Longwood PTO Hears Talk On Communism

By Donna Estes

Youth, the Target of Communism was the title of the address given by CFO George Felgar at the regular meeting of the Longwood Elementary PTO held Tuesday night at the school auditorium.

Felgar, who qualifies himself as a student of the subject, pointed out that there is little danger of adults being converted to Communism because they already have been educated in our way of life.

When replacement personnel is needed for the Communist Party, he said, students of higher education are most favored because they are young and impressionable enough so that the Communist Doctrine may be wholeheartedly received and believed.

He explained that very little can be done with this age group since they make most of their own decisions about life, using the background which they already possess.

He advised that parents can do something now about future decisions of the elementary school age child and recommended that parents encourage their children to have the good, clean habits such as regular church attendance, good personal hygiene, neatness, sobriety, ambition, courage and honesty.

Throughout his talk he gave examples of differences in the way Americans and Communists understand various terms. One example was the word "co-existence." He stated that to Americans co-existence means living peacefully with our Communist neighbors in the world while to the Communist the meaning changes. He compared a dog co-existing with a bone until the dog gets hungry and eats the bone, then the bone co-exists inside the dog.

Felgar's talk was well received by the attentive audience.

Immediately preceding the program, the business meeting of the PTO was conducted with Mrs. Joan Voskan, president, in charge.

STATE AND COUNTY questions before the electorate Nov. 5 were outlined in detail Thursday noon when the four men above requested some 200 persons to "carry the word" into the county seeking approval of the measures. From the left: G. E. Dail Jr., William H. Dial, Sen. Mack Cleveland Jr. and Douglas Stenstrom. Also at the speakers table were Mrs. Harriett Shawter (left), president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, and Mrs. William Reynolds, civic chairman of the Woman's Club.

Appeals Made For Three Amendments

Pleas to "carry the word" throughout Seminole County for the support of three state constitutional amendments and a county measure in the Nov. 5 election were made to more than 200 persons who attended a joint service club luncheon meeting Thursday noon at the Civic Center. Eleven service, civic and other organizations were represented at the meeting, hosted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to acquaint the public with "the necessity to have approval of these measures if Florida's economy is to continue to grow."

Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. voiced the plea for support of amendment No. 1 to the state constitution, providing for a change in the election date for governor and cabinet members. The change would provide for state elections in presidential election years. "With national parties predominantly controlling television time during presidential years," Cleveland stated, "our voters get little opportunity to become acquainted with the qualities and records of our candidates for state offices. This change would permit the state candidates to have more TV time and more space in the newspapers."

He also pointed out the state is turning more to the two-party system and "it is vital that we devote more time to state and local issues."

Stressing the estimate there will be 200,000 college students in the state by 1970, William H. Dial, Orlando, called for approval of amendment No. 2 to the state constitution, which will permit the state to issue bonds in the amount of $75 million for new construction of institutions of higher learning. He emphasized these bonds would be retired through taxes from utilities.

Dial, president of the Committee for the Florida Institute of Technology, remarked that Seminole County should be especially interested in the passage of this measure since this county is being considered for a new state university.

Approval of amendment No. 3 to the state constitution is of vital interest, also, to Seminole County, it was pointed out by G. E. Dail Jr., West Palm Beach, since it will mean recreational improve-

The transoceanic phase of Exercise "Big Lift" ended at 10:05 p.m. (4:05 p.m. EST) Thursday when a big C130 turbo-prop troop transport set down under glaring floodlights at Sembach Air Base, 35 miles southwest of here.

Be Not Afraid

There is a story about a little boy who was supposed to memorize a Bible verse for roll call at his Sunday School Class. When the teacher called the names of the pupils they were supposed to reply with the verse of Scripture rather than indicating their presence by the well known "here." The young fellow found in his Bible the words, "It is I, be not afraid."

These words seemed to be appropriate so he said them over and over until he felt sure that he would have no trouble in reciting when his name was called. Finally Sunday morning arrived and he dressed in his best. The more he thought about having to repeat these words the more he had "stage fright," so by the time the teacher called his name he was nervous, indeed. When he heard his name ring out he replied in a high pitched, nervous voice, "It is I and I'm scared to death." This little boy knew that the Bible had some very fine promises concerning fear and he had even engraved them on his memory but still when the time of crisis came he failed to respond to the truth.

Of course, we know that the above illustration is not perfect since some very fine Christians get extremely nervous when they try to do anything in public and some of these, who seemed to be most composed, are not the best Christians, but the point is that we do know that God gives many and great promises about facing life unafraid, yet we continue on our way with the plague of fear gnawing away at us in a most destructive way.

We can rest assured that fear is not merely a modern plague. The Bible shows us that from the very beginning of its recordings truth demanded that fear be shown as an ingredient of the lives of the people spoken of there.

Turn the pages further and see Jacob afraid of meeting his brother Esau; Elijah, who had faced the many prophets of Baal, turning to flight when he thought of the prospect of facing Jezebel; the apostles deserting their blessed Saviour at the cross; and on and on we could go.

We readily admit that there is the right kind of fear. It could be said that this fear is a gift of God. I write now of the fear that prevents the child from running in front of a car; that cautions the young man from plunging headlong into water without knowing its depth; that speaks to the adult concerning drinking that threatens his home, health, and business. Fear can be fine when used correctly, but so often it is used beyond this point until it becomes a destructive force.

The unhealthy fear can be defeated to a great degree, but how well we know that it is impossible if man alone is included in the fight. We now have material blessings beyond compare in America and yet we have fear galore. Our medical science has progressed phenomenally, our education systems are making great advances, our food supply is so abundant that surplus continues to pile up and yet so many people who are in a position to know that there was never so much fear before.

There is One Source to Whom we may go and only one. If we are willing to look to God, while trusting Him implicitly and obeying Him to the best of our ability, then we can defeat our fears.

As we go to Him we must remember that He demands total faith and loyalty. How well this is illustrated by the incident of Jesus walking on the water and approaching the boat in which Peter was riding. Peter wanted to walk to Christ and with His permission he set out on his liquid path to find that he was supported at first, only to sink a few steps later. Why did he walk at one time and sink at another? The difference was in his faith! As long as Peter's eyes were fastened on Christ he walked but when he became distracted by the angry wind and waves he sank.

If you would walk the perilous path of life aright look unto Him who is able to sustain you. Keep your eyes upon Him in faith and you will find your fear dispelled and the sinking path made firm. This is the only way. He is the only remedy for fear.

The Missionary Society is the parent organization whose chief aim is to promote missions through prayer, a study of the needs, missionary education of the children, and sponsoring church wide seasons of prayer and offering for Foreign, Home, State, and local missions.

Auxiliary organizations begin with the Sunbeam Band for both boys and girls, ages four through eight. Mrs. George McGowen is Sunbeam director and she is assisted by a group of Sunbeam Leaders. The children are divided into four age groups.

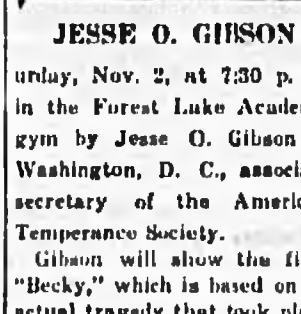

When children reach nine years of age the girls are promoted to Girls Auxiliary and remain a part of the WMU, while the boys become members of the Royal Ambassadors, under the sponsorship of the Brotherhood of the church. Annual UNICEF Drive Set In Casselberry

By Jane Casselberry
The boys and girls of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church Sunday School will "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF again this Halloween according to Mrs. Nelson Bunnell, WSCS secretary of children's work.

Even though the youngsters at the door may wear masks of witches and devils they will be angels in disguise if they are carrying the orange and black official collection container with the UNICEF symbol of the mother and child.

Only such good-will ambassadors are authorized to accept pennies for the Children's Fund.

The children will collect contributions in their neighborhood between 5-7 p. m. on Thursday, Oct. 31 and will bring their coins to the church at 7 o'clock to be counted.

Last fall more than $2 million was raised by some 3.5 million American youngsters in about 12,000 communities.

Each dollar contributed to UNICEF can mean a daily glass of milk for 17 hungry children for a whole month or vaccine to protect 100 children from tuberculosis.

