citizens were told of a government tax plan that would try to discourage foreign travel for the good of the nation, specifically to reduce the balance of payments deficit. This proposal follows many weeks, months and years of efforts by airlines to induce Americans to cast their worries behind them and fly forward to adventure in London, Paris and Rome. Since to do so in the future will mean to be taxed, if the Johnson administration has its way, the result will be frustration. And, of course, confusion too. In fact, many people cannot understand why such stringent measures are needed if the dollar is as sound as the Treasury says it is and the nation powerful as almost all the world believes it to be. Other examples are all about us. More and more often Americans are being reminded that they have more of the material goods than others, and much of this reminding has come from the federal government, especially in recent presidential messages. Nevertheless, more and more often Americans are being reminded, and by the government, that many of their fellow men are poor and discontent and feel they are being denied their share in the wealth of the nation. The unemployment statistics provide an example. Contrast the low jobless figure of 3.8 per cent of the labor force with the reality of so many unskilled looking for and not finding jobs. Perhaps as a result of these disturbing reminders, consumers are themselves contributing a contrast of sorts. Instead of transacting their savings into the things that money buys, they are leaving it in the bank. But, as if to deny the high rate of savings—it is still about 7 per cent of take home pay—people are also gambling in the stock market and even redeeming their U.S. savings bonds at a feeder rate than they are buying them. It appears that people maybe saving on the one hand, maybe spending on the other. One of the most obvious contradictions—or seemingly so—regards free trade. After months of bagging, agreements are reached in the Kennedy Round to lower tariffs. Weeks later, attempts are made to impose other restrictions. Closer to the pocketbook, consumers find every one disclaiming about the horrors of inflation, but he finds action against inflation stalled for months while the Capitol and the White House fire missiles along the

Artist Sets Demonstration in DeBary
A demonstration by the noted artist, Elliot S. McMurrough, is scheduled from 2 until 4 p.m. Sunday at DeBary Hall, Florida Federation of Art headquarters. A question and answer period will follow. The demonstration will be by admission fee and the public is invited to attend. Membership in the FFA is not required. McMurrough teaches at Brevard Junior College in Cocoa and has his own school of art in Indianapolis. His work is currently on exhibit in the DeBary Hall galleries where it will remain until late this month at which time it will be removed to make way for the annual antique show.

Club Meet
Lake Monroe Homesteaders Club will have a Hawaiian Luncheon at Thursday's 6:30 p.m. meeting in the Community Building. Several of the members will bring foods prepared by recipes from the state. Special guest will be Miss Sandra Weiss, county home economics agent. Mrs. Marion Lee, president, urges all members to attend.

Snow Falls On Seminole County, Central Florida

Snow fell on Seminole County this morning. Patroling police officers and sheriff's deputies, along with early risers, reported snow flurries at 6:30 a.m. throughout the county. Associated Press said snow fell throughout Central Florida as brisk northwesterly winds whipped across the state, plunging temperatures down in the 20s in northern Florida and near the freezing mark in the central part of the state. Seminole County Agricultural Center, official reporting station for the U.S. Weather Bureau, recorded a low of 33 degrees just before daylight. And the Weather Bureau said it will get even colder tonight. Official forecast for Central Florida reads: "Frost warning tonight. Partly cloudy, windy and colder today with high in the 40s. Fair and cooler with frost tonight. Low 30 to 35. Friday sunny and continued cold." "It's just coming down in flakes here in Maitland, but I hear it was putting 20 layers of snow down in Perry Park," said the desk sergeant at the Maitland Police Department. The Florida Highway Patrol at Inland said it had gotten snow reports "from all over Central Florida" from Leesburg, Longwood, Sanford, Palm Bay, Orlando and Winter Park. Snow flurries were reported in central Howard County, and near the mountaintop on Merritt Island. The winds which pushed the cold front down the peninsula were expected to swell up to 30 knots today. Small craft warnings were hoisted for the entire peninsula. Forecasters said tonight's freeze would dip down to 21 in the extreme north portion of the state, into the 30s in the central portion and down to 35 in the south, except for the keys. Frost and scattered frost were forecast for the entire peninsula and throughout tonight. Lowest present temperatures were 22 at Crestview and Valparaiso, 30 in Panama City and 31 in Pensacola. Snow was reported falling in one whistler's in downtown Orlando, but melting when it hit the pavement. A severe storm centered off the Virginia coast laid down a load of snow today from Georgia to New Jersey. An inch or two of snow blanketed many coastal areas, including Elizabeth City, N. C.; Wallis Island, Va., and a record-breaking two inches at Savannah, Ga. The Weather Bureau said gale warnings were posted from Cape Hatteras, N. C., to Ketchikan, Maine, and that some areas may be in for heavy snowfalls.

Ag Station Dedication Set

By MARGORIE GIBREN
Central Florida Experiment Station's new complex on Celery Avenue will be dedicated Feb. 21. The $117,000 structure was designed by the staff at the station. The dedication ceremony will begin at 9:30 a.m. with Rev. R. F. Whitner Jr. conducting the invocation. Whitner is a retired staff member of the station. At 9:30 a.m. there will be the introduction of guests and a historical review of the station. A tour of the facility will follow at 10:30 a.m. Special invitations to attend the dedication have been sent to city and county officials. Invitations also were sent to 25 members of the legislative delegation from this area. The public is also invited to attend. "We don't know how many will come to the dedication since we have never had one before," said Dr. John F. Darby, plant pathologist and head of the station. "However, seals will be provided." U of F Sets Unit Heads Confab

A Unit Heads Conference will be held at the Central Florida Experiment Station Feb. 19-20. There will be 35-40 people attending the conference from throughout the state and department heads from the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Science. "This is the first time we have had the conference here," said John F. Darby, plant pathologist and chief of the station. "It is the first time we have had enough space for the conference." A new experiment station has been completed and will be dedicated Feb. 21. "Some of the people attending the conference will stay for the dedication ceremony," Darby said. The station is a branch of the university.