Ebenezer Methodist To Work For UNICEF

A special film, "Assignment Children," featuring the work of UNICEF as seen by comedian Danny Kaye on a world tour, will be shown Sunday at Ebenezer Methodist Church following a covered dish supper for members and friends at 6:30 p. m.

The film tells the story of how the comedian brings laughter and gaiety to thousands of children throughout Asia and how he discovers miraculous changes in their spirit and health through medicine from UNICEF and laughter at his antics. The film, especially good for children, will be equally enjoyed by the adults.

All are invited to participate in the covered dish supper as well as the film showing. Those who cannot attend the supper may see the film at 7:30 p. m.

Next Thursday, Halloween Night, children of the church's Junior, Junior High and Senior youth groups will Trick or Treat for UNICEF. As they go from door to door collecting coins for this worthy cause they will be a part of more than 3 million young people in 12,000 communities who devote their fun on Oct. 31 to saving lives of needy children around the world.

Last year the efforts of these 3 million youths resulted in a gift of more than $2 million. The UNICEF program is sponsored locally in all 50 states.

The United Nations Children's Fund, UNICEF, gives protection and treatment to millions of children in its disease control programs. It equips health centers, clinics, maternity hospitals and ships. It provides vitamins and skim milk and helps countries to build milk plants. Equipment and funds also are provided to train child health and welfare workers; nutrition experts and teachers.

As an example of what a single contribution can do, one cent buys five glasses of milk; five cents buys vaccine to protect five children from tuberculosis; 25 cents buys 125 vitamin tablets and $1 buys penicillin to cure 20 children from yaws, a dreaded disease consisting of sores all over the body.

Millions of children and mothers in more than 100 countries currently benefit. Ebenezer asks each individual to join the congregation Sunday night for the supper and film and to give generously when the young people come collecting next Thursday night.

Hear Out Mme. Nhu

Distasteful as it may be to many Americans, Mme. Nhu of Viet Nam must be allowed to speak her piece against America in America and be treated with complete courtesy as she does it.

Anything else would be petty, rude and unworthy of our stature. This country is dedicated to freedom of speech. We have stretched that right to include a gentleman named Khrushchev, who on occasion has indicated he is not one of America's foremost fans.

We should extend the same privilege to Mme. Nhu, even though we know she will combine intelligence, charm, beauty and boldness to present her case far better than it deserves to be presented.

Let her speak, and let the world judge whether her views on America and Americans are sound.

We have every reason to be confident of the verdict.

To Wax Romantic

Fall is such a flamboyant and exhilarating time of year that it's strange to realize that its bright colors are the result of a negative process.

The variegated hues that transform deciduous trees into silent flames, rather than being daubed on by some "master painter from the faraway hills," are caused by the end of the trees' production of chlorophyll.

As the green of chlorophyll disappears, the colors of the carotinoids come to the fore. There are two carotinoids, or pigments. One, called "carotin," is responsible for the dominant orange. The other, "xanthophyll," produces yellow.

The reds and purples spattered throughout the autumn foliage are caused by the anthocyanins, which form in the cell sap. In some plants, such as beets, they are visible throughout the season. In others, such as apples, the anthocyanins appear at ripening time.

Combine these newly released oranges, yellows, reds and purples with the remaining greens and the browns of dying leaf cells and you have . . . autumn.

Dick West Says

Baby Only Half Acting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The youngest actor in a continuing series on television is four-month-old Matthew Smith, who plays the part of a baby on the Joey Bishop show.

If you have ever seen this program you have probably said to yourself "that kid is one fine actor. Real Emmy Award stuff."

The truth is, however, that he is only half acting.

When he is playing the part of Joey Bishop's son he is acting. But when he is playing the part of Joey Bishop's wife's son he is not acting.

This is because the part of Joey Bishop's wife is played by Abby Dalton, who is the baby's real mother.

Miss Dalton, or Mrs. Smith, was here on a promotion tour this week and I asked her if using her own baby on the show came under the heading of "type casting."

Miss Dalton replied that she recommended her baby for the part because it was a good way to handle the home movie problem.

She has made arrangements for the studio to let her have a print of all of the film in which the baby appears, including the footage not actually used on the show.

This gives her better home movies than she would be able to make herself.

A lot of parents might not relish the idea of having Joey Bishop lurking in the background of their baby's baby pictures, but Miss Dalton said she didn't mind.

Another advantage of using her own baby is that his aunts and uncles in other parts of the country can watch his development merely by tuning in the program.

On the days that the script calls for a shot of the baby, he is taken to the Department of Education in Los Angeles for a physical examination.

If found in good health, he receives a work permit that is valid for two hours.

A welfare worker holds a stopwatch to make certain he doesn't work overtime. The baby is not a member of the actors' union, but he does have a Social Security card.

A white-haired, fragile-looking country doctor has taken over the job of proving that Argentina can exist as a practicing democracy.

He is Dr. Arturo Umberto Illia, under whom Argentina returned to constitutional government. Illia's chances for success will depend in large part upon the control he is able to exercise over Argentina's military factions on the one hand and the followers of former dictator Juan D. Peron on the other.

For the more than 10 years since Peron's fall, the two groups have kept the nation in an unceasing state of turmoil.

From the vantage point of a recent visit to Argentina, it is possible to predict that President Illia is in for some lumps at home and at least occasional clashes with the United States.

For one thing, he has been accused of being a rabid Argentine nationalist. He already has announced plans to annul the foreign oil contracts which helped to make Argentina self-supporting in oil.

These will be taken over by the state-owned Y.P.F. Oil Company.

He also has been accused of being pro-Communist. This he denies, but he believes Communists should have the right to organize and express their views.

The Venezuelan regime of President Romulo Betancourt held similar views in its earlier days and learned the hard way that Communist expression of views comes in violence and in unceasing conspiracy against existing order.

The view is certain to bring him into conflict with Argentina's military and suggests a Cuba which will not endear him to the United States.

The enormity of his task at home is illustrated by the fact that Argentina's deficit this year will run to around $200 million, that economic development is at a standstill and that unemployment in a country of around 21 million now is estimated at around the million mark.

The two sorest spots in the Argentine economy are the state-owned railroads and the Y.P.F. Oil Company.

Among other things, Illia has promised "efficient administration" of the railroads a task no Argentine leader before him has been able to accomplish.

Like the Y.P.F. company, the railroads are heavily feather-bedded. The railroad deficit this year will just about equal the national deficit of around $200 million.

Illia says he has a program to restore full employment within a year and at the same time protect wages and currency from inflation.

He will need to be the miracle man of the year.

BRUCE SHANKS, BUFFALO EVENING NEWS

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Terry is at the educational crossroads, for he wonders whether to work toward his M. D. degree or the D. D. S. Both are very worthy fields of medicine but one is now being overshadowed by big buildings called hospitals so scrapping this case or use it in high school "Career Week" program.

CASE Q-483: Terry F., aged 20, is at the crossroads. "Dr. Crane," he began, "I am debating whether to enter medical school or dental college."

"Since I understand you are not only a physician but have also been addressing the state dental associations for 25 years, could you please give me the pros and cons."

"For I need some vocational guidance advice at once."

The physician and the dental surgeon both are members of the big profession of medicine.

Both are doctors, for the popular term "doctor" does not refer just to a medic but to anybody with a doctor's degree!

The physician, however, is deluged with "worry warts" whereas the dental surgeon's patients usually have real organic complaints.

For example, each week an estimated 20,000,000 "patients" flock into the offices of American physicians.

But 10,000,000 (50 per cent of them) have no diagnosable physical ailments whatsoever!

They are "worry warts" or neurotics who just imagine they are sick.

The physician is also more likely to be called out at night or when he is attending a banquet or the theater.

For the dental surgeon usually keeps regular office hours and doesn't get his sleep broken by frantic night calls.

The physician may have enjoyed slightly more prestige in past generations, partly because of the dramatized mystery of the hospital operating room.

It is still being spotlighted by the various medical TV shows.

But this hospital picture of the physician is now booming to his future disaster.

For the modern physician is being submerged beneath the "image" of the hospital.

So he is psychologically being demoted and relegated to a lower echelon rating.

Patients now tend to look on the modern medic as a hospital assistant who rates slightly above the lab technician.

The dental surgeon, however, still runs the show. He is top man when he performs his delicate oral surgery, for he does his work in his own private office.

Patients thus come to see him in his private office, and not in a glorified public building called a hospital.

The "image" of the dental surgeon has also received a terrific boost because of the unselfish work of dental surgeons in pushing the fluoridation of drinking water.

And dental colleges are taking the lead in biochemical research, including the analysis of the 44 trace chemicals in sea water.

If you young men like Terry want to remain independent doctors in private practice, without being regimented by hospitals, then dentistry offers more freedom than modern medical practice.

And you will not be wasting half your time on mere "worry warts" who wouldn't need doctors if they'd spend more time filling a pew in church than a bed in a local hospital!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Moment Of Truth

The moment of truth came for the Kennedy administration when Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy appeared on Capitol Hill to plead for a softening of proposed civil rights legislation.

Republicans and Democrats alike have been for years playing politics with civil rights. The prize has been the numerous Negro vote concentrated in the cities of our industrial States. Without that vote in 1960 John F. Kennedy certainly would not have been elected president of the United States.

The acknowledged importance of the Negro bloc vote in the great cities has persuaded the major political parties to make impossible promises in their presidential platform statements of policy.

These promises are not limited to Negroes but extend to all areas of interest. It has come to be that the Republican and Democratic presidential platforms are commonly drafted on a something-for-everyone basis to the disadvantage of the generality of voters.

Some of these promises are impossible of fulfillment. The difference between promise and performance in American politics is so great as to induce speculation as to what would happen if the voters became aware of the hypocrisy being practiced upon them and moved to punish the practitioners.

There would be some openings in the top leadership of both political parties if that happy solution were had to the problem posed by this widespread political dishonesty.

The morality of American politics is about what used to be the morality of American finance in Wall Street and among the big banks. That was before Judge Ferdinand Pecora and a U. S. Senate committee in the early 1930s focused public attention on the terms in the financial structure.

Out of that investigation came a truth-in-securities act which requires that promises made in furthering the sale of securities be matched thereafter by performance. If the seller makes a dishonest promise, the chances are pretty good that he will go to jail.

Perhaps we need a truth-in-politics act. A better way, however, would be to reform our political convention system. The conventions now name presidential tickets and write platforms.

In the furious competition for delegate votes and the presidential nomination, candidates are inclined to endorse any kind of phony platform promise, however impossible of fulfillment.

Candidates before and after the nomination endorse whole platforms without really knowing what is in them. This appears to have happened in 1960. The gullible voters accept the promises as legitimate and thus presidents are elected.

None of the test Bobby Kennedy applied this week to pending civil rights legislation was applied in 1960 to the civil rights section of the Democratic platform. Small wonder that Negroes expect more in the civil rights bill than they are likely to get.

The need reform would be this:
 Let the conventions nominate tickets and adjourn. Thereafter, let the party nominees and a small committee of their choice draft the party platform.

Lake Monroe Jottings

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

Hello there. The Dorris Norwood family of Gainesville spent last weekend here with his mother Mrs. S. E. Norwood and other relatives. Happy Birthday to Danny Lee. Danny is one of those good players on the Junior Varsity High School team. Also a happy birthday to Marlene Dorn, young daughter of Bob and Opal Dorn. Speaking of Opal, she will be one of the new 4-H girl leaders. The girls will meet on Wednesdays (first year girls) and Thursdays (second year girls). Vallie Wilson will have charge of the first year group. Opal and I attended the 4-H covered dish supper and program at the Center last Saturday. Glad to see Miss Ruth Milton from the state office there also. J. C. Hutchison from the County Commissioners. Real nice crowd there to take part in the program. Happy birthday to Jim Carroll. Sorry to hear that Mrs. Morris (Betty Jean) Metts continues ill at the local hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery. Eb Hunter has been on the ailing list too. The Upala Presbyterian Church will have a fish fry supper on Nov. 2 at the Educational Building. Supper will start at 6:30 p. m. on till 9 p. m. Everyone welcome. The Seminole County Fair will be here shortly. I think it will be a real nice one this year. Monroe is planning on a community exhibit. Plan to see it. Received a nice letter from Miss Arie Mann. It was a pleasure to "do a story" on such a nice person. Miss Arie is the popular custodian of the Monroe School. Alvin and Marie Hittel spent last weekend in Miami. Hope they saw Anna Belle Kinard while down there. Robert and Betty Mann have purchased the W. H. Almond home across from the post office. The Almonds are planning to build a home in Orange Park, near Jacksonville. Plan to attend the Halloween Carnival that the Wilson school PTO is sponsoring this Saturday evening at the school in Paola. Herbert Muse tells me that they will have a big variety of games, fish pond and just every thing that goes with a carnival. I understand that it starts at 5 o'clock on Saturday. Go out and enjoy it. The Bill Vincent Juniors are at last in their new home out this way. Bill is the Herold photographer. Notice a new home going up on the west end of Vihlen Road also. Go out tonight and see the high school football game. They will play Winter Park. Our thought this week: The person who honestly tries can never be counted a complete failure.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When I read your column every day, it reminds me of a biography a young man once wrote: "Socrates was a great man. He gave people advice. They poisoned him." Please, Dear Abby, be careful.

DEAR COOKIE: Thank you. Don't worry. I am not that great.

DEAR ABBY: We moved to a new neighborhood ten months ago and my wife still drives our 13-year-old son back to the old neighborhood to play with his friends. There are plenty of nice kids his age in our neighborhood, but he refuses to make friends with any of them. He stalked for three months after we moved, trying to punish his mother and me. Then she gave in and started driving him back there five and six times a week. I don't mind the gas or even the time my wife spends hauling the boy back and forth (10 miles round trip). I just think it's wrong, but I can't convince her. She says she doesn't mind the drive and, besides, he is our only child and she wants him to have a "happy" childhood. Will you please try to get through to her?

DEAR DAD: It's my guess that Mamma decided it was easier to drive Billy back to his pals than to put up with his whining, nagging and sulking. It's the boy's loss, because one day he will have to face the challenge of meeting a new situation head-on, and adjusting to it. Mamma would be smart to worry less about Billy's "happy" childhood, and concentrate more on his "happy" manhood, which is just around the corner.

CONFIDENTIAL TO KEITH IN EMERSON: I don't object to offering treats to small children who dress in costumes and ring my bell at Halloween. But when hordes of sack-carrying young people, ranging in ages from 10 to 20, come pounding at my door demanding that I either contribute to their loot or suffer the consequences in property damage, the picture changes. Tricks or treats are based on the principle of demand and threat. It is organized racketeering. I disapprove of paying a bribe to keep mischief-makers from turning over my garbage can or soaping my windows. Every thinking citizen and every police force in the nation is fed up to here with the menace of Halloween.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

"My husband and I still love each other after 10 years of marriage, a wife writes. "But our daily life has become uninteresting and dull to me and, I suspect, to him, too. Does this happen to most couples who have been married a long time or are we to blame for the lack of fun in our life together?"

You're right on both counts. Many couples have let their lives fall into a pattern of dull "sameness" and that's what you have done. To keep married companionship from growing dull takes considerable enterprise and planning. Just going along taking the easiest course usually lands a married couple in a rut.

One evening is like another. One week is like another week, and so on, until finally one year is so much like the last that life has lost its zest. It's usually the wife's job to see to it that a marriage doesn't drift into so much sameness. Men want companionship and gaiety and fun in marriage, but most of them don't do much on their own to further it. If the marriage is going to include such stimulating experiences as a shared hobby, an interesting and varied group of friends, frequent entertaining at home, and new experiences, it's usually up to the wife to promote them. And she has to be a good promoter, with enough enthusiasm of her own to catch her husband's interest. Remember — people don't just fall into interesting lives. They make them interesting.

It's usually the wife's job to see to it that a marriage doesn't drift into so much sameness. Men want companionship and gaiety and fun in marriage, but most of

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Sometimes high cards may prove to be an embarrassment of riches.

East looked at his fine hand and opened one diamond winding up with a nice profit. It came as quite a shock to find that his opponents were in a heart game before the bidding got back to him. East wanted to compete further, but decided that discretion was the best strategy and passed.