Irate Wives Protest Osteen Dump Closing

By JUDY WELLS
Community dust in Osteen has been closed and irate housewives are saying that something "smells" other than the mounting garbage. The area, used for more than a decade as a dump by Osteen and East Sanford people, originally was made available through a land fill agreement between the owner and Volusia County. Today, it is covered with fill dirt and fenced and the roadways, maintained by the county throughout its use, has been barricaded. It is alleged that Clark and Hirt, of Osteen, new owners and heavy equipment operators employed by the Volusia County road department, acquired the property in exchange for services of some fish and game. The reason given for the closing and the manner in which it was executed, already bearing some 150 signatures, are being circulated for presentation to County Commissioner, Harris Saxon. A work session with the Council and fire department was set for 7 p.m. next Tuesday. Authorization was given for expenditure of necessary funds to cover expenses of Harlan Hanson, Orange-Seminole planner, to attend the pre-application conference with the Board in Atlanta Friday. Conference will concern the city's application for federal grants and loans for its sewerage system. Newly organized planning and zoning commission will meet at City Hall at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, it was announced.

Sportsmen Urge Water Controls

Lake Harney is a cesspool and for the first time in over 40 years is blooming an algae harmful to game fish, S. B. (Jim) Crowe stated at a meeting of the Seminole County Sportsman's Association last night. Crowe is chairman of the association's water control committee. Crowe's report was the first step in the association's effort to gain factual evidence of the main causes of water pollution in the county, Sidney Wilkins Jr., president, said. A study of the problem has been requested by Rep. Ray Mattox, Winter Haven, chairman of the state and water pollution committee and vice chairman of the natural resources and conservation committee of the State House of Representatives. Crowe told the group Seminole County has a drastic water pollution problem presently. In 10 years if nothing is done about existing pollution problems not only will the game fishery industry disappear but, in some areas, even drinking water will be had, Crowe informed. Study has further revealed a high content of detergents in the water, the method to combat this type of pollution, which was mentioned, is to discourage housewives and camp operators along the St. Johns River from dumping area into these lakes. It was emphasized the sewage in question is treated sewage high in nutrients and not raw sewage. A secondary cause of the pollution as reported by Crowe is the process of hyacinth eradication through spraying. It was said that every spraying, hyacinths go to the bottom and rot, forming a sludge and thus deterring normal spawning and hatching process of game fish reaching a sand bottom. "When our study comes to the conclusion," Wilkins said today, "we are going to do something about this pollution because somebody has to. If action is not taken, the people of Seminole in 10 to 15 years will have no decent water recreation."

Social Security Benefits Clarified

Recent changes in Social Security benefits were clarified by William Horton of the DeLand Social Security office at Monday's 2 p.m. meeting of the DeBary Workers Club in the DeBary Community Center. Points covered by the speaker included the increase in cash benefits, special payments to persons 72 years and older, new benefits for disabled survivors, benefits for workers disabled while young, possibility of higher earnings without withholding benefits, better protection for Armed Forces families, and many others. Edward Parsons was elected to the board of directors and assumed chairmanship of the board for 1968. Horton also explained and clarified the expansion of Medicare benefits, changes made

How to shop at Penney's without money

By ROBERTA NASH

I don't really mean we pier things away at Penney's (although our competitors have been known to accuse us of it, when they see our low prices!) I'm talking of the Penney charge plan, the one that lets you choose the most convenient way you'd like to pay for the things you buy at Penney's. Our credit terms are easy and convenient and generous—because Penney's has learned one cardinal rule in 64 years of doing business with our customers: People are hoast.

20" PICTURE MEASURED DIAGONALLY

Don't worry about your mail not getting through because of the local rail strike. Postmaster Cecilia Heard says the strike is not affecting the mail route since all mail to and from Sanford is transported by truck.

Don't look now, but that smell of pancakes, sausage and apples which will waft through the Civic Center on Feb. 17 is being planned by Kiwanians now with full knowledge that last year the demand outstripped the pancake flippers and sausage cutters at one time. This year added cooks, increased supplies are to end this condition. And the patrons will be ready for the public auction to follow the annual Pancake Supper.

Motorists in Casselberry, who thought they were sleeping, the 45-mile-an-hour speed limit on Seminole Boulevard, were surprised when stopped by police to learn it has been changed again... this time to 30 mph.

Both Penncrest® sets share these exceptional features for the ultimate in brilliant true color! 25,000 volts of picture power and 3 stages of signal strength to bring you all-channel reception. Skill School To Be Aired

A delegation from the city commission will meet in Tallahassee Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. with Robert Bush, a special representative of Gov. Claude Kirk. The meeting is a briefing session for the City Commission and county representatives. Its purpose is to explain the state's position about what should be done with Sanford Naval Air Station, if it is turned over to the city.

Annex Plan Studied By City

Sanford City Manager Warren Knowles was instructed by the city commission in a work session Wednesday to prepare a comprehensive annexation plan including a priority list of possible areas to be annexed and stating advantages and disadvantages to property owners there. The city wishes to expand in all possible directions and future plans call for the annexation of these areas already served by city utilities before the present plan was adopted of annexing properties only if they were hooked up to the water and sewer systems. Prospect of annexing these areas played a major part in locating the new city water plants at Mayfair Country Club and south on Highway 17-32 and also was the reason for purchase of the Sunkland Water System and for provision of utilities in the Seminole Junior College area. Knowles pointed out: "In order to straighten out present boundaries, first areas to be annexed will be those contiguous with the city."