West opened the deuce of diamonds and East was in the lead with the king. He thought a while or at least paused because if he had really thought he might have come up with the winning defense. Finally he led his singleton trump. South won with the ace and played two more rounds of trumps. Then he led the ten of clubs and it was all over but the mopping up. South had to lose two club tricks, but that was Eventually he was able to discard two spades and a diamond on dummy's long clubs and to ruff his other diamond with dummy's last trump. Had East really thought before leading to trick two he could have defeated the contract. He would have seen the club danger and led a spade up to dummy's ace-queen. Then he would have been able to lead a second spade before the clubs were set up and would have made a spade trick. Where did the embarrassment of riches come in? Had East held queen-jack-ten of spades he would have had no trouble finding the spade shift. The king was his undoing.

Navy Mom Honored At Party

A grateful group of Sanford-based Navy men Friday night gave a surprise birthday party for the public-spirited lady they all warmly call "Mom."

She is Mrs. Carolyn C. Higgins, director of the local United Services Organization (USO) club and counselor and maternal spirit alike to countless Navy and Marine Corps personnel who have been stationed here since 1952.

Recently a group of 12 men were tipped off that Mom was about to celebrate her 47th birthday. They decided the day must not pass unnoticed. Using resourcefulness that would do justice to the best traditions of the Navy, they obtained a cake complete with the appropriate decorations. Every birthday party must have a cake.

But birthdays are usually acknowledged by gifts, too, particularly when they are celebrated by one who has given so generously of her own special brand of gifts. To fill this need, the "steering committee" pitched in and came up with gifts befitting their "Mom": a blue silk robe, a pair of shoes and some perfume.

Friday Mrs. Higgins arrived at the club to set up usual Friday night activities. About 8 p. m. she was sidetracked into an adjoining room by one of the club's junior volunteers under the pretense of "discussing a problem."

When she returned she was greeted by a resounding "Happy Birthday" from the nearly 50 persons in attendance.

They presented her with their gifts and wheeled out one of the biggest birthday cakes any mother ever received. The mixed exclamations and look of amazement on the celebrant's face left no doubt that the surprise had been successful.

"I was overwhelmed," Mrs. Higgins said later. And according to most young servicemen in the community, it is she who makes the USO the favorite spot it is for so many.

AZALEA CIRCLE

The George Shipp home was the scene of Azalea Garden Circle's first meeting of the season last Thursday evening. Mrs. J. P. Cullen presided as no permanent chairman has been named.

The president's message (written by Mrs. D. K. Dorman) was read and copies distributed to members. Year books and membership cards were also given each member present.

Mrs. Shipp was asked to place an autumnal arrangement in the waiting room of the local hospital on Saturday, Nov. 2.

At the persistent urging of her fellow members, Mrs. Roy Tillis consented to serve as permanent chairman, giving the circle the following slate of officers: president, Mrs. Roy Boyd; vice president, Mrs. Roy Boyd; secretary, Mrs. Dempsey Carnes, and treasurer, Mrs. Porter Lansing.

Rooms of the Shipp home were open en suite for the occasion. Magnolia bougainsvillea in dark green urns were placed beside the front entrance and a low basket of loquat foliage on a small console table. Golden daisies in a brown earthenware tea-pot adorned the coffee table adding a gay touch of color to the charming living room. The round dining table was overlaid with an ivory crocheted cloth and centered with a silver basket of fruit. Mrs. Henry McLaughlin Jr. assisted the hostess, serving tiny party sandwiches and cakes with coffee to the 12 members present.

Home Club Hears Nutrition Program

Guests at Tuesday night's meeting of the Bear Lake Home Demonstration Club were Mrs. Charlotte Whitmore, food nutritionist for the Seminole County school system, and Miss Myrtle Wilson, home demonstration agent.

The group learned many interesting facts concerning energy needs and caloric counts for better nutrition.

Mrs. Whitmore explained how many calories are needed daily by persons in each of the three classifications, sedentary, active and very active.

She advised that anyone with a sincere desire to lose weight can change eating habits and explained how "crash diets" can deprive one of precious nutrient needs.

Miss Wilson distributed pamphlets on low caloric diets and caloric charts and counts.

Mrs. Raymond Jackson, president, conducted the business meeting during which Mrs. Russell Loomis reported on the recent County Council meeting held at the Home Demonstration Center in Sanford.

The club made plans to provide cookies for the Christmas Party to be held Dec. 6 at the Center.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jackson, hostess, at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Loomis, Bear Lake Road, with Mrs. Alan Wentworth as co-hostess.

Catholic Women Attend Deanery

Twenty-five members of the All Souls Catholic Women's Club represented their organization at the fall meeting of the Orlando Central Deanery of St. Augustine Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, which was held at St. Peter's in DeLand this week.

The activities began with Mass and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 9 a.m. in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church. Rev. Patrick Malone, pastor of St. Peter's was the celebrant at Mass and Benediction.

After a light breakfast at the Parish Hall, served by the ladies of St. Peter's Altar and Rosary Guild, the group gathered at the Elk's Club for the business meeting and luncheon.

Rev. Irving Nugent, of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Daytona Beach, was the guest speaker. He gave an inspiring talk on "Catholic Education."

All the ladies were inspired by the day's activities and will be able to do bigger and better things in their parish affiliation for having attended this beneficial meeting.

JACARANDA CIRCLE

Jacaranda Garden Circle held the first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. C. A. Anderson Jr., with Mrs. H. E. McSwain as co-hostess. The hostesses used the Halloween theme throughout the living and dining areas.

The business session was presided over by the new president, Mrs. Auburn Reector. She reviewed the calendar of events for the coming year.

Two new members were welcomed at this meeting. They were Mrs. Sadie Berry and Mrs. W. L. Roche. Other members attending were: Mmes W. B. Brinson, T. R. Butts, Irving Pryor, J. G. David, H. E. "Irma" Hilarious Hit

The highly hilarious "Irma la Douce," starring Shirley MacLaine and Jack Lemmon, will run Sunday through Tuesday at Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

Co-featured will be the color film, "The Second Greatest Sex," starring Jeanne Crain.

The double feature for Wednesday and Thursday will be "Fort Dobbs," starring Clint Walker, the "Cheyenne" of TV fame, and "Oceans 11," in color and starring Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Peter Lawford and Sammy Davis.

Triple feature for Friday and Saturday, Nov. 1-2, will be "Cole Younger, Funfighter," starring Frank Lovejoy; "Lover Come Back," with Rock Hudson and Doris Day, and "Come September," starring Rock Hudson and Sandra Dee. All are in color.

Straight from sensational long runs of the stages of Paris, London and New York, to the screen of the Movieland Drive-In comes the much-heralded "Irma la Douce," in Technicolor and Panavision, and from the hands of Hollywood's two most successful exponent of the light touch and tongue-in-cheek school of motion picture production.

Meaning it was produced and directed by Billy Wilder from a script prepared by Wilder and I. A. L. Diamond for the Mirisch Company and for United Artists Release. Sound familiar? It should! Those are the same credits which graced the opening frames for those recent screen gems, "Love In The Afternoon," "Some Like It Hot," "The Apartment" and "One, Two, Three."

"The Apartment," it will be recalled, was an Academy Award winner, and its cast was headed by Jack Lemmon and Shirley MacLaine.

And you know what? Jack and Shirley lead the cast in "Irma la Douce," too!

She as a—well, a lady of the evening in a less fashionable neighborhood of Paris, and he as a policeman who leads a raid on her premises, winds up by getting fired for it, and then falling in love with and marrying her.

SHIRLEY MacLaine as the Irma of "Irma la Douce," Mirisch Company's Technicolor-Panavision comedy for United Artists release, opening Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre. She shares stellar honors with Jack Lemmon.

There is no doubt about it, Halloween is all but here. Next week in fact. The parties are beginning this weekend though, so it should be a good week. Start now by enjoying yourself at one of these exceptional places...

Halloween is a children's holiday with the apple bobbing and jack-o-lanterns and all, and to make it all the more fun for them, why not take them out to dinner. Easier on mom too, and real easy on the budget. The place to go for this treat is the Painted Horse. Even though the children will get a kick out of it, the fine food will delight the grownups as well. The Swedish decorations in the Painted Horse are equally pleasing to young and old alike.

"For Love Or Money" At Ritz

When Mitzi Gaynor goes to work, down comes a familiar studio sign—"Closed Set."

As befits an effervescent young beauty who's also a top talent in nightclubs, Mitzi is at her galvanic best before an audience—the larger the better.

From the day she reported to Universal to begin her starring role with Kirk Douglas and Gig Young in the romantic comedy "For Love Or Money," running Sunday through Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre, the crowds began to congregate, and Mitzi couldn't have been happier.

She feels that, at least for herself, it's restrictive to try to act in a vacuum, and that the presence of an audience makes it easier for her to turn on the histrionics.

Mitzi believes that audiences are especially important to an actor in the making of a comedy, such as "For Love Or Money" since timing is the element most basic for proper effect, and spectators play their part in keeping performers constantly aware of this ingredient.

One reason spectators are barred from most sets is that they frequently interfere with production by injecting off-stage noises on the sensitive sound track.

There are so many belly-laughs in "For Love Or Money" that prior to each audience director Michael Gordon had an assistant remind viewers they are to make no demonstration of any kind until the end of the scene.

Mitzi plays the part of one of three daughters — (the others are Julie Newman and Leslie Parrish)—of Thelma Ritter, a wealthy widow of assorted eccentricities.

Seminoles Face Winter Park; JVs End Perfect Season

By Julian Stenstrom
Herald Sports Editor

"We'll face the most aggressive ball club we've met so far this season," declared Head Coach Jim Piggott of the Seminole High School's Seminoles who run into a fired up cage of Winter Park Wildcats tonight at Sanford's Memorial Stadium.

"The only way to beat an aggressive ball club is to be more aggressive than they are," Piggott continued. "So, that's what we're planning for the Parkers."

Winter Park, fresh from their victory last Friday over Orlando Edgewater, is coming to Sanford, according to Piggott, with intentions of scalping the Seminoles.

"However," Piggott explained, "we'll be ready for them. Backfield Coach Dick Williams has been working on the offensive timing in an effort to regain our sharpness, and Line Coach Jim McCoy has been working with the line on a few blocking assignments changes. Also, we've been doing quite a bit of work to sharpen our fakes and handoffs.

The Seminoles, realizing that this will be their toughest opponent of the season to date, have devised a special defense for Winter Park's outstanding end, Chris Malika. However, there is a possibility that Malika won't be in there for the Parkers.

On the other hand, the Wildcats will have an outstanding back — 175-pound Johnny Sias — in action for the first time in several weeks. Sias, a fine football player according to Piggott, has been sidelined with injuries.

"All three of our units," Piggott said, "will be ready. We'll have our usual pair of offensive clubs — the Black Rams and the Phantoms — in shape for the Parkers as well as our defensive unit — the Headhunters.

Piggott's number one offensive team — the "Black Rams" — will include ends Frank Noel and Barry Barks, tackles Jim Touhy and Dale Alexander, guards Joe Purdy and Steve Clark, center Dan McCall, quarterback Ron Hinson, halfbacks Buddy Lawson and Earl Black, and fullback Lee Sparkman.

The Tribe's number two offensive unit — the Phantoms — will include ends Mike Gray and Mike Fordham, tackles Dave Howe and Earnie Steele, guards Brad Pruden and Steve Harris, center Steve Balint, quarterback Al Boniface, halfbacks Chuck Scott and Eddie Kosky, and fullback Lloyd Freeman.

Meanwhile, the defensive unit — the Headhunters — have given up 26 points in the four games they've worked this season. Apopka and Seabreeze were held scoreless while Titusville and Orlando Colonial both racked up 13 points each against the locals.

The Headhunters will include ends Larry Watson and Billy Higgins, tackles Mike Gray and Henry Finch, middle guard Dave Gollhofer, outside linebackers Joe Farless, Buddy Burton and Steve Harris, Bill Kuykendall and Johnny Ray will be the defensive halfbacks and Lawson will again double up and operate defensively from the safety spot in place of the injured Tillis.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

"I wonder if readers of The Herald can help in a search for some obsolete baseball books," writes an old baseball fan, William Pucker of Guttenberg, N. Y.

"I am trying," Pucker continues, "to fill out a set of the Reach and Spalding Official Baseball Guides. These are annual baseball record books which were published yearly from 1887 to 1941 and are familiar to the old timers among your subscribers.

"The war brought an end to publication of the Guides making it a problem to complete the set, hence this appeal. Since the Sanford area has always been hot to baseball some of these books may be in the hands of your readers who might wish to dispose of them.

"Many Guides are just lying in the way around the house or are stored in the attic and cellars of veteran baseball buffs. I will gladly reimburse them for any copies and would be very grateful if they will write and let me know which books they have."

We don't know just exactly how Pucker found out that Sanford is full of old "baseball buffs" as he calls them, but he's right.

We wouldn't be surprised if some of The Herald's readers have an edition or two of the Guide and perhaps one or two of the copies that Pucker needs.

If you do, contact him by writing to him at 83 — 68th Street in Guttenberg, N. J. Or, if you wish, contact us and let us know.

It wasn't planned but a countywide pep rally took place Thursday morning in— of all places—Orange County. Don't believe it? Here's how it happened:

Science students from Sanford, Casselberry, Oviedo, and Longwood converged on the Exposition Park auditorium Thursday morning for the NASA's space exhibit. The tour is preceded by a lecture explaining NASA's progress to date in the space field.

However, with the auditorium jammed with hundreds of youngsters a mixup in time schedules resulted in NASA's personnel not being ready.

With more than an hour's wait on their hands Seminole High's cheer leaders — and in their cheer leader outfits, too — took charge. They were followed by the cheer leaders of other schools and before it was over the roof was raised!

Two unbeaten ball clubs will clash tonight in Miami's Orange Bowl. They're the Miami Frosh and the Baby Gators of Florida. Both have chalked up a pair of wins each this season. Miami won last season's contest, 15 to 14. So this one tonight looms as a good one.

We've read about aerial circus before but nothing like what happened last week in the Miami-Georgia encounter. George Mira and Larry Rakestraw between them threw 82 passes and each completed 25. The miracle of it all was that there were only two interceptions, one by each team. Mira's 4th and last pass was intercepted when it was tipped by one player in the hands of another.

By the way, speaking of Mira, the next time he completes a forward pass for Miami it will be his 300th in collegiate competition. His present total is 299 connections for 3,709 yards. That's more than two miles!

Riser Tops In Kickoff Returns

Sanford's Butch Riser is leading the Florida State University Baby Seminoles in kickoff returns, according to statistics issued by the University's publicity department.

Riser, a product of Seminole High, is primarily a defensive halfback. However, on kickoff returns the Sanford youth has returned two for a total of 39 yards, or 19.5 yards per attempt.

The Seminoles have dropped their first two outings — the first to the Baby Gators of Florida and the other to the Baby Hurricanes of Miami.

Next Thursday night the Baby Seminoles go into action for the third time this season — against the Southern Mississippi Frosh in a Pensacola engagement.

OCALA'S BRUCE GRICE (on ground at right of No. 63) goes down after carrying ball for short yardage Thursday night in game with Seminole Jayvee team.

Ocala Beaten 12 To 0 In Final Seconds

Undefeated and unscored upon during the entire 1963 gridiron campaign! That's the record established by the Seminole High School Jayvees as they wrapped up a last-second victory Thursday night over the Baby Wildcats of Ocala.

The final score was 12 to 0. It was the Seminole Jayvee club's 28th consecutive victory without a defeat.

And last second it was — even though the locals did score twice, while the Wildcats joined five other Seminoles opponents this season in failing to penetrate the Baby Warrior defense deep enough to score.

With two minutes and 11 seconds remaining in what appeared to be another scoreless contest, quarterback Bernie Barbour hit Rick Walstrom who completed the distance for a 44-yard touchdown pass play.

And with only 49 seconds left on the clock, fullback Sonny Mosser led down the tilt with a 17-yard haul around his own right end for the final marker.

From the opening whistle it was a defensive contest with neither club able to mount much of an offensive due to some rugged defensive play on the part of both outfits.

Much of the ball game was played in either middle-field or on Seminole's side of the 50-yard stripe since the locals chose on six or seven occasions to run on fourth down instead of going the punting route. On the other hand, the baby Wildcats used the punting situation to their advantage, kicking seven times and getting good yardage on each boot.

The locals were awaiting that one break in the ball game and it came — but almost too close to the final gun.

The little Seminoles posted seven first downs to four for the Wildcats. Sanford ran up a total of 123 yards on the ground while limiting Ocala to 44.

The Wildcats took the passing spotlight as far as completions were concerned. They went to the air 11 times and connected on seven tries while the Seminoles tried 11 and hit on four — but the big one was the 44-yard touchdown toss.

Seminole miscued twice and Ocala pounced on both of them while the locals were recovering Ocala's only fumble of the night.

This victory kept the percentage of wins against losses for the four Sanford football teams very high. They've won 17 games and lost only one.

Oviedo Travels To Clermont

By Joe Warden
Herald Sports Writer

Oviedo's hungry Lions traveled to Clermont tonight to tackle the versatile Highlanders, who are 3-2 for the season. The Lions, 1-3-1, are hoping to avenge their defeat by the hand of Eustis, the number one team in the Mid-Lakes Conference.

Clermont is a wide-open team which can pass and run. The Highlanders are also very fast and well conditioned, thus making it possible for them to avoid the fourth quarter fade-out.

Clermont runs from the double wing formation and is fond of the unbalanced line. The Highlanders also use the split end formation and flankers. Clermont is a dangerous passing team, which practices pin-point passing that has proved to be devastating to opposition.

The Highlanders will be directed by passing "whiz" Billy Westburg. Westburg is known not only for his passing ability but also for his ability to diversify the running plays. In the air Westburg is a threat, as he can pinpoint his passes to his receivers.

Clermont's running attack will be led by speedy Don Canova, the Highlander's 150 pound fullback, ranked the number nine scorer in Central Florida schools with 40 points. Canova is also a top man in the Highlander's defensive lineup in which he plays tackle.

Clermont's halfback positions will be filled by Olivinbaum and McGuire, both of whom are shifty, fast runners. Olivinbaum is quarterback Westburg's favorite target, and left-half McGuire is the fastest, most deceptive man in the Highlander's backfield.

Although Clermont has a well built offense, the Highlanders are lacking in proficiency as a defensive unit. Mickler (36) is one of the outstanding linebackers in the area and is expected to be a threat to Oviedo's offense game.

The hometown Lions are priming themselves eagerly, hoping to send Clermont down to their third straight defeat. The much improved Lions have been drilling in pass defense in hopes of penetrating the accurate passing arm of Westburg. Oviedo is also drilling in fundamentals, particularly passing, blocking, and running. The Lions also have been developing some new running plays which Oviedo hopes will prove effective against Clermont.

Speaking of last week's game, Oviedo coach Palmer reflected, "We played the ball game in halves, we're going to have to get together and play the whole game, if we hope to win. With our depth compared with Eustis' depth, we knew they were eventually going to wear us out."

Looking forward to tonight's game, Coach Palmer remarked, "They have a real good ball team.

Probable starting lineup for Oviedo is as follows: Belhorn RE, Colbert RT, Jacobs RG, Miller C, Arndt LG, Murphy LT, Fox LE, Courier QB, Ten Finners are in third place with 17 wins and 11 losses, 1FB.

Gators Meet Tough LSU In Homecoming

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—The Florida Gators and the Tigers of LSU, two injury-prone but resilient teams, clash in the top Southeastern Conference football game of the weekend Saturday before an expected capacity homecoming crowd.

Coach Charlie McClendon's Tigers sport an imposing 4-1 season's record — the only loss being 21-12 to Rice — are currently touted as underdogs... a situation which puzzles both McClendon and his opposite number, Ray Graves.

Injuries have robbed LSU of two backfield starters — quarterback Pat Screen and fullback Buddy Hamc — and also of guards Dave Strange and Don Ellen.

The only backfield player who has not been injured at one time or another this season is quarterback Billy Ezell. Ezell, who started against Kentucky last week, led his team to a 28-7 victory. McClendon expects another fine performance from Ezell and also from top halfback Danny LeBlanc who now ranks sixth in SEC rushing.

Florida will field a virtually unchanged starting line-up, although several players — including star fullback Larry Dupree — have been at less than top speed during practice this week. The situation was had enough for Coach Graves to call off all rough contact work in the hope his men would be ready to face the Tigers.

Starrless Packers Favored Over Colts

By United Press International

The absence of Bart Starr and the awesome presence of Jimmy Brown cast a vital influence Sunday on the future of the National Football League division races.

The champion Green Bay Packers, tied with the Chicago Bears for the Western Division lead, must go without Starr when they meet the Colts in Baltimore.

And the Cleveland Browns, with a 6-0 record in the east, can just about knock out the New York Giants' last championship hopes in Cleveland, if the amazing Mr. Brown generates another of his devastating rushing performances.

The Bears, meanwhile, return home following last Sunday's upset defeat at San Francisco and take on the injury-racked Philadelphia Eagles (2-3-1).

In other games, the Washington Redskins (2-4) are at home against the St. Louis Cardinals (4-2); the Pittsburgh Steelers (3-3-1) are host to the Dallas Cowboys (1-5); the Detroit Lions (2-4) entertain the Minnesota Vikings (2-4), while the Fortyniners and Rams, both of whom won their season's first game last week, clash in Los Angeles.

Here is the "line" on this Sunday's games: Green Bay 7 over Baltimore; Cleveland 15 over New York; Chicago 15 over Philadelphia; Pittsburgh 8 over Dallas; St. Louis 4 1/2 over Washington; Detroit 2 over Minnesota; and San Francisco-Los Angeles even.

The Green Bay-Baltimore game will be the first Starr will have missed since he won the Packers' quarterback job in 1959.

Starr, who broke a bone in his right hand against the Cardinals last Sunday will be replaced by John Roach, who has thrown only 23 passes in action during the three seasons he has played for the Packers.

Hurricanes Blow Away St. Cloud By 18-6 Score

With second stringer Halfback Brent Helms scoring all three touchdowns, South Seminole Junior High Hurricanes downed St. Cloud Junior High 18-6 Thursday evening at Lyman High field in Longwood.

It was even-all at 6-6 at halftime.

Helms ran 10 yards for South Seminole's first touchdown in the second quarter, three yards for the second TD in the third quarter and five yards for the third in the fourth quarter.

St. Cloud scored its only TD in the second quarter.

Fullback Jim Rubewright, a 186-pounder, carried the ball five times for an average of 11 yards gains on each run. SS's outstanding lineman was defensive end Paul Lambert.

The game also marked the first appearance of the 62-piece South Seminole band, under the direction of George Kirsten.

This was the Hurricanes' third victory in four games.

Yogi Berra Can Be All Business

NEW YORK (UPI) — Yogi Berra's of the new boss and whether they like it or not, New York Yankee players already are resigned to the fact he's no longer one of the boys.

Everyone from former teammate Joe DiMaggio on down seemed sure today the off-conical 38-year-old Yogi will tolerate no monkey business and will crack down anytime there is any need to do so.

"He's not the clown that some have made him out to be," said DiMag, who played on the same club as Berra for six seasons.

"The men will play for him. They like him. He'll get the most out of them. He'll do a good job."

WEEK END TOUR of HOMES in the Sanford - Seminole Area

Tour Of Homes Features New Designs

Unless Hurricane "Ginny" reverses her field and makes a rapid return, the weather this weekend should be fine for your tour of homes. Anything less than a hurricane has little effect on the home developments featured, since they have paved streets, curbs, and excellent drainage.

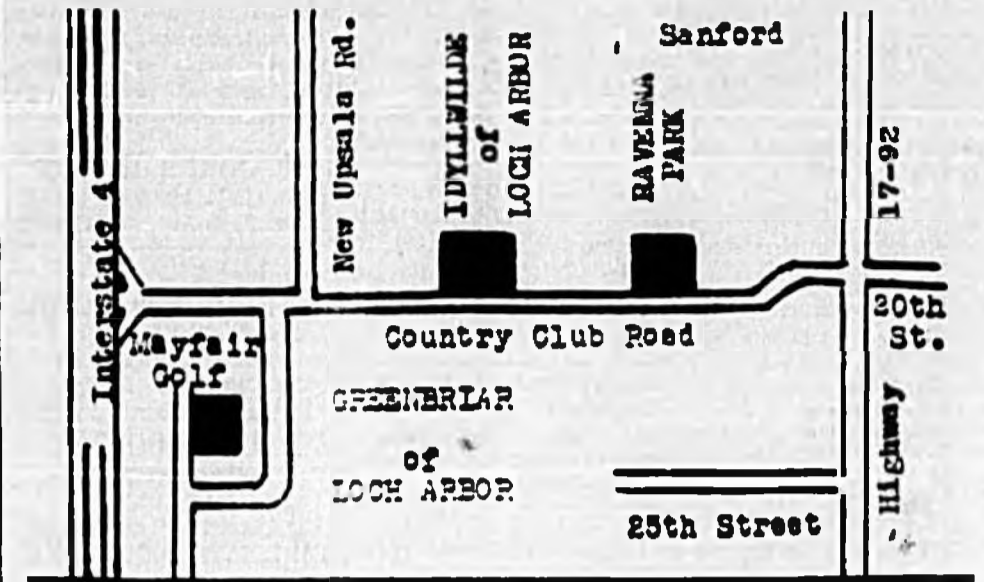

Today the black walnut kitchen cabinets are being installed in the four-bedroom, two-bath colonial home in Greenbriar of Loch Arbor. This, according to Byron Leach, of Kingswood Builders, is a sign that the construction is almost finished and ready for the final touch, landscaping. This roomy home has many convenience extras, such as double lavatories in the master bathroom.

Be sure to drive in at Ravenna Park. The new Third Section has homes for the average budget. Two are ready for occupancy, and several more at the stage of building where a buyer can select his own colors in paint and tile. Most of them include central duct heating and air conditioning.

Another community to see is Idyllwilde of Loch Arbor. The homes here are of the larger and more luxurious type, and all have the custom built appearance. The last available model was sold lately, but Shoemaker Construction Company specializes in custom building, particularly in this prestige area. Sales are handled by Stenstrom Realty.

While you are out driving this week-end, take this page with you. The map above will assist you in locating some of Sanford and Seminole County's outstanding real estate. Take a circle tour and see them all, you may find just what you are looking for in the way of a home.

Boosters Report On Profits

By Jane Casselberry

Henry Duncan, president of South Seminole Junior High Athletic Boosters Association, reported at a meeting of the group Monday night that $983.83 profit has been made from the sale of concessions at the home football games and season tickets for adults and students.

The group has paid out $227.31 to Seminole Sporting Goods for equipment and $17.40 to Killarney Boat Works for epoxy paint for the football helmets.

As future projects the Boosters hope to buy sweatshirts for the basketball players and uniforms for the baseball team.

Adams Sees Only 500,000 Votes

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Secretary of State Tom Adams says less than 500,000 of more than two million eligible Floridians will cast ballots in the special Nov. 5 general election.

Adams recalled Tuesday that in the last special election involving a constitutional change, less than 10 per cent of the eligible voters defeated the measure.

Unless voter interest picks up, Adams said less than 500,000 of the 2,136,800 registered voters will show up at the polls.

The special election was called to get approval of three proposed changes in the state Constitution.

Decorating As Easy As ABC, Expert Proves In New Book

"Decorating can be as easy as ABC," according to noted designer Ving Smith. He not only makes the statement, but proves his point in a new guide to room planning and interior decoration.

The famous New York decorating authority, a consultant in the home furnishings field, shows homeowners how to use their own ideas to achieve professional results in the 24-page booklet. Full color illustrations are used throughout this bright, interesting guide.

"How can you plan your own room design and interior decoration? Most families who come to me don't really know where to start. They ask the questions. I try to supply the answers. In this booklet, I turn the tables and ask a few questions myself," Smith comments.

"I hope to show that you have good decorating ideas, and when applied creatively, your own ideas often are the best. In the process of helping you find your own answers, I hope to show that decorating can be as easy as ABC."

Smith and his wife, Charlotte, an experienced fashion stylist and illustrator, combine their talents in this new book to suggest simple and effective solutions to decorating problems.

Every room setting in the booklet combines good looks and easy maintenance. Plastic surfaced paneling, which comes in a wide variety of colors, woodgrains and patterns, is used for walls and ceilings in all rooms. It is washable; never needs painting or refinishing.

"From years of helping people create beautiful home interiors, I know that American women want charming rooms to please their families. And because each family and each woman is different, no cut-and-dried decorating rules can answer every problem. Instead, the professional designer listens to the individual homemaker's ideas, and she tells us what will best suit her and her family."

In his decorating booklet, Smith shows how a basic plan can be altered to fit available space. He provides interesting decorating ideas for kitchens, living rooms, bathrooms, dining rooms, recreation rooms and bedrooms.

A copy of Ving Smith's professional guide to room planning and interior decoration may be obtained by sending 25 cents to Home Service Bureau, P. O. Box 652, Dover, Ohio.

Castro 'Not Indispensable'

CHATHAM, Ont. (UPI) — Fidel Castro is not indispensable to the Cuban people, Cuban Ambassador to Canada Americo Cruz said Tuesday night.

Cruz, speaking at a Chatham Kiwanis Club meeting, made the statement in replying to a newsman who asked what would develop should Cuba lose Castro as nearly occurred during the aftermath of hurricane Flora.

"Now that the revolution has been established, Dr. Castro is not indispensable," Cruz said.

Castro's brother, Raoul, is next in line for the leadership of the Cuban government and after him comes economics minister Cho Geuvara, the Cuban envoy added.

Cruz used the occasion to deliver a bitter attack against the United States which he charged, was trying to "starve the Cuban people."

He said Cuba turned down a U. S. offer of aid after Flora hit because it did not believe in the sincerity of the offer.

He also charged the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) of involvement in a Nicaragua-based plot to overthrow the Castro regime.

CHARLES D. ROWLEY and William Walsh, both of Sanford Naval Air Station, were hospitalized Saturday evening when the automobile in which they were riding left Old Lake Mary Road and turned turtle.

Traffic Accidents Keep Police Busy

A series of automobile accidents kept law officers busy over the weekend.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby reported this morning that Charles D. Rowley, the driver, and William Walsh, a passenger, both of Sanford Naval Air Station, were hospitalized Saturday evening in an accident on Old Lake Mary Road, near 25th Street. Rowley lost control, the Sheriff said, and the car knocked down a fence and mail box, hit a utility pole, hit a utility pole and turned upside down.

Everett Hodgkins, Surrency, and his passenger, Frank Clark, Umatilla, suffered minor injuries when their car left Orange Boulevard and turned over. Sheriff Hobby said Hodgkins was charged with failure to have his car under control.

Anthony Houston, 215 Palm Place, was charged with driving too fast, Sheriff Hobby also reported, when his car flipped over on a turn near the drug strip.

Three-year-old Michael McCardle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McCardle, 104 West 20th Street, was reported by his mother as "seriously" condition today by Semole Memorial Hospital attaches although they added he "is getting along well and the condition should change today."

Police Officer Donald Humberly said the child dived in front of a mail truck driven by Gerlan Honeycutt Friday afternoon on 20th Street.

Border Fight Rages Despite Truce Plans
ALGERIA (UPI) — Fighting continued today along the Moroccan-Algerian border, although both nations have agreed to meet for truce talks.

Moroccan military sources in Marrakech said Moroccan troops defending the Sahara Desert outpost of Hassi Beida killed 60 Algerians and captured 100 others Sunday in repulsing an unsuccessful Algerian attack.

There was no confirmation of the report from Algerian sources. It was the highest one-day casualty toll announced so far in the three-week old conflict.

The Moroccan sources said Moroccan troops "routed" the Algerians and drove them back 18 miles southeast of Hassi Beida toward Tinouchi, where indecisive fighting was reported Saturday.

'Big If' Raised At Home, Abroad By 'Big Lift'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — While chalking up smashing successes for Operation Big Lift, U. S. defense leaders are concerned about misleading impressions it has created at home and abroad.

The long and hard preparation that went into the lift apparently has been obscured by the dramatic aspects of flying 16,000 men, including the 14,500 troops of the reinforced 2nd Armored Division, from Texas to Germany in only slightly more than 63 hours last week.

As a result, the impression in some quarters is that an entire armored division with all its equipment can be packed up on short notice and flown to Europe when a crisis develops.

This is far from accurate. "For example," one official said, "the 16,000 men and their light equipment altogether weighed something like 1,500 tons, whereas the 200 tanks of an armored division alone would weigh ten times as much — roughly 15,000 tons, or 50 tons each."

"An attempt to transport by air across the Atlantic all the heavy equipment of such a division—all the vehicles, artillery, ammunition, etc.—would stagger the imagination of any present-day logistic command."

The "big if" in Operation Big Lift, the official added, was that the feat was possible only because the heavy equipment had already been deployed, or "pre-positioned," in military terminology.

Burglars Make 4 Tries; 3 Fail
Burglars were successful in only one of four break-ins and entering attempts over the weekend. Police Chief Roy Williams reported today.

Thieves crawled to the roof of Sanford Furniture, forced a skylight and entered, to steal a television set.

Chief Williams said thieves were unsuccessful in attempts to break into Robson's Sporting Goods, Hunt Lincoln-Mercury and Sanford Naval Academy.

Big Lift Brings 1,500 GIs Home
FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — The United States shipped home 1,500 combat troops on return flights of Operation Big Lift planes but kept the movement secret to avoid arousing European concern, it was learned today.

True Bills In Gun Slaying, Auto Death

Two indictments charging second degree murder and manslaughter were returned by the county grand jury late Friday. It was reported today by Court Clerk Arthur H. Beckwith Jr.

Fred W. Burdette Jr., 37, of Little Lake Howell, near Oviedo, was charged with second degree murder in the fatal shooting of his uncle, Charles R. Strickland, 35, last Sept. 15.

At the time Sheriff J. L. Hobby said Burdette had been shooting from inside his home toward a neighbor's house and that Strickland was shot and killed in attempting to disassemble Burdette.

Originally charged with first degree murder, Burdette has been free under $10,000 bond.

A true bill charging manslaughter was returned against Dan Owens Clause, 23, of 207 Mellonsville Avenue, as the result of an automobile accident last April 28 on SR 40 when John Charles Chaplin, 21, of Paula, was fatally injured.

No indictment was returned against Nelson Moore, Negro, of 194 1/2 Locust Avenue, who was charged with first degree murder June 30 in the fatal beating of Lula Gaines, Negro, 75, of the same address.

Permit Needed To Burn Trash

Sanford Fire Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr. today reminded local residents that persons desiring to burn grass or trash must have permits from the fire department.

Calling attention to the particularly dry conditions, Chief Cleveland cited the danger of flying sparks from burning leaves and grass. He pointed out that windy gusts blow the sparks atop rooftops of houses and buildings, creating a hazard with which the fire department continually has to cope.

The chief urged the public to cooperate in helping eliminate the practice of unauthorized burning of leaves, pine needles and grass.

Profumo-Like Scandal In U. S. Capital?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Senate investigation is expected to unfold at a closed hearing Tuesday a Profumo-like story of a German beauty's relations with prominent Washington figures.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., was reported today to give details of the affair at a session of the Senate Rules Committee called to investigate the outside business activities of Senate members.

Williams would not discuss the case with reporters, but one published report said that the woman, who has returned to Germany, had friends both in Congress and the administration.

The party girl was described as the 27-year-old brunette wife of a West German army sergeant who had been assigned to the German military mission here.

The woman, called a "glamorous beauty" by an embassy spokesman, was whisked back to Germany with her husband on Aug. 21 at the urging of the FBI, which had investigated her behavior.

She attracted the attention of the FBI because of the expensive clothes she wore and the high standard of living she and her husband maintained in the country club section of nearby Arlington, Va.

The woman also had a habit of dropping the names of prominent persons, according to reports.

Full GOP House Slate In South Seen By Miller

HOUSTON (UPI) — Rep. William E. Miller, Republican national chairman, predicted Sunday night that the GOP would have candidates in every congressional election in the South.

The New York Congressman said "we may elect the governor in Kentucky and Mississippi — what do you think of that?"

Miller told the Texas Federation of Republican Women's Clubs the GOP never has been stronger "from the grassroots up" than it is today.

Couple Seized Here As Bolita Suspects

A Negro couple has been arrested in Sanford and charged in connection with a bolita operation here, the sheriff's office reported today.

Arrested Saturday but later released on $200 bonds each were Willie (Honey) Dubose and Emily Dubose, of 819 East 7th Street. Both were charged with possession of Cuba bolita lottery tickets.

The Dubose woman was arrested around 11 a. m. Saturday after investigating officers raided her home and confiscated a large quantity of bolita tickets, record books, other bolita paraphernalia, and a small mountain of coins, including four boxes of assorted change.

Exact amount of the money, believed to be receipts from sale of bolita tickets, was undetermined this morning. The cache included at least 25 silver dollars, a fishing tackle box almost full of pennies, another tackle box bulging with silver dollars, half dollars, nickels, dimes and quarters, and three other boxes containing assorted coins.

Willie Dubose was picked up late Saturday at a local tavern by Police Officer Carl Dubson, special investigator for the Sanford Police Department. He was later turned over to the county.

Participating in the raid Saturday were Sheriff's Deputy Charles Fagan, C. R. Trulock, special agent for the Florida Sheriff's Bureau, in Gainesville and Dalton. An officer said the Dubose home had been under surveillance for some time.

The money and bolita paraphernalia were "scattered about the house," they said, "some stashed under a bed and the rest in other nooks and crannies about the place."

Trapped Miners Play Cards

PEINE, Germany (UPI) — Three brave men played cards in an air pocket beneath the earth today while rescuers worked to free them from the flooded iron mine where they have been trapped four days.

The three miners reported jubilantly Sunday night that rising flood waters, which earlier threatened them with slow death, were receding.

But rescuers trying to sink a shaft through which a rescue capsule can be lowered faced a ticklish job. Engineers said the boring could break the air pocket and release the air pressure, engulfing the three men in the water which fills the rest of the mine.

Methodists To Build In Lake Mary

Plans to build a Methodist Church within the next two years to serve the Lake Mary-Loch Arbor areas were announced locally today by Rev. John T. Adams Jr., of the First Methodist Church of Sanford.

Building site for the new plant, purchased recently from Sheriff J. L. Hobby by the church's Board of Extension, DeLand District, is located across from Greenbriar on property fronted by County Club Road and backed by the canal running from Lake Mary's Crystal Lake.

Containing slightly more than 12 acres, the new property offers ample space for building and parking as well as a site for a future parsonage. For the present time Methodist churches of the area have been invited by the district to use the site as a picnic and playground area.

The woman also had a habit of dropping the names of prominent persons, according to reports.

Former Senator Connolly Dies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former Sen. Tom Connolly of Texas died early today at his home here of pneumonia. He was 86. Connolly's family said he had been ill for some time.

He had been living in retirement here since he left the Senate in 1953 after 36 years in the chamber.

The silver-haired Texas Democrat had been chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Auto Damaged Here By Fire

Sanford Fire Department answered a call late Friday to a burning automobile at 2472 Sanford Ave., the fire department reported.

The automobile, a 1954 Buick sedan belonging to Glenn Goember, caught fire around 7:16 p. m. due to a defective carburetor, firemen said. Damage was heavy.

Russian Withdrawal May Hurt U. S. Moon Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia's withdrawal from the moon race provided new ammunition for opponents of the U. S. lunar program today and caused apprehension among its supporters.

Officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said they planned to go ahead with the next step in the U. S. program, Project Gemini to orbit two astronauts in one space capsule. They said the moon program would continue on schedule.

But both Republican and Democratic legislators voiced belief that the announcement by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow Saturday might ultimately delay the U. S. lunar program.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., who has supported former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's view that the U. S. moon program should be delayed until the nation is in sounder financial shape, said:

"I am sure that Russia's plans will generate pressure against our present moon program."

Senate Democratic Whip Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., said that "we shouldn't let Khrushchev's words govern our actions. We should continue with our moon program as planned."

Rep. Glen Teague, D-Tex., second ranking member of the House Space Committee, voiced concern about the future of the U. S. program.

"I'm afraid this will hurt our moon program — maybe not this year in Congress—but next year," Teague said. "I wouldn't be surprised if Khrushchev is just trying to make us drop our guard."

However, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said he supported withdrawal of the United States from the moon race. He said that "the money can be used for a number of better things, including aid to education."

Humphrey said Khrushchev's announcement underscored "the serious economic problems the Soviet Union is encountering. They just can't afford all these programs."
